INCREASES IN SALARIES FOR TEACHERS ADOPTED BY BOARD

Salaries Following Recent Demands of Teachers, on Total are not Quite Twenty Per Cent. Higher Than Heretofore.

SEVERAL NEW TEACHERS APPOINTED.

The Public school teachers, following their recent request made in a body, have been granted increases. The Board, after tackling the problem last evening, came to an understanding and adopted on a readjustment.

Practically all members of the staff and the caretakers will get an increase. The teachers had asked for a 25 per cent. increase. The total increases are $12,820 over the present total of salaries, which is $56,075. The increases, while they do not total 25 per cent. of the present salaries, is substantial. Benefits will come to all members of the staff, but particularly those who had not benefited to the same extent in the past.

The New Scale for Lady Teachers
Hereafter the minimum and maximum for qualified lady teachers will be $775 and $1050 as compared to $625 and $875 heretofore. The maximum $1050 will be reached after 18 years' experience or more. Increases granted last evening are from $125 to $250.

Kindergarten Assistants
Kindergarten assistants will receive a $75 increase. There are four teachers in this class.

The Principals' Salaries
The ward principals of the schools will receive an increase of $350 each. These salaries range from $1750 to $1850, the head principal of all the schools to receive $2350.

Other Increases
Two male assistants will receive an increase of $50 each. They have been on the staff since September. Increase of $150 to $200 will be given to the janitors.

The Board also decided to pay the bonus to the teachers decided on last winter. This will be paid in January. It is $100 each for those who have taught full time this year and for others $60 to $100. This bonus will total $5670 which must be added to the $12,820 increase for 1920, bringing the total up to $18,490.

The Board were unanimous on the question and came to their decisions after thorough deliberations.

New Teachers Appointed
Miss Florence Dunlop, of Sudbury School, resigned, having accepted a position in Bradford. Miss Yates, of Courtland Avenue School, will succeed her.

Miss Lillian E. Elsey, formerly of the staff of Mount Forest, will succeed Miss Yates at Courtland at a salary of $925.

Miss Margaret Hachborn, city, was appointed assistant kindergarten for Sudbury at $500.

Miss Lillian Hardy, of Oakville, will succeed Miss Yates at Courtland at $800 per annum.

Mr. George Arndt was appointed assistant janitor of Victoria School at $500.

REPORT OF JUDGE BARRON CONDEMNS TORONTO STRIKE

JUDGE DECLARES CAUSE NOT JUST

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—The report of Judge Barron into the cause and responsibility for the strike of the electrical workers of the Toronto Railway Company, resulting in the total stoppage of the railway service on Sept. 3, has been published. As set forth in 25 paragraphs of the report, His Honor condemns the strike, stating that the cause was not a just one and should not have prevailed.

NEW YORK FEARS CANAL DEEPENING

Will Make Ocean Ports of the Ports on Great Lakes.

Toronto, Dec. 4.—That the people of New York see the full significance of deepening the St. Lawrence River for ocean-going ships, that they believe that the ports on the Great Lakes will become ocean ports, taking away shipping from New York, and that they are violently opposed to the whole undertaking, is the communication that has come to J. H. Duthie of the MacDonald Lumber Company, for many years an advocate of the St. Lawrence canal, from S. A. Thompson, the secretary of the great convention of National Rivers and Harbours Congress that meets at Washington on Dec. 9, 10 and 11.

"The State of New York is very violently opposed to the proposition and I doubt very much where we shall touch the subject in our resolution," says Mr. Thompson, in his letter. "Like all the rest of us, the people of New York and the eastern states want all the business that they can get, and because they think, and with good reason, that a 20-foot channel down the St. Lawrence would not only benefit Montreal, but would take a great amount of business away from the port of New York, they are violently opposed to the United States Government's taking any part in the project. Such a project carried to conclusion would carry ocean navigation into the heart of the continent and make sea-ports out of all the ports on the Great Lakes. It is quite natural, therefore, that the plan is enthusiastically advocated in the West and the Great Northwest."

Mr. Thompson states that the commercial supremacy of New York depends on the connection between the Hudson River and the Great Lakes by the Erie Ship Canal and that New York State, which has just expended $155,000,000 on the enlargement of the canal, is determined to keep that commercial supremacy. "Ocean vessels will be unloading in the ports even of Lake Superior within ten years," is the confident prediction of Mr. Duthie. "The only thing that will delay it at all is the fact that the government has taken over the G. T. R. and tied up the finances of the country for the time being, but that will soon be past. The people of New York see the real facts of the case."

DRURY VISITS NORTHLAND BOWMAN AND MILLS WITH HIM

(Special to the Record.)

Cobalt, Dec. 5.—Premier Drury was introduced to New Ontario at one o'clock today when the Grand Trunk train pulled into Cobalt over the T. & N. O. line two hours late. A derailed freight train delayed the train during the night run from Toronto. Mr. Drury got on the train at Barrie at midnight, accompanied by one of his sons, a boy of about 12 years.

He joined Bowman, Minister of Lands and Forests, and Hon. Mr. Mills, Minister of Mines. The Ministerial party came to listen rather than to talk, but the northland is keen to extract promises of support for measures for the speedier development of the mining, agricultural and timber resources of the country.

The party left for Haliburton this afternoon after being dined by the Cobalt Board of Trade and then goes to Timmins which will be reached Saturday morning. Sunday will be spent in Cochrane and Toronto will be reached on Tuesday morning.

SHOOTS TWO AND KILLS HIMSELF

Detroit, Dec. 5.—Walter Webb, aged 51, shot and fatally wounded his wife and sixteen-year-old daughter Maude as they lay asleep in bed. He then killed himself.

Mrs. Webb has a bullet wound in her head. Miss Webb was hit near the left ear. Both have a slight chance for life.

Webb committed the deed in a fit of fury because his wife refused to drop divorce proceedings against him.

NEW LOW RECORD Startling exchange dropped to $3.38 for demand-to-day. French Italian exchange likewise estab- lished new low records.

HAZEN WILL NOT JOIN BORDEN

(Special to the Record.)
OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—Sir Douglas Hazen, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, left for home early this morning. Before he left he sent to the St. John papers a denial of the report to the effect that his entry into the Borden Cabinet was imminent and characterized the statement as without foundation.

TWENTY MINUTES IN ICY WATER

Chester, Dec. 5.—Miss Madge Forest, a tall, slender woman, was found floating in the water near the top of a well to hang some clothes on a line when the covering broke and she was precipitated into the well in which there was enough water to drown a person. There is a pit of a pump in the partially filled well, and Miss Forest clung to this the water reaching almost to her mouth.

Mrs. Simpson heard the cries of the girl outside, but mistook them for other noises and did not go out until she heard her name called. She was unable to pull Miss Forest out and ran over to Geneva church schoolroom, where a young people's meeting was in progress, and soon Rev. J. A. Thor, Dr. Blain, Alf. Fiddis, Wm. English and P. W. Millhouse were on the scene and two of them reached down and pulled the girl from her terrible position. She had been in the icy water for 20 minutes.

STARTLING AND UNUSUAL FIND

Booze Plant Found in Toronto Building Owned by W.C.T.U.

Toronto, Dec. 5.—Inland Revenue officers found a modern still, fully equipped and ready for business when they invaded the premises at 14 Gerrard street east. The manufacturers however, were not at home and did not return.

The building is owned by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and is occupied by William Lang. He stated that the room in which the still was found had been used for illicit liquor trafficking. In addition to the still Inland Revenue Officer E. Floody found about fifty or sixty empty whiskey cases with the names of well-known distillers on them.

BE VACCINATED OR STAY AWAY DRASTIC ORDER AT MONTREAL

Montreal Board of Health Requires Vaccination Certificates From Toronto Passengers.—In Effect on Sunday.

MONTREAL TRIPS BECOME LESS ATTRACTIVE.

(Special to the Record.)

Montreal, Dec. 5.—Travel between Montreal and Toronto will be at a standstill this Christmas as a result of a drastic order issued to-day, by which every person arriving in Montreal from Toronto must produce at the station a certificate of vaccination or consent to be vaccinated.

The only alternative is to be detained at the station and take the next train back to Toronto. The measure was taken by the local Board of Health as a measure of protection for Montreal citizens against the spread of the smallpox epidemic from Toronto. It will come into effect on Sunday morning.

In all probability it will be followed by a similar order from the Provincial Board of Health who will make it effective in the whole province of Quebec. The decision was taken after Dr. Boucher and Evans of Montreal had reported unfavorably after investigating the conditions in Toronto.

MORE PROTESTS THAN EXPECTED

One Filed in Center Simcoe Where Drury is Expected to Run.

Toronto, Dec. 5.—Four protests have been filed in connection with the recent provincial election. Of the quartet one was filed some time ago, that of C. A. Payne, defeated U. F. O. candidate in Grenville, against the return of Hon. Ferguson.

The others represent the protests of defeated Conservative candidates against U.F.O. men, namely K. Slack, Dufferin; J. B. Johnston, East Simcoe; and G. H. Murdoch, Center Simcoe. One of the elections contested is Center Simcoe, where Hon. Mr. Drury is expected to run.

REPORTED DEAD IS IN HOSPITAL

(Special to the Record.)
TORONTO, Dec. 5.—Corp. F. E. Lang, a well-known Toronto veteran, who was reported two days ago to have died in Quebec city as the result of an operation that he had been compelled to undergo, has now been heard from in Montreal. He is a patient in the Prince of Wales Hospital, Drummond Street, Montreal, where he reported on taking suddenly sick last Monday. Information to this effect came to Miss Craig to whom Corp. Lang is affianced, in a telegram late last night. The corporal is doing very nicely.

DISREGARD BARS ONE IS KILLED

Windsor, Dec. 5.—Miss Hazel Oliver was killed and Miss Laura Dennison, aged eighteen, received a fractured skull and spinal injuries in an accident on the M. C. R. tracks.

Both girls are residents of Jackson's Corners, and had just left the automobile driven by the sister of the dead girl, and were crossing the tracks to catch the interurban for Windsor, when a M.C.R. engine, backing into the roundhouse, struck them.

The girls paid no heed to the guards of the railway company, which were down at the time, but ran around the end of the long arms and attempted to cross the tracks.

ASK FOR VIEWS OF PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The discussion of the Mexican situation took place this morning at a special meeting of the Cabinet called by State Secretary Lansing.

Senators Fall and Hitchcock were named a committee by the Senate foreign relations committee to seek the President's views on Fall's resolution, advocating the severance of relations with the Mexican government, and on Hitchcock's substitute proposing that Congress assure Wilson of its support, should he decide to break with Mexico.

RESTRICTIONS BECOME GENERAL

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—The efforts of the Governor of Michigan to states to have sufficient coal mined to provide for domestic consumers and essential industries, marked the progress of the strike of the bituminous coal miners to-day.

Restrictions have been placed on the consumption of fuel throughout the country from New York to the Sierra Nevada Mountains, as the general situation showed virtually no improvement and the miners maintained an attitude of hostility.

The question of resumption of relations with the Vatican is to be discussed in the French Chamber of Deputies.

WINNER TO MEET DEMPSEY

THE LAST TWELVEMONTH OF CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

A Review By the Agent and Probation Officer A. Pullam, at Annual Meeting of Organization.

MANY CHILDREN ASSISTED

"In presenting the report for the year ending Sep. 30th, 1919, one is brought face to face with the number of children dealt with during the year, and reminded of the fact that when figures and details are tabulated, it is only a small amount of the work and effort which has expended.

"Since the various Children's Aid Societies were formed in the County of Waterloo, 459 children have been dealt with, and of these, 94 have been made wards during the past two years. When we think of what this means to the number of children dealt with we can see what an inestimable benefit to neglected and dependent children the Children's Protection Act has been. Many of these children would not be occupying the position they occupy in the world today, but for the fact that such an Act was passed, and is upon the Statute book of the Province of Ontario.

As far as I have been able to ascertain, we in this Province of ours, have the best Children's Act in any country of the world. As a matter of fact other countries branching out into this kind of work, have taken our Act as the basis upon which to begin their organizations.

"The work in the Shelter this year has been carried on very much in the same manner as other years, as we have handled practically the same amount of children for either longer or shorter periods. In October 1918 we had 12 November (14) December (11) January (13) Feb. (13) March (10) April (12) May (15) June (13) July (14) August (12) September (12). If these numbers are added together it will make a total of 151 neglected and dependent children handled for a longer or shorter period during the year. The ages of these children differ considerably. We have received them from 6 weeks old up to 16 years, and every conceivable age between. The younger ones are usually for adoption while the older ones are often kept with us for a time so that they may be taught habits of decency and usefulness, and thus become better citizens. Some of the children we have handled in the Shelter during the year have been products of the war. It seems hard that the little children should be the sufferers, they have done nothing wrong and are not responsible for the circumstances in which they are placed. We have been able to place several of these children in good homes where we trust the knowledge of their early days will never be brought to their notice. Those who think for a moment will readily understand that in dealing with such a variety of children the work is not easy, as the children's characters differ in so many cases, the early training has been neglected, and one has to begin at the beginning and build, and in some cases with very little to build upon.

"During the past year we have received 44 applications for children under 10.

The greater number of these have been for infants. There are not a great deal of worry attached to the placing of infants, as usually the person who adopts the infant wants it as their very own, and not for what they can make out of it. They wish to devote in many cases the yearning and love of an untried heart, and they are seeking that this should be satisfied by taking to themselves one of these little ones. The case is entirely different when they apply for children of an older age, and it is then we have to exercise great discretion in placing them. We believe it is not fair to the little ones who are over 10 to be worked too hard, and we should be glad if any of our friends and sympathizers are once made known to us, any case in which a child from this case should be the sufferer, as there is no need for any child to stay in any place under such treatment."

During the year ending 30th September, 34 children have been made wards of one or other of the Societies, the number is analysed as follows:—Kitchener 18, Waterloo 15, and Galt 21. These make a total of 54. These have been made wards from a variety of causes some in the case of infants for protection so that the adoption may be legal, as the adoption through the Children's Aid Society is the only legal method according to the Children's Protection Act. Others have been made wards because their parents have ceased to have control over them, and others because the home was not a fit and proper place for the child.

"During the year 22 children have been returned to parents. These have been returned to them for several reasons, in some cases the absence of the children from the home has caused the parents to realize that they must make an effort and straighten things up and thus the temporary removal has been beneficial not only to the children but also to the parents. Children have been allowed to go back to their parents after they have been disciplined as they themselves have promised to do better and to be more obedient in future; these have usually been placed on probation, and if at the end of the probationary period they have been satisfactory, they have been left at home, but if not they have been placed out in foster homes.

"We have placed out during the year in foster homes 30 children, and in quite a number of cases these have been taken by the people right into their homes and made own children legally. It should be remembered that when a child is placed out and adoption papers are given, the Society has the ear

EMPR. OF IRELAND LOSS RECALLED

Passengers Lose Preference in Proceeds From Sale of Storstad.

London, Dec. 5.—The judicial committee of the privy council has reversed the decision of the Canadian supreme court in the suit involving the sinking of the steamer Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence River. The court gave the passengers of the sunken vessel the preference over the distribution of the proceeds from the sale of Storstad, the collier which rammed the liner. In its decision the privy council decided that the Canadian Pacific company share in the proceeds of the sale.

RATIFICATION MAY BE FORCED

London, Dec. 5.—The official announcement that Field Marshal Wilson has gone to Paris in response to an urgent summons to consult Marshal Foch in connection with the peace treaty is regarded by some morning newspapers as of considerable significance. It is being printed alongside the address made by Bonar Law last night in which he said he believed the allies had the power and if necessary would exercise it to insure the ratification of treaty by Germany. It is suggested that steps to exert pressure on Germany may be imminent.

There is a persistent rumor on the stock exchange this morning that the Supreme Council had threatened Germany that unless the final peace terms were agreed to, allied troops would occupy Essen and Frankfurt.

ADVOCATES UNION OF TWIN CITIES

Mayor of Port Arthur Expects Creation of a City With 40,000 People.

LITTLE TALK OF SECESSION

(Special to the Record.)
Toronto, Dec. 5.—That the union of the Twin Cities of Port Arthur and Fort William is the only road to success for both municipalities is the opinion of E. J. Blaquiere, mayor of Port Arthur who is in Toronto to-day. Mr. Blaquiere states that he has been definitely decided to put the question of the union of the cities to a vote of the citizens at the coming municipal elections, and that an active body known as the inter-city committee has charge of the education of the citizens towards union, which means that the Canadian city at the head of the lakes will have a population of over 40,000.

"We were told by the municipal authorities at Duluth, which is now over 100,000 population, that the growth of that city which is the American head of the lakes, did not commence until the municipality passed the 40,000 mark. By joining Port Arthur and Fort William we can do the same."

Asked as to the secession movement of the north Mr. Blaquiere said that little was heard of it in Port Arthur, which however, felt somewhat neglected by the older parts of the province, although the district of Thunder Bay was one of the best revenue producers of Ontario. He said that any sentiment which existed favoring secession would be overridden by the appointment of a cabinet minister from the head of the lakes which might now expect to be more in the limelight than it had previously been.

FAVOR SOVIET SYSTEM

Leipzig, Dec. 5.—The congress of the Independent Socialists, in session here, have unanimously adopted a program declaring for the Soviet system in Germany.

NO MEETING THIS AFTER-NOON.

There was no meeting of the Council this afternoon, there being not enough members present to form a quorum and consequently adjournment was necessary.

WARNING ISSUED.

Toronto, Dec. 5.—Commissioner Murdoch, during the milk strike at the city hall this morning, delivered a warning that the Board of Commerce will not consent to any business man doing anything to capitalize the misfortune of Canada and the United States at the present time, this misfortune being the coal miners' strike.

Wm. King, a well-known M. C. R. singer, died at the home of his sister in St. Thomas.

GETTING NEARER NORMAL.

U. S. Fuel Administrator Garfield declares that coal production was getting closer to normal. The stringency in the middle West is easing.

London, Dec. 5.—Experts commenting on last night's fight concurred in saying that victory went to best man and that Carpenter won by speed and cleverness. Reckett's manager says Carpenter "brought off 'million to one' chance but this is not the view of experts, daily mail critics accusing Reckett of 'bad management'."

Waterloo News

THERE WILL BE CONTEST FOR MAYORALTY

Entire Slate Likely to be Contested

It looks now as if there will be a contest for the mayoralty at the forthcoming municipal elections although nothing definite has been decided as to who will oppose Reeve Bohlender for the chief magistracy. Reeve Bohlender has decided to stand, and it looks now as if Councilor Sturms or Cochrane will be his opponent.

When queried over the phone to-day noon Mr. Sturms said while he would not say definitely that he would be in the field still he would not say that he would not and judging by the tone of Mr. Sturms' remarks the chances are two to one that he will stand. There were rumors afloat to-day that Mr. Cochrane also had his eye on the Mayor's chair but when asked as to whether there was any foundation for the rumor, Mr. Cochrane only smiled and had nothing to say just at present. When asked if in case he decided not to run for Mayor he would contest any of the other positions such as Reeve, Deputy Reeve, or Councilor, he stated emphatically No. Mr. Marvin Stroh, the present Deputy Reeve will stand for the Reeveship and Councilor Kiewetter has announced himself for the Deputy Reeveship. In regard to the personnel of the Council there will no doubt be no dearth of candidates and it looks at present like an election all along the line.

LABOR CLUB MET

The regular meeting of the Executive of the Waterloo Labor Club was held last night business being principally routine. The Committee having the Xmas festival in charge reported that everything was running along smoothly and that it was estimated that preparations would have to be made for over 200 kiddies. #### WILL GIVE ADDRESS ON CALIFORNIA

Dr. F. J. Weidenhammer who spent last winter in California, will give a lecture in the basement of St. John's Lutheran Church next Monday night, commencing at 8 o'clock. The Doctor will speak on California as he found things in this great winter resort and his address will be illustrated by lantern slides a great many of them being taken while the Doctor and his party were on the trip. There is no doubt but what the lecture will be crowded with interest and a large crowd should be in attendance. A silver collection will be taken up, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Parish Hall fund.

Mr. H. Ferris of Toronto was a business visitor in town yesterday.

HUMAN DESIRE AT THE "STAR"

Undoubtedly one of the most beautiful films that has been seen at the Star for many a day opened yesterday when "Human Desire" with Anita Stewart in the leading role played to capacity houses at both performances and it was one of the most delightful films that it has been our privilege to witness. Words cannot express the simplicity of the "Star" who wanted more than anything else to have a bambino, and when a ward in a convent in Italy and on meeting an American lady and learning from her that there are thousands of babies in America, she decides then and there to run away and be of some assistance if possible to the little sufferers. Before leaving the convent a terrific thunder storm breaks out and the place is partly ruined. She makes her way along the beach, strewn with wreckage and finding a boy's wearing apparel she dons this, believing her passage will be easier. Her trip across and her fine life in New York being found later by an artist who takes her home and fits her out in proper American style and eventually she becomes a model. The artist's wife, by the way, is sojourning in Italy, husband and wife not being able to get along together, and on her return she finds the girl has won her way into the husband's heart. The girl's one whole desire is to have a bambino and so earnestly does she plead that the artist adopts a baby for her. How the wife appears on the scene and not knowing the circumstances and her accusations drive the girl from the home, she finally is found on the street and taken to a hospital where the first real pangs of misery strike her when the baby dies.

From then until the last reel a series of complications arise that are full of pathos and sympathy for the girl. However, the story has a happy ending, just in what way we prefer not to say but we would advise lovers of the silent drama who like so much of the ordinary to pay a visit to the Star either to-night or to-morrow as the film is sure worth while. There is a most excellent Big V. Comedy entitled "Footballs and Frauds" that is exceptionally funny while the serial, "Smashing Barriers" is just as exciting as the preceding episodes. The entire bill is a good one.

GLADYS BROCKWELL AS A HASHER

Gladys Brockwell takes the part of a hasher in "Chasing Rainbows" showing at the Imperial this week-end, but while she isn't very long on grammar she has a mighty big heart which makes everybody like her. Sadie however, has her faith in human nature rudely shattered when she finds her drummer friend, whom she has been planning to marry, already has a wife and child. To get away from unhappy memories she gets transferred to a desert town in Death Valley.

It is a "wide open" town of the gold rush days, and has its crooked roulette wheel and all that pertains thereto. Billy Thompson, manager of the railroad restaurant where Sadie works, succumbs to her charms, and Sadie, unknown to Billy reciprocates, but but sends him away to try his luck in a new gold rush.

In Billy's absence Sadie's former fiancée comes along out of luck, and says he has shot a man and must make his get-away. Through the crooked roulette wheel Sadie helps him to get enough money for his ticket, and after he is gone learns that it was Billy he had shot.

We will not spoil the denouement by telling you all about it but would advise you to be there to-night or to-morrow and see for yourself. It is a good picture that you'll like, and there is also an amusing Christie comedy and an installment of the serial.

Children's Aid Society

of the child until that child reaches the age of 21, and it is necessary, according to the law of our Province for that child to be visited and reported upon to the Provincial Government during the year. In connection with this phase of the work, I may state that I have visited on behalf of the Provincial Government about 250 wards, either of our own Society, or of other Societies, who are resident in the County of Waterloo. In making these visits, together with the investigations made I have travelled over 800 miles. This hardly seems creditable, but there has been so much to do either in investigating or visiting that the mileage is under rather than over the amount travelled.

"I have made during the year 231 investigations either of neglected children or in connection with the Juvenile court, and in quite a number of these cases, I have found that a word of warning—or a little bit of advice improved matters, and that it has not been necessary to bring the cases into court.

"It has been necessary during the year to convey two boys who were wards to the Industrial School. One of these was a ward of the Provincial Government, and in this manner we were not responsible for this boy, but he was living in our county and Mr. Kelso ordered his commitment.

"During the year, it has been necessary to commit one girl to the House of Refuge. We have done this for the girl's protection as she is decidedly simpleminded, and was not able to take care of herself when at large. This is the only means we have and the only place we have where we can place such girls, and then they must be over 16 before it can be done. It is reckoned that in the County of Waterloo alone there are about a hundred of such cases who should not be left at large, but who should be segregated, so that they cannot be their own species. We have been promised again and again by different governments some relief along this line, but up to the present time none has been forthcoming.

The Children's Aid Society as the law stands at present, is bound to take and care for all these simple minded children who are not bad enough for Orillia, and yet are too bad to be at large. These by proper care and if kept together in a proper institution could be made happy, and at the same time live a useful life, as nearly all these simple people can be made useful in the proper environment.

"We have had about 60 cases in the Juvenile Courts which have been held in different parts of the county. We find that in a good number of these cases of delinquency the fault lies with the parents, they are either too easy or too severe, and seem to live a life entirely apart from their children. Another contributing cause to delinquency is truancy, and has been decided by Juvenile Judge Weir to hold Juvenile Courts in any district in the county where truancy exists. We would like to state that in our judgment truancy is not an offence only found in towns and cities, but is practised to a great extent in the country districts. In fact in the Juvenile court this year, we have had quite a number of cases where boys and girls under school age have been kept away to work.

It seems that in some parts of our community boys and girls know all that they need to know at about 12 when these latter years should be the best and most important of their school life. Our office work is rather heavy, as copies of everything are kept and filed, so as to be handy if wanted in the days that are to come. We have not kept track of the number of letters received but we have sent out in reply about 1800 letters. We have no record of visits paid or interviews given, but these are considerable, in fact it has come to be recognized that one of the best times to see me is at the Shelter on Saturday afternoons. This may be from the fact that so many men and women are free on that afternoon.

"In presenting this report we realize that these figures give but an inadequate idea of the work accomplished and we trust in the good done. We have found that it is impossible for us to deal only with the children, but if we wish to be successful, in quite a number of cases we must begin with the parents, as juvenile delinquency can be traced in 90 per cent. of its cases to something wrong in the home. You can understand from this how it is impossible to tabulate all our work, as the work itself often leads us to things that are really in one sense outside its sphere, and yet in another closely related to it.

"I wish in conclusion to thank all who have helped in the work, and who have contributed in any way to its success. The members of the various committees, juvenile court judges, doctors, and police have all been helpful, and one wishes to express their heartfelt thanks to all these for their helpfulness, and we trust that in the year in which we are at present the work among the kiddies may be abundantly prosperous."

HELP THE NEEDY.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Did you ever hear of the suffering people in Poland and the Baltic provinces? Crises for help come from these regions, thoroughly devastated by the terrible war. Millions of people are homeless, moneyless, without food and clothing. The United Lutheran Church in America sent commissioners to investigate the needs of these people. They strongly urged the churches to work hand in hand with the international Red Cross for immediate help. Food and clothing are badly needed.

The Lutheran church proposes to collect from its congregations 2000 tons of clothing and 3-4 millions of dollars.

voluntarily, and the congregations are responding generously. Day by day bales of warm clothing are going to H. H. Cording, New York City, from where they cross the Atlantic as soon as possible.

The U. L. C., to which two Canadian Lutheran bodies expect not more than 400 pounds of clothing and $100 contribution from all of its congregations. From Kitchener alone several thousand pounds of clothing have been sent, from New Hamburg, Waterloo, Phillipsburg, Sebastopol, Linwood also many hundred.

The Can. Lutheran congregation of Wellesley and North Easthope, forwarded 400 pounds of clothing and $70, and the small St. Peter's congregation of Gadshill, with 83 members, sent 200 pounds of clothing and $50 to New York.

Let all help to diminish the great sorrow and need of these poor people, that they may not die away from cold and starvation.

(Rev.) J. Alberti.

ZURICH.

F. Wickwire, editor of the Observer, and Mr. Montgomery, jeweler, both of Hensald, were visitors in town last Thursday.

Rev. E. Schülke, formerly of Zurich, recently preached his farewell sermon to his congregation at Heidelberg and Erbsville, where he had been administering since he left Zurich 12 years ago.

Mr. Con. Keller has sold his dwell-ling on Main street to Mr. John Kipper who will get possession on Jan. 2nd. Mr. Keller has purchased the property of Mrs. J.C. Kallfleisch, situated in the south end of the village.

Mrs. P. Bender attended the funeral of her brother at Arkona.

Mr. H. Bloch of Kitchener was a visitor at his home here.

Mr. Ed. Bosenberry is spending a week with friends at Kitchener.

EDITORIAL

The Coal Shortage Today comes the statement of the Dominion Fuel Controller that the question of coal is more serious than at the worst period of the war.

Apparently the public has not realized the seriousness of the situation. During the war the scarcity was caused largely by difficulties of transportation. Today it is the result of non-production of coal, the result of the miners' strikes. It is a grave situation for industry. Whether or not there is danger of suffering because of scarcity of fuel for heating, does not yet appear.

It would be the irony of fate if the municipal wood of last year had been sold too early, through nobody's fault.

A Record-Breaking Prime Minister It is announced that Mr. Nelson, elected as a Liberal, will accept the speakership of the Ontario Legislature. The Drury Government will thus have a straight majority of two. That is hardly a comfortable margin. We wonder whether even that number would remain faithful if the Prime Minister decided to do for the other ministers and the members what he did for himself — reduce the salary.

If Premier Drury is not remembered for anything else, he will have a place in the Hall of Fame for doing what no public man ever did before. He cut $3000 from his own salary. Of course he will not suffer, as there is something like $9000 a year left.

The Aims of Labor The Labor party in the United States has written some radical plans into its platform. Among these is one calling for the abolition of the Senate. This is also in the platform of the Canadian Labor party. In Canada, however, the Senators are not elected, but are appointed by the Prime Minister or the Cabinet. In the United States the Senators are elected by the representatives of the people.

Other planks in the American platform are:

Repeal of the espionage act, with abolition of conscription and secret treaties and establishment of free speech, press and assemblies.

No compulsory military training.
Nationalization of railroads, other national resources and all basic industries.

Adoption of the Plumb plan for the railroads.

Organization of a league of workers of all nations and international solidarity, with legislation to protect the workers against foreign made goods until the solidarity can be accomplished.

COMMENT

It looks like war between Mexico and the United States.

Pretty nearly anything you buy is a luxury.

Will somebody please page the League of Nations?

If Jesse James were living today, he would be a mere piker.

Getting over a war apparently is far more difficult than getting through a war.

The Senate seems to think it is all right to jump on a lone cripple. See what it did to Mr. Wilson.

There used to be a newspaper called "The Appeal to Reason". It seems to have gone out of business just when something of the kind is most needed.

The management announced that some of the performers would be in costume, while others would not. Looks like a cold winter for some.

A certain woman was disappointed because her husband was not hanged but had his sentence commuted to life imprisonment. "He was a worthless coon" said she "and I've been paying his life insurance of 10 years." No, it happened in the U.S.

The garage man who was shocked by his dentist's bill, is patiently waiting for the latter's car to stall on the highway and it will be his turn to pull.

It is cited as an indication of a cold winter that the wild animals have very thick fur this fall. The office boy says it looks cold to him because of what the moths did to his fur coat.

George Alexander, a wealthy poultry dealer of Washington Market, was held up and robbed of $40,000 in cash—the receipts from the sale of Thanksgiving turkeys—as he sat alone in his automobile in front of his New York home this morning.
George was certainly ripe for plucking.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Observations.

It is impossible to keep a secret in a church.

The devil sees to it that politics get into most things.

You are for vigorous reform until your own prices are questioned.

What's become of reason and logic? They seem to have left this country.

A "marked" success, referring to amateur theatricals, probably means a question mark.

Now that prohibition is here, a Flint man doesn't have as much trouble with revolving doors as he used to.

President Wilson said sometime ago that the heart of the world is broken. But the real trouble is that the head of the world is cracked.

When a New York bride and groom left Flint some time ago after a visit with old friends of the husband, he called on several of his friends. "I'm much obliged to you," he said, "for telling my wife I was a h—l of a fellow when I lived here."

The Flint Journal.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

(The Ottawa Citizen.)

General Currie says that "it would be folly to think that the League of Nations would create a condition leading to universal peace." With all due respect to General Currie's opinions, we wonder where he got that notion. If that is not the aim and object of the league then it isn't worth discussing and the Allied diplomats have frittered away many months of time that might have been devoted to some other project of more definite purposes.

Housing Conditions.

London Ideas.

After trying in vain for months to get a house, Brown set out one day with a find-a-house-or-die look on his face. He wandered about all day without being successful, till at last his steps led him to the river.

"Ah!" he said in utter despair, "how tempting it looks!" He was almost inclined to plunge in and end it all.

All of a sudden he heard a splash and, looking around, he saw his friend Green struggling in the water. Without attempting to save him he rushed off to the local house agent.

"Quick!" he gasped. "Green has fallen in to the river. Can I have his house?"

"Sorry," said the house agent. "I've already let it to the man who pushed him in."

Proportional Representation.

Toronto Globe.

It is announced semi-officially that as "the platform of the U.F.O. provides for proportional representation with the grouping of constituencies and the election of three or more members by each constituency so as to give all classes and interests fair representation," this reform will be put into effect at an early date. The tenure of the government is not altogether secure, although the disposition of the electors throughout the province is to give its members every opportunity to prove their worth. It is possible that as a precautionary measure, and to make certain that the next general election, no matter whether it comes in the regular course or prematurely, shall be held under proportional representation conditions, the government will make its proposal of electoral reform the principal feature of the program at the coming session of the house.

Sober.

The Public (New York).

Prohibition is directly responsible for a strike of taxicab drivers in Milwaukee. They assert the falling off of business following the dry law has so reduced their earnings that a flat wage of $20 a week is necessary, and reimbursement for half of the gasoline expenses. Managers of the companies admit prohibition has made a big dent in their earnings. One estimated that business had fallen off 50 per cent. "When completely sober," he said, "nobody rides any further than he necessarily has to, but in the old days a driver was good for a couple of hours anyway and also came in for a fat tip. They are going tipless now."

The Pride of Llewellyn

"I think, sir, that I had better take her home, where she can be put to bed and receive medical attendance."

"I think, perhaps, madam, that you are right, if, in her present condition, she can be removed with safety," said the minister, politely and sympathetically.

"Oh, certainly, she can! It will only be necessary to place her in an easy position and to drive very slowly. Is there anyone you can be so good as to send, sir, to see if our carriage is waiting?"

"Certainly, madam," said the minister, leaving the room.

In a few minutes he returned, saying: "The carriage is waiting; but as there is a curious crowd collected round to wait and see the result of this affair, I thought it best to send the sexton to tell the coachman to drive away and come in on the back street and draw up at the vestry back door, which is close at hand, and which will enable you to take the young lady away privately, without your being annoyed by the crowd."

"I thank you very much, indeed, sir! We will take our unfortunate charge at once to the carriage then. James Stukely, lend me your assistance!"

Once more the luckless bridegroom lifted his bride in his arms. The obliging minister walked before and opened the door; and thus Gladys was borne carefully out of the church and placed tenderly on the cushions of the carriage.

Mrs. Llewellyn thanked the minister for his services, and allowed him to add another item by putting her into her seat.

Mr. Stukely followed his mother, bowed his adieu to the minister and gave the order to the coachman to drive home.

CHAPTER XV.
Resolution.

When Gladys was relieved of her tight-fitting dress and laid at ease back on the pillows in her room, she drew a deep, fluttering breath, opened her eyes and gazed around.

Mrs. Llewellyn, who was anxiously waiting in the room, drew near the bed, stooped over her, and whispered: "How do you feel, love?"

But the question had scarcely left her false lips, ere she shrank back appalled at the awful meaning that shone from those partly opened eyes.

The thunderbolt that had fallen upon the head of Gladys in the church had scattered the fatal lethargy that held her faculties captive and had flashed into her soul the light of a full intelligence. And in the steady look she fixed upon the face of Mrs. Llewellyn there was terrible accusation, defiance and danger.

And that bold, bad woman drew back in momentary consternation. She soon rallied her self-command, however, and again approached and bent over her victim, saying, with forced calmness: "I hope you feel better, my love?"

"Begone!" exclaimed Gladys, in a deep, low indignant voice.

Mrs. Llewellyn withdrew from the bedside to a little stand near the window, where she poured out a glass of port wine, which she brought to her charge, saying humbly: "You are 'twined,' my poor child. Drink this it will do you good."

Three days stretched out her hand, took the wine glass, and fixing her eyes, now burning black, with half-suppressed fury upon the face of the traitress, she murmured, sternly: "Oh, wretch! wretch! lost to every feeling of humanity! to every principle of honor! Look you! this is the way in which I drink your wine and toast your health! To the destruction of both!" And so saying, she deliberately turned the glass upside down, and poured its contents upon the carpet.

"Gladys! what do you mean by that?" continued Mrs. Llewellyn, in an agitated voice, and veiling her excessive anxiety under a pretense of housewifely care.

"Whether it is better to waste wine or to waste human life! To ruin a gaudy woollen rag or a human soul! What do I mean by it? I mean something like this!" Oh, I know now! I know all! I have been shamefully deceived and drugged into temporary imbecility, if not absolute idiocy! I of guilt and dishonor. Another hour, and I should have been plunged into crime and ruin—I, a Llewellyn! But I saved myself. I saw him in good time. He looked like a workman; as he gazed at me strangely; but I knew him, and I was saved!"

"Pows! what frenzy is this? Arthur Powis has been dead a year. Can the dead rise?"

"I know not; but in the flesh, or in the spirit, I saw my husband at the church. And I was saved!"

"Nonsense! You have been shocked and terrified by the striking likeness of a living man to a dead one. We feeling of humanity! to every principle of honor! Look you! this is the way in which I drink your wine and toast your health! To the destruction of both!" And so saying, she deliberately turned the glass upside down, and poured its contents upon the carpet.

In retrospect let us give due credit to the County Fathers who in 1867 launched the House of Refuge and Industrial Farm project. The wealth of this county at that time was not as one to ten compared with the present. Our largest town was Galt, approximately 4500, with Berlin proud to claim 2500, and the townships but a few years in advance of the pioneer stage. Yet the Courageous, Christian and Thoughtful municipalities of those days met the issue as presented to them in the presence of the aged, the infirm, the crippled and the diseased and gave to Ontario its second, of not its first County House of Refuge. Has Waterloo County degenerated in those qualities of head and heart so conspicuous in the public and private life of the community in the late sixties? Let the County Councilors who are trifling with the question we are discussing give us an answer. Waterloo's reputation for Christian Charity is at stake—at stake, too, in the most prosperous days of the community's history.

RE THE LOCAL HOUSE OF REFUGE

(By Galt Reporter.)

The Galt Reporter reviewing conditions at the House of Refuge says: Information to hand, with respect to the condition of things at the County House of Refuge, is somewhat disquieting. Not that the institution is ill-managed, for we understand that in the regard no cause for dissatisfaction exists in official circles. There is, however, grave cause for opposition to the perpetuation of the state of affairs in this half-century old county utility, that is worrying the County Council. In truth, the building is shabby, badly laid out, insecure, and inadequate to present-day needs. No sudden discovery is this. For the past ten years the members at Kitchener have taken stock and found defects and deficiencies sufficiently numerous to warrant consideration of plans for radical and expensive overhauling. From such plans County Councilors switched to a proposition for a new House in another part of the city, and a section of farm land thirty acres in extent was actually purchased. This proposition was duly abandoned and the Council is now at the point from which it started, with a discredited House so filled that another application for shelter and meals would

"On recovering from the 'flu,' I was subject to severe pains in my hips and loins," writes Mr. Charles Vanhoose of Kamloops, B.C. "I got steadily worse until finally I was carried to the General Hospital helpless with Rheumatism. There I got worse instead of better. My weight fell to 107 pounds. Some months before I had read about T.R.C.'s. I wrote you, stating my case. You sent me a large box of T.R.C.'s. Though still in hospital I began using them. In three weeks I was up and walking. When I had finished the box I felt completely cured."

"A few weeks later, however, the pains returned. I sent for two small boxes. When they came I was in bad shape from Rheumatism and Asthma. I hadn't slept for nights without inhaling herb-smoke. One day's treatment this time stopped my pains, and also to my astonishment completely rid me of asthma, and I have not been troubled since." Ask your druggist for T.R.C.'s. Yet the Courageous, Christian and Thoughtful municipalities of those days met the issue as presented to them in the presence of the aged, the infirm, the crippled and the diseased and gave to Ontario its second, of not its first County House of Refuge. Has Waterloo County degenerated in those qualities of head and heart so conspicuous in the public and private life of the community in the late sixties? Let the County Councilors who are trifling with the question we are discussing give us an answer. Waterloo's reputation for Christian Charity is at stake—at stake, too, in the most prosperous days of the community's history.

find it in one department at least unable to open its doors to the unfortunate. At present such "herding" is resorted to as to make civilization we boast of in this country a debatable subject. The Manager and the matron are not lax in the performance of their duties but they cannot be expected to accomplish the impossible. With the material at hand with crowded rooms, with old and insanitary living quarters—with an all-round equipment that is entirely unworthy of this rich county, the present management is endeavoring to make personal and sympathetic effort surmount the obstacles in the way of satisfactory supervision.

In retrospect let us give due credit to the County Fathers who in 1867 launched the House of Refuge and Industrial Farm project. The wealth of this county at that time was not as one to ten compared with the present. Our largest town was Galt, approximately 4500, with Berlin proud to claim 2500, and the townships but a few years in advance of the pioneer stage. Yet the Courageous, Christian and Thoughtful municipalities of those days met the issue as presented to them in the presence of the aged, the infirm, the crippled and the diseased and gave to Ontario its second, of not its first County House of Refuge. Has Waterloo County degenerated in those qualities of head and heart so conspicuous in the public and private life of the community in the late sixties? ## FIND LITTLE JOY IN MANTUA

American Soldiers in Italian City Cannot Be Accused of Indulging in Wild Revels.

Mantua, the metropolis of the province, is the center of the territory
which encircles it in every direction.
Hither flock the country folk from as far as five or six kilometers away, to gaze at the vino and stand around in the middle of the street, impeding the progress of the trolley car.

Equally fascinating to the American soldier is this city, with its car track, its air of cordial welcome, and its in-salubrious climate, all of which combine to make him think more of the old home town than he did before he came here, says a writer in Italy Ambulance Service News. It is not difficult to find things to do, for one may always spend quite a while figuring out when he last saw the sun, or when he will see it again. And then one may also look at the lake.

But it is at night that Mantua dis-closes its true nature. With an electric light gleaming on every fourth block, and the country folk mist always with you, you can start out for a wild evening. There are plenty of places to go—all cafes. Variety is supplied by ordering beer in one place and wine
in the next, until in a final burst of hilarity you end up with coffee-latte bitter (the nadir of recklessness). By that time it is 10:30, the shutters are up,
the waiter jingles a pocketful of cen-
tesimi and looks bored, the last patron has departed and the girl behind the bar seems to wonder what secret sorrows keep you from home. So you depart—via the back door, harking to your footprints echoing upon the still night air. The carabinieri look at you suspiciously, a cat runs across the black street, and you are all alone in the wicked city. You yawn and go back to bed, filled with excitement and beer. One night nearer home.
Mantua has many attractive features, but the best one is the ten o'clock train to Milan.

WAS DICKENS' OFFICE BOY

And All He Remembers of Great Author is the Peculiar Style of His Clothes.

The perseverance with which the unimportant fingers in memory is illustrated by the sum total of what the veteran porter who lately retired from his post at Temple Gate, London, can now recall about Charles Dickens.
Back in the sixties this man, it is said,
was office boy for the author, then editing "All the Year Round." All he remembers is that Dickens wore a
"black velvet coat with big snooked-
pearl buttons, and a queer waistcoat,
and trousers of shepherd's plaid, the biggest check you ever saw, and a great big deerstalker hat, as they called them, and his hair all hanging down, wavy like." Also that once upon a time somebody asked him, "Is that a showman?" And he answered,
"That's the great Charles Dickens."
A vivid picture, and this is probably why, plaid trousers and all, it still sticks in the former office boy's memory; but one wishes he could now recall some of the other things he must have observed in his remarkable chief.

"Passing" for Insurance.
A Philadelphia physician, Doctor Galliard, who has examined great numbers of men for life insurance companies, informs me that "in popular style in physique have changed."
Gillard writes in the Philadelphia Press.

When I asked him to elucidate, he replied:
"Not so long ago life insurance companies made a great ado and scanned
with care all applicants who were underweight. Now underweight is passed over as of little consequence, while overweight is reckoned as the stumbling block."

In other words, the thin man was once regarded as a pose risk, whereas now he is preferred to the stout man.
When I asked the doctor to tell me
the reason for this switch around in the popularity of the two types of the male form divine, he said tuberculosis,
once the dread of the thin man, has been far outdistanced in fatality by other organic diseases, especially of the heart, which are apt to affect the more round.

Truly, every dog has his day.

What Did He Mean?

The minister had eaten a very good dinner and was getting ready to leave for a long time. He happened to glance at the eighteen-year-old daughter.

"Well, well," he laughed. "I suppose that pretty soon I'll be coming back to marry this young woman to one of the interesting young men of the congregation."

The irrepressible eight-year-old son
spoke up:

"Oh, no, you won't," he offered.
"Mary is going to be an old bachelor."
The family's laugh told him that he had used the wrong word. So straightway he started to make it right.

"I mean an old witch," he asserted
more positively than before.

About Eggs.

Ontario, Canada, now has an egg
"circle." This egg circle has been organized for the purpose of eliminating the wholesaler and middleman. Its idea is specifically to prevent any person or persons coming between the farmer's supply of eggs and the consumer. More and more as the cold storage warehouse has come between the consumer and his egg, has the consumer suffered from the separation.
"Most every one" will wish the egg
circle well.

Sickness Cure or Sickness Prevention

When Pasteur proved the relation of germs to infectious disease, he marked a big advance in that development of medical science which reigns today—the Idea of Sickness Prevention.

As a result, many plagues and epidemics that were
the bane of former ages no longer terrify the world,
and science has now developed an effective agent
against the condition which is the first cause of over 90% of all human disease—constipation.

That effective agent is Nujol.

Nujol by relieving constipation prevents the absorption
of poisons which otherwise would be taken into the blood
and so undermine the whole system.

Leading medical authorities agree that pills, salts, castor oil, etc., simply force and weaken the system.

But Nujol is entirely different.

Nujol prevents constipation by softening the food waste
and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally.

Nujol helps nature establish easy, thorough bowel traction at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

For valuable health booklet—"Thirty Feet of Danger"
free, write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, N.Y.

Warning: Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark as shown here. Dealers of products represented to be "the same as Nujol" are not to be trusted.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Key West, Fla.—"For five years I suffered from irregularities, with terrible pains and an awful weakness in my back. The doctor gave me different medicines but they did me no good. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it to be the best medicine I ever tried because it made me well, and I can now do my housework. I am telling my friends about it."—Mrs. J. M. CAMUS, 728 Caroline St., Key West, Florida.

Many women at some period in their life suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex and which in most cases may be readily relieved by this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, just as Mrs. Camus found it helped her after suffering for years and trying everything else in vain.

If you have any annoying symptoms you fail to understand, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The results of the 40 years' experience advising women on this subject is at service.

Tobacco Habit Dangerous

My Doctor, Dr. Conner, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, told me of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health to-day were it not for the deadly drug, nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple thing to do. Just go to any apothecary and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed, and let the nicotine leave your system. Nicotol is a powerful medicine. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read the directions. The danger of nicotine poisoning, and how to avoid it, is in the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result.

SHILOH 30 DAYS COUGHS

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly. No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of J&J Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. J&J Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful after-dinner drink which also keeps the regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

The Merchants' Column

FAKE PIANO SCHEME UN-EARTHED IN LOUISVILLE

Not only did the Better Business Bureau of the Louisville Advertising Club obtain a complete confession from a "warehouse" piano dealer who recently advertised illegally in Louisville newspapers, and an agreement from him not to repeat such advertisements, but it also obtained the co-operation of the Louisville newspapers so that such advertisements cannot in the future be repeated either by the advertiser in question or any one else.

This advertiser had stated in the classified columns of two Louisville newspapers that he had "a brand new piano" which he would sell for balance due.

An investigator for the bureau was informed that a major, recently returned from the army, had ordered the piano but that when it arrived the soldier had failed to keep his agreement, with the result that the man who inserted the advertisement was selling the piano for the balance due, the major having had a deposit of $485. The advertiser offered the piano for the $965 which supposedly remained due.

In large gold letters inside of the case the price, $850 was stenciled. Investigation showed that this advertiser had shipped several pianos to Louisville, to a local freight office or express office that advertised them in a manner similar to the procedure which resulted in this investigation, selling them off the floor of the express or freight office. The bureau's attorney reported that the Kentucky truth-in-advertising law had been violated and that it would be possible to make a case against the advertiser.

A consultation with the advertiser in the course of which the facts and the opinion of the attorney of the bureau were submitted to him, brought forth a confession and a plea for clemency. The advertiser gave the bureau a written statement, properly witnessed, in which he past performances were acknowledged and in which he made a written pledge as to his conduct in the future. Among other things he agreed that all his advertisements would, in the future, be submitted to the bureau before they were inserted.

Investigation has also shown that three or four other men have been operating in a somewhat similar manner in Louisville and all of these cases are under investigation. The Louisville newspapers co-operating with the Better Business Bureau toward the elimination of all advertisements inserted by any such "guy" dealers until the methods of such dealers, as well as the advertisements, are brought up to the standards prescribed by the Better Business Bureau of Louisville.

INDIANAPOLIS FINDS FARM MARKET A FAILURE

Like St. Louis, Indianapolis has been forced to abandon the idea of the farmers' market. Only six weeks of a campaign born of the hope of lower prices to the consumer was needed to prove that the plan would not work. The fact, results show, did not lie with the public. It lay with the farmers, who promptly took advantage of the situation to stick both the profit of the retailer and that of the wholesaler in their pockets, without lowering the price to the consumer at all. As a matter of fact, they took even greater profit than this, for in the very nature of curb markets their expenses ran far lower than those of wholesale and retail merchants, and this difference, too went in their pockets. Before the city finally abandoned the idea, however, Harry R. Libeau, city market master, made an investigation of the farm products of St. Louis, Seattle, Columbus, Detroit, and Lancaster. In each case the experience was virtually the same. A painfully small number of farmers came to the market regularly with their produce. So small was this number that there existed virtually no competition at all among them, and it was an established custom to base their prices upon the prevailing schedules of the retail stores.

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS AD WE EVER USED"

According to George W. Reece, advertising manager of the D. H. Holmes store, in New Orleans, the best and most profitable Christmas advertisement ever used by the Holmes Company was a page devoted entirely to photographs. "This page," says Mr. Reece, "pulled like a team of army mules, and the reason, as we figure them, were these:

"The page commanded attention by its size and established the line which we featured for what is the high class product of the largest manufacturers of musical instruments in the world.

"It made 'home selection' easy because it gave all the details of size, finish, price, construction and appearance.

"It invited immediate action by laying out the complete outfit which could be bought at the fixed price and on the terms named.

"It appeared at a time when competing instruments—especially those of older and possibly more strongly established makes—were scarce, a condition which will very probably be repeated this year."

The page bore the headline "Holmes Musical News," with a banner line below stating "You can have a trade name in your home this Christmas." Then followed an explanation in the photograph situation in New Orleans and a detailed description of the points of excellence of the machine in question. At the sides and bottom of this type appeared boxes containing illustrations of the various instruments with a clear-cut statement of the price of each and the terms upon which it might be purchased. A coupon for out-of-town customers was placed in the lower left-hand corner.

GIRLS PAY BILLS, BUT MEN ARE SLOW

Times are good, not bad, if the books of the Watertown New York Business Men's Association, organized last January and engaged in the business collecting bad bills, are to be credited. The books also show more dead beats among the young men than those of more mature years with families and who are under greater expense.

"There is very little trouble with the young women of the city," reads the association's statement. "They may run up bills of over $100, but in ninety-nine cases out of 100, as soon as they draw a pay envelope, they are on the job, ready to make a payment. 'In the case of the young men, it is a different story and in many instances considerable chasing-up is required.' The association estimates that the "dead" accounts in the city total $250,000. The association, during its eight months of existence has handled collection accounts totaling $100,000.

MUST STOP TAKING COM-PETITORS' CLERKS.

To protect their mutual interests to back movements of interest to the trade generally and to bring about co-operation among themselves retail dealers in women's wearing apparel in Syracuse, N. Y., have organized the Retail Women's Wearing Apparel Association, with J. S. Shanahan of the Shanahan store, as its first president. As explained by H. T. Hatchman, secretary of the organization, one of the first things the association will endeavor to do is to prevent the bidding for employees that now exists, and to stop one proprietor luring the employees of another store away with the promise of higher wages. An effort also will be made to develop Friday as the biggest sales day of the week, in place of Saturday, through using the heaviest advertising of the week on Thursday night and Friday morning.

WASN'T ASKING FOR MUCH

All Buffalo Wife Wanted of the Husband was Just "One of Those Regional Banks."

Stevenson, we believe it was—our memory isn't as good as it was before the income tax passed—tried to locate the greatest happiness in married life, remarks a writer in Buffalo News. He said the greatest need of joy comes from recounting tales of courtship, didn't he? Or is the pinnacle of happiness found in social contact with others, whereby husband and wife are spurred by the law of contrast to love one another more dearly? We forget which was his conclusion.

Tennyrate, both are wrong and unworthy of so great a master of literature. Our notion, you may say, is unimportant, and very probably you speak within the law when you say so. But to us the greatest joy comes in that mystic hour beside the evening lamp, when the gray moss hangs low from the nuptial tree, casting shadowy fancies about the heart of the home. To sing to her, to write odds to her, to recount the day's work to her—all are pleasant occupations.

To read to her, though, is the very height of evening enjoyment; she is so attentive, hangs so interestedly upon every word, and then her refreshing woman's views on what has been read! For example, last night, when he read two columns of comprehensive matter on the currency innovation, after which she yawned, wound up the clock and said:

"I wish you would stop tomorrow and get one of those regional banks and bring it home. I have one of the A. M. & A. banks and a dime bank, too. But I think one of those regional banks would be so much more desirable for larger money."

BRITISH ADVANCE IN AFRICA

Plan to Open Country Which the Huns Had Picked Worthy of Exploitation.

Railway development in Africa is evidently to be prosecuted with vigor. At any rate, preliminaries are under discussion for a branch railway into Ruanda from the trunk line that German engineers had but just completed from the Indian ocean to Lake Tanganyika. The new line will advance into a country where the war in Europe probably saved the natives from German attack. Ruanda had remained undeveloped part of the German possession, but had been examined and written down as particularly worthy while to develop for the variety of its products. The new railway had brought German military forces within striking distance, and the history of German management in Africa gives every reason to believe that the opening up of the Ruanda country would have been a disaster for the Watutsi who inhabit it. From the British viewpoint, these natives are to be conciliated rather than antagonized. They are, in fact, one of the superior races of Africa, held to be related to the Egyptians, Assyrians, or some other ancient African people, and should be benefited rather than injured by the coming of the iron horse and the opening up of their country under British auspices—Christian Science Monitor.

Appreciated American Spirit.

Here is an anecdote from Maj. Len Hay Bolt's "The Last Million" that shows the feeling of one British officer toward the American doughboy. "I like the young American's passionate affection for his country," said the officer, "and his fixed determination to best everything connected with her. One day I was waiting in a village for an American staff car which was being sent for me from Chaumont. I found one standing at the corner of the street, so I asked the chauffeur, thinking he might be from headquarters. 'Where are you from?' And he sat up and replied all in one breath, as if I had pressed a button. 'Sir, I am from Marion, Ohio, the greatest steam-shovel producing center in the world.' Just like that. 'That is what I call the right spirit!'

New Kind of Construction.

Several exhibition halls and assembly rooms have been built in Norway by attaching to the uprights a "netting," fashioned from wooden rods about a third of an inch square in cross-section, which are bound together with tin-plated iron wire, and subsequently covered with a durable plaster. Structures of this sort, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, are easily and quickly constructed and are said to be useful in winter time.

Qualified.

He was applying for a position as attendant in an insane asylum. "Have you had any experience handling irrational persons?" he was asked. "Some," was his response. "I was a motion-picture director for several years." And he was hired forthwith—Film Fun.

Proof.

"My dear, I was one of the very first to leave," said a man, who, on returning from an evening party, was greeted reproachfully by his wife. "Oh, you always say that," she retorted. "Well, I can prove it this time, anyhow," insisted the husband. "Look in the hall and see the gold-mounted umbrella I've brought home."

Guoph family in danger.

Mr. W. G. Tharby, with his wife and two little daughters, had a very narrow escape from death from gas asphyxiation at their home in Guolph. A new furnace was recently installed in the house and the draughts were faulty. The family did not notice that the gas was not being properly carried off and the result was that in the morning they were so weak it was impossible to get out of bed. Mr. Tharby, however, had strength enough left to crawl out and open the doors

OBSERVER'S NOTES

JAPAN LIKES CANADIAN WHISKY. It is interesting to note that the importation of whisky has doubled since 1912. The Japanese people are very fond of imported liquors of all kinds, and amongst various foreign brands, one Canadian label is quite familiar and can always be obtained at any of the liquor stores.

MOTHER HAD TO PROP HER SON UP IN BED

Could Hardly Get His Breath At Times—Is Now the Picture of Health.

"My son Francis is the picture of health since his recovery through the use of Eucalypti," said Mrs. Annie Lantz, living at 12 Walker St., Kingston Road, North Beach, Toronto, Ont. "My boy had been suffering for several years," she continued, "with all symptoms of asthma and catarrh. He couldn't stand the least exposure out catching cold. His bronchial tubes and nasal passages seemed to be completely stopped up and at times he would have such awful spells of coughing that I would have to prop him up in bed at night before he could get a good breath. I had him treated for years but he only found a little temporary relief."

"At last, however, I had failed to help him. I thought I would give him Eucalypti and it is simply wonderful the way it helped him. His catarrh is almost gone and his symptoms of asthma, also, and his health is better than it has been in years. In fact, he is just like a different boy, is going to school regularly and is feeling fine."

Last year's representatives of a large brewery in British Columbia, came to Japan to look into the prospects of building a brewery which could supply various foreign markets that had been built up by the Canadian plant. As a result of the negotiations that were made the Anglo-Japanese Brewing Company has been formed and a Yen 2,000,000 plant is now under construction at a point between Yokohama and Tokyo.

TIMELY WARNING

By Fire Chief Guerin.

The holiday season is close at hand. Christmas Trees will be placed in practically every home to make members of the family happy. The fact that the Christmas tree is dangerous, should prove timely to indicate certain elementary precautions to be taken to eliminate all danger of fire.

Not a year passes without destructive fires, causing loss to life and loss to life and property due to Christmas trees and Christmas decorations. Don't illuminate the Christmas trees with tapers or paper lanterns; all illuminations should be done by electricity. Also, see that the lamps and electric wires connections are well insulated and in good order.

Don't use woolen, cotton or paper for decorating; asbestos should be used as it is nonflammable. Don't leave a Christmas tree in the house more than two or three days after Christmas for the trees, which are generally of balsam firs, soon dry up and become very inflammable, which is very dangerous to life and property.

Woolen, cotton or other fabrics which are commonly used in Christmas decorations can be made non-inflammable by being immersed in the following solution: Commercial ammonium phosphate, one pound; water, one gallon;

HOT WATER FOR SICK HEADACHES

Why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headaches are caused by an auto-intoxication — which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetaminophen, aspirin or the bromides, which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache, but will cleanse, purify and freshen the alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless to sugar, if you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

mous, but few people, except those of Florida and Georgia, connect the Swanee of the song with the Swanee
that flows from the southern swamps
of Georgia down through the woodlands of Florida to empty into the Gulf of Mexico.

"Way down upon the Swanee river"
suggests vaguely the South of the antebellum days with its cotton plantations, its mansions and negro cabins. None of these things are found along the Suwanee. Yet Floridians claim that the song was written in honor of their forest stream, and boatmen even point out a tree under which Stephen Foster is supposed to have penned the memorable lines. Reports less picturesque, but more generally accepted,
say that Foster never saw Swanee river, but that he used the name because of the rhythmic sound, dropping
the "u" to perfect the meter.

While the Swanee river may not be what its name suggests to most of us, it is a beautiful stream, flowing through a semi-tropical country where live-oaks and cypresses are mirrored in its clear depths. Heavy forests of cedar also grow in its valley, but these have been reduced in recent years, as the wood is in great demand for pencil making.

The Swanee figured largely in early American history, for it was a favorite haunt of the Indians, and many battles with the red men were fought in its valleys.

The name Swanee has an Indian sound, but it is said to be a corruption of San Juan—a name given the river by early Spanish explorers.

CHINA NOT LAND OF HUSTLE

Traveler in That Country Must Possess
a Generous Amount of Patience and Tact.

Sooner or later, writes E. H. Wilson
in "A Naturalist in Western China," the traveler in China must dispense with the comforts and luxuries of modern occidental methods of travel
and adapt himself to those more primitive and decidedly less comfortable of the oriental.

In the regions with which we have to deal there is nothing in the nature of wheeled vehicular traffic save only the rude wheelbarrow and the coolie
on the Chengtu plain. There are no mule caravans, and scarcely a riding pony to be found. For overland travel there is the native sedan-chair and one's own legs; for river travel the native boat.

Patience, tact and abundance of time are necessary and the would-be traveler lacking any of these essentials
should seek lands where less primitive methods obtain. Endowed with the virtues mentioned, and having unlimited time at his disposal, he may travel anywhere and everywhere in China in safety, with considerable pleasure and abundant profit in knowledge. With her industrious toiling millions, her old,
old civilization, her enormous natural wealth and wondrous scenery, China
alternately charms and fascinates, irritates and plunges into despair, all who sojourn long within her borders.

Elephants' Picnic.
An act set down on the program
was given without charge the other day in the old seaport town of Marblehead, Mass., when four elephants of a small circus, named with fine allied patriotism General Foch, General Pershing, General Haig and Princess Pat, jumped a stone wall, escaped the circus and took to the woods. The personnel of the circus, acrobats, riders, clowns and canvasmen, followed, and so did many of the townspeople and half a dozen policemen, but the elephants made the woods first, and there they spent the day with "a large and appreciative audience" watching on the outskirts. Peanuts and bananas,
usually a temptation to elephants,
failed to entice them from their New England jungle; but as twilight fell,
and habit suggested feeding time, the big beasts came peacefully out of the woods and allowed the trainer and his assistants to lead them back to the circus grounds. And all Marblehead went home to belated suppers.

Germany Seeks Wool Substitutes.
Search for wool substitutes will doubtless continue in Germany, where sheep rearing is not likely to increase materially. Dogs' hair and even human hair have been tried, as felt material of limited supply, and the long hair of women found military use during the war. A possible wool industry is to be based on the white, silkenhaired rabbit. The hair may be spun into very fine soft threads, suitable for weaving certain fabrics, and plans are said to have been made for breeding
several millions of the animals.

Oil in Mexico.
Recent investigations which have been made on the Pacific coast of Mexico reveal the existence of rich deposits of petroleum. These discoveries are of great importance, because they will ultimately serve to intensify maritime traffic and seem to promise for some of the western ports of Mexico
a future as promising as that of Tampico or Turpan.

Simple Budget System.
"Every young wife should have a budget system to govern her expenditures."
"I know. I have one. I pay what I can and owe the rest."

Despite the fact that he had $2,050 deposited in the New York bank, Frank Zabell died of starvation in the hospital.

Appeals have been made by the Swiss Federal Council for the repatriation of all war prisoners still held by belligerents.
Saturday night's gale blew the roof
off the Free Methodist Church, Sarnia.
Because he sold potatoes by weight
not by measure, a St. Thomas grocer was fined $10.

IN December winter millinery reaches its very apex of importance. With the beginning of January the Palm Beach hats begin to appear in shop windows, society prepares for its annual hejira southward and burning interest in winter fashions is gone, although, of course, styles selected during the earlier weeks will maintain their popularity for several weeks to come. But in December new winter modes are still arriving. This is the month of months to be in New York. The debutantes are making their bows, with numberless dinners, dances, luncheons and matinee parties as side issues. The autumn brides have returned from their honeymoon trips and for them also are smart social events arranged by eager hostesses. All the big charity affairs crowd into December too—to catch patrons before the Palm Beach fitting begins. The opera is a high social interest and toward the end of the month the holiday festivities start in. One must have plenty of clothes to get through gay December in town and not the least important item in the wardrobe is millinery.

Hats Accompany Formal Costumes
With almost every costume except the house frock for mornings and the dance frock for evenings, the hat is an indispensable feature. Hats are worn at luncheons and at afternoon bridge affairs even when the coat is left in a dressing room. Hats accompany restaurant dinner costumes except in very exclusive dining places where women are going on to some private dance or other entertainment. Hats and matinee frocks are partners though during the play the hat rests in the frock's lap. And, of course, a smart hat is an integral part of a tea-hour costume. Woman does her hair, during the day, to suit her hats. Only

In one piece, a splendid wreath of ostrich that curls all around the hat, covering the brim and dropping over its edge, while one end of the ostrich garland drops to the shoulder behind the right ear. It takes a pretty face to carry off a hat like that; though most women probably think they would be pretty enough if they could wear such a wonderful chaparral.

Feathers Piled In Odd Ways
Another hat shown today has twin ostrich plumes, one drooping over each side of the hat, a roll brim sailor shape of black hatter's plush. The feathers are in a soft fawn shade and one curls toward the front while the other has a backward slant, making a soft background for the head at the left side. There are numberless ways of arranging feathers and the more daring the arrangement the smarter the line of the hat. A Lewis model of black velvet, rather high crowned and with a brim turning sharply upward at one side has two full, rich ostrich tips in jade green; one sprawling across the top of the crown and the other tumbling over the turned-up brim to touch the hair. An Odette model, small and dainty of line and made of gray velvet, has a long gray ostrich feather which is caught under the narrow brim at one side. The feather is straight and furnishings—even for the silver-buttressed of the little messenger boy who

Tailored Hats For December Days
Shopping is an important feature of pre-Christmas days, so the shopping hat must be carefully considered also. One meets everybody one knows on the Avenue and in the adjacent side streets during the December weeks and the luncheon places and the tea rooms are filled with tired shoppers recuperating over a cup of tea, or something more substantial in a repast. Of all the tailored hats launched this year, most popular is the bowl shaped turban with a wide, unstiffened brim of velvet, crushed through weeks of wear. Usually the brim is a mere founce of doubled velvet, or silk-lined velvet, attached to the bowl shaped crown and then turned up and caught against the crown at back and front while the sides flare out smartly. Sometimes fine wires are run through cordings all around the limp brim, which helps to hold the hat in correct shape through weeks of wear. These hats fit down closely and softly over the head, like a cap, and they are almost invariably becoming for the limp brim may be dragged this way and that to suit the face.

Another popular turban style is shown in a picture today. This also is a soft model, like a cap, and it is made of hatter's plush in tobacco brown. The feather, slanted across the brim at one side is in brown, copper and brick tones. A turban much in vogue now in Paris was designed by Lanvin for a French actress. It is made of lustrous black taffeta and has a cap-like draped crown and a soft brim that turns back from the face and is held by a pearl ornament. A parade veil of chantilly lace is draped over this small, very chic black turban. A most engaging turban is the petite model of maroon velvet with feather tufts in pale mauve suggesting all about the crown. A larger hat in the fashionable marquis shape has a brim pointed in the back and folded over the crown to slip through a slash in the front brim. A parade feather shoots off at one side to emphasize the arrangement. For a debutante is the big sailor trimmed only with two loops and an end of wide velvet ribbon. This hat is all black and is especially smart and distinctive.

ALTERNATING BRIC-A-BRAC

IN every home where a family has lived for years, small articles of decoration accumulate until rooms have a smothered look and come a day when the mistress of that house exclaims desperately:
"I'd like to burn everything in this place up and start over again with a clean, a pair of candlesticks and one vase for flowers in the living room." Yet when it comes to the point, nobody wants to dispose of a single ornament—even if there is no place for it and it has to be put on a closet shelf to await some opportunity for its proper display. Sentiment and association endear trifling things to every mistress of a home. This came from a dear friend; that was picked up on a never-to-be-forgotten trip somewhere; the old mirror has come down from an ancestor; those blue vases that do not match the library color scheme were beloved in one's first housekeeping days. And so on—difficult it is to throw out or give away the old friends that have become dear through years of association. Yet new things continually add themselves and so the smothered look inevitably pains a taste that loves harmony and order. One woman has solved the problem very nicely. She alternates her bric-a-brac. Every article has its season of use and its rest-time in the dark closet. Certain candlesticks, vases, photographs, have their turn in winter; quite another assortment decorates the house in summer. Brackets return the reflection of light in January, the cool gleam of silver and pewter refreshes the eye in June. The photographs of ones so many friends appear in turn to charm memory—they cannot all be on view at once or the house would look like a picture gallery! And every beloved trifle treasured because of sentiment and association has its time of appearance without cluttering the place unduly the whole year round. It seems a good idea and worth trying, does it not?

SPECIAL SHIELDS FOR SHEER BLOUSES

IT is always a mystery to the perfectly dressed woman how so many others of her sex deliberately spoil the effect of lovely and expensive blouses and bodices by using large dress-shields that display their presence obviously under transparent fabrics. Nothing uglier than a huge white dress-shield showing blouse can be imagined, and aside from the question of looks, the fastidious woman objects to have the suggested necessity of an article of a transparent shield made conspicuously apparent in her costume. Many women purchase shields by the dozen. They have a preference in size and style and stick to that size and style, no matter what the type of garment to be supplied with shields. As a matter of fact there are dozens of shapes and sizes in dress-shields and every sort of blouse or bodice is provided for. When the right shield is found for the right place, make a note of its name and its number and next time ask for this name and number. There are special flesh-tinted shields for wear with the sheer, flesh-tinted blouses so fashionable now and it is quite unnecessary to spoil such a blouse with an unsightly, mammoth white shield.

Lingerie Christmas the Practical Gift

THE news comes from the manufacturer of feminine undergarments. "No more silk underwear" is the awful prophecy. "After the present supply is sold out." The reason is, according to an authoritative trade magazine which gives out the information: "That silk fabrics are in such short supply that manufacturers are turning to other materials. They are turning to the silk on hand, are doubling up of their ability to secure a further adequate supply." And if they cannot, what then? What is going to take the place of the fascinating, beloved silk undies?

But resourceful fashion always finds a way. Already she has evinced an indifference in the matter of silk undergarments and has resorted to new and ardent interest in garments of fine linen for intimate wear. The most exclusive undies now are of sheer, cobbylin linen in exquisitely delicate tints and these "pretties" as the Englishwoman calls under-attire, are trimmed with fillet, Irish crochet and real Valenciennes and are daintily finished with hand stitching and hand tucking. So beautiful and appealing are the new undergarments of cobbylin linen that they make garments of glistening satin and crepe de chine look just a bit over-sumptuous and—as one woman puts it: Demimondish. So perhaps, though the manufacturers of silk underwear show agitation and dismay, fashion has settled the matter very nicely. For linen is now obtainable—as it was not during the years of the war—and every day more yards of the beautiful fabric, fresh, soft, glistening and fairly fine, are being turned off the looms. Several articles of fine linen underwear are shown in an illustration—Christmas undies these, or Christmas "pretties" as the English girl would call them. The simple lines and exquisite daintiness and femininity of these garments are notable. They have an exclusive distinction not found in even the most elaborate garments of silk and lace. On the seated figure in the picture is a nightgown of sheer handkerchief linen in delicate flesh tint. The garment is entirely hand made and its lines are very graceful. Above the hem, at the foot, is set a narrow band of point d'esprit insertion and ungarmented frills of point d'esprit edging cover the little empire yoke and form the dainty sleeve. The square neck is drawn up on a pale blue ribbon, run through a net casing. A combination of fine white handkerchief linen, trimmed only with narrow hemstitched bands of pink linen is thrown across the knees of the seated figure. On a chair nearby are two linen chemises; one in flesh pink tint with fillet lace trimming and pink ribbon shoulder-straps, and the other of white linen,

hand tucked and hemstitched.

Another picture shows the new two-piece sleeping garment of white linen, so smart in line, so beautifully fresh and dainty in its simplicity that lace or embroidery in trimming would seem a superfluity. The slipover tunic has flaring, short sleeves and a convenient pocket for a kerchief. The trousers end in crisp hems, turned up to form cuffs. Some of these sleeping-suits come in delicate color but the white ones are somehow the prettiest, and the broad hems, set in by hand, add to the distinction of the garment.

Silklike underwear is a compromise the manufacturers promise. Indeed there are silklike undies already in the market, and as somebody remarks: "They are really not so bad!" They feel as soft as silk in the hand but have not the sleek "feel" of silk when on and they do not launder as satisfactorily as fine linen garments. But there is a prettiness and a softness about the silklike chemises and combinations which will have its appeal and a set of this underwear, daintily boxed, will make an attractive Christmas gift. Volle undergarments are shown also in the picture. Christmas displays. Some of the models are elaborately trimmed with lace and are sheer and dainty in appearance. A voile nightgown in flesh tint is ornamented with cream fillet lace, a voile combination in pure white has criss-cross tucks and inset medallions of Val.

It is the lustrous silk lingerie, however, that appeals to the average purchaser at Christmas season, and as this seems to be the last Christmas one can give silk lingerie—according to the melancholy pronouncement of the manufacturers—one might as well procure all one can of it. Chiffon garments come under the head of silk lingerie, as chiffon, of course, is woven with silk threads. One of the Christmas chemises is pictured—and surely any woman who receives such a dainty garment among her Christmas packages will have reason for being light. This chemise is made of flesh colored chiffon and the strip of lace forming the top is turned over to make a casing for pink satin ribbon. The shoulder straps are of pink ribbon also. The lower edge of the chemise is prettily trimmed with a narrow lace edging that follows the upward slope of the pantalon skirt at either side, almost to the hip. This sheer and beautiful garment is worn over a flesh tinted jersey silk combination which extends under the tops of the stockings, so the wearer will be warm enough this winter, even in her airy chemise. A very beautiful peignoir made of two thicknesses of chiffon—pink over pale mauve—is shown in the same illustration. Pink satin ribbons bind the edges and the neck opening of this graceful negligee, which is perfectly straight in line, the selvedge coming at the wide arm opening. Below this arm opening—which comes well down like a loose sleeve because of the width of the chiffon—the material is caught up in a draped effect on the figure.

Many of the Christmas negligees and articles of lingerie have cut-work decoration. A chemise-knicker chemise of sand colored charmeuse has a cut-work design bound with rose and dull blue silk. A nightgown of flesh colored Georgette has edges of neck and armhole bound with jade green crepe meteor and a cut-work yoke pattern in jade, cerise and dull blue. These cut-work embellished models are rather expensive but they are considered extremely smart and are listed as favorites for Christmas giving.

IS FRENCH FOOTWEAR COMING?

SOME people insist that in a few months we shall all be wearing the stubby-toed, short-vaisted slippers that French women adore. It seems incredible, considering the attractiveness of present-day footgear in America—the graceful long-toed pump with its slender lines so becoming to the foot, the aristocratic sport shoe, long and slim, the pretty buttoned street boot with a long pointed toe that is distinctly elegant. But with all the French fashion pictures showing those tiny little short-vaisted slippers strapped across the instep the excessively long, pointed toe of the American shoe may possibly begin to look exaggerated. Every woman who considers the slender, graceful American foot most desirable—as it certainly is—should take a firm stand right now and refuse to wear anything else.

LOOK FOR GRAVE AND GOLD

Two Reasons Which Actuate Explorers Searching Among Santa Barbara Channel Islands.

With the rugged and little-frequented
of Santa Barbara channel islands are being explored for the burial spot of Juan Cabrillo, the intrepid Spaniard who visited the California coast in the sixteenth century. The search centers in San Miguel island, the property of J. P. Moore, a wealthy resident of Florida.

Cabrillo died on one of the islands,
it appears reasonably certain, and San Miguel is generally believed to be the isle where he met death. One legend has it that Cabrillo died of a fever, another that he met a violent death at the hands of a warrior from one of the Indian tribes then inhabiting the channel islands.

He is said to have been secretly buried at night in a cave, in a spot inaccessible except at low tide.

Not all the romance that is associated with San Miguel grows out of the supposed tragic death. For generations Californians have heard of the fabulous sums of gold hidden there by sea rovers.

Treasure is said to have been buried on the isle by Sir Francis Drake, after he had stripped Spanish galleons of their treasures. Drake, so the legend runs, left hurriedly and neither returned nor gave a key to the secret cache.

Several of the Spanish and Mexican explorers that crossed southern California in the Spanish regime, and even after the Americans came, are said to have made the islands their meeting place and to have buried there a fortune in gold and silver coin.

KIEV WELL WORTH A VISIT

Capital of the Ukraine Remarkable Combination of Old and New Cities.

Kiev contains about five hundred thousand inhabitants, and comprises four distinct districts, which may also be called separate towns. Podol, the commercial quarter, skirts the River Dnieper, and above it, on a steep de-clivity, is Lipki, the residential quarter, and an enchanting spot in summer, with its handsome villas embow-ered in dark, luxuriant foliage.

North of that is Kiev proper, which contains the university and the cathedral of St. Sophia, a building erected in the eleventh century, but so constantly repaired and added to that it is now a huge and towering structure with more than a dozen large golden domes.

Here also are the theaters, hotels and shops, which are quite as modern as those of Petrograd or Moscow. Pet-cherski, the fourth district, is well worth seeing, for it is honeycombed
with caves and catacombs that in olden days were used as places of refuge
and as monastic cells, and where, during holy festivals, one can scarcely move through the dense crowds of pilgrims, of whom three hundred thousand annually visit this ancient and revered monastery.

Warships May Carry Mail.

Removing their side arms, protective decks, barbettes and guns would change battle cruisers into fine mail
liners with plenty of room for passengers. That is the proposal which has the approval of the Swedish minister of marine for application to the Swedish navy's two largest warships. The vessels so pacified would have 2,000
tons dead-weight capacity with a displacement of 4,300 tons and a speed of 25 to 30 miles an hour. Sweden's navy numbers 69 war craft of all kinds,
all of which are well designed and constructed, but rather small for actual war purposes. This appears to be the first serious indication of a possible
peaceful use for naval units.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Foch Joins the "Pipers."

Marshal Foch has acquired a British habit. The French do not generally smoke pipes. Day by day Marshal Foch saw Field Marshal Haig and other British generals in the vortex of the work calmly doing their work behind good high-bowled briar pipes. Foch asked Haig what it was like to smoke a pipe. He bought an English one. He filled it under careful British military instruction. He began the attempt with energy and purposeful determination, but at first smoked more matches than tobacco. Now, however, he has mastered it and thoroughly enjoys a good briar which he has bought from an English firm.

Many Horses Stay "Over There."

Not all our fighters will return to the land of their birth. Most of the men—those that are living—will come home, but many of the horses will not,
for there is great need of draft animals in the reconstruction work in France and Belgium, and there are plenty of war-worn horses that a few weeks or months of rest will restore to usefulness. The Red Star animal relief organization in New York is interesting itself in the pleasant task of getting the poor old war horses into fresh fields and pastures green.—
Youth's Companion.

The Victor's Homecoming.

Sir Douglas Haig's Grenadier
guard of honor at Charing Cross,
when the man of the hour came home,
was a particularly fine body of men,
and from end to end of the lines there was hardly a man without wound stripes. Not a few of the distinguished people on the platform noticed that three of the guard, standing side by side, had 16 wound stripes between them.

Three Italian cities have declared
a general strike in Rome, Milan and Florence, where there has been a complete cessation of work.
The Judicial Committee of the Finland Diet recommends acceptance of a motion granting to women
the right to hold offices as judges.

Lizzie Goodland, who was charged in London with abandoning her babe, was discharged, and accused the man who laid the charge with being the father.

VISIBLY
AND DEMONSTRABLY DIFFERENT—

The Pathephone

THE Pathephone represents a big advance in the phonographic art. It possesses distinct and exclusive improvements, such as reproduction by means of the genuine sapphire ball, instead of the antiquated, destructive and inconvenient steel needle. Aside from the vastly improved tone secured through the sapphire ball, there is real economy, for the sapphire does not have to be changed, and there is no wear on the records.

Then, the Pathephone plays ALL records. There are no extra attachments to buy. Unlike most phonographs, in addition to being a supreme musical instrument, the Pathephone is a beautiful and correct piece of furniture. Every Pathe record is guaranteed to play at least one thousand times, which means that you may build up a permanent library of the world's best music. The Pathephone is the ideal instrument for children to play, as there are no dangerous steel needles to injure either children or records—the round, smooth Pathe sapphire ball is harmless.

Four Popular Pathe Designs are shown herewith. Other Models, not here illustrated, are

TYPE "A"	TYPE "C"	"GEORGIAN"	TYPE "B"
In mahogany or oak. A genuine Pathephone in a small compass. Plays all records.	Made in mahogany, fumed oak, or American walnut. Simple and chaste in design. Plays all records. Second Case of Smallpox

Another case of smallpox has been discovered in the city. The patient is Mr. Alfred Kardoz of 112 Peter Street, who is now confined to the Isolation Hospital.

Just as to where Mr. Kardoz contracted the illness is not known. He recently purchased blankets in Toronto and after the second night he had slept in them he became ill. His theory tends to the belief that the germs were in these blankets.

The authorities, however, are endeavoring to ascertain whether there was any other source of contagion. The first patient, Mr. Davis, who is also at the isolation hospital, is progressing nicely.

Brantford's Teachers Want More

A delegation of public and high school teachers waited upon the Board of Education, Brantford, asking for a new salary schedule with a 25 per cent. increase dating from January 1st, 1920.

A maximum of $2,500 for senior high school teachers and $2,300 for junior teachers was requested. Principals, male assistants and lady teachers of public schools were all heard from.

A general request for a 25 per cent. increase being made. Several of the trustees were heard in reply, and the teachers were assured of consideration and a new schedule to be adopted and operative in January next.

Plans were authorized to be drawn for a new technical wing for the College Institute, the night school classes there having attained an average attendance of 550.

Christian Science Lecture

A free lecture on Christian Science by John Lathrop, C.S.B., is announced for Thursday evening, Dec. 11th, in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, at 8.15 p.m. In this connection the following from the Boston Traveller, in reference to Mrs. Eddy's teachings, is of interest:

"Mrs. Eddy has been one of the world's greatest benefactors. Her followers will say more than that, perhaps, but there is no reason why even her enemies should say less. Regardless of differences of faith or philosophy the world must recognize in her work, a vast contribution to human happiness. Certain it is that Mrs. Eddy found the world full of doubt and despondency, and gave it a larger measure of brightness and hope. She taught the weak that they need not be weak, the sick that they might be well, the suffering that they had it within themselves to end their wretchedness. Those who were ailing, physically or mentally, were enabled, as she herself had been, to become strong in soul and body.

Call it what you will, it is a fact that Christian Scientists, as a class, are healthy, hopeful, happy and prosperous. And Christian Science modes of thought have permeated the thinking of the world, outside the pale of the church. It is a great thing to be a teacher when the teaching bears fruit."

A HOME RECIPE FOR WRINKLED, SAGGY SKIN

The famous saxolite lotion recommended by beauty specialists for removing wrinkles and for reducing distended pores, can easily be made at home. Ask your druggist for saxolite in powdered form; one ounce, and a half pint of witch hazel. Dissolve the powder in the witch hazel and bathe the face, neck and hands in the solution. Results are remarkable, and instantaneous. The skin lightens, and this naturally reduces the wrinkles, as well as creases or folds, about the neck, cheeks or hands. The tissue beneath the skin also becomes firmer and more solid.

One feels much refreshed and exhilarated after using this truly wonderful preparation. Many women look five or ten years younger after using it only a short time.

Sarnia's Development

If present indications are any criterion of the building boom that builders predict will hit Sarnia in the spring all previous building records in the Imperial City will receive a severe jolt. It was announced that one contractor alone had 25 residences to build. Sarnia is now growing overnight and at present there is a great dearth of houses. Rents are going sky-high and in one or two instances formerly exclusive homes are now getting their share of dollars in room rent, etc. The housing situation has grown to such proportions that the Chamber of Commerce will hold a meeting in the near future to see what action they can take to relieve the situation.

BECKETT KNOCKED OUT IN 70 SEC.

Carpentier Won European Title at London, England.

London, Dec. 4.—Georges Carpentier, the French fighter, won the heavy weight championship of Europe here to-night by defeating Joe Beckett, champion of England. Carpentier knocked Beckett out in the first round. The knockout came one minute and 10 seconds after fighting commenced. The men entered the ring at 9:44 o'clock. Both were heartily received. Carpentier, however, getting a slightly better reception than Beckett. After a short handshake the men faced each other. Carpentier smiled confidently. He darted in quickly and planted a left flush on Beckett's face. A brief bit of sparring followed.

The stadium was packed with a distinguished gathering. Even the standing room at five guineas admission was crammed.

The Prince of Wales entered the stadium during one of the preliminary bouts. He received a rousing reception. After the singing by the crowd "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," the prince said: "I thank you one and all for your very kind welcome. I am glad to be in London again."

Carpentier finally darted in again with his left. His foot-work and hand-work were both much quicker than his opponent's. The Frenchman again scored with two swift lefts in succession to Beckett's face. Carpentier got away again out of reach before Beckett had time to counter.

Coming together again the men went to a short clinch. In the breakaway Carpentier was in like a flash with a left straight to Beckett's head.

A terrific right to the jaw knocked Beckett face downward to the boards. Blood spurted from his mouth from this and previous punches.

Carpentier helped to carry Beckett to the Englishman's corner. Beckett's eyes opened as this was done.

and his second said to him: "Joe you're out."

Beckett was unable to understand it all for a moment, but he seemed to comprehend when the crowd began to invade the ring.

Carpentier was hoisted to the shoulders of the first of the crowd that reached him. Everybody in the stadium was cheering, including the Prince of Wales, while tens of thousands of persons who had gathered outside in the streets were shouting their tribute to the victor.

The only effort made by Beckett in the fight was to cut loose a vicious uppercut with his right after he had received the first jab to the face. The blow missed by more than a foot.

WILDE-SHARKEY BOUT

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 5.—All arrangements have been completed for the boxing contest to be pulled off here to-morrow night between Jimmy Wilde and Jack Sharkey. It will be the first opportunity for American fight fans to see the English flyweight champion in action and the club under whose auspices the mill will take place expect a record-breaking crowd at the ringside. The agreement calls for a 10-round go, the fighters to weigh in at 166 pounds. Sharkey was a reputation as a clever and hard-hitting fighter and in the opinion of the critics the English champion will have to use his best abilities in order to gain the decision over the New Yorker.

JEWELS IN THE WASH

A Toronto dispatch says: Diamonds and gold trinkets of considerable value, lost over night on the work bench of R. A. Dowdney, a manufacturing jeweler occupying rooms in a Melina street building, were found scattered over the floor this morning having been washed from the bench by water used in fighting a fire which extensively damaged the building early this morning. Firemen confined the fire to the fourth and fifth floor of the building and the damage is estimated at $20,000.

SPORT GOSSIP

The Prince of Wales took several boxes of American-made golf balls with him when he sailed for home.

Fred Fulton has received many offers of big money to engage in bouts since his return from Europe.

The Center College football team closed the season with a total of 45 points scored to 23 points for its opponents.

Manager Pat Moran of the champion Reds has turned down a flattering offer to go into vaudeville. A baseball monologue was to be Pat's turn.

It is said that promoters of professional football have offered some of the college stars as much as a thousand dollars to play in a single game.

The Georgia Tech football team, in past seasons a wonderful outfit in gridiron warfare, was compelled to stand for considerable beating this year.

After being walloped by nearly every football team they tackled this season Columbia staged a big surprise by holding Brown to a 7 to 7 tie game.

Harry Kim Brown and Johnny Mieny made such a hit in their recent boxing bout in Boston that the pair are to be signed up for another slam at each other.

Boston boxing promoters have posted $5,000 as a guarantee that they will make good any terms they offer to Jimmy Wilde, English flyweight champion, to box in the Hub.

As both Joe Stecher and Wladek Zbyszko are credited with recent wrestling victories over "Strangler" Lewis a bout between the two grappling demons would probably be a big drawing card.

In meeting Benny Leonard, Johnny Dundee will get his long sought for chance to show his real class in the ring. Just how far the "Scotch Whip" can stop with the champion remains to be seen.

According to Manager Jack Curley the guard finale of Willie Meehan's campaign in the heavyweight division will be a championship bout with Jack Dempsey. The Californian holds a decision over Dempsey, gained in a bout in San Francisco last year.

Senators Find Him Vigorous and Active, Fully Able to Handle Affairs.

MEXICAN TENSION RELIEVED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—A sharp and sensational turn of an optimistic character has been given to the Mexican crisis.

Its first phase was the official announcement of the release of William A. Jenkins, the United States Consul Agent imprisoned at Puebla.

Its second phase was the report of the special Senate committee, after a personal interview with President Wilson, that he was mentally competent to handle the business of the nation.

This personal interview laid the ghost of the strong intimations that President Wilson was in no condition to direct American affairs.

The two Senators who interviewed the President, with the illecebrated purpose of ascertaining the truth or falsity of the many rumors that he was in no physical or mental shape to attend to important public business, came away from the White House convinced that his mind was vigorous and active.

A dramatic touch was given to the interview by the sudden appearance of Rear Admiral Grayson, the President's physician, with the announcement that Jenkins had been freed.

NO REASON TO EXCLUDE VATICAN

Brussels, Dec. 6.—The committee of the conference of the Association for the League of Nations has decided that the Holy See could not be regarded as a nation, but expressed the view that it was a power and there was no important reason for its exclusion of the Vatican from representation in the League of Nations.
