Montreal, 23rd March, 1891.

Sir,—I send you enclosed a Petition signed by the Catholic Episcopacy of the Dominion of Canada, and beg that you will lay the same before His Excellency the Governor General in Council.

I am confident that you will give your whole support to this Petition and commend it to your colleagues when presenting it to them.

Several of the venerable prelates, being unable to sign themselves, authorized certain of their fellow-bishops to do so for them, as you will see by the papers hereunto annexed.

Your obedient servant, ALEX...

Archbishop of St. Boniface, O.M.I.

To His Excellency the Governor General in Council:-

The petition of the Cardinal Archbishop of Quebec, and of the Archbishops and Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church in the Dominion of Canada, subjects of Her

Gracious Majesty the Queen,-

Humbly sheweth: -That the seventh legislature of the Province of Manitoba, in its third session assembled, has passed an Act intituled, "An Act respecting the Department of Education," and another Act, to be cited "The Public School Act." which deprive the Roman Catholic minority of the province of the rights and privileges they enjoyed with regard to education;

That during the same session of the same parliament there was passed another Act, being Fifty-three Victoria, chap. xiv., to the effect of abolishing the official use of the French language in the parliament and courts of justice of the said province;

That the said laws are contrary to the dearest interests of a large portion of the loyal subjects of Her Majesty;

That the said laws cannot fail to grieve, and in fact do afflict, at least the half of the devoted subjects of Her Majesty;

That the said laws are contrary to the assurances given, in the name of Her Majesty, to the population of Manitoba, during the negotiations which determined the entry of the said province into Confederation;

That the said laws are a flagrant violation of the British North America Act, 1867, of the Manitoba Act, 1870, and of the British North America Act, 1871; that your petitioners are justly alarmed at the disadvantages, and even the dangers, which would be the result of a legislation forcing on its victims the conviction that public good faith is violated with them, and that advantage is taken of their numerical weakness, to strike at the Constitution under which they are so happy to live.

Therefore, your petitioners humbly pray your Excellency in Council to afford a remedy to the pernicious legislation above mentioned, and that in the most efficacious and just way.

Europe.

And your petitioners will, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Report of a Committee of the Honoursble the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Governor General in Council on the 4th April, 1891.

The Committee of the Privy Council have had under consideration the annexed Report, dated 21st March, 1891, from the Minister of Justice upon the two Acts of the following titles passed by the Legislature of the Province of Manitoba at its session held in the year 1890, which Acts were received by the Secretary of State on the 11th April, 1890, namely:

Chapter 37—"An Act respecting the Department of Education," and Chapter 38—"An Act respecting Public Schools."

The Committee submit the same for approval, and they advise that the Secretary of State be authorized to forward a copy of this Minute, together with the Report of the Minister of Justice, to the Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba.

JOHN J. McGEE, Clerk Privy Council.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, CANADA, 21st March, 1891.

To His Excellency the Governor General in Council:

The undersigned has the honour to report upon the two Acts of the following titles passed by the Legislature of the Province of Manitoba at its session held in the year 1890, which Acts were received by the Honourable the Secretary of State on the 11th April, 1890:

Chapter 37—"An Act respecting the Department of Education," and

Chapter 38—" An Act respecting the Public Schools."

The first of these Acts creates a Department of Education, consisting of the Executive Council, or a Committee thereof, appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, and defines its powers. It also creates an Advisory Board, partly appointed by the Department of Education, and partly elected by teachers, and defines its powers. Also,

The "Act respecting Public Schools" is a consolidation and amendment of all previous legislation in respect to Public Schools. It repeals all legislation which created and authorized a system of Separate Schools for Protestants and Roman Catholics. By the Acts previously in force either Protestants or Roman Catholics could establish a school in any school district, and Protestant ratepayers were exempted from contribution for the Catholic Schools, and Catholic ratepayers were exempted from contribution for Protestant Schools.

The two Acts now under review purport to abolish these distinctions as to the schools, and these exemptions as to ratepayers, and to establish instead a system under which public schools are to be organized in all the school districts, without regard to the religious views of the ratepayers.

The right of the Province of Manitoba to legislate on the subject of education is conferred by the Act which created the Province, viz.: 32-33 Vict., chapter 3 (The Manitoba Act), section 22, which is as follows:—

"22. In and for the Province of Manitoba the said Legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to education, subject to the following provisions:-

"(1) Nothing in any such law shall prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools which any class of persons have by law or practice in the Province at the Union.

"(2) An appeal shall lie to the Governor General in Council from any act or . decision of the Legislature of the Province, or of any Provincial authority affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic minority of the Queen's subjects in relation to education.

"(3) In case any such Provincial law as from time to time seems to the Governor General in Council requisite for the due execution of the provisions of this section, is not made, or in case any decision of the Governor General in Council, on any appeal under this section, is not duly executed by the proper Provincial authority in that behalf; then, and in every such case, and as far only as the circumstances of each case require, the Parliament may make remedial laws for the due execution of the provisions of this section, and of any decision of the Governor General in Council under this section."

In the year 1870, when the "Manitoba Act" was passed, there existed no system of education established or authorized by law; but at the first session of the Provincial Legislature, in 1871, an "Act to establish a system of Education in the Province" was passed. By that Act the Lieutenant Governor in Council was empowered to appoint not less than ten nor more than fourteen persons to be a Board of Education for the Province, of whom one half were to be Protestants and the other half Catholics, with one superintendent of Protestant and one superintendent of Catholic schools. The Board was divided into two sections, Protestant and Catholic, each section to have under its control and management the discipline of the schools of its faith, and to prescribe the books to be used in the schools under its care which had reference to religion or morals. The moneys appropriated for education by the Legislature were to be divided equally, one moiety thereof to the support of Protestant schools, and the other moiety to the support of Catholic schools.

By an Act passed in 1875, the board was increased to twenty-one, twelve Protestants and nine Roman Catholics; the moneys voted by the Legislature were to be divided between the Protestant and Catholic schools, in proportion to the number of children of school age in the schools under the care of Protestant and Catholic sections of the board respectively.

The Act of 1875 also provided that the establishment in a school district of a school of one denomination, should not prevent the establishment of a school of another denomination in the same district.

Several questions have arisen as to validity and effect of the two Statutes now under review, among those are the following:

It being admitted that "no class of persons" (to use the expression of the "Manitoba Act") had, "by law," at the time the Province was established, "any right or privilege with respect to denominational (or any other) schools." Had "any class of persons" any such right or privilege with respect to denominational schools, "by practice," at that time? Did the existence of separate schools for Roman Catholic children, supported by Roman Catholic voluntary contributions, in which their religion might be taught and in which text-books suitable for Roman Catholic schools were used, and the non-existence of any system by which Roman Catholics, or any others, could be compelled to contribute for the support of schools, constitute a "right or privilege" for Roman Catholics "by practice," within the meaning of the Manitoba Act? The former of these, as will at once be seen, was a question of fact, and the latter a question of law based on the assumption which has since been proved to be well founded, that the existence of separate schools at the time of the "Union" was the fact on which the Catholic population of Manitoba must rely as establishing their "right or privilege" "by practice." The remaining question was whether, assuming the foregoing questions, or either of them, to require an affirmative answer, the enactments now under review, or either of them, affected any such "right or privilege"?

It became apparent at the outset that these questions required the decision of the judicial tribunals, more especially as an investigation of facts was necessary to their determination. Proceedings were instituted with a view to obtaining such a decision, in the Court of Queen's Bench, of Manitoba, several months ago, and in course of these proceedings the facts have easily been ascertained, and the two latter of the three questions above stated were presented for the judgment of that Court, with the arguments of counsel for the Roman Catholics of Manitoba on the one side, and of counsel for the Provincial Government on the other.

The Court has practically decided, with one dissentient opinion, that the Acts now under review do not "prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools" which Roman Catholics had by "practice at the time of the Union," or in brief, that the non-existence, at that time, of a system of public schools and the consequent exemption from taxation for the support of public schools and the consequent freedom to establish and support separate or "denominational" schools did not constitute a "right or privilege" by practice" which these Acts took away.

An appeal has been asserted and the case is now before the Supreme Court of Canada, where it will, in all probability, be heard in the course of next month.

If the appeal should be successful these Acts will be annulled by judicial decision, the Roman Catholic minority in Manitoba will receive protection and redress. The Acts purporting to be repealed will remain in operation, and those whose views have been represented by a majority of the legislature cannot but recognize that the matter has been disposed of with due regard to the constitutional rights of the province.

If the legal controversy should result in the decision of the Court of Queen's Bench being sustained the time will come for Your Excellency to consider the petitions which have been presented by and on behalf of the Roman Catholics of Manitoba for redress under sub-section (2) and (3) of section 22 of the "Manitoba Act," quoted in the early part of this report, and which are analogous to the provisions made by the "British North America Act," in relation to the other provinces.

Those sub-sections contain in effect the provisions which have been made as to all the provinces and are obviously those under which the constitution intended that the Government of the Dominion should proceed if it should at any time become necessary that the Federal powers should be resorted to for the protection of a Protestant or Roman Catholic minority against any Act or decision of the Legislature of the Province, or of any provincial authority, affecting any "right or privilege" of any such minority "in relation to education."

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. S. D. THOMPSON, Minister of Justice.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, WINNIPEG, 10th April, 1890.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit herewith the Memorial and Petition to His Excellency the Governor General in Council, of the Catholic Section of the Board of Education in and for the Province of Manitoba, signed by His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface, as President of the Catholic Section of the Board of Education, and by T. A. Bernier, Esq., Superintendent of Education for the Catholic Section, making certain representations upon and praying for the disallowance of two Bills passed during the Third Session of the Seventh Legislature of this Province, which were assented to by me on the Thirty-first ultimo, said Bills being intituled:—

"An Act respecting the Department of Education" and

"An Act respecting Public Schools."

I have, &c., JOHN SCHULTZ.

The Honourable the Secretary of State, Ottawa.

To His Excellency the Governor General in Council :-

The Petition of the Catholic Section of the Board of Education in and for the Province of Manitoba, doth hereby most respectfully represent; That Whereas previous to and at the time of the union there existed by practice in the territory, which now forms the Province of Manitoba, a system of denominational schools.

Whereas the maintenance of such system was made a condition of the union by clause 7 of the Bill of Rights upon which such union was negotiated.

Whereas, thereafter the Legislature of the Province of Manitoba has established a system of denominational schools which has been in existence since the union up to this year without being questioned or complained of.

Whereas the existence of such a system of denominational schools by practice previous to and at the time of the union, and by law since the union, has created rights and privileges in matter of education to Catholic and Protestant denominations alike.

Whereas a part of the protection afforded to all by clause 93 of the British North America Act, 1867, it has been enacted by clause xxii of the Manitoba Act,

"XXII. In and for the Province, the said Legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to education, subject and according to the following provisions:

"(1) Nothing in any such law shall prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools which any class of persons have by law or practice in the province at the Union.

"(2) An appeal shall lie to the Governor General in Council from any act or decision of the Legislature of the province, or of any provincial authority affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic minority of the Queen's subjects in relation to education;"

Whereas two bills respectively intituled "An Act respecting the Department of Education." "An Act respecting Public Schools," have been adopted by the Legislature of the Province of Manitoba, at the session closed on the 31st day of March, A.D. 1890, and whereas such legislation has prejudicially affected the rights and privileges of the Catholic minority of this Province with respect to Catholic schools, inasmuch as by said Acts the said Catholic schools of this Province are wiped out.

The Catholic section of the Board of Education in and for the Province of Manitoba, most respectfully and earnestly pray His Excellency the Governor General in Council, that said last mentioned Acts be disallowed to all intents and purposes, and your petitioners will ever pray.

ALEX., Archbishop of St. Boniface, O.M.I., President of the Catholic Section of Board of Education.

T. A. BERNIER,

Department of Education for the Catholic Section.

Winniped, 7th day of April, 1890.

OTTAWA, 26th April, 1890.

The undersigned, respectively Members of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, fully endorse the contents of the present memorial, and earnestly join in the prayer therein contained.

M. A. GIRARD, Senator.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, WINNIPEG, March 31st, 1890.

A. A. LARIVIERE, M.P. for Provencher, Man.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit herewith, copies of certain representations made to me by Honourable James E. P. Prendergast, M.P.P. for Woodlands, on behalf of the present M.P.P.'s for Carillon, Cartier, LaVerandrye, Morris, St. Boniface, and himself, regarding certain Bills, viz.:-

"An Act to provide that the English language shall be the official language of the Province of Manitoba"; "An Act respecting Public Schools"; and "An Act respecting the Department of Education," passed during the Third Session of the Seventh Provincial Legislature, to which assent was given this day by me.

I have, etc., JOHN SCHULTZ, Lieutenant-Governor.

The Honourable the Secretary of State, Ottawa.

WINNIPEG, 27th March, 1890.

SIR,—On behalf of the honourable members for Carillon, Cartier, La Verandrye, Morris, and St. Boniface, and of myself, I beg leave to respectfully represent to Your Honour that the Legislative Assembly, at this present Session, being the third of the Seventh Legislature, has passed a Bill intituled, "An Act to provide that the English language shall be the official language of the Province of Manitoba," and to most humbly submit that the said Bill is ultra vires, for reasons more fully set forth in the memorandum hereto annexed.

I have the honour to be, sir, your most humble servant, JAMES E. P. PRENDERGAST, Member for Woodlands.

To His Honour the Honourable John Schultz, Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba, etc., etc., etc., Government House, Winnipeg.

MEMORANDUM respecting a Bill, intituled, "An Act to provide that the English language shall be the official language of the Province of Manitoba."

It is submitted that Section 133 of "The British North America Act, 1867," which applies to the Parliament of Canada and the Legislature of Quebec, is similar to, and drafted in the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 23 of "The Manitoba Act application of the same words (mutatis mutandis) as clause 24 of the same words (mutatis mutatis mutandis) as clause 24 of the same words plying to the Legislature of Manitoba, and that any interpretation attaching to the former should also attach to the latter."

The British North America Act, 1867. Section 133 of the above Act reads as "Either the English or the French language may be used by any person in the debates of the House of Parliament of Canada and of the House of the Legislature of Quebec, and both these languages shall be used in the respective records or journals of those Houses, and either of those languages may be used by any person in any pleading or process. The Acts of the Parliament of Canada and of the Legislature of Quebec shall be printed and published in both languages."

The spirit which has presided to the enacting of the above clause is fully illustrated by the reports of the debate on Confederation.

Honourable Mr. Evanturel (page 943), says: "I wish to put a question to the Government. I acknowledge that if I confined myself to consulting my own ideas I should not put this question, but I do so in order to meet the wishes of several of my friends, both within this House and beyond its precincts. Those friends have expressed alarm in relation to one of the clauses of the resolutions, and have requested me to ask an explanation from the Honourable Attorney-General for Upper Canada as to the interpretation of that clause. I have therefore to ask him whether article 46 of the resolutions, which states that both the English and French language may be employed in the general Parliament and its proceedings, and in the local Legislature of Lower Canada is to be interpreted: "As placing the use of the two languages on an equal footing" in the Federal Parliament? In stating the apprehensions entertained by certain persons on this subject, I hope the Government will not impute to me any hostile intention, and will perceive that the course I adopt is to their interest, as it will give them an opportunity of dissipating the apprehensions in question." (Hear, hear.)

Honourable Attorney-General Macdonald answers as follows:-

"I have very great pleasure in answering the question put to me by my honourable friend for the County of Quebec. I may state that the meaning of one of the resolutions adopted by the Conference is this: That the right of the French Canadian members as to the status of their language, in the Federal Legislature, should be "precisely the same as they now are in the Provincial Legislature of Canada in every possible respect." I have still further pleasure in stating that the moment this was mentioned in Conference, the members of the deputation from the Lower Provinces unanimously stated that it was right and just, and without one dissentient voice gave their adhesion to the reasonableness of the proposition, that the status of the French language as regards "the procedure in Parliament, the printing of measures and everything of that kind," should precisely be the same as it is in this Legislature."

It is admitted that the only thing promised after all in the above by the Honourable the Attorney General for Upper Canada is that the French language would be placed in the Federal Parliament on the same footing it occupied then, that is, under the "Union Act."

It must be equally admitted that under the "Union Act," as originally drafted, the English language alone could be used in Parliament, and that whilst, by 11 and 12 Vic. (Imperial), the two languages were subsequently put on a par, yet, there was nothing in this amending Act making its object indefeasible, that is to say, that the use of the French language, although introduced was yet left, as to its own continuance, to the will of the majority.

Having those facts in mind, the above declarations of the Attorney General for Upper Canada were not considered sufficient, and at the next page of the Debates,

Hon. (now Sir) A. A. Dorion is reported as saying:

"If to-morrow the Legislature chooses to vote that no other but the English language should be used in our proceedings, it might do so, and thereby forbid the use of the French language. There is, therefore, no guarantee for the continuance of the use of the language of the majority of the people of Lower Canada, but the will and forbearance of the majority of Parliament." To which the Hon, Mr. Macdonald replies: "I desire to say that I agree with my honourable friend that, as it stands just now, the majority governs, but in order to cure this it was agreed at the Conference to embody the provision in the Imperial Act. This is proposed by the Canadian Government for fear an accident might arise subsequently, and it was assented to by the deputation for each Province that the use of the French language should form one of the principles upon which the Confederation would be established, and that its use as at present should be guaranteed by the Imperial Act."

To the above declarations, affecting more the Federal Parliament, Honourable Attorney-General Cartier adds further declarations affecting the Province of Quebec, at the same page of the Debates. He is reported as saying:—

"I will add that it was also necessary to protect the English minority in Lower Canada with respect to the use of their language. The members of the Conference were desirous that it should not be in the power of the majority to decree the abolition of the English language in the Local Legislature of Lower Canada, any more than it will be in the power of the Federal Legislature to do so with respect to the use of the French language."

It is submitted that the following conclusions may legitimately be drawn

(1) That the official use of their language was solemnly guaranteed to the English-speaking minority of the Province of Quebec in the Local Legislature.

(2) That this guarantee was an indefeasible one, or (in the words of Hon. Mr. Cartier) "That it would not be in the power of the majority to decree the abolition of the Énglish language."

(3) That this privilege of the minority should not be interpreted in its narrowest sense, but (in the words of Mr. Evanturel) as placing the use of the two languages on an "equal footing," or, again, (in the words of Hon. Mr. Macdonald) "as applying to the procedure in Parliament." the printing of "measures and everything of that kind," that all the phrases in the said section of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, having as joint subjects the Federal Parliament and the Legislature of Quebec, all the declarations quoted as to the former must necessarily apply to the latter and vice versa.

Amendments to Provincial Constitutions.

In case it should be contended that the Legislature of Quebec has power to decree the abolition of the official use of the English language, by virtue of subclause one of clause 92 of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, it is respectfully submitted that the words "the Constitution of the Province," used in the said sub-clause, apply only to such matters as are mentioned and provided for in Division five (v) of the said Act, headed "V.—Provincial Constitutions." "And that the dual language claim being not contained in the said division, it is beyond the power of the Legislature of Quebec to amend it."

The Manitoba Act.

It is respectfully submitted that inasmuch as clause xxiii of the Manitoba Act is an absolute reproduction (mutatis mutandis) of clause 133 of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, the standing of the French language in Manitoba is the same as that of the English language in Quebec, and that all privileges and disabilities in connection with the latter are privileges and disabilities in connection with the former.

The B. N. A. Act, 1871.

It is further respectfully submitted that even had the Legislature of Quebec power to repeal the dual language clause of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, the Legislature of Manitoba is stopped from altering the provisions of the Manitoba Act, by 34 of 35 Vic., Cap. 28 (Imperial), also known as "The B. N. A. Act, 1871," section 6 of which reads as follows: "Except as provided by the third section of this Act, it shall not be competent for the Parliament of Canada to alter the provisions of the last mentioned Act (The Manitoba Act), subject always to the right of the Legislature of the Province of Manitoba to alter from time to time the provisions of any law respecting the certification of electors and members of the Legislative Assembly, and to make laws respecting elections in the said Province."

A Precedent.

It is further respectfully submitted, that in 1879, Hon. Mr., now Judge, Walker, then Attorney General of Manitoba, introduced in the Legislature a bill to abolish the printing in French of all public documents except the Statutes. The journals of that year show that the said Bill was read a first, second and third time, but the Schedule of Acts assented to at the close of the session shows that said Bill is not therein included, and that it was not sanctioned.

Humbly submitted,
JAMES E. P. PRENDERGAST, M. P P. for Woodlands.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE PROVINCE OF MANITOBA, WINNIPEG, 28th March, 1890.

SIR,—On behalf of the members for Carillon, Cartier, La Verandrye, Morris and St. Boniface, as well as in my own name, I beg to represent respectfully to your Honour, that the Legislative Assembly has passed during its present session, amongst others, two bills, respectively intituled "An Act respecting the Department of Education" and "An Act respecting Public Schools," and to submit most humbly that the said Bills are ultra vires for reasons more fully set forth in the memorandum herewith enclosed.

I have the honour to be, sir, your most respectful servant, JAMES E. P PRENDERGAST, M. P. P. for Woodlands.

His Honour the Hon. John Schultz, Lieut. Governor, etc., etc., Government House. Winnipeg.

Memorandum, respecting a Bill intituled: "An Act respecting the Department of Education" and a Bill intituled: "An Act respecting Public Schools."

It is respectfully submitted that the Bills above mentioned are and constitute a gross and direct violation of the rights and privileges guaranteed to the Roman Catholic minority of Her Majesty's subjects in the Province of Manitoba by section 93 of "The British North America Act, 1867" and section 22 of "The Manitoba Act." It is submitted that the first sub-clause of said section 22 of "The Manitoba Act" recognizes the law of practice followed prior to Union, as a source of indefeasible rights and privileges with respect to denominational schools. By the practice followed, the Roman Catholic denomination and in fact all the religious denominations known in the country, then enjoyed the following privileges:—

(1) They each had their denominational schools, there being in fact then no other schools than denominational schools in the country. (2) Each denomination (whether by their clergy, laymen, or otherwise) had the privilege of determining the curriculum of the course of studies to be followed in their respective schools so that the convictions and consciences of the parents were not violated by their children. (3) The practice, the general practice, was that each denomination supported its own schools.

The above practice is perfectly supported and illustrated by letters from the respective Boards of the Roman Catholic, Episcopalian, and Presbyterian denominations, as reproduced in Mr. H. T. Hind's report of the Red River Expedition, in the chapter concerning education. Whilst recognizing the supreme right of the Legislative Assembly of voting aids and subsidies, it is further submitted that prior to Union, the only monies spent for public purposes and which could in any sense be considered as public monies, were those of the Honourable Hudson Bay Company, and that it was the practice for said Company to grant yearly certain sums to the three denominations named, for their mission work, a most important part of which was their educational work. It is respectfully submitted that the said Bill respecting the Department of Education is, considered in its whole and more particularly by sections, determining the powers of, and creating the Department of Education and the Advisory Board, in violation of the rights and privileges above mentioned, and so for the said Bill respecting Public Schools, particularly by sections six, seven and eight; and by chapters headed "Compulsory Education" and "Penalties and Prohibitions" and "School Assessment." It is further respectfully submitted that by sub-clause 3 of clause 93 of "The British North America Act, 1867," and by sub-clause 2 of clause 22 of "The Manitoba Act," all Acts passed after the Union authorizing separate or denominational schools, are also recognized as a source of indefeasible rights and privileges.

That the said Bills passed during the present Session are also in this respect in violation of such rights and privileges, is evident from the fact that the said Bills expressly upset the "Manitoba School Act" now in force, and the denominational schools established thereunder, and substitute in lieu of the latter non-sectarian public common schools.

All of which is most respectfully submitted.

JAMES E. P. PRENDERGAST, M.P.P. for Woodlands.

No. 5.

WINNIPEG, April 14, 1890.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you herewith enclosed, for consideration by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, the Memorial of certain members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Manitoba, concerning two Acts respectively intituled "An Act respecting the Department of Education" and "An Act respecting Public Schools," passed by the Seventh Legislature of the said Province at their Third and now last Session.

I have the honour to be, sir, your most obedient servant,

JAMES E. P. PRENDERGAST,

A Member of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Manitoba.

To the Honourable the Secretary of State for Canada.

To the Right Honourable Sir Frederick Arthur Stanley, Baron Stanley of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in the Peerage of Great Britain, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor General of Canada, &c., &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY O

The petition of the undersigned dutiful subjects of Her Most Gracious Majesty and Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Manitoba, most humbly showeth:-

That the seventh Legislature of the Province of Manitoba, in its third Session which opened on the thirtieth day of January, A.D. 1890, and protogued on the thirty-first day of March of the same year, has passed, amongst others, two Acts respectively intituled "An Act respecting the Department of Education," a copy of which is shown in Appendix "A" hereto attached, and "An Act respecting Public Schools," a copy of which is shown in Appendix "B" also hereto attached.

That the said Act intituled "An Act respecting the Department of Education," although passed by the said Legislature as aforesaid, did not receive the approval of any of the members (whether of the Roman Catholic or Protestant persuasion) belonging to Her Majesty's Loyal Opposition in the said Legislative Assembly, as shown by a copy of the Journals of the House contained in Appendix "C" hereto attached, but, on the contrary, received the reproval of all the members of Her Majesty's said Loyal Opposition, except that of Mr. Lagimodiere, a Roman Catholic. and member for La Verandrye, who was detained from his parliamentary duties through serious illness prevailing in his family. And that the said Act intituled "An Act respecting Public Schools," although passed by the said Legislative Assembly as aforesaid, did not receive the approval of any of the members (whether of the Roman Catholic or Protestant persuasion) belonging to Her Majesty's Loyal Opposition in the said Legislative Assembly, but, on the contrary, received the reproval of all of the said members, as again shown by the copy of the Journals of the House contained in Appendix "C" hereto attached.

That the said Bills violate the sacred and constant rights of Her Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects of the Province of Manitoba, in relation to education; and that, for reasons more fully set forth in Appendix "D" hereto attached, the said Bills are ultra vires, and have been passed in defiance of the Imperial Parliament under whose sanction the British North America Act, 1867, and the British North America Act, 1871 (34-35 Vic., chap. 28), were enacted.

Your Petitioners, therefore, humbly pray that Your Excellency may be pleased to take such action and grant such relief and remedy as to Your Excellency may seem meet and just.

And Your Petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

THOMAS GELLEY, M.P.P. for Cartier. WM. LAGINODIERE, M.P.P. for La Verandrye. ROVER MARION, M.P.P. for Cypress.
ROVER MARION, M.P.P. for St. Boniface.
JAMES PRENDERGAST, M.P.P. for Woodlands.
R. E. O'MALLEY, M.P.P. for Lorne.
MARTIN JEROME, M.P.P. for Carillon.
A. F. MARTIN, M.P.P. for Morris.

Winnipeg, 14th April, 1890.

The undersigned, respectively members of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, fully endorse the contents of the present memorial, and earnestly join in the prayer therein contained.

Tuesday, 18th March, 1890. Sitting, 7.30 o'clock, p.m.

The Hon. Mr. Martin moved, seconded by the Hon. Mr. Greenway, and the question being proposed, That the rules of the House be suspended and the Bill (No. 13) respecting public schools be now read a third time, and a debate arising thereupon, and the House having continued to sit till after twelve of the clock on Wednesday morning.

Wednesday, 19th March, 1890.

The main question being put, the House divided and the names being called for they were taken down as follows:—

Yeas:

Messieurs Campbell (Souris), Campbell (South Winnipeg), Colcleugh, Crawford, Dickson, Graham, Greenway, Harrower, Hettle, Jackson, Jones, Lawrence, McKenzie, McLean, McMillan, Martin (Portage la Prairie), Mickle, Morton, Sifton, Smart, Smith, Thomson (Emerson), Thomson (Nortolk), Winkler, Young—25.

Nays:

Messieurs Gelley, Gillies, Jerome, Lagimediere, Marion, Martin (Morris), Norquay, O'Malley, Prendergast, Roblin, Wood—11.

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

Her Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects in the Province of Manitoba claim certain rights and privileges in relation to education under section 93 of the Imperial Act 30 and 31 Vic., cap 3, being the British North America Act, 1867, and under section 22 of the Act of Canada 33 Vic., cap. 3 generally known as : The Manitoba Act.'

Section 93 of the British North America Act, 1867, reads as follows:—XCIII. 'In and for each Province, the legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to education, subject and according to the following provisions:-

(2.) "All the powers, &c., &c. (applying only to Upper Canada and Quebec)."

(3.) "Where in any province a system of separate or dissentient schools exists by law at the Union or is thereafter established by the legislature of the province, an appeal shall lie to the Governor General in Council, from any Act or decision of any provincial authority affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or

Roman Catholic minority of the Queen's subjects in relation to education;

(4.) "In case any such Provincial law, as from time to time seems to the Governor General in Council requisite for the due execution of the provisions of this section is not made, or in case any decision of the Governor General in Council on any appeal under this section is not duly executed by the proper provincial authority in that behalf, then and in every such case, and as far only as the circumstances of each case require, the Parliament of Canada may make remedial laws for the due execution of the provisions of this section and of any decision of the Governor General in Council under this section."

Section 22 of the Manitoba Act, reads as follows:—

22. "In and for the said Province, the said legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to education, subject and according to the following provisions."

(1.) "Nothing in any such law shall prejudicially affect any right or privilege" with respect to denominational schools which any class of persons have by law or

practice in the Province at the Union.

(2.) "An appeal shall lie to the Governor General in Council from any Act or decision of the Legislature of the Province or of any provincial authority, affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic minority of the Queen's

subjects in relation to education;

(3.) "In case any such provincial law, as from time to time seems to the Governor General in Council requisite for the due execution of the provisions of this section, is not made, or in any case any decision of the Governor General in Council on any appeal under this section is not duly executed by the proper provincial $oldsymbol{\cdot}$ authority in that behalf, then, in every such case, and as far only as the circumstances of each case require, the Parliament of Canada may make remedial laws for the due execution of the provisions of this section, and of any decision of the Governor General in Council under this section." The words underlined in the above two sections are not in italics in the printed statutes, but are here so underlined to point out the discrepancies between the two said sections, Preliminary.

It having been repeatedly contended that the above two clauses may be altered by the Legislature of the Province, it is necessary, before studying them upon their merits, to first lay down the proposition:

That section 93 of the British North America Act, 1867, and the section 22 of the Manitoba Act, whether considered in their nature, or as affected by other clauses of the same Acts or by other Acts, cannot be altered or repealed by the Legislature of the Province.

Considered in their nature. Two things are necessary to the existence of a state; certain public bodies, legislative, judicial and coming under the general term "institutions," and giving an organic existence to the state, and a power delegated to those bodies of exercising their proper functions, hence, all the articles or provisions of a written constitution, without exception, may be divided into two classes: The first creating such public bodies or organizations, the second vesting in them certain powers.

The provisions of the first class may, or may not be, subsequently altered by the legislative authority of the state constituted, depending in this upon the intention to be gathered from the constitution as to whether it was meant that the institutions should be permanent or subject to alteration;

On the other hand, and by their very nature, the provisions of the second class, constituting invariably a delegation of powers, cannot in anyway be altered by the state, whose only prerogative is to exercise those powers within the limits and subject to the restrictions of the delegation.

This is not legal controversy, but a conclusion dictated by plain common sense. It would be superfluous to show that the clauses, quoted above, do not create institutions organic or otherwise, but merely constitute a delegation of powers which may be wide or narrow, but surely cannot be exceeded.

Considered as affected by other clauses of other Acts.

Even if it be not repugnant to the nature of that class of provisions to which the clauses quoted evidently belong, it is submitted that the Legislature of Manitoba could not alter the said clauses.

(a.) The words, "the constitution of the Province," used in clause 92 of the British North America Act, 1867, giving to provincial legislatures the power to amend, "from time to time. * * the constitution of the Province" are a clear reference to the words "Provincial Constitution" anteriorly used in the Act as the heading of chapter V. "Provincial Constitutions"; so that, in this respect, provincial legislatures are only empowered to amend such provisions as are contained in said chapter V.

(b.) Whatever may be of this power under the British North America Act, 1867, the powers of the legislature under the Manitoba Act are even more restricted, section 6 of 34 and 35 Victoria, chapter 28 (Imperial), reading as follows:-

6. "Except as provided by the third section of this Act, it shall not be competent for the Parliament of Canada to alter the provisions of the last mentioned Act. (The Manitoba Act), subject always to the rights of the Legislature of the Province of Manitoba to alter from time to time the provisions of any law respecting the qualification of electors and members of the Legislative Assembly and to make laws respecting electors in the said Provinces."

It is therefore submitted as a conclusion, that the education clauses quoted could not be altered or repealed by the Legislature of Manitoba.

It may also be added as a matter of fact, that the Legislature has not altered, nor attempted to alter the said clause.

Having then to deal with the said sections as they are, it remains to examine them upon their merits.

THE MANITOBA ACT.

XXII. "In and for the Province of Manitoba, the said legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to Education, subject and according to the following provisions."

This first paragraph, which is exactly similar to the first paragraph of clause 93 of the British North America Act, 1867, deals with the general power vested in the Legislature of passing educational laws subject to certain restrictions.

Now as to the restrictions.

Sub-clause 1.

This sub-clause only differs with sub-clause 1 of section 93 of the British North America Act, 1867, in that the words "or practice" have been added to the former.

Nothing in any such law. These words, preceding the words "shall prejudicially affect" certainly convey a much stronger sense than would the words "such laws shall not prejudicially affect." This intention to restrict as much as possible in this respect the powers of the legislature, shall be noticed throughout the whole section.

Shall prejudicially affect, or "repeal" nor deny, "abolish," nor "violate," but merely "affect." And upon reading the debates on Confederation, wherein it appears with what anxiety and particular care this question of the schools of the minorities was dealt with—a difficulty which in fact was repeatedly on the eve of proving a stumbling block to the federative compact—one may easily realize the imperative motives which withheld from the local Legislatures the power, not to go so far as to openly and grossly violate, but even to "affect" rights and privileges in connection with matters which being matters of conscience are of a so delicate and respectable character. (Debats sur la Confederation, pages 18, 146, 383, 437, 851, 884, 885, 1020, and 1021.)

Any right. The Act does not say generally "the rights," which might indicate that those rights should be considered as a whole and as resulting generally from some existing educational systems; the reference to "any right" clearly conveys a particular sense covering any particular right.

But the question has been asked: What is a right?

Bouvier's, Wharton's, and other dictionaries may be quoted in order to prove, in the words of a well known authority, that "where a right exists, a means must exist to vindicate and maintain it," and that "want of right and want of remedy are reciprocal." Going further it may be argued, as an applicant to the present case, that as prior to the union, there existed in Manitoba no educational law and consequently no legal remedy to enforce and vindicate educational rights, then, such as might be so called educational rights, were in fact no rights at all.

In order to answer this objection a distinction must be made. The sub-clause now under consideration mentions two kinds of rights: (10) rights by law, and (20) by practice.

10. The quotations above referred to are all taken from law dictionaries, and only apply to rights by law. There having been before the union no educational law, it must here be admitted that there then existed no legal means of maintaining such as are here called educational rights, although there was surely at least, under the laws and regulations of Assiniboia concerning public peace and order, a remedy to vindicate and punish a violation of most of those rights.

20. But, which is more important, the statutes also use the words "rights by practice" and to these, the definitions given by dictionaries of law terms, should not apply. It is submitted that where "practice" is so recognized by statute, it would be unreasonable to expect that a special sanction should have been provided by law at a time when the statute clearly infers there was no law.

But the question may fairly be put: What is a right held by practice, or right by practice?

The admission is here made that the connection between the words "right" and "practice" does not fully satisfy the mind. Although there is nothing repugnant between them, yet those terms, as connected, do not perhaps exactly fit each other.

But what is to be the conclusion? Is it that those words have absolutely no meaning, and must be necessarily taken as non-operative?

. It is here submitted that, unless the only conclusion to be arrived at is manifestly absurd, each word of a statute should be credited with some meaning, and supposed to have some effect. If one cannot gather from the law a meaning fully satisfactory to the exigencies of a strictly-trained legal mind, the next best thing should be looked for—and this should be good enough for practical purposes, if it be not repugnant to common sense.

Now, it is not repugnant to common sense to admit the interpretation which naturally suggests itself, i.e., that the Act recognizes as a source or fountain of rights, or elevates to the dignity of rights as we now conceive them, those constant methods of administration and those particular relations and dealings between the members of a community, which went to form a constant usage, or custom, or practice, at a time when, in this respect, there was practically no law in the land.

It may be disputed that such rights by practice as the statute contemplates, existed in Manitoba prior to union; but it cannot be said generally that "rights by practice" mean nothing, when the statute, using such words, evidently recognizes such rights.

On Privilege.—This word implies an immunity or exemption. objections may be raised here as to the want of legal immunity in connection with privileges by practice, as were raised as to the want of legal remedy in connection with rights by practice. The answer given above would here again apply.

With Respect To.—Not "any right to denominational schools" which might indicate that this right would be sufficiently protected if the general principles of denominational schools were respected; but "any right with respect to denominational schools," showing that it was intended to shield not only the rights attaching to the essential principles of denominational schools, but even those rights which are more remotely connected therewith, and the suppression of which would not necessarily entail the destruction of the system itself.

To Denominational Schools.—To what extent denominational schools existed in Assiniboia is shown further on. It may, however, be at once pointed out that a school where no denominational teaching is given would not be a denominational school.

Which Any Class of Persons.—These classes are also further on enumerated.

Have By Law.—If this last word has to be taken in the meaning of written law, no special claim is laid thereunder in this memorial. If to be taken as covering usage or custom, it shall be sufficient to consider the word "practice" following which is much wider.

Or Practice.--"Law or practice" are words seldom used in legal phraseology. The usual terms are "written or unwritten law," "law or custom," "law or usage." The departure here made from the usual terms, custom and usage, and the adoption of the rather unusual word practice, would then seem to indicate that this last term should be interpreted in its strict sense in opposition to "custom."

"Custom," of course, is a certain practice, but a practice receiving, upon certain conditions, some recognition by the law. Such are the customs and usages of certain trades in certain parts of England. "Practice," on the contrary, by itself implies no idea of law or of recognition by the law; it merely results from the assemblage of certain usual facts as facts; and in this sense it should be considered.

That the word "practice" was introduced in this sub-clause, not a majore cautela, but in order to cover and recognize the well known state of things as existed prior to union in Assiniboia, is shown.

A. By the fact that in all the Acts (except the Manitoba Act) providing after 1867 for the entry of new provinces into Confederation, sub-clause 1 of clause 93 of the British North America Act (wherefrom the word "practice" is omitted) is declared to be applicable to such provinces: whilst in the case of the Manitoba Act, and in this case only, the said sub-clause has been amended by the addition of the word "practice." Why was not this word also made to apply to the British Columbia and Prince Edward Island Acts, both passed after the Manitoba Act?

B. By the fact that all those portions of British North America (except Manitoba) which now form the Dominion, having been provinces before their entry, had regularly organized legislatures having the power to legislate in as full measure, whilst Manitoba, not being a province before its union, could pass no law in the same sense as the other provinces, and, in fact, only passed such laws as amounted to mere regulations of police, general protection and public order. When the circumstances of Manitoba, before its union, were so different from those of the other provinces before their union, how could the same enactment have been used? And when a different enactment is made, fitting exactly (as the word "practice") such particular circumstances, how can it be said that such enactment should not be taken in the precise and strict sense, making it so specially applicable?

C. By the New Brunswick schools case.

Although the legal struggle in connection with this case only commenced in 1872, the objectionable features of the question were well known at the time of the passing of the Manitoba Act. The Common Schools Act which was passed in 1871, and gave rise to the troubles, was a first time introduced in the New Brunswick Legislature in 1869 and again in 1870, and defeated on both occasions. New Brunswick Legislature, April, 1869, and February, 1870.)

As far back as 1869 the question created very considerable agitation. (Sessional papers of Canada, Vol. x, No. 9, 1877, page 360, par. 3, and page 363, par. 1.)

Now, upon what did the whole question hinge?

The Sessional Papers, quoted fully, answer this question:—
"The Act complained of (the Common Schools Act, 1871) is an Act relating to common schools, and the Acts repealed by it apply to parish, grammar, superior and common schools." No reference is made in them to separate, dissentient or denominational schools, and the undersigned does not, on examination, findthat "any statute of the province exists establishing such special schools." (Report of Minister of Justice, page 36 L.)

"In order to render any law of a provincial legislature inoperative under the 1st sub-section of Section 93, it is requisite that there should in such province have been at the union, denominational schools with respect to which a certain class of persons had rights or privileges, and that those rights or privileges should have been secured by law.

"This would seem to lead at once to the consideration of the laws in force in New Brunswick at the union, for the purpose of determining whether the Roman Catholics had by such laws any rights or privileges with respect to denominational schools." (Memo. of Executive Council of N.B., page 377.)

"Inasmuch, then, as in New Brunswick at the union, and at the time of the passing of the Common Schools Act, 1871, the Roman Catholics had by law no rights or privileges with respect to denominational schools, nothing in the Common Schools Act can have deprived them of rights or privileges which they did not previously enjoy.

"It is stated that under the school law in force at the union and up to the passing of the Common Schools Act, 1871, the Catholics were enabled, whenever their numbers were sufficiently large, to establish schools in which a good religious and secular education was afforded.

"No such right existed under the law; nothing in the Parish Schools Act of 1858 prevented the establishment of private schools outside of the law, as nothing in the Common Schools Act, 1871, prevents the establishment of similar schools. An irregular and defective administration of the law might tolerate illegal practices, and allow parties to derive unwarrantable advantages in violation of the law, but privileges enjoyed in violation of the law cannot give rights under the law." (Idem, page 385.)

"We have now to determine whether any class of persons had, by law in this province, any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools at the union which are prejudicially affected by the Common Schools Act, 1871. This renders it necessary that we should with accuracy and precision ascertain exactly what the state of the law was with reference to denominational schools * * * * " (Judgment of Supreme Court of New Brunswick, page 411.)

"The Parish Schools Act, 1858, clearly contemplated the establishment throughout the province of public common schools for the benefit of the inhabitants of the province generally; and it cannot, we think, be disputed that the governing bodies under the Act were not in any one respect or particular denominational." (Idem. page 411.)

"The schools established under this Act (1858) were then public, parish or district schools, not belonging to or under the control of any particular denomination, neither had any class of persons nor any one denomination, whether Protestant or Catholic, any rights or privileges in the government or control of the schools, that did not belong to every other class or denomination, in fact to every other inhabitant of the parish or district; neither had any one class of persons or denomination, nor any individual, any right or privilege to have any peculiar religious doctrines or tenets exclusively taught, or taught at all in any such school. What is there, then, in this Act to make a school established under it a denominational school, or to give it a denominational character?" (Idem, page 412.)

"The simple question for solution is: does the Common Schools Act, 1871, prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools, which any class of persons had by law in the Province at the Union." (Idem, page 422.)

"There were several denominational schools in existence at the Union, such as the Varley School, in St. John, the Sackville Academy, the Madras School, and the like; but they are not touched by the Common Schools Act, 1871, they remain in the enjoyment of all the rights they had at the Union." (Idem, page 423.)

The New Brunswick case may then be summed up as follows:

* 1. There existed by law in New Brunswick, prior to the Union, certain denominational academies; but the Common Schools Act, 1871, applying only to common schools did not affect such academies.

2. Although such existed by practice, no denominational common schools existed by law in New Brunswick prior to the Union nor at any other time, so that the Common Schools Act, 1871, in providing that "all schools shall be non-sectarian," only repeated in this (far from violating it) what had always been and was yet the

In one word the claims of the Roman Catholics of New Brunswick fell short from the fact that the British North America Act does not recognize "practice prior to Union" as a source of rights and privileges.

But this word "practice" has been inserted in the corresponding clause of the Manitoba Act, and it is submitted that it was so inserted clearly in order to obviate difficulties similar to that of the New Brunswick case.

This comment of the word "practice" closes the considerations on the first sub-section.

SUB-SECTION 2.

The first discrepency between this sub-section and the British North America Act, 1867, lies in the suppression in the former of the three first lines to be found in the latter.

The first three lines read as follows -

3. "Where in any province a system of separate or dissentient schools exists by law at the Union or is thereafter established by the Legislature of the Province,"-

The British North America Act, having to provide in a general clause for the different circumstances of the Provinces which were then entering and might later on enter Confederation, very properly used the alternate proposition "where-or

But in the Manitoba Act, providing for the immediate entry of one Province, the past circumstances of which were either one way or the other, it is clear that the same form of an alternative proposition could not logically be used.

But the question then arises Does the absence of some other form of alternative proposition in sub-clause 2 of the Manitoba Act debar the citizens thereof from appealing to His Excellency in Council, on the one hand upon grounds of rights' existing by law before the Union, and on the other hand upon grounds of rights resulting from legislative Acts passed thereafter?

The answer here submitted is in the negative.

The Manitoba Act provides for an appeal from "any Act or decision affecting any right or privilege" in the widest possible terms.

Again by the British North America Act all the Provinces (whether originally or subsequently incorporated to Confederation) enjoy this most essential right of an appeal from any Act or decision affecting any right or privilege in connection with separate or dissentient schools established by the legislature after the Union.

Manitoba would be the only Province debarred in this respect from this essential right of appeal. As an example: In the event of the local executive having arbitrarily administered and violated, say a year ago, the (denominational) Schools Act of 1881, the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba would have been the only minority in Confederation debarred from an appeal under such circumstances.

This is repugnant, and more so as the Manitoba Act was passed to extend and continue (and not to curtail in any sense, especially not in its general provisions) the British North America Act, 1867.

But more, sub-clause 2 of the Manitoba Act is more definite, much clearer and perhaps stronger than the corresponding sub-clause of the British North America

When the Roman Catholics of New Brunswick, under sub-clause 3 of the British North America Act, appealed to the Governor General in Council from the Common Schools Act, 1871, it was contended by the Executive Council of that Province (same Sessional Papers, page 387) that the words from any act or decision of any provincial authority rather pointed to matters of administration, as for instance, to the acts or decisions of the Executive authority.

This point has never been settled, so that in this respect the British North America Act is yet somewhat under a cloud.

But in the case of Manitoba care has been taken to dispel such ambiguity, and certain words have been added to sub-clause 2 of the Manitoba Act, which reads: "From any Act or decision of the Legislature of the Province, or of any provincial authority."

It is most remarkable indeed that, according to the reports of the case, but two slight additions to clause 93 of the British North America Act (being "practice" in paragraph 1, and of the Legislature of the Province, in sub-clause 3) should have been needed to make the pretensions of the Roman Catholics of New Brunswick admittedly unassailable on all grounds, and that the addition of these very words in the Manitoba Act are the only discrepancies between this Act and the British North America Act.

Sub-section 3.

Nothing shall be said of this sub-section, only that it seems to have been intended as a sub-division of sub-clause 2.

Before closing these considerations upon this part of the law, it may be well, in order to show in what spirit the same was enacted by the Imperial Parliament, to quote the words pronounced by the Earl of Carnarvon in the House of Lords (19th February, 1867), when the educational clause of the British North America Bill was under discussion.

His Lordship says:-

"Lastly. in the 93rd clause which contains the exceptional provisions to which I referred, your lordships will observe some rather complicated arrangements in reference to education. I need hardly say that that great question gave rise to nearly as much earnestness and division of opinion, on that, as on this side of the Atlantic. This clause has been framed after long and anxious controversy, in which all parties have been represented, and or conditions to which all have given their consent.

"It is an understanding, which as it only concerns the local interests affected is not one that Parliament would be willing to disturb, even if in the opinion of Parliament it were susceptible of amendment, but I am bound to add, as the expression of my opinion, that the terms of the agreement appear to me to be equitable and judicious. For the object of the clause is to secure to the religious minority of one Province the same rights, privileges and protection which a religious minority of another Province may enjoy. The Roman Catholic minority of Upper Canada, the Protestant minority of Lower Canada, and the Roman Catholic minority of the Maritime Provinces, will thus stand on a footing of entire equality. But; in the event of any wrong at the hand of the local majority, the minority have a right to appeal to the Governor General in Council, and may claim the application of any remedial laws that may be necessary from the Central Parliament of the Confederation."

Having then endeavoured to show that any act violating such rights as may have been consecrated by practice prior to the Union. would be null; and that any act violating such rights and privileges as may have been established or recognized by laws after the Union, would be subject to an appeal to the Governor General in Council, it is now proper to ascertain, 1st. What was the practice followed prior to Union? 2nd. What acts have been passed after Union, and what rights and privileges may have resulted from such practice and such acts?

PRACTICE PRIOR TO UNION AND RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES THEREUNDER.

The correspondence of Monseigneur Plessis, Bishop of Quebec, that of Earl Selkirk, of Monseigneur Provencher and of Monseigneur Taché, Bishops of St. Boniface, will illustrate the condition of education in the Red River settlement long before the Union.

As far back as 1819, Mr. (since Bishop) Provencher opened at St. Boniface a school where catechism and reading were taught, and the following year, Latin elements were added to the curriculum.

On the 2nd day of July, 1825, the chief factors of the Hudson Bay Company, assembled in Council at York Factory, passed the following resolution:

Great benefit being experienced from the benevolent and "indefatigable exertions of the Catholic Mission at Red River, in promoting the welfare and moral and religious instruction of its numerous followers, and it being observed, with much satisfaction, that the influence of the Mission under the direction of the Right Reverend Bishop of Juliopolis, has been uniformly directed to the best interest of the settlement and of the country at large, it is resolved: That, in order to mark our approbation of such laudable and disinterested conduct on the part of said mission, it be recommended to the Hon. Committee, that a sum of fifty pounds per annum be given towards its support, &c., &c."

In 1829, a school for girls was established at Saint Boniface.

In 1838, an industrial school conducted by experts from Quebec, and where sewing, knitting and weaving specially were taught, was also established at Saint Boniface.

The arrival of the sisters of Charity in 1844 marks the beginning of more improved schools for girls in the Colony.

The actual College of Saint Boniface and Ladies' Academy, were also founded long before the Union But it is better to invoke upon this matter the authority of public documents, and the following quotations were taken from a Narrative of the Canadian Red River Expedition of 1857 and the Assiniboine and Saskatchewan Exploring Expedition of 1858, by Henry Youle Hind, M.A., F.R.G.S., Professor of Chemistry and Geology in the University of Trinity College, Toronto. (London, Longman, Green, Longman, and Brothers, 1860.)

The expedition was organized and despatched by the Canadian Government, and the report was of course made officially.

Under the title "The Missions at Red River" chapter 9 of the "Narrative" begins thus;—

"There are three denominations in Assiniboia; Church of England, Presbyterian, and Roman Catholic."

Further (page 194) it says:-

"In 1856, the census, according to religion, stood thus:

Roman Catholic, 534 families, 3 churches. Episcopalian, 488 families, 4 churches.

Presbyterian, 60 families and 2 churches.

It will be found important later on, to quote the following from pages 208 & 209:

"There is a distinct and well preserved difference in faith between the populations of the different Parishes into which the settlement is divided. almost exclusively Protestant, others equally Roman Catholic. In the Parish of St. Norbert there is not one Protestant family, but 101 Roman Catholic families. In the Parish of Saint Boniface there are 178 Roman Catholic families and five Protestant; so also in the Parish of Saint Francois Xavier on the Assiniboine, there are 175 Roman Catholic to three Protestant families. On the other hand, in the Parish of St. Peter, there are 116 Protestant to two Roman Catholic families; and in the Parishes of Upper and Lower Saint Andrews there are 206 Protestant to eight Roman Catholic families."

Under the heading "Education in the settlement" and sub-heading "Condition of Education at Red River," chapter 10 begins thus:—

"Education is in a far more advanced state in the Colony than its isolation and brief career might claim for it under the peculiar circumstances in which the country has been so long placed."

"There are seventeen schools in the settlement, generally under the supervision of the ministers of the denomination to which they belong."

Further on, page 215:-

"The Roman Catholic schools are three in number, one of them occupying a very spacious and imposing building near the church of Saint Boniface, and providing ample accommodation for female boarders.

"All of the foregoing establishments are independent of the sunday schools, properly so called, in connection with the different churches."

Speaking of the Church of England Schools, and quoting from a letter from His Lordship the Bishop of Rupert's Land, the report adds (pages 216, 218 and 219):—

"Within these boundaries the schools connected with the church of England are thirteen. The thirteen are exclusive of the two higher academies for young ladies and for boys. In the collegiate school, many of the pupils make very good progress. The sources of income vary much; ten out of the thirteen schools are connected with the Church Missionary Society. The model training master is entirely paid by them, and also the masters of the pure Indian schools. In the other schools, about one half may be paid by the Society, sometimes less, and the rest made up by the parents of the children."

"The sum paid by the parents is 15s. a year; where latin is taught, one pound. In some parishes they prefer to pay the pound, or 30s. a family, and to send as many as they choose for that sum."

"The parochial school connected with my own church is equal to most parochial schools which I have known in England.'

Speaking later of Presbyterian schools, the narrative quotes a letter from Rev. John Black, a Presbyterian Minister at Red River, from which the following passages (pages 219 and 220) are extracted -

"First, then, as to the school; this is entirely supported by the people of the district, or rather by those of them who send their children to it?"

"You are aware that we have no public school system in the colony, and this, like the rest, is therefore essentially a denominational school."

On the subject of Catholic schools, the report similarly quotes a letter from His Grace the Bishop of Saint Boniface, parts of which (220 and 221) read as follows:

"The parishes on the banks of Red River and the Assiniboine are four in number; Saint Boniface, Saint Norbert, Saint-François-Xavier and Saint Charles. Fiftyeight children receive education in the school of the Brothers of the Christian Doctrine, in the parish of Saint-Boniface. In the convent belonging to the Sister's of Charity, commonly known in Canada as the Grey Nuns, twenty young ladies are boarded, and receive an excellent education, suitable to their station in life. Besides the boarders, the Sisters maintain and educate fifteen poor orphan girls, and keep a day school for the benefit of the poorer portion of the parishioners. In the parish of Saint-Norbert, thirty-one boys and twenty-nine girls attend the schools kept by a priest and the Sisters of Charity. In the parish of Saint-François-Xavier, thirteen boys and twenty-six girls receive instruction from the Sisters of Charity. In the parish of Saint Charles there is no school or chapel."

"The truth is that, but for the unselfish zeal of some who devote themselves without fee or earthly reward to this arduous and meritorious task, it would be absolutely impossible to keep up the schools. So far scarcely one child in ten has paid for his schooling, although the charge does not exceed ten shillings per annum."

It is then submitted, as a matter of fact, that in Assiniboia, prior to union:—

1st. There were schools.

2nd. The schools (exclusive of Sunday schools) were either elementary or collegiate, the former being by far the more numerous.

3rd. All the schools were denominational, being Church of England, Presbyterian, or Roman Catholic.

4th. They were denominational in the sense that they were the property of their respective denominations, maintained for their respective benefit and with their respective resources, managed by their respective representatives, and attended respectively by their children.

5th. All the schools were denominational in this other and essential sense that they imparted the particular religious teachings of their respective denominations, without which they would not have been denominational.

6th. The schools were (page 214) "generally under the supervision of the ministers of the denomination to which they belonged," and this was invariably so for Roman Catholic schools.

7th. The children of the one denomination, and more strictly so for Roman Catholics, attended only the schools of their respective denomination, and in fact, by the grouping of the different elements of the population (page 203), it could hardly be otherwise.

8th. The people contributed to the schools of their respective denominations and to those only.

It would of course be unreasonable to claim to-day under the statute, a system of schools which would be, in its most minute details, an absolute reproduction or copy of the system existing by practice prior to Union.

But in this system as sketched above, is found the application of certain principles constantly held as essential by Roman Catholics, and inseparable from what may be fairly termed a system of denominational schools.

Leaving, then, the lesser features aside, the Roman Catholic subjects of Her Majesty in Manitoba, claim to-day as resulting from the practice followed prior to Union, the following essential rights and privileges with respect to education:—

1st. The right to establish through their due representatives as Catholics (whether an appointed or elected Catholic board or Catholic committee or otherwise)—or that, the state do so establish wherever needed for the educational advancement of the Roman Catholic population and subject to certain reasonable requirements as to the number of the Roman Catholic population of school age, Christian Schools, i.e., schools where, alongside with secular branches, the principles of christian morals and religious truths are fully taught.

2nd. The right to determine through their representatives as aforesaid, or that the state do determine, subject to their approval, the particular character of such principles of morals and religious truths to be taught in such schools, and that the same apply to the selection of books and authors on those matters which, although secular, may have, (as history) some influence on the religious training of the pupil.

3rd. The right that the moral and religious training aforesaid, as well as the particular secular branches above referred to, be taught by professors fully competent in the spirit and sense of the preceding paragraph; and, in order to attain that end, that such teachers be certificated by the Roman Catholic representatives as aforesaid, or by the State, upon an examination to be determined by the Roman Catholics through their representatives as aforesaid, as far at least as the matters above mentioned are concerned.

Provided always that such right be not incompatible with certain regulations of a general, fair and undenominational character which the State may make to enhance the general efficiency of, and determine a general standard for all the schools of the Province.

4th. The privilege of being free, under all circumstances from compulsory attendance at schools other than such as are established, regulated and managed as aforesaid.

5th. The privilege of being free under all circumstances from any compulsory contribution to any other school than as aforesaid.

THE LAW AFTER THE UNION AND RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES CLAIMED THEREUNDER.

Leaving aside the two educational Acts passed at the last Session (February and March, 1890) and here complained of, the Acts passed by the Legislature of Manitoba respecting education are—34 Vic., cap. 12 (1871); 42 Vic., cap. 11 (1879); cap. 62 of Con. Stat. (1880); and 44 Vic., cap. 4 (1881).

Although, besides these, some twenty amending Acts have been passed in the course of twenty years, yet, it may strictly be said that the same principles have constantly been recognized and consecrated ever since 1871, and that in no instance has an attempt been made in the legislature to curtail the rights enjoyed by the Roman Catholic population of Manitoba.

Taking then, the Manitoba Schools Act of 1881 (44 Vic., cap. 4) which was in force at the time of the passing of the two Acts here complained of, the general principles of the system existing by law since 1871 up to March, 1890, may be enumerated as follows:—

1st, A Board of Education composed of Protestants as Protestants and of Catholics as Catholics (Sec. 1).

2nd. The two sections of the said Board, one to be Protestant composed of the Protestant members, and one Catholic composed of the Catholic members (Sec. 5).

3rd. Each section having power: (a) to control and administer its own schools and to pass by-laws for the administration and general discipline thereof, and for the carrying out of the provisions of the law, (c) to choose all books, maps and globes to be used in its schools, provided that all books concerning religion and morals be first approved of by the competent religious authority; (e) to pass by-laws respecting the formation and alteration of school districts under its control. (Sec. 5.)

4th. One Protestant member of the Board appointed as Superintendent of the Protestant section, and one Catholic member of the Board appointed as Superintendent of the Catholic section (section 9), each Superintendent being the chief executive officer of his section, and being entrusted with the general supervision of the schools of such section. (Sub-section B.)

5th School districts to be formed according to by-laws passed by the said sections

(Section 5 amended by 47 Vic., cap 37, Sec. 1).

6th. School Trustees to be bodies corporate under the name "The School Trustees for the Protestant School District of "or "The School Trustees for the Roman Catholic School District of "(Sec. 34 amended by 43 Vic., cap. 37. sec. 53.)

7th None but Protestants to be elected as Trustees for and qualified to vote in Protestant School Districts, and none but Catholics to be elected as Trustees for, and qualified to vote in Catholic School Districts. (Sec. 30 amended by 47 Vic., cap. 37. sees. 5 and 7, sec. 30; sec. 53.)

8th. Teachers in the schools of one section to be first recognized or certificated by such section. (Sec. 5; sub-sec. B.)

9th. Inspectors appointed by each section for its particular schools. • (Sec. 5, sub-sec D.)

10th. No Protestants compelled to pay for Catholic schools, and no Catholics compelled to pay for Protestant schools. (Sec. 30.)

11th. By-laws passed by School Trustees concerning compulsory attendance to be first approved of by the proper section. (Sec. 101.)

12th. The Legislative school grant annually divided between the two sections upon the basis of their respective population of school age. (Sec. 34.)

Her Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects in Manitoba claim under the law-passed after the Union, as above summarized, the same rights and privileges in relation to education as have been claimed and specified in the preceding division under practice prior to Union, adding thereto the following:-

(a.) The right not only that they shall not be interfered with by the law in the sense that the law does not interfere with private enterprise not contrary to public order, but also to have a status before the law, or to hold under the law the essential powers for the carrying out of the principles aforesaid, whether such powers be vested in a Catholic section of education and Boards of Catholic Trustees as up to the present, or in other bodies equally representative.

(b.) The right for such Catholic School Districts as existed at the passing of the two Acts here complained of, to continue in their legal existence hereafter, with such powers as they possessed and subject to such regulation of the Catholic section as existed at the time of the passing of the two said Acts here complained of.

THE TWO ACTS COMPLAINED OF VIOLATE THE RIGHTS HEREINBEFORE SPECIFIED.

It may be first remarked that the Public Schools Act complained of does not merely repeal all Acts or parts of Acts contrary to its dispositions (which might possibly be interpreted as yet allowing some parts of the denominational system to continue in existence); but that clause 132 thereof repeals in toto and specifically all the then existing Educational Acts.

The Roman Catholic minority is then deprived of all such rights and privileges as they possessed under "The Manitoba Schools Act, 1881," unless such rights and privileges are re-enacted in "The Public Schools Act" complained of.

Every Section of the Manitoba School Act points out clearly that the system thereunder was strictly denominational even in its most minute details. This Act, and the system at the same time, has been abrogated. Now is there one single clause in the Public Schools Act re-establishing such system either wholly, or at least in some of its essential principles? Surely not.

The Roman Catholic minority, represented by the Catholic section of the Board of Education and by their Boards of Catholic trustees, had under the Manitoba Schools Act, a status recognized by law; and they held from this law and could exercise under the sanction of the law, the powers necessary to the carrying out of their schools. The Manitoba Schools Act giving them such powers, is repealed. Now, what clause of the common Schools Act replaces them in such status, and revests in them such powers?

Roman Catholics where sufficiently numerous, had under the Manitoba Schools Act the right to organize themselves in Roman Catholic school districts, and to erect and enjoy therein a denominational Roman Catholic school; and they held from the law, through their trustees the necessary powers for the management of such schools; power to sue and be sued, to assess and collect under the sanction of the law, not only as citizens but as a public body.

Now, under the Common School Act, can Roman Catholics hereafter establish denominational schools recognized by law? How can a Catholic Board or any other Catholic educational body be established and enjoy the usual rights of corporate bodies? How can they assess and collect under the authority and protection of the law?

It may perhaps be said, "Roman Catholics had formerly the right to establish and manage Roman Catholic schools, and they have the right now if they wish to exercise it as a matter of individual and private enterprise." As well repeal a private Act incorporating (say) a milting company, and say to the shareholders thereof; "You have yet the right to carry on milling operations as a matter of private and individual enterprise, you consequently enjoy the same rights as before." It is clear that in both cases, a recognition by the law and the enjoyment of corporate powers are in themselves most essential and precious rights and privileges.

Here the Public School Act violates, not only the educational rights of Roman Catholics, but also their most elementary rights of property.

Sections 179 and 180 of the Public School Act, provide that where, before the passing of the Act, a Roman Catholic school district was established covering the same territory as any Protestant school district, then, upon the coming into force of the Act, all the assets of the Roman Catholic school district shall belong to, and the liabilities thereof be paid by, the public school district.

Thus in the city of Winnipeg, which is covered as well by a Protestant as by a Catholic school district, the arrears of taxes, buildings and equipments of the Catholic trustees—who have no debt—shall, upon the coming into force of the Act, become the property of the public school district.

Further, as the words "covering the same territory" above used, may be interpreted as applying not only to the case where a Protestant and a Roman Catholic district are comprised within the same limits, but also to the case where one district covers part of another, (which would apply to the much greater number of Roman Catholic school districts) then, if such interpretation he good, the property of the majority of the now existing Catholic districts shall, upon the coming into force of the Act, become the property of the public school district.

The Roman Catholics having always had the property of their schools, this is evidently a violation of their rights under practice prior to Union, as well as of their rights under the law passed after the Union.

The general rule is, that when an act is repealed, all things lawfully done thereunder remain good and binding, and all bodies lawfully constituted thereunder continue in existence. Thus, the town of St. Boniface, incorporated by letters patent under "The Towns Corporation Act," continues in existence, although such Act has been repealed.

Can it be said that, although the Manitoba Schools Act is repealed, the Roman Catholic School Districts existing thereunder are yet allowed by the Public School

Act to continue in existence? It is submitted not.

1. Certain Roman Catholic school districts are wiped out. Section 178 and 179 of the Public Schools Act provide: That where, before the passing of the Act, Roman Catholic school districts have been established, covering the same territory as any Protestant school district, then, upon the coming into force of the Act, such Catholic school district shall cease to exist.

The city of Winnipeg being for one, in that case, as aforesaid, it is evident that this clause means the abolition at least of the Roman Catholic schools of that city.

2 The greater number of Roman Catholic school districts are wiped out. As the words "covering the same territory" used in the third line before last of the preceding paragraphs, may be interpreted as applying, not only to the case where a Protestant and a Roman Catholic district are comprised within the same limits, but also to the case where one district covers part of another (which applies to the greater of Roman Catholic school districts in the Province), then, if such interpretation be good, the greater number of Roman Catholic school districts are abolished by the Public Schools Act.

3. All the Roman Catholic school districts of the Province are virtually abolished.

Section 3 of the Public Schools Act provides that, All Protestant and Catholic School Districts existing when the Act comes into force shall be subject to the provisions of the Act.

It cannot be said that the words "subject to provisions of the Act" here mean "Subject to such provisions as are specially liable to such districts." As there are no such provisions in the Act made specially applicable to Protestant and Roman Catholic districts, not even for the purpose of wiping them out, then all such districts would remain in existence; and there being now in Manitoba but two classes of school districts; the Protestant and the Roman Catholic, covering pretty well the whole of the Province, then the Act would be inoperative, as applying to nothing, unless it be contended that it intends to establish Public School districts without disturbing either Protestant or Catholic districts, which is absurd from the reading of the Act.

The words "Subject to the provisions of this Act" then mean "Subject to the general provisions of the Act.'

One of these provisions being (Sec. 3) that all Public Schools shall be non-sectarian, it is evident that all Protestant and Roman Catholic Schools are abolished, and turned into Public non-sectarian schools.

To abolish all Roman Catholic Schools and turn them into non-sectarian schools is surely to deprive them of rights and privileges which they enjoyed with respect to denominational schools by practice at the Union, as well as of those rights relating to separate schools recognized by the laws passed after the Union.

The effect of the clauses above referred to is to deprive the Roman Catholic minority of the rights they enjoyed both before and after the Union. But sections 89 and following of the Public Schools Act go further; they imply a compulsion, and directly violate the privileges of Her Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects enjoyed both before and after the Union.

Before Union, the practice was that Roman Catholics supported Roman Catholic schools and these only, and the same principle is confirmed by clause 30 of the Manitoba School Act which provides that: "In no case shall a Protestant ratepayer be compelled to pay for a Catholic school, nor a Catholic ratepayer for a Protestant school,"

Now, clause 89 and following, of the Public Schools Act, provide for compulsory assessment of all the property in the public school district; and Section 93 provides that: "The taxable property in a municipality for school purposes, shall include all property liable to municipal taxation,"

It may be further remarked that as religious exercises in public schools (Section 6), teachers (Section 127), teachers' certificate (Section 31), inspectors (135) and in fact the whole working of the Public Schools Act, is subject to the control and management of a Department of Education and an Advisory Board the creation of which is not provided for in the said Public Schools Act, the provisions relating to such matters may be more or less objectionable, according to the nature and composition of such Department of Education and Advisory Board. Considering the Public Schools Act by itself, the provisions above referred to are found objectionable by Catholics at least as being a departure from their rights to manage their schools through persons representing their religious convictions, and as offering no guarantee that their conscientious scruples in the teaching of their children shall be respected.

If clause 18 had been omitted therefrom, it could hardly be said that the "Act respecting the Department of Education" is ultra vires as violating the éducational rights and privileges of Roman Catholics.

The Legislature evidently has the right to establish in the proxince a system of public schools, provided the same does not interfere with Roman Catholic schools.

In view of the establishing later on such a system of public schools, the Legislature has evidently the further right to create a Department of Education and Advisory Board or such other body as may be thought proper, for the administration and management of such public schools.

Leaving aside clause 18, the Act does not seem to go further, and the fact of providing for the management of Provincial, Model, Normal, and Public Schools does not at all imply the abolishment of Protestant and Roman Catholic Schools.

But section 18 provides for the extinction of the Board of Education (and consequently of the Catholic section) and substitutes nothing in lieu thereof for the working of Roman Catholic Schools—Roman Catholics are hereby deprived of that organization which they had under the Manitoba Schools Act, deprived of all educational organization, and in fact left in the impossibility of carrying out any system of schools as a system.

More, all the property of the Board (and consequently that of the Catholic section) is ordered to be delivered up to the Provincial Secretary.

It is submitted that the Catholic section cannot be so deprived of its property. If it is represented that the Roman Catholics are not left without educational organization by the abolition of the Catholic section inasmuch as the effect of said clause 18 is to substitute the Department of Education "and the Advisory Board" in lieu of the said Catholic section, then it is submitted that the said Department and Board in the composition of which it is not provided that a single Roman Catholic shall enter, cannot be acceptable to Roman Catholics, and that their establishment for the conduct and management of all the schools of the Province is a violation of the right possessed by Roman Catholics both before and after Union to manage and administer their own schools through persons or bodies representing their religious convictions.

The Act respecting the Department of Education is also complained of, upon the same grounds as above, inasmuch as it may affect the Roman Catholic Normal Schools of the Province.

No. 6.

(Translation.)

BISHOP'S RESIDENCE, THREE RIVERS, 12th May, 1890.

Hon. J. A. CHAPLEAU, Secretary of State, Ottawa.

SIR,—The unjust law which the Manitoba Government have caused to be adopted against the Catholic and French-speaking population of that province, abolishing separate schools and the official use of the French language, went into force on the 1st May instant. The protests of the minority, so unworthily treated by this infamous law, have been laid before the Dominion Government in order to secure its disallowance and the protection guaranteed them under the constitution. I trust the Government, of which you are a leading member, will lend a favourable ear to this appeal to its authority, and protect the rights of that minority by disallowing this Act, which has been characterized as persecution by Protestants themselves. The manliness with which you repelled a similar attempt in the North-West Territories inspires me with confidence that you will not fail to take a firm stand in this case also. The federal compact was invoked to maintain the abolition of separate schools in New Brunswick a few years ago, and nevertheless, the Catholic ministers, who were then members of the Dominion Government, declared to the Bishops that they were prepared to resign on that question, and it was only through respect for the autonomy of the provinces that that iniquitous law was then tolerated.

To-day it is in the name of the federal compact that the Manitoba minority ask for protection against an unjust law, which is a violation of the federal compact, for that compact guarantees the official use of the French language on the same footing as the English language, and the maintenance of separate schools, conditions without which the Catholic and French-speaking people of Manitoba would never have consented to enter into confederation; now that is the guarantee which the Hon. F. Martin's Act has recently trampled under foot, while unjustly, and without a shadow of pretext, depriving that minority of a right which every people holds most sacred, the right of preserving the language and the faith of their fathers.

I am confident, therefore, that the Ministers charged with the care of our religious and national interests in the Dominion Government, will to-day exhibit the same firmness as their predecessors, and that they will succeed in convincing their colleagues that if they desire to maintain a good understanding between the divers races, and insure peace and stability of Confederation, they must do justice to the minority in Manitoba, and protect them against the iniquitous persecution inflicted-upon them by the majority at the instigation of a few fanatics.

In my humble opinion this is a far more serious matter than the Riel question, inasmuch as it involves a direct violation of sentiments dearest to the heart of man, his love for his native tongue and his religion.

Trusting that no Catholic French-Canadian member of the Government will, in the face of the country, take the responsibility of supporting a law so evidently unjust and hostile to our nationality,

1 remain, &c.,

L. F., Bishop of Three Rivers.

No. 7.

To the Right Honourable Sir Frederick Abthur Stanley, Baron Stanley of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; Knight Grand Cross, of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor General of Canada, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,-

To allow the undersigned Roman Catholic Archbishop of Manitoba, to lay re-pectfully before Your Excellency the following observations and requests:

Previous to the transfer of the North-West Territories to the Dominion of Canada, there prevailed a great uneasines amongst the inhabitants of the said territories, with regard to the consequences of the transfer. The Catholic population especially, mostly of French origin, thought they had reason to foresee grievances on account of their language and their religion, if there were no special guarantee given, as to what they considered their rights and privileges. Their apprehensions gave rise to such an excitement that they resorted to arms, not athrough a want of loyalty to the Crown, but only through mere distrust towards Canadian authorities, which were considered as trespassing in the country previous to their acquisition of the same.

Misguided men joined together to prevent the entry of the would-be Lieutenant Governor. The news of such an outbreak was received with surprise and regret, both in England and Canada. All this took place in the autumn of 1870.

I was in Rome at the time, and at the request of the Canadian authorities, I left the (Ecumenical Council to come and help the pacification of the country.* On my way home, I spent a few days in Ottawa. I had the honour of several interviews with Sir John Young, then Governor General, and with his ministers. I was repeatedly assured that the rights of the people of Red River would be fully guarded under the new regime, that both Imperial and Federal authorities would never permit the new comers in the country to encroach on the liberties of the old settlers, that on the banks of the Red River as well as on the banks of the St. Lawrence, the people would be at liberty to use their mother tongue, to practice their religion and to have their children brought up according to their views. On the day of my departure from Ottawa, His Excellency handed to me a letter, a copy of which I attach to this as Appendix A, and in which are repeated some of the a-surances given verbally "The people," says the letter, "may rely that respect and attention will be extended to the different religious persuasions"

The Governor General, after mentioning the desire of Lord Granville, "to avail of my assistance from the outset," gave me a telegram he had received from the Most Honourable the Secretary of the Colonies, which I attach to this as Appendix B, and in which His Lordship expressed the desire that the Governor General would take "every care to explain where there is a misunderstanding, and to ascertain the wants and conciliate the good-will of all the settlers of the Red River."

I was, moreover, furnished with a copy of the proclamation issued by His Excellency on the 6th December, 1869, which I attach to this as Appendix C. In this proclamation we read: "Her Majesty commands me to state to you that she will be always ready through me as Her Representative, to redress all well-founded grievances," and any complaints that may be made, or desires that may be expressed to me as Governor General. By Her Majesty's authority, I do therefore assure you that "on your union with Canada, all your civil and religious rights and privileges will be respected."

A delegation from Red River had been proposed as a good means of giving and receiving explanations conducive to the pacification of the country. The desirability of this step was urged upon me as of the greatest importance, and the Premier of Canada in a letter I attach to this as Appendix B wrote to me. "In case a delegation is appointed to proceed to Ottawa, you can assure them that they will be kindly received and their suggestions fully considered. Their expenses coming here and returning and while staying in Ottawa will be defrayed by us"

I left after having received the above-mentioned instructions, and reached St.

Boniface on the 9th March, 1870.

I communicated to the dissatisfied the assurances I had received, showing them the documents above cited. This largely contributed to dispel fears and to restore confidence. The delegation which had been delayed was definitely decided upon. The delegates appointed several weeks before received their commission afresh. They proceeded to Ottawa; opened negotiations with the federal authorities, and with such result that on the 3rd of May, 1870, Sir-John Young telegraphed to Lord Granville: "Negotiations with delegates closed satisfactorily."

The negotiations provided that the denominational or separate schools will be guaranteed to the minority of the new Province of Manitoba; the French language received such recognition that it was decided it would be used officially both in parliament and in the courts of Manitoba.

The Manitoba Act was then passed by the House of Commons and Senate of Canada, and sanctioned by the Governor General.

The said Act received the supreme sanction of the Imperial Parliament, which thus took under its own safeguard the rights and privileges conferred by it.

I take the liberty to here cite most of the two clauses relating to denominational schools and official use of the French language.

Clause 22.—"In and for the province, the said legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to education, subject and according to the following: '10. Nothing in such law shall prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools which any class of persons have by law or practice in the province at the union.' '20. An appeal shall lie to the Governor General in Council from any Act or decision of the Legislature of the province, or any other provincial authority affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic minority of the Queen's subjects in relation to education.'"

Clause 23.—"Either the English or the French language may be used by any person in the debates of the Houses of the Legislature, and both those languages shall be used in the respective records and journals of those houses, and either of these languages may be used by any person, or in any pleading or process in or issuing from any court of Canada established under the British North America Act, 1867, or in or from all or any of the courts of the province. The Acts of the Legislature shall be printed and published in both these languages."

According to the provisions above mentioned, the Legislature of Manitoba always recognized the Catholic schools as an integral part of the educational system of the province. The use of the French language met with the same recognition. Everything went on smoothly and harmoniously in that respect since the establishment of the province, until a few months ago.

Without stating any fair reason for the change, and without any public movement to determine it, the provincial cabinet of Mr. Greenway has brought before the Legislature and secured the passing of Acts of such a radical character against the French and the Catholics, that a decided Protestant influential newspaper has not besitated to say: "That is not legislation, but persecution."

I know that the laws I allude to are to be remitted to Your Excellency along with this, so I do not add a copy of the same.

I consider the laws just enacted by the Legislature of Manitoba to abolish the Catholic schools and the official use of the French language, as an unwarranted violation of the promises made before, and to secure the entry of this country into Confederation.

I consider such laws as a dead blow to the very constitution of this Province. They are detrimental to some of the dearest interests of a portion of Her Majesty's most loyal subjects. If allowed to be put in force, they will be a cause of irritation, destroy the harmony which exists in the country and leave the people under the painful and dangerous impression that they have been cruelly deceived, and because a minority they are left without protection, and that against the promises made twenty years ago by the then immediate representative of Her Majesty: "Right shall be done in all cases."

I therefore most respectfully and most earnestly pray that Your Excellency, as the representative of our most beloved Queen, should take such steps that, in your wisdom, would seem the best remedy against the evils that the above mentioned and recently enacted laws are preparing in this part of Her Majesty's domain.

With most profound respect and full confidence,

I remain

Your Excellency's humble and obedient servant,
ALEX., ARCH. OF ST. BONIFACE.

St. Boniface, 12th April, 1890.

Α.

Letter to Bishop Taché.

OTTAWA, February 16, 1870.

My Dear Lord Bishop,—I am anxious to express to you, before you set out, the deep sense of obligation which I feel is due to you for giving up your residence at Rome, leaving the great and interesting affairs in which you were engaged there, and undertaking at this inclement season the long voyage across the Atlantic, and long journey across this continent for the purpose of tendering service to Her Majesty's Government, and engaging in a mission in the cause of peace and civilization.

Lord Granville was anxious to avail of your valuable assistance from the outset, and I am heartily glad that you have proved willing to afford it so promptly and generously.

You are fully in possession of the views of my Government, and the Imperial Government, as I informed you, is earnest in the desire to see the North-West

.Territory united to the Dominion on equitable conditions.

I need not attempt to furnish you with any instructions for your guidance beyond those contained in the telegraphic message sent by Lord Granville on the part of the British Cabinet, in the proclamation which I drew up in accordance with that message, and in the letters which I addressed to Governor McTavish, your Vicar General, and Mr. Smith. In this last note, "All who have complaints to make" or wish to express, are called upon to address themselves to me, as Her Majesty's representative, and you may state with the utmost confidence that the Imperial Government has no intention of acting otherwise than in perfect good faith towards the inhabitants of the North-West. The people may rely that respect and attention will be extended to the different religious persuasions, that title to every description of property will be carefully guarded, and that all the franchises which have subsisted, or which the people may prove themselves qualified to exercise, shall be duly continued and liberally conferred.

In declaring the desire and determination of Her Majesty's Cabinet, you may safely use the terms of the ancient formula: "Right shall be done in all cases."

I wish you, dear Lord Bishop, a safe journey and success in your benevolent mission.

Believe me, with all respect, faithfully yours, JOHN YOUNG."

B.

Telegram sent by Lord Granville to Sir John Young, dated the 25th November, 1869.

The Queen has learned with regret and surprise that certain misguided men have joined together to resist the entry of Her Lieutenant-Governor into Her Majesty's possessions in the Red River.

The Queen does not distrust her subjects' loyalty in those settlements, and must ascribe their opposition to a change, plainly for their advantage, to misrepresentation or misunderstanding. She relies upon your government for taking every care to explain where there is a misunderstanding, and to ascertain the wants and conciliate the good will of all'the settlers of the Red River. But, at the same time, she authorizes you to tell them that she views with displeasure and sorrow their lawless and unreasonable proceedings, and she expects that if they have any wish to express, or complaints to make, they will address themselves to the Governor of the Dominion of Canada, of which, in a few days, they will form a part.

"The Queen relies upon her representative being always ready, on the one hand, to give redress to well-founded grievances, and on the other to repress with the authority with which she has entrusted him any unlawful disturbance.

"By His Excellency the Right Honourable Sir John Young, Baronet, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Governor General of Canada:

"To all and every the loyal subjects of Her Majesty the Queen, and to all to whom these presents shall come,

"GREETING:

"The Queen has charged me, as her representative, to inform you that certain misguided persons in her settlement on the Red River have banded themselves together to oppose by force the entry into her North-Western Territories of the officer selected to administer, in her name, the Government, when the Territories are united to the Dominion of Canada, under the authority of the late Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; and that those parties have also forcibly, and with violence, prevented others of her loyal subjects from ingress into the country. Her Majesty feels assured that she may rely upon the loyalty of her subjects in the North-West, and believes those men who have thus illegally joined together have done so from some misrepresentation.

"The Queen is convinced that in sanctioning the union of the North-West Territories with Canada, she is promoting the best interests of the residents, and at the same time strengthening and consolidating her North American possessions as part of the British Empire. You may judge then of the sorrow and displeasure with which the Queen views the unreasonable and lawless proceedings which have

"Her Majesty commands me to state to you that she will always be ready, through me as her representative, to redress all well founded grievances, and any complaints that may be made, or desires that may be expressed to me as Governor-General. At the same time she has charged me to exercise all powers and authority with which she has invested me, in the support of order, and the suppression of unlawful disturbances.

"By Her Majesty's authority I do therefore assure you that on the union with Canada, all your civil and religious rights and privileges will be respected, your properties secured to you, and that your country will be governed, as in the past, under British laws, and in the spirit of British justice.

"I do further, under Her authority, entrust and command those of you who are still assembled and banded together, in defiance of law, peaceably to disperse and return to your homes, under the penalties of the law in case of disobedience. And I do lastly inform you, that in case of your immediate and peaceable obedience and dispersion, I shall order that no legal proceedings be taken against any parties implicated in these unfortunate breaches of the law.

"Given under my hand and seal at arms at Ottawa, this sixth day of Decemberin the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and in the thirty, second year of Her Majesty's reign.

"By command,

"JOHN YOUNG.

"H. L. LANGEVIN, Secretary of State."

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, OTTAWA, CANADA, February 16th, 1870.

MY DEAR LORD,—Before you leave Ottawa on your mission of peace, I think it well to reduce in writing the substance of the conversation I had the honour to have with you this morning.

I mark this letter "private" in order that it may not be made a public document, to be called for by Parliament prematurely; but you are quite at liberty to use it in such a manner as you may think most advantageous. I hope that ere you arrive at Fort Garry, the insurgents, after the explanations that have been entered into by Messrs. Thibault, De Salabery and Smith, will have laid down their arms, and allowed Governor McTavish to resume the administration of public affairs. In such case, by the Act of the Imperial Parliament of last session, all the public functionaries will still remain in power, and the Council of Assiniboia will be restored to their former position. Will you be kind enough to make full explanation to the Council on behalf of the Canadian Government, as to the feelings which animate, not only the Governor General, but the whole Government, with respect to the mode of dealing with the North-West. We have fully explained to you, and desire you to assure the council authoritatively, that it is the intention of Canada to grant to the people of the North-West the same free institutions which they themselves enjoy.

Had not these unfortunate events occurred, the Canadian Government had hoped, long ere this, to have received a report from the council, through Mr. McDougall, as to the best means of speedily organizing the Government with representative institutions. I hope that they will be able to immediately take up that subject, and to consider and report, without delay, on the general policy that should immediately be adopted.

It is obvious that the most inexpensive mode for the administration of affairs should at first be adopted, as the preliminary expense of organizing the Government after union with Canada, must, in the first be defrayed from the Canadian treasury, there will be a natural objection in the Canadian Parliament to a large expenditure.

63--6

As it would be unwise to subject the Government of the territory to a recurrence of the humiliation already suffered by Governor McTavish, you can inform him that if he organizes a local police, of twenty-five men, or more if absolutely necessary, that the expense will be defrayed by the Canadian Government.

necessary, that the expense will be defrayed by the Canadian Government.

You will be good enough to endeavour to find out Monkman, the person to whom through Colonel Dennis, Mr. McDougall gave instructions to communicate with the Salteux Indians. He should be asked to surrender his letter, and informed that he ought not to proceed upon it. The Canadian Government will see that he is compensated for any expense that he has already incurred.

In case a delegation is appointed to proceed to Ottawa, you can assure them that they will be kindly received, and their suggestions fully considered. Their expenses coming here and returning, and whilst staying in Ottawa, will be defrayed

by us

You are authorized to state that the two years which the present tariff shall remain undisturbed, will commence from the 1st January, 1871, instead of last January, as first proposed.

Should the question arise as to the consumption of any stores or goods belonging to the Hudson Bay Company by the insurgents, you are authorized to inform the leaders that if the company's Government is restored, not only will there be a general amnesty granted, but in case the company should claim the payment for such stores, that the Canadian Government will stand between the insurgents and all harm.

Wishing you a prosperous journey and happy results.

I beg to remain, with great respect, your very faithful servant, JOHN A MACDONALD.

To the Right Reverend the Bishop of St. Boniface, Fort Garry.

No. 8.

To His Excellency the Governor General in Council:-

The Humble Petition of the undersigned Members of the Roman Catholic Church in the Province of Manitoba, presented on behalf of themselves and their coreligionists in the said Province, Sheweth as follows:-

1. Prior to the passage of the Act of the Dominion of Canada, passed in the thirty third year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter three, known as the Manitoba Act, and prior to the Order in Council issued in pursuance thereof, there existed in the territory now constituting the Province of Manitoba, a number of effective schools for children.

2. These schools were denominational schools, some of them being regulated and controlled by the Roman Catholic Church, and others by various Protestant denominations.

3. The means necessary for the support of the Roman Catholic Schools were supplied to some extent by school fees paid by some of the parents of the children who attended the schools and the rest was paid out of the tunds of the church contributed by its members.

4. During the period referred to, Roman Catholics had no interest in or control over the schools of the Protestant denominations, and the members of the Protestant denominations had no interest in or control over the schools of the Roman Catholics. There were no public schools in the sense of state schools. The members of the Roman Catholic Church supported the schools of their own church for the benefit of Roman Catholic children and were not under obligation to, and did not contribute to the support of, any other schools.

5. In the matter of education, therefore, during the period referred to, Roman Catholics were as a matter of custom and practice separate from the rest of the community.

6. Under the provisions of the Manitoba Act it was provided that the Legislative Assembly of the Province should have the exclusive right to make laws in regard to education, subject however and according to the following provisions:

(1) "Nothing in any such law shall prejudicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools, which any class of persons have by law or

practice in the Province at the Union."

(2) "An appeal shall lie to the Governor General in Council from any act or decision of the Legislature of the Province, or of any Provincial authority, affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic minority of the Queen's

subjects in relation to education."

(3) "In case any such Provincial law as from time to time seems to the Gover nor General in Council requisite for the due execution of the provisions of this section is not made, or in case any decision of the Governor General in Council or any appeal under this section is not duly executed by the proper Provincial authority in that behalf, then, and in every such case, and as far only as the circumstances of each case require, the Parliament of Canada may make remedial laws for the due execution of the provisions of this section, and of any decision of the Governor General under this section."

7. During the first Session of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Manitoba, an Act was passed relating to education, the effect of which was to continue to the Roman Catholics that separate condition with reference to education.

which they had enjoyed previous to the erection of the province.

8. The effect of the statute so far as the Roman Catholics were concerned was merely to organize the efforts which Roman Catholics had previously voluntarily made for the education of their own children. It provided for the continuance of schools under the sole control and management of Roman Catholics; and of the education of their children according to the methods by which alone they believe children should be instructed.

9. Ever since the said legislation and until the last Session of the Legislative Assembly, no attempt was made to encroach upon the rights of the Roman Catholics so confirmed to them as above mentioned, but during said Session Statutes were passed (53 Vic., caps. 37 and 38) the effect of which was to deprive the Roman Catholics altogether of their separate condition in regard to education; to merge their schools with those of the Protestant denominations, and to require all members of the community whether Roman Catholic or Protestant to contribute through taxation to the support of what are therein called public schools, but which are in reality a continuation of the Protestant schools.

10. There is a provision in the said Act for the appointment and election of an Advisory Board and also for the election in each municipality of school trustees. There is also a provision that the said Advisory Board may prescribe religious exercises for use in schools, and that the said school trustees may, if they think fit, direct such religious exercises to be adopted in the schools in their respective districts. No further or other provision is made with reference to religious exercises, and there is none with reference to religious training.

11. Roman Catholics regard such schools as unfit for the purposes of education, and the children of Roman Catholic parents cannot and will not attend any such schools. Rather than countenance such schools, Roman Catholics will revert to the voluntary system in operation previous to the Manitoba Act and will at their own private expense establish, support and maintain schools in accordance with their principles and their faith, although by so doing they will have in addition thereto to contribute to the expense of the so-called public schools.

12. Your petitioners submit that the said Act of the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba is subversive of the rights of Roman Catholics guaranteed and confirmed to them by the Statute erecting the Province of Manitoba, and prejudicially affects the rights and privileges with respect to Roman Catholic schools, which Roman Catholics had, in the Province, at the time of its union with the Dominion of Canada.

13 Roman Catholics are in a minority in the said Province.

14. The Roman Catholics of the Province of Manitoba, therefore, appeal from the said Act of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Manitoba.

Your petitioners therefore pray:

1. That Your Excellency the Governor General in Council may entertain the said appeal, and may consider the same and may make such provisions and give such directions for the hearing and consideration of the said appeal as may be thought proper.

2. That it may be declared that such Provincial law does prejudicially affect the rights and privileges with regard to denominational schools which Roman Catholics had by law or practice in the Province at the Union.

3. That such directions may be given and provisions made for the relief of the Roman Catholics of the Province of Manitoba as to Your Excellency in Council may seem fit.

And your petitioners will ever pray.
