LAURIER WEAK AND UNTIMELY IN CALLING FOR REFERENDUM

Liberal Leader Has Made Great Mistake on Conscription Issue, is Opinion of Montreal Gazette Today

By Courier Leased Wire. Montreal, June 19.—Under the caption "A Laurier Mistake," the Gazette in its comment on the conscription issue says the leader of the opposition did not need to argue that the militia act did not provide for conscription to carry on such a war as is now disturbing the world.

Entente Fear That New King May Follow in Footsteps of His Father, And Aid Germany in Another Diplomatic Trick in Balkans—May Remove Alexander From Throne

New York, June 19.—The Sun this morning prints the following despatch: London, June 18.—The publication of the proclamation of the new King Alexander, of Greece, comes as a shock to England, France and Italy.

London, June 18.—The publication of the proclamation of the new King Alexander, of Greece, comes as a shock to England, France and Italy. The new and youthful monarch pledges himself to carry out "the brilliant policy of his revered father," the notoriously pro-German Constantine, and uses the language of an absolute monarch.

Amsterdam, via London, June 19.—Lamenting the depreciation in value of the mark, the Socialist newspaper, Vorwaerts, of Berlin says there are various reasons for this, including the determined will to war of the United States which has made an extraordinary impression in neutral countries.

The German mark went to a new low level on June 1, when a despatch from Berne, Switzerland, said it had reached 71 francs for 100 marks, compared with 123.42 in peace time. The rate of the mark on that day dropped lower than the Italian lire, which was quoted at 72.

LAURIER TAKES STAND ON CONSCRIPTION AT LAST

Moves for a Referendum on Conscription, a Step Which Would Delay Needed Help for the Boys on the Firing Line—The Government is Resolved to Push the Measure Through, Come What May

Ottawa, June 19.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier unmasked the battery which he has been laying against the government's Military Service Bill for the past week, when the second reading was moved by the Prime Minister in the Commons. Following the motion of Sir Robert Borden, which was coupled with an appeal for prompt action to send aid to the Canadians now at the front, the leader of the Opposition put forward his expected amendment. His proposal was a referendum and his motion read:

"That further consideration of this bill be deferred until the principle thereof has been, by means of a referendum, submitted to and approved by the electors of Canada." Sir Wilfrid's amendment, backed by an argument in the main directed to show that compulsory service should not be adopted in Canada, was seconded by Hon. Frank Oliver, who unlike his leader, announced himself as "a strong supporter of conscription."

Selection Instead of Chance On raising to move the second reading of the Military Service Act, Sir Robert Borden was received with loud Government cheers. "As I gave on moving the first reading of this bill, a full explanation of the measure, it will not be necessary for me now to detain the House at any great length," said the Prime Minister. "I emphasize now what I said when I presented the bill, that no new principle is invoked by the measure now presented. It is based upon precisely the same principle as that embodied in the bill introduced in 1868 by Sir George Etienne Cartier, and confirmed when the Militia Act was re-enacted in 1904."

INFORMATION SOUGHT BY FOETHRU CAPTIVES

Germans Forge Letters To Relatives of French Prisoners of War, Requesting Send of Food and Military News.

By Courier Leased Wire Paris, June 19.—An official note issued last night warns families of prisoners of war in Germany against letters purporting to come from prisoners which contain requests for parcels of food or for certain information of a military character, to be conveyed by means of underlining certain words, which together form phrases. Sometimes it is suggested answers can be written in saliva on the inside of envelopes.

The public is recommended to send these letters to the military authorities. It is said the proceedings are employed by the enemy to obtain information and food parcels for their own use.

The ministry of war has prohibited the mailing of newspapers and magazines to neutral countries by private persons. Newspapers mailed by publishers or news companies will be transmitted. In addition travellers proceeding to neutral countries will no longer be allowed to take newspapers across the frontier.

TANK STEAMER SUNK Oil Vessel John D. Archbold Torpedoed Last Saturday.

Dublin, June 19.—Several demonstrations were held last night in connection with the release of Sinn Feiners. Two men climbed the walls of the ruined post office building on which they tied the Sinn Fein flag. The crowds sang the Sinn Fein song amid cheering and tore down recruiting posters. The police did not interfere until about 2 o'clock this morning, when two demonstrators were arrested and charged with breaking in the post office and setting fire to timbers. The police later dispersed several marching bands.

Dublin, June 19.—The provisional executive of the Sinn Fein has decided to demand passports for three of its members to proceed to the United States for the purpose of opposing the objects of the Irish party mission there. No previous word has been received that an Irish mission was to come to the United States.

Independent Kingdom Upon Openly Anti German Basis is Insisted on by Polish Representatives in House

Copenhagen, via London, June 19.—The revolt of the Poles in the Austrian parliament is described by the Vienna correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung, as having produced a crisis in which the position not only of Premier Clam-Martinic, but also Count Czernin, the Foreign Minister, is threatened.

A majority of the German papers treat the news of the situation with the greatest reserve and the government organs in Vienna hold out hope that the crisis may be overcome by granting a few ministerial posts to Polish and other parliamentarians.

The insistence of Premier Clam-Martinic, on Saturday that the Poles should immediately show their colors is described as due to the initiative of Count Czernin, who is unable to carry on the Foreign policy of the Government while uncertainty regarding the attitude of parliament continues. The Polish aspirations, which recently have been indicated, aim at practically an independent Kingdom openly on an anti-German basis, and have evoked marked displeasure in Germany, even the Cologne Gazette, rebuking the Poles sharply.

Zurich, via Paris, June 19.—The Polish deputy Dazinski, declared in the Vienna Reichsrath that more than 4,000 Poles have been hanged, by order of the German authorities, according to the Vienna Arbeiter Zeitung, which prints special details of the sittings of the Reichsrath on the 4th and 15th. Deputy Strikberg also described the abominable treatment accorded political suspects, whereupon the pan-Germanist deputy, Heine shouted: "They haven't used the rope enough; all of them ought to have been hanged." At these words all of the Slav and Polish members rushed upon Heine and the President was obliged to suspend the sitting in the midst of a tremendous uproar.

By Stewart Lyon. Much of the shelling is in the vicinity of Reservoir Hill. This is a miniature reproduction of Vimy Ridge and lies to the north east of the Electric Station. The battalion now holding this portion of the line has been industriously improving the trenches, thus lessening the casualties. Some occur, despite the best precautions.

Obituary

MRS. E. J. WATERS
The funeral took place on Sunday, June 17th, from the residence of her brother, Herbert File, Dalhousie St., formerly Miss Margaret L. File, of Echo Place. A larger attendance was present than usual for the city and county has seldom been witnessed, for the deceased was so well known in Cainsville and vicinity and filled such an honored niche in the heart corner of her girlhood home. She was the youngest daughter of the late Robert File, an old Brant County resident, and her mother was Mrs. "Pony" File, also an old county family. Mrs. Waters up to the time of her mother's death, thirteen years ago, had spent her days in the Cainsville neighborhood, and had been closely affiliated with the Methodist Church there, having filled the position of choir organist, Sunday School teacher, and Epworth League worker, so that when she removed to Michigan about twelve years ago she was greatly missed by her many friends here. She was married in Houghton, Mich., to Dr. E. J. Waters, by whom and two small children she now survived. The sad feature of her untimely demise is that she left her sister and two brothers also mourn her loss; one brother Arthur File, of Salmon Arm, B. C., having pre-deceased her just a few months ago. The family living are: Mrs. H. A. Cole and Mrs. John Devereux, Cainsville; Mrs. Will Shaw and Mrs. W. Tipping, B. C.; David File, Albany, N. Y., and Herbert File, of Colborne St. Church conducted the funeral obsequies while a hymn was beautifully rendered by Mr. Lewis H. Smith, an old friend and co-worker in Cainsville choir. The pall bearers were five nephews and one cousin of the deceased, Robert, Stewart and Gordon Devereux, Albert Taylor, Charles Blaythwaite and Russel Fonger. Many floral pieces from Michigan and home friends surely testified to the great esteem in which Mrs. Waters was held by all. She was laid to rest as she wished her dear parents in Greenwood cemetery.

PALE, DELICATE GIRLS
Does your daughter inherit a delicate organization from you? The anemia of young girls may be inherited or it may be caused by bad air, unsuitable food, hasty and irregular eating, insufficient out-of-door exercise and not enough rest and sleep. It comes on gradually, beginning with languor, indisposition to mental or bodily exertion, irritability and a feeling of fatigue. Later comes palpitation of the heart, headache, dizziness following a stooping position, frequent headaches, and breathlessness. In a majority of cases constipation is present. There may be no great loss of flesh, but usually the complexion takes on a greenish-yellow pallor. Cases of this kind, if neglected, become serious, but if taken in time there is no need to worry. The treatment is quite easy and simple. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are free from any harmful or habit-forming drug are just the tonic needed to remedy this wretched state of health. Though it is not noticeable, improvement actually begins with the first dose. As the pallor leaves the face, strength and activity gradually return and if the treatment is continued until the last symptom disappears the danger of a relapse is very slight. If any symptom of anemia appears, prudence suggests that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be given at once, and the sooner they are taken the more speedily will the trouble be overcome. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RAILWAY MATTERS BEFORE COUNCIL

Report of Railway Committee Cause of a Heated Debate Last Night

IN LENGTHY SESSION Extension of Clarence St. and St. Paul's Subway Dealt With

OTHER COUNCIL NEWS Civic Holiday is Changed to the First Monday in August

Prolonged by protracted and heated debate, in which personalities and insinuations were rampant, last night's session of the city council was not concluded until twenty minutes to twelve. The report of the railway committee of the conference with the representatives of the Grand Trunk and the resulting discussion, and the allotment of the employees liability insurance policies for the coming year consumed most of the time, the balance being devoted to a hearing of Capt. Boddy of the Great War Veterans' Association, and other regular routine business.

Capt. Bert Boddy, president of the Great War Veterans' Association, addressed the council on the growing work of that organization, now including a membership of about 200 returned men. He explained the need of permanent headquarters and a secretary to look after their interests. He pointed out that the soldiers could best organize themselves. The type of competent citizen required to fulfill the duties of secretary would necessitate an annual outlay of $1000 per year. He requested that the council grant the sum of $1000 for two years to finance the grant to be conditional upon results being satisfactory to the council. The sum of $3,500 a year would be required to furnish, equip and maintain a permanent club each year. It was suggested that the request be referred to the finance committee, when it could be investigated. Ald. MacBride maintained that a decision could be arrived at without delay. It was decided to allow the finance committee to confer further with Capt. Boddy, meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association is to be held next Monday evening with the representatives of important organizations of the city to discuss the establishment of headquarters for the returned men, and it was felt that when the outcome of this conference was known, that the council would be in a better position to deal with the request.

Buildings and Grounds
The buildings and grounds committee reported as follows:
1. That the tender of Geo. Woolams, for cleaning, painting and decorating the Chief's office, at the police court, be accepted, it being the lowest.
2. That the communication of The Gibson Coal Company of June 18th be filed, and that they be given permission to repair the present wood shed on his premises, provided the same is covered with galvanized iron and constructed to the satisfaction of the City Engineer and the Chief of the fire department.
3. That the committee be empowered to purchase the traffic signals, as recommended by Chief Slemm, the number to be determined upon by the members of the committee.
Report No. 2 of the Committee on Railways.

Gentlemen.—The Committee on Railways beg to report as follows: A conference was held on the 6th inst. between G. Forrester, Chief of the Trunk Railway Supt. London; H. R. McLennan, Grand Trunk Train Master, Brantford, and O. S. Coyne, Assistant Engineer, London; and the following proposition was submitted to the Company's representatives:
1. That the city waive its insistence on the building by the Grand Trunk Railway Company of the Holmeville Spur and the Eagle Place switches, and the maintenance of the Colborne Street station as a station and as a stop.
2. That the Grand Trunk Railway Company convey to the city the extension of Clarence Street, sixty-six feet wide south through the lands of the Grand Trunk Railway Company.
3. That the Grand Trunk Railway Company convey to the city property for the purpose of enabling the city to extend Northumberland street westerly to the line of Clarence street.
4. That the Grand Trunk Railway Company assume the total cost of the St. Paul Avenue subway as a roadway, 44 feet wide, as directed to be constructed by the Dominion Railway Board.

Surprise was expressed by Ald. MacBride that the Com. had taken upon the building of practically all that was possessed by the city with the possible exception of the city hall. He recalled the original blunder that had been made and thought too much was being asked for what he characterized as a paltry $30,000. Ald. Jones contended that practically nothing had been "given away." He pointed out that the Colborne Street station was unsightly and rather an inconvenience to the corner. The concessions of the first clause might be ignored. The Mayor heartily supported the report as did Ald. Kelley, who objected only to the closing of the Colborne Street station. Ald. English said that one offer had been made to the railway company by the corner committee, as he called the railway committee, that had not been included in the report,

MR. W. SANFORD EVANS

Who is mentioned as probable Food Controller for Canada. For the past three years he has been a special commissioner on the Georgian Bay Canal Proposition and the transportation question generally.

namely the closing of Echo Place. This was denied by Ald. Jones. Ald. MacBride thought that the whole report actually amounted to nothing and was merely "an attempt at stage-play." Ald. Jones defended the action of his committee as not being binding upon the city and that the committee had merely taken action to evolve order out of the chaos into which the Board of Works had plunged the matter. He further stated that the Board of Works had done nothing in this connection. Ald. MacBride strenuously opposed the latter statement and declared that Ald. Jones was descending to the methods adopted by that noted celebrity Charlie Chaplin. A vote was taken on the report as submitted. Ald. MacBride concluded that the proposal was on a par with the original agreement and the discussion subsided.

Ald. Kelly gave an account of the construction of the swimming pool on the river. The river was carefully examined by the committee and a satisfactory site located on the north side of the river. The necessary preparation steps have been drafted and submitted to the Board of Works. It was not proposed that an expenditure of $300 would be exceeded. Ald. English stated that the work could be accomplished for $300 and rather placed the estimated cost at $600. Ald. Dowling was gratified that this important matter had been brought to the attention of the council.

Special Committee on Perch and Bass
The report of this committee as submitted by Ald. Jennings, recommended that sufficient funds be placed at their disposal to purchase 1000 Perch at $6.00 per 100 and to provide a conveyance for some from Port Dover to Mohawk Lake. That the clerk be instructed to write the Ontario Fisheries Department asking that the local inspector be instructed to prohibit fishing for perch for the balance of this season in order that the lake may be reserved for the benefit of the citizens of Brantford. With no discussion, the report was adopted.

The suggestion was made by Ald. Kelly in the form of a motion, that Brantford's civic holiday be changed from the second to the first Monday in August. He explained that the present date conflicted with those of other cities, and thought that the change of date would result in a larger influx of visitors than heretofore.

A motion was introduced by Ald. MacBride and supported by Ald. English that the chairman of the coal committee be authorized to add to his committee the names of the other members of the committee. The committee consists of Ald. MacBride, English and Jennings. Ald. MacBride thought that this was an important question and would perhaps require the attention of the whole council. Ald. Harp and Secord were added so that each ward will be represented. The committee was also given power to add to its numbers if deemed advisable.

Mr. J. C. Watt of the assessment department requested leave of absence owing to the ill state of health of his son necessitating a temporary change of climate. The request was granted with salary in full for one month.

A communication was received from Chief Slemm, requesting permission to secure twelve more traffic signs to supplement the five "silent policemen" contributed by the Board of Trade, now in use.

Ald. Bragg suggested that the matter be referred to the buildings and grounds committee and that their decision be reported at the next council meeting. The matter was referred to the Railway Take Four Insurance Question.

When the report of the finance committee of the city council, regarding the allotment of the insurance carried by the city for the year 1917 was submitted, the discussion was rapid and free and was a fitting prelude to the pyrotechnic display of the Semi-Centennial celebration. For the past seventeen years the London and Lancashire Company has held this insurance, and Mr. Wade, one of its local agents, has written the insurance for the past fifteen years. It was recommended by the finance committee that the Norwich Union company be given this year's insurance, and that the agencies be divided between Messrs. Wade and George Ballachee. This raised considerable argument, the Mayor and some of the Aldermen thinking that as the company had given good service for this time, that the business should be continued with them. It was pointed out that at the meeting of the finance committee two weeks ago last Friday night, that an account had been submitted for payment, with the warning that unless it was paid by the following Monday, that the city would be unprotected until such time as the money for the account was forthcoming.

Ald. Hess who had not been at the meeting of the finance committee two weeks ago, took up the cudgels, stating that he had heard that Ald. Dowling had threatened Mr. Wade with respect to his business should he refuse to transfer the insurance from the London and Lancashire to the Norwich Union, both of which companies he represents.

Ald. MacBride stated that the London and Lancashire Company did not possess a monopoly of all the good insurance in the country, and advocated a policy of "splitting the melon." He did not think that it was good business practice to give a life long contract to one company, "any more, Mr. Mayor, than it would be judicious to give you a long hold on the position which you now occupy." He continued, addressing the chair. Mr. Wade had been the agent for the past fifteen years and it was now time that some other opportunity be taken to secure some of the business of the city in this connection. The Mayor had contended that good service had always been given to the city by the London and Lancashire. Ald. MacBride thought that the interests of the city were not being very carefully guarded when only two days were allowed for the payment of the account.

Ald. Harp objected to the "lobbying" which he stated had been done by representatives of the London and Lancashire company. Ald. Dowling denied having threatened Mr. Wade and asked for an opportunity for that gentleman to address the council, which was granted. Mr. Wade stated that the London and Lancashire company had always given the city good service, when Ald. MacBride interrupted him, saying "I am not in favour of a cold-blooded proposition? We pay for it."

Ald. Dowling stated that Mr. Wade had come to the office of the city clerk, and without any authority had requested to see the files containing the minutes of the meeting of the finance committee, and had deliberately checked back the name from the Norwich Union to the London and Lancashire.

Ald. Mellen thought that the situation looked "suspicious" in some of the things that had been done, or else so much interest would not have been displayed in the matter. He stated that the London and Lancashire and MacBride each spoke protesting against the insinuation against the character of Ald. Dowling, that had been made by Mr. Hess on hearsay.

Ald. Dowling positively denied that he, although himself an agent of the London and Lancashire, either directly or indirectly through the transaction and declared that since becoming the chairman of the finance committee, had never turned a hair in regard to having the name of the London and Lancashire through his own hands.

When Ald. Harp, MacBride and Dowling rose to speak advocating a change in the name of the committee, they fused them into one opportunity, claiming that they had spoken too much already, until finally when an amendment had been introduced with the object of leaving the insurance question as it has been for the past number of years, Ald. MacBride, rising from the council chamber, exclaiming, "I will not be a party to any such transaction. They are railroaded if through."

Mayor Bowley expressed his disgust at the manner in which the council had conducted the debate. Ald. Wiley inquired what had been accomplished by the railway committee in regard to having the Brantford and Hamilton Railway sell tickets either at the Alfred Street station or on the cars. As the chairman of this committee, Ald. Jones, had left earlier in the evening, the other members of the committee were requested to bring this matter to his notice.

Ald. Wiley also wished to know when the Erie Ave. pavement was to be completed. In spite of the shortage of labor and the high cost of material, Ald. English, chairman of the board of works, answered that expectations were that work would be commenced about the second week in July.

That the pavements on the city streets were in some places badly in need of repair, was the statement made by Ald. Harp, who inquired when this work was to be done. Ald. English replied that it was to be done immediately. The brick work between the street car tracks was also in very poor condition, in some places ruts of six inches depth existing, but Ald. English assured Ald. Dowling that part of Brant Avenue had already been repaired, and that the balance of the city would be looked after as soon as possible. As the surface of the pavements on some streets will have to be relaid within two or three years, Ald. Secord suggested that the holes be only filled temporarily. He stated that the pavement on Dufferin Ave. was in a very poor condition, but that a bonfire of $2,500 was held to guarantee satisfaction. Ald. Dowling inquired if this would not nearly cover the cost of the surface coating. Ald. Secord thought it would. Ald. MacBride thought it was about time Ward Four came in for some consideration, and said those who rode in automobiles could pick out the smooth parts of the pavements on which to drive. Ald. Bragg said he had listened patiently, but agreed with Ald. MacBride that Ward Four needed improvements. He stated that the houses of Barton and Elgin Sts., sewer connections were lacking, and that a garden plot in which thirty dollars had been invested by working people, had been ruined through the overflow of rain water from the road during a recent storm. Ald. MacBride had also noted this deficiency, and assured the council that the proper connections would be made.

Ald. English moved that the fire and light committee be authorized to purchase a fire alarm box and install it at the corner of Bond and Usher streets. The request was referred to the fire and light committee.

The clerk was instructed to write to the Department of Militia requesting that the lot on Brant Ave. that had been used for drilling purposes by the 21st Battalion, should be cleaned up for use by the school children, as a playground during the holidays. He was also asked to prepare military service certificates for all civic employees who have enlisted, have the same framed and hung in the city hall.

To The Editor of The Courier

SHOULD HAVE BEEN MOHAWK CHURCH

Editor of Courier's:
Sir: I very much regretted to see the Courier on Saturday that the Historical Society, by the close margin of one vote, decided to place the memorial to the late Miss E. Pauline Johnson in the Public Library instead of His Majesty's Chapel Royal of the Mohawks.

The Library is not a proper setting for such a memorial. The Mohawk Church is and Judge Harby was perfectly right in contending for such an ideal place for its reception.

Environment is everything for such a memorial and there is no more historical spot in Ontario; no spot more fragrant with the association of Great Britain's Allies of a century or so ago and from whom Miss Johnson herself sprang, than the old Mohawk Church.

Surely even yet the very misguided decision of the few members of the Historical Society, at the meeting can be changed.

I am confident that the Society has not the support of the friends of the late gifted poetess in their decision of such a public and unappropriate place as the Library and their wishes are certainly worthy of some consideration.

Yours very sincerely,
REVERENCE,

LEAFS WON AFTER BIG SHAKING UP

Rearranged Toronto Team Beat the League Leaders Yesterday

ZABEL TWIRLED WELL Twenty-One Passes in Montreal-Providence Game

Newark, N.J., June 18.—After dropping four games in a row in associating with the league leaders, the Leafs had the pleasure of bagging the final scrap of the series yesterday, 4 to 2. To accomplish this result Manager Lajoie had to skim his finger along the alphabetical order all the way down to "Z" in picking a winning pitcher, Zabel being the choice. The Toronto chief then shuffled up his batting order, sending Jacobson back to his post in centre field, sticking Schultz at third base, and switching Blackburne to short, Smita, who has been fielding like a big leaguer but hitting less than the size of his hat during the series, was shifted. Whatever the wisdom in all this it brought victory to the Leafs. The Bears, who lambasted the Toronto hurlers for thirty-three hits in Sunday's double killing, were held to five taps yesterday, and in the face of Zabel's pitching were remarkably lame in comparison. Toronto fell on Enzman's offerings for ten hits. Both teams fielded in flawless style. Joe Schultz had two hits, and stole two bases.

Enzman got away to a poor start. He passed Jacobson in the first inning, and hit Lajoie, while White-man dropped a single to midfield. Graham furnished the sacrifice fly that scored Jacobson. A pass to Graham, Schultz's single, and a double steal accounted for a second run in the fourth. The other two runs came in a pair in the fifth round, the result of another pass to Jacobson, and singles by Lajoie, Graham and Blackburne.

It was only in the fifth inning that the Bears succeeded in getting Zabel with any success. Here Russell drew a pass and Getz hit over short, both men scoring on Egan's three-base shot to left.

At Providence Greg, Hershco and McGuire handed out twenty-one passes between them yesterday afternoon, the first named giving eight in four-innings, while the Montreal man walked ten for luck in bunching hits with the bases loaded and won 12 to 2. At Baltimore Baltimore won both ends of yesterday's double-header, scoring 27 runs during the afternoon. The first count was 17 to 6 and the second 10 to 7. BIG EVENTS NEAR IN MACEDONIA

British Troops Withdrawing From Lower Reaches of the Struma

London, June 18.—The massing of Entente troops in Thessaly, south of the line now held by General Sarrajl's forces, taken in connection with the withdrawal of British forces on the extreme eastern wing along the lower reaches of the Struma River, seemingly is an indication that big events are in the making in the Macedonian theatre in an attempt to retake Serbia, or at least that portion of it as far as Nish, through which runs the famous Berlin-Constantinople railway.

Along the Vardar and Morava River valleys, northward through Serbia, undoubtedly would prove easier ground over which to operate than northward along the Struma and through western Bulgaria, to the junction of the railway at Sofia. An impediment is being placed in the way of the troops that have been landed in Thessaly, and with the departure of former King Constantine from the country the people are declared to have become more friendly to the allied cause by placing their adherence in the provisional government of M. Venizelos.

Although on the eastern wing of the British, which they previously burned, they are holding lightly to the bridgehead position on the left bank of the River Struma, in the Lake Tachino-Bukovo sector, northeast of Salonica. That the retirement of the British was voluntary is indicated by the Bulgarian official report dealing with the manoeuvre, which does not mention any fighting as having taken place. There has, however, already been some activity on the part of British in the Vardar-Lake Dolran sector, but Sofia reports that the attempt made by them to advance near Dautli was repulsed.

HEAR! HEAR! HEAR!!! Fort Wayne, Ind., June 19.—President Hickey of the American Association and President Tearney of the Three League were criticized for alleged "pessimistic and despectful" remarks in an interview here yesterday. Dickerson resigned the Presidency of the Central League a few days ago to become head of the Western League. "There is nothing wrong with baseball," declared Dickerson, "except the commercial side and petty quarrels among the magnates, which have no bearing on the game itself. It is the latter alone that concerns the fans," he added, and said that owners could accomplish much toward overcoming adverse conditions by joining in seeking means to create more interest in the game.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN

KEYSTONE LADIES One of the games that little girls play in Los Angeles is "pretending to be Keystone ladies."

One of the fashionable districts of the city yesterday three little misses tripped along in their mother's grown up clothes. They were all dressed up with nowhere to go.

One was Miss Peggy Pearce, so she said; another was Louise Faesend. The third young lady was quite satisfied with her station and condition in life. With a most woe-begone wall, she was heard to say to the other girls, "Oh say, can't you please let Marie Prevost until Carrie comes back?"

LINDER'S LUCK. Max Linder, Essanay's noted European comedian, plans to build in Paris at the close of the great war one of the most costly and beautiful motion picture theatres in the world. It will not be Linder's first experience on the exhibiting side of the business. He built a theater in Paris several years ago for the exclusive showings of his productions—the "Cinema Max." It was called, "It was destroyed by a bomb during an air attack on the French capital by Zeppelins."

THE APOLLO "The Day of Reckoning," a three reel war drama of absorbing interest, and the depth of man's true thrilling moments, heads a feature bill at the Apollo Theatre for the first of this week. Another powerful two part drama of compelling intensity, "The Mystery of 87th Street," a virile film story of western life. Helen Holmes, far famed for her railroad pictures, is featured in the second episode of the stirring status series "The Girl and the Game," while two reels of sure fire comedy productions round out a bill of unusual attractions.

THE GRAND. The Grand Opera House last evening opened its midsummer season as a popular priced motion picture house, presenting a varied program of high class attractions, headed by the five reel Ivan Picture, "Two Men and a Woman," a remarkable production wherein modern diplomatic intrigue and the depth of man's true friendship are blended to form a story of compelling power and absorbing heart interest. Presented by a capable cast comprising an unusual array of scenic and photographic effects are employed throughout the picture, all combining to render the film in every way a notable one and well worth a number of scenes. A starry "Two Men and a Woman" is no less notable in the line of artistic production than in plot or histrionic interpretation; some particularly striking scenic and photographic effects are employed throughout the picture, all combining to render the film in every way a notable one and well worth a number of scenes.

THE REX. Exciting and spectacular in the extreme, "The Masque of Life" showing for the first three days of the week at the Rex Theatre is possibly the most unique picture-ization ever witnessed in the city. The production presents many startling features, the rescue of a baby from a monkey on the top of a 360 foot Chimney, the burning of the circus and the escape of the lions from the burning circus, "The Masque of Life" is a most human intelligence. Another exceedingly attractive feature of the picture is the showing of a beautiful allegorical pantomime, the scenes of which are stirring and entrancing.

THE BRANT. The world is divided into three classes. Those who like Mary, because they hear so much about her and don't care to contradict others who don't doubt know more than they do those who don't like Mary, simply out of general perversity, because most persons do; and lastly, those who like Mary because she is Mary, and because she represents to them all that is best upon the screen to-day. And there are few who will be mustered outside the ranks of this third class after witnessing "The Pride of the Clan," wherein the beloved "Little Mary" of filmland is featured at the Brant the first three days of this week. In the past, we have seen Mary as a lass of many nations, Dutch, Italian and semi-Hindu, yet in her latest characterization as a winsome Scottish maiden, she may indeed be said to have surpassed all previous efforts. A strong supporting cast includes Matt Moore, brother of Owen, who bears the distinction of being Mr. Mary Pickford's Francis X. Bushman and Beverley Bate co-star once more in the fourth episode of Metro's great serial picture "The Great Secret," while the motion picture program includes also a side splitting Christie Comedy. The Three Melody Maids, in a classy musical offering, are an attraction well above the average and worthy of the attention of all.

ROScoe IS POPULAR Beloved by all children, it is not surprising that "Fatty" Arbuckle, hero of many a screen adventure does to youthful hearts, should reciprocate their affection. In the vicinity of East 48th St., N.Y., the location of the studios where the comedian recently completed "The Butcher Boy," his first Paramount comedy, "Fatty" is worshipped. Pie and caramel parties at "Fatty's" expense and under his personal supervision, have much to do with his popularity in that neighborhood.

REALISTIC RHEA. What do you think of this for an open confession? Rhea Mitchell, confesses that she spends three hours a day before her mirror. "Beautiful but vain," you ejaculate—"and so young, too."

There's a sunny thing about that," said Miss Mitchell a day or two ago, when "Dick" Bennett was telling tales on her. "The first time Mr. Bennett ever knew about my studies in expression he had hidden himself in my dressing room with a bunch of flowers. I had a few ideas in my mind that I wanted to rehearse, so without loss of time I rushed up to the mirror and began gibbering at myself like a lost soul. I made some awful faces and I forget the things I said. I always say something to fit my action."

"Well, suddenly I heard the most ghastly sound—like a gurgle of horror from a dead and dumb man. It was Dick. He had tossed my flowers on the floor and was running for his life. The poor fellow thought I was crazy."

"M'm," grunted Bennett, from his seat in a big arm chair—"what do you think?"

A FIGHTING FAMILY. "The Trial of the Shadow," Metro wonderplay will have some real Indians in the cast. Henry-Kills-The-Enemy, his wife, Louise-Kills-The-Enemy and his son, Henry-Kills-The-Enemy, Jr., were obtained to enact the scenes in the picture requiring Indians. To obtain the services of these aborigines it was necessary to put up a $500 bond for each Indian. Likewise the official sanction had to be obtained from the government in Washington before they could be photographed.

Neither Henry-Kills-The-Enemy nor his family can speak English. They are Sioux Indians and were born at Pine Ridge, South Dakota. Pine Ridge is located on the White River, near Wounded Knee. With them came "Texas" Cooper, a famous guide, who is acting as interpreter for the Indians.

Edwin Carewe, who is directing "The Trial of the Shadow," has Indian blood in his veins, but he is unable to converse with Henry-Kills-The-Enemy for the reason that they are of a different tribe, and the little that Mr. Carewe knows of the Indian language is confined to the Cherokee dialect.

This is the first picture in which the Henry-Kills-The-Enemy family appears and they could not restrain their feelings when the lights were first turned on. The little fellow set up a mighty yell when the mercury lights first flared up, but he was soon quieted and the family went through their part in splendid fashion.

SECURE COLLEGE ATHLETE New York, June 19.—The New York American League club yesterday signed William J. Rafter, outfielder of the Syracuse University team. Rafter was an all-round athlete, playing baseball, football and basketball, and had a place on the track team. In order to give him some professional experience, Manager Donovan sent him to the Utica club of the New York State League for the remainder of the season.

THE MAELSTROM

By Frank Froest

Late Superintendent of the Criminal Investigation Department of New Scotland Yard. (Copyright)

(From Monday's Daily.) If the Scotland Yard man's suspicions were right, it was not at all surprising that she should be hiding quietly with Ling—Ling her husband and the master brain of the conspiracy. Yet so astiduously had Jimmie accustomed himself to believe that she was rather a victim than an accomplice that her presence came upon him as a shock.

"You know my—this lady?" some one said, as though mildly interested. Jimmie pulled himself together. There was no time for considered action. He threw a backward glance at the door. Menzies and Royal had not yet appeared.

"We have met before," he answered, with a fine assumption of coolness. Miss Olney, isn't it? Can I have a word with you? He beckoned behind him. The eyes of the other two men following them with curiosity. "Is that man Ling?" he whispered.

"Yes," she answered. "What—?" He cut her short. "This is no time for questions. The eyes are immediately behind us. They are going to arrest him—and maybe you, too. You must get away at once." He signalled to a waiter. "Is there another way out? Some people are coming in from the front whom we don't want to meet."

A gleam of gold between his fingers transformed the waiter into a quick ally. "If you will step this way, sir—this way, madam." He pushed forward half a dozen steps and flung open a door. They descended a couple of steps into a derelict side street, and Ling, who had watched them a puzzled frown, turned to Cincinnati as they disappeared.

"What in thunder's the game?" "Blest if I know," said Cincinnati. "Who's your lady friend? She seemed surprised to see my friend." He was fumbling with the buttons of his coat.

Suspicion sat black and lowering on Ling's face. His hand dropped to his jacket pocket, and Cincinnati had a little apprehensive thrill as he heard a faint click and the bottom corner of the jacket pocket poked over the edge of the table. He longed to look around to see if Menzies had entered the room, but he dared not turn his head.

A waiter glided to his side, and as he picked up the menu card and with deliberation gave his orders he felt Ling's menacing gaze still upon him. The waiter moved away. "There's some monkey trick on the board," said Ling in a voice whose lowness hid nothing of an intensity of passion. "I'll plug you if you don't tell me what's on. What are you doing with Hallett? Why did you bring him here? Answer. If you move or turn a hair I'll blow a hole through you, you dog."

Cincinnati had no opportunity to wonder how Ling had come to guess Hallett's identity. He was between the devil and the deep sea—with the detectives behind and a desperate man in front. "Easy does it, Stewart," he said soothingly. "Easy does it. I couldn't help myself."

Between clenched teeth Ling spat a vicious oath at him. His eyes shot up and down the crowded aisles of the restaurant, always coming back to Cincinnati Red's face. There was a white scar an inch long above his left eye which now showed crimson, giving him an indescribably sinister appearance.

He withdrew his right hand from his pocket, keeping it concealed with a serviette. The serviette lay at last carelessly crumpled in front of him and his hand was under it. "See that?" he growled menacingly.

"There's two men just come in. Pals of yours, I guess. You'd better get your thinking apparatus started, for if those splits offer to come near me it's going to be an almighty bad time for you. You'd try to put it across me, you tin horn. I tell you, if I go out of this place with the cuffs on, you'll go out feet first. Think it out quick, you dirty squealer."

Cincinnati Red was frightened, badly frightened, though his face did not show it, save perhaps that it was whiter than usual. The waiter placed a plate of soup before him, and his hand was steady as he lifted the spoon.

Ling himself, in spite of his passion, had lowered rather than increased his tone, and no soul in the room beyond themselves knew that they were within measurable distance of tragedy.

"That back door those others used," he said quickly; "all out. I'll hold the bulls back." The serviette stirred impatiently. "Not on your tintype, my son. You don't pass on this hand. You'll stick closer to me than a brother. I'll trust you—while my finger's on a gun and the gun on you."

Menzies and Royal had seated themselves three or four tables away. Nothing seemingly was of less interest to them than the two crooks, one of whom had just finished his dinner and the other just begun.

"I can't think of anything," protested Cincinnati sullenly. "How much do they know?" asked Ling sharply.

"They raided Gwennie's shanty this morning. They're after her, but you mainly." "You seem to know a lot," commented Ling crisply. "I suppose you've arranged to give 'em the office when they're to pull me. That would have been all right if Hallett hadn't gone off at half-cock. Now the surprise packet is going to be mine. I'm attention is going to seem to wander off you for a little minute—only seem, mind you. There's a menu card down by your hand. You've got a pencil. Now write on that that I suspect nothing—that I'm going to take you round now to the spot where the rest of the boys are. Then give it to the waiter to pass to them."

The astuteness of the move appealed to Cincinnati. Ling was playing for time, to avoid immediate arrest. If the detectives thought they would make a bigger haul by postponing matters they would do so.

The "con" man had no conscientious scruples about tricking them, but he was uneasy when he thought of the hints which Foyle had given him. If he could have safely betrayed Ling he would. Still life was, after all, worth clinging to—even if a certain proportion of it had to be spent in prison. He followed Ling's instructions docilely, and over his shoulder saw Menzies read the card and nod without looking up.

Ling drank his liqueur slowly, and there was a more complacent expression about his thin lips. Now that he had obtained a respite he seemed in no hurry to go. He regarded the "con" man with a sneer.

"You're not fit for this sort of thing, Cincinnati," he said acridly. "You ought to stick to parlor games. A yellow streak doesn't matter there." The other leaned back in his chair, unmoved by the insult. "I'm not shy enough to butt my head against a brick wall, he answered equally.

"One of these times we may meet on level terms." His eye dropped meaningly on the serviette. "Not if I know it," retorted Ling.

Good Night N' Stories

By Charles Silvert

THE SPIRIT OF THE PEACH TREE

Peter and his mother lived alone. One evening as Peter was driving home he saw a great crowd on the main square. He stopped and learned that the old town pump and the gnarled peach tree that hung over it, were to be torn up and an up-to-date fountain put in their places.

Peter's heart sank. He always stopped at the old pump for a drink of water. He loved to see the gnarled and twisted old branches of the peach tree. Many a beautiful bunch of pink and white blossoms went home to his mother when the tree put forth its buds and when Peter carried the largest home to mother. Now the old pump and tree must go.

"There's no use of its standing there. The fruit's seldom good and I tell you a large fountain in its place will make this town look more up-to-date," said the Mayor. The old town pump was torn up and the peach tree was cut down. When Peter stopped on his way home, the pink and twisted old blossoms were dipping in the dust.

"Seems to me they could have let you finished blooming," said Peter, looking down at the tree. Then Peter heard a voice sing: "Take me home and you shall see. What a wealthy man you'll be." Peter looked around, but he couldn't see anyone. The voice kept on humming the same words until Peter called the head man working on the fountain.

"What do you want for them?" asked Peter. "The man scratched his head. 'Don't know. A dollar, I guess. What do you want with them?'" He asked pocketing the money. "Piled wood," replied Peter, and he piled the peach tree and the old pump into his wagon and drove home.

"Took most all we had, mother, but I couldn't see them rot at the side of the road," said Peter. "Never mind, son. I'll enter comes it will be cheery in the stove," replied his mother.

That night the voice from the peach tree spoke again to Peter. "Hold tightly to my twig, Where I point you must dig." Peter dug out, cut a twig from the peach tree and walked up and down the yard. Finally the twig became heavy in his hands, as if some unseen force pulled it toward the ground.

Peter brought his spade and dug deep in the ground and he soon reached a lovely cool spring. The water was put in an old barrel or planted a twig of the old gnarled peach tree near it.

Peter's fame spread far and wide, for the spirit of the peach tree, in ways told him the truth and he had all he could do locating good wells. Peter soon became rich and built his mother a lovely little cottage on the old ground.

The peach tree still lives and scatters its pink and white blossoms over the old town pump. Peter wouldn't take a great deal of money for them.

"I like you better as you are. You'll never be on level terms with me. I wonder what I'll do to you," he went on reflectively. "Did you ever hear how they used to treat witches in the old days in Massachusetts? They used to stick to parlor games. It always seemed to me that wouldn't be a bad punishment for squealers." He pushed back his chair. "I'll get my coat, waiter. And this gentlemen's."

HELP TO FIGHT THE WAR AT HOME

Economy, Thrift, National Service, Are Needed to Secure Victory

The National Service Board is appealing to the country for the exercise of thrift and the investment of every possible dollar in government War Savings Certificates. A way to war service has been opened for every man and woman in the Dominion. "You cannot have absolute equality of sacrifice for war" as Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George has declared, but as the Prime Minister of Great Britain said—"You can have equal readiness of sacrifice from all. There are hundreds of thousands who have given their lives; there are millions who have given up comfortable homes and exchanged them for daily communion with death. Multitudes have given up those they love best. Let the nation as a whole be stronger mentally. The morally and physically. It would strengthen its fibre and ennoble its spirit." So with Canada. The need of the time is economy. Save your money and lend it to your country. Buy War Savings Certificates.

PHOSPHATE WANTED By Courier Leased Wire Copenhagen, via London, June 18.—The Prussian government's industrial and agricultural representatives have joined in an offer of large premiums for the discovery of deposits of phosphates in Germany which can be used in the manufacture of artificial fertilizer. Some small deposits occur on the Lahn river, and are being worked intensively, but this product is utterly inadequate to cover the German requirements, some 50,000,000 marks worth of which was imported annually before the war. The industry is largely responsible for the decrease in Germany's agricultural production.

AMERICAN RECORD By Courier Leased Wire New York, June 18.—An American record for the fifteen mile walk, 2 hours, 7 minutes, 17.35 seconds, was made by Eddie Rene, of the New York Athletic Club, in the open park of the Walker's Club of America here Sunday. The former record for the distance was 2:14.44, made by William O'Keefe on December 31, 1880.

FIRE LOSS By Courier Leased Wire St. John, N. B., June 18.—Fire today caused a loss estimated at $50,000 in a Dock Street building, owned by E. Rodger, of London, England, and occupied by several firms. The furniture store of J. Marcus suffered the heaviest loss.

INVITATION TO SMUTS By Courier Leased Wire London, June 18.—The war cabinet has invited General Smuts, formerly the South African commander, to attend its meetings during his stay in this country. Chancellor Bonar Law told the house of commons today that this action had been taken in order to enable the cabinet to avail itself of the special military experience of General Smuts.

TO TAKE ACTION By Courier Leased Wire Bulletin, London, June 18.—Replying to a series of questions in the house of commons this afternoon as to whether the British government had decided upon reprisals for the German air raid on England, Andrew Bonar Law, member of the British war council, said the government intended to take steps not only for damaging the enemy, but for preventing raids on England. It was a mistake, Mr. Bonar Law said, to assume that air raiding was confined to the enemy. The British air forces in France, had raided German communications and all important military objectives behind the lines which were of sufficient importance to justify such enterprises.

"I've got very attached to you this last half hour," he explained in friendly tones. "I wouldn't lose you for anything. I want to hear you pitch a tale when we get home. It'll be a real pleasure to learn how you've been working yourself to help us, and how I've been deceived by appearances into dealing with you harshly."

This tribute to his inventive faculties did not seem to afford Cincinnati Red any pronounced gratification. He granted something unintelligible. Then, "If I were you, Stewart, I'd take a taxi. We'll never throw those splits off walking."

Courier Daily Recipe Column

CURRENT CAKE. One pound flour, 1-2 pound butter, 1-2 pound fine sugar, 1-2 pound currants, 1 teaspoonful nutmeg, 1 teaspoonful essence of lemon, 1/2 teaspoonful ground ginger, 1 coffee cupful milk, 2 eggs. Work the butter in the flour, then add the other ingredients and bake in a moderate oven for 1 hour and 15 minutes. Have used the recipe for years. It will keep nice for weeks. This quantity will make two moderate sized loaves.

CHOCOLATE CAKE. One egg yolk, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1-2 cup milk, 3 squares chocolate. Stir in small saucepan on stove. Cream 1-2 cup butter, 1 cup sugar, add 1 egg and other white, 1-2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 cup milk, 1-2 cups pastry flour sifted three times. Stir in cooked part last. Frost with frosting made of egg, white, teaspoon of vanilla and enough confectioner's sugar to make proper consistency.

APPLE SAUCE-FRUIT CAKE. One cup granulated sugar, 1-2 cup cup butter, 1-3/4 cups flour, 1 cup raisins, chopped; 1 teaspoon cassia, 1-2 teaspoon clove, 1-4 teaspoon nutmeg, a pinch of salt, 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in a tablespoon water. Put in a cup, and when it is well dissolved fill the cup with sour apple sauce. Cream the butter and sugar, then add the apple sauce, then the flour, then raisins. I mix the spices with the flour, dry. Part butter and nice beef drippings may be used, which, I think, makes it better, and of course, lessens the expense.

SPONGE CAKE. Four eggs, beat well; 1 cup sugar, 1 cup flour, sifted 3 times; 1 teaspoon Congress yeast powder, 1-2 teaspoonful of salt, all sifted together. 1/2 teaspoonful essence of lemon. Bake in moderate oven 40 minutes.

LADIES' DRESS. By Anabel Worthington.

What better preparation for the summer vacation could one ask than several dainty thin dresses? Among the others you should not fail to include at least one real lingerie dress—either of flouncing or of some thin material trimmed with lace. The model shown in No. 8316 is a delightful style for such a dress, as it requires very little work and shows off the flouncing to the best advantage. The waist has the dachsch closing, which does not overlap. A very large pointed collar is the simple, but effective means of decorating the waist. The fronts of the waist are gathered to the back, which extends over in shallow yoke effect. The length of the sleeves is optional, as both long and three-quarter ones are provided for in the pattern. Very deep cuffs to match the collar are used to trim the three-quarter sleeves. The skirt is in one piece, straight at the lower edge, and gathered all around to the slightly raised waist line. A broad belt defines the front of the dress and sash ends are joined to the belt in back.

The dress pattern, No. 8316, is cut in sizes 34 to 42 inches bust measure. Width at the lower edge of skirt is 2 1/2 yards. As on the figure the 36 inch size requires 2 1/2 yards 43 inch flouncing, with 2 1/4 yards 48 inch flouncing and 2 1/4 yards of 36 inch material, 3/4 yards of edging and 1 1/2 yards of ribbon. To obtain this pattern send ten cents to the office of this publication.
