A SPLENDID CONCERT

The auditorium of the Baptist church was well filled last evening when the Acadia Orchestral Club gave a splendid concert. The orchestra, composed of 37 pieces, showed in their various selections the careful and painstaking teaching of their leader, Miss Beatrice Langley, and all the numbers were loudly applauded by the audience. Miss Frances DeWolfe, contralto, who is always a favorite, was never appreciated more than in her two selections last evening. The selections by Mr. B. Courtney Silver, baritone, and the reading by Mr. Wm. J. Miller, were also much enjoyed. The program was as follows:

- (a) War March of the Priests Mendelssohn
- (b) Allegro from Symphony in D. Haydn

POLICE COURT

Lloyd Crowell, who has wanted on a charge of interfering with Policeman Crowell in the discharge of his duty at Evangeline Rink on Feb. 10th, came into town and gave himself up on Monday evening. He was up before Stipendiary Crawley on Thursday morning when he pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $75 and costs. The Stipendiary in pronouncing the sentence stated that the maximum fine for such an offence was $100, but since the prisoner had saved the town the expense of the trial it was not his intention to impose the full penalty. It was necessary, however, in order that the fact might be emphasized that a policeman must not be prevented from doing his duty that the fine be made sufficiently large to prevent a repetition of the offence and teach a salutary lesson to other possible offenders. His honor pointed out that one man only was available for police duty in Wolfville and that he must be supported and protected in his work, which is in the interests of good order and the public safety.

HOCKEY NOTES

The Orpheus Lodge, I. O. O. F., hockey team added another to its long string of victories last night when they defeated the local Bankers by the overwhelming score of 10 to 0.

Dalhousie won the inter-collegiate hockey championship of the Maritime Provinces last Friday night at Amherst, by defeating Mt. Allison by the score of 1 to 0, after four and a half minutes over time play.

The Windsor hockey team went down to defeat before the Halifax Crescents at Halifax last Friday night. The score was 7 to 3.

The Canning High School hockey team played a return game with the Wolfville High School boys at Evangeline rink on Monday. The game resulted in a win for the Canning boys, the score being 4 to 0.

Interesting Report of Work Done by Local Nurse

Since the Victorian Order Nurse, Miss Harry, came to Wolfville, her work has steadily increased as the following statistics show:

- Total visits in November 99
- Total visits in December 156
- Total visits in January 225
- Total visits in February 250

These were not all nursing visits. They include child welfare, social service and school visits, as well as attendance upon the sick. The actual nursing visits in February numbered 156.

Statistics are illuminating, but here are facts of more vital interest. Four of the worst cases of enlarged tonsils and adenoids in the school, causing deafness and mental dulness, belonged to children whose parents were unable to pay anything toward the cost of an operation. Miss Harry brought the facts before the I. O. D. E.

In a short time those children were taken to Westwood Hospital and operated upon successfully. Dr. Elliott, Dr. deWitt and Dr. MacDougall gave their services free. Dr. deWitt gave the use of the hospital and the services of his nurses, as well. The sum of $5.00 per child was charged to cover the cost of anaesthetics. This amount, $20.00 in all, was paid by the I. O. D. E. The children are showing the benefit of the operation. One of the four, though of school age, had previously been unable to go to school, but has been in regular attendance since.

A vote of thanks has been sent to all who assisted in this work.

Miss Harry is preparing to open a Child Welfare Clinic in the town. The plan is, for parents of babies and of children up to school age, to meet in Parish Hall once a fortnight, with their little ones. Miss Harry will give them practical and helpful instruction in the care of young children. The babies will be weighed and their gain recorded from time to time. The date for opening this clinic will be announced later.

Miss White, of the College Faculty, has offered the services of some of her pupils to assist Miss Harry with the Clinic. Miss Harry will address Miss White's class in Social Service in the College, explaining the work of the proposed clinic. Two or more pupils will then assist by calling upon the mothers, explaining to them the advantages of attending the Clinic, and inviting them to come with the children at the time appointed.

The dentists of the town have been examining the teeth of the school children. The response to this work has been gratifying. Many children have had the necessary work done since the report were sent out.

Late in the Spring, when the dentists are less busy, owing to the closing of the Institutions, they plan to open a free Clinic for school children whose parents cannot afford to pay dentist bills.

Much more might be said concerning the community welfare work that is being done in our midst. That Miss Harry is a main factor in this work, all who are cognizant of the facts, will agree.

Miss Harry has found the Lending Cupboard of great help in recent emergencies. Rich and poor alike have benefited by its supplies. The V. O. N. is grateful for all contributions sent in. Whenever the donors name has accompanied a parcel, acknowledgement has been sent.

We make another appeal for clean old cotton cloth. We need as much of this as you can spare. Other sick-room appliances, too, will be welcome. Contributions for the Cupboard can be left at Mr. Caldwell's store.

Hereafter the monthly meetings of the V. O. N. will be held at 7.30 P. M. instead of 8 P. M. in Town Hall, on the first Thursday in the month. The change of hour was made to avoid conflict with other engagements which usually come at 8. In future the meetings will not be postponed, but made brief if so desired by the Executive.

BOYS' WORK NOTES

Thanks to the kindness of the College authorities the final game of Basketball for the Paul Tingley cup will be played in the Memorial Gymnasium next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The contestants are the Tabernacle and Methodist Patrols. Visitors will be welcome.

The parents of the Boy Scouts are asked to provide uniforms for their boys, if at all possible. Shirts and Hats are provided at cost price by the department of Boy Scouts Equipment, Halifax.

Wolfville Mourns

Sudden Death of Capt. John Pratt

Like a bolt from the blue came the startling news last Saturday evening of the sudden death of Capt. John Pratt, a highly esteemed and popular resident of this town. The deceased had been in Halifax for some time looking after shipments for the firm of W. H. Chase & Co., having been similarly engaged at different points in Nova Scotia and the West Indies for several years.

Early on Friday evening he returned to a slight attack of indigestion of which he spoke lightly, dined as usual and was about the hotel all the evening, retiring to his room at 11 o'clock. Falling to appear next morning his absence caused some comment, but it was not until afternoon that his dead body was discovered in his room, where he had apparently passed away while undressing the previous evening. The family were notified of the sad event and the remains forwarded here by the late train on Saturday night.

The funeral took place with Masonic honors, from his late home, on Tuesday afternoon, and was one of the largest attended in Wolfville for a long time. Many of the relatives and old friends of the deceased in Hants County came to pay their last tribute of respect. The Boy Scouts, of which the deceased was a warm friend, attended in a body and Wolfville people turned out en masse. The service was conducted by Rev. G. W. Miller and was a simple and appropriate one. Mr. A. J. Mason sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" with pleasing effect and the address by Rev. Miller was most sympathetic and fitting. The floral tributes were many and beautiful and a long procession of friends followed the remains to the last resting place in Willow Bank where the beautiful service of the Masonic order was carried out by members of St. George's Lodge, of which the deceased was a worthy member.

Capt. Pratt was a son of the late Capt. Rodman Pratt, and was born at Cheverie, Hants county, fifty-five years ago. Early in life he followed the sea, and later carried on a successful business at Cheverie, where he was highly esteemed. On the death of his father, who was for some years a resident of the town, he took up his abode in Wolfville, about six years ago. He was a good citizen, interested in all that related to the welfare of the community and ever ready to give of his energy and means to any cause which tended to the betterment of his fellows. The Boy Scout movement attracted his attention while a new-comer and he gave it generous and personal support. When the new camp at Lake Sumpter was being fitted up last summer he rendered splendid service and was always willing to give the use of his car and team to transferring the boys to and from their camps and outings. A big hearted, and helpful friend and neighbor he will be deeply missed from the community and the Presbyterian church of which he was a generous supporter.

Capt. Pratt is survived by his widow, two daughters and one son, who have the heart felt sympathy of the community generally in their sore bereavement.

The apple season of 1921-22 is practically over. The total shipments for export up to Wednesday amounted to 6,204 cars, holding approximately 1,385,900 barrels of apples. The estimate of barrels is based on 225 barrels per car, although some hold as much as 250. There are still left for export about 15,000 barrels.

The Ladies Bridge Club was entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. C. Johnson.

A MOST WORTHY INSTITUTION

Rev. V. M. Purdy, B. D., financial agent of the Maritime Home for Girls located at Truro, has been in Wolfville this week in the interest of that most worthy institution.

On Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Purdy spoke at the Presbyterian Church and in the evening at the Baptist Church. His address on both occasions was most interesting and revealed a work of uncalculable value which is being done jointly by the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Anglican churches. The home was established some seven years ago and since Sept. 1st, 1914 the total registration has been 155 girls. Starting as a reformatory home and school for Protestant delinquent girls of the Maritime Provinces with a property valued at $9,000, steady and satisfactory progress has been made until at the present time the property is valued at $100,000 with seventy girls now in residence. The necessary income is secured from the proceeds of the farm, grants from the legislature and municipalities, the balance being born equally by the four denominations. At present the contribution at the home is within a narrow margin of being taxed to the utmost and contributions are being solicited by Rev. Mr. Purdy towards the provision of new buildings at a cost estimated at $110,000.

Rev. Mr. Purdy who is a most interesting speaker, will address the congregation of St. John's church next Sunday morning and speak at the Methodist church in the evening. The work which he represents is one which merits the interest and support of Wolfville people and THE ACADIAN bespeaks for it your generous response.

King's County has finally got ready to build its amalgamated sex segregated poor house. Tenders are being called for the construction of a two story building, to accommodate both sexes, but they are to be in separate wings. The building is to be of wood and is according to plans and specifications, drawn by J. Graham, Johnson architect of Kentville, who won out in the competitive plans.

The I. O. D. E. have undertaken to collect clothing for children who are now unable to attend school. Any person wishing to contribute please notify Mrs. J. T. Roach, who will have the Boy Scouts call for the same.

Acadia Academy Lost

St. F. X. Academy Hockeyists Double Score on Local Team

The Acadia Collegiate hockey team went down to defeat before the visiting St. Francis Xavier team in a fast and well played game of hockey in the local rink last Friday night by a score of 8 goals to 4. The visitors were very fast and while they met with a lot of opposition from the locals they had the better team. Individual work featured the game and most of the goals were scored in this manner. The first session was full of thrills and both goals ead many narrow escapes. After about 10 minutes of play Sullivan broke loose and slammed the rubber into the Acadia goal. 5 minutes later MacDonnell repeated and the period came to an end with the visitors leading 2-0.

The second period was even better than the first. Both teams played brilliant hockey and although they were inclined to get a little rough on occasion the referee handled the game well. Sullivan made it three for St. F. X. and his team-mate MacDonnell added another. Near the end of the session MacDonnell again scored and the period ended with the score 5 to 2 in favor of the Xaverians.

Acadia came on the ice in the last period with the determination to win and they gave the St. F. X. goalie a hard time, but to no purpose. Lane broke away and got another for the visitors. The whole Acadia team then went on the offensive and Johnstone got their third goal, followed a few minutes later by Rand. This ended Acadia's scoring, while MacDonald, playing whirlwind hockey, added two goals in rapid succession to the visitors' score.

The line up was as follows:
Acadia—Goal, Higgins. Defence, Melish, McLean. Forwards, Morrison, Tupper, Rand, Pritchard, Johnstone.
St. F. X.—Goal, Currie. Defence, MacDonald, Murphy. Forwards, MacDonnell, Sullivan, Stewart, Brown, Lane. Referee: Harry Fraser.

ANNUAL MEETING W. C. T. U.

The past year of the Wolfville W. C. T. U. has been one of the most encouraging and successful in its history. At the annual business meeting Mrs. J. G. Elderkin was re-elected President. The Treasurer reported a membership of 49 and money raised during the year, totaling $104.60, from which contributions have been made to the Maritime Home for Girls, Truro; Famine Relief; Local Boy Scout Work; and to the Extension Fund, for W. C. T. U. work in the Province. Donations of apples were sent to the Children's Hospital and Orphans Home, Halifax, and a large box of clothing and other useful articles sent to the Labrador Orphan Mission.

The Superintendents' reports, which include among them subjects claiming the attention of women of the present day, as Temperance Reform, Citizenship, Child Welfare and the betterment of conditions of the Home and Community showed progress in the various departments of work.

The last meeting of Feb. 21st. held at the home of Mrs. J. Murphy, was of special interest, being the thirteenth anniversary of the organization. Letters were read from two valued charter members, Mrs. Kempton and Mrs. Irene Fitch. After business was dispatched a programme of readings and music was given, followed by the serving of delicious refreshments.

Three new members were welcomed at this meeting. The monthly meetings of the W. C. T. U. are open to the public who are cordially invited to attend.

W. C. T. U. IN INDIA

Salem, Madras Pres.

L. T. L. meetings have been held 40 times last year. The meeting held once a month alternately in the L. M. Hobart Girls' School and in the L. M. Fort Girls' School, Salem. The average number on the rolls was 65. We are very much grieved to inform you that one of our members named Sinegopathy died of plague; 13 of our members have gone to other places; 26 new members were admitted during the year. Number on the rolls is now 73. Miss Campbell came to Salem on the 14th August 1920, and spoke in our meeting about the work for prohibition in U. S. A. About 30 women, Christian and Hindu came and were much interested. The collection box was opened on 16th October 1920. There was Rs. 2-13. It will be sent to the Bible Society at Madras. As usual the members prepare Temperance songs, recitation, and story—acting for each meeting. The President or a leader gives each meeting a talk on benefits of Temperance and evils of drink. We are glad to say that our President, Miss Crouch Ammal, returned from Australia in February 1920, and took charge of temperance meeting. Please pray that our Lord may bless us and our work still more.

The Juvenile Band of Hope was responsible for a very successful and entertaining free Concert given in the Railway Institute. Mr. Davidson presided. The programme consisted of songs, recitation and a sketch "Mary and her Guests" in which Miss B. Abbott, representing the W. C. T. U. received delegates from England, Canada, Sweden, Iceland and Japan all characteristically attired in their National Costumes, and introducing them to "India" who was represented by Mrs. E. Plomer, in gorgeous colouring and flowing veil sealed in true oriental fashion on the floor of the stage, expounded to her the ideals, and world-wide work carried on by this organization.

The other items included "speeches" by the Tiny Dots their earnestness in delivering them and also joining in with the applause that followed, fairly brought down the house! A particularly beautiful Action Song entitled "Some Glad Day" was rendered by the Convert Girls. The Hall was crowded, seats not being available for all present. This I believe is the first Concert under the Band of Hope Leadership, and we sincerely congratulate Mrs. Newman. It is a pleasurable manner of bringing home to the public that the W. C. T. U. mean business, and are setting about doing it also "World-wide Prohibition in 1925!"

Central India

A congregation of Bhils in Central India could not quite decide whether smoking is a help or hindrance to a Christian; but strangely enough, they were unanimous, though smokers voted, in the decision that the pastor who should lead them must be a non-smoker.

in which 300 have signed the pledge of total abstinence. Aside from that, the peoples of the town have prepared and signed the following petition:—

We the citizens of Nawabganje are determined to drive intoxicating liquors and drugs such as "Sharas," "Ganga," "Charas" and "Opium" from our city. That it shall neither be made, sold, bought or drank here, and that no shop shall be opened in Nawabganje for the sale of it. If anyone is caught eating or drinking the above intoxicants, then he or she shall be reported to the Chaudhari of the caste, either by the Seva Samati Sabha or by any member of the temperance committee and the Chaudhari shall then punish him in a fitting way as he has authority to do.

North India.

The President of a North India Women's Christian Temperance Union was having the usual weekly interview with her dhobi. As she paid him his talab she said kindly, "Now, dhobi, don't spend this for drink," to which he replied, "No, I can't now." "What! are the shops all closed?" she asked. "He then told her that the shops were not closed, but that the dhobis had banded together and decided that anyone who drank must pay a large fine and give a feast to the whole brotherhood, and he, a choudhri among them, would not think of breaking the rule. In the same city similar action by the sweepers are reported.

Bombay Division.

Who said that Bombay Division was not up to the mark? New Unions, new Scattered Members, Loyal Temperance Legions, and Blue Ribbon Army Units—I think 11 L.T.L.s and 17 B. R.A.s were the last numbers, I heard—and Rs. 100 contributed to the National Funds in the month of March! Can any other Division show greater progress?—E. S. P. Ellore.

In certain villages of Ellore, the Christians have banded together to prevent any of their number drinking toddy. Now the caste people are concerned, "and say that if the outcastes give up toddy they will become as respectable as themselves." What an awful catastrophe! We have heard of the bankruptcy of governments without revenue from the traffic, and of the wrecking of industry if the manufacture of drink ceased, but that the people who have been degraded

MEETING HIS PEOPLE

"Be natural" was the sum of the advice tendered to the newly engaged girl in a discussion as to how she might best conduct herself in meeting for the first time the family circle of the fiance.

Don't be anything but your natural self. Don't forget that you are the choice of your betrothed. Don't lose sight of the fact that it is the duty of your hostesses to do most of the talking. Don't feel afraid of them. Don't fail to think kind thoughts of them. Don't let the thought slip from your mind that they are "his" people. Don't be afraid of feeling a little shy—better be thought shy than forward. Don't try to make believe you know his tastes better than his mother does, because you never will.

BRITISH STATESMEN AND FORESTRY

Great Britain having been aroused during the war to the need of adequate timber supplies within the Empire, is determined not to permit things to drop back into the old rut. First she called an Empire forestry conference, at which Canada was represented, and took stock of the situation; next, she entered upon a definite planting programme in the British Isles, calling upon Canada, through the Dominion Forestry Branch, to secure about a ton and a half of tree seed per annum for this purpose; and lastly, to keep up the work and give people information on this most important subject, she has established an Empire Forestry Association, with Headquarters in London, which will link up the work of Dominion association, like the Canadian Forestry Association, and as Lord Lovat expressed it "pool the resources of their knowledge." It is expected that conventions will be held in different parts of the Empire and that Canada will be one of the first Dominions to be thus honored.

SHE DIDN'T WANT TO LIVE

"I felt so ill and wretched that I didn't care whether I lived or not."

This was Mrs. W.'s experience. If you are not feeling well you should read every word of her letter. She says, "Unless you have actually experienced what it means to be ill, really ill, you don't know what suffering is. I felt so ill and miserable that I didn't care whether I lived or not. I am naturally of an active temperament and as a result I must have overworked myself, because I began to feel tired and weak after the least exertion. At times my face took on a deathly pallor. I was sore all over. I was troubled with dull pains which at times produced nausea. My body felt as if somebody had been pounding it—every bit of it pained. When I laid down at night I could not get into a comfortable position and the consequence was I got very little sleep. The pains, which followed sleeping in one position for any length of time, gave me frightful dreams from which I awoke weak and perspiring. I consulted doctors and they told me that I was completely run down and I needed something to build me up. Their prescriptions only helped me for a while. One day I found a cure about Carnol and the statements in it sounded so honest and true and free from any exaggeration that I decided to try it. In six weeks after taking the first bottle I was as well as ever. If any one had told me that Carnol would do what it did for me I wouldn't have believed them."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 7-122

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Soap jelly for washing flannels and delicate fabrics—Shave thinly 1-2 pound soap into a saucepan and pour over it 1 quart boiling water. Boil until the soap is melted, and then pour into a bowl or tin, and when cold it will be found to be a stiff jelly, but which will readily dissolve in warm water. It is preferable to ordinary soap in washing flannels and delicate fabrics, where it is undesirable to rub the soap on the garment.

Starch muslins, laces and prints will look nicer and iron more easily if dampened with hot water instead of cold.

Any soap that is left in the clothes will affect the bluing, because the alkali in the soap decomposes the coloring matter and causes it to form iron rust spots. Therefore, be more particular about rinsing the clothes.

In serving a bird a good rule to remember is that the leg of a flying bird and the wing of a swimming bird are the choicest portions.

In carving a leg of lamb or mutton cut through the thick side toward the bone. Cut lamb or mutton in rather thick slices.

Tongue must be cut very thin. The centre slices are the most delicate. A piece of fat from the root should be given to each person. The tip and root should not be served, but used for potted meat.

CANADA'S STRONG PLACE

In Canada we are apt to think—just as the people of other countries think about themselves—that we are having the hardest times in the world. We are not. We have our troubles. But they are nothing in comparison with the troubles that European countries have been enduring; and the best opinion is that we are coming through even better than the United States.

The present is the time for optimistic sentiment. The man with a gloomy countenance creates despair. The man with a bright countenance and cheery word radiates hopefulness and encourages activity. Saying this we do not suggest that difficulties financial and social and in regard to unemployment are not serious. They are not to be passed by as unimportant. But pessimism will not dissipate them.

Optimism will go a long way towards relieving and curing them. The man who has a strong heart and who looks cheerfully into the future is far more likely to be a helper in these circumstances than the man who goes about with his head bowed groaning about bad times. The former will do something. The latter is more likely to wait for others to do what he himself should be doing.

Fire losses in Canada last year totalled over Thirty Million Dollars, an increase of Six Millions over those of 1920. This is a distressing showing, and the worst of it is that the record for our Province is one of the worst. A fire loss is a dead loss, and in most cases it is a preventable loss.

NEIGHBORS

When a teller loves his neighbor, like the ten commandments means, it lifts up common people to the stage of kings an' queens; there's music floatin' everywhere, on every balmy breeze, an' the harmony is echoed by the robbers in the trees.

The devil never camps around a lovin' neighborhood, an' there ain't no "latest gossip" to pizen people's blood, but there's borrowin' an' lendin' with a willin' heart an' hand, an' a wholesome lendin' spirit that the children understand.

I never liked to be afeared of trampin' some ones toes, nor to see a skyward angle onto Mrs. Henpeck's nose,—an' the time when I was sickest, which is lasted more's a week, and when I jawed at Bilkins, an' neither wouldn't speak.

There's lots of sorry pastime that associates with gall, but fussin' with a neighbor is the sorriest of 'em all.

MOTION PICTURE MORALITY

(From the Ottawa Journal)

In support of the allegation of general immorality among motion picture people is advanced questionable character of some of the pictures they produce. Pictures of that kind would not be produced if the public did not want them. We don't know whether the motion picture people like to act such pictures, but we do know that there is always demand for them. The sweeping condemnation of the motion picture craft is as ridiculous as was the old idea of the ignorant public regarding the speaking stage.

URNS HENS INTO PERPETUAL MOTION MACHINE

The summer schedule in egg production may be prolonged through out the entire year if artificial light is regulated with precision. Dawn, sunrise, sunshine, and twilight have respective effects on the hen in determining the number of eggs she will furnish and accordingly the modern hen house is equipped with an elaborate lighting and dimming system.

It is not enough to switch on the lights at four a. m. and again from twilight till midnight. The hen must be inured to light gradually by use of the dimmers. Dawn must arrive by a slow turning up of the lights and night must come on gradually to insure a fourteen hour working day in the henery.

THE POSSIBILITIES OF RADIO

(From the Ottawa Citizen.)

On Friday night last members of the Ottawa Amateur Radio Association heard a concert in Pittsburg, Pa., a jazz performance in Newark, N. J., and a speech at Arlington, Va. What they heard was not so important as how they heard it. With a telephone attachment to his ears, each one present heard the voice of singers and speakers and the tones of musical instruments hundreds of miles away, carried on atmospheric waves without the use of the wires.

Radio telephony is, indeed, a wonderful advance in scientific invention. The limits to its development are almost boundless. What may be implied from the "listening in" of the small group of amateur radio enthusiasts at Lansdowne Park on Friday? One sees the day when music will pour into every home on the continent, sung or played by the finest artists of the world. The Melbas and Carusos, the symphony orchestras and the string quartettes of the days to come will not make magic sounds for the few in a crowded opera house or concert hall, but for millions who care simply to place a telephone receiver to their ears.

One can glimpse the time when, to some central place, perhaps on an isolated hill in the middle of Kansas, the President of the United States of the World will repair, there to give an anxious people his inaugural message. It is possible that in the future everyone will carry in the vest pocket his own radio set and at any moment of the day be able to speak with someone else in a distant part of the earth. It is within easy compass of the imagination to visualize an age when the news of the world will be circulated instantaneously through the universal radio telephone, when statesmen will pronounce momentous decisions to an expectant population "listening in" in every home and meeting place, and when decrees and edicts will be uttered by the Governments of the day through the transmitter of a wireless telephone set.

Concert chambers and convention halls may be done away with. Perhaps newspapers, as they are known today, will be cast into oblivion. The new invention is only in its infancy and its possibilities are beyond imagination. And yet one cannot forget the factors of individuality and vision in our human relationships. One feels, somehow, that however resonantly a voice will carry through the space of the air, its hearers can never gain that same emotional response or inspiration that comes from the actual presence of the artist or statesman who is performing or speaking. Nevertheless, the radio promises to prove a boon to mankind in countless ways, and its much wider use in a natural development to be expected.

TEN THINGS WORTH REMEMBERING

The late Marshal Field once said there are ten things worth remembering:

- 1. The value of time.
2. The success of perseverance.
3. The pleasure of working.
4. The dignity of simplicity.
5. The worth of character.
6. The power of kindness.
7. The influence of example.
8. The wisdom of economy.
9. The improvement of talent.
10. The joy of originating.

Let us steal the word "sin" from the theologians. It is a good word that ought not to be allowed to wither into obsolescence. It is a far better word than "crime," which has elbowed it out of literature and almost out of life. The criminal is only the sinner who has been found out. Let us leave the word "crime" to the lawyers and keep the word sin for ourselves. It is the jury and the judge who convict us of crime, but we are convicted of sin by the jury and the judge within our own breast. I do not know whether the criminal who is convicted of crime rejoices as he goes to prison, but I do know that the man who is convicted of sin steps into the merry light of liberty. Sin is boredom; goodness is gladness.—James Douglas.

DISCUSS CIVIC AFFAIRS

BUY, BUT BUY WISELY.

It is very much to be regretted that the town authorities do not see their way clear to publish this year the town reports as in former times. We believe that citizens are justly entitled to considerable more information regarding civic affairs than has been handed to them during recent years. A better insight into financial conditions than exists at the present time could not fail to make for a greater interest on the part of citizens and would naturally be of informing as well as satisfaction to ratepayers. The chief reason given for withholding the information just now is that the finances do not warrant the necessary expenditure. Such an argument naturally appeals to the public with considerable force and any attempt to introduce and maintain an economical policy based upon sound business principles will readily find support among our citizens. There is however, "that which withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty."

THE ACADIAN would beg to suggest to our city "fathers" that since it appears necessary in the interests of economy to forego the publication of the Year Book such as other towns are giving to their people that steps be taken to hold a public meeting of citizens at which all the reports be read and discussed and at which also the financial condition of all the departments of town government be fully explained. We believe that such a meeting properly arranged and conducted and carried on, not, in the spirit of fault finding but with the idea of securing a wider knowledge of town affairs among our people, could not fail of being most interesting and useful.

The secretary of the Wolfville Board of Trade has received from Mr. Robinson, M. P., information that the Federal Government is considering the discontinuance of the Minas Basin mail service between Parrsboro and Wolfville which has been enjoyed during recent years. This service is a most important one and is of real value during the summer months when mail matter under winter conditions requiring two days for delivery, is transported between these points in a few hours. Citizens should give the Board of Trade every assistance possible in securing a continuance of this service.

While government propaganda aimed at establishing economy among the people is all right as far as it goes, the people will do well to remember there is a wide difference between economy and a determination not to buy. Economy is wise buying of necessities, and it is well also to have a pretty clear idea of what necessities consist. A new talking machine record to bring relief from monotony on the farm is a better investment than a doctor's bill incurred as the result of shattered nerves. Naturally the government's aim is the investment of the public money in government securities, undoubtedly the safest in the world, but there is a business side of spending as well as of saving that must be taken into consideration. The merchants of this town, as well as those of every other town, must be kept busy. If our people are to have the convenience of home town purchasing, then the people must keep the goods moving off the shelves of the merchants. There is no loss, no waste in home town buying because the money circulates in our own territory, and eventually gets back to the purchaser. It is only when money is taken out of town that the harm is done. Thrift should be encouraged; but thrift does not mean no buying. Russell Sage, who left millions, was thrifty. He bought his straw hats in the winter time and his flannel underwear in the summer time, when prices were down, but even he bought what he needed. Healthy home trade will do more than anything else to restore sound prosperity. We are all in the same boat. We cannot be prosperous at the expense of our local merchants, and we don't want to be.

We note that the town of Pictou has just passed a regulation providing that a salary of $300 be given annually to the Mayor. This is in line with the suggestion made recently by THE ACADIAN to the citizens of Wolfville.

There is a great demand for increased housing facilities in Wolfville this spring, which warrants the application of the housing act or of some other measure which will make provision for the rapidly growing population of Wolfville.

SOME NEW ADVERTISERS

THE ACADIAN is very glad to welcome to its advertising columns a number of new patrons this week.

L. W. Sleeps' Hardware store, while not a stranger to our columns, being really one of THE ACADIAN's oldest customers along this line, has not been of late a regular advertiser. Mr. Sleep makes an announcement this week that will be of interest to householders, and from week to week during the coming year will have something that our readers will find of profit.

The firm of N. H. Phinney Ltd. has an announcement in this issue that is worthy of consideration. This well known firm will be regular advertisers in the columns of THE ACADIAN in future and our readers will do well to watch for their announcements.

Another new advertiser this week is the millinery firm of Sloan & Kearney of Kentville, which has engaged space to announce their opening of Spring Millinery. Their advertisement will of course be of special interest to the ladies. The millinery establishment of Sloan & Kearney is up-to-date in every respect. Watch for their future announcements.

The A. C. Cox Farm Agency has an announcement in this paper that will secure attention from our readers. Mr. Cox expects to use our space freely to inform the public regarding good things in real estate which he has to offer.

In addition to the foregoing our regular advertisers have numerous new announcements in this issue, to which the public attention is directed. It always pays to read THE ACADIAN's Advertisements as by so doing you can save dollars. Buy from the people who want your trade and ask for it.

"MADEMOISELLE OF ARMENTIERES"

Canada is rapidly coming to the front as a theatrical producing country and no entertainment coming from abroad is more worthy of patronage than "Mademoiselle of Armentieres," which is an all Canadian production, written, organized, equipped, financed and acted by Canadians, coming to the Opera House, Friday Evening only, March 17th. Each and every one of the male members of the company have seen service in the Canadian army in France—the length of each man's service averaging two years and over.

The entire press and public in the east have been very high in their praise of the splendid merits of this musical comedy of Canadian soldier life throughout the great struggle in France and Flanders, and in every town and city where "Mademoiselle of Armentieres" has played, it has been greeted with large and appreciative audiences, which gives ample proof of the appreciation of Canadian theatregoers for first-class made in Canada productions. Over two hours of merry tuneful comedy brings the complete lighter side of the great war before you as only soldier actors can act it.

Under the direction of Mr. A. J. Mason the choir of St. Andrews church is giving very satisfactory service. The music last Sunday morning included, besides the regular congregational singing, a well rendered anthem, the solo the part being taken by Mrs. J. W. Smith, in her usual effective manner. At the evening service a quartette composed of Mrs. H. W. Smith, Mrs. B. O. Davidson, Mr. Mason and Mr. Bannerman rendered an appropriate selection, which was much enjoyed by the congregation.

FRUIT GROWERS CONFERENCE

The Dominion Fruit Growers' Conference was held in the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, Feb. 22-24. The chief result of the meeting, one that will have far reaching consequences, was the approval of the principal of establishing a national horticultural council to represent all the horticultural interests of Canada, and to speak authoritatively for such interests to the government and the public. The different provinces were represented on the provisional council.

Resolutions were adopted changing the branding of apples boxes and an important resolution was passed expressing appreciation, of the co-operation given by the Canadian railways in connection with the fruit industry during the past two years.

The conference was held under the auspices of the government, and O. W. Baxter, dominion fruit commissioner, presided throughout.

This province was represented by Rev. G. P. Raymond, Berwick; J. Howe Cox, Cambridge Station; E. H. Johnson, Greenwich; President Bishop, of the United Fruit Companies, Ltd., and Prof. Blair of Kentville Experimental Station.

Advertising pays if you know how to advertise. So does any other enterprise if you know how to conduct it. There were other stores, with more capital and larger stocks in Toronto when Eaton started. They let the people come to them; Eaton went after the people. Eaton expanded; they contracted. Eaton let people know he had goods to sell and gave the prices. They didn't. That is the whole story of the Eaton success.—The Leader.

Every Man in Business Knows

WHAT HE HAS TO SELL

BUT DO OUR READERS KNOW?

HOW MUCH TO INVEST IN LOCAL ADVERTISING

Practice of Successful Retailers Best Answer to that Question.

The best teachers from whom a retailer can borrow lessons, are those who have made advertising pay. They exist in every community and with few exceptions back up the rule that the best advertisers are the most successful merchants.

The most conservative of national advertisers approximate 5 per cent. of their sales for their investment in advertising. Many of them appropriate more than that amount. The average would probably be somewhere between 5 and 25 per cent. The majority of city merchants appropriate far in excess of 5 per cent. If increased sales did not justify these appropriations, they would not be kept up year after year.

How many merchants in the smaller towns, considering a budget for the year based on total sales, make an appropriation of even 5 per cent. for advertising? If the majority of them would expend that amount or more, it would result in more prosperous newspapers, able to serve their communities more effectively, and ultimately make better communities for the general condition of a community may safely be sized up by the prosperity of its local publications.

A few advertisers—the really successful ones in the smaller cities and towns—do expend as much as 5 per cent. of their sales in advertising. They realize that to meet outside competition and develop local trade to something like its possibilities, they must advertise to an extent approximately that of successful dealers elsewhere. But there are many who do approach the 5 per cent. figure. Take as an illustration a small drug store doing a gross business of $50 a day or about $15,000 a year. The average druggist of this class would be horrified at the idea of spending $750 a year for advertising in the local paper; yet that is only 5 per cent. of his sales and is the amount he should spend if he would offset competition and build up his business to something like its possibilities.

The druggist is only one of the many of the smaller merchants who do not take advantage of the power of advertising. They may argue that advertising is a specialized art developed by city merchants or those with a national product to sell and is not within the province or ability of the small merchant. It is not specialized to the degree that it cannot be copied. The merchant who does not know how to advertise can study the methods of those who do know. He had better learn, for someone who does know is likely to come along and take his trade away from him.

For the benefit of those who do not know how to write good advertising copy, THE ACADIAN supplies prepared ads covering practically all lines of business, written by experts after the most approved methods. A request will bring a proof of this service. It is being used by thousands of merchants throughout the country and there are many more who should be using it.

TROUBLES OF NEWSPAPERS

(From the Victoria Colonist.)
Newspapers have a difficult path along which to steer in these times, when ideas are so unsettled and nerves are unstrung. There are more critics abroad than ever before, and there is a greater variety of seekers after an indefinable something—a want which they believe the Press should supply. Newspapers have never been so generous in allotting space to the viewpoints of their correspondents, but there is not a newspaper which is not accused, from time to time, or not being generous enough. Religious cults, social organizations, and scores of newly-formed societies and associations believe that the papers exist as a medium for propaganda for the hundred and one aims which they have in view, and they believe that when a score or less people get together and promulgate a policy, or platform, such necessarily constitutes news. That is one of the difficulties with which newspapers have to contend.

A WORD TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

WHY NOT TELL THEM THE TRUTH

How much misery and crime and unhappiness could be prevented in this town if parents would give their children the impression that they are their pals rather than a judge of their actions. So many boys and girls are often in doubt about something. They long so for someone to whom they can talk and who will understand them. But many parents feel that they must display no signs of imperfection before their children, they must not let them know that they are only human with human motions and desires. They always take the attitude of failing to understand upon those few occasions when their children do screw up courage enough to talk to them. They always say, "Why I never heard of such a thing! I'm sure I never felt or did such things when I was young." Do they really believe it when they say it? For human nature changes very little in one generation.

Then, a year or two afterward when some outsider tells them of some misdeed of the child or some bad habit which could have been so easily corrected if taken in the early stages but which has been allowed to run on until it has assumed really serious proportions, the parent goes to the child and says, "But why didn't you come to me and tell me about it," and he fails again to realize he is at fault when the child replies, "Oh, I was afraid because I knew you wouldn't understand."

Why will parents persist in the foolish fancy of showing their children and trying to show them only the perfect side. If they only knew how much it would help the child to know that their father and mother struggled through just the same temptations and trials that they are struggling through before they came out on top.

NOVEL METHOD OF COLLECTING ACCOUNTS

This space will be used by the Herald for advertising for sale delinquent accounts. The description will give the names of parties delinquent, how long the bill is past due and the amount, and such accounts will be advertised until disposed of by payment or sale. This privilege is also extended to advertisers in the Herald for the nominal sum of 5 cents a line.

BUILD YOUR HOUSE IN 1922

Costs are as Much as $1,000 Less Than a Year Ago On a $3,500 Home say Building Supply Men.

For those who have been turning over in their minds during the past few years the momentous question of building a home, the lumber and building supply men have some good news. Many have been kept from building during 1920 because of the falling market of lumber and supplies.

The manager of one company was able to give a very concrete idea of the present position of low prices. He said: "We make a practice of selling the complete outfit for construction of a thoroughly well-built home. Last year, take for instance, this home would have cost you $3,648.80. We have just set our prices for 1922. They stand at $2,577.66; or, in round figures, one-third less than last year. Here's another—last year $2,237.99 and this year $1,557.79. The reason is that lumber prices have hit bottom, in fact, are trending higher again. Other minor necessities are still due for a slight fall in prices, but anyone who waits for all prices to reach bottom will get nipped, because of the upward tendency of the lumber market—for lumber is the major element in construction of a home. Lumber prices on the upward trend will more than offset the small gain in cheaper general supplies."

His judgement is upheld by the trade in general. Renewed activities of contractors and builders throughout Canada would indicate that they are preparing for more building this year.

GREENWICH NOTES

Mr. Wilson, of Waterville, was in this place a day or two again last week, on his duties as apple inspector.

The "Greenwich Dramatic Club" enjoyed a sleighing party of five, to Kentville last Tuesday evening, attending the Nickle while there, returning home about midnight. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. B. L. Cox, and the team provided by Mr. Murray Forsythe, one of the Club members.

Our school accompanied by their teacher, Miss Fisher, through the kindness of Messrs Judson Pulsifer and Hazen Bishop, each with large two horse teams, was taken on a sleigh drive last Thursday afternoon. The route taken was across the Dyke to Port Williams, up Belcher Street into Kentville, where the pupils enjoyed treats at Moores Kandy Kitchen, etc, thence home through New Minas. It was very evident the pupils thoroughly enjoyed this drive and we understand, they often and lustily used their original "Yell."

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Forsythe pleasantly entertained a few of the young people at their home, for tea and the evening, last Friday. Piano duets and the singing of "old time songs" was a part of the programme of the evening and was much enjoyed.

Mrs. George Bishop has issued invitations to the "Dramatic Club" to spend the evening at her home on Thursday this week.

The dance given here last Monday evening at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliott Smith, for the benefit of the Ken-Wo Club, "proved an enjoyable and profitable one. A number came from Kentville by train, in Mr. Grahams' private car, to the station here, where they were met by teams and conveyed to Mr. Smith's residence.

Many of the residents in this community have, during the last three years, found it very convenient having a plumber living here. Now, we feel sure many of those of us who are housekeepers will find it just as convenient having a Butcher, with his meat business located in our community.

FOURTEEN HINTS FOR PRUNING

- 1. Proper pruning gives more and better fruit.
2. It costs less to pick and spray a well pruned tree.
3. All varieties are not pruned alike.
4. Heavy pruning tends to increase wood growth, and may be used to rejuvenate a run-down tree.
5. Light pruning tends to increase fruit production.
6. The growing habit of a tree varies with age.
7. Watersprouts are usually the result of heavy pruning.
8. A limb grows more from the tip buds than from the lateral buds.
9. Fruit may be thinned by pruning.
10. Keep the top of tree somewhat open. Light helps to make extra fancy fruit.
11. If the buds on your peach trees have been killed and the fruiting wood is in the upper third of the top, "dehorn" your trees back heavily to limbs one inch in diameter.
12. Learn the principles of pruning, the details will vary with the tree.
13. Common sense and good judgment will help a great deal.
14. There is no good reason why you should not do the work yourself.

LEFT THE JOB

Sven had been pushing logs down the river toward the chute to the buzz-saw for several hours when the boss came along. "This bane too much vark for one man," Sven told him. "Alright," said the boss, "I'll send John down to help you." An hour passed and the boss was walking by again, Sven made the same complaint. "This bane too much vark for one man," "But I sent John down to help you. Where is he?" "Yohn, he ain't bane here some time. He went down between two logs. HIS WIFE TO THANK

(John Steven McGwarthy in Los Angeles Times.)

We came across a man, lately, who is jogging along toward seventy years of age. He is in the best of health, and as spry as a cricket, as the saying is.

And, by golly, although he is too stubborn to admit it, he has his wife to thank for it.

All this man's life he had the idea that his wife imposed on him. She made him split the wood, carry the water, milk the cow, and do all the chores around the house. Often she even made him do the sweeping.

And he thought himself imposed upon. He thought his wife should have done those things. Look at the Indians, he used to say; how they make their wives do the work.

Now, this man earned a living as a book keeper. If left to his own way, he would never have taken any more violent exercise than lifting a penholder or a lead pencil. And now he would either be dead or a wreck from dyspepsia.

His wife, that he thought was hard on him because she made him bend his back and use his muscles, was really his best friend.

By golly, there are a lot of men in the world who do not appreciate the blessing their wives are to them.

TRY THIS TRICK

The following little trick is taken from an Old Country paper; try it yourself, then on your friends; it is given for what it is worth:

"Stand about 18 inches from a wall facing the direction parallel with the wall, with your arms hanging relaxed. Stiffen the arm next the wall and move it away from the body until the back of the hand comes into contact with the wall. Then stand firm, and press the back of the hand against the wall, as hard as possible for 15 seconds. Relax, and this, in the words of the scientists, is what will happen: 'To the observer's astonishment, the arm will slowly rise without his making any voluntary effort until it reaches a approximately horizontal position; it will remain there for a few seconds, and then fall back. While the phenomenon is taking place, the observer has the sensation that his arm is raised by an exterior force which is quite independent of volition.'

RIGHT, ALAS!

(From the Homiletic Review.) A Philadelphia clergyman is the father of a son whose habits of unpunctuality are a sore trial. Nevertheless, the youth's ready tongue is a source of secret delight to the parent.

Once the young man appeared at Sunday breakfast twenty minutes after the appointed time.

"Son," said the minister, reproachfully, as he held his watch so that the youth might see its accusing face, "do you think this is right? Do you honestly think it is right?"

"Well, father," returned the young man, regretfully, "I wish it were about twenty minutes fast, but as you ask me to say honestly, I am afraid it's just about right."

MAY PLAY "EVANGELINE"

Longfellow's "Evangeline" has made historic our pretty and peaceful Grand Pre district. We cannot estimate the number of people who have come here to look over the spot immortalized by the American poet. Now that special work has been done in beautifying the grounds at Grand Pre, we may expect people in greater numbers to flock there to the scene of the Acadian tragedy of 1755.

Rev. A. T. Kempton, D. D., of Cambridge, Mass., a native of Canada, did much to draw attention to this place by his lectures and exhibition of pictures throughout the United States. These pictures were taken on the spot where the Acadians dwelt, depicted the different characters and the deportation from the banks of the river at Horton Landing.

Now the well known Theda Bara has conceived the idea of further drawing attention to Longfellow's "Evangeline" by arranging for its production from the scenes made famous by Longfellow. This lady, with her husband, Mr. Charles Brabin, has purchased a very large estate at Digby, which is but a short ride by train from the land made famous by Longfellow's classic. Theda Bara, while here on her honeymoon, was so enamored with the country that she not only decided to make it a summer home, but has made suggestions and plans for a play of "Evangeline". When she returns this year arrangements may be completed for the same.

Theda Bara's husband, Charles Brabin, is an Englishman, and it is his love for this country which has inspired his wife.—The Advertiser.

PEARLS CAUSE ILLNESS

Dr. Arthur J. Hall, an English doctor, on treating one of his women patients for a mysterious illness, found it was due to an imitation pearl necklace. This patient always suffered from acute dermatitis after wearing the pearls. "There is certainly a mystery about pearls which has yet to be fathomed," said an eminent London medical practitioner. "Pearls are said to be grown in Japan by artificial means. Worn on the skin they take in the excretions that exude from the pores. That this has some effect is unquestioned. The pearls either 'thrive or starve,' and the wearer is often affected. Certainly one ought for sanitary reasons, to ascertain the state of health of the person from whom second-hand pearls are purchased, otherwise disease may easily be passed on to the later wearer."

REAL ENTERPRISE

On a certain evening last autumn, a group of farmers sat around the stove in the general store and joined in a general and heartfelt complaint about the ravages of the potato bugs.

"The pests ate my whole potato crop in two weeks," said one farmer.

"They ate my crop in two days," said a second farmer, "and then they roosted on the trees to see if I'd plant more."

"That's remarkable," he said, "but let me tell you what I saw in our own store. I saw a couple of potato bugs examining the books about a week before planting time to see who had bought seed."—Chicago Daily News.

HEALTHIER WITHOUT LIQUOR

The New York Times reports the conclusion of 37 leading American insurance companies that the year 1921 was the healthiest year in the history of both the United States and Canada. The figures for the first ten months indicate a lowering of the death rate among policyholders from 9.8 in 1920 to 8.24 in 1921. Despite the absence of liquor, pneumonia decreased 50 per cent. from 1920. More prosperous non-drinking residents of North America, however, were able to afford automobiles. The 37 companies supplying these figures transact about 80 per cent. of the life insurance business of the country. There was a large decrease in deaths from tuberculosis.

An interesting game of hockey was played yesterday afternoon between grades VIII and X for the championship of the Wolfville school and the cup donated by the I. O. D. E. The game was keenly contested and resulted in a win for grade X by the score of 5 to 3.

Grade XI—Gordon Eaton, Joe Burgess, Malcom Wallace, Walter Pick, Nelson Gray, Colin Munro and Stuart Cowie.

NOVA SCOTIA LEGISLATURE

The second session of the 35th Legislature of Nova Scotia opened at the Province Building, Halifax, on March 2nd, with the usual traditional ceremonies.

From a legislative viewpoint the opening of the session promised less than for many years. The "Speech from the Throne" was remarkable for what it did to contain rather than for any pronouncement of constructive legislation.

OUT IN FRONT

By the Pioneer Sergeant.

WE are not STRONG on fighting PERSONALLY. WE find it damaging TO our condition. FAMILY spats, OF course, are DIFFERENT. WE ran up to OTTAWA THE other day. WE were not LOOKING for political FAVORS, either. WE were nearly ARRESTED for fighting WHILE there. BEING so far from HOME WE felt brave. NOBODY knew us. IT happened over OUR Town Hall. SOME conceited individual MADE us sore. HE intimated that THE new Parliament Buildings WERE superior to THE home of our TOWN fathers. OF all the nerve! WE ask you, PERSONALLY, DID you ever see ANYTHING to compare with OUR civic building? THINK of its features— SPACIOUS verandas— MASSIVE colonnades THO slightly battle-worn— NO giddy paint TO detract the eye— CONVENIENT bill board— IMPOSING hallways— AND what not. DO you wonder that

ACADIA GRADUATE WINS FELLOWSHIP AT YALE

Donald D. Foster, a science graduate of Acadia University, class of 1920, who won the Loomis Fellowship in physics at Yale University last year, has again won this valuable and coveted prize.

The Loomis Fellowship in Physics was established in 1902 by Francis E. Loomis (B. A. 1864), by the gift of $10,000.

This fellowship is open to recent graduates of Yale College and the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University, and to graduates of other institutions who have spent at least one year in the study of Physics in the Graduate School of Yale University.

Two years ago the fellowship was won by J. Stuart Foster, an elder brother of the present winner. He graduated in science from Acadia in 1911 and obtained his Ph. D. degree from Yale University last June.

Another brother, Malcolm C. Foster, also obtained his Ph. D. degree from Yale last spring. He graduated in science from Acadia in 1914.

GRADE XI ENTERTAINED

Miss Rathburn's residence, Highland avenue, was the scene of a happy affair last Friday evening when Miss Dorothy Hennigar, of Grade XI of the High School, entertained the members of her class and a few other friends.

The evening's pastimes, waltzing and bridge, were entered into with much zest by the young people. At 10.30 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served.

OUR fighting blood WAS aroused? WE thank you.

CLINIC ITEMS

Dental Clinic, Kentville Academy, Friday, March 17th.

Everybody should use his own tooth brush and use a small brush with bristles of uneven length. A small tooth brush can be moved about in the mouth more easily than a large one.

The top or grinding surfaces of the teeth must be cleaned thoroughly. More than one half of the holes in the first molars occur at the tops.

Hon. W. S. Fielding says that nothing in the shape of any reciprocal trade with the United States can be expected at present but he has hopes that President Harding will in time carry on negotiations with Canada for free trade.

Dr. G. B. Cutten delivered a lecture at Berwick last Friday evening on the subject, "Some Modern Advances in Psychology."
