restraint upon himself to prevent himself from taking her in his arms. His heart was beating to suffocation. In that moment he forgot that he was not what he represented himself; he felt that he was the poor nobleman as an act of genius confounds himself with the role that he essays.

“Do you think,” she asked slowly, haltingly, pulling at the silk mull that garlanded her hat, “that we, my parents and I, appreciate you for what you have? It is the last thing that we ever consider. You know there was a time when we had the same misfortune ourselves. It was before I was born, before my father was born, even; but it sometimes seems to me that I have never forgotten it, and I am quite sure father never has, though it so far antedates his birth I am sorry that my father did not know, because I feel certain that he could give you advice that would materially benefit you. Will you promise me to tell him? And now there is all the more reason why you should remain our guest until you have decided upon your future. Very Enjoyable Church Social.
 Presentation of Address, &c., to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Munn, soon to Sever Their Connection with the Town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Munn, who will leave shortly for British Columbia, where they will settle down, were the guests last night of the whole Presbyterian congregation, and a most enjoyable social was held at the beautiful residence of Mrs. Archibald, sr. The members of the Ladies' Aid, of which Mrs. Munn had been a most untiring worker, had arranged for a picture of the old Kirk (so dear to the hearts of all) with a number of the congregation standing by the entrance. This photo was taken by Mr. R. T. Parsons, and was indeed a beautiful piece of work. The picture, about 16 x 20 inches, was presented to Mrs. Munn and will, we feel sure, be highly prized as a reminder of the pleasant days spent in Harbor Grace. The ladies also presented Mrs. Munn with a nicely worded address, for which the latter lady thanked them most sincerely. The Rev. F. S. Coffin, the highly esteemed pastor of the little flock, next read the address to Mr. Munn, and referred to Mr. Munn's constant attention to his duties as Secretary and Treasurer, as well as his various other willingly given services to St. Andrew's congregation. Mr. Munn replied in a few well chosen words, with a sincere wish for the success of the Kirk and happiness and success for all the members of the congregation. Addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Coffin, Mr. James Cron, Mr. Ed. Parsons, Mr. H. H. Archibald, Dr. Parsons, Mr. Jas. D. Munn, Mr. N. Munn, Mr. O. V. Travers and others. A very pleasant hour was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Munn and family will take with them the best wishes of a host of friends both here and at St. John's. The following is the address, which was printed on white satin and looked very pretty:

CHAPTER IV.
WHAT A SWEET REVENGE.
AFTER all, why should he be denied every happiness in life because of a misfortune that was not his fault?
 That was the thought that smouldered through the density that was upon his heart and brain.
 Loyd-Mostyn gave him a little push.
 “Go!” he said breathlessly. “Go, and God bless you.”
 And Devereux went.
 With an excitement that was painful, Loyd-Mostyn watched until Erle joined her. He distinctly saw the flush with which she received him, the almost tender embarrassment of her manner; then he turned away with a triumphant exclamation.
 “What an easy victory!” he muttered. “God! What a revenge it will be. Ha, ha! I can scarce control my impatience until the knot has been tied, and then, Duchess—ha, ha—then my time will come. Humiliation for humiliation, only we shall see whose will be hardest to bear.”

CHAPTER V.
THEIR LOVE REVEALED.
ERLE DEVEREUX was flushed and breathless when he reached the side of the fair girl among the flowers, a condition that met with its own response.

THE BEST REMEDY

For Women—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Belleville, Ont.—“I was so weak and worn out from a female weakness that I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took several bottles of it, and I gained strength so rapidly that it seemed to make a new woman of me. I can do as good a day's work as I ever did. I sincerely bless the day that I made up my mind to take your medicine for female weakness, and I am exceedingly grateful to you for your kind letters, as I certainly profited by them. I give you permission to publish this any time you wish.”
 Mrs. ALBERT WICKETT, Belleville, Ontario, Canada.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will cure female weakness and so successfully carry women through the Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—Inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

way, but she could not let the man she loved with her whole soul go from her for want of a little encouragement, when her heart was speaking so strongly for him.

If he had loved her before, he adored her then. She seemed to have drawn into play every element in his nature. He forgot their surroundings, forgot that they were in the light of day, where a thousand eyes might be upon them; but, drawing himself closer to her, he reclined there at the side, holding her hand closely, his eyes fixed upon hers with burning excitement.

“You know that I adore you!” he cried, his face flushed, his eyes brilliant under their passion. “I have always revered women without believing that I could ever love; but from the first moment that I saw you I knew that my heart had gone forever out of my keeping. I have wished to go away, because I have felt that my passion was hopeless. I have felt that there was not the slightest chance that my love could ever meet with reciprocation, and I have tried to conceal it, that you might never learn of my presumption; but I have loved too madly for that. Tell me that you are not offended, Duchess. Tell me that I did not misunderstand the tenderness of your heart when you spoke to me but now! Tell me that I am indeed John Alden, and the punishment will not be banishment for having spoken, but that you will have been actively interested in promoting the best interests of our Kirk for many years. Both in the office of manager and treasurer, which you worthily filled, and in the willing performance of all the other duties that fell to your lot, you have ever striven to further the welfare of your congregation.”

The faithful attendance of yourself and family upon the services of the sanctuary have always commanded our admiration and set a good example to us.

We shall always remember with pleasure the very many opportunities of happy social intercourse which Mrs. Munn and yourself have afforded us in your hospitable home and elsewhere.

In all of this you have only been true to the traditions of your families—noted for their loyalty to the Church of our fathers.

We are very sorry that circumstances call you from our midst; and we pray that the Divine blessing may forever rest upon you and yours wherever your lot may be cast.

 “You have made me very happy Erle!”

He was silent. Silent from the excess of his joy; but she understood and a little rippling laugh floated from between her lips.

“I don't know what to say to you, he whispered. “I never believed that such ecstacy could be found this side of heaven. You are quite sure that I am true, Duchess? You are quite sure that you have not deceived yourself? Think what it would be to me if, after all, you should awaken to the fact that you were mistaken, that it was not I you loved, but an imagination that it was not I that had won you near; but an ideal that you had fancied I filled. In the name of pity and of God, Duchess, make sure of your own heart before you answer me! Make sure that there is nothing unreturned in your heart from me, and then tell me if you will be my wife. There is no language that could ever tell you the depth of my love, there are no words that could ever convey to you the truth and tenderness of my absolute devotion, but there is nothing that could repay me for accepting your promise unless you are sure of yourself, unless you know that you will be great enough to withstand every shock that it may receive. My darling, darling, there is no man upon earth who ever loved a woman so madly as I love you. Will you be my wife?”

“There was never any honor that cried out against the honest love of a man,” she replied, bending slightly toward him. “If you think that your lack of money could ever make a difference to me, or my parents, I you think there is anything that could ever influence me against a man by just his own conduct, you accuse me incorrectly and unjustly. I am like the Puritan maiden, Priscilla, when John Alden pleaded the cause of Miles Standish. Laid Up With Lamé Back!

Pain, helplessness and suffering overcome by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Mrs. Frank Bloom, Hardwood La. Out., writes: “I want to tell you the great benefit I found in the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I suffered so badly with kidney disease that when I lay down I could not get up without help. I was completely laid up with lamé, aching back. I read about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the Almanac, got them and cured me of kidney disease and backache.”

“My husband had dreadful pains in his sides and obtained cure by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The pills are the best on the market and am glad to recommend them.”

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are definite and certain in action, relieve the liver and bowels as well as the kidneys, are highly beneficial and economical. But to obtain these results you must get the genuine Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Was Likewise Excused.

In a southern county of Missouri years ago, when the form of questioning was slightly different from now, much trouble was experienced in getting a jury in a trial for killing. Finally an old fellow answered every question satisfactorily; he had no prejudices, was not opposed to capital punishment, and was generally considered a reliable find. Then the prosecutor said solemnly:

“Juror, look upon the prisoner; witness, look upon the juror.”

The old man adjusted his spectacles and peered at the prisoner for a full half minute. Then, turning to the court, he said:

“Judge, damned if I don't believe he's guilty!”—Kansas City Star.

Heartrending Scenes After Cars Crashed—No Doctors Within Miles—Officials Holding an Investigation Every Family in Bluffton, Indiana, Has Lost Member or Friend Through This Shocking Accident.

BLUFFTON, Ind., Sept. 22.—D. E. Wilson, conductor of one of the two interurban cars which were wrecked here last night with a loss of 43 lives, tells the following graphic story of the wreck:

“I was going toward the rear of my car to get the keys from my locker with which to unlock a switch that we were approaching. This switch has a dead end and unless it were unlocked we would have run into the ground. We were then about a quarter of a mile from Kingsland. Suddenly all the stuff in the car began to pile up around me. I did not hear any crash, or any noise. Things just seemed to rise up all around me and I could not do anything to stop them.

“Then I lost consciousness, I guess, for the next thing I knew I was in the Grove near the wreck. I do not remember of hearing any screams or any particular amount of noise. The

Two Peaks Conquered

Swiss Guides Ascended to Summits in Rockies Hitherto Unscaled.

The Rockies are more dangerous than the Swiss Alps, and are just as good for climbing, said Edward Fenz, junior, who, with his father, Edward Fenz, his brother Ernest, and their fellow Swiss Rudolf Aemmer, four Swiss guides who spent the summer on the Rocky Mountains, around Field, Laggan and Glacier, arrived at the Windsor station this morning on their way home to Switzerland for a visit.

The season has been an eventful one. Two mountains which have never before been climbed, though often attempted, have succumbed; Mount Douglas, 11,220 feet, and Mount Faudra, 10,200 feet. Dr. Hickson, of Montreal, was the first man after Fenz to put his feet upon these summits, last July.

Take it—or give it to the children—with confidence, because it is absolutely free from opium, morphine or any other harmful drug. Many cough medicines are loaded with these dangerous ingredients, but Father Morrissey would not use anything that was not perfectly safe even for a baby.

At Last an English Chemist Has Discovered How to Grow Hair.

McMURDO & CO. HAVE IMPORTED IT.

In England the ladies have entirely abandoned wearing rats, which is due entirely to this new discovery. It has been proven—that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-sought-for article is proven every day.

The Americans are now placing on the market a preparation containing the extract from Henna leaves, which is having a phenomenal sale.

This preparation is called SALVIA, and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. McMURDO & Co., your druggist, is the first to import this preparation into St. John's, and a large, generous bottle can be purchased for 50c.

For sale by dealers everywhere.

Two Peaks Conquered

Swiss Guides Ascended to Summits in Rockies Hitherto Unscaled.

The Rockies are more dangerous than the Swiss Alps, and are just as good for climbing, said Edward Fenz, junior, who, with his father, Edward Fenz, his brother Ernest, and their fellow Swiss Rudolf Aemmer, four Swiss guides who spent the summer on the Rocky Mountains, around Field, Laggan and Glacier, arrived at the Windsor station this morning on their way home to Switzerland for a visit.

The season has been an eventful one. Two mountains which have never before been climbed, though often attempted, have succumbed; Mount Douglas, 11,220 feet, and Mount Faudra, 10,200 feet. Dr. Hickson, of Montreal, was the first man after Fenz to put his feet upon these summits, last July.

Dead Laid in Rows.

The spot where the disaster took place is isolated. There was not a doctor in Kingsland and the people of the village seemed paralyzed by the immensity of the death roll. They lacked a leader and until the relief cars from Fort Wayne and Bluffton arrived little was done to take the dead and injured from the wreckage.

It was a long hard task to remove the victims. The dead and injured were laid in rows at the side of the tracks. Farmers' wives brought sheets to cover the dead and to make bandages for the wounded.

Legs and arms were severed, heads were cut off, and strips were torn from the flesh of the victims. Because of the broken bones, the victims were terribly distorted, the bodies being entangled with the timbers of the crushed cars.

To add to the horror of the scene, flies settled on the dead and injured in great swarms. All the time pending the arrival of the physicians, the injured were writhing and screaming in pain and the crowd that had gathered about them stood helpless to aid them.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

On every side I hear the sad news. It's spoken in the parlor. It's printed in the newspapers. It's a h o u t e d across a b a c k fence. I shouldn't wonder if it were even whispered in church.

What is it? Why this, of course.

"They say hats are going to be bigger than ever this fall."

My countrywomen, if you really do wear bigger hats this winter than you have this summer, I'm ashamed of you.

Ashamed and disappointed, and mightily nigh disgusted.

Right straight along I have been receiving letters asking me to write on this subject, but I thought the fashion had about spent its force, and then, as a certain friend of mine said, "Them as wants to wear such big hats will wear them anyway, and them as has some common sense don't need to be told not to."

But with this sad news continually assailing my ears, futile or not futile, I simply must register some protest.

In a very crowded car the other day I saw a woman with one of those enormous hats on, repeatedly buffet a man's face and mouth with the back of the brim. After standing it for a few minutes she suddenly opened his mouth and to the immense amusement of the crowd, began to bite the brim.

The girl turned around, grasped the situation, grew fiery red, and threw a withering glance at the man.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organ that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood, it clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Fads and Fashions.

Little vests are making their appearance, but they are somewhat timid as yet and are more seen in the sweaters worn under loose cloaks than on dress waists.

Jet jewelry is still furiously fashionable. Jet dog-collars are especially effective worn either over the high collar of chiffon or lace or clasped around the bare neck.

Most fashionable suit colors are navy blue, seal, golden brown, dark green and black. The light shades include ochre, lavender, natter blue, taupe and bronze.

Coats average 30 to 36 inches in length and are being fitted more closely than last season. A touch of black seems indispensable, and this is usually found in the collar.

Jacket styles favor short, jaunty lines, cut with straight seams, having less curve in under the arm than has been the nature of the semi-fitting coats of the past three seasons.

Tailormade skirts show very little novelty except in the use of small foot pleatings headed by bands. For the rest, the usual panels, yokes and plaits are as evident as heretofore.

The novelty of the winter for tailored suits is ratiue. It is a rough material. It is raised wool in plain, or different colored threads and comes in stripes or in a diagonal weave.

Long coats of plush or fur will be worn quite as much as last winter, and they will be very plain, buttons forming their principal trimming, and perhaps a collar or some other kind of fur.

New silk stockings are in "tone" shades rather than distinctive colors.

Vinagar is the best thing for removing hardened glue from furniture, as it will dissolve it instantly without injury to the surface of the furniture.

Flasks designed for the traveller may be had covered with raffia. They are similar to the wicker covered ones and are to be had in a variety of colors.

Both long and short white gloves are to be much worn, most of the long gloves being of kid or silk. Long gloves will be smooth instead of wrinkled.

To clean baby's plique shoes, try rubbing them with flour and then pressing. It will be found quite as satisfactory as giving them a bath of soap and water.

Parisian ties worn with white embroidered Dutch or Byron collars, will be found very desirable for wear with Gun-metal gray silk stockings with any kind of suede shoes, are fashionable. Most of the new stockings have dainty flower "clocks."

Little girls are wearing little Red Riding Hood capes with puckered hoods, only they are not merely red, but every color imaginable to match the sashes and ribbons. They are made of French flannel or chiffon cloth, only the hood being lined with thin silk just below the ears.

The sleeves of the most dressy waists are almost exclusively composed of a cap and a closely-fitted undersleeve of some sheer material, usually the same as that of the yoke of the waist. Much braiding and embroidery is used around the outline of the yoke and the edge of the sleeve cap.

Brutal Crime.

Goderich, Ont., Sept. 25.—Ever since the great North West exhibition last week Miss Sadie Anderson, of Salford, a girl of 16 years, has been missing and diligent search has since proved without success until Sunday morning, when the father and a neighbor, John Doak, found the young girl's remains in a cellar of an empty house owned by H. Edwards at the rear of the exhibition grounds.

Her throat was cut from ear to ear and all her clothes had been removed excepting her hat and boots, and she had apparently been dead some days. She was last seen at the exhibition last Tuesday. Her father lives at Latham Hotel at Salford and a number of Italians occupy part of the hotel as a boarding house.

Carterhall, Nfld.

Dear Sirs,—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be disabled for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

Yours truly,

Firemen Meet.

At a meeting of the Firemen's Union held last night the case of certain Union men on the s.s. Dundee who had caused delay in the sailing of the steamer was discussed. They refused to work with a non-union man, but as no union man could be had at the time the meeting last night decided that they acted wrong, and their conduct was severely condemned. A resolution was made that in future must be strictly carried out, viz., that all Union men be obliged to work with non-union men in cases like that of the Dundee till the necessary number of Union men can be procured. No members of the Union shall receive from steamer owners more than the Union scale of wages and under no circumstances shall they wilfully delay the sailing of a steamer. Delegate Woods was ordered to have the new rules printed as soon as possible. They will be posted in the engine rooms for the guidance of firemen.

VISITED WARSHIP.—The French Vice-Consul here paid an official visit to H.M.S. Cornwall yesterday and was received with a salute of seven guns.

FOUND DOOR OPEN.—While doing his beat last night Const. J. Nugent found Mr. R. J. Coleman's office door on McBride's Hill open. Leaving Const. Walsh to look after the place, Nugent after much trouble found Mr. Coleman and the door was secured. It was left open through the carelessness of an employee.

The Prospero Here.

The S. S. Prospero, Capt. A. Kean, arrived here at 5.30 p.m. yesterday from the Northward. On the run North from this port she had fine weather, and arrived at Battle Harbor on Monday last, leaving coming South that afternoon. Coming back she had fairly fine weather until Wednesday evening when it blew a gale from the W. S. W., and she had to harbour in Fogo all that night. Leaving Thursday morning with a northerly gale and heavy sea, Thursday night she lay up in KING'S Cove out of the weather. The ship could not enter Bonavista owing to the storm and high sea running, though she made all the other ports of call. She brought a full cargo of codfish, oil, herring, etc., and some berries and 130 passengers were landed at St. John's. Her passengers were:—Messrs. Dunn, Hiscock, Searle, Winsor, Symonds, Budgeil, Fudge, Ledrew, Wills, Rowell, Ashbourne (3), Linfield, Scammell, Anthony, McDonald; Mesdames Norris, Budgett, Ashbourne, Worrall, Stevens, McDonald, Brown (2), Christian, Avery, March; Misses Norris, Flynn, Bowers, Haddon, Bowden, Cowan, Slade, Young, Ashbourne, Pomeroy, Barnes, Jacobs, Morris (2), Ebsary, Blundon, Barter, Cooper, March (3), Greene and O'Mara and 90 steerage.

A. P. C.

The following is an extract from a letter just received from a doctor in one of our Northern Districts, which speaks for itself:

"You might be interested in hearing from our section of the Colony about the progress of the work of the A.P.C. On Tuesday evening last, 20th Sept., I attended a lecture on the subject given here by Mr. M. C. Roberts, and last evening I went up to hear another and to show by my presence at least that I was heartily in sympathy with the work. Let me assure you, Roberts is doing good work. His lectures are given so that anybody can readily appreciate them, yet they are practical and cover the ground well. The meetings in both places were well attended despite the fact that on both occasions it was pouring rain. This shows that the people are really taking a definite interest in the subject, and already in my practice here I can see that the matter is being looked at and dealt with in a new light. I have only been in the Colony since July 16th, but it is quite apparent that the matter of tuberculosis with its prevention has not been taken up too soon. This is a question which I have paid a good deal of attention to in my home—Canada—and I do not intend to relax my vigilance of activity here."

C.M.B.C. Work.

All the old members are cordially invited to attend the meeting of the C.M.B.C. at the Synod Hall tomorrow at 3 p.m., when the work of the year will be reviewed. Outport visitors are specially invited. The opening address will be delivered by Mr. Bell—"A talk to men." The singing will be accompanied by the band. Hymn books are provided. The Harbor Mission work for 1910 has been carried on with energy and enthusiasm. At 7 and 8 a.m. intercession for the work of the class will be made.

Stomach Misery Just Vanishes.

No Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas, or Dyspepsia in five minutes later.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of Indigestion or some form of Stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapiesin in the house handy? This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy Stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily see why it makes Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and believe me, once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour, undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation and other Stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from Indigestion and Dyspepsia or an "out-of-order" stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe there is a case of Nerveuriness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapiesin.

Little Girl Poisoned.

Mr. Hutchings, K.C., Deputy Minister of Justice, had a report from the Magistrate at Fogo last evening stating that a little girl named Leah Jane Ledrew, 8 years old, daughter of Abraham Ledrew, of Main Tickle, Change Islands, was poisoned on Friday, September 23rd, from the effects of eating salt meat taken from a barrel which had been brought home from her brother's craft. The child died shortly after partaking of the food, and the two brothers, aged 2 and 12 years respectively, who also ate it, were for a time very ill, but after antidotes were administered they recovered. The rest of the meat in the barrel, strange to say, was apparently good. Dr. Escrett had charge of the patients.

Report Not True.

The report in a contemporary yesterday that a man named Hussey a fisherman was missing Thursday from the South Side is utterly incorrect. The man was out fishing that day with the others and had a strenuous time of it getting to port but reached Mr. Clouston's wharf at 2.30 and was in his home at 3 p.m.

Joseph Baird was to-day sentenced to 6 months hard labor for stealing salt cellars and pepper casters, etc. from the S. A. Food Depot. He had been remanded for 8 days.

Penny vs. Craig.
Plaintiff is a conductor with the Reid Newfoundland Company and issued a summons against defendant for obstructing him in his duties on the 24th inst. Defendant pleaded guilty, and stated he was drunk at the time. Mr. Higgins, who appeared for plaintiff, stated that the only desire of the Company was to protect their servants and the travelling public from such disorderly conduct, but that in view of the plea of the defendant the full penalty of the law would not be pressed. Under these circumstances the judge imposed a fine on defendant of $5.00 and costs, remarking that it would be very much more but for the stand taken by the Company.

Nutritive Hypophosphites.

When a person feels "blue"—"all tired out"—"doesn't feel like doing anything"—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic. Nervous exhaustion is a modern disease, caused by too close attention to business, overwork, worry, devotion to trying family cares, overstudy, etc.

A Man Missing.

John Dunn, of Placentia, is missing. He came up the line to Placentia Junction by train last Wednesday afternoon and got off there to join the train for Placentia. Up to noon to-day he had not turned up, and his friends fear that something serious has happened to him. The distance is only about 20 miles. Dunn is a young man of 20 years of age, and it is certainly strange what has become of him.

Nearly Lost a Foot.

Yesterday while fish was being hoisted up in Balne Johnston's store on the elevator, it is given by a motor, a man named M. Connors, of the Ropewalk Range, came within an ace of losing his right foot. He was standing on the elevator platform and did not notice that his foot was protruding over the edge until the elevator went up to the next flat and caught his foot against the floor. Mr. Downey, the driver of the elevator, saw the man's danger and quickly stopped it, but not before the foot was badly crushed and some of the toes and small bones broken. The man had to be driven to a doctor and then driven home. Had Downey not acted so promptly Connors would have lost his foot.

Outport Man Attacked.

A city tough, for whom the police have a warrant, assaulted an outport man on Water Street, opposite Duff's, last night at 8.45. The man who was attacked was walking down the street with two others, all with their hands in their pockets, when the assailant, who followed them, came suddenly up to them and struck one of the men a hard blow in the face and felled him to the street. He did not have time to withdraw his hands from his pockets and lay insensible on the street for several minutes. His friends called a policeman who helped them to put the man in a carriage and drove him to his boarding house. The rowdy who attacked him ran away.

House and Contents Destroyed by Fire.

By the Prospero we learn that a disastrous fire occurred at Little Bay one night last week, when the residence of Mr. Edward Cooney was razed to the ground. How the fire occurred is a mystery, but it is generally believed that a spark dropped from fire left in the kitchen stove and caused the conflagration. The inmates of the house, we hear, barely escaped in their night clothing; all the furniture was destroyed with the house, not an article being saved. No insurance was carried on the house, and the loss to Mr. Cooney is a great one. He and his family have taken refuge with friends at Pillay's Island.

FIVE PRISONERS JAILED.—The police last evening and night arrested five prisoners, four of whom were drunks, and one taken in under warrant. One of the drunks put down a deposit and was liberated last night.

Handsome Monument.

A beautiful monument was erected at Belvidere last Thursday by Mr. E. St. John Howley in memory of his brother, the late Rev. A. Howley, D. D., who died on the Mission at Salmonier, last January. The stone is of Gothic design with floral finish and fluted pillars and capitals, and was finished by Mr. J. Skinner, of this city. It is erected in the Priests' plot.

City Council.

The meeting opened at 7.30. After the usual preliminaries Councillor Mullaney again objected to the manner in which the meetings were reported. The matter of the retaining wall on the South Side was omitted, and a whole column devoted to the decisions of the Council without anybody's name being mentioned. Some may think this all right, but he (Coun. M.) did not. The public wanted to know what the men they had sent here were doing, and when a member brought up a question, he thought that that member should get the credit for it in the papers, and as for his part, he meant to see that he did, or he would report himself.

The first five or six meetings were reported all right, and they formed interesting reading. Since then they had begun to fall back to the old style. He was not saying this to court publicity himself, but because others had spoken of it.

The Mayor did not think it mattered who brought up a question, or on whose motion it was passed, as long as the work was done. It was sufficient to report the official decision.

Councillor Ryan agreed with Councillor Mullaney. He (Coun. R.) had made a proposition to extend the water service to Freshwater Road, and his name had not appeared in connection with it.

Councillor Channing also complained that he had not been sufficiently reported, and that on one occasion he was misquoted as being in favor of the Windsor Lake expropriation, whereas he had only asked questions in relation to it.

Councillor Mullaney repeated that he was not a bit modest about saying it, and he intended to get credit for all he did.

Councillor Martin complained that in the first meeting, referred to by Coun. Mullaney, he had not been reported.

Councillor Mullaney then referred to the matter of the statements that had been made public in connection with the payment of bills. He did not know how these matters had got to the press, but since they had, it was just as well to discuss them. He understood that money was received by any and every clerk in the office. He thought this should not be so, and that a cash keeper should handle the money and no one else, except in his absence, when his place could be filled by the Mayor appointed.

The Mayor said that the collector received money outside and he could not see any objection to their doing so in the office.

Councillor Mullaney thought the system a poor one, and said everyone was talking about it.

The Mayor thought these statements were made by people who were only too glad to jump at anything to criticize the Council, and he thought it unwise of Councillor Mullaney to talk in this fashion just at this moment, while the cases referred to were being investigated. He had seen nothing since he had been here to make him think it was necessary to alter the system.

Councillor Mullaney said the matter was public property now, and nothing he could say would make it worse.

The Mayor thought it was casting a reflection on the Council, while it had yet to be proved that the officials were guilty of any misdeed or neglect.

Councillor Mullaney replied that he did not cast any reflection on the Council; it was the system he was criticizing, and he believed the system should be altered.

Councillor Ryan said he had been informed of another case of a disputed bill.

The Mayor said he had instructed the Secretary to look into the matter.

The Secretary reported that this was a case where the December bill was made out before the June one was paid, and, of course, the arrears were added to the regular amount. Meantime, before the second bill had reached the person he came to the office and paid the first half year's tax, which amount was placed to his credit. When he received the new bill he could have come to the office and asked about it, instead of talking about it outside, and giving the public a false impression of the facts, and inciting suspicion, which afterwards proved groundless. The system in the Council's Office was as nearly perfect as human ingenuity could make it, but after all, men were only human, and clerical error would occur in an office until such time as all such work could be done by automatic machinery. The officials were doing their best to make the work perfect—and it was no easy task with so many small accounts—and the least people might do when they fancied they had a grievance, was to come to the office and make enquiries. Many of the statements made in connection with these payments were absent.

Councillors Channing and Martin said the Mayor thought something should be done, and the matter was again referred to the Health Inspector.

A discussion then arose over a bill for hay, presented by a Mr. Whelan. No order had been given for it, and several Councillors wanted to know on whose authority it was bought.

The Sanitary Supervisor was called, and stated that Councillor Martin had ordered the hay. The latter denied the statement, and said that when Whelan asked him about it, he sent him to the Supervisor, but did tell him to deliver the hay. In reply to questions, the Supervisor said the hay was good and worth the price charged. Strong protest was made by all the Councillors against this transaction, and attention was called to the rule that orders soluately false, as the records and books in the office would show.

Councillor Channing appreciated the Secretary's explanation, and thought that no doubt similar complaints, that had been made before, could be traced to this source.

Councillor Mullaney said the man was critically correct, as he was charged with arrears that he had paid, and he could not be expected to understand the office system.

Councillor Channing—Perhaps not, but he could at least come and find out.

Councillor Mullaney repeated his assertion that there should be one man to look after the cash, and that a better system should be adopted,—one that would bear criticism and stand the light of day, which, he said, the present one would not.

Councillor Ryan again drew attention to the condition of stable near Mr. Jackman's. It appeared that the owner had cleaned the place between the Council meeting and the visit of the Health Officer, but that the floor was defective, and the drainage still gave annoyance.

Councillors Channing and Martin said the Mayor thought something should be done, and the matter was again referred to the Health Inspector.

A discussion then arose over a bill for hay, presented by a Mr. Whelan. No order had been given for it, and several Councillors wanted to know on whose authority it was bought.

Some time ago I was persuaded to purchase four boxes of Dr. Bovei's Iron Tonic Pills. At the time I had little faith in them, as I had been a sufferer from nervous trouble for several years. At the same time I was very much run down and out of sorts. I am now pleased to say that after using eight boxes of your pills I am entirely built up, and have to thank your company for my good health.

Street, J.B. Foot, Alexander St., and W. O'D. Kelly, Howley Avenue, all applied for water and sewerage connection. Referred to Engineer.

Jas. Purcell asked permission to repair house on Prospect Street, and R. C. Harris to build outhouse, New Gower Street. M. and E. Kennedy submitted plans of building to be erected on Jas. Brennan. All approved.

Jas. P. McLaughlin applied for permission to repair dwelling on Job St. Referred to Engineer.

Herbert Jean wrote, explaining nature of his collection business. On motion of Councillors Channing and Martin, it was ordered that he be given a share of the Council's collecting.

After some discussion over the amount of tax that should be placed on foreign collecting agencies, doing business in the city, it was decided to make it $100.00.

Peter Power's application for street line on Barne' Road, was referred to the Secretary for report.

The Engineer's report stated that work had commenced on Freshwater Road, and that people on Monroe, Gilbert, Charlton, Young and York Streets, who had petitioned for sewerage connection, had not availed of it since the new sewers were laid. The Mayor and all the Councillors thought that the Council should insist on these people making connection. It was ordered accordingly.

The report on sewerage condition, complained of on Monkstown Road, showed there was cause for complaint. No action taken at present.

Councillor Ryan drew attention to John Snow, an employee in the Sanitary Department, who works all Sunday and Sunday night to eleven o'clock, and gets no opportunity to attend Church. It was ordered that some arrangement be made to relieve him, either in the morning or evening.

The East End Road Inspector asked permission to repair retaining wall on Holloway Street, to cost $11.00, and drain on Irving's Hill, to cost $12.00. Granted.

A communication from London, accompanied by some literature, from the promoters of the Shakespeare National Memorial Theatre, asking for contribution, was laid before the meeting. Consideration deferred.

Sets of apparatus from First Aid Society were exhibited, and will be placed at convenient places around the city.

Councillor Channing referred to the accident that had happened last week, through a fence round vacant land on Duckworth Street having fallen down, and asked if the Council were responsible for its condition.

The Mayor replied that he had seen Supt. Grimes about the matter, and that it was being enquired into.

Councillor Martin advised putting stone crossing on New Gower Street, as it would only cost very little more than wood. Held over for enquiry.

A long discussion then took place over the collection of taxes. Several Councillors thought the collectors were not doing all they might, and suggested that they be paid a commission to induce them to try and collect more money. It was finally decided to reduce their salaries from $650 to $400 per year, and allow them a commission of one per cent. on collections by themselves and at the office.

The Mayor thought it would be a good idea to charge interest on overdue accounts, and Councillor Channing thought that if a small discount were allowed on prompt payment, it would have a good effect.

After passing of pay rolls, etc., the meeting adjourned at 12.15.—Daily News.

Special Evening Telegram.
BERLIN, Sept. 30. U. S. Ambassador Hill, acting on instructions from the State Department at Washington, called at the Foreign Office to-day and requested an inquiry into the affair and proper official redress for the wanton assault made by the police upon Frode, W. Wile, the correspondent of the New York Times, during the coal strikers' rioting last Sunday night. R. Seymour, the British Charge d'Affaires, has received a protest from the three other newspaper men, who are British subjects. He now awaits instructions from London. Mr. Seymour and Dr. Hill conferred on the matter this afternoon. It is assumed that the Foreign Office will act promptly. Herr Von Jagow, President of the Berlin Police, appears to take a cynical view of the affair. Nevertheless it is plain that the correspondents were attacked ruthlessly. While one of the four called out that they were representatives of the Press, another held up in plain view of their assailants a police pass, showing that their presence on the scene was authorized. The only explanation that Von Jagow has offered is that the police acted upon the order of some unknown bystander, a sort of a "Captain Cope-neck." Capt. Cope-neck will be remembered as properly William Voigt, the German shoemaker, who was deported from New York last spring after the authorities had discovered his record of 10 years in jail. Four years ago Voigt, pretending to be a captain of the Grenadier Guards, picked up a squad of German soldiers, and leading them into a town stole $1,000 from the Town Hall.

Special to Evening Telegram.
NEW YORK, Sept. 30. An express train in the subway was the scene of a mysterious murder at 1 o'clock this morning, a well dressed young man, apparently returning from the theatre, was the victim. There was nothing on his person to identify him. His assailant, according to the police was Charles Elizabeth, Elizabeth, N.J., who was arrested. According to bystanders the two men stood near each other in a crowded car. They did not appear to be acquainted, but suddenly it was noticed that they were having a violent quarrel about something. Then came a pistol shot and the young man fell to the floor mortally wounded. There was a panic in the crowded car. Women in gay dresses starting for the door. Several men grabbed Wright who struggled with them. By that time the train had begun to slow down at Fourteenth Street Station. A subway watchman took charge of Wright as the doors swung open. He denied all knowledge of the crime.

Special to Evening Telegram.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. China is declared to be on the verge of a general uprising, similar to the Boxer uprising, and the lives of foreigners are in jeopardy. Advice received here recently from Government officials in China, confirms the belief that an outbreak at any time would not surprise them. The State Department instructed officials to maintain a close watch on the situation. Throughout the summer there has been mutterings of discontent in some of the Chinese provinces, due to the rice famine, drought, difficulties, and dissatisfaction over acts of the Peking Government as to foreign investments in China. Good harvests mitigated to some extent the gravity of the situation, but there is still a general feeling of unrest. According to personal letters received here from men out duty in that quarter, authentic advices from those charged with keeping in touch with the conditions in the provinces, are all pointing to a situation lacking to parallel to-day's situation with the first Boxer trouble was organization, and it only needs a leader to effect that.

Special to Evening Telegram.

Drowned at Mobile.

Mr. Richard Pope, of Marshall Bros. yesterday had a letter from his son who is on the Bonaventure running south in the fruit trade, saying that a young fireman, a Newfoundland, had been drowned from the ship recently while she was discharging at Mobile, Alabama, U. S. A. The man was engaged painting the hull of the ship on a scaffold, when he in some manner slipped and fell overboard, and before aid could be given him went to bottom and never rose again. He was well liked by all on board, and the men of the ship greatly regret his untimely death.

Fled From Police.

Last night a man while under the influence of liquor tried to force an entrance to his wife's residence on Central Street and created a great commotion. He has not supported the woman for some time, nor does he live with her. She is ill and became very much frightened when she heard the man trying to enter. The police were called and when he saw them in the distance he did some lively spintling. His wife intends to prosecute him.

Narrow Escape.

As the auto of a well known merchant was being driven by him down New Gower Street, at 5.30 p.m. yesterday, it came very near killing a drunk opposite Mr. Gus Wadden's store. The man staggered across the street and stood immediately in front of the vehicle which the owner brought up within a length of itself. It hit the man as it stopped and knocked him down, but he escaped with a few bruises. Had not the owner been on the alert the man would have been killed.

Whales Scarce.

By the Prospero we learn that whales are becoming scarce in Trinity Bay, and that the Hump is doing very little of late. The Hump to date has 120 fish, and her captain will push hard to reach the 150 mark before the season closes.

CLOSE DOWN.—Work on the copper mine at Goose Cove will shortly close down for the season. There are about 2,000 tons of ore on the surface.

The Prospero's Fishery News.

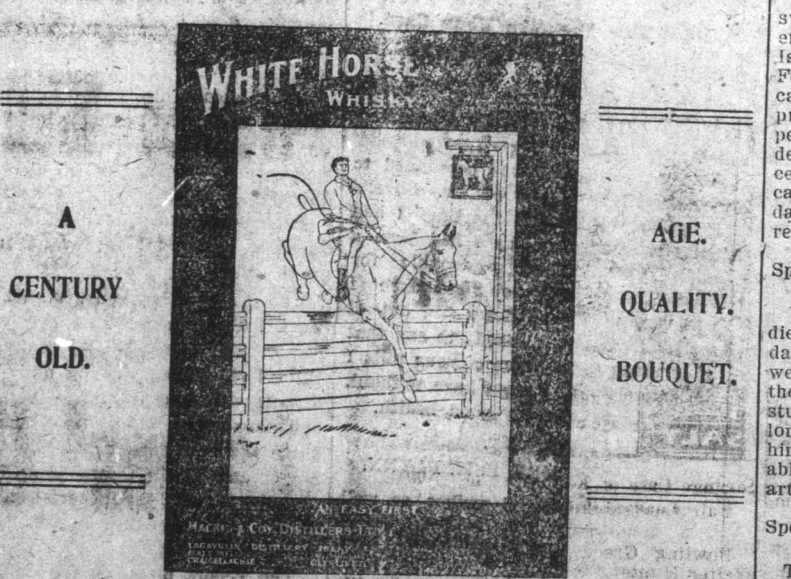

The Prospero reports that the fishery is all over at Battle Harbor. She met the launch Jennie Foote at Sol-dome, coming this way, but she was ordered to go back to Battle Harbor again on arrival there. The launch Tommy was spoken going into Twillingate and arrived there with the Prospero Wednesday. The ship reports no fish at Battle Harbor and very little on the French Shore, and the weather is so stormy that the men can't get on the ground. They did well at Change Islands Thursday with hook and line, and generally in fine weather 1 to 2 qts. per boat are secured. They are also getting fish

At Portugal Cove.

The "Picnic" Government.

Fishermen Cry for Bread--Politicians and Government Officials Revel in Picnics.

Editor Evening Telegram:
Dear Mr. Editor,—The failure of the Labrador fishery and its effect on our people prompt me to write a few words on the political situation in Harbor Grace. This town was always a Liberal stronghold, but many of us foolishly went into the fold of the People's Party, because we honestly believed that Sir Edward Morris and his candidates intended doing something for this District. In his speech he promised almost everything under the sun. The sealers were to get current bounties on the icebergs. "Elect me," he shouted, "and I will force the merchants to give the men peas, beans, and a bill of fare equal to a good hotel." Oh, Sir Edward, how you fooled us Baymen, but you won't be able to do it always. I can almost kick myself every morning for being such a fool as to believe you. Then, again, we were told by Sir Edward that we were to have a grand Dry Dock. Mr. Seymour was bobbing up and down in every corner of the District, telling us about this new Dock; he is now laying low, looking after "God's Poor" and the Potato rot, etc., at a salary of, it is said, $150.00 a month and travelling expenses. Sir Edward also told us that we were to have a new public building in place of the "shack" that Sir Robert Bond built; we have no new building, and Sir Edward invited the representative of the Crown to come here and open a building that he characterized as a "shack." Oh! "consistency thou art a jewel."

We were also promised by Mr. Seymour that we were to have a Steamer Ferry to cross the harbor, call at "the feathers" to bring the Island Cove men with their berries to the harbor. We are still going in the old black punt of a generation ago. Now we want to know why Sir Edward Morris has given a grand ferry boat to his brother Frank in Placentia, while he makes a fool of the men and women of Harbor Grace; then, again, we were to have a Blanket Factory. Sir Edward could not see why all the blankets used in Newfoundland could not be manufactured in Harbor Grace. This true he has provided a warm Government blanket for Piccott, Parsons and Seymour, but our people are leaving Harbor Grace in hundreds, plying themselves for being fooled by Sir Edward Morris. Seymour's share in this farce is greater than Sir Edward's, because he said publicly that he would resign within twelve months if those pledges were not fulfilled.
Now, Mr. Editor, I have mentioned these promises by which Sir Edward misled the people of Harbor Grace to show him that we are not as green as he takes us, and although we are Baymen we can see and note the antics of the People's Party. Does Sir Edward imagine that the sufferings that followed last winter as a result of last year's failure of the Labrador fishery is not made doubly bitter by the recollection of the "whack bag" and by the extravagance of the People's Party? The fishermen here have now christened them the Picnic Party. Let us calmly review the grounds on which the "Picnic Party" have earned their title.

PICNIC No. 1.

The Premier of the Picnic Party spent most of the summer watching and assisting Sir J. S. Winter pleading the case for the Colony at the Hague.

KEEP MINARD'S LINIMENT IN THE HOUSE.

He never opened his lips. His fees and expenses will probably not be less than from $7,000 to $8,000.

PICNIC No. 2.

Hon. Donald Morrison also spent some months at the Hague listening to and assisting and watching Sir J. S. Winter pleading the case for the Colony; he never opened his lips. His fees and expenses will probably not be less than from $7,000 to $8,000.

PICNIC No. 3.

Hon. M. P. Cashin enjoyed a visit to the West Indies. The case for the Colony was prepared by H. W. LeMessurier and G. C. Fearn. Instead of posting the document for 18c. worth of stamps, the Hon. M. P. got his trip, which will probably cost a couple of Thousand Dollars.

PICNIC No. 4.

Mr. Watson had a picnic to England last fall. Robert is saving the Empire by boosting the Royal Colonial Institute. The public accounts will tell the exact amount, if any, of his "little bill."

PICNIC No. 5.

Mr. Frank Morris is now in England on the Labrador boundary question. It is said. The genial Frank has not yet forwarded his account. It is rumored that it will not be much less than $2,000.

PICNIC No. 6.

Hon. Charles Emerson is now in England also looking up, so it is believed, documentary evidence on the Labrador boundary question. It is said that Charlie claims that he is entitled to a share of patronage as well as Frank Morris, and he is determined to have it.

PICNIC No. 7.

Mr. Piccott went to Canada and the

Sciatic Rheumatism

Unable to work or sleep—Six years of suffering—Cured by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

Mr. Alex. Ethier, Jr., Clarence Creek, Russell Co., Ont., writes:—"My nervous system was run down to such an extent that I suffered a great deal from weakness of the nerves and sciatic rheumatism, and at times was like one paralyzed. I could not work, was unable to sleep, and had no appetite."

"Nothing seemed to build up my nerves until I made use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After having used about $12.00 worth of this medicine I feel like a new man. I can walk all right, do a great deal of work, have a good appetite and sleep well every night."

When you have tried of experiments you can turn to Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food knowing that persistent treatment is bound to be rewarded with lasting beneficial results. But you must get the genuine, bearing portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. 50 cts. at all dealers or Edmonson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

United States in connection with the Solling process. Wattie and Martin of Bay Roberts, are doing well, and "Arch" is just as much entitled to a picnic as the Morris's and the other elected members of the People's Party.

PICNIC No. 8.

Hon. S. Blandford has been to Canada. He should have gone into the cause of the Potato Canker. "Syd" is also doing fine.

PICNIC No. 9.

Mr. William Woodford is also at present in Canada. William will not sell the country. He is too straight and honorable a public man for that. Will William have a bill to present by and by?

PICNIC No. 10.

James P. Howley also went to England this summer "to enlighten the Londoners on the rise and fall of the Beothucks, and the minerals they left behind them." Mr. Howley was more entitled after his many years of good service to a holiday, than either Mr. Seymour or Mr. Solling, of Denmark.

PICNIC No. 11.

Mr. Joseph O'Reilly also had a picnic touring Canada on the Solling Process of putting Codfish in black envelopes and shipping them by express without any postage stamps. He also visited the British Isles and the Dutchman's land.

PICNIC No. 12.

Mr. Solling, of Denmark, also had a trip at the Colony's expense.

PICNIC No. 13.

The Hope of God's Poor, Mr. Seymour, has been touring in the Dominion of Canada and all over Newfoundland talking agriculture at the rate of say $150.00 a month and expenses. It is said he is now looking for a permanency.

PICNIC No. 14.

Richard Devereux is also touring, talking agriculture and examining bad potatoes at a salary say of $150.00 a month and travelling expenses. He is not looking for an increase. He is looking for a permanency. Richard is anxious to get in out of the wet.

PICNIC No. 15.

Dr. Laurence Eugene Keegan has also had a glorious time in Ireland, near "the bog of Allan." He is interested in a new boiler for the Hospital and also an incinerator to burn up noxious matter. We would suggest he try it on the manuscript of the article that he contributed during the last campaign.

PICNIC No. 16.

P. T. McGrath also had a picnic this year in N. S. and Ottawa. P. T. negotiated the tax on Iron Ore, and was paid $2,500 for the job. He paid his expenses out of the $2,500. He is looking for the Cashiership of the Savings Bank; and report has it he will get it.

PICNIC No. 17.

John R. Bennett visited Canada and the U. S. Whilst there he studied plans for a new Poor Asylum. John is not going to charge for his report, but his expenses, well—we shall see. John is also an applicant for the Savings Bank. But John is getting used to disappointment by this time. But we'll not anticipate trouble.

PICNIC No. 18.

Joseph Downey, or more familiarly known as Joe, is having a grand time. He has been away studying dredges potatoes and flat Dutch seed. Lately the Government have employed him to write Agricultural Notes for the Press. Joe probably gets as much out of the Government as Dick.

PICNIC No. 19.

Captain Wm. Winsor, M. H. A. for Bonavista, is having the picnic of his life on Labrador. "Judge" Winsor's picnic will cost many Thousands of Dollars. He reports no COD.

PICNIC No. 20.

Hon. John Crosbie is not taking a picnic abroad this summer. He is having a better "picnic" amidst the pickings here.

PICNIC No. 21.

Professor Robertson, from Canada, had a real good time here telling us about Agriculture. What this will cost we don't know.

PICNIC No. 22.

Professor McPhail, from Canada, was also having a jolly good time here telling us how to grow potatoes without canker.

PICNIC No. 23.

Patrick O'Brien McManus was imported from Ireland to teach us how to cut peat. Patrick will get about $1,000 a year and his picnic expenses.

PICNIC No. 24.

Michael O'Donahue O'Leary, from Antrim, was imported at the same time to assist MacManus in bog cutting; when last heard from he was in Fields of Ireland I left far behind. Michael will be paid say $1,000 and expenses. Michael must feel convinced there is nothing in Ireland to equal a Government picnic in Newfoundland under a Morris Government.

PICNIC No. 25.

We see by the English Press that the Government have entered into an agreement with two Geologists to look over and report on our Mineral areas.

PICNIC No. 26.

Hon. M. P. Gibbs visited Canada this summer. Report has it that he was studying the mining laws of Nova Scotia. It is said that he has not presented any claim.

PICNIC No. 27.

T. A. Hall, Government Engineer, also enjoyed a visit to Montreal. In Dr. Keegan's account of his trip to Canada he states that Mr. Hall made "a special study of the Heating Apparatus of the Hospital."

PICNIC No. 28.

The Hon. John Alexander Robinson visited England. We wonder if he got any wrinkles on Post Office matters. He is looking for a permanency. It is said that Mr. Woods is to be pensioned to give John A. a picnic for life.

Many a poor fisherman who honestly supported Sir Edward Morris will soon be returning to an empty cupboard, and will be almost on the verge of starvation in Conception Bay this winter, and will doubtless be overjoyed at the lot of the favoured few who can take picnics. A strong hint ought to be given to Sir Edward to curtail the wanton extravagances that have characterized the acts of his Ministry since he came into power. Many of these picnics will have to be paid for directly by the Government or indirectly by the Government out of Government pay and pickings. If I understand the temper of the people of Conception Bay they will strongly resent—at a time they are crying for bread—the squandering of public monies in such a way.

Yours truly
HARBOR GRACE.

Bishop of Quebec

Wants Missionary for Canadian Labrador.

Editor Evening Telegram:

Dear Sir,—I should be glad if you could insert in the correspondence column of the next issue of your paper the following letter. I may say I have the authorization of the Lord Bishop of Quebec to use his name in this particular. The letter is as follows:—

"The Lord Bishop of Quebec (Church of England) is in great need of a clergyman, in Deacon's or Priest's orders, to work as assistant missionary in St. Clement's Mission, Canadian Labrador. The stipend offered is seven hundred dollars per year. St. Clement's Mission ministers to the spiritual needs of some twelve hundred fisherfolk scattered along the north shore of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, from Natashquan to Blanc Sablon, on the Straits of Belle Isle. The s.s. Home, from Bay of Islands, makes weekly calls at Blanc Sablon, Bradore, Salmon Bay and Bonne Esperance, all within the Mission. The staff of the Mission, when complete, consists of two clergymen and two catechists. The work involves a good deal of travelling—by boat in summer, by komatik and dogs in winter. For the summer travel the Mission owns a tolerably spacious and comfortable barge. The assistant missionary will, during the early part of the year, be stationed at Bonne Esperance, which can be reached in a few hours from Bay of Islands, Newfoundland. The second part of the year he will be stationed at Harrington Harbor, where Dr. Grenfell has built a well-equipped hospital. Here is an opportunity for a young clergyman possessed of energy, earnestness, spirituality, and a fondness for adventure, to do a great work for God. If any who read this feel called to the work, the Lord-Bishop of Quebec would be glad if they would communicate at once with him at Bishopstrove, 69 Esplanade, Quebec City, or with the Rev. H. H. Corey, Kingscroft, Que. He is anxious that applications be made early, as the missionary must be on the Labrador coast before the close of navigation."

HOLLIS H. COREY,
Priest-in-Charge,
St. Clement's Mission,
Canadian Labrador.

Mount Forest, Ont.,
September 24th, 1910.

The schooner Garnet, Skipper Paul Ezekiel, of Harbor Main, had her foremost carried away, just above the deck, coming across the Straits from Labrador last week. The schooner managed to get into Paquet, on the French Shore, next morning where the broken spar was "fished" and repaired in such a way as to enable Capt Ezekiel to proceed on his way to Harbor Main. The Garnet has 260 qtls. of fish caught at Griffin's Harbor. All the Harbor Main fleet are now home and they are poorly fished.

Strange Case of Kentucky Boy Whose Hair Looks Like a Grandfather's.

Bowling Green, Ky., Sept. 18.—Walter Hunter Covington, aged seven, son of James C. Covington, a farmer living near Bowling Green, has hair whiter than that of many a man of fifty. His father says his hair began to turn grey when he was a little past three years old, and that since that time it has grown whiter every year.

The elder Covington says he cannot account for the fact, because the family has never had serious trouble, and none of the child's relatives have become grey.

The boy's hair is very white on the top and well down the sides, but at the bottom it still retains its ebony hue. The boy says he is so ashamed of his hair at times that he won't mix with anyone but relatives.
