THE attack by half-breeds on the ems to have been nothing more than an unpremeditated row caus by the conduct of a solitary individual who had probably been cele-

There was some talk about Riel having indulged in inflammatory eloquence in the locality shortly before, and primed the halfbreeds for the attack, but the friends of that injured individual came forward with an alibi in his favour, and showed that he was more lawfully and loyally employed. It is reassuring to be informed that this untoward occurrence will not deter the Mennonites from carrying out their enginal intention to settle in Manitoba in the townships set apart for them by Government, and it is to be hoped there is no foundation for the statement of the New York World that the thousand families who were thus to settle in the spring have been frightened by the conduct of the half-breeds and are going to the other side of the lines paper says the proposed colony numbers 12,000 persons, all in dustrious and well-to-do people, and that their value to the country in which they settle may be judged of by an order for $20,000 worth of agricultural instruments which they gave at St. Paul's. MOST DAMAGING EVIDENCE.

THE MINISTRY GUILTY.

Evidence is accumulating in relation to the gigantic corruption, disloyalty, and fraud with which the Machanistry of Sir John A. Macdonald is Schafged. The last witness is Mr. G. W. McMullen, one of Sir Hugh Allan's most prominent American associates in the matter of the Pacific charter. In a letter to the Globs of this (Frieds) morning, he gives a succinct term of John personally recommended Mr. Abbott objected. A recapitulation is then given of the facts already stated in Sir Hugh's letter of John A. Macdonald. Evidence is accumulating in reladay) morning, he gives a succinct narrative of the events during the ters of July, August, and Sept.; and Mr. McMullen says:

"He (Sir Hugh) at one time announced to Mr. Smith and myself that the $8,500, of which he speaks in one letter, had been lent to Sir John A. Macdonald and Sir Francis Hincks in sums of $4,000 and $4,500 respectively, with very good knowledge that it was never to be repaid. He also explained that the Finance Minister was taking a great deal of interest in the matter, and that he had sounded him on the extent of his personal expectations when it reached an assured conclusion. He said Sir Francis had replied that at his time of life an absolute payment would be preferable to a percentage of ultimate profits, and thought he should have $50,000 and in addition the position of Secretary to the Company for his son, at a salary of not less than $2,000."

As the session approached Sir. Guelph, July 9, 1873,

Good gracious, what an effect that smile had, not on her only, but on every one of the dusky throng. They broke into a perfect jubilee of gladness, and began dancing and eapering round the stake with song and laughter, while the old woman, snatching a knife from the wampum belt of the nearest warrior, cut every thong by which the limbs of the captive were bound, drew him from the stake, and flung her arms round his neck in another gushing embrace.

The whole proceedings bewildered Jim not a little, and for some moments he was so lost in stomithment that he did not know here as a saved from torture and seed, and shat it was the old woman who had, saved him, there came such a rush is joy into his, soul, that in the extravagues of his relationary feelings he ranght had old woman in his arms, litted here is to the ground, and giving vent to a series of loud English hirrahs, he danced and capered to and fit as will as the winters of them.

This added the copestone to the edifice of the universal enthusiasm. It set the whole village population mad, with joy. The warriors, as well as the women and children, gave manifestations of huge satisfaction, and altogether the change of feeling was as extraordinary as it had been sudden and inexplicable.

"Well now, I wonder wot it all means," thought Jim, as he sat in the centre of a circle of admiring red-skins demolishing the food which had been in abundance set before him. "It's a wery extraordinary change wot has come over the minds of them eavages, but wotever it means it's a thousand times nicer than to be scalped and then killed by inches, and if I can keep them sweet by larking with them I'll dance about like a mountebank to please them. I wonder why the old lady took such-a fancy to me at once, though, by Jove, had she not made up her mind at the moment she did, the skin would have been out into mincement It was weryskind of her too, seeing as howher son was killed among us lest night. Holy Moses," ejaculated Jim, as the true idea flashed upon him, "I'll wager every h

CRUEL AND FOOLISH .- A certain farmer in the township of Grey had a fine horse which recently jumped into a neighbor's field. While driving it out, it vaulted into his own, and did some damage to his grain. He finally got the horse out of the field, and after securing it, set about belaboring it with a whip. Becoming tired, he rested, after which he got a heavy stick, and struck the poor creature repeatedly, breaking one of his legs. The animal had to be shot to end its sufferings.—Prussels Post.

The Great Western Railway Company are now constructing a second track from Glencoe to Windsor, in order to accommodate their enormonally increasing traffic. Messrs. Carpenter, Seymour, & Bowles take the eastern section, from Glencoe to Chatham, and Mr. W. Shanly the western, from Chatham to Windsor. The work is being pushed ahead with marvelous energy. Twelve miles of the eastern section are stready completed. Messrs. Carpenter, Seymour, & Bowles employ 300 men, and 125 teams. The whole track will probably be completed during the coming autumn:—Hamilton Times.

Genuine Thing!

10 per cent. off for Cash

As Mr. STEWART is leaving for the British and Continental Markets in July, he has determined to reduce his large stock of Dry Gcods and Clothing by $20,000 this month. To effect this he has resolved to allow a discount of 10 per cent. on all purchases of $1 and upwards. So rare a chance of securing cheap goods seldom occurring, the public should avail themselves of making and saving money. Quotations of prices being no real criterion of cheapness, an inspection of goods is solicited.

The Cobourg World of to-day, a real live little paper, in reference to the Chambrons tour, says;—

"And now we are informed that the Marle Leaf Bare Ball Club of Guelph, the champions of Canada, will play the Cobourg Travelless club a match, on the College grounds, to-morrow afternoon. We understand the Travellers have no intention of beating the Guelphites,—which is perhaps just as well—but they want to be the medium of exhibiting some good play. Well, we know something about these Champions, and we wish the Travellers success. If they win the game and the silver ball, we promise them a complete new set of apparatus, of the most approved style, whenever required, and one year's subscription to this paper to each member of the Club. Further than that, if they succeed in scoring an average of two runs each, we pledge ourselves to give the paper for a year to every member of the Club engaged in the game."

As soon after their return as possible arrangements will be made for the grand pic-nic to be held on the 11th prox., which day, it is expected, will be proclaimed the general holiday: If so, all hands may expect a big time. Couldn't a professional nine be induced to come here on that day?

ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND
CALISAYA. Sandy Creek Apr. 21ct 1879

CALISAY. Sandy Creek, Aug. 31st, 1672.

The Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya prepared by you I have been for two years using Langetx in my practice, and I assure you that in my judgment there is no preparation of its kind, that can compare with it where it is applicable. With feelle, anemic women, of whom we rave so many, and in cases convalescing from prostrating diseases I should hardly know how to get along without it. In Dyspepsia it acts like a charm—in fact in any of the long list of exhaustive diseases it is The REMEDY.
