Over 2,000 invitations have been forwarded, and the responses received are an assurance that Keunion dates will be the greatest days Watford has ever seen. The homes of the people will be thrown open, and every effort made to make the visit of our old boys and girls a pleasant one. The dates are August 19th and 20th, and will long be remembered as red letter days in the history of the old town.

The membership fee has been fixed at 50c, which entitles the owner to free admission to the grounds both afternoons of the Rennion. It is the intention to devote the surplus, if any, to the improvement of the town park. Welcome, thrice welcome, Old Poys and Girls.

BE DILIGENT.

To those of us whose early recollections linger about the farm, the log heap stands out as the sturdy developer of latent idiosyncrasies of men. The opportunities for "sodgering," the provocation to "pig-neadedness," and the general tendency to the development of "queerness," have no doubt frequently occurred to us in contemplation of the joys of "logging." There was the man, for instance, who did most of the shouting and all of the hrapnell.

make a bluff at doing business and who are noted for what they are always "going to do." They spend hours figuring, why business is not good and how the money circulation is affected by the drop of the price of cabbages. They persuade everybody but God Almighty and their wives that they are busy our but they that they are busy men, but these two know them. If some of you who read this paragraph would quit scheming and get down to honest, square effort this year, your creditors would get their due and your families would be better kept Put that down. Be "diligent in business," not in "log-relling."-Journal.

JOHNNY ON TWINS.

When asked to write a short composition on some interesting experience, Johnny, after much labor, handed his teacher the following:-

"Twins is a baby, only it's double, It usually arrives about 4.37 in the morning when a fellow is getting in his best licks sleepin'. Twins is companied by excitement and a doc-tor. #### CANADA IS COMING ALONG

There is a great deal of rot talked about Canada by Canadians in the United States who know very little about Canada. For instance, Bill Jones goes to school in one of our little villages where the streets are paved with tambark and where the population goes down to the wharf whenever a strange schooner feels her way into the harbor. When Bill leaves school and looks around the bay for an opening in life, he must either get a job on a fishing tug, work in the shingle mill or, if he be lucky, get taken in as clerk in the general store and postoffice—the only chance on the whole horizon for wearing collars and cuffs as if every day were Sunday. But Bill has ideas in the back of his head, and so he works, saves up money, and one day he "leaves for the States," probably accompanied by some other young fellow from his own or a neighboring village, with a like desire to see the world and win fortune. They reach Detroit, in time they work on to Chicago. Bill loses trace of the other fellow-gets in with a big firm, in three or four years is put on the road as a salesman, attracts another firm's attention, is offered a managership and in half a dozen years gets a partnership, grows wealthy and influential Such is the story of Bill Jones; the story of the other fellow who left home with him—is indifferent. When Mr. Jones looks about him on the whirl of Chicago and pictures Canada in his mind's-eye; what a contrast? The only Canada he knows is the Canada of the tanbark village,, with one team of horses standing with drooping heads in front of the posttice, in the lazy air the drone from the shingle-mill, on the wharf some barrels of salt that a steamer may call for some day soon, on the beach the blistered hull of a tug hauled out of the water at some time to be painted and refitted—but the owners fell asleep and left it there to rot instead. Such was the Canada Bill Jones knew, and such is the Canada Mr.

Jones remembers. When he talks of the country he got up and left in order that his abilities could be brought into play, such was the actual place he left be-hind him. In short, when he contrasts

THOS. HARRIS Member of the Public School Board for 1907

Canada and the United States he contrasts Jonesville and Chicago, for these are the places where he gained He is in no position to talk fairly of Canada, for it is a country he never knew. There are places like Jonesknew. ville all over the United States. may travel from Toronto to Windsor, and then from Detroit to Chicago, and you will be forced to admit that you see poorer farm buildings and dingier and duller villages between the two

American than you will between the two Canadian cities

Most Canadians in the United States were, as young fellows, placed like Bill Jones-they had to get up and go somewhere and, naturally they struck out for the fabled country where young men went and, if ever heard from again, reported themselves rich and successful. Of late years young fellows have not taken it for granted that they must cross the border-they have swarmed into our own cities, they have gone west, they are pushing into the north. There are hundreds of men in Toronto who spent their boyhood in places like Jonesville and have had success in Toronto quite as rapid and great as that of Bill Jones in Chicago.

There is a curious fact worth noting in connection with this matter, and that is, that a man, to amount to much, usually needs to be transp'ant; ed. He seldom grows large if he takes root where he sprouted. There a . men in Toronto whose continued and increasing success is an unfailing source of astonishment to those who knew them earlier and rated them lightly. They got away, shook off discontent, had their imaginations fired, and, hampered by no local prejudice, are making good in large affairs. The value of his process of transplanting must not be taken by Mr. Givens as due to removal from Canada to the United States, for the same thing is seen right along where the young fellows quit the home town and make good in other and larger ciries. When a young fellow leaves Whaley's Corners, Ont., and goes to Baltimore, Md., he can either go to the dogs or win success quicker than was possible to him at home. It is the same with a youth who may leave a village in Maryland and come to Toronto, Naturally the Republic being a hundred years older than the Dominion, had to be explored and developed first, and drew our young men away, just as that country attracted past our doors shiploads of Europeans seeking new homes. But affairs begin to take a turn. Our own your g men find new homes in our own country; the young farmer of Ohio or Illinois in seeking the best wheat lands goes to Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta; the homeseeker from Europe is learning to head straight for Winnipeg, and then on into our new West. No country in the world offers young men greater opportunities that does Canada at the present time. In some respects we are still a little slow. No doubt we shall get fast enough soon enough. Canada is coming along.

Sarnia Wattord Old Boys.

A meeting was held Monday evening of the Sarma-Watford Old Boys to complete arrangements for the visitation of the Sarma contingent to the old home town on August 19th and 20th. R. E. LeSueur occupied the chair.

It was decided that the company should attend in full force the first day of the Reunion. On account of the great ex-pense of hiring a band for the two days and the inability of some of the musicians to get away, the members decided to take the Sarnia Concert band for the Monday only.

R. Pabst was elected marshal of the company, his duty being to look after the parading of the Sarnians while in Watford,

After distributing badges among the members for the benefit of those who are going, the chairman issued an invitation to all Watford Old Boys and Girls to attend the old home town on those two great gala days and have the time of their lives. An effort is being made for a special train to leave Watford at 11 p.m. for the accommodation of Sarnia visitors, the return fare being Soc. An elegant badge has been obtained for the occasion showing a picture of the Huronic, with purple and gold streamers, on which is printed Watford Old Boy's Reunion, and the date. Those who desire badges can get same by applying at P. T. McGibbon's drug store.—Observer.

Watford Old Boys' Assaciation. Dear Sirs;—I feel very much disap-pointed not to be with you at your re-union, but circumstances beyond my con-trol have arisen to prevent me. #### A Lite of Rush.

The Norwood Register had the following item last week :-

"This is the greatest country in the world for everything to go with a rush Everybody is in a rush. People rush for the train and rush for a seat. Be fore the trains stop they rush for the platform. They rush into a restaurant and rush for a table and give the waiter a rush order. They rush the food into their stomach and then rush for a doctor to get something for indigestion, A fellow will rush a girl for a short time, rush into an engagement with her, rush after a license. rush to the preacher to get married, and pretty soon he is making a rush for a divorce to end it all. But there are sometimes when they don't rush. For instance, a man will rush into a saloon and never think of rushing out. He will rush into a newspaper office to subscribe and then forget about the editor for years to come. A man will rush through life as if he were in a hurry to have it done with as soon as possible, but when the time comes for him to die his rash is over.

Days Gone Bye.

Can anything be more pleasant in the busy hum of after years than to permit your mind to wander back to the days of school life, the sweet memories and incidents that come up the smiling faces and pleasant coun tenances, the old school house door that has so often admitted you, swinging back and forth on its great hinges; the very walks speaking forth of happy hours; while at your side stands the faithful teacher who has watched your every move, and is as much interested in your success as you yourself. As these pleasant, recollec tions come back to one, the eye is al most moistened as he realizes those days have gone forever, and so many who took part in those happy hours as well. As we sit and contemplate that never again in this life will those days return, that the participants who so joyously gathered together in the school room and play ground pledged loyalty and faith to the old school, and whose memories are the most pleasant in our life, are scattered far and wide and some departed forever to their eternal When this is realized, sad indeed is the heart, and the swiftness with which the years pass by makes one understand that we are journeying toward the setting sun. Habits formed in youth-during the period of school life-will influence and determine largely, the entire life of the individual afterward, Habits of

Where the Horse is Considered.

The Canadian country on the north hore of the St. Lawrence is very hilly ndeed in some places. The country "gets a move on" occassionally. if the people do not, We can readily believe it to be an earthquake region, so jumbled up do the hills appear. were told that the first church of Les Eboulements, our well-named village, slid into the St. Lawrence, and that is why the second was built on the top of the mountain a couple of miles back from shore. Our farm house was one of those on the plateau about half way up between the wharf and the village. We took a buckboard to the latter the day after we arrived at the farm, but no more driving for is in that direction. What is the use when at every hill—and you can go in no direction without encountering specimens steep as the side of a house the driver gets off his vehicle himself and politely requests his passengers to do the same. If you do not instantly comply the horse turns round and gives you a look so reproachful that you skip off the buckboard in a trice to toil meekly upwards in the heat and the dust-The Travel Magazine.

Too bad. THERE are now several cuttle fish farms on the British coast, where the fish are kept and 'milked' for their ink. The ponds in which they are kept are connected with the sea by pipes and are guarded by screens. A fish yields about $45 worth of ink a year. The fish are caught with much care, put in a small tank and then frightened until they squirt out their ink.—Chicago Journal.

The Scotsman prints a remarkable divorce case, in which a name no less suggestively romantic than that of Vere appears. Hope Vere, Esquire, of Blackwood and Craigie Hall, Midlothian, was divorced by his French wife, and on the decree being given, was instantly sued for the settlement made on her of £1500 a year in case of her husband's death. The Scots law decided that divorce constitutes legal death between the two parties concerned, and the house of lords, parties concerned, and the house of lords, before whom the case was taken, gave a decision unanimously in favor of the 62.85 plaintiff.

A Freak Season.

1907 looks as though it will be a freak season for the agriculturists. The early part of the crop year was decidedly late and cold. This was i amediately followed by dry, hot weather, which matured those crops which succeeded in being put in in good shape in quick time, and excellent samples of grain will be threshed this season. There will be many drawbacks, but these will be partially made good by the higher prices which will rule for most of the farm commodities. The recent hot, dry weather has had the effect of drying up the pas tures, so that it has become difficult to maintain cattle on the farm without adding to the forage provided from the pastures

The effect of this is that many farmers are already disposing of their surplus cattle, an evidence of which was the large receipts at the Toronto Junction Stock Yards. The high prices which have ruled for all classes of feed for several months have had the effect of cleaning up most of these supplies in the hands of the farmers their disposal having been effected ow ing to the attractive prices for them.

The absence of rain has resulted in some of the finest samples of barley being gathered in Ontario for several years, and best of all is the fact that it will be able to be sold at good high prices. The disposal of live stock which is now going on will undoubt edly have a corollary under the pressure of the large offerings which are being made. Prices of live stock are naturally low, but, with a clean-up of a large quantity of surplus cattle, the country will be left pretty bare during the coming winter, and it is doubtful if next spring will not therefore witness a very high range of prices for the cattle which have been carried over and fed at an unusually high cost .- World.

Approaching the ten Million Mark.

The census department has prepared an estimate which places the population of Canada on April 1st at six and a half millions, an increase of well over one and a quarter millions since the last regular census in 1900. If the present rate of increase is maintained the Dominion should show a population of seven and a half millions when the next enumeration is taken in 1910, The probabilities are that the growth will be much more rapid in the next three years than it has in the last seven. In 1901 less than 50,-000 immigrants arrived in Canada in 1905 over three times 50,000 came entered the Dominion. We are now adding to our numbers by arrivals from abroad at the rate of 400,000 a year. There is every reason to expect that before the decade ends the annual influx may reach the even half million. Canada has at last made the turn in industrial development, and each new arrival from abroad, and each additional industry created is a loadstone for the attention of others. It will not be surprising if the next census shows our population to be nearer ten than seven millions.

JOHN MCCLARY A GREAT CAF-TAIN OF INDUSTRY.

Formerly Owner of a Small Tinshop Now Head of the Largest Stove and Tinware Concern Under the British Flag.

the British Flag.

To very few men is the privilege given of witnessing such a celebration as that of which Mr. John McClary, of London, was the centre during the week that ended July 13th. For during that week a series of splendid jubilations marked what was the sixtieth anniversary of the McClary Manufacturing Company.

The sixtieth anniversary is noteworthy not only because it relates to the largest concern of its kind under the British flag, but because it has thrust before the attention of the people of Canada a man whose achievements make him one of the very greatest captains of industry this country has yet produced.

To John McClary the past sixty years has met a change from the control of a small tinshop to the possession of the largest establishment of its kind in Canada. The Company's plant in London now covers two enormous blocks of land, while there are also important establishments in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Hamilton and St. John. Over 1,300 employes are on the Company's pay rolls, of whom over seven hundred are married men, supporting homes. More than $600,000 is paid in wages annually. There are a few figures winch will give the reader an impression of the size of the plant as it is at present and of its importance to the community.

Mr. McClary has always been, and is still the guiding head of this tremendous business. He remains even at his present age a man of remarking ability sparing no money or pains to attain an end that his judgement told him could be won. This is well illustrated in the magnificent advertising campaigns this Company has entered into in all the Canadian papers, which have made the McClary products known in all the homes from ocean to ocean from ocean to ocean.

Though the McClary Company is Mr. McClary's first care, it is not the only successful company that shares in the benefits of his business acumen and experience. He is also President of the London Life Insurance Company, and the Ontario Logan and Debenture Company. Ontario Loan and Debenture Company and a Director of the London & Western Trusts Company.

WHAT ARE THEY WORTH

Try and Answer This Yourself.

In dollars and cents what is the worth of the brawn of your arm; what is the value of the staying power that permits continuous labor—what are they worth to you? Suppose you did something so toolish as to reduce your strength, vitality or judgment one half, and it were impossible to get them back,—how much would you pay to regain the lost portion?

When you let yourself run down, you reduce yourself for success in life—if sleepless ness comes you score lower still—should appetite or digestion fail, you are stared in the face by physical bankruptcy.

Don't let it go so far, take Ferrozone, it has cured thousands and it will cure you; it builds up bodily strength, makes muscles like steel, replaces spring tircdness by energy and new life. Ferrozone rebuilds sick folks because it contains the strengthening elements that every run down system requires.

Especially hefore the hot weather against In dollars and cents what is the worth of uires.

Especially before the hot weather comes,

Especially before the not weather comes, everyone needs a purifying tonic—Ferrozone fills the bill exactly—nothing known that juverates and uplifts so fast.

At once the appetitete improves. You rest well and arise next morning feeling fit and fine.

Headaches disappear, weakness give way to the vigor that only Ferrozone can supply.

Try it, results are guaranteed, 50o. per box or six for $2.50 at all dealers.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical traternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Remarkable Outbreak of Cutworm.

Last week much alarm was created in the neighborhood of Leamington, Ont., by an extraordinary outbreak of cater-pillars which devoured everything before them. Application was made to the Agricultural College at Guelph for advice and assistance, and Mr. L. Caesar of the Entomological Department was at once sent up to investigate. The insect proved sent up to investigate. The insect proved to be the Variegated Cutworm (Peridroma sauoia), which has on previous occasions appeared in devastating numbers, the most serious outbreak having occurred in Paritish Columbia and the neighboring Pacific coast states in 1900. Near Leanington the worms were first observed in clover fields where they soon devoured the crop and left the ground bare and black; they then marched on to the next field and consumed whatever vegetation they met with, corn and tobacco, toma-toes and other vegetables, seemed espec-ial favorites for consumption. If a fruit tree happened to be in their way, they climbed it and devoured both fruit and foliage; many peach trees were thus attacked and the fruit ruined.

Like the cutworms these caterpillars teed only at night and remain in conteed only at night and remain in con-cealment during the day, biding in the ground where the soft is loose and under any rubbish or other shelter that they can find. When full grown the worm is about two inches long, with a yellowish stripe on each side above the legs, the rest of the body is darker and mottled with black, white or grey; the most characteristic feature is a row of yellow or white spots, five to seven in number, along the middle line of the back. Some are already changing into the chrysalis are already changing into the chrysalis stage, for which purpose they bury themselves in the ground and form there an oval earthen cell. The moth, into which they finally turn, has a wing expansion of about an inch, and is dark blackish themselves to clear the property of the planted with inch or about an inch, and is dark blackish brown in color, often clouded with red towards the front margin of the wings, but with no conspicuous or distinguishing markings; the underwings are white with a pearly lustre. Like so many other of our most destructive insects, this one

HOLDS FIRE ALL NIGHT The good housewife always feels like bestowing upon the Pandora a cheerful "good morning." Why? Because the Pandora always has a nice bed of hot coals as a reward for checking off the dampers closely before retiring to rest. In five minutes after turning on the drafts she will have a good, strong fire. Should she sleep two or three hours longer than usual there will still be a fire ready for her. The fire-box, flues and dampers are so scientifically arranged that the Pandora can be regulated to hold a fire from 24 to 36 hours. Pandora owners never have their sleep disturbed with dreams of making a new fire in the morning. The most effective remedy for these The most effective remedy for these nocturnal marauders is the poisoned brau mash, which is made by mixing half a pound of Paris green in 50 lbs. of bran (the proportion for larger or smaller quantities is 1 to 100); the poison should be added to the dry bran little by little and stirred all the time till the whole is inved with the green color, then add inged with the green color, then add be added to the dry bran little by little and stirred all the time till the whole is tinged with the green color, then add water sweetened with sugar or molasses till the mixture is sufficiently moistened to crumble nicely through the fingers. If bran cannot be procured, shorts or flour may be used and for field work may be distributed dry by means of a seed drill. The mash is sprinkled about the plants at sun-down and after dark the worms come out and eat it in preference to the vegetation and then go off and hide, usually in their places of concealments. Paris green, half a pound to 40 gallons of water may be used on many plants with much advantage.

When the worms are very numerous and are moving on from one field to another, their progress may-be checked by ploughing a deep furrow ahead of them—two about 4 feet apart would be better—in these post holes are bored or dug from 12 to 15 feet apart. The furrows should be made in the morning so that the sides may be dry and reliable by night fall. The worms fall into them as they march and being unable to climb up the loose sides they travel along the furrow and fall into the post holes; there they will be found in docens or hundreds in the morning and can easily be killed. Where the soil is stiff clay, this plan will probably not be so effective, as the worms may be able to climb up the sides and go on their way; reliance will then have to be placed in the poisoned bait. The worms are no doubt attacked by parasitic insects and many will perish from bacterial diseases—this is the usual experience when outbreaks of a similar character h

A CURE FOR COSTIVENESS.—Costiveness comes from the refusal of the excretory organs to perform their duties regularly from contributing causes usually disordered digestion. Parmeiee's Vegetable Fills, prepared on 'scientific principles, are so compounded that certain ingredients in them pass through the stomach and act upon the bowels so as to remove their torpor and aruse them to proper action. Many thousands are prepared to bear testimony to their power in this respect.

WISE PARENTS.

Guard Their Children's Health by Giv. ing Them Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The health of the growing boy or girl should be carefully guarded. During the growing time there is a dauger of the blood becoming poisoned and the health seriously impaired. The blood should be kept pure and the child will grow strong, healthy and active. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic for the young. They never fail to bring color to the pale cheeks and strength to the growing body. To a reporter of L'Avenir di Nord, Mr. Jos. Provost, of St. Canute, Que., tells how these pills saved his daughter Marie from a life of misery. He says: "A year ago my daughter, a girl of thirteen, was very weak. She was so ill that I feared she was going into consumption. Though I tried remedy after remedy she remained in this weak state for several months and in this weak state for several months and in this weak state for several months and I began to think she never would get better. I read of the good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had been in a case of anaemia, so got some for her. Soon she began to improve; her appetite returned; she grew strong; color came into her cheeks and today she is as healthy as any young cil could be. I firmly believe Dr.

cheeks and today she is as healthy as any young girl could be. I firmly believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved her life.' Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are equally as successful in bringing those of mature age back to health as they are in building up the young. They make pure, red blood—that is why they banish anaemia, rheumatism, St. Vitus Dance, heart palpitation, indigestion and the secret ills of girlhood and womanhood. But you must get the genuine bearing the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box. All other so-called Pink Pills are imitations. If your medicine dealer does not keep the genuine pills they will be sent at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from !The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Flour Blending

For years the farmers of Ontario have heard of the phenomenal production of the Western wheat fields, and have re-signedly accepted the much advertised superiority of Western flour as a conclusive tact. All over Ontario the demand for Ontario wheat has fallen off, with a consequent lowering of the price paid to the farmer for his grain. In addition, bran and shorts have become so expensive as to seriously reduce the margin of profit for the dairyman and stockman.

Now, the most practical discovery of the last decade, the one most tar-reach ing in its results to Ontario farmers, is that known as "flour blending." Western flour has been popular in Ontario on account of its leaves personation of aluten. account of its large percentage of gluten or "strength," which chemists call pro-teid, although the western product lacks both flavor and color. Flour made from Ontario winter wheat is not so "strong," Ontario winter wheat is not so "strong," but has a peculiarly attractive flavor. When a little Western wheat is added to the Ontario product, the percentage of gluten is increased, and all the flavor regluten is increased, and all the flavor retained.

The practical results of the discovery are certainly noteworthy. Ontario millers who have made a specialty of the new flour have driven out Western flour from the Maritime provinces. They have been compelled in some instances to double their already extensive plants, and have created such a demand in Toronto that the most popular loat sold today in that city is made of Ontario blended flour.

What is true of Nova Scotia and New What is true of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, where an unprejudiced public have decided in favor of the blended flour of Old Ontario, ought to appeal to Ontario farmers generally. Buying Manitoba flour is financial folly, when the purchase of the Ontario product gives better broat, and helps to create a demand for Ontario wheat. When people all over Ontario realize this fact, the tarmers of Ontario will not only be the gainers of several millions of dollars, but will find that the cost of bran and shorts will drop that the cost of bran and shorts will drop to the normal figures of ten to fifteen dollars a ton. And, surely, the Ontario farmers should be the first to set the good example, by buying only the flour made largely from Ontario wheat.

Farm Hands Needed.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 13.—Farmers in Mantoba are finding it difficult to secure farm help, and now harvesting time is so close the situation is becoming some what serious. Farm laborers are scarce this year. Notwithstanding the stream of immigrants that have been pouring into the wests from all parts of the world. The scarcity is a difficult matter to explain, as within the last few years wages have almost doubled and the average wage now paid by farmers is about $55 to $45 per month.

Single young men who would board

Single young men who would board with the farmer's family are most in demand. This is the class that is difficult to secure.

The newly arrived immigrant does not make a satisfactory farm hand because when he gets acquainted with the science of farming he is in a position to take up land for himself. The question of supplying the necessary help for seed time and
