MORE OF BRAVE LOCAL MEN ARE HOME FROM WAR

Taken First to Friederich and Thence Came to The City Last Evening

Another squad of St. John soldiers reached home last evening by a rather devious route, namely from Halifax to Friederich by special Red Cross Cars, and thence to St. John. This is the first home coming contingent to be taken to the provincial capital for distribution.

They passed through the city at 6 a. m. yesterday—catching long eyes on familiar scenes in living old St. John the go-by. However, they walked in on their folks by bedtime in the evening, in most cases making delightful surprise out of the home circle.

Sgt. D. L. Martin. Sgt. Douglas L. Martin, 4th Sarge Battery (Major J. W. Barker), was at his home, 21 Garden street. He had been away two years and four months, and saw pretty stirring service in the Somme drive, at Hills 60 and 70, and at Vimy. He escaped injury, but was laid up by illness, recuperating sufficiently in England to be sent back to Canada for further convalescence.

Sgt. W. G. V. Stokes. Sgt. W. G. V. Stokes also came back last evening. His home is at 97 St. Patrick street, and previous to going overseas with the 29th Battalion he was employed with the Simms brick factory, playing piccolo and flute. He was at various times employed in the work at the front. Sgt. Stokes later did straight soldier duty and worked in billets.

He was at the front with the 29th, who were glad to have him at 9 Somerset street, Fort Howe. O. J. Forestry unit, C. W. Dryden, of Sussex, and T. Chamberlain of Fairville.

Ferry terminal repairs also are engaging the attention of the harbor department. City workmen are removing the old timbers from the wharf on the northern side of the west side floats in preparation for the work of reconstruction for which a contract has been awarded to S. H. Mayer. It is expected that the work will be completed in a few days.

Plans are being completed for repairs to the ferry wharf at the east side terminals. Owing to the dangerous state of the wharf a considerable portion of the crib work has been fenced off, thus limiting the amount of space available for crib work waiting for the ferry.

Alarming State of Food Situation in Austria's Capital

LITTLE HOPE IN HUNGARY

Expected Supplies From Roumania and Ukraine Fail and Local Harvest Poor—New Controller Discusses After-war Conditions in England

Amsterdam, July 12.—The alarming state of the food situation in Vienna is described in a despatch to the Berlin Telegraph from its Vienna correspondent, who says: "The daily rations per head are fixed at approximately three ounces of bread and flour substitutes, one ounce of meat, less than a quarter ounce of fat, two and a half ounces of potatoes, three-quarters of an ounce of jam and a quarter of an ounce of war coffee, making the total daily allowance seven and three-quarter ounces. The correspondent says these rations may be supplemented by recourse to secret channels and by the payment of exorbitant prices."

Outlook Serious. Zurich, July 12.—The Hungarian food minister, Herr Paul, has informed the Budapest correspondent of the Vienna newspaper Die Zeit that there is no hope at present of obtaining any foodstuffs from Roumania or Ukraine, while the cold, wet weather in Austria-Hungary has retarded the harvest there. Normal stocks, according to Herr Paul, are exhausted, and the minister said, "The situation is very serious."

GERMANS SEEK TO HAVE TOWNS SPARED FROM AIR VISITS

Whining When Their Own Medicine is Being Administered To Them

Geneva, July 12.—Another campaign has been undertaken along the Rhine in order to prevent almost aerial bombardment of Rhine towns.

The Landtag of the Dutch city of Breda has petitioned the government of the grand duchy to exercise its influence with the imperial authorities to come to an arrangement with the belligerents to abandon on both sides the aerial bombardment of towns outside the zone of military operations.

In a speech in the Landtag in favor of the proposition, Deputy Vanus declared that aerial attacks on localities behind the front served no military purpose, and that only innocent women and children suffered.

In commenting on this new campaign the Lausanne Gazette declares that the Germans since the beginning of the war have bombarded London and Paris with Zeppelins and airplanes many more than 100 times, while the Allies during three years for various reasons were unable to reply, but did not whine. Now the Germans, it adds, after only a few months aerial attacks on their own towns, are crying "kismet."

S. E. Elkin, M.P., Home From Ottawa, Speaks of Operations

MAY BE 2,000 MEN ON THE JOB BY THE FALL

Pays Tribute to Hen. F. B. Carvell in Connection With the Matter—Dry Dock Company Meeting—His Views on The Coal Situation

Stanley E. Elkin, M.P., arrived home from Ottawa on today's Montreal express. He said that the contract for the development of St. John's harbor expansion and docking facilities at Courtenay Bay is actually signed and that work will, in all probability, be commenced next week.

Mr. Elkin feels that the St. John contract was treacherous in the balance at Ottawa for a considerable period—not because it was not a worthy work, but because the Union Cabinet pondered deeply and long over so great an expenditure at this juncture. Hon. R. B. Carvell, however, espoused the cause of the St. John representatives with his characteristic vigor and business fairness and urged the development of Courtenay Bay as an absolute war measure, since shipping and more shipping was the slogan of both Canada and the United States at this serious juncture in the struggle.

The Minister of Public Works finally convinced his colleagues from various parts of Canada that his claims for St. John were in tune with the drastic times and in nowise sectional—a spirit which the minister from New Brunswick has consistently frowned upon.

"So I think you will see work started on the dry dock near the Municipal House as early as next week," said Mr. Elkin. "The man who is going to do the job, excavating will be found to be the specialist in that line of the day."

Asked about food prospects from the federal viewpoint, Mr. Elkin said it was a puzzle to him how other parts of Canada were getting on. "I have heard in Ottawa we are likely to have as many as 2,000 laborers on the job before cold weather."

CALGARY BARRACKS IS IN WAR DRESS

Machine Guns Placed and Armed Force Strengthened Because of Trouble Over Draft

Calgary, July 12—Victoria Park barracks, headquarters of Colonel Phil Moore, who has been ordered to proceed under a habeas corpus writ, has been turned into an armed camp. The Strathcona Horse has been brought in from Sarcee Camp to guard headquarters. Armed guards have been placed at every point and the arts building, in which Colonel Moore has his office, is patrolled with a strong guard. Partitions have been torn down and two machine guns placed that will sweep the open space in front of the building.

This morning Colonel Moore must, by order of the court, appear before the appellate division. By orders of the military authorities he is not to appear and any attempt to arrest him will be resisted by force.

A statement from a military authority last night was to the effect that he would not appear in court unless he received a direct order from Ottawa to do so. Sheriff Graham may receive an order from the court to arrest the officer if he does not appear. The situation is regarded as serious.

IN QUEBEC

Quebec, July 12—A secret meeting of all the principal officers of military districts No. 8 was held at noon today, and, although nothing transpired, it is known the conflict between the civil and military officials over the habeas corpus proceedings were dealt with. Justice Dorian of the superior court ruled that Colonel Rodgers and Major Paquet be jailed here for contempt of court, in July if they have not produced Edward Durand, draftsman, who obtained a writ of habeas corpus from the superior court.

That armed resistance would be offered by the local militia to officers of the civil law attempting to arrest Colonel Rodgers and Major Paquet is not known yet, but it is believed the local militia will do as much as the Calgary barracks to resist the arrest of the above mentioned officers.

IN THE DIVORCE COURT

Fredericton, July 12—The divorce court was occupied this morning with the case of George Hetherington vs. Priscilla Hetherington, which was on all yesterday afternoon. The case is defended. It bids fair to go over until next week as there is a large number of witnesses to be heard. Henry Donovan and Dexter Everett are named.

The plaintiff was on the stand all yesterday afternoon and finished this morning. Margaret Murray, sister of the defendant, was on the stand this morning and placed in evidence three letters written to her by the defendant. Doris Murray, niece of the defendant, was the next witness. She aged ten years.

The case of Annie Southam vs. Walter Southam is set for trial at 2:30 Monday afternoon. The case is defended. M. L. Hayward is the plaintiff's counsel. M. P. Hartley appears for the defence.

DEATH OF ANDREW LEACH

Many citizens will regret to learn of the death of Andrew Leach, which took place this morning at the residence of his grandson, Thomas Walsh, 177 Rockland road. He was in his eighty-third year, and is survived by his grandson and one step-daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan, who is a sister of the late Mrs. Leach, and remained for years. Ten years ago he was superannuated, and since that time he has been unemployed.

Mr. Leach was truly a landmark in the industrial history of St. John. As a rigger of ships his activities dated back to the brick days of wooden shipbuilding. His greatly advanced age made him one of the very few who could recall the growth of the wooden shipbuilding industry from development stages long ago, and his death removes one of the last of the old-time workers. With his remarkable vitality, Mr. Leach kept hale and hearty up to a comparatively advanced time ago and naturally the revival of wooden shipbuilding construction here was his chief topic of animated conversation.

OVERSEAS PREMIERS GUESTS AT MANSION HOUSE IN LONDON

London, July 12—(Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency)—The Lord Mayor of London last night tendered a banquet at the Mansion House to the premiers of the dominions. The distinguished gathering included Hon. A. Sir Robert Borden said the dominions were determined that this war must be fought to a finish and he would return to Canada confident that Great Britain was still imbued with that unconquerable resolve and that the Allies would obtain victory without which no enduring peace was possible.

Fredericton, July 12—One of the biggest sales of crown lands in some time will take place about Sept. 5—some 400 square miles on which the timber license issued twenty-five years ago will expire on Aug. 31. The licenses did not take advantage of the new regulation which went into effect in 1913, whereby the licenses could be renewed on the payment of a bonus.

DEBT HAS PASSED THE BILLION MARK

Ottawa, July 12—Canada's total net debt at the end of June was $1,154,007,715 and not $840,978,167 as stated in a Canadian Press despatch. The debt stood at the last mentioned figure on June 30, 1917, but it has since passed the billion dollar mark. For the month of June the debt increased by $8,772,087.

SUBS ATTACK CONVOY, OUR TROOPS ESCAPE

Thrilling Experience of Party of Returned Soldiers on Way Home

Hospital Ship Sunk—Two Attacking Submarines Sent to Bottom by British Navy Depth Bombs

(Toronto Globe) To be attacked unsuccessfully three times by two German U-boats, within four hours, and to see one of their convoys, the 5,000 ton freighter Orissa, sunk before their eyes by one of the Hun's sea wolves, and later the two submarines destroyed by British destroyers, was the never-to-be-forgotten experience of 188 Toronto soldiers who came across the Atlantic and arrived in Toronto last night.

"It was on June 29 at 4.30 in the afternoon, two days before the Llandovery Castle hospital ship was sunk, that our convoy was attacked," stated one of the men in the party. "The Orissa, a freighter carrying a small crew, was in our convoy. She was about 800 yards ahead of us on our port bow when she was hit near the stern.

"It was a clear day, and the sea was almost a millpond. The Orissa sank in twenty-four minutes, and her crew were saved by a convoy of nine destroyers that were escorting us out into the ocean. We were attacked just twenty hours after we left land. The Orissa had just moved about abreast of us on our port bow, and had it not been for the fact that she steamed up we would have been hit. There were six ships in the party, carried hundreds of women, soldiers and children. She was steaming in the centre of the formation for some five minutes, and twenty-four minutes after she sank her up, the largest of the party, carried hundreds of women, soldiers and children. "The first torpedo hit the Orissa, the second passed within three yards of our stern, and as it went racing through the sea churning the water into foam several of the ship's company sank on their knees, and offered up prayer. When the attack came our ship jammed on every inch of steam, and moved right away while the destroyers raced about looking for the subs and rescuing the crew of the Orissa. When she was hit she slewed right around, just like a big moose brought down with a shot in the side. Later at 7.30 in the evening when we thought the danger was over another sub was sighted, and let go a torpedo. We just missed it by yards. There were about eight torpedoes fired.

When she was hit she slewed right around, just like a big moose brought down with a shot in the side. Later at 7.30 in the evening when we thought the danger was over another sub was sighted, and let go a torpedo. We just missed it by yards. There were about eight torpedoes fired.

War Garden Bulletin
PRACTICAL DAILY GUIDE FOR VACANT LOT AND BACK-YARD GARDENERS ENLISTED IN GREAT-ER PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN

Issued by the Canada Food Board in Collaboration With Experts on the Staff of the Dominion Experimental Farm

USE YOUR FRESH VEGETABLES.

Now is the time to use the fresh vegetables which the war gardeners have been so assiduously striving to cultivate. We must never forget that the use of these short-lived greens results in the liberation of the more concentrated and staple foods for overseas.

Usually there is great waste where garden truck is concerned. It seems so abundant that we do not value it sufficiently. As a matter of fact, by the judicious use of vegetables many needless meals can be prepared, and the housewife should regard them as her chief standby during the hot weather, when appetites are keen.

The French people are now reduced to three mealtimes a week of necessity. We in Canada might get down to that by choice, at least for so long as our war gardens flourish. It will mean all the more meat for the people of France, who need it so badly.

The use of canned goods at the present time is anything but patriotic. Most families have a garden of their own. For those who have not, the stores are selling plenty of fresh vegetables and they are about as cheap as anything we can buy.

Holiday time is at hand. This is the cheerful thought that lies at the back of most people's minds these days. Every woman has her own idea of what a holiday is. There are those who will go to the sea and others who will go north to the lakes; and there are some who will camp, and some who will fish and a good many who will go back to where they came from—the farms.

A word of advice to the latter class. The farmer's wife is one of the hardest worked women in the world and this year her case is a little worse than usual. So don't go into the country with the idea that you must spend all your time in the hammock or having your hospitable relatives wait on you.

Turn to and help the farmer's wife! It will not take from your enjoyment and you will certainly be helping in a good cause. In a hundred little ways you can avoid being a burden to her. In a hundred little ways you can give her concrete help. Saving her time in the house will often allow her to help her overworked husband with his multifarious pressing duties about the farm. Regular farm help is very scarce.

NEARLY 1,000 AT CONVENTION OF KINDERGARTEN

Great Gathering of Educators at Chicago — Abstracts of Addresses

Miss Nellie E. Brown, supervisor of kindergartens in the Bangor public schools, sends the Commercial the following account of the International Kindergarten Union's annual convention held at Chicago June 24-29, which she attended as a delegate from Bangor. Teachers and others will find much of interest in the proceedings which are briefly told in the following:

The convention had a registration of 960 delegates, from every section of the country, including two from Canada, one from Honolulu and two from Japan. Wakayama San from the Glory Kindergarten Training School, Kobe, Japan, arrived just in time to attend the meeting on her first trip from the Orient to this country. California, the most distant state, sent twelve delegates, and Wisconsin carried off the banner with fifty-seven delegates.

Tuesday afternoon at the opening session Mrs. Mary C. Bradford, president of the National Education Association, and the state superintendent of public instruction of Colorado, said in her address on "The Child and a War-modified World":

"As in my responsible position I with many others, have been led to the mount of vision, there on the heights I have looked into the promised land, only to be won through sacrifice. The soul of the world will be saved through the loss of individual selfishness. The kindergarten spirit has transformed education on this very point, and hence possesses the solution to the salvation of the world. Your work as teachers is absolutely war work. You, I salute as the modifiers of the future world as you mold stuff in the likeness of the Divine. Our children are becoming citizens of mercy dedicated to the service of rebuilding homes and schools in lands where they have become blessed memories. The child is a soldier of the cross in a new way. The failure of the civ-

MONTREAL FAMILY DIES AT MOTHER'S HAND.

Mrs. P. Dupont of 683 Brebeuf street, Montreal, after making her four children, ranging from eight years to three months old, drink poison, set fire to the house and then committed suicide. The bodies were discovered by firemen when they broke into the building. According to neighbors, she was worried over the illness of her baby and the loss of a sum of money by her husband. The husband did not learn of the tragedy until he returned from work and saw the bodies. The shock was so great that he fainted.

N. Y. Bankers Arrested.

New York, July 12.—Julius Pirmiller, former president of the Transatlantic Trust Company and three other officers of the corporation were arrested yesterday as dangerous enemy aliens. It was disclosed that the bank had been taken over several weeks ago and reorganized by A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian.

literation of the past is due to its selfishness. Education must mean equal rights for all children in education. No free nation can live without education, without Russia. The modified education will mean trained bodies and trained minds—instinct, obedient servants. As the individual body is the temple of the Most High, so civilization shall be the temple of the God of Nations. As you dedicate yourself to make it flesh and blood, so will it come quickly and gloriously."

The Tuesday evening session, devoted to experiments in measuring the progress of kindergarten children, was one of the most interesting from an educational point of view. Many of the leading kindergartners urged the testing as an important step in the education of the future which our great universities or educational endowment funds should take up, and in which they might assist the International Kindergarten Union in its endeavor thus to conserve time, money and effort in the teaching world. It was thought that trained psychologists and expert kindergartners would be needed to record the emotional responses of children. The session revealed a wide, new field of educational research that will be of great value in many ways.

Education and Democracy.

Dr. John W. Withers, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, on Wednesday afternoon at the Municipal Pier, delivered an inspiring address on "The War and Educational Reconstruction, in which he said:

"What the thinking power is in the life of the individual, the educated man or woman ought to be in the community—the problem-solving factors. We must bring our education closer to the life of democracy. The emphasis must be upon the human rather than the material elements. The nation is going to have a larger voice in the education of the future than it has had in the past. The local policy control of education has not accomplished the desired results. There should be a secretary of education, to have a vote in the life of the nation and on a par with the other members of the president's cabinet. There should be an appropriation for American education from the American point of view which should be spent in determining a standard below which no man should be allowed the right of citizenship in the United States. There opens before us a new heaven and a new earth, and if we take possession of it each teacher in America must exert his utmost influence to develop and secure beyond question the education of the individual."

Children should not be allowed fried foods.

4,000,000 WILL BE IN ARMY THIS FALL

American Shipments 400,000 Ahead of Schedule, House Is Told

300,000 Go Each Month—Quartermaster-General Says All Are Fed and Clothed Properly

Washington, July 10.—The United States will have 4,000,000 men under arms before the end of the year, 2,000,000 being in uniform now, American forces now in Europe exceed the war department's original plans by 400,000 men.

These facts were revealed when the hearings on the urgent deficiency bill were permitted to become public. The German drive and the consequent need of speeding up the shipment of American soldiers to France resulted in the abandonment of the general staff plan formulated in February by which 100,000 American soldiers a month were to be sent to the western front and the substitution of a schedule calling for shipments calling for 300,000 soldiers a month.

The encouraging statement that the United States now has 2,000,000 men in uniform and will have an army of 4,000,000 at the end of the year was given by General R. E. Wood, acting quartermaster-general, before the subcommittee of the house appropriations committee having the deficiency bill in charge. General Wood submitted tables showing the supplies necessary for the quartermaster department.

Four Million by January. "From this table," Representative Gillett (Mass.) remarked, "it appears we will have 4,000,000 men in uniform by January 1 next."

"Without revealing any military secrets," General Wood replied, "I know that we have 2,000,000 now." He declared that the plans of the war department called for an increase of 1,500,000 men in the next six months.

General Wood made this statement:

THE BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

"On the 28th of February the general staff gave General Goethals the military programme which was supposed to go until June 30, 1918. That called for 100,000 men per month to be called during 1918. After the German drive began the call for April was increased to over 300,000 men; the call for May was increased to over 400,000, and last month without any notice the June call was increased to approximately 500,000."

Representative Shelby (Ky.) interrupted: "You mean new men joining the colors?"

"Yes, sir," General Wood replied. "That meant that the net increase in three months was 800,000 men, less 300,000 or 500,000 additional men called to the colors with practically no notice at all, which was almost equal to the entire draft of last September."

All Fed and Clothed.

"So far as I know—and I imagine we would hear from it right away—there is no soldier who has not been properly fed, clothed and equipped."

"It has pulled our stocks in certain articles down very low, but by making some big spot purchases we have got through."

"In April and May we brought several million suits of summer underwear.

AutoStrop SAFETY RAZOR

Flight Lieut. Howard

bought an AutoStrop Safety Razor before leaving for Overseas because, to use his own words, "it is built for service, there is nothing to get out of order, it is always ready for use, it keeps its own blades in perfect shaving condition and I can get a cleaner and more comfortable shave with it than any other I ever used and I have tried most of them."

This is Pretty Strong Evidence of the satisfaction to be obtained from the use of an AutoStrop Safety Razor for the morning shave.

We got them from the jobbers, not the manufacturers. We have been speeding up the production and I feel confident we will get through even if we call 300,000 men per month for the balance of this year.

"There are certain items—particularly wool coats, wool breeches, or working clothes made of denim, etc., that we will be pretty short of, but we are going to make out. We have made out so far and we are going to keep on making out. We have had to speed up production all over the country and the manufacturers have responded. The condition of raw materials is getting better and we have no fears as to the result.

These Months' Reserve Supply. "Moreover, in addition to these 500,000 called to the colors, the number shipped abroad has been increased approximately 400,000 over the programme. Now when these men go abroad we send a three months reserve supply with them and that has made a heavy call on us."

"You have been able to do that?" Representative Eagan (N. J.) asked. "Yes, sir, we have been able to do it. So far as the men going abroad are concerned every man has been completely equipped. We do not trust to the camps in the interior. Men going overseas go to the three embarkation concentration camps, such as Camp Mills and Camp Merritt and there they are inspected."

"Every man is gone over by an inspector, and if his clothing is slightly worn, or if his shoes have holes in them, or if his trousers have holes in them, or if his shirt loses worn, those articles are turned in and new clothing is issued, so that every man starts abroad with practically new equipment. Every one of the men going abroad each month is completely equipped."

"The Beast Must Be Destroyed"

(Toronto Star.)

Nothing finer has been witnessed during the war than the manner in which the civilized nations exhausted by four years of struggle with the Hun-cultured barbarians are standing true to the ideal of a world freed from the terrorism of militarism. The British people, in particular seem to have been glorified by suffering. They never showed to better advantage. As their hardships have increased, their determination to re-establish the society of nations on the principles of brotherhood has stiffened. On behalf of all humanity they are in a finish-fight with military autocracy, and after forty-seven months, each month representing one month, they are developing increased vigor and a menacing glint in their eyes which is making the brutal giant break into a sweat as he realizes that his strength is ebbing and the foe he so long pummeled at pleasure has the will and the power to wear him down and reduce him to pulp. Admittedly the allies in Europe require the aid of the great Anglo-Saxon Republic on the north American continent in delivering the coup de mort to the enemy, but fortunately there is no sign of reluctance in that direction. There can be no quarter given to barbarism. The year 1918 will not close before that ultimatum will be voted by two million American soldiers on the Continent of Europe. And remember, there are something under six million soldiers in the whole German army."

During the recent Red Cross drive, stores were opened in several cities where distributed articles were placed on sale for the good of the cause. A woman in Oakland, California, had a fine pair of mentioning the matter to her family. Several nights later her husband came home with a vase under his arm, remarking that he had run into a wonderful piece of luck. "I have found the exact duplicate of your Chinese vase," he said exultantly, "and it cost only $20."—The Wall Street Journal.

Perry Case Causes Split of Leagues

Tener Refuses to Sit on National Commission Until Braves Get Player

New York, July 9.—An open breach in the relations of the National and American leagues came about yesterday when President John K. Tener of the National League sent a letter to all of the club owners of his organization stating that if the Athletics did not agree to the decision of the National Commission and turn Pitcher Scott Perry over to the Boston Braves, he would refuse to serve further as a member of the commission. This action savors of open warfare between the major leagues at just the time when the future of the game hangs in the balance awaiting a decision from Washington concerning the "fight or work" order as it will affect baseball players.

A few weeks ago when the commission decided that Perry was the property of the Boston Braves and ordered Manager Connie Mack to give up the player, President Ban Johnson of the American League advised Mack to hold the player. Mack got out an injunction in Cleveland restraining the Boston club from taking Perry, and he is still with the Athletics.

After waiting a reasonable length of time for Mack to give up the player, President Tener, charged at the latter disregard of the American League for the commission's ruling, has decided to quit the organization which constitutes baseball's highest court.

Tener points out in his letter to his club owners that the action of the Athletics constitutes a breach of the national agreement and good faith and that he can no longer, with honor, continue as the National League's representative on the commission. He says that the National League cannot maintain its honor and self-respect by dealing with those who consider the agreement and baseball law as mere scraps of paper.

That President Tener's action will result in another baseball war seems likely because only yesterday Manager Connie Mack again refused to consider giving up Perry.

President Tener, who is in Atlantic City attending the annual convention of the Elks, yesterday gave out this statement: "These Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans turn Scott Perry, pitcher, over to the Boston Nationals. I will quit the National Commission. Regardless of the merits of this particular case, the fact remains that the supreme court of baseball, whose rulings both leagues have subscribed to and agreed to obey, has decided that Pitcher Scott Perry is the baseball property of the Boston National League Club. If the rulings of the baseball supreme judicial body are to be repudiated, there is only one course left open to me. Therefore I have decided that I will not longer serve as a member of the National Commission unless they ruling in the Perry case is implicitly obeyed, and at once."

President Tener's letter to the National League club owners, in part, follows: "On the 19th of last month the National Commission after careful consideration of all evidence, made decision in what is known as the Scott Perry case, and with which you are familiar, resulting in the awarding of that player to the Boston club of this league. As soon as the president of the American League had knowledge of the finding he advised the commission as follows: 'Under no circumstances or condition will Perry be turned over to the Boston club.' Shortly thereafter the Philadelphia club of the American League took the case to the court of Cleveland, and asked for and received an order restraining the commission from putting its decision into effect and setting the date of July 20 for a final hearing of the case.

Under the terms of the national agreement, the ruling in any case brought before it in which it has jurisdiction is final.

The case above referred to is probably the first instance where a major league club has violated its agreement in baseball law by appealing the decision of the commission to the civil courts.

In my opinion, the defiance of our laws by the Philadelphia club of the American League constitutes such a breach of the agreement and good faith that this league can no longer with honor continue its representative on the National Commission. I beg leave, therefore, to advise you that hereafter I will give no attention or consideration to any cases submitted to which the American League is a party."

More Bouts for Benefit

Leonard, McFarland and Dempsey in Star Contests

New York, July 9.—Private William H. Wellman of Camp Wadsworth, Sparta, N. J., yesterday announced the complete list of star bouts which will be held at Madison Square Garden next Tuesday night under the auspices of the war department's commission on training camp activities. The money derived will be expended in purchasing athletic equipment for the soldiers.

Two bouts were announced last night, making a total of three star contests scheduled. Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, will be pitted against Johnny Dundee, the local Italian contender for his title, and Jack Britton of Chicago, formerly welterweight champion, will oppose Paddy McFarland, one of the greatest boxers in the history of the ring. The other star bout will be between Billy Mike of St. Paul and Jack Dempsey of Salt Lake City.

The boxers will give their services free, but this does not mean that they will appear in "exhibitions." The understanding, when the matches were made, was that the principals were to try their hardest in the ring, and the bouts have been announced.

Already many requests for tickets have been received by the promoters. The scale of prices ranges from $1 upward, and it is expected that the Garden will be filled on the night of the bouts.

CANADA'S DEBT GROWS LARGER

Increase of More Than $12,000,000 During June—Now Above $840,000,000

Ottawa, July 12.—Canada's net debt at the end of June amounted to $840,978,167, an increase of $12,179,897 during the month. Revenue on consolidated fund account during June amounted to $88,469,304 as compared with $21,928,980 in June last year. War expenditure for June, 1918, on capital account was $14,291,523 as compared with $9,260,611 in June last year. In this regard, however, it is pointed out that the totals are merely those of accounts which have actually passed through the books during the period.

For the first three months of the fiscal year ended June 30 the revenue totalled $87,070,734 as compared with $88,822,589 for the same period last year.

CONTENDS NO MORE CAN BE TAKEN AFTER 100,000 DRAFTED

Quebec, Que., July 11.—Alleging that he is illegally detained because, with other reasons, that 100,000 men to be raised by the Military Service Act have now been secured and were actually in khaki before he was called, Eugene Montplaisir, a farmer from Cap De La Madeleine, Champlain county, through his attorney, M. P. Choquette, has obtained a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Dorton.

The young draftsman claims that no more men can be drafted without the authority and assent of parliament.

OPERATION LIKELY TO BRING BACK SIGHT TO JOHN DREW, ACTOR

New York, July 13.—John Drew underwent an operation for the removal of cataracts from his eyes in a hospital here yesterday. The surgeon announced that the actor's sight, which has been affected for several years, will be restored. It has been necessary of late for Mr. Drew's wife and daughter to read his lines to him when he has been studying new parts.

LOCAL NEWS

WATER MAIN BREAK.

A break in the water main in Courtney street has made it necessary for the water and sewerage department to cut off the supply from the residents of that section while repairs are being made to the pipe.

A COSTLY AFFAIR.

A young man, who appeared in the police court this morning on a charge of being drunk and drinking in public, was fined $80. Magistrate Ritchie said that since prohibition came into effect it was a serious offense to drink in public and the fine was heavy. "While people call me hard-hearted and a wicked old fellow for striking such a heavy fine," he said, "I am merely doing my duty. I did not see the fellow; I am here to see that it is enforced."

A DEAD MOOSE.

Commissioner Hilyard has been informed that there is a dead moose in the waters of one of the upper lakes which connect with Loch Lomond and he is taking steps to have it removed and interred before there may be danger of contaminating the water supply. Whether the moose was killed or committed suicide his informant was not able to advise the commissioner. That feature of the tragedy is not worrying the commissioner.

AUTO-CASE.

Colin Clark appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge of operating his automobile without having a full light burning. He said that on the night in question his battery went bad and all his lights burnt out. As soon as he noticed this he tried to make repairs, but was unable to do so. The magistrate informed him that he should have notified the first traffic policeman he saw and said that the fine for not having the light burning was from $60 to $200. He said that inquiries would be made and if conditions were as stated and the policeman who made the report was satisfied that he would allow the minimum fine to stand against him.

THE NAVY LEAGUE.

Montreal has secured nearly 5,000 members and is still canvassing, while prospects are that the total for the province of Quebec will be 20,000. The ship Victoria, manned by a crew of sailors, cruises through the city every day and meets with few refusals. On Wednesday several look-out life memberships at $100 each, and day and evening stirring speeches are made at important points. More than 400 boys in Montreal have handed in their names to join the boys' naval brigade soon to be organized, when uniforms will be issued and active work commenced, while instruction on the navy will be given with lectures on seamanship and importance of sea power.

CASE SETTLED.

The case of George F. Pettie vs. Albert McCutcheon, which was heard before Judge Armstrong in the county court chambers yesterday, has been amicably settled. In this case action was brought for the recovery of the price of a horse sold by the plaintiff to the defendant, the claim being that the horse was not as represented and that soon after the sale the animal was killed. The defendant lives in Queens county. As the parties to the suit are brothers-in-law, his honor urged a friendly settlement and this has been arranged. George H. V. Belyea, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and Teed & Teed for the defendant.

HERE'S A STARTLING SOUTH END RUMOR

There was a rumor in the south end last night that one hundred women would take one hundred men by the ear, like Mrs. Jiggs, about 7 o'clock this evening and lead them down to the new playground.

Be that as it may, only about fifteen or twenty men were on the ground last evening, working for the good of the children of those who were not there. Engineer Hatfield directed the work and worked himself.

And didn't they all work? O! Boy! It is necessary to use the term boy, here, because there were no boys there. Where are the boy scouts, who are pledged to "do a good turn"? And the cadets, who meet a parade ground and see a good ball game? And the people who hate the Germans because they mutilate the bodies of little children? How we hate the cruel Germans—and then rob our own boys of their right to play healthy games and let them form "gangs" to the mutilation of their morals.

Well, the fun begins again tonight at 7 o'clock at the same place, and wait for another week or more. There's a fine view of Courtney Bay.

THE SUGAR QUESTION

Decided exception is taken to the view of those who say brown sugar is not good for preserving purposes. Time was when only brown sugar could be got for that purpose, and the preserves our mothers made years ago would not suffer by comparison with the modern product.

With regard to the sale of brown sugar by retailers the local refiners demand that wholesale houses take thirty per cent of their order in brown sugar, and this must of course be passed on to the retailer and his customers. There is no way out of it except to compel the refiners to change their rule. The retailer has no choice in the matter.

WORK ON THE STREETS.

The main street paving contractors, B. Mooney & Sons, are gradually completing their work on the north side of the street where the new pavement is being laid. The concrete base is practically complete and the city gangs will start about next Tuesday to lay the asphalt surface. In preparation for the other portion of the contract the process of removing the old surface from the southern side of the street was commenced today.

A day or two longer will be required by the city to complete the repairs to the pavement and track sections around the loop at the foot of Indiantown.

Efforts are being made to complete the work on the new playgrounds in Queen square, West St. John, in time to permit the west end baseball league to resume their schedule on Monday evening.

Re-Union of McHale Family An Event of Interest

War's Demands on Sons of Former St. John Men—Two With Canadiana, One With American Army—Frank McHale, City Cornet Band Veteran, Still Prominent in Music

The home of Patrick McHale, of the Public Works Department, 89 Exmouth street, is at the present time the scene of a reunion of sister and brothers and while the coming together of hearts and hands in the old home town has its dearth of family, it is this particular instance the homecoming is mixed with the emotions that parents experience when their lads go forth to war.

The visiting sister is Mrs. Honora Nugent of Staten Island, N. Y., another two lads in the army, and one in the Canadiana. James A. Hale, of Halifax, and Francis McHale, of Berlin, N. H. The brothers also have grown-up boys and girls. James has a son in France and another on duty in the Halifax fortifications, while Francis has a boy fighting for Uncle Sam in the contingent hailing from Berlin, N. H. "My boy says he's going from Ypres Berlin to Germany," Mr. McHale smilingly remarked the father.

James McHale and family were victims of the Halifax explosion disaster, not only to the extent of losing their home, but, what's worse, the loss of their twenty-four year old son, a worker in the dockyard. It was four months before the young man's body was recovered from under wharfage debris. So with Francis and another who died in the employ of the navy department, the McHale family has surely done its bit.

Francis McHale will perhaps be best remembered by St. John adults as the president of the Cornet Band of the City Cornet Band of other days. Up to the time he left for the States in 1888, Mr. McHale was a prominent and hard-working member of that organization. In fact at the time of his leaving the city he was its president, a post of honor he filled with capacity for years. That the ex-St. John boy has a decided "bum" for bands is proven by the fact that he is today president of the Berlin Brass Band in his adopted state and is also prominent in local orchestral circles. He still plays snare drum and traps.

In a reminiscent mood the visiting bandman today recalled that the City Cornet Band today has in its membership only five men who were associated with him previous to '88. They are James Connolly, Patrick and John McMahon, Daniel J. Gallagher and Robert McCarthy. "The others are all youngsters," remarked Mr. McHale jokingly, "and I am told they are recruiting little few fellows now." The juvenile band leader, Mr. McHale thinks is fine.

It has been some years since Francis McHale has been home and he naturally sees many changes in the personnel of friendly circles, though the old town has not changed much to him. James McHale of Halifax and Mrs. Nugent from Staten Island say the same. It has been a much longer time since the whole family of children have been together and now, their heads tinged with grey a bit, and their families broken up by the war, they are gathered in the place of nativity to keep bright the light of family love and devotion.

ST. JOHN SOLDIER WHO WENT TO DEATH WITH THE HOSPITAL SHIP

PTE. FREDERICK CLARK.

This is a picture of Frederick Clark, of 32 Erin street, whose life was sacrificed to the ruthlessness of the Germans in war. He was one of that noble band that went to death with the torpedoed hospital ship, Llandovery Castle. Pte. Clark had a most creditable soldier's career. He was an Englishman and had served sixteen years in the imperial forces. When the war broke out he was working in the sugar refinery and happy with his wife and daughter and four sons. Since the war another son has come and the face of that little one the father has never seen.

Being a reservist, Mr. Clark was very early in the grim scenes overseas with the Army Service Corps, in which he was a sergeant. On expiry of his time of service with the imperials, he came home in August, 1916, but soon went overseas again, this time in a Canadian unit, the Army Medical Corps. After good work with the land forces, he was transferred to the Llandovery Castle, and had made three voyages on the fated ship.

Mrs. Clark has received from King George and Queen Mary an expression of their sympathy in her great loss, in the following letter:—

"The King commands me to assure you of the true sympathy of His Majesty and the Queen in your sorrow."

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

In the days of the old common council there was a standing joke that after the street department paved a street the water department came along immediately and dug it up. It is said that custom becomes habit and habits are hard to break. The street department has just put one side of the road from the Marsh bridge to the One Mile House in good condition. The job was barely finished when the water department set out to put water into the McAvity plant, and opened a deep gash in the newly finished road.

The men who are working on the new playground in the south end found it gashed for a sewer when they went down last evening. They are hoping it will not delay the work of completing the playground.
