ECHOES OF THE FIGHT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Sporting men who witnessed last night's contest for the championship of the world between Jim Jeffries and Gus Ruhlin, agree that it was one of the most disappointing fights ever put up by heavyweights. No one expected such a tame termination, and when Billy Madden, acting for Ruhlin, threw up the sponge in the fifth round a howl of anger shook the rafters of the pavilion. Referee Corbett, who should have thought of the crowd at first thought that the sponge had been thrown into the ring by some practical joker. In an interview after the fight Corbett said: "I think Madden made a mistake. He should have thought of the crowd that had paid a big admission fee to see the fight. The crowd that attends such exhibitions wants to see the defeated man knocked out. The fight might have gone another round or two when a decisive blow might have been given." Billy Madden said that he decided to stop at the end of the fifth to save his man from worse punishment. "I did not want a knock-out," said Ruhlin.

Ruhlin got over his loss quickly. He was not badly punished and bore no serious marks of the fray. There was little trace of heavy body blows in the fifth round. He is a little worse for wear. Ruhlin and his followers spoke in awed tones of Jeffries' power. They agreed that he was a terrible fighter and sought to console themselves for the defeat by extolling the champion's prowess. Champion Jeffries in a signed statement says: "I had not started to fight when Madden threw up the sponge. Had I gone at Ruhlin I am sure he would not have lasted two rounds. Ruhlin was scared from the first." "It is thought that only about $20,000 was bet on the fight."

BRITAIN AND NICARAGUA.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The negotiations between the governments of Great Britain and Nicaragua with regard to the Mosquito coast have been very voluminous, but it is now believed that Nicaragua can provide a satisfactory guarantee for the protection of the natives and enable Great Britain to relinquish herself of a responsibility which brings with it no advantage. The question of a suitable guarantee has been chiefly responsible for the prolongation of the matter. Lord Lansdowne, British foreign secretary, insisting that the Indians must be adequately protected. Beyond this point the foreign office displays little interest in the matter, believing that Great Britain's rights on the Mosquito coast are quite well defined, and no quid pro quo is being sought from Nicaragua.

SAW NUMEROUS METEORS.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 12.—A meteoric shower of great brilliancy and considerable length occurred here early this morning. The shower continued half an hour and during that time more than 200 meteors were counted. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The fall of meteors was quite marked in this city last night. The display was at one time brilliant. One watcher counted 35 meteors between 4 and 5 o'clock, while the total number seen in this city is estimated at a thousand.

THE WEATHER.

TORONTO, Nov. 12.—Fresh south-west winds, mostly fair, some local showers Sunday. Fresh to strong westerly to northwesterly winds, partly fair and cooler. Light local showers or snow flurries. WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Forecast—Eastern states and northern New York—Fair tonight with colder weather in the interior. Sunday, fair, fresh westerly winds.

RIOTS IN GALWAY.

DUBLIN, Nov. 12.—Rioting between the Hoarace Plunket and Arthur Lynch factions, as a result of the parliamentary contest in Galway, was renewed last night. The Lynchites stormed the Unionists headquarters and smashed the doors and windows. Numbers of persons were injured and several heads were split.

RICH GOLD FIND.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 12.—A letter received from Atlin says that while the Sunco Hydroelectric Co. were cutting through hard pan the richest vein of quartz ever heard of in British Columbia was struck. The quartz, it is alleged, runs nine hundred dollars to the ton at mill. Atlin is greatly excited over the find, which seems to indicate a large vein.

INCREASE IN REVENUE.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—The total inland revenue accrued during the month of October amounted to $1,982,796, or $85,100 more than in the same month of last year. The principal items were: Spirits, $553,624; Mail, $50,829; tobacco, $329,224 and cigars, $72,579.

SEATTLE, Nov. 12.—R. C. Stevens, general western passenger agent of the Great Northern railroad is dead, as the result of a severe cold contracted while attending the Duke and Duchess of York festivities at Victoria.

BRITISH TAXES.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A stir has been created by the rumor that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, would impose another tax of a half-penny per pound on sugar, although inquiries by a representative of the Associated Press discredit any such action. It is an unwritten rule of the treasury that no industry shall be tampered with two years running and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach is not likely to break through hard and fast traditions, however hard pushed he may be. Owing to the surplus supply and the wholesale price cutting by Germany whose sugar trust is causing the British trade, the keenest apprehension, the rumor has brought to light the curious fact that despite the tax imposed in the last budget the British consumer is now buying sugar more cheaply than before the tax was imposed. The action of German firms will form one of the principal topics of the sugar conference which is to meet in Brussels Dec. 15. Though the United States government has not been invited to send a delegate to the conference, the Associated Press learns that it could easily do so if it desired, and one of the leading authorities on sugar in England is now endeavoring to secure the attendance of an American delegate at the meeting in Brussels. Until after the conference, it can be definitely stated, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach will not take any action. Replying to a correspondent, Sir Michael said the coal tax would be continued next year, but intimated that it would not be increased. This will take a load off the mind of British coal mine owners, who have been especially excoriated over the inroads American coal has made on the continent.

WRECKED BY DYNAMITE.

YORK, Pa., Nov. 12.—Southwestern express on the Northern Central railway, due in this city at 10:44 p. m., was wrecked last night by a charge of dynamite placed under the track near the Black bridge, a short distance north of York. The train was running at the rate of 45 miles an hour when the explosion occurred. Passengers on the train were severely shocked and consternation prevailed. All escaped unhurt. A piece of rail two and a half feet long was blown out of the track, and three coaches were derailed and over the ties a distance of 200 feet before the train was brought to a stop. Engine No. 205, which drew the train, had its headlight blown off and the windows of the cab were shattered. The trucks under an express car and a day coach were badly wrecked. Four Pullman cars, a day coach, a commission car and an express car composed the train. The spot where the wreck occurred is surrounded by high hills on one side and the Ooderick creek on the other, and is one of the jonction places between Harrisburg and Baltimore. It is believed that the object of the perpetrators was robbery. The police officials advance the theory that the robbers had set in said to carry considerable money, but for some unaccountable reason that train passed over the charge without exploding it.

SELLING BOGUS DEGREES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—James Norton-Smith, manager of the Central University of Medicine and Science, Jersey city, has been arrested on a charge of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses. The charge was made by Chief of Police Best, F. Murphy and was based on a letter received from Dr. D. H. Harrison, of Swanville, Texas, to whom Norton-Smith had sent a letter offering to furnish him a diploma for $10. The false pretense consisted of a representation made in the letter that the Central University was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. It was incorporated two years ago, but in July last complaint was made to the police that Norton-Smith was conducting an illegal business and selling diplomas to any one who was willing to pay his charge of $10. As no one could be found to whom he had sold a diploma, he could not be indicted. Through his counsel, it is said, he offered to cancel his act of incorporation if the authorities would drop the prosecution. Prosecutor James S. Erwin agreed to this, and the certificate was cancelled. Subsequent developments show that he resumed business almost immediately. When arraigned before the chief the accused denied that he had written the letter received by Dr. Harrison.

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The cabinet appears to have awakened from its lethargy with such unexpected energy as to elicit from the Fall Mail Gazette the following comment: "This strict application to business is highly to be commended and will be generally appreciated." "This unintentional admission of the cabinet's previous laziness has caused the announcement that the various committees of the cabinet sitting this week, will formulate proposals for the reform of procedure in the house of commons. These proposals will be considered by the full cabinet next week." It is pretty generally admitted that there is crying need of such a step, as domestic legislation is almost hopelessly blocked. Parliament, it is expected, will meet Jan. 2.

THE POPE'S OPINION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A despatch to the pope has addressed a cordial letter to Mgr. Chapelle, apostolic delegate to the Philippines, congratulating him upon his enlightened action in favor of religion and civilization. The pope, however, alludes to the American occupation in rather hostile terms, calling it "an upheaval and a revolution which greatly damaged the interests of the church in those distant regions."

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 12.—The receipts of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition association from the fair of 1901 proved to be $22,928 less than last year, leaving the association in a hole to the extent of $15,678. The association is now asking the city for a grant of six thousand dollars. The royal visit and the Pan-American as well as the wet weather are blamed for the falling off in receipts.

At Victoria University convocation last night, marble busts of Dr. Beers, Dr. Ryerson and Dr. S. S. Nelson, both former chancellors of Victoria and prominent figures in the history of Canadian Methodism, were unveiled. The bust of Dr. Beers was unveiled by Premier Ross, and that of Dr. Nelson by Dr. H. H. Bliss, an alumnus of Victoria, and now an eminent surgeon in Cleveland, Ohio.

HAMILTON, Nov. 12.—According to the city papers here, there is at present in process of formation a gigantic trust. It is to be known as the Canadian Hotel Syndicate with a capital stock of two million dollars. The idea is to obtain control of leading hotels in each of the principal cities between Montreal and Vancouver.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—An order in council has been passed on the recommendation of Col. Hon. E. W. Borden, extending General O'Grady's term as general in command of the Canadian militia until June 30. Gen. O'Grady's term was first appointed for one year, this expired in July last, but extension was granted until December.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—Maximilien Mossac, employed in the post office, has been arrested on a charge of stealing letters. It is claimed that incriminating material was found on him when he was arrested.

SOUTH AFRICA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—According to the London correspondent of the Tribune, as the result of the publication of an elaborate report issued by the colonial office in relation to the concentration camps in South Africa, unionist papers pronounce the history of the camps as most creditable to England, while the pro-Boer journals maintain that the moral of the disclosures is the unutterable criminality of the policy of concentration. It is admitted in the report that there is an incidence of insufficient housing and covering, absence of warmth and poor rations. It is stated that the camp prisoners have been divided into two classes, and that people whose relatives have been on commando have been put on half rations. But this policy has since been abandoned. It is said.

A British patrol was surrounded by Boer forces of Pretoria, Nov. 13th, and lost six men killed and 18 wounded. On Nov. 14th, Boers said to be led by Dewet, were repulsed near Hellbron, leaving eight men dead. Further surrenders of men and captures of horses by the British are reported.

THE CANAL TREATY.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—So far as the British government is concerned, all that remains to be done in connection with the Isthmian canal is for Lord Pauncefoot and Secretary of State Hay to affix their signatures to the new treaty. Such minor suggestions as ensued after the British ambassador's arrival at Washington have all been disposed of, and the foreign office awaits news of the signing of the convention though it has not received any confirmation as to when this is likely to occur. No draft of the treaty has been called here, for the very good reason that the text of the document is safely locked away in the foreign office files, where it has been since prior to Lord Pauncefoot's departure from this country. The ambassador was empowered to sign on behalf of Great Britain the first day he arrived in the United States if such a course seemed to him advisable. He is acting with full power and the officials presume that he is only awaiting the convenience of the state department at Washington.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 16, 1901.

ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX.

It is perhaps natural that Halifax should desire to make the Jamaica steamship service exclusively its own, but to make out a case the merchants of that city must show that an exclusive Halifax service would best advance the interests of Canadian trade. In so important a matter no merely local argument can prevail. The claim of St. John for a share of the service is largely based on the fact that the direct fruit trade of Jamaica with Canada can be increased by making St. John the port of entry, since the fruit could be landed in Montreal from this port in 24 hours, and thus secure for a Canadian port business which now goes via Boston. In this matter St. John and Halifax should stand together, just as they did in the case of Canadian ports against Portland, Me., for winter port steamship business. The claim of St. John is endorsed by Montreal merchants interested in Jamaica trade, and therefore the citizens cannot be charged with setting up a merely factious opposition to Halifax.

THE LOG DRIVES.

The failure of the lumber operators to get out the delayed drives of logs on the upper St. John is much to be regretted. Not only does it entail considerable loss to the owners, because many of the logs will no doubt drift to sea with the ice in the spring, but it happens at a time when the British lumber market is particularly strong, and prices high, with an upward tendency. It is fortunate that the firms affected are financially strong, but there is none the less regret that they will not be able to place this lumber on the market under such favorable conditions as at present prevail. The lumberman must of course be a philosopher, because he cannot be certain about his logs or his market at the time he makes his logging contracts. The fact that these logs cannot be got down this fall, and that many of them will be lost in the spring, will also affect the labor market at the mills. A number of mills had to shut down earlier than usual this fall because their log supply had run short, and now these must remain idle till logs come down in the spring. Thus the welfare of more than the owners of the logs is affected by the very poor stream-driving of the season that has just closed.

THE FALLEN HEROES.

The "Guild of Loyal Women" are doing a difficult and much-needed work in South Africa. They are tending the graves of the fallen soldiers and looking after the inscriptions. Numbers of men lie buried in lonely places many miles from any town or railway, and often very difficult to reach; nevertheless, the guild is anxious to give all information in its power to those who wish to inquire. A general record-book, to contain a complete list of all those who have lost their lives during the war, has been commenced. The names are to be arranged according to the regiments, and indexed alphabetically, so that all those who have lost friends or relatives, and who are anxious for the graves, to be found may obtain the required information.

IT IS VERY GRATIFYING TO LEARN THAT THE GENTLEMEN WHO ARE INTERESTED IN STARTING THE COTTON MILLS ARE MEETING WITH SUBSTANTIAL SUCCESS IN SECURING CAPITAL FOR THE ENTERPRISE.

The weekly wage of the operatives in the mills would be a welcome addition to the amount of money in circulation during the winter season. It is money, too, that does go into circulation, and the good results are felt by the shopkeepers, large and small, throughout the city. The chief advantage is of course to the families to which the operatives belong, but there is a universal benefit.

ON DAYS WHEN THE CANADIAN PACIFIC EXPRESS FROM THE WEST IS SEVERAL HOURS LATE, ST. JOHN HAS NO RAILWAY COMMUNICATION WITH POINTS BETWEEN THIS CITY AND MONCTON FROM THE TIME THE EARLY MORNING TRAIN LEAVES UNTIL THE C. P. R. JOHN AND ALL THE PLACES ALONG THE LINE TO MONCTON WERE IGNORED WHEN THE PRESENT TIMETABLE WAS ARRANGED.

DO THE MEMBERS OF THE ST. JOHN BOARD OF HEALTH BELIEVE THAT ANOTHER EPIDEMIC HOSPITAL WOULD AID IN STAMPING OUT THE SMALLPOX? THEY HAVE DISCUSSED THE MATTER AT SEVERAL MEETINGS, AND THERE IS EVIDENTLY SOME DIFFICULTY IN SECURING A DESIRABLE PLACE. IF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD DECLARE THAT ONE IS NEEDED THEY WILL PROBABLY FIND THAT SOMETHING CAN BE DONE. LET US HAVE A DEFINITE STATEMENT.

JEFFRIES WON

In the Most Disappointing Contest Ever Witnessed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—In one of the most unsatisfactory prize fights ever witnessed in this country, James J. Jeffries proved the victor tonight over Gus Ruhlin, the Akron giant.

In the fifth round of what was to have been a 30 round struggle Ruhlin wilted and then surrendered to his power, to the utter amazement and disgust of the assembled thousands. No one was more surprised at the outcome than Jeffries himself, who asserted that while he had delivered one killing blow in the second round he did not expect to win so easily. Ruhlin's sole explanation of the outcome of the fight is that he received a sharp blow which utterly disabled him, and that Jeffries himself, while fighting him low, while Ruhlin will make no absolute charge of Jeffries having committed a foul, he intimates that he was unfairly handled and injured as a result of the blow, which I must say was very low, but which may not have been a foul, and which no living man could have survived. Jeffries departed from the written rules and from the common regulations of boxing when he threw himself upon me and wrestled rather than sparred. I do believe that had I not received the stomach punch, which ended me in the fifth, I would have worn down Mr. Jeffries a few rounds later and beaten him as a matter of endurance. I am ready to fight him again, and believe that in time I will have the opportunity of showing that I can defeat him. That is all I can say."

When Ruhlin went to his dressing room he was followed by a very determined retinue. The defeated man complained of no pain and moved about without assistance. He stated: "I believed from the tap of the gong that I would win, but as the fight progressed I was beaten down until I received a blow in the stomach, which I must say was very low, but which may not have been a foul, and which no living man could have survived. Jeffries departed from the written rules and from the common regulations of boxing when he threw himself upon me and wrestled rather than sparred. I do believe that had I not received the stomach punch, which ended me in the fifth, I would have worn down Mr. Jeffries a few rounds later and beaten him as a matter of endurance. I am ready to fight him again, and believe that in time I will have the opportunity of showing that I can defeat him. That is all I can say."

Never in the history of San Francisco has there been such a crush of humanity at a pugilistic event. Hardly had the sun dragged itself behind the hill toward the ocean before the great pavilion began to fill with the enthusiastic crowds. Thousands poured into the gallery when the doors were finally open, and long before the first preliminary round had begun, the portion of the pavilion was black with spectators, people coming from all points between Vancouver and Mexico, and embracing well known state officials, members of the judiciary and prominent sportsmen, took possession of the high priced seats early.

The extreme heat from the powerful lights over the ring made itself felt as intense as that which hampered the Sharkey-Jeffries fight. Two minutes after the men entered the ring they were announced by Billy Jordan, who presented referee Harry Corbett. Deafening cheers greeted the fighters, but an instant later, when a police captain entered the ring to examine the gloves, groans and hisses filled the vast audience.

THE FIGHT.

The men were to break at order of the referee. Time was called at 8:37. The fight was then waged as follows: ROUND 1. Ruhlin led for the head and landed lightly with the left. They clinched. Both men were cautious. Jeffries' left was finally open, and who are anxious for the grave, to be found may obtain the required information.

ROUND 2.

They clinched. Ruhlin was hooked around the neck with a left. He accused Jeffries of foul fighting. The Akron man then shot in his right and landed Jeffries' ribs, following this up by an ineffectual life swing for the head. Jeffries waxed aggressive. Ruhlin planted a right and left to the face, then rushed, landing on the body. The champion led with the left and was countered. Ruhlin found Jeffries' head, and in a short exchange landed a right and a left. The men fought at close range, Gus again landing on Jeffries' face and stopping the latter's attempt at retaliation with a strong right. Ruhlin feinted with his right and shot a straight left on Jeffries' nose, but the blow was partially blocked. The men were wrestling when the round closed. This was decidedly Ruhlin's round.

ROUND 3.

The men came up strong, and Ruhlin shot in with a right and a left, which were stopped. Jeffries elbowed his way back, and finally caught the Akron man with a terrific left to the neck. Jeffries pursued Gus and swung with both hands. In a rush Jeffries landed weak body blows. Ruhlin again countered with aggressive. He feinted and came back with an ineffectual short arm punch. Jeffries easily held the advantage, with Gus constantly complaining. The men closed in several times, Ruhlin fighting low and Jeffries apparently looking for a chance to land a knock-out punch. Jeffries retreated about the ring until the spectators hissed him. The round closed with neither man in distress, but Ruhlin the more worried of the two.

ROUND 4.

After a short exchange at close quarters, Ruhlin landed on the face. He was forced back, and Jeffries smiled as Ruhlin again rebuked him. Jeffries landed a left, blackening Gus' left eye, then pursued him, fighting at short range and plainly wearing his man down. Ruhlin lacked aggressiveness and retreated as Jeffries pushed him across the ring. Then the champion walked Gus across the ring again and landed a fierce left on his jaw. Ruhlin shot out ineffectual lefts, Jeffries whaled Ruhlin left and right. Gus went down and took the count. He came up apparently weak, and the gong saved him. Ruhlin was plainly in the greatest distress when the round closed. This round was much in Jeffries' favor.

ROUND 5.

Ruhlin wore a distressed expression when he came up. Jeffries went in with straight arm blows, but was weak, and he was forced back to the jaw and a short left to the ribs, and then went again to the neck with a right. A volley followed this, in which the champion fessed Gus with lefts to the face. Ruhlin ducked and retreated steadily. Jeffries followed the advantage up and bored in, touching Ruhlin beneath the chin with his right and forcing him to the ropes, after which Gus went to the floor and at the count of five staggered to his feet. He ceased fighting, and Jeffries went in for a knock-out.

In the last minute of the round Ruhlin attempted to stop a left lead which Jeffries landed a light hook and struck squarely in the pit of the stomach. Jeffries was going at him very fiercely, and when the gong sounded Ruhlin was assisted to his corner. It looked then as if the fight was practically ended. Ruhlin gave every appearance of being in distress.

UNHAPPY COL. TUCKER.

It is understood that one of the things Col. Tucker, M. P., undertook to set right on his recent trip to Ottawa was the matter of the superannuation allowance of Ex-Immigration Agent Gardner. Col. Tucker felt that the editorial staff of the Telegraph felt that Mr. Gardner was not receiving justice at the hands of the government, and they decided that Col. Tucker must attend to it. The good man did his best, it is said, but his best was nothing at all, so far as results are concerned. Therefore the colonel is said to be unhappy.

When buying skirt bindings don't waste time and money on braids and common brush bindings, as owing to the braid surface they chafe and wear the shoe and are unsatisfactory.

Ask for Duxbak waterproof bias velvet brush edge skirt binding.

It's easier to put on than any other binding. The top being finished ready to sew on, requires no turning in. It will outlast the lives of the skirt, and does not hold the dust or dirt.

Insist on having Duxbak, as it is one of the S. H. & M. make. Only take the kind having the letters S. H. & M. on the back of every yard.

AN APPEAL. The management of the Shelter and woodyard on Water street are anxious to have everything in readiness for the large number of destitute men who will shortly be here on the winter port steamers. Before the shelter will be available for their reception, considerable will be needed in the way of bedding, rough furniture, kitchen utensils, etc. A second hand organ is also greatly needed for the reading room.

A committee of ladies will be at the Seaman's Mission on Monday and Thursday afternoon to receive any of these articles.

A lot 40 x 125 has been rented for the woodyard and will be fenced shortly. Lumber for one side of this lot will be required and will be gratefully received by the committee in charge.

THE HAY TRADE. During the past season the hay trade on the river has been about the same as last year. The quantities which have come down has been, if anything, slightly less, but prices were a little better, which about evened matters. On account of the unusually heavy crop it was expected that a much larger quantity would be brought down, but the river farmers appear to have experienced considerable difficulty in having their hay pressed on account of being unable to obtain help. Especially has this been true since the demand for men in the woods commenced. The greater part of the hay came down by the different steamers, although several woodboats and scows brought large quantities. In regard to the amount shipped, Sheffield, Upper Sheffield and Margerville take the lead.

THE SMALLPOX.

Board Says McNamara Must Be Taken To Epidemic Hospital.

A special meeting of the county council has been called for Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the court house, for the purpose of considering precautionary measures relating to the smallpox.

At the meeting of the board of health today it was decided to insist on the removal of Mr. McNamara, who is at present on board Barge No. 2, to the epidemic hospital.

A suspected case was reported today of a Mr. McKechney on Celebration street.

In regard to the McNamara case Dr. March has stated that it is entirely outside his authority. The Barton case as well did not come under his jurisdiction. He, moreover, had not been asked to interfere, and knew nothing of the case until the board took charge of it. The quarantine buildings on Partridge Island are owned by the federal government, and not by the city.

Two cases of smallpox were reported last evening. One was, however, a suspect. The true case is that of Mr. O'Neil, of Coldport, whose daughter died of the disease yesterday. The suspect is Wellington Lord, corner Germain and Union street, Carleton, William Alward, of Haymarket Square, who was reported on the 16th, died last night.

Last evening Dr. March and Dr. Montisambert, director-general of public health, were waited upon by a delegation from the board of health, who asked that the board give instructions to Dr. Ellis that the nurses in the epidemic hospital may walk in the hospital yard between 11 a. m. and 3 p. m.

A MONCTON OPINION. (Moncton Transcript.) The authorities in St. John can scarcely be congratulated upon the ability with which they have handled the small-pox outbreak. Nothing could be more disastrous to the interests of the city of St. John and of the province, and especially so at this season of the year, than that in the metropolis of New Brunswick small-pox should exist. The city of Moncton was placed in the centre of an affected district and more than once has been exposed to attacks and though at the time people grumbled at the action of the board of health, the secretary and members of the board of health, yet when the fact is recalled that the outbreak in this city was once restricted to the person who received the attack from a transient guest at a hotel, and restricted the second time to the railway man who brought the disease here from Bathurst, the facts are subjects for congratulation. The city escaped through the efficiency and vigilance of its health board and through the readiness with which the general public, after a little grumbling accepted the necessary restrictions. The fact is that though small-pox raged along the North Shore and affected large districts in the County of Westmorland, yet it never obtained a hold in the city of Moncton beyond the two cases cited. Had the authorities in St. John moved with the same promptness and vigilance that Moncton did, it, St. John, would not today be in its present unfortunate position. Small-pox is not a disease to be played with and this is not the time for the St. John and the provincial authorities to be squabbling over the question of expenses. Stamp the disease out first and settle the liability for the expenses afterwards.

A JOLLY PRESENTATION. A number of the friends of H. G. Johnston, who came here representing R. Hos & Co. of New York, to instruct the press room staff in the Globe office in the stereotyping business, waited upon him at the New Victoria hotel last evening and presented him with some choice things for his home, handsome cuff buttons, and a combination pipe case. The presentation was made by J. G. Ritchie, and Mr. Johnston thanked the donors for the appropriate gifts. He said he would never forget St. John, and he would always be willing to do a good turn for a St. John man. Later on speeches were made by ex-Mayor Seggs and others.

Songs were sung by Frank Watson and J. Morrell and a pleasant evening was spent. Mr. Johnston, who has made many friends during his stay in St. John, left for Salem, Mass., this morning.

FREDERICTON PERSONALS. Wm. K. Allen, who has been ill for some weeks, expects to go to New York the first of next week to consult a specialist.

E. Byron Winslow went to Woodstock Friday afternoon to see his sister, Miss Winslow, who is very ill there.

ALL HANDS LOST. GODERICH, Ont., Nov. 15.—Schooner Marine City, abandoned, was picked up by steam-barge India in Thunder Bay and towed here. A terrific storm prevailed while the India was making harbor and the Marine City broke away with four of the India's crew on board. Today a portion of the Marine City's cabin and other wreckage came ashore, indicating that the vessel went down in the storm. All on board are supposed to be lost. They were James Holpin, James Connelley and Frank Lawrence, Kingston, and Anthony Lough, Garden Island.

Rev. J. Noble, the veteran Free Baptist minister of Woodstock, who has been the guest of Rev. C. T. Phillips for several days, left this morning for Wolfville, to visit his son-in-law, G. W. Houston. Rev. Mr. Noble is 84 years old, and is still able to conduct two services on Sunday. He has been in the ministry 67 years.

POLICE COURT.

More Boys Before the Magistrate—Phil Bushan's Troubles.

Six boys from the North End, reported by John A. Segge for cutting his ladder ropes and throwing stones at him appeared in court this morning. Mr. Segge was unable to state that any of the boys present had participated in the affair, but a woman had told him they were among the crowd on Halloween. The magistrate spoke very strongly against the practice of bringing boys to court on the slightest of offence and without any proof of their guilt. He expressed his determination to punish boys who had been disorderly, but in the future no boys should be brought up unless direct information were laid against them. Mr. Segge had no proof that any of the boys in court had cut his ropes and thrown stones. Under those circumstances the charge was dismissed.

Philip Bushan was arrested on a warrant charging him with beating his wife, Lydia Bushan. The latter stated that Philly had come home drunk, as usual, about twelve o'clock on Wednesday night, had come into the room where she was in bed and ordered her to go out and look for his hat, which he had lost. He dragged her out of bed, slapped and kicked her, and when she brought water for him to wash he had knocked her down. Philly wanted Mrs. Bushan's daughter and cousin brought as witnesses and the case was adjourned.

Nellie Hamilton declared that the statement that she was begging from house to house on Mecklenburg street was a down-right falsehood. All the people down there are particular friends of hers, and she was just in to see them. Officer Marshall stated that he had watched her going into different houses and upon making enquiries was told that she had been begging. Other evidence was wanted in this case, and it was postponed until two o'clock.

ROBERT WILLIAMS DEAD. SUSSEX, Nov. 15.—Robert Williams, carriage builder, of Apohaqui, was stricken with paralysis at about five o'clock last night and died this morning at four. He was about 72 years of age. He leaves besides his wife, two sons, Wellington, barber at Apohaqui, and the other son is out west. He was a leading member of the Free Baptist church, but has always been a hard worker in both the Free Baptist and Methodist churches, and has led the choir for years in both churches.

COUNTRY MARKET.

There was the largest attendance at the country market today that there has been for some time. The amount of stuff in it was not very large, and a good deal of what was there was consigned. Poultry was the feature of the market. In the fish department the stock was large and there were several new varieties. Chicken, halibut and salmon were offered for sale this morning for the first time this season.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK.

During the week there were seventeen deaths from the following causes: Smallpox, Typhoid fever, Meningitis, Old age, Consumption, Premature birth, Heart disease.

WORDS OF PRAISE FROM REV. FATHER KLAUDER, C. S. S. R.

Rev. Father Klauder, C. S. S. R., who is in charge of the very important missions which have lately been conducted in the different parts of this city, and who is at present holding forth at St. Peter's, has written the following interesting letter to Dr. J. D. Maher, proprietor of the Boston Dental Parlors:—

Redemptorist Fathers, St. Peter's Church, St. John, N. B., Nov. 15, 1901. My dear Doctor Maher,

Before leaving for the States I desire to inform you that I am highly pleased with the excellent work performed for me at your office. I can truthfully say that I consider your offices fully equipped and as beautifully furnished as any I have seen in my extensive travels. The appearance of your dental parlors inclines one to feel at home as soon as he enters.

I am surprised that you have not opened a branch office in the city proper. I would advise you to do so, as I am sure the people of St. John cannot but learn to appreciate the high quality of the workmanship executed at your offices. I trust that if you do so you may meet with every success.

Yours sincerely, FRANCIS E. KLAUDER, C. S. S. R.
