THE TARIFF AND POLITICS.

At the Industrial League banquet the other night the attorney general of Nova Scotia, a Liberal, stated that the tariff was no longer an issue of party politics in Canada and declared himself strongly in favor of an out-and-out protection policy.

That all the other speakers at the banquet, both Liberal and Conservative, were unanimous in advocating a reform of the present tariff along higher protection lines, would confirm Mr. Longley's assertion but for the fact that, unfortunately, these "Canada-for-Canadians" Liberals have at present no voice in the councils of the party to which they nominally belong.

Hon. Mr. Fielding is minister of finance now, and he and those who with him are masters of this country's present policy are openly anti-protectionists. Not that they advocate complete free trade, for they admit that the money to conduct the country's business can be raised by a customs tariff more satisfactorily than in any other way and that it is impossible to frame such a tariff without imposing duties on some articles which are or can be made or produced in Canada and thus giving protection, incidentally, to those Canadians who may happen to manufacture or produce those articles. But they are careful to insist that such protection must be incidental; that the tariff must be imposed for revenue only; that the revenue is its only excuse.

Today, many branches of Canadian industry profess to be suffering greatly from the highly protected competition of American charges. They have stated their case many times to Mr. Fielding and his colleagues. Every time they have met with determined resistance and Mr. Fielding's latest public deliverance on the subject was a positive declaration that there would be no revision of the tariff in the near future. Indeed, as his ideas of the tariff is simply an instrument of taxation and as he has claimed, in recent budgets, a surplus of revenue over expenditure, it is natural to expect that any change hereafter will be in the direction of less protection rather than more.

While this is the situation of the Liberal government and while the Conservative party, standing true to their policy that a tariff should be framed with the protective idea first in mind, and are basing one of their strongest claims for popular approval on their promise to provide that higher and adequate protection which the present government denies, it is hard to see how Mr. Longley can successfully support his contention that the tariff is out of politics.

But it is fair to Mr. Longley to admit that it is not his custom to permit the fact that an assertion is difficult of proof, to prevent him from making that assertion.

PROSPERITY AND PROTECTION.

For any who are interested in statistics and who wish more evidence of the hampering effect of a high protective tariff upon trade, here are a few figures concerning the trade of the United States, the most extreme protectionist country in the world:

The total trade, export and import, in 1903, was $2,500,000,000, an increase of $786,000,000 over 1902, when the fiscal policy of the United States was low tariff.

Its total exports in 1903 were $1,282,231,000; its imports $1,217,769,000, showing that it received last year $66,462,000 more than it paid out. Canada in the same year paid out $11,032,000 more than it received.

The United States sold to free trade Great Britain goods to the value of $543,000,000 and bought therefrom only $177,000,000, less than one-third.

To Canada it sold $131,000,000 worth, an increase of 120 per cent. over the figures in 1902. It bought only $53,000,000, an increase of only 56 per cent.

To Germany, France and the Netherlands it sold a total of $388,000,000. It bought $222,000,000.

To the various British dependencies it sold $228,000,000 and bought therefrom $121,000,000.

Uncle Sam's trade with the uncivilized world consisted of $285,000,000 exports and $414,000,000 imports.

Including the trade with his own dependencies Uncle Sam's business under ten years of high protection has increased about eight hundred million and last year alone gave him a balance in gold, received at home or placed by his credit abroad, of about $294,000,000.

Portland, Maine, is still in business as a Canadian port. The Grand Trunk loads one big ship a week there with Canadian freight. When the G. T. P. is finished, Portland will do better.

Sunday was the last winter session of Trinity Church choir. The choir will consist of about thirty voices during the summer months.

RECENT DEATHS.

JOHN S. BARNABY. The death occurred in this city Saturday evening of John Sibley Barnaby, father of W. H. Barnaby, of the firm of Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd. Mr. Barnaby was 85 years of age and had been sick for some time. He was well known about the city and was very popular. W. H. Barnaby is the only son, and Mrs. T. Nesbit Robertson, the only daughter.

The late Mr. Barnaby was born in Cornwallis, Kings Co., N. S., and early in life, about 1845, settled in Moncton where for a number of years he was engaged in business. While in Moncton he was one of the most prominent citizens, filling the position of councillor and magistrate at different times. In 1873 he retired and moved to St. John, where he has since resided.

The funeral service was held at his son's house last evening by Rev. Dr. Gates, and the body was taken to Moncton today on the noon train, where interment will be made by Rev. Dr. Gates, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hutchinson of Moncton, officiating.

MRS. PERCY CAMPBELL. Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, wife of Percy W. D. Campbell, L. C. R. train despatcher, died at her home Saturday evening after a sickness of only a few weeks of spinal meningitis. Mrs. Campbell was the daughter of Col. James Buchanan, was twenty-four years of age and left two children, Mrs. Alfred Buckle and Mrs. Smith of McAdam are sisters of the deceased, while two unmarried sisters reside at home, Mrs. Buchanan of St. Stephen, George A. Buchanan of Syracuse, and Rev. Howard Buchanan of Tennessee are brothers. Mrs. Campbell was very popular with all who knew her and much sympathy is expressed with the grief-stricken husband and children.

JOHN CARLIN, JR. The friends of John Carlin, Jr., will be grieved to hear of his sudden death, which took place yesterday afternoon at his home, 523 Main street, north end. Mr. Carlin complained on Saturday of pains in his head, but kept about his work as usual. All yesterday morning he was up and about the house, but late in the afternoon he became suddenly ill and died about four o'clock. Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, two in San Francisco and one in New York. He also leaves a sister and a living in Boston. Mr. Carlin was about 27 years of age.

GEO. A. WEEKS. AMHERST, N. S., May 22.—The death occurred here this morning of Councilor Geo. A. Weeks, aged 46 years, after a long illness of consumption. Mr. Weeks has been in business here for twenty years as a barber, and conducted two shops. He was highly respected by all and took an active interest in municipal government. In February last year he was elected to the town council by a large majority and always displayed a keen interest in his duties connected with that body. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and of other local societies.

STYDEN, N. S., May 22.—Frank Dorton of Little River, near Charlotte, died today at an advanced age, the result of having his back broken by an accident at the steel works twelve weeks ago. His wife has been very ill, and the coffin containing the remains had to be taken today to her bedside, she being too ill to get up. She had seen her husband only once or twice since he was injured.

A little over a week ago Daniel Whelpley, a well known north end ship carpenter, died while visiting his daughter in Massachusetts. He was on Friday last Capt. George E. Whelpley of Murray street passed away. Thus died two brothers—both landmarks in the old Portland section of the city. A sister, Miss Kitty Whelpley of Brown's Plaza, survives.

THE SEVEN LIES OF MEN. Behold the seven lies of man: As soon as he can lip he says: "It must have been the cat!"

Next, when the baseball team begins to make a record, he says: "His well-loved grandamma falls dead a dozen times or more."

Third, like a furnace does he sigh: Of course we know the gist; He tells the maiden fair she is The first he ever kisses.

Fourth age, he comes home in the moon; And gladness fills his cup— The good Samaritan has been With sick friends sitting up.

Fifth, to the woodshed he repairs His belt to interpose; And says: "My son—kew-wat! kew-wat! This hurts me more than you!"

He next has leisure on his hands And fills a jug with bait; He hooks a minnow, then he swears Ten pounds be its weight.

Last age, when lean and slumped grown, He finds his greatest joy In telling what perfection ruled The day he was a boy. —New York Sun.

BEAR GULCH MANAGER IN TROUBLE. Manager H. M. Ryan, of the Kimberley-Montana Mining Company, was arrested at Jardine, Mont., recently for assaulting L. C. Ropes, a mining engineer. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was given his liberty on furnishing bonds.

HARBOR FORTIFICATIONS. Already surveys are underway in and about St. John harbor for the new fortifications which have been talked of a long recently. It appears, however, that Partridge Island is not to be the site. Fort Dufferin and Red Head are talked of as the position for the new guns.

PRESENCE OF MIND. "I'm ready" shouted a pompous orator the other night. "Not me! I'm not ready" cried a man who was at that moment the platform collapsed, and the speaker exhibited great perturbation.

"How about that one?" they asked him later. "That one did not arise."

LOCAL NEWS.

The Dirigo left Saturday for Fredericton with a good load of wood for the use of the Fredericton Boom Company, and 150 links of the boom used down here some time ago. It will now be employed up there in connection with the booms below Fredericton because of the high freight.

All the logs, and there was a large lot of them towed into Millidgeville some weeks ago under the supervision of Fred D. Miles, have been delivered to the owners during the past few days. The accomplishment of Mr. Miles reflects great credit on himself.

The Manchester liner Manchester Merchant, Capt. Parry, sailed about 4 o'clock yesterday morning for Philadelphia. She discharged a lot of general goods here and carried away about 400 standards of deals, a lot of shooks and other goods.

Arthur Harrison and James Daly of the L. C. R. arrived on Friday evening from Westchester where they have been on a fishing trip. They brought with them thirty dozen large sized trout which were caught in Newfoundland.

Mr. Lord, principal of Fairville school, arranged a trip to Inglisford for some of the scholars last Saturday. They spent a pleasant day examining the flowers and birds to be found there and returned by the suburban train in the evening.

Rev. W. W. Brewer of Maryville, former of Centenary Church, St. John, preached morning and evening yesterday at Fairville. Both services were largely attended, many people walking out from the city.

The late Archibald Harley, formerly M. P. for South Oxford, Ontario, who died at his home in Burford last week, was a native of this province. He was born at Newcastle, Northumberland Co., before the great Miramichi fire, and went as a small boy to Hamilton with the rest of his father's family.

The West India liner Oruro, Captain Seley, from the Baltimore, which first touched at Halifax, reached St. John about noon yesterday and docked at the Pettigill wharf, where she will remain until the afternoon. She will put ashore here between 400 and 500 puncheons of molasses and 400 barrels of asphalt. The last mentioned material is probably what is to be used for the improvement of the sidewalks of St. John and the new work which it may be possible to do.

The government steamer Lansdowne has received her boiler, built by the Fleming concern. It was placed in the vessel by P. Egan, who did the work in a very short time and performed his part of the work in a way which reflects great credit on the well known operator in this line.

HOW A YOUNG WIFE SHOULD ENCOURAGE HER HUSBAND. We frequently hear a man crying out that he cannot afford to marry. Sometimes he says if the police court sometimes he says it to a friend in defence of his bachelor existence; and sometimes he repeats it with a purpose to the woman he has asked to be his wife.

Every sensible person knows that it is foolish to marry in haste, or without due regard to the future. You cannot marry on nothing, because the man who marries in this way is bound to just how much you can marry on is another matter.

As a rule the people who cry out about their poverty are not so badly off as one would imagine. There is something in the habit of being poor. They are either not in love, or are afraid; or else one is content but fears for the future.

Fear of poverty and hardship never stands in the way of an engaged couple who are honestly satisfied with each other. The passion for respect of their society strengthens mind and will, and such obstacles as lack of means and misty prospects instantly disappear.

The man has but to think of the woman he loves in order to be content of accomplishing any purpose he may set his mind to. The woman is ready and willing to suffer anything for the sake of being in her husband's company.

What are a top back room, a supper of bread and cheese, a shabby suit, and a light purse, if one is supremely happy? They can be borne with laughter, relished and accepted day after day.

It is only, perhaps, with a woman who means to be the spur to her husband's success, that a man can accept a top back room and bread and cheese. If he fears that she cannot support a villa in the country, it is not wise to take her into a back room, even if she is willing to go.

The right sort of girl will go anywhere with the man she loves, and accept any fare. For his own sake she'll push him into a villa in the country, and she'll most famous men have been pushed by their wives. In the homely philosophy of Mr. Dooley, "it's business in their wives' 'F to make them fight."

Berliners are growing extravagant, declare the London Chronicle.

CAUGHT SHOPLIFTING. Between nine and ten o'clock on Saturday night Fred A. Dykeman detected what was evidently an attempt at shoplifting. A woman, middle aged and rather well dressed, who lives in the north end, entered the shop and made a purchase from Mr. Dykeman. He wrapped up the article and received the money for it, but when turning to put the cash in the carrier, noticed a suspicious movement on the part of the woman.

A moment or two later she asked for another article, which was to be had in a distant part of the store, and Mr. Dykeman went for this, keeping an eye on the customer at the same time. The woman carried a valise, and when Mr. Dykeman's return he asked her what was in it that did not belong to her. The customer became indignant, and opened the valise. It contained the parcel she had bought, and also some silk material. Mr. Dykeman expressed surprise at finding this in the valise, and the woman was also much surprised. Mr. Dykeman, called in a couple of police officers, who were of the opinion that the suspected person should be detained, but as Mr. Dykeman got back the goods which had been taken he decided to go any further in the matter and the woman was released.

Quite a large crowd was attracted by the incident.

GOOD BASEBALL.

At the Victoria grounds Saturday afternoon the St. Joseph's downed the Clippers in good style, putting up a fast clean game. The Clippers on the other hand went to pieces after the sixth inning. Malcolm was in the box for the Clippers, and for six innings held the St. Joseph's down to four scattered hits. In the seventh inning Malcolm was touched up for a double and four singles, and hit one man. In the eighth inning he hit two men, the infield had three errors, which with one hit netted St. Joseph's five runs. George was the box for the St. Joseph's, and held the Clippers down to seven hits, allowing them to score in but one inning, the sixth, when Paris, McDonald and Case hit one two baggers.

St. Joseph's scored in the third and Mitchell failed to handle Long's grounder and a passed ball sent that player to second and Burke's single to center placed him in the box for the Clippers. The Clippers got one hit after this, a single by Malcolm in the seventh. A double by Brit, singles by Burke, George, Whelby, and Poohey aided the St. Joseph's to get four runs in the seventh.

Franklin's 7, Portland's 5. The evening game was played on the Shamrock grounds, and brought together the Portlands and Franklins. It was the first appearance of the End team this season, and many of their admirers were on hand to cheer them along to victory. The game had willed it otherwise, and when the game was called at the end of the sixth inning they were well run in. The Portlands were a very natty uniform this season, light grey, with black trimmings.

Grace pitched for the Franklins, and although it was his first game for five years, he did good work, holding the Portlands down to three scattered hits. He was, however, a little wild at times, particularly in the first inning, when, without a hit, the Portlands scored three runs.

Treacran pitched for the North End boys, and with the exception of the fourth inning was very steady. In the fourth inning got a two bagger, Cregan, Burns and Grace singles, the Franklins scoring five runs.

IN THE CHURCHES.

REV. MARK GUY PEARSE.

Mr. Pearse, who has been in Canada for some months, came to the city on Saturday and will be added to the committee before the day of the race. Entries must be made on attached form on or before Tuesday, June 21st. The first race is to be called at eight o'clock a. m., sharp, and all contestants must be ready to start in any race at that time. The committee, which is composed of J. L. Day, H. Vroom and W. J. Coates, reserve the right to vary the programme as circumstances may determine and representatives will be added to the committee before the day of the race.

Mr. Pearse said that one of the most remarkable points was the almost total absence of drunkenness which makes the country to one used to London slums a perfect paradise. Mr. Pearse went with him in the country since last August and during that time has been able to send £1,000 proceeds of his lectures, to forward his work in London.

Rev. Mr. Pearse some years ago became associated with Hugh P. Hughes in mission work in London. The Wesleyan Church had been aroused to the necessity of taking more active steps in this work, and Mr. Hughes was selected as superintendent. He accepted the position on condition that Mr. Pearse went with him. This was agreed to and the West London Mission was opened in October, 1887, when Rev. C. H. Spurgeon preached the inaugural sermon. Services have been held regularly since that time, and in his lectures, Mr. Pearse has been supported by their wives. In connection with the mission a sisterhood was organized, which was superintended by Mrs. Hughes. This society started a day nursery, carried on mothers' meetings, and has been very successful.

Relief work was undertaken and through this much misery is being alleviated. The rescue work has saved hundreds of girls, and for the laboring classes entertainment has been provided.

The financial strain, coupled with the ceaseless exertion, led to the death of Mr. Pearse, but Mr. Pearse continues in the work, and his trip to Canada is in the interests of the organization which is doing so much good.

Rev. Mr. Pearse was the preacher in the Portland Methodist Church yesterday morning. His sermon was a comparison of the lives of the disciples before and after receiving the Holy Spirit.

COBURG STREET CHRISTIAN. Rev. J. F. Floyd preached on the Supernatural Character of Christ in the evening. St. Andrew's Church. Rev. Clarence McKinnon occupied St. Andrew's pulpit last night and preached an able sermon from 1 Corinthians 12:10.

TRINITY CHURCH. Rev. L. Norman, Secretary of the Missionary societies of the Church of England in Canada, spoke in Trinity church last night on Missionary Work in Canada.

THE SAND POINT PIERS. Every berth at Sand Point is now occupied, but the vessels there are not nearly of the dimensions of those which were usually there during the winter months. At 10 p. m. the vessel which was the steamer Hilda, which brought some 1,500 tons of rails here from Philadelphia for the C. P. R. wharf, will get under way. A lot of money in connection with this business and will probably proceed up the coast on Tuesday to take in glasier for New York.

At No. 1 berth, a corporation wharf, the steamer Hilda is loading deals for a U. K. port. The str. Kronberg, which occupied the berth at the upper government pier for some days, is now at No. 2 pier completing her cargo for a British port.

At No. 3 the str. Morselsborg is loading for the U. K., and at No. 4 the Dora is doing likewise. The vessels there are all foreign ships, but as they suit the requirements of the shippers, there is no reason for any shift.

PREACHED TO HIS HOME PEOPLE. Rev. Albert Fajoy, who was summoned to Ottawa upon the tragic death of his brother, Frank Fajoy, drowned a short while ago at Westhead, preached in St. Andrew's Baptist church Sunday evening, delivering a soul-stirring gospel sermon, which visibly affected the large congregation. Rev. Mr. Fajoy was speaking to his home people, as it were, and his remarks were therefore listened to with the closer attention. He took for his text the 10th verse of the 2nd chapter of Ephesians: "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus into good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

WILL SELL. TORONTO, May 22.—Master in chambers today decided that the four mills of the Canadian Woolen Mills should be sold the first week in July. The liquidator applied for leave to run the mills until December 1st, but as the present condition of the tariff would mean that they would have to be operated at a loss and as the capital stock of the company is all paid in, the loss would fall upon the creditors. The master refused permission.

TO CURE HEADACHE IN TEN MINUTES USE KUMFORD'S HEADACHE POWDERS. HUBBARD'S BODY. HALIFAX, N. S., May 22.—The body of Leonidas Hubbard, the assistant editor of the Nova Scotia Herald, who died in the wilds of Labrador, arrived on the steamer from Newfoundland today en route to New York. He is accompanied by his two companions, A. Dillon Walton of New York and George Wilson of Ontario.

The executive committee of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Consumption, has appointed a committee to take steps to secure cooperation municipalities and of government for the establishment of a large sanatorium in each province for the treatment of consumption. Moore, the secretary, will visit the maritime provinces in August or September and lecture upon the cause of consumption.

REV. MR. LANG ACCEPTS. The congregation of St. Andrew's Church have received word from Rev. David Lang of Bedford, N. Y., to the effect that he will accept their call, which was extended to him early last week, and will come to this city in the course of a few days.

The announcement was made from the pulpit yesterday morning by Rev. Clarence McKinnon, who preached at both services.

It was decided to extend a call to Mr. Lang at a meeting of the congregation held last Monday night and little time has been lost in preliminaries. Rev. Mr. Lang preached in St. Andrew's Church a short time ago and is an eloquent and scholarly speaker. He was born and educated in Canada, and is anxious to get back to his own country, which fact influences him strongly in giving up his church at Bedford. Although having some time ago completed his theological education, Mr. Lang is not ordained and his ordination and induction will take place in St. Andrew's Church on May 31st.

Those interested in professional acquisition, have considered the offer made by St. John for a four-armed race at that city on June 23rd. They considered that the time allowed to obtain a boat and train a crew was too short, and further that the conditions under which the race was to be rowed was not fair, and it is not likely that Halifax will be represented at the regatta in the professional events.—Halifax Mail.

FIREMEN POOLED.

False Alarm Called Them to the Duties. About eleven o'clock this morning an alarm was rung in from box 53, on Emmouth. No sooner had the apparatus got on the street than some one cried "the Dufferin Hotel" on fire." The firemen made for the Dufferin hotel and in the shortest time imaginable had a stream of water ready for the flame wherever it might be. They were quietly informed, however, by the Dufferin Hotel, that the alarm was in the stove, and there was no possibility of its doing damage while it remained there. When the firemen discovered that the laugh was on them they quickly rolled up their hose and hastened for Emmouth street, where they found that some of their brethren had already had put out the fire there.

ESCAPED FROM THE FARM.

Peter Britt, who was doing a three months term with the Rock Candy mine gang, made a quiet sneak on Saturday night from the prison, and is likely to be, as it is understood that he had secured a job in Maine, where he would have a residence, a bucket filled, but left the bucket and his overalls in the yard and departed quietly in the direction of Uncle Sam's domain.

POLICE COURT.

A Few Common Drunks and Phoebe Dukeshire—Prof. Hunter Withdraws His Complaint

In the police court this morning two common drunks were fined four dollars each or ten days hard labor.

James McKay, who was arrested on information laid by Prof. Thomas W. Hunter, the fortune teller, was allowed to go. Prof. Hunter, who accused him of assaulting his son George, who is but twelve years of age, pleaded with the magistrate to allow McKay to go, as he had been credibly informed that a crowd of boys had been teasing McKay and mistaking his son for one of the gang, he beatified him. While this was regrettable, he sympathized with McKay, and was sorry he had informed the police. His honor said that any boy who were guilty of teasing or interfering with a citizen was liable to a fine of eight dollars. The fine for assaulting his son was $10. Under the circumstances he allowed McKay his freedom.

Phoebe Dukeshire, who was arrested not long ago and sentenced to two months, was allowed her freedom after serving part of her term on condition that she should get out of the county, which she promised to do. When the magistrate opened court this morning Phoebe was considerably seated on the bench and looked as if life in this city thoroughly agreed with her. She pleaded guilty to being drunk and was sentenced to two months with hard labor. She explained that she had not come here for her. His honor stated that she would not be given another chance to go back to Sheffield street till her full time was up.
