Inspired By Revolutionists Who Demand a Republic.

Trouble Began at Noon Today and Threatens to Spread Everywhere—Government in Danger ---Witte Breaking Down.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—The proletariat of St. Petersburg has summoned a general political strike beginning today at noon. This action was decided upon late last night by the workers' strike committee which is now completely under the domination of the social revolutionists whose leaders openly proclaim that their ultimate object is the complete overthrow of the monarchy and the establishment of a democratic republic.

Mr. Powell followed Mr. Earle, on the same side, and was still addressing the court on adjournment at noon. Mr. Powell argued that the judge had no power under the statute to make the order or if he has it was not a proper case for his exercise.

FRIENDS PLAYED TRAITOR SAYS JAMES H. HYDE.

Former Vice-President of Equitable Life Makes Strong Charges Against His Associate Officers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—James Hasen Hyde, former first vice-president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, whose resignation followed the sensational disclosures last spring, which led to the investigation of the company, was the witness today.

Mr. Hyde's attitude on the stand was one of composure and deliberation and his replies to questions from counsel were calm, deliberate and quick, and cleared up many points that have been in the dark.

Mr. Hyde was called to the stand shortly after the session opened this morning and he was under examination all day until a few minutes before adjournment was taken.

In anticipation of his presence as a witness there was a greater crowd than has attended the sessions of the committee for some time and extra police were stationed in the corridors without the committee room.

Sensational testimony was given by Mr. Hyde concerning former Governor Odell and Mr. Harriman, relative to the settlement of Mr. Odell's suit against the Mercantile Trust Co., involving ship building company's bonds held by him.

Mr. Hyde said that Mr. Harriman called him and advised the settlement of Odell's suit, as he feared that otherwise powerful influence would be invoked in retaliatory measures.

Mr. Hyde said the suit was settled by paying Mr. Odell about $75,000.

Charges of conspiracy to get him out of the country were made by Mr. Hyde against Henry Frick and E. H. Harriman, in connection with the reported aspirations of Mr. Hyde to become ambassador to France.

Mr. Frick inspired the idea, Mr. Hyde said he took it as a joke at first, but when Mr. Frick brought it up later he was flattered and both Mr. Harriman and Mr. Frick promised to use their influence to secure the appointment.

Again Mr. Hyde grew bitter in his explanation of the extraordinary interest these gentlemen had in his absence from the country.

Mr. Hyde charged Mr. Frick with breach of faith in leading him to believe that the Frick investigating committee was "friendly" to him and was doing all he could to dissuade him from selling his stock at the same time, as Mr. Hyde said, "doing everything he could to knit me and destroy the value of that stock."

Mr. Hyde was excused until tomorrow, when his examination will be resumed.

DISFAVOR ACTION OF PARLIAMENT

In Increasing Indemnities of the Members.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 14.—At the regular annual meeting of the West-Canadian Liberal Conservative Association this afternoon, a resolution was passed unanimously that this meeting of the Liberal Conservatives view with strong disfavor the action of the parliament of Canada in increasing the indemnities to senators and commoners, believing the same without warrant or justification.

They further emphatically protest against life pension to ministers, believing the same an obsolete and unwarranted misappropriation of the public funds, whereby men who do little or nothing for the welfare of the country are to be kept in affluence for a lifetime out of the hard-won earnings of the Canadian taxpayer.

Further, that the matter of increasing indemnity should have been submitted to the electorate, and that the members of parliament have violated the trust reposed in them, and now occupy their positions without the confidence of the people.

The election of officers resulted as follows: P. G. Mahoney, of Botolph, president; G. B. Willet, Moncton, vice president; C. Lionel Hanington, Dorchester, secretary treasurer and organizer; Arthur N. Charters, Moncton, assistant.

The resolution was moved by Frank Black of Blackville, son-in-law of Senator Wood, seconded by Edward C. Cole, Moncton, and passed unanimously without discussion.

Senator Wood was not present at the meeting, owing to illness. H. A. Powell was also absent, being called to St. John's to attend to the affairs of the law firm of Powell, Bennett & Harrison, was among those present.

C. J. MILLIGAN IS REGISTRAR OF PROBATE. Vacant Position Filled at Gov't Meeting Yesterday.—George Robertson Says He is Not Disappointed.

The provincial government held a meeting in their rooms on Church street last evening. Present were, Attorney General Pugsley, Chief Commissioner Lablache, Hon. L. F. Farris and Solicitor General Jones.

The principal business transacted was the appointment of C. J. Milligan to the position of registrar of probate. The local members, it is understood, would enter upon his duties this morning. Mr. Milligan's claims to the position, and their views apparently in favor of his appointment.

The application of a number of companies for charters were granted, and the other business transacted was of a routine character.

The meeting adjourned to meet again this afternoon. Hon. L. F. Farris presided. The Provincial Hospital for the treatment of Nervous Diseases and made a thorough inspection of the institution. They found everything in first class order, and were entirely pleased with the manner in which the institution is being conducted. Although quite satisfied with everything they saw they were nevertheless glad to get out again.

When approached by the Sun last evening Mr. Milligan declined to report of his appointment, and said that he had already signified his acceptance of the position and would enter upon his duties this morning. Mr. Milligan further stated that there had been no negotiation between Mr. Robertson and himself for the appointment. On the contrary Mr. Robertson and the other local government members, Messrs. Purdy and Lantlam, had supported his application for the position.

Mr. Milligan was not the only applicant for this office. It is understood that among other names before the government were those of Daniel Mullin, K. C., Clarence H. Ferguson, and T. F. Regan. The office is worth fourteen hundred dollars a year, out of which perhaps two hundred dollars must be expended in printing and typewriting.

THE OPERA HOUSE MAY SOON BE SOLD. Negotiations are under way for the sale of the Opera House. During the past few days W. B. Tennant, who negotiated the Maritime Mall Works deal, has been in consultation with President A. O. Skinner, manager John F. Dockell and others of the local company. As yet nothing definite has been arrived at, but Mr. Skinner says he is quite ready to sell if he gets a price that suits him. The proposal is not for a controlling interest in the company but for an outright purchase of the whole property.

Mr. Tennant does not state who are the parties for whom he is acting. Street talk suggests two ideas. One is that Klaw & Erlanger of New York, who have secured a number of Canadian theatres to add to their circuit are at the bottom of this, but Mr. Dockell does not believe this to be the case. The other suggestion is that the Victoria Rink and York Theatre Company are the prospective purchasers.

Mr. Skinner states that nothing will be done for some little time, as the proposal must be put before the company.

SLAIN BOYS FATHER GIVES EVIDENCE AGAINST BLACKWOOD.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 14.—Everett Blackwood was arraigned in the police court this afternoon in connection with the shooting of Albert Howarth, ten-year-old son of Matthew Howarth, on the 30th September last.

Witness also said Blackwood was going to shoot, and that Blackwood struck the hammer of the gun twice before it was discharged. His son said he was not concerned about the shooting.

The Howarth's have only been in this country a few months, having come out from England to work in the cotton mill. Previous to coming here they had heard that the country was inhabited by Indians and bears and their experience here has certainly been unpleasant.

General Sweeney, who appeared for Blackwood, today said the case should have gone before the coroner's jury.

A further hearing will be held on Thursday.

ST. JOHN LAW SCHOOL OPENED LAST NIGHT.

The 1905-06 term of the St. John Law School was formally opened last evening in the Equity Court rooms, when two very able and interesting addresses to the students were given. There are a number of new students this year, among whom are Kenneth Howard, J. Earl Logan, Jas. P. Lunney, William Fugaley, Harold Robinson and W. B. Ferris. Quite a large audience was present at the meeting.

Dr. Silas Alward, dean of the law school, presided, and in opening the meeting said that the school was starting this term under more favorable circumstances than ever before. There are fifteen undergraduates this year. The school has been in existence for fourteen years; the first graduates were in 1891, and since then thirty-five of the students have received the degree of B. C. L. Previous to the founding of this school, young men of St. John went to Harvard or elsewhere. Now they stay at home and get just as good a course.

Dr. Hannah was then introduced, and he expressed his pleasure at being present, saying that he himself was really a law student as he has not yet completed his course in law at Temple Bar, England. Dr. Hannah then gave advice to the students, saying that they should not look upon law as a means to become rich financially, but that they should rather look upon law as a very important study. In Oxford and Cambridge law had been made an important study and he thought that this was an excellent thing. He thought that Roman law should especially be studied as it was the foundation of a great many of our present laws. Roman law he said to have been the great originator of international law.

He spoke briefly on the advisability of allowing ladies to study law and said that he had watched the case of Miss French very closely, and he thought that when it was finally allowed that a young lady should have the right to practice in this country that this would make its way into England and that ladies would be allowed admittance to the bar there. Dr. Hannah then spoke of a great danger which threatened Canada and the United States—that of having too slight a regard for the law. This, he said, was shown by such laws as the Scott Act and the bridge laws, which forbid any person driving a horse faster than a walk across certain bridges. The president was followed by H. A. Powell, who took up the further discussion of the Roman law, drawing many comparisons between it and the English code. He referred to the fact that Canadian people have a habit of seeking legislation on the slightest excuse. There are in Canada too many laws not worth the paper they are written on. Mr. Powell traced the growth of English laws, which arises out of the moral sentiment of the country. He advised young men to look upon law as a magnificent science. A. W. Macrae moved a vote of thanks to Dr. Hannah and Mr. Powell for the valuable addresses given them. This was briefly seconded by Wm. Fugaley, Jr.

In acknowledging this, Mr. Powell, in referring to the case of Miss French, said that, according to Sir Frederick Pollock, ladies were at one time permitted to practice, but afterwards this privilege was withdrawn and they have not since been admitted to the bar.

Henry Irving saw as a boy, Samuel Phelps was in the title role. Some time afterwards Phelps was persuaded to listen to a recitation by Irving, and after praising the young man the celebrated actor gave him this characteristic advice: "Young man, have nothing to do with the stage; it is a bad profession!"

The only woman in this country recognized by the government as an expert in photography is Miss Nell Havens of San Francisco. She has been called in many cases in the United States Supreme court to testify in regard to photography. She has studied the Bertillon system of identification, and pictures taken by her are accepted by authorities as equal to those made by Bertillon himself.

THE COST OF INSURANCE.

Naturally the insurance revelations of the past few months, which have proved to policy holders that a great deal of the money they pay into insurance companies is wasted by graft and criminal extravagance, have created a strong belief that these payments are too large and that a wisely and honestly conducted company could afford to make a substantial reduction in its premium rates and still provide adequate insurance. Quite as naturally the companies are combating this idea with all their power.

The ground for the companies' arguments in favor of existing rates is found in the assertion that these rates are based upon unerring mathematical calculations and are already as low as is compatible with safety. Says D. P. Kingsley, vice president of the New York Life, in an article in the current number of the Review of Reviews: "There were told that premiums are too high. This indicates a short memory. We are just clear of a period in the development of life insurance full of scandals, losses, and sufferings, caused by attempts to do business with inadequate premiums. Assessment insurance furnished on the cry that the level-premium companies were robbers; but the operation of a law as inexorable as the law of gravitation shut the doors of all such enterprises. Premium rates are singularly uniform all over the world. They have been arrived at by using both theory and practice. They have not to any extent been fixed by agreement. A sufficient premium rate is the very foundation of life insurance."

Says the writer of a series of articles on insurance topics in the Ottawa Free Press:—"There seems to be an impression on the public mind that the life insurance companies are charging rates which are too high. — It is not a life insurance company that makes the net cost of life insurance, but the length of human life." Then follows an array of figures in proof of the claim.

It is not given to the man in the street to understand the processes by which an insurance actuary arrives at his sometimes astounding conclusions nor to dispute with him on his own ground concerning the correctness of his calculations. But any wayfarer man though a blind fool can understand that the services of a youth a couple of years out of college are not worth $100,000 dollars a year to any company; that the services of three members of one family cannot fairly be worth about $200,000 a year for a period of twenty years; that hundreds of thousands of dollars for campaign funds and dinners and luxurious private car journeys do not come under the head of legitimate expenditure; that from fifty to one hundred per cent. of the first premium and a substantial slice of each succeeding premium for the agent is something that should not be taken into account in fixing the amount of that premium.

The man in the street may not be able to refute the actuary on his mathematical ground but he can point to the reckless and criminal waste of millions of the good dollars he has paid for insurance and can defy any actuary or other insurance official to shake his conviction that the company would have been just as sound financially if this money, instead of being thus thrown away, had been allowed to stay in his pockets.

If insurance companies can squander millions uselessly and submit to unlimited graft on the part of its officials and still remain on a solid financial basis, they can, under honest and sensible management which will save these millions, afford to take less from the policy holder and still furnish sound insurance. This may not be of tutorial mathematics but it is common sense.

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY.

The civic lighting plant in the North End has proved that the city can light its own streets much more cheaply than a company will do it. Next year the lighting contract with the Street Railway Company expires. The opportunity and the duty of the civic authorities to seize it are equally obvious. If a small plant like the one in use in the North End can furnish street lamps at a cost of $75 a light, that cost can be reduced if the plant is enlarged and the number of lights increased. At present the city pays the Street Railway Company $85 per light. What possible excuse is there for a continued submission to such extortion?

The registrarship of probates is filled, and the local government is relieved from the haunting terror of a bye-election in this constituency. How George Robertson has been pacified in a matter for surmise for he apparently expected the appointment at one time and undoubtedly would have secured it had the government dared face the danger of a contest here.

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about it.

THE CRIME OF INDISCRETION.

Alderman Dan Gallery, M. P., for St. Ann's Division, Montreal, has committed the awful crime of being caught. In the trial of a protest against his election, evidence has been given which not only indicates corrupt practices during his campaign, but strongly connects the successful candidate personally with them.

Wherefore some of his fortunate co-partisans who have as yet dodged the spot light are declaring that Mr. Gallery is a disgrace and that his retirement from politics is necessary for the welfare of Canada. In a way they are right. But men of the Gallery stamp who are frankly careless of their political methods and so occasionally are punished for what they scarcely tried to conceal, are not held so dangerous to the country's political morality as those who, being smoother and more hypocritical, can escape detection and carry on their nefarious corruption of the electorate and still go up to the temple and thank God they are not as other men are.

The Westmorland Conservatives did not disapprove of Mr. R. L. Borden giving up a law practice, which was making him rich, to devote his whole time to the leadership of the opposition; but they protest against him accepting any reward save the honor of the position and poverty. They do not deny that it is for the good of the country to have capable and efficient men in but they strenuously object to the only method by which—in this bustling country where every man who is any good has his own work to attend to—such men can be induced to enter public life.

AN OLD LESSON FROM THE FIELDS.

(Archibald Jampan.)
Even as I watched the daylight how it sped
From noon till eve, and saw the light wind pass
In long pale waves across the flashing green grass.
And heard through all my dreams, wherever led,
The thin clouds singing overhead,
I felt what joyance all this nature has,
And as myself made clear as in a glass,
How that my soul was for the most part dead.

O, light, I cried, and heaven with all its bliss,
O earth, with all your sunny fruits and fields,
And ye tall lilies of the wind-vexed field,
What power and beauty life indeed might yield,
Could we but cast away its conscious stress,
Simple of heart, becoming even as you!

SUCCESS OF ST. PETER'S HIGH TEA CONTINUES.

St. Peter's high tea was well patronized again last evening. The hall is so small for the crowd, who appear to be enjoying the affair thoroughly. The supper tables did even better last evening than on the opening night, when five hundred suppers were served. All the booths were liberally patronized and will no doubt have good returns to show. Everything is very tastefully arranged, and all possible has been done to make it pleasant for those who come to spend an evening.

It was calculated this morning that over a thousand people were present last evening. In fact the hall held as many as a standing room allowed. The bean shoots were liberally patronized, and many took tickets for the lotteries. The gentlemen's prizes last night were again won by Christopher Nichols, who also won prizes in this contest at the City Corner Band fair. The ladies' prize was a lemonade set. Tonight the orchestra of St. Peter's will be in attendance. In the bean shoot an alarm clock has been offered as a prize for the men and china cups and saucers for the ladies. It is quite probable that the sale will be continued on Friday on account of the liberal patronage. Thursday, however, will be the last night of the supper. The tea rooms were crowded last night from six to ten, but communication managed to hold out.

DIAMOND ADVICE.

PUT YOUR MONEY INTO DIAMONDS. Diamonds in your possession represent more money than you pay for them after you have worn them a while, for the advance in price is very marked and there is positively no danger of diamonds depreciating in value in any time. Of course it is always necessary to choose wisely and pay the right prices when you make your selection; therefore it is essential that you should choose the gems at a responsible house and I have a second and a reputation I think enviable, and my very large stock of set and unset gems allows for the best selection in this city or province.

CAUTION!

Be wise and do not offend the cook by giving her any common flour. Red Rose is THE Flour.

George Romney is an artist whose popularity, although the man himself has long been dead, seems to increase every year. Eight of his canvases were for four figures during the season just closed, and one of these, which brought $30,000, was quite accidentally discovered—rolled up, much creased and soiled with dirt—in a house in the north of England. Romney is believed to have painted nearly 1,000 works, chiefly portraits, and several that have appeared in the sale room of recent years have been brought to light in the most improbable places.

A Sikh recruit ran amuck in an Indian regiment at Bombay the other day. He had been punished for some offense and became very angry. He procured ball ammunition for his rifle and during parade broke from the ranks and after running a short distance turned and fired into the regiment. A native officer ordered the men to lie down and sent for an armed picket, whom he ordered to follow the mutineer at a safe distance and shoot him down. This was done. The mutineer died from the wounds he received the same evening. A comrade he had had also died.

LABOR TALKS.

JOHN, THE SHIP-LABORER, AND THE PROFESSOR.

John—What we want is wages and good wages. Law? Give us a law that makes the ship owners pay us 40 cents per hour, that is what we want.
Prof.—That is the talk that gives the employer the right to say you ship-laborers are unreasonable. Even if the rate in Portland and Boston be 25 cents per hour, you are so unwise as to ask that by law, the St. John rate for labor at 40 cents an hour.
John—Well, we have to pay taxes here. They don't in Portland and Boston.

Prof.—Get that unjust tax law repealed, but do not ask the government to fix the labor wage at 40 cents per hour. You can ask the government to fix the size of a loaf of bread, the price of labor, and the care of factories, etc., and even so wages they pay for governmental work, but they cannot fix the rate of wages between you and your employer. Neither can they determine by law the price of tobacco, sugar, flour, salt, oil, cotton and coal. Why, if the government can fix wages, the next thing would be for the landlords to get rents also fixed at so much per month.

John—I wouldn't care if we only had steady work. The rate per hour is all right, but I often only make three days in the week, nine hours at 30 cents, equals $2.70 only $3.60 per week, and my tax bill last month was $3.00.
Prof.—John, you and these friends of yours must not try to catch the moon. Get the small things first. You are easily fooled. Some of your own friends told me last week that the political leaders had no faith in your voting power. That you would not hold together. In fact they by whiskey and the $1.00 bill you could be turned this way or that. One man said that the laborers of St. John were no good to themselves nor to anybody else; that they were so jealous of each other that a clever politician could set them at cross-purposes, make them scratch their ballots and vote against their own men for aldermen.

John—That is not so for aldermen, but it is true of the election in 1903. I was in a clever politician's office and saw how they were fooled by dry dock and other promises.
Prof.—Oh, the dock will come when it is needed. Don't grumble, but get to work. You have a Workmen's Compensation Act, get it made more workable. Get your Factory Act made wider and see that the inspector does his duty. Get the hours of labor fixed at fourteen to sixteen work ten hours a day, as they do now. Cheap child labor cuts down the pay of the adult, and also lays the foundation of immoral lives and stunted bodies. There is work for you, in which employers will aid, and that is to help your own boys and girls to more education and less physical labor. In those special years when the child is twelve to fifteen years old.

A COMING TREAT.
For the patrons of the Opera House the S. Haskins company have provided a treat for their coming engagement, commencing Monday, Nov. 20th, at 8 o'clock, by transferring to the Opera House "ad." Three of the plays are recent New York successes, the fourth is being played again. By request, for one night only. The opening play is a brilliant comedy, because she loved him so. This piece abounds in funny dialogue, comical situations, and at the same time the story is a very plausible one and one that has occurred in real life many times. The comedy is clean, there is nothing suggestive in it, either in word or action, and it can be witnessed by the most exacting. The story is one concerning a young married couple who are very much in love with each other. While the husband is at his office the young wife is continually conjuring up the most ridiculous fancies, as to whether he is at work or calling on another of his former sweethearts. The result is that jealousy enters the household and sits up some very funny situations. Those who enjoy a good laugh should not fail to see because she loved him so. It was written just for fun, and there is plenty of it. Seats are to go on sale tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. In order to get favorite seats an early visit to the box office is advisable.

Short Talks on Printing

In looting over the advertising pages of the leading magazines one invariably runs across a sentence something like this: "Illustrated booklet sent on request." "Catalogue Free," or "Send for Booklet!"

How many manufacturing industries, business houses, or business institutions in St. John follow up their advertising in this manner? Very few, and it's the few that are reaping the harvest.

Think this over, and if it interests you, call us up on Phone 25, and we will call on you with samples of Catalogues and Booklets we have printed—which have proved profitable business-bringing investments.

Several years ago the government made a count of the lepers in the United States (mainland) and found 278. About 20 cases have since developed. These lepers are scattered through 21 states and territories, but the states of Louisiana, California, Florida, Minnesota and North Dakota have all but 48 of them. In Louisiana there are 152 cases, California and Florida each have 24 cases. In Minnesota there are 20, and in North Dakota 14.

Rev. Tom Collins, well known in the East End of London as the costermonger's parson, is enormously popular with the people among whom he labors. Nothing pleases him better than to chat with a lot of workmen on sporting matters, regarding which he is an expert writer. Sometimes on Sunday afternoons he addresses his hearers in his shirt sleeves, while the men sit and smoke comfortably. Indeed, Mr. Collins on occasion joins them in enjoying the weed.

FIRE AGAIN STRIKES BIG ALBANY FIRM.

John G. Myers & Co., Who Lost Heavily, in Last August's Fatal Blaze, Suffered $250,000 Fire Last Night.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Fire which broke out about 1 a. m. today totally destroyed the stock in one of the two temporary stores opened by the John G. Myers Company after the collapse of their building last August, when 12 persons were killed and upwards of 20 injured. The store burned this morning was on east side of North Pearl street, between Steuben and Columbia streets, opposite the Kenmore Hotel. The Myers people say their loss will probably exceed $250,000, and the building, owned by the estate of A. B. Vanshaeck, is practically a total loss, upward of $300,000. The fire, fanned by a stiff southeast wind, early threatened the entire block and called out the whole of the fire department, but by 2 o'clock it was practically confined to the building in which it started. The fire began in the sub-basement, from some cause not ascertained. The Myers company have a second store on South Pearl street, but their heaviest stock was in the store burned this morning. The special Christmas supplies were not yet in hand, but the heaviest loss upon the company lies in the loss of holiday trade.
When their building collapsed last August, there was no fire and therefore no insurance indemnity. The stock destroyed is believed to be fully insured. The business books were stored in a vault under the sidewalk and escaped destruction.
The fire tied up the entire city system of the United Traction Company, and a large section of the city lighting system, all of the power lines wires passing in front of the buildings.

ALICE ROOSEVELT DIDN'T ATTEND PRINCE'S BALL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Captain W. S. Cowles, of the navy, brother-in-law of President Roosevelt, was last night authorized for the explanation of Miss A. Roosevelt's absence from the ball given on board the British ship Drake by Prince Louis of Battenberg. He said that Mrs. Roosevelt, alarmed at the rundown condition of Miss Alice, after her exhausting trip to the Orient, had forbidden her to participate in any large social functions until she was fully recuperated in health. Miss Alice therefore went yesterday to Boston. Miss Roosevelt's absence had been noted. Capt. Cowles was a guest at the ball.

THAT OVER WORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN

There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overworked, with diseases peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have pale or sallow complexion, hollow, sunken eyes, with Haines look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unequal circulation of the blood, dizziness and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are afflicted with nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, shortness of breath, and a general feeling of weakness and all indications of a weakened condition of the heart or nervous system, they should say of them be present we would strongly advise the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They bring health to the broken down, energy to the weakened constitution, tone up the nerves, overstrained nerves, and strengthen the weak heart.
Mrs. Edward Jackson, Hall's Bridge, Ont., writes: "For a year I was greatly troubled with nervousness and loss of sleep, and could neither sleep nor eat. After taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was completely cured. I should like to recommend them to all sufferers."

UNIFORM DAMPENING

is the secret of our success in ironing shirts, collars and cuffs.

Linon dampened in spots irons up with a rough, dry finish, has a limp feeling and is generally undesirable.

We dampen all our work by hand. It takes longer, but it means better work. Does our wagon stop at your house?

ST. RAILWAY CONSIDERS LANCASTER'S OFFER.

Col. McLean Frankly Admits Inadvertant Error in His Statement That All Communications Had Been Answered

Col. Maclean was seen this morning with regard to the transfer of the Carleton Light Railway Co. to the St. John Street Railway Co. He said that since the transfer no meeting of the directors of the Carleton Light Railway Board, has been held to decide what they will do with the property. Chief Electrician Brown is now looking over the plant, and when his report is received the directors will then consider the matter.

Col. Maclean, when asked about his statement in regard to all communications of the Carleton Light Railway Board, said that he was mistaken when he made the statement, and that a meeting of the directors would be held to consider the matter this afternoon.

A letter which Col. Maclean sent to Mr. Vincent today in explanation of the matter is as follows:

Nov. 15th, 1905.

George R. Vincent, Esq., Secretary Municipality City and County of Saint John, Saint John, N. B.

Dear Sir—Your letter of the 24th October to Mr. Hopper, the acting manager of the Saint John Railway Company, was not brought to my attention until today, or I should certainly have put it before our board of directors at their meeting on Tuesday last. I must apologise for our neglect in this matter, and also wish to say that my statement to the reporter of "The Star" that all your letters had been answered, was not correct.

I have called a meeting of our executive board to be held this afternoon, to consider your letter, and you can expect an answer to it this evening.

Yours very truly,
HUGH H. McLEAN,
Vice-President St. John Ry. Co.

Rev. Mr. Hutchison of Main street Baptist church, left at noon for Moncton. Tomorrow he will attend the meeting of the sixth district of the Baptist Church which all the St. John ministers are expected to attend. The meeting will probably be held at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Hutchison on Livingstone Inland African Mission. Mrs. Worden sang a splendid solo and the Junior quartette also sang a number of selections.

Mr. Kilpatrick, assistant superintendent of the Pacific division of the C. P. R., arrived in the city this morning.

At a meeting of the sub-committee of the safety board this morning the building inspector was instructed to shore up the building on North street that has been the cause of so much talk. Who will pay the bills will be decided later.

At the conclusion of this meeting a special committee, of which Ald Frink was chairman, considered the matter of electric lighting for the city, both east and west sides. They will make a complete report to the board at a later date.

The case of Worden vs. Weeks was resumed this morning in the county court and at adjournment was not finished.

Mr. Wall, who was with Mr. Weeks when the horse took sick, explained how the horses had not been driven hard during the day. He believed the horse could not have died from being ill-used.

Samuel Brentnell and Wm. C. Dunham testified to seeing Mr. Weeks and the span of horses at Loch Lomond. The horses were then in good condition.

Fanny Goldie, of Arr. Ont., testified that she drove the horses on the day in question and told of doing all that she could for the horse while at Squire Bowes' house. The horse had been used very kindly during the day and were not driven hard at any time.

The court adjourned at one o'clock for dinner.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. T. Fred Johnston, Henry Weeks, Roy Harper, Samuel Waters, Jas. H. Bowes and Robert Bowes gave evidence.
