Nursery Rhymes-No. 22. Nursery Rhymes-- No. 22. A Moravian Idyl (very)

On this revolving globe once lived a man,
With just sufficient sense to imitate the plan
A Chemist had, to advertise his store
Of Soaps and Oils, in King Street twenty-four.
This grim Moravian with the rhymer's art,
First stole his title, not wholly but in part,
Then to his lines, impossible to scan,
The names of Hood and Cowper at the bottom ran
He mocked our sense of tune with ill-timed halts;
And grammar vile commingled with the false He mocked our sense of tune with ill-timed halts;
And grammar vile commingled with the false And limping lines, unreadable and base.
Just fit to guide "Dame Spearing to his place."
Once in this lair, the shopman held to view In runie rhyme mysterious number 2.
The man who "steels my purse takes trash," 'tis said,
But stol n brains won't fit a wooden head; For such a deal-end pate I'd recommend A dose of Epsom Salts, and to the Chemist send And buy a box of Peristatite Pills—A sure and certain guard 'gainst further ills: Take these, my friend, and ease that dread Neuralgic pain, Forswear the muse and ne'er write rhyme again Remember what to us Will Cowper gave, And let him rest in peace and not turn in his grave.

or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, ured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injuious to the hair, the Vigor can only penefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts
