MAIL ORDERS

We solicit out of Town orders, which receive our personal attention. The length of time inter to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the rotation in which they are received,
and customers can always depend on our doing everything in reason to give prompt despatch.

OLD SOCIETY GETS NEW LEASE OF LIFE

Last Friday evening a well attended meeting of interested Campbelltonians was held in the office of Mr. Hugh A. Carr, for the purpose of appointing officers in the reorganized Caledonian Society. Mr. D. F. Graham was called to the chair and briefly stated the object of the meeting.

The following officers were then unanimously appointed:
Pres.—Mr. A. D. McKendrick.
Vice Pres.—Mr. Wm. Currie.
Treas.—Mr. D. F. Graham.
Secy.—Mr. John G. MacColl.

On ballot the following gentlemen were appointed to the Executive: Messrs Harry Miller, H. W. Ferguson, H. M. McLennan, H. A. Carr, and J. C. McDonald, who with the officers will form the governing body of the society. The dues for this year were fixed at $1.00, and over twenty members signed the roll of the society.

It was resolved to hold a St. Andrew's Day banquet on the 28th November, the arrangements being left in the hands of the executive, for which invitations will be issued and will be confined almost entirely to members of the society. For the purpose of admitting new members a special meeting will be held on Friday the 21st November in Mr.
S. L. Loughlin's office, and persons who desire membership would be well to send their names to the secretary at least seven days before the date of meeting.

It was decided to confer the privilege of Honorary members of the society on Messrs Arch. McKenzie, and John McAllister for their valued services to the society in days

FATAL SHOOTING ACCIDENT SATURDAY

Bathurst, N. B., Oct. 26—A sad shooting accident occurred at North Tegogueche yesterday afternoon, when Augustus Carter, aged 30, married, was shot and almost instantly killed by an accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of Bernard Carter, a younger brother of the victim. The men were on a hunting trip and were climbing a fence when the trigger caught on some protuberance, and the charge entered the breast of Augustus Carter. He collapsed at once, but his brother put his body across his shoulder and carried him home, where he died a short time later.
An inquest was considered unnecessary.

THANKSGIVING

Harvest Thanksgiving Services were held last Sunday in Christ Church. The church was very artistically decorated with wheat, oats, vegetables and other products of the North Shore. The stately harvest hymns were heartily sung by the choir and congregation. The offerings were most liberal, but owing to the inclemency of the weather the congregation were not as large as they would otherwise have been.

The meeting was a most business like and enthusiastic one, and starting off in such shape bids fair to do much good in fostering the spirit of friendship and Seagen brotherhood,
and already a large number have signified their intention of joining. The program for the year has not yet been compiled, but it is probable at the next meeting the executive will have some plans to lay before the society for their approval.

DEATH OF MR. ALEX. MACDONALD OF I.C.R.

Death has once more visited our midst and carried away another of our much respected citizens, Mr. Alexander MacDonald, locomotive engineer on the I. R. C., having been called to his eternal rest about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning after a lingering illness.

Mr. MacDonald has been in comparatively poor health nearly ever since the Campbellton fire but was compelled to discontinue his work some months ago, and on the advice of his physician and friends he went to the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal but returned with no apparent improvement in his condition. Always of a very quiet yet very happy disposition he bore his sufferings with the greatest Christian patience and fortitude.

Mr. MacDonald was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. He was born in Campbellton forty five years ago and entered the services of the I. R. C., when a mere boy, being promoted to the position of engineer about fifteen years ago. Mr. MacDonald was in an accident at Rimouski with engineer Tom Matheson some years ago and had his arm broken, also in a double header and with engineer McNutt and Devereau ran into a land slide at Morrissey Rock tunnel, one fireman, Angus Gorham was killed, and Mr.
MacDonald very badly shaken up. He was an enthusiastic and consistent member of Snowdrift Div. No. 138 of Campbellton, always ready to do anything for the good of the order and to further the interests of the boys in line, who always held a warm place in his heart. The members of the Lodge will attend the funeral this afternoon and assist with the services. He was also a member of the Masonic order, but of late has not attended meetings regularly.

About nineteen years ago Mr. MacDonald married Miss Ida Bastin, daughter of the late Wm. Bastin, locomotive engineer of Campbellton, who was killed in an accident result-

BAD CASE OF NILE DEPRAVITY

The series of burglaries which was disturbing the town's people for the past few weeks had a startling denouement when three young boys were arrested on Saturday, charged with the crimes. Starting with the stealing from H. C. Montgomery on the Subway, it will be remembered that a number of merchants and others were the victims of similar depredations,
and under the instructions of Chief Hughes, Officers Mann and Chamberlain were detailed to the cases. Settling down to their work the officers obtained their first clue on Saturday, and following it up closely were enabled to locate the culprits, and after applying for warrants, placed George and Robert Thompson and Hodgman Harris, all under twelve years of age under arrest.

The three boys were brought before Police Magistrate Matheson on Monday, and a charge made against Harris for breaking into and stealing from Thomas Doherty's lunch wagon on Victoria Street. The court room was cleared, the accused being tried under the Juvenile Act, and his case adjourned till Friday, he being allowed out in the charge of his parents.

Many of the stolen articles were found at the house of the Thomson boys, and they were remitted to Dalhousie to await trial at the first sitting of the county court. It is understood the boys confessed to the burglaries, making various excuses for their actions.

ing from a broken wheel at Petit Roche in the winter of 1898.

Beside a widow Mr. MacDonald leaves a family of six children, the youngest only a little over a year old, to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. Two brothers also survive, Mr. I. Howe Taylor and Mr. John MacDonald of Campbellton.

The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family in their sad bereavement.

Proposed in New Scheme to Control United States Financial System

Washington, Oct. 28.—A Government-controlled and operated central bank, to dominate the financial system of the country, entered the legislative arena today as a rival of the administration regional reserve currency plan. Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank of New York, presented the new plan to the Senate Banking and Currency Committee. He had evolved the scheme as a result of conferences with members of the committee who, he said, had expressed approval of such a plan.

Under his proposal the Government, through a board of seven members, appointed for terms of fourteen years and receiving salaries of $15,000 or 17,500 a year, would establish a huge bank of $100,000,000 capital, which would control financial conditions by powers conferred on it to issue money, to rediscunt commercial paper for banks and to concentrate the reserve gold of the country.

Mr. Vanderlip suggested that if possible the stock of this institution should be held by the public as an investment security. The stock would have no voice or vote in the control of the bank, which would under all circumstances rest entirely with the Government. Mr. Vanderlip pointed out that his bill differed from the Administration plan in that it absolutely eliminated the banks from participation in the administration of the system, which would control the issue of currency. In the pending bill the banks would own the stock and elect six of the nine directors of each of the regional reserve banks, which would issue currency, make re-discounts, and hold bank reserves under the control of the federal reserve board. The Vanderlip plan differed from the so-called Aldrich plan, proposed by the Monetary Commission, in that the latter provided for a central and subsidiary banks, owned by and controlled by the member banks themselves.

Senators Bristow, Reed, O'Gorman, and Hitchcock, of the committee, tonight expressed themselves as in favor of the principal embraced in the Vanderlip plan.

Why Do Women Suffer

When They Could Be Well?

It is so easy to be well and strong and able to enjoy life, that it is surprising how many women drag themselves through the day suffering tortures from lame back due to kidney trouble. Mrs. Wilcox found the way to cure herself and gladly writes about it so that others may be induced to use the same remedy.

THE ATROCITIES IN BALKAN WAR

Carnegie Commission Blames all Nations Concerned

Paris Oct. 24.—Troops of all the warring Balkan states committed atrocities, according to the evidence gathered by the International Carnegie Commission in its searching inquiry just ended. The conclusions of the commission are to be published in book form, with illustrations and fac-similes of a number of the documents on which the report is based. In view of the commission's desire to present an absolute impartial account of its investigations, the text will not be divided into sections written by individual members, but issued as a whole, for which all the members of the commission take responsibility.

One of the noteworthy tasks is the minute examination and verification by the commissioners of the famous packet of letters from Greek soldiers captured by the Bulgarians, containing horrible descriptions of how Greek soldiers "avenged themselves" on Bulgarians who fell into their hands. The commission believes that it has established the authenticity of these letters. Other documents testify that the Greeks occasionally made use of the forbidden dum-dum bullet and show also the misdeeds of Bulgarians and other belligerents. The inquiry did not extend to the Roumanians.

SOCIALISTS TO WORK IN CANADA

World-Wide Movement of the Organization

London, Oct. 24.—It is announced that at a dozen of the various sharply divergent Socialist organizations of the United Kingdom have now agreed to establish a "World Order of Socialists," with international ramifications. Sir Francis Vane and Walter Crane are the leading spirits in the new move.

The fundamental principles of the new organization are stated to be the belief in the world fraternity of the common people with the resumption of the control of the sources of wealth and nature, originally given as the people's heritage.

The propaganda is to be concentrated upon the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States, because neither the Socialist bodies nor the Government of Europe are likely to view the newcomer with any degree of favor.

The idea of the propagandists seems to be to establish an organization to which the comparatively moderate-Socialist thinkers of the world may resort as an asylum from the revolutionary sections.

It is asserted that these latter, particularly the more dangerous schisms, are increasing more rapidly in numbers than the moderates, and are becoming aggressive and intolerant toward their more moderate-minded brethren.

PREMIER BORDEN TURNS FIRST SOD

Levis Dock "Greatest" And Most Important in the World," He Says

Quebec, Oct. 23.—Premier Borden this afternoon turned the first sod for the construction of the drydock at St. Joseph de Levis. The Prime Minister was the object of a demonstration from a large part of the population. The Premier, with a silver shovel cut the first sod of the largest drydock in the world.

Decorated streets, a procession of 200 cabs and a crowd of cheering people signified the importance of the event to the people of the district. The work of constructing the new drydock will be commenced by the M.P. and J. T. Davis firm immediately. It is expected that the drydock will be ready for use three years hence. The acting mayor of Levis and the mayor of Lauzon read addresses of welcome, which also dwelt upon the beneficial work in contemplation by the present Government of its waterways, harbors and ports.

Hon. Robert Rogers spoke upon the desire of the Government to improve the harbors of the country.

The dock is to be 1,150 feet long, divided into two compartments, one 500 and the other 650 feet long. The width of entrance will be 120 feet, with a depth of 40 feet on the sill at high water ordinary spring tide. The width of the main body of the dock will be 144 feet at the coping level and 112 feet clear at the bottom. The coping on the side walls will be 7 feet above highwater spring tide of 50 feet above the floor. The dock is to be built on solid rock throughout.

The Premier and his colleagues had a busy day from 9:30 in the morning until late in the afternoon. Besides visiting the battlefield in company with Sir George Garneau, president of the Battlefields Park Commission, the Prime Minister and his party attended at noon a reception given by the judges of the Superior Court and the members of the Quebec Bar. After luncheon and before turning the first sod of the new drydock at Levis, the Prime Minister and his ministers, accompanied by Albert Sevigny, M.P., J. Girard, M.P., and a number of Quebec citizens, visited the office, premises and stores of the marine department. On leaving the building 250 workmen employed by the department on the King's wharf approached Mr. Borden in a body and presented an address of welcome and thanked him in the name of the workmen of Quebec for the benefits he was conferring upon the city by the extensive public works his Government had instituted for the development of the port.

After Premier Borden had replied, Hon. Mr. Hays informed the men that their scale of wages would be increased ten per cent, to take effect from November 1. Premier Borden and a large party were entertained to dinner tonight by Colonel David Watson at the Garrison Club.

BLOCKING THE WAY

The Quebec Telegraph says:—"It is generally admitted that anything that would bring about a cessation of the European armament craze, even for a single twelve months, would be a welcome boon to humanity at large. But, judging from the tone of the German press and the feeling of the German people, this is unfortunately not likely to happen now. Churchill's offer to Germany to take a holiday for a year from naval building is hourly breeding more and more suspicion in the latter country and the prospect is that it will be ignored altogether, if not indignantly turned down. This is all due to the grave complication which Mr. Borden's proposed naval contribution by Canada to the strength of the British navy has introduced into the situation.

The fact is that the manner in which Winston Churchill has, in recent months completely reversed his advice to the Dominions in the matter of naval defence has not only created suspicion in the Dominions, but has also created a suspicion in the minds of Germany. It was not honest for Churchill to pretend to the world that the Admiralty proposed to limit its battleship construction, while at the back of his head he had a contemplated contribution of three additional battleships for Canada.

The construction and maintenance by Canada of a purely Canadian navy for purely Canadian purposes of defence would have created no such suspicion in the minds of Germany. An Australian navy is being established without any such complications.

The ill-advised action of the Borden Government in utilizing, for petty partisan purposes, a great national problem stands in the way now of that exceedingly desirable achievement, the cessation of the European armament craze."

ALEX. MCLENNAN DIED ON FRIDAY

One of the oldest of Chatham's native born citizens, Mr. Alex. McLennan, died at 1.30 on Friday afternoon. He was born in Chatham 87 years ago, and leaves five sons and two daughters, namely—Alexander and Harry, Campbellton; Kenneth, Escuminac Point; John and Albert, Chatham; Mrs. John R. Ford, Ottawa, and Miss Minnie, Chatham. He was a highly respected citizen, whose word was his bond.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon from his late residence to Riverside cemetery. Service began at the house at 2.30 o'clock and was conducted by Rev. George Wood. The choir of St. Andrew's church was present and rendered sacred music with marked effect. At three o'clock the procession was formed for the cemetery, where services were also conducted by Rev. Mr. Wood. The pall-bearers were Messrs. G. B. Fraser, R. Walls, Jas. Loggie, D. Lawson, Alex. Ross, sr., and John Johnson.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Petit Rocers, Oct. 24—On Friday about thirty friends of Mr. Frank Frenette tendered him a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. An address was read by Mr. Alphonse P. Boudreau and a beautiful writing desk was presented. Mr. Frenette expressed his thanks to his many friends. A very agreeable evening was spent. Refreshments and luncheon was served, after which the party broke up, all having enjoyed themselves. Before departing, a handsome gift was presented to Mrs. Frenette for her birthday, also coming on the 25th inst.

HARVEST OF THE GOLDEN WEST---$400,000.

The Estimated Value of the Western Wheat Crop for Year 1913.

With this big bunch of money in circulation, surely one is justified in scoffing at the mere mention of panic, money stringency or hard times. One cannot picture the thousands of unemployed men walking the streets in search of work. Nevertheless, the slump in Western Real Estate proves the existing conditions. Building is at a standstill. The Western merchant knows it too. Many have been compelled to close up shop. Many have had to cancel all goods being manufactured in Montreal and Toronto.

This and this alone is what we want to bring to your notice.

The present overstock of clothing carried by the wholesale tailoring houses makes it possible for us to offer Suit and Overcoat values that under ordinary conditions would be unthought of.

PROFITS YOU SHARE IN

Men's Suits and Overcoats that would sell in Saskatoon or Regina for $25.00, 30.00 and 35.00, we can now offer to our customers at prices they have come to regard as popular—$10.00, 12.50, 15.00, 18.50 to 25.00. This means as you will see, the best $15.00 Suit you ever bought for $13.50 or the $20.00 Overcoat for $18.00. It's what you get at the price that will please you.

Mr. Butler, Clerk of the Peace, was present on behalf of the Crown. The accused has not been arrested, but his counsel, Hon. L. J. Tweedie, has guaranteed his attendance at the trial. The friends of both parties are anxious to settle the matters, but neither the Magistrate nor Clerk of the Peace will permit anything of that kind.

They received many beautiful and useful presents including cut glass, china and furniture.

LECTURE

An interesting illustrated lecture was given by Rev. T. P. Drumm, B.D., in the Methodist Church last Friday evening. Rev. C. W. Squires in the chair. The inclemency of the weather prevented many from attending, but notwithstanding this a goodly number turned out, and listened attentively to the rev. gentleman's remarks. The slides which were loaned by the Canadian Pacific Railway consisted of about seven dozen views throughout Canada extending from Halifax in the East to Vancouver in the West. The views in most cases were beautifully colored, and the magnificent scenery of the Rocky Mountains was much admired. After the lecture an unanimous vote of thanks was accorded to the Rev. Mr. Drumm for his enjoyable lecture and to Mr. P. H. Blyth for manipulating the lantern.

IN WHIRLPOOL'S GRIP FOR 4 HOURS

Moving Picture Man Encounters Real Thrills at Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls, N.Y., October 23.—Over four hours in the grasp of the whirlpool in a small motor boat, Peter W. Langard, of Detroit, was rescued at eight o'clock tonight more dead than alive. He was taken to a hotel on the Canadian side, where it was said he would be all right in twenty four hours, although his nerves were badly shattered by the ordeal through which he passed.

Langard made the trip through the Whirlpool Rapids from the Maid of the Mist's landing on the Canadian side of the Whirlpool to furnish a subject for a moving picture film. The trip had been made several times before without mishap. Langard navigated the rapids safely, but when he swung into the whirlpool, driftwood clogged the propeller of his boat and he was powerless to bring the craft out of the centre of the vortex.

For nearly three hours he endeavored to clear the propeller by leaning over the stern of the boat, but the driftwood was so tightly jammed between the flanges and the hull that he could not remove it, and the careening of the boat when it was sucked into the very centre of the whirlpool made it necessary for him to devote nearly all his efforts to keep it from overturning.

Time after time the prow of the little boat was sucked down into the swirling waters and the stern lifted high in the air. To the hundreds that lined both shores at dusk it seemed that Langard must lose in the end. When the boat upturned he would lean out over the stern, and by balancing would swing it out into a narrow circle outside the heaviest point of suction, only to be swung, back to the danger point a few minutes later.

When darkness closed in over the gorge headlights were taken from trolley cars along the Canadian side, and in their dim light the crowds watched Langard's fight for life. In the meantime the fire department from Niagara Falls, Ont., had been summoned, and several unsuccessful efforts were made by the firemen to send out a rope attached to a float. Shortly before eight o'clock Fred Preston, of Niagara Falls, Ont., volunteered to swim out with a lifeline attached to his waist. Langard by this time was exhausted and lay still in the bottom of the boat, which bobbed around in the vortex like a cork.

The crowd, then numbering nearly 1,000, cheered when Preston struck out for the rescue. Half-way out his life line became entangled in driftwood and he was compelled to return to shore. On the second attempt he reached the side of the boat. He was afraid to climb into the craft, which was then half-filled with water. Clinging to the side of the boat, he called out to the rescuers on shore to pull.

The swing of the boat around the whirlpool made the task of putting pressure on the line at the right moment most difficult. A pull at the wrong time would have torn Preston away or overturned the boat. The length of the water-soaked line also added to the difficulty of the rescue.

Aided by instructions called out by Preston, the boat was finally manoeuvred out of the danger zone, and was slowly drawn ashore. Preston was given a great ovation by the crowd.

A NIGHT OF REV-ELRY FOR WITCHES

Hallowe'en Customs. Ancient and Popular Superstitions of the Evening

There is perhaps no other night in the year which the popular imagination has stamped with a more peculiar character than the evening of the thirty-first of October, known as All Hallows Eve, or Hallowe'en. It is clearly a relic of pagan times, for there is nothing in the church observance of the following day of "All Saints" to have originated such extraordinary notions as are connected with the celebrated festival, or such remarkable practices, as those by which it is distinguished.

The leading idea of Hallowe'en is that it is the time, of all others when supernatural influences prevail. It is the night set apart for a universal walking abroad of spirits, both of the visible and invisible world.

It is thought to be a night when devils, witches and other mischief-making beings are all abroad on their fanciful midnight errands. Even the fairies are said to hold high carnivals on this mystic evening.

Many ancient popular divinations were associated with a particular season, and the observations connected with Hallowe'en probably represents a heathen festival whose celebration consisted in giving to the departed, at harvest time, his share of the fruits of the earth. At this time the spirits of the dead were supposed to walk abroad, and all practices, as are shown by ancient magic and savage custom, were of such a nature as would be favorable for spirits to manifest themselves.

In these ceremonies, water, fire, all the elements of nature, with the sun, moon and stars, were resorted to that the spirits might easily find expression. The superstitions having the greatest interest for us are those connected with death and marriage.

So the custom of prying after knowledge about future partners for life is but a survival of an older practice, for Hallowe'en customs still show the lively desire of all young people to look into the future with reference to marriage.

However it came about, it is quite certain that the evening of the thirty-first of October, has been stamped with a peculiar character. The supernatural rules. Spirits walk the earth, shades haunt all convenient places, spooks hide in every corner, and hobgoblins run wild. And if these spirits takes such interest in mortals, surely one cannot hesitate to perform a few simple rites.

In the country districts in Scotland the spirit of Hallowe'en is more felt perhaps than anywhere else. There the fairies and witches are almost a reality to the simple country folk, who in support of their belief point to the fact that on the afternoon of October 31st the hedge-rows may be bright with ripe hips and haws, while on the morning of November first not one will be seen, the reason given being that the witches have eaten them all.

There are many ceremonies and customs performed on this evening of which the following are but a few picked at random.

First there is the oracle of the nuts; a number of nuts are named for lovers and put upon a bed of coals. If a nut jumps, the lover will prove unfaithful. If a nut burns and burns he surely leaves the girl who named the nut. If both nuts named for a maid and her lover burn together they will be married. Nuts seem to have been used very early for purposes of divination. The Roman boys used them in their sports; and in marriage ceremonies among the Romans, the bridegroom threw nuts about the room for the boys to scramble for.

An old Scotch method of seeing future things is to pull a cabbage, blindfolded. The amount of earth clinging to its roots showed the amount of her dowry, the shape and size indicated the appearance and height of the future husband, while the flavor of the heart and stem signified his disposition. In the old Scottish Hallowe'en game each took home the stalk and laid it behind the outer door, and the first person to enter next morning was to be the future husband.

SHIGAWAKE

Mrs. R. P. Travers who has been away visiting friends in Campbellton has returned. Miss Lena Kempfer of New Carlisle spent several days last week visiting at St. Paul's parsonage.

The Rev. A. R. Warren of Cape Cove was the guest of the Rev. A. J. and Mrs. Vibert at St. Paul's parsonage, and preached the sermon at the Harvest Thanksgiving service in St. Paul's church, Shigawake.

The Ladies Guild of St. Paul's church held their annual Harvest Supper in the parish hall, Shigawake on Thursday the 23rd. The same proved a great success, and was followed on Friday evening by a social at which the young people turned out in a fairly good number, considering the fact that it rained hard all that night.

The Rev. A. T. Love, Mrs. Love, Messrs. Clare Dow and Arthur Skene together with some others were up from Port Daniel attending the harvest service and supper.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. James church, Hopetown on Thursday afternoon at 3 p.m., when Charles Phillip Mauger and May E. Ross were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. J. Vibert. During the signing of the registers the "Bridal Chorus" was played, after which the happy couple followed by a large crowd of admiring friends drove off on their honeymoon. The bride was attired in a handsome navy blue travelling suit with hat to match. Mr. John Clifford Travers acted as best-man and Miss Annie Melvina Walker as bridesmaid.

Miss Olive Skene of Hopetown was in Shigawake for Harvest Thanksgiving. Mr. Claude Skene was in Port Daniel on Saturday last.

The Rev. A. J. Vibert leaves Wednesday together with Mrs. Vibert for the Harvest Festivals in Cape Cove parish. While there they will be the guests of the Rev. A. R. Warren at the parsonage.

Quite a number of our young people were down to the Harvest Service and Supper at Port Daniel.

The weather of the past week has been very hard on the farmers who had not harvested their grain or potatoes. We trust that they may yet be favoured with a sufficient amount of fine weather to gather them in.

Mr. E. W. LeGall and family of St. Geoffrey have taken up their residence here. Mr. John Nicole of Camaguey spent a few days here last week.

Mr. E. A. Boillon returned from down the coast on the 27th inst. Mr. M. O'C. Harris returned from New Richmond on the 25th inst.

Mr. E. A. Boillon is spending a few days around Gaspe and Barachois on business.

Mr. Peter LeBlanc left for Bathurst to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Melvina Viennieu to Mr. Leandre Arsenau.

We regret to hear that Mr. Robert Kerr is confined to his home through illness.

Mr. Alex. Jamieson paid Richardsville a flying visit Monday evening.

Mr. John McLeod has returned from Maine. Mrs. John Campbell has returned from visiting friends and relatives in Nashes Creek.

Mrs. A. Marley and Mrs. R. McLean was the guest of Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. E. Callahan.

small tub with water, put in eight or ten apples, first having inserted in one of them a ring, in another a thimble, in a third a coin, and in one a button. Thus will the fate of four persons be decided on the spot.

In Wales a great fire is built on Hallowe'en, and each member of the family throws a stone, which has been marked into it. In the morning a search is made for them; and if one is missing, the one who threw it will never see another Hallowe'en.

A very old Hallowe'en divination is this: Go out—of course at midnight—pluck out a lock of hair and cast it to the breeze. In whatever direction it is blown, from that point will come the unexpected person.

To many, Hallowe'en is not Hallowe'en unless a masquerade ball is given. Even children dearly love to dress up, so witch and goblin parties are given for them, and this is a good plan.

Ask the girls to come as witches in scarlet frocks or capes, with tall black hats, and the boys as goblins. The beloved "brownie" will serve as models for the boys' costumes. Just for this one occasion set the hours from "nine to twelve," for it really would not be a true Hallowe'en party if they could not stay until "the clock in the steeple strikes twelve," that witching time when ghosts walk, the hour of all the year when they may put to the test these antique charms and reasonably expect signs in answer when they may get a delicious really creepy sensation.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy Says He Was Misquoted

Winnipeg, Oct. 24.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, who arrived here yesterday from Milwaukee on a business trip laughed at the report which came from Milwaukee credited him with stating that the whole C.P.R. system might be electrified. What he had stated was that it was the intention to electrify Rogers Pass tunnel, and if this proved successful in operation, electrification would be extended over the mountain division from Revelstoke to Field, B.C.

Sir Thomas also denied the report in London that Canadian Pacific interests were to split into three parts.

ALL FRANCE
GOES FISHING

All France fishes—men, women and children—so far that it might truthfully be considered as the national pastime, for never have we seen anything to compare with it elsewhere. Fishing clubs and societies abound wherever there is any water more important than the village duck-pond, most of them leagued into large organizations; but, with exceedingly few and recent exceptions, their object is the taking of coarse fish; and everywhere there are trout they are usually considered rather as a side issue, save on those rare streams where there is nothing else.

It was on our first visit to the valley of the Durdent that we asked an old peasant, past whose garden the river ran, if there was good fishing there.

"No!" he replied disgustedly "nothing but trout." There were plenty of those at his very door, but he could not sit on a campstool or in a flat-bottom boat under a large white cotton umbrella, with three or four rods fastened on in front of him, and watch the floats bob while he dozed in the sun, rousing now and then to the joy of a capture. No trout for him!

You can be by no means put implicitly trust in what the people tell you for a miller will scowl and, even as you watch a beautiful rise, assert that there isn't fish in the river; while a old woman eager to chat will invite you into her garden, offer you a seat, assure you that there are no whales everywhere. "Grosses come me ca, monsieur!" and ply you with fruit and advice as long as you stay which will probably be only until you have grasped the fact that there never was anything better than eels and chub within miles.—Ethel Rose in the October Scribner.

THE STEEL PLANT

To be Built Near Montreal by English firm (The Steel Plant Co. Ltd.)

The big industrial corporations of Great Britain and the United States are making the significance of the rapidly growing industry of Canada the firm of Armstrong, Whitworth & Co. Limited has recently announced its intention to erect a steel works establishment on the north shore of the St. Lawrence River, directly opposite Montreal, east and northeast of the town of Longueville. Two hundred and fifty acres of land have been purchased at a cost of $600,000; the water frontage of this property extends two thousand feet.

The Armstrong, Whitworth Company Limited, at Elswick, near Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, employs over 15,000 men; at Manchester, over 5,000. Later on, it is proposed to establish subsidiary concerns to which the parent company will supply the raw materials. But the Canadian branch will be a complete steel works, and will produce all the steel required for the Canadian market.

Important Growth of Population
The industrial output of Amherst, N. B., for 1912 was the largest in its history. The manufacturing plants have all been running to their full capacity for the past year, and much of the work has been done to their buildings or equipment to keep them with orders that are in advance.

On account of this industrial development the population has increased by 1,000 in the past year, and with the coming of the Nova Scotia Carriage and Motor Works, a new piano factory and several smaller industries, the prospects for a greater increase next year are very bright. Application has been made to the Provincial Government for a city charter.

THE NEW TARIFF AT WASHINGTON

How it Compares With the Old Tariff and the Reciprocity Schedules

The new United States tariff which is being put through its final stages in the Senate at Washington makes greater reductions on Canadian farm products than were expected. Not only this, in many respects the schedules will be more favorable to the Canadian farmer than was the reciprocity agreement of 1911. A long list of farm and other products which would have continued to pay duties under Reciprocity will now go into the States free, if the present bill is enacted. Many other articles and commodities will pay much lower duties than would have been charged upon them had the Washington agreement gone into force.

Cattle, swine, sheep and lambs, rye, potatoes, fresh milk, fresh cream, eggs, corn, grain seed, and buckwheat will all enter the American market free under the new Reciprocity agreement and they are to have the same treatment under the latest draft of the Wilson-Tamm tariff.

The wheat will be free to the States if we abolish our duty on American wheat. If we do not, the new United States duty of 25 cents a bushel will be changed to a ten per cent ad valorem duty which would be equivalent to 10 cents a bushel on dollar wheat. Remembering the large quantity of wheat which the United States is growing for export, and recalling the fact that during nearly all the past crop year Winnipeg prices have ruled from two to fifteen cents a bushel above the Minneapolis market, it may be questioned if this new tariff would be beneficial to the Canadian wheat grower. The fact is, however, that the new tariff will be a benefit to the Canadian wheat grower. The new tariff will be a benefit to the Canadian wheat grower. The new tariff will be a benefit to the Canadian wheat grower.

SCANDAL INVOLVES

Member of Government Found
The Canadian Pacific Railway Company is gradually developing into a scandal in which numerous personages of note find themselves involved. It appears that the matter does not exclusively concern the Canadian Pacific, as the disclosures made with regard to that company have revealed the secrets of other emigration concerns in Austria-Hungary.

During the inquiry of the Commission appointed by Parliament circumstances have come to light showing that the business practices of other shipping companies are little better than those alleged against the Canadian Pacific. The Commission has discovered that a high official of the Ministry of Commerce, who was also head of the Department of Navigation, undertook the management of the Austro-American Navigation Co.

The Arbeiter Zeitung states that the above mentioned official was pensioned by the Government two years ago, and is now a representative of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company in Vienna. The Parliamentary Commission will institute proceedings against this former official.

"It is odd," Cameron returned, "but it seems always to flatter a husband to tell him he doesn't look it." And when he laughed as though he had no care on earth.

After dinner we had the usual music, and Evelyn sang again that lyric of Claudelair, this time in the original French. But the melody brought back to me in vivid vision our former meeting in the woods and all its poignant romance.

When I had finished applauding, Cameron turned to me.

"Do you like Claudelair?"

"I like his art," I answered, "and

Le Gascon's."

At first sight it seemed all glittering gold, but on closer inspection I found that the groundwork was bright blue and red, and that the surface was of marble and leather, the spaces covered by blue with very delicate and beautiful pointillé traceries. It was a very stable gem in its way, and I could not blame Cameron for his raptures.

When I had applauded and in response to his content, he took the libretto volume from my hand and turning it, with a sort of slow reverence observed with something like paternalism:

It was a Scotchman from Dundee, en route to the Canadian west, who stood on the platform at North Bay during the hunting season. Seeing some large animals lying there, he approached a native with: "What might you call that?"

"A moose," was the reply.

"A mouse! Ma conscience, if that's a mouse, what must the rats be like?" And he took the next train back to Montreal.

No Early Holes! No Shrinking!

Continuous hard service, MANY washings . . . . . and still NO signs of a hole and NO shrinkage!

Honest, old-fashioned yarn is one reason. Stanfield's secret process for taking the "shrink" out of wool is another.
