The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Archives of Ontario
Toronto

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contains the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Archives publiques de l'Ontario
Toronto

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ONTARIO

Last Words to Western Canada
of the late
Right Honorable Lord Strathcona

The late Right Hon. Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal

28 CROVEYER SQUARE W

London, 13th December 1913.

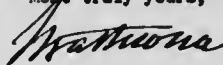

Dear Mr. Mitchell,

With reference to your letter of the 21st August and mine in reply of the 10th October, I am enclosing to you herewith the little contribution you suggested for the Christmas Number of the "Western Home Monthly".

I am sorry that this is somewhat late in being sent, but circumstances have been such with me latterly that I have been unable to give it earlier attention, and I hope it may still be in time for your purpose.

That the Western Home Monthly may go on increasing in the beneficial influence it exerts and the welcome it receives in the homes of thousands throughout the Western Provinces, is my earnest hope and belief; and wishing you a very Happy Christmas,

Believe me,
Dear Mr. Mitchell,
Most truly yours,

J. T. Mitchell Esquire,
Editor
"Western Home Monthly",
Winnipeg,
Canada.

The Editor has again asked me to send a New Year's Greeting to the Western Home Monthly, and I have much pleasure in acceding to his request. At the same time messages at this season of the year must always have a strong family likeness, and I do not know that very much can be added to what I stated in 1912. At any rate, however, Western Canada is to be heartily congratulated on the bountiful harvest with which it has been favored, and on the prosperity which has followed in its train. It is gratifying to know that the crops exceed those of all previous years, and that Canada is year by year justifying the prediction of the eighties, when the Canadian Pacific Railway was in course of construction, that her fields and prairies would before long make the Dominion the Granary of the World.

Year by year the area under cultivation increases, considerable additions are made to the number of homestead entries, and sales are reported of large acreages of land in favorable positions. Immigration returns show regular expansion, railway construction is proceeding rapidly, and places that a few years ago were villages or small towns are now large cities. The manufacturing industry is also extending, and there seems to be employment in one form and another for all the desirable people who make their way to the Land of Promise.

This is the bright side of the picture. There is always another side, the possibility of which must be borne in mind. There may be bad seasons before us, and times of depression, and we know very well that for a little while there has been financial stringency in almost every part of the country—indeed of the World. But this financial stringency does not arise because Canada is doing badly, but because of her prosperity. Prosperity creates a demand for money, and the comparative scarcity has arisen from the fact that so many countries in the world have been prospering and going ahead, and needing capital both for development purposes and for industrial expansion of all kinds.

In my judgment Canada is being built up on a sure foundation by a loyal and patriotic population. Her trade and commerce are likely to increase by rapid strides. The time is coming when the Railways will be more than fully occupied in moving the products of the Dominion from one part to another, and to ports on the Atlantic and the Pacific. And it does not require much prescience to look forward to the time when both these great oceans will be utilized to a far greater extent than to-day in conveying the products of the land, the forests, the mines, the fisheries, and the factories to markets all over the World.

If I remember aright in my last year's message I suggested that the motto of Canada and all Canadians should be "Steady and Sure." They must be careful not to endeavor to advance too quickly, or to undertake more than they are able to carry out. They must bear in mind that in order to do proper justice to the great heritage they possess they must of necessity rely upon the help and assistance of others. They must preserve the good reputation they have attained, and maintain the confidence of the financial centres of the World.
