2. The Officers of this Institute shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, and a Committee of twelve, to be elected annually on the second Monday in May; five of whom shall form a quorum.

The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer and Librarian, shall ex-officio, be members of the Committee, provided they do not receive any remuneration for their services as such, and shall each have a vote in the sitting of the Committee except when either of them shall be the presiding officer.

On and after November 25th, 1871, the name of any person desirous of becoming a member of the Institute and Library, shall be handed in by a member to the Secretary, who shall lay the same before the Committee, and if approved of by a majority of the Committee at any meeting, the applicant will be duly admitted to all the privileges of the Institute on the payment of his subscription. The Officers and Committee of the said Institute and Association shall be elected at the annual meet-

Members.

6. Any person guilty of disorderly or criminal conduct can be expelled by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a special meeting called for that purpose—such vote to be taken by ballot.

7. The rooms of the Institute may be furnished with books and periodicals, paintings, philosophical apparatus, &c., for the use of the members.

Lectures on any subject approved of by the Committee may be given by Members or Lecturers employed for the purpose at such times as the said Committee may determine.

8. This Constitution or any By-Law may be altered or amended at any General Meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; notice of application for such alteration must in all cases be given to the Secretary one month previously, the notice to contain the exact terms of the alteration desired, and to be exhibited by the Secretary forthwith in the Library or rooms of the Institute; otherwise no alteration of the Constitution can be made.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.
