On their way in Messrs, Mahoney and McIntosh met several parties from Dawson headed for the Sixtymile diggings. The miners located in the district are still anxiously awaiting action on the petition which was presented to Governor Ross some time ago praying for the construction of a trail from the diggings to Dawson. It is said that a much better trail can be made to this city than now exists from the creeks to Fortymile, one which will be no longer and which can be used at all seasons of the year. Governor Ross has promised to have the trail opened up at the earliest opportunity but it is doubtful if it is accou
