

TITLED LADIES GO TO PRISON.

Two Get Two Months, Others Go For One Month. Lady Constance Lytton a Prisoner Among the Others.

About Thirty Women Suffragettes Were Sentenced.

London, Feb. 25.—Refusing to give security for their future good behavior, the women suffragettes who were arrested last night while attempting to reach Premier Asquith, to present him with a petition in the interests of the cause, were to-day sentenced to imprisonment.

Most of the terms were for one month. An exception was made in the case of Mrs. Pedrick Lawrence, who, having a previous conviction against her, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment. Miss Lawless was given one month.

Lady Constance Lytton, sister of Lord Lytton and daughter of the former Viceroy of India, warned her friends that if they secured her release by providing security she would repeat her offense.

Sentences were imposed upon thirty women, including, in addition to the foregoing, Miss Stratford Dugdale, daughter of Commander Dugdale, and cousin of the Hon. Wm. R. W. Peel, who was elected Tuesday in the by-election as a member of the House of Commons for Taunton, Miss Solomon, daughter of the ex-Premier of Cape Colony, and Mrs. Catharine Elizabeth Corbett, an aristocratic supporter of the movement. All these women are of high social standing. ADD SUFFRAGETTES.

Mrs. Lawrence made a brief address on behalf of her fellow victims. She asked the magistrate to note that the arrested women did not belong to the disorderly or law-breaking classes, but were women of honorable reputation, and that many of them had done service for the welfare of the community. They would not consent to be bound over to keep the peace, Mrs. Lawrence declared, and she claimed that they were entitled to be treated as political prisoners.

Most of the twenty-three women sentenced took their punishment in dignified silence. One asked not to be given the insulting alternative of being bound over, because that would be, she said, "simply suggesting that I am a coward, not a woman at all."

All of the women were committed to the "second division," which in the case of the present batch of prisoners, who belong mostly to the educated classes, entails drastic changes in food and method of living.

They will be paraded in the rough and unsmooth ready-made prison garments, spotted with a broad arrow, and their food will be the ordinary prison fare of thin porridge, watered cocoa and a small allowance of meat and potatoes once a day. They will not be allowed to communicate with other prisoners, and they will be obliged to exercise in single file in the prison court yard. In spite of this far from alluring prospect all the women went off to their unenviable captivity giving outwardly signs of the utmost cheerfulness.

FELL THREE STOREYS

Went Down Elevator Shaft and Only Broke a Finger.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) London, Ont., Feb. 25.—Charles Hodson, aged 16, fell through three storeys down an elevator shaft at Perrin's biscuit factory this morning, and escaped with a broken finger. The boy was looking over the railing of the elevator shaft when it broke, and he plunged downward. He landed in a pile of waste paper, and hurried upstairs to meet those who were hurrying down, expecting to find him dead.

WON'T HAVE IT.

Kingston's Mayor Suffered From Vaccination in His Youth.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Kingston, Feb. 25.—In regard to Mayor Couper's stand as an anti-vaccinationist, his Worship remains firm in his position, and has issued a statement to the press in which he denies that he is guarded against prosecution by a doctor's certificate describing him as physically unfit. Mayor Couper's reason for his stand is that he suffered facial disfigurement from vaccination while a young man.

FOR EASTER.

Cabriolets to be in Style as Well as the Merry Widow.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—"Get a cabriolet and be in style," is the advice of the National Association of Retail Milliners, which has one on exhibition at its semi-annual opening. It is said to be the very newest of hat constructions, and partakes of the dominant characteristics of the cab family, yawning in front and flapping at the sides. The Merry Widow, according to those in charge of the opening, is to remain, and the tendency in the hat extremes is to meet. The missing link is the Dutch bonnet of the mushroom type.

$2,000 FOR FINGER. Kerr & Thomson, acting on behalf of R. A. Brown, has issued a writ for $2,000 damages against the Canadian Fruit Company, whose factory is in the east end of this city. Brown was employed on the barrelling machine, and in some manner the little finger of his right hand was taken off. He alleges negligence on the part of the company in not having the apparatus in proper repair.

10,000 VOLTS WENT THROUGH WORKMAN

James Sayers, a Power Line Patrolman, Was Instantly Killed Yesterday Afternoon.

The life of James Sayers, 316 Wilson street, was cut off with startling suddenness yesterday afternoon, when 10,000 volts of electricity passed through his body, throwing him from the top of a high pole he was working on and killing him instantly. Sayers was working on the high voltage line between the transforming station and Deewee Falls, where it passes through the street, on the Grand Trunk right of way. Sayers was employed by the Dominion Power & Transmission Co., as a patrolman. He was sent to the spot where he met death to connect or splice a high voltage wire. He had not taken the precaution to call up the transforming station to see if the current had been turned off, as is usually the case when repairs are necessary on the heavy power line. He was in company with several other patrolmen, who were working on nearby poles, and suddenly his companions were startled to see him fall from his high perch. They rushed to his assistance and found him lying on the ground, dead. Having seen no flesh, the men did not think he had been electrocuted till they noticed the smell of burning flesh. Looking over the body they found that one hand had been burned to the bone. The dead man was wearing gloves, but they were of ordinary leather and when he had grasped the wire the current had passed through him, grounding by means of the wet pole. The dead man must have been killed instantly, for he relaxed his hold and fell at once. He was dead before his companions reached him. They at once telephoned from the Petrie Manufacturing Company's office to the police and the body was brought to the city. Dr. Anderson made an examination and the body was taken to Backford's morgue, to be prepared for burial.

Dr. Anderson consulted with Crown Attorney Washington and an inquest was decided on. It was opened at noon to-day.

The dead man was a brother of Detective Harry Sayers, of the local police force and was 33 years of age. Eleven months ago he married and in addition to his young widow leaves a child only a few weeks old.

Deceased was a favorite among all his companions and was a member of the Canadian Order of Oddfellows. He was a fine, upright young man and a member of Victoria Avenue Baptist Church.

The inquest was adjourned till next Tuesday evening. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from the residence of his brother, Harry Sayers, 171 Robinson street.

EX-CHIEF OF POLICE MALONE, Of Simcoe, sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment for attempted murder of Ex-Constable Wilkins.

EX-CONSTABLE WILKINS, Who was shot by Ex-Chief Malone.

WILL BE NO STRIKE AMONG MOULDERS.

International Advises Men to Go to Work Pending Further Negotiations.

The officers of the International Iron Moulders' Union have hopes of a peaceful settlement of the trouble between the local union and the foundrymen. In any event, they will take steps to arrive at a settlement before giving the men here permission to strike. At the meeting of the union last night a telegram was read from headquarters to the effect that the men were to go to work as fast as they were required, and that another international officer will come here and try to effect a compromise, and that the board will consider the case.

If the board had declared that the men were locked out or had given their permission to strike, they could draw strike pay.

Work was begun in the Gurney-Tilden shop this morning. The firm has no outsiders at work; it requires only a few men at the start, and anticipates no trouble in getting others as fast as it requires them. Other firms are likely to start soon.

The men have no desire for publicity. They will be satisfied to carry on the negotiations quietly and hope for a reasonable settlement.

About fifteen moulders went on strike yesterday at Godfrey. They went 22.50 for an eight hour day. That is the day scale here, but in the past the men have been getting a bonus as well, equal to from 10 to 25 per cent. more.

CIVIL SERVICE.

Outside Officials Want More Pay and Ask For It.

Premier Said There Would Be Reform and Re-Organization.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, Feb. 25.—A deputation representing the outside civil service waited on Sir Wilfrid Laurier this morning to ask for a general increase of salaries and the reorganization of the outside service along similar lines as those effected in the inside service by the act of last session. The deputation included Mr. Barrett, of the Inland Revenue branch at Winnipeg; Mr. Frank Adamson, Immigration Agent at Winnipeg; Inland Revenue Inspector Freeland, Ottawa, and a number of others from Ontario points. They were accompanied by Messrs. Turfitt, Ralph Smith and Dr. McIntyre, M.P.'s.

Sir Wilfrid stated that it was the intention of the Government to take up, in the near future, the whole question of the salaries and the reorganization of the outside service, and the Government hoped to effect similar reforms to those accomplished with respect to the inside service.

COBOURG FLOOD.

Families Driven to Second Storey—$10,000 Damage.

Cobourg, Ont., Feb. 25.—For the first time in twenty years the creek which runs through the town and under King street overflowed yesterday, causing a great amount of damage by flooding the cellars of nearly every business place on the street. The heavy rains and the giving away of a dam north of the town were the cause of the flood. On Covent street some families had to take shelter in the second storey of their homes, the lower flats being entirely under water. The financial loss will amount to fully $10,000.

Break It Up. That cold that is just beginning. Get after it now and break it up. A 20c box of Parke's Laxative-Quinine Cold Cure will break up an incipient cold in twenty-four hours. These are chocolate coated and easily taken.—Parke & Parke, druggists.

TORONTO CAUCUSES. (Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, Ont., Feb. 25.—A Conservative caucus was held this morning. Mr. Grigg (Algoma), in the chair. No definite announcements were made, beyond that which had been discussed on law reform and education.

Liberal caucus is to be held this afternoon.

HORSE RAN OFF.

Man Seriously Hurt at St. Catharines—Now in Hospital.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) St. Catharines, Feb. 25.—A. D. Servor and wife, of the township of Niagara, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon. They were driving along Niagara street in this city, when a freight train, frightened at a G. T. R. freight train standing on the crossing, which they were approaching. The animal ran away and both occupants of the vehicle were thrown to the ground. Mrs. Servor escaped without injury. Mr. Servor was kicked in the forehead by the horse. He was picked up and carried into the office of the Wilson Contracting Company. Dr. Joy was summoned and the patient was removed to the General Marine Hospital, where it was found necessary to put ten stitches into the wound. He will be unable to leave the hospital for some days. The horse was caught some miles away in the township of Grantham.

Lincoln County has no business to be transacted by the High Court of Justice at the sitting fixed for next week before Chief Justice Mulock. No civil or criminal cases were entered.

FOR RECIPROCITY.

Detroit Conference to Consider Canadian Preferential Tariff.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 25.—The Detroit Board of Commerce has issued invitations for a Canadian reciprocity conference, to be held in Detroit, April 22, 23 and 24. Invitations were sent to civic organizations of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Chicago, Milwaukee, Toledo, Cleveland, Buffalo and Rochester. It is pointed out by promoters of the conference that the Canadian preferential tariff law opens the way for reciprocity, if the Congress can be induced to take action in the matter.

GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury for the coming Assizes, which opens on Monday before Justice Latchford, is composed of the following gentlemen:—Ald. William Appleghat, John L. Reeves, Walter E. Bishop, Hamilton; John Boyer, West Flamboro; Robert Cook, Beverly; Edward Crawford, Hamilt. Ont.; Fred (Jarring) Hamilton; Dennis Dwyer, Beverly; Daniel C. Platt, West Flamboro; John F. Trison, West Flamboro; John Moodie, Barton; W. G. Mason, Dundas; Samuel Tweedie, Bnbrook.

The Krinton Patent Pipe. Krinton pipes have a flat vent hole which extends the smoke and is always cool and dry. They are sold in all shapes for 5c cents at peace's pipe store, 107 King street east.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY

London, Feb. 25.—John Tempest Dawson, 75 years old, shot his wife while they were together in the National Portrait Gallery yesterday, and then committed suicide. Mrs. Dawson died in a hospital soon afterward. The couple were believed to be from Montreal. Mr. Dawson was a wealthy retired business man, and he and his wife had lived for the last ten years at Brighton. Papers on the man's body show that the act was premeditated.

FLOODED.

Family in West End in a Bad Way.

Rain and thaw have made a bad mess in the west end, completely flooding the flat region west of the T. H. & B. spur line. A small house that was recently moved there and in which a family is living, was entirely cut off by the flood on Tuesday and Wednesday, and is not much better to-day, although the frost has helped some. The Board of Health has used the surrounding land for dumping purposes and that has aggravated the trouble, clogging the channel and culvert, so that trouble is certain whenever there is a flood.

FOR MISSIONS.

Methodist Laymen to Have a Strong Organization.

Representatives of all the Methodist churches in the city met in the board room of Centenary Church last evening to organize in a movement to promote missions and work in connection with the Laymen's Missionary Movement. A resolution was passed that a committee be appointed to assist the individual churches and look after the matter of organization. A meeting will be held next Tuesday in Centenary Church to appoint officers and take up the work actively.

Mr. C. W. Graham, chairman of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in this city, and Mr. William Somerville, attended the meeting and gave valuable information in regard to organization.

DELIGHTED.

Paderewski Greatly Pleased With His Visit to Hamilton.

Paderewski, who scored such a success here last night, has the reputation of being somewhat particular about the stage settings, etc., where he plays, and when his manager saw how Miss Jeannette Lewis had had the stage at the Grand adorned with some palms set well back so as not to interfere with either the view or the music, some fine paintings and a Polish flag on a bust of one of the great masters of music, he said they must all come out at once and when Miss Lewis stood firm he predicted that the pianist would order them all out before he went on. But Paderewski didn't. Moreover, he was delighted with the artistic effect, and congratulated Miss Lewis upon it. He added the compliment that he never felt so much at home—as it was if he was playing to a company of his own personal friends. He spoke in the highest terms of the Hamilton people he had met; also Paderewski insisted that Miss Lewis should accompany his party to Toronto and he said his guest at the concert there to-night.

ARCHBISHOP DEAD.

Toledo, Spain, Feb. 25.—Cardinal Saneza, Archbishop of Toledo, died to-day.

INDIAN LIST DOES NOT HOLD GOOD.

Separate Legal Notice Must be Given in Each Case—Three Girls Sent Down.

Police Magistrate Jelfs granted a respite to one hundred and five thirty souls this morning at Police Court, when he declared that a hotelkeeper selling liquor to any of the men on the so-called Indian list could not be prosecuted if it was not proven that a legal form of notice had been served on the hotelkeeper in that particular case. "There is no Indian list," said Magistrate Jelfs, and this news was received with different emotions by many. Some "Indians" in the court started to feel once more for the elusive nickels in their pockets and smiled as they saw in their mind's eye a tall schooner waiting to be put into its allotted dock. Inspector Birrell received the news with a disgusted look, and felt disheartened. His pet, that dear list, is no more, and the list is consequently not good.

Magistrate Jelfs listened to all this evidence, and then calmly announced to Crown Attorney Washington, "Well, Mr. Washington, you have failed to make out a case."

"Why?" asked the Crown.

"Simply because these hotels were not served with proper legal notices. The statutes provide a special notice which is to be served in every case for each man. This was not done, and the list is consequently not good."

His Worship said that Inspector Birrell had thought he was doing right in changing "person" in the form to plural, "persons," and using just the first notice sent out. He thought the names were all right if tacked on below this ARTILLERYMEN.

Meeting of the Dominion Association in Ottawa To-day.

Address by Minister of Militia—Corps of Guides.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, Feb. 25.—The annual meeting of the Dominion Artillery Association was held in a House of Commons committee room this morning, and was presided over by Colonel Davidson, of Prince Edward Island. The Governor General and Sir Frederick Borden were among those present. Colonel Grant suggested that the executive look into the advisability of sending a Canadian team to Great Britain in 1910 to compete in the National Artillery Association competitions.

In his annual report Colonel Davidson called attention to the difficulties involved in transporting artillery detachments to the central camp at Petawawa. He suggested that the Militia Department should consider the advisability of establishing a camp on the St. Lawrence, east of Montreal, for heavy artillery.

A vote of thanks to Earl Grey for his interest in the artillery was proposed by Major Harrison and seconded by Major O'Dell.

Earl Grey, in reply, referred to his visit at Petawawa, and declared that the camp was an admirable one. He

REMEMBERED BY THE LADIES' AID

On His Birthday.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the German Lutheran Church surprised their pastor, Rev. H. Rembe, last night, on the occasion of his birthday, by going to his residence in a body and presenting him with a fine new service gown and Mrs. Rembe with a bouquet of flowers. Pastor and Mrs. Rembe are deservedly very popular with the members of his flock and nearly every member of the society was present. Although taken by surprise the pastor acknowledged the gift in appropriate terms and Mrs. Rembe was delighted perfectly at home. A very enjoyable evening was spent with songs, recitations, etc. Refreshments were served by the ladies. The gathering broke up about midnight, every one wishing their beloved pastor many years of happiness among them.

BELL PHONES.

Government of Saskatchewan Want to Buy Plant.

Montreal, Feb. 25.—At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Bell Telephone Co., held to-day, it was announced that negotiations are in progress between the management and the Government of Saskatchewan looking to the purchase by the latter of the telephone plant of the company in that Province. Representatives of the Province have been in Montreal conferring with the company. The transaction is along pretty much the same lines as the purchase of the Bell plant in Manitoba by the Government of that Province.

CHILD MURDERED.

Montreal Babe Stabbed and Strangled to Death.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Montreal, Feb. 25.—The most brutal case of infanticide ever known in this city was discovered in Quebec street to-day. The deed was done on Tuesday. The physicians found twelve stab wounds, one under the eye. The rope used for strangling the infant was still around its neck.

BURGLAR GOT JEWELRY.

Last night, during the absence of the family, the house of J. R. Stewart, 107 MacNab street south, was entered and a number of articles of jewelry stolen. A ladies' gold watch and long chain and three rings are among the missing. There is no clue to the burglar who got in by forcing a side window.

Fun For Our Readers

Down and Out. In the game of Life, when your luck is strong. And nothing in all the world goes wrong. When you're flush in health, and in pocket, And everything simply comes to you. When you're near the finish, the goal in sight, Through her tears of gladness, with love a- light. And the crowd is cheering you left and right, When you break the tape, and the race is done. And the prize and the prize at last are won; When somebody's eyes are beaming bright, Through her tears of gladness, with love a- light. When somebody holds you warm within her arms, in her pride to see you win. Why, life is laughter, and life is good, And everything's easy and understood; With plenty to eat and drink and spend, And enough to spare when there's need to lend. When it's good to have, and it's good to give, And life is so good that it's good to live. In the game of Life, when your luck is strong, And nothing in all the world goes wrong. In the battle of Life, when you hear the going. But you're down and out, and the fight's gone wrong. When you're broke in health, and in spirit, And the whole wide world seems to round on you; When you've lost the race, and the far off cheers. For the winner for you are only jeers: When you limp alone on the dusty track, And your children are wailing and pinched and white. When you've lost your grip and your faith in food, And you've lost the thing that the world calls Fate. When your heart is as hot as bell with hate, And you curse the thing that the world calls Fate. Why, life isn't laughter, and life's not good, And nothing by Heaven is understood! In the battle of Life, when you hear the going. But you're down and out, and the fight's gone wrong.

FOR CHARITY. A FINE ONE.

How the Late Miss Doolittle Left Her Money. St. Matthew's Church young lady entertainers made another unqualified success of the third of the series of social gatherings, which was held in the school room on Tuesday evening. It had been decided that there should be a departure from the usual dramatic work on this occasion. The director, Mr. Martin Be- worth, therefore obtained promises from many of his amateur and professional friends in various lines to give their services in the good cause. Some idea of the excellence of the entertainment may be gathered when it is stated that the following ladies and gentlemen appeared: Miss Edith Irene Bastedo, reciter; Bay Hill, stump orator; Fred Mitchell, comedienne; Harry Eckstein, impersonator; Earl Weaver, banjoist; Fred Murphy, basso; Alex. Mackie, humorist; and the Misses Lena and Anna Vogt. The last two ladies are two of Mr. John Hasbett's brightest and best. All were enthusiastically received. There was not a dull moment, and if the audience had been allowed its own way in the matter of scores, the chances are that the perfor- mances would have lasted until some- where near daybreak. The young lady entertainers gave two character songs and choruses, in which they had been most ably instructed by Mr. W. H. Pringle. They acted and sang sweetly, and looked charming. The last of the series, which will be of a musical comedy nature, will take place at Easter.

TIMES PATTERNS.

A SMART DESIGN IN WHITE LINEN. No. 228—Ladies' Shirtwaist. Cut in sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 will require 3 1/2 yards of 36- inch material. Linen, cotton, wool and pongee are all suitable for making up this design, which will be most appropriate for a separate blouse to wear with odd skirts or as part of a costume. The pattern provides for full length sleeves or shorter ones completed by turned back cuffs. A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address on the receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Need No Longer Fear the Knife

Gravel Easily and Naturally Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Joseph Pelrine Who Suffered the Tor- tures of This Terrible Complaint for Nine Months Tells How the Old Re- liable Kidney Remedy Cured Him. Port Felix East, Guysboro Co., N. S., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—That you need no longer fear the knife if troubled with gravel or other urinary troubles is the glad news from Joseph Pelrine, a well-known young fisherman here, is telling his friends. "I suffered intense pain from gravel and other urinary troubles for nine months," Mr. Pelrine says. "But seven boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely. I heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to anyone who is suffering from gravel or urinary troubles." "Dodd's Kidney Pills cure gravel by acting on the kidneys. The urinary organs are entirely dependent on the kidneys. If the kidneys are not in good working order they cannot filter out the uric acid, and it combines with other products of the body and causes gravel. Healthy kidneys dissolve the stones and they pass off in the urine. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure gravel.

See how they may be. One thing is certain, wherever you want to go, whatever part of the continent or of the world, no company can take you as far or look after you as well as the C. P. R.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

THURSDAY, FEB. 25, 1909.

WILL IT BE WAR?

The situation in the Balkans, which a few days ago seemed to be clearing, again looks quite threatening. Austria-Hungary is said to be impatient of any influence attempted to be exercised upon her by the Powers, and is proceeding with military preparations which are said to be costing $200,000 a day.

BLAMES IT ON WHISKEY.

Malone, the Simcoe Chief of Police, who was yesterday sentenced to life imprisonment for his attempt to murder a constable so that a long list of crimes of which he had been guilty might be hidden, seems to be only one more of the myriads of men who, looking back on their lives, feel impelled to charge their evils and misfortunes to drink.

—half the amount found in practice to be required—and deduct $220,000 from the earnings, we find that there is a deficit of $32,000; if we deduct the safe 10 per cent., the deficit is $272,000!

The difference between the percentages of the two sets of operating expense—some 22 per cent.—indicates the extent of the reconstruction work on the Manitoba system, which has either been charged improperly to capital or has been "passed up" entirely in the determination to make a favorable showing during the first year of operation by the Government.

Nor is that all. The Bell Company, after spending about 40 per cent. of its total earnings on yearly renewals and reconstruction, finds itself called upon to have a contingent fund to which payments are annually made.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There do not appear to be any knockers of local industries in the Welland Council.

Paderevski was born in Podolia, Russian Poland, on Nov. 6, 1869, and is therefore in his 39th year.

It is not yet too late to suggest that Mayor McLaughlin might try to arrange a special "deputation rate" for the benefit of Hamilton with the railways leading out of it.

The Presbyterian Assembly in honor of Rev. Dr. Lyle by choosing him as Moderator would likewise honor itself. There is no man in the church more capable or deserving.

The cutting of $2,600 off the Hospital Governor's estimate was an unbusinesslike proceeding, especially so in the face of the Council's action as to increasing outlays on Monday night.

Premier Bond, of Newfoundland, will resign as a result of the deadlock, and Sir Edward Morris will be called upon to form a Government.

How would it do to require "Indians" of the Birrell tribe to wear some distinguishing badge, that they may be known at sight by the barkeep? It would be a measure of fairness to Inspector Birrell, too, and would probably make "Indianism" less popular.

An amendment is before the United States Congress for federal control of all the water supply at Sault Ste. Marie. There is no reason why the federal Government of Canada should not take control of all power companies, which on this side derive their water supply from international streams.

Hamilton music lovers have enjoyed several treats of late, the Paderevski recital of last night not the least. In city contains a large number of capable vocal and instrumental musicians, and it is pleasing to know that their influence is felt by the community, and their efforts appreciated by the public.

The deputation from the School Board that went to Toronto yesterday does not seem to have obtained any assurance that Hamilton would get that "great Provincial technical college."

It did not even bring back a promise of a liberal grant to the school which the Hamilton Board has built; although it is hard to see how one can be refused. Their request "will receive consideration."

The Toronto News advocates old-age pensions, the Government managing and contributing toward the fund. The News advocates every money-spending scheme. It also attacks the Government for every increase of expenditure.

Toronto's tax rate is to be 18 1/2 mills on the dollar, but it is hardly expected that the amount of taxes realized will clear the slate. It is to be borne in mind, however, that besides this general tax, Toronto collects a large sum by the frontage system.

Water for baths free would be a concession to cleanliness; cleanliness is said to be next to godliness, therefore, the proposed concession partakes of a religious character. But will that consideration weigh with the Finance Committee frantically hunting for funds?

Winnipeg General Hospital is in a fix. It has been receiving $36,000 a year from the Provincial Government, but last session Robin passed legislation cutting that sum down to $14,000, so that the institution is $22,000 short. Mr. Robin now stands off and says, "Our hands are tied."

A good many who have unpleasant memory of the time when they were vaccinated will have more or less sympathy with Kingston's Mayor, who strenuously objects to setting an example to the people by submitting to vaccination. Nothing is so persuasive in such a case as the proximity of a few cases of smallpox.

The Toronto Mail and Empire has discovered that the Globe is seeking to separate Canada from the Empire "by stealth." We have heard of an enterprising fellow who stole a red hot stove, but the Mail and Empire sets the Globe a far harder job than that. How did the organ come to think the Globe would make this attempt?

Toronto papers publish a letter from a physician who seems to hold the opinion that the disease treated as smallpox is not smallpox at all, but some harmless skin eruption. It would be a pity to have measures of prophylaxis neglected because of any such guesses. In smallpox, perhaps more than any other disease, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

The Dominion statutes of 1908 have just been issued. They make a very bulky volume. One of the most important of the acts it contains is the consolidated and amended Dominion Lands Act. Other notable contents are the Ontario Lands Survey Act, the French Convention Act, an act respecting juvenile delinquents, a Railway Act amending placing telegraphs and telephones under the jurisdiction of the Railway Commission, and an act to amend the Chinese Immigration Act.

The Ottawa Journal attempts to defend the charging by that city of extortionate water rates by alleging that those who object to them do an injury to the city and the taxpayers. It's line of reasoning is that if the extortionate water rates were reduced the tax rate would have to be raised, and the tax rate is the chief criterion used by those seeking locations for factory or business purposes. But why levy the necessary taxes on their own backs? Why burden unjustly the water-users? The argument is hardly moral.

The Times is not among those who think it was poor policy to allow more capacity for the supply of power to be developed on the Canadian side of Niagara than our present market demands, or that we have lost anything by the export of power to the United States. Probably had we not granted those power concessions Canada would not have fared so well in the apportionment made by the Waterways Commission. In any event, the Province of Ontario gets the franchise rental; and as to the power export, that is effectively controlled by the Dominion Government. Whatever Ontario gets out of it is not profit. The water would be running over the falls anyway.

Heroic measures are being taken in dealing with West Toronto's smallpox outbreak.

OUR EXCHANGES

Throw Cold Water On It. (Ottawa Journal). Even the weather objected to that Montreal carnival.

The Washbone. (Grimly Independent). I can't conceive everybody acknowledging now that the drunkard's "washbone" is where his "backbone" ought to be, but nobody ever thought of it till I told them so.

Want Any Kind. (Kingston Standard). The Hamilton Times is objecting because there seems to be a prospect of Hamilton "monkeying" some more with experimental pavements.

High Rents. (Montreal Witness). Complaints about the rise in the rents of houses are so loud in the cities of the United States as in Canada, and hardly less so in the cities of Great Britain and the continent of Europe.

Sealey Making Friends. (E. A. L. Clarke in Dundas Banner). One has only to be in the House a short time to see that Sealey has made a host of friends among the Government members, particularly the Ontario delegation.

The Tactics of Chamberlainism. (Goldwin Smith). It was the tactics of Mr. Chamberlain to get up putting to each special industry the question whether its trade would be increased by levying a duty on imported goods.

Decaying Self-Respect. (London Times). The invasion of privacy by the press is matched by the various and pettishness of those who desire publicity at any cost, and by the snobbishness of those who greedily devour any scrap of personal gossip that they can find, vainly imagining that they in some way attach themselves to the society which they see and by the contrary they are taking the party of moderation throughout the country, and reduce moderates who are free traders to inaction, or, possibly, drive them into the extremist party.

Hon. Alex. Mackenzie. One day there arrived in Kingston a young Scotch stonemason, and Angus Maule Mackay, in her interesting new book "The Story of an Old Kingdom," tells us that this youth, later to become Prime Minister of Canada, and to be known as Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, worked his first summer as a stonemason and was swindled out of his pay.

Personal and General News of the Valley Town.

Dundas, Feb. 25.—Among recent visitors in town were Miss Irwin, Brantford; Miss Tuck, Waterford; Fred Austin, Toronto; Misses Pae, Barrie; Mrs. Nye, Toronto; Miss Pearl McDonald, Woodstock; Mrs. J. Kerr, Belmont, Man.; Miss Fannie, Peterboro.

Mrs. E. A. Woodhouse entertained the A. Y. F. A. on Tuesday evening when a most enjoyable time was spent. There were over thirty of the members present.

Mrs. T. D. Bradley, of Mortlach, Sask., accompanied by her sister, Miss Buchanan, of Aylmer, Ont., have been visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bradley, Hart street.

Mrs. John Doddimead, of Portage la Prairie, who some five years ago was a resident of Dundas, and her niece, Miss Johnston, of Hamilton, were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moss.

W. H. Bell has severed his connection with Jones Bros. Co. to take a more responsible position with one of the large furniture factories in Rochester.

Rev. Father Cassidy, of the cathedral staff, Hamilton, has been appointed to take charge of St. Augustine's parish during the illness of the regular pastor, Dean Laussie.

Mrs. James Somerville, accompanied by her daughter Charlotte, left on Thursday last for Southern California, and reached San Diego on Tuesday.

Mrs. Cecilia Burns leaves for Aurora, Ill., on Friday to visit her niece, Mrs. Avery.

Miss Josephine Leist has returned after spending a fortnight visiting at her home in Cayuga.

Miss Ada Millard, who has been quite ill for the past week, is progressing quite favorably.

James Murray, Roger Craig and Chas. Wright have gone to Welland, where they have secured positions.

W. A. Davidson, of Stratton & Co., is slowly recovering from a rather severe illness.

The Valley City Seating Co. will furnish the new chair for the recently elected Speaker of the Dominion Parliament.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. James' Church has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. Woodhouse, Honorary President; Mrs. Cochrane, President; Mrs. Mallory, Second Vice-President; Mrs. Leonard, Treasurer.

Rev. T. W. Cozens, of Wallaceburg, has been invited to the pastorate of Ontario Street Methodist Church, Clinton.

Mrs. W. H. Bates, Secretary; Mrs. F. Buidler and Mrs. Bates, Auditors; Mrs. Poisson and Mrs. E. Buidler, Rector's Representatives; Mrs. H. C. Gwyn, President of the Junior Branch.

The past year has been a very successful one in every respect, and much is hoped for the ensuing year. The delegates to the Diocesan Synod are Mrs. Gerald Gwyn and Miss Minty.

The adult Bible class of the Methodist Church held a very enjoyable social on Tuesday evening. Emory McPherson occupied the chair. W. H. Moss gave an address of welcome. A much appreciated program was given in which Misses Krompert and Quackenbush and Messrs. Jacques and Greenwood sang solos; Miss and Mr. Koenigsh, a duet; and Miss Vida Smith gave a reading.

Mr. Joe Thompson, the present teacher, gave an interesting address on the work and aim of the class. Mrs. Geo. Pilgrim was accompanist for the evening. An anatomy contest was much enjoyed, after which refreshments were served in the basement of the church. Much regret was expressed at the necessary absence of Mr. W. A. Davidson, superintendent, throughout.

The town's isolation hospital has been closed, the patients all having recovered.

A BIGAMIST.

Deserts Wife and Babes to Wed Another Girl.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—Six months ago Thomas George Flint, an Englishman, left his wife and two little ones at their home in St. Thomas, saying he was going back to England and would return. Two months later twin boys were born, but neither support nor even word came from the departed husband.

He did not go to England, but to Erie, where he met Maggie Elliott, a former sweetheart, and together they went to Bolton and were married.

Yesterday Flint was arrested by Constable Gould, of Bolton, and brought to Toronto, where he was turned over to Chief William Armstrong, of St. Thomas. He is charged with non-support, but as he admits the second marriage he will be charged with bigamy.

General Robert Sandham, R. A., formerly stationed in Toronto, died in England.

Mr. J. W. Tyrrell believes that Fort Churchill on the Hudson Bay will be a great seaport.

REGIMENT IN GOOD SHAPE.

Annual Meeting and Supper of the Seventy-Seventh.

Discussion on Erection of a Monument at Dundas.

Outlook for the Crack Rural Regiment is Bright.

The annual meeting of the 77th Regiment officers' mess was held yesterday afternoon in the Royal Hotel. The full complement of officers was present, with Lieut.-Colonel Ptolemy, the commanding officer, in the chair. The reports of the various committees were received, and adopted. Captain Baillie, of Winona, presenting the report of the Regimental Committee; Major Knowles, of Dundas, the Band Committee; and Capt. Bertram, of Dundas, the Rifle Association. There is a good balance on hand, and satisfactory progress was made during the past. The outlook for the present season is most encouraging and the officers hope that the present year will be a banner one in the history of the regiment.

At 6.30 those present sat down to a sumptuous repast. The guests were present as representatives of the outside regiments: Lieut.-Col. Logie and Moore; Major Gibson and Major Kidd, 44th; Grimes; Capt. Bell, 91st, also Col. Bertram and Col. Gwyn, both of the 1st; Capt. Lawson, A. S. C., Dan Reed, M. P., P. E., Glanford, and Gordon Wilson, M. P. P.

The committees for the year are as follows:

Regimental—Captain Bertram, Dundas; Capt. Baillie, Winona; Capt. Knowles, Winona.

Mess—Major Knowles, Dundas, secretary; Major Ptolemy, Binbrook; Capt. Clifford, Ancaster; Capt. Baillie, Winona; and Lieut. Minchin, Hamilton.

Band—Lieut. Col. Gratton, Dundas, president; Major Knowles, Dundas, and Lieut. Pennington, Dundas.

Rifle Association—Lieut. Minchin, Hamilton; Capt. McNamara, Winona; Capt. Bertram, Dundas; Capt. Stevenson, Ancaster; Lieut. Burns, Dundas; Lieut. Shaw, Malton; and Lieut. Bertram, Dundas; Lieut. Weatherston, Greenville.

After the banquet the party adjourned to the banquet to witness the production of "Nell Gwynn" by the Selman Stock Company.

A short discussion took place during the afternoon over the proposal to erect a monument in Dundas for the men who participated in the South African War. The officers were quite agreeable to subscribing $100 towards it, but Major Knowles pointed out that he did not think it would be prudent for the officers to go into it at present, for the reason that only $200 or a little more has so far been subscribed, and he did not think that a suitable monument could be raised for less than $1,000. The officers decided to defer action for the present. In the meantime subscription lists will be opened, and it is hoped there will be a liberal response.

Special Friday Sales.

The ladies should not forget Finch Bros' special Friday sales, the great buying event of the week. It brings to the front some splendid savings for tomorrow in things for present wear and for the season to come. Read their advertisement to-night. They are anxious to interest every Friday shopper and lead them to their popular west end store. This season they are opening a men's furnishing department, and stocking it with everything that is new and fashionable in men's wear. This new department will be ready in a few days, and will be found right at the entrance to the store at present. We call your attention again to the greatest of all Friday sales, made possible through this weekly event. You had better come to-morrow.—Finch Bros.

AT BRITANNIA.

Ladies' Balloon Race Was an Amusing One.

The balloon race at the Britannia Roller rink last evening attracted a large crowd and those who witnessed the event were well repaid, as one of the most comical attractions ever put on was this ladies' race. The boys' race a short time ago was funny but the lads were not in with the ladies who performed many funny stunts last night. Many of the competitors had all luck but the worst luck was shown by Miss Berna Bayerstock, she had nearly gone the whole distance and was but two yards from finishing point when she dropped her balloon. Two of the contestants could go only a few yards through inability to balance the balloon on one hand. Miss Netta Morris captured first and was awarded a suitable prize. She was the last to start and her victory was the surprise of the evening. A number entered but did not compete and those who started were the Misses Morris, Coty, Murphy and Beverstock. The distance was one mile twelve times around the rink. L. McMaster was the referee.

The Great Hour Sales—More Right House Friday Bargains.

The Right House announces in this paper to-night an exceptionally interesting series of hour sales for tomorrow morning. Read the details in their advertisement. These bargains are simply wonderful and attract thousands of people to the Thomas C. Watkins store each Friday morning.

To-night's Right House advertisement also gives a great deal of extraordinary all day Friday bargains in fashionable goods that every one needs. A trip to this great value-giving store to-morrow will be an "eye-opener" in the matter of good values. Just try it.

THE RAMBLERS WON.

Last evening at the Ramblers Club rooms the Conservative Club captained by Wm. Brown, and the Ramblers, under Bob Jocelyn, played a return game of Haussen-Phiffer, the Ramblers winning by four points. After the game, Alex. Reid presiding at the urn. Ald. Hopkins and Allan made short speeches and Aid. Alf Wright presented the prizes, Terryberry securing first and Gallagher the booby.

BACTERIOLOGY.

Miss Marion Wade Boston's Expert Bacteriologist.

(Boston Sunday Herald.) There is a room up in Boylston Chambers, resplendent with acids and disinfectants, lined with all the insignia of bacteriology, where are poured in every day dozens of germs from contagious cases all over the city.

It is a central station of diseases—a health barometer. Here every day physicians bring germs. Here they are not only allowed to develop and multiply; they are encouraged by being placed, some of them, in incubators. In the bacteriological laboratory—this is its official name—is done each morning some of the quickest, the most minute, the most painstaking work in the city—work that either quarantines a whole family or that sends a sick man to the hospital or gives blessed relief, proving that the physician's fears have been groundless.

Three technical experts so thoroughly trained in the color of a dot the size of a pin point in a cell tissue, they can detect the absence or presence of a disease, daily examine the slides prepared from the bacteria. One of these experts is a woman.

Miss Marion Wade, who has been appointed upon the bacteriological staff to fill the vacancy left by the promotion of Burdett L. Ames, is the first woman to be employed in Boston in the capacity of city bacteriologist.

It is a profession that is a new one, for a woman. Long since have people ceased to be surprised at the advent of the woman physician. The emotion with which Miss Wade, behind her lognette, beheld her hastening to the call of sickness, at night—unhappily—has subsided.

Not all women scientifically trained devote themselves to general practice of their profession. Each year in the larger cities more and more women pursue careers in research laboratories. Some of them are medical graduates, some are chemical experts.

This fine painstaking work is particularly adapted to women. "Women I have found are better than men along these lines," said Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, who speaks from her long experience as professor of chemistry at the Technology. "A woman is quicker with her hands, more deft. The number of women who enter this profession of research is on the increase. But there are not enough to fill the demand. Men want women in the laboratories. It is not true that they stand in their way. I have many calls of this kind from scientific men, but not enough women to send them."

A drawback which the Minerva of science has not yet overcome is that of health. Whether she is doing research or teaching, the woman scientist, like her male colleague, lies in her own hands. "But college girls are so careless," she added, distressfully.

The signs, however, are hopeful. Women have succeeded in the laboratories, and they are paving the way for more. To see Miss Wade at her daily work suggests anything but anemia and nervous breakdown.

Nine o'clock is the time officially set

"The physician attending me prescribed, on my rallying from an attack of rheumatism, your Scott's Emulsion, which I have been taking ever since. I find it most valuable in strengthening and building up one after a severe illness. I have not had rheumatism since the time mentioned above and I owe it to your most valuable Emulsion. It is my life now, and makes me strong and healthy."—R. PICARD, Grand Ligne, Quebec.

For two hundred years before Scott's Emulsion came Cod Liver Oil was used for rheumatism.

FRUIT JUICES CLEAR THE SKIN.

The skin mirrors faithfully the state of the blood, and the blood shows how well—or how badly—the liver, bowels, kidneys and the millions of tiny glands in the skin are doing their work. If these organs are not properly cleaning out the waste matter, the blood will be poisoned and the skin sallow, "muddy" and sprinkled with pimples.

Plenty of ripe fruit helps more than any other food to cure this condition, but even more effective, as well as less expensive, are "Fruit-a-tives." These are little tablets of concentrated fruit juices, combined in such a way as to many times increase their action on those organs that eliminate impurities. One or two "Fruit-a-tives" a day will keep the blood pure and give the skin the clear glow of health. 25¢ for trial size box—50¢ for regular size—6 for $2.50. Dealers everywhere should have both sizes. If you are unable to obtain "Fruit-a-tives" in your neighborhood, they will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

for reporting in the morning. The three technical experts get there at 8.

"We have to come at that time," explained Miss Wade. "There are so many slides to examine. Sometimes we have 187 cultures of diphtheria alone, and doctors who are anxious begin to telephone before the middle of the morning." The mere mention of the laboratory, nor chemist, who walks by Boylston Chambers without dreaming of the far-reaching work that goes on in a small room on its fifth floor is still more perplexed when he enters the laboratory itself. All the shelves of bottles, racks of test tubes, glass retorts, microscopes and tiny glass slides merely add to his sensation of dumbness. The clue is given, however, by Miss Wade, who begins her explanation in the outer room, where are hung the charts containing the directions which guide the doctors in sending the disease germs.

How are these germs sent to the laboratory? In the case of diphtheria a sterilized swab of cotton on the end of a thin stick is rubbed thoroughly over the throat and tonsils of the patient, and smeared over the surface of solidified blood serum, a whitish substance used as a food medium in the cultivation of bacteria. The swab is then sealed with cork and cotton and the infected swab is sealed in another tube.

The serum tube is marked with the patient's name, and a card accompanying the outfit is filled out in detail. Only a part of the card is filled out by the physician; the rest is filled out by the bacteriologist.

Once in the laboratory, the culture is put into an incubator at the temperature of 80 deg. Fahrenheit, where the bacteria grow and multiply over night. After the laboratory is closed, the slides are still received and landed in the incubators with the earlier arrivals by a chute.

In the morning the bacteriologists take this growth, smear it on the surface of a glass slide and stain that smear. Then, by expert handling over a microscope, they are able to report the absence or presence of disease. By 11 o'clock all these reports are mailed to the physicians.

If the culture is positive, the postal card is printed in red ink. If negative, in black. If suspicious, requesting that a second culture be sent to the laboratory, the card is green.

Quite typical is the method of diagnosing typhoid. Examinations in this disease are made from a drop of the patient's blood taken from the lobe of the ear.

In tuberculosis the slides are prepared from sputum of the patient. Slides from malaria are prepared by direct smearing of the patient's blood upon the glass.

Every day in the bacteriological laboratory appear these tiny distress signals. In the report of last year the total number of examinations was 23,148. Of these 29,467 were reported and 4,881 were milk examinations. The average number for each day was 69.

How do these signals look to the bacteriologists? Miss Wade had been making the test for rabies on the day when the Herald reporter visited the laboratory. "A great many cases of rabies are coming in now," she explained. "The slide is made from a section of the animal's brain. The whole head is sent to the laboratory."

The Herald reporter looked down into what appeared, under the lens as adjusted, a pink mass. Then it looked like a honeycomb of tiny cells, some of them broken and indistinct. In all the wavy lines he couldn't find the pink dot. There was a faint, indistinct substance might be it, but Miss Wade explained that that was the nucleus of the cell. He continued to look, reaching uncomplimentary conclusions about his power of observation. At last, near the wall of one of the cells, he sighted a tiny dot that looked as if it had been made with a pin point dipped in red ink. Then he discovered that there were several of them. When the section is smeared with the coloring matter all these infinitesimal indications of rabies take on bright pink.

As he mopped his brow Miss Wade explained that the work was not so difficult when one was accustomed to it. Every examination is checked up by two or more bacteriologists so that it is impossible to give a mistaken report back to the physician.

Dr. Francis H. Slack, director of the laboratory, was preparing a slide for a tuberculosis examination. The glass was divided up into small sections, and each section he smeared with the growth which was taken from the test tubes brought in by the physicians. Each section was numbered. At the other end of that number out in the city, it might have been on Commonwealth avenue, it might have been on Hanover street, there was an anxious family.

Though detailed to a remarkable degree, the work that is done in the laboratory is of necessity rapid. "We have to work quickly," explained Miss Wade, "because the doctors are all waiting for their reports." "Don't you ever fear contagion?" inquired the visitor. "Not in the slightest," she smiled. "There is really no danger if one is careful in handling the slides. I always take care that there are no cuts or bruises upon my hands when I am making the smears, and I have never had a disagreeable experience."

Miss Wade's home is in Hamilton. In 1904 she was graduated with honors from Trinity University, Toronto. She then came to the Institute of Technology, where she took special courses in air analysis and in water and food analysis. She also took the special summer course in bacteriology at the Harvard Medical School in 1907.

While an assistant instructor in sanitary chemistry at the Institute of Technology, she was connected for three months with the laboratory of the board of health as a voluntary assistant. Before accepting her present position she was employed as an analytical

TO PROTECT HALIBUT.

Government Will Declare Herate Straits Closed.
Montreal, Feb. 24.—Mr. Charles M. Hays has permitted the information to become public that the Canadian Government has decided to stand absolutely on its rights in Hecate Straits, British Columbia; that it will formally declare this favored harbor for halibut a closed sea, and that it proposes to at once build a swift armored cruiser for the protection of these waters against American poachers.

The Grand Trunk Pacific is deeply interested in the halibut industry, because of the proximity of Prince Rupert to the fishing grounds. Mr. Hays' announcement was the result of a recent interview he had with the Minister of Marine at Ottawa.

Made-in-Hamilton Wringers

This store makes a specialty of Washing Machines and Clothes Wringers. To-night we call your particular attention to Wringers, while next Thursday night we will advertise Washing Machines.

We have all kinds of Clothes Wringers, almost everything in this line of manufacture to show you. The prices are $2.50, $2.75, $3, $3.25, $3.75, $4.50 and $5 each. The price of a Wringer depends mostly on the quality of the rubber used in the two rolls. The rubber rolls in a good Clothes Wringer represent about 75 per cent. of its entire value. It is obvious therefore that any low-priced Wringer must of necessity be produced by adulterating the rubber used for the rolls. Now, while we have Wringers at all prices we go out of our way to urge the sale, in preference to all others, of our highest priced Wringer. Our best Wringer sells for FIVE DOLLARS, contains only the very best rubber in its rolls and carries with it an unconditional guarantee for five years (by the maker, Dowsell) for family use. In reality, and with ordinary care, it will probably last for 20 or 25 years. Of course, it's a ball-bearing Wringer, and cogs or running gears are concealed, while the wood frame is of best hardwood construction. We recommend this Wringer without hesitation as one that will give the greatest satisfaction in the long run. The price as stated is five dollars. The same quality made up as a Bench Wringer on a folding stand and having a tub bench on each side, the price is $6.50.

New Cooking Novelties

In the Kitchen Wares Department

Our Kitchen Goods Department is so brimful of interesting and helpful things for housekeepers that it really deserves daily exploiting.

Lately we have received a large shipment of a new fire-proof baking ware that will stand the fire and at the same time is slightly enough to be placed on the table for serving. It is a rich glossy brown in coloring, with a pure white lining. The various dishes of this ware consist of fancy moulds, bakera, ramekins, shirred egg dishes, rarebit dishes, custard cups, etc., for foods which should be served hot; and they are not high priced, either.

Fish Moulds, 50¢; Oval or Round Jelly Moulds, 20¢, 25¢, 30¢, 35¢ and 50¢; Oval Bakers, 15¢, 20¢, 25¢; Ramekins, round shape, 10¢; Oval Shirred Egg or Welsh Rarebit Dishes, 25¢, 35¢ and 50¢; Round Shirred Egg Dishes, 20¢, 25¢ and 35¢; Pudding Bowls, 10¢, 12¢, 15¢ and 25¢; Custard Cups, 10¢ and 12¢; Egg Cocettes, with handle, 15¢ and 20¢.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR MALONE.

Ex-Chief of Police of Simcoe Found Guilty.

Penalty For Attempted Murder of Ex-Constable Wilkins.

Prisoner Gets a Week to Settle Up His Affairs.

Simcoe, Feb. 24.—Archibald W. Malone, ex-chief of police of this town, was sentenced to-night by Chief Justice Sir William Mulock to imprisonment for life in Kingston Penitentiary, at the conclusion of a trial which lasted thirty hours, spread over three days, in which one of the strangest stories of secret crime ever heard in the annals of Canadian criminology was revealed. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Their deliberations lasted for two hours and twelve minutes. The charge which they considered was that in the early minutes of December 1, 1908, Malone, as chief constable, in cold blood shot and left for dead his assistant, Constable William Wilkins, the man whom, through his weakness of will, he had made an accomplice in a series of his robberies and incendiary outrages in the town. This came to an end at a trial that has interested half the Dominion; that was provocative of several small riots by those outside the Court House doors, who could not gain admission; in which thirty-four witnesses were summoned by the Crown and none for the defence, and in which Mr. George Tate Blackstock, K. C., Crown prosecutor, made an address to the jury lasting two and one-half hours, so powerful and so unanswerable that the gloom on the face of the prisoner and his young wife spread through the whole crowded court room. The tension came to an end when, in low tones, his Lordship pronounced sentence. Last December, at the trial for Malone's committal the crowd then present cheered when the Magistrate ruled against the accused. To-night only an empty silence possessed the room. Men spoke quietly. With covert movements women placed handkerchiefs to their eyes.

MALONE HAS COURAGE. In the centre of all stood in the dock the unfortunate man, facing his wife. He stood erect, as has been his habit all through the trial, his eyes in their shadowed hollows bright with grim resolve not to yield to weakness. But as his wife approached, tears in her eyes, and as Malone looked, suddenly his own filled. "Stop it," he cried, in rough haste. "I can't stand that. If you cry I'll be in an asylum in two weeks."

Today's proceedings were occupied entirely in the addresses of counsel to the jury. The Crown, represented by Mr. Blackstock, assisted by County Crown Attorney T. R. Slaght, K. C., and Mr. T. J. Agar, completed its case last night.

VERDICT WAS GUILTY. The jury left the room, and, returning at 7:37, the foreman reported a unanimous verdict of guilty. Sir William declined to allow a reserved case. The two indictments of arson and two of shopbreaking registered against Malone will never be tried.

Before passing sentence Sir William through the defence counsel privately asked if Mrs. Malone, who sat near the dock, would like to leave the court room. "No," she was overheard to answer. "I'll stop here; but I know he's not guilty."

Speaking for his client, in answer to the Judge's usual question before passing sentence, Mr. Kelly said he could offer no reason why the sentence should not be passed, but he asked that the sentence of the court be lenient for the sake of Malone's wife and four little children. The prisoner had been a gallant soldier in the South African campaign, serving eight years in the army in all.

HIS LORDSHIP'S CHARGE. "Archibald W. Malone," began the Judge, in a very subdued tone, "it gives me the greatest pain to perform my duty in this most regrettable case. As you other men have done their duty, and as I do mine, I think your defence has been conducted most ably. In so far as I could during the trial I protected you from wrong. As the trial progressed, however, I now admit the evidence forced into my mind the conclusion that the jury has reached. In order to make clear the sentence I am about to pass, I must review briefly the case. It is due to you and to the public to see the justice of my sentence. I have no doubt of the correctness and truthfulness of Constable Wilkins' evidence. That being so, the circumstances are plain. You were employed by this town as its trusted peace officer, sworn to protect its property and the lives of its people to the extent of the means at your disposal. Shortly after your appointment you recommended the appointment of Wilkins as your assistant, and on June 14 you began your crimes by entering Martin's store. At that stage, it seems to me, Wilkins had no idea what you were going to do, and only after you left the building discovered that you had fired it. You seemed to have secured some sort of mastery over his mind, yours being the stronger, and it is not unreasonable to suppose that he felt himself compromised and was afraid to tell. You made him a fellow-criminal with yourself. He did not profit by your evil deeds, but from the moment when he first failed to be a man and report the true origin of the Martin fire he seems to have played into your hands.

THE THOUGHT OF MURDER. "One of your crimes led to another, four were committed in a very short time, and then apparently you reached the conclusion that you could not rely on the silence of Wilkins for all time. With that thought in your mind the wicked thought that you would kill him. This on the night of Nov. 30 you deliberately plotted his death. The details of his meeting you by appointment have already been made clear. You knew that in coming to the meeting-place he would have to proceed along Norfolk street from his home. You preferred not to be seen with him, and waited in the shadow of a willow tree where he would pass, a lonely spot near the river. There, having made your plan, you told him a lie about mischievous boys in the park, and thus deceived him to a lonely spot in the park, and, with the assistance of an electric pocket light, under the pretence of looking for evil-doers, you made sure no witnesses were near. Then, you and your intended victim being all alone, you turned the light towards him as he peered into an outhouse. You fired one shot and missed him. You fired again, and the bullet penetrated his left eye. As he fell helpless to the ground, you deliberately fired four shots, three of them effective, into his back. Nothing but a kind Providence saved his life, and saved you from facing even a more serious charge than this. There was every deliberation on your part.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE. "In the longest penal servitude there is always a chance of the Executive exercising clemency and setting a man's sentence free, and though I cannot hold out to you any hope, I intimate that by your future life in confinement you may get the Executive to take a favorable view of your case. You are an educated man and have had a career in the public service. So much greater is your fall. Fortunately Providence has given your fellow-constable, Wilkins, a chance to atone for his part, and in saving him was equally kind to you. I would say to you, in all tenderness, to change your heart and light up at least the shadow of your future life's solitude. I have now to pass sentence upon you. It is that you be imprisoned for the rest of your natural life."

PRISONER GIVEN A WEEK. Malone, standing in the box, seemed unaffected. In the commanding manner which the townspeople say was so characteristic of him, and which went to make him one of the best policemen the town ever had, so far as the preservation of peace and the safety of the streets was concerned, he beckoned Mr. Kelly, his lawyer. Mr. Kelly asked the Judge for two days in which the prisoner might arrange his family affairs. The Judge assented readily. "Might I have a week, my Lord?" asked the prisoner in a firm and strong voice, his face uplifted and eager. "I want to arrange with my brother to care for my wife and children. It is not her fault, my Lord."

"That's right," quite right. You may have one week. It is a case where the innocent must suffer."

MR. BLACKSTOCK'S ADDRESS. Mr. Blackstock's address was spoken without a single reference to notes. With incisive clearness he built up circumstance upon circumstance against Malone, sweeping away in a breath the defence's attempts to discredit Wilkins and pick flaws in the Crown's witness' evidence.

CASE FOR THE CROWN. "A savage state of human society, a degraded state of human society, a low state of human society," went on the crown prosecutor. "That's what it means when with seven crimes in one community no one has been brought to justice for them. I say it is a blot on our institutions and our much-advertised civilization."

Dealing with the Wilkins' evidence, Mr. Blackstock argued that the witness had no need to tell the court that that night, but he did. "That the assault was premeditated," said the crown prosecutor, "was argued by the fact that Malone trumped up a story about disorderlies in the park."

"Undoubtedly," said the crown prosecutor, "the man that Mr. Barber saw was the assassin. It is for you gentlemen of the jury to say whether there was a difference between the two."

"There he was," said the lawyer, "there he was flustering, disconcerted, not knowing whether to go across the street or not. Were not these the actions of a man guilty of wrong-doing?"

Mr. Blackstock laid emphasis on the declarations made by Wilkins when "he saw his face mirrored in them." He chided the defence lawyer for his remarks about the Phoenix Club. "While everybody else was running

KITCHEN DANGERS WHY EVERY HOME NEEDS ZAM-BUK.

Burns, scalds, cuts, abrasions and scratches, are every-day occurrences in the kitchen, and a box of Zam-Buk kept handy & used immediately such injury is sustained will be found to save hours of suffering. For severe burns and scalds this balm is wonderfully effective. Mrs. Davis, of Earlsden Street, Coventry, says: "I was cooking one day when my clothes caught fire and I was badly burned about the legs. Zam-Buk relieved the agony, and although the burns were very deep, in a few days it healed them nicely."

Miss Martha Green, of Claremont Street, Toronto, in taking a pan of boiling fat from the oven spilt it over her right hand. The boiling fat ran over the palm of my hand," she says, "and over all my fingers. You may well imagine the agony I suffered in consequence. I was almost wild with the pain. The hand became swollen, and large blisters formed all over the palm and along the fingers. For over a month I was unable to use the hand at all. I tried several kinds of salves and ointments, but the wound seemed apparently no better. "About this time I was advised to try Zam-buk. I stopped using all other preparations, and applied Zam-buk instead. The very first application soothed my hand and seemed to draw out the fire and inflammation, and as I kept on using Zam-Buk, the blisters gradually dried up and disappeared. In a very short time the scald was healed completely."

The above are but a few instances of the varied uses to which Zam-Buk can be so advantageously applied. It is equally effective for cuts, bruises, abrasions, sprains and stiffness. It also cures eczema, ulcers, sores, blood-poisoning, ringworm, scap sores, chronic wounds, acne, blackheads, pimples, chafed places, chapped hands, cold sores, and all skin diseases and irritations. Rubbed well on the chest in cases of cold, it relieves the achings of influenza, nose, and applied as an embrocation it cures rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, etc. All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50 cents a box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Three boxes for $1.25.

HAMILTON TECHNICAL SCHOOL. Basing their claim on the fact that when opened the Hamilton Technical School will be available to students from all over the Province, a deputation of the trustees asked the Government yesterday to make an annual grant in aid of the institution. The deputation was received by Sir James Whitney, the Hon. Col. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, and the Hon. Dr. Pym, Minister of Education. It was pointed out to the representatives of the Administration that the city of Hamilton had already expended $60,000 in the erection of buildings, and that before the school was completely equipped the total cost would aggregate some $125,000. Taking this into consideration as well as the fact that the institution would be equally open to students from any part of the Province, the deputation expressed the opinion that the least the Government could do was to make a grant in aid of $5,000 a year. At the same time they stated the Government's attention to the fact that, although last year a sum of $2,000 was placed in the estimates for the use of the trustees in connection with the school, through some oversight the city had failed to take advantage of the vote. It was, therefore, asked that it should be again included in the estimates for the current year. The Premier promised that the facts as laid before the Government should receive consideration.

PURE MILK COMMISSION. Mr. W. K. McNaught, M. P. P. for North Toronto, intends to continue his campaign in favor of pure milk. Last year he endeavored to obtain legislation dealing with the matter, but his efforts, which direction were not successful. This session the "A" member for North Toronto will again call the attention of the Ontario legislators to the great need of ensuring the purity of the milk supply, but instead of promoting a bill he will move a resolution asking for the appointment of a commission to inquire into the whole subject. It is probable that the Government will accept this proposal, and that three commissioners will be chosen from outside the ranks of the Legislature to hold evidence.

LAWYERS IN AGREEMENT. Lawyers on both sides of the House were found to be in absolute agreement in regard to another amendment proposed by the Judges. The bill under discussion was the act respecting executions. The bill provided that executions from the higher County Court should be binding upon goods and land when the writ is handed to the Sheriff. Under the present Divisional Court practice an execution does not bind goods until the seizure is made. Messrs. MacKay, McDougall and Proudfoot, from the Opposition benches, strongly contended that under the proposed change no purchaser would be safe unless he had searched the Sheriff's office for executions, and in this view they were supported by Messrs. Nickle (Kingston) and Hearst (Sault Ste. Marie), and the clause was therefore allowed to stand over. Altogether fourteen bills passed the committee stage.

HOSPITAL GRANTS TOO SMALL. That patients in the public hospitals of Ontario are suffering because there is a lack of sufficient funds for the proper maintenance of these important institutions, was the statement made to the Hon. W. J. Hanna by a deputation representing the Ontario Hospital Association. The deputation asked that legislation should be passed compelling municipalities to contribute to the cost of the maintenance of patients sent by them to hospitals, and also raising the general grant from twenty cents a day to fifty cents.

WOMAN'S WAY. THIRTY SUFFRAGETTES ARRESTED AT WESTMINSTER. Among Them Were a Sister of Lord Lytton, a Niece of Lord Peel and a Daughter of Agent-General of Transvaal.

London, Feb. 24.—Every effort of the suffragettes to force the hand of the Government becomes more determined, and it is increasingly difficult to predict how their demands may be successfully parried. The situation has taken on an embarrassing aspect for the Government, owing to the high social position of many among some thirty or more women arrested this evening, these including Mrs. Pethick Lawrence; Lady Constance Lytton, sister of Lord Lytton, and daughter of the former Viceroy of India; Miss Stratford Dugdale, daughter of Commander Dugdale and cousin of Hon. Wm. R. Peel, who was elected yesterday in a by-election as member of the House of Commons for Taunton; Miss Daisy Solomon, daughter of the Agent-General for the Transvaal, and Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Corbett, an aristocratic supporter of the suffrage movement.

Both sides were well prepared for tonight's attempt on the part of the suffragettes to force themselves on Premier Asquith, who yesterday had declined by letter to receive the deputation. The women held "parliament" at Caxton Hall, and a number of them started on "dangery duty" in a solid phalanx, led by Mrs. Lawrence. The police, abandoning former tactics of barring the approach to the House of Commons, adopted the new plan of breaking up the procession close to Caxton Hall, and a number of them were arrested. It is understood that to-day it was in such shape that it met with the approval of all senators interested except Senators Smith of Michigan, and Nelson of Minnesota. They are now wrestling with the philosophy of the resolution. If it is whisked into a shape which is satisfactory to them, a resolution will be adopted as a prelude to actual ratification.

IT MAY PASS. WATERWAYS AGREEMENT BEFORE UNITED STATES SENATE. Senator Carter, of Montana, Interested in Seeing that Treaty is Ratified—Ambassador Bryce Intimates Canada is Becoming Restive.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—The effort to ratify the Canadian boundary treaty has taken on a new lease of life. Senator Carter, of Montana, has the new movement in hand. It develops that in spite of the quasi-agreement in executive session, the treaty may be passed at this session of the Senate. Senator Carter, as a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, has interested himself in seeing that the treaty is ratified. He made a partial roll of the Senate, and then reconciled some differences of opinion as to the meaning and effect of the treaty which had not been reconciled in the executive session discussion. His success in this connection prompted him to propose that a resolution be drawn and adopted which outlines, in a measure, the understanding and interpretation which the United States places upon some features of the treaty.

This resolution has been drawn and redrawn three or four times, and it is still a matter of dispute as to phraseology among the senators who are interested. It is understood that to-day it was in such shape that it met with the approval of all senators interested except Senators Smith of Michigan, and Nelson of Minnesota. They are now wrestling with the philosophy of the resolution. If it is whisked into a shape which is satisfactory to them, a resolution will be adopted as a prelude to actual ratification.

The admirers of piano music in this city have, for years, yearned for just one thing—that the great Paderewski would play here.

At the first appearance in "our midst," the wondrous pianist's form and features and talents were well known to every one present and it needed but his work at the piano to crystallize into being all the fancies that for years had been wrought about his alluring personality and playing.

It is being said that the hypercritical that the Polish pianist is losing his glamor along with some of his digital dexterity.

The immortal Beethoven's Sonata was listened to with rapt attention. Marvelous technique was manifested through the varied and intricate movements.

The Chopin numbers were played con amore, for Paderewski is evidently an ardent worshipper at Chopin's shrine.

The "Nocturne" was given with marked refinement. It was the playing of the technical difficulties of the works on that Paderewski had done, a sensuous charm being imparted to each, and the pianist was obliged to repeatedly bow his acknowledgments to the audience's enthusiastic applause.

The Liszt numbers but further increased the admiration for Paderewski's limitless art. The elaborate Concerto Study was a wonderful exhibition of technical skill, and there was nothing lacking to impress the audience with the player's profound mastery of the composition.

Although the end of the concert had come, the audience was loth to let the great artist go, and to continued applause he responded with a grandly-played number.

Gossip and Comment

Mr. Longboat, the speed merchant, who has been a guest of one of Hamilton's prominent citizens for the past few days, spent a pleasant time yesterday. At the request of Paderewski, who was presented to the eminent pianist, who evinced a deep interest in the native runner. The meeting was warm and cordial, but did not last long. Paderewski looked at Tom's long legs and Longboat looked at Paderewski's long hair, and the admiration was mutual. In the evening Longboat was taken to Bennett's Theatre, and he was given a warm welcome.

A Chicago paper says that Buffalo is the hot bed of the Marathon craze. The promoters of the Longboat-Shrubb affair are hot, all right, if that's what the Windy City writer means.

A writer in the New York World reads a timely and sportsmanlike lecture to his sporting fellow citizens. In a tone not previously known to the night of the I am impelled to deliver this admonition to the enthusiasts as a result of some happenings in the last few days. The Attell-Driscoll bout was a disappointment to the great majority of fight followers in the pit that was simply would not listen to anything but the native son, and who but their heads off accordingly, and of course were stung.

Now, here is where I want to make a mark. The whole atmosphere of the National Athletic Club over the night of the bout was anti-Driscoll. Johnny White, the manager, was sore on him, and expressed his opinion openly. Frank Farrell beat against him. Bill Devereux beat against him. Al Erlanger was on the Attell. The Commission never up to the thousands on Attell to my personal knowledge. And of course Big Tim Sullivan, who falls for almost anything and never had a winner since Johnny Mooney. Dorando came to the home, where with his head on Attell, the whole Sullivan bunch, as we say, was on "em. Above and beyond all, there was Hoodoo Tom O'Rourke in Attell's corner.

So you see it was hard for the crowd to swallow the pill that was handed to them when Driscoll made a mark of Attell.

The manner in which Driscoll disposed of his man should have satisfied them, if they were real sports, but instead of downing it like men, they were downed along with offers of $5,000, $10,000 and $15,000 for a finish fight, a fight of 86 rounds, and such other truck—and all of this while Driscoll is on the ocean blue. This exploitation of money or hot air or whatever it is called, is not a new thing to the offensive side of a fine sport. Why do it?

Of course, the offer is all rot—just as despicable as the original desire to rob Driscoll of what was his right, which I have every reason to believe was a convincing evidence to lead me to believe was the intent when he went into the ring with Attell. If pushed hard I may have to tell more of this.

Relating an instance of how little is really known by legislators on some subjects, John Corlett, in the London Sporting Times, says that a one time Chancellor of the Exchequer of England allowed himself to be placed on a race track, on the belief that it would yield a large revenue. The statesman argued that because on each race day from 50 to 100 horses ran there must be at least 50,000 horses in training. He was quickly convinced of his error by the crowd, that there were only about 4,000 horses in training, most of whom ran repeatedly in the course of a season, and then the tax was withdrawn.

Tom Longboat has got as far as Hamilton, and is talking now in monosyllables, instead of giving vent to the flow of oratory that characterized his marvellous speeches in Deseronto and Kingston. There may be some sane native talkers in the east, but whenever viewed this child of nature, T. Longboat, he never did more than grant, fearing to waste energy by even saying yes or no. He will get $5,000 per race by the sweat and by—London exchange.

THE BIG RACE TO-NIGHT

Dorando and Shrubb at Buffalo.

Englishman is Favorite in Betting.

Military Indoor Ball Games Last Night.

Buffalo, Feb. 25.—There will be a running race at the 74th Regiment armory to-night, and it promises to be some run, too. Tom Longboat won't be in it, but it will be a race for all that, and if Alf. Shrubb, the English champion, and Dorando, the Italian whirlwind, do not put up a stiffer fight at the fifteen miles than might have been expected had Tom been there instead, the great majority of athletic students in this neck of the woods will be greatly disappointed.

Dorando accompanied by his brother, Ulpiano Pietri, got in from St. Paul yesterday morning, and there was a captivating air of business about the Italian from the instant of his arrival. Barely taking time to register and breakfast at the Hotel Lafayette, he was off to the armory, and the manner in which he reeled off the laps for some thirty or forty minutes indicated that he had not lost his running legs when he defeated the five-man relay team in Minnesota on Monday night.

Talking through his brother as interpreter, the Italian said: "You bet I am glad to get this chance to race Shrubb. I should have been one originally chosen to meet him at fifteen miles. I only wish Longboat were going to start with us. If I am good at the Marathon, I am better at this distance. Buffalo saw me run more than this distance against the Indian not long ago. I'll do as good or better this time with Shrubb, and if I do not win, he will have to be a better man at fifteen miles than any I have seen run in America yet, and I've seen a few of 'em since I have been here."

Dorando's brother declared the runner fit to do his best. "He has been in splendid condition since he was in Buffalo on Jan. 24," he said. "We have been all over the West and South, and Dorando has not lost a relay or match in all that time. Longboat? He talks of getting tired out with a race or two now and then. How about this boy? Been running and ready to run. The Indian? Yes, that's true, he has the back of the chilly ones, you know, and he laughed.

Tom Murphy, who has been handling the Italian boy on his western tour, came in with the brothers. He is enthusiastic over Dorando's work while with him. "Say," he said, "this fellow's the real running wonder of the lot. I'll take my hat off to Shrubb if he beats him, but I honestly believe Dorando will turn the trick. He's not rushed in unprepared, you know. He is on his edge right now, and he will be a terrific surprise to Shrubb, see if he isn't."

Shrubb, coming to the armory to look over the preparations for to-night, arrived while Dorando was running about the miles as speed. He looked askance as the Italian tore off the miles as speed. "Say," said he, "I suppose it might be just my luck to have this fellow trim me now, after all my worry. Wouldn't that be simply rank?"

The Shrubb and Dorando and their managers began to talk about the track. Dorando said he would prefer to run the race right on the boards, but Shrubb demurred. They argued vigorously, and in the end the proposed track, on which work had already been started, was decided on. This will be a nine-lap affair, composed of dirt and other material, the same as that on which Dorando and Longboat ran their race. It will be finished this morning.

will not lack supporters at the armory. As for Longboat, his flunk was received about town, not with the indignation expected, but with a sort of contemptuous laugh, and the story of his cold feet was the joke all over the city yesterday. Out of hundreds of tickets sold for the race to-night, not half a dozen were returned yesterday, and the advance sale continued very briskly, subsequent to the announcement of the Dorando substitution, indicating a larger house to-night than when Dorando and Longboat ran. Further coils of fire on the Indian's head came in the announcement that, despite the fact that he would not appear, several excursions would be run from Canada for the race of to-night, even Port Colborne adding several hundred to the Toronto and Hamilton contingent. The armory will be decked out with its special seating arrangements, as accommodations for the race, and there will be 7,000 admission ticket holders in addition to the reserved seats.

SIMPSON'S FAST TIME.
Toronto, Feb. 25.—Fred Simpson, the big Peterborough Indian, is apparently all that Tom Eck, his manager and trainer, has claimed for him. At the Riverview rink last night Simpson smashed the five and ten miles records, covering the former distance in 23:35 and the latter in 52:30. ## MILITARY GAMES.

Soldiers' Ball Teams at the Armory.

Four games were played in session B of the Garrison Indoor Baseball League last evening before a small crowd. The games are worthy of better support, and it is up to the members of the regiments to turn out and help make the league a financial success. The schedule is about half played, and the teams are steadily gaining in playing good ball. Company 91st, did not turn up and the game went to the Fourth Field Battery by default.

One of the best games of the season was between the 91st and E company of the 91st. Both teams played fast ball from the start, and neither had an advantage of more than two runs at any stage of the game. The final score was, 17-17. The teams: 91st (17)—Blankstein, Johnson, Goe, Burton, Gillard, Davidson, Hill, Bain and Goe.
E company, 91st (17)—Dolman, Jones, Fogwell, Ebling, Lawrence, Lyle, Lamb, McWherter and Stevens.

D company, 91st (34)—Campbell, Craig, Patterson, McFarland, Cook, Cochran, Griffin and Prellip.
Crescent company, 91st (18)—Carter, Cummings, Burton, Bryce, Hutchison, Almas, Stevens, Anderson and Kirkpatrick.
A company, 91st, had very little trouble in defeating B company, 91st, the final score being 24 to 10 in their favor. The teams:
A company, 91st (24)—Copeland, Patterson, Gilmartin, Collingwood, White, Bowerman, Smith, Clemence and Pryke.
B company 91st (10)—Halewood, Harverson, Miller, Bedell, Miller, Pickett and Guest.

Knocking Down the Pins

At the H. B. & A. C. alleys last night seven league games were played—one in Class B and five in Class C. In class B the Grocers won from Wood-Vallance, the scores being as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Player Name, Score. Grocers: A. Williamson 127, J. A. Williamson 134, J. Torrance 137, W. Cann 188, T. Martini 184. Wood, Vallance & Co.: H. Browne 122, C. Palmer 102, C. McMahon 156, R. Ripley 125, H. Worth 172.

Canadians' Fine Showing

Villarsurroulon, Switzerland, Feb. 25.—In the international bonspiel, third round, McDiarmid 17, Smith, Annandale, 7, fourth round, McDiarmid 14, McCall, Patrick, 5. The Canadian is the only unbeaten rink.

CRICKET IN AUSTRALIA.

Picked Eleven Defeated Australian Team in First Test Match.

In the first trial match between the Australian eleven and a team made up from the rest of the cricketers of Australia, the representative team made a rather poor showing. The picked-up eleven made 311 runs, to which eleven men contributed double figures. Hazlett's 62 was the highest individual score, and then came Hopkin 55, Jardley 48, Gohrs 37, Barnes 34, Gorry 15, Simpson 13 and Kelleway (not out) 12. For the Australian eleven S. Gregory made 41, which was the highest score. McAlister 30, Macartney 28, Hansford 21, Armstrong 19 and Carter 19. The "rest" team in Boston made 107 runs. The fielding of the All Australian team was patchy. O'Connor, who took six wickets, maintained a good length.

MRS. WADDELL AFTER "RUBE"

Peabody, Mass., Feb. 25.—When Mrs. Waddell, the noted pitcher, learned yesterday that her husband had started divorce proceedings in St. Louis, she was somewhat surprised. Mrs. Waddell was an abandonment-of-wife nature, prevented "Rube" from playing with his team in Massachusetts last season, it has been claimed. Mrs. Waddell is authorized to play with the team in Boston, and "Rube," it is possible, saw his way clear to obey orders, via the divorce court route. There he will run up against a snag, for Mrs. Waddell says she will not consent. Also she says: "I'm waiting for George when he comes to Massachusetts."

SHORT ENDS

Little Paragraphs of Sport From Far and Near.

London, Feb. 25.—The Canadian curlers and Lord Strathcona were entertained by the London Caledonian Club at the Trocadero. J. G. Carmichael presided. Sir J. H. Maxwell was present. The Caledonians gave the visitors the warmest welcome.
Albany, Feb. 25.—A bill to permit six-round boxing contests in Buffalo, authorized by the board of aldermen or common council was introduced to-day by Assemblyman Cuvillier. A permit must be signed by the mayor and the application for a permit must be accompanied by a physician's certificate that both boxers are in physical condition to undergo the ordeal.
New York, Feb. 25.—W. V. Lyles, charged with violating the so-called Locke anti-racing law, in the recent trial at the City Park track, was 3-day probation in the Criminal District Court. Sentence was deferred, pending the trials of Edward Corrigan and W. S. Heaslip on the same charge.
Col. Jack Chinn, chairman of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, says: "The Lottoria Jockey Club, what Charles Thomson, for the Nippers, scoring all their points from different plays. The rest of the team did not support these two and lost their game."

BASKETBALL GAMES.

Shamrocks Won From the Quicksteps 4 to 3.

In the Junior Basketball League at the Y. M. C. A. last night the Shamrocks won from the Quicksteps by a score of 4 to 3, and jumped into the lead, holding it, though, only by one game.
The second game was won by the Wanderers from the Nippers. Score 4 to 3. The feature of this game was the grand showing made by Jim Strong and Charlie Thomson, for the Nippers, scoring all their points from different plays. The rest of the team did not support these two and lost their game.
In the Senior League the Actives won from the Thinkers 9 to 4, and the Crescents defeated the Rovers by 15 to 9. Both these games were exciting, the playing of Les. Slater and R. Stanley McCormack being of the sensational class.
FOR JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP.
The game that will decide the junior Canadian championship will be played in the local Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to-morrow night at 8 o'clock, between Toronto West End Y. M. C. A. and the Boys' Club first team, the latter holding the Canadian championship for the past seven years, save one. To begin with the local boys have six points to make up, for that is what they were defeated in Toronto. This was the first defeat the local boys have met, while Toronto have swept everything before them.

TO PUT PRO. LACROSSE ON A BUSINESS BASIS.

Toronto, Feb. 24.—The idea of putting professional lacrosse on the same basis as baseball is by no means a new one. Every spring since the N. L. U. was made professional has it been talked of, with the same result. The players are still fixtures on the teams they played with the previous year, or they quit the game for good.
The transfer of players, as in baseball, is a hobby of Manager Querre, of the Tecumsehs, and while in the east he is doing his level best to bring the eastern clubs to his way of thinking. He has been east before and has talked in the same strain as he is talking now. Thus far the only impression he has made is to make the eastern magnates suspicious that he wants some of their best players.
The transfer of players from the players' standpoint, is all right. It would tend to increase their salaries, and the management imagine, by a shake-up of the players occasionally, the interest of the spectators will be increased, and hence bigger gates. Until, however, the lacrosse, like baseball, is played every day, there will not be enough money to make lacrosse a financial success with players. And anyone who knows lacrosse also knows it is a little too strenuous to be played any more than once a week to bring out the best that is in the players.
The idea of transfer of players is one that will force smaller towns like Cornwall to suspend business. Cornwall cannot draw the crowds that go to see a game in Montreal or Toronto. This being the case, how are they to keep going? True, the N. L. U. could do without Cornwall, but it would be wiping out of existence one of the best lacrosse towns in the Dominion.

There are things that can be said in favor of the transfer system, but they are far outweighed by the things that can be said against it. It is to be hoped for the general welfare of the game that it never comes to pass.
Harshaw says "No." Manager Murphy says "Yes" when asked if the former will be on the Toronto line-up. Harshaw's retirement would be a distinct loss to the game.
Capt. Warwick, the speedy home player of Toronto, has been mentioned for a trip west, but it is likely he will be induced to turn out again with the Rosedalers.
Donaldson, the former Chippewa player, and sidekick of Graydon and Griffiths, witnessed the game last season at the Island between the Toronto and Tecumsehs, and remarked that Ernie Menary, the Toronto captain, was the best defence man on the field. Whether or not this is correct, Ernie is a daisy, and will be Murphy's right bower again this season.
Probably the only representative this year on the Toronto line-up from St. Catharines will be Pete Barnett. He has now been three seasons with Toronto and has proven himself one of the best all-round men on the home that has ever been brought forward. Pete

KELLY-THOMAS BOUT TO-NIGHT.

New York, Feb. 25.—When Hugo Kelly and Joe Thomas meet in a 10-round bout at the Fairmont A. C. to-night there will be plenty of betting. The men will enter at about 160 pounds, and both will wear the ring in tip-top condition, they say. They have never fought before, but, judging from their respective performances, they are pretty evenly matched. Kelly, an Italian by birth, and a resident of Chicago, at one time proclaimed himself the middleweight champion of America, but not until Fitzsimmons and Ryan were back numbers. Kelly tackled Bill Packer, and was trimmed. Then the Italian ran up against Ketchell and was put away with a great wallop on the jaw.
Thomas was regarded as a wonderful pugilist by Californians. He had beaten three times in succession by Ketchell. But in each instance he made things interesting for the middleweight champion while the bout lasted. The fact that Ketchell was once knocked out by Packer is used as an argument that Kelly and Thomas are not far behind Ketchell in point of pugilistic merit.

PRINCE DROWNED.

Santa Cruz, Tenerife, Feb. 25.—Prince Casimir Sapienta-Kodenski, of a noted Austrian line, was drowned off here yesterday. He was heir to great estates in Galicia. He and his brothers, Prince Leon and Prince Alexander, were thrown from a boat, which accidentally capsized. His brothers were rescued. Prince Casimir was born in 1882.
Nearly £300,000,000 of British capital was invested in Canada in 1908.

FRUIT MEN ARE HERE

Discussing Grievances With the Express Company Officials.

The Companies Object to Making Changes in Contract, And Railway Board Will Likely Have the Say.

At the Board of Trade rooms this morning the Niagara District Fruit Growers' Association's committee met the representatives of the express companies to consider certain conditions in the contract the companies hold with the shippers.

Mr. A. E. Kimmins, vice-president and chairman, J. Bryce, wine-producer and general manager of the Canadian Express Company; W. Williamson, superintendent of tariffs; E. Allan, superintendent; G. W. Hickey, route agent; J. F. Bryce, assistant to the general manager; R. G. Wilson, general agent at Toronto; W. Walsh, of Toronto, and C. A. Dobson, agent at this city for the Dominion Express Company, were the representatives present.

The meeting was the aftermath of the meeting held in the Waldorf Hotel on Friday last, when the special committee of the Niagara Fruit Growers' Association drew up several clauses that it wished the companies to adopt. The idea was to reach an understanding before the matter is taken before the Railway Commission.

Major Roberts, for the association, wanted to know what the companies intended to do for the fruit growers. Mr. Bryce, speaking for the representatives of the companies, said that he did not like the demands of the fruit growers, but they had come together for the purpose of conferring with them, and to that end he asked that the proposed clauses be read separately.

The contract was then read, and Mr. Bryce took a strong objection to the changing of the existing agreement, as any alteration might be considered a discrimination. Mr. Kimmins wanted to know who owned the Canadian Express Company, and Mr. Bryce said that most of the stock was owned by the Grand Trunk Railway. He made it plain that the express companies have no control over the operation of the fruit trains, and it was a responsibility that the express companies were not ready or willing to accept.

Major Roberts was of the opinion that as fruit is a perishable commodity, there should be a special contract for shippers. This was not accepted by Mr. Bryce, who held that the companies had other perishable freight beside fruit to carry, and he went on to say that fruit was only a small portion of the amount of freight carried during the year.

The better part of the morning was taken up on the question of the adjustment of claims. The fruit growers proceeded to go after the officials, who had a warm time for a while, many of the members of the association taking a crack at the officials. Some thought that the companies did all they could to shelve claims made by the growers.

The officials of the company took strong exception to these statements, especially Mr. Walsh, of the Dominion Express Company, who defied any man to prove that his company had ever shelled any reasonable claim. He said that he personally went over every claim presented to the company, and if the claim was reasonable it was promptly paid and no questions asked. Some of the fruit growers were willing to admit that the Dominion Express Company was more reasonable in its adjustment of claims than the Canadian Express Company.

This brought the officials of the latter company to their feet, and Mr. Bryce said that all reasonable claims were given prompt attention. Some of the growers said that they had claims against the company which dated back some years, and they had not been able to get a settlement as yet, and some of them even went so far as to state that they had seen baskets of fruit stolen by employees of the company.

Mr. Bryce said he had no control over the private actions of the individuals. Going further, Mr. Bryce said that in 1907 the Canadian Express Company had 750 claims and paid out $1,638.12 on them. He would not admit, however, how many other claims the company received. He charged the shippers "in many instances with gross carelessness in the putting up of the fruit and the flimsy construction of the baskets. He said that the company had always had a supply of baskets on hand at the different centres, for the purpose of putting the fruit in when the baskets became broken. Yet the fruit growers were not willing to make any acknowledgment of that fact.

In reply to Major Roberts, Mr. Bryce said that the companies would not consent to confining the settlement of claims to 30 days, and having interest accrue at 5 per cent. for all time over that period, for at the present time the contract covers all classes of merchandise and cannot be confined to fruit growers alone.

At this point Major Roberts suggested an adjournment until this afternoon, to discuss the rest of the proposed clauses.

MARRIED IN CATHEDRAL. A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's Cathedral by the Rev. Father Lyles on Monday morning, when Charles William Doherty, of Binbrook, and Sarah Foster, of Caistorville, were married. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of immediate friends and relatives. The numerous congratulations extended to the groom and the many gifts presented to the bride showed the high esteem and affection in which they are held by their host of friends.

Percy Dean, John street south, was arrested on a warrant to-day, charged by Amy Hands with seduction. Constable Brown made the arrest. The girl is under sixteen years of age.

The Hamilton Debating League is holding its third and fourth debates of the series in the schoolrooms respectively of St. Paul's and St. John Presbyterian Churches to-night.

Miss K. Loosley, one of the teachers at Stinson Street School, fell on the sidewalk near the school on Tuesday and broke both bones of one leg. She will be laid up for a considerable length of time.

The officers of the Girls' Home have been informed that some one is soliciting subscriptions for the institution in the north end of the city. No one has a right to do so. The Society has no canvassers out.

James Morgan, of this city, is exhibiting at the annual agricultural exhibition of the Toronto Agricultural Society and Gardeners' and Florists' Association. His Princess violets are proclaimed by the Toronto papers to be particularly fine specimens.

For the concert and minstrel show by the Knox Church Young Men's Union to-morrow night, ticket holders are reminded that the doors will be opened at 7 p. m. sharp, and the concert will commence at 8.15. There will be a seat for every ticket sold.

The Paardeburg Chapter, I. O. O. E. will give an at-home on Paardeburg Day, Feb. 27th, from 4 to 6 o'clock, in the new Armories, through the courtesy of the officers of the Thirteenth and Ninety-first Regiments. Admission 25c in aid of the fund of the Chapter.

Col. Bertram, Dundas, commanding the 3rd Infantry Brigade, and Col. Rennie, of the Army Medical Corps, left last evening to attend the meetings of the Dominion Rifle Association at Ottawa.

Mr. Hinman has returned from her visit to Boston, Newark, N. J., Washington, D. C., and New York, and is prepared to give greater bargains than ever this week to make room for the beautiful new styles, the result of her visit to that great millinery centre.

Rev. Canon Cody, of Toronto, will give a lecture in the conservatory of Music on March 17, under the auspices of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society. The annual sermon to the society will be preached in St. Thomas' Church on the following Sunday evening.

A very pleasant social evening was spent at the residence of Miss Estelle Carey, Queen street south, when about thirty of her friends were present and enjoyed themselves in games, etc. Dainty refreshments were served, and taken altogether the evening was a delightful one.

Mr. Lutes, manager of the curtain, drapery and house decoration department at the Right House, has returned from a New York buying trip. Mr. Lutes promises Right House patrons many new and exclusive ideas in decoration schemes in different styles and periods for the coming season.

Mr. M. A. Lewis has received instructions to enter an appeal in the case of Miss O'Rourke, who was acquitted by the Police Magistrate yesterday morning. The case will be of interest to theatrical and show managers, as the effect of the ruling is that a man can stand in the lobby as long as he likes if he is not drunk or noisy. The case will be heard on March 10.

Miss Hannah O'Rourke Receives a Nice Legacy. Miss Hannah O'Rourke, who resides at 150 Jackson street east, this city, has just come into a snug little fortune of no mythical, fabulous millions, but real California gold.

Forty or fifty years ago a family emigrated from old Ireland to America, a part settling in the United States and others coming to Canada. One of the boys who had learned the trade of shipbuilding, went to California. One sister came to Hamilton and raised a family. Patrick McCarthy, for that was the shipbuilder's name, died a few months ago in California and left a fortune of $50,000 or more to be divided among his relatives, giving to each $5,000 in gold, besides remembering the Roman Catholic Church, of which he had been a faithful member. He selected the priest of his parish to divide up the legacies among his relatives so that there would be nothing lost in litigation or charges for administration.

Patrick McCarthy's sister, who lived in Hamilton, died a few years ago, leaving one daughter, Miss Hannah O'Rourke, Jackson street. A few days ago Miss O'Rourke received notice from the California priest that her uncle had remembered her in his will to the amount of $5,000 in gold.

FROST AND WIND. Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 25.—The mercury sank 35 degrees last night, but the cold to-day comes from a 64-mile an hour wind.

INDIAN LIST DOES NOT HOLD GOOD.

first notice, if the men themselves were served, but His Worship said it was not right to do this. The Inspector had nothing to do with supplying the hotel-keepers with a list. He should serve the notices on them personally, and the hotel-keepers could keep a list taken from the notices if they wanted to, but that was only for their own protection, and was their own business. As the matter stands now any hotelkeeper can serve liquor to any person whose name is on his list if no individual notice was served on him in regard to that particular name.

The case against the Commercial Hotel was dismissed. Inspector Birrell has not completely lost hope, and will get to work to get the list out to the satisfaction of Magistrate Jeffs.

Inspector Birrell learned a lot about the night from Police Magistrate Jeffs, and a lot of the men whose names are on the list thought they had learned something new this morning.

One "Indian" who had paid a couple of twenty dollar fines into court lately for getting drunk applied to the court to have his money returned to him. It was getting driven home to him that under the city-by-laws Magistrate Jeffs can fine a man as high as $50 for being drunk. He passed through the doors murmuring his thanks that he was not soaked.

Constable Cameron is continuing his roundup of young girls who walk the streets all night, hang around in bad company, drinking, smoking, etc. This morning there were three girls in the dock, Lillie Berg, 88 Aurora street, seventeen years of age; Clara Martin, 67 Robert street, nineteen years of age; and Maggie Carney, 67 Robert street, twenty-one years of age, according to what they told the deskman when they were arrested late last night. The charge against them was vagrancy, and they all pleaded not guilty. P. C. Cameron said he had seen them in the streets at the night with tough characters, and when he arrested them last night they were drinking in a hotel with some cigarettes in front of them. Several other officers corroborated this. Lillie Berg insisted that she was more than twenty-one years of age, but the officers said she was not. She is on parole from the Alexandra Home, Toronto, and back there she will go for an indefinite term, which may mean anything from a year up to several or many. The other two girls were deemed too old for reformation at the Alexandra Home and they were sent to the Mercer for an indefinite term, which is governed by conduct, the same as the term of the Berg girl.

Cecil Shannon, Peterboro, and a lady friend, Lottie Dawson, of Toronto, had a happy jag on last night, and it cost them $5 each. Cecil and Lottie are twenty-eight and thirty years old, respectively, and they thought they were old enough to leave home before they left Toronto, they both got some booze and Cecil stocked up a suitcase with a load of "suds." When the train from Toronto arrived here, shortly before one o'clock this morning, they got off and waited for the train to Buffalo, two hours later. Cecil slept on a bench in the ladies' waiting room and his friend patrolled the station platform, smoking innumerable cigarettes. G. T. R. Constable Durock spoke to the woman and told her to go in and get to sleep as she was making a show of herself. She seemed inclined to obey him and walked in and looked at her sleeping son-in-law, who was snoring ungracefully. Toronto booze doesn't agree with you people," ventured the railway officer.

"Oh, it don't, eh? Well, Toronto women won't agree with you," said the woman, as she slapped Durock on his favorite dimple. The officer tried to grab her, but he stood no show. It was like a suffrage to see a woman in a few minutes in the waiting room and to get them off the train and into a waiting patrol. Constable Campaign was insulted by the woman, who called him a "long-legged Irishman," and added other choice things. This morning at Police court Shannon was charged with being drunk and with disturbing the peace. The latter charge was dropped, and he was fined $5 for being drunk and disorderly. The woman faced the same charge and smiled as she pleaded guilty. She was dealt with likewise.

The charges against Louis Nyman, charged with assaulting little Pauline Spayer, who formerly worked under him at Thornton & Douglas' shop, was dismissed.

John Kirkpatrick, charged with stealing a book from Eugene DuBois, appeared and said he had returned. The book was dismissed, but the young man will have to pay $5 counsel fee to the Crown Attorney.

MRS. GREEN'S SON Will Share and Share Alike With His Sister in Mother's Money.

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 25.—E. H. Green, son of Mrs. Betty Green, was asked last night if the surprise in New York that he had received no invitation to his sister's wedding was correct. He replied: "The rumor is erroneous. I was not slighted in the matter of an invitation. The marriage date of my sister was decided upon rather suddenly. It takes four days for such mail to reach me. I was surprised at the sudden marriage, but had no objection to it."

"The reports that my mother intends to bestow her property exclusively on Sylvia when she dies are untrue. The property is to be divided between us, share and share alike."

Mr. Green is kept busy looking after his Texas Midland Railway, large land interests and a $2,000,000 life insurance company, which he and other Dallas capitalists are promoting, and which is about ready to start business.

GOOD ONES TO-NIGHT. The City Indoor Baseball League expects a record attendance to-night at the Armory Ring when two games will be played. The Saints are out to beat the Scoundrels in the second game. Casey's men have won their last three games and they have further strengthened for to-night. The first contest will be at 8 o'clock. The admission is only ten cents to both games.

Notices of Births, Marriages and Deaths which are inserted in the Daily Times also appear in the Semi-weekly Times. 50c first insertion; 25c for each subsequent insertion.

GIFT FROM CZAR

To Y. M. C. A.—John R. Mott Going to St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 25.—Emperor Nicholas has given $2,500 to the Russian Young Men's Christian Association, founded in this city by Anson Phelps Stokes, of New York.

John R. Mott, general secretary of the world's student Christian Federation of New York, is expected here next Saturday. He will deliver a series of lectures under the auspices of the federation in St. Petersburg, Moscow and Dorpat.

ICE CUTTERS, BEWARE!

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 25.—On the charges of cutting a dangerous opening in the ice on the bay three ice dealers appeared in the police court this morning, a fourth who had been summoned, failed to show up. Counsel for the accused asked that those be dismissed with a warning, but the magistrate said he could not do that, but would impose a fine of $1 and costs of 20 days.

FLOOR COLLAPSED.

An accident that might have had serious results occurred at the Wood Milling Company's property on Main street east this morning, when the floor over the alley for a space of ten feet from the front wall, and the width of the alley, collapsed, and fell to the ground, with several hundred bags of flour. It was fortunate that no wagon was in the alley at the time, for the weight of the flour was sufficient to have crushed a team.

Young Men and Women.

Many of the young men and women who patronize the Thistle Skating Rink regularly are beginning to regret the fact that the season will soon be over. However, they are determined to cut out other attractions and take in the Thistle as long as the skating lasts. The rink plays a variety of pieces, and there are two hours of the finest exercise with it. Go to-night and you will want to go again.

GUILTY OF FORGERY.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 25.—In the Police Court this morning, John Dundas, of Peterboro, pleaded guilty to forging the names of several persons to two applications for veterans land grants. Dundas, who was formerly a fireman at Brantford, was at the time of his arrest an applicant for a position on Toronto force.

He was sentenced to six months in the Central Prison.

The Geological Section will meet to-morrow evening.

HARD COAL $6.00 PER TON

Are we downhearted? Well, guess not. Why should we be when we are getting new customers every day and every one is more than satisfied with the coal we are giving them. Just think of it: Only $6.00 per ton for the best Hard Coal on the market. Why so cheap as $6.00? We mine our own coal, therefore we can sell cheaper.

SOME LATE SPORTING ITEMS

Kingston, Ont., Feb. 25.—(Special)—Queen's Intermediate Hockey players are about the best aggregation of hockeyists in the country. Not only are they down and out in the inter-collegiate series, but they have been summoned to play before the college hockey executive to answer to the charge of displaying excessive roughness in their recent game against McGill II.

The local students claimed that they were ill-treated at Montreal and were only "getting even."

KICK FROM COREANS

Honolulu, Feb. 26.—At a convention held by 300 Corean residents of the Island of Hawaii, the following message was drafted and cabled to the Emperor of Japan: "We proclaimed that the wars between Japan and China and Japan and Russia were for Corean independence and to insure peace in the Orient. We now learn that negotiations for the annexation of Corea by Japan are under way. We assert that such negotiations are unauthorized and we beg your Majesty to prevent such annexation and to assure Corean independence."

GEO. FOX RETURNING.

There is a possibility that George Fox, Canada's own violinist, and who is dear to the hearts of Hamilton music-lovers, will come here some time in May, and with C. Percival Garbutt, give a violin and organ recital. Mr. Garbutt is in communication with Mr. Fox at the present time. Mr. Fox will return from his Southern tour in May.

BEVAN ACQUITTED.

George Bevan, whose trial occurred yesterday afternoon, at Oakville before Magistrate Shields, was honorably acquitted of the charge of stealing some bed clothes from the Murray Hotel. His Worship held there was no evidence of intention to steal the clothes, and, on the contrary, the evidence had shown clearly that he had simply taken the clothes from one room to another for the accommodation of the guests. A. C. Cameron, of Toronto, appeared for the private prosecutor, Mrs. Hayes, and S. D. Biggar, K. C., was present on behalf of Bevan.
