

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

This is Ash Wednesday. No foreign mails have been received in this city since Saturday last.

A London despatch says Dillon was to start for Australia on Friday last.

The Chicago and Lady Tupper arrived in New York from Bremen, in the steamer fleet, on the last.

P. J. FORAN is offering extraordinary bargains in custom clothing. See his advertisement in another column.

The appointment of Sir Julian Pauncefote, as British Minister to the United States, is now officially confirmed.

That being Ash Wednesday, High Mass was celebrated in St. Dunstan's Cathedral at 10 o'clock, and the solemnity was distributed in the assembled congregation.

The Sunday, after being thoroughly overhauled, left Georgetown for Pictou on Monday morning last. She did not reach Pictou till ten o'clock yesterday forenoon, and is expected back to Georgetown about noon to-day.

A fire at Marlborough, Ont., on the night of the 28th ult., completely destroyed the house occupied by Mrs. Collins, an elderly widow, and her two children. The remains of Mrs. Collins were found burnt to a crisp.

A Mr. McCann, of Lot 47, had a valuable horse on the other day, and the owner, on account of the peculiar manner of her death, examined the animal and found the death was caused by a piece of wood about two inches long, which was imbedded in the lining of the heart.

BUTTERFIELD says all on the go. The latest was a large and lively one caught by Master Michael Clarke, by the name of last week, and who is anxious to have people look at his good fortune. Michael tended carefully for a few days, but by some misfortune he has lost his much admired prize.—Cook.

A LONDON despatch of the 4th inst. says: The rumored conflict between the German gunboat Olga and an American man-of-war, tubed off from Kiel last night, can be traced to no authentic source. In Berlin, up to noon to-day, no official information of such an affair had been received by the Government.

Mrs. McLean, of Lot 47, had a valuable horse on the other day, and the owner, on account of the peculiar manner of her death, examined the animal and found the death was caused by a piece of wood about two inches long, which was imbedded in the lining of the heart.

TURKISH electric lamps have been placed in St. Dunstan's Cathedral, two in the body of the church, the other in the vestibule, which are an incomparable improvement in the lighting of the building. The inside ones light the church that one can read in any part of it, while that in the vestibule sheds a brilliant light not only on the entrance, but also on the surroundings and approaches of the Cathedral.

MONDAY last, the 4th inst., was inauguration day at Washington. President Harrison and Vice-President Morton were sworn in in the Senate Chamber of the Capitol. The city was thronged with people, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. It is estimated that not less than a quarter of a million people joined in the cheering which greeted the new President as he passed from the Capitol to the White House.

Quite an animated debate was held by the St. Peter's Bay Debating Club on the 28th ult. The subject for discussion was, "Which has caused the most misery to mankind—the evil of war or those of intemperance." The subject was well and logically debated, all possible points being brought up by the various speakers. The principal debaters were Daniel Morrison, Dr. McDonald, D. Lawson, C. Wags, J. Landrigan, J. Boaly and Geo. Cook.

The St. Patrick's Day Celebration, by the benevolent Irish society of this city, was held on the 4th inst. and was unusually successful this year. This Society deserves every encouragement; for over fifty years it has been doing a good work in our midst. In its benevolent work of visiting the poor and sick and burying the dead, it has never been or is not now, a credit to our city or our country. We therefore trust the celebration will be crowned with every success, so that the members may be encouraged to continue their charitable offices among the afflicted.

In the proper column of the Herald, to appear, will be found a notice of the marriage of Mr. David Lewis to Annie G. McCormick, both of Cardigan Bridge. Mr. Lewis is a son of Wm P. Lewis Esq., Collector of Customs, at that place, and is proprietor of extensive marble works. Miss McCormick has for many years been organist of All Saints Church, and has been a universal favorite in the community of Cardigan. The Herald extends to the young couple hearty congratulations, and trusts that their wedded life may be one of happiness and prosperity.

A fire broke out in the F. E. Island Hospital about 10 o'clock on the 28th inst. It caught in the Upper story from a bad fire, and before being discovered it had burnt through the roof and was under way. Word was telegraphed to the Chief of the Fire Department, and a very short time's hose reel was brought up to the building. Unfortunately, some delay was caused by the bursting of the hose, which gave the fire time to develop. As soon as the hose had been remedied and a stream of water had been brought under control, the roof of the old wing of the building was badly damaged, but the new one was only slightly damaged. There were some severe patients in the hospital at the time; they were removed to adjoining houses. The building was insured for $2,000, and the furniture for $500.

ANOTHER successful entertainment was given, under the auspices of the League of the Cross, in St. Patrick's Hall, on Wednesday evening last. The overture was played by Mr. Thomas O'Brien. The selection was played by Mr. Thomas O'Brien. The selection was played by Mr. Thomas O'Brien.

The members of the St. Dunstan's College (High and Dramatic Clubs) take this opportunity of thanking those of their friends in Marlborough who entertained them in such right royal style on the occasion of their visit to the Herald. They are also ever so much obliged to James Ross, Esq., who kindly allowed them the use of his excellent organ.

The Herald is kept on file in the office of the New York Printing & Advertising Co., Equitable Building, 96 Broadway, New York.

HORSE TOPICS.

By TACKHAMER.

There were some errors of the type in my contribution of last week, such as "woman" for "wonder," "Asterisk" for "asteroid," and "the Duke of Edinburgh" for "the Duke of Edinburgh."

The most fashionably-bred trotting horse in the Maritime Provinces, and probably in the Dominion, is Precursor, owned by Messrs. C. C. Gardner and B. Hoar, of Pictou, N. S.

Precursor is a good chestnut, with four white stockings, and a stripe. The objectionable markings are not hereditary, but are rather an accident of nature, and may not be transmitted to any great extent.

Precursor's pedigree fairly bristles with turf performers and speed performers. His sire, Nutwood, stands higher in public estimation to-day, probably, than any other living stallion, if we except, perhaps, Electioneer. He has twenty-five representatives in the 230 list, nine of which entered last season, and his own record is 2:18.

Nutwood is by Belmont, one of the greatest producing sires of the day. His dam is a daughter of the great Manbrino Chief, and his dam is the peerless Manbrino Chief, bred by the late Sir John Lubbock, and owned by the late Sir John Lubbock.
