TOWN TOPICS.

G. C. Robertson, East-st., is giving great bargains in all kinds of Christmas goods. Beautiful oil chrome pictures framed in walnut size 22 x 30 for $1.25 each.

I now have my next store formerly occupied by Mr. Campbell, filled with a variety of stoves which I shall sell cheap for cash. Just received a car load of oil.—G. N. DAVIS.

If you want your friends to thoroughly appreciate you when you make your New Years call, bring a series of photos by Sallow's with you, and place a life-like picture of yourself in each of their albums.

"One of the finest photographs I ever saw,"
was lately turned out at Johnson's Gallery.
The same remark would also apply admirably to some very fine frames just received, at the first price gallery. Geo. S. Robson, Manager.

Isn't this "January thaw" a little "too previous"?

Mr. Samuel Papp has returned from Michigan, U. S.

Mr. R. Rich, who has been at Quebec,
for several months, has returned.

Mr. John McGillivray who has been very ill of fever is progressing favorably.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay, of Detroit, are visiting their sister, Mrs. D. A. Fraser.

Miss McMahon will sever her connection with St. David's Ward school to-day.

Capt. Albert Sheppard has returned home after his season's sailing on the lakes.

Miss M. Watson, daughter of Mr.
Alex. Watson, florist, has been ill for some time.

Mr. Horace Newton late of the Square, intends opening out at Porters' Hill. We wish him success.

Miss Fannie Williams has returned from London, to spend the Xmas vacation at home.

Miss Maggie Wilkinson who has been in Toronto for some time, returned on Wednesday last.

Mr. Tom Dancy, jr., who has been plowing the raging main" during the summer, is wintering in town.

Do not forget the Christmas Boat to be held in the M. E. church this evening.
Admission 10c; children 5c.

On Monday last John Brohmman, of the Maitland House, was fined $20 and costs for selling liquor on Sunday.

Mr. Fred Macdonald, who has been spending a term at Trinity College, Toronto, has returned home for the holidays.

Mr. John Doyle, son of Mr. James Doyle, express man, has retired from a seafaring life and is in the R. E. employ, Bay City.

A great number of persons, from Sea-forth and other towns, came to attend the religious services in the Gaelic Church on Sunday last.

Capt. McLeod, who left some time ago for southern California, for the benefit of his health, writes home, that he has improved very much.

The wreck of the schooner Malta which went ashore at Bayfield was sold to Mr. Lee, of Goderich, for the sum of $500, on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. James Cox, Goderich T. P., has been quite ill at the residence of his non-in-law Mr. Geo. Campbell, Stanley St., but recovered sufficiently to be taken home.

HYMENEAL.—We offer our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller, who were married on the 19th inst.
They are at present the guest of Capt. J.
R. Miller.

Rev. Jeffrey Hill's lecture in St.
George's church school room on Thursday evening last was accounted a very entertaining and able effort by those who heard it.

Our issue of last week has run out,
and we would be obliged to any of our subscribers who will return us a copy of THE STAR of that issue, needed for office purposes.

Mr. E. Hoskar, late of Brandon, left Goderich on Monday last taking with him to his new home his daughter Nellie and Mrs. Matheson his mother-in-law by his first marriage.

GETTING MORE POPULAR.—The Fisk
Jubilee Singers gave a concert in Paris on Tuesday evening last, when over 200 were turned away, unable to get into the hall. Secure your seats early.

Mr. Philip Holt, of the firm of Cameron, Holt & Cameron, presided at the Seaford Division Court on Saturday last, in the absence of Judge Toms, who was engaged at the Quarter Sessions.

The Masonic bodies of the town intend celebrating the festival of St. John with their annual supper and literary entertainment in the Albion Hotel, on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 27th.

Among the names of the ladies forming the chorus of the Winnipeg Oratorio Society we observe that of Mrs. F. S.
Hick, formerly of Goderich. There are several musical ladies and gentlemen from Goderich in Winnipeg.

We are sorry to chronicle the death of Miss Maude, second eldest daughter of our esteemed citizen Mr. T. Weather-
ald. Although ailing for some time, no serious results were feared until the sudden attack the day previous to her death.

Services will be held in St. Peter's and
St. George's Churches on Christmas Day. The Masses at St. Peter's will be as follows: Grand Mass at 5.30 a. m.
Second Mass (low) immediately after,
and High Mass at the usual hour on Sundays, 10.30 a. m. Vespers and Benediction at 7 p. m.

The tender of Mr. James Imrie, for supplying the periodicals to the Mechanics' Institute for 1883, was accepted by the Directors.

Mr. Frank Lawrence, of Goderich, District Deputy, will install the newly elected officers of the Clinton lodge of Oddfellows, on Tuesday after next.

The selectors of jurors for 1883 for the county of Huron, will meet for the transaction of business at the Clerk of the Peace's office at 2 p. m. on Jan. 29.
J. W. Smith, of the Kingston Street
Bakery, has our thanks for a choice specimen of toothsome fruit cake, elegantly ornamented with a pretty design in icing. Mr. Smith is a first-class baker, is full of push, and makes it his business to satisfy his customers. A visit to his shop during the next few days will be in the interests of all concerned in choice Christmas confectionery.

Our friends will oblige us by sending in a list of visitors in town during the holidays, and also any items of a local nature which they think will add to the interest of the paper. The ubiquity of the news reporter is proverbial, but we cannot get all the news unaided. As the old Scotch elder said, when reproved for not attending prayer meeting when he had already been devoting his time to other church work: "I'm no amphetu-ous, ye ken; I canna be in twa places at once." Send us news, and we will put it into shape for publication.

THE RIGHT PLACE.—Oftentimes it happens that a person's mind may get confused as to the right place to go for a specific article or series of articles and one would feel obliged to a friend who would indicate where the best value for the money could be had. It is to fill a need of that kind that this item is written. At Christmas time it is customary to purchase choice liquors for culinary and other purposes, and if any of our friends would like to know where the best quality of wines, brandy, whiskey, gin, ale or porter can be obtained, W. L.
Horton's, corner of South st. and Square
is the spot.

QUALIFICATION FOR OFFICE.—The following paragraph from an exchange might apply here, for parties have sat at the Council Board who had not the necessary property qualification, and consequently the acts of such council were illegal, though no one cared to take any action in the matter. "The law requiring candidates for municipal offices to be possessed of property qualification according to the office to which they aspire, and above all incumbrances, should not be allowed to remain a dead letter upon the statute books. Now that the municipal elections are once more approaching it would be well to organize a citizens' committee, irrespective of politics, to scrutinize the qualifications of candidates and notify any who fail to come up to the standard required by the statute, in the event of their offering at the polls steps will be taken to void their election."

WILL REMIT SOON.—Cheerful words, these, says the Cincinnati Saturday Night. The editor sits in the sanctum; a kindly feeling, a disposition to remit together $2.83, and he needs but $90 more. Letter after letter is opened, and he finds a wonderful unanimity of sentiment on the part of his debtors—a kindly feeling, a disposition to remit
soon. Any wonder that the unbidden tears of gratitude well up, that his heart is softened, his soul lifted up, as he considers this uniform kindness? Yes, they will remit soon, and the next time
the editor duns them they will remit soon, and if he tackles them again they will remit soon. These fellows who say they will remit, apparently have a confused notion as to the meaning of the word, undefined idea that settles it. We want a man to say he will pay, or settle, or whack up, or come to time, and then we feel that we have some show of realizing; but experience has taught us that to depend upon the average remit man is:
"Dropping buckets into empty wells."
And giving old in drawing nothing up."

SOCIAL AND LECTURE.—There was a very good attendance at Knox Church social and lecture in aid of the S. S.
fund on Tuesday evening last. Rev. Dr.
Ure presided in his own happy fashion, and after refreshments had been served, he called upon the superintendent to read the report. This showed that the average attendance during the year was 242, not including the flourishing bible class of young men and young women taught in the main body of the church during the school hour. The attendance of the entire school ranges from 275 to 333. The lecture by Rev.
John Wakefield was a treat. In an informal manner, but in a way full of interest, he described a two days run through Belgium. In imagination he carried his audience with him across the German Ocean, up the Scheldt, stopping at Antwerp, halting before the grand paintings of Rubens and Van Dyke, and viewing these masterpieces. On to Brussels, with its immense lace factories, its great public market, and then to the field of Waterloo, the scene of that great of modern battles, where the British army assisted by the German allies crushed before the power of Napoleon.
The lecturer spoke for an hour, but at the close the audience seemed as fresh as when the speaker began. A quartette led by Mr. G. B. Robson furnished some choice music during the evening. Solos were nicely rendered by Misses Smeeth, and J. Ferguson, and Mr. Harry Rothwell. Miss Nettie Seegmiller accompanied the vocalists on the organ. Over $50 were taken in at the door, and the amount cleared by the Sunday School will be about $45.

Subscription from Cities.—Every established local newspaper receives subscriptions from large cities which puzzles
the publishers, but which the New York Times lately explained as follows: A wholesale merchant of this city who has become rich at the business says, that when he sells a bill of goods on credit, he immediately subscribes for the local paper of his debtor. So long as his customer advertises liberally and vigorously he rested, but as soon as he began to contract his advertising space he took the fact as evidence that there was trouble ahead, and invariably went for the debtor. Said he: "The man who is too poor to make his business known, is too poor to do business." The withdrawal of an advertisement is evidence of weakness that business men are not slow to act upon.

Christmas Fat Cattle Show.

The Christmas fat cattle show, held on the Goderich market on Wednesday last, was one of the best ever held here.
The display in every class was unusually large, and the quality of the exhibits was very fine. An excellent fat cow was shown by Mr. Robt. McLean, which was raised and fattened by Registrar Dickson
on his gold medal farm in Tuckermant.

A fat steer raised by Mr. Alex. Broad-foot, of Tuckermant, was also shown by Mr. McLean, together with a hog raised by Mr. Willett Potter, of Colborne.
Messrs. Sprung, Govier, Fear and others
also exhibited together with Messrs. W.
McLean and S. Andrews. Mr. Fear claimed that the judges made an error in affixing a wrong card on a very fine turkey shown by him, but with this exception the awards seemed to give general satisfaction.

It was recommended to the directors that an arrangement be come to so that the fat cattle fairs at Christmas time be held on the same day by all the agricultural societies throughout the county, so that exhibitors be hindered from making a tour with the same exhibits to the different fairs. The following is the PRIZE LIST.

Fat Steer—1st Wm. McLean, 2d R.
McLean, 3d Wm. McLean.
Sheep—1st S. Andrews, 2d and 3rd
W. McLean.
Fat Heifer—3d S. Andrews.

Thos. Fear.
Hog—1st S. Andrews, 2d John Govier,
3d Robt. McLean.
Goose—1st P. Carroll, 2d Thos. Fear, 3d Albert Phillips.

Chickens—1st John Govier, 2d Wm.
Swaffield, 3d Thos. Fear.
Ducks—Thos. Fear 1st and 2d, Albert
Phillips 3d.
Crock of Butter—1st John Govier, 2d
Wm. Swaffield, 3d John Govier.
Table Butter—1st Jas. O. Stewart, 2d and 3d John Govier.

School Board.

Adjourned meeting on last Monday night. Present, Chairman Crabb, and Cantelon, Ferguson, Ball, Butler and Swanson.

After some objection by Mr. Swanson,
the minutes were declared correct.

Communication from Jessie McKenzie, Stratford. In answer to inquiry of Clerk, she stated that she had 2nd class professional certificate and enclosed testimonials.

Also from same, accepting appointment as principal in St. David's Ward school, Miss McMahon retiring.

Stipend account for $1 ordered to be paid; and statement that Star account for printing examination papers, $4.40,
as per tender, had been paid.

Butler produced estimate of work required for the ensuing year. 100 cords will be wanted, and the Clerk was authorized to advertise for tenders for supply of same.

Ferguson moved in relation to the nature of Principal Miller's application.

The chairman explained that as the County and Government grant to the Model School had been increased $100, Mr. Miller asked to have that additional amount voted to him. His salary has been $200.

Ferguson said there were extra duties imposed on Mr. Miller, and he should receive the extra grant.

Mr. Miller explained the extra duties;
he had to teach 13 weeks in the year as against 8 formerly; had to deliver four lectures of one hour each, in each week of those 13. The time required to get up these lectures would be much greater than in delivery, so that he thought for the time devoted to Model School business, the whole grant of $300 was not too much. Moreover, he claimed the additional $100 as his by right. The town was getting back $105 this year from pupils attending the Model School.

KATHLEEN.

A Holiday Story of Merry England.

It was the merry Christmas time! Year after year had gone by, but though separated far from each other at all other times, at this annual festival we all met together in the old ancestral hall of our family.

It was Christmas Eve! The yule logs were piled high, and roared and crackled up the huge chimney, filling the wide hall with light and heat.

It might have been a picture for an artist, the group assembled in that great hall. In his large carved oaken chair, in the chimney corner, sat the host, Sir Robert, his pleasant countenance and mellow laugh diffusing an air of home-like mirth around.

"Etoile, my dear, this is your cousin Mary, a regular, full-blooded Percy; this is Kathleen Moore, a wild Irish girl, with nothing English about her except her pride; this is Gypsy, the maddest merriest little fairy that ever kept a household in confusion, yet she's the 'flower of the flock' after all; this handsome fellow is your cousin Randal, whose heart you must be careful not to steal, as I want him for Gypsy here."

"Thank you for nothing, uncle," said I, tossing my head saucily. "Gypsy wouldn't have him."

Among all these cousins, the only one I really cared for was Kathleen Moore. Her mother, Edith Percy, had married an Irish baronet, and had gone with him to reside in Ireland.

Somehow, from the first, I became her favorite. I know not why it was so; we were as unlike as two extremes could be, with nothing of a Percy about me, except, perhaps, a touch of the family pride. She was cold, stately and haughty; I was the wildest, maddest elf that ever danced in the moonlight; I was reserved and thoughtful, I was wayward and impulsive; and yet some secret tie drew us together from the first.

This Christmas Eve that I am telling you about, Kathleen sat within the arch of a deep bay-window, gazing out into the cold moonlight, while I stood behind her, weaving a wreath of crimson berries amid her jetty braids, that were bound like a coronet around her proud head.

"How handsome you are to-night, Kathleen!" said I, as I finished the wreath, and turned to survey her. "Your cheeks are as red as these bright holly-berries, and your eyes are shining like stars. I wonder if this other cousin of yours, who is coming to-night is as handsome as you?"

"I thought you had seen her?" said Kathleen, inquiringly.

"Oh, so I did once—when we were both children; but that is four or five years ago. She was a pretty little thing then."

filled the usually cold, black eyes, as she looked up into his handsome face with a smile. I had often wished Randal and Kathleen might love each other; but the hauteur with which she had always treated him, had hitherto made the wish seem vain.

"I like cousin Randal, don't you, Kath?" said I, abruptly.

"A little," she said, starting and coloring deeply.

"Come, Kathleen—come, you must be queen of our Christmas feast," said the gay voice of Mary Percy, as she came dancing toward us.

"Where's uncle Robert?" said I, without heeding her.

"Dear knows," said Mary, indifferently. "I heard a carriage coming a minute ago, and I suppose he went down to see who had arrived. I hope no more will come. Goodness knows there is a crowd of us here already!"

As Mary spoke the door was flung open, and Uncle Robert entered, with a young lady on his arm. Even now—though many a weary year has passed since—I remember her perfectly. Her dress of pale blue satin swept the carpet, and fell in graceful folds round her slender form.

"Etoile, my dear, this is your cousin Mary, a regular, full-blooded Percy; this is Kathleen Moore, a wild Irish girl, with nothing English about her except her pride; this is Gypsy, the maddest merriest little fairy that ever kept a household in confusion, yet she's the 'flower of the flock' after all; this handsome fellow is your cousin Randal, whose heart you must be careful not to steal, as I want him for Gypsy here."

At this moment Etoile passed us, leaning on the arm of a young officer in a splendid uniform, and listening with a smile of evident pleasure, to the graceful nothings he poured in her ear. Randal looked after them with a jealous eye.

"Did you ever see any one so lovely, Gypsy?" said I, enthusiastically.

"She's rather pretty," said I, with a disdainful shrug; "and if I mistake not, a most finished coquette, as a certain cousin of mine will find out one of these days."

"She a coquette! impossible, Gypsy! I never in all my life, saw anyone so artless, so unsophisticated, so perfectly free from coquetry," he exclaimed, indignantly.

"I had rather stay with you, cousin." "Methinks you should find it pleasant staying with that pretty baby Etoile," she said, with a curl of her proud lip.

"I shall hate her, Kath!" I said fiercely; "she had no business coming here to make you unhappy!"

"The dreary look I had seen on entering came again over her face.

"It must have come sooner or later," she said, steadily; "she only listened to a little. It is well that I have awakened from the dream of my life at once. You know my secret, Gypsy?"

"That you love Randal—yes," said I, gently.

"And he will love that pretty doll. I see it all," said Kathleen, calmly; "and I—"

She paused.

"And you will be miserable all your life," I broke in, passionately. "I shall hate this shallow-brained little Parisian. Randal, too, if he loves her."

"And I shall be miserable. I like that. I think I see Kathleen Moore breaking her heart for him, or any other man. No, no, Gypsy, wild Irish girls don't die so easily. Among my own dear native hills, I will soon forget England and Randal Percy, and be a free-hearted mountain lass once more."

"Brave Kathleen!" she spoke boldly; not once did her voice falter; and yet the cold, stony look of her large black eyes told of the dreary aching of her heart. I could only fold my arms closer around her, and look the sympathy I could not speak.

There came a tap at the door at this moment, and the next Mary Percy entered, exclaiming:

"Come Kath—come Gypsy, this will never do. There are a thousand and one inquiries for you down stairs, and here you sit as silent and lonely as two nuns. Come along!"

"And pushing her arm through ours, she drew us down stairs.

"Perhaps you will come with us," she said, gently.

"No, thank you, I am engaged. I wish you a pleasant game. Mind, Randal, and don't let her catch you," said I, moving away.

"Au revoir," then she said, with her bright smile, and passing her arm through his, she kissed her hand to me, and disappeared.

The great hall clock striking one, at last reminded the gay assembly that it was time to retire. As the company dispersed to their various chambers, Kathleen passed me, and whispered:

"Come and share my room to-night, Gypsy; I hate to be alone."

I willingly complied, and ran with her up to her apartment. It was situated in such a manner as to command a view of the whole mansion. Kathleen seated herself by the window, while I undressed and went to bed.

"Are you going to sit there all night, Kath?" said I, my eyes closing drowsily as I spoke.

"No, only a few minutes; I don't feel sleepy; never mind me," replied Kathleen, quietly.

"Gypsy, Gypsy, wake up! I want to show you something!"

"What on earth is it, Kath?" said I, springing up in alarm.

"Look!"

She drew me to the window, and pointed in the direction in which Etoile's chamber was situated. There was no light in the window, but the moonlight fell brilliantly over every object, rendering all around as clear as day.

Under the window, a tall, slight figure, which I instantly recognized as that of Randal Percy, paced to and fro, keeping his restless watch before the chamber of her loved. I glanced at Kathleen; she sat, or rather cowered on a seat near the window, her face covered with her hands, as still, as motionless as a marble figure. With a sigh, I turned again to look out. As I did so, I saw Etoile's window open hastily, and a rose fell through the moonlight to his feet. It was enough; I drew the curtain, and turned to Kathleen; she still sat in the same attitude, in a dreary, forlorn manner.

a superb woman, with the bewitching smile and laughing glance of a finished flirt, crowned with the wreath and carrying the wand of the Christmas Queen Standing beside her, as her chosen consort, was Randal Percy.

The evening was drawing to a close, when Kathleen passed me and hurriedly whispered:

"If you wish to see a farce, Gypsy, steal into the parlor, hide yourself behind the curtains, and listen."

Wondering what she could mean, I obeyed, and concealed myself behind the heavy curtains. Kathleen followed me and took a seat. Scarcely had she done so, when Randal Percy followed hastily, and took a seat by her side.

"Wall, Mr. Percy," said Kathleen, quietly, "you requested a private interview; may I know what you wish?"

"Dear Kathleen, do not speak so loudly; you surely know the reason," he said, earnestly.

"I am so sorry to be so dull of comprehension. I have not the remotest idea," replied Kathleen.

"Then, dearest cousin, in these words I can tell you—I love you, Kathleen!"

"Do you, really? Almost as much, I suppose, as you loved Etoile, the other day. Eh, cousin Randal?"

"Kathleen, will you never cease to think of my folly? I never loved her; I only fancied so. I never loved but you, my peerless, my beautiful Kathleen!" he exclaimed, vehemently.

"A very pretty speech, sir. Did you talk to Etoile this way?" she said, quietly.

"Kathleen, you will drive me mad!" he exclaimed, passionately. "How shall I convince you that I love you only?"

"Most certainly, not by walking up and down before my window," was the sarcastic reply. "Do you remember, you did before Etoile's this very night, twelve months ago? How hot you must have been when you went there to cool yourself! Have you the rose Madame de Rochefort flung you that night?"

Literary Notices. We have received from the publishers the following interesting standard periodicals:

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW for October. Edited by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., 41 Barclay-st., New York.

The contents are—Gardiner's Fall of the Monarchy of Charles I; The Architectural of India; Sir John Lubbock on Ants and Bees; Morley's Reminiscences; Inland Navigation; Shelley and Mary; Natural Religion; The Egyptian Rebellion.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. Edited by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., 41 Barclay-st., New York.

The contents are—Henry Erskine and His Times; The Speaker's Commentary and Canon Cook; Greek Sculpture; Vauban and Modern Sieges; The New Religion of Nature; The Fish Supply of London; Oxford Under the Puritans; Ten Years of Italian Progress; Dr. Pusey and the Church; The Justification of Lord Beaconsfield's Policy.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE. The Leonard Scott Publishing Co., 41 Barclay-st., New York.

The contents are—The Ladies' Landscapes—Part VIII; False Coin in Sacred Hermeneutics; The Factor's Shouting; Bagdad on the Queen's Birthday; My Bath; Experiences of a Naval Officer in Search of the Eira; Sketches from the Dutch Sesside; Resemblances in Literature; Jewish Tales and Jewish Reform; The Late Campaign.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE. Published by James Vick, Rochester, N. Y.

From the appearance of the Guide, which is on our desk, we should judge that the young Vicks are 'chips of the old block,' as the Floral Guide, with its lithographed cover, is handsome enough for the parlor table. It is printed on the best paper, has three colored plates of Flowers and Vegetables, and is full of information. Those who send ten cents for it cannot be disappointed as the plates alone are worth the amount.

THE CANADIAN METRONOMIST for December, 32 pages, 50c. Illustrated. Price $2 a year. Rev. William Briggs, Toronto, Publisher.

This number closes the Sixteenth Volume. The illustrated articles are: "The Beginnings of Methodism in the New World," "In Bible Lands," and "Picturesque Canada." Interesting sketches of Dr. Chalmers, Dr. Punahon, and "Bishop" Black, are given by Dr. Ryckman, Rev. Hugh Johnston and Rev. J. Lathern. The announcement for 1883 is a very attractive one. Among the contributors are: Dr. McColl, Dr. Daniel Wilson, Dr. Dawson, Dr. Geo. Gifford and Dr. Nelles, all College Presidents, together with Prof. Goldwin Smith, and other distinguished writers. Among the illustrated articles will be Stanley's "Through the Dark Continent, with 150 engravings; A Canadian in Norway; Land of the Midnight Sun; Royal Palaces of England; Fire Mountains; Papers on Brazil, Florida, Italy, Spain, Morocco, Bible Lands; A Colonial Pilgrimage; The White Mountains, with twenty-two engravings, by leading living authors, and many others, all handsomely illustrated. This is now the only literary monthly in Canada, and is very cheap at the price asked for it.

An Admonition. To neglect a cough or cold, is but to invite Consumption, that destroyer of the human race. Hagedy's Pectoral Balsam will cure the cough and allay all irritation of the bronchial tubes and lungs, and effectually remedy all pulmonary complaints, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough.

The Topping Convention. It is expected that there will be about two hundred delegates to the Convention at Toronto to be held on the 23rd and 24th of January. The delegates are now being chosen, and the Convention is to be held in Shaftesbury Hall. The intention is to bring as many new men to the front as possible. The Reform members of the Legislature will all be present and speeches will be delivered by the Ministers and prominent supporters. There will be no new departure so far as the party's platform is concerned. The chief plank will be provincial rights, and the determination will run all through the resolutions to resist the encroachments of the Dominion Government at every point. It is contended that the issue is not now confined to the Streams bill, but that it has broadened into the question of surrendering or maintaining the constitutional rights of the province. It is expected that the convention will arouse the enthusiasm of the party to a high degree and that the Government will be sustained by an increased majority. [Telegram.]

Presentation to Rev. Mr. Pritchard.

On the night of the 11th inst., the members of the Bible class of Knox church, Manchester, to the number of over fifty, repaired to the manse and presented the Rev. Mr. Pritchard with a handsome fur overcoat valued at $42, and the following address:

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR,—It having entered into our hearts to give you some present as a token of our good will and affection, and the advent of winter—cold and stormy—having lent a suggestion to our minds, we take this opportunity of presenting you with this fur overcoat, as an acknowledgment, in part, of the pleasure and profit we, as members of your Bible class, have derived from your teaching, and as a mark of confidence in and esteem for your Christian character. May you be long spared to find in it a comfortable reminder of our good will towards you, and may your heart be ever warmed by those truths which from week to week you have faithfully taught us from the Divine Word.

On behalf of the Bible class, A. M. DONALD, W. M. BROWN, JAMES MAGEE, W. M. SYMINGTON.

To which the rev. gentlemen made the following suitable reply: CHRISTIAN FRIENDS,—I assure you that I cannot find language sufficient to express my gratification in hearing your very affectionate address, and in receiving from your hands this excellent token of your love, sympathy and high appreciation of my services as your Bible class teacher and pastor. I most cordially thank you for such a manifestation of your affection, and I assure you that I do most highly appreciate it. I appreciate it highly on account of its coming from the young people of my congregation, and I assure you I engage in no religious services in the sanctuary in which I take a greater interest than teaching the Bible class. I appreciate your noble gift highly, not only on account of its intrinsic value, but especially on account of the motives which have prompted you to give it. It is this that makes me receive with gladness such an excellent present. I thank you most sincerely for it, and through you I thank all who have contributed a mite towards the purchase of this valuable coat; and when enclosed within its fond embrace, I will be able to set at defiance the biting cold, the piercing wind and the raging storm, and with pleasure look out upon the elemental war, and from the depth of my heart thank you for such a protector. May I be enabled long to wear it in your midst, and I assure you that whatever position I may occupy in the church, to think of this act of kindness and good will on your part will be to me the source of great gratification; and as my labors have been blessed to you in the past, I sincerely hope and pray that they may be more abundantly blessed in the future, and when we are done serving Christ on earth may we all serve Him in His kingdom in glory.

The party then took full possession of the manse at the request of their host and hostess, who used every endeavor to make all feel at home and enjoy themselves at the several games and amusements, such as carrom, ball, table croquet, music, etc. A most wonderful repast was furnished by the ladies, to which ample justice was done by all. The party then resumed their amusements to their heart's content, and after a time dispersed, feeling that they had spent a pleasant and profitable evening, and pleased with the cordial reception which they had received from Mr. Pritchard and his amiable wife.

AN OBSERVER.

To the Medical Profession, and all whom it may concern.

Phosphatine, or Nerve Food, a Phosphate Element based upon Scientific Facts, Formulated by Professor Austin, M. D. of Boston, Mass., cures Pulmonary Consumption, Sick Headache, Nervous Attacks, Vertigo and Neuralgia and all wasting diseases of the human system. Phosphatine is not a Medicine, but a Nutrient, because it contains no Vegetable or Mineral Poisons, Opium, Narcotics, and no Stimulants, but simply the Phosphate and Calcium Elements found in our daily food. A single bottle is sufficient to convince. All Druggists sell it, $1.00 per bottle. LOWDEN & Co., sole agents for the Dominion, 55 Front Street East Toronto.

The Model School Question.

The visiting committee of the Galt Public School Board of Trustees, to whom was referred the question of what effect the attendance at teaching of Model School pupils had on the regular system of the schools, presented two reports, showing that the members of the committee were not in unison in the matter. Mr. Thos. Cowan's report was as follows:

"According to instructions of your Board, the Visiting Committee beg leave to report that, in their opinion, the Model teaching in the Central School is not attended with good results to the regular work in the various divisions in the school, inasmuch as it has a disturbing and disquieting influence in the Junior Departments, where it is difficult at any time to secure the undivided attention of every young pupil. In so far as the higher departments are concerned, that inconvenience is not felt; yet we believe that it incurs the loss of time and tends to loosen the reins of power in the hands of the regular teachers. We also beg leave to say that while we point out what we consider these defects in the system, we unhesitatingly bear testimony to the good conduct and courteous bearing of all the Model Teachers, and to their diligent efforts to secure all the benefits possible while in the different rooms teaching."

[Signed,] THOS. COWAN, Chairman. The Report presented by Messrs. Joseph Wilson and George Godfrey was as follows: "As per instructions of your Board, your Visiting Committee would beg to report that having visited the Central School, and examined into the working of the Model school in connection with the duties of the Principal and other teachers, we are satisfied that it does not interfere with the ordinary routine of instruction, as we find the pupils in the Model School teach the scholars in the different rooms the same lessons, as the regular teachers. And further, your Committee find that the pupils are under the control of the teacher during the time that the Model School scholars are conducting the classes. We can not see where any detriment can possibly accrue to the school from the teaching of Model School scholars in connection with our present school system, and your Committee would beg to suggest that the Model School be continued until such time as your Board find it to be prejudicial to the welfare of the school.

Millions Given Away. Millions of Bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have been given away at Trial Bottles of the large size. THE HURON SIGNAL.

Published every Friday Morning, by McGUIRE & COY., at their Office, North St. Goderich, Ontario.

THE CONVENTION.

For the accommodation of delegates to the Reform Convention all the railways in Ontario will issue single fare tickets to Toronto and return from any station to anybody on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th of January...

In the little town of Clinton, twelve miles down the track, they "speed" their horses on the streets on Sundays. The drivers of our high steppers do all their racing around the square during the week.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

Aspirants for municipal honors are coming to the front. For the Mayorship, so far, Mr. Horton, the present incumbent, seems to have the field to himself...

The Reeveship is, we understand, to be contested, and Mr. Johnston is to be opposed by Mr. Platt. Mr. Johnston has been Reeve for two consecutive years and Mr. Platt believes the honor should be passed around.

We are unable to mention the names of candidates for the 1st Deputy-Reeveship, but it is believed that Mr. William Campbell the present incumbent, will not offer for 1883.

The 2nd Deputy-Reeveship will be contested by Mr. Abraham Smith and Mr. Edmund Campion. Mr. Smith is an old resident of the town, a successful merchant, a heavy taxpayer, and a man of shrewd business ability and sterling integrity.

In the wards things appear to be on the quiet side. In St. Andrew's we have heard only two candidates—Messrs. Swanson and Seager. Mr. Swanson is an old Councillor, and Mr. Seager is a new man, but one who would make a good Councillor.

Occasionally they get off a good joke during the debates in the Legislature. Referring to the election of the one solitary Tory at the bye-elections, (Mr. Ross, of Hastings) Mr. McLaughlin the witty member for West Durham, set the House in a roar when he alluded to the leader of the Opposition coming back with one new supporter, "the last Rose of summer, left blooming alone."

We are informed by a number of gentlemen who were present, that Mr. W. Campbell, who is fast getting the reputation of a public scold, personally abused Mr. Samuel Platt in a most unbecoming manner in a public house one day during the week.

Another "patriot" has got his grudge. Mr. A. H. Blackely who for a short time ran the Clinton Record, and whose platform address averted the virtue of factory girls, attested by his "practical experience," as he freshly termed it, caused such merriment during the recent election campaign, has been appointed to visit the factories of Massachusetts, and report on the Factory Act of that state.

Last week we stated that the "devil" and the Tory floor manager were running the Clinton Record, in the absence of the latest editor of that journal—who had left for parts unknown. The management of the Record does not appear to be satisfied with our statement, and gives us to understand, unmistakably, but ungrammatically, "that we the management of the Record have succeeded in what we have undertaken."

The Juries for our Lady the Queen beg leave to present that they have examined the jail and find six inmates—five males and one female—one of above inmates being partially insane. We would recommend him to be sent to some house of refuge or place of confinement. We find that the prisoners are well satisfied with their treatment in the jail. We also find that the prisoners are all under sentence with the exception of the one partially insane.

We would strongly urge that a place of refuge be provided, or some place where vagrants and parties not criminals can be sent to for care and usefulness.

We feel proud that the County of Huron stands at the head of all counties for its lightness of calendar. All of which is respectfully submitted. A. W. WEBSTER, Foreman. His Honor, in accepting the recommendations of the Grand Jury, said the subject of a county poor house was one which had been discussed here for several years.

It isn't absolutely necessary to tell the readers of THE SIGNAL that Christmas will be here on Monday next. Neither is it necessary to tell them that Christmas and New Year's are the times of the year for good cheer, and "good-will to men"—except the Opposing municipal candidates. No, no; the readers of THE SIGNAL are intelligent people, and know about the gladness, and joy, and good fellowship, and municipal bickering with which the last week of the year is pregnant, and we won't bother them with a long dissertation on Christmas—its uses and abuses. But we will wish our readers one and all a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

THE QUARTER SESSIONS.

The List of Grand Jurors—The Judge's Address—Cases on Trial—The Presentment.

Before His Honor Judge Toms. FIRST DAY—TUESDAY. Court opened at 12 o'clock by proclamation. The following is the GRAND JURY.

Edward Armstrong, Robert Acheson, Samuel Barr, Goderich; John Allen, Richard Blake, Hullett; John Anderson, Osborne; Peter Campbell, West Wawanosh; John Mahon; McKillop; Wm. McKee, Alexander McLean, Moses McBride, Douglas; James McCartney, Clinton; Ashfield; McTavish, Stanley; Thomas Nixon, Archibald Nicholson; Morris; George C. Petty, Hay; Matthew Robinson, Seaford; Charles Seager; James Spence, John Wallace, Wm. Wiggins, Howick; James Turnbull, Grey; Alex. Webster, Wingham.

In addressing the Grand Jury His Honor said that he was pleased to learn that there were at present no cases for their consideration, but if any business should arise before their dismissal it would be laid before them by the Crown Attorney. Should any cases come before them, they must remember that it would require twelve of their number to find a bill. His Honor mentioned this fact because it had been stated, and unfortunately it appeared to be a fact, that at a recent court this rule had not been observed by a jury. How this was found out he could not say. He reminded the jury that they were a body selected from the best men of the county for the consideration of certain matters, and their proceedings were secret, no person outside of themselves being entitled to know what transpired at their sittings. He wished to impress this fact very strongly upon their minds. At the June Courts it had been published that nine of the jury were against a party and nine for him, and that the matter was only decided by a casting vote. How far this was true or how the information was gained by outsiders was a question. His attention had been called to the matter before the conclusion of that Court, and he felt like saying something to the jury about it. But he had finally concluded to let it pass. It was not creditable that in so large a county as this Grand Jury should be so ill informed as to their duty.

The Grand Jury then retired, and the docket was proceeded with, the first case being Melae vs. Kidd, and Campbell vs. Kidd. Both actions on interpleader issue. McCaughey & Holmstead, for plaintiff; Cameron, Holt, and Cameron for defendant. The parties are residents of Turbary. The evidence in the case was the testimony of the plaintiff and several letters written by defendant. The jury after an absence of 30 minutes returned a verdict of $800 damages. Mr. Holt applied for judgment and immediate execution. Judgment reserved. The Court adjourned until 10 a. m., Wednesday.

SECOND DAY—WEDNESDAY. Rait vs. Campbell. An action for recovery of the value of lightning rods put up by plaintiff as agent of this Lightning Rod Co., on defendant's premises in West Wawanosh; $155 with interest from 1879. Cameron Holt and Cameron for plaintiff; Garrow and Proffitt for defendant. The case was continued until 6 o'clock p. m., when the court adjourned until 10 o'clock on the THIRD DAY—THURSDAY. Roddick vs. Walker. An action for money lent, and assessment without jury. Malcolmson and Wade for plaintiff; Malcolmson and Wade for defendant not represented by counsel. Verdict for plaintiff, and immediate execution moved for and granted. Bradwell vs. Walker. Action on promissory note and for assessment without jury. Malcolmson and Wade for plaintiff; left not represented by counsel. Verdict for plaintiff, and immediate execution moved for and granted.

THE GRAND JURY HERE CAME INTO COURT AND SUBMITTED THE FOLLOWING PRESENTMENT. The Juries for our Lady the Queen beg leave to present that they have examined the jail and find six inmates—five males and one female—one of above inmates being partially insane. We would recommend him to be sent to some house of refuge or place of confinement. We find that the prisoners are well satisfied with their treatment in the jail. We also find that the prisoners are all under sentence with the exception of the one partially insane.

When the snow-plow and the hands connected with it had completed their labors on north Thursday the engines headed southward, pulling the plow, and pushing it, as is usually the case. Had the plow been ahead when the collision took place the probabilities are that a large number of men comprising the two gangs who were within would have been killed or seriously injured.

It is stated that the mail train, No. 105, from Wingham, Conductor Wainwright in charge, was delayed on that branch. The former L. H. & C. B. station in Clinton is not now in use. Whether the conductor of the mail train should have left a man at the junction to flag the snow-plow when it arrived at Clinton, in order to inform them of the delay, or whether those in charge of the snow-plow should have stopped at Clinton to make enquiries in case of passing through; or still further, should have received orders themselves, are questions, the solution of which will tend to throw light on the cause of the disaster. At all events, the snow-plow appears to have come on southward under the impression that the mail train was still ahead, till the crash between Hensall and Exeter apprised them of the fact that some fearful mistake had been made. The snow blockage had thrown all regular train arrangements into disorder, and this, doubtless, contributed in some measure to the causes of the accident.

CLIPPING THE L. H. & C. B. TRACK. A telegram from Superintendent Dawson, at the scene of the disaster yesterday morning, stated that the track would probably be cleared for traffic by one o'clock yesterday afternoon. The hands on the auxiliary worked all night putting the track in order.

FORTUNATE CIRCUMSTANCE. When the snow-plow and the hands connected with it had completed their labors on north Thursday the engines headed southward, pulling the plow, and pushing it, as is usually the case. Had the plow been ahead when the collision took place the probabilities are that a large number of men comprising the two gangs who were within would have been killed or seriously injured.

render valuable assistance to their more unfortunate fellow-beings on the express train. A SAD CASE. The circumstances following the death of Strongman, the Huron, are peculiarly unfortunate, as he leaves a widow and a family of four or five children to mourn his unexpected taking off. Deceased was a warm-hearted obliging man, and one universally esteemed among his fellow employees, and valued by the company. He resided on Horton street, near Matiland.

Mr. Mullen, stage driver, had to rest and feel his horses here Thursday evening, and on Friday he reached here about 4 p. m., instead of 8 a. m. The remains of Mrs. Rice, who died at the Nile on Tuesday morning 12th inst., were buried here on Saturday last. The funeral was to take place on Friday, but owing to the impassable state of the roads it was postponed until Saturday.

Mr. John Cassidy, of Chicago, is paying a visit to old friends hereabouts. Mr. E. Coombs, wife and son, of Jamstown, accompanied by Mrs. Hilliard, of Goderich, visited friends here last week. Mr. Joseph Cooke has settled upon his farm here recently purchased from Mr. Arthur Horton.

On Wednesday evening, notwithstanding the drizzle, a large company filled the Presbyterian church at this place, to take part in the funeral. The chair was admirably filled by Rev. John A. Turnbull, B. A. The Speakers of the evening were T. McGillicuddy, who "broke the ice" in an address on "Making Money," Rev. J. Sutton, who gave an interesting and instructive speech on "Mistakes," and Mr. J. Mitchell, who, owing to the lateness of the hour, made a brief speech about what he might have said had time been given him. All the addresses were well received. Mrs. Turnbull made her debut here as a reader, and charmed the audience in a reading from Dickens. She also sang a solo in a very pretty way. Readings were also given by Messrs. S. P. Williams and R. E. Brown. The refreshments were of a superior sort, and did credit to the culinary department of the Leeburn householders. How any man can remain a bachelor in Leeburn astonishes us. The choir, aided by a few new voices, sang in its hearty fashion. We know of no country choir ahead of it. The proceeds amounted to about $40.

Mr. Edward Odlum, formerly a pupil in the Central School of this town when Inspector Miller was Principal, and who afterwards taught as a Public School teacher in Huron county for a period of two years, was the recipient of an address and purse from the scholars of the Collegiate Institute, Cobourg, recently where he had occupied the position of classical master for the past year or two. The occasion of the presentation was his retirement from the Collegiate Institute to accept the Principalship of Pembroke High School. The friends of Mr. Odlum in this section will be pleased to learn of his well-merited promotion and success in his new position. The address speaks for itself and is as follows:

DEAR SIR,—We have learned with deep regret that you are so soon to leave your present situation; and the present relations existing between us as teacher and pupils are about to be severed. Your unvarying kindness and gentlemanly bearing, mingled with a quiet dignity and force of character, have completely won our hearts; and it has been with a very great amount of pleasure that we have seen you advanced from the lowest form in the school to the important and responsible position you now hold. We know of no country choir ahead of it. The proceeds amounted to about $40.

WE HAVE ALWAYS FELT THAT IN YOU we have had not only a kind and considerate teacher, but a true and honest friend—one to whom we could safely go for advice and sympathy. It has been very evident that your care was not for self alone; that your motives were not merely mercenary; that you were a true friend to each one of your pupils, and took a deep interest in their individual welfare; and this we firmly believe has been one of the principal causes of your remarkable efficiency and popularity as a teacher.

Your energy and enthusiasm have at many times given us fresh vigor for our work, have instilled into our hearts a holier inspiration and a loftier ambition to strive on for the pure and noble ends of life. Your influence has ever been on the side of right and truth, and we believe that influence has not been exerted in vain, but will show results in the future of our lives. We have found your ability in no way inferior to your zeal; you have not only been willing but able to grant assistance at all times, and your work in the classroom has evidenced thorough and careful preparation. The brilliant success of the great majority of your past students in their examinations in the department over which you have had charge, has clearly shown your thoughtful training and the high character of the instruction imparted.

We are deeply sensible of the loss we sustain by your departure, but while appreciating this loss we cannot but rejoice that your success has been recognized, and that you have been appointed to so responsible and lucrative a position. You will carry with you very best wishes for success, and we firmly believe that it will be no less marked in your future sphere of labor than it has been here. We will watch your course in life with the deepest interest, and will be delighted to hear of honor and success attending your efforts. Let us again assure you that as a teacher, a gentleman and a Christian, you have inspired us with feelings of the deepest respect, the most implicit confidence and a friendship of the warmest character.

We ask you to accept this purse as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held, both by present pupils and those no longer immediately connected with the school, hoping that your thoughts may occasionally revert to the happy days we have spent together; and in such thoughts we ask to be remembered not only as former pupils, but as your personal friends.

Mr. Milligan's horses ran away from him one day last week. There is to be a tea-meeting in the Methodist Church on Christmas night. A few of the pupils from our public school intend presenting themselves at the entrance examination this week. Business has been almost at a stand still in the county of the state of the weather and roads. A subscription was taken in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning last for the purpose of helping the Methodists in Kincairdine to pay off the mortgage against their church.

Mr. Milligan's horses ran away from him one day last week. There is to be a tea-meeting in the Methodist Church on Christmas night. A few of the pupils from our public school intend presenting themselves at the entrance examination this week. Business has been almost at a stand still in the county of the state of the weather and roads. A subscription was taken in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning last for the purpose of helping the Methodists in Kincairdine to pay off the mortgage against their church.

Mr. Mullen, stage driver, had to rest and feel his horses here Thursday evening, and on Friday he reached here about 4 p. m., instead of 8 a. m. The remains of Mrs. Rice, who died at the Nile on Tuesday morning 12th inst., were buried here on Saturday last. The funeral was to take place on Friday, but owing to the impassable state of the roads it was postponed until Saturday.

Mr. John Cassidy, of Chicago, is paying a visit to old friends hereabouts. Mr. E. Coombs, wife and son, of Jamstown, accompanied by Mrs. Hilliard, of Goderich, visited friends here last week. Mr. Joseph Cooke has settled upon his farm here recently purchased from Mr. Arthur Horton.

On Wednesday evening, notwithstanding the drizzle, a large company filled the Presbyterian church at this place, to take part in the funeral. The chair was admirably filled by Rev. John A. Turnbull, B. A. The Speakers of the evening were T. McGillicuddy, who "broke the ice" in an address on "Making Money," Rev. J. Sutton, who gave an interesting and instructive speech on "Mistakes," and Mr. J. Mitchell, who, owing to the lateness of the hour, made a brief speech about what he might have said had time been given him. All the addresses were well received. Mrs. Turnbull made her debut here as a reader, and charmed the audience in a reading from Dickens. She also sang a solo in a very pretty way. Readings were also given by Messrs. S. P. Williams and R. E. Brown. The refreshments were of a superior sort, and did credit to the culinary department of the Leeburn householders. How any man can remain a bachelor in Leeburn astonishes us. The choir, aided by a few new voices, sang in its hearty fashion. We know of no country choir ahead of it. The proceeds amounted to about $40.

Mr. Edward Odlum, formerly a pupil in the Central School of this town when Inspector Miller was Principal, and who afterwards taught as a Public School teacher in Huron county for a period of two years, was the recipient of an address and purse from the scholars of the Collegiate Institute, Cobourg, recently where he had occupied the position of classical master for the past year or two. The occasion of the presentation was his retirement from the Collegiate Institute to accept the Principalship of Pembroke High School. The friends of Mr. Odlum in this section will be pleased to learn of his well-merited promotion and success in his new position. The address speaks for itself and is as follows:

DEAR SIR,—We have learned with deep regret that you are so soon to leave your present situation; and the present relations existing between us as teacher and pupils are about to be severed. Your unvarying kindness and gentlemanly bearing, mingled with a quiet dignity and force of character, have completely won our hearts; and it has been with a very great amount of pleasure that we have seen you advanced from the lowest form in the school to the important and responsible position you now hold. We know of no country choir ahead of it. The proceeds amounted to about $40.

WE HAVE ALWAYS FELT THAT IN YOU we have had not only a kind and considerate teacher, but a true and honest friend—one to whom we could safely go for advice and sympathy. It has been very evident that your care was not for self alone; that your motives were not merely mercenary; that you were a true friend to each one of your pupils, and took a deep interest in their individual welfare; and this we firmly believe has been one of the principal causes of your remarkable efficiency and popularity as a teacher.

Your energy and enthusiasm have at many times given us fresh vigor for our work, have instilled into our hearts a holier inspiration and a loftier ambition to strive on for the pure and noble ends of life. Your influence has ever been on the side of right and truth, and we believe that influence has not been exerted in vain, but will show results in the future of our lives. We have found your ability in no way inferior to your zeal; you have not only been willing but able to grant assistance at all times, and your work in the classroom has evidenced thorough and careful preparation. The brilliant success of the great majority of your past students in their examinations in the department over which you have had charge, has clearly shown your thoughtful training and the high character of the instruction imparted.

We are deeply sensible of the loss we sustain by your departure, but while appreciating this loss we cannot but rejoice that your success has been recognized, and that you have been appointed to so responsible and lucrative a position. You will carry with you very best wishes for success, and we firmly believe that it will be no less marked in your future sphere of labor than it has been here. We will watch your course in life with the deepest interest, and will be delighted to hear of honor and success attending your efforts. Let us again assure you that as a teacher, a gentleman and a Christian, you have inspired us with feelings of the deepest respect, the most implicit confidence and a friendship of the warmest character.

We ask you to accept this purse as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held, both by present pupils and those no longer immediately connected with the school, hoping that your thoughts may occasionally revert to the happy days we have spent together; and in such thoughts we ask to be remembered not only as former pupils, but as your personal friends.

Port Albert.

To the Editor of THE HURON SIGNAL: DEAR SIR,—In reply to the article in your last week's issue written by J. B. McDonald, of Kintail, permit me to say that he seems to be very audacious in his statements in reference to the Port Albert harbor job. From his bold assertions, it is a pity he did not naturally belong to the enterprising family spoken of—so speculative and energetic—as everything taken hold of by them is generally pushed vigorously, which can be seen by everyone who is acquainted with the thriving village of Port Albert and its surroundings.

McDonald, the laborer at this much talked of "indefinite" Government squander, seems anxious for the signature of So-and-So. He thinks it not mainly. But is there anything honorable on the part of McDonald, the laborer, to sign his name to an article of which he is not the author? But, the public generally understand why such effort and zeal was manifested by Mr. A. C. Hawkins and his connections, for it is well known at all of them were personally interested. After all, it seems strange that McDonald, knowing so much of this affair, should be made such a tool of as to say that only two of the family worked at this big job. I emphatically say that such statements are false, for eight of this very enterprising family worked at this gigantic Government job. And then in reference to the pile-driver, his statement is also false, for it was new and complete when it came into Mr. Hawkins' possession; but by the Superintendent's incompetency, not understanding the business practically, more money and time has been expended in repairing the said pile-driver than it would take to make half-a-dozen pile-drivers of the same description. Now, Mr. Editor, as regards the material used for filling, was it ever known that shingle shavings and saw-dust had been used for such a purpose before? If not, it must be an experiment on the part of the Superintendent. But there is no doubt but that it will answer the purpose as well as the cedar brush taken off George's model farm, for it is well known that in twelve months the whole thing gave way and washed into the lake. It seems also that the writer is positive on facts; he could not be induced to speak otherwise; no external motive power is required. He does not need to borrow any part of a pile-driver to assist him in stating facts. At the same time, in order that the matter may be fully discussed, he is anxious that a meeting be called at a certain place mentioned, but too much valuable time has been spent there already during the prosecution of the work for the interest of the public and the Government.

Now, Mr. Editor, before I conclude I wish to give you and the public some little idea of the amount of money which has been spent in this much talked of Government grant, and that this grant could not be expended by contract or in any other way, but had to be handled by a certain party whose political influence is felt throughout the whole township, which was plainly seen during the last election contest. The amount granted by the Government was $4,700; that of the township $75, both having been expended in piling and filling. Now, if the work had been placed in the hands of a man who thoroughly understood it, one-third of the money would have made it far better and more substantial.

So-and-So. Port Albert, Dec. 20, 1882.

To the Editor of the Signal.

"The item about the harbor improvements which appeared in THE SIGNAL last week, has caused considerable comment and not a little amusement." Such were the opening remarks of some nameless scribe who wishes to malign and vilify a respectable resident of this village. The writer then goes on to tell us that "the work was most wretchedly done," had not been pushed vigorously on, and that it had been done mainly by members of the overseer's family, "four of whom had often been seen filling a wheelbarrow and the 'superintendent' dumping the load." Now, Mr. Editor, it is hard to conceive what motive (other than to gratify some personal spite and ill feeling) was in the superintendent's could have actuated any individual in publishing to the world, such a mass of absurd rubbish and glaring falsehoods. The writer of this article has had many opportunities of observing any negligence or idleness displayed either by the overseer or any of the employees and I can safely affirm that such was not the case. In regard to the work being done by the overseer's relations, I must say that the overseer should feel proud of his family. They were a remarkable family, English, Irish, Scotch and French, and some of them were older than their father. The writer displays his utter ignorance of the work by saying, with an air, that shingle shavings were used for filling. Exactly, the very thing that was required, and the overseer had considerable difficulty in procuring enough of them. And now comes the crowning falsehood, concerning the pile-driver. We are told that it is a "miserable wreck," and that a new one will be required if efficient work is to be done at any time. I am in a position to state that the pile-driver was never in a better condition than it is at present. The overseer had to expend $50 upon it before it was of any service whatever. The author of the article then winds up his abuse by speaking of a subject entirely foreign to the question. It is when he speaks of the Port Albert harbor as being a laughing stock and a disgrace to the Government. I quite agree with him on that point, but would like to inform him that it is the improvements to the harbor the present summer, of which we are speaking, and which I again say, reflect the highest credit upon the overseer.

By casual observation, we find all land speculators have a sickly head and watch the ups and downs of property, thus making large fortunes. But the whole secret is, they keep the system in a healthy condition by the use of THE PRIDE OF THE VALLEY MEDICINE. We can safely say that hundreds come to us for the great lung and blood purifier before going west. Read the following statement. We could give thousands of the same kind if it were necessary. "I was troubled with Catarrh in the head, gathering a phlegm in the throat, could not sleep, often troubled with dull, lifeless feelings, pains in the chest and back. After giving hundreds of dollars to doctors, and giving up all hopes, I tried the PRIDE OF THE VALLEY, and am now able to do my work after seven years' sickness. MRS. A travel-stained tramp was seen sitting under the protecting eaves of a stone wall this morning with a newspaper in his hand.

The squirrel's winter habits. In a delightful sketch in the December Century of the "Hard Fare" the birds and small animals have to put up with when the winters are unusually severe.

I have said the red squirrel does not lay by a store of wood for winter use, like the chipmunk and wood-nut; in the fall he sometimes hoards in tentative temporary kind of way.

Thousands of dollars can be saved by using proper judgment in taking care of the health of yourself and family.

There is no better Cough Medicine in the world than the preparation known as "Pectoria." It promptly cures all Throat, Lung and Chest affections.

After having used your Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Galsays for over two years in my daily practice, I must give it my unqualified approval.

Prof. N. Watyns Buel, M. D., says of your Compound Elixir: "After having used your Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Galsays for over two years in my daily practice, I must give it my unqualified approval."

Woman's True Friend. A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease, more particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population.

Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial always proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste, and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by James Wilson.

A Vexed Clergyman. Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing, making it impossible for him to be heard.

Yet, how very easy can all this be avoided by simply using Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial Bottles given away at Wilson's drug store.

ONLY INTERNAL CURE FOR CATARRH $100

WELLAND, ONT., March 23, 1882. My little son-in-law was troubled with Catarrh of the Ear, Eye or Throat. It is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is the best remedy for Catarrh in the world, and is worth all that it costs.

WELLAND, ONT., March 20, 1882. I have used "Hall's Catarrh Cure," and judge from the good results I derived from one bottle, believe it will cure the most stubborn case of Catarrh. It is the best remedy for Catarrh in the world, and is worth all that it costs.

WELLAND, ONT., March 20, 1882. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Has sold Hall's Catarrh Cure for the last year, and it gives entire satisfaction.

Bayfield.

Mr. Jerry Troy, hostler at the Commercial Hotel, dropped dead on Thursday while kindling a fire in the sitting room... Mr. Campbell has leased the Albion Hotel from Mr. McCann for the remainder of her lease.

Colborne.

Mr. Richard Burton, of Colborne, met with a serious accident on Saturday, the 9th inst. He had placed a ladder upright so he could go to the attic to clear off the snow when it slipped from its position, causing him to fall heavily.

Mr. John Bell, formerly of this township, but now of Fargo, Dakota, after an absence of five years, is visiting old friends and scenes. He will remain here for the winter.

A young married lady, on a visit to her parents, just arrived all the way from Dakota in time to present the household with a sweet little girl. The little stranger arrived in time to get the best of care from the delighted grandparents.

Benjamin.

SCHOOL MEETINGS.—The annual meeting of this section for the purpose of electing a trustee, and for letting contracts for wood, &c., will be held on Wednesday next, 27th inst.

LIME.—Mr. Thomas Good, our lime burner, has not been deterred by the bad weather. In the midst of the late blizzard, he filled his kiln, and it is now being run off. He believes in serving up fresh lime at all seasons.

TEA MEETING.—A tea meeting, under the auspices of the M. E. Sunday school will be held in the church on Wednesday next, the 27th. Vocal and instrumental music will enliven the proceedings. Some speakers will also be present to deliver addresses. Proceeds to be applied to the school fund. Tea will be served at 5:30 p. m. Admission 25 cents.

DEBATE.—The Benjamin debating club had a field night on the evening of Friday last. The subject was: Resolved that Intemperance has caused more misery than War. The affirmative was upheld by George Stewart, captain, and Thomas Gedhill, John Stewart, Wm. Moore and Thos. Good. The negative was argued by Thomas Heddie, captain, Andrew Heddie, John McGibbon, Wm. Robinson, Herman Maedel, and others. Mr. Michael Pfanner, acted as chairman. A very interesting and instructive debate was the result. The decision of the chairman was in favor of the affirmative.

West Wawanosh.

FARM SOLD.—Mr. Wm. McDonald, of the 14th con., sold his farm to Mr. Ed. McQuillan for a good price. He purposes leaving in the spring for the North-west, where he has taken up a large tract of land.

ACCIDENT.—At a runaway on a horse-power last week, a valuable mare belonging to Mr. W. J. Fowler, fell and broke her leg. The animal was taken home on a sleigh and the leg bound in splints.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Thos. Durbin returned from Dakota a few days ago to spend the winter with his friends.

Mr. Charles Barber and wife have come back from British Columbia after a few years' stay in that province. Mr. B. is not in love with that country owing to the wet weather that prevails.

PEEFING.—On one of our public roads a few days ago a rather unusual sight was seen. Perched on top of a "moving" of furniture beside her "guidman," a woman was sitting complacently smoking a pipe. It is not often that female smokers are seen now-a-days on the highway enjoying the "weed."

ENLISTED.—At last Mr. John Durbin has joined the "redcoats." For some time he has been thinking there was a great deal of truth in the old saw, "It is not good for man to be alone," so on Tuesday last he leaped out on the matrimonial sea in company with Miss Agar, of Ashfield.

A COLD BATH.—Owing to scarcity of water a certain young man had occasion to draw water in a barrel during one of the stormy days of last week, and while going along the road the barrel began to slide to one side of the sleigh. To put matters right the young man jumped out to put the barrel in its place. When, lo! his feet sank in the loose snow, the barrel followed, thoroughly drenching him. He was next seen driving furiously towards home, minus the barrel, but enveloped in a fast-forming sheet of ice. At last accounts the young man is none the worse for his wet bath.

Blyth.

Mr. John Young recently returned from Manitoba after spending about five months in that country. He says Winnipeg is a lively and business like place, and if a person wishes to make a fortune that is the place for him to go to. As for the country he likes it a long way off, and says it furnishes a good example of "distance lends enchantment to the view."

Mr. Henderson is re-engaged as Principal of the Blyth Public School for the ensuing year at a salary of $525. This is the fourth year for him in Blyth and it speaks well for him, as no higher or better compliments can be paid a teacher than to remain in the same school for a number of years.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday evening as the three o'clock train was nearing the railroad crossing on the 7th concession of Morris, Mr. Wallace's team, becoming unmanageable, started off, and had just got on the track when the "iron horse" struck them. Killing one instantly and injuring the other to such an extent that its throat had to be cut to put an end to its suffering. This was a fine team, and will be a heavy loss to Mr. Wallace. That gentleman had a narrow escape as had likewise Joseph Dwyer, who, on seeing the train approaching, jumped and saved his life. Had the train sounded its whistle on its approach to the crossing, this accident would in all probability not have happened.

OBITUARY.—It is our sad and painful duty to record the death of Thomas, son of Mr. Leishman, of this place. The sad event took place in Ethel after a long and lingering illness of almost a year borne with patience and Christian resignation. The deceased was of a kindhearted, social and genial disposition, and will be long remembered in this neighborhood. The family in their sad though not sudden bereavement have the sympathy of the entire community. For some time preparatory to his demise his sufferings were severe and constant, yet his faith in Jesus never wavered. Nurtured in the lap of piety, he was brought up in the true faith. In this faith he lived and in this faith he triumphantly died. Though never pressing forward to a position of prominence in public or municipal affairs, he was an assiduous worker in a religious, charitable and educational standpoint. He has been especially identified with every species of moral and religious reform, where the development of such has produced a result beneficial to the community of which he was a prominent member. He taught for three years in Ethel, giving entire satisfaction and established his reputation for ability and general industry, integrity and the sound principle of Christianity; always endeavoring to inculcate that "education is unfinished until the physical powers are brought into subjection to the understanding, and the dictates of morality and social refinement."

Colborne Council Meeting.

The municipal council of Colborne met in the township hall on Tuesday, 12th December, 1882. Members all present. Reeve in the chair. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted. The clerk was instructed to notify George Little to remove the house, etc., off the public road not later than the 1st day of April, 1883.

Communication from J. Scott informing the council that the road opposite Horton's, Graham's, Morrish's, Lotin's and Bean's was blocked with snow, which would not have been the case had those parties complied with the fence by-law. The clerk was instructed to notify the aforesaid parties to take down or remove their fence, and to make the road passable in front of their property.

The clerk was further instructed to notify the following parties to comply with the provisions of the aforesaid by-law, viz.: D. Fisher, John Fisher, J. Jenkins, Isaac Fisher, Samuel Hart, Samuel Bissett, Jas. Bogie and H. Green.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid, viz.: Wm. Robertson, scraper, $4.50; Wm. Allen, repairing culvert, 30c; Owen Jones, repairing culvert, 24c; Chas. Walter, repairing culvert, $2; Wm. McIntyre, gravel, $13.10; Wm. McWhinney, gravel, $4.97; John McWhinney, lumber, $11.24; R. T. Haynes, lumber, $6.65; A. Horje, $3.64; Nicholas Morrish, lumber, $11.50; Wm. McIntyre, gravel, $1.75; John Snyder, gravel, $7.20; George Morris, repairs, $5; H. S. Fisher, plough broke at statute labor, $2; Wm. Blake, gravel, $8.80; Goderich News, printing, $3.25; Goderich Star, do., $41.35; HURON SIGNAL, do., $14.50; Jas. Long, gravel, $12.55; Andrew Green, wire fence, $25; Jas. Clark, do., $26; H. Dodd, lumber, $9.31; John M. Gibbon, gravel, $3.75; Wm. Millon, loss of horse and damage done to wagon and harness, also doctor bill, loss of time, etc., which he sustained through falling over a precipice on the public road, amounting to $101.35; after quite a discussion it was moved by Mr. Beck, seconded by Mr. Malloy, that he receive the sum of $70.—Carried. A. Davidson and W. Barkwell were remitted $1 each for dog tax; Clerk, stationery and postage, $10.26; J. Goldthorpe, non-resident statute labor, $4; J. Symington, plank, 90c; A. Sterling, for burying a sheep which lay on the public road, $1.

Moved and seconded that the nomination for Reeve, Deputy-Reeve and Councilors be held in the Township Hall, on Friday, the 22nd December, at 12 o'clock noon, and that in case a poll be demanded that the elections be held in the different sub-divisions as formerly, and that the same deputy returning officers be employed as appointed last year.—Carried.

The Council then adjourned.

Goderich Township.

Miss Currie, of Port Huron, is visiting friends in this township.

Mr. Alex. Watt of the 13th con., Hullett sold a two year old colt to Mr. George W. Dyke, of Goderich township, for $150.

Mr. Wm. Henderson, after a successful season's threshing with his steamer, has put up for the winter.

Mr. Geo. Tiebhorne, who has been on a four months visit to his brother James, at Buckhorn near Chatham, is now with the "old folks at home."

The Chicago House, WEST-ST., GODERICH.

THE FALL TRADE IN MILLINERY! Has now opened at that headquarters of fashion, the Chicago House, and I am now in a position to state that the latest styles, best material and most reasonable prices can be found there. Everything in the Millinery line in Misses, Young Ladies, Matrons and Widows' Wear is on view at the Chicago House. A particularly fine line in Widows' Caps can be seen.

MISS WILKINSON is also agent for Butterick's Patterns and Parker's Steam Dye Works, Toronto.

Remember the place: THE CHICAGO HOUSE West-Street.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LANDS.

County of Huron. By virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of Her Majesty's County Court of the County of Lambton, and to me directed and delivered, against the lands and tenements of Joseph Hogg, at the suit of FINLAY MCKIBBIN, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest and equity of redemption of the above named defendant, in and to lot five hundred and ninety two (592), situate in the Township of Goderich, in the County of Huron, comprising a dwelling house, and one quarter of an acre of land, more or less, and subject to a mortgage of three hundred dollars, which lands and tenements I shall offer for sale, at my office in the Court House, in the Town of Goderich, on Tuesday, the 30th day of January, 1883, at the hour of twelve of the clock noon.

ROBERT GIBBONS, Sheriff of Huron.

Mr. R. L. Johnston and wife, of Aberdeen, Dakota, are visiting the scenes of their youth. They have many friends and relatives in town and township who will warmly welcome them and talk of the days of yore.

Mr. John Cox, of the front road, had the very painful operation of having a cancer cut from his hip performed. The cancer was of 35 years standing, and considering that Mr. Cox is a man of some 65 summers, he stood the operation remarkably well. Dr. Varcoe, of Brucefield, assisted by a doctor from Seaford, did the work, and the patient is doing well.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The closing examination of the pupils of S. S. No. 1 Goderich Tp. took place on Friday December 15th. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather quite a number of visitors were present. Owing to the recent illness of the teacher Mr. R. Miller, the school has been carried on by his brother Mr. H. S. Miller. The pupils by their general conduct and prompt answers show that great care and precision have been exercised in their training, and everything appears to work harmoniously between pupils and teacher.

Mr. Thos. Henderson, who is engaged to teach in this section next year was present, and took part in examining the scholars. Particular interest was manifested in the prize for spelling, a handsome writing desk awarded by Mr. Geo. Sheppard of Goderich. After a very close contest Aggie Orr carried off the prize. Gerrie Salkeld taking second place. At the close of the examination, Mr. James Johnston in behalf of the pupils presented the teacher with a very fine album as a slight token of remembrance and esteem. Much regret is felt in the section at the removal of Mr. Miller to Auburn, and we are satisfied that wherever his lot may be cast he will prove as in the past willing at all times to forward the interests of those under his charge. We wish him every success in his new section.—Com.
