POETRY. Love's Limit. I'd swear for her, I'd tear for her, The Lord knows what I'd bear for her; I'd lie for her, I'd sigh for her, I'd drink Big Muddy dry for her; I'd "cuss" for her, Do "wuss" for her, I'd kick up a hundred fuss for her; I'd weep for her, I'd leap for her, I'd go without my sleep for her; I'd sleep for her, I'd kiss for her, I'd walk the streets all night for her; I'd plead for her, I'd bleed for her, I'd go without my "feed" for her; I'd shoot for her, I'd hold for her, I'd rival who'd come to "suit" for her; I'd kneel for her, I'd deal for her, Such is the love I feel for her; I'd slide for her, I'd glide for her, I'd swim against wind and tide for her; I'd try for her, I'd cry for her, But—hang me for her, N. B.—Or any other woman.

ECONOMY IS WEALTH.—Franklin. WHY will people pay $50 or $100 for a Sewing Machine, when $25 will buy the "FRANKLIN'S" Machine? Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, the subscribers beg to inform their numerous friends that the "FRANKLIN'S" Machines can be had in any quantity. This machine is a double-thread, constructed upon entirely new principles, and does not inflict upon any other in the world. It is emphatically the poor man's Sewing Machine, and is warranted to excel ALL others, as thousands of patrons will testify.

COUGHS and COLDS. Sudden changes of climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should be at once had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges. Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough, or "common cold," in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, allay irritation which induces coughing, having a direct influence on the affected parts. As there are imitations, be sure to obtain the genuine. Sold by all dealers in medicine at 25 cents a box.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS! Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, it will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it: there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents. Sold everywhere. Be sure and call for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. All others are base and dangerous imitations.

Evening Mercury. FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 4. Local News. We understand that it is contemplated to organize a Literary Society for Milton, to engage the attention of young men during the winter months.

Volunteer Rifle Match. Arrangements are in progress and far towards completion in London for holding a District Shooting Match at that city on the 22nd inst. Committees have been appointed there to canvass for contributions, and to draw up rules for the government of the match. The shooting is to take place at the Cove Ranges. The prize list has not yet been definitely settled, as it will entirely depend upon the amount of contributions obtained. One match, however, is intended to be a sweepstakes of $120, divided into three prizes of $50, $40, and $30, to be competed for by ten marksmen selected from each battalion in the district, at ranges of 800, 400 and 500 yards. There are 12 battalions in the District, and the sweepstakes are to be made up of an entrance fee of $10 from each. Circulars have been addressed to the colonels of all the battalions in the district calling their attention to the match. One of these has been received by Lieutenant Colonel Higginbotham, and also a letter from Lieut. Col. Shanley, stating more explicitly than it was set forth in the circular, "that with a view to making the main prizes of the meeting, those for the District Match, as large as they ought to be, there is a necessity for the sum of at least $10 from each battalion in the district being subscribed." Then follows a request, that that amount, at least, will be forwarded from the battalion, if possible, before Monday, the 7th inst., as on that day the committee is to report on the sum total of the funds in hand, after which the several matches, prizes, &c., will be published. Col. Higginbotham has notified the committee that the 30th Wellington Battalion will join in the match. Subscribers lists are now with him and the captains commanding companies in this Battalion, and it is to be hoped every volunteer will heartily join in the coming match. We have no doubt that the Wellington Rifles will come off well, and show that they can use the new Snider rifle with as good effect as the old Enfield, the former being the rifle to be used at the match.

MANSLAUGHTER.—Mason, the coloured man, who killed his wife in London, was tried on Wednesday last, found guilty of manslaughter, but recommended to mercy. He was sentenced to six months imprisonment in the common goal.

The Milton Mechanics' Institute have purchased a $350 piano of Messrs. Heintzman & Co., manufacturers, Toronto, who took the first prize at the recent Provincial Show at Kingston. They propose to pay for it by Re-unions, the first to be on 15th inst.

The Grand Trunk Company intend to close their office in Galt, on the 8th of the present month. The Deon branch is also, we understand, to be closed—the Grand Trunk Company having made arrangements for the carriage of all freight coming over their line for Galt by Great Western from Guelph.

SOUTH WELLINGTON TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The next semi quarterly meeting of the South Wellington Teachers' Association will be held in the Town Hall, Guelph, on Saturday, the 12th inst. The subject for discussion, "Mixed Education," will be led by Mr. McLennan. A full attendance is requested.

THIRD PRIZE BOGGY HORSE.—The third prize for a single buggy horse was awarded at the Show on Thursday to Mr. F. Gauthier, but he refused to accept the ribbon. The prize would be given to any one else, and although he denied the justice of the judgment which placed his horse in the third rank his name must appear as the winner of the prize. Mr. Gauthier must solace himself by the reflection that he was not the only person who had reason to consider, that their animals were not awarded the position to which their merit entitled them.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, while Mr. Robert Nesbit, son of Stephen Nesbit, Esq, Beverley, was attending a threshing machine, the sleeve of his shirt got caught in the connecting rod, and he would undoubtedly have been fatally injured had it not been for the presence of a missettled by a person who stood near him at the time, and who immediately caught hold of him and by sheer force pulled him away from the machine.—Mr. Nesbit was, however, severely bruised, and had one of his arms broken near the shoulder.

FIRE AT GODEFRICH.—A fire broke out about one o'clock on Thursday morning in the frame block fronting on the Market square, owned by Mr. A. Smith and Mrs. McConnell, and occupied by Mr. Smith, clothier, Mr. McIntosh, gunsmith, and Mrs. McConnell, milliner; and in short, times consumed the whole. Smith's loss is nearly covered by insurance. He saved most of his goods. McIntosh is partly insured and lost everything. Mrs. McConnell had no insurance, and saved the principal part of her goods and furniture, but lost the building and some personal property. The origin of the fire is unknown.

RAILWAY BY-LAW IN GARAFAXA.—The voting on the Railway By-law in the Township of Garafaxa, offering a bonus of $20,000 to the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway, and $10,000 to the Orangeville and Brampton Tramway, will take place to-day, and from what we were able to learn on a recent visit to that Township, the By-law will be defeated. The people are very well satisfied with Guelph as their market, and believe in enjoying the privileges of a railway without having to pay for it, as Guelph Town and Township have had to do. As they are situated at present they have a good market, while (if the railway should go on) in Vergas or Elora they would have but a little connection, and be compelled to take what buyers choose to offer. This, in a few words, is their main objection.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT AT AYR.—The Galt Reporter has the following:—A most painful and serious accident occurred on the Show ground at Ayr on Wednesday last, whereby Mrs. Reid, wife of Mr. Thomas Reid, of Blair, received most dreadful injuries. The unfortunate woman was standing near the horse-rings at the time, when a young horse attached to a buggy was driven through the crowd. Just as it was passing Mrs. Reid, it suddenly kicked out most viciously, striking the unfortunate woman directly in the face, and inflicting such terrible injuries that it is feared she cannot survive. The whole upper jaw appeared to be smashed to pieces, the injuries extending nearly to the eyes. Medical aid was obtained as promptly as possible, and the injured woman removed from the ground; but we understand that her medical attendants have but faint hopes of her recovery. The occurrence of this deplorable accident cast a heavy gloom over the proceedings of the Show; and the most heartfelt sympathy was expressed for the unfortunate victim, as well as those more immediately connected with her.

BUNYAN, speaking of the fruits of his mission, says:—"I have observed that a word cast in by-the-by, hath done more execution in a sermon than all that was spoken besides. Sometimes, also, when I have thought I did no good, then I did the most of all; and at other times, when I thought I should catch them, I had fished for nothing." In this respect Bunyan's experience was not unlike the experience of other ministers. Would likewise, they could say with him: "Never can I be satisfied unless some blessings do attend my work. If I be fruitless it matters not who commends me; but if I be fruitful I care not who condemns me."

THE ACADEMIC POPULATION.—The French of Nova Scotia have, it seems, been increasing in number with a rapidity. The ratio of increase, without the aid of immigration, has been 40 per cent. in ten years; whereas the whole population of the counties where they reside has only increased at the rate of 24 per cent. in the same time. French statisticians therefore think that, with an immigration of French Canadians, the French element will soon preponderate in some of the counties of Nova Scotia.

THE tone of the American press is not reassuring. Journals usually calm and reserved in the expression of their opinions do not hesitate to speak doubtfully of the future peace of the country. No nation ever passed through the stirring scenes which rendered the battle scenes of this continent so fearfully elaborated, and attained repose at one bound. The passions of millions cannot be violently agitated and harmonized into repose within a few months. There must be periods of reaction, and ebb and flow of the current of public opinion. We hold too high an idea of the intelligence of the American people to doubt their capacity to surmount grave troubles. A squabble between a President and a Congress may be a novelty, but another year will place new actors on the stage.

property could not be thus trifled with, and the demolition must cease. These commenced the usual course of Missionsman prostration and promises, but no real redress. Finally, Minister Morris informed them that if these deprivations continued, he should order the U. S. ship of war to enter the Bosphorus and Messrs. Ayers' medical warehouse would not be alone roofless. A stroke of his pen could have laid the whole city under the sweep of American cannon, backed by men who are not schooled in the lessons of fear. This brought them to their senses and speedy redress. Missions has now arrived in this country to present the case to our State Department for indemnity. At length is something to say among the people of the earth—"I am an American citizen."

London, Oct. 2.—Reports from Italy are startling. A despatch from Florence, received late this evening, says the outbreak at Viterbo was not quelled. The small town of Aquahendente, in Ovieto, has been captured by the insurgents, who now have full possession of all the roads leading to it. The commander of the forces of the Pope has asked the Italian government for instant assistance. Italy refuses to furnish any soldiers. There is now no room for doubt that the revolt is serious. There are alarming apprehensions of an interruption of friendly relations between Italy and France.

London, Oct. 3.—Later advices from South America have been received. Florence, Oct. 3.—The rebels held many strong points in the province of Viterbo and await the attack of the Pontifical corps.

From Great Britain. Special to Guelph Evening Mercury. London, Oct. 3rd, evening.—It is reported that a policeman had been shot and killed in Rochdale by some Fenians. A policeman was attacked and nearly killed in this city by a gang of citizens, last night. These events, in connection with recent occurrences in Manchester and Ireland, have given rise to the rumor of a new and wide spread Fenian conspiracy.

London, Oct. 2.—Reports from Italy are startling. A despatch from Florence, received late this evening, says the outbreak at Viterbo was not quelled. The small town of Aquahendente, in Ovieto, has been captured by the insurgents, who now have full possession of all the roads leading to it. The commander of the forces of the Pope has asked the Italian government for instant assistance. Italy refuses to furnish any soldiers. There is now no room for doubt that the revolt is serious. There are alarming apprehensions of an interruption of friendly relations between Italy and France.

London, Oct. 3.—Later advices from South America have been received. They give no definite intelligence as to the result of the recent bombardment of the Paraguayan fortifications, but state that the Brazilian and Argentine fleets were lying inactive off Humaita, and the land forces of the allied powers making no preparations for further movement.

London, Oct. 3rd.—The members of the Masonic order last night gave a grand dinner at Gravesend to the officers of Farragut's flag-ship, Franklin, now lying off the port.

London, Oct. 3rd, midnight.—The Turkish government has made an apology to the American ambassador at Constantinople for the insult offered to one of the messengers attached to the U. S. consulate. The Emperor Alexander of Russia has demanded of the Sublime Porte the cession of the Island of Candia to Greece.

London, Oct. 3d, evening.—Consols closed steady at 94 5-16. Liverpool, Oct. 3.—Cotton has been heavy all day and closed at a decline of 8d per lb.

London, Oct. 3rd, evening.—Sugar closed at 25s 5d for No. 12 d. s. Many Fenian convicts who have hitherto been confined in English and Irish jails have been placed on board a transport for Australia to serve out terms of sentence.

From Pesth. Special to the Guelph Evening Mercury. Pesth, Oct. 2.—The Naplo News, a paper of this city, publishes letters and other documents to prove that Louis Kossuth was engaged in intrigues with agents of the Russian government in 1849.

From Spain. Special to Guelph Evening Mercury. Madrid, Oct. 3.—Gen. Lersundi received the commission of Captain of Cuba and will immediately sail for Havana.

From Vienna. Special to the Guelph Evening Mercury. Vienna, Oct. 3.—The Roman Catholic bishops of the Austro-Slavic empire met in congress at Prague, and their opposition to a concordat with the American Minister, who had been despatched to Vienna, was made known.

GARIBALDI.

Garibaldi has refused to give his parole to the Italian Government, and in consequence is still a prisoner in their hands. His personal efforts are restrained, but his spirit is still the untamed spirit of Garibaldi. His partisans break forth in revolution, and their chief, speaking from his confinement, seeks not to calm their turbulence, but to incite them onwards to Rome. History written after a man has been laid in the tomb, rather than the contemporary annals of nations, determines his claims to the rank of a hero. The full effect of the changes he has accomplished are seen and understood, and as they have tended to the weal or woe of mankind, according to the traits of his character which they have developed, so will the judgment of the historian pronounce upon him. A few years ago when Garibaldi marched upon Rome and was hailed as its deliverer, or when his patriotic efforts put Victor Emmanuel in possession of the Sicilies, in the Protestant world there were but few voices to dissent from the belief that he was an extremely rare example of the disinterested hero of liberty. But it is well if he has not lived too long for fame, well if he has not outlived the once exalted opinion that was entertained of Garibaldi and his red-shirted followers. His military life has been an intermitting demonstration of his patriotism and devotion to liberty, but his enthusiasm has placed him in that position where patriotism is the very first quality of his mind that must be considered. And if it must be considered, then there must be doubts about it. This is an inverse deduction, but it is a fair one. If we judge him by his intentions we may pronounce mildly against him, but we must condemn the uncurbed self-will that spurns every thing prudent and judicious. It is equally the duty of patriotism to submit to legitimately constituted authority and its necessities, and to give a stern and unflinching opposition to foreign or domestic tyranny. Here Garibaldi erred. He knew the honor of Italy was pledged, that no revolution of Victor Emmanuel's subjects should be allowed to endanger the temporal sovereignty of the Pope; he knew that France was not likely to overlook any infraction of the treaty, yet the impetuous soldier disregarded these things, and saw or cared for nothing but his own cherished scheme of making Italy "one and undivided," even though Italy's honor should help to pay the price of the achievement. Had he stopped short of Aspromonte, had he not more recently crossed the Roman frontier, and still more, had he not been present at the Geneva Conference, or had he not enunciated such wild and unbecoming doctrine in that assembly he might still have been honored with the almost undivided respect of the Protestant portion of Christendom. In the meantime he has left the world to speculate on what is the nature of the new religion which he partly announced at the Conference, and which he no doubt intended to establish in Rome had he been allowed to do as he said he would, drive out the priests with the butts of the muskets. What Garibaldi's half-announced religious doctrine would prove to be were it known in its entirety we can form no certain idea, and it might be dangerous to hazard a conjecture, still we must say that it appears to be something akin to what has been before announced by leading revolutionary spirits. The astonished Peace Conference heard from the lips of the irrepressible old chieftain the startling assertions, "Papacy is abolished," and afterwards, "the religion of God is adopted." It is questionable if the proponent himself perfectly understood his tenets, but when asked what he meant by "the religion of God," he gave the rather heterodox reply, "the religion of Reason." In custody of the Italian Government he may perchance perfect his theory, but perhaps we shall never know more concerning it, than the vague outline which has now been given us unless the time should come when Garibaldi will stand in Rome a victor over the temporal power of the Pope.

Alluding to the rumor that President Johnson contemplates using the Maryland militia, 10,000 strong, as a sort of Pledge of the Congress, the Tribune of Tuesday says: "It affords only another illustration of what we have again and again declared—that the public mind is in a condition of chronic alarm, and watches with nervous susceptibility the slightest indication of Executive power. Never before has the country been in a predicament so humiliating. It is grace to be credulous, and it may be to disbelieve."

South Wellington Agricultural Exhibition.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS. THE SHOW OUTSIDE.

The Show to-day was more numerously attended than on Tuesday. The morning opened bright and clear, and throughout the day the weather was extremely pleasant. A large concourse of people visited the Drill Shed during the day, and made an interesting and minute inspection of the various articles exhibited. The Fair ground was also the scene of great attraction, especially the horse ring, which was surrounded with a large crowd during the time the judges were engaged in their labours. We believe the attendance this year on both days was as large as at last Show, and the arrangements so well carried out by the Secretary and the Directors in every respect—so far as we have heard—satisfactory were.

THE HORSES. There was a fine show of horses in all classes. It is worthy of remark that in brood mares there were 14 entries—exactly the same number as last year. Mr. K. McKenzie, as he did last year, carried off the first prize. He also took the first prize for colt foal, and for filly foal. The young horses generally were very good, and we think give evidence that the farmers in this section are now bestowing more care than they formerly did in the rearing of good horses. There were six teams of working horses, which were greatly admired. Quite an excitement was raised when the judges gave their decision in this class, it being the almost universal opinion that Mr. H. McClell's fine team, which have taken so many first prizes at so many shows, should have got the red ribbon, and the indignation of many of the bystanders found vent in angry protests. In the class of carriage horses some fine animals were shown, especially those belonging to Mr. Jno West and Mr. Buckland. There were ten entries of buggy horses, and for make, pace, etc., we have never seen them surpassed in Guelph. The one owned by Mr. Henry Berry was awarded the first, and Mr. J. B. Armstrong's the second prize. In hackneys there were 16 entries. Some of them are splendid trotters, well trained, and were good in their paces. Mr. Naughton's fine chestnut mare took the red ribbon, Mr. Peter Grant's coming in second.

CATTLE. It is a settled fact that the South Riding of Wellington can beat any part of Canada in stock. There was a splendid collection of cattle on the ground to-day, large, well bred, and possessing all the points so highly thought of by breeders. Mr. Stone did not show so many Durhams as usual, a number of his stock being taken away we believe to the New York State Fair in Buffalo. Still there were an excellent representation of Durhams, there being 55 entries in all. Two fine lots of Galloways were shown by Messrs. McCrae and Wm. Hood, many of which took prizes at the late Provincial Exhibition. Mr. Geo. Rudd showed two Devons which were good specimens of the breed. Mr. Stone was almost the exclusive exhibitor in Hereford. The grade cows were a fine sight, all of them being large, well bred, and in excellent condition. There were 11 entries of working oxen, and if we mistake not there never was such a fine show in this class, several of the animals being of immense size, and in fine condition.

SHEEP. But the show of sheep excelled every other department. A long range of pens was occupied with the different classes, and a continuous stream of people kept improved them all day. The Leicester were more numerous than any of the other breeds, and it would be hard to match some of them in any other part of Canada. We noticed a very large and fine improved Leicester ram, exhibited by Mr. Robert Kirby, which took the first prize. There were 59 entries altogether in this class. In the Cotswolds there were 81 entries. Although not so extensively reared as the Leicesters, this class of sheep is a great favorite with some farmers, and the excellent condition and purity of breed in those shown to-day attest the care bestowed by our farmers in rearing them. There were 15 entries of Southdowns, the only exhibitors being Messrs. Stone and Jas. Anderson. Mr. Anderson had the satisfaction of beating Mr. Stone in some of the classes, which it is sometimes pretty hard to do.

PIGS. The porcine breed was well represented. M. Hassan had a boar of immense size. Mr. D. Coffee had also a very large boar and a couple of excellent sows with promising litters. Mr. H. Oakes also showed some very fat pigs. Mr. P. Medley showed an excellent boar.

POULTRY. The poultry made a very fair show, though the competition was confined to a few. Mr. Wm. Evans had a fine lot of Spanish fowls and geese. Mr. Wm. Thompson had some fine specimens of geese and ducks. The Bramapootras shown by Mr. John Card were very creditable, so also were his other fowls, and those shown by Mr. Robt. McKersy. Mr. Chas. Head, Mr. Thos. McCrae and Mr. Geo. Rudd had also some good specimens on exhibition.

The judges in the different departments were: For horses, Messrs. George Nicklin, Pilkington; James Wright, Guelph Township; John Barron, Waterloo. Cattle: Messrs. William Glennie, Woolwich; John Weir, junr., Flamboro; George Elliott, Waterloo; D. Chambers, Waterloo. Sheep and pigs: Messrs. A. Broadfoot, Harpurhay; William Tindall, Nichol; Alex. The Flourishing State of Dundee. A correspondent of a London paper writes as follows from Dundee, where the Scientific Association meets this year: "Very few towns owe more to the energy of its people than Dundee. It is the Glasgow of the east of Scotland. Both as a seaport and as a manufacturing town its importance is increasing rapidly. Here, as nearly everywhere in Scotland, the ancient burgh, the "old" system prevails. This gives Dundee a better show of street architecture than many English towns of the same size. But it cooped up 90,000 inhabitants within narrower limits than would be allowed them on the south of the Tweed. One seldom finds an Englishman who likes the system, and rarely a Scotchman who will not contend that it is the best and the only one to house the people of Scotland at all. The flax and jute works in Dundee are of great size. It is quite a curiosity to see 4,500 to 5,000 work-people leave the mills of Baxter, Brothers & Co. Sir David Baxter, the uncle of the member of Parliament, is the representative of the firm. He is known, and deserves to be, throughout the kingdom as the donor of a handsome park to the ancient burgh. For the last fifteen years the use of jute in the manufacture of yards, carpets, sackings, and the like has been rapidly extending, till this mere Indian grass has become the most important staple of one of the largest industries in the kingdom. The American war gave an impetus to Dundee as it did to Belfast, which will surprise many of its scientific visitors."

A Mr. Atkinson was shot on Arran Quay, Dublin, on the 12th, in mistake for Head Constable Talbot, who rendered the state so much service in the suppression of the Fenian conspiracy, and thereby rendered himself so obnoxious to the Fenian party. Talbot had passed by the place a few minutes previously.

A young Scotchman named Hugh Crawford Pollock, who arrived in this country about two years since, and shortly after enlisted in the 5th United States Cavalry, as a private soldier, has by the death of his father in Scotland, fallen heir to a baronetcy and £5,000 a year. Gen. Grant has discharged Pollock from the service—for some months past the faithful baronet has been discharging the

The very newest thing in trades unionism is a threatened strike of curates. Attention is called to the matter by an "Old Incumbent," who comments upon a printed document which was circulated at a recent meeting of discontented curates in London, in St. Martin's-in-the-Fields. We perceive in this document that low pay is only one of the grievances requiring redress, for the relief demanded by the agitators comprises the following particulars:—"Curates are to become permanent; curates have a proper independence to be protected from arbitrary and despotic treatment, whether episcopal or other; curates to be on equal footing in spiritual matters with the incumbent; to be the incumbent's assessor in things spiritual; the equality of priests; the right to celebrate at certain times; a system of promotion by seniority; the equalization (according to population) of the stipends of incumbents; the monies of the various charities to be shown into a common fund."

Guelph Evening Mercury
FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 4.

NORAH CUSHALEEN ON THE HAUNTED CASTLE.

"You will wonder at my presence here at this hour," said the girl in hurried accents. "But pray tell me have you heard no word of your son since he departed?"
"Oh, in it myself, Miss, that knows he has gone? Sure now I did not expect that any person in the valley had the least bit of suspicion."
"I chanced to see him on the night of his departure and he told me," answered Mary, blushing slightly, but soon recovering her calm self-possession. "He and—Mr. Hargrave's servants are, I understand, attempting to effect the young gentleman's escape."
"For certain they are, Miss," answered Michael despondingly; "but not a word of news have I heard of them since they went away at all; and it is myself that thinks they've got into the hands of Captain Jack. Oho! may be they'll be all murdered, and poor old Michael will again be left alone."
"I sincerely hope they will soon return," said Mary, whose depressed heart had little consolation to give. "Alas! it stood more in need of it."
Having learned all that Michael could tell her, which indeed, was very little, she again wrapped the shawl around her head and glided into the quiet village street. All was dark and silent at the castle when she reached it, and entering by the same private door, through which she had left, safely reached her own apartment. She spent a sleepless, but not a wearisome night, for through the dark and silent hours she was musing and maturing her bold purpose. The following day she departed herself with quiet gravity, especially in the presence of her father, and again retired when night drew its curtain of shadows over the earth.

But not to bed had she gone. She was to prepare for the long, arduous and perilous journey before her. Arranging herself more perfectly in the dress she had done on the previous evening, she took from her dressing case a small jewel-box or casket, and depositing it in a safe and secret place within her dress, she again made her way to the park, and this time she took the road that led to the mountains.
It was a desperate adventure she had undertaken, but who can set limits to the love and devotion of a true woman's heart?

CHAPTER XLII.—A SUSPICION ENTERS THE MIND OF LADY BLANTIRE WHICH CAUSES HER TO VISIT THE RUIN WITH A DARK AND CRUEL PURPOSE.

On the night of Mary Kendal's abduction, Lady Blantire was walking to and fro in her room in a state of proud exaltation. She was too excited to sleep, owing to the importance of the event which was that night taking place. The honor and prosperity of the family were being put beyond peril. Malvin was being married to a lady of equal rank, and her ample fortune would free the estate from the embarrassment which her son's extravagance and dissipation had brought upon it.
To be sure there were circumstances connected with the marriage which were calculated to detract somewhat from Lady Blantire's feeling of triumphant satisfaction. She could not get rid of the thought that the time, the place, and the character of the ceremony were not such as befitted a union between the houses of Kendal and Blantire. A marriage so auspicious ought to have been contracted amid much pomp and splendor. There should have been public rejoicings and loud and open congratulations; but instead of all this there was secrecy, silence, and concealment. The midnight hour was chosen for the time of the ceremony, the place was a solitary ruin among the mountains, and on the part of the bride the marriage was altogether forced. The union was being formed not only without her consent, but she was absolutely rendered helpless by violence, and made a wife utterly against her will.
These facts were certainly calculated to moderate Lady Blantire's satisfaction, but she looked upon Mary's opposition as the result of romantic and evanescent feeling, produced by the wiles of the intriguing adventurer Hargrave, and she imagined that when the vain and silly dream was over, Mary would be glad and thankful that she had been constrained to her own good.
In spite, then, of the exceptional circumstances attending the union, Lady Blantire was strongly excited, for the interests which had been at stake and the dangers which would be removed by it were of the very gravest description, and threatened to deal a fatal blow at the Blantire family, of whom her son was the representative. If the disgraceful fact had become known, that Malvin had been secretly married to Norah Cushaleen, a peasant girl, Squire Kendal would have indignantly spurned the idea of a marriage with his daughter, and the publication of the horrible truth would have been equally prejudicial to an alliance with any other suitable Irish family. The consequences, therefore, would have been poverty and extinction—two unmitigated and irreparable evils.
But from these awful consequences the ceremony of that night saved the house of Blantire, and her judgment was correspondingly elated, more particularly as the abduction which was that night being effected was her own suggestion, and she congratulated herself on the thought that by her prompt and energetic counsel, the threatened danger had been averted.
She could not sleep, and was restlessly pacing her chamber as the dawn of the new day broke silently over the earth.

A RADICAL change is about to be effected in the way of shoeing horses in France. The old fashioned shoe is to be altogether discarded; the hoofs of the horse will be allowed to grow naturally, and it will be protected against accidents, and wear and tear by being inclosed in a thin circle of iron, which will preserve

Business Education!

A practical business education has now become a necessity to every young man contemplating a business career. Without this education young men are destined to fail in their attempts to succeed.
The business education the British American Commercial College of Toronto imparts, and it is a source of pride to the proprietors that their graduates are at the present time filling positions of honor and responsibility in some of the highest Mercantile Houses and Banking Institutions of our country. Stronger testimony to the thoroughness of this education could not be given than the following letter from J. G. Worts, Esq., President of the Board of Trade:
Toronto, Dec. 19, 1865.
Messrs. Musgrove & Wright.—Dear Sirs—I cannot express too strongly my appreciation of your efforts to establish a model house of business. I consider that such a system as yours is of the greatest importance both to the employer and the employed, as it saves the former the time and labor of teaching every new hand, and the latter the waste of time involved in his own apprenticeship. Your admirable system of real business is a complete remedy for this defect, and your great success in this department is made clearly manifest by the air of reality that your students display in their model transactions, and by their downrightness when they fail to meet their engagements. I can testify to the excellence of your system from personal experience having at the present time in my office several of the firms I belong to three young men who were educated at your establishment. I am giving you every success in your laudable enterprise.
I remain, dear Sirs, yours, &c.

RUSSELL WATCH!

A FEW REASONS THAT MAKE IT SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

1st—It proves itself a reliable time-keeper beyond all question.
2nd—The RUSSELL WATCH being made on correct and scientific principles, it must follow as a natural consequence that it will keep time.
3rd—Each part of which the RUSSELL WATCH is composed is a reflex of the perfect machine which, under skilful direction, it is produced.
4th—Truth is the essential of each part.
5th—Uniformity and conformity must therefore characterize the several parts in fulfilling the purpose for which they are made and brought together.
6th—Reproduction, as regards watch work, is simply an application of the principle that "things which are equal to the same things are equal to one another," and if there is any merit, the RUSSELL WATCH possesses that merit to a demonstration.
7th—The greatest variety of price, quality and size, that confidence and perfection will admit, afforded by the RUSSELL WATCH.
8th—The RUSSELL WATCH stands pre-eminently above all competitors for public favor and patronage.
9th—Proofs of the foregoing—the universal testimony of all Watchmakers who have sold, and the positive statements of the thousands in Europe, the United States and Canada, who have worn the RUSSELL WATCH.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Robert Cuthbert, Watchmaker, Wyndham Street, Guelph.
If Society was as perfect in its organization, and was as obedient to the dictates of truth as the RUSSELL WATCH I bought from you is in indicating time, evil would be swallowed up in good, and happiness would become monotonous.

The best proof I could have of the good name of the Store is the more than liberal support extended to myself during the long years which the Montreal Boot and Shoe Store has been under my control. MR. McNEIL has been a long time in your midst, and has an extensive connection in this County, which, coupled with PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE of his business, and constant manner, augurs well for his success, and I trust you will confer on him a share of your esteemed patronage.

CO-OPERATIVE STORE!

GUELPH, ONTARIO.

THE SUBSCRIBERS HAVE PURCHASED FROM JOHN WHYTE, ESQ., ASSIGNEE, MONTREAL JOHN DAVIDSON'S STOCK, CONSISTING OF

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES

BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Stock amounts to $4,670. The price paid was $2,381.70, being Fifty-one Cents on the Dollar, and the Goods will be sold at the undermentioned figures, being on an average 40 per cent. under wholesale and 108 per cent. below retail prices. For example, goods which originally cost $1.00, and which have been retail for $1.25, cost the subscribers only 51 cents, and are now offered at 60 cents.

A few words about BANKRUPT STOCKS.

A merchant only a short time in business fails and assigns, and then his Goods are called an old Bankrupt Stock. Does the circumstance of his failure convert new goods into old? May not Bankrupt Stocks be as good and as new as others? Purchasers, however, should be the judges. Sellers should not give evidence in their own cause.

RUSSELL WATCH!

A FEW REASONS THAT MAKE IT SUPERIOR TO ALL COMERS.

1st—It proves itself a reliable time-keeper beyond all question.

2nd—The RUSSELL WATCH being made on correct and scientific principles, I must follow as a natural consequence, that it will keep time.

3rd—Each part of which the RUSSELL WATCH is composed is a reflex of the perfect machine to which, under skilful direction, it is produced.

4th—Truth is the essential of each part.

5th—Uniformity and conformity must therefore characterize the several parts in fulfilling the purpose for which they are made and brought together.

6th—Reproduction, as regards watch work, is simply an application of the principle that "things which are equal to the same things are equal to one another," and if there is any merit, the RUSSELL WATCH possesses that merit to a demonstration.

7th—The greatest variety of price, quality and size, that confidence and perfection will admit, afforded by the RUSSELL WATCH.

8th—The RUSSELL WATCH stands pre-eminently above all competitors for public favor and patronage.

9th—Proofs of the foregoing—the universal testimony of all Watch-makers who have sold, and the positive statements of the thousands in Europe, the United States and Canada, who have worn the RUSSELL WATCH.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Robert Cuthbert, Watchmaker, Wyndham Street, Guelph.

If Society was perfect in its organization, and was as obedient to the dictates of truth as the RUSSELL WATCH I bought from you is in indicating time, evil would be swallowed up in good, and happiness would become monotonous.

G. RENNIE, Guelph
