

Welcome to the Desirable Immigrant is Keynote of Ducal Reply to Civic Address

Your Worship and Gentlemen: I thank you in my own name as well as in that of the duchess and my daughter for the warm welcome you have extended to us in the name of the city. We are very pleased to have this opportunity of visiting your important city, especially at a moment when the Stampede is recalling your early history, and the picturesque life of the cattle range is now being replaced by a more scientific and more profitable method of stock raising. I well know, a great number of our American cousins from across the border, who have been drawn here by the numerous attractions presented by the province of Alberta, and I wish to tell them that they are very welcome, and that we can extend to them the hand of hospitality which they have extended to our young men in the Western states during the past. I trust that the settlers are ever increasing, for the extension of the railway, milling and trading interests, as well as of the widely spread irrigation schemes in the vicinity are affording daily more and more openings to the enterprising, and I trust that this wave of prosperity will never reach you may never recede.

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT AND THE PRINCESS PATRICIA ARE ACCORDED A MOST LOYAL DEMONSTRATION

Field Marshal, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada

WHILE cheering thousands lined the streets yesterday afternoon, under dripping skies, Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke of Connaught, the Duchess and the Princess Patricia, and their entourage were escorted in closed carriages by a detachment of the Fifteenth Light Horse from the Canadian Pacific railway station to the city hall.

The downpour continued steadily throughout the presentation of the city's address of welcome, and the reply by His Royal Highness, interring seriously with the reception features, but failing to dampen the enthusiasm of the multitude gathered to welcome the representatives of His Majesty in Canada.

A canvas had been raised over the platform in front of the city hall, and under this Their Royal Highnesses stood while City Clerk J. M. Miller, bareheaded in the rain, read the address of welcome, which he then handed to Mayor J. W. Mitchell, who in turn, as head of the city government, handed the beautifully illuminated and bound address to His Royal Highness. In a clear voice, audible to all those gathered on the platform, the Duke replied to the welcome.

Members of Vice-Regal Party

The vice-regal party included Their Royal Highnesses, Miss E. Bely and Miss C. Adam, ladies-in-waiting to the Duchess and the Princess Patricia, respectively; Lieut.-Col. H. C. Lowther, military secretary to the Duke; Capt. T. H. Rivers-Bulkeley, equerry and controller; Capt. H. C. Buller, aide-de-camp; Captain W. H. Long, aide-de-camp; Major E. S. Worthington, medical officer; Mr. W. R. Baker, representing the Canadian Pacific railway; Mr. H. Hamilton, representing the London Times and the London Daily Mail; and Mr. W. J. Healy, representing the Western Associated Press.

The reception committee, the members of which met the vice-regal party at the C. P. R. station and accompanied them to the Calgary, Lieut.-Gov. Buleva and Premier Arthur Sifton of Alberta province, Senior Lougheed and R. B. Bennett, K. C., M. P., and Alderman R. S. Whaley, chairman of the reception committee. There were also gathered at the Canadian Pacific station to greet the vice-regal party Vice-President Burny of the C. P. R., General Superintendent A. Price, Terminal Superintendent A. Harshaw, and R. J. Lydiatt, all of the C. P. R. The military representatives there also included Colonel Cruickshank, officer commanding military district No. 13; Major de Kam, district intelligence officer; District Paymaster Hilde, and Capt. Bell.

Guards Are Army Men

The guards at the depot were in charge of A. J. Andrews of the C. P. R. secret service, who had 24 constables, all army men. The route was lined off along Centre street, Eighth avenue and Second street east by the Boy Scouts and Cadets, with the Mounted Police of '74,' under Major Page, while the Fifteenth Light Horse acted as military escorts under Capt. Collison.

The official receiving party on the platform included Mayor Mitchell and Miss Mitchell, Alderman Brockbank and Mrs. Brockbank, Alderman MacDougal and Mrs. MacDougal, Alderman Whaley and Mrs. Whaley, Alderman Morritt and Mrs. Morritt, Alderman Minchin and Mrs. Minchin, Alderman Hornby and Mrs. Hornby, Alderman Brown and Mrs. Brown, Alderman Hester and Mrs. Hester, City Clerk Miller and Mrs. Miller, Bishop Pinkham and Mrs. Pinkham, Senator Lougheed and Mrs. Lougheed, the Hon. Justice Stuart, the Hon. Justice Walsh, Hon. C. M. Mitchell, Ed. Hamilton, Hon. W. H. Smith; T. M. Tweedie, M. P. P.; Alderman Enright of Vancouver, and Senator Talbot of Lacombe, and local newspaper men.

Following the presentation of the address of welcome, it was enclosed in the beautiful casket prepared for the occasion. The address itself was illuminated by the sisters at the convent, and is a beautiful example of that art, bound in soft, leather with the city coat of arms on a silver plate. The casket is of bird's eye maple, surmounted by four sheaves of golden wheat and a figure of a cow, riding a bucking horse. It is also embellished with plaques, showing various views of Calgary, and maple leaves. The inscription reads:

DESPONDENT BECAUSE OF BUSINESS FAILURE ROBT. NIXON SUICIDES

Edmonton, Sept. 5.—Despondent because his hotel ventures, Lloydsman, Saskatoon, and Little Current, Ont., were unaccounted for, and because he did not consider himself worthy of his wife, Beatrice, Robert Nixon, an Englishman, aged 47 years, took his own life this morning shortly after nine o'clock in the rear of his rented home, between Spadina and Government houses. He was shot by a bullet from a C. N. R. train. Nixon cut his throat from ear to ear. (Continued on Page 5.)

Toronto, Sept. 5.—The board of social service and evangelism of the Presbyterian church at today's closing session of its annual meeting endorsed the Ontario Liberal policy of "Banning the Bars." A communication was read from Prof. Pidgeon of Vancouver, containing a copy of a recent judgment to the effect that the parliaments system of betting is not prohibited by the biblical code in its present shape. Six days of continuous racing and professional gambling on the Minor Race track, he says, has aroused the better element in Vancouver to the need of immediate action, after a resolution was passed affirming that the time was now ripe for the suppression of professional race track gambling and assisting the Moral and Social Reform council of the enthusiastic support of the Presbyterian church in working out that end. The board also adopted a strong resolution in favor of more explicit provision for the care of the feeble-minded. Those present included Rev. Dr. Charles Gordon, (Ralph Connor), Winnipeg; Rev. M. A. Calgary residents will have a chance of seeing His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon on his way to the city hall. The Duke will speak to the certificate of merit to the successful students in the examination at the Royal Academy of Music.

TODAY'S DUCAL PROGRAM

Immediately afterwards, the Duchess and Princess Patricia will receive members of the Women's Children's Club and the Daughters of the Empire in the city council chamber, which has been lavishly decorated for the occasion.

Any doubts that may have been expressed as to the success of the Orpheum vaudeville attraction in Calgary were emphatically dispelled yesterday, when two capacity audiences assembled for each performance and hundreds turned away from the evening event. The management made a happy choice in the turns for the opening bill, and coverage of them costed the popular endorsement of the audience last night.

Some interesting phases of the Dickens revival now sweeping the country were furnished in the clever impersonations of Mr. Ben Lewin, an English actor. The pleasant impressions conveyed in the three Dickens characters of "Fagin," from "Oliver Twist"; "Toby Teck," from "The Pickwick"; and the "Grandfather" from "The Old Curiosity Shop," made the act a most enjoyable one.

Mary Quive is a sweet singer, and has a pleasing personality, and with the assistance of her partner, Paul McGarry, they succeed in producing a very enjoyable turn. DUKE AND DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT AND THE PRINCESS PATRICIA ARE ACCORDED A MOST LOYAL DEMONSTRATION

WHILE cheering thousands lined the streets yesterday afternoon, under dripping skies, Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke of Connaught, the Duchess and the Princess Patricia, and their entourage were escorted in closed carriages by a detachment of the Fifteenth Light Horse from the Canadian Pacific railway station to the city hall.

The downpour continued steadily throughout the presentation of the city's address of welcome, and the reply by His Royal Highness, interfering seriously with the reception features, but failing to dampen the enthusiasm of the multitude gathered to welcome the representatives of His Majesty in Canada.

A canvas had been raised over the platform in front of the city hall, and under this Their Royal Highnesses stood while City Clerk J. M. Miller, bareheaded in the rain, read the address of welcome, which he then handed to Mayor J. W. Mitchell, who in turn, as head of the city government, handed the beautifully illuminated and bound address to His Royal Highness. In a clear voice, audible to all those gathered on the platform, the Duke replied to the welcome.

Members of Vice-Regal Party
The vice-regal party included Their Royal Highnesses, Miss E. Pelly and Miss C. Adam, ladies-in-waiting to the Duchess and the Princess Patricia, respectively; Lieut.-Col. H. C. Lowther, military secretary to the Duke; Capt. T. H. Rivers-Bulkeley, querry and aide-de-camp; Major E. S. Worthington, medical officer; Mr. W. R. Baker, representing the Canadian Pacific railway; Mr. H. Hamilton Fyfe, representing The London Times and The London Daily Mail, and Mr. W. J. Healy, representing the Western Associated Press.

The reception committee, the members of which met the vice-regal party at the C. P. R. station and accompanied them to the city hall, included Lieut.-Gov. Bulvey and Premier Arthur Sifton of Alberta province, Senator Loughheed and R. B. Bennett, K. C. M. P., and Alderman R. S. Whaley, chairman of the reception committee. There were also gathered at the Canadian Pacific station to greet the vice-regal party Vice-President Bury of the C. P. R., General Superintendent A. Price, Terminal Superintendent A. Harshaw, and R. J. Lydiatt, all of the C. P. R. The military representatives there also included Colonel Cuckshank, officer commanding military district No. 13, Major de Kam, district intelligence officer; District Paymaster Hilde, and Capt. Bell.

Guards Are Army Men
The guards at the depot were in charge of A. J. Andrews of the C. P. R. secret service, who had 24 constables, all army men. The route was lined off along Centre street, Eighth avenue and Second street east by the Boy Scouts and Cadets, with the Mounted Police of "74" under Major Page, while the Fifteenth Light Horse acted as military escorts under Capt. Collison.

The official receiving party on the platform included Mayor Mitchell and Miss M. Schell, Alderman Brocklebank and Mrs. Brocklebank, Alderman and Mrs. MacDougall, Alderman Whaley and Mrs. Whaley, Alderman Moritt and Mrs. Moritt, Alderman Michin and Mrs. Michin, Alderman Hornby and Mrs. Hornby, Alderman Brown and Mrs. Brown, Alderman Hester and Mrs. Hester, City Clerk Miller and Mrs. Miller, Bishop Pinkham and Mrs. Pinkham, Senator Loughheed and Mrs. Loughheed, the Hon. Justice Stuart, the Hon. Justice Walsh, Hon. C. R. Mitchell, Edmont; Hon. W. H. Cushing; T. M. Tweedie, M. P.; Alderman Enright of Vancouver, and Senator Talbot of Lacombe, and local newspaper men.

Following the presentation of the address of welcome, it was enclosed in the beautiful casket prepared for the occasion. The address itself was illuminated by the sisters at the convent, and is a beautiful example of that art, bound in soft leather with the city coat of arms on a silver plate. The casket is of bird's eye maple, surmounted by four sheaves of golden wheat and a figure of a cowboy riding a bucking horse. It is also embellished with plates, showing various views of Calgary, and maple leaves. The inscription reads:

tion reads: "Presented to His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught by the City of Calgary."

Presented to Duke, Duchess and Princess
During the reading of the addresses, the city official party stood attentively on the platform, most of them sheltered under umbrellas. Following the addresses, the ladies and gentlemen on the platform passed before their Royal Highnesses, Mayor Mitchell presenting each one by name. They were presented first to the Duke, then to the Duchess and then to Princess Patricia, each of whom shook hands in the most democratic fashion, exchanging a few pleasant words of greeting. Then, led by City Clerk Miller, the gathering gave three enthusiastic cheers and a "tiger," which the Duke acknowledged with a bow.

Following the presentation, and while the carriages were being arranged to take the vice-regal party out to the Stampede grounds, His Royal Highness chatted pleasantly with Mayor Mitchell and Lieutenant-Governor Bulvey, who stood with him under the canopy. Royal trains arrive on time, and the Duke's special was a few minutes ahead of time when it pulled into the C. P. R. station at 1:40 yesterday afternoon.

A few minutes were lost while the careful engineer backed the steps of the Duke's car exactly opposite the strip of carpet laid into the station and out to Ninth avenue. As they alighted, their Royal Highnesses were met by the reception committee, headed by Mayor Mitchell, and escorted to the carriages outside. At this point, the party passed through the lines of the 103rd Regiment, composing the guard of honor at the depot, and the Mounted Police under Inspector Duffus.

"God Save the King"
The 103rd Regiment band played a bar of "God Save the King," and then marched off down Centre street, the escort and carriages following after a considerable interval. As the strains of a stirring military march rang out, the surging throngs crowding behind the ropes stood on tip toe, while cries of "Here comes the Duke" echoed down the street. The band marched on to the city hall, where it was stationed at Second street east and Seventh avenue. Then the royal entourage got under way, passing under the big arch of welcome on Centre street, where four young girls, the Misses Payne, Murison, McKenzie and Dalton, in appropriate costumes representing Britannia and Canada, were stationed in the niches of the big arch.

As the clatter of hoofs of the mounted escort rang out on the asphalted streets, the crowds began cheering, the shouts reaching a climax as the dual carriage passed along. Disappointment came, however, through the pouring rain and wind, which necessitated keeping the carriages closed.

Light Horsemen Make Fine Appearance
The Light Horse detachment made a splendid appearance, and were perfectly drilled. As the first platoon wheeled around Eighth avenue into Second street and lined up with military precision facing the city hall, the crowd broke into cheering again, which was redoubled when the vice-regal carriages appeared. Behind them came the second platoon of the Light Horse, which fell in alongside as the Duke, the Duchess and Princess Patricia alighted from the carriage and were escorted up the platform steps. Despite the pouring rain, His Highness repeatedly acknowledged the cheering by doffing his hat.

Following the ceremony on the platform, the party were again escorted to the carriages and taken to the Stampede grounds. Both as they alighted and again as they entered the carriages the 103rd band played a bar of "God Save the King," while the crowds cheered again and again.

THERE ARE few new developments in connection with the murder of C. P. R. Special Constable McIntosh who was brutally shot in the freight yards on Wednesday night.

The police have one or two clues which they are working on, but the nature of these are not made public. Suspicion rests on one or two persons, and the plain clothes men are doing all in their power to locate them, and to find out where they were on the night of the murder.

It was found today that the gun carried by the murdered constable was broken. On leaving Bankview on the night of the murder, McIntosh forgot to bring his gun. This he told to a C. P. R. detective before going on duty, and a search for another gun was made without success. McIntosh then took the broken one, remarking that he probably would not have to use it, and that it would do for the night. This is probably what cost McIntosh his life.

Wednesday night five suspicious characters were arrested, and the scene of the murder, and are still held by the police.

STRIKE OF CANADIAN PACIFIC OPERATORS IS VERY PROBABLE

Men Demand 17 Per Cent Increase in Wages; Company Will Not Meet Demand

Recommendation of Board of Conciliation Was That Men Receive Six Per Cent

Should a Strike be Called C. P. R. System Would be Almost Totally Disorganized

OTTAWA, Sept. 5.—It is possible, but improbable, that within a few days the 1,800 railroad telegraphers employed by the Canadian Pacific will go on strike because of the refusal of the company to grant the 17 per cent. increase in wages with an eight-hour day for most of the operators and time and half for overtime. The two sides of the case have been called by a board of conciliation which made its award last Saturday, and commended a six per cent increase without any other concessions.

Mr. J. G. Odom, the representative of the men, refused to sign the report, and has submitted a minority report to the department of labor. To strike or not to strike is the question the men are asked to decide by vote. All the votes will be in by Saturday, and the same as yesterday, it looks like a flat refusal of the six per cent the company is willing to pay.

The operators on the eastern lines are not paid $116 a month, as was at first claimed. Instead, the average wage in the Ottawa division of the C. P. R. is from $90 to $76 a month. Dispatchers get in Ottawa $123 monthly. Should there be a strike called, the C. P. R. system would be almost totally disorganized. It is said that the commercial telegraphers would not interfere to help the company. Even if they were willing to do so, they could not do the work of a railroad operator because of the lack of experience.

The Duke himself wore a frock coat, light tweed trousers and a silk hat, which kept him busy lifting it to the constant and enthusiastic plaudits of the crowds. The most noticeable thing about the Duke was the fact that he looks much younger than most of his newspaper pictures make him out to be. He is a typical aristocratic Englishman, iron gray moustache and eyeglasses, but, as an interested guest put it, "there is nothing aristocratic about his handclasp. He shakes hands with you as if he means it," and that remark tells more to a western Canadian than a volume of description.

CROPS ESCAPED HURT BY FROSTS, SAY MOST REPORTS

Correspondents of the Alberta Pacific Elevator Co. Give Definite Data

Harvesters Experience More Trouble From Rains Than Anything Else

Nevertheless, Crops Are All the Way From 20 to 60 Per Cent Cut

That the recent frosts have had very little effect, generally speaking, upon the crops in Alberta is definitely proved by the crop reports of correspondents of the Alberta-Pacific Elevator company. It appears that more trouble has been caused by the harvesters by rain than anything else, but nevertheless, that crops are all the way from 20 to 60 per cent cut.

The reports for the week ending August 31 in detail are as follows:

Calgary North
Beiseker—Heavy frost, about 5 degrees Thursday night. Many fields of oats and barley were far enough advanced and are in good condition. Samples of wheat show light damage if any. Very little winter wheat sown here.

Castor—Rains of the last five days have held harvesting back but it looks as though it would clear up soon without any frost and if it does will come through with the best crop we have had in 10 years.

Edmonton—Wheat cutting delayed by rainy weather. About 40 per cent cutting done. Oat cutting 20 per cent done. Barley 60 per cent cutting done. 20 hours rainfall during week. White frost twice but very light, small garden vegetables not frozen.

Halkirk—Very wet and cold all week, making it almost impossible to cut some of the low places. Fall fell in south part of district and did considerable damage. Light frost Thursday night but have not heard of it doing any damage. Weather cleared up some yesterday. Wheat ready to cut. Oats are ready to cut but a lot of them damaged by continued rain. Barley practically all cut.

Killam—Weather has been bad for harvesting during past week. 40 per cent of wheat cut, shows some frost in places. Oats about 50 per cent cut and will be an average crop of very good quality. Barley all cut but will be damaged some on account of the rain.

Millar—Heavy rainfall this week. Quite a lot of wheat and barley is in the shock but oats not harvested on account of the rain.

Hardisty—Cutting started but rain has retarded it again. Flax not ripening as fast as the wheat.

Last Friday night there were two degrees of frost, but even tender garden plants were not touched. The crops are very good indeed and a bumper yield is predicted.

POLITICS AND CANADIAN CLUBS

Attention is directed by The Vancouver Sun in an opportune editorial to the non-political character of our Canadian clubs, which of late seems to be in danger of being ignored.

During the past few weeks each city on the coast route between coast and coast has been invaded by successive parties of Britisshers who enjoy more or less prominence in public life. The greater number of these gentlemen have been ardent Unionists. Visiting this country ostensibly for purposes of business or pleasure, they have been good enough to turn aside occasionally from these pursuits to educate us through the medium of the interview in the subject of Imperial politics.

By a process of subtle suggestion they have endeavored to convey to our minds the impression that the only form of true patriotism is that of the British Unionist and his Canadian Tory associate. They have opened their hearts to us and have told us of their fond hope that they will be able to celebrate the obsequies of British Liberalism on their return to England. They have declared their unalterable conviction that Great Britain will be at war with Germany next week and have hinted, in the most delicate manner possible, their belief that Mr. Borden's naval policy should receive the support of all Canadians, no matter what that policy may be.

It is, perhaps, not fair to blame these gentlemen for expressing their views on these interesting subjects when they are asked by the interviewer to do so, although we must confess to a feeling of admiration for the distinguished British Liberal M.P., who, in Winnipeg recently, declared that he thought Canada capable of managing her own affairs unaided by his advice or by that of his Unionist associates.

We incline to the view that it would be unreasonable, even were it expedient, to expect these gentlemen to restrain themselves when provoked by the inquisitive interviewer. The most distinguished of their number, however, are almost invariably asked to address the Canadian club in the city which they are visiting. Here their liberty of speech is rightly restricted by the non-political character of the organization. Reports of some recent utterances indicate that these gentlemen have supposed, either that the Canadian club was a Conservative club or else that Canadians, being a people of high intelligence, must all necessarily be Conservatives. A suitable hint from the officials of the club might therefore quite properly precede the invitation to speak. We can quite readily conceive that men, whose fine abilities have won for them distinction in British public life would not be much exercised to find subjects of greater interest to us than their view on the German menace and Canada's naval policy.

RUNAWAY STREET CARS

The double street car accident on Wednesday should serve to emphasize the need for greater care in the operation of the service. It was only by the merest chance that many of the passengers escaped serious injury and the accident might quite easily have proved fatal for many of them. There would be less excuse for not observing every necessary precaution for public safety in the case of a municipal street railway than in that of a railway owned by a private corporation. The safety of passengers must be given first consideration and the temptation to run risks for the sake of revenue avoided. If the accident of Wednesday had proved to be more serious in its results it may be questioned whether the public would have been willing to accept the explanation that the conductor could not prevent the car being filled beyond the limit, where the certainty of safe transit disappeared.

Several of the steeper hills in the city present dangers which can be avoided only by careful operation and the proper provision of effective brakes. No motorman should be allowed to attempt one of these hills in a car which is so heavily loaded that the brakes may not be counted upon with certainty to do their work.

IS HE A PUBLIC NUISANCE?

The "distinguished scientist" and the "eminent university professor" bid fair to become a public nuisance, possibly even a menace. The time was when he was content to make such announcements as, for instance, that we must be sparing in the use of coal as the world's supply would be exhausted in ten million years. We were able to contemplate a catastrophe so distant with little excitement. So long as he concerned himself with such matters as the exhaustion of our coal supply or the probable date of the end of the world, we were content to tolerate him as we might tolerate any other harmless lunatic. Latterly, however, he is beginning to take an interest in our more personal affairs which cannot but be viewed with alarm.

Not long ago he told us that shaking hands was unsanitary. This was not very serious and we might have decided, in deference to his opinion, to substitute some other form of greeting, such for instance as rubbing noses, as practised by the Maoris. He followed it up almost immediately, however, by the announcement that kissing was positively dangerous and should be prohibited. And, as though this were not enough, he is now meeting in conference to discuss ways and means of compelling us to marry when he thinks we ought and to oblige us to accept a husband or wife of his selection.

The only consolation that we get from him when we protest is that which "poppa" used to give us with every larking, namely, that it is all "for our good." It is useless to tell him that there are some things he does not know, because he will not believe us. It is useless, for instance, to tell him that we know the dangers of kissing and consider the swallowing of a few thousand microbes the least of these dangers. He does not know what we mean and will not know until he has kissed or been kissed, a contingency of the remotest sort in view of his unattractive appearance.

At present he is merely a nuisance, but the day is not far distant when he may become a menace. His class is becoming more numerous, as the two conferences on eugenics held recently in England and the United States respectively will indicate. It may not be many years before George, whose heart has been given to Melinda, is told that "for the good of the race" he must marry Mary, whom he detests. The prospect is awful to contemplate, but, after all, the Georges are numerous and it is likely that in the end the professor and the race will stand more in need of our pity than they.

THE TWO SIDES OF THE QUESTION

In view of the habit prevalent in certain quarters, of discussing Canada's naval policy as though only one of the several opinions expressed concerning the duty of the Dominion were consistent with the highest patriotism, the following from The United Empire, a London publication, the purport of whose Imperialistic sentiment is unquestioned, should be of interest:

"Is it, or is it not, of sound view that in the existing conditions of the international situation the most effective plan for the 'Dominions would be to push on with the development of their permanent naval organization, on the lines indicated by the Admiralty in 1909 and promptly adopted by 'Australia, rather than divert any of their resources or energy to 'emergency' measures, i.e. to the contribution of 'battleships to Britain's navy?' Rather than dwell on that question we would content ourselves with suggesting one or two of the aspects to be considered. The probable 'moral' influence of a striking demonstration of Britannic solidarity was one of the considerations which animated New Zealand's donation in 1909, and which was afterwards urged in Australia by the advocates of similar action. That the force of this 'argument is felt by the present Canadian 'ministers seems to be shown by some of their recent utterances. On the other hand, there is great weight in the more matter-of-fact view which regards the 'emergency' as a continuous effort, deprecates avoidable diffusion of effort, and considers that 'financially Britain can afford to make full provision in home waters. Doubtless it is 'difficult, at best, to keep the patriotic feeling of any country screwed up to the pitch of 'assuming a heavy new burden of naval defence. The enthusiasm might run the risk of exhausting itself in the 'emergency' effort, to the lasting detriment of the much more important permanent policy. This 'line of objection seems to be taken by a certain section of the Canadian press, which apprehends in Mr. Borden's attitude a prospect of indefinite procrastination after the 'emergency' effort has been made. Perhaps one may trace a similar misgiving beneath the friendly chatter of Australians, who lately have taken upon themselves to 'advise the elder sister, with all the candor of a family relation, to stop talking and 'get to work as Australia has done."

BRITISH SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CANADIANS

Word comes from Ottawa of an arrangement under which scholarships in English colleges will be offered for competition among pupils in public schools in the overseas Dominions. The purpose of these scholarships is said to be the encouragement of a unity of sentiment among representatives of the younger generation within the Empire. It is difficult to see anything but good in the probable results of this proposal, and, if supplemented by the suggested exchange of students, it should do much to bind together by the strongest ties of sentiment the several parts of the Empire. This purpose is accomplished in a measure by the improved means of transit which have had the result in recent years of greatly increasing the number of those who are able to travel between the Mother Land and the several colonies.

An arrangement under which any considerable number of students could spend one, two or three years at college in Great Britain before commencing their life work in the part of the Empire in which they were born, should be of incalculable value in encouraging the growth of an enlightened Imperial sentiment.

WALT MASON, POET PHILOSOPHER

CALL OF THE COLLEGE
O H, way be farmers, stockmen, sawyers" the college clamors, loud and clear; "why not be editors or lawyers, and wear fine linen all the year? Why soil your hands with toadstool labors? Why rise to cow or hog? Rise, rise above your toiling neighbors, and be a fourth rate pedagogue! Why wear duck overalls and carry the humpbacked mule and brinded steers? Come to the college in a hurry, and learn to be a book oastler!" Through all the land the boys are dropping the yeoman's tools, in deep disgust, resolved to learn the trade of yawning, resolved to wear belted shirts or bust. Professions all are overcrowded; the starving lawyers through the streets, and there are men in surplice shrouded who should be busy hosing bees. Stenographers are urged by the legion who haven't learned the way yet, and in the fertile farming region the grangers raise an awful yell. "Oh, send us help," we hear them crying, imploring with ten thousand tongues; "send us the husky skates who're trying to earn their living with their lungs! Send us a grist of half baked preachers, of lawyers who have known no brief, send us stenographers or teachers, to shuck the corn or bind the sheaf!" Above the grangers' mournful howling, above their plea for working men, we hear the college sweetly calling: "For-sake the plowshare for the pen!"

URUGUAY WANTS CANADIAN WHEAT FOR SEED

South American Official Says Canadian Wheat is the Finest in World

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 5.—With a view of securing Canadian wheat for seed-purposes, Hon. Hugo A. Lurraoco, Canadian minister of agriculture, and chairman of the commission of agriculture for the republic of Uruguay, accompanied by a party of government officials, is now touring Canada, investigating agricultural conditions. The minister stated that if the wheat proved equal to the reputation it now holds throughout the world, large quantities would be purchased by his government and distributed throughout the farming districts as seed.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN SENT TO WINNIPEG

Montreal, Sept. 5.—Annie Valet, the young woman who was found wandering about the Victoria Bridge a few weeks ago acting queerly and throwing away her belongings, including a ticket for Liverpool by the S. S. Virginia, the Atlantic liner, has been sent back to Winnipeg after a fortnight's confinement at the Montreal jail. Of the many inmates of that institution she is probably the most mysterious individual of all and only spoke once of herself when she declared she was a nurse. Where she lived in Winnipeg, what hospital she was attached to, or where her relatives, are as little known now as upon the day of her apprehension when it was supposed she contemplated suicide.

WHAT THE GREAT WEST DID YESTERDAY

In Calgary: The Duke of Connaught visits Calgary in a special train. He was presented with the usual civic welcome, contained in a basket of bird's-eye maple, supported on the backs of four Alberta range steers, surrounded by a bucking broncho. In reply he congratulated the city on its prosperity of Calgary, etc. Addressing Americans resident in Canada, he said: "The great number of Americans drawn here by the numerous attractions of Alberta, I wish to say they are welcome. Canada readily extends hospitality to the Americans as the United States has extended to Canadian young men in the past."

Just to think of this gala day, the day for which we've waited, the day for which we've decorated our city and the day chosen for the visit of the Governor-General the Duke of Connaught, his charming wife the Duchess and the Princess Patricia, should be a rainy day! Yes, the weather impression was bad.

that the princess had a very charming smile and manner. Everybody's plans went wrong. The Stampede was a real stampede of people who all showed into the Horse Show building where the program was held.

Pimples So Bad He Was Ashamed

Tried Everything but Did It No Good. One Box of Cuticura Ointment Took Pimples Away.

"About seven years ago pimples broke out all over my face and neck. When they would first come out they would be big and red, then after a while they would turn white, and matter would come out. Sometimes they would itch so I could hardly sleep. I was ashamed to go down street, my face looked so bad. I went to several doctors and got medicine, which did me no good, and bought ointment, salves and patent medicines, but none of them would cure my face and neck. I got one box and it took the pimples away before I had it all used up. It is a wonderful remedy. Any doctor who has pimples should use Cuticura Ointment if they want a cure. I never had any soap equal to Cuticura Soap."—Wm. J. Walker, 1212 Broadway, New York, N.Y., Dec. 24, 1910.

Sores All Over Baby's Body

"When my baby boy was six months old his body was completely covered with large sores that seemed to itch and burn, and caused terrible suffering. Sometimes eruption began in pimples which would open and run, making large sores. His hair came out and large mounds fell off, and the sores were over the entire body, causing him to sleep badly or not at all. Great pain would come off when I removed his hair. We tried a great many remedies but nothing would help him, till a friend introduced me to Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and a short time before I could see that he was entirely cured. He had suffered about six weeks, and in six weeks' time he was completely cured. I think the Cuticura Soap and Ointment is the best medicine for all these things. (Signed) Mrs. Noble Tubman, Dodson, Mont., Jan. 25, 1911.

Special Train Load of Notables Here and Will Go to Gleichen Tonight

EARLS, baronets, knights and men of high degree in the English financial and political world are numerous in Calgary today. Aside from the dual party, which includes a number of notables, a special train arrived in Calgary yesterday from Saskatoon, and with it came a party of most distinguished Englishmen. Many of them are heavily interested in Dominion financial affairs; others of the expedition may be later, and they are making a tour of western Canada under the direction of A. M. Grenfell, chairman of the Canadian agencies.

The visitors include: Earl Stanhope, late captain Grenadier Guards, member of the L.C.; Earl Winterton, M.P., director of the Royal Exchange, member for West Horsham; Sir William Garstin, G.C.M.G., British government director of the Suez canal, inspector-general of irrigation in Egypt, late under-secretary of state; Sir Charles Hunter-Barst, M.P., late Rife Brigadier, P. of Barb; Hon. MAGINTOSH MURDER Baffles the Police

Never before in the history of the city, has the police had so much material at the disposal. The C. P. R. has several well known "Thell men" in the city, all of whom are working on the murder, while several Pinkerton men are at work also in connection with the case. A Constable McIntosh was soon sent for his wife and three children in Scotland. Only this week he received a photograph of his wife and children and took great pride in showing it to other members of the C. P. R. police staff. McIntosh had also arranged to have his photo sent home, saying that he wanted his wife and children to see how he looked in his new C. P. R. uniform.

The police are at a great disadvantage in the case. They had no clear work upon or any description of the man wanted.

THE "ALBERTA BIG THREE" REPLACES THE "BIG FOUR" AS THE SENIOR RUGBY ORGANIZATION OF ALBERTA; TWO CALGARY AND ONE EDMONTON TEAM COMPOSE THE LEAGUE NOW

Prospects Bright for Most Successful Rugby Season in History

TWO EDMONTON TEAMS UNITE STRENGTH

Calgary Tigers Get the Turkey Day Game With the Edmonton Eskimos

THE name "The Alberta Big Four" can no longer be applied to the Senior Rugby organization of the Province of Alberta, for at the annual general meeting held last night in the office of Secretary Graham, the applications of but three senior clubs were received. The clubs which will compose the "Alberta Big Three" this year will be:

The Calgary Tigers
The Calgary Y.M.C.
The Edmonton Eskimos.

The Edmonton Y.M.C.A. has amalgamated with the Eskimos and with one strong team will make a mighty effort to gain the championship of the province and the right to defend the Western Canada Rugby Trophy.

The Alberta University of Edmonton, who had been looked upon as a fourth team, decided to confine their energies this year to defending the intermediate championship which they now hold.

The meeting last night was featured by the optimism which prevailed for the season of 1912, being the biggest and best in the history of the game in the West.

Each team was confident of coming out at the top of the heap and in the arranging of the schedule for the season the jockeying for the final games and the decision as to what to do in a case of tie, was amusing as well as spirited.

Following the precedence of last year, the place where the big Thanksgiving Day game would be played, was decided by the tossing of a coin. Calgary won the toss. It was then up to the Calgary team to decide which one would play the Eskimos on the big football day of the year. The Tigers won the toss.

The delegates present at the meeting were:

C. H. Belanger, president; Vivian Graham, secretary; A. Stagg, Calgary Y.M.C.A.; J. L. Gibson and Paul Barton, Calgary Tigers; and Art Donahoe, Edmonton Eskimos.

The secretary's report showed the union to be in fine shape. The organization was started less than a year ago but during that time a championship series had been conducted and the game of rugby had been placed upon a firm footing. The union had dealt with several difficult cases but the constitution had been enforced and rugby football this year is sure to occupy a high place in the sporting calendar.

President Belanger made a strong appeal for the league to back up the referees appointed for the different matches. He advised that the executive deal severely with any teams or individuals who made trouble for the officials in charge.

Last year there was considerable trouble over this matter and some unpleasant circumstances were brought to pass on this account. The president, Mr. Belanger, referred to the playing of "Bull" Ritchie in the final game. He had refereed several games, but the Eskimos objected to his acting as referee for the final. The result was that "Bull" played with the Tigers in that game and played an important part in the deciding of the championship.

"I want the teams to agree upon referees before the games. In case they do not agree, I am going to appoint the man I think best fitted for the position. I want the executive to back me up on this," concluded Mr. Belanger.

An innovation which will undoubtedly help to popularize the game here was the decision to number the players. Each player this year will wear a number on the back of his jersey and programs will be distributed before the games with the numbers and names of each player printed thereon. The suggestion was made by J. F. Price, one of the founders of the union. He stated that at the initial meeting he had urged this thing but the suggestion had been turned down. Last night's meeting, however, accepted the suggestion and passed a motion ordering the teams to carry it out.

A communication was read by Secretary Graham from J. K. Fullerton requesting that his suspension from participating in rugby football games in Alberta be reconsidered. The secretary's book, however, showed that when the suspension was decided upon that it was to be until December, 1912. At that time it might be reconsidered if an application was sent in. This disposed of the Fullerton case for this season.

Other Provinces Against Alberta. In considering the report of the delegate who had been sent to represent the union at a meeting of the Western Canada Rugby union at Moose Jaw, there was considerable talk about the way that the other two provinces were league together against the Alberta union. The report showed that in their anxiety to get the better of Alberta, that Saskatchewan and Manitoba had really hurt themselves instead of Alberta and that the arrangement which practically provides that Alberta get both the final and the semi-final games was better than expected.

Art Donahoe, of Edmonton, was quite worried about the playing off would decide the representatives for the Western Canada championship.

"There won't be a tie unless one team loses every game," said Mr. Stagg. "Just you mark my word, the Y.M.C.A. are not going to be that team."

Finally it was decided, after much discussion, that in case of a tie that the total score of the team concerned in the games against each other would decide the representatives for the Western Canada title. This would be an incentive for the teams to make the scores in each game just as large as possible and would be as fairer way than by flipping a coin.

It would have been impossible to have a play off because the last game would be played on Thanksgiving day and on the following Saturday an Alberta team would have to play for the Western Canada championship.

A letter from Walter Burman was read in which he suggested that the meeting of the Western Canada Rugby union be held on August 24. This seemed to contradict the statement which he was credited with saying in the press reports of the Manitoba union meeting that he was not aware that the meeting would be held on that date, and this could not represent Winnipeg at the meeting.

An application on the part of the Tigers to allow them to play a man named Duff, who is now on a home-leave, to play this season was refused. The constitution provided that all players must be bona-fide residents of the city or town in which they are playing on or before the first day of September of the concurrent year.

The arranging of the schedule for the intermediate was left to a committee who would have the responsibility of all matches.

Watching the Scoreboard

NATIONAL.
Philadelphia, Sept. 5.—Two great finishes gave New York today's games here, 3 to 1 and 4 to 2. Seaton shut out the Staters in the first game until the eighth inning, when seven singles were made in succession off him, and the first man to face Seaton's success. Fittler also singled. These hits, with an error by Dodds, gave New York six runs. The second game was a pair of counters in the ninth on Seaton's home run, a pass to Snodgrass and Murray's triple, and singles by McCormick, Becker and Doyle tied the score in the eighth. New York won in the ninth on Murray's double and Merkle's home run.

INTERNATIONAL.
Buffalo, N.Y., Sept. 5.—Buffalo again beat Toronto in a ten inning battle, 7 to 6. Jordan hit over the right field fence in the first inning.

SEMI-FINALS OF NATIONAL GOLF TOURNEY TODAY

Wheaton, Ill., Sept. 5.—Jerome Travers, of Upper Montclair, will play Hamilton Keet, of Elkwood, and Charles Evans, of Edgewater, will play Warren K. Wood of Homewood tomorrow in the semi-final rounds of the national amateur golf championship. Travers had some trouble in defeating Mason P. Phelps, and Keet had to play 27 holes to overcome Paul Hunter. Norman F. Hunter, the Edinburgh player who carried the hopes of the English contingent, was eliminated tonight in a bed in a club dormitory with cold compresses on his head to ward off a threatened heat prostration. This collapse of Hunter in the last put Wood in the lead during the afternoon, while the other were playing matches under the boiling sun.

BONEHEAD PLAYS

By EDDIE FOSTER
Washington Third Baseman, Whose Work Has Been Sensational.

Talk of bones. I pulled one that is just about as good as anything anyone ever did, and if some scout had been taking a look at me that day I'd have had to change my name to get into the big leagues.

It was when I was playing with the Oak Leafs in Chicago, a pretty decent sort of a semi-pro team. I think it was in the game against a team out of Blue Island. I was playing third, and it was one of the hottest and hardest fought games I ever took part in. We were tied when it came down to the ninth. I think the score was two to two, and they were last at bat. There was one man out. Two men hit me in succession, and so hard that the first runner had to stop at second base. The next batter drove one down the line, and the shortstop a mile or so away from me, I saw that ball coming and saw I had a chance to reach it. I dived at it, and the ball struck me in the hands.

The stop was a sort of accident, and I was so off balance that I couldn't get into position quickly to make a throw or to get back to third base. I recovered and jumped in toward the line to try to touch the runner who was coming up from second. He made a slide away from me, and I missed him. I was too late to throw to first. The runner I had failed to touch threw himself so far inside to escape me that he overrode the base. I saw him trying to get back and made a second jump for him just as he stepped on his feet.

He dodged, but I was between him and the base, and he started for the plate with me after him to tag him out. He never gained or lost a fraction of an inch all the way to the plate. I was within a foot of touching him all the way, and was tagging after him desperately. I chased him close to the plate with the winning run, and touched him just as he crossed it. Talk about call-downs—you should have heard our crowd after me on the way back home.

grabbed two games here today, winning by scores of 2 to 1 and 5 to 2. The second game was called at the end of the sixth inning on account of darkness. Philadelphia hit three New York pitchers in the first game for 23 hits, totalling 300 bases. In the sixth inning they made ten runs off Caldwell and Davis on five singles, two doubles, two triples, two passes, two errors, and a wild pitch.

Plunk was effective for the Athletics in the second game, while the world's champions fell hard on Fisher in the third inning.

Artistic Fall Shoes

"The melancholy days are here,
The saddest of the year."

And with them comes the cold, wet autumn weather. Summer has gone for another year and with it must go summer attire. Oxfords and pumps no longer give the necessary protection against the elements. High shoes must take their place. Our fall shoes, just passed into stock a few days ago, arrived at a most opportune time for stampede visitors. For their benefit, Today and Saturday we shall make a special showing of these, the most artistic shoes it has ever been our pleasure to display. You will miss something really worth while if you don't come into the store and see Dame Fashion's newest footwear creations for this coming season.

High Top Shoes

Women's high top shoes bid fair to out-rival all other models for street wear this season. Those who wear short skirts will find the protection of the higher tops very beneficial in the cold weather.

We bought liberally in high top shoes and can show you a very attractive range of dainty Dorothy Dodd and Relindo models in tans and black, both buttoned and laced styles.

Prices $5.00 to $7.50 a pair

Men's Dress Shoes

Our new fall range of men's dress shoes is, perhaps, the most extensive we have ever shown. The Gold Bond, Crawford and Liberty factories have made a liberal contribution of their newest and best goods.

Gold Bond gummatal and patent leathers on the "Korker" last is one of the outstanding features of our display. No matter what your idea of a dress shoe may be, you will find it in our stock.

Prices $5.00 to $7.00 a pair

Women's Dress Shoes

For dress wear this season, black vici kid shoes will be held in high favor.

As a visit to our store will show, the Dorothy Dodd and Relindo people have again demonstrated that their shoe modes are of the most advanced fashion.

There is something decidedly distinctive about our new vici kid models. Indeed it seems as if vici kid shoes would, in many cases, take the place of patent leathers for dress wear.

The fitting qualities of these shoes, is a revelation.
Prices $5.00 to $6.50

Men's Shoes For Knockabout Wear

A shoe for knockabout fall wear must be built on a good sound basis. If it isn't it will prove very unsatisfactory.

Why take chances on a shoe, you know nothing about when Gold Bond, Crawford or Liberty shoes—lines with a reputation—cost not a cent more.

Drop in and try a pair of our fall knockabout shoes on—they will fill the bill admirably.
Prices $5.00 to $7.00 a pair

ADMONITION

Our business was founded and is conducted on one principle—Public Satisfaction. We sell nothing but what we know will be absolutely satisfactory. Don't be misled into buying a shoe you know nothing about simply because it is offered to you at a sale price. Sale shoes are made to sell, not to wear. They are dear at any price.

Buy your fall shoes at a store that always gives the best possible value for the money. Store open evenings during Stampede week.

Reminiscences of the Range

ONE of the features of the Stampede that has struck expert and laymen alike is the remarkable fitness and strength of the herd of Texas longhorn steers that are daily plunging up cow ponds, unsaddled riders and making their escape from the corral at will.

The cowboys and cowgirls that are working tooth and nail to uphold the prestige of their calling are never heard to give voice in public as to their estimate of the powers of these cattle, but get into a group of them and catch snatches of conversation and it will be found that they expect trouble whenever they start from scratch behind one of the animals.

Port Mann Will Be Freight Terminal of C.N. Railway

Four Million Dollars Has Been Raised in England for Development Purposes on Townsites

LAND BOUGHT BACK AT HEAVY PRICES

Mr. J. F. Hansen States That Firms are Prepared to Erect Power Plants at Terminus

Four million dollars, the larger portion of which will be devoted to developments of the many Canadian Northern townsites between the Atlantic and the Pacific have been raised in England by Mr. John F. Hansen, vice-president of the Terminal Cities Land Corporation, Ltd., with head office in Montreal, who arrived here yesterday to confer with Sir William Mackenzie and Colonel A. D. Davidson about industrial developments in Port Mann and with his British Columbia representative, Mr. Charles S. Meek.

Progress of Port Mann

Mr. Hansen mentioned that on arrival in Montreal he was surprised to find the progress which had been made in tunneling Mount Royal in connection with the C. N. R. in that city terminus. As to Port Mann, which is to be the freight terminus of the C. N. R. on the Pacific coast, large industrial developments are planned at an early date.

"I know of several Eastern firms that are negotiating to erect plants there," said Mr. Hansen, "and so far as my own financial groups are concerned, I am here to arrange for the site of some works which we hope to erect early next year. Further details will be given after conclusion of my visit here."

"I owned originally one-third of the townsite and have sold about one-third of my holdings, but now I find I have to buy back some sites which are required for development. I am surprised to learn that some people here think the plans of the Canadian Northern have changed as to their terminals on the coast."

Will be Terminal

"I have the executive's authority for stating that Port Mann will be the freight terminal of the Canadian Northern Railway. The repair and construction works will be erected there and a number of private enterprises are planned on the townsite. In fact, I raised a very large sum of money last month in England for development purposes in Port Mann alone."

Mr. Hansen left yesterday with Sir William Mackenzie and Colonel Davidson for Victoria and is expected back in this city today. Besides being the vice-president of the Terminal Cities Land Corporation, Mr. Hansen is the general manager of the North Saskatchewan Land Company. He controls in all the management of various land companies in Canada whose capitalization totals over $15,000,000.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER SAYS HE OUTLINE NAVAL POLICY AT MONTREAL

Meetings Will be More in the Nature of a Party Reunion and Jollification of Loyal Liberals

OTTAWA, Sept. 5.—In the course of conversation with representatives of the press today, Sir Wilfrid Laurier intimated that he does not propose to make a lengthy or particularly important speech at Monteville in Kewville county on Saturday. He said that the gathering would be more in the nature of a party reunion and jollification only. It is understood that Sir Wilfrid does not propose to deal at any of his meetings with the naval question in more than a general way, as he considers it not desirable to do so until such a time as the government has made known its policy. The decision of both Premier Borden and Sir Wilfrid not to deal specifically with the naval question in their early speeches means that it is not likely to become a subject of much platform oratory for several weeks. The opposition leader has decided to hold his first Ontario meeting in Northern Ontario in the latter part of September.

During the month of July this year there were 48,428 and 21,739 of them having been at ocean ports and 12,617 from the United States, against 39,433 for July last year.

COMPETING WITH DAKOTA

Pekin, Sept. 7.—The Chinese National assembly has prepared a code of law for divorce which will absolutely beat the Reno divorce mill however. The new law provides that a man has but to say that he is not satisfied with his wife, and to pay the necessary fee to the court, and he is free. It is expected that the moment it is the law of the land there will be a rush to the courts to shake off importunate, bad tempered and irritable wives. At the same time there is to be brought forth a law for the abolition of concubinage, but it will not be in any sense retrospective, as if it were it would hit Yuan Shi Kai, and, in fact, every high official in the republic of China, with more or less force. The very weak and sordid point in the whole proposed legislation, however, is that it will hit the children of concubines, hitherto considered to be members of their respective families.

Ald. Frank Riley, who has been spending six weeks' vacation in the east and the Old Country, returned to the city yesterday. Hon. C. W. Cross, attorney general, with Mrs. Cross are registered at the Royal Alexandra hotel and will be in Calgary during the remainder of the week.

W. J. Dyson of the Calgary Trades and Labor Council left yesterday for Guelph, Ontario, to attend the Dominion convention of the Trades and Labor Congress.

Col. Gaskin, secretary of the Salvation Army for Western Canada, will be in Calgary today. Col. Gaskin is a forceful speaker and will lecture at the Citadel tonight.

Jean Lalbert, who was badly injured by being thrown from a horse at the exhibition grounds on Wednesday, is at the Holy Cross Hospital and is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Mr. A. E. Walker of Cayley is spending a few days visiting the Stampede. He reports to the damage from the recent frost in that district, Cayley being the highest point on the south line.

Hon. Charles Fisher of Cochrane, speaker of the provincial house, was in the city yesterday attending the Stampede. Mr. Fisher says that Cochrane district being a horse raising country, is very generally represented in Calgary this week.

A drunk giving his name as Williams was gathered in yesterday afternoon by the police. He informed the desk man that he could not be drunk as he had only two drinks, but the whiskey was so rotten in Calgary that even one would be sufficient.

Wallace D. Coburn, the cowboy poet of Helena, Montana, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Coburn is the author of a volume of range poems, which was illustrated by Charles Russell, the cowboy artist, and which were much in demand among cattlemen and cowboys of the western States. Pat Scanlan, the well-known representative of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, is here with Mr. Coburn.

Charles McKillop was charged before Magistrate Sanders yesterday with being a drunk. He had been drinking in the Victoria hotel on Wednesday night and had been drinking in the Victoria hotel on Thursday. He had a reputation for being a drunk, and was charged with being a drunk on Wednesday night.

According to James Woolf there are some very smart pocket thieves in Calgary at the present time. Yesterday he had complaint to Chief Cuddy that he had, while taking a drink in the Victoria hotel on Wednesday night, been robbed of his pocket-book containing $45, and some valuable papers. Woolf, who has a refreshment stand at the Stampede, was going home with his partner about seven o'clock when they came to the Victoria hotel and saw a man with a drink on the way out. Woolf was jostled by some man and he noticed another man circle around him. He did not think anything of it at the time, but when he missed his book, he went to bed, when he missed his book.

NOVA SCOTIA CADETS WON KING'S PRIZE AT TORONTO

Toronto, Sept. 5.—By a score of 147 the Nova Scotia cadets won the King's prize at the Long Branch ranges this morning. The final conditions being fired off under ideal weather conditions. At the end of the 100 and 400 yard stages on Saturday the Nova Scotians were in the lead, but by good work in the final stages the Blue Nooses crept up and finally managed to carry off the coveted prize.

The scores were as follows: Second stage—Nova Scotia 55, England 54, British Columbia 41, New Zealand 42, Australia 32, Alberta 26, Woodstock 21. Total scores—Nova Scotia 147, England 136, British Columbia 135, New Zealand 131, Woodstock 95, Australia 72, Alberta 78.

The two leading teams used the long Ross. The competition this morning consisted of snap shooting at figure target, 23 inches in height, at the 400 yards distance, then they had to advance to the hundred yards, firing 21 rounds at the intermediate stages. They were allowed one minute to complete the performance.

The announcement that the King's prize would remain in Canada caused great rejoicing among the Canadian cadets. The English number with team at the commencement of the camp was looked upon as the sure thing, owing to their reputation as marksmen through the experience they have had

THE HEART If the blood is poor and filled with the poisons from diseased kidneys or inactive liver, the heart is not only starved but poisoned as well. There are many conditions due to impure blood—such as dropsy, fainting spells, nervous debility or the many scrofulous conditions, ulcers, "fever-sores," white swellings, etc. All can be overcome and cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery This supplies pure blood—by aiding digestion, increasing assimilation and imparting tone to the whole circulatory system. Its a heart tonic and a great deal more, having an alternative action on the liver and kidneys, it helps to eliminate the poisons from the blood. To enrich the blood and increase the red blood corpuscles, thereby feeding the nerves on rich red blood and doing away with nervous irritability, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and do not permit a dishonest dealer to mislead your intelligence with the "just as good kind." The "Discovery" has 40 years of cover behind it and contains no alcohol or narcotics. Ingredients plainly printed on wrapper. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of wrapping and mailing only. Send 50 one-cent stamps for the French cloth-bound book. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DO YOU KNOW

is by far the highest class residential property inside the city limits of Calgary, and at prices much below anything in the city with half the natural advantages?

IF NOT, COME IN AND LET US PROVE IT TO YOU

REMEMBER, we are spending over $100,000 in improvements in Lake View Park, which is in the centre of Lake View Heights, and are setting out next spring 10,000 Russian Poplar Shade Trees, which means two trees in front of each 25-foot lot in the entire property, which means, of course, the lots we have sold or will sell up till then, and now we ask you to stop and consider these facts just one moment.

LAKE VIEW HEIGHTS is just three miles from the Post Office, inside the city limits and the car line now is less than a mile from us. Does it not seem reasonable to expect the car line to be extended that distance to Calgary's only lake and the finest park in Western Canada? Furthermore, we know we will not only get a first class street car service, but all other city improvements before, your lots are paid for on our easy terms.

LAKE VIEW PARK, AS IT WILL BE IN 1913.

DON'T LEAVE CALGARY

WITHOUT MAKING AN INVESTMENT IN

which will make you more money than you have ever made in proportion to the amount invested. Don't forget the fact that Calgary is the most progressive, up-to-date, metropolitan city on the American Continent today, and that her growth up to now has been made with only one railroad and less than one-tenth of the tributary farming community developed; then imagine what it will do with three trunk line railroads coming in this fall and the vast, rich, raw lands are under cultivation. Is there any reason why Calgary should not continue to grow to a city of at least 100,000 population or perhaps two or three times that size? Then, when this is so, can you realize what your profit will be from an investment of a few hundred dollars? Will you come in and talk it over with us? Let us show you that it will be much to your advantage to secure one or more pair of lots in Lake View Heights.

THE MARKETS

Winnipeg Wheat

Winnipeg, Sept. 5.—The wheat market acted in a decidedly nervous and spasmodic manner. The weather map showed rains at most points, with as high as 1.32 inches at Dauphin, and temperatures also high in Manitoba...

Toronto Cattle

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 5.—At the city cattle market trade was active today, with a good demand for stockers and light butcher cattle. Prices were steady and unchanged at the week's quotations. The offerings consisted of 27 cars with 214 head of cattle, 937 sheep and lambs, 340 hogs, and 72 calves.

Chicago Wheat

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Wheat was heavy after touching the lowest price of the season, 81 cents a bushel. An estimate that this year's crop in the United States would be 107 million bushels larger than the yield twelve months back was mainly responsible.

Chicago Stocks

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Exchange at Chicago today advanced 25 cents per thousand, suggesting a further outflow of money to the railway securities...

Princess Patricia also was attired in simple fashion, wearing a dark blue suit, that fitted charmingly her slim, graceful figure, and a wide primrose hat. DO YOU WANT CHEAP LUMBER

Fifty-two Yards in Alberta—Two Yards in Calgary

Few people appreciate that there is quality in lumber, the same as there is in tea or in paint, or in most other articles. Cheap cut lumber or green lumber in better grades will build a house that, when well painted, will look fairly well for a few months. Such a building in our extreme climate soon takes on a dilapidated cheap look making it difficult to sell, difficult to rent, and uncomfortable to live in.

We have always made a specialty of the highest quality, and owing to the tremendous size of our business we are able to buy on a basis that permits us to sell our lumber for as low a price as would be generally asked for a poorer quality. This has built up our large business—the largest in Western Canada.

Before building inspect our stocks and permit us to give you evidence that quality considered, our prices cannot be beaten. Particular people use our lumber. If your contractor obtains his lumber from us it is a sign that he is a particular man and demands the best of everything.
