(From Thursday's Daily.) The first annual basket pieuic of the grocers and butchers of the city was held at Koksilah Park yesterday. The first train, which left shortly after 8 o'clock, carried 400 merrymakers, and the two later trains also accommodated large crowds. A delightful-walk of two miles through beautiful scenery brought the holiday-makers to the park—an ideal spot for a picnic, being a very pretty common surrounded by shade trees and pretty walks. The river too, attracted many to the quiet seclusion of its banks. The lengthy programme, consisting of 30 events, was carried through without a hitch, which speaks volumes for the energetic committee in charge. All the races were closely contested, and the baseball matches were eagerly watched by the friends of the rival nines. The weather was glorious, the sun shining brilliantly all day, and the City Band giving a splendid programme of popular airs, rendered the enjoyment complete. Two Aunt Sally stands and a knife rack were largely patronized, but most interest was taken in the foot recess. o'clock, carried 400 merrymakers, and were largely patronized, but most in-terest was taken in the foot races. All the contesants fell, but the two leaders gallantly struggled to their feet and finished the race. The ladies did their share, fighting hard in all the contests open to them. He does not believe that lunar influence has an appreciable effect on terrestrial weather, but it is to solar influences we must look in order to get within mensurable distance of a solution of this very intricate problem.

It ought further to have been accompanied by the institution of some representative council in the metropolis. sentative council in the metropolis, which would have brought the colonies into constant and continuous relations with the Home government. All this, however, was omitted because those who advised that policy—and I believe their convictions were sincera locked. convictions were sincere—looked upen the colonies of England, looked even upon our connection with India, as a burden upon this country, viewing everyin a financial aspect, and totally ing by those moral and political considerations which make nations great, and by the influence alone of which men are distinguished from animals.

Thirty years ago this was no doubt accepted as simply an expression of the orthodex opinion of the old Imperialism, that colonies should be organized and governed for the benefit of the country whose offspring they are. Self-government should be granted as a boon with a view to the ultimate greater advantage of the Mother Country, and concessions exacted for the privilege. Sir.—The Voters' League will hold a special mass meeting at the City Hall this evening to discuss the water question and will appoint a committee to thoroughly investigate the subject. Personally I see no other object in the action of the Mayor and Council than to force the people into a serious consideration of the problem. The situation is not materially different from last year or the year previous. It is a good time, however, to find out how we stand, and what changes would be necessary in the present system to allow of expansion as well as to provide a satisfactory supply, at all points for present needs. The high level difficulty can be met in one of two wars, either erect a tank or reservoir at each of the two high points of Spring Ridge and Rockland avenne to hold a day's supply for those points, and for irrigation (not even by meter), fill the tanks with the night pressure, and let these high points draw their day supply from the tanks or reservoirs. The alternative is for each house to own its own tank to be filled as above. I believe that in a short time all water systems will be run as at Santa Rosa, Cal., as part of the general taxation, and that the moneys thus saved by doing away with the expense of collecting, etc., will go far towards a more generous system.

We hope that all interested in this matter will make a point to be present at the City Hall at 8 p. m. sharp.

So that an added difficulty in the way of any effort to develop our iron resources would be to convince the outsider of the utterly pessimistic spirit in which our Mines Department treat a very hopeful outlook before the question of iron resources could be gone into at all. THE MINES REPORT.

Sir.—I am amazed at the report of the Minister of Mines on the subject of our iron resources. I do not know whether what the report does say or what it does not say is the more unsatisfactory. On page 932 the report says: "It has to be recorded that, as yet, very little iron ore as such has been mined in the province. There have been a few experimental shipments made and a considerable amount of development work carried on, but from the very nature of things, iron ore to be handled at all necessitates an iron blast furnace to treat it, which is as yet, not an accomplisined ract in British Columbia, and will not 'be until a snificient development has been done to fully establish both the quantity and quality of ore supply in the pit of despondency. They may be a supply that that physical and mental energy has deserted them, and they are sinking deeply in the pit of despondency.

The hot summer weather always produces thousands of miserable feeling mortals. They lack nerve force, strength and true vitality. They cannot rest day or night, and life becomes a burden.

The great recuperator, builder and strength-giver for all weary, wornout and suffering people is Paine's Celery Compound, now so universally prescribed by medical men. When the great medicine is used at this season, languor, despondency, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, headache, dyspepsia, and digestive troubles are permanently banished, and men and women go about their duties any work kith a vim, will and energy that indicate health and physical strength. record for the passage between the Japanese port and Victoria, therefore, stays with the Empress of Japan, which made the run a few years ago under favorable weather conditions in 10 days 10 hours. The Empress of China took 11 days and 11 hours to reach her anchorage off the bund at Yokohama from the outer wharf at this port.

She had been delayed by the floods at the Bow river, which stopped trains until the Friday morning, and instead of leaving on the Monday afternoon, it was four days later before the big liner slipped her lines at Vancouver, and with her gangways on the starboard side piled up with extra coal, and her bunkers carrying 400 tons of picked coal more than her usual supply, she went out to break records, but the weather has in all probability spoiled her chances of a fast trip, and, as her chief engineer, Mr. Neish, stated before she sailed from here, she had a foul hull, which hindered her considerably. She should have been hauled out a couple of months ago at Kowloon, and had this been done she would have been in much better trim for the run. As it is, instead of breaking records, she had made a slower trip, if anything, than her usual voyages, for the big liner usually makes the passage in 11 days.

Ports on Lynn Canal.

The steamer Princess May sailed last night for Skagway, carrying a small complement of passengers, and a small cargo—for there is little travel and not much freight moving to the North at present. The White Pass & Yukon woute anticipate tying up several of their river steamers and several other vessels are being tied up because of the small amount of freight moving.

According to advices from the North the steamer Columbian sailed from White Horse on Saturday night for Dawson, and the Zealandian proceeded to Eagle City on Sunday to engage in business between Dawson and that point for the remainder of the season. The main reason for placing the Zealandian on that route is to handle the Forty-Mile trade, which cannot be carried advantageously by United States steamers, which cannot operate between Canadian river ports. The steamer Selkirk sailed on Thursday for Dawson from White Horse, loaded with live stock exsteamer Venture. The steamer Yukoner arrived at White Horse on Sunday from Dawson.

Toronto, July 22.—The results of the conference between the Canadian ministers and the British Board of Trade have not yet been announced, but, without doubt, the establishment of a fast Atlantic service between Liverpool and Halifax has been proposed. What Liverpool shippers are expecting is a combination between the Allan and Elder-Dempster lines, and Sir Christopher Furnes's, with subsidies paid by the British government and the Dominion, in the proportion of one-third and two-thirds, for a service consisting of two 22 knot, and two 18 knot, steamships. This would take the Allan line out of the conference, where it is controlled by the Morgan combination, and involved in another freight war similar to the sea campaign opened by the Houstons to out rates against ring charges to South Africa.

CIVILIZATION AND BIRTHS.

From Revue Scientifique, Paris.

rom Revue Scientifique, Paris.

N. Neymarch recently read before the society of statistics of Paris an important study on the question of decrease of births with an increase of civilization in which he examined some of the economic financial, and social causes which, according to him, exercise a greater influence than physiological causes. M. Neymarch believes, first, that the more civilization is developed, and the more a country progresses, the more births have a tendency to decrease. In Germany the birth rate, was 42 per 1,000 in 1875, and twenty years later, 36; in England during the same period it decreased from 36 to 23, and in Brance the same years it decreased from 26 to 25,2.

The economic causes which influence natality greatly are the following: 1. Expense of living, or, to be more exact, the increase in needs. It is not demonstrable in its ensemble that the cost of fiving is greater than formerly, but that which is incontestable is that "needs" have augmented. 2. The desire for greater comfort for one's own and for one's self. One considers the expenses of the family with reference to the revenue or the capital possessed, what it will cost to raise several children, pay for their instruction, education, maintenance, etc., and what it will cost later to "establish" them. 3. One desires to conserve the acquired wealth and not to decimate it among a large number of inheritors. 4. The lowering of the revenues obtained from capital. A person who formerly could live happily and at ease on a capital of $20,000, producing a revenue of from $1,000 to $1,100 per year, that is, five to one and one-half per cent., has today with the same capital of years of the woman to the work and occupations formerly reserved to the man. The woman becomes more and more the producer, she is occupied in commerce, in domestic service, in the liberal profressions, in mines and trades, in shows, and in general affairs. This work in France occupies 3,353,831 women who think less of maternity than of their profressional occupations

Ben Gordon is dead. This announcement made yesterday morning, while not a surprise to his friends, was a sudden shock to, and caused universal regretamong, the general public, for in the business, social and athletic circles there was not a man more popular and generally respected than was Mr. Gordon. Death came to him on Sunday night, after a long and painful illness. He had been ailing for some time, but not until last fall did serious symptoms manifest themselves. Then, with the hope of bettering his health, he paid a visit to California, remaining throughout the win-

An incident has just been reported, says the Montreal Gazette, which shows that while at times John Bull is somewhat dull in recognizing the superiority of Canadian products, the Imperial authorities are always ready to act if questions of the kind are brought to their notice. Among the passengers on the steamer Tees, which reached port from the North yesterday morning, were W. J. Pascoe, the secretary of the Hard Scrabble Mining company, and Thos. Furlong and W. J. McGuirk, who have been working the placer ground of Lovne creek with w. J. McGuirk, who have been working the placer ground of Lorne creek with considerable success. Mr. Pascoe had with him some good samples of coarse gold taken from the Lorne creek placers, and he had a good-sized poke of gold—the result of the season's work. The property being worked by his company is really a hydraulicing proposition, and much of the past season has been spent in building flumes and working to bring water to the property. The work in the past has been much hindered by the difficulty of securing water, and when the miners first began work they had great difficulty to carry a very limited supply of water to the diggings.

Now Mr. Pascoe and his associate miners have organized the Hard Scrabble Hydraulicing Company, of which he is secretary, and this season six men took out $1,200, as a result of about two months work. During the season they built 875 feet of flume, and a dam 75 feet long, which is to receive the water from the mountain ditches. Two hoses were used in the work this year—but the water supply is hard to get at, and more money is needed by the miners to work the property with great success. With machinery the placers will turn out ex-

There is immense wealth lying in the Skeena river district, said Mr. Pascoe. There is no doubt of that, but with the difficulty of access and poor transportation facilities, no one will take hold of the development of the mines, unless they are properties which give enormous returns. Quartz properties can hardly be looked at in that district owing to the lack of transportation, despite the fact that a number of rich quartz properties have been located in the Omineca district. Mr. Alex.
