The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are flimed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original coples are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated Impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol $\rightarrow$ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol $\nabla$ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

   PENNSTLVANIA.}

Dear Sir,

IN your laft, you was pleafed to defire fome Account of the State of Pennfylvania, together with the Reafons why we, who are efteemed one of the richeft Colonies in North America, are the moft backward in contributing to the Defence of the Briti/b Dominions in thefe Parts, againft the prefent unwarrantable Invafions of the French? As I have been many Years a Spectator, and I think an impartial one, of the publicMeafures purfued in this Province, B I Mall

[ 4 ]

I hall very readily fatisfy your whole Defire. We are now in an alarming Situation, but we have brought the Evil upon ourfelves, and Things are now come to that Crifis, that if I was under no Obligan tion to fatisfy your Expectations, yet I fhould deem my Silence an unpardonable Neglect of the Duty I owe to my Country. -

You were rightly informed when you were told that, of all the Britijb Colonies in North America, Pennfylvania is the moft flourifhing. Its Staple is chiefly Provifions, of which it produces enough to maintain itfelf, and aHundred thoufand Men befides. From the Port of Pbiladelpbia, at leaft 400 Sail of Veffels clear out annually. The Inhabitants are computed at about Two hundred and twenty thoufand, of whom, it is thought near one half are Germans. Of the Refidue not quite two Fifths are 2 uakers. Above that Number are Prefbyterians; and the remaining Fifth are of the eflablifild Church, with fome few Anabaptills.

The Legilature is compofed of a Governor and Affembly; but the Council makes no Part of it. The Affembly are chofen annually, and claim a Right, by Charter, to fit on their own Adjournment, without being prorogued or diffolved by their Governors, although the Attorney-General of England, and many other eminent Lawyers, have given their Opinion to the contrary. The Powers they enjoy are extraordinary, and fome of them fo * repugnant, that they are the Source of the greateft Confufion in the Government. In order clearly to make this out, we muft look backward a confiderable number of Years.

As the Colony was firft fettled chiefly by Quakers, the Powers of Government refted for the mof Part in them; which they conducted with great Mildnefs and Prudence, not having as yet conceived any Thoughts of turning $R_{t}$.igion into a political Scheme of Power.

[^0]A great many Circumftances concurred to fix them in the good Opinion of the World. The Firt of this Profeffion ftrove to recommend themfelves by their ftrict Honefty, and were a fober, thoughtful People. The civil Conftitution was then in its Infancy, and its Principles found. No great Art was required in the Adminiftration of it, and no bad Effects were felt from the extraordinary Privileges granted to the People, for the more expeditious Settlement of the Colony.

Thofe who have made Politics their Study, know very well, that Infant-Settlements flourih fafteft under a Government leaning to the republican or popular Forms, becaufe fuch a Government immediately interefts every Individual in the common Profperity, and fettles itfelf at once on a broad and firm Bafis. Moreover, the People being but few, and but fmall Profit in public Offices, the Government may alfo be adminifter'd without the Faction and Anarchy incident to popular Forms. But in Proportion as a Country grows rich and populous, more Checks are wanted to the Power of the People; and the Government, by nice Gradations, fhould verge more and more from the popular to the mixt Forms. Thus it may happen that a Confitution which fhall preferve Liberty and excite Indufiry in any Country, during its Infancy, fhall be prejudicial to both, when Circumftances are altered.

For thefe Reafons, a civil Conftitution can neither be preferved nor completed, unlefs, in the Diftribution or Lodgment of Power, nice Regard is paid to all the Fluctuations in Trade, Property, and other Cafualties; and hould either Wifdom or Opportunities be wanting to adjuft the Conftitution to thefe Circumfances, it muft fall naturally into Convulfions; and, unlefs it is able to purge itfelf thro' the Strength of its Stamina, it muft linger into certain Diffolution. Upon thefe Principles, all the Flux and Revolutions of Empires may be accounted for.

Now to apply thefe Maxims to Pennfylvania. The Quakers, as was hinted, could not fail to get Credit by their Adminiftration, tion, under the above-mentioned Circumftances. Their Succeffors, who were quite a different Sort of Men from the Founders of $t^{1}$ is Province, finding themfelves eftablifhed, quickly enlarged their Views, and have continued the Power in their own Hands till this Time, without leaving a Chance for thofe Struggles and Contentions about it, by means of which the Conftitution might have been purged, improved, and adapted to the Change of Circumftances.

Thus, in direct Contradiction to the Rule laid down above, the People, inftead of being fubjected to more Checks, are under fewer than at firft; and their Power has been continually increafing with their Numbers and Riches, while the Power of their Governors, far from keeping Pace with theirs, has rather been decreafing in the fame Proportion ever fince. The Confequence of this is clear. The Government, inftead of drawing nearer to the mixt Forms, as it ought in Proportion to its Growth, is now, in fact, more a pure Republic, than when there were not ten thoufand Souls in it. The Inconveniencies of this cum quite aders eftaand own ng a tions onfioved, cum-the itead are ower their er of Pace ng in Con-vernthe to its : Rehou es of this this we now begin to feel Reverely, and they muft continually increafe with the Numbers of the People, till the Government becomes at laft fo unwieldly as to fall a Prey to any Invader, or fink beneath its own Weight, unlefs a fpeedy Remedy is applied. -

Tho' many Circumftances concurred to bring us into this fad State, yet the chief Source of the Evil was what follows :

In the Year 1723, the old Proprietor William Penn, being lately dead, and his next Heirs, at Law among themfelves about the Government and Soil, Sir William Keith, who was then Governor, falling into the Hands of the Affembly, paffed a Law, giving them the fole Difpofal of all public Money, in manifeft Contempt of all the Inftructions of the Proprietary Family.

This entireiy completed the Scheme of Power our Affemblies had been long aiming at, by rendering all fucceeding Governors, and all the Officers of the Province, dependent upon them; for now they annually either vote or with-hold the Salaries of the Governor and all fuch Officers, according as they are, or are not, the Creatures of the Affembly. And indeed moft of them muft be fo; for our Affemblies have wrefted, out of the Hands of the Governor, the Nomination of a great many of the * Officers that hold the moft lucrative Pofts in the Government.

Poffeffed of fuch unreftrained Powers and Privileges, they feem quite intoxicated; are factious, contentious, and difregard the Proprietors and their Governors. Nay, they feem even to claim a kind of Independency of their Mother-Country, defpifing the Orders of the Crown, and refufing to contribute their Quota, either to the general Defence of America, or that of their own particular Province.

As a glaring Inftance of the former, I need only mention their Oppofition to Governor Thomas, in raifing Soldiers to fend againft the Spaniards in the Weft-Indies, and their abfolute Refufal to contribute a Farthing for that Service. Since that Time, during

* Such as the Provincial Treafurer; the Truftees of the Loan-Office; the Collector of the Excife, Bronder of Flour, Bronder of Beef and Pork, Health-Oficer, Eic.

[ II ]

during the whole Courfe of the late Wir, they have often been called upon by the Crown, and by Governor Sbirley of the Maffachulets, for the Expedition againft Cape-Breton, &c. To all which, if they have at any Time contributcd, it has been done indirectly, and in a Manner fhameful to this rich Province; fo grudgingly, and in fuch fmall Sums, as rather to hurt than ferve the common Caufe.

Forgetful of the public Good, they feem wholly to have employed themfelves in grafping after Power, altho' it is plain they have already too much of this, and fuch as is really inconfiftent and felf-deftructive.

Nor have they been more attentive to the Defence of their own particular Province, than of his Majefty's American Dominions, in general.

In Pennfylvania, we have but one fmall Fortification, and that raifed and fupported at the Expence of private People. The Proprietors, indeed, generounly made us a Prefent of twelve large Cannon, part of the twenty-fix we have mounted, and they have alfo given the Gunner of the Fort a Salary of twenty Pounds per Annum towards his Support $\dagger$. We are otherwife entirely naked, without Arms or Ammunition, and expofed to every Invafion, being under no Obligation to military Duty, In the laft War, one of the SpaniJJ Privateers came up the Delaware, within a few Miles of this City; and when thofe, who were not〇uakers, took the Alarm, and affociated themfelves for the Defence of the Country, they not only received no Encouragement from the Afiembly, but were abufed and reproached for their Pains, and the Dutch or Germans kept back from joining in the Affociation, by all poffible under - hand Practices.

The

+The honvurabic Proprietors alfo propofed to our Affembly five Years ago, That if the Afiembly would give Money for building a Strong. Houfe on the Obio (not venturing to call it Fort, or any Thing that implied Defence) they, the faid Proprietors would, on their Part, contribute any reafonaile Proportion to the building and fupporting of the faid Strong-Houfe. But this Propofal, like many others, was :ejected with Scom, merely, perhaps, becnufe it came from the Proprietors; nor was it fo much as thought worthy of a Place in their Minutes; though it is clear, if it had been complied with, the French had not now been fortified in the fame River, as they now are.

[ij]

lary his naand r no laft ame of not ted try, ient and $t \operatorname{tch}$ the and

The French, well apprized of this defencelefs and disjointed State, and prefoming on the religious Principles of our ruling People, have, the Year before laft, invaded the Province, and have actually three Forts, now erected far within the Limits of it. Juftly, therefore, may we prefume that, as foon as War is declared, they will take Poffeflion of the whole, fince they may really be faid to have fronger Footing in it than we, having three Forts in it fupported at public Expence, and we but one fmall Fort, fupported only by private Gentlemen.

Tis true our Neighbours, the Virginians, have taken the Alarm, and called on our Affiftance to repell the common Enemy, knowing that if the French hold Footing in Pennfylvania, their Turn muft be next. In like manner, the feveral Governors, and ours among the reft, have received his Majefty's gracious Orders to raife Money, and the armed Force of their refpective Governments on fuch an Emergency ; and had thefe Orders been complied with latt Winter, the French would neither have been able to drive the Virginians from the Fort they had begun in the back Parts of Pennflywania, nor yet to get Poffefion of one third Part of the Province, which they now have undoubtedly got thro the Stubbornefs and Madnefs of our Affemblies.

But here two Queftions will naturally. arife.

1. Why are our Affemblies againf defending a Country, in which their own Fortunes'and Eftates lie, if it is really in Danger?
2. Why have not the feveral Sums been accepted, which they have offered for the King's Ufe?

With regard to the firft, it may feem a Solecifm in Politics, for a People not to defend their own Property when it is actually invaded, unlefs they were certain of the Friendhip of the Invaders.

1 hall not, however, be fo uncharitable as to fuppofe our political Quakers reckon it indifferent, whether, or not, the French mall make themfelves Mafters of this Province, vince, notwithftanding Perfons af a Diftance may be apt to judge fo for the following Reafons. $1 / \ell$, From the continued Refufal of our Affemblies to defend the Province. $2 d l y$, From the extraordinary Indulgence and Privileges granted to Papifs in this Government:-Privileges plainly repugnant to all our political Interefts, confidered as a Frontier-Colony, bordering on the French, and one half of the People an uncultivated Race of Germans, liable to be feduced by every enterprizing Jefuit, having almoft no Proteftant Clergy among them to put them on their Guard, and warn them againft Popery.

> Tho' this might be infinuated, yet from Obfervation I have Reafon to believe, that moft of the 2uakers without Doors are really againt Defence from Confcience and their religious Tenets; but for thofe within Doors, I cannot but afcribe their Conduct rather to Intereft than Confcience.

Our Affemblies apprehend, that as foon as they agree to give fufficient Sums for the regular Defence of the Country, it would frike at the Root of all their Power, as

Quakers,

Quakers, by making a Militia-Law needful, in Time of Danger. Such a Law, they prefume, would alter the whole Face of Affairs, by creating a vaft Number of new Relations, Dependencies, and Subordinations in the Government. The Militia, they fuppofe, would all vote for Members of A ${ }^{\gamma}$ ombly, and being dependent on their Otficers, would probably be influenced by them. The Officers, again, as they imagine, would be influenced by the Government; and thus the 2uakers fear they would foon be out-voted in moft Places. For this Caufe, they will fuffer the Country to fall into the laft Extremity, hoping that when it is fo, our Neighbours will, for their own Sakes, defend it, without obliging them to pars a Law, which, they fear, would fo foon ftrip them of their darling Power. But this Backwardness of theirs has quite a contrary Effect; for the neighbouring Colonies, feeing this Colony, that is immediately attacked, doing nothing, wefufe to exert themfelves for a People, who are able, but unwilling, to defend themfelves.

Thus much in anfwer to the firf Queftion.
With

[ 17 ]

With regard to the fecond, little need be faid to fhew why the Monies they have offered for the King's Service never could be accepted of. For while they have the forefaid Apprehenfions from a Law for the Defence of the Country, it muft be plainly repugnant to their Intereft, ever to offer Money for this Purpofe, unlefs in fuch a Manner as they know to be inconfiftent with the Duty of a Governor to pafs their Bill into a Law. This will be fully underftood from what follows, which will alfo fhew by what Means they fave Appearances among the People, without doing any Thing for the Public.

There was a royal Inftruction fent to all the Englijb, Governors in America, upon the humble Addrefs of the Lords and Commons, fignifying, That under Pain of his Majefty's higheft Difpleafure, they fhall not pafs any Act for the Emiffion of PaperMoney, without a fufpending Claufe, that it Chall not take Effect till his Majefty's Pleafure is known. Since that Time, upon Petition of the chief Merchants in England, an Act of Parliament was paffed, entirely reftraining the four New-England Colonies from emitting any Paper-Bills at all, except in the Cafe of an Invafion, or fome great Emergency; and then the fame to be funk in a few Years. But the Soutbern Provinces fill continue under the Force of the linfruction.

[ 18 ]

Our late Governor, Mr. Hamilton, upon receiving his Majefty's Orders to arm the Province, folicited the Affembly laft Winter, to raife Money, and enable him to pay a proper Obedience to the royal Commands; but they totally difregarded him, and adjourned themfelves. Upon receiving an Account that the French had driven the Virginians from their Fort, he again called the Affembly, conjured them to obey his Majefty's Orders, and demonftrated the imminent Danger to which their Refufal would expofe not only themfelves, but all the Bri$t i f$ Colonics. He at the fame Time let them know, that tho' his Inftructions re-ftrained him from paffing any Paper-Money at all without a fufpending Claufe, yet, in the prefent preffing Emergency, he would rifque it, provided they would vote handfomely, and fink it within the Time prefcribed by Act of Parliament, in the Cafe of Nere-England. Then, and not till then, they voted $10,000 \mathrm{l}$. for his Majefty's Ufe, redeemable by the Excife in twelve Years, for which Time the Bills were to be funk annually in equal Proportions.

[ 19 ]

In that Space the Excife would raife 45,000 l. viz. 10,000 l. for the King's Ufe, and the remaining $35,000 \%$. would have been at their own Difpofal for what Ufes they might think fit.

The Governor, therefore, juftly confidered, that if he hould pafs this Bill, it would be giving the Government out of his Hands, and rendering himfelf and his Succeffors entirely unneceffary in the Adminiftration for twelve Years. It would be putting $35,000 \mathrm{l}$. into the Hands of the Affembly, ftill more to increafe their Power, and lay out in Schemes to abridge the Powers of their Proprietors and Governors; for tho' the Preambles to all our Money-Acts, and to the Excife, fay that the Intereft-Money, and what arifes from the Excife, are to be applied to the Support of Government ; yet they apply it as they pleafe, viz. to diftrefs all who oppofe their Meafures, and for building Hofpitals, purchafing Lands, Libraries, $\mathcal{E}^{\circ}$.

$\because$ For there Reafons, and confidering alfo that the Money was to continue feven Years longer than the Act of Parliament allows, the Governor refufed his Affent ; upon which they adjourned, altho' they knew very well before they propofed the Bill, that he could not give his Affent, without incurring his Majefty's higheft Difpleafure.

Upon the News of WalJington's Defeat, laft Summer, the Governor again fummoned them, and intreated them to confider the melancholy Situation of Affairs, and fall upon Ways and Means to repel the Enemy, confiftent with his Duty to pafs it; he having, in the mean Time, received Sir Dülley Rider's Opinion, that he could not, with Safety to himfelf, pafs fuch an Act as they wanted. They then voted him $15,000 \%$ to be raifed exactly as before, being certain the Governor could not venture to pafs it. Accordingly, upon his Refufal, they again adjourned ${ }_{2}$ adjourned, and to intimidate other Goyernors from daring to difpute their Commands, with-held his yearly Salary.

Mr. Hamilton, a Gentleman of great Honor, Probity, and good Senfe, having for fome Time forefeen, that with fuch an obitinate and perverfe People, he could never, as Governor, enjoy Eafe to himfelf, nor be in a Capacity either to obcy the King's Inftructions, or be of any real Service to the Province his native Country, had wrote over to the Proprietors to fend him a Succeffor, affuring them he would no longer continue to act as Governor.

Upon the Appointment of the Proprietors, he was accordingly fucceeded by the Hon. Robert Hunter Morris, Efq;

This Gentleman, upon his coming into the Government, immediately fpoke, in the mort pathetic Terms, to the new Affembly, compored of the old Members. -

D 2 After

After a fhort Adjournment; they met and offered a Bill for $20,0 \subset \rho, l$. conceived in the fame Terms as before, viz. to make the Paper-Money extend for twelve Years, though the new Governor had told them before-hand, that he was fubjected to the fame Inftructions as his Predeceffors, and cculd not pafs any fuch Bill into a Law.

Thus their whole Conauct has been of a Piece in this Country, tho 1 am well affured it is very much difapproved of and condemned by their Brethren the Quakers in England, who are jufly efteem'd a quiet and upright People, fuch as we already obferv'd the firf 2 uakers in this Province were. It is very plain they have no mind to give a fingle Shilling for the King's Ufe, unlefs they can thereby increafe their own Power; but they keep continually voting Money in order to keep the People on their Side; who not being well enough acquainted with the Nature of Government; to underftand why the Money-Bills cannot be paffed, think every fuch Rejection of a Money-

[23]

Bill, a Defign againft their Liberties, and throw the whole Blame upon their Proprietors and Governors, treating their Names in the moft infolent and contemptuous Manner.

Hence it is that this Province is reduced to the moft miferable Condition.The People at Variance, and diftrufful of each other! A French Enemy and their Savage Allies advanced far into our Territory! The People on our Frontiers liable to be murdered or driven from their Ha bitations! Our Lives and all our facred Rights expofed an eafy Prey !-And all this owing to the Infatuation and detentable Policy of a Set of Men who mind no Confequences, provided they can fecure their own Power and their Seats in the Affembly.

A Petition from a Thoufand of thefe poor Families, who inhabit the back Parts of the Colony, was prefented to the Affembly, laft Auguft, foon after Wa/bington's Defeat, praying that they might be furnifhed with Arms and Ammunition for their their Defence; but the Petition was rejected with Scorn. Our Indian Allies have often defired us to build Forts, to which their Wives and Children might fly in time of Danger, and have juft * now fent down to the Governor, begging he would direct the Building a Stockade, or wooden Fort, in which they offer to defend themfelves and us, from the Incurfions of the Enemy; but the Affembly, to be confiftent with themfelves, and hew that they are religioully bent on the Ruin of their Country, refufed to give any Money for this Purpofe, and gave the Indians for Anfwer, that if they were afraid of the Enemy, they might retire farther down, and come within the fettled Parts of the Province.

Thus the nobleft Opportunity was loft that could have been offered, of keeping our Indians fteady, and for building a Fort at a fimall Expence, in a Pafs fo commodiounly fituated between the Mountains, that it would have effectually covered and defended two of our Frontier Counties;
from

[^1]from the Inroads of the French and their Indians.

From what has been faid, it clearly appears how much we fuffer by having all public Monies in fuch Hands. Were the Cafe otherwife, Matters might be managed with Secrefy. Eafe, Expedition, Succefs, and a fmall Expence, by embracing the proper Opportunities. But thefe Opportunities, being once loft, are often never to be recalled, as is too well confirmed by the Settlements of the French at Crown-Point and on the Obio, both which might have been prevented at firft, with one fiftieth Part of the Expence it will now take to diflodge them, had not the Hands of all our Governors been tied up, by having the Difpofal of no Monies on fuch Emergencies, nor any Hopes of obtaining it from our Affemblies, if they fhould advance any Sums for the public Service.

But here it may be juftly anked, By what means the quakers, who are fo fmall a Part of the Inhabitants, and whofe Meafures are fo unpopular; get continually chofen into our Affemblies?

Before the late Spani/n War, a confiderable Number of our Affembly were of other Denominations; but at that Time being called upon by Governor Tbomas, to arm for their own Defence, and the Annoyance of his Majefty's Enemies, they were alarmed with the Profpect of lofing their Power if they hould comply, as was fhewn above; and therefore they entered into Cabals in their yearly Meeting, which is convened juft before the Election, and being compofed of Deputies from all the monthly Meetings in the Province, is the fineft Scheme that could poffibly be projected, fu: conducting political Intrigues, under the Mafk of Religion. They likewife had Recourfe to a German Printer, who was once pne of the French Prophets in Germany, and is Chrewdly fufpected to be a Popiff Emiffary, who now prints a News-Paper entirely in the German Lapguage, which is univerfally read and believed by the Germans in, this Province. This Man, whofe Name

Name is Saüer, they took into their Pay, and by his Means told the Germans therc was a Defign to enllave them; to force their young Men to be Soldiers, make them ferve as Pioneers, and go down to work upon our Fortifications; - that a military Law was to be made, infupportable Taxes to be laid upon them; anid in a Word, that all the Miferies they fuffered in Germany, with heavy Aggravations, would be their Lot, unlefs they joined to keep in the Quakers, under whofe Adminiftration they had fo long enjoyed Eafe and Tranquillity; and to force out of the Aflembly, all thofe who were like to join the Governor, in giving Money for anHoying the Enemy.

In confequence of this, the Germans, who had hitherto continued peaceful, without meddling in Elections, care down in Shoals, and carried all before them. Near 1800 of them voted in the County of Pbiladelpbit, which threw the Balance on the Side of the Livakers, though their Opponents, in that grand Struggle, voted near 500 more than ever lof an Elestion before.

The Quakers having found out this Seciet, have ever fince excluded all other Perfuafions from the Affembly, conftantly calling in the Germans to their Aid, by means of this Printer.

But the keeping the 2 uakers in, is not the worft Confequence of thefe infidious Practices with the Germans. The bad Effects of it will probably be felt thro' many Generations.-The Germans, inftead of being a peaceable induftrious People as before, now finding themfelves of fuch Confequence, are grown infolent, fullen, and turbulent ; in fome Counties threatning even the Lives of all who oppore their Views. The Quakers, in order to keep them from taking up Arms in Defence of the Province, or joining in Elections with their Opponents, have much alienated their Affections from the Government, by telling them there is a De fign againft their Libertics. They are taught to have but one and the fame Idea for Government and Slavery. All who are not of their Party they call GovernorsMen, in Derifion. They give out that they

they are a Majority, and ftrong enough to make the Country their own; and indeed, as they are poured in upon us in fuch Numbers (upwards of 5000 being imported this laft Year) I know nothing that will hinder them, either from foon being able to give us Law and Language, or elfe, by joining with the Frenck, to eject all the Englifh Inhabitants.

That this may be the Cafe, is too much to be feared, fince, as I remarked already, they refufed, almoft to a Man, to bear Arms in the Time of the late War. They fay it is all one to them which King gets the Country, fince, if they remain quiet, they will be permitted to enjoy their E ftates, under the Conqueror, whoever he is ; and as they have, many of them, lived under Popi/b Rulers before in their own Country, they give out thai they know the worft that can happen.

And, indeed, it is clear that the French have turned their Hopes upon this great Body of Germans. They have now got Poffeffion of the vaft and exceeding fruitful Country upon the Obio, jutt behind E aur German Settlements.' They know our Germans are extremely ignorant, and think a large Farm the greateft Bleffing in Life. Therefore, by fending their fofuitical Emiffaries among them, to perfuade them over to the Popifb Religion, they will draw them from the Englifh, in Multitudes, or perhaps lead them in a Body againtt us. This is phainly a Scheme laid by the French many Years ago, and uniformly purfued till this Time, with the greatefl Addrefs; being the true Caufe of their continual Encroachments, and holding their Countries by Forts, without fettling them. When they come near chough to have Communication with our Germans, it will be much more their Intereft to plant their Colonies, by offering the faid Germans eafy Settlements, than by bringing new Hands from Europe: for by fuch Means they not only get an Acceffion of People who are accuftomed to the Country, but alfo weaken us, in Proportion as they ftrengthen themfelves.

That now is the Time they propofe ta put their grand Scheme in Execution is too evident. They are already fo near us, that the French Camp, and their Forts upon the Obio and the Parts adjacent, are not more than 225 Miles, horizontal Dirtance, from the City of Pbiladelpbia, and only about two Days March from fome of ou back Settlements. By Accounts received laft Week, they have 2000 effective || Men in thefe Parts, together with

"Since my laft, we have five Days ago received certain * Intelligence that a Body of nigh Six Thoufand of the "' beft Troops of France, felected and fent over upon this 4. particular Service, are juft arrived at the lower Fort upon " she Ohio, and are employed, even in this rigorous Seafon, " in fortifying that Ccuntry. In September latt, the Frexicb "Men of War that brought them over were feen not far "4 from the Entrance into the River St. Laurence, into which "? we are now certain they went, and landed at Quebec. " After a fhort Stay in that City, they were feen by our 4 Imdian-Traders paffing the Lakes, Ofwego and Eric, in " 2 prodigious Number of Battoes, of which the feveral "Governors received notice, though we did not then con" jecture that it was an Armament from Old France, till " now that we are too certain of it.

[^2]with a great Body of Indians at their Beck.

Now there is no Way of preventing thefe dreadful Misfortunes with which we are threatened, but to open the Eyes of the Germans to their true Interefts, and foften this ftubborn Genius of theirs, by means of Inftruction. Faithful Proteftant Minifters, and School-mafters, fhould be fent and fupported among them, to warn them againft the Horrors of Popi/b Slavery; to teach them found Principles of Government, and inftruct their Children in the Englifs Tongue, and the Value of thofe Privileges to which they are born among us. If this can be done, and the Frencb
" the Province, and eflablifh a regular Militia, but in vain.
"He alfo obferves, that the Attivity of the French at this " rigorous Seafon cannot but convince the World, that
"t they have formed fome grand Defign with regard to this,
" Continent, and that they have made their firf Attack' " upen Pennfllvania, as being in the Center, and being " not only the moft plentiful, but the mort defencelefs and " unwieldy of all his Majefty's Colonies. Having once " got Footing here, they will iffue forth upon the other "Colonies on either Side ; and as they have fúch 2 large " Body already in the Field, we apprehend it is their De" fign early in the Spring to fortify the Paffes in the Moun" tains ; and if they accompliih this, and can find Provi" fions, they will be able to ftand againft three Times their " Numbers."

Frencl driven from the Obio, fo as to have no Communication with our + Gerinans for twenty or thirty Years, till they are taught the Value of the Proteftant Religion, underftand our Language, and fee that they have but one Intereft with us; they will for the future bravely fight for their own Property, and prove an impregnable Barrier againft the Enemy.

But as if it had been decreed by Fate, or the evil Genius of the 2uakers, that they hould never have the fame Intereft with their Country in a fingle Inftance, it is a Part of their Policy alfo to oppore every Scheme for inftructing and making Englifbmen of the Germans. In order to keep their Seats in the Affembly, they have not only, as I have hewn, fuffered the French to fix themfelves on the Obio; they have not only corrupted the Principles of the Germans; but, to be confiftent with with their Intereft, they muft frive to keep thefe poor People in the fame dark State, into which they have endeavoured to fink them. For they know, that if the Germans were inftructed, fo as to be capable of ufing their own Judgment in Matters of Goverament, they would no more be mifled by the Arts of a Quaker Preacher, than of a lurking French Prieft.

Hence it is that, by means of their hireling Printer, they reprefent all regular Clergymen as Spies and Tools of State, telling the People they muft not regard any Thing their Minifters advife conz cerning Elections, fince they have a Scheme to elect Men who will bring in a Bill for giving the Tenths to the Clergy, as in fome other Countries. It is needlefs to obferve that no fach Law can ever be made here, as beirg repugnant to Cbarter ; for our Quakers, though they never fwear, ftick not gravely to affirm and adhere to any Falhood whatever, provided it will fupport them in their darling Schemes for Power.

[35]

Secondly, By difcouraging regular Minifters, it gives the 2uakers an Opportunity of making more Profelytes.

This is the true Reafon why the moft connfiderable and wealthy Sect among the Germans, is the Menonifts, whore Principles are much the fame with thofe of the Quakers; for they hold it unlawful to take Oaths, or bear Arms. Thus encouraged by our ruling Men, this Sect has a great Influence among the Germans, and the Menonifls are daily increafing by the Converts they make by their great Wealth, which gives them an Opportunity of paying the Paffages of their poor Countrymen, who indent themfelves to ferve four Years for the Money thus advanced for the....

Befides thefe, there are near one Fourth of the Germans fuppofed to be Roman Catholics, who cannot be fuppofed Friends to any Defign for defending the Country againft the French. Many are alfo Moravians, who, as they conceal their Principles, are fufpected to be a dangerous People, mrre efpecially as they hold fome Tenets and Cuftoms, as far as we have any Opportunity of judging of them, very much a-kin to thofe of the Roman Catholics. There are alfo many other Sects foringing up among the Gernans; which it would be tedious to name, but moft of them are principled againft bearing Arms.

[37]

I have faid enough to thew that never was any Country in a more diftreffed Condition than this; and tho it has flourihed in an extraordinary Degree, as it could not fail to do, when it was young, and all thefe feveral Sects employed only in eftablifhing themfelves; yet now, when they ate grown to Wealth and Maturity, and are not fo neceffarily employed in their private Concerns, they will tern their Thoughts to the Putling or perhaps againf one another; and thence the utmoft Confufion muft enfue, if a timely Remedy is not applied, and more Checks contrived to balance their increaling Strength than were neceffary at firf.

I am forry it has fallen to my Lot to trace all our growing Miferies to the mifchievous Policy of my Fellow-Sübjects, the وuakers, who regard no Confequences, but holding their own Ground. Truth and Duty obliged me to take up my Pen. We have been too long filent, and had this Reprefentation been made, as it ought to have been, many Years ago, we had not now been in fuch calamitous Circumftances. .

I muft, however, in Juftice obferve that there have been fome honeft Spirits always among us, who have left nothing unattempted for the Redemption of their Country. Even as late as laft Oetober, tho' they knew it was friving againft the Stream, thofe Perfons made a noble Effort to convince the Germans of our common Danger, and induce them to join in the Choice of Men who widd defend the Province, and pay fome Deterence to his Majefty's Inftructions. They reminded the Germans, that at their Naturalization, they had folemnly engaged to defend his Majefty's Perfon and Government againft all his Enemies; and that, in cafe of Refufal, they would be guilty of Perjury. But all was in vain. The 2uakers held them immoveable, by their ufual Infinuations; and we might as foon have attempted to preach the ftormy Element into a Calm, as, by Reafoning, to refcue thefe poor deluded Germans, out of the Hands into which they are fallen.

Neverthelefs thefe worthy Perfons imagined it their Duty to exert themfelves, not only to convince the 2 quakers that their Meafures were difapproved of by the better Part of their Fellow-Citizens, but alfo to fatisfy the Government of Bngland that there are fill many in this Place, who have not banifhed all Impreflions of Loyaty and Duty from their Breafts.

I can, however, now fee no Remedy left amang ourfelves. We murt look to our Mother-Country for Suecour, and if it is not fpeedily granted, this noble Province feems irrecoverably loft. We frah be driven from thefe beloved Habitationss. or elfe forced to fubmit once more, not only to civil Slavery, but to Perfection, and that religious Slavery, from which many of our Anceftors left the Land of drir Nativity, and fat down in thefe difant uncultivated Places, amidft the Horrors of the howling Wildernefs!

Yet defperate as our Cafe is here, a Remedy in England is eafy. Let the Parliament liament but make a Law to the following Effet :

1. To oblige all thofe who fit in Affembly to take the Oaths of Allegiance to his Majefty, and perhaps a Teft or Declaration that they will not refure to defend their Country againft all his Majefty's Enemies. - Thic feems the fmalleft Teft of Fidelity that can be required from thofe to whom the Conflitution of their Country, and the Red Rights of their FellowSubjects, at committed in Truft.
2. To fufpend the Right of Voting for Members of Affembly, from the Germans, till they have a fufficient Knowledge of our Language and Conftitution. - This Provifion is as reafonable as the former. What can be more abfurd and impolitic, than to fee a Body of ignorant, proud, ftubborn Clowns (who are unacquainted with our Language, our Manners, our Laws, and our Interefts) indulged with the Privilege of Returning almoft every Member of Affembly ? Now a Courfe of about twenty Years would make them acquainted with all thefe Things, Things, if, according to good Policy, we make it their Intereft fo to be, and give them the proper Opportunities, as I am going to propofe. And unlefs fomething is done this Way, we may incline them to fome bad Meafures, and never procure that Coalition, which we defire, and which is fo much their Honour and Intereft.

3. It will therefore be abfolutely neceffary to encourage Proteftant Minifters and School-mafters among them, as I hinted already, in order to reduce them into regular Congregations; to inftruct them in the Nature of free Gavernment, the Purity and Value of the Proteftant Faith; and to bind them to us by a common Language, and the Confcioufnefs of a common Intereft *.
4. But

- N. B. As a confiderable Progrefs is made in a Defign of this Nature, and a confiderable Sum collected for it, by a generous and public-fpirited Society of Noblemen and Gentlemen in London, who are all Perfons of high Rank and Worth, the Parliament could not do a more effectual Service to the Britiß Intereft in Anerica, than to allift the faid Society, by making an annual Provifion for inftructing poor Germans in thefe Parts, for the Space of twenty or thirty Years, till they are brought into a regular State. Some Englifh Schools are already hegun, and an excellent Scheme laid for their Government ; but without public Aid, it is £eared the charitable Contributions of private Perfons, will prove utterly inadequate to fupport a Defign of fo great national Importance.

4. But after fuch a Provifion is made, it will alfo be neceffary, in order the more effectually to induce the Germans to learn Englifh, not only to fufpend for a Time their Right of Voting for Affembly-men, as by the fecond Article, but alfo to make all Bonds, Contracts, Wills, and other legal Writings void, unlefs in the Englifb Tongue. For want of fome Regulation of this Nature, the greatef Confufion is like to be introduced into our Laws, and Courts of Juftice.
5. That no News-Papers, Almanacks, or any other periodical Paper, by whatever Name it may be called, be printed or circulated in a foreign Language. Or, fhould this be deemed too fevere (which 1 think it cannot reafonably be) then it may be provided, that no fuch Publication or Circulation be made, unlefs there be a jut and fair Englifb Verfion of fuch a foreign Language, printed in one Column of the fame Page or Pages, along with the faid foreign Language.

[43]

For want of fome fuch Regulation at this, continual Prejudices are propagated among the Germians, without our knowing it, or being able to remove them when they come to our Knowledge.

Now a Law conifiting of the five fores faid Provifions, or fomething equivalent, would effectually refcue us from all the fad Train of Calamities I have pointed out; and without fuch Means, 1 fee nothing to prevent this Province from falling into the Hands of the Frencb.

It cannot be expected that private Perfons, without the Aid of the Legillature, can long defend the Country, or fupport the Expence of military Preparations. A few Men among us have already expended large Sums this Way, and can fee no End of it.

During the late War, they petitioned his Majefty, fetting forth their Difficulties. in this Refpect, and the defencelefs State of the Province ; in which they wefe coun: G tenaneed teranced by the Proprietors, who with g. E Earnefnefs folicited the Matter, and liat, on every Occafion been zealous and active for the Defence of the Colony. - The Petition was referred to a Committee of the Privy-Council and the Lords Commiffioners of Trade and Plantations, who reported in favour of it. But the Petitioners, at that Time, received no Relief, owing ${ }_{3}$ as they refume, to the other weighty Affairs of Government, which then neceffarily engroffed the Attention of his Majefty's Minifters. Peace being foon after concluded, the Petitioners remained filent, till we are now again alarmed with greater and more threatning Dangers than ever. Longer Silence would be unpardon* able, and the fooner the Britiß Nation is acquainted with our State, the more Poffibility of Redrefs will remain.

[44]

I may be faid, with the greatef Juftice; that our Proprietors and our late Goververnors, have done every thing in their Power to affift us, and keep up to an Englifh Conftitution; for which they have been reviled, abufed, and all imaginable

[45]

Steps taken to hurt them in their Inteceft by this perverfe and proudeft of People, who, under the Mafk of extraordinary Sanctity and Confcience, lord it over their Fellow-Subjects.

Whatever be the Confequence, all our Misfortunes can be charged no where but upon our People themfelves, and I have Thewn that it would be plainly repugnant to their Intereft to remedy Grievances. Alt Redrefs therefore, muft, if it comes, come from his Majefty, and the Britifo Parliament, to whom our diftrefled and melancholy Condition muft be humbly fubmitted. If our Cafe is longer overlooked, I hall foon begin to think of returning, to fpend the fmall Remainder of my Days in quiet with you, and to leave my Bones in the Land where I drew my firft Breath. Mean while, permit me to affure you; that,
