28TH YEAR

TAFT IS PRESIDENT----HUGHES CARRIES NEW YORK STATE

BRYAN CARRIES THREE MORE STATES

Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma in Dem. Column—Otherwise the Prime Results Show No Change.

The results of the United States elections are far from complete, so far as figures are concerned, but the three great facts are assured:

TAFT is the twenty-seventh president of the United States.

HUGHES is re-elected governor of New York State.

CONGRESS will be again controlled by the Republicans.

NEW YORK STATE, Nov. 4.—The outstanding features of the presidential election are:

William H. Taft is elected president with approximately 298 votes.

Practically no change is indicated in the complexion of the national house of representatives.

The United States Senate will retain its present Republican majority.

Governor Charles E. Hughes has been re-elected in New York State by about 54,000 plurality.

Indiana has gone for Taft.

Bryan has apparently carried Nebraska.

Ohio returns are very slow owing to immense ballot, but Taft has carried it by a large plurality.

Taft May Carry New York City.

Judge Taft may have a majority in the City of New York, the first time the big city has given its vote to a Republican presidential candidate.

Mr. Taft probably will receive a greater plurality in New York State than President Roosevelt did four years ago. He has exceeded Mr. Roosevelt's plurality in New Jersey and had a surprisingly big vote in Massachusetts.

Speaker Cannon has been re-elected by his usual majority.

Representatives Payne of New York and Dalziel of Pennsylvania have been re-elected and the house of representatives probably will continue under its old regime. Mr. Payne will have charge of the new tariff bill in the extra session which Mr. Taft will call immediately after March 4 next.

Missouri Goes Back.

Missouri has returned to the "solid south" on the presidential ticket and elected Cowherd as its governor.

The first returns received came from scattering districts in Massachusetts. The heavy pluralities indicated there for Taft seemed at once to dissipate any probability of a "landslide" for Bryan, as many Democrats had claimed, and the Republican managers at once began to put out claims of victory.

Returns from the up-county districts of New York State, where voting machines are largely used, were the next to arrive. It had been predicted for days that Erie County, including the heavy vote of Buffalo, might be taken as an index to the drift thruout the country. This proved to be the case, so far as the national ticket was concerned. Mr. Taft having a plurality of something more than 4000 votes. Erie County surprisingly, however, gave Lt.-Gov. Chanler a plurality of more than 3000. The opponents of Gov. Hughes were quick to claim a sweeping victory, but returns from the other large counties and cities soon changed the complexion of the returns completely.

Hughes Lost Up State.

The vote in Greater New York for Chanler was deeply disappointing to his friends, while the heavy vote for Taft, especially in the Borough of Brooklyn, completely eclipsed the most sanguine hopes of the Republicans. Gov. Hughes was cut heavily up the state, but not so deeply as to imperil his election, once the drift in his favor "below the Bronx" had begun to make itself felt.

To Gov. Hughes Judge Taft said: "I thank you warmly for your congratulations and reciprocate by extending congratulations to you on carrying New York State against tremendous odds and by the wonderful campaign which you carried on. We are all indebted to you also for your aid in the national campaign."

To representative Wm. B. McKinley, the candidate wired: "I am delighted to know that we shall have a Republican house, for that is absolutely necessary for future work."

Timothy L. Woodruff was sent an expression of gratitude, "for the great campaign which was carried on." He also expressed especial gratification at the election of Governor Hughes.

Vote in the Electoral College.

The indications are that the following votes will be cast in the electoral college for Taft:

California, 10; Connecticut, 7; Delaware, 3; Idaho, 3; Illinois, 27; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Maine,

HOPE FOR MORE.

CHICAGO, Midnight.—At this hour John E. Lamb, vice-chairman of the Democratic national committee, in charge of western headquarters, refusing to admit defeat, issued the following statement:

"I do not care to estimate the probable final result, altho we do not concede anything. It looks as tho we have won Monatana, Nebraska and Colorado. We have not enough from Ohio, West Virginia or Maryland to give any indications."

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.

Walter F. Mills, 62 East Queen-st., was arrested yesterday by Detective Armstrong charged with forgery in the passing upon Arthur L. Hardman of two cheques on the Molsons Bank, to which it is alleged he affixed signatures not his own.

WOULDN'T PASS "EXTRAS."

Items classed as "extras" in the report of the finance committee, presented to the separate school board last night, amounted to over $1000. As the board considered that these expenditures had been made without formal authority, it was decided to have a detailed statement before passing them.

BRANTFORD WILL NOT BE TIED BY CATARACT

Offers fo: Street Lighting and Power Are Rejected and Hydro-Electric Commission Will Be Applied To.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—If Brantford is to have cheap light, cheap power for all classes of citizens, if the city is to be free of law suits, of one continual fight and expense, the city in our mind has only one course to pursue, and that is—the city should control her own public utilities.

The above is brief was the attitude of a sub-committee of city council to-night reporting to the general citizens' committee on the power situation. Two draft contracts for street lighting and for supply of motive power were submitted by the Cataract Company to the city and both were voted by the committee to be unsatisfactory.

Ald. Andrews presented the report, showing the unsuccessful negotiations carried on for the past six months, in which the company failed to meet any of the city's proposals.

The Company's Terms.

In the street lighting agreement of the company an offer of $50 per arc light was offered, being $5 less than the present price paid. The conditions were hedged in, however. The company refused to place a meter at the disposal of the city to test the current and wished to govern the lighting and extinguishment of lights according to its greement with Hamilton. The agreement provided for no increase in the number of lights except after five years, and then the increase should either be more than 30 and not less than 50. The company refused to agree that modern lamps should be provided and the contract could only be rescinded upon failure of the company to meet its terms on six months' notice by the city requiring the company to remedy the defect. Moreover, tax exemption was asked on the poles and wires and a fixed assessment on the offices and plants of the company.

The sub-committee recommended that the city purchase the street lighting equipment, and the report concludes: "The company have demonstrated in a most emphatic manner how they will deal with this municipality if we give them the opportunity."

Limit Supply of Power.

The draft agreement for the supply of power was considered no less unsatisfactory than the one for street lighting. An offer to charge 10 per cent. less than the hydro-electric commission charged in Toronto or any municipality west of Hamilton was made. The company refused to submit the matter of comparative rates to the Ontario Municipal Board for arbitration and would not agree to make no rentals for meters. Altho it had verbally agreed that 746 volts should constitute one horse-power instead of 746 volt amperes, the clause would not be embodied in the contract. Moreover, it would not agree to supply power to any industries within a half mile radius of the city. This it was deemed would prove as impediment to industrial development, as the company stipulated to charge its own prices to industries outside the city.

The report concluded with a recommendation to submit to the ratepayers next January the matter of entering into an agreement with the hydro-electric commission.

The following resolution passed: Moved by T. H. Preston, ex-M.L.A., seconded by Ald Hall: "That this committee regrets that the Cataract Power Co. has not met the proposals of the city in a more adequate manner and recommend that the sub-committee prepare a report showing the cost of municipal ownership of an electric lighting plant for lighting and power purposes, with power to be supplied by the hydro-electric commission, and report at an adjourned meeting."

AGNES ST. CHURCH SOLD.

Will Be Converted Into a Synagog—Brought $21,000.

The historic old Agnes-street Methodist Church has been sold for a Jewish synagog.

The building, which was vacated for church purposes years ago, was used for some time as an Italian Mission.

The Methodist Social Union, who own the building, have accepted $21,000 for the property, $6000 of which will apply on the mortgage and $15,000 go to Elm-street Methodist Church.

This is the second Methodist church to have been abandoned by the denomination, only to be converted into a synagog.

OPPOSITION AHEAD.

Newfoundland Elections Seem Adverse to Bond Government.

HALIFAX, Nov. 3.—(Special).—Returns from Newfoundland at midnight are still incomplete. The result in eleven out of the twenty-six electoral districts shows the election of eight opposition and three government candidates. The opposition are also leading in St. John's and West.

Annexation of Wychwood District is Not Allowed By the Municipal Board

Chairman Leitch Inclines to Protection of Minority---Future Depends on the City Granting Terms.

"Application has failed" was the ruling of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board yesterday on the Wychwood and Bracondale petition for annexation to the city.

The board sat morning and afternoon and a counter petition was proven by T. Gibson, solicitor for the anti-annexation interests.

To carry the annexation 368 names were required. The petition for annexation had 482 names. Some weeks ago an adjournment was granted to permit a scrutiny of these names. The counter petition by the antis having been gone over reduced the original petition by 94 less 18. The petition was also reduced by 62 names not proven, leaving a majority of 53. The further reduction of 76 names left a shortage of 23 names.

"It is not clear to the board that the majority are asking for annexation," said Chairman Leitch. "The board is here to protect the minority. These men are fighting for their rights. They don't want their taxes increased. Many of them went on this land to get away from the city."

"We feel like protecting the minority. If we don't protect them they get no protection. This board would be simply useless if we did not undertake to protect the minority. It has not been made clear to the board that there is a majority of ratepayers sufficient to justify the board in dragging these people into the city.

"We have considered the sanitary side. We went over the ground the other day, and understand the situation perfectly well."

Scrutinizing the Petition.

J. R. L. Starr, who appeared for the petitioners, asked time to scrutinize the counter petition. There were a number of duplicates on the assessment roll.

Mr. Gibson thought annexation should only be considered on terms. They had a Ratepayers' Association, and a large number of these might be prepared to come into the city on terms. They had had this fight twice and if the board would see fit to make a suggestion that they get together to go to the city and see what terms might be obtained, he thought the majority might come in. A great many people whose interests he represented were small holders with small buildings on their land. To bring them into the city and assess them with local taxes would mean confiscation. A great many people went into the district so as to own their own homes and "expecting to be released from the excessive and confiscatory burden of city taxation."

"If you took the two petitions together you would certainly have a clear majority of the ratepayers," said Chairman Leitch.

"If these people got terms from the city the majority of petitioners would hardly spurn the terms."

"We will be delighted to join in visit-

Mr. Bryan's Little Anecdote

There is a story that Mr. Bryan is very fond of telling, and he related it when a guest of the Press Club on his last visit to Toronto.

It concerns a drunken man who, after having been ejected from an assembly once, carefully ascended the stairs again, only to be thrown out for the second time. Undeterred, he made the ascent and for a third time his departure was expeditiously accelerated.

Sitting in the hallway, a light dawned on him.

"I see it now," he confided to himself. "Them fellers don't want me in there."

TO ANNEX NEWFOUNDLAND.

It Would Be a Benefit to Canada and the Colony.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Advocating the union of Newfoundland and Canada, The Morning Post says: "Economically, the little colony paid a heavy price for its isolation; politically, the advantages of union would be yet more pronounced. Canada will not gain less than Newfoundland, for she would be reinforced by the purest, hardiest British stock to be found anywhere beyond the continuing alike in their lives and blood the tradition of England's maritime greatness."

Great Art Sale Yesterday.

A very large and select audience attended the auction sale of oil paintings, the work of Harry Britton, A.R.C.A., at Chas. M. Henderson & Co.'s art gallery yesterday afternoon. Some rarepieces were obtained by the following: Byron E. Walker, R. Y. Ellis, D. R. Wilkie, D. E. Cameron, Rhys. Fairburn, F. McMahon, F. R. Upton, C. Darling, F. C. McLean, C. E. Burdon, A. C. McConkey, F. G. Phillips, W. H. Cornish, C. Harper, A. Mortimer, G. W. Beer, G. R. Copping, A. C. Neff, Miss Killlay, Major Orchard, L. Wood, J. Williams and others.

We might say Mr Henderson has the best gallery for the display of paintings in the city and the manner in which he conducts his sales is well appreciated by buyer and seller.

Is There a Second Cobalt Coming.

The Cobalt silver mines have made good. They easily increased in value $15,000,000 yesterday. Cobalt is, what they all say now, the greatest silver camp in the world. The six-dollar shares of Nipissing, the leading mine of the camp, went from $10 to $12.50 yesterday. No one doubts Cobalt now. But not only has it made good; more surprising is it that it is widening; the silver area steadily enlarges so as to include properties that were once thought of little value. Against the hitherto experience of mining in general, namely, that where and when there were two or three big mines in the one spot nature had exhausted her stores in that quarter, that more was not to be expected—against this experience is the new experience of Cobalt, that there are fifty, probably one hundred shipping mines in a place two miles square! Never was such a thing seen before. Mining engineers of world-wide experience say that in this respect Cobalt is the marvel. So much for the greatness of Cobalt, the richness of Cobalt!

But is there another Cobalt in the Temiskaming country? It looks like it. That is the wonderful stimulus that has been animating prospectors and investors for a year back. They think they see it coming, and they are bent on being there when it comes if they can. Day by day a sort of magic thrill has been growing about the phrase "Up the Montreal River." Once it had a meaning, and that was limited to lumbering or hunting. Now, "up the Montreal River" is being associated with the idea of a new, or perhaps a greater Cobalt. But the Montreal River is long: you can go up a hundred miles and still be going. Yet sixty miles from Cobalt there are places on the Montreal River or in its district, the names of which set men thinking of untold riches. James Township, Smythe Township, Elk Lake, Elk City, Gowganda Lake, Otisse, the White mine, the Mooseborn. Hundreds of prospectors are in this new country to-day. Undaunted by the approach of a rigorous winter, they are crowding the little river boats as long as they run, they are ready for snowshoes or the sleigh over the trail that will form on the snow or ice in a day or two—all bent on getting a location, a piece of the new Cobalt. They think it is right within their grasp. If they get it the pace of the new camp will be as swift as the amateur methods of the first day of Cobalt were slow and wobbling.

The application of the C.P.R. for connection between its line and the G.T.R. at Galt came up again, and was adjourned till next week, when the boards of trade interested will be present.

Public Amusements

That Toronto will greet the Sheffield Choir with a magnificent house to-morrow evening on their opening concert in Toronto is evidenced by the fact that every seat is sold for the first night. Good locations are still available for the other three concerts. The choir at its opening concert in the Montreal Arena, which was packed to the doors, fulfilled all its golden renown. Yesterday they had a very busy time in Montreal, beginning with a reception at the Chateau de Ramezay in the morning, followed by an organ recital at Notre Dame, a reception at the Bank of Montreal by E. S. Clouston and luncheon at the Windsor Hotel by the city. Then a visit to McGill University and a reception by Sir George and Lady Drummond. To-day in Ottawa a luncheon by the city, a reception by the governor-general and a supper by Dr. Charles A. E. Harriss fills up all the spare time.

The choir arrive by special train from Ottawa at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon and will stay at the Rossin House. The concert to-morrow evening begins at 8.15. Owing to the large house, ticket-holders are asked to be in their places by 8 o'clock.

News was received at the Princess Theatre that Charles Cherry, the young English actor who is to appear in the leading role in Clyde Fitch's comedy, "Girls," next week, is to star next season under the direction of Sam S. and Lee Shubert, Inc., his present manager, in a play especially written for him by Fitch. Mr. Cherry received his early stage training in England as a member of Sir John Hare's company and was well known both in London and the provinces. Leaving England nine years ago, Mr. Cherry came to America in response to a flattering offer from a well known New York producing manager. He had not been in the States long before he was selected as leading man for Miss Mary Mannering. Cherry acted in this capacity for several years and was then engaged by Maxine Elliott to play the principal male role with her company, appearing several times in Toronto. When it was decided to present "Girls" in New York at the close of its two years' successful engagement in London, Mr. Cherry was at once offered the leading part. The title of Mr. Cherry's first starring venture has not yet been made known, but it is understood that Clyde Fitch is writing the principal part to especially fit Mr. Cherry's pleasing personality and original methods. Both Mr. Cherry and Herbert Standing, father of Guy Standing and a former member of Sir Henry Irving's company, are enthusiastic golf players and spend all their spare time at the links.

This week's attraction at the Royal Alexandra, "The Chimes of Normandy," is in many ways the most attractive opera yet presented by the Imperial Opera Company; the concerted numbers are particularly excellent and the dramatic situations attain a depth rarely found in comic opera. The chorus, which has achieved much success in the earlier productions of this company, is contributing very materially to the beauty of "The Chimes of Normandy." One of the most able renditions of the role of Gaspard, the old miser ever offered the public is being presented by George LeSoir.

Clyde Fitch's bright and fascinating comedy "Girls" will be presented at the Princess Theatre the week of Nov. 9, by Sam S. & Lee Shubert, Inc. This company and play enjoyed a run of 225 performances at Daly's Theatre, New York, and received the unanimous praise of both press and public. One of the many humorous incidents with which the play is filled is the scene which shows the three young ladies retiring for the night, one in a folding bed, another on a sofa couch, and the third in a Morris chair. The regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given, as well as a special matinee Monday.

Clyde Fitch, the most popular American author, has probably written more successful plays than any two playwrights combined, and it's very seldom that they are seen at less than dollar fifty prices. "The Straight Road," which had such a successful run at the Astor Theatre, will be seen at the Grand next week with a company of selected players and the entire original production. The principal character of this play is a waif, left to the mercy of a large city and all its evil. She is taken in hand by a mission worker, who shows her the right from the wrong. The engagement opens with a special holiday matinee Monday, Thanksgiving Day.

Lucky Jack Gordon, the title character in the thrilling melodrama, "The Gambler of the West," is a splendid conception of the rough but good hearted manly characters of frontier days in the Rocky Monutains, and thru the great sensationalism of this play there is a strain of real human feeling that reaches the heart. It will begin a week's engagement at the Majestic Theatre, opening with a matinee Monday, Thanksgiving Day.

"The Hastings Show", which opens at the Gayety commencing Monday matinee next, present comedy, opera, burlesque and vaudeville, headed by the California Nightingale, Miss Viola Sheldon, and supported by the able and well heralded comedian and character actor, Harry Hastings, America's clever Irish delineator, Thos. Coyne and others.

The grocers' branch of the Retail Merchants' Association is beginning a campaign against street pedlars, who have been violating the city bylaws by working two on a wagon. The law says that only one may sell, while another may, if necessary, be present as a helper. It is claimed that in many cases two men have been at work.

WYCHWOOD ANNEXATION

ing the city to get terms if Mr. Gibson and his friends are in earnest," said Mr. Starr.

"We will be happy to make an order on the present petitions if terms can be got," said Chairman Leitch.

Lawyers Are Pointed.

At the morning session Mr. Starr submitted a supplemental petition with 89 names signed in addition to his previous petition. Mr. Gibson thought it infamous that his petitioners should be tampered with.

Mr. Starr thought that it would be just as well to go around offering $50 bill sas to tell the people they could get annexted to the city on special terms.

"I would like to know," asked Mr. Starr, "if Mr. Gibson has received any assurance from the city that annexation can be arrived at on a fixed assessment for 10 years?"

"And I would like to find that out also," said Corporation Counsel Fullerton. "As I understand it, they were given to understand that there could be no fixed assessment. In the face of that it appears to me that the signatures were obtained by a trick so wonderfully clever that it should make Mr. Gibson famous and not infamous."

"A petition secured on such grounds is a palpable fraud," said Mr. Starr. "Mr. Chisholm has positively asserted that a ten-year fixed assessment is impossible."

"What authority had Mr. Chisholm to make that statement?" asked Mr. Gibson.

"I think these people have a right to say upon what terms they will come in. If they get these terms, all well and good," said Chairman Leitch.

"That is true," said Mr. Fullerton. "But these names were secured just to sidetrack the other petition. Those who signed it were promised something that those who got them to sign knew they could not deliver."

Some of the Evidence.

The board resumed at 2.30.

Mr. Gibson proved pages 11-13 of his petition by Fred E. Lucas, the canvasser. Lucas did not live in the district. He was asked to take the petition around by Mr. Dodds. He did not point out to the signers that signing the petition withdrew their names from the other petition.

Thomas H. Edwards obtained one signature on page 10. He was interested financially, he said, and had had the petition prepared by Mr. Royce, Mr. Gibson being present.

Mr. Starr asked if he had ever said to Mr. Marks that the petition would knock out annexation.

He would not swear he had not said so. He was paying $300 or $400 a year in taxes, and city taxes would be $3000 a year on his property. He would save $2000 a year. He had three and a half acres, fixed assessment, that would continue exempt in this city for nine years yet.

"I am a strong anti-annexationist," he told the board. "But the matter has come to this now that I think we ought to get together and get some terms."

"Have you not heard Mr. Chisholm say here for the city that no terms would be granted?" asked Mr. Starr.

Witness hedged considerably on this, but finally adamitted he might have heard him.

The point was that the petition asking for terms was circulated after the declaration that no terms would be made.

Mr. Gibson wished to clear some aspersions he alleged had been cast in the morning.

"You need not trouble about that until they prove that there was fraud or misrepresentation," remarked Chairman Leitch. "There was no fraud or misrepresentation needed to get this man on the petition anyway. He knew very well what he was doing. He seems to have figured it down pretty fine."

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

General Booth states that if the present rate of emigration from South Africa to Canada and Australia continues South Africa will soon be without a white working class population. The negro must be Christianized, or there will be appalling trouble.

Norwood will vote on local option.

Wm. Lynch, a Bruce Peninsula farmer, found 6 bears after his sheep. While trying to drive them away they turned on him, and he was forced to take refuge in a tree, but before he got up one of the bears took a nip out of the calf of his leg. After being in the tree for some time a neighbor came to his assistance, and shot three of the bears, the others getting away.

Jas. Jayner, employed at the Kingston locomotive works, fell off a scaffold while at work, and had a leg broken and his chest badly crushed.

Interviewed concerning the suggestion that arrangements should be made for Suez mail to be forwarded to Wellington immediately on its arrival at Sydney, Premier Ward of New Zealand stated that the arrangement would necessitate the employment of a special steamer and the granting of a subsidy to provide a first-class service. It would be incomparably better to spend the money on the Vancouver route.

The will of the late Dr. Alexander K. Ferguson disposes of an estate totaling $20,408.63, and includes his late home, worth $5600, mortgages worth $7484.45, life insurance totaling $2000, and cash amounting to $3168.15. His widow receives one-third of all his property and the income from the remaining two-thirds till her death or remarriage.

TERRIBLE BACK PAINS

They fairly agonize your life. Something powerful and penetrating is needed. Doctors know of nothing so swift to relieve as Nerviline, a strong, penetrating liniment made to cure just such pains as yours. Nerviline is very concentrated, about four times more powerful than ordinary liniments. In the worst cases Polson's Nerviline is extraordinarily good All muscular pain flees before it. Nearly fifty years in use—a good recommendation, surely.

Turf — Hughes is Elected ✣ Bowling — League Scores ✣ Football — Soccer Referees

NOTE AND COMMENT

"Hughes carries New York State" is a slogan fatal to the turf followers who had looked on Chanler as the Moses to lead them out of the wilderness. It is still hoped in some quartersthat the Hart-Agnew anti-gambling law will be found ultra vires as far as preventing betting at race tracks is concerned, and further tests are promised in the courts with the result as it seems from this distance that the game is sealed.

Governor Hughes seems to have interpreted public sentiment aright. He knew the people of his state as a whole desired to stop betting at the tracks and by a most vigorous process he had the necessary laws enacted, and yesterday's vote demonstrates the accuracy of his diagnosis.

Meanwhile the racers go on merrily at Latonia and Pimlico in Ohio and Maryland, and it will be just as interesting to watch what these states will do in the near future as to note the progress of turf events at home, and whether or not Dufferin Park will get in the "Canadian" circuit with the Woodbine, Hamilton, etc.

Winnipeg cricket produced only a single centurion last season. A. J. Tuckwell, who scored 103, in one innings, but only 228 in 7, and at that topping the list of batsmen. The game is improving in the Manitoba capital. There are ten players with an average of over twenty, whilst last year there were only three.

The statement that Tommy Burns had increased his avordupois to 210 lbs. would be received here with considerable doubt only the champion is his own authority on himself. He says he will climb thru the ropes to face Johnson at 196 lbs. and should he step lightly at that weight the colored man should prove all the easier, and fifteen rounds for him may prove a liberal estimate.

Tommy Burns made some enemies in Australia by delaying the Lang bout 50 minutes and finally, after getting into the ring, says The Sydney Bulletin, he put some more strain on Bill's anxiety by dawdling and putting on airs of composure, until at last there wasn't one good White Australian in the crowd who didn't wish from the very bottom of his heart that the modest, unassuming fellow in the opposite corner would lay the Canadian poseur low. What Lang utterly failed to do will certainly be done by somebody who is equal to Burns in strength and cool cunning and superior to him in character. Tommy is a "born fighter," to be sure, and God gave him more brains than most men in the stoush—a stocky figure and a quick eye and ing business. But if he were the Real Thing in dauntless pugs, he wouldn't work the points against his opponents which only his "star" position allows him to work, and he wouldn't have hit Lang a nasty blow when the referee was intervening and the Australian was off his guard. A bit of a "bounder" is Burns without a doubt. He is the product of an age when pugilism is tempered with histrionics, and the impudence of the born actor is almost as usefunl to a star gate-money getter as the punch of the born plugger. He'll shrink a lot when he meets his Waterloo, will T. Burns, Esq., of the arm-band and the suitcase. But in the meantime he can bound with impunity.

It is time that President Seymour of the Inter-Provincial Rugby Union, or someone in authority, should take a hand in the management of the intermediate and junior series of the Union. The London and Dundas teams in the intermediate series have been unfairly treated in the matter of referees, says The Hamilton Times opportunely. In one case the coach of the Dundas team refereed the game between Dundas and London, and in the other two Hamilton men, one said to be strongly prejudiced against the Dundas team, acted as referee and umpire in an important game between Dundas and Hamilton. This in the face of a request from Dundas that officials from an outside point be secured. There are lots of competent footballers in Toronto who would have been willing to referee Saturday's game. Hamilton wants to win games, but it doesn't want to win a way that leaves it fairly open to criticism. The same trouble about referees has occurred in the junior series, and unless something is done there will be no intermediate or junior seroes of the I.P.R.U. As a matter of fact, many well wishers of the I.P.R.U. believe that it would ...

Death of Henry Crickmore.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Henry C. Crickmore, widely known among turfmen, and author of "Kirk's Guide to the Turf," died of pneumonia in this city to-day after a short illness. Mr. Crickmore's wide acquaintance among racing men arose from his having officiated as clerk of the scales of many large race tracks thruout the eastern section of the country. For many years he was regarded as an authority on racing records. At the time of his death he was clerk of the scales for the Westchester Racing Association, the Coney Island Jockey Club, and the Washington Jockey Club, and was secretary of the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association. He was 70 years of age.

THE AMATEUR DEFINITION.
(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Ald. W. Foran of Ottawa, who came here with the Canadian lacrosse team, contributes an article to The Sporting Life's correspondence column on the amateur definition. He writes strongly supporting the paper's idea of standardization of amateurism, and expressing confidence that the day will soon come when all countries will be unanimous in their definition of an amateur.

Three games were played, Rosedale B and Floral winning three from Canada-Toronto and Central, respectively, while Laurel took two from Parkdale, the newcomers in the league. Scores:

Meadows Was the Ringer.

QUEBEC, Nov. 3.—Fred Meadows of the West End Y.M.C.A., Toronto, was the runner who, under the name of Walter Beland, finished first in The Telegraph road race last Saturday, which event has been almost the sole topic of conversation in the city since.

When the officials were unable to clear the affair at the Q. A. A. C. clubhouse after the race Saturday, and at the St. Louis Hotel Saturday night, they did not give up hope, but worked the harder, and yesterday established beyond a doubt that W. Beland was none other than Fred Meadows of Toronto, a member of the Canadian team which participated in the Olympic Marathon at London, England, and considered one of the world's best middle-distance runners. The officials called another meeting last night, and during the evening their identification of Meadows was verified by word from Montreal that he had also been identified there.

RUGBY NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Doings of the Different Players and Clubs Here and There.

Argos have uncovered a new half, who has played on some of the best Irish teams. He is a good kick with either foot and has a great pair of hands. However, as he is not yet conversant with the Canadian rules, he will not be in the game Saturday against Montreal at Rosedale, but will play against T. A. A. C.

Rugby is a peculiar game. Here is Chaucer Elliott's Montreal team, who were champions last year, here Saturday at Rosedale, where they will make a bold attempt to win one game this season, but Argos are going to see to it that they don't.

The plan for the Argonaut-Montreal game here Saturday at Rosedale opens to-morrow morning at 183 Yonge-street.

The death of Bob Cassels, the Varsity Rugby player, caused quite a gloom over the students yesterday.

Dr. W. B. Hendry, the well-known Rugby official, is very anixous that a game be arranged between Hamilton Tigers and either Yale or Harvard. And there is no reason why there shouldn't be. And it's up to the powers that be to get busy.

Either White or Parker will take Barber's place on the wing line Saturday for Argos against Montreal at Rosedale, as the latter is out of the game for the season with a broken bone in his shoulder. Norcross will likely play full-back for the scullers.

Bargette, who played such a good game for the Argos Saturday against the Tigers, went into the game with only one practice, He and Alex. Sinclair have no peers in the Interprovincial.

Woods, the ex-Queens scrimmage man, who has been playing with Argos this year, is out of the game with water on the knee.

Members of the Central Y. Rugby team are requested to be out at 7 o'clock for practice.

The Capital Junior O.R.F.U. team will journey to Lindsay on Thanksgiving Day to play the fast junior team of that town an exhibition game. All players and any others wishing to take part are asked to be at the North End clubrooms on Thursday night at 7.30 sharp, when arrangements for the game will be made.

Eurekas Meet To-Night.

The Eureka Hockey Club's annual meeting will take place to-night at 8 o'clock at the Mutual-street Rink. All players and their friends are asked to attend. Any new men will be made welcome. The club will place teams in the Intermediate and Junior O.R.F.U., and a big attendance is hoped for.

Classy Catchers Not Numerous

Sullivan, Clarke, Street and Criger the Stars of the American League---The List.

You can name the real classy catchers of the two big leagues without using the fingers of both hands. Head the list with John Kling of the Cubs. Then there is Billy Sullivan of the White Sox, who came so gamely to the rescue of his club when his thumb was broken.

New Yorkers swear that Roger Bresnahan is the best catcher in the business and he certainly ranks with Kling and Sullivan. Ask Billy Murray who the best catcher in the National League is and he will reply: "Dooin." And Dooin has few superiors at that.

Lew Criger, for years, was rated as the best catcher in the American League and he is still one of the best. He has been at it for about 12 years, however, and is not the catcher that he was once physically.

"Nig" Clarke is one of the classiest back stoppers in either league. No receiver can peg any stronger or get the ball away quicker than Nig, but Kling is far more accurate. Nig also has more passed balls than do some of the other stars. As for Harry Bemis, he is above the average as a catcher, a thrower and a sticker. Both the Cleveland catchers are strong in blocking a runner at the plate and in getting the ball on him, Clarke being the superior of the two. In Groven Land, the Naps have a man who is liable to prove a worthy successor to Bemis when the latter decides to quit the game. Clevelanders hope, however, that that day is still some years off. Connie Mack, who is a mighty good judge of ball players, thinks that Land is one of the best youngsters he ever looked at and he would take him off Cleveland's hands in a minute.

Outside of the first mentioned the best catchers in the American League are Street of Washington, Kleinow of New York, Stephens of St. Louis and Mike Powers of the Athletics. Stephens is one of the youngest men in the league, but he has a wise old head on those young shoulders of his. In fact, McAleer regards him as his most valuable catcher and he has Spencer and Smith as running mates at that. Spencer was very erratic this year and St. Louis lost many a game as the result of his indifferent work. As for Smith, he is far too heavy for effective work day in and day out.

Washington Has Prize in Street.

In Street Washington has one of the very best, a man who comes close to ranking with Bresnahan, Sullivan, Clarke and Kling. He caught 134 games this year and seldom had a bad day. He gets the ball away like a shot and is a very accurate thrower. He is not a wonderful batter, but is a fairly good hitter at that. By all odds he is the best catcher that broke into either of the big leagues this year. It was his second trial, however, as Cincinnati had him in 1906.

Red Kleinow of the Yankees has gone back a little. At that he did better work than he did in 1907, when he was not in the best of condition the best part of the year. When he is on edge there are few better men behind the bat than he. Blair of New York looks like a comer, for he is a fair sticker and excellent thrower. Sweeney, the big boy from Atlanta, is a comer, but lacks experience. He is only a boy, as yet, however, and may be heard from in the future if he does not take on too much weight.

Powers a Wise Old Catcher.

Mike Powers of the Athletics is probably as wise a catcher as there is in the league and could he always bat as well as he does against Cleveland, he would rank among the very best. But he never will be rated a good batter. His arm also lacks power and is not to be compared with the whips possessed by Clarke, Sullivan, Street, Criger and Stephens. He is an accurate thrower, however, and gets his men rather regularly at that. Where he shines, tho, is in his ability to tell whether or not a pitcher is right. Many a catcher, and good ones at that, will warm up a pitcher and, altho the latter is not getting his curve ball working right, the receiver will not say a word, but let him go in and take his medicine. That is not Powers' style at all. If a pitcher is not right in every way, Powers tells Connie Mack so and another flinger is selected to pitch.

Mack picked up two youngsters this fall, in Lapp from the Atlantic League and Egan of the New York State League. After he watched Lapp work a few games, he said to himself: "Here is the catcher I have been looking for—one that can bat, throw, run and use his head in addition to handling the delivery of my pitchers all right."

Then Lapp began to show weakness right along. He had numerous passed balls and lost two games to Chicago as a result. His head work began to falter also and now Mack does not know whether he has picked up another lemon or not.

Chicago Has Only One Star.

Outside of Billy Sullivan, Chicago has Shaw, Schreck, Weaver, Payne and Hart. Schreck can catch any pitcher living and do it well. He is erratic in his fielding and throwing, however, and while a good batter, is slow on the bases. Shaw is a poor thrower. Payne is only ordinary. Weaver lacks class and Hart is not to be depended upon.

Detroit finished the season with two backstops—Charley Schmidt and Ira Thomas. Thomas is by far the better batter and thrower, but is weak on foul flies. Schmidt has looked good ever since he joined the Tigers except in the world's series, where he persists in playing like an amateur. If the world's series could be thrown out, Schmidt would rank well up among the catchers of the two leagues. At that, he cannot be so very bad or Detroit would not have won two pennants with Schmidt doing most of the catching.

For next year Jennings will have the same pair and Stanage of Newark and Beckendorf of Scranton. Both are said to be star youngsters and Connie Mack thinks so well of Beckendorf that he has made Detroit an offer for his release.

Our Friend Bill Carrigan.

Boston has two fairly good catchers in Carrigan and Donohue, the latter being a brother of Jiggs Donohue of the White Sox. Pat has many of his older brother's ways on the diamond and is really a fast man. He puts the ball on the runner well at the plate and looks as if he were due to remain in the league. Carrigan is a hard working backstopper and can be depended upon for good work.

In ranking the American League catchers the writer would place them in this order: Sullivan, Clarke, Street, Criger, Stephens, Bemis, Thomas, Schmidt, Kleinow, Schreck, Powers, Spencer.

CHARLIE CARR SIGNS.

Will Manage Indianapolis for Next Five Seasons.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—Charles C. Carr, who has managed the Indianapolis Baseball Club for almost three seasons, will be at the helm of the Browns again next year. Charles met the officials of the Indianapolis Club here yesterday and signed a five-year contract at what is reported to be the best salary ever paid to a minor league manager, says The Indianapolis Star. Carr practically named his own terms.

The completion of the negotiations between Carr and the club removed the last obstacle to the work of building up the team for next season, and the prospects were the subject of a talk which lasted half the day. It had been almost impossible to get the machinery for the next season in motion because the manager had received so many offers that he took time to consider all of them.

His work in winning the American Association pennant last year brought up his name whenever a manager was wanted. He was mentioned in connection with two major league jobs and several minor league teams wanted him. In two cases he was offered an option on part of the club. Carr's contract here expired this fall, and negotiations for his reemployment were not taken up until yesterday.

At the close of the season he declared that he would like to return and there was no question that the club and the fans wanted him. Only the size of the salary stood in the way and that was made satisfactory. In a few weeks Carr will take up his residence in Indianapolis permanently.

"I hardly expected to get as good an offer as I did before I came here," Carr said last night. "The figure named by the Indianapolis club was one that could not be turned down, and I am perfectly satisfied with it. Not even the tempting bait of part ownership in another club could keep me from agreeing to the terms."

TORONTO SOCCER LEAGUE DRAWS EXHIBITION LINE

Association Teams Cannot Play Clubs Not in Affiliation—Referees.

The executive committee of the Toronto Football Association met last night at 92 Bay-street and appointed the referees for Saturday's games:

All Saints at Little York, W. Murchie.
Varsity at Britannias, H. Carter.
Varsity at All Saints, A. F. Robinson.
Royal Hearts at Woodgreen, M. Hurley.
Shamrocks at All Saints B, L. Smith.
All Saints C at Macdonalds, W. Browning.
New Toronto at Britannias, W. D. Hannah.
Woburn at Broadview, S. Ormerod.

It was decided that the clubs in the Toronto League cannot play exhibition games with teams not affiliated with the Toronto or Ontario Leagues.

The secretary would like to hear from some capable referees. Address W. W. Woodward, 1118 West Queen-street.

Those present were: S. H. Armstrong, W. Heasip, L. Lloyd, W. Woodward, A. Bowen, L. Smith.

CHAMPION TEAM SOON SCATTER.

The hero of to-day in baseball may be a dead one to-morrow. In fact, baseball fame is fleeting. It is not what you were yesterday. It's what you are to-day, and the player who is a member of a championship club one year may be back in the minors before a year or so has passed.

Of the Chicago White Sox who won the American League pennant in 1900, only one man, Frank Isbell, played with Chicago this year. The other champions of the first year of the league were: Denzer, Katoll, Fisher and Patterson, pitchers; Sugden, Buckley and Wood, catchers; Padden, Hartman, Shugart and Charley O'Leary, infielders; Hoy, Dillard, McFarland, Brodie and Shearon, outfielders. Of these Charley O'Leary of the Tigers is the only one left in the American League.

The following year the White Sox were made up as follows: Piatt, Griffith, Callahan, Patterson and Katoll, pitchers; Sugden and Sullivan, catchers; Isbell, Mertes, Shugart, Burke and Hartman, infielders; Hoy, Fielder Jones, McFarland and Foster, outfielders. Of this list, Fielder Jones, Isbell and Sullivan are the only survivors either on the White Sox roster or in the American League. Clarke Griffith was let out at New York last summer, while Jimmy Callahan is a semi-promagnate in Chicago.

The season of 1902 saw Philadelphia win the pennant with the following players: Waddell, Plank, Husting, Mitchell and Wilson, pitchers; Schreck and Powers, catchers; Davis, Castro, Bonner, Murphy, Monte Cross, Lave Cross, infielders; Hartzel, Fultz and Seybold, outfielders. Many of these are now either in the minor leagues or out of the game altogether, the big league survivors being Waddell, Plank, Schreck, Powers, Davis, Murphy, Hartzel and Seybold.

Boston took its turn at winning the pennant in 1903 with a team composed of: Young, Dineen, Hughes, Winters and Gibson, pitchers; Criger, Farrell and J. Stahl, catchers; LaChance, Ferris, Parent and Collins, infielders; Dougherty, C. Stahl, Freeman and O'Brien, outfielders.

Perhaps that bunch have not scattered. Of the pitchers, Young is the only one left. Dineen is in St. Louis, Winters in Detroit, Hughes in Washington, while Gibson is a coach at Notre Dame. After having been a member of three other clubs, Jake Stahl is back again to play first base. Criger is the only catcher left. Ferris is a Brown, Jimmy Collins belongs to Philadelphia and Parent is one of the White Sox. Chick Stahl is dead. Dougherty is a Chicagoan and Freeman is in the A.A.

The only changes in the make-up of the team that won the pennant for Boston in 1904 were the substitution of Jesse Tannehill for Tom Hughes and "Kip" Selbach for Dougherty in the outfield. Tannehill is now with Washington while Selbach is a minor leaguer.

Philadelphia won the pennant again in 1905 with practically its same line up as in 1902. The new men were Henley, Coakley and Bender, pitchers; Knight, infielder; Lord and Hoffman, outfielders. Of the six new comers, Bender is the only one who is still one of the Athletics. Coakley is with the Chicago Cubs, Hoffman with the Browns and the others dropped to the minor leagues, Lord being scheduled to join the Naps in the Spring.

Altho the White Sox won the pennant as late as 1906, four members of that world's championship team failed to stick, the quartet consisting of Pitcher Patterson, Second Baseman Dundon, Third Baseman Rohe and Outfielder O'Neil.

Pitchers Siever and Eubanks, Catchers Payne and Archer and Infielder Lowe are the only members of the 1907 Tigers who failed to last the present season.

A resume of the above shows that of the first two pennant winning teams there are only three men left in the league, while there are only 22 champions of the first five years still remaining in the circuit.

Medieval Etiquette.

Never praise the result of your cook's labors or press your guests to eat whether they like or not. Never criticise your host's dinner unfavorably, even if it be bady cooked. Pass all these things over in silence. Do not give dogs your bones under the table, or feed the cat, or encourage animals to jump on the table. Above all, do not lick your plate; it is an act that ill becomes a cat, let alone a gentleman.—Erasmus.

Hopelessly Out of Style.

"Peter," said Mrs. Pneuritch, "I want you to have that roof taken off our garage and one of a different kind put on."

"What for?" demanded Mr. Pneuritch. "What's the matter with it?"

"I heard an architect say the other day that it's a hip roof. Everybody knows that hips are out of style now."

Both Guesses Wrong.

Algy—"But I weary you, Miss Capsicum. I'm a great talker."

Miss Capsicum—"On the contrary, Mr. Feathertop, you don't weary me at all, and I find your small talk very diverting."

Literary Notes.

Goodman Gonrong—"You're going to write a book? Sufferin' Moses! You?"

Saymold Storey—"Yep. Some day I'm goin' to write the Ortobiography of a Travelin' Sociologist."

Where It Fails.

"Well, what do you think of indoor baseball?"

"It will do well enough as a pastime, but it isn't a game. It'll never develop any national heroes."

Polishing Him Off.

"What was the cause of that fearful racket in the other room a little while ago?"

"Some of the boys were putting a whirlwind finish on a campaign liar."

WHY KEENE HELPS STREET

Sympathy for Owner of Galilee, Which Domino Beat in Futurity.

Followers of the bangtails have often wondered why Doc Street, a western horseman, has such a pull with J. R. Keene that he is frequently presented with castoffs from the great stable. The explanation is given by The New York Sun, which says:

"Street is one of the owners who nearly won a Futurity, and none has more right to rail at Dame Fortune for cheating him out of the great prize. Seventeen years ago Street purchased from the late A. J. Cassatt a yearling by The Bard—Athalarie, which he named Galilee, after a little village near Monmouth Park. For two years he looked after the colt, always with the Futurity in view, and finally sent him out for the classic after winning an over-night purse or two. Galilee had a seven-pound allowance, making his weight 115 pounds. Among others in the renewal of 1893 he was meeting the two great rivals, James R. Keene's Domino and Richard Croker's Dobbins, each carrying 130 pounds.

"Twenty-one colts and fillies started in the race, and, despite their great imposts, Domino and Dobbins were the public choices. Galilee was not neglected, however, Street and his friends backing him from 15 to 8 to 1. The race was run over the old Futurity course, which had a more decided bend than the present one. When the field rounded this bend Galilee had a lead of four lengths, and his mouth was wide open under Harry Griffin's restraining pull. The favorites were next, lapped on each other. In the last furlong Griffin began to ease his mount, thinking the contest over. Galilee stopped so fast that before Griffin knew what was happening his rivals had closed on either side, and in his frenzied effort to get Galilee going again he found himself unable to use the whip, so closely was he hemmed in.

"Taral, on Domino, won that Futurity, the first of the four now standing to the credit of James R. Keene, by a head, with Galilee second, a neck in front of Dobbins. Street's disappointment at losing the $45,000 stake and a fortune in wagers so affected Mr. Keene that he often helped him afterward, leasing to him good horses to race, and helping him in other ways."

BURNS GETTING HEAVY TO MEET JOHNSON AT 196

Champion Writes More About Coming Scrap in Australia—Big Money.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 3.—The heart of the Rialto was athrob last evening thru the receipt of a letter by Baron Long, manager of the Jeffries Athletic Club, from the redoubtable Tommy Burns, now in course of training at Sydney, Australia, for the defence of his world's heavyweight title against Jack Johnson. The fight is soon to take place at Sydney, New South Wales. The whole Australian commonwealth is convulsed over the coming battle. In point of receipts and in the representative character and size of the attendance the coming fight between Burns and Johnson will eclipse any other heavyweight struggle hitherto known in the land of the kangaroo.

Two months ago American match-makers scouted the idea of a $30,000 purse for Johnson and Burns. It was thought that nowhere outside of America could be realized such a huge tribute to the prize-ring. However, it is now certain that the two American gladiators will draw at least $38,000. Burns writes on Sept. 10, just at the outset of his training, from the Red Bull Inn, Little Tyne, Sydney, N.S.W.:

"On Sept. 12 I start in to work for my fight with Johnson. It may surprise you to know that I have grown since leaving California. I am now scaling at about 210, and expect to climb thru the ropes at about 196 pounds. You will see the black man won't have much on me.

"Now, as to the fight. The promoters are getting on well when they guarantee us $30,000, for the advance sale in one of the leading social-athletic clubs will run into several thousand dollars. To-night I hear that there is $38,000 in sight. Talk about a fight-crazy country—this sure is the place.

"Now, as I have always said, I expect to beat Johnson. It's going to be Nelson and Gans over again. Johnson has never had a man who could go up to him, and I am sure when he finds someone forcing him he is going to back up. I believe I have the strength and the speed to keep pace with Johnson and to outgame at the end.

"The papers are even now full of the fight. Fighting has received a great boom all over Australia as a result of this match. Win or lose, I shall make a couple of good fights in America, and an extended theatrical appearance. Then will come the big retirement.

"In my training I am taking a special electrical treatment in order to help me take off a ton or so of fat and blubber. I am getting fat and plainly see the limit of my usefulness in the ring in a few years. This is a tough thing to say, but I can say it without taking a long breath, inasmuch as I have had 'mine' in plenty and feel well able to weather the future storms of life.

"I want to tell you about Dunleavy, a lightweight here. He is as fast as any boy I ever saw and can hit as hard as Kid Lavigne in his prime. The Australian people say he is a better man than Young Griffo ever hoped to be, and he will bring back the title from America some day.

"Recent American papers tell me of the Jeffries Athletic Club. I have the kindliest recollection of Los Angeles, and hope to have one more fight before your people. It will be a sweet thing for me when I can hear you all say: 'Tommy Burns was surely underrated.'"

Referee Explains His Decision.

The fight in England Monday night between Jim Britt and John Summers went the whole course, and, tho neither man was exhausted, it seemed to many of the onlookers as tho Summers did most of the leading. Indeed, his form surprised his most sanguine supporters. Britt in the fourth round forced his opponent to the ropes with a well-directed blow on the chest, but Summers was very cool, and before the round was ended he got in another blow on Britt's chin.

The sixth and seventh rounds were even, altho Summers drew blood from the American's right eye with a terrific blow. The last two rounds were very lively. Both men were going strongly, but Summers continually landed on his opponent's face.

A section of the onlookers repeatedly protested against Britt's hugging and clinching. Britt scored frequently at in-fighting, at which he was superior, and did fine execution with both hands. Both men were cautioned for clinching. It was a good fight and a very fast one.

So confident were Summers' supporters that he was the victor that at the end of the fight they sprang into the ring and lifted him on their shoulders in anticipation of his triumph, but to Summers' dismay and that of his friends, Referee Watson gave the fight to Britt. This caused indignation from the Englishman's supporters, who threatened to make a general rough house.

Watson said: "In my view Britt took the lead in most of the rounds, and in the ninth he fought Summers persistently on to the ropes. The decision was unquestionably unpopular, but Britt's infighting won the victory for him."

Garrison Indoor Baseball.

Brigadier-General Cotton has instructed Sergt.-Major Nichols, secretary of the Garrison Indoor Baseball League, to issue a call for the annual general meeting on Thursday, Nov. 12. Another good season is anticipated and the usual brisk competition for the cup donated by Maj. Currie, M.P. Owing to the demand for floor space during the evenings in the armories it is possible that the sergeants league will be abandoned.

PRO HOCKEY LEAGUE.

Five Clubs in Ontario Circuit and Probably Six—The Schedule.

GALT, Nov. 3.—Professional hockey is assured for Galt, the contract has been signed and Galtonians may bank on having the pros here this season.

Buck Irving of Guelph, who will manage the Galt team, and who is responsible for the game here, was in town to-day and signed the final contract with the Rink Company. The contract provides that the team shall have the use of the rink for certain hours for practice and for the games. Mr. Irving says that he will make an effort to have for Galt the best professional team ever gathered together in Canada. He has several good men in view, and as soon as these are signed they will be made known. The colors of the Galt team will be red and black, and the manager promises a team of which the town will feel proud.

The league will consist of Toronto, Berlin, Brantford, Guelph, Galt and perhaps London. The schedule will be drawn up at a meeting of the league to be held in Toronto on Nov. 13.

Longboat Barred Woodstock Race.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon of President Stark, Secretary Crow and J. G. Merrick of the board of governors of the C.A.A.U. it was decided not to allow Longboat to run an exhibition mile at the open track and field meet in Woodstock on Thanksgiving Day. It was pointed out that Longboat competed as an amateur holding a C.A.A.U. card in the Montreal Marathon, and had since done nothing to forfeit his standing aside from announcing that at a future date he would jump to the pro ranks. The members of the board agreed that while the Indian is technically an amateur the technicality is such that it would not be a wise procedure to allow him to compete at a C.A.A.U. sanctioned meet like that at Woodstock. No professional contracts have been entered into by the Onondaga, but the board took the word for the deed, as it were. It was the first case of the kind with which the board has had to deal.

Big Entries for Boxing Tourney.

Robert Day, the undefeated amateur heavyweight champion, yesterday registered the Thistle Football Club's entries for the boxing tournament, that begins Saturday night in the Mutual-street Rink. The soccer club have only three, but they are all crackerjacks. Besides Day, there are Harry Peters, lightweight, and Alex. Dixon, bantam. Their training has been supervised by Messrs. Rogers and Leys. Day will box this time lighter than ever before—180 pounds—and he says this is his last appearance. Should Day and Eli Gibson come together, any difference in weight would favor the latter considerably. Buffalo, Hamilton, St. Catharines and Brampton are the outside places represented.

The list closed last night with a total of 65, and all classes well filled, except the middleweight, that has only three. The different divisions have entries as follows:

Bantam..........11 Feather..........14
Extra..........5 Special..........8
Lightweight..........10 Welter..........8
Middle..........3 Heavy..........6

The heavyweight candidates are: R. Day, Thistle Football Club; Eli Gibson, I.C.B.U.; S. Hickman, British United; James Thompson, Good Luck A.C.; Lon Smith, Buffalo, and F. Smith, East End.

UNFERMENTED WINE FOR HOLY SACRAMENT

W. C. T. U. Declare That Otherwise There Are Dangers—In Annual Session at Barrie.

BARRIE, Nov. 3.—(Special).—The thirty-first convention of the Ontario W.C.T.U. was opened in the Collier-street Methodist Church here this morning. The convention was called to order by Mrs. S. G. E. McKee, Barrie, president of the local and provincial unions. Nearly the full quota from each union was present, there being 150 delegates in all.

In connection with the use of unfermented wines, Mrs. Hagar of Welland emphasized the great danger of allowing the use of fermented wines in the sacrament to those who have an appetite for liquor. Cases have been known of children who showed great eagerness to partake of the sacrament, and gave as a reason their intense love of the fermented wine used. Some men refrained from partaking of the sacrament because of the fear that they might acquire the habit of drinking. It was therefore best that unfermented wine should be used.

Mrs. Barney of Rhode Island, world's evangelist, and superintendent of prison visitation of the W.C.T.U. for the world, spoke of the utter folly of using fermented wines in the sacrament, because men who had freshly signed the pledge frequently took the sacrament; and the very smell of the liquor was like the waves of hell fire to them, and undid all the work of their conversion.

Mrs. S. G. E. McKee gave an epitome of the prohibition situation thruout the civilized world, showing the large decrease in the number of licenses in Ontario and the number of municipalities that have adopted local prohibition. She predicted that in 30 years the bar would be a thing of the past in Ontario. She emphasized the wisdom of educating the children in the schools to the danger of the liquor habit.

In dealing with the subject of narcotics, Mrs. Jennie Waters of Muskoka asked, "Is the use of the cigaret declining," and the decisive answer came from all over the church, "No." The use of the cigaret was alarmingly on the increase in Canada, and a considerable discussion took place as to the best means of bringing home to the boys the deadly injury which the use of cigarets was to their health.

The question came from Mrs. Barney, "Why leave the girls out?" She went on to show that the girls in the United States used cigarets to an alarming degree, and that the practice was becoming prevalent in Canada.

The correspondence secretary's report showed an increase in the receipts of $3643.29 over last year. The London Union had contributed the largest amount, $2553.37, and the Ottawa Central Union, with a membership of only 42, had given $1022.46. The total receipts are $17,377.45. There are 201 unions and of that number only eight are disbanding or inactive.

Mrs. McLeod of Owen Sound presented her report on work among sailors. It showed that there had been an increase in the work of 287 per cent. in the last twenty years. There are 25,000 sailors on the Great Lakes who are absent from home the greater part of the year. The work of this department is to supply them with literature and home comforts on their ships.

The report of Mrs. Asa Gordon of Ottawa on work among the soldiers spoke of their endeavors to abolish the canteen in the military camps held annually in Ontario.

The law is in the statutes that liquor shall not be sold in camps. "The excuse of the government that they were unable to enforce the law among the soldiers was a weak and pitiful excuse," declared Mrs. Gordon, "and was an acknowledgment of their inability to command those who in the highest sense of the word are pledged to obey."

In the last year the W.C.T.U. and Y.M.C.A. arranged jointly to have a paid evangelist in each camp in Ontario thruout the entire two weeks, and it was having a salutary effect.

In presenting her report on work among the railroad men, Mrs. Ida Gordon, St. Catharines, said that the railway companies, the G.T.R. in particular, were very slow in granting privileges to the W.C.T.U. The C.P.R. on almost its entire length, wherever possible, had banished the bar.

JAPS BANQUET.

Birthday of Emperor is Loyally Observed in Toronto.

His Imperial Majesty Mutsuhito, Emperor of Nihon, or Japan, was born, Nov. 3, 1852, and his birthday was celebrated by a banquet given last night to the Japanese colony in Ontario, by Hon. S. Shimidzu, consul-general of Japan for the Dominion of Canada. The emperor succeeded to the throne Feb. 13, 1867, so the date was reckoned Nov. 3, 4-st of Meiji. Ten-Chiyo-Setsu Banquet was the title given to the festivity.

The menu was of the artistic Japanese character, excelling in chaste simplicity. The designs in red showed the national flag and the naval ensign on the first page; the flamingoes of island art on the second; the cherry blossoms and solar emblem on the third; and new morn over Fuji Yama on thte fourth.

Toasts were drunk to the honor of his majesty, to the empire and to the Japanese colony, and the national anthems were sung with ban-zais.

The guests included Mr. Y. Asaka and Miss S. Asaka, Messrs. K Fukai, S. Iijima, J. Iwanami, Z. KKiono, C. Matsuura, S. Moji, K. Murota, S. Nago, Rev. Z. Ono, G. Sakamoto, Hon. S. Shimidzu, U. Sato, S. Shinmi, T. Sugimura, T. Matsuda, M. Takahashi S. Ubukata, M. Watanabe, T. Yoneyama, M. Yoshika.

Speeches were delivered of an appropriate character and much cordiality was manifested during the evening.

JUDGE GRANTS APPEAL IN B.C. MURDER TRIAL

Sharp Tilt With Crown Counsel, Who Said His Lordship Should Not Upset Jury's Verdict.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 3.—Because he does not agree with the jury which last week convicted James Jenkins, colored, of the murder of Mrs. Mary Morrison of Hazelmere, Chief Justice Hunter to-day granted an appeal on jury of one of the most brutal murders that ever occurred in British Columbia. Jenkins was sentenced to be hanged on Dec. 18.

H. E. Cassidy, counsel for the crown, declared in court to-day that the conviction was fully warranted by the evidence, and then engaged in a heated battle with the chief justice over the merits of the case.

"You cannot always catch a man red-handed," said Cassidy.

The judge: No, but you want something more than a string of probabilities. You want reasonable certainty.

Mr. Cassidy sharply replied: "The trial of the murder case does not depend upon your lordship's view as trial judge. Your lordship took one view and the jury took another, and it was for the jury to pronounce upon the case."

The court: That does not trouble me. I simply say that my mind was in condition of doubt.

MAY REAP A FORTUNE.

Sea Captain, Now in Detroit, May Be Heir to English Estate.

WINDSOR, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—If Charles R. Hatherly, who lives in a rooming house in Detroit, can prove the marriage of his grand-parents in or near Toronto, or Whitby, Ont., some time prior to 1851, he will probably be declared heir to an estate of a seventeenth century English squire, his great-great-grandfather, William Edward Hatherly. Two children were born to Charles Edmund Hatherly and Miss Elizabeth Day, a parlor maid, in England before the family went to Canada. One of these, Nathaniel was Hatherly's father. Hatherly, who is about 50 years old and a painter, was a former sea captain. One of his thrilling experiences was a shipwreck in mid-ocean, with nothing to eat and drink for ten days. He is a widower, his wife having died recently at St. Mary's Hospital, Detroit.

TO PRESIDE IN SENATE.

Hon. Mr. Kerr May Succeed Hon. Raoul Dandurand.

MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Senator Dandurand, speaker of the Canadian Senate, when seen to-day, stated that he did not think the Hon. R. W. Scott would be his successor as president of the Canadian Lords Temporal. The senator thought, in fact, the choice would be made between Senators Finley Young of Manitoba, Kerr of Toronto and Ellis of St. John, N.B.

He left this evening for New York, whence he will sail for Europe on the Lusitania. It is hoped that he will be able to do something while in Paris to smooth over the difficulties which are impeding the adoption of the French treaty.

Presentation to Professor T. G. Brodie, F. R. S.

At a meeting of the Physiological Society, held at Guy's Hospital on Oct. 19, a testimonial was presented to Prof. T. G. Brodie, in recognition of his services to physiology and experimental pathology, on the eve of his departure to Toronto, where he has received the appointment of professor of physiology.

The subscribers to the fund included not only members of the Physiological Society, but also numerous old friends and colleagues at King's College, St. Thomas' Hospital, the Embankment Laboratories, the London School of Medicine for Women, and the Royal Veterinary College, in which places Prof. Brodie holds or has held appointments. The sum subscribed amounted on Saturday last to nearly £80, and Prof. Halliburton, who has been acting as honorary treasurer for the fund, had the pleasure of handing a cheque to Prof. Brodie for this amount, less a small sum which was reserved for the purchase of a more permanent memento of the occasion. It is intended that the memento shall take the form of a piece of plate, and shall bear a suitable inscription. The fund is not yet finally closed, and Prof. Halliburton, King's College, W.C., will be glad to receive donations from any who may not have received copies of the circular which has been sent out, and who may desire to participate in this token of regard for Prof. Brodie.—Extract from British Medical Journal, Oct. 24, 1908.

THE UNITED STATES ELECTIONS.

At the time of writing all indications point to a Republican victory in the United States presidential election, and to the continuance in office of the present governor of New York State. The first result was in large measure anticipated, but, nevertheless, there has always been a strong undercurrent of feeling that at the last moment the Democratic side might develop unexpected strength. Looking to existing conditions the replacement of President Roosevelt by Mr. Taft is not undesirable, since it will unquestionably tend to promote that confidence which is inseparable from a general commercial and industrial revival. A tried and proved public servant such as Mr. Taft is has always an advantage over an opponent whose calibre as an administrator has never been tested. William Henry Taft in that capacity is known, William Jennings Bryan is unknown, and in ignorance there is always an element of doubt and apprehension.

This presidential contest has been of unusual moment, because it found the opponent parties without any true line of demarcation. Old distinctions have been practically obliterated. It was really a struggle between radical and conservative reform. The electors of the United States have again given evidence of the strength of the British tradition they have in large measure inherited, but that in no way detracts from the pungency of the sentiment that has been expressed. People in the United States are sick and tired of the malign influences that have been endeavoring to sap the foundations of a genuine democracy. In Mr. Roosevelt they found a man after their own heart, and Mr. Taft's hearty endorsement of the president's policies and his declaration that he would set himself assiduously to their enforcement appealed to them in no uncertain manner. And the electors may very well have argued that a Republican president with a Republican majority in congress would be more likely to carry out Mr. Roosevelt's policies to their legitimate conclusion than a Democratic occupant of the White House with a congressional opposition.

Satisfaction will be general over the re-election of William Ellery Hughes as governor of New York State. Three years ago he was an unknown quantity, but his inquisitorial work in the life-insurance investigation marked him out as a man with whom duty was the all-prevailing watchword. Chosen to carry the Republican colors for the governorship of New York, because it was recognized that only a candidate of his calibre and reputation could defeat William Randolph Hearst, he vindicated the choice. In office he proved himself independent of party influence and consistently gave effect to his own conscientious convictions. So deeply has he impressed the better elements of his state that even tho he may have disappointed them in particular instances, they have rallied to his standard. Governor Hughes is a type of public men of whom America has need, and it is meet that his chivalry in conducting a platform campaign for Mr. Taft at a time when his own election was in peril should not have been unrewarded. He has stood for the rights of the people, for the doctrine that the people must rule, subject only to the higher demands of equity, as he understands them, and in the one lies the surest guarantee of the other.

POLICE CONTROL OF STREETS.

In all British cities the regulation of street traffic is in the hands of the civic police authorities. The practice is thoroly right and proper and has been justified by the excellent results that have followed upon it. Traffic in London and other populous centres is far more congested than it is in Toronto and the conditions otherwise render the handling of processions, demonstrations and general crowds much more trying and difficult. Experience shows that greater responsibilities tend to raise the standard of efficiency in the case of a body like the police force and the manner in which the constables of London came out of the recent investigation was highly creditable.

Police control ought to extend over all users of the streets, including the street railway cars. A notion has grown up on this continent that a railway company should be a law unto itself with powers and privileges superior to those of pedestrians and other traffickers. To have more than one authority in controlling the streets simply leads to confusion—there must be one authority and one only. In the case of street cars running on a fixed track the rule of the road has to be modified on that account, but the enforcement of the modified regulations is as much a matter for the police as is the enforcement of the ordinary regulations. Processions, the fixing of their routes and the arrangements consequent on the crossing of railway tracks should also be in the hands of the police authorities and the necessary orders made and enforced by them. Proper regulation of this kind is not a limitation of personal freedom. It is simply an acknowledgment that individual freedom is necessarily dependent on the equal rights of all citizens.

BICYCLE LIGHTS AND BELLS.

Certainly all bicyclists should be required to carry lights and bells and the civic legislation committee did right in approving the proposed bylaw. The rule is an excellent one and is not only enforced in many cities and towns of the United States, but is imperative everywhere in Britain, where, by the way, all fast moving vehicles must be lighted with two lamps after dusk. And it is a question for consideration whether this latter requirement ought not also to be adopted in Toronto. But in any case a rapid and noiseless machine such as a bicycle ought to be equipped with the necessary appliances for warning pedestrians of their approach and a deterrent penalty imposed if these are neglected to be used. If the city has not the power to legislate in this way for the protection of the citizens, the requisite power will have to be got from the legislature.

EARLY MORNING VOTING.

The polling thruout the United States yesterday affords an object lesson to Canadian statesmen in the opportunity that presented itself to the workingmen of the country to exercise their franchise. In many of the states the booths were opened at 5.30 a.m. and the heavy voting from that hour till 8.30 o'clock indicates that the men who toil with their hands expressed their choice for federal and state officers before beginning the daily grind of business.

The laboring man is interested in the outcome of an election quite as much as the business man or the manufacturer, who has all day in which to go to the polls. If a Canadian workingman lives in the city and is employed miles away from his home he is required to lose part of a day. If he cannot afford a cut in his weekly pay, he stays away from the polls and allows his rich fellow-citizen to do the electing.

The World believes that the polls should be opened early enough, or kept open late enough, to permit the laboring man to use his right to vote. If not this, then election day should be a general holiday. Let every citizen of Canada be placed on an equal footing in regard to the opportunity afforded for voting.

CADETS' CUP PRESENTATION.

Rex v. Leach—Rex v. Fogarty—J. B. Mackenzie, for the applicant in each case, moved on return of a habeas corpus and certiorari in aid for the discharge of the prisoners. J. R. Cartwright, K. C., for the informant in each case. William Leach, innkeeper, Owen Sound, was on 21st August, 1908, convicted of a second offence for selling intoxicating liquor without a license and sentenced to four months' imprisonment, and Andrew Fogarty, innkeeper, Owen Sound, was on 26th July, 1908, convicted of a like second offence and sentenced to four months' imprisonment. The applications now were to quash these convictions and release the prisoners. Judgment reserved.

Rex. v. Warrilow—J. B. Mackenzie, for defendant, moved on return of habeas corpus and certiorari to quash conviction of prisoner. J. R. Cartwright, K.C., for the crown, contra. Objected that the application must be made in chambers. Mr. Mackenzie undertook to file recognizance to-day. Judgment reserved.

Grip Limited v. Thompson—J. A. Paterson, K.C., for the defendant, appealed from the judgment of Anglin, J., of 19th May, 1908. H. R. Frost, for plaintiff, contra. The plaintiffs, engravers and designers, Toronto, contracted with defendants to supply them with 50,000 copies of a reproduction of a certain design of roses in colors, etc., for $467.50. The defendants alleged that the plaintiffs agreed to supply 60,000 copies for aforesaid sum, but failed and refused to supply 10,000 of these copies. Judgment was given for the plaintiff for full amount. Defendants appealed. Appeal argued and judgment reserved.

Political Notes.

North Yorkers are discussing the probabilities of a rumor to the effect that Hon. Mr. Aylesworth will retire within the next few months and that T. C. Robinette will be given an opportunity to take the vacant seat.

It is reported that William Manley German, K.C., is seeking a seat in the senate. If this is correct and he succeeds in securing it, another election will be held in the County of Welland.

W. R. Smyth is in town receiving the congratulations of his friends on his election. His only regret is at leaving the happy family in Queen's Park.

Speaking of the premature report of his defeat, Mr. Smyth says he has been in four elections and in every case he has at first been reported as defeated.

The minister of justice intends returning to Vienna, Austria, in December, to undergo treatment by an eminent aurist for his hearing. After the last session of parliament he visited Vienna and was told that his case was not hopeless and that if he would remain in Vienna for a few weeks an improvement in his condition was likely to result. Mr. Aylesworth, however, was eager to return to Canada to take part in the impending political struggle. Now that the fight is over he will clean up some matters before his department and leave for Austria as soon as possible.

Major Sam Sharpe, M.P.-elect for North Ontario, and W. H. Sharpe, M.P.-elect for Lisgar, Manitoba, are brothers. Both carried Liberal seats. It was Major Sharpe's first try, but his brother was a contestant in 1904 against the late Hon. Thomas Greenway when he was defeated by 180. This time he was successful with 116 majority.

In the parliament of 1874-8 (the Mackenzie regime) Lewis Ross and Lieut.-Col. Walter Ross sat in the house of commons as representatives of East Durham and Prince Edward respectively. Lewis Ross was first returned in the election of 1872 and was re-elected in 1874, while Walter Ross was first elected in 1867 and again in 1872, and 1874. Both were natives of the parish of Fearn, Rosshire, Scotland.

The Rosses were both Liberals.

In the old parliament of United Canada, previous to 1867, there sat two brothers, John Sandfield Macdonald and Donald Alexander Macdonald. From 1857 to 1867 John Sanfield sat for Cornwall, while his brother Donald Alexander sat for Glengarry. On the completion of confederation John Sandfield became the first premier of Ontario and on May 21, 1875, Donald Alexander became the fourth lieutenant-governor of Ontario. They were Liberals.

Hon. Antonie Aime Dorion of Napierville and Pierre Neree Dorion of Drummond and Arthabaska, brothers, sat in the parliament of 1872-4, while in the last parliament M. S. Schell and J. T. Schell, brothers, sat for South Oxford and Glengarry.

Two other brothers, Hon. Thomas Nicholson Gibbs and William Henry Gibbs were also in parliament at the same time. The former sat for South Ontario in the Canadian Assembly from January, 1866, until the union, when returned to the commons, where he continued to represent South Ontario till 1874, whe he was defeated. Upon the death of Hon. M. Cameron in 1876, he was returned for South Ontario.

William Henry Gibbs was first returned for North Ontario in 1872, defeated in 1874 and elected in 1876 on the death of the sitting member, Adam Gordon. Hon. Thos. Gibbs was the first reeve of Oshawa and the first warden of Ontario County, in 1854. Both were Conservatives.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is expected to go away for a short rest and holiday before the session of parliament in January. He has been resting at Ottawa for the last four days.

Tho North Waterloo was a Conservative loss, Mr. Reid polled a heavier vote than Dr. Lackner polled in the provincial election of June 8. In that contest the Conservative vote was 3665, the Liberal vote 2731 and the Socialist vote 404. On October 26, Mr. Reid got 3202 votes, but Mackenzie King increased the Liberal vote to 3475, while the "third party" represented by Mayor Allan Huber, took only 37 votes. It looks as if the Liberals last week got their vote out, and it was for King.

Was Mr. Borden's tour of Ontario a success? Measured by the number of seats his party carried it was not. Mr. Borden opened at Pembroke. His candidate, Gerald White, was elected by a large majority. He "stopped over" for 15 minutes at Renfrew. The Liberal won there. Brantford, the next place visited, elected a Liberal. Toronto elected five Conservatives, tho the regular nominee was defeated in the East. St. Catharines elected a Conservative. Niagara Falls a Liberal. Stratford was visited for a sunrise meeting and Alex. Maclaren was 13 behind in his home town and lost the county by 54. Durham and other points in South Grey were visited and the Liberal was elected, tho the adjoining riding, South Bruce, turned from Liberal to Conservative. South Waterloo, where Mr. Borden held two meetings, remained true to Clare, the Liberal majority in Galt being considerably reduced, while Hespeler rolled up 213 majority for Clare. There was an informal gathering in Waterloo which gave Reid an large majority, but the riding of North Waterloo was a Conservative loss. London was a win and South Oxford a loss. Simcoe was visited and the County of Norfolk elected McCall by an increased Conservative majority. Kingston returned a Liberal by a decreased majority. Stormont went back on Pringle. Prince Edward, where Mr. Borden spoke, also defeated the late Conservative member, but Trenton, where a 10 p.m. open air meeting was held, helped to swell Mr. Northrup's big lead. Carleton Place and Pakenham in North Lanark did well for the Conservative candidate, and the riding was a gain for Mr. Borden. Mr. Borden spoke in Carleton, where has was elected by a large majority, and in Ottawa, where the 11th hour candidate of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was necessary to save the Liberals from defeat. There was a big reduction in the Liberal majority. Across the river in Quebec, Mr. Borden spoke to Shawville, Pontiac, which was lost to the Conservatives, and in Aylmer, Wright County, where a Liberal retained the seat. Mr. Borden spoke in Sudbury, which gave a considerable Conservative majority, and in Cobalt, where the Liberal won out. Nipissing as a whole going into the Liberal column with the aid of the "bush" polls.

"We must own to being surprised at the result of the election," says The Montreal Witness (Lib.), "yet not too delighted, tho it certainly is a fine tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The election was fought almost purely on moral grounds. There was no divergence of policy insisted on on either hand. It was simply a campaign of mutual crimination. We must assume, as always, that the people have elected just the person that pleased them best, and their sympathies seem in many cases to have been evoked for and not against those who were most spoken against, if not incriminated. The story that 21 ministers were in the field against Sir Frederick Borden seems to have elected Sir Frederick Borden. There is no reason to suppose that the people took a different view of the facts from what the ministers did, accepting all the charges they preferred against Sir Frederick. They also deliberately chose Mr. Emmerson and Mr. Turriff and Dr. Pugsley. The Liberals have not even got the scare they should have had. The election seems to say, like the angel in Revelation: "He that was unjust, let him be unjust still, and he that was filthy, let him be filthy still.' There is never any reason to suppose that the house of commons or the legislative assembly, oor the city council is any worse than the people. On the whole, it is fair to presume them to be better. The people do not elect their best men or their worst, simply those that fairly represent their average morality and aspirations."

License Can't Issue.

"It was no doubt overlooked by the liquor license commissioners of the City of Toronto," remarked Hon. W. J. Hanna yesterday, "that the time for issuing a license under the circumstances that govern the Caer-Howell case, expired on May 15 last. The license cannot now legally issue and therefore will not. The commissioners no doubt thought that sub-section 13, section 11, governed the case, when the view of the department is that it is governed by section 8.

Sisterhood of St. John the Divine.

The 19th annual report of the Sister- ood of St. John the Divine, just is- ed, showing the state of the main- nance and endowment fund, the ac- mplishments of St. John's Hospital r Women, the Church Home for the ged, St. John's Mission House, the ishop Bethune College, Oshawa, the lementary School and the Church Yorkroom, testified that a vast am- nt of good may be accomplished in quiet way.

The maintenance and endowment nd was inaugurated 25 years ago in reparation for the foundation of a eligious community of women in To- onto, has grown remarkably, and it anticipated that soon a sufficient ncome will be derived from this ource to do away with annual col- ections. The fund is vitally necessary the permanence of the sisterhood.

By means of the annual collections, nd by this means only, the sisters re provided with an income, modest ndeed when compared with modern ocial standards, but sufficient for heir needs.

That $2000 a year should clothe and eed and cover the incidental expenses f some 25 women is substantial evi- ence that their vow of poverty is no mpty form.

All moneys collected year by year ver and above the income required re added to the endowment fund, and nore collectors are asked in order to eep pace with the growth and exten- ion of Toronto.

These figures show the marked in- crease in this fund in the past ten years: 1898, $554; 1899-1900, $1121; 1901, $1694; 1902, $2551; 1903, $3570; 1904, $4520; 1905, $5958; 1906, $6479; 1907, $8448; 1908, $10,603.

The report of the hospital work for the past year shows the usefulness of this branch of the sisters' work. The number of patients, 222, is the largest in the history of the hospital—the col- lective days' stay reaches the large total of 6753; the deaths were only four—a very remarkable record when the character of the cases is consider- ed—many of them involving surgical operations of extreme urgency. Twen- ty-one patients received free treat- ment for a period of 907 days.

Nine persons are now resident in the Bellevue House, which provides per- sonal attendance to aged persons in declining years who are able to pay the cost of living.

The Gwynneth Osler Memorial Wing offers the same advantages to those who have little or no means of sup- port. This branch of the home is as- sisted by a small grant from the city and the government. Twenty-four persons are thus taken care of—and the number could be doubled or tre- bled were there accommodation for them. Provision is made in both houses for married couples—a feature which is found in none of the other homes in Toronto.

St. John's Mission House was useful in bringing the needs of many mo- thers and babies before the relief com- mittee. The work was carried on un- der great difficulties, for the house, after 17 years, now stands in need of radical alterations and improvements to adapt it to the more thickly popu- lated district which has grown up round it. It was not considered safe for residents last winter, therefore the work had to be carried on from the convent on Major-street.

This year it has been decided to make such alterations as will render the house thoroly habitable and sani- tary. The cost will be $2500.

A small sum of money having un- expectedly come into the sisters' hands thru the sale of property in which they had a part interest, it was de- cided to use this towards the cost of alterations and it is confidently hoped that the balance may be secured by private effort. Donations for this ob- ject may be sent to the Rev. Mother Superior, St. John's Convent, Major-st., or to Mrs. Machell, 99 Bellevue-avenue.

Five pupils of the Bishop Bethune College, Oshawa, passed the conserva- tory examinations in singing and four in piano. Out of five pupils sent up for matriculation, four passed, two with honors. The school branch of the Women's Auxiliary sent subscriptions to missions in China and Japan and work among lepers and poor Canadian missions. Twenty dollars was sent to the Pan-Anglican Thankoffering and help was given last year to the un- employed of Oshawa.

The elementary school for little boys and girls is continued at St. John's House, Major-street, and is well at- tended.

The church workroom has sent out 200 orders during the year, as well as several gifts to mission stations, one the British Columbia coast.

Five handsome orders went to Eng- land.

THE DOCTORS SAID "THERE MUST BE AN OPERATION"

"Fruit-a-tives" Saved Mrs. McCready Untold Suffering and Almost Certain Death.

"Publish this for humanity's sake," writes Mr. C. McCready of Putnam, Ont., in his letter to the owners of "Fruit-a-tives." Physicians said that only an operation could save his wife's life. But again "Fruit-a-tives" proved its wonderful powers. The doctors were wrong—Mrs. McCready is to-day well and strong—and "Fruit-a-tives" have made friends of every one for miles around Putnam.

"Dear Sirs,—My wife suffered for over a year from Indigestion and Bow- el trouble. Several doctors treated her for this trouble and advised her that only an operation would save her life, as they stated it was a tumor that was causing the trouble. The operation was to cost $200 and, while she was debating in her own mind about being operated on, she was advised to try 'Fruit-a-tives,' which I procured for her from our local merchant. From the first box she improved, and after having taken four boxes she is com- pletely cured and is now as well as ever.

"I decided that that 'Fruit-a-tives' was the most wonderful remedy in the world, and it certainly saved my wife's life. She still takes one tablet every night, we also give them to the child- ren with excellent results, and they have to thank 'Fruit-a-tives' for the fact that their mother is now with them, they fully expected she would be in her grave. Publish this for hu- manity's sake."

(Sgd.) C. McCready.

For Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Consti- pation and Biliousness—for all troubles due to defective action of Bowels, Kid- neys and Skin, "Fruit-a-tives" is a certain cure. These tablets are made of fruit juices and tonics, are pleasant to take and quick to act. Trial size, 25c—regular size, 50c a box, or 6 for $2.50.

CIVIC DEPARTMEAT HORSES TO BE TAGGED

Dr. Sheard Makes Suggestion at Big Meeting in Guild Hall Last Night.

Young Women's Christian Guild workers have set their hearts upon having a big new gymnasium before very long, and have inaugurated a great campaign for Saturday, Nov. 14, the much heralded tag day.

A well-attended business meeting was held in Guild Hall, McGill-street, last night with Mrs. Jean Blewett in the chair. Dr. Charles Sheard, medi- cal health officer, was the principal speaker, but Mrs. Chas. Robertson, Miss Henry and Miss Mitchell, also delivered addresses to make it perfect- ly clear to everyone concerned just what their duties were going to be. The arrangements are remarkably complete, and the 3000 workers will be as well captained as any body of sol- diers, in their way.

Miss H. B. Somers is to be general, under her there are to be at least 51 captains, each one in command of a company composed of from 10 to 30 young ladies, each one of whom car- rier a locked box to receive the mites. There is to be no change made. With each contingent go two chaperons, so that the young ladies will be prop- erly looked after while they carry on the pitiless hunt for victims.

In addition to the city, all the sub- urbs will be efficiently patrolled and the ladies say that no one who ven- tures abroad on that fateful day can escape the tag, if the victims haven't anything small in the silver line that's their own funeral.

In addressing the meeting last night Dr. Sheard expressed himself as being entirely in favor of the scheme be- cause of the great crying need of a suitable swimming bath for the ladies, and for a place where their physical welfare could be looked after by pro- per exercising. He advised them to go after every one and everything without fear or favor.

"How many horses have you in your department, doctor?" queried a lady back in the hall.

"About 150," returned the somewhat startled health officer.

"Well than," gleefuly came from the fair one, "I gues we will tag every- one of those."

"Go ahead," said the genial doctor, "go ahead, if the city won't pay for it, I will out of my own pocket. Then," he went on laughing, "you'd better send a deputation up to see the board of control and get their permission to decorate the horses belonging to the other departments, especially the fire- men."

"How much had we better ask the city to pay for each," asked another timid one, "ten cents?"

"Ten cents," answered the doctor, "surely I wouldn't ask that much, you'd better ask enough you know, for you need a lot of money." I am heartily in accord with your scheme, all the way thru," concluded the speaker, "and if you don't raise enough on tag day to attain your object I'll do all I can to get you in touch with a lot of people who prob- ably will make up the deficiency, the gymnasium is needed."

Offensive Breath

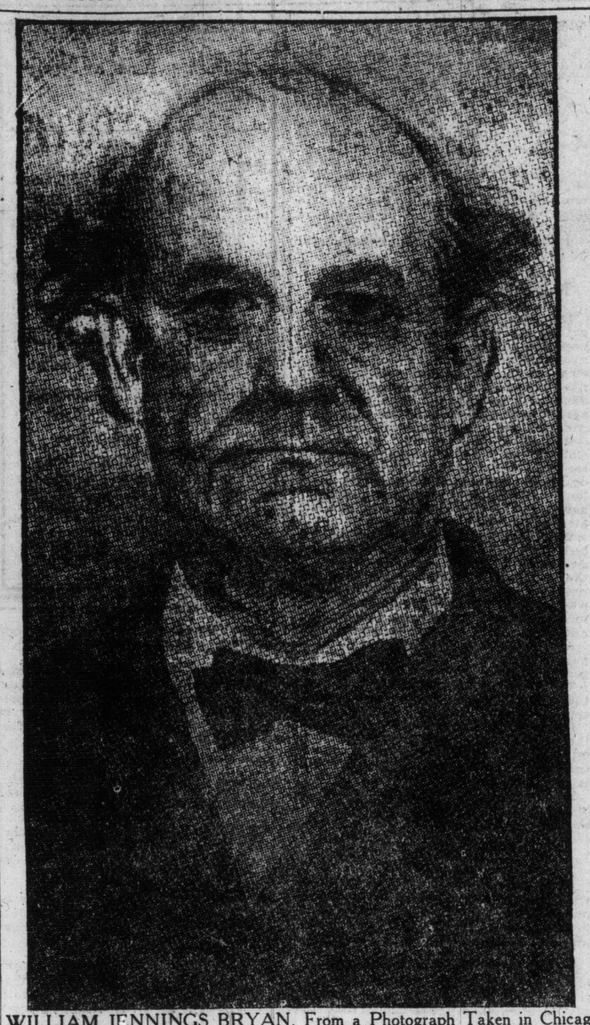

It is usually caused by constipation, which permits virulent matter to col- lect in the system. To have your breath sweet, keep the bowels regular. Let Dr. Hamilton's Pills assist you. They stimulate the bowels promptly and cure constipation in one night. Take Dr. Hamilton's Pills before re- tiring and your health will be all right next morning. Used by thousands in preference to any other medicine be- cause mild, yet sure to do the work thoroughly. Impossible to improve on Dr. Hamilton's Pills for headache, bil- iousness, sick stomach and bad breath. Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills whether sick or well. 25c per box, or four for $1, at all dealers, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

A Perfect Mixer.

A mineral water to be a perfect mixer requires a certain peculiar com- bination. Nature seldom provides so skilfully as she does in her grand old workshop, the Laurentian Moun- tains, far removed from the crowded haunts of man, and very secretly 500 feet below the surface. It is there that radnor water is made by Dame Nature, and gushes forth to be bottled under the most careful supervision, for the use of mankind in general and Canadians in particular. Drink radnor, the best of mixers.

Hitchcock's Statement.

At 10.30 o'clock last night, Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock of the Republican national committee met the newspaper representatives in his rooms at na- tional headquarters in New York City, and made the following statement:

"The returns speak for themselves. There seem to be no longer any doubt- ful states. The electoral vote will show that my estimate was correct. The returns have exceeded my expectations.

"The plurality in Indiana will be less than I expected. That in Illinois is far more than anticipated. And so it goes. The latest returns from Maryland in- dicate that we have carried that state by about 8000 to 10,000, and that is more than I believed it would give.

"I predicted early in the evening that Gov. Hughes would be elected. To Mr. Hughes we owe much. As a cam- paigner he has helped wonderfully in the national contest. All of us here at headquarters were greatly interest- ed in his fight. He has earned his vic- tory and we are glad for him and grateful to him for the help he has given us."

The Fight for the Presidency.

The presidential campaign was keen- ly fought, and in the last few weeks became intensely bitter. William Ran- dolph Hearst's disclosures, connecting the Democratic party with Standard Oil thru National Treasurer Haskell, and the opposition of the Hearst news- papers, which are strongly pro-labor, undoubtedly injured Bryan and coun- teracted the influence which President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor was expected to use to Bry- an's advantage.

That Bryan was intensely in earnest and confident was shown Monday night at Lincoln, Neb., where in his final peroration before a tumultuous crowd, he burst into tears.

He thus stated his position :

"I have but one thing to rely on, the confidence of the masses, who are pleading for relief, the laboring men whose petitions have been rejected by the Republican party, the depositors whose savings are jeopardized by the carlessness of bank officials, and by the beneficiaries of the high tariff.

"All of these people see in a Democ- ratic victory, their only hope of re- lief, and they know that with the election of a Democratic president and a Democratic congress, backed by a popular verdict in behalf of Democra- tic policies, the way is open for de- medial legislation."

Mr. Bryan declined last evening to make a statement.

Judge Taft also declined to make any statement until the result in Ohio was made known. While esti- mates give him 100,000 plurality it is hardly better than guess work. The Foraker influence was utilized against Taft in his home state.

Results in New York State.

The great interest outside of that for the presidency was in the guber- natorial contest in New York State, where Governor Charles E. Hughes was opposed for re-election by Lewis Chanler, the lieut.-governor of the state. Hughes, a New York lawyer, who made himself famous by his work as coun- sel for the state in the famous insur- ance enquiry, carried the state two years ago, when Wm. Randolph Hearst was his opponent. Since then he has become famed thruout the union as the governor who has tried to do what was right.

He antagonized a large and influen- tial element by his campaign to pre- vent race track betting, and this act, it was declared, would ensure his de- feat. Not only is he re-elected, but Legislator Folker, who was carried from a sick bed to cast the vote that "killed racing" is also reelected.

The latest advices from New York say:

Chanler Lost in the City.

"Governor Hughes won by over 50,- 000 the biennial battle of Highbridge, which was waged again to-day as the regiments of ballots were marshaled. Hughes came down to the city from up-state with an indicated plurality of about 121,000. Chanler's plurality south of Highbridge was approximately 65,- 000. The vote of two years ago was increased by about 150,000. Chanler sur- prised the Democratic leaders by an unexpectedly large vote in the rural districts, but lost tremendously in the City of Greater New York, where his followers had expected at least 100,- 000 plurality."

HUGHES' APPRECIATION.

ALBANY, N.Y., Nov. 3.—Comment- ing on the result of the election Gov- ernor Hughes said to-night :

"I am deeply gratified by the suc- cess of Mr. Taft and by our victory in this state, as indicated by present returns. To those who have labored so earnestly in support of my candi- dature I wish to express by warmest appreciation.

"With this expression of the confi- dence of the people I shall devote myself with renewed zeal to their ser- vice."

RESULTS IN ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The Republican national and state tickets gained a complete victory in Illinois, altho the pluralities will probably fall short of those obtained by the party in the campaign of 1904. Taft has carried the state by approximately 170,000 votes.

Charles S. Deneen, Republican can- didate for governor, ran far behind the national ticket, but has been elected by a plurality of about 100,000 over Adlai E. Stevenson, his Democratic opponent.

TAFT IS PLEASED.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 3.—At 9.50 o'clock to-night, Judge Taft made this statement :

"I am very much pleased with the reports as they come in, indicating a favorable result for the Republican ticket. I am especially gratified at the definite information from New York, Connecticut, Illinois and New Jersey."

BRYAN DISAPPOINTED.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 3.—Wm. J. Bryan to-night received at his home, Fairview, the returns which early told him that for the third time he had been defeated in the greatest am- bition of his life. Confident of vic- tory to the very last, he was not pre- pared to believe that his cause was lest until the pluralities of his Repub- lican opponent piled up in such a proportion as to leave no room for doubt.

GOV. CHARLES E. HUGHES, Re-Elected in New York State to "Fin- ish His Work."

He declined to issue a statement to- night.

RESULTS IN VERMONT.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Nov. 3.—Complete returns from the State of Vermont give Taft 39,592; Bry- an, 11,688, and Hisgen 719.

Taft's plurality is 27,904.

Four years ago Roosevelt had 40,677 and Parker 9800, a Republican plurali- ty of 30,677.

The prohibition vote this year shows a gain for the entire state of 45 votes over four years ago.

FOELKER RE-ELECTED.

New York: Otto G. Foelker, the Re- publican state senator, who cast the deciding ballot which made possible the passage of Gov. Hughes' anti-race- track betting laws, was elected to con- gress to-day from the third district (Brooklyn).

COMPLIMENTS HITCHCOCK.

Cincinnati: Judge Taft at 9 p.m. sent the following telegram to Frank Hitch- cock:

"I am delighted to hear the favorable returns from all parts of the country, especially New York, and I wish to express my gratitude to you for the work which you have done and felici- tate you on the accuracy with which you foretold the result, indicating a clear grasp and wonderful political knowledge of the situation.—(Sgn.) Wm. H. Taft."

MINNESOTA IN DOUBT.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 3.—While early returns indicated the re-election of Gov. Johnson by a plurality from 10,000 to 25,000, the late returns from the country districts have greatly mod- ified this. The returns at 9.30 p.m. are too indefinite to forecast the result.

REPS. CARRY NORTH DAKOTA.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 3.—National Committeeman James Kennedy, at 10 o'clock to-night said: "Taft carries the state by 30,000. I contend that C. A. Johnson and the entire Republican state ticket is elected, with the state legislature 75 per cent. Republican."

BRYAN CARRIES BOSTON.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 3.—Bryan carried Boston in to-day's election by 387 votes. The total Bryan vote was 40,237, while Taft polled 39,850.

In 1904 Parker carried the city with 49,032 votes against 38,323 for Roose- velt.

SWEEP IN IDAHO.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 3.—Meagre re- ports showing only the trend of the voting indicate that Taft carried the state by 20,000, and the election of the entire Republican state ticket.

CLEAN SWEEP IN CONNECTICUTT.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—Taft's plurality in Connecticut will exceed 35,- 000. Lilley (Rep.), for governor, will have over 15,000 plurality. Republi- cans carry complete state ticket.

All five Republican congressmen are re-elected.

IN OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—Notwith- standing the meagreness of the early returns from Ohio, they are estimated to give a fair indication of the result, altho positive statement of plurality was impossible. All sections of the state, both city and county, were in- cluded in the first returns and the same ratio continued would give a plurality for Taft for president in his home state of anywhere from 100,000 up.

"DE—LIGHTED."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Roosevelt to-night sent the following despatch to Judge Taft:

"I need hardly say how heartily I congratulate you, and the country even more."

He also sent the following despatch to Republican Vice-Presidential Can- didate Sherman:

"I most heartily congratulate you."

The president sent the following to Gov. Hughes: "Accept my heartiest congratulations for you and for the state."

The following was sent to Chairman Hitchcock:

"Accept my heartiest congratulations upon the great result which you have done so much to bring about."

The following was sent to Repre- sentative Loudenslager: "Accept my heartiest congratulations. (Signed) Theodore Roosevelt."

No statement was made by the pre- sident on the result of the election to- night.

ELECTION NOTES

The first complete precinct returned in California was received from North Co- ronado Island precinct. There are two voters in this precinct and their vote was: President—Taft 2.

Complete returns from Saratoga Springs, N.Y., give Chanler 2465, Hughes 3564.

The first country precinct in Nebraska reporting, Ravenna, Buffalo County, show- ed a gain for Taft of 54 over that for McKinley eight years ago, and a gain for Bryan of 15 over his own vote eight years ago. Bryan carried his own pre- cinct 106 to 52.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon has been re-elected to congress by a majority of between 6000 and 7000.

The re-election of Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the ways and means com- mittee of the house of representatives, mean that Mr. Payne will organize the tariff work of the next congress and will introduce the new tariff bill.

Taft did better than was expected in Georgia. In Chatham County he got 1800 out of 4565 votes.

Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee at 8 o'clock received the following congratulations from Jas. S. Sherman, the Republican vice-presi- dential candidate: "Please accept my congratulations and thanks for the zeal and wisdom with which you have con- ducted the campaign, to-day successfully concluded. James S. Sherman."

The vote in the fifth election district of the Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, President Roosevelt's: Taft 232, Bryan 144, Hughes 290, Chanler 177.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y.—Anthony C. Douglas (Dem.) elected mayor over O. W. Cutler (Rep.) by 78 majority.

Amsterdam, N.Y., home of the San- ford racing stables, voted Hughes 2954, Chanler 2597.

In Connecticut, 164 towns out of 168 give Taft 78,896, Bryan 45,015; same towns give Lilley (Republican), for governor, 68,716; Robertson (Democrat), 54,140.

There were more telephone enquiries as to the result of the elections across the line than as to the result in our own fed- eral elections a week ago. "Taft and Hughes" seemed to satisfy nearly every- body.

South Dakota Republicans claim to have elected the entire state ticket.

The first comment for publication on the result of the election was given to the Associated Press at 8.45 o'clock. With a broad smile, Judge Taft remarked: "Just say that everything looks favor- able."

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

MY PILLOWMOBILE.

'Tis my delight,
In the depths of night,
To speed in my Pillow Car;
To dance perchance,
Thru sunny France,
Perhaps to the Polar Star.

I linger long
In the Hills of Song,
I travel to Mandelay;
I board my ship
And take a trip
To glorious yesterday.

My Pillow train
Will jump from Spain
To Saturn, perhaps the Moon;
Then take the track
That leads me back
To the home of Eternal June.

Thru old Japan,
Beloochistan,
And Thibet and gay Pekin;
And thence we creep,
Thru the vasty deep
To the haunts of the Tribes of Fin.

My Pillow Car's
Been up to Mars,
It travels both earth and air;
And, like the wind,
It leaves behind
The City of Woe and Care.

So come with me,
On a pillowy spree,
For the Land of Dreams awheel;
Thru sky and earth,
To joy and mirth,
In my wonderful Pillowmobile.

Christie Macdonald's Career

Upper Canada province has contributed to the stage several women who have attained distinction in historic art, notably Julia Arthur, Margaret Anglin, May and Flo Irwin and Roselle Knott. But Providence planned that so far the only Canadian woman who would uphold the Dominion in the sphere of comic opera and musical comedy should spring from the Kelts in one of the cities by the sea.

Miss Christie Macdonald, now singing the leading female part with Frank Daniels' Co. in "Hook of Holland," was born in Pictou County, Nova Scotia. Strange paradox that this county, famed for the production of preachers anad university presidents, should also be the first to send forth from one of its families a well-begotten creature who should adopt a profession which is usually supposed to be the antithesis of the college and church. But be that as it may, the point to remember is that Miss Macdonald in her profession or art has achieved a deserved and enviable distinction not a whit behind her distinguished countrymen in their sphere and professions.

Miss Macdonald comes from a family which was artistic in terperament thru and thru. She gets her voice from her mother, who before her marriage was "pretty Jessie" Mackenzie, the reigning belle in her day. One of Miss Macdonald's brothers was an instrumentalist of excellent talent. Another brother has a remarkable lyric baritone voice, but has turned to another field of art where he has attained distinction as a designer and craftsman. It was reserved for Miss Macdonald herself to become the bright and shining star of her family and her country in the field of vocal music and operatic art.

From her Nova Scotia home she went to Boston, where she studied under Carl Brenneman, who was a distinguished pupil of the Parisian teacher, Sbriglea, made famous by the fact that it was he who metamorphosed Jean De Reszke from a baritone into the most celebrated tenor in modern grand opera. Miss Macdonald still studies with Sbriglea, who has his studio now in New York. Her voice, which ranges from low C to upper E, is a lyric soprano, is remarkable for its purity and sweetness, and by her continued study of voice production and intonation, Miss Macdonald sings always as the linnet sings, artlessly but with perfect control of all vocal mechanism, and thus accomplishes the most difficult passages, runs and trills with the same ease and beautiful vocalism as if she were singing a simple folk song.

Miss Macdonald's first success was with Francis Wilson as Lucinda in "Half a King." Next she scored a triumph as Princess Minutteza (title role) in "The Bride Elect." Then followed her successes in the role of Princess Sheik and with Peter Dailey in "Hodge-Podge." She returned as leading woman with Francis Wilson in "The Toreador," and she has kept on achieving distinction and success in every part she has since undertaken.

It is a genuine pleasure for the present chronicler to write this short sketch of Miss Macdonald, whom he has known since childhood. It is not too much to say that, as a Canadian, she is not only an honor to her art and profession, but also to her native country.

Ban on Costly Dress

Perisdent Ella Sabin of Downer College, Milwaukee, one of the best-known women's colleges in the west, has announced to her students that unless the rich girls in the college abstain from wearing wide-brimmed "Merry Widow" hats and other garments in the extreme of fashion, she will put in effect a college uniform of gingham or some other cheap material, so that the poor girls will not be ashamed at the contrast between themselves and their wealthier schoolmates.

The order is expected to result in simpler clothing. The same order went into effect at the Wisconsin State University last week, applying only to hats, however.

A Question of Registration

How should a gentleman register his name and his wife's on the hotel book? "John Jones and lady," is to be found quite frequently. "John Jones and wife" is another way. "Mr. and Mrs. John Jones" is more frequent than "John Jones and Mrs. Jones." The other night one of the hotels had "Mrs. Jones and John Jones" in feminine script, and the clerk drew conclusions. "John Jones and Mary Jones" is occasionally seen. English people not accustomed to hotel registering are rather puzzled by the American custom, and favor "Mr. Jones" and "Mrs. Jones" on separate lines.

The Presbyterial Society.

At the annual meeting of the Toronto Presbyterial Society yesterday Mrs. J. D. Walker outlined the past year's work of this branch of the Women's Home Missionary Society. There were in all 37 auxiliaries and bands in the society, which was an advance of six over last year, and showed an additional membership of 200, three of these auxiliaries being formed of young women. There were still 18 churches of the presbytery not yet represented in the society.

The treasurer, Miss J. A. McMichael, reported the total receipts for the year at $3874.40, and the expenditure direct for missions $3417.31, with $53 for presbyterial expenses, and a balance of about $404. The secretary of The Pioneer, Miss McGaw, reported a circulation of 2545. Mrs. John Steel, supply secretary, gave the number of bales sent out as 24, the approximate value of which was $1000. Of these 12 had gone to Wakaw, 4 to Winnipeg for the Galician students, 1 to Selton, and 1 to Whitney, containing comfort bags and clothing for camp life. Among the articles were a large number of quilts, of which every auxiliary had contributed several, and there had also been a liberal supply of mittens, stockings, children's clothing and miscellaneous clothing.

Mrs. J. W. Stephen gave the Scripture reading, Mrs. Somerville and Mrs. W. Cochrane giving the opening prayers. The Rev. J. W. Stephen, by request, spoke a few words on home missions, giving some statistics concerning the Galicians, Doukhobors and other foreigners.

Married at Death's Door.

Lying at death's door with all physical aid for her recovery suspended and hope of nearest and dearest almost abandoned, Miss Maud Hopkins, 20 Ossington-avenue, rallied to the voice of her betrother, Ernest Fawcett, 68 Dundas-street, and at his request, it was agreed that the marriage of the young couple should take place.

Rev. J. D. Fitzpatrick of Wesley Church had been called in to administer final consolation to the supposed dying girl during what seemed a fatal hemorrhage. The young man stood at her bedside. He had been in faithful attendance since her illness.

With the man kneeling beside the bed, and nobody in the room but the doctor, Mrs. Hopkins and the sister of the girl lying in the bed the minister read the marriage service. The bride was so weak that she was hardly able to respond, but lay back on the pillows, her white hand clasped in her lover's.

At 2 o'clock in the morning they were man and wife, tho the poor wife lingered between life and death for days.

The wedding was on Oct. 2, and now the bride is said to be in the convalescent stage.

But she is going to get well, and there is a happy home where there might have been a mourning one, and the wedding was not so sad after all, is the hope of all.

Seen in New York Shops.

A turban of black fox is trimmed with orange leaves and blossoms and unripe fruit—presumably unripe, for it is small and green. The little balls make a unique adornment.

At $75 comes a handsome coat of black corded silk. On either side of the front a long strip of heavy knitted silk lace extends from the throat to the bottom of the coat, which is very long. There is a touch of gold embroidery at the throat.

Two hats which ought to be worn by women going out together, they set each other off so well, are shown in a Fifth-avenue window. One is covered with gray velvet, is slightly tilted at one side of the moderately broad brim and is trimmed with roses fashioned out of gray crepe. The other is of pale pink velvet, trimmed with long, slender pink feathers, curled and arranged like the petals of a great flower.

At a display of imported silks at a Twenty-third-street shop many of the richest patterns were shown made up as vests, to be worn with the Directoire coats. Some were varicolored Persian designs, others floral. One lovely silk showed a succession of butterflies hovering over roses. This, however, was for a gown, not for a vest.

A suit of very dull green broadcloth has a coat opening over a chamois skin vest. Tho suggestive of a lung-protector, it is pretty.

Purple is still to be worn a great deal. A very broad hat of purple felt is adorned with masses of purple plumes. It is very handsome, but it will take a woman of just the right type to wear it.

Another hat, on the picturesque order, is of gray fuzzy beaver. The brim is turned up a trifle on the left. Green plumes and a mammoth buckle of green velvet are the trimming.

It is possible to spend a great deal of money for a fan, but for $5 one can buy a very pretty fan of transparent silk, which certainly is not hand-painted, but which looks as if it were.

Black and white and silver are strikingly combined in a large hat of black beaver, with sweeping white plumes and a large silver buckle in front.

PRESBYTERY FIX DATES FOR TWO INSTALLATION

Knox College and Cooke's Church Ceremonies Arranged — St. Mark's Church to Have New Site

Arrangements were completed at yesterday's meeting of the Toronto Presbytery in the Temple Building, for the installation of Dr. Gaudier to the principalship of Knox College. Dr. Gandler will be released from St. James Square Presbyterian Church on Nov. 8, and the installation services will take place on the afternoon of November 19, at that church. Rev. James Murray, moderator of the presbytery, will preside, while the address will be delivered by Dr. A. Gilray. Rev. Dr. Carmichael of St. Andrew's, King Township, will deliver the charge to the new principal.

Dr. Taylor will be inducted to the pastorate of Cooke's Church on November 20th, Rev. B. S. Black delivering the address.

Yesterday's meeting also allowed St. Mark's Presbyterian Church, now situated at the corner of Tecumseh and King-street, to move to a new site at Queen-street and Bellwoods-avenue, where a fine site, valued at $7000, has been donated to the congregation by R. S. Dale.

Rev. J. D. Morrow, the pastor, announced yesterday that it was the intention of the congregation to erect a fine big institutional church, so as to be able to handle the work in its entirety.

West Presbyterian Church had strenuously opposed this transfer of sites being granted because that congregation thought it was cutting into their district.

Erskine Church also wanted to move as they are now in a Jewish territory, but no decisive action wa staken, tho the congregation may later be allowed to build on a point between College Street Presbyterian and Chalmers.

The call from Knox Church, Scarboro, to Rev. James Anthony of Watertown was sustained, and the Hamilton presbytery was notified so that steps may be taken to bring the matter to its notice. Should the reverend gentleman accept the call the induction will take place on December 3rd next.

Considerable discussion arose as to new Presbyterian stations being appointed in the district which has sprung up, mushroom fashion, just north of St. Clair-avenue, about Spadina-road.

Moderator Murray announced yesterday that as a chairman of a committee appointed to look into the matter, he thought something should be done, as he had been told by Dr. Abraham that Rev. Mr. McTaggert of Wychwood Presbyterian Church could not handle the district at all. Dr. Gilray objected to this being done, saying that the Wychwood pastor in conversations with him had given the assurance that he was both willing and able to take care of the district. So finally it was moved that the meeting announce itself as being opposed to any new stations being set there, at least until the opinion of the sessions of the churches closest to the district be obtained.

CHURCH OF HOLY PETROLEUM

Methodist Ministerial Meeting Startled by Ex-Attorney General.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—"I am a Methodist, my father was a Methodist and my grandfather was a Methodist. I am a trustee in a Methodist university, and I want to protest here and now against the Methodist clergy laying the Methodist church open to the charge of being the Church of the Holy Petroleum.

"The oleaginous windows, to-day run after and sought for by the churches, will, in the next generation, not be considered as honoring the memory of St. Rockefeller and St. Carnegie, but as symbolic of stripes that should be worn for violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust law and robbery of the common people."

With these and similar epigrams, Frank S. Monnett, the legal foe of Standard Oil and former attorney-general of Ohio, aroused first consternation and then vigorous applause at the monthly meeting of the Methodist ministers of New York and Brooklyn yesterday at No. 150 Fifth-avenue. Mr. Monnett had arisen in the body of the house, and very few knew his identity. He spoke rapidly and emphatically.

"I protest against our Methodist ministers and universities receiving stolen goods under the pretense of sanctifying the plunder," he said.

How Syracuse Woman Took Her Wrinkles Out In Three Nights

AFTER MASSAGE AND BEAUTY SPECIALISTS HAD FAILED

"Made Me Look Twenty Years Younger"

Says Cincinnati Lady Who Tried It—"Now Past 40, but My Complexion Is Smoother and Better Than in Girlhood," Writes a Kentucky Woman Who Used This Wonderful Process for Removing Wrinkles.

The Discoverer Offers to Give Particulars Free of Charge to All Who Write Her Within Next Ten Days—Exacts Promise of Secrecy—Treatment Very Simple and Absolutely Harmless—May Be Used Without the Knowledge of Your Most Intimate Friend.

Ever since woman's beauty held sway over man and brought her power, influence and wealth, she has sought a way to stay the process of old age and banish deep lines and furrows from the brow.

Chemists, beauty doctors and skin specialists have for centuries past vainly tried to fathom the sealed secrets of nature and find a way to keep the beauty of youth in a woman's face and form.

Harriet Meta was no exception to the general rule of women. Trouble and worry left her unsightly lines and marks upon her face. She saw the beauty of her youth giving way to the heavy imprints of coming age.

Her first resort was to facial massage, cold cream and steaming pots; then next to beauty specialists; but all in vain. The wrinkles seemed, if anything, to grow deeper and deeper. Massage even appeared to stretch the skin; more wrinkles came. She had spent all the money she could afford to spend, and was ready to give up in despair, when one day a friend made a happy suggestion.

This gave her a brilliant idea. She set to work on the thing herself, and after several months' hard labor and almost endless experimenting, she succeeded in producing a wrinkle remover entirely different from anything she had seen or heard of. She tried it on herself, and lo, and behold, it worked a wonderful transformation in a single night. She tried it a second night, and her wrinkles were practically gone. A third night—three treatments in all—and her wrinkles had entirely disappeared and her skin was soft, clear, rosy and smooth.

Many others also have used this remarkable process with wonderful results.

Mrs. Moran Elmer, New York City, writes: "Your treatment removed my wrinkles in one night." Mrs. Turnham of Seattle, Wash., says: "My wrinkles are all gone; words cannot express how grateful I feel to you for what your treatment has done for me." Mrs. A. M. Brooks of Howe, Tex., writes: "Your treatment is the first I ever tried that really had the desired effect in banishing face lines. I am 68 years old and yet many say I do not look more than 45." Miss Gladys Desmond, the actress of Pittsburg, Pa., says: "Your treatment made my wrinkles disappear in one night. It is certainly a Godsend to womankind. I tried cold cream, skin foods and various advertised wrinkle removers, but they all failed absolutely, and I confess I was very skeptical about your treatment, but in one night my skepticism had entirely vanished. When I looked at my face on the following morning and saw what a wonderful transformation had taken place I was sure at last I had found the right thing."

In speaking of her discovery, Miss Meta says: "Yes, I know it sounds too good to be true, but really I do not think removing wrinkles half so wonderful as the telephone. Before the telephone was invented it appeared ridiculous to think of talking from New York to Chicago.

"Those who have used cold creams, etc., cannot understand how my treatment can act quickly. Yet, after all, it is very simple, and I wonder that someone did not discover the process long ago. My letters from patients tell the whole story. Here is one from a lady who says my treatment made her look twenty years younger; also letters from many others. I do not see how any one can doubt in the face of such testimony as this. I tried cold creams, massage, etc., myself without results, and I can thoroughly sympathize with those who have tried to get rid of wrinkles, and I am truly glad that I feel I can now offer womankind a surer and shorter way.

"I will give further particulars to all those who write me within the next ten days. I must exact a promise of secrecy from every one for my own protection before I give full information—you can use your treatment on yourself in your own family, but you must not tell what it is to outsiders.

"I guarantee my treatment will in no way injure your skin. On the contrary, it will give it a soft, velvety feeling, and greatly improve your complexion, as well as banish unsightly lines and wrinkles. It takes only a few minutes to use it.

"Address Harriet Meta, Suite 1250F, Syracuse, N.Y. I will send everything in plain sealed envelope, that our correspondence will be strictly private."

WAS AN UNDESIRABLE.

Oshawa Opinion of Man Who Has Shocked Old London.

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—The officials of the immigration department are in a position to make an effective reply to the extraordinary story told by a deported immigrant at Old Street police court recently.

According to the immigrant he and his family, who were living at Oshawa, were expelled from Canada owing to prospective hard times and the fear that the family would become public charges. The records of the department show that the man was deported at the request of the town authorities of Oshawa, who complained that he and his family had become public charges.

After the complaint was received the town authorities were requested to make further efforts on behalf of the man, A. J. Hedges.

The mayor said that Hedges was a continuous nuisance, and that his wife had been begging from house to house ever since her arrival in Canada, altho warned not to do so.

MR. G. BRISTON, Bath, Ont.

COULD NOT LIFT 10 POUNDS
HE WAS SO WEAK.

This was the condition of Mr. George H. Briston, of Bath, Ont., when he commenced taking PSYCHINE four years ago. He says: "About thirteen years ago, I caught a severe cold which settled in the Bronchial tubes and on my lungs. I was rapidly sinking and was unable to go about the house without pushing a chair ahead of me to steady myself. I was so weak I could not pick 10 pounds off the ground, and seeing your advertisement, I decided to try PSYCHINE. In three days from taking PSYCHINE I could walk without the chair and I gradually found myself getting stronger, until at the end of one year I was able to discontinue the treatment. Since that time (three years) I have not had a return of the disease, and would recommend anyone suffering from Throat or Lung trouble to use PSYCHINE." It is no wonder that Mr. Briston recommends PSYCHINE to his friends, for he has discovered the Greatest of Tonics, PSYCHINE. A remedy that cures to stay cured, as thousands can testify. PSYCHINE is sold by all druggists and dealers. 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

What Silas Saw in Slater Shoes

GOSH all hemlock! Why?
Should you or me, Son,—pay
Five good dollars, or even Four,
For them there "Slater Shoes"
When,—
We kin get these here good
Cowhide boots that last us
Just as long, fer $2?
Now tell me, Silas—Why?

"Because, for why, Dad?
Well,—these few remarks apply:

"I note you don't wear Wooden Shoes,
Like saving-folks in Holland.
They're cheaper far than Cowhide,
And they can't wear out.
Besides, they're easy to repair
With a piece of board, a saw,
A hammer and some nails,
Why don't you wear 'em, Dad?

"As for me, I can't afford to Ride in Benzine-Buggies much,
So I must walk a lot betimes.
And when I walk, I want to feel
My feet so free and comfortable
That I can just forget them
And think of something else
That earns a dozen
Pairs of "Slater Shoes" meanwhile.

"I can hear your Cowhides
Coming, Pa,—when you are far away
And, strictly out-of-sight. . .
And, if they feel as badly as
They sound and look, why then,
I'm sorry for your feet.

"I wear my "Slater Shoes"
Some 14 hours per day, also
Some 365 days every year!
"And, when I figure out
The difference in comfort
That I get between such
Cowhide boots as yours, at Two,
And "Slater Shoes" like mine, at Five per pair,
For an extra cost of Six Dollars more per year,
I'm apt to think that
Fifty Cents a Month
Is cheap enough for so much
Surplus Style and Satisfaction,
Even if I have to cut out
Two meals a month to save it."

"You smoke tobacco, Dad,
You take a drink betimes, I think,
And get some satisfaction
Out of both, I guess,—
But—
Not so much as I get extra
Out of wearing "Slater shoes"
Some Sixty Minutes
Every hour, for
Fourteen hours every day
And 365 days every year,—
At fifty cents a month.

"So, think it over, Dad,
And, ask your feet to-night
How they would like to live in Ease and comfort, luxury and
The Bang-up style of "Slater Shoes"
For the little difference of—
Fifty Cents a Month."

All genuine 1869 "Slater Shoes"
Are stamped on soles or linings
With the Slate mark, and with
The Makers' price ($4.00, $5. and $6) per pair,
Branded thereon also.

This price is to prevent any Dealer
From overcharging you (by accident).
Observe—
The Trade-mark is a Slate
And, on it these words stamped
"The Slater Shoe."

SYSTEMATIC GIVING THE IDEAL METHOD

Each Member of Every Family Should Contribute to Missions Says Campbell White.

An animated session of the representative clergy and laity attending the Laymen's Missionary Conference at St. James' Square was held yesterday morning. The chairman, E. R. Wood, called upon Rev. James Allan of the Methodist Mission Board to speak on the advantages to each church of undertaking the missionary problem in co-operation with other churches.

The laymen's campaign for missions he said was a concerted "side by side push," as Ruskin would term it. It gave unity of action and relieved the churches of pharisaic almsgiving. It was a movement which was calculated to diminish if not abolish the bitter differences inseparable from sectarian rivalry. A crisis had been reached in the national life of Canada, in which the powers of evil must be overcome before the vices of other lands became planted here. It was in such a movement as this that individual effort could be made most potent.

Rev. Mr. Campbell of Eglinton thought the growth of evil in Canada had been exaggerated in the laymen's missionary conferences.

J. Campbell White said the point was foreign to the conference.

N. F. Davidson, K.C., said that evil influences were strong enough to require attention, but the great question before the churches of Canada at the present time is the practicability of assuming and discharging the task of reaching the portion of the heathen world allotted to the congregations of the Dominion. There was every evidence that this would be faithfully done and that the effort would be both stimulant and tonic to Canadian Christianity, harmonize differences and unite activities.

More Faith, Funds and Fire.

Rev. Canon Cody portrayed the results to be expected in the church life when she adequately performs her missionary duty. The church membership would first of all be benefited quite as much as any other element.

"It is a heathen notion," he said, "to suppose that it will be easier to convert the heathen at home if we neglect the heathen abroad."

By united missionary effort the church at home would acquire, "more faith, more funds and more fire."

Thomas Findlay said a great gain is the influence of the movement for the elimination of self for the concern of others.

Attaining Efficiency.

Henry O'Hara, as a representative Congregationalist, presided in the afternoon. J. Campbell White was called upon by the chairman to conduct a conference on three questions. The first inquiry was: "How can a congregation reach its maximum missionary efficiency?" Campbell White said that cities are beginning to move as cities in religious effort. The time is coming when nations will move as nations in missionary effort. This nation has done so during the past month. He believed that each Christian country would have a national official missionary policy. In this the unit must be the congregation of each church. Shall the work be left to the pastor or should there be a standing missionary councillor for each congregation? He considered this simple piece of fundamental missionary machinery absolutely necessary. In the past the women had their committee, while the men have not responded in any adequate way. He considered men should collect from men and not women, as the latter could not deal fittingly with the amounts accepted. The committee should be composed of the best men for the job in the congregation.

A visitor from Brantford said that one congregation there made a missionary canvass thru a committee of 84 men, and the amount received was double that of the previous year.

"Just think of a little village like Brantford (laughter) having 84 men as collectors," said Campbell White. Every church should have a committee of three at least to give their whole attention to missionary work.

L. C. Peake said that the congregations needed committees to furnish missionary information to the congregations.

The Weekly Gift.

"The weekly systematic giving has been demonstrated to be the ideal method for current church expenses," said Mr. Campbell White. The same method should be adopted by everybody, every week, giving something for missions. Not the father for the family, but each member individually. Where the weekly method of giving for missions is adopted it generally is marked by an increase in the contributions for current expenses. Country people are sensible, and they will adopt systematic weekly giving if the reasonableness of it is fairly placed before them. It must be done universally before we finance the Church of God.

Rev. Dr. Fraser of the Presbyterian Publication Committee said that the weekly envelope system was a wonderful success in small congregations equally with large.

Mr. Parkinson said that the Presbyterians of Toronto expect to raise $125,000. Of the 34 Presbyterian congregations in the city 22 have organized for the laymen's movement and have adopted what they think to be their share of the assessment.

When it came to difficult congregations Mr. Campbell White said they must be appealed to by pastors and laymen at regular Sunday services. A missionary committee should make a canvass for pledges before the envelopes are distributed.

One minister said that some church members had conscientious scruples against letting their giving being made public. "It's a mightiy queer kind of conscience," said Mr. Campbell White. His view was that in mission support the motto should be "Let your light so shine as to glorify your Father Who is in heaven."

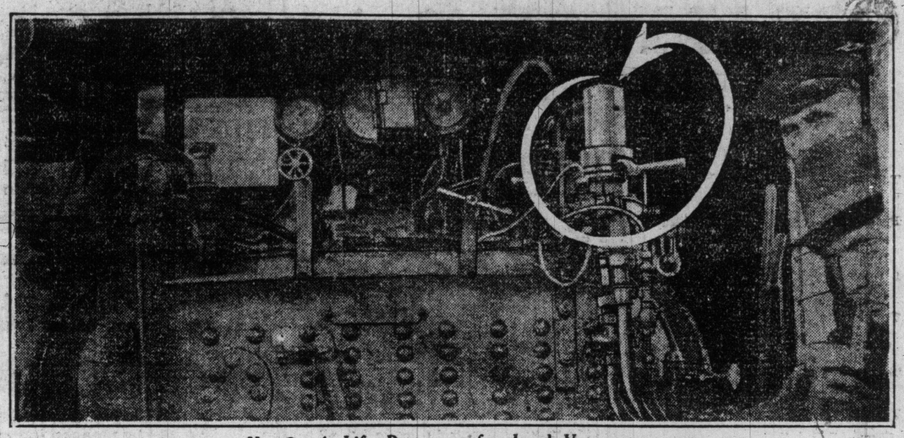

One lay delegate said his minister "simply had to leave missions alone to keep peace in the house."

Such a congregation, said Campbell White, should be brought under the influence of some neighboring congregation.

No. 2—A Life Preserver for Land Voyagers.

Seated firmly on the engineer's brake valve, this contrivance does not look up to much.

But it is the wonder of the age. Beside it the far famed Lamp of Aladdin and the mystical "Open Sesame" of Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves are ordinary commonplaces.

It's the brake applying mechanism of the Price System of Automatic Train Control. It's the all-seeing eye and firm controlling hand that will make railway travel as safe as walking.

It is in fact a "Life Preserver."

YOU are cordially invited to witness an actual demonstration of the Price System at the Exhibition Rooms of the Universal Signal Co., Norwich Union Building, Top Floor, 12-14 Wellington St. East, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Every day

Want to see it work? Come up to our exhibition room---top floor Norwich Union Bldg., and see it.

We have installed the equivalent of 5 miles of track, perfect working model trains, and the actual brake controller, on an actual Westinghouse Air Brake. The exhibition is in charge of well-informed courteous attendants.

Inspect it --- investigate the entire system---ask questions. The visit puts you under no obligation, and you're as welcome as the flowers in May any day from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

While there, ask for illustrated souvenir booklet explaining the Price Automatic Signalling, Controlling, and Stopping device for railways.

A HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS.

Veterinary Surgeon Gives Good Suggestion to Government.

J. Gorden McPherson, V.S., writes The World making the following praiseworthy suggestions:

Now, as the elections are all over and the country is safe for four more years, I would like to draw the attention of the many readers of your valuable paper to a few simple facts regarding the care and treatment of dumb animals.

I have for several years been advocating the erection and establishing of a general hospital in the City of Toronto, where the dumb animal could receive proper attention and care. Of all the moneyed people in Toronto who answered my request, there were but two who offered to assist; one gentleman offering to furnish the stone at the quarry; a lady stated she would be willing to give financial help, but did not say how much.

I have now come to the conclusion, as the Ontario Government has purchased the Ontario Veterinary College, it would be a timely suggestion that it erects a general hospital in connection with the college, where every practitioner in the City of Toronto, or the surrounding country, could send such patients as required treatment in a hospital, having them treated under the supervision of the practitioner who had the case in charge.

This would give the students a chance to act as nurses and of getting the different ideas and acquiring a practical knowledge from the experience of older practitioners.

I would suggest appointing a superintendent for this hospital, who is thoroly competent to perform any operation, and there is no man in Canada more fitted to assume that position than the present Professor Fowler, who is a very capable young man.

I think it is high time that something was done to elevate our downtrodden profession.

It does not look fair to me as a citizen and practitioner in Toronto, to read in the columns of yours and other papers, the advertisements issued: "Day and night calls promptly attended to," by the Ontario Veterinary College or the Ontario Government. It is bad enough to have liverymen, blacksmiths and grooms running around thru the city, with a thermometer in their pockets, and selling the public all they need to cure the diseases of the horse, or dumb animal, is a mixture consisting of: Raw linseed oil, camphor gum, sweet spirits of nitre, sulphuric ether.

Now, we first want legislation and we are the only province in the Dominion that has no protection for the veterinary profession. If an act of legislation were passed, all we should require would be a board of governors, making it compulsory for every practitioner to register and pay an annual fee of $5, and thereby do away with "quackery" in all its forms. And to elevate our profession I would suggest that any practitioner lowering his profession, either by signing a false certificate, or by receiving a fee from the dealer, would be punished by a fine of $100 for first offence, and a cancellation of his license for one year for the second.

Now, I attended the Ontario Veterinary College a full term, and graduated, and during my attendance I never saw an operation performed in the college, nor a sick horse treated for any disease. Still my diploma says I was qualified to practice surgery and medicine.

Now, it is to be hoped that my old friend, the Hon. Mr. Duff, minister of agriculture, will give this article a little of his attention and see if the Ontario Veterinary College can be so managed as to make it one of the greatest institutions in the world.

BANK CLERK A BURGLAR.

Molson Employe Emulates "Raffles," Arrested, Given Chance, Again in Toils.

CORNWALL, Ont., Nov. 3.—D. E. Wilson, who was arrested at Brockton, Mass., by the American authorities last week, and taken to Cornwall by Provincial Detective H. Reburn, was before Police Magistrate Davis to-day and pleaded guilty to six charges of breaking into stores and stealing therefrom in the Village of Chesterville, where for three or four months Wilson was employed in the branch of the Molsons Bank.

During the summer there were many petty burglaries in the village, but no one suspected the gentlemanly bank clerk till late in September when another bank clerk discovered that Wilson's trunk was full of pieces of cloth and a lot of gents' furnishings. When confronted by this evidence and the men he had robbed, Wilson threw up his hands, and having restored the goods, was allowed to leave town.

He went to Brockton, Mass., but returned quietly on the night of Oct. 18, and broke into two stores, carrying off about $89 worth of goods and some cash. He might never have been suspected had he not been seen and recognized getting on a train at Finch by a bank manager from Chesterville. His reappearance coincident with the burglaries aroused suspicion and led to his arrest. He was committed for trial and will come before Judge O'Reilly some day this week. The goods stolen and recovered are valued at $350.

St. Mary's Junior C. L. and A. A.

Some three weeks ago a junior branch of the well known St. Mary's Club was organized under the patronage of Very Rev. Vicar-General McCann. The club, however, is altogether independent of the older organization, altho they are grateful for the use of the old club rooms with which they were presented. The first regular meeting was held on Sunday, Oct. 25th, when the following members were elected: President, Jos. Bauer; vice-president, John Skain; secretary, N. H. Mackintosh, and treasurer, Harry J. Elder. On Nov. 1st the society took possession of the club rooms, and under the direction of Rev. Bro. Theobald, an excellent musical program was rendered for the benefit of a number of well-known citizens, (Mr. Thos. Flannigan included), who were present. A number of the visitors spoke in high terms of the new association, and each expressed the desire that it would soon be in as flourishing a condition as the older organization of this city. Rev. Fr. O'Donnell and two other gentlemen made the club presents of large sums of money, to aid them in their work. The idea of the club, as expressed by the president, at the entertainment, is to keep the young men in touch with each other during the year, and also to further any literary ability they may possess.

SAVED FROM STARVING.

Stefansson Expedition at Last Gets Ample Supplies.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The anxiety of the authorities of the American Museum of Natural History regarding the explorers of the Stefasson-Anderson Arctic expedition, who at last reports were short of supplies in the Arctic regions, has been relieved by news from Point Barrow, Alaska.

George H. Sherwood, secretary of the museum, announces that a letter has been received from Mr. Stefansson, dated Point Barrow, Aug. 29, saying the expected ships had come in after the ice had broken and drifted from shore, and that from the whalers aboout four tons of provisions and other necessaries had been obtained.

Mr. Sherwood said that these provisions would last the expedition two years, and that Mr. Stefansson wrote that he had chartered a small sloop, and, loaded with supplies, had started east. His plan now was to go back to Herschel Island and make connections with the rest of the party, Dr. R. M. Anderson and the Esquamaus, planning to spend the winter in the Colville River district, west of Flaxman Island. The party is now between Flaxman and the Herschel islands, and in the spring will go east of the mouth of the Mackenzie River.

Morrow heading the movement, have been ticketed to their previous home, Lancaster, England. Sufficient funds were also provided to care for the family on their voyage.

Further subscriptions to their aid, which have been addressed to 81 Tecumseh-street, are requested to be discontinued.

P. E. I. Elections.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., Nov. 3.—The Prince Edward Island election will be held 15 days hence. Premier Hazzard's platform includes the pressing of further claims against the Dominion, including a share of the fishery award, and revision of federal representation in the house of commons.

WAREHOUSES COLLAPSE.

Arkansas River Eats Into Heart of City of Pine Bluff.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Nov. 3.—Two large brick cotton warehouses tumbled into the Arkansas River yesterday following the continuous caving in of the banks of the Arkansas River.

The Hotel Jefferson and the Jefferson County Court House are in danger of falling into the river within the next forty-eight hours. The river continues to eat its way into the heart of the business district and thousands of dollars worth of property are in danger.

Several small cottages have been carried down stream and a large plantation on the north side of the river is gradually disappearing.

SERVIA NOT HOSTILE.

Government Awaits Hopefully Issue of International Congress.

BELGRADE, Nov. 3.—At the moment Crown Prince George is returning home from his visit to St. Petersburg, the Servian Government acting upon the advice of the powers has issued an official repudiation of any hostile designs on Austria-Hungary, together with a declaration that Servia awaits the issue of the International Congress hopefully, trusting in friendly powers to plead her just cause.

Many Happy Returns of the Day.

REDUCTION IN RATES.

Underwriters Will Decide When System Is Tested.

"As soon as the city has taken over the high pressure system we will have an inspection made and if it is found satisfactory, as I think it will be, I have no doubt that some reduction in rates will be made."

This was a statement made last night by J. A. Robertson, secretary of the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association. Mr. Robertson said that the underwriters hadn't yet considered what reductions might be made and that the matter wouldn't be taken up until the city had the system ready for operation.

Geo. M. Higginbotham of the Sun Insurance Co. intimated that it wasn't certain that any material reduction would be made. He said that the commercial rates established after the big fire of 1905 had been lessened considerably by the substitution of the mercantile schedule, which rates every mercantile building separately. Some of the large business houses, he said, are paying less than before the conflagration.

The mayor and controllers contend that underwriters will be guilty of a breach of faith if the rates are not lowered. The mayor says he would consider it his duty to call a citizens' meeting if no such action were taken, while Controllers Hocken and Harrison think the city could retaliate by starting a municipal insurance department.

COBALT---- Nipissing Stock Again Resumes its Leadership ----COBALT

Nipissing Leads the Markets In the Forward Movement

Premier Cobalter Advances Quickly and Has a Good Influence on Other Stocks.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, Nov. 3.

The market for Cobalts experienced further expansion to-day and nearly every issue on the floor advanced.

With the steady advance in prices came a perfect deluge of orders, that in some cases overwhelmed the brokers, who oftentimes were at a loss to know just where to secure holdings for a turnover.

While a great amount of sales were transacted, it was noticeable that offerings were sometimes scarce, owing to the general impression that the gradual rise will continue and bigger profits be realized later on.

It is believed that the gains are only commencing in view of the fact that the New York curb is preparing for a rush after the election turmoil settles down.

Perhaps the most sensational advance to-day was that made by Nipissing, which made a gain of over $2 a share. At $12 over 2310 shares were dealt in on the Toronto Exchange.

Among the lower priced stocks Rochester jumped 9 points to 43. Beaver was called for at the opening and advanced 6 points to 57.

Silver Leaf went up to 20 1-2 and Nova Scotia to 80.

Little Nipissing sold to-day for 67, with an average of 65. A pool is reported to have been formed to advance the price further.

Otisse was one of the features of the afternoon and sold up to 58 and 59 and at 60 cents off the floor.

Chambers-Ferland remained firm thruout the sessions and the report that the control had been obtained by English capitalists rather served to strengthen its position. Amalgamated was in good demand all day and big orders are still in hands of brokers for the shares. A sharp rise in Watts was due to small offerings of these shares. Only a small amount of business came from the States to-day owing to the elections, but it had no appreciable effect on the volume of business done.

COBALT--High-Grade Samples of Ore From the Badger Mine--COBALT

LA ROSE STILL IN LEAD OF THE OTHER SHIPPERS

Output to Smelters Delayed for Want of Car Accommodation.

COBALT, Nov. 2.—(From the Man on the Spot.)—La Rose continues to lead the Cobalt shippers. Last week seven cars of ore left for the smelter. Two cars of this consisted of high-grade ore and five of second grade. One hundred and seventy men and 15 drills are working double shift and the ore at present sent from the La Rose Consolidated Co. continues to come from the La Rose and Princess mines.

In connection with new developments in Cobalt, the value of the Princess daily becomes more apparent. While less than twenty acres are contained in this lot, it will prove to be one of the most productive properties in the camp. The new shaft-house here is about completed.

Drifting is being done on two veins at the 70 ft. level. These veins have a width of four inches at that depth and are producing ore that averages 4000 ounces of silver to the ton.

At the La Rose mine everyone is busy. A winze is being sunk from the bottom of the open cut on No. 3 vein. The winze is now 35 feet deep and shows a width of five inches, containing very rich ore.

Drifting has been done for 20 feet on the new vein found three weeks ago. This vein was located at the 90 foot level and 260 feet east of the north end of the main workings. It is four inches wide and carries about 4000 ounces of silver to the ton.

A raise is being made in No. 10 tunnel and good ore is steadily being extracted.

The ore-sorting tables at the entrance to the McDonald tunnel have been completed and a new ore-house will be erected here immediately.

Early this summer two new veins were located on the surface south of the La Rose office. A cross-cut has been run at the 80 foot level for 400 feet south of the main shaft and at that distance one of these veins has been tapped. These are narrow veins, but very rich and contain very high-grade ore.

Drifting will be done on the vein encountered and the cross-cut continued until the other one is reached.

Of the ore shipped last week, four cars went with the trainload of thirteen cars that left here for the Denver smelter. On the second train, which leaves to-night, La Rose has two cars and would have had four if sufficient cars had been available.

Another car of first-class ore will leave the La Rose mine to-morrow for Copper Cliff.

Frank Burr Mosure.

HAS BOUGHT DAY CLAIM.

Andrew Anderson of Winnipeg Has a Good Thing.

Andrew Anderson of Winnipeg is the latest Cobalt enthusiast. He does not confine his enthusiasm, however, to Cobalt, but paid a visit to the unsurveyed district below Lorraine and inspected several of the rich properties there.

After seeing the Wettlaufer, Keeley, Haileybury Silver and the Day properties, he became sufficiently interested to buy the Day claim, consisting of forty-one acres.

This property lies northeast of the Keeley lot, and is the centre of a section of the district which has mountains of diabase in which a lot of rich veins have been found.

Twenty-two veins have been located on this property, and native silver and niccolite have been found in some of them.

These are good strong veins, and some of them have been traced right across the property. Development has in every case resulted in increased width and values.

Development work will be continued during the winter, camp buildings will be erected, and a first-class plant installed as soon as the winter roads permit.

Moose Horn Mines, Limited.

(Montreal River.)

From the proceeds of the sale of stock now offered, a complete plant will be installed and shipments of some of the rich ore will be made before spring. Samples of this ore may be seen at Room K, King Edward Hotel, together with a piece of Cobalt Bloom from one of the many veins uncovered on the property, the like of which has seldom been seen. We do not claim that this mine will equal anything on the Montreal River, but that it will be the greatest mine in the north. Holdings 160 acres.

NEW VEIN, RICH ONE ON LITTLE NIPISSING

Party of Heavily Interested Gentlemen Make Careful Inspection of the Property.

COBALT, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Interest to-day in Cobalt was centred on Little Nipissing, when the recently discovered vein at the westerly end of the property was inspected by W. B. Russell of Toronto, A. E. Ferland and J. Ferland, Director J. Curry of Toronto, the heaviest stockholder, S. D. Maddin the mine manager, W. E. Segsworth, engineer, an da number of others financially interested.

The vein was uncovered about 10 days ago and the shaft is now down about 20 feet. At the top its outline is clearly defined in the rust-colored decomposed mineral matter. At the depth of 10 feet the vein strengthens carrying smaltite, cobalt and niccolite. At 22 feet the vein is becoming highly mineralized, carrying 150 ounces to the ton from the surface.

The vein is from 14 to 20 inches in width, and it crosses under the railway to the Temiskaming and Hudson Bay mine, which sunk for and located it immediately upon the important discovery being made on Little Nipissing. The rock on each side of the vein is mineralized and it in itself will make a good concentrator proposition.

Mr. Maddin and other experienced men believe that the main vein will develop into native silver with a little further development. The vein is supposed to be a continuation of the famous Kendall vein. It continues into Sharpe Lake, which is owned by the Little Nipissing Company. The party also inspected work on the 20 acres leased from Peterson Lake. The old shaft is now down 100 feet and drifting has been done 200 feet each way. Parallel with the lake a new vein has been discovered. It is four inches in width, of native silver, and has been traced for considerable distance.

So absorbed were members of the party that they remained two hours at the workings, drenched to the skins by heavy rain that was falling.

New York Exchange Closed Stocks Firmer in London

Wall Street Gives Day Over to Elections—Listed Issues at Toronto Firm But Dull.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, Nov. 3.

Transactions were again very small at the Toronto Stock Exchange to-day and dealings without much significance. The only feature in the market was Nipissing, which was heavily bought and advanced over two points. Sentiment was without guidance, except for the London markets, which showed firmness for Americans. The market is not hampered with much realizing and the undertone therefore continues quite firm. Actual developments such as decreased earnings for Sao Paulo and the reverse for Toronto Rails were without any appreciable effect. Rio was forced higher, but excited little interest. Brokers have few buying orders, but state that supplies of stocks are not easily obtained. The exchange is given over almost exclusively to business in the Cobalts and little attention is being paid to any of the listed securities.

Coal Output.

The Dominion Coal Company's October shipments were 263,000 tons, compared with 339,573 tons in October, 1907. A large decrease was due to the boats' delay in getting up the St. Lawrence owing to the heavy fog and smoke prevailing. For ten months coal shipments were 1,257,370 tons, contrasted with 990,492 tons in 1907, an increase of 266,878 tons.

Dominion Bonds.

The Dominion Securities Corporation, Limited, were successful tenderers for the following bonds:

$83,500, City of London, Ont., 4 1-2 per cent. debentures; $2500, Township of East Wawanosh, Ont., 5 1-2 per cent. debentures; $35,000, County of Prince Edward, Ont., 4 1-2 per cent. debentures.

Canadian Failures.

Insolvencies in the Dominion of Canada during the month of October, according to figures compiled by R. G. Dun & Co., were 129 in number and $1,075,451 in amount of defaulted indebtedness. This is a distinct improvement in comparison with last year's liabilities, which were $1,422,357. On the other hand, there was an increase of three in number, 126 defaults being reported in October, 1907. Much of the decrease in liabilities occurred in the manufacturing division, where 33 failures involved $423,487 against 53 last year, when the amount was $785,582. Trading failures were 90 in number and $612,164 in amount, which compares with 67 last year for $594,905. There were six other commercial failures in each year, while liabilities of $39,800 in 1908 compared with $41,896 last year. Commercial reports from the Dominion of Canada indicate that the reaction in 1907 was also severe, although relatively less than in the United States, and improvement has been noticed there during recent months in about the same ratio.

LA ROSE STILL IN LEAD

on their claims in the Nett Lake district, where active development operations are now taking place. J. H. Dixon, president of the company, left Toronto last night to personally inspect the work already done on the property. The new vein discovered on their J. S. 61 property is twelve inches wide, and has all indications of turning out very rich in silver. The company's camps are now completed, and a force of miners will be put to work at the beginning of next week, as it is the intention of the company to continue active mining operations thruout the coming winter. In view of the low capitalization the investment is a particularly attractive one and the company report a very active demand for their stock. It is expected the present issue will all be subscribed for very shortly.

INSIDERS BUYING.

Work at the Amalgamated Progressing Rapidly.

COBALT, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Work at the Amalgamated Co.'s Coleman lot progresses rapidly. Trenching has been done for several hundred feet on the new vein, and the men are being temporarily lodged in some shacks on the property.

Ninety per cent. of the Coleman lot is owned by Amalgamated, and this outside deal should be very profitable. Insiders are said to be buying on prospective profits to the treasury because of this interest.

Cobalters, however, continue to bank on the lot near Conigas and Trethewey, which Supt. Fowler had in his charge for several months.

Work should be resumed on this portion of the company's acreage.

Frank Burr Mosure.

FROM MONTREAL RIVER.

Messrs. Warren Return From Inspection of Otisse Mine.

E. D. Warren of E. D. Warren & Co., stock brokers, Traders' Bank Building, is back in the city from a trip up the Montreal River, taken for the purpose of personally inspecting the Otisse Mine.

He brought down with him a 150 lb. sack of ore samples, all of which show the remarkable mineralization of this silver property. He reports working going on steadily in the mine, and the highest prospects verified by tangible results.

Mr. Warren is highly enthusiastic over the Otisse mine and expresses himself with authority born of knowledge that conveys conviction. Mr. Warren is an acknowledged expert regarding the resources of the Montreal River camp and especially of the Otisse Mine.

TRANSFER AGENT.

The Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, 43-45 West King-street, Toronto, have been appointed registrar and transfer agent of the stock of the Nancy Helen Mines, Limited; Eastbound Cobalt Mines, Limited; Crown Jewel Mines, Limited, and the Gifford Cobalt Mines, Limited.

DEMAND FOR WATTS.

Batch of Orders From New York Advance the Price.

A sudden demand for Watts yesterday brought a sharp advance in the price of the shares, several sales being made at 76. Orders for the stock come from New York, presumably from the large holders of the King Edward. Excellent ore is being turned out at the Watts, and it is thought that the New York interests have news of the property not yet known here.

KEEN BUYING OF OTISSE.

Demand for the Shares Comes From Widely Scattered Area.

Public favor again centred in Otisse yesterday, over 100,000 shares being dealt in between 58 and 60. In the afternoon the demand among brokers on the Toronto Stock Exchange for Otisse shares was keen, large blocks being bought at 65 for future delivery. Wire orders from Winnipeg and Buffalo took over 37,000 shares, which shows to what extent the demand for Otisse has grown.

News from New York shows that there is considerable enquiry for Otisse, but until the election excitement subsides the mining market will be a second consideration. Otisse will be listed on the Standard Exchange on Wednesday, and on the other exchanges later.

The arrival in Toronto of a huge quantity of high-grade ore no doubt created an increased demand for Otisse on both exchanges Tuesday afternoon.

CHAMBERS-FERLAND SOLD?

Reports Say That the Property Has Passed Into Other Hands.

The Montreal Herald has the following re the reported sale of Chambers-Ferland Mine to English capitalists:

The Herald was this morning informed by an authoritative source that the Chambers-Ferland property has been purchased by a London house. This could not be confirmed locally, tho it is understood that an official announcement may be made on Wednesday, declaring that the property has changed hands. It is a matter of satisfaction that London interests have been induced to purchase this property, as it should prove highly profitable to the British investors.

It is expected, if the news is borne out, that all the insiders' stock has been pooled with the object of facilitating the sale to London interests, and the small floating supply now held by Canadians should consequently have a greatly enhanced value, as the majority of shares would be distributed thruout the United Kingdom.

INVESTORS IN C. & TS. MAY SUE MR. FROM

Figures, They Claim, Indicate Manipulation in Construction Figures.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The Tribune says:

While more evidence of the methods of A. C. Frost in handling the finances of the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railroad came to light yesterday, it became reasonably certain that civil suits will be started eventually in the effort to recover some of the money diverted from the enterprise. Whether there are sufficient legal grounds for criminal prosecutions has not been determined.

The investors are eager to recover as much as possible of the $2,716,000 not clearly accounted for, but they are not particularly optimistic as to the prospect. More than $3,000,000 was dissipated in the sale of bonds at ruinous discounts and the greater part of the remainder apparently has been squandered on Frost's other ill-fated ventures.

The outlook for a satisfactory reorganization of the road likewise is not much more encouraging. The bondholders' committee is seeking to work out a reorganization plan, and, according to Mr. Frost, Canadian investors are now raising a fund with which to take the road out of the receivers' hands. But it will take a tremendous amount of money to effect a reorganization satisfactory to a majority of the interests, and the money is not in sight.

Clash With the Receivers.

The bondholders' committee and the receivers are not on the best of terms as a result of the investigation of the Frost deals. The receivers, Irving Osborne, D. B. Hanna, and George G. Moore, have financed the completion of the road and have conserved the property in a manner satisfactory to Judge Grosscup. They retained Arthur Young & Co. to make a careful investigation of the road's condition and filed the report of that auditing, which shows up the extent to which the funds were diverted and wasted. The bondholders' committee tried to put a better face on the affair, and in their report practically suppressed the findings of Young & Co.

Receiver Moore denied his Michigan United Railways bonds had been exchanged for the receivers' certificates. Loewenfeldt of the London Registry Investment Company, he said, exchanged the certificates for long time securities with a Canadian bond house, and up to date $500,000 has been furnished to the receivers from the proceeds of the certificates at 95. Receiver Osborne said he considered this an extremely good bargain.

L. A. Drum, the consulting engineer, said he would receive not more than $16,000 for his services during the completion of the road under the receivers. This is 4 per cent. commission on the labor and material used. He explained that he was not retained at the instance of Receiver Moore, but had been retained by the road two years ago, before he knew Moore.

Tell of Other Deals as Bargains.

Both Receiver Moore and Engineer Drum declared untrue the report that they purchased cars and material at low valuations for use on the Michigan lines. Moore said some men he knew had purchased a second hand steam shovel of the Republic Construction Company for $2000, the bargain being made by Receiver Hanna at $500 more than the appraised valuation. Drum, who is superintending the reconstruction of the Calumet Electric system for the City Railway, said he recommended to Vice-President Hamilton the purchase of twenty second-hand dump cars from the Republic Construction Company. The cars were bought for $100 each on the valuation of Receiver Moore.

The Arthur Young report bears out in striking manner Attorney Edgar B. Tolman's characterization of the Republic Construction Company as "Frost's incorporated allies." President Frost of the railroad had a perfect little understanding with President Frost of the construction company, as a result of which the investors paid $6,218,270 for construction that was not done.

Under the bond arrangement the president of the road certified the amount of work the construction company had done and the trustees then turned over bonds to that amount. The auditors submit a table showing the amounts Frost certified and received from the trustees and the corresponding amounts on the construction company's books showing the actual work performed.

"The difference is striking," comments the report.

Table Indicates Much Padding.

This is the comparative table:

	Certified.	Actually done.
1903	$ 1,094,100	$ 882,647.96
1904	2,647,400	1,264,654.71
1905....	1,759,822	1,551,097.47
1906	3,601,600	1,885,314.87
1907..	4,597,978	2,498,915.43
Initial payment no certificate required	600,000	.....
Totals	$14,300,900	$8,082,630.49

According to this report, not only did Frost as president of the railroad pad the certification to the trustees with $6,218,270 of fictitious items, but as president of the construction company he padded the $8,082,630 of actual work.

"This amount," states the report, "includes interest and passenger and freight earning capitalized amounting to $1,340,873.25, which, as pointed out in our main report, is not true construction charge."

Frost Calls Report Misleading.

Mr. Frost said these apparent discrepancies were caused by the failure of the auditing company to allow 15 per cent. contractor's profit on the work done and also to make allowance for the fact that the bonds were discounted at 85.

"The report of Arthur Young & Company," said Mr. Frost, "is false and misleading. Last summer I made a request upon Judge Grosscup for an independent audit which was granted, and such a report was made by Messrs. Marwick, Mitchell & Co., chartered accountants of the highest standing. This report was made to Judge Grosscup on Sept. 29, and gives an honest presentation of the affairs of the company and my relations with that company.

"During the last ten years I have given my time and best efforts to the building up of this property and have secured for the company rights and franchises that cannot be duplicated, for which I have asked or received no compensation, and the statement that $10,000,000, $2,000,000, or $1.00 is unaccounted for is absolutely false and unjustified.

"Equally false is the statement that the Wisconsin corporation's floating debts are over $2,000,000. The indebtedness of all three corporations is less than $1,000,000."

A SMELTER RUMORED.

Reported That English Capitalists Will Build One at Port Hope.

There is a current report among mining men that a huge smelter will be erected in Port Hope.

So far as can be learned the men behind the project are English capitalists who have been for some time investigating the mineral resources of Ontario, more especially the future and possibilities of a permanent camp being established at Cobalt and in and around that district.

The need of a smelter in this part of the country is not dispute.

And that such a proposition materialized would be a great saving of money to Cobalters is not doubted.

At present a lot of the ore and in fact the most of it goes to Colorado, and transportation expenses prove to be a heavy item.

While nothing definite as to the identity of the capitalists can be ascertained, yet the rumor appears to be well-founded and generally looked upon by interested people, as the logical outcome of a mining industry being established in Ontario.

STOCK PICKED UP.

People in Mining District Are Buyers of Amalgamated.

Amalgamated Cobalt was in excellent demand thruout yesterday's sessions of the market. Every share that was offered at 25 being quickly picked up. Yesterday's buying came principally from Haileybury and other New Ontario points, indicating that the people in the mining district aresatisfied that the two properties of Amalgamated have now demonstrated that they can be made very valuable by development work.

On the property near the Temiskaming everything that can be done is under way to carry on the development of the mine to show that the vein which was recently uncovered is one of considerable value, and the equal of others in that vicinity.

HIGH GRADE ORE.

Samples Received in Town From the Badger Mine.

Samples of ore from the Badger mine were received at the rooms of the Cobalt Consolidated Mines Co., in the Traders' Bank Building. The samples shown were taken from a vein which has been traced on the property over 300 feet. The ore samples are splendid specimens and will run from 5 to 6 thousand ounces to the ton. The real vein matter, of which there is a sample, is almost pure silver, and it is expected that the development work now going on will show the vein to be almost as interesting as the Crown Reserve vein. The new company have started in real earnest to get everything in shape before the winter sets in, and upwards of a hundred men will be busy at the property this week. Lumber for sleep camps, and building for machinery is being rushed to the property as fast as possible, and a large compressor is already on order and will be erected without delay. Altho the company is not yet in a position to issue its stock, orders for upwards of 40,000 shares were received from various points yesterday, one order coming from Bay City, for no less than 15,000 shares.

The location of the property is right in the Temiskaming group, and the Badger is expected by those who are largely interested in the mine to be one of the prominent shippers of this part of the camp.

TOTAL CAPITALIZATION.

Does Not Equal That of Amalgamated Copper.

"The prolonged rise in the Cobalt stock has led to the query as to whether or not the rise has been conservative," said a well-known Toronto Stock Exchange broker yesterday. "In my opinion the enhancement in values remains well within the confines of conservatism. The combined capital of what is known as the legitimate Cobalt companies is not as great by any means as the capital of the Amalgamated Copper, which is $150,000,000. This being the case where could the Cobalters go if the American public actually came into the market in real earnest? Why it is quite possible for many of the present good stocks to double and treble in value in a few weeks. I look forward to seeing the greatest mining movement here in Canada that has ever taken place, and the reason why I think so is that the capitalization of the mines is conservative; the mines are splendidly managed, and there is a silver output each month of one million dollars. In the Cobalt and Montreal River districts we have the greatest silver camp in the world, and the public are just now waking up to the fact," concluded this broker.

NOTHING TO AROUSE ENTHUSIASM.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, Nov. 3.

There was nothing in the Toronto stock market to arouse any enthusiasm yesterday, and transactions were about as light as they could well be on a real open exchange. The undertone to the market retains its strength, owing to the small amount of offerings, rather than to new outside power. The decrease in earnings shown by Sao Paulo is apparently ignored by the market, for which there is no satisfactory reason. There is a steady buying demand for the investment stocks.

GET OPTION OF 15 YEARS ON GOLF CLUB PROPERTY

Controller Hocken Suggests That Land Be Taken Over as Park at End of Time.

The proposal that the city obtain a 15 year option on the East Toronto Golf Club property of 100 acres and take it over as a park at the end of that time, was made by Controller Hocken at a conference between the board of control and representatives of the golf club yesterday afternoon The suggested solution of the problem arising out of the club's protest against being annexed on the same terms as East Toronto, will be further considered.

The mayor and controllers looked over the ground and came to the conclusion that the land is more adapted to park uses than to building operations. The golf club delegation said that $5000 is spent yearly in keeping the property in good condition.

A preliminary conference was held between the bord of control and the city engineer regarding reorganization of the works department.

The civic sub-committee on street naming yesterday dealt with a number of proposed changes.

The change of the name of the north-eastern portion of Park-road to South Drive was recommended; as was also Irwin-avenue to Gloucester-street west, it being a continuation of the latter thorofare.

A. D. Williams and others petitioned to have College-street west of Souraurden-avenue changed to College-road, but no action was taken.

Mrs. W. B. Shuttleworth asked that Dundas-street south of Arthur-street be called Ossington-avenue, and that Arthur-street be called Dundas-street, being a continuation. She was requested to get up a formal petition.

That portion of Elm-avenue beyond Nanton-crescent will in future be known as Castle Frank.

Might Foul Lake.

Provincial Analyst Dr. Ampot is quoted in an interview as saying that he doesn't think the city's proposed septic tank treatment will completely purify the effluent to be deposited in the lake. He says that sand filtration is needed. With the present system the sewage would be only about half-treated and the drinking water would be affected every time there was a strong east wind.

The Centrol Presbyterian Church appealed against having to remove its signs from street corners, but the board decided that the bylaw must be carried out without any exceptions.

It is estimated that the damage done by hoodlums on Hallowe'en amounts to about $1000. The city will have to foot the bills following the precedent of 1902, when $1200 was paid out.

The city will ask the railway commission to erect gates and station watchmen at the G.T.R. belt line crossing on Eastern-avenue.

In support of the agitation for lower stret car steps, the city will bring an expert from New York and one from a point in the province. Their fees will be $25 a day and expenses.

Dr. Sheard expects to have $25,000 left over from this year's appropriation for street cleaning.

HAVEN'T PAID THE PIPER.

London Old Boys Executive Threatened With Suit.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 3.—The London Old Boys' Association is threatened with suit by the 92nd Highlanders Band of Hamilton, for non-payment for services during the old boys' celebration. It is claimed there was $1057 left in the treasury and that officers of the association held a secret meeting and voted themselves rich presents. It is alleged that one man got a costly clock, another $500, and another a gold watch.

True Bill Against Buckborough.

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 3.—Chester Buckborough was placed on trial before Mr. Justice Magee here this afternoon charged with having set fire to the Queen's Hotel in Tillsonburg on May 20 last, in which three people lost their lives.

The grand jury brought in a true bill against him and his hearing will takle place to-morrow. Buckborough pleaded not guilty.

OBITUARY

Rev. Malcolm McGregor, senior editor of The Presbyterian, died at his home, 183 Beatrice-street, yesterday morning, in his 56th year. For three months he had been confined to his bed as a result of a cold contracted while attending the general conference in Winnipeg. From the time of his graduation from Knox College, in 1881, Mr. McGregor gave promise of great prominence in the Canadian Presbyterian ecclesiastical world, and in his subsequent connection with secular publications he became one of the most widely known and influential clergymen in the Canadian Presbyterian Church. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and when a small boy came to Canada with his parents, who settled on a farm near Streetsville, Ont. For some years he attended high school at Oakville. In 1878 he took a gold medal in philosophy in Toronto University. Entering upon a theological course in Knox College, he had an especially brilliant career, graduating in 1881, when he was called to Tillsonburg. His 21 years' ministry there was successful and a new church was built. In 1901 the Westminster Company sent him to Winnipeg, where he remained as western editor of the publication until 1903, when he succeeded Rev J. A. Macdonald as senior editor of The Presbyterian.

Mr. McGregor married the daughter of Rev. James Breckenridge of Streetsville, and, besides his widow, Breckenridge McGregor, a son, and Miss Agnes, a daughter, at home, survive him.

The interment will take place on Thursday at Streetsville, at the old family plot.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary E. Findlay, widow of the late Alex. Findlay of London, Ont., took place in that city on Monday and was attended by many friends, including Mayor Steveley and a number of civic officials. Death occurred on Friday morning at her residence, 110 Bedford-road, this city, after a lingering illness. Two sons and two daughters survive, Alex. of Denver; Hugh, of Winnipeg, who reached the city on Thursday last; and the Misses Alberta and Bessie Findlay of this city.

"Prof." W. H. Nelson, as he was generally known among his customers, is dead, aged 69. He was one of the best known barbers in the city and had been active since 1860.

Neil McLean, chief clerk for 22 years in the office of the master in ordinary and an official referee, was found dead in bed at William-street yesterday morning. Mr. McLean has been an officer at court for about thirty years, and was a most efficient, painstaking and courteous official, giving great satisfaction to those who practised before him, and he is universally regretted by the profession. His place will be difficult to fill. Mr. McLean was taken ill in August and obtained leave of absence until December. Of late he was much better and was expected to be back at his duties this week. His sudden death comes therefore as a great shock to his brother officers and the profession. He was unmarried and is survived by a brother, A. F. McLean, registrar of the high court, and six sisters.

At Galt—Miss Caroline C. Miller, daughter of the late Judge Miller of Waterloo County, on Saturday. Miss Miller was overcome with the fumes of gas from a newly lighted furnace and death ensued Monday. The surviving members of the family are Mr. Henry Miller, Mrs. Z. A. Lash and Mrs. J. B. Lash, all of Toronto.

At London, Ont.—Anthony Keenleyside, a resident of the city for 54 years. He was also a partner of the late D. S. Perrin, biscuit manufacturer. For 65 years he was a member and local preacher of the Methodist Church. He served the city as alderman. He is survived by eight children

SLIT EARS OF TRAITORS LEAGUE URGES BOYCOTT

Serious Riots in China Result From Attempt to Ban Japanese Goods.

HONGKONG, Nov. 3.—The rioting which resulted here yesterday from the attempt of those involved to force the local merchants to continue the boycott against Japanese goods has been suppressed by the soldiers who were called out to patrol the business districts. One Chinese who offered armed resistance, was shot.

The riots were organized primarily by the students of this city and the disturbance is evidently widespread.

At Singapore similar riots have occurred and a number of merchants said to have shown a desire to discontinue the boycott and otherwise favor Japan have been branded as traitors and in several instances marked by having their ears slitted. It is alleged that a league has been formed secretly and has pledged itself to give any man who slits the ears of a so-called "traitor" $15 and should he be thrown in jail, to see that he is held up to the public as a martyr and to pay him a dollar a day while in prison. Should one of the traitor merchants be killed it is alleged the league agrees to pay his slayer $200.

At Canton there have been hints of the same trouble and a number of ruffians have been hired to attack merchants. Vigorous measures to suppress the rioting have been taken.

RECOUNT IN NORTH PERTH.

Will Take Place on Friday—A Ballot Rejected.

STRATFORD, Nov. 3.—(Special).—An order was issued by Judge Barron to-day for a recount of the ballots cast in North Perth in the recent Dominion elections. Application was made on behalf of the Conservative party by E. Sydney Smith, K.C. Affidavit is filed by J. A. Collins to the effect that the ballot marked for A. F. MacLaren in Avon Ward was rejected by Deputy-returning Officer Waugh. A recount will take place on Friday.

YARDMAN OR COMPANY?

Magistrate's Jurisdiction in Brantford Case is in Doubt.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 3.—(Special).—Joseph Maguire, a Grand Trunk yardman, was arraigned here this afternoon before Magistrate Livingstone on a charge of manslaughter, arising from alleged criminal negligence of duty, causing the Mount Vernon wreck. He pleaded not guilty. His counsel, W. S. Brewster, contended that the company should be indicted and not Maguire. Owing to doubt as to the magistrate's jurisdiction to try the case proceedings were adjourned.

DUNLOP TROPHY FOR HIM.

Vennels Will Make Sure of Prize by Beating His Own Record.

Not being altogether satisfied with his own previous record, and having in mind Willie Anderson's ambition, J. W. Vennels will try to-day to ride from Hamilton to Toronto on a bicycle in two hours and a half. Vennels is at present the holder of the trophy awarded by the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods Co., given for the best time unpaced, on a bicycle between the two cities. On Oct. 16 last he did the distance in 2.41 3-4, but admitted that he could do better. His opinions on this subject were reflected by several other wheenmen of renown, particularly Anderson, who believes he can bring the time down to 2.30, or possibly 2.17. Vennels is going to forestall his rival by taking 11 minutes off his own record before the snow comes to make bicycle road racing against time an impossibility.

If the weather is anyways favorable Vennels will leave Hamilton at 2.15 p.m., and expects to report at the office of The Toronto Star at 4.45. His plans were all laid last evening and nothing will turn him from the attempt but bad weather or some accident that was entirely unforseen when he took out his sanction yesterday.

Lawrence Marshall will also face the distance to-day. He will leave Hamilton at 2 o'clock and expects his doughty bicycle to carry him thru in better time than 2.41. So Vennels has to beat his own time to hold the Dunlop trophy against the possibilities of the day.

Vennels will take the south road from Hamilton, which will bring him in along the lake shore. Marshall has not stated what route he will follow, but probably has studied conditions carefully.

There is no athletic trophy put up recently that has interested eligible candidates so much as the Dunlop trophy. Altho the bicycle season is drawing near its close, there is a bunch of good riders interested in the event and any real nice autumn day for a hot spin will see a record made between Hamilton and Toronto that will compare creditably with the records made for the same distance in the smoother roads of England or France.

Cafe Coach to Sudbury.

Sportsmen and other passengers by the Canadian Pacific's 9.40 a.m. express for Parry Sound and Sudbury are reminded that it is not necessary to carry refreshments for the journey, as a well-equipped cafe coach is attached to the train and runs thru to Sudbury, serving first-class meals a la carte. 23

Writs Issued.

The Home Bank of Canada against William D. Wilson, R. I. Henderson, William Bruse, W. Vandusen, A. Ogden, A. D. Watson and Standard Bearings, Limited, for a promissory note for $1526.68, made by the defendants and endorsed by Standard Bearings Co., Limited.

Wm. N. Warburton against the Windsor, Essex and Lake Shore Rapid Railway Co., Limited, to recover $322.87, claimed to be due for salary, etc.

His Brothers Keeper.

Meyer Kosky sued his brother, Kolman Kosky, in the division court yesterday, before Judge Morson, for $35.75, which he claimed was owing to him on board, lodging and a few other sundries. His honor had a lot of difficulty in getting information, but finally decided that the amount owed was $23.79, but he knocked off 15 per cent. of this because the disputants were brothers. The lawyers for the two men kept on arguing the question, and the judge deducted another 10 cents. Then all parties subsided. The bill had been cut to $20.10.

Foreman Exonerated.

GALT, Nov. 3.—(Special).—The council to-night exonerated Town Foreman Adam Davidson of a charge that he had undertaken work to inure to his profit outside of his engagements as a civic employe.

ADMITS IRREGULARITIES.

Dennis Tansey, M.L.A., for St. Ann's Surrenders the Seat.

MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—Dennis Tansey, M.L.A. for St. Ann's Division, against whose election a protest has been entered, appeared before Judge Dunlop to-day and made confession of irregularities sufficient to void the election.

The matter now goes to the court of review for judgment.

CHARGE DYNAMITE IS STORED WHERE LIVES ARE ENDANGERED

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—(Special).—The Township of Gloucesterhas a summons against the Hamilton Powder Co. for storing dynamite to the danger of the township, but the chief of police cannot find any responsible person on whom to serve it, and does not seem to know what to do.

Meantime the store is on the confines of Ottawa, and some of the residents may assist in locating the parties.

There is considerable uneasiness about the matter within the region of the Protestant Hospital.

Bell's New Airship.

SYDNEY, N.S., Nov. 3.—Dr. Alexander Graham Bell has completed a new aerodrome and a flight will be made with the machine about the middle of this month. The aerodrome is constructed on the tetrahedral principle and is twice the size of the Cygnet, which successfully flew in December of last year, having as navigator the late Lieut. Selfridge.

The Contract Was Binding.

Because he had purchased a set of "Universal Classics" himself on the instalment plan, Judge Morson become interested in division court yesterday when Virtue & Co. haled S. R. Earle before him on a charge of having agreed to purchase a set for $65, and then forgetting to pay for them. "Probably I may be able to get out of paying for the ones I bought," remarked the judge, when Early objected that the books were not leather bound; "let's see what the contract says about it." But, as there was nothing in that document about leather binding he gave judgment for the company for $30 and costs.

FEUD, ELECTION, PLUS WHISKEY RESULTS IN MURDER.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 3.—As a result of a feudal war at Campon Junction, about 20 miles west of Jackson, Oslow Allen, aged 20 years, was shot and killed last night and Alvin Garver, aged 22, was badly injured. Clarence Sherman, who did the shooting, was shot in the head, but managed to escape to the mountains. Eight barrels of whiskey, shipped into town for the election, brought about the shooting, altho family trouble of long standing played a prominent part.

SCHOOL MATTERS LIVE TOPIC IN N. TORONTO

Police Have Smart Chase, But Thief Escapes—West Toronto School Board Have Trouble.

WEST TORONTO, Nov. 3.—With a fractured leg and the ankle bones badly crushed, Earle Bradley a C.P.R. brakeman, residing at 258 Pacific-avenue, was brought into the Western Hospital this morning by a special train to the Bathurst-street crossing. The accident occurred near Markdale. Bradley was standing between the engine and tender when he had his leg jammed by the steel apron. The doctors hope to save his foot provided that blood-poisoning does not supervene.

The past masters of Stanley Lodge, A. F. and A.M. held a reunion t-night in the lodge room, Bank of Hamilton block. There was a large attendance. The officers for the evening were: Wor. Bro. A. H. Royce, W.M.; John Paterson, I.P.M.; James A. Ellis, S.W.; W. L. Joy, J.W.; J. W. Wansborough, chaplain; G. W. Clendenan, treasurer; Charles Batt, secretary; W. J. Not Settled Yet.

The dispute between the public school board and the contractors over the heating apparatus in the new school on Elizabeth-street has not yet been settled. Messrs. Bloxham and Saxton now refuse to accept the $400 additional which the board agreed to pay them provided a more costly system was put in. A special meeting will be held this week to try and bring the dispute to a definite conclusion.

On Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock the council will hold a special meeting to ascertain the position of the city's finances.

Mayor Gets Assurance.

Mayor Oliver of Toronto has assured Mayor Baird that the question of annexation would be dealt with by the board of control this week, so that it may be sent on to council next Tuesday.

WESTON.

WESTON, Nov. 3.—There has been a growing feeling among the village merchants of late that they should be afforded more time for sociability, etc., during the winter months, and matters were brought to a climax to night with a special meeting. The hour agreed upon for closing is 6.30 p.m.

J. K. McEwen will sell all his farm stock, implements, etc., by public auction to-morrow (Wednesday).

GOODWOOD.

District Must Be Well Adapted for Murphies.

GOODWOOD, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—In spite of the dry hot season, the potato crop in this district bids fair to be an enormous one. At the present time about 6000 bags a week are being marketed, the bulk of which are being shipped to Toronto by John S. Todd.

MARKHAM VILLAGE.

MARKHAM VILLAGE, Nov. 3.—Henry Kirby and family of Hespeler have moved into town.

A public meeting of the Markham Branch of the E. Y. W. I. will be held in the Orange Hall, Church-street, on Wednesday afternoon, November 11, at 2.30. In addition to the usual program, Mrs. Lilian Grey Price of Toronto will give two lectures.

NORTH TORONTO.

Council Wrestle With Much Vexed Question of Annexation.

NORTH TORONTO, Nov. 3.—At the town council meeting to-night Mr. Le Cras, chairman of the school board, appeared with a request for $18,000 for building purposes. It is the intention to erect a two-roomed annex to the Davisville School, which will cost $4630, and as the front wall of thte Eglinton School is unsafe, it will require the tearing down of two rooms and the erection in their stead of four rooms, at a cost of $10,265.

Councillor Parke favored the erection for the present, instead of a new school at Bedford Park, and one on Soudan-avenue.

Mayor Fisher contended that the school board's plan is the most feasible.

Two petitions were received for local improvements, one a water main on Bowood-avenue, and the other the extension of a concrete sidewalk on Broadway-avenue.

In reply to Councillor Quinn, the solicitor stated that in the case of Mr. Pitts, who was assessed for 12 feet more sidewalk than constructed, the contractor should make good the shortage.

The clerk stated that he had received no communication from the board of control re annexation. The solicitor has an appointment with the municipal board re Metropolitan Railway matters, on Thursday.

The council is making arrangements to have the town's census taken on Nov. 22, the same time as the city.

Mrs. Palmer's claim for damage was referred to the finance committee.

Referred to Clerk.

W. G. Ellis, president of the Ratepayers' Association, presented a petition to the council, signed by 178 ratepayers, asking the council to submit a bylaw to the electors re annexation to the city. Councillor Parke wanted the council to refuse the petition, which was referred to the clerk and solicitor for scrutiny.

The school trustees will take the advantage of the school law and make formal application to the town clerk to have a bylaw submitted to the electors for $18,000.

The Ratepayers' Association of the town will hold their regular monthly meeting in the town hall next Saturday evening.

Police Get Horse and Rig, But Thief Escapes.

WYCHWOOD, Nov. 3.—Two or three of the city police had an exciting chase after a burglar along Christie-street and St. Clair-avenue to Bathurst-street last night, where he escaped. The thief had the advantage of his pursuers in that he was in a buggy. When closely presesed heab andoned the horse. In the buggy the police found a number of gold watches, jewelry, fur-lined overcoats, etc.

EAST TORONTO.

Municipal Board Will Look Over District to East To-Morrow.

EAST TORONTO, Nov. 3.—At the regular meetin gof the East Toronto public school board held last night, in Kimberley-street school, a committee consisting of Secretary Givens and Messrs. Poole, Sinclair and James Ormerod were appointed to confer with the board of education of Toronto. It is proposed at this conference to arrange for the taking over of the local teachers and the fixing of the salaries. The whole matter is of course contingent on the carrying out of the annexation plans.

Incidentally the visit of the Ontario and Municipal Railway Board to the Toronto Golf Grounds to-morrow is fraught with peculiar interest to the people of East Toronto and the Norway district. In the town generally there is a manifest desire to go into the city as soon as possible, in compliance with order passed by the board, but if the golf grounds are excluded or any special concessions granted friction will follow. This was manifest at a meeting on Saturday night of Norway property owners when a strongly worded resolution was passed protesting against leaving out any intervening district.

Mayor McMillan and all the members of the East Toronto council are in hearty accord with the annexation movement, and it is hoped that no unforseen difficulties will arise to retard or block the plan, now that it has passed all the preliminary stages.

Alpheus Hoover, manager of the Canadian Independent Telephone Company, is making final arrangements for the installation of the system in the immediate future. On November 11, the order granting an extension of the time limit expires.

Among the hunters who have this season gone from the town into the northern wilds are: Dr. Walters, Mr. Walters, sen., Mr. Hillary, George Empringham, sen., Alex. Menzies, Chief Tidsberry, W. Edmunds, Dan Lloyd, Harry Blaylock, Dave Drummond, and Arthur Johnston.

REID AVENUE.

Nucleus of Big Orange Lodge in Norway District.

REID AVENUE, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—As showing the goahead and progressiveness of the people in the district, an Orange Lodge was last night organized with a charter membership of sixty-five.

"Glendermott" was the name chosen and Reid-avenue Presbyterian Church basement will be utilized for the holding of the lodge meetings.

These officers are nominated: Master, James McGuiness; Deputy-Master, J. Brown; Secretary, J. Daniels; and Treasurer, Elliott Gillespie.

MILLIKEN'S CORNERS.

MILLIKEN'S CORNERS, Nov. 3.—Everything points to a big attendance of plowmen and visitors at the annual match of the East York Association, on the farm of Alex. Donaldson, to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon.

Arch. E. Reesor, son of F. K. Reesor, has been commissioned to superintendend the erection of a 200 barrel mill at Deloraine.

A new lodge of Oddfellows has been organized at Mt. Albert, and Markham and Stouffville lodges will go up on Nov. 13 to assist in the opening ceremonies.

Mrs. Wm. Whitcock has purchased the Mustard residence on Church-street.

M. C. Selby has disposed of his interest here to R. W. Hamilton of Toronto.

VELLORE.

VELLORE, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—King and Vaughan Plowmen's Association annual match takes place on the farm of John McNaughton, lot 18, near con. 5, Vaughan, on Thursday, Nov. 5.

Recital at St. George's Hall.

One of the first recitals of the season was given by the pupils of Mrs. K. Chattoe-Morton in St. George's Hall last night. A chorus of 35 voices under the direction of Mrs. Chattoe-Morton, showed careful training and sang with good expression and attention to detail. The opening number was "Annie Laurie," arranged as a four-part chorus, and the old love song was rendered with exquisite feeling.

The soloists were: Miss Ethytle Bickle, Miss Hirst, Miss M. Broadbent, Miss D. Ross, Mr. Herbert Manly and Mr. Charles Swaffield. The male quartet, Messrs. Farmer, Woods, Ratcliffe and C. Ravlin, sang "Robin Adair" with very fine effect. At the close of the first part of the program Mrs. Chattoe-Morton sang by special request an exquisite little Scotch song "My Ain Folk," which displayed to advantage her rich contralto voice. Mr. Leslie Holland contributed readings and Mr. Horwood Jones acted as accompanist. The closing item was the "Coronation of the Rose," and this ambitious number, which made such a hit last year, repeated its success last night. Mr. Manly as the recluse and Miss Bickle as the rose, are deserving of special mention.

Col. Sam Hughes' majority in Victoria is 1038.

POLICY KILLING MARKET MERCHANTS UP IN ARMS

A Few More "Exhibitions" and Merchants Will Be Compelled to Locate Elsewhere.

Business men in the vicinity of St. Lawrence Market are up in arms against the policy of the city authorities which, they claim, will in the end utterly ruin the market as a place for farmers to come and dispose of their produce.

Several old firms have either left or are preparing to leave the locality, and they claim that removal is due to the unwise policy of the city. R. Tuttle, druggist and optician, is selling out; the Dawson Commission Co. and Brown Bros., butchers, propose removing elsewhere as their business has been hurt; and it is said that others will have to leave unless the restrictions to trade complained of are removed.

G. W. Crosby, clothing merchant, told The World that if the city persists in closing the upper market to the farmers for horse shows and the like the merchants who depend on their trade with the agricultural class will have to close their doors.

"The market was built for a farmers' market," declared Mr. Crosby, "and because it was made a free market the farmers were induced to abolish their toll gate restrictions. Yet last winter the upper market was closed for nine weeks out of three months for horse shows and automobile shows."

Against the policy of renting the market building for such purposes, business men applied for an injunction, but this was dismissed by Mr. Justice Clute, who ruled that when the market was closed the farmers had room in the street to dispose of their produce.

According to Mr. Crosby, and he was corroborated by C. P. Godden, hardware merchant, the only protected street is Front-street, between the two market buildings. The car tracks run thru this street, and it is absolutely impassable for any considerable number of farmers. Saturday before last there were 180 wagons in the upper market and when the building is closed to them the farmers will not come.

The frequency of the horse, auto and sportsmen's shows last winter was responsible for a great many farmers staying away, it is claimed. The market is not only closed during the week of the show, but for several days before and after when those in charge are preparing the building and removing the show fixtures. This week the building is being got ready for a horticultural exhibition next week. Saturday will be Thanksgiving market, but the farmers will be unable to get in and will be compelled to expose their produce on the streets or peddle them from door to door.

It was pointed out by Mr. Godden that the policy pursued by the city will drive the farmers to the markets of West Toronto and East Toronto. In the eastern suburb a market building is being erected and the towns on the north and west will undoubtedly follow.

Another important feature in this connection is the inconvenience buyers are put to in reaching the lower market. When the upper building is closed they are compelled to trail thru the rain and slush in Market-street.

R. W. Harris, property commissioner, claims that the market is to be made a paying proposition and this accounts for the renting of the building for show purposes. But the merchants interested say this should not be the supreme consideration. The market was built for the farmers.

And the recent order of Commissioner Harris forbidding farmers to sell produce in small qualities, they say, is another instance of short-sightedness and will further militate against the success of the market.

NEED OF PURE MILK.

Prof. Amyet and Dr. Hastings at Progressive Club.

"If children got one-quarter of a spoonful of unpasteurized milk per day, they would get enough to poison them!"

Such was the declaration of Dr. Charles J. O. Hastings, chairman of the Canadian Medical Association's Milk Commission before the Progressive Club last evening, in support of the statement that polluted milk was principally responsible for the fact that 1625 children under 5 years of age had died in Toronto last year.

The remark quoted above was delivered in reply to an interruption from one of the auditors, to the effect that those children may not have had the opportunity of drinking much milk. In further support of the assertion that a very meagre proportion of the milk produced nowadays was absolutely free from some poisonous germ, Dr. Hastings said that since civic inspection of milk had been taken up, the mortality lists had been reduced from 33 to 50 per cent. in districts supplied by pasteurized milk.

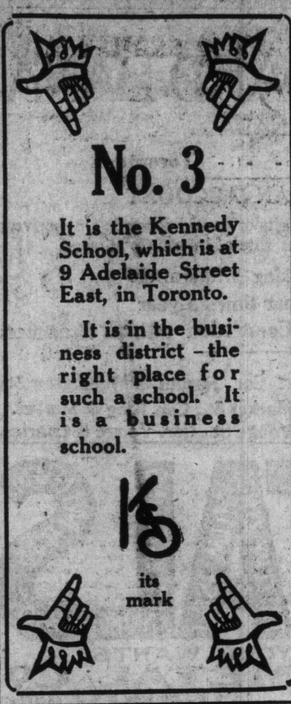

J. A. Amyot, M.B., bacteriologist of the provincial board of health, had previously delivered a lecture on "The Clean Milk Problem." He said that until such time as "certified milk" could be assured to the consumer at a reasonable price and a reasonable profit to the farmer, the only safe method was to have the milk inspected, pasteurized and refrigerated. He described "certified milk" as milk produced under ideal conditions—healthy cows, specially adopted sanitary stables, healthy, clean milkers, shipped in refrigerator cars and certified to by a commission.

But no farmer could afford to take all these precautions without being compensated.

Horticultural Society Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Toronto Horticultural Society last night the following officers were elected: President, H. R. Frankland, vice-president, J. S. G. Cornnell and Dr. Baldwin; directors, C. B. Hamilton, Wm. Jay, G. H. Mills, R. W. King, D. W. Green, G. D. Rooke, Mrs. Kingdon, Mrs. Abbott and Miss McKim; representative to Canadian National Exhibition, H. R. Frankland; representatives to Toronto Guild of Civic Art, John Chambers and Thos. Nanton; representative to Ontario Horticultural Association, Miss Blacklock; representatives to Ontario Horticultural Exhibition, R. J. Score, H. Simmers, Thos. Nanton and Wm. Jay; auditors, A. C. McConnell and E. R. Greig.

1200 MEN AT BANQUET ENTHUSED OVER MISSIONS

Unique Gathering Under the Auspices of the Adult Bible Class Association.

The "thousand men banquet" of the Adult Bible Study and Laymen's Movement for Missions at the Excelsior Rink, College-street, last night proved an imposing and impressive gathering. The rink was gay with floral decorations. An army of ladies in white, with long silk badges of gold and scarlet, waited at the scores of tables. There were nearly 1300 men seated.

As grace was sung a volume of praise filled the edifice. The attendance included the leading pastors and laymen of the Toronto churches and the bench was represented by so eminent a lay church leader as Justice MacLaren. An orchestra enlivened the time during the banquet.

Mayor Oliver considered it a great compliment to be invited to preside. His worship also briefly reviewed the story of the Bible in British history.

Rev. Robert Johnson of Montreal spoke on Christian manhood called to service. The hand of God was seen, he said, in such great movements as the laymen's campaign. It might be termed the resurrection of the church.

Salvation now means primarily Christian service. We say with Cecil Rhodes, "So much to do and so little done." A religion of negatives was no longer possible. At this day the young men refused to be tied up to a religion of don'ts. This must be overcome by the inspiration of a great cause.

"We hear it said that the twentieth century is to be Canada's century. That is true, but the call to the Christian manhood is to make it Christ's century," he declared.

President Frank Yeigh of the Toronto Adult Bible Class Department spoke on the "A. B. C." movement. The adult Bible class department was one of the remarkable men movements of the times. It stood as a training class for Christian service and citizenship. In the old class the teacher was the autocrat, in the new adult class every member was a factor. The old classes marked time, the new ones marked progress.

J. Campbell White had simply been amazed at the enthusiasm, in spite of the Dominion elections, with which the laymen's missionary conferences had been received from Sydney to Vancouver.

In his ten years' experience in India he could wish that the Union Jack could sweep over all parts of the non-Christian world.

Canada had achieved the honor of being the first to set the pace for all the Christian nations of the world by adopting a national missionary policy.

TO START LIBEL SUIT.

Albertan Enumerator Denies Charges of Ballot Stuffing in Ontario.

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—M. A. Harpwell of Wainwright, who acted as enumerator in the recent Dominion elections in that subdivision, will enter action for libel and slander against E. W. Day, Conservative candidate for the Strathcona constituency, J. R. Lavell, Strathcona, and the Strathcona Chronicle and Camrose Mail. Harpell was charged during the election campaign with being implicated in ballot box stuffing crimes in Ontario. He denies the charges.

RECOUNT IN NIPISSING.

Will Be Held on Friday Before Judge Valin.

NORTH BAY, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—There will be a recount before Judge Valin of the Nipissing election ballots on Friday. Of 22,000 possible voters, 8300 voted and there are 46 rejected ballots.

Many of the polls, being remote from railways, made returns slow in coming in. Two polls were cancelled for some reason and not more than half the total number have sent the statutory report of the poll to the candidates.

"Ye Olde Ale Conner"

In "Ye Olde Days" the ale "Conner," or ale taster, was an important officer in England.

He was sworn to examine all ale in his particular district, to see that it was good and wholesome and free from adulteration. And we are told that the office was eagerly sought after—that it never went begging.

If there was such an officer as an ale "Conner" to-day, he would find his position very much of a sinecure if all brewers brewed their ale as the Holliday family of Guelph brew "East Kent" ale.

In "East Kent" ale you will find that the art of brewing has reached as near perfection as is possible. And not only is "East Kent" brewed right, but the ingredients used are of the very finest. The choicest of hops and malt, the purest spring water, together with many years of experience, result in the production of an ale that is rich and creamy—that has the "hoppy" taste—that is absolutely pure and free from all adulterations.

A glass of "East Kent" ale is a glass of "foaming deliciousness." It is a stranger to the larder of but few householders in Toronto, and where it has once been used no other ale will replace it.

You will endorse everything said in favor of "East Kent" if you once try it. It is bottled by T. H. George, wholesale and retail wine and spirit merchant, 709 Yonge Street.

BAPTISTS AND MORAL REFORM

Prof. Keirstead Appointed to Act on Ministerial Committee.

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—The Baptist convention of Ontario and Quebec committee on temperance and moral reform reported that it had appointed Rev. Prof. Keirstead of McMaster to act as the representative of the Baptists with the Methodist and Presbyterian representatives. The committee recommended that the convention appoint ten delegates to act with those of the other churches in moral reform work during the coming year. It was stated that the Baptists were far behind the Methodists and Presbyterians in this movement.

The report expressed regret that some laymen had objected to the teaching of reform from the pulpits, and held that only the Gospel should be preached.

Rev. J. B. Kennedy of Toronto branded the "muddle politics" used by political parties in the recent campaign, but said they, as a church, ought to labor to turn out of office any party guilty of questionable transactions. Some said that the other party would be equally guilty if in power, but they would have punished one party at any rate. He declared it a shame that in Quebec there were more municipalities under local option than in Ontario. In the United States there were forty million people under prohibition. He believed that women should get the suffrage.

Rev. Dr. Mullins of Louisville, Ky., president of the Baptist Young People's Union of the United States and Canada, addressed the gathering.

Rev. Dr. G. O. Gates of Montreal described the work of the Grand Ligne Mission, which was established in 1835 by Madame Henrietta Keller, a Swiss lady, who came to Canada to work amongst the French.

Rev. C. H. Schutt of Toronto recommended a suitable catechism for Sunday schools.
