But Thomas Forsyth Went Down in Treacherous Hole in the Grand River For the Last Time--Sad Fatality.

It was announced this morning that no inquest would be held into the death of Thomas Forsyth. A sad case of drowning occurred yesterday afternoon about four o'clock when a bright young life was swept away in the person of Thomas Forsyth, who was drowned in the Grand river below the T. H. & B. bridge.

ENGLISH SUFFRAGETTE GIVING HER LIFE FOR THE "CAUSE."

MISS EMILY DAVISON, PHOTOGRAPHED IMMEDIATELY AFTER SHE THREW THE KING'S HORSE

This remarkable photograph of the throwing of the King's horse in the Derby by Miss Emily Davison, the English militant suffragette, who since has died, was taken immediately after the woman had performed her amazing deed and just before she in falling had reached the ground.

REAR END COLLISION ON G. T. R. TO-DAY

Big Mogue Freight Splintered Caboose Near Elgin Street This Morning--Train Crew Had a Narrow Escape.

A rear-end collision occurred at the east end of the Grand Trunk railway yards a few yards west of the Elgin street subway, this morning, just as the whistles were blowing 7. Fortunately no one was injured, but a caboose was telescoped and three steel cars were piled up in the air.

PRICELESS GOLD PLATE IN TONS

All For Big State Banquet in London--Brought From Paris.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 21--Four tons of priceless gold and silver plate, china and glassware, the property of the French nation, arrived in London last night in readiness for the state banquet at which the French President is to entertain the King and Queen at the French embassy on Wednesday morning next, during his state visit to England.

Local Firm Gets Contract

Messrs. P. H. Secord and Sons have been awarded a contract by the Provincial Government to erect the new Dining Hall at the O.A.C. in Guelph. The contract price was $60,000.

Engine Chripped.

Engine No. 2741 which brought the G. T. R. train here from Tilsonburg this morning got stalled at the Market street station. Before leaving Tilsonburg the eccentric rod on the engine broke but the engineer was able to get as far as the Western station, when the engine stopped dead on the centre. The engineer consequently could not start the engine and had to wait there until the yard engine came from the Market street yard to the rescue, and hauled the train to the Market street station.

HUMAN BLOOD $25 QUART

NEW YORK, June 21--The market rate for human blood appears to have been set here at $25 a quart. In answer to a placard posted in the West Side Young Men's Christian Association ten hardy athletes have offered to part with a full quart of blood at that price for a blood transfusion operation. The successful applicant is a western college man, selected because tests showed his blood to be in almost perfect condition. His name is withheld.

COUNTY COUNCIL IS IN FAVOR OF BETTER ROADS

At the County Council, the coal contract went to the Wilson Coal Co. It was announced that there had not yet been sufficient time to examine the Collegiate Institute account, and the Warden will issue his order, if found correct. County Engineer Belyea was granted an additional $20 a year, which added to the amount voted at a former session makes an additional increase of $70 for this year. The 25th Bran Dragons were given their usual grant of $700. A motion was carried as follows: "That the clerk be instructed to write the Hon. Dr. Reaume asking for an appointment to meet this council with reference to the question of good roads in the county; and that this council desire to extend their sincere thanks to the Brantford Motor League for their kindness in bringing the matter so forcibly to the council's attention; and that the officers of the Motor League be invited to be present to meet the Hon. Dr. Reaume and the council.

Strike Still On

The meeting of the union moulders who recently went out on strike at the Burrill and Hartley foundries, which was to have been held, did not take place. Upon inquiry at Union Hall this morning, he Courier was informed that there was nothing out because the foundries were making Westinghouse goods, when the Hamilton moulders were out on strike. The situation remains the same. When asked as to the future movements, the strikers would say nothing.

The pay sheet for the last two weeks for the cemetery employees amounted to $112; for street watering department, $564; streets department, $2347.36; sewers department, $2127.95.

UNION CARPENTERS ARE NOW SATISFIED--A NEW AGREEMENT

Notwithstanding all sorts of unauthorized predictions that there would be a carpenters' strike in this city, an agreement was signed to-day by James Humble, representing the Builders' Exchange, and Albert Brown, the Amalgamated Carpenters, which averts any likelihood of a strike, and which was entirely satisfactory to both parties. Both builders and carpenters won a victory in peace, and the claims of each side during the negotiations were presented with much patience. General Organizer Tom Moore of Niagara Falls and John Doggett of Toronto were here and assisted in getting a settlement. The agreement signed calls for a nine-hour day, work from 7 to 5, and quit at 12 on Saturdays. Time and a quarter to be paid for overtime up to 9 p.m., and time and a half for work on holidays. No work shall be done on Labor Day. Journeymen carpenters are to receive 35 cent per hour. No one over 22 years of age shall be employed as an apprentice unless 25 cents an hour be paid for the first six months, 27 1/2 cent second six months, 30 cent second year, and 32 1/2 cent third year. Union carpenters will not be allowed to do small contracting jobs after their regular hours. The men are to be paid weekly, only two days' pay held back. The agreement goes into effect Monday morning.

GIRLS LEFT TO DROWN

BANFF, Alta., June 21--Eva Ballens and Lily Sutherland, each 25 years of age, employed at the Banff Springs Hotel, were drowned late yesterday afternoon, when a raft on which they were standing overturned over Spray Falls. The two girls and five male employees of the hotel were standing on the raft, which was tied to the embankment at the confluence of the Bow and Spray rivers. The fastenings broke and the raft rushed into the swirling waters of midstream. Four of the men, whose names cannot be learned, sprang overboard and swam for the shore, leaving the women to their fate. The fifth made frantic efforts to run the raft to safety, but failed. He was later rescued in an exhausted condition.

BAIN EMPLOYEES ARE OUT OF WORK

The City Cuts Off Water Supply to Factory For Arrears. [Canadian Press Despatch] WOODSTOCK, June 21--Several hundred employees of the Bain Wagon Company were idle to-day as the result of shutting off the water supply Thursday by the Water and Light Commission to compel payment of a bill of about $1,200 for past due water rates. The Company claims it is exempt from water rates under the old bonus to the Patterson Company. No rates have been collected from the Company in twenty-nine years.

Purchased Trotter.

Mr. E. Andrich has purchased from Mr. H. T. Westbrook the trotting horse Little Elk, which has a record of 1.05 for a half-mile.

"CONTRA-TOXIN" IS NEW CURE

New Remedy for Tuberculosis Said to Have Been Discovered.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 21--The Lancet, the leading medical publication in Britain, will publish to-morrow a letter from Dr. Johannes Frederick Mehnarto of Heidelberg, who is now residing in London, giving particulars of a new consumption cure discovered by him and called "contra-toxin." Dr. Mehnarto writes: "For the past four months certain patients suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis have been under treatment at the Margaret Street Hospital for Consumptives, and elsewhere in London, by a serum prepared in my laboratory on a principle which differs somewhat from that on which the manufacture of ordinary anti-toxic sera and vaccines is based. "The treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis is in other hands than mine, and until a preliminary report is ready for publication I can say no more at present than that the results of the treatment are most hopeful and encouraging."

War Breaks Out Again

[Canadian Press Despatch] VIENNA, June 21--An attack by the Bulgarian troops on the Servians and Greeks is expected on the River Vardar in Macedonia, according to reports in the Austrian newspapers. One co-operation of the Greek and Servian armies has been accomplished and the Servians are concentrating in the fortified positions on the right bank of the river. Three brigades of Montenegrin infantry are advancing through Macedonia to join the Servian troops at the front. Choose not alone a proper mate, but proper time to marry.--Copper.

ADVANCE AGENT ARRIVES IN CITY

Two Flights Every Day During Brantford Carnival Week.

Mr. G. R. Ainsworth, advance agent of the Ferrari Shows, Limited, now at London, arrived in the city to-day and will have charge of the publicity work for the Brantford Carnival week, July 5-12. "Our airship man is a wonder," said Mr. Ainsworth, "and you will find thousands of people coming into the city to witness his flights. He goes up twice every day and likes it. London people were amazed at what he could do this week. When the weather was good in the Forest City and Hydro lights were on the Ferrari people had tremendous crowds at their performances. The show carries 400 people, all of whom board throughout the city during their week's stay here. Next week a committee of business men will be organized to assist the ball club in making the week a big one.

Bowling Note

The Pastime Bowling Club have named Monday evening as the evening in each week, that they will be at home to their own members. Different captains will be chosen for each Monday, who will choose up sides for the competition. It is expected that these competitions will create considerable enthusiasm among their bowlers. Captains for Monday, June 23rd are W. H. Inglis and A. B. Burley.

AND STILL THEY FAST

LONDON, June 21--The prison authorities to-day released as a result of ill-health arising from a "hunger strike" Miss Laura Geraldine Lemox, formerly sub-editor of the Suffragette, who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment by the Central Criminal Court on June 17 for conspiring to commit malicious damage to property. She and her companions, all of whom were committed for long terms, refused to eat anything from the moment they were sent to jail.

STUDENTS SOAK THE PROFESSORS

Lively Scenes at Glasgow University Graduation Exercises.

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, June 21--A London cable says: Lively scenes marked the summer graduation ceremony at Glasgow University yesterday. Principal Sir Donald MacAlister, who presided, was accompanied by Lord Provost Stevenson, whose recent attitude toward Lord Roberts' campaign has been causing some feeling among the students. When the civic chief appeared he was greeted with cries of "put out the lord provost." Several professors left the platform and mixed among the undergraduates to restore order, but the students armed themselves with seltzer water syphons and easily succeeded in routing the professors. The capping ceremony was carried out practically in dumb show.

At a meeting of the Buildings and Grounds committee held last evening a gentleman was present from Toronto, with the request to secure a mausoleum to be erected in either Greenwood or Mt. Hope cemeteries. The board of directors includes many well known names such as that of Senator Colonel Mason, Toronto; Mr. Lash, Toronto, and so on. All that the company ask is a grant of land. The proposal is to erect a mausoleum containing 700 or 800 of what are known as "cribs." These can be purchased and after coffins are placed therein, the openings are hermetically sealed with the name plate outside. He estimated the cost of such a structure at from $30,000 to $60,000 according to size. The centre portion consists of a chapel where services can be held. The committee thought that a clause should be inserted pledging the company to keep the property in excellent repair, and on this request the directors will be consulted. If agreeable the whole matter is likely to come up at the next meeting of the City Council. The company which is strong financially already have such mausoleums in Niagara Falls, N.Y., London, St. Catharines and other places and one is about to be erected in Galt.

LETTER FROM MR. COCKSHUTT

To the Brantford Trades and Labor Council--His Attitude Explained

The following is the letter of Mr. Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., to Brantford Trades and Labor Council which was received by that body at its meeting on Wednesday night:

Brantford, June 9th, 1913. Mr. H. J. Symons, Secretary Trades and Labor Council, 107 Cayuga Street, City. Dear Sir--I am in receipt of your favor of the 7th of June in which I observe that you object to the words attributed to me in a recent speech in the House of Commons, and more particularly to the words, "almost in affluence," as applied to the well-being of the country and also to the cause of labor. I thought it to be my duty to deny the statement, as I believe that in a comparative sense the conditions of the working men in Canada will compare most favorably with those of any other part of the world, and may I remind you that what are looked upon as absolute necessities of life in Canada are luxuries among the laboring elements of all other countries except the United States. As to the list that you submit to me and which I have seen previously, I think you will agree that the prices in many instances are excessive. For instance, rent at eighteen dollars per month, while ten or twelve gets a fairly comfortable house in Brantford. In conclusion may I say that the remarks that I made on that occasion were in no way antagonistic to the working classes in any sense and it would be a great pleasure to me if the present rate of wages could be materially and steadily increased. If all the points that I have touched upon are not deemed sufficient I shall only be to glad to meet a deputation of your council at any time and frankly discuss all matters in this connection pertaining to your interests with a view to co-operating with you in improving the conditions and making the lot of the toiler less onerous than it is at present. Allow me to remain, Faithfully yours, W. F. COCKSHUTT.

FITTING YOUR FEET Scientifically

The different races of the world have different shaped feet—years ago the Saxon, the Greek and the North American Indian for instance could have told each others nationality by their foot prints.

This to an extent remains true to the present day, except that there are more types of feet than there were years ago—the different races have intermingled.

What type feet are yours? Any glove doesn't fit your hand—why should any shoe fit your foot?

You have a particular type of feet and we have a particular type of shoe to fit them. We find out what shoe will fit you by scientifically measuring your feet on a chart called the FOOTOGPAPH. Our shoes are made in sizes and shapes conforming with the lines of this chart. It's easy to see how we fit you.

It means shoes made-to-measure without the delay of sending for them and without loss of style.

CANADIAN SHIPPING

The Dominion Department of Marine and Fisheries has just issued its annual statement with reference to Canadian ships.

The total number of vessels remaining on the register books of the Dominion on the 31st of December, 1912, was 8,380, measuring 836,278 tons, being an increase of 292 vessels and 65,832 tons, as compared with 1911.

The number of steamers on the register books on the same date was 3,667, with a gross tonnage of 641,225. Assuming the average value to be $30 per ton, the value of the net registered tonnage of Canada on the 31st December, 1912, would be $25,088,340.

The number of new vessels built and registered in the Dominion of Canada during the year 1912 was 420, measuring 34,886 tons net register. Estimating the value of the new tonnage at $45 per ton, gives a total value of $1,569,870.

During the year 241 vessels were removed from the register books. It is estimated that 42,490 men and boys, etc., inclusive of the masters, were employed on ships registered in Canada, during the year 1912.

BETTER ROADS.

It is to be hoped that some results in the matter of better roads throughout Brant County, will be the outcome of the recent auto trip afforded the County Councillors.

And by the same token, residents of the city cannot throw any bricks at the County in this essential, for the great majority of our own streets are an absolute disgrace. Both have sinned and gone astray.

It is a lamentable fact that the two communities so up to date and progressive in other essentials should be so absolutely lacking in this.

It would be a grand thing if the two of them could enter upon a progressive program at one time.

Good roads not only mean added comfort and safety, but in addition they prove of great economical value in the matter of larger loads and much easier haulage.

Not a few people think that prison labor might be much used on this class of work. As it is such unfortunate are largely kept under loathing conditions and that they are able and willing to do efficient work has been abundantly demonstrated on the prison farm recently established near Guelph.

In North Carolina and in other States such a plan has been adopted with splendid success and it is claimed that there is to all intents and purposes no class of free labor affected.

However that may be, it is certainly up to Brantford and Brant County to establish much better thoroughfares.

A CONTRAST.

Recently in the Ontario House there was a charge preferred against Hon. Mr. Hanna of accepting $500 for a party fund from a firm interested in having a claim settled, and since then in the British House, Chancellor Lloyd George and Sir Rufus Isaacs have had to face the charge of buying Marconi stocks on a tip from a man who was indirectly interested in securing a British Government contract. Incidentally, it was shown that Liberal party funds there had been used in the same regard.

In the case of Mr. Hanna it was not alleged that he had taken the money for personal gain and Deputy Minister Cartwright testified that in the settlement spoken of, he had made it on his own responsibility and without pressure from Hanna or anyone else.

In the case of Lloyd George and Isaacs the desire for personal gain was most clearly in evidence, yet ex-Premier Balfour on behalf of the Conservatives waived any idea of wrong doing and agreed to accept explanations.

In the Ontario House Sir James Whitney frankly admitted that a mistake had been made. Did Grit Leader Rowell, after the manner of a man like Balfour, accept that? Not for an instant and he and certain party friends are daily parading the matter as a piece of boodling of the darkest kind. The Globe by cartoons, and editorials, is also proclaiming the same untruth, yet here with regard to the Asquith government episode is what it has to say in part during the course of an editorial.

"At the same time he (Asquith) admitted the indiscretion of the course taken by his colleagues, and appealed to the Unionists to aid in making the whole episode as little injurious as might be to the reputation of the House of Commons."

It was a private member and not the titular leader of the Opposition, who rose to the occasion, and in doing so Mr. Balfour proved himself once more a great Parliamentarian. He brushed aside with indignation the charges of personal corruption with which the Parliamentary atmosphere has been loaded during the past few weeks, and appealed to Mr. Asquith to consent to such a minor change in the language of the exculpatory resolution as would enable the House to adopt it unanimously. This was ultimately done, and so the matter will be found by students of history set out on the pages of the Journals of the House of Commons.

The episode is instructive in various ways. It shows how well entitled Mr. Asquith and Mr. Balfour are to the high reputations they have earned and to the personal influence they are able to wield."

All quite true but how does the Globe reconcile this kind of talk with its continued effort to place Mr. Hanna in the peculation class?

Asquith admitted that a mistake had been made and Balfour and his associates accepted that.

Whitney admitted that a mistake had been made and Rowell refused to accept that.

More cheers from the Globe. If these two attitudes upon the part of the organ are not grossly hypocritical what else are they?

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

St. Thomas City Hall was last night struck by lightning. The fluid evidently hadn't heard of the Brantford structure.

This is the longest day of the year. Gee whiz, but the gladsummer time always seems to be on a toboggan slide.

Dr. Mehnart, the doctor who has announced what would appear to be a cure for consumption, seems to be in the Amundsen class while Friedmann is of the Dr. Cook variety.

Now that the smoke has cleared away it is found that the Australian Liberals have a clear majority of one in the new house. They'd better send for Sir George Ross and get him to manipulate.

Elsewhere in this issue the letter is published of Mr. W. F. Cocksht, M.P., in connection with some recent remarks made by him in the House of Commons. It is a fair and straightforward document. The whole trend of Mr. Cocksht's contention was that the average of living is practically better here than in all other countries and anyone who has travelled will substantiate that. Moreover, Mr. Cocksht pledges himself to any co-operation in his power, with regard to still further improvement in wages.

Hydro Electric has been up against it two or three times lately, and so widespread has the system become that thousands of workers were affected in various communities. The lesson is one that accidents will happen with regard to all distributing plants of the "white coal" and that subsidiary power should be available for emergencies. Meanwhile the proved defects are to be immediately remedied and that is one consolation for Brantford in not getting into the game at an earlier date.

Brave Attempt

Later—The body was recovered this morning shortly after 11 o'clock. Add Drowning

The body was found within 10 feet of where he sank and was dragged out of a hole by Chief Lewis, Fireman Bolton and Moyles. Messrs. Fred Unger, Alex Richardson and W. Caddy were working along with the firemen when the body was found.

Military Notes

The Dufferin Rifles Rifle Association are shooting at the Mohawk ranges this afternoon. Pte. Stanley won the Gibson silver spoon last Saturday. Who will win it today? Sergt. Major Oxtoby reports that there is great enthusiasm among the B. C. I. Cadets over the camp at Niagara on the Lake, July 7-12.

The Dufferin Rifles band will play at the football game between the Dufferins and Tutela, at Agricultural Park to-night.

A Warning—To feel tired before exertion is not laziness—it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sufferers should not delay. Get rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day.

GRAND VALLEY PLANS AT PARIS

The Grand Valley Railway intends to apply to the Commission for permission to build a spur line in the town limits at Paris. The Review inspected the plan filed in the Registry office which shows a switch from the main line a short distance north of the river bridge, crossing at the headgates and running straight down Elm street to the Penman mills.

This move on the part of the Receiver of the Grand Valley is a distinct surprise as the road at present is not in a position to handle or deliver car loads of freight, and until it can do so the spur would be of little avail. The supposition is that the Grand Trunk is behind the application which is made to get in ahead of the Lake Erie and Northern's proposal for a siding or branch line with freight terminals on the Agricultural grounds. The plan however, does not show any point of connection of the Grand Valley with the Trunk.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

Coal and Ice Merger. Hamilton Herald: Naturally many of our citizens will learn with some misgiving of the projected organization of a merger by the local coal and ice dealers. If the negotiations prove to be successful, these two important public services, the supplying of coal and ice, will be operated by a combine—and the word "combine" associated with the supplying of fuel in the winter and ice in summer, suggests anything but pleasant anticipations.

Militant Suffragette Bosh. Ottawa Journal: The weak mentality of some of the suffragette amazons was illustrated at the trial in London where six of them were sentenced. "You ought to be ashamed of yourself," said one of them to the judge, "to receive £6,000 for hounding women." The judge was merely doing an unavoidable duty. He was carrying out the law as sworn to carry it out, before militant suffragettes were ever heard of.

Army and Navy Needed. Prof. William Howard Taft, of Yale: The Americans are a shrewd, wise people, usually gifted with foresight, but they have not shown it in their attitude toward the army and navy policy. Congress continues to be reluctant to maintain an adequate army. It's easy to get money for a militia, for a militia has votes and friends, but a regular army is far different. There is a saying that the Lord looks after children and drunken men. This certainly ought to be extended to the United States. Of course our separation from foreign countries by oceans is cause for not assuming too heavy a burden, but we are very, very much nearer Europe and Asia, many, many times nearer, than we were in Washington's time. Occasionally we get a jar, and notice our position, but luck has been with us in the past and we cannot assume that it will always continue thus.

KELVIN

(From our own Correspondent.) The weather is fine at present and the crops are looking fairly well in this vicinity. Mrs. Messecar and son were calling on friends the other evening. The executor to the estate of the late William B. Wilcox has sold the old homestead for the sum of $6,000. Mrs. W. B. Wilcox being the purchaser.

Mr. John Clark, who has been spending a week with his brother here, has returned to his home in Columbia city, Indiana. Mrs. Lewis is still very poorly; we hope for her speedy recovery. Mrs. P. Bowman and son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs. E. Messecar attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Mitchell of Hamilton on Tuesday.

Several from this city attended the funeral on Thursday of the late Mrs. James A. Smith of Scotland. Mr. John McCombs met with a serious accident on Sunday by being kicked in the stomach with a horse. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wilcox and daughter spent Sunday at Cedar Lawn.

INTERESTING CASES AT OSGOODE HALL

Two Actions in Which Brantford Parties Are Interested.

This decision was rendered yesterday at Osgoode Hall by Mr. Justice Middleton.

Thomson v. Stikman.—J. W. Bain K.C. and M. L. Gordon, for plaintiff, W. N. Tilley and G. L. Smith for defendant. An action for declaration that a certain mortgage is invalid and illegal, and directing defendant to discharge sale for taking accounts, marshalling securities, etc.

Judgment: The statement signed by Joseph, E. H. Stratford shows the assent of both parties to the money being so applied as to leave the balance due on the mortgage. I can see no reason why the same rule should not apply as in cases of merger and that an intention beneficial to the holder of the securities should not be implied, when there is nothing in the facts showing any express intention, e.g., if the case did not go beyond a mere entry in the bank books.

On all grounds I think the action fails and should be dismissed with costs, save in so far as redemption is sought. The amount due the bank for the mortgage is $55,000. The British Bank (Stikman) had some claims which it was sought to question, but these as above, have been confirmed.

Another Case. Re Job Barnwell.—W. E. Knowles (Brantford), for petitioners, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine to make good blood. Begin taking it now. It is just what the system needs at this time and will do you great good. Sharpens the appetite, steadies the nerves.

Abundant Health is assured when there is good blood in the veins. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine to make good blood. Begin taking it now. It is just what the system needs at this time and will do you great good. Sharpens the appetite, steadies the nerves.

CITY NEWS ITEMS

THE PROBS

THE PROB. TORONTO, June 21.—The area of pressure has drawn more to the southward of the Great Lakes, and the barometer has risen in Ontario and fallen in the Maritime Provinces. The rainfall of Friday was confined to the more southern and western parts of Ontario, and was fairly general in Alberta and Western Saskatchewan. The weather is rather cool in all the provinces.

FORECASTS

Temperature.

Temperature for the past twenty-four hours: highest 76, lowest, 57; same date last year, highest 74, lowest 52. Rainfall .47.

Passed Accounts.

The Finance Committee met last night and passed a few accounts and talked over the civic financial situation.

Dragoon Band.

The band of the 25th. Dragoons will accompany the S. O. E. to Grace Church to-morrow night and have also been engaged to play at a garden party in Harley in the near future.

Large Excursion.

A large excursion under the auspices of the employees of the McCormick Biscuit Company of London, passed through the city this morning en route to Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Case Appealed.

In the case of Mickle-Dymont & Son vs. J. R. Inksater and W. T. Thompson, both of Paris, A. L. Baird, K.C., on behalf of the plaintiffs, has appealed against the dismissal of the action against J. R. Inksater.

Lacrosse Line-up.

Parcel Remains.

A meeting of the inspectors of the Paris Co-operative Association, which assigned for the benefit of its creditors' benefit a meeting Monday in the Sheriff's office in the Court House. Accounts were passed and the Sheriff as assignee, will make a distribution of the assets in a few days.

Repair Bridge.

Although a meeting has not been called, it is likely a committee from the Township Council will meet this afternoon in the office of Township Clerk Smith in the Court House to let a contract for the repairing of the Barton bridge, situated east of the Hamilton road.

Rubbed Noses.

Yesterday morning there came within an ace of being a "pitch in" on the G. T. R. near Chatham St. The switching engine with a couple of cars and a passenger train came very close to colliding, but fortunately the engines were reversed in the nick of time so as to just "rub noses" so to speak.

Papers Were Fair.

County Inspector Standing stated this morning that reports in the various centres where the entrance examinations were held throughout the county are coming in. The general opinion seems to be that most of the papers were fair, but some complaint has been made of those in arithmetic and written reading.

The Market.

There was a large market this morning, nearly every available space being occupied. Some of the prices asked were: Round steak 18c per pound—porter house steak 20c per lb.; mutton, 12.5c; lb; smoked ham 20c; lb; bacon 20c; white fish 15c; salmon 15c; butter 27-28c; lb; eggs 25c; doz; chickens, 80-90c; potatoes $1.50 bag; strawberries 15c; box. Small vegetables sold at 5c per bunch and there was an abundance of same.

Eagle Place Stars.

At a meeting of the Eagle Place Stars at Reed & Trumper's, the following officers were elected: Frank Reed, president; Buck Johnson, manager; P. Fisher, sec.-treas. The Stars are open to play any team in the city at any time or place. Arrangements for games with P. Fisher, 38 Strathcona Avenue, secy-treas. city. The committee appointed were L. Brown, F. Anderson, C. Potter, F. Billo, I. Moyer.

Nearly a Spill.

Dr. Wiley's auto and the Market St. trolley car had a short argument last night about ten o'clock. The doctor, who was riding in his car, going east, on Dalhousie St. did not notice the car proceeding along the tracks for the station and the motorist did not see him coming. As the auto crossed in front of the car the fender carried the auto and the doctor across the street. Fortunately no one was hurt and no damage done either to the auto or the car.

Mrs. H. J. Symons left for Port Arthur to visit her sister, Mrs. Harry T. Cole.

Called Off.

The band concert which was to have been given in Tutela Park last night was postponed on account of the disagreeable weather.

Pastime Green.

Monday night will be members' night at the Pastime Bowling Club on Chatham street, when rinks chosen from members of the club will be played.

Died Suddenly.

While sitting in an arm chair this morning at the home of Mr. James Marks, Grey street, where she was staying, Mrs. Margaret Broughton suddenly passed away.

With the City Police

There was a small list of cases at the police court this morning. John Brown, a colored gentleman, was arrested by Detective Chapman for being a general nuisance, and declining to work. Brown declared that he had been sick, but that he was going back to work on Monday. The Magistrate adjourned the case for a week to see if Brown got a job.

Thomas Street was arrested yesterday afternoon on Market street. Detective Chapman saw the man begging some money, and making himself troublesome. Street pleaded for another chance, stating that he was eighteen months since he was last in court. He was allowed to go.

The case of Webster vs. Smith was resumed from yesterday. Webster showed the damage which had been done to his clothes when hit by Smith's automobile. There was a heated argument between Webster and Charlie Smith, son of the defendant, and who was driving the car at the time of the accident. The magistrate thought that young Smith was guilty of negligent driving and he was fined $12 and costs.

ARSON SQUADS ACTIVE AGAIN

LONDON, June 21.—Militant suffragette "arson squads" were out during last night at St. Andrews, Scotland, and at Southend on the lower Thames and succeeded in causing considerable damage.

At St. Andrews the "fire fiends" destroyed the east wing of the Gatty Marine Laboratory, connected with the University. Many valuable instruments, scientific materials and charts were burned to ashes. Inflammable oils and cotton wool were used to ensure the brisk spread of the flames, and the local police assert that they have secured clear evidence that the outrage was the work of militant suffragettes.

The object of attack at Southend was the Church of St. John a modern and costly edifice, completed only a year ago. The organ loft was set on fire, but soon ceased to burn and the damage caused was negligible. Cartidges, oiled rags and combustibles were found scattered round and a quantity of suffrage literature was left about to show the origin of the outrage.

A Hard Record.

Stratford Beacon: There have been sixty cases of violent or sudden death dealt with by the morgue authorities on Montreal during two weeks. Thirty-eight of these were the result of accident and four of suicide, and it is said to be the highest record of the kind in Montreal. This is one feature of metropolitan life which is not desirable, and it should cause those in authority in Montreal to inquire if something cannot be done to reduce the record.

Parcels Post.

Tilsenburg: Overview: The farmers of Ontario will find in the parcels post system recently announced by Hon. Mr. Pelletier, a service that in conjunction with rural delivery will prove a great saver of both time and money. By making a special rate within a radius of 20 miles of the point where the parcel is posted, the postmaster-general has served a double purpose in protecting the country merchants against too great competition from the great department stores at Toronto and in providing an economical form of delivery for articles sent short distances.

ery for articles sent short distances. The farmer or his wife requiring any article in a hurry will soon be able to telephone to the town or village from which their rural route begins, order the article required, and have it delivered by the next mail. The parcel may weigh up to 11 pounds and have a combined length and girth of 72 inches. There are few articles delivered by mail which would not fall within this measurement.

ONLY ONE PUT-OUT AT FIRST IN NINE INNINGS

Freakish Game at Providence — Baltimore Beat the Royals 14-1

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 21.—Bauman's error of an easy chance from Conroy's bat was directly responsible for all the runs made by Rochester in yesterday afternoon's game, which was won by the visitors by a score of 14 to 1. The player had an easy double play on the ball. A single and two sacrifice flies followed and three runs went over. Quinn pitched fine ball and Bailey was almost invincible after the fatal inning. Eas had but one put out on first base, a pop fly for the third out in the eighth inning.

Jack Dalton Again Starred. NEWARK, June 21.—The Indians hammered Holmes of the Buffaloes at will in Newark yesterday, and won in a walk by the score of 9 to 2. The Bisons only made three scattered singles off Bell up to the ninth, when he cased up, and the two runs they made were practically gifts. Dalton faced Holmes five times, making a single and a double and he strolled on his other trips to the plate.

A Real Slug Feast. BALTIMORE, June 21.—The Orioles again found the Royal pitchers yesterday and took the second game of the series by the decisive score of 14 to 1. Dale started for the Canucks and lasted only two and two-thirds of an inning when Burke took his place. The latter was also easy. Morrisette, the Mount St. Joseph collegian, hurled in a masterly manner for the locals.

AN AVIATOR IS FLYING AT LONDON

Successful Flights by Airman Who Will Be Here Carnival Week.

A rumor to the effect that Victor Carlstrom, the aviator, who with his Rex biplane furnished one of the leading attractions at the Ferrari carnival at Queen's Park, had taken a tumble in his flight yesterday, was persistent about town last evening. It, however, developed later, that the aviator was just performing a few simple dips, figure eights and loop-the-loops in the air preparatory to landing at Carlstrom's Heights, which caused the spectators to think that he had lost control of his machine, and this accounts for the rumor. Carlstrom has made some splendid flights since coming to the city, and arrangements have been made to have him fly over Tecumseh Park during the ball game to-day, and passes will be thrown from the machine to the spectators.

The biplane itself in its tent, which is located directly north of the new McCormick factory, is creating considerable interest, and the planes are covered with signatures of people in many cities, testifying to the distance it has travelled. Carlstrom will be here with the Ferrari shows, Brantford carnival week, July 5-12.

Scout Notes

Scoutmaster Lorimer of Montreal is a welcome visitor in Scouting circles at present.

Scoutmaster D. T. Williamson has returned to the city and Brant Avenue Church Troop will soon be ready for the Rally and its summer camp.

A new patrol is being organized in the vicinity of Dufferin Avenue, and the members will spend two weeks in camp at Grimsby with Mr. J. P. Schultz.

The annual Ontario Rally will be held in Toronto this summer, and large contingents of Scouts from all over Ontario will be present to participate in the event.

Number Two Patrol of Wesley Church Troop spent the week-end under canvas on Mt. Pleasant road last week and had an excellent view of the aeroplane as it circled over the camp.

Camp is the predominating thought in the scouting world at the present time. Judging by local plans and ideas Brantford patrols will be encamped from Grimsby to the Laurentians.

Grace Church Troop under Scoutmaster J. E. Bentham will spend the week ends under canvas on Mt. Pleasant road during the summer months. Instructional work will be carried on and an instructive and pleasant time is anticipated.

Rev. G. W. Latimer, Chaplain, and Mr. J. S. Scott of the 6th Brantford (Trinity) Troop were present with their official warrants (signed by the Canadian Chief Scout) His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, on Wednesday night by the Commissioner.

A special scouting section of the Y.M.C.A. camp at Grimsby will be conducted from the 10th to the 26th of July. Full particulars regarding same may be secured from headquarters. The commissariat is being looked after by Capt. G. A. Ward, and the camp will offer splendid advantages for the practical side of scouting for both troops and patrols.

On Wednesday night the Eagle Patrol of Trinity Church Troop under Scoutmaster J. E. Bentham, held an interesting demonstration of ambulance work at the Girls' Friendly Society Entertainment. Prior to the display Scoutmaster Lorimer of Montreal addressed the Scouts and in the course of his interesting remarks conveyed the hearty greetings from the Montreal Scout to the local troops.

The Headquarters Patrol by unanimous vote has decided to postpone the trip to the British Isles until next summer. Owing to several unavoidable delays, arrangements for the trip would be unable to arrive in England this year until after the great rally at Birmingham, which is being held during the first week in July, and as the Patrol was keen to enter a team in many of the innumerable Scoutcraft competitions which will form part of the programme, the members decided to postpone the trip. All connections will be formed in the visit to the British Isles next summer at the Fourth National Rally in London, England, and several weeks will be spent in Scotland, England and Ireland. The trip will occupy almost three months, and is being financed entirely by members of the Headquarters Patrol. It could be carried out this year were it not for the fact that arriving just one week late for the Rally would perhaps give the British Scouts the idea that the Canadian Patrol had intentionally avoided the competition work at the rally.

Auction Sale of Household Furniture and Real Estate

PRINCE ERNST AND

(Special Dispatch)

REPORTS have been spread, it seems without any foundation, Prince Ernst of Cumberland, bride were to come to London before the end of the year, but it is before the end of the year, prior to the early part of November. Then he will be at Windsor, and there shooting in the Great Forest.

Though the call is to be of a private character, it is understood that the Duke and Duchess of Brunswick, the young couple will have to become, will pay the customary state visit to London, and will be the Lord Mayor and the City Council at the Guildhall. Before they go, Germany they will travel to Sandhurst to stop with Queen Alexandra several days. The Duke of Brunswick will be gazetted to the colonelcy of the British regiments while he is in London, and the Ninth Lancers is as likely to receive this honor.

It is now stated as probable that the meeting of the King and Queen, later in the year, which was in place rumored as likely to be, will take place during the middle of August. Though no confirmation has reached Buckingham Palace of the announcement, it is understood in circles that the meeting will take place on the 10th of August. Present information is to the effect that the King and Queen and the Prince of Wales, Princess Mary and Albert, and will be away from London about three weeks in all.

Like most of the royal family, Mary is fond of animals, but she is particularly fond of a small animal called a "hoosier" which she found in her special favorite, with this in her lap that the most recent photographs have been taken. It is understood that the Queen, it is understood, will be accompanied by three other children, Prince of Wales, Princess Mary and Albert, and will be away from London about three weeks in all.

THE DUKE AND THE CADET
The Duke of Connaught carried out an approach by practice body. One morning as his Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, was approaching the California cadets, who were to visit some of the museums as of interest in London and asked if he could give him a few hints. It he could and would gladly do so. The Duke of Connaught, in his opinion, was a very handsome man, and he was a Canadian.

Keen interest in the cadet movement was expressed by the Duke of Connaught, who had the king about soldiering. After he conducted the youth to the palace, the better to point out of some of the "signs," and then a cheer farewell.

A policeman asked the lad if he whom he had been talking, was the "reel," except that he was a very nice, pleasant man." On that he had been enlisting the of the royal Governor General of Canada, who was to be gratified the cadet expressed his gratification in their regard for early in the same time there have been a day and late affairs before the up of which early breakfasts were served. PRINCE ERNST AND BRIDE GOING TO WINDSOR

(Special Dispatch.)
LONDON, June 21. REPORTS have been spread, though it seems without any foundation, that Prince Ernst of Cumberland and his bride were to come to London before the end of their honeymoon; but it is settled that they shall see the King and Queen before the end of the year, probably in the early part of November. They will then be at Windsor, and there will be shooting in the Great Forest.

Though the call is to be of an entirely private character, it is understood that the Duke and Duchess of Brunswick, as the young couple will have by that time become, will pay the customary semi-state visit to London, and will lunch with the Lord Mayor and the City Corporation at the Guildhall. Before they return to Germany they will travel to Sandringham, there to stop with Queen Alexandra for several days. The Duke of Brunswick will be gazetted to the colonelcy of one of the British regiments while he is in England, and the Ninth Lancers are named as likely to receive this honor.

It is now stated as probable that the meeting of the King and Queen and Tsar later in the year, which was in the first place rumored as likely to be in June, will take place during the middle of August. Though no confirmation has yet reached Buckingham Palace of the announcement, it is understood in court circles that the meeting will take place. Present information is to the effect that the King and Queen and the Tsar will travel on their respective yachts to the coast of Finland, and will prolong their stop sufficiently to remain a few days with Queen Alexandra and the Empress Marie of Russia at their villa on the outskirts of Copenhagen. The King and Queen, it is understood, will be accompanied by their three elder children, the Prince of Wales, Princess Mary and Prince Albert, and will be away from England about three weeks in all.

The most of the royal family, Princess Mary is fond of all animals, but especially of dogs. A picturesque little Italian greyhound is her special favorite, and it is with this in her lap that most of her recent photographs have been taken. The little dog goes with her everywhere and is permitted to live in the house. Princess Mary has also a couple of handsome Persian cats from the catteries of Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, who owns some of the finest felines in the kingdom. Like Queen Alexandra, Princess Mary has befriended many a stray animal which was lucky enough to meander near Buckingham Palace.

THE DUKE AND THE CADET.
The Duke of Connaught carries no aide and is approached by practically anybody. One morning as his Royal Highness was approaching the front of Buckingham Palace he was accosted by one of the California cadets, who was anxious to visit some of the museums and places of interest in London and asked the Duke if he could give him a few hints. Certainly he would and would gladly do so, but meantime he would like to know who his questioner was, why he appeared doubtful about the geography of London and whether, as seemed probable to His Highness, he was a Canadian.

The Duke asked many questions, showed keen interest in the cadet's movement and casually mentioned that he knew "something about soldiering." After a long chat he conducted the youth to the front of the palace, the better to point out the direction of some of the "sights," and then left with a cheery farewell.

A policeman asked the lad if he knew to whom he had been talking. "Was the Duke was the reply, "except that he was a very nice, pleasant man." On hearing that he had been enquiring the services of the royal Governor General of Canada the cadet expressed his gratification and added frankly, "If I had known who he was I don't think I should have ventured to speak to him, but he is real nice, and I am ever so glad I did."

Invitations are again being given at the shortest notice. The telephone is constantly called into account, as it saves time and trouble, besides simplifying things. Moreover, it obviates dates clashing, which hostesses dread more than anything else. The average dance of the season is ending so far somewhat earlier than in other years, which is put down to the example set by the King and Queen in their regard for early hours. At the same time there have been some very gay and late affairs before the breaking up of which early breakfasts have been served. Even tragédie debutantes have partaken of strong coffee, grilled cutlets and bacon and eggs before leaving. One of the semi-regular characteristics about most debutantes of today is that they have appetites and are not ashamed to own it. Fashion is fickle as to churches for smart weddings. Just now the churches most in favor are the Guards' Chapel, St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, and St. Mark's, Westminster. A wedding in the choir of Westminster Abbey has taken place only once this year—that of the Hon. W. and Lady Beatrice Ormsley. The Duke of Northumberland has the right for themselves and their families to marriage and burial in the Abbey. In

Daring Burglary Causes a Feeling of Insecurity

(Special Dispatch.)
LONDON, June 21. THE proverbial nine days has not been enough to exhaust the interest, or, rather, the excitement, over the daring burglary at the Berkeley Hotel in the small hours of the morning while exactly opposite society was still dancing at the Ritz Hotel. It is remarked upon as strange that no one heard anything unusual, and it came as a great shock to many next morning to learn that they had been dancing within a stone's throw of a desperate affair of the sort.

Lady Clare Annesley took a part in the Swedish court group at the recent Versailles fete in the Albert Hall. Her sister, Lady Constance, is a beautiful debutante and was recently presented at Court. They are the daughters of Priscilla Countess Annesley.

Channel Tunnel Scheme Has Prospect of Success

Changed Conditions Win Many Opponents to Favor It Now and London Chamber of Commerce Promises to Make Strong Endeavor to Influence House of Commons.

WELL KNOWN AVIATOR IS A STRONG ADVOCATE.

(Special Dispatch.)
LONDON, June 21. PROMOTERS of the Channel tunnel scheme, so often revived and shelved, think there never was a time so propitious as the present for reviving it and carrying it to a successful issue. Relations between England and France were never more friendly, and even Germany, since the British sovereigns were present at the wedding of the Kaiser's only daughter, seems disposed to look upon England with more "friendly rivalry."

The London Chamber of Commerce is taking up the matter once more, and will make a strong endeavor to influence the House of Commons in its favor. The Lord Mayor and nearly all the mayors of London boroughs, the mayors of Hackney, Finsbury, Holborn, St. Pancras and Islington believe that it would be a boon to commerce generally, and that all the old arguments against the tunnel are dead. Mr. Claude Grahame-White, the aviator, discussing the subject, has put the matter in quite a new light.

"In the days, more than thirty years ago," he said, "when a tunnel connecting England and France was first suggested, there were various strong arguments—military, naval and political—against it. But these have all disappeared now, largely through the coming of the aeroplane. "To-day it is as simple a matter to enter England from France by aeroplane as it is to cross the Channel in the orthodox manner, and, consequently, the old argument that England's strength lay in her isolation is largely done away with. In considering flying in this connection it is as well to look ahead a little. It may be said that a heavier than air machine can carry only two or three people, whereas a Channel tunnel could pour a continuous stream of hundreds and thousands into England.

"A Channel tunnel will be constructed some day—there can be no doubt about that. For arguments' sake let us say in ten years. What about the aeroplane in ten years? I firmly believe there will be heavier than air machines then which will compare with the Macrætanla in size and for the number of people they can carry. It is only a question of more power. Instead of having an engine of 100-horse power we shall get them of 10,000-horse power and more. "When that day arrives it will not make the slightest difference whether there is a tunnel or no tunnel between England and the Continent. In 1933 all that will concern us from the point of view of national safety will be to see that we are

Superstition Is Hard to Kill

(Special Dispatch.)
LONDON, June 21. OLD women's "remedies" die hard. Indeed it is most difficult to kill them, despite the better education and the greater knowledge that people are acquiring in the twentieth century. Every day one comes across instances where old-fashioned remedies—or supposed remedies—are resorted to in preference to sending for a physician, and where fatal results attend these amateur practices and superstitions.

At an inquest in London the other day it was reported that a mother had administered saffron and brandy to her ten-month-old child, which was suffering from measles. The coroner, who is a physician, told the mother that the mixture was not of the slightest use, and turning to the jury he expressed his ignorance as to how saffron got its fame as a cure for measles. Though it was in general use all over the country, it was perfectly useless. The foreman of the jury seemed to know something of the subject, for he ventured to impart the astounding information that nine mothers out of ten administered the same thing as a cure for measles. Yet these are the days of national insurance and free medical attendance.

Some other quaint remedies that were popular once were described the same evening by Dr. F. M. Sandwith Gresham, professor of physics, in a lecture at the City of London School. Tiger's Dash and new born puppies were among the old remedies. One book recommended a live spider to be rolled in butter and formed into a pill and then swallowed as an antidote to jaundice. A broom made from vipers was said to strengthen the eyesight. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries powdered mummies were prescribed, and so great was the demand that fraud led to more mummies being supplied than ever came out of Egypt.

One old book recommended the plant called "Solomon's seal" for the taking away in one night of the blackness of bruises "caused by falls of women's husbands in tumbling upon hasty husband's heads, or such like."

Not at All.
"Did Mr. Cumpo seem annoyed at your calling with his bill?" asked Mr. Gaskett of his new collector.

"No, sir," replied the young man; "on the contrary, he asked me to call again."

Scott Art Works Are To Be Sold

Four Wonderful Panels of Beauvais Tapestry and Several Miniature Clocks in the Collection.

(Special Dispatch.)
LONDON, June 21. WHEN the French decorative objects and furniture and collection of porcelain and tapestry which belonged to the late Sir John E. A. Murray Scott were sold at Christie's during the last week of this month much interest is sure to centre in the four panels of Beauvais tapestry with which the first of the three days' sale will close.

They are 7 ft. 10 1/2 in. high and 6 ft. 3 in. wide, and each is finely woven with a pastoral scene viewed through a foliated arch, at the base of which is a stone balustrade, while at the side are growing hollyhock plants in full flower. The tops of the arches are richly festooned with colored flowers.

The subject of the first panel is a group comprising a pheasant, crane and parrot, beside fruit and vegetables; the second represents a cock, hen and chickens in the foreground of a landscape, with a building and trees in the distance; the third shows a dog, lamb and doves; and the fourth two swans, a duck and ducklings swimming in a pool, on the edge of which birches are growing.

Among the miniatures, of which there are a dozen fine specimens, there is one, painted after the manner of Chardin, depicting Leda seated in a landscape, holding flowers and looking down at Jupiter metamorphosed into the swan at her side.

Another is by R. Cosway, R. A., of Maria Fagnani, wife of the third Marquis of Hertford, with powdered curling hair and wearing a black dress with white fichu, coral and pearl necklaces.

A Louis XVI. clock by Lapaute, of Paris, is contained in a vase formed as a uniform vase of gros-bloc Sèvres porcelain, mounted with ormolu neck, and handles formed as caryatid figures of nymphs.

Another Louis XVI. clock, 23 inches high, also with a Lapaute movement, is in a vase shaped white marble case, with white enamel revolving dial. The handles are formed as bronze figures of twisted serpents, while at one side stands a bronze Cupid pointing the hour. Another, with movement by Manier, of Paris, is in a drum-shaped ormolu case, with figures of a nymph playing upon a lyre and a youth playing pipes. With the handles are a pair of Louis XVI. candelabra of bronze and ormolu designed as Cupid and Psyche, modelled after Falconet.

Wonderful Book Describing This Strange Force and a Character Delineation Post Free to All Who Write at Once.

The National Institute of Sciences has appropriated $25,000 toward a fund for the free distribution of Prof. Knowles' new book, "The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces." This book lays bare many astounding facts concerning the practices of Eastern Yogis and explains in a wonderful system for the development of Personal Magnetism, Hypnotic and Telepathic Powers, and the curing of disease and habits without drugs.

"Rich and poor alike benefit by the teachings of this new system," says Prof. Knowles, "and the person who wishes to achieve greater success in life should apply the simple rules laid down." That many wealthy and prominent people owe their success to the power of Personal Influence there is not the slightest doubt. In the case of the famous financiers mentioned in the book, the somewhat tedious task of distributing broadcast, without regard to cost, has resulted in the information heretofore possessed by the few. In addition to supplying the books free, each person who writes at once will receive a character delineation of from 400 to 500 words as prepared by Prof. Knowles.

Also send your full name and address (state whether Mr., Mrs., or Miss), write plainly and address your letter to: National Institute of Sciences, Dept. 1515, No. 228 Westminster Bridge-road, London S.E. Eng. If you wish you may enclose (stamp of your own country) to pay postage.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Grand View-Terrace Hill Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Esscott, Grand View, on Wednesday, 18th inst., when a large company of ladies gathered to enjoy a well-prepared program, the chair being occupied by the president, Mrs. W. F. Bayless. The meeting opened by all joining in singing the doxology, then repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison, this form of opening being the one used by the pioneer W. I. A beautiful solo was then rendered by Miss Cornelius, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," in her usual sweet voice, and much enjoyed.

Mrs. G. F. Wood then gave a talk, her theme being "Florence Nightingale," fully describing the life-work of the first nurse in a public sphere, showing her to be, as she was called by many suffering ones that she ministered to, "the Angel of Light," passing along so softly on her mission of mercy and true womanliness, who surely went about doing good. All present felt heartily thankful to Mrs. Wood for her beautiful portrayal of this never-to-be-forgotten life.

A solo was then given by Miss Cornelius, "Rock of Ages," and was heartily received.

Mrs. James Arnold gave a talk on "Canning and Preserving Fruit," bringing forward many valuable suggestions and rules, which was followed by some discussion, as these topics always appeal to the thrifty housewife, who is ever ready to give and receive any new points that will tend to lessen labor and improve methods.

The motto of the branch was then read by all, as follows: "To inculcate the spirit of true and loyal friendship; to be kind and helpful and not critical of others' faults; to make our daily life worth while to the other person, and to practice as well as preach our motto."

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James McEwan, 146 Terrace Hill.

An event of much interest in England is the official part of the Prince of Wales will take this summer for the first time in English society. This is regarded as the most important social consideration of the season, as it is more than half a century since a bachelor Prince of Wales was the centre figure in the country. The Prince will appear at a majority of the important functions with his parents, and will attend a few dances. Later on he will pay a few country house visits, and race King Edward's old yacht, Britannia, in friendly competition with the King of Spain. The Britannia will be the Prince's own yacht and will be manned by a picked crew of naval reservists. The Prince strongly desires that the navy life shall not be entirely discontinued.

A Galt despatch says: Yesterday was the fifty-sixth birthday anniversary of Hon. Adam Beck, Galt's community has special pride in noting the natal day of the distinguished public man, who is claimed as virtually an old Galt boy who has played an equally important part in industrial affairs.

Dr. A. B. Cutcliffe and Mr. M. E. Cutcliffe, have received word of the death of their uncle Major William H. P. G. Bluet at Paignton, S. Devon, Eng., in his 85th year. Major Bluet was one of the last survivors of the second Sikh war and served in the 10th, now Lincoln regiment, at the capture of Mooltan and the crowning victory of Ghyerat, also engaged during great part of the meeting, taking part in the Jugdespoor operations and the relief of Azenjurk.

George Ham of the Canadian Pacific Railway, is pretty well known over the continent. He is accompanying a train of members of the Women's Press Clubs through the Northwest. As the train approaches Winnipeg Saturday, the hotel department receive a wire signed George Ham, reading, "Have two barrels of lemonade ready for No. 1." After studying the message carefully the old stock-keeper remarked reflectively, "Wonder if George really means lemonade?"

On June 28, at 5.30 in the Central Presbyterian Church, in Hamilton, will be celebrated the marriage of Miss Gladys Lynette Marshall, only daughter of Mr. William Marshall and Mr. Burton Campbell Ansell who after the return from her honeymoon, will reside in Poplar Plains Road, Toronto, Saturday Night.

At the passing time war is leaving its mark upon fashion. Bulgarian, Montenegrin and Serbian styles come into favor, and not without merit, for the blousing coats, the killed skirts and the short jackets worn over thin bodies are truly charming. The mode of the close-fitting hat and the tendency towards barbaric splendor in the evening dress of to-day, come also from those dashing little countries. Going back into history we find when Robespierre came to France the fashions of the Terror, wide bright stripes, cockades and innovations which marked the Napoleonic spectacular conquest of Egypt.

Crowless roosters and cackles hens will be the next reform perpetrated by the democratic administration, at Washington, if experiments now underway in the Department of Agriculture are a success. Experiments indicate that if the vocal cords of roosters are removed the crow of the hen will be the same. A farmer who wrote that the operation is easy and painless. Under the present scheme scientists think the crows and cackles easily may be supplanted by musical tones. This they think is possible by placing a whistle in the severed end of the cord.

An Ottawa despatch says: Among the successful candidates at the recent competitive examinations for admission as cadets to the Royal Military College, Kingston who will be admitted in the order in which they passed up to the number for which vacancies are available (probably forty-one) appears the name of Harry Taylor Genet of the Brantford Collegiate Institute, who secured 5,227 marks, and is ninth in the list, the first candidate receiving 6,007 marks. Jas. Howard Scott of the St. Catharines Collegiate Institute, is 40th on the list with 3,880 marks and A. J. Casulin of the same school, is 49th with 2,913.

Miss Verma Smith of Winona, whose marriage to Mr. Gordon Conant, of Oshawa, will take place on June 25th has recently been the guest of honor at several pleasant social affairs. Miss Julia Carpenter, who is to be one of the bridesmaids, gave a charming luncheon for her on June 3rd. The color scheme was in mauve, which will be that for the wedding. Miss Mabel Van Duzer, another prospective bridesmaid, gave a Saturday tea, which was largely attended, many guests motoring from Toronto and Hamilton. Mrs. Thos. Bell also gave a tea for this popular bride-elect. On June 16th Mr. Hugh Donald of Toronto, who is to be one of the ushers, gave a dinner at the Rosedale Golf Club in honor of Miss Smith, and the bridesmaids to be, and on June 17th, Miss Marguerite Cotton, of Toronto, gave a tea in honor of the bride-elect, Saturday Night.

The Queen's Royal has never had so many guests at this date, and the general air of bon camaraderie is delightful.—Saturday Night.

Nuptial Notes

Johnson-Baker.
The wedding of Miss Mabel M. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson, 17 Waterloo St., and Harry E. Baker took place this morning at the residence of Bishop McCreck at 10 a.m. in the presence of only immediate relatives. The bride wore her travelling suit of blue and carried an arm bouquet of Killarney roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Emma Messier as bridesmaid, and Mr. Baker had as best man, James Dunn.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington, at 114 Water Street, formerly of Brantford, following the ceremony, the decorations being carried out in pink and white with Killarney roses and lilies of the valley. Only the members of the bridal party were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker left to-day for a wedding trip in the East and they will be at home in Detroit, Mich., after July 4.—Duluth Herald.

FALL SKIRTS TO BE TIGHTER

Toledo, O., June 19.—The national Cloak, Suit, and Skirt Manufacturer's Association have approved the report of the style committee, fixing styles for fall, 1913, thus: Coats suits for fall will embody a greater variety of feature than they have in several seasons. These features will consist of high buttoning; cutaway, and blouse effects, mandarin sleeves, draping, vests, or waistcoats; furband collars, Russian effects with belts and sashes, sleeves shirred at the wrists, and the combination in a suit of one material for the coat and another for the skirt.

The principal feature of the suit coat will be the cutaway effect, the back of the coat being cut markedly longer than in front. The slope of the cutaway is the element which determines the length of the back, which will vary to an unusual degree. Suit coats measuring from finger tip to hands of the knee length will predominate.

In addition to the tailored skirt the slightly draped skirt will be prominent, particularly in the dressier suits. The high-waist line, a slash at the skirt bottom, plaiting and shirring at the belt, and a narrowing effect toward the hem of the skirt will be in high favor.

AEROLUX NO-WHIP PORCH SHADES

WILL MAKE YOUR PORCH 15 DEGREES COOLER

You will pass a comfortable summer night on your own porch if you equip it with AEROLUX. These shades can be left down at night, as the wind cannot whip them. This is on account of the NO-WHIP ATTACHMENT with which they are equipped. They make your porch a delightful cozy retreat during the hot summer days and permit you to enjoy absolute seclusion while at the same time receiving the benefits of good, fresh air.

They are built to fit any size of porch. Come in different grades and a variety of colors, and are suitable for all kinds of porches.

A telephone call will bring the "Aerolux" man, who will show you color samples, and then, if you wish, will take the measurements of your porch. Colors in brown and green. Prices range $3.00, $4.50, $6.00 and $7.00, according to size.

"To the end of the steel by G.T.P."—I don't think any of us realized what that really meant until we had taken the journey. Three hundred miles up into the mountains—speeding across the newly-laid roadbed, through gigantic walls recently blasted out of the solid rock—tearing over bridges, and all the way the Fraser river rushing along beside us, falls bursting in exuberance from the mountain sides and the snow-capped peaks of the glorious Rockies all about us—our little "special" made her way pausing at many points so that her passengers might alight and explore at closer range. We passed many gangs of workers along both sides of the tracks of the C.P.R. are quickly following and the camps of both railways dotted here and there along the line, but only the G.T.P. enters Tete Jaune Cache as yet, and in the very near future hope to have traffic established through to Prince Rupert, and completing their transcontinental route. For this trip we were the absolute guests of the C.P.R. more like a castle than a hotel—nestling in the midst of rocky elevations—and in a few moments start off to explore its many wonders.

To-night the new hall room is to be opened in our honor—week-end guests coming from all surrounding points. Dr. and Mrs. Harry Yates, from Montreal, with their son and daughter, are also guests at this hotel, returning from their delightful trip around the world—gradually working their way eastward and to their summer home at "Caucama."

Twelve of our party return to Ontario to-morrow—the balance of us complete the trip to the coast, taking in the places of interest en route. C.P.R. has heretofore stood to us sympathetically for Canadian Pacific Railway—but from the beginning of our trip it has truly meant Comfort Personified—the route ideal and the accommodation luxurious.

Double-Headers in All the Tecomseh Park Dren Only One Game Poss Enjoys Better Year T

(Free Press.)
In the absence of the "hazy" weather man substituted an "dance" of the substance which floods, and at every ball park of Canadian League circuit the "No Games" rain a bargain price, getting two battles for the admission.

With postponed games the program to-day, and the thereby are given a bargain price, getting two battles for the admission. Manager Deneau stated last returning from Tecumseh park there would not be a double-header to-day, as the grounds were der water, and that they would "lucky" to play one game, especially it looked like rain during night.

In all probability the date at fin will bring the Saints and Dutchmen into a double clash to Heck Pitches To-day.

The many fans in this city have not seen Bobby Heck pitch given an opportunity to see great southpaw work today, as will be Deneau's selection to the Brantford club, and Wagner stated last night that Smith in all probability will do duty for them. The game shot great one, since it will be a bat southpaw.

RAIN AROUND CANADIAN CIRCUIT, LEAGUE CONDITIONS REVIEWED

Double-Headers in All the Cities Except London To-Day— Tecumseh Park Drenched by Yesterday's Downpour and Only One Game Possible—Best Class "C" Organization Enjoys Better Year Than Ever.

(Free Press.) In the absence of the "haymaker" weather man substituted an abundance of the substance which causes floods, and at every ball park on the Canadian League circuit the sign of "No Game" rain, brought dismay to the ever-willing fans and joy to the so-called ball players.

have shown to be the club to beat for the championship, and in second place just now, and with recently added strength to their pitching corps will make them all the more formidable. A club which can hit the ball like the Leafs is envied around the circuit, and with any sort of pitching will be heard from when the won and lost column is scanned over after Labor Day.

Manager Deneau stated last night returning from Tecumseh park that there would not be a double-header here to-day, as the grounds were under water, and that they would be lucky to play one game, especially since it looked like rain during the night.

In all probability the date at Berlin will bring the Saints and the Dutchmen into a double clash to-day.

Heck Pitches To-day. The many fans in this city who have not seen Bobby Heck pitch will be given an opportunity to see the great southpaw work to-day, as he will be Deneau's selection to oppose the Brantford club, and manager Wagner stated last night that "Lefty" Smith in all probability will do mound duty for them. The game should be great one, since it will be a battle of southpaws.

Conditions in the League. At the present time the teams representing the various cities in the circuit are all better than ever in the history of the league, and many unexpected victories and reverses will be uncooked.

Cook's Leafs on their recent form.

Don't Overlook Berlin. Although the Berlin club is at the bottom at the present time, indications are, with the pitching they have and several more hitters coming, they will be up there fighting all the way the remainder of the season.

London will be one of the teams to beat for the bunting this season, and it will not be surprising to see a new club leading the league by the end of this month. Peterboro is playing great ball and will also prove stumbling blocks to some of the aspiring top-of-the-ladder clubs.

Beautiful Race. The league as it is all summed up has even gone further and become more successful than expected at the beginning, taking it from the standpoint of providing a beautiful race. A glance at the present standing of the first five clubs will bare this out, as only 118 points separate them.

To slump and lose only two games in a row will mean that the relative positions will be changed much in the first division. So far the clubs are going up and down continually.

The coming from behind, as the Guelph club shows their class, and as said before, look like the real goods. Hamilton has not been in the second division much this season, and if money can hold them well up in the race they will stay in the first division.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON Christy Mathewson, of the New York Giants, better known to the baseball world as Big Six, is just now holding the spotlight with Walter Johnson, of the Nationals, as the greatest pitcher of the age. Big Six has been a member of the Giants since 1900. He has participated in three World Series, winning one championship single-handed in 1905 against the Athletics. He stands 6 ft. 1 in., weighs 190 pounds and is 33 years old.

It Was All Very Tragic (London Advertiser).

And then "Chubby" Coose came to bat. He knew that on him hinged the result of that game. Two men were on bases, one man on second, and one man on third. A hit would tie the score; possibly bring in two runs and win the game. As he stood there and faced the pitcher, his mind keenly alive to the situation, every muscle tense, and ready to spring, he prayed for that hit. And out there in the box, dazed by the sudden turn of events that had changed almost in the twinkling of an eye a ball game that he had as good as won, Rube Deneau, dean of Canadian League pitchers, and veteran of many a close and hard-fought game, stood holding the ball. He had two strikes on Coose. He too, realized that a hit would mean a game. For eight and two-thirds innings he had held the Brantford club to two hits and only one man had reached second base. Surely now, in this tightest of all tight places, he was not going to fail. He took a firmer grasp on the ball and faced the batter. The perspiration was standing out on his brow like the dew on the morning grass. And as he poised himself to deliver the ball upon which depended so much he, too, breathed a silent prayer. Coose Hit the Ball. Crack! Coose swung hard and true. The ball sped low along the ground to left field, Meyers and Dunlop both rushed to intercept it, but too late. Ivers sped to third, and rounded it as Chickenger fielded the hit. The big London outfielder, in his eagerness to throw out the man on the plate, juggled the ball an instant. It was too late to get Ivers. Slemm had not yet reached third. Chickenger threw to Meyers to get Slemm. The throw was low and it bounced away from Meyer's grasp. Slemm kept on for the plate, while Matteson and Deneau rushed for the ball. Slemm scored safely and the home crowd groaned. Brantford had turned the tide with the last gasp, and now they were one run in the lead. Rube Deneau stood and gazed and smiled. But it was the smile of the loser. Fate had played him a shabby trick.

Sporting Comment

A deputation of four waited upon President Nelson of the Brantford Ball Club this week requesting him to fire Ambrose Kane, Manager of the Brantford Ball Club. There was one spokesman who didn't know any more about baseball than the monkeys who were duly demonstrated in the circus here this week. However, the President's reply was courteous, polite and characteristic. "Gentlemen," said Mr. Nelson, "if for the remainder of this season, there is only an audience of two at the ball games in Brantford, said two being the groundkeeper and the bat boy, Kane will be over there next Labor Day, running that ball club."

Lefty Smith's work since he reported to Brantford, has without a doubt been unsatisfactory. It was expected that Smith would be able to work hard for Brantford, but he has had misfortune in being injured. Even when he was at work, Lefty did not show nearly the same stuff as he did in 1911. We would like to see him going good, but would not be surprised if something fell his way pretty soon. The Brantford Club has got to a spot on the road where it is either one thing or another.

Brantford fans will have a chance of seeing some real new players here next week. From what can be learned, they are good ones, not paid amateurs.

Everybody hereabouts would like to hook London to-day.

Football

Dragoons vs. St. Andrews. The Dragoons and St. Andrews will meet in a League match on Saturday (to-day) at Recreation Park. The Cavalry team, which has been reconstructed, is as follows: Goal, Whelan; backs, Harbour and Matta; half backs, Atkinson, Hayes and B. Garrow; forwards, Chambers, Brown, Bonner, Daniels, Woodcock. Reserves, McCann, McDonald and Weir.

SLAMMED WASHINGTON IN TWO SLUGGING GAMES

Rejuvenated Yankees Shoved Senators Into The Second Division

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Washington was given its worst jolt of the season to-day when Frank Chance's rejuvenated Yankees took both ends of a double-header. The score in each game was 9 to 3. The loss of these games and the victories of Boston and Chicago yesterday forced the locals into the second division.

The visitors' slugging, and the pitchers in both games, rolling up a total of 31 hits, while the fielding of the locals was very ragged. Cree and Hartzell made six hits each and Daniels reached first base in each of the first three innings of the second game by being hit by pitched balls. Scores: First game—R. H. E. New York... 10001421—9 17 0 Washington... 10700001—3 12 3 Warner, Fisher, and Sweeney; Groom, Hughes, and Henry, Williams. Second game—R. H. E. New York... 42201000—9 14 4 Washington... 10007001—3 5 1 Schultz and Gossett; Gallia, Engel, Hughes and Williams.

All Ciphers for Cleveland. CLEVELAND, June 21.—Chicago played a postponed game here yesterday and won 3 to 0. Except in the fourth inning, Cicotte kept Cleveland's hits scattered. In the fourth inning, Lajoie and Ryan, singled in succession, but a double play retired Cleveland without a score. Kallier was fairly effective except in the third. In four times at bat Chase secured four hits. Score: R. H. E. Cleveland... 00000000—0 6 0 Chicago... 00300000—3 7 2 Kahler, Mitchell and O'Neill; Cicotte and Schalk.

Downed the Athletics. PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—Pitcher Bush was knocked out of the box in the seventh inning of yesterday's game, which Boston won from Philadelphia by the score of 6 to 1. The one run scored by the Athletics on Boston's errors in the fifth looked very large until the sixth when two bases on balls followed by Lewis' triple scored two runs. In the sixth Bush was hit for three singles and after he had made a wild pitch and passed Hooper he was relieved by Taff. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia... 00000240—6 10 3 Boston... 00001000—1 4 1 Wood and Nunamaker; Bush, Taff and Schanz.

"Slim Sal" Sallee Was Good. ST. LOUIS, June 21.—Sallee was too much for Chicago yesterday afternoon, and St. Louis won 4 to 2. Oake's triple followed by two singles, three stolen bases and Schulte's error gave the locals enough runs in the sixth to win the game. An error, a pass and Phelan's triple gave the visitors their runs. Score: R. H. E. Chicago... 00000000—2 8 1 St. Louis... 00700000—4 8 1 Sallee and Wingo; Cheney and Bresnahan.

Rain saved our ball club yesterday from another victory.

MADE TWO POSSIBLES AT FIVE HUNDRED

Marvellous Shooting of United States Against England for the Dewar Cup.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Beating Great Britain by 41 points the United States has won the international rifle shooting small bore match just completed and recaptured the Dewar cup. The scores made public yesterday were: United States 24,551; Great Britain 4,510. This was the first of the many international rifle shooting matches the United States will compete for this year. Last year Great Britain took the Dewar cup from the United States, winning the small bore match by 257 points. This year's rule called for 50 men on a side using the 22-calibre rifle and shooting at 75 feet, the size of the bull's eye being one-half an inch in diameter. Two men on the American team, members of the Butte, Mont., Rifle Shooting Club made the possible score of 500.

The Battered Pirates. HUMBLED THE GIANTS. PITTSBURGH, June 20.—Pittsburgh hit three New York pitchers at the right time, and the loose fielding of the visitors enabled them to win easily 7 to 3. O'Toole pitched splendid ball and errors behind him figured in the scoring of all three New York runs. It was a scrappy battle, with Umpire Hank O'Day between two fires. Meyers kicked so hard on balls and strikes in the fifth that O'Day ordered him out of the game. Wood and Coleman, two Pittsburgh recruits who are filling in for crippled absentees, starred with the bat. Each scored two runs and had three hits. Tesreau seemed to suffer from the heat, and was hit steadily for four innings. Fromme took up the job in the fifth and allowed four hits in two innings. Crandall finished and Pittsburgh made three more, bringing the day's total to 14. Score: R. H. E. New York... 10002000—3 8 4 Pittsburgh... 12010201—7 14 2 Tesreau, Fromme, Crandall, and Meyers, Wilson; O'Toole and Coleman.

Baseball's universal appeal is due to the firmness with which rowdyism has been held in check, and popular opinion that the game is fair, honest and played on its merits.

Once let gamblers invade its domain and soon the gambler's influence will become strong enough to "throw" games, corrupt players, deal with magnates, buy teams and debase this most wholesome sport, rendering it a menace to youth by introducing all the evils that turned book-making and policy selling into one of the demoralizing influences of the nation.

Director Porter and the managers of the team are serving the best interests of the game and of the city when they attack the beginnings of the evil with the vigor that has characterized the first raid, and they should be encouraged to persist until gambling has been routed from the game.

MANAGER KEENAN TO STAY AT HELM

Directors Refuse to Accept His Resignation as Team Leader.

BERLIN, June 21.—Manager Keenan conferred with the directors of the Canadian League team here yesterday and expressed his willingness to resign his job if the directors were not satisfied with the showing of the team.

The directors, however, assured Mr. Keenan that there was no fault to be found with his services and the team playing good ball notwithstanding the low position in the league standing. A proposal to dispense with some of the players and engage new ones was not favored by either manager or the directors.

With the present pitching staff and team, Manager Keenan is satisfied that a change in fortune is sure to come.

No Room for Gambling in the Baseball Parks.

The Philadelphia Ledger contains the following on its editorial page:—Director Porter did well in striking a powerful blow at the gamblers in the baseball parks. He is not merely enforcing the law against gaming or serving the moral interests of the city, but he is acting as the real co-ordinator and defender of the great American game.

YOUNG LAD TAKING A LONG JAUNT

G. H. Beemer is Riding Bicycle From Winnipeg To Toronto.

G. H. Beemer, of Winnipeg, dropped in at The Courier Office shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after riding all the distance from the western city on a bicycle manufactured by the Canada Cycle Company of Toronto. The lad who is 18 years of age looked fine and healthy and in the pink of condition. He left Winnipeg on the morning of June 10th and came here from Aylmer, where he spent the last four days with his uncle, David Marshall, M.P. His ankles were terribly swollen when he reached Aylmer and he had to take a rest. The trip was made via Chicago and Milwaukee, and only one puncture occurred so far on the trip. That happened near Detroit. After a breathing spell in Brantford and a short chat with Mr. W. G. Hawthorn, the agent for the Canada Cycle in Brantford, he left for Hamilton, where he spent the night. The lad expects to be in the head office of the company in Toronto before noon today. He said he was making the trip "just for fun," and would take the train back home just as soon as he had seen the sights in Toronto.

HISTORY OF THE DUNLOP TROPHY RACE

For the first time in seventeen years—and the second time in the history of the race—the famous Dunlop Trophy Bicycle contest will be run outside of Toronto this year—at Waterloo.

Some people were under the impression that the contest had never taken place other than in Toronto, but the fact is that way back in 1896 the race was run in London, Ont.

Following are the winners of the Dunlop classic since its inauguration in 1894:

- Individual Winner
- 1894—L. C. Robertson.
 - 1895—Alf. Boake.
 - 1896—W. M. Greatrix.
 - 1897—J. E. Shortt.

GOOD FOR THE NERVES.
 Have you ever tried a camphor bath? It is an excellent thing for the nerves. It is made from an ounce of tincture of camphor, half an ounce of tincture of benzoin and two ounces of toilet vinegar. Bottle this mixture and add enough of it to a warm bath and to scrub the water. Do not stay in the tub longer than ten or fifteen minutes, and after the bath lie down for half an hour.

Horse Notes

The Grand circuit follows a week later at the North Randall oval. Uhlans' work last week was in 2:05, last half in 1:00 1/2, last quarter in 29 seconds.

All Style, 2:10 is one of the fastest to go to Australia, where the game is flourishing.

Cox is beating 2:45 with Del Ray, and incidentally giving that pace quarters in 30 seconds.

Sunderlin is making the Canadians take notice, as he has won a couple of races at each town so far.

James Boutwell of Montpelier, Vt., is said to have refused an offer of $15,000 for the two year old, Peter Johnson.

Oakdale, 2:07 1/4, that trotted some good races for Snow last year is being trained by George Acuff at Cleveland.

Latest reports are to the effect that Geers has discovered what to do with Barney Gibbs. The horse is trotting for him.

Calusa, that Havis James bought in California with the Chamber of Commerce stakes in view, now sports a set of hobble.

Tanner worked the 3-year-old Lord Brussels in 2:19 1/2 and then lost the race to Johnny Dickerson, who will race him in the futures.

Sister Spier, that fancy for the futures, worked in 2:16 for Andrews last week. Her brother, a year younger, is eating 2:30 handily enough.

Columbia Fire, 2:04 1/4 has a lot of speed this year, as he stepped a quarter in 20 1/2 seconds, at Libertyville.

The mile track at Providence is being fixed up and the grandstand repaired. Horsemen hope it means something.

Dr. J. W. Day will be 69 next month and he intends to celebrate the birthday by driving Judge Hull to victory in the Tavern stake at Cleveland.

Bon Courage is the name of a California two-year-old that trotted in 2:16 1/2 last month, a week before he was a full two years old.

The 3-year-old racer Hedgewood by Hedgewood Boy, has been a mile in 2:16 1/2 for James, and some think he has the speed to lower the record if he is trained for it.

Lon McDonald wintered at Indianapolis instead of going south and his horses are as yet advanced as the other stables. He has been in 2:15 or better with his three M. & M. candidates.

Major Mallow raced seven years in which he started 102 times, winning 41 firsts and $30,000 in all. He was a useful horse with which to beat a favorite free-for-all pacer, and is thought to have done pretty well financially in some of the races he could not win.

Art Martin, shipped from Salem, N. H., to Chatham, where he will begin his campaign this week. He has a lot of good ones including Dickito, 2:17 1/2; Northern Spy, 2:17 1/4; Cheerful Charley, 2:12 1/2; Kavao, 2:15 1/4; Pinto, 2:17 1/2; Fred Kanno, 2:15 1/4; and Natalie, 2:14 1/4.

In Cleveland they think that the Spencer stable from California is one of the strongest headed down the Grand circuit. The star of the bunch is the good trotter Bernice R., 2:07 1/4. While Prince Lud, 2:07 3/4, and Nada, 2:09 1/4 are worth consideration.

THE AILMENTS OF WOMEN.

The girls and women who suffer with what is known as "Female Trouble" would look to their kidneys; they'll soon find the source of their ill-health. The kidneys are closely allied with the female organs, and if the vitality of the kidneys is impaired with great suffering occurs. There is no better medicine than Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they stimulate and strengthen the kidneys; assist other organs to do Nature's work, cleanse the system and thereby maintain perfect health. Great benefit and certain cure is guaranteed for all women who use Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

As we are so far west is and what we saw in our lives that beyond doubt we shall reap, for good or for ill, in the strengthening or defacing of what ever gifts have fallen to our lot.—Lord

THE PRINCE OF WALES
 The Prince of Wales now occupies his nineteenth birthday, is beginning to take his part in occasions of this kind, and this year he invited a number of his school friends from Oxford to be present.

The House of Lords will receive a shock should the new Lord Ashbourne, formerly the Hon. William Gibson, decide to take his seat in that chamber. In the first place he is a Nationalist and Home Ruler, and secondly he invariably wears the national dress, sackton colored kilts. These garments will be more embarrassing in the House of Lords than Lord Ashbourne's nationalism. It was not long ago that an Irishman in kilts was refused admission to the stranger's gallery at the House of Commons, his absence being considered inappropriate.

Lord Ashbourne speaks Irish fluently, is a frequent contributor to the magazines on Irish affairs, and is altogether an ardent Nationalist. His father, whom he succeeded, was just as ardent a Conservative.

The Liberal Government has decided that a man does his best work when he is in the forties. At least that is the inference drawn from the appointment of James Richard Atkin, King's Counsel, as an additional judge of the King's Bench division of the High Courts.

Mr. Atkin is 46 years of age, and the preference of a man of those years, just after England has been in the throes of a discussion as to whether a man does his best work in the middle or old age, is taken as an indication that the Government has decided in favor of the younger man.

The new judge was called to the bar 22 years ago, and has devoted almost his entire time to practice in commercial cases before the King's Bench Division, over which he is now to preside.

Labor unrest prevails throughout the Black Country, that great industrial district of which Birmingham is the centre. Over 40,000 workers, a

... LATE OUR BRITIS

LONDON, June 21.—The King and Queen have reduced by almost half the number of invitations issued for the annual garden party at Windsor Castle, which this year is held June 21. A year ago 10,000 invitations were issued. This year the number is only 5,000, so several thousand people will be disappointed in their hopes of receiving the "Royal Command." The explanation is that last year there was too great a crush, and those who did attend were inconvenienced.

While the Garden Party is more democratic than the usual court affairs, all the members of parliament, for example, receiving invitations, the cards of admission are greatly sought after. It was inaugurated by the late King Edward to enable him to get into closer touch with his subjects. Of recent years many foreigners and colonialists have attended the function, but as the number of tickets allotted to the embassies likewise has been reduced this year, many American and other visitors are among those doomed to disappointment.

Special trains take the guests to Windsor, and their royal carriages await the more distinguished. For the rest all sorts of conveyances are requisitioned. The party is held on the great lawn at the foot of the East Terrace. Gaily decorated marquees dot the grass, the two royal tents occupying prominent positions. Of these the Indian Shamianna, rich in beaten silver and gold and crimson hangings, is used for reception purposes, while the other is reserved for the purpose of serving of the "Majesties' tea." Here the Queen entertains the royalties present, a few personal friends and prominent personages.

CHARGE DISMISSED

School Teacher's Allegation Against a Married Man

The case against Horace Evans, who was accused of attacking Miss Elizabeth Mary Davies, on a lonely road at Commaes, Montgomeryshire, was dismissed on Tuesday by a majority decision of the Machynlleth magistrates.

Mr. Evans, who is twenty-four years of age, and who had been staying at a farmhouse near Commaes, was accompanied to court by his wife who sat beside him during the hearing. Miss Davies is twenty-eight years of age, and is a school teacher. The evidence for the prosecution was that Miss Davies and a girl companion met Mr. Evans, who was riding a bicycle, on May 24. He passed and repassed them, alighted, and sat on a bank until Miss Davies and her companion parted. "He afterwards overtook me," said Miss Davies, "and asked me to kiss him. He pulled me into a ditch, threw me down, and struggled with me for ten or fifteen minutes. His arms were around me, and he squeezed me too tightly for me to call out after my first scream. Eventually I got away, but he again held me on the road. He saw a girl approaching, and then rode away."

DID HIS DUTY

How the King, when a Prince Defered to Discipline

Presiding at a meeting at Devonshire House on Tuesday in connection with the "Duty and Discipline" movement, the Earl of Meath said: "We have in the King one who recognizes the meaning of the words 'duty and discipline.'"

On one occasion, said the earl, the King, then a Prince, and Naval officer, arrived at Gibraltar, and rowed for an hour and a half in the teeth of a gale in order to pay respect to a senior officer.

On another occasion an order was given to the Prince to run out a torpedo boat when he much desired to attend Goodwood races. His senior officer suggested that perhaps the Prince could arrange with someone else to take his place. "No," he replied, "it is the same to you, sir, I would rather do my duty."

WIFE'S RETURN

A startling sequel to the Titanic disaster is reported from Paris. Among the passengers was a Frenchwoman named Mme. Brenys, who resided at Bethune. Her husband, a Belgian, aged thirty-eight, years, read her name among the list of those who went down in the great liner, and went into mourning, but after a time became acquainted with another young woman.

Only last week he learned that his wife was among the rescued, and that she had returned to France and was searching for him. This news so surprised him that he resolved that he and the young woman should die together.

He lodged four revolver bullets in the latter's body, killing her instantly. He then fired two shots at his own head. As these did not prove fatal he was on the point of hanging himself when gendarmes appeared on the scene and conveyed him to a hospital.

BABY THROWN FROM A TRAIN

Mother Accused of Murder Makes Pathetic Confession

Mary Winifred Franks, the servant who is accused of murdering her eighteen-months-old baby by throwing it from a railway train, presented a pitiable object when placed in the dock at the Wokingham police court on Tuesday.

When the little wooden cap, and the other clothing worn by the dead baby was produced in evidence her lips quivered and she sobbed aloud. Chief Inspector Gough of Scotland Yard, said that when arrested Franks stated: "I must say I am guilty of murder." She then described her journey from Highgate to Littlehampton, where she saw her sister, who said she could not help her in any way, but gave her a few shillings. Franks then started for Reading, and travelled with other passengers to Aldershot. Here the other passengers got out, and she was alone in the carriage with her child.

"I threw my baby out of the carriage," said Franks in her statement, "not knowing what I was doing. It was a wicked thing to do. I have not been able to sleep at nights and I thought every minute of the night some one would touch me, and I should be arrested and I have told a lot of lies about my baby. Will I be kept in prison or shall I be able to pay some money instead?"

The accused was remanded. Beatrice Alice Phipps, aged 28, was sentenced to death at the Northants Assizes on Tuesday for the murder of her five-months-old child at Welingtonborough. The jury strongly recommended her to mercy.

FRENCH BUGLER HERO

Taken Prisoner He Blew the Charge Which Led to an Arab Rout

It has been ascertained that the oldest member of the French Legion of Honor is a bugler named Rolland, who lives at Lucalm, a village in the mountains of Aveyron, at an altitude of more than 3,000 ft.

He received his decoration in August, 1846, for heroic conduct in Africa during the skirmish of Sidhi Braham. The French soldiers had exhausted their ammunition, and with his last shot he fired his ramrod, which he had placed in the barrel of his musket, at the advancing Arabs. He stood his ground, and was run down by the Arab horsemen, who took him, wounded, and a prisoner, to their leader, the Emir Abd-el-Kader.

The Emir was squatting on a rich carpet under an olive tree. On seeing the prisoner with his bugle he pointed to the small cluster of French troops that were opposing the Arabs, and he asked him if he knew the tune that the Christians blew to order a cessation of the combat. The bugler said that it was the "retreat."

"Then take your bugle," said the Emir, "and blow the retreat." Rolland pretended to obey, but instead of the retreat, he blew the charge with all his might, and the Arab camp was carried. Considering the age of Rolland, who is now 94, it has been proposed to promote him from the rank of Knight to that of Officer of the Legion of Honor.

LOVE POTIONS

Wealthy Lady Fortune Teller Arrested by Italian Police

Signora Genevieve Nistri, a specialist in love potions, and one of the most famous fortune tellers in Italy, who lives at a palace at Florence, villa at Pisa and extensive estates, was on Sunday arrested by the police.

When they searched her house they discovered four sacks filled with olive leaves, which, according to a statement made by one of her clients she sold at one lira each to superstitious ladies, with instructions to burn a leaf daily for twenty days if they wished to regain their erring husband's affections. Signora Nistri is said to have sold ten sacks of these leaves a month.

At a meeting of the Liverpool Cathedral Committee on Monday it was stated that only a few hundred pounds were needed to reach £50,000 which is required to enable the committee to claim Mr. Arthur Earle's conditional promise of £10,000. When this has been received it will leave a sum of £43,000, to be provided to complete the first transept, the work of which is about to be commenced.

At the Imperial Scout Exhibition which Prince and Princess Alexander of Teck will open at Bingley Hall, Birmingham, on July 2, the "Daily Scout" will be published. The boys will write articles, set up the type, and print the paper in the hall. Wireless apparatus will be installed in Perry Hall Park, four miles away, in order that the rally of 30,000 scouts and the review by Prince Arthur of Connaught may be rapidly recorded in a special edition.

The driver of a tramcar which collided with a motor lorry at Sheffield on Tuesday received terrible injuries. The lorry driver had one of his legs broken. The front of the tram was completely smashed in, and the lorry was badly damaged. Two passengers in the tramcar were also injured, one a lady, having part of her scalp taken off by flying glass.

PROVED BEYOND DOUBT. The disappointed victims of poor Catarrh remedies should read the statement of J. R. Smith, of Lake Stream, N. B. In Catarrh one can find an absolute cure and says: "Last winter my little girl of eight caught cold which lodged in her ears in the form of catarrh. She became sick and deaf and nothing helped. By inhaling Catarrhazone she got relief and gradually the discharge went away. She was cured perfectly of Catarrh. Personally I can recommend Catarrhazone for coughs and throat irritation; it is a wonderful medicine." Sold every-where, 5c. and 15c.

FRONTIER FIGHT

Major Christie Killed by Raider Hidden in a Cave

The "Pioneer" of India gives particulars of the frontier fray in which that gallant officer, Major Christie, recently lost his life.

A gang of eight raiders entered a village and carried off the four children of a wealthy Hindoo. The villagers went in pursuit, and a messenger was sent to Bannu, whence a party of cavalry, under Major Christie, set out to capture the marauders.

When they arrived they found the villagers had located the raiders who had taken refuge in a cave. Bundles of straw were set alight in a chimney of the cave to smoke out the occupants, and troops guarded the entrance.

While Major Christie was supervising operations in front of the cave the leader of the gang got an opportunity to fire at close range from inside the cave. The bullet passed through both lungs, and the unfortunate officer died in a few moments.

In the final fight four of the raiders were killed, three were captured and only one made his escape. Two Sepoys were killed.

Submarine Nearly Sunk

Collision With Battleship During Manoeuvres

During a mimic attack by submarines on H.M.S. Prince of Wales and Irresistible on Monday off Portsmouth, the C 32 had a narrow escape from being sunk.

The Prince of Wales, the flagship of Real-Admiral Tupper, left Portsmouth with the Irresistible in the morning to join the remainder of the Second and Third Fleets. On their way down Channel they were surprised off the Isle of Wight by the submarine flotilla from Portsmouth, which was at exercise there.

The submarines, conceiving the idea of attacking the warships, approached them submerged with the idea of firing dummy torpedoes, and submarine C 32 got too close to the Prince of Wales, with which she collided.

The submarine was able to rise to the surface, but with the conning tower severely damaged, and a considerable portion of her outer superstructure, consisting of a wooden platform, carried away. The hull does not appear to have been damaged, and although the external wreckage was considerable the actual injury was not great.

The little vessel was left to remain on the surface, and to return to Portsmouth without assistance.

The Prince of Wales, conveyed by the Irresistible, also returned to Portsmouth. Divers were immediately despatched from the dockyard to make a survey, and after examination the Prince of Wales was reported fit to resume her journey, and left later. The damage was of only a slight character.

Mr. Philip Clarke, aged twenty-eight, surveyor, on holiday from West Africa, was drowned in the Thames early in the week at Kingston. He was seen paddling in a punt past Stevens' Eyots, opposite the Canary Riverside gardens, when suddenly he tumbled into the water. Mr. Henry Curtenshaw, superintendent of the juvenile section of the Labour Exchange at Kingston, who saw the accident, jumped in to the rescue and dived several times, but without success. Mr. Burtenshaw was rescued in an exhausted condition.

KIDNEY TROUBLE IS HEREDITARY

But Dodd's Kidney Pills Always Cure It

Dresden Man, Who Inherited Trouble Finds Speedy Relief and Permanent Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

DRESDEN, Ont., June 16.—(Special)—Whether kidney disease is hereditary or not is a matter of opinion. Mr. Samuel Birkett, a well known resident of this place is convinced that he inherited his from his parents. He knows that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured it.

"I inherited my Kidney Disease from my parents," Mr. Birkett states. "I was treated by a doctor, and tried various medicines, but it was not until about eighteen months ago, when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, that I got any permanent relief."

"Since then I have not felt any effect of my old trouble, and I feel that anybody troubled with kidney disease will be benefited by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills if they follow directions closely."

SUFFERED TERRIBLY WITH HAY FEVER

Until "Fruit-a-tives" Completely Cured Her

"It was a martyr to Hay Fever for probably fifteen years and I suffered terribly at times. I consulted many physicians and took their treatment—and I tried every remedy I heard of as good for Hay Fever. But nothing did me any good. Then I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and this remedy cured me completely. I am now well, and I wish to say to every sufferer from Hay Fever—'Try Fruit-a-tives'. This fruit medicine cured me when every other treatment failed and I believe it is a perfect cure for this dreadful disease." MRS. HENRY KEMP.

A little fellow of four years, was burnt to death in a disused pig-sty near Brown's Buildings on the main road between Chester-le-Street and Birtley on Monday night. Accompanied by his mother, Thomas Morris, four years of age, son of George Morris, a miner, of Ewe Hill, was playing his grand "pigs" for the day. The boy was playing with a number of other children in the pig-sty, and ignited some shavings with a match in his possession. His clothes caught fire, and before he could be rescued he was charred to a cinder.

The mother was unable to get through the small aperture leading from the forecourt into the sty, and a number of men had to break down the sides before the body could be recovered. The child was crouching in a corner, with his arms up to his face, as though trying to shield himself from the flames. Frank Elliott who thought the child was his own, badly burned one of his hands in his efforts to save the deceased.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT

Most Precious Text In The Bible

How Differently It Reads From What We Once Supposed.

Sermon by Charles T. Russell, Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle

Pasadena, Cal., June 15.—Pasadena is favored. Pastor Russell was to have spoken today in Los Angeles, but the best auditoriums were unavailable. Instead, he spoke this forenoon at Santa Ana, this afternoon and evening here, giving Friday and Saturday at Los Angeles and Los Angeles. Pastor Russell addressed a thoroughly representative audience. His afternoon topic was "Beyond the Grave." His evening topic we report. His text was, "God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 3:16.

Foretelling the Pastor pointed out that once Christian people, even Bible students, misunderstand this text and read into it a conflicting thought, dishonoring to God—read it as though it said that God so loved the world as to keep them from perishing, in order that they, the saints, elect, might attain to glory and look over the battlements of Heaven and see all the remainder—Jews, heathen and the masses of Christendom—writing in torment to all eternity—unable to perish—forced to live in order that they might, by their sufferings, entertain the more fortunate, who are guaranteed bliss to the full.

What right did we ever have, said the Pastor, to thus put into the mouth of our Saviour, as our creeds have done, words which He never uttered—words which are very untrue—indeed, a blasphemy against our Maker!

We are not faulting our forefathers. Had we been in their place, doubtless we would have been as confused as were they, and we might have indulged in heretic burning, etc. And had they lived in our wonderful day of great light, knowledge, privilege, opportunity, education, Bibles, etc., doubtless they would have had as noble ideas as ourselves respecting the prophecies of Christian conduct and Divine conduct and Love and Justice. The Bible tells us that Satan and his fallen angels are responsible for these terrible "doctrines of demons" which have given thinking people such horrible nightmares, and driven so many of them away from God and the Bible into unbelief, agnosticism, and even atheism.

Let us rejoice in the light of the better Day which has dawned. Let the become Bible students the highest sense of the term. Never before has there been such an opportunity for knowing the real teaching of God's Book—what it does contain and what it does not contain. We have the Bible, concordances and helps, and we have the general education which permits us to study them. Our forefathers labored against lack of education, time, lack of Bibles, and lack of good artificial light.

When we come to think of it, the word perished contains not the remotest suggestion of fire or torture. In our ignorance we read all that into the text and into other texts of similar import; for instance, the statement that God is not willing that any should perish, but would that all should come unto Him and live; and the statement of St. Peter that the willfully ignorant shall perish like brute beasts, and the statement through the Psalmist, "All the wicked will God destroy." How lurid these simple words become before our inflamed and perverted imaginations! No man of us rang the changes on these Bible terms in a vain attempt to drive men toward God through fear, when God declares that He does not wish any to come and has no pleasure whatever in their worship or service.

Did not Jesus tell us that the Father seeketh such to worship Him as worship Him in spirit and in truth? (John 4:23.) And our perversions of the Divine Word and Plan only helped men away from God to such misunderstanding of Him that they could not worship Him in spirit and in truth, and, at most, could worship only in form and ceremony.

The Pastor told of an experience he had in India. Some of the higher caste Hindus, wholly unapproachable by the missionaries, heard that he was preaching a more reasonable message. They came, entreating him for further meetings, declaring their respect for the intelligence of Christians, but that they could not believe the doctrines usually preached. They could not believe in a God so unjust, so unmerciful, so wicked that He would torment them and their forefathers through all eternity because they did not believe on Jesus, when they had not so much as heard of Him. They said that their gods were not so unjust; for they forbade men to torture even dumb brutes. They preferred to hold on to the reasonable gods of their fathers rather than to believe in the unjust one preached by the missionaries.

Can we blame them? asked the Pastor. On the contrary, he admitted that in the past himself and other Christians had seriously misinterpreted the Bible. He urged his hearers to study the Bible itself and to ignore the unreasonable teachings which are driving men away from the Bible and the God which it presents.

Pastor Russell found that the heathen do not really worship the idols, but through the idols seek to worship an unseen deity. At first he wondered that they could bow before such hideous, awkward, vicious-looking images. Then he thought came to him, that these poor heathen had formulated their gods of clay, stone, bronze, etc., but that we Christians had formulated ours differently—instead of using material substances we merely constructed ideals and described them, and that from this viewpoint, the credal pictures of the God of Love are farther

- come forth—the faithful, the saintly, to a resurrection of life—perfection, honor; the remainder of mankind—those who are not resurrected—will be cast into a world of suffering, from which will be cut off in the Second Death all unrighteous doers, all who prefer sin to righteousness, and only those who are resurrected will be saved from perishing and have an opportunity for believing in a salvation from death. Only because Christ died is there an opportunity for the Church to be saved from a "high calling" to the Divine nature. Likewise only through the merit of Christ's death will the world of sinners be saved from perishing and have an opportunity during Messiah's Kingdom to be re-covered from sin and death conditions, from ignorance, superstition, etc.—from the tomb.
- "Gradually they will be raised up, up, up, in the image and likeness of God in the flesh, ultimately to enjoy Him forever in a world-wide Paradise, from which will be cut off in the Second Death all unrighteous doers, all who prefer sin to righteousness, and only those who are resurrected will be saved from perishing and have an opportunity during Messiah's Kingdom to be re-covered from sin and death conditions, from ignorance, superstition, etc.—from the tomb."
- "I am not forgetting, said the speaker, that our text proffers Divine blessings only to believers. Neither am I forgetting that only a few are believers in the Scriptural sense now. Statistics mention four hundred millions of Christians; but, as we all know, this includes practically everybody in Europe and America, with Asia and Africa. It includes many in prisons and insane asylums, penitentiaries, etc. And that leaves three times as many now as call themselves Christians, who have no knowledge of Christ whatsoever—twelve hundred millions. Surely none of these are believers in the sense defined by Jesus and the Apostles.
- Jesus implies that if any one really believes His Message, his faith will transform his whole life—he would naturally be a faithful follower of Jesus that he would count all other aims and ambitions as loss and cross—and I wish to see the race set before him. Only these are believers, and they are comparatively few. They are a fine company. They will get their prize, the "pearl of great price," the Kingdom joint-ownership with the Redeemer in His glory, honor and immortality.
- But are no others to be blessed? For every man? Does not that expression imply that every man will have some opportunity of profiting by the Kingdom? It surely does. Those who now hear, appreciate, believe, in the Bible sense, alone will have an opportunity for sharing the Kingdom. Resurrection of the blessed and holy. But the remainder, we are assured, will all come forth from the tomb—to be granted an opportunity then for hearing and believing and gaining an inferior blessing. The blessing now is a spiritual one only; but the blessing to be offered under Messiah's Kingdom will be an earthly one—Restitution, human perfection in an earthly Paradise everlasting.
- The Bible tells all this, says Pastor Russell. It declares that the god of this world, Satan, is now blinding the minds of all except believers. It equally tells that in God's due time, during Messiah's reign, all the blind eyes will be opened, and all the deaf ears unstopped. (Isaiah 35:5.) Then the Kingdom will be granted an opportunity of enlightenment respecting the God of Love, and His wise, just and loving nature of reconciliation, and will be blessed by the great Mediator of the New Covenant. Note how this is explained by the Apostle: God wills to have all men come to a knowledge of the Truth, that they may be saved. To this end He has provided that Jesus shall be the Mediator between Himself and mankind. His name is in the Father's Plan. Jesus is now selecting the Church class, to be a Royal Priesthood, a Bride class, to share with Him in His Kingdom glory and Mediatorial work for the world. It was to this end that He gave Himself a ransom for all—to be testified in due time.—1 Timothy 2:4-6.

GAYEST WEEK OF THE SEASON

Ascot Sunday on the River
—All Grades of Society Were Out.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

NEW YORK, June 23.—A Long cable says: This is likely to be the gayest week of the season. As Sunday is always spent on the River, and yesterday was certainly the greatest up-the-river day of the year, all grades of society were on water and a record number of over 1,600 to be precise, passed through the Lock.

Today the Prince of Wales celebrated his nineteenth birthday. The King and Queen will attend the opera at Covent Garden to-night to be Melba and Caruso in La Bohème. This is really a command performance, as the Queen has expressed a wish to hear these famous singers together in her favorite opera.

To-morrow the Prince, a representative of the King, welcomes the French President at Portsmouth. The Prince of Wales and President Poincaré will travel together and the suite will be received by the King.

Wednesday is "Alexandra Day" when London will be a city of roses where the wild roses are to be sold for charities in which Queen Alexandra is interested. By 20,000 women dressed in white with wreaths of wild roses in their hats. Queen Alexandra will, during the afternoon drive down London to visit the Queen's State ball at Buckingham Palace. Several private dances also fixed for this event.

HEATED AIR MADE EXPLOSIVE

Theory in Connection With Terrible Fatality at Montreal.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

MONTREAL, Que., June 23.—That the wall which fell during the explosion of Itzweilo and Sarrazin, and killed four firemen and injured five others, were blown out by an explosion of heated air, was the statement issued by Fire Chief Tremblay this morning. The fire itself, which did not now estimated at $150,000, started, it is believed, by a cigar butt, carelessly flung into a pile of shavings.

All the injured men were reported as doing well this morning. A civic funeral will be given for the dead fireman on Wednesday and services will be held in the Roman Catholic and Protestant churches. A benefit in aid of the Montreal firemen's benevolent fund, which has to be cancelled, but the newspaper have opened their columns free to the acknowledgement of subscriptions.

Mohawk Car Service.

The city street car service to Mohawk Park has been withdrawn. The Grand Valley cars, which have been running every hour since the city and the park. The cars will be taken up by the proper authorities in the near future.

Building Permits.

Building permits have been issued by the City Engineer's office to William Payne for the erection of a cottage on Grant St., costing $1,000. To William Sutch, for the erection of brick cottage on Rawdon St., cost $1,000.

Sad Word.

News was received in the city morning of the death in Toronto of Miss Georgina King, a daughter of late Mr. George King, who formerly lived in Brantford, and her funeral will be announced later.

Seriously Ill.

Many friends will regret to learn of the very seriously illness of J. Snyder, wife of Rev. A. J. Snyder, pastor of Sydenham St. Methodist church. The family have all been summoned and have arrived in the city.

McManus Released.

Word reached the city this morning to the effect that Louis Cook, manager of the Guelph team had released Pitches McManus from his contract, strictly to the rules and regulations of the club.

Take a Rest.

There will be no practice of the local lacrosse team to-night. The team are going to take a rest until Wednesday night, and they deserve it, as what they did to those Cuckneys Saturday.
