City of Seattle Arrives in Port With No Passengers for Dawson—Grand Jury Cases Ready for Trial—Homer Bird Will Hang at Sitka.

Skagway, Dec. 18.—The City of Seattle arrived this afternoon with no passengers for Dawson. Mrs. Livingston came north to be married to Dr. Cane, postmaster of Whitehorse.

The grand jury has turned in all true indictments at Juneau and the cases will be tried very shortly. Word has been received from Juneau to the effect that Homer Bird will be hung on March 6th. The execution will take place at Sitka. His last hope is now gone.

Two gamblers were arrested here yesterday and were let out on bail to appear in April.

The Arctic Brotherhood is perfecting plans for a mammoth Christmas tree to the people of this city on Christmas night.

TWO MORE CANDIDATES

Peter Vashon and James McKinnon Are Out

Contest For Mayor Warming Up. R. P. McLennan Probably Be Out Tomorrow.

City politics are particularly active, but there is very little gossip today that, in justice to all the candidates, it would be fair to publish. There are two new candidates for alderman who have announced themselves. The first is James A. McKinnon, who was a defeated candidate at the last city election. Mr. McKinnon is coming out as an independent and is encouraged to do so because of the large vote he polled at the last municipal election. The second is Alderman Vachon, who is out for re-election.

There are other candidates spoken of for aldermen, notably Dr. Edwards, who is a very popular citizen, and Mr. Greene, the undertaker. Both of them are said to have a large enough following to make success a strong probability.

Mr. Davison is making an active canvass for the mayoralty and this afternoon opened headquarters on Second avenue in the rooms that were used as headquarters by the "Kid" committee in the incorporation campaign. But Mr. Davison is evidently much disappointed at the statement this morning that R. P. McLennan would certainly be a candidate.

Both Dr. W. Davis and Alderman Murphy are also said to be making energetic canvasses, and there is talk all around of slate making. Each of the mayoralty candidates are inclined in this direction, but the candidates for aldermen seem desirous of being independent for a little time longer, some of them, they say now, for the whole of the campaign. So whether there will be whole tickets or not does not seem to be settled.

Alderman Macdonald is looking up his numerous friends with a view to re-election. Alderman Adair is waiting for the nomination to come to him. He is perfectly certain that he worked hard in the city's interests during the past year, and if the ratepayers want him to serve again they know his address. That's about what Tom says. Nothing whatever has been heard from Alderman Wilson, who acted as the watch dog to the public treasury, but he may be heard from later. Alderman Vachon announces himself a candidate today, but there is little news in this, as he has all along stated that he should seek re-election. He will probably have a rival for the French vote in Frank Johnson, who will undoubtedly announce himself as a candidate for alderman in a few days. There is still talk of a second candidate being put up from South Dawson, but most people there seem to be satisfied with Mr. La Lande.

There is no change whatever in the situation as to the Yukon council election. The campaign committee of the labor candidate, Mr. Gilbert, has organized, with Harry Cribbs as chairman, and this is the first-organized campaign committee in the field. It is said that the step taken here by united labor, that of placing its own candidate in the field, is to be followed throughout the territory, and that the miners' union will have a candidate from the creeks.

Dr. Clendennin is at the St. Mary hospital. He has undergone a surgical operation and is said today to be progressing favorably. But it will be two or three weeks, probably, before he receives his discharge.

FRANCHISE TO BE GRANTED

City Council Decides to Give the Klondike Mines Railway the Privilege of Entering the City on First Ave., Unless Opposition Should Develop.

First avenue will be the route over which the Klondike Mines Railway will enter the city and if there are any property owners on that street who have any objection to such franchise being granted it is up to them to protest before the privilege is granted by the council. A special meeting was held on Tuesday at which the committee on streets met and talked over the situation with the representatives of the road at considerable length. The latter were obdurate in their desire to secure the First avenue franchise, pointing out that such was the natural entrance of the road and they wished that and nothing else. Another meeting of the entire council as a committee of the whole was held yesterday and after considerable discussion it was decided to grant the franchise asked for unless there appears an opposition so strong that it can not be overlooked. City Attorney Donaghy was instructed to draw up a by-law to that effect and at the next regular meeting of the council it will be presented and given its first reading. It is not the intention of the council to railroad the bill through, but it will take its regular course in order that any opposition that may appear can be heard and the objections raised given due consideration.

The franchise as agreed upon gives the road the right of way over First avenue from the foot of Craig street to Albert and allows two years in which the work shall be begun. The franchise is not exclusive as the council refused to grant such though it was greatly desired. As to the question of the exemption from taxation for a period of ten years, as was requested, the council has informed the railroad people that they have no power to grant any such privilege beyond the present year.

strong it will be put on its final passage on Monday night, December 22, which is the last meeting of the present council.

In speaking with several members of the council in regard to the franchise it is learned that the council is a unit with respect to First avenue being the most natural and easiest street upon which an entrance to the city could be effected, but the members do not desire to go directly against the wishes of the property owners along such street if the opponents are in the majority. Several days ago the Nugget interviewed a great many owners along First avenue in regard to the matter and of the number only two were found who were opposed to the franchise. It should be said, however, that quite a number could not be seen on the day in question and it is understood that of that number many are opposed to the First avenue scheme. Tom Chisholm is one who is alleged to be a bitter opponent of the franchise. The position taken by Curley Monroe, Tom Kirkpatrick, Louis Hoffman and others could not be ascertained. Neither could that of George de Lion who is on the outside this winter.

As previously stated it is up to the property owners to protest against the franchise if they do not approve of it. If a petition properly drawn up and signed is presented to the council it will undoubtedly receive some consideration, how much naturally depending upon the number of its signatures and the interests they represent. Only ten days yet remain before the matter is decided and the objectors must take action at once or it will be too late.

Some will doubtless censure the council for allowing two years in which the road must begin its construction, but it must be remembered that the work of putting in the bridge across the Klondike can not be prosecuted, that is, the foundations and the pier, except in the winter, the same as the case when the Ogilvie bridge was erected. No materials being here now it is manifestly impossible to do anything this season. Next year, according to the statements of the company's representatives, will see the bridge finished so that on the following summer the rails can be extended to the city. The iron work for the bridge is being made this winter and will be shipped in ready to be erected during next season's navigation.

CONVENTION OF MINERS

To be Held at Caribou City

Delegates to be Chosen at the Forks Tonight—Names of Candidates

A meeting of miners will be held at the Forks this evening to take the preliminary steps necessary to placing a candidate or candidates in the field for the territorial election. It is probable that at tonight's meeting delegates will be selected who will represent Bonanza and Eldorado creeks at a convention of miners to be held at Caribou some time next week.

Similar meetings have been held on Dominion and delegates from that creek have already been selected.

One delegate is allowed for every 50 voters and on this basis the convention will probably consist of about 25 members.

Several names are freely discussed as probable candidates, among them being Angus McLeod, Dan McGillivray, William Lennox, Arthur Wilson and Geo. Smith.

All the above are good men and each has a considerable following. The mining districts have not as yet responded enthusiastically to the offers of Dawson men to represent them as candidates, and seem to be quite of one opinion that the creeks should bring forward their own men. At any rate this is the report brought to the Nugget office today from one who is familiar with the progress of events on the creeks and the fact that a convention has been called would seem to lead color to this suggestion.

Acting Official.

Gold Commissioner Semler has added to his duties those of acting legal adviser during the vacation of Mr. Nowlands, and Charles Macpherson will act as Dominion mining engineer during the absence of Mr. Beaudette.

FROM FREY CREEK

Stampede Coming in and More Going Out.

John Dixon and L. B. Ward got in this morning from Frey creek, the tributary of Boucher to which there was a stampede recently. They recorded their claims this morning and said there were probably a dozen more who had staked when they left to come in.

As they came out they met Tom Lloyd and Frank McCandles, the first stakers, returning to the creek with winter supplies, also Dan McGillivray, Earl McDaniel, J. O. Close, Frank Conover, H. C. Pindell, J. C. Nelson and others. The trail to Boucher seemed to be particularly lively.

Dixon says the miners on Boucher have "smiles as wide as an alligator's" and he expects that creek will show up good. He staked on Iluot as he came out, and says that that creek is now covered with claims up into the 50's.

BALL TOMORROW

Steamboat Men Are Preparing for Big Events.

Plans are all completed for the independent steamboat men's ball which takes place tomorrow evening. There will be splendid music, a fine supper and in fact everything that can be done to make it a grand success is being done.

From the large number of tickets already sold it is evident that the friends of the steamboat men are numbered by the hundreds.

Total Loss.

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 18.—The steamer Robert Wallace, loaded with ore from Superior, Wisconsin, for Cleveland, sank in the lake thirteen miles off this port last night, the result of breaking her stern pipe. Captain Nicholson and crew escaped to the schooner Ashland, which his boat was towing. The steamer sank in 300 feet of water and will be a total loss.

Towns Threatened.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 18.—Fire early today threatened for an hour the complete destruction of East Helena. A fierce gale was blowing and to protect the residences and business buildings, blankets were made use of to prevent the flying firebrands igniting. With the assistance of a steamer from Helena the fire was got under control after four buildings had been destroyed. Loss, $10,000.

AUTOPSY WAS HELD

From Frey Creek

Assistant Surgeon Thompson, of the police department, today performed an autopsy on the body of George S. Baker, the insane patient who died at the asylum a few days ago. It was found that the abscess in Baker's right ear had its beginning in the middle ear and from the ravages it had made it is quite evident that the brain had been affected for some time as the result of the inroads made in the delicate tissue. It is the opinion of the physician that the patient's condition was not attributable to the disappointment in money matters which seemed to trouble him so much, nor to excessive drink, but directly to the abscess which was the cause of his death.

Baker's funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Greene's undertaking establishment under the auspices of the butchers' union of the city.

WORK ON GUSHER

Waiting to See Results of Filling-in of Shaft.

Dan Matheson has a force of men at the deep shaft on Eldorado but is doing little just at present, as the gravel placed in the shaft thaws out to some extent because of the temperature of the water below, and sinks. This is being carefully watched until the sinking naturally ends, when the filling in of the shaft will be proceeded with. This is practically all there is to do now, as the two pipes are working well and carrying off the whole flow, and can be capped at any time.

Funeral Sunday.

The funeral of young Edward Ayers, who died on the trail while trying to reach Duncan creek from the steamer Prospector, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Greene's undertaking establishment. Friends of the deceased are cordially invited to attend.

Killed Her Husband.

Binghamton, N.Y., Nov. 30.—Mrs. Epoch Hink shot and killed her husband at their home about three miles above Port Dalhousie yesterday about 4 o'clock. The act was done in self-defense. Hink at the time being engaged in a murderous assault on his wife with an open clasp-knife. Hink was 53 years old; his wife is forty. They have been married 23 years. For some time Hink has been jealous of a nephew.

YOUTHFUL OFFENDER

Boy of Thirteen Years Charged With Theft

Was Once Before Convicted of the Same Offense, Though Sentence Was Suspended

John Kay, a mere youth of 13 years, was for the second time in the police court this morning charged with theft. C. E. Lowery was the complainant, alleging that the boy had stolen from him a 30-30 calibre rifle of the value of $18. While in the box the boy had frequent recourse to a ragged pocket handkerchief upon which he blew his nose vigorously and rubbed his eyes. Last spring he was convicted of a similar petty theft and was given three months, the sentence, however, being suspended. He said that lately he had worked for a man named Larsen in South Dawson and afterward had gone to a wood camp up on the Klondike.

"Why did you not go home as you promised to when you were up here the last time," asked his honor, to which he replied that he had no money.

"It is really too bad to see a boy of your age arrested on the charge of stealing and I suppose if I send you home now it will be only a question of time until you are back again."

"No, sir, I won't," sobbed the lad. "I had already pleaded guilty to the charge and his honor was in a quandary what to do with him on account of his extreme youth. Sergeant Smith explained that on the previous occasion of his arrest he had gone to his father but had only remained with him a short time, running away and earning a precarious existence by doing odd jobs here and there. It was said his father had stated that he could do nothing with his son, that he would not obey and that he was incorrigible. Though seemingly addicted to petty thieving the boy has not the face of a young tough and surrounded by proper influences it would seem an easy matter to reform him. His mother it is said is somewhere on the outside. Instead of passing sentence the case was enlarged until Saturday to give an opportunity of seeing if something can not be done with the lad without sending him to prison."

The telegraph line is still out of business and the operators are accepting messages "subject to delay." The line is working all right to Skagway and Atlin, the difficulty being met south of the latter point. Linemen are out in the vicinity of the break and it is hoped that it will be repaired very quickly. Meanwhile there are no press dispatches being received except from Skagway and away points, and the Nugget is consequently deprived of its usual full service.

Cecil Marion today swore out a warrant charging Nick Burley, the pugilist, with threatening to do her bodily harm. When Burley went outside last fall he left his wife here and his threats toward the fair Cecil to "knock her head off" are said to have arisen in some manner from assistance she rendered the wife during the absence of her husband.

Weather Today.

Another chilly snap struck Dawson last night and the thermometer gradually sank until it touched 22 below. The minimum during the day was 16 above. At noon it was 17 below.

It is Willie Bittner's benefit at the Auditorium tonight, and there is sure to be a large house. There are a crowd of people who will go to show their appreciation of Mr. Bittner, and there may be another crowd who will go to get their money's worth. They may be certain of it. There will be an act from "Sowing the Wind," and the most laughable scene from that most laughable farce "Are You a Mason?" and any number of specialties by all the leading talent of the city.

MADE THE LIMIT

Extraordinary Score Made on the Curling Rink.

An unusual occurrence transpired at the curling rink yesterday evening which warmed the hearts of all lovers of the game. A score of eight was made on one end, the highest possible to make and done so rarely that the rink which accomplishes it is looked upon as being little short of wonders. The game was between J. Langlois, Bell, slip, and Harry Jones, skip. At one time in the game the score was 10 to 2 in Jones' favor, but the Bell giants had crept up so that the tally board read only 10 to 2 in favor of the hardware man at the time of the phenomenal performance referred to. There were two ends yet to be played with the odds against Bell, but in the first of the two remaining ends his rink scored no less than eight stones, the limit, capturing every one and making the highest possible score. In the last end another score was pointed making the final score 16 to 10 in favor of Bell. On the adjoining rink Magneron defeated Rainbow.

The Right Man.

St. Catharines, Ont., Oct. 25.—A shooting accident occurred here about 8 o'clock this evening, when Miss Mabel Benson, aged 10, was accidentally shot through the head by her young brother Carl, who is only about 14 years of age. The boy was examining a small rifle at the home when it was discharged, the bullet entering the back of his sister's head. Miss Benson died in a few minutes.

FOR ALDERMAN.

Editor Nugget: Sir—Permit me through the columns of your valuable paper to announce my candidacy for re-election as alderman. My record in the city council is before the public and if re-elected I shall pursue an independent course such as the best interests of the city may demand. I wish to extend my thanks to those who have given me their support in the past and express the hope that I shall continue to merit their confidence. Thanking you in advance for publication, I am, yours truly, PETER VACHON.

FOR ALDERMAN.

To the Electors of the City of Dawson: Gentlemen,—At the request of a large number of the electors and ratepayers of the city of Dawson I have decided to become a candidate for alderman. If elected I shall serve the city to the best of my ability and I take this opportunity of asking the support of the electorate to my candidature. Yours truly, JAMES A. MCKINNON.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH CUPID'S BOW

OSY little Dan Cupid after the announcement of the engagement.

It will be celebrated at Christ church, the most fashionable Episcopal church in the city. The Rev. Dr. Edwin Niver will officiate.

Dr. Emerson will, of course, give his daughter away. Mrs. Emerson will doubtless wear all her diamonds. She has a very magnificent collection of them, and she does not pay much attention to the conventions regarding the time of wearing them.

Mrs. Emerson's gown will be a very wonderful creation. The order is now with one of the leading New York dressmakers. It is certain that Mrs. Emerson at the wedding will be as magnificent as Queen Alexandra was at the coronation.

After the wedding Dr. McKim and his bride will sail for Europe. Their previous experience pleased them so much that they are anxious to find themselves there once more.

Dr. Emerson was very fond of him and when he designed the long tour beginning aboard his fine yacht, the Margaret, he invited the young doctor to be one of the party.

When there were excursions on land Cupid was always of the party, planting shaft after shaft in the hearts of Miss Emerson and Dr. McKim.

He wooed her in a gondola on the canals of Venice, among the islands of the Mediterranean, by the great pyramids and the primeval monuments of Egypt on the banks of the Ganges, on the coral straits of India, by the old Moulmein pagoda at Mandalay, in the land of the Mikado, in the ices of Alaska, and in most of the other romantic and fascinating parts of the world.

An interesting feature of this romance is that Miss Emerson has just made her formal appearance in society. This took place at the home of her parents on November 25th.

Dr. Emerson completely shook up the effete Old World by the magnificence of his entertainments. He traveled like an emperor. He entertained many of the rulers and nobility of the countries which he visited.

The party went through France in an automobile in order to join the yacht in the Mediterranean and avoid the stormy northern seas. The young people drove in the Bois, climbed the Eiffel tower and enjoyed the gayeties of Paris.

Especially did the little god exert himself while the party was in Italy, that lovely land which is peculiarly favorable to the soft emotions. They visited Rome, Venice, Genoa, Florence and Naples.

When Dr. Emerson found himself possessed of millions, time and measure, he trained for social delights and the approval of his fellow-men. Mrs. Emerson, as might be expected, was still more anxious for social success.

Dr. Emerson got himself elected commander of the Maryland Naval Reserves. He had a very handsome uniform, which was loaded with gold lace, and he never lost a reasonable opportunity of wearing it.

The Emersons have built a mansion on Eutaw Place which is probably the finest in Baltimore. It is adjacent to Druid Hill Park, which is the aristocratic centre of the city.

One of the persons who helped the Emersons in their social campaign was Mr. Harry Lehr, once of Baltimore, but now the most conspicuous ornament of New York society. When fashionable Baltimore was still pretending to ignore the Emersons he dropped in one evening at their box in the theatre.

Just eighteen months ago the Emersons gave a party that is simply historic. Not only the most exclusive Baltimoreans, but New Yorkers, were among those present. Mrs. McKim sang, and so did Jean de Resaie.

Among those who listened to the tale of "El Renegado" and were lured to the ambuscaded banks of the Rio Yaqui was Frank Kelcey...

When the authorities of Naco eventually awoke to the real business of their renegade countryman, the filibuster had folded his tent and silently stolen away.

Finally the police traced this insubordinate work to Dietta James, whom they found in the Hotel Central of Guaymas—alone, the renegade had fled.

It was the belief of the police that "El Renegado" had returned to the Yaqui country where he would be absolutely free from any pursuit...

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE

L. R. Ellert Has Lived a Double Life

He Jilted One Woman to Wed Another, Then Married the Jilted One.

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—A chapter in the life of former Mayor L. R. Ellert, hitherto concealed from the general public, though it contains enough incident for a modern melodrama, was revealed yesterday by the filing of an affidavit in the probate court.

The story as told by those who play the leading role is one of love, marriage, divorce, hatred, revenge, and a plot to deprive an heiress of her heritage, and the final scene is yet to be presented in the courts.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Emmett Urell, commander-in-chief of the Spanish war veterans, accompanied by F. C. Hodgson and G. L. Sherry, officials of the organization, today urged the president to place under the civil service all the Spanish war veterans who are now serving the government in a clerical capacity in the Philippines.

WARNER IS UP AGAIN

Familiar Face is in the Dock Today

Now Under Three Different Suspended Sentences, But Will Now Saw Wood.

With a record of four times up in the past few months for drunk and disorderly and three suspended sentences over his head, John Warner in the police court this morning found himself up against a hard proposition. Then, too, is the record left before Mr. Justice Craig before whom Warner was tried some weeks ago on the charge of the theft of a valuable piece of gold bearing quartz. It is true that on the latter charge a dismissal was granted, but there was the stigma and the doubt as to whether he was really guilty or not. Warner is under a month's suspended and it sentence for being drunk while interdicted; two months suspended sentence for vagrancy and three months suspended sentence for theft, and it was a hard plea he made before his honor this morning when hauled up for being both drunk and having committed a nuisance. Warner has a dreadful impediment in his speech, stutters frightfully so that his attempts at making himself heard are pathetic and at the same time ludicrous. Constable Burns related the circumstances. Last night about 8 o'clock the officer picked up Warner on King street while in the act of committing a nuisance in the entrance to the Bay City market. He was very drunk at the time and was taken to the barracks.

Sergeant Smith volunteered the information that Warner was a well known character about town and at the Forks where he had given the police considerable trouble on account of getting drunk so often. Warner regretted the occurrence and stated he never came to town but what he got into trouble. He was sorry and if the judge would only give him one more chance he would promise not to come to town again for a year. He said he had come to town to have a skate and when arrested was on the way to the rink. "Yes, you came to town to have a skate and got a skate before you reached the rink," said his honor, with an suppressed smile.

"I am always up against it when I come to town," he pleaded. "Your honor I am a hard working man; work all the time, and if you will let me go I can go right back to Charley Worden on Eldorado and go to work again."

"That's the same old story you always tell," said his honor, "and I have begun to lose faith in you. Since you seem so anxious to return I am going to give you another chance but in a different manner from what I have before. I will put you out of temptation for a few days and see how that works. I shall give you $10 and costs or thirty days at hard labor and for committing a nuisance I shall add $2 and costs more."

After saving wood for a month or six weeks Warner may lose his appetite to a certain extent.

Into the Courts. Nandimo, B. C., Nov. 24.—Justice Williams is taking out an injunction to prevent Rev. W. W. Baer, of the Methodist church here, from preaching. Mr. Baer smokes, which is against the church rules, but it is permitted to him by the church courts under his doctor's prescription for insomnia.

Runs Amuck. Providence, R. I., Nov. 24.—Henry Crotchford, a banjo player whose home is believed to be in Washington, today shot and killed Elsie Lewis, colored, probably fatally wounded Mabel Nixon, colored, and then shot and killed himself. Crotchford is 33 years of age, Miss Lewis 17, and Miss Nixon 21. Jealousy is said to have been the motive for the crime. Each of the girls was shot at her home.

Reberval, Que., Oct. 28.—Last spring Francis Guerin mysteriously disappeared from this place and was thought to be drowned. On Sunday two children left their home to get traps in the woods, and about two miles from their home they found the body of a man hanging from a tree. The remains were identified as those of Guerin. A verdict of suicide was found.

"I am glad to hear that your patient has gotten well," said one young physician.

"Yes," answered the other. "I thought for a little while it was going to be one of the prettiest cases of appendicitis that ever happened. But prompt and careful treatment brought him around and I missed a chance for a fine operation. I didn't know it was possible for a man to feel so glad and so disappointed, both at once."

BILL IS UNPOPULAR

London, Nov. 17.—The Cleveland and Liverpool bye-elections are nasty pills for the government, and the Liberal party is in high feather again. Such a big reduction in the Tory majority at Liverpool was not anticipated by the party managers on either side, and the thumping majority for the Liberal candidate in Cleveland clearly indicates the unpopularity of the education bill in workaday Yorkshire.

Rome, Nov. 29.—Current reports of the alarming condition of Pope Leo's health are based on the fact that two papal audiences were postponed as Leo was too busy to grant audiences and spent the days working in his library. The cyst which is reported to be forming again never existed, and the malady for which His Holiness was operated on two years ago was hemorrhoids, from which thousands suffer but which kills very few.

Dr. Lapponi, the Pope's physician, said to the Examiner correspondent: "His Holiness has an extraordinary constitution, and it is as likely as not he may live to be a hundred."

Paris, Nov. 15.—The energetic prefect of police, M. Lepine, has added yet another category to the long list already existing of police officials. The new office is the agent chauffeur, and Sergeant Natet is the first Paris policeman provided with an automobile. He watches other automobilists, and gives chase to any one driving at an excessive rate of speed. He is not likely to be received with enthusiasm by the automobilizing world, but foot passengers hail his advent with gratitude.

PROTEST ON HUNKER.

John J. Black and Gottlieb Zerbberg have entered a protest against the application of C. Kerr Wilson, to divert water from a tributary of Hunker between 53 and 54 below. Defendants apply for 100 inches, and plaintiffs claim that a prior water right has been granted and that to grant the application in question, to carry this water past their claims, would interfere with their operations.

MORNING JOKE FAKES.

Attorney Macfarlane Indignantly Denies Alleged Interview.

Two Undeclared Teams to Battle for the Supremacy—Fast Game.

Alex. I. Macfarlane, who was the counsel for Fourrier in the recent murder trial, expressed surprise and indignation this morning at the purported interview with him in the morning joke in which he is made to declare his belief in the innocence of La Belle. He says: "I have never been interviewed at all by anybody upon such matters. Had I been requested to express an opinion thereon I should undoubtedly have refused to discuss them in any way. The case is under revision by the minister of justice at Ottawa, and I certainly should not say anything to prejudice the case of my client and, in fact, it would be entirely unprofessional for me to say anything about it for publication and I have not done so."

ANOTHER REASON.

London, Nov. 15.—Mr. Joseph Chamberlain's visit to South Africa is not wholly due to public consideration. His health has much to do with it. Nothing has been publicly said about the matter, but the effects of the cab accident in Whitehall last summer which sent Mr. Chamberlain into the hospital for a few days are still observable in the colonial secretary. He is not able to stand the same strain he was a year ago. Of course, any man nearer 70 than 60, as Mr. Chamberlain is, cannot expect his vitality to increase. Mr. Chamberlain's talk of rest is an important factor in his expedition. Two sea voyages will give him some relief from the daily burden of colonial administration.

A dispatch from Buda Pesth says that at Varsze in Hungary the police have arrested a dangerous gang of note forgers, including their chief, a former burgomaster of the town. The ex-burgomaster is a skillful draughtsman and his counterfeits were so artistically finished that even experts found difficulty in distinguishing the forgeries from genuine. Two large vans are filled with the implements used by the forgers, which included the most recent appliances for printing the notes. Letters found in the house of the ex-burgomaster prove the connection of the gang with money changers in Europe and America.

The Brussels police have, it is said, discovered the existence of an international association for carrying on the traffic of girls intended for immoral purposes. The heads of the movement are residents of Paris, London and Berlin and their agents are quartered in Brussels. The identity of five of these individuals is known to the police. One of them has been arrested and from the clues in the possession of the police it is hoped to lay hands on the others.

The great manufacturing establishments in Belgium, in which vast numbers of girls are employed, are the fields in which the traffickers in female virtue seek their prey, and enough is already known to make certain that there have been many victims.

The prefect of Jaszbereny, Hungary, has issued the following decree: "In view of the fact that domestic servants are getting more and more in the habit of neglecting their work in order to amuse themselves, I hereby give notice that any female domestic servant who is found out of doors or even on the doorstep of the house in which she is employed after 9 p. m., will be summarily arrested and punished by a fine of four days imprisonment."

More jewelry than all others combined, unexcelled in quality, lowest in price, at J. L. Sale & Co's.

Stabbed to Death. Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Miss Florence McFarlan, aged 21 years, a music teacher, was stabbed to death in her father's house here today by another woman, and an hour later Mrs. Lula, Young, wife of Frank Young, at one time city purchasing agent, was arrested as being the supposed murderer.

The woman who committed the deed rang the door bell of the McFarlan home and when Miss McFarlan opened it attacked her with a knife. Miss McFarlan ran screaming through the hall into the kitchen, closely pursued by her assailant. In the kitchen she stumbled, half turning. In a flash her pursuer was upon her and stabbed her five times. Miss McFarlan sank to the floor, dying instantly.

The murdered died. The only words she was heard to utter were: "She has come between myself and my husband and I'm glad she's dead."

WILL BE A HOT GAME

Hockey at the Rink on Christmas Day

Two Undeclared Teams to Battle for the Supremacy—Fast Game.

The sporting blood of Dawson has reached a high state of ebullition over the Christmas hockey game which is to be played between the Civil Service and City Eagles at the athletic rink. Both teams have won every game so far played this season and with such a record and the further fact that it will be their first contest everyone is on the qui vive for the call of time by the referee. Both aggregations will be in good condition as considerable time is being devoted to good hard practice and the game will be truly a battle of the giants.

The captains of the respective teams have not yet announced their lineup, but it is thought there will be little or no change in the personnel. For the Civil Service the forwards will undoubtedly be Bennett, Randy McLennan, Norman Watt and Kennedy, than whom no better can be found in the territory. All are old time players whose style of play is known to each other through long association and who are thoroughly conversant with every little trick that will tend to an advantage. Douglas will preside over the goal while Ellbeck and Harry Povah will play point and coverpoint. The combination is as hard as nails and as the Civil Service hockey teams in years past have been uniformly successful in being at the top of the heap the present aggregation will defend their past record to the utmost.

In the City Eagles, however, there are players just as proficient. Hagel, Andy Smith, Patterson and Haddock play like whirlwinds on the forward line. Keenan and Merritt at point and coverpoint with Boyer at goal make a defense as near invulnerable as it can be. Neither team has any cinch over the other and if pools were selling on the event they would go at an even break with odds neither one way or the other. The game should attract the largest crowd that the rink ever held.

There will be a game Saturday evening of this week between the D. A. A. and Police teams which should prove interesting. Both have nothing but goose eggs to their credit so are evenly matched. The games that have been scheduled for the balance of this month and next, together with their dates, are as follows:

Dec. 20—D.A.A.A. vs. Police. Dec. 25—Civil Service vs. City Eagles. Dec. 27—Civil Service vs. Police. Jan. 1—City Eagles vs. D.A.A.A. Jan. 3—Police vs. City Eagles. Jan. 10—Civil Service vs. D.A.A.A. Jan. 17—Police vs. D.A.A.A. Jan. 24—Civil Service vs. City Eagles. Jan. 31—Civil Service vs. Police.

The games arranged month 24 and will extend up to March 31.

Champions Lose. The hitherto invincible rink presided over by Skip Moncrieff, champions of the rinks, last night went down in ignominious defeat before the braves of Major Outbrett at the curling rink by a score of 10 to 8. Those who witnessed the game say it was one of the best ever played on the rink, Moncrieff making one shot that particularly distinguished him.

Wrong in His Prophecy. Rome, Nov. 23.—Dr. Luigi Lapponi, the private physician to Pope Leo XIII, is slowly recovering from his recent attack of appendicitis and His Holiness is much relieved in mind. It is over a month since Dr. Lapponi was seized with illness and an operation was deemed necessary.

Dr. Lapponi has for years attended the pontiff and the latter was exceedingly distressed when he learned that his trusted and beloved medical adviser was stricken with a critical malady.

Dr. Lapponi has frequently expressed the prophecy that he would not outlive the Holy Father, which in view of the great difference in their ages was considered improbable. When, however, the physician was taken ill a fulfillment of his prophecy seemed imminent.

"I hope that Dr. Lapponi's constant prediction that he would die before me will not be fulfilled," were the words of the pontiff when he was told of the physician's condition.

ROUGH ON THEM Turkish Diplomats Pretty Well Broke. Vienna, Nov. 15.—With the exception of the Turkish ambassador in Vienna, all of the diplomatic representatives of the Ottoman empire abroad have recently complained to the Porte that their salaries have not been paid for many months. One or two ambassadors have not received a cent for more than two years and nearly all the Turkish diplomats have a year's salary to draw. In many cases energetic protests have been addressed to the Porte with the result that the Turkish minister of foreign affairs has now issued a circular note to all the Turkish diplomatic representatives abroad that the sultan is highly displeased at the ill-bred and plebeian way in which they have dunned the government for their arrears of payment and that they will be summarily dismissed if they continue to worry his imperial majesty with their importunate demands. In these circumstances, it is interesting to recall the strange plight in which the Turkish ambassadors have been, owing to the delay in the payment of their salaries and allowances. The Turkish ambassador in Berlin, Galib Bey, was ejected from his official residence because he failed to pay the rent, while his horses and carriages and other property were seized by creditors of the embassy. Finally he was obliged to pawn his personal belongings in order to obtain money enough to return to Constantinople. The Turkish minister at Bucharest, Riza Bey, began to get into serious trouble when his salary was two years overdue. His creditors began pressing and he could not buy the necessities of life without paying cash, which was of course impossible for him. Finally he went to London and threatened to found a young Turkish revolutionary journal unless the sultan gave orders for all his debts at Bucharest to be paid immediately and for his arrears of salary to be forwarded within eight days. The threat had the desired effect and all the money was paid with remarkable promptness. Several Turkish ministers abroad have pawned the legation furniture to pay their debts and not long ago the Turkish ambassador in Paris got in trouble for pawning the jewels of a lady who favored him with her friendship. In many capitals the Turkish diplomats carefully avoid accepting invitations to dinners, etc., because they have not the means of returning the hospitality enjoyed.
