Mr. Swinyard stated that he had glanced at the circular but had not read it carefully. Said the reporter: "Mr. Wiman states in the circular that 'the Great Northwestern Talegraph Company intends to approach the Dominion shareholders' with a request for a reduction of the yearly rental to an amount his company will find it possible to pay. Would you object to tell me whether Mr. Wiman has done mything of the kind?"

or without the knowledge of the board, so far as we know—a course that could only be regarded as a gross and wanton insult to the board."

"Do you antispate any such step on the part of Mr. Wiman?"

"No. I do nor."

"Why not, if he has so acted in the case of the Montreal Company?"

"Because the Dominion Company does not know Mr. Wiman of the Great Northwestern Company. They only know the Western Union, who are the direct lesses of the Dominion Company, and therefore any appeal on the part of the Great Northwestern to the Dominion Company, and therefore any proposition of that kind would doubtless come to the Dominion directly from the Western Union in a proper and business like manner, not from the Great Northwestern Company, nor with an soject to create a sensation or pasic, or a stock jobbing operation by a sudden alarm amongst the shareholders."

"What is the relation to the Dominion Company, as between the Great Northwestern of and Western Union Company as that any notice on the part of the G. N. W. Co. a bortion of the lines of the Dominion Company, as that any notice on the part of the G. N. W. Co. direct to the Dominion would be nugatory and ridiculous."

"The Western Union Company have only sublet to the G. N. W. What do you think but of that?"

"I cannot say. All that I know is that I am not and cannot be made to be a party to any attempt to cajole the Montreal Company of the Dominion Company so treak down the value of their bona fide shareholders. Any his such proceedings I could only regard as delices and destardly."

Military circles were very peaceful yesterday morning. The officers of the Toronto brigade had sat up till carly in the morning at the National Club to do honor to Capt. Sears. The guest of the evening had made everyone more sorry he was going and said some very pretty things about Toronto Indies. So did Col. Gray. The lives of Canada's troops are very dear to The World, so one of its young men went out to the Fort in the morning to inquire. The popular commandant and all his braves had returned during the night in good order. They had kept up their reputation. Every one had either made a speech or sung a nong. Dr. Strange was met coming out and said the braves were out of danger.

Never have Toronto curlers had a more promising season before them than the presentone and the game will certainly receive a big boom this season. Several new clubs are in the field for honors, including the victoria and Prospect, both of which promise to make it interesting for the older organizations as several expert players are identified with the new clubs. Though no matches have yet been arranged, the parcipitants of the game have taken advantage of the cold weather to get in some practice shots. With the new year will be seen the game in full blast, and with such olubs as are now in Toronto the season cannot be otherwise than a busy and interesting one for the admirers of the sport.

In the report of the proceedings of the Public School Board in The World yesterday the wording of one of the sentences was somewhat ambiguous. It hight have been understood that Trustee McMurrich spoke of Mr. J. Phillips "as an incompeient teacher." Trustee McMurrich merely moved the referement back of a clause in a report, which was carried. It was one of the other trustees that used the words quoted.

At the regular meeting of St. Phillip's Association last night, an interesting debate took place, the subject being: "Resolved, that ancient orators surpass those of modern times." The affirmative was upheld by Dr. Harley Smith and Mr. F. W. Carey, the negative by W. D. McPherson and B. H. Scott. The audience decided that the affirmative had brought forward the better arguments. Miss Amy Pearce gave a piano solo, Mrs. C. A. Steward and Mr., Pearce received an encore for their yocal duet. Miss Jones and Mrs. Shurpe gave recitations. A vocal duet by the Messrs, Thick was well received.

The Great Question Now: DON'T FORGET Raymond Walker.

"What will he bring me, mamma, say?"
And a pleading face by close to hera.
She had been talking of Christmas Day,
One of old Santa's worshippers.
"I wrote a long time ago, because
So many children send a letter;
Mamma, do you think Santa Claus
Would love me if I'd been some better?"

Nover mind, baby, de not fret,
Old St. Nick is your patron saint;
None of your letters will be forget—
Il's quite too early to make complaint
"But what will I do for Christmas gifts!
I fear my stocking will empty be;
Santa don't come through snowy drifts
From Icelandtown for folks like me. "Oh, mamma, dear, we do, we do,
He did last time, don't you 'collect,
With booful furniture, all for you?
He il do it again, I really 'spect."
A glow of shame in mamura's cheek,
That she had given the child a doubt
When Christinas came from week to w
What had she to complain about.

Home is the mother's kingdom here,
Home, though beautiful, made as we can,
Dearer it grows year after year,

Nothing that fairies could bring or give
Would fill the want in a mother's hearts
Like that which teaches her how to live—
Home belongings and works of life. Such as you can see in all the pretty new homes made by Raymond Walker's elastic and excelent instalment plan. One would willingly pay for these, but they cannot be had, and I am not surprised that two hotels on the American system have been started in London.

The dog show opens to morrow; there are 1245 entries. Among the number 106 are setters, 98 spaniels, 167 she'n dogs, and 75 St. Bernards. The late prominence of blood hounds is the probable cause of an increase to 90 entries in that class.

Stratford-on-Avon still continues to attract many visitors, 14,000 having done homage at the birthplace of the immortal Shakesneare during the year. The little Red Horse Inn is still open for guests as it has been for 300 years in the hands of descendants of the samfamily. The Washington Irving room, with its sacred arm chair and poker, attracts much attention. The old lady who is so thoroughly posted as to Shakesneare's doings is a coratorical as she has been for the last 18 years and still has an open palm. The home must fall to pieces some day but it is as carefully preserved as human skill can preserve it. The tomb and bust will probably last a longitude, for Jesus sake forbear," will be read friend, for Jesus sake forbear, will be read for many generations. The American have been especially busy here, as is shown by the fountain recently built by a Philadelphia gentleman and the stained glass window bought and placed in the church by American subscriptions. Ann Hathaway's cottage, with the same old straight-backed seat on which William and Ann are supposed to have courted, and the same old fireplace by which they as flooks as old and smells as musty as on could desire. The yellow jessamme in full bloom climbing up its wall and the gree alrubs of a sing little garden, the thickly thatched roof and quaint old chimneys, the brick garden wall and curious old well, all got of fill up the picture. The sport is quite as much laughed at here as abroad. Punch served the climar some time hack with a wellcapped the climax some time back with a well known cartoon.

PAINES CELERY COMPOUND

ACTS AT THE SAME TIME ON THE NERVES, THE LIVER, THE BOWELS. and the KIDNEYS

This combined action gives it won-derful power to cure all diseases. Why Are We Sick? Because we allow the nerves to remain weakened and irritated, and these great organs to become clogged or terpid, and poisonous humors are therefore forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.

MAGNETIC HEALING.

To Dr. Lemon:

SIR.—I hereby certify that I have been a patient of yours for the past four weeks. I received medical treatment for twenty years before I came to you. I certify that medical treatment never did me any good. I never received any benefit until I applied to you. My disease was dyspepsia and rheumatism. What I suffered no one knows only those who have been similarly afficted.

I write this to Dr. Lemon in token of the gratitude and thanks for the good he has done me. I am better now than I have been in twenty years. I did not take any medicine.

Respectfully.

Excess of praise is hardly possible when speaking of thinew and superbly beautiful design, which is intended to mee the demand for a me re expensive exterior or cabinet, together with a most superbaction. Referring to Pisine Fortes of Messrs. An Upright Grand, which I examined was in every respect a fine instrument; the touch was sympathetic and had a good repetition; the tone was full and rich.
