The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

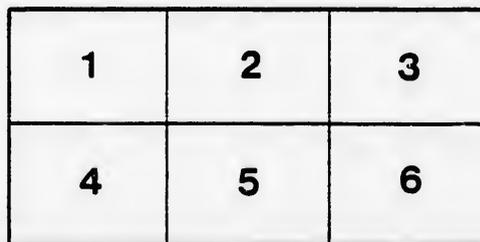

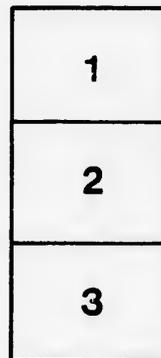

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

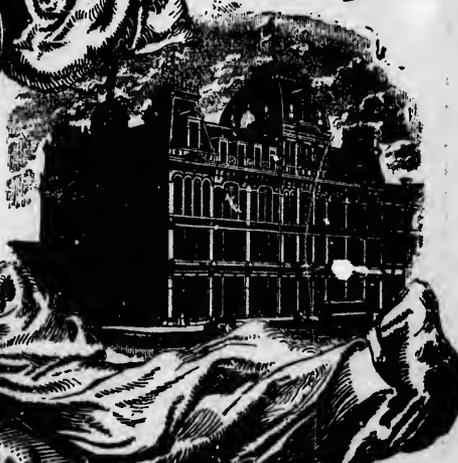

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

DOORS open for matinees at 2 p. m. ; curtain rises at 2.30 p. m.
Evenings.--Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.
Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Seats ordered by Telephone or in Person, and not called for by 7.30 o'clock on the night of performance, will then be sold to avoid loss to the Theatre.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over, full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any idleness or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Electric Cars will be waiting on Richmond St. for all parts of the City, at the close of each performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles, apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

A LUMINOUS ROMANCE.

The brilliant career of two Western girls, with its rather lurid termination, has been outlined as follows:—

An Iowa woman has named her twin daughters Gasoline and Kerosene. The old man's name is probably Pete-Roleum.

We hope the babies will grow up a pair of fine girls.

The man who marries into that family will strike oil, but we fear sparking in the immediate neighborhood of the girls would be a very dangerous pastime.

Later:—A man named Naphtha popped to one of the girls, and he hasn't benzine since.

HIS "BRAWSES."

The convenience and safety incident to the American system of checking baggage is not at once appreciated by all foreigners. The Englishman told about in the Chicago Tribune, however, meant to have kept his checks safe, at all hazards.

"Have me bawxes arrived?" he said to the hotel clerk.

"Hey?"

"Me bawxes."

"Eh! Oh, your trunks. Front, find the gentleman's trunks!"

They were not to be found, and their owner decided to go to the station for them himself.

"Have you me bawxes here?" he said to the agent.

"Huh?"

"Me bawxes."

"Trunks, d'ye mean? Let's see yer checks."

"Me checks! checks!" was the puzzled answer. "Bless me stars! Cawn't understand! I—"

"I want your trunk checks. Here, these things," explained the agent, showing a check.

"Oh, it's me brawses you want? I locked them in me bawxes. I'll have to get me bawxes first."

"Well, that beats my time!" ejaculated the baggageman. "Oh yes, certainly, I'll find 'em," and he did.

A REMARKABLE CHANCE.

MORTIFICATION usually follows so closely upon the heels of deception, one would think that men would hesitate much more than they seem to before bringing down upon themselves such an uncomfortable reward. But many are still courting humiliation by much the same methods as those of the artist in this instance:—

A Hungarian peasant went to a Munich painter and asked him to paint the portrait of his mother.

"Certainly," said the painter; "send her to me."

"But she is dead; if she was alive I wouldn't want her portrait."

"Well, have you any picture of her?"

"No; if I had I wouldn't want one."

"Well, my friend, describe her to me; what sort of eyes, hair, etc.?"

He secured that, and appealing to his artist friends who had some Hungarian studies, he painted a head. Secreting his friends about the room, he sent for the peasant. The man came, looked at the picture, his eyes filled with tears; he put up his hand to wipe them away.

"Poor fellow," said the artist, patting him on the back. "It is a good likeness, then, it affects you so much?"

"No," said the man. "Poor mother! to think she has only been dead six months, and looks like that!"

NO USE WISHING.

Some waste their time longing for the unattainable, and others waste theirs longing for that which might easily be attained with a very slight effort on their part. Both classes of "longers" are foolish. What's the use in wishing in either case? Here is a girl who understood this perfectly:—

"You see," he explained to the ingenuous young thing as he showed her the wishbone, "you take hold here and I'll take hold here. Then we must both make a wish and pull, and when it breaks, the one who has the biggest piece of it will have his or her wish sometime."

"But I don't know what to wish for," she protested.

"Oh, you can think of something," he said.

"No, I can't," she replied, "I can't think of anything I want very much."

"But we mustn't spoil the fun that way," he exclaimed, "I'll wish for you."

"Will you, really?" she asked.

"Why, yes, if you can't"—

"Well, then, there's no use fooling with the old wishbone," she interrupted, with a glad smile. "You can have me."

Walking Delegate: "Yez must shtop doin' that work unless yez hov a card signed by th' Supreme Exalted Grand Master av th' Union."

Mulcahey: "But it's me wife's wood, mister."

Walking Delegate: "I can't help that. Lave off!"

Mulcahey: "Faith, Oi'll not. Oi'm ready to tackle yure Supreme Exalted Grand Master, but when it comes to a t'ree-hundred-pound woman wid rid hair, Oi'm not in it!"

Little Nell: "What's the matter?"

Little Dick: "Pop caught me smoking an' he's going to lick me."

"When?"

"Quick as he gets through smoking."

THE majority of advertisers fail chiefly because they are timid.

GOODS advertised with posters are half sold--any salesman can finish the deal.

DR. BEEMAN, proprietor of the pepsin chewing gum bearing his name, has gone beyond the point of theory in poster advertising to such an extent that he is spending $150,000 in putting up great, big, overpowering, convincing arguments—arguments that are run against whenever one turns about.

THE NEW YORK JOURNAL is spending about $2,000 a month in poster and other out-door advertising. As a result, it is stated on good authority, that they have been unable to print the number of copies ordered.

“‘MONEY TALKS’ never more forcibly nor more profitably than when properly invested in the right kind of posters. The poster speaks to everyone—to prince and pauper, to banker and laborer. The poet and peasant, the gay and sad, the ignorant and educated, the high and low, the rich and poor, all without distinction of race, class or condition, individually and collectively, are brought under its magic sway.”—Alf. Ringling, in the American Bill Poster.

THE CENTURY, New York, offers three prizes of $125, $75 and $50 for the three best designs for a poster advertising the mid-summer number. Why don't some of our Canadian artists make an effort to capture the coin ?

THE NEW YORK WORLD offers $100.00 for the best poster design, advertising their Sunday issue.

The value of the displayed poster for advertising purposes to-day is so thoroughly recognized in all kinds of business that not to use them is to lose trade.

THERE are over 6000 poster collectors in the United States. Canada has about 1000.

PLAIN, pertinent, prominent posters properly posted, publicly proclaim princely possibilities. If plain, they quickly catch the eye; if pertinent, they make an impression; if prominent, they attract attention. The positive proof of the princely possibilities is best evidenced by those who have made a success of their business.—H. L. Pierce, in American Bill Poster.

THE circulation of an attractive poster is the total population of the town.

WHY THEY WERE THERE.

An interesting conversation in a certain judicial house of detention is given as follows in Kate Field's Washington:—

"I am here, gentlemen," explained the pickpocket to his fellow-prisoners, "as the result of a moment of abstraction."

"And I," said the incendiary, "because of an unfortunate habit of making light of things."

"And I," chimed in the forger, "on account of a simple desire to make a name for myself."

"And I," added the burglar, "through nothing but taking advantage of an opening which offered in a large mercantile establishment uptown." But here the warden separated them.

Any person or firm who is desirous of creating a quick demand for his or their wares, should use posters in preference to all other avenues of publicity. Nothing is one half so prompt. Proof of this fact is found in the fact that circus and theatrical managers have learned through years of experience that they bring a response that is almost instantaneous. For this reason itinerant organizations rely upon them almost to the entire exclusion of all other forms of advertising, save distributing matter.

If you want to advertise anything anywhere at any time, and desire to procure maximum results at minimum outlay, use the billboards.

Thou dost keep the men all guessing some-

How often hast thou caught them with thy

And tell them when they printing want—forget that "there are others."
Then woman, lovely woman, thou hast not lived in vain,
Pleasant day to morrow, if indeed it does not rain
We'll sing your praises truly, your charms both rich and rare,
Some day you'll have a harp and wings, and go "up in the air."

stone commemorate?" "I put it there. It is upon that spot where a tourist once gave me five marks."

Painter (to his model)—"Now you can rest a bit while I paint in the background."
Peasant woman (bashfully)—"Ach, then I suppose I shall have to turn 'round."
