ALLIES OPEN NEW YEAR OF WAR WITH INITIATIVE EVERYWHERE

"Tide Has Turned," Declares Sir Douglas Haig

Captured German Officers Now Admit That Germany is Beaten.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN THE FIELD, July 31, via London.—At the close of two years of the war and of the first month of the British offensive, Gen. Sir Douglas Haig, commander-in-chief of the group of British armies in France, in speaking of the situation, laid particular emphasis on the fact that the beginning of the third year of the war saw the initiative entirely with the allies on all fronts, while England, for the first time, was exerting something like a power worthy of her numerous resources on land.

"The tide has turned," he said. "Time has been with the allies from the first. It is only a question of more time till we win a decisive victory which is the one sure way to bring peace in this, as in other wars. Until this victory is won, it will become a British soldier in France to think of peace."

Visits General in Quarters.

Those who had the freedom of the battle lines in the last four weeks had glimpses of the youthful and scholarly features of Sir Douglas Haig in a passing automobile on dusty roads, thick with moving troops and transports, and again of his athletic figure, alert and young from his car at the headquarters of one of the army commanders for a conference. But mostly his time is spent in a quiet room in a small chateau, which is his personal headquarters. In the centre of the room, a map of the region of the offensive with every detail, trenches, ridges and valleys, and all the contours revealed at a glance. The only other visible machinery of command were little sheets of reports which come from the firing line thru the curtains of shellfire, giving the situation at intervals in every sector of the front.

Fought to Gain Time.

"The problem of the first summer's campaign and the second for the allies," he said, "was to force a decision with their ready numbers of men, guns and shells. Whether it was the able French ship and heroic retreat of the little British expeditionary force from Mons, the stubborn resistance of the French and British troops at Verdun, the sacrifice of Italy's stone-walled forts against Austria's offensive, the purpose was always to gain time for preparations necessary to take the offensive away from the enemy."

Had to Build Army.

"Our unpreparedness at the start of the war, due to its unexpectedness, is no secret," he continued. "France, which had a great national army and universal service, was giving all her strength to the war, and she had to build up a new army from the bottom. The majority of our best regular officers had been killed or wounded in the early fighting. With the remainder as a nucleus to drill and organize the volunteers who were raw, but had the spirit that quickens, we undertook to create an army of millions, which must be officered largely by men of no military experience, to fight the German army, with its forty years of preparation. We had to make uniforms before the men, who had enlisted could be taken out of civilian garb, to build plants before the manufacture of rifles, before we could arm our recruits and to build guns and munition plants, before we had artillery."

Had to Stand Off Foe.

"Meanwhile, we had to keep on stone-walling France with our troops as we had to stand against that prepared foe, whose blows were the sturdiest in his efforts for a decision owing to his realization that time was against him. Now the new army has had its further practical experience in attack on a large scale."

"After his plans were made and the order given to advance, on July 1, he could only await news of the results in this quiet room, with its atmosphere of detachment. There was no change in his imperturbability in the half hour's suspense before the first definite information arrived out of the mantle

LULL ON BRITISH FRONT

FOLLOWS FRESH GAINS

Infantry Fighting Has Temporarily Come to Halt, Sir Douglas Haig Reports—British Flying Corps Carries Out Successful Bombing Raids.

LONDON, July 31.—The allies maintain unceasing pressure both on the western and eastern fronts, as well as the Italians on the Austrian front, and heavy battles are being fought in all theatres.

The British and French, who started a fresh combined attack on Sunday from Delville Wood to the Somme, made good progress, which brought them near the Village of Maucoups. The misty weather, which has hindered the operations, has given place to clear skies, with intense heat. The Germans are making the most determined counter-attacks and officially claim that the allies have not gained a foot of ground by Sunday's attack.

Successful Air Raids.

The official statement from British headquarters, issued tonight, reads: "There was no infantry fighting on the British front today, and no incident of importance occurred. The Royal Flying Corps carried out several bombing raids and dropped seven tons of bombs on the enemy communications and billets. A train was blown up and a hostile aeroplane on the ground was destroyed. There were no aerial combats and several enemy machines were driven to the ground in a damaged condition. Three of our machines are missing."

Posts Advanced.

The afternoon statement reported that the British troops had advanced their posts at some points on the plateau to the north of Bazentin-le-Petit, as the result of local encounters in the region of the River Somme. The statement follows: "Last night was spent in improving the positions gained yesterday. There were no further developments in the situation."

"As the result of local encounters we advanced our posts at some points on the plateau north of Bazentin-le-Petit. The Bazentin-le-Petit lies between Pozières and Fourcaux Wood.

Do The Germans Control Our Nickel? And What a Canadian Woman Thinks of It

To judge from some of the comments of the nickel press one might imagine that our charge that the Germans control the Nickel Trust was something new and never heard of before. The charge has been made on many occasions in the most explicit manner. In the house of commons at Ottawa on Feb. 22, 1916, Col. J. A. Currie, M.P., in the course of his speech on the budget debate said:

There are in Canada a large number of concerns controlled by foreigners; some of them, as a matter of fact, are controlled by Germans. A large copper corporation in the west is controlled by a German syndicate by means of trustees. We have it on the authority of a statement in the British House of Commons, made last month by men of responsibility, that the nickel industry in Canada is controlled by the Krupp interests thru trustees in the United States.

The same state of affairs existed in Australia, where zinc concentrates of great value were controlled by German syndicates, with headquarters at Frankfurt. The Government of Australia took the bull by the horns. They immediately canceled the ownership of these mines controlled by the Germans, and the British Government is now getting these zinc concentrates from Australia. I think it would be wise for the government of this country to make a thorough investigation into the affairs of the International Nickel Co. with a view to ascertaining whether the statements to which I have referred are true. If its affairs are controlled by the Germans we should know it. Germans are not very friendly to us just at this time.

Even more specific charges were made in the same debate by Hon. Frank Oliver and Mr. J. G. Turritt of Assiniboia, and the government was urged to make a full investigation. The government did not see fit to do this, but on Feb. 29, Hon. Arthur Meighen, solicitor-general, offered evidence to prove that Germany did not control the nickel output of Canada, as follows:

1. Mr. Meighen called as a witness E. W. Nesbitt of North Oxford, and a brother of Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., who testified as follows: "I know some officers of the Nickel Corporation and I know there is not a human being in Germany who has any control or who has anything to do with the Canadian nickel interests."

2. Mr. Meighen also offered in evidence a letter written to an official of the American Nickel Company, in which he says that he does not believe in the Krupp own any securities of the company and that "only 155 shares of common and 268 shares of preferred stock are owned by shareholders residing in Germany and Austria."

It may be said that members of the British House of Commons, members of the United States Congress and members of the Canadian Parliament who charge that the nickel deposits of Canada and the zinc deposits of Australia are controlled by the Germans are interested in not producing it. They are interested in the nickel trust, which has headquarters at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, have not proved their case by documentary evidence. But the evidence is in possession of the Nickel Trust, and it is in the hands of the stockholders living in Austria and Germany. But it does not matter much where the Germans live so long as they control the company. German-American stockholders will be about as objectionable now as stockholders living in Germany and Austria. The charge is that the Nickel Trust is German in origin, in sympathy and in purpose, and that it is switching Canadian nickel to Germany.

Premier Hughes of Australia, after the outbreak of the war, did not write a letter to the president of the nickel trust to find out how many of their stockholders were living in Austria and Germany. He did not go to the attorney for the company, or the brother of the attorney, to ask him what he thought about it; he simply took possession of the mines and smelters and ran them for the exclusive benefit of Australia and the empire.

The widespread opinion that the Nickel Trust is under German control cannot be brushed aside by ex-parte statements of officials. No doubt an investigation might be useful, but it is too late now to delay with any investigations. The investigations should have been made before the war was two years old; just as work upon a refinery in Canada should have been commenced before twenty-four months passed by. Mr. Turritt, a member of parliament, upon his responsibility as a member, from his place in the house has declared that the International Nickel Co. is controlled by the Krupp thru delegates in the United States. In the imperial house it is charged that the nickel deposits of Canada are owned and controlled by a German syndicate. We know that Canadian nickel today is on board the Deutschland and we are justified in believing that Canadian nickel since the outbreak of the war has been finding its way to Germany.

Under this state of affairs it is not high time to prohibit the export of any more Canadian nickel? Whether the men in whose name the stock may stand actually live in Germany or in the United States is to our mind quite immaterial. They are Germans in their sympathies. They are exploiting Canadian resources for Germany's benefit; they are giving aid to the King's enemies, and they must no longer be entrusted with the guardianship of Canada's treasure and honor.

We cannot understand the attitude that some public men and journals are taking in this country. One would think that Germany and Canada were on friendly terms. They are not seen to care that we are in a life and death battle and that every pound of Canadian nickel that goes to Germany helps to prolong the war, to kill our boys at the front and bring grief and desolation into nearly every household in this land.

The late Lord Kitchener would have had little patience with such people. He not only believed in fighting the Germans while the war lasted, but he favored a policy of non-intercourse with the Hun for another quarter of a century. The Hon. Sir George Foster, who, addressing the Colonial Institute in London the other day, said:

"There are today in our midst men in responsible places who are actually pleading for the government to allow Germany to recuperate as one of the nations of the earth, despite the methods she has adopted of outrage, pillage, violations and base betrayal of friendship and hospitality. 'I say that for at least a year and a half German war, business and men should be excluded from the pale of the British Empire. Give them a good long opportunity to repent—but be sure they do repent; then let them come and pray that they be readmitted into the neighborhood and fellowship of decent civilization.'"

It would have spoiled Sir George's eloquent speech if someone had got up and suggested that the government should give Sir George a long and good work by severing relations with Germany right now. It is indeed a strange imperialism which furnishes the enemy with munitions with which to carry on the war with the British Empire. Stop all Canadian nickel going to Germany and you stop the war almost automatically. Brightly indeed is the responsibility resting upon those who permit Canadian nickel to be exported to an alien country by men eager and anxious to serve the German Empire and eager and anxious for everything else to keep the war going as long as possible so they may become richer and richer.

To give some idea of the feeling in this country over nickel, we reprint a letter from a lady in a city within a hundred miles of Toronto, received yesterday. It will bear reading by her Canadian sisters and by the public men of this country. It runs as follows:

W. F. Maclean, M.P.
Dear Sir: Allow me to thank you personally for the great gift you are putting up against the policy of both the Dominion and provincial governments on the nickel question. I have been a great advocate in season and out of season of the nationalization and municipalization of all public utilities; also for 25 years, of the mining industry being taken over by the government for the benefit of the country, for the lowering of taxation, etc. Also government banks, rural credits, etc. which has always seemed to me to be the only wise and sane policy for any people.

However, the war seems to be opening both men's and women's minds to the need for the lowering of our government. Has placed our country in, and it is to my mind the part of a true patriot to fight this nickel battle to a finish, no matter who may suffer, in order to regain our country's freedom from the clutches of these great international trusts and corporations, soulless and grasping, which rely on the money side of it.

If Canada controlled her own nickel output she could prevent wars against our empire and such crimes against

TOO MANY FAMILIES SAILING FOR ENGLAND

Disregard Wish of Authorities That Women Relatives of Soldiers Remain at Home.

Despite the wish expressed some time ago that wives and other women relatives of soldiers now in England, should not sail from Canada to help crowd a country already overcrowded, it is reported that the passenger lists of Atlantic liners are mostly made up of women and children, while family parties go over to be near the head of the line.

RAGS AND WASTE PAPER ARE GREATLY NEEDED

Systematic Saving by Canadian Housewives Can Avert Threatened Paper Famine.

One of the things which Canadian housewives have not yet realized to the fullest is that the threatened paper famine may be more or less averted, if, not altogether averted, by a campaign made with the object of collecting rags and waste paper in a systematic manner for the purpose of supplying dealers who at present are reported to have a shortage in this respect.

Some time since the alarm was sent out by the department of commerce, Washington, which issued a circular bearing the injunction, "Save your waste paper and rags," and pointing out that the attention of the department had been directed to the matter by the president of a large paper-manufacturing company, who asked to make it known that the saving of rags and old papers would greatly better existing conditions for the manufacturers.

The circular also noted that something like 15,000 tons of different kinds of paper and paper board are manufactured daily in the United States, and a large portion of this goes for the use of the paper industry.

Half a million copies of the circular were sent out, with the effect that interest was aroused and a good deal of relief brought to the paper industry through the educational campaign which the governmental circular evoked.

As an instance of how prices have advanced, a magazine article quotes the cost for rags in one mill alone to be this year $12,500,000 more than last, or a daily increase of $40,000.

The disastrous fires in northern Ontario, in which paper mills have been more or less involved, have doubtless crippled the industry at a much nearer angle and furnish a strong hint for renewed thrift in the matter of rag and paper-saving in the home.

GRENADIERS RECEIVED SOX.

The members of the "Overseas League of the Royal Grenadiers" consisting of the wives, mothers and other relatives of the men of the 128th Overseas Battalion, have supplied the men of their care with 1,100 pairs of socks. These socks were done at the Monday afternoon meetings which were held weekly at St. Paul's parish house, Bloor street east. The men of the league will need two pairs monthly during their absence and the good work of supply will be continued.

NEW BANK BRANCH.

A branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce has been opened at Drummondville, Que., in the temporary charge of Mr. E. R. Tanner.

BRIGHT STEEL ON RANGE.

If the steel portions of the cooking range are allowed to become dark they spoil the trim neatness of the kitchen. Powdered pumice stone, or bathbrick, moistened with kerosene, make good cleansers for the steel, as a rule, when well rubbed in; tho they will not be effective if the metal has actually become oxidized.

SERGEANTS OF Q. O. R. HELD PLEASING EVENT

Celebrated the Formal Opening of Their Mess at Camp Borden Recently.

A very interesting event took place in the lines of the 166th Q. O. R. Overseas Battalion at Camp Borden recently, when the sergeants of that unit celebrated the formal opening of their mess.

The battalion sergeant-major presided and among the speakers were Col. Wigle, commanding 2d Brigade; Lieut. Baldwin, brigade orderly officer; Major W. G. Mitchell, Capt. H. E. Rooney and Capt. Reagin of the 166th Battalion. Unfortunately, Lieut.-Col. Leveson, the commanding officer, could not be present owing to his recent accident, but hope was expressed on all sides for his early return to the battalion.

In addition to the usual toasts, a most popular toast to "Our Comrades in the Trenches" was heartily responded to. The brigadier then gave a stirring and instructive talk on conditions in the trenches, as he saw them. This was most interesting to the sergeants, who hope to proceed overseas at an early date. An excellent musical program, provided by the sergeants themselves, rounded off a most enjoyable evening.

Disregard Wish of Authorities That Women Relatives of Soldiers Remain at Home.

Despite the wish expressed some time ago that wives and other women relatives of soldiers now in England, should not sail from Canada to help crowd a country already overcrowded, it is reported that the passenger lists of Atlantic liners are mostly made up of women and children, while family parties go over to be near the head of the line.

One of the things which Canadian housewives have not yet realized to the fullest is that the threatened paper famine may be more or less averted, if, not altogether averted, by a campaign made with the object of collecting rags and waste paper in a systematic manner for the purpose of supplying dealers who at present are reported to have a shortage in this respect.

SERGEANTS OF Q. O. R. HELD PLEASING EVENT

Celebrated the Formal Opening of Their Mess at Camp Borden Recently.

A very interesting event took place in the lines of the 166th Q. O. R. Overseas Battalion at Camp Borden recently, when the sergeants of that unit celebrated the formal opening of their mess.

The battalion sergeant-major presided and among the speakers were Col. Wigle, commanding 2d Brigade; Lieut. Baldwin, brigade orderly officer; Major W. G. Mitchell, Capt. H. E. Rooney and Capt. Reagin of the 166th Battalion. Unfortunately, Lieut.-Col. Leveson, the commanding officer, could not be present owing to his recent accident, but hope was expressed on all sides for his early return to the battalion.

Talks With Screen-Struck Girls

By Beatriz Michelena (Copyrighted 1916 by Beatriz Michelena)

BEATRIZ MICHELENA writes. She asks, "Why is it so many people give a bad name to picture actresses? Why can't a movie girl be just as honorable and make her living just as honestly as any girl at some other occupation?" This brings up the whole question of morals in the motion picture profession, and it seems to be a very burning question in some quarters—made so, perhaps, more often by misconception and misrepresentation than by conditions actually existing.

I HAVE received the same degree and quality of good. It rests with the girl rather than the profession.

A girl can most assuredly be just as honorable in pictures as elsewhere. Some of the sweetest and best girls I have ever known are motion picture actresses.

Why then the bad name that so many people give the profession? In the first place people are always looking for the bad, and especially looking for it in the high places. They would much rather find it than the good. The newspaper editor, who must necessarily be a keen judge of human nature and human likes and dislikes, knows this. That is why so many headlines concern themselves with crime and divorces and scandal.

Now in looking for the bad, the people naturally turn their eyes in the direction where the spot light of publicity strikes most brilliantly. Scandal about a humble factory girl has small relish, but if it be about a woman of fame and achievement it is very sweet indeed.

No one is placed so very prominently before the public gaze than the motion picture actress. Little notice is given her virtues. That side is uninteresting. But if she takes the smallest step amiss, a great shout goes up at once. Her misdeed is magnified and extended until it is made to overcast the entire profession.

ASK SOLDIERS TO VOTE AGAINST GOVERNMENT

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper and H. C. Brewster Circularize British Columbia Men.

VANCOUVER, July 31.—A message to British Columbia soldiers, signed jointly by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper and H. C. Brewster, leader of the opposition in the provincial legislature, claiming to represent the public sentiment of the province, has been published here. It calls on the soldiers to vote against the government. It says in part:

"We believe a united effort should be made by the lovers of clean government and efficient administration, both Liberals and Conservatives, to drive from office the men who are misgoverning our province.

"You will exercise your franchise with nothing but the most sincere desire for the welfare of British Columbia. You have long known the record of the present government. Their tenure of office has been marked by extravagance, incompetency and wholesale corruption. A fight for parties, but of the people against official wrong-doing. It is a fight in which not only the Liberals, but many Conservatives are united."

GRENADIERS RECEIVED SOX.

The members of the "Overseas League of the Royal Grenadiers" consisting of the wives, mothers and other relatives of the men of the 128th Overseas Battalion, have supplied the men of their care with 1,100 pairs of socks. These socks were done at the Monday afternoon meetings which were held weekly at St. Paul's parish house, Bloor street east. The men of the league will need two pairs monthly during their absence and the good work of supply will be continued.

Powdered pumice stone, or bathbrick, moistened with kerosene, make good cleansers for the steel, as a rule, when well rubbed in; tho they will not be effective if the metal has actually become oxidized.

ENGLISH SOCIETY WOMEN GIVE UP THEIR OUTFINGS

Remain in Town During Hot Summer and Assist Patriotic Needs.

English society women this season set the example of remaining in town for the purpose of assisting patriotic needs, even tho the mercury soared and cooling waters beckoned to them from the distance.

Recently a novel method for raising money was launched upon the public in the shape of the "Country Market," held in the garden of a house in Belgrave Square, London. Her Royal Highness Princess Henry of Battenberg, president of the "Working Ladies' Guild," the organization in whose interest the affair was held, attended both as buyer and seller at a flower stall and a number of prominent women acted as sellers, garbed for the most part in simple white frocks and sunbonnets of pronounced country type.

Among the names chronicled are those of Viscountess Bury and her mother-in-law, the Countess of Alford, who were in charge of a poultry stand; Mrs. Walter Long, wife of Major Long, D.S.O., formerly A.D.C. to the Duke of Connaught, who successfully presided at a fruit stall; Lady Maud Cavendish, eldest daughter of the Duke of Devonshire, the newly-appointed governor-general of Canada, who offered as her wares tempting baskets of strawberries and cherries, and Lady Ethel d'Almeida at a confectionery stand.

The venture conveys a hint which has not yet been worked upon along exactly the same lines on this side of the water.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

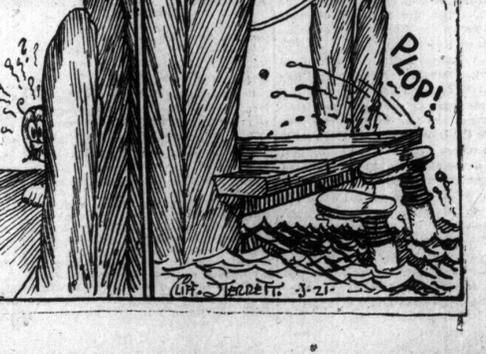

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind, but now I can see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read the print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to do so.

Notes: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known in medical eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturer guarantees it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent. It can be used freely in many instances of eye trouble. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is offered free. The only preparation I feel would be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." G. Tarnbin sells it.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

DE WOLF HOPPER IS SEEN IN SPLENDID FILM

Great Comedian Makes Initial Appearance at the Hippodrome.

De Wolf Hopper's friends are legion, and he can claim thousands of staunch admirers right in Toronto.

Many pleasing burlesque situations are staged during the two and one-half hours which time it takes to give the farces "The Lure of the Lamp," and "Nutville," presented as the opening attraction of the season at the Star Theatre twice yesterday.

Dainty Luella Temple is a very witty ingenue. Miss Temple has many different lavish costumes and unlike the average ingenue in burlesque can sing and dance with plenty of life. Much credit is also due the chorus of twenty, who back their leader up in all the numerous and well arranged numbers.

The funny side of the show is entirely on the shoulders of Dave Vine. The first act closes with a posing scene by a group of selected members of the company. This act also nearly worn out is amongst the best ever offered. The Alpine tripping song songs together and aid the chorus to good advantage in some of the ensembles.

PLEASING BURLESQUE AT THE STAR THEATRE

Good Chorus and Comedy in Opening Attraction Yesterday.

With five different sets of motion pictures and the scenic effects of the four seasons presented by R. S. Marvia during the intermission, the Strand Theatre for the first half of this week presents an unusually interesting program to its patrons.

The pictures consisted of Mary Pickford in "Marame Butterfly," Anna Nilsson and Tom Moore starring in one of the series of "Who's Guilty?" Charles Chaplin in a two-reel farce, Pathe News pictorial and pictures of the world's best athletes.

As usual Miss Pickford proves a drawing card in the well-known drama of Japanese life pictured by John Luther Long. She holds the attention of the audience from the opening of the close of the play.

She is ably assisted by Marshall Nelson as Lieut. B. F. Pinkerton of the U. S. navy. The serial of "Who's Guilty?" is a remarkable photo-drama intensely human in its subject and alive with dramatic episodes.

The show in its entirety is one well worth seeing and deserving of all the patronage it will be accorded.

GAVE FINE PORTRAYAL OF THE GREEN-EYED MONSTER

It takes courage for a youthful playgoer to face an outraged elegyman, knowing that the largest part of his resentment rises from disappointment and jealousy.

Louise Huff, the delightful little actress whose clever work in "The Old Homestead," won her a permanent place on the program of the theatre, was the unaccustomed attraction for the opening of the close of the play.

Some exquisite sea-side scenes have been worked into this production and the rugged shores of Block Island were chosen to get the best results from the settings. The excellent one, "A Country Road," which is full of pathos and humor and all round is a charming production. The rest of the program has been picked up with painstaking care.

SHOW VERSATILITY IN DETECTIVE PLAY

Robins Players Score One of Season's Best Successes.

Veratility is the prime asset of a stock comedy, and the Robins Players displayed it last night at the Royal Alexandra in the clever detective comedy, "The Conspiracy," by Robert Baker, and John Emerson.

After last week's clever presentation of "The Tongues of Men," in which Miss Neilson exhibited such varied and commanding talent, her part this week gives her an opportunity for show- ing the most sympathetic gift, her first entrance in the refuge strikes a keynote at once strong and repressed, and there she is a superb piece of emotional work while the audience listens to the breathless narrative and imparts to Jack Howell in the first act, keyed to a fine control, vibrant with inner force. The climax of the act—"You are not going to give me up?" "Not in all the world!"—was only surpassed by the magnificent curtain call to the second act, and there was no anticlimax in the third.

The story is melodramatic in foundation, but it is the comedy and not the melodrama which builds up the plot. The clever authorship provides that at the tensest moments the humor bubbles up, and yet does not upset the movement.

This relief is eminently successful, an episode of the peppermint. The plot here, as in the background, as are the "Scarlet Band" and the white slave incident, and these matters are handled with discretion and taste.

In a refuge home, in which the play opens, several admirably-drawn characters fill up the picture and introduce the principals. These are: Jack Howell, played with great power and smoothness by Jerome Renner; Miss Neilson as Marjorie; Charles Chaplin as Eugene Frazier. One might almost say that Mr. Frazier came to his own last night in this evening. "Why can't I think of something to remember for years. The laughter of the audience last night was loud and long. His interlude, his black mammy, Martha, excellently done by Emma Campbell, was among the best bits of the evening. "Why can't I think of words when I want to use them?" concluded a particularly funny passage. He had another great scene with the Spanish woman, Juanita Perez, a part in which Helen Travers surpassed herself in subtle control. The applause at each act drop was unusually prolonged and hearty and resulted in renewed calls.

The performance was one of the most perfect and enjoyable of the season. Mr. Robins' absence was explained by Mr. Priestley as due to a business engagement in New York, which had been unexpectedly prolonged, but he will return today.

The jury also recommended that life saving apparatus and posters of instructions as to where pilotmotors could be found, and how to use the same in case of drowning accidents, should be placed on both the bay and lakeside.

INQUEST IS ADJOURNED POLICE TO INVESTIGATE

To enable the police to get further evidence the inquest at the morgue last night, conducted by Coroner W. A. Young on the body of Hermann Bagry of 24 Fern avenue, was adjourned until August 9. It is believed that Barry, who was a munition inspector, had his ribs broken in a scuffle and that pneumonia set in, which led to his death at the General Hospital yesterday morning shortly after being removed to the Lyndhurst private hospital.

HAD TOO MUCH "FIREWATER."

HAMILTON, Tuesday, Aug. 1.—As the result of an overdose of "firewater" which was taken to counteract the heat of yesterday's fire, Tim Willhams, a big "injun" in the 114th Battalion, took a flying dive into the bay from the dock at the foot of Bay st. Fortunately for Tim, who stated he wanted to rid himself of all earthly troubles, a number of spectators who were present during the aerial exhibition pulled Tim out at the end of a pike pole. Tim will have to appear before Magistrate Jeffs this morning on a charge of being drunk.

SWIFT-CANADIAN CO. PENSION EMPLOYEES

Eight Hundred Persons in Toronto Will Come Under Plan as Outlined.

Announcement was made yesterday by the Swift Canadian Company of a pension plan for all their employees throughout the Dominion, to become effective Aug. 1. It is estimated that more than 2000 men and women are eligible, in time to come under the provisions of the fund.

One of the striking features of the plan as outlined is that the employees do not contribute to the fund, the company furnishing absolutely all money needed to pay pensions.

In Toronto alone over 800 persons will come under the plan as outlined. "The Swift Canadian Company has had a pension plan under consideration for several years," said O. W. Walker, general manager, "and we have made it possible for every man and woman in our employ to provide for his or her old age by simply giving efficient service."

NEW YORK POLITICS, Trou...

NEW YORK STOCKS WERE NEGLECTED

Politics, Crop News and Labor Troubles Topics of Discussion.

NO DEFINITE TREND

Traders Unable to Gauge Course of Market at Present.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Negative conditions prevailed in the stock market today, with dealings as light as to be devoid of active attendance.

There were few surface indications of investment equity, although August interest and dividend disbursements of July 150,000,000 will represent the first sum ever disbursed for that month.

Politics, crop news and labor troubles formed the basis of languid discussion. Advice from the west and northwest told of further deterioration of wheat and corn, damage to the latter being estimated at 10 to 20 per cent.

C.P.R. was lower. Rails were again neglected in Canadian Pacific and its affiliated lines, which were partly responsible for the governing movement of the final hour.

Shipping activity was consistently strong, as were motors and accessories, with the notable exception of Willys-Overland. Munitions related equipments, together with U. S. Industrial Alcohol, ranged higher.

West Dome Consolidated, on the other hand, exhibited an easier tendency, selling off to 38. Crown Reserve, selling off to 38.

There was little interest in the Cobalt section. Timiskaming fluctuated between 55 1/2 and 56 1/2.

Lorrain advanced to 26. Beaver went up a point to 48. Crowns Lake at $4.60. Among the smaller issues Ophir sold at 7 1/2.

Shredded Wheat Made Advance of Two Points—Smelters Rallied.

Owing to a storm in Montreal yesterday morning, causing a tie-up in the wires, business at the Toronto Stock Exchange was curtailed to a certain extent.

A comparatively large number of issues were dealt in, but the volume of business was small.

Smelters were one-half down at 25, but recovered partially to 35 1/2.

Stamshaw preferred showed some advance, closing at 42 1/2.

Shredded wheat featured with the advance of two points to 128, which constitutes a new high record.

Dividends paid and declared out of the year's earnings, however, totaled only 5 1/4 per cent.

Reports of Spread of Black Rust Give Stimulus at Close.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Cooler weather, which tended to dispel fears of increased damage to the spring crop, made the wheat market today somewhat easier during most of the session.

The market was unquestionably dull, but this is not unexpected at this time of the year, and the fact that decline has not been more apparent in view of this condition of the market, breaks the confidence which the general traders have as regards the Canadian mine stocks.

AN ATROCIOUS CRIME

Criminals to Be Punished, However High Their Position.

LONDON, July 31.—"It appears to be true that Capt. Fryatt was murdered by the Germans," said Premier Asquith in the house of commons this afternoon, in reply to a question by Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster Unionists.

"The British Government," the premier added, "heard with deep indignation of this atrocious crime against the law of nations and usage of war. Coming as it does contemporaneously with the lawless cruelties to the population of Lille and other occupied portions of France, it shows that the German high commands, under the stress of a military defeat, have renewed their policy of terrorism."

"It is impossible to conjecture what further atrocities they may proceed, but the government desire to repeat, most emphatically their resolve, when the time comes, that these crimes shall not go unpunished. Will Exact Penalty."

"When the time arrives they are determined to bring to justice the criminals, whoever they may be, and to ever their position. In a case such as this, the man who authorized the system under which the crime was committed may well be the most guilty of all."

"The question of what immediate action should be taken is undergoing the earnest attention of the government, and I hope to make an announcement shortly."

Mr. Edward Carson suggested that the house should pass a bill making it clear that Great Britain would refuse to admit the German people into the comity of nations until "such crimes are expiated."

Premier Asquith said he would consider the matter.

REMANDED FOR A WEEK.

Charged with having morphine in his possession for other than medicinal purposes, Norman Henry was remanded in jail until Friday by Magistrate Denison yesterday.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

LONDON, July 31.—Money and discount rates were easy today. The stock market, entering the holiday season, commenced the week idly, although considerable cheerfulness prevailed on the war news. Gilt-edged securities and foreign bonds were steadily maintained by numerous week-end orders, while the boom in shipping shares showed signs of subsiding, and values were easy. Business in other sections was meagre. American securities were only occasionally mentioned, and they closed irregularly.

METALS IN DEMAND.

R. E. Kemmerer, in his weekly market letter, says: "View in the history of finance have the precious metals been in such demand as at this time, and that this pressure of demand has been reflected in the price of the shares of the precious metal producing companies is inconceivable."

The world at large and the interested government alike in particular must have the precious metals, and must, therefore, look to North America for a very large proportion of the advance of two points to 128, which constitutes a new high record.
