SCOTT ESCAPES GALLOWS FOR THIRD TIME

INSANITY PLEA MOVES JUDGE TO DECISION

Stay of Execution Is Granted Pending a Hearing GIVEN UP HOPE

Accused Says He Is Not Crazy But Is Surprised at New Move

By Canadian Press. CHICAGO, July 24.—Russell Scott early today, escaped the gallows for the second time, within a week.

The former Canadian financier, twice reprieved from paying the supreme penalty for the murder of a Chicago drug clerk, in a bold-up, dodged the noose for the third time, less than four hours before he was to have been executed when Circuit Judge Joseph B. David, granted a stay of execution pending a hearing into his sanity.

A week ago, six hours before he was to hang, Governor Small granted a one week's reprieve, which expired this morning. Judge David, called out of bed a few hours before the time for the execution, convened a special session of court, and granted the stay, after Governor Small and the state board of pardons and paroles last night at Springfield, refused further clemency.

SAFETY HEARING This morning the gallows trap, set for springing a week ago, stood without its victim, and jail officials who had left it standing during the week of grace, were considering dismantling it. The safety hearing will come up for several days. Scott's escape from death today, like that a week ago, came after he and his relatives had virtually abandoned hope. Thomas Scott, his father, had called at the jail three hours previously, to bid him a last farewell, the second such visit in a week.

WIFE ARRIVES Mrs. Catherine Scott, his faithful wife, who for weeks fought to obtain a commutation, played what she believed to be her final card in Springfield where she appeared before the pardon board and when the stay was granted, was running from Springfield to Chicago by automobile to bid her husband farewell almost at the minute of his execution. She arrived to find the court action stopping the hanging. Scott, who had been surly and defiant throughout the night, and who apparently was completely resigned to his fate, received the news that his life was spared, at least temporarily, with considerable surprise. He had known nothing about the last minute appeal to the courts.

"I'm tickled to death," were his first words. Then upon learning that the stay had been granted to find out whether he was sane Scott added: "I am no more crazy than the judge who granted me a stay on that account. I am not asking for any sympathy from anyone either. I am innocent."

BROTHER ILL A telephone message was received early today from Port Huron, Michigan, stating that Robert Scott, brother of Russell Scott, was in that city critically ill. The call, received by Mrs. Isabel J. Hurst, Detroit club woman, who came here to work for Russell's reprieve, was made by a Mrs. Manley, who said that Scott was at her home. While officials here feared that the call might be another fraud, Port Huron police started an investigation.

Robert Innocent. CLEVELAND, O., July 24.—A telegram "If you are a Christian, don't murder my son," was sent to Governor Small late last night, by Mrs. Rilla May Scott, mother of Russell and Robert Scott, and who are jointly indicted for the slaying of a Chicago drug clerk.

Seated in a rocker on a dark porch of her home in Bay Village, a suburb, the gray haired mother sent away two women who had come from Windsor, Ont., to be with her through her anxiety.

"Both my boys are innocent," Mrs. Scott said. "Russell sent me a complete story of the event, when he knew death was approaching. He said he was not even in the room when the two shots were fired, and that the bullet that killed the clerk was meant for Robert instead.

"Robert was wounded by the other bullet," she said. "If Robert can do anything to help Russell, he will do it before dawn, at Robert is as innocent as Russell, it was just foolish."

Mrs. Scott is employed in a department store here. PORT HURON, Mich., July 24.—Robert Scott was at the home of Mrs. Manley here at midnight last night, and left two hours later for Chicago, the police here were informed.

Lumber Cut To Be Lower This Winter

MONTREAL, July 24.—Representatives of 33 lumber manufacturers in Ontario and Quebec met here yesterday and decided to restrict this year's production of the saw mills and to reduce logging operations next winter by 50 per cent. High cost of production and depression in the lumber market were the reasons given for this decision.

ZEV RETIRES FROM THE RACING GAME

Greatest Winner of United States Thoroughbreds Has Gone Stubborn. NEW YORK, July 24.—Zev, greatest winner of the United States Thoroughbreds, who earned for his owners $1,818,689, has been retired from the track because he has gone stubborn.

He was landed into a truck yesterday at Belmont Park, and sent to the Ranocas Stable in New Jersey, where his owner keeps his veterans of the track.

Having been at Belmont Park since spring, the horse that in 1923 conquered Papyrus in the International race and a half developed such opposition by efforts to get him in form, his trainer have decided his permanent retirement from the turf. Zev is now a five year old.

RIFFIAN TRIBESMEN HASTEN RETREAT

New French Leaders in Morocco Take Determined Steps Against Enemy. PARIS, July 24.—Vigorously shelled by punning French artillery, the rebellious Riffian tribesmen in Morocco are reported as hastening their retreat from the Ain Aicha and Ain Malouf regions, in the centre of the line, taking with them the civil populations of villages and their flocks.

The situation is described as considerably improved all along the line, with the effect of French successes and the spectacle of energetic action by the French forces under the guidance of new military leaders becoming more manifest.

DRASTIC MEASURES. The Government is determined to take drastic measures against the Communists, who are said to be particularly active in connection with the campaign in Morocco, not only trying to incite the troops of France to disobey, but working on the natives of Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco in the hope of stirring up strife.

APPEAL COMPLETED

J. A. Gregory's Solicitor Not Called by Privy Council in Insurance Case. G. H. V. Belyes, who acted for J. A. Gregory in some insurance cases, connected with Mr. Gregory's lumber loss by fire at Ketepec some time ago, yesterday received a cable from his law partner, Adrian B. Gilbert, stating that the appeal taken by the insurance companies had been heard by the judicial committee of the Privy Council, and that their Lordships took the appeal into consideration without calling upon the respondent's (Mr. Gregory's) solicitor for argument.

France Now Proposes To Regulate Foreign Visitors

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, July 24.—M. Schrameck, minister of the interior, interviewed by the judicial committee of the Privy Council, expressed the opinion that the present laws were adequate but needed stricter enforcement. The number of foreigners in France in 1914 was 1,728,369, which increased by 1925 to 2,384,946. He said that he proposed to submit a bill creating a body of 100 inspectors speaking foreign languages and especially charged with the control of foreigners. About a million would be taken regarding the ever increasing number of foreigners in France, expressed the opinion that the present laws were adequate but needed stricter enforcement. POLICEMAN FACES MURDER CHARGE

Joseph Macleod Arrested Because of Death of Miner in Cape Breton. CANADIAN PRESS DESPATCH. LONDON, July 24.—Late afternoon it was announced that representatives of British coal miners and mine owners would meet in a joint conference July 29. This is the first successful move toward avoiding the threatened British coal strike.

LONDON, July 24.—Between a million and a quarter miners in Great Britain will go on strike on July 31, if the notices sent by the assembly of the Miners' Federation to terminate the existing agreement between the miners and the mine owners in all districts is not withdrawn.

Another effort to bring the two sides together has been made by W. C. Bridgeman, First Lord of the Admiralty, by inviting the representatives of the mine owners and the Miners' Federation to meet him separately today. The owners accepted, and after much persuasion, the leaders of the miners decided to meet with Mr. Bridgeman to discuss reopening of the negotiations.

So far the strike notices have only been posted in Southwest and West Yorkshire and South Wales, where the number of men employed in the mines is somewhere in the neighborhood of 400,000.

DELEGATES TELL RESULTS OF VISIT

Jamaica People Hear Plan For Increased Trade With Canada. KINGSTON, Jamaica, July 24.—Jamaica's delegates to the Commonwealth conference at Ottawa were entertained at a luncheon yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce. Representing a host to the delegates, Hon. Wm. Morrison expressed the view that a trade agreement with Canada would materially benefit Jamaica's preference on bananas and other products, and that improved shipping facilities would develop the prosperity of the colony. He also declared there would be a greater demand in Jamaica for Canadian products, particularly flour.

Mr. Morrison did not fear United States retaliation, since the United States realized that Canada and the West Indies were parts of the British Empire and were merely rearranging their domestic affairs.

FILM COMPANIES MAY ERECT BUILDING HERE

Representatives Visit City and Look Over Sites; Difficulty Experienced in Getting Suitable Locations at Reasonable Rents. SINCE Saint John has been the Maritime centre of the motion picture industry, a matter of over 13 years, film companies are said to have experienced a great deal of difficulty in securing suitable quarters for the storage of their product, advertising matter and for executive offices. From recent developments it appears as if a move is being made to erect in this city a strictly fireproof structure to take care of this industry—if not all the agencies at least some of them.

Lumber Cargo Kept Ship Afloat After Being Hit

Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, July 24.—Kept afloat by her cargo of lumber, the four-masted schooner Sally Wren, run down by the tanker Edward Luckenbach, early yesterday in a fog, 16 miles south of Annapolis Lightship, was towed into harbor late yesterday by the coast guard cutter Seneca.

A gash in the schooner's hull showed where she had been struck by the tanker and her decks were awash when she reached port. Seamen risked only her floating cargo had kept her from sinking. The Sally Wren was proceeding from Savannah when the Luckenbach, an 8,000 ton steel vessel, struck her in the darkness and fog. After the impact, which did little damage to the tanker, the ship drifted out of sight. Water was rushing through the rent torn in the schooner's side by the Luckenbach, her lights were extinguished and she had no wireless. Men were expecting the vessel to sink under them her crew drifted in darkness, as radio messages from the tanker brought the Seneca to the rescue. At daybreak the Seneca put a line on the Sally Wren, to tow her, while the Luckenbach proceeded to Los Angeles.

A COALITION GOVERNMENT HIS OBJECTIVE

Lloyd George and Other Leading Liberals Named MOVE SOON Expected to Show Public That He Is Not Second To Bridgeman. By H. BAILEY British United Press. LONDON, July 24.—The future of the Eschequer under the Conservative flag is a subject of the keenest agitation in political circles today following the decided setback he has received in the cabinet by the triumphant outcome of Mr. Bridgeman's determination to carry out the Admiralty cruiser programme or split the Government.

A section of the Conservatives do not trouble to disguise their satisfaction over Churchill's defeat, as they openly regard him as a political renegade not to be trusted by any organization, who might at any moment be willing to break up the Tory party in order to satisfy his own ambitions.

FOR COALITION. Recently Churchill has been publicly charged with a hankering for a new coalition government, in which, presumably, Lloyd George and other leading Liberals will be asked to join. This has increased the suspicion of the Tory members of Parliament who view Churchill's place in the ministry as a menace. Admittedly, Churchill appears to the premier and it is felt that if Baldwin should go, the Chancellor would do his utmost to achieve his ambition at the expense of his conspicuous aspirants like Colonel Amery and Chamberlain, who are equally anxious to attain the highest place in the British Empire.

CHURCHILL'S POSITION. Churchill's stock today is low, and political circles are watching to see what action he will take to restore his waning prestige. He will not resign, as his father, Lord Randolph Churchill, did, or do anything dramatic like this, because he is too fond of the high position he holds, but it is predicted that he will not be long content to allow the public to believe that he has been compelled to take a back seat as a Tory stalwart like Bridgeman.

Women's Council Interested in Stand of Candidates on Mother's Question.

In an interview Mrs. E. A. Young said that the members of the New Brunswick Council of Women were much interested in the attitude of candidates for the Legislature on the question of mothers' allowances.

The Government, she said, had made a survey, but the report had not yet been dealt with by the Legislature, and the members of the Council of Women were hopeful that the members of the new House would favor legislation based on the result of the survey. Mrs. Young added that she had much valuable data on the subject which she would be glad to give to any enquirer.

"A YEAR AGO two friends and myself stayed nine weeks prospecting in an isolated, arid region—living on the crude supplies the country afforded—and hope. My stomach was weak from abuse. "My bonanza was a coarse, irritated skin—a breaking-out all over my body. I used a horde of 'positive cures,' and then, discouraged, tried Fleischmann's Yeast. In two months I was as I am today. My skin was better than 'back to normal' and I was ready for every 'let's go'!" V. C. Spies, Barrett, Cal.

Now they are really well

"FOUR YEARS AGO I was all run down from nervous strain and constipation. I had no vitality, was barely able to drag myself around. Then I began to take Fleischmann's Yeast. Since that time I have been growing better and stronger. During these past four years I have done my ordinary work as an office auditor. In addition I have written manuscripts totaling 756,000 words, have held constant official position in three organizations." P. T. Moss, Dallas, Texas

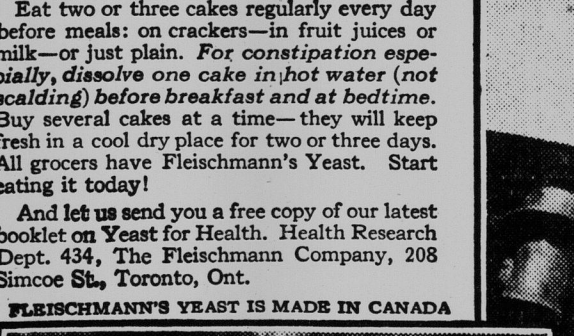

Vital, joyous, certain once more of their power, thousands have found the way to glorious health through one simple food.

NOT a "cure-all," not a medicine in any sense—Fleischmann's Yeast is simply a remarkable fresh food.

The millions of tiny active yeast plants in every cake invigorate the whole system. They aid digestion—clear the skin—banish the poisons of constipation. Where cathartics give only temporary relief, yeast strengthens the intestinal muscles and makes them healthy and active. And day by day it releases new stores of energy.

Eat two or three cakes regularly every day before meals: on crackers—in fruit juices or milk—or just plain. For constipation especially, dissolve one cake in hot water (not scalding) before breakfast and at bedtime. Buy several cakes at a time—they will keep fresh in a cool dry place for two or three days. All grocers have Fleischmann's Yeast. Start eating it today!

And let us send you a free copy of our latest booklet on Yeast for Health. Health Research Dept. 434, The Fleischmann Company, 208 Simcoe St., Toronto, Ont.

"FOUR YEARS AGO I was physically 'all in.' I was generally troubled with indigestion and constipation—was a general nervous wreck. I started to eat three cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast a day. Gradually I began to feel better, until today am in 'top notch shape.' This year I have been driving a big 5 ton truck for the Express Co. And I am still doing a good day's work, along with men young enough to be my sons." Louis Garsiepy, Denver, Colo.

"FOR SIX YEARS I was ailing, nervous and depressed, interested in nothing, accomplishing nothing, rarely for twenty-four consecutive hours free from pain—all caused I know now by intestinal putrefaction. At last I began eating Fleischmann's Yeast, three cakes daily. Relief from constipation and pain followed. I continued to take it as a tonic and food, regaining strength and energy and the long-discontinued compliments on my complexion. Today I am vigorously well—graise be to Fleischmann's Yeast." Kate D. Meares, College Place, S. C.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JULY 24, 1925.

AN UNEASY WORLD.

Canada occasionally hears something about the fear entertained in Australia that Japan may some day seize that country, but at this distance the tendency is to regard anything of the sort as too improbable to warrant attention. The talk, however, persists. The Right Reverend Dore Bryant, an Australian Archbishop, now in Canada on his way to Great Britain, presents the alarmist view very strongly. "In Australia," he says, "we realize that Japan could pour two million or three million trained soldiers into Australia before we could get the assistance of the nearest British fleet units." His idea is that within the next three or four years there will be a clash between the United States and Japan over Pacific interests. He says the centre of gravity in the world is moving to the Pacific and there it is that the chief problem of the world is to be faced in the future, "and the sooner we of the British Empire recognize it, the better for ourselves and all the rest of the world."

The American fleet has recently been on a practice cruise in Australian waters, a display of naval power which the more timid peace advocates have regarded as an unwelcome proceeding, but the Australian divine refuses to believe that the United States is awake to the peril of war. He says the Americans are "sitting on the edge of a volcano without knowing it," and that he is amazed at their failure to recognize the crisis confronting them in the Pacific problem.

How many Australians agree with this view? If many do, that country must live in a state of constant anxiety. It is only natural to hope that the visitor greatly over-estimates the peril.

In the meantime a Japanese representative, Count Soyeshima, speaking yesterday at the conference on international relations at Chautauque, N. B., urged a second conference on the limitation of armaments in order to prevent another war. He referred to naval manoeuvres on a titanic scale, which was perhaps a reference to the American naval cruise, and said that if the Powers go on arming at the present pace there will be another world revolution and the end of civilization.

THE VALUE OF A LIFE.

Among those who lost their lives in the Lusitania, which was sunk by the Germans, was Alfred G. Vanderbilt, his heirs were among those pressing claims for damages before the United States commission appointed to fix the amounts to be awarded those suffering through enemy action during the war. It had been expected that as Vanderbilt was the richest man among the victims of the German submarine attack in his case would be the largest of all. The commission a few days ago decided unanimously not to award a cent of damages to the Vanderbilt claimants.

The principle upon which this decision is founded is made clear in the judgment of the commission not only in the Vanderbilt instance but in others in which it likewise was applied. Vanderbilt, the commission points out, was no longer an active business force. He could not rightly be asserted on behalf of his family that they suffered a direct financial loss from his death. They did secure large life insurance. If he had lived longer it was not reasonable to suppose that by any personal effort on his part his fortune would have been increased. Assuming that his expectation of life was twenty-five years, any increase in his property to be expected would arise from normal growth in value, and not from his personal influence or activity.

Practically the same decision was recorded in the case of Charles Frohman, the famous theatrical manager, another Lusitania victim. The commission regarded the money aspect alone, disregarding all other considerations. The earnings of Frohman's theatrical enterprises were greater after his death than before it, and the Frohman estate receives no award. The estate of Eibert Hubbard, the writer, was awarded $89,000, because his death cut off large yearly earnings which otherwise must have been regarded as certain. An even larger award would have been made but for the fact that he was approaching the end of his productive life. Had he been younger at the time the Lusitania sank, the award would have been larger. The commission took into consideration also the fact that his estate would receive considerable sums in royalties from his copyrighted productions. Justus Miles Foreman, the novelist, was comparatively young, but no award was made to his heirs because they could not show that his occupation brought substantial earnings or that his death had deprived them of financial support. The largest sum awarded was $130,000, which goes to Mrs. Mary Davis Hopkins Gilmer, whose husband and father both lost their lives. She was able to establish a large direct financial loss arising from the deaths of both.

THE ANTHRACITE WAR.

There is increasing talk of intervention by the Federal Government in the case of a strike in the anthracite district. This idea appears to derive some support from recent statements attributed to President Coolidge. Perhaps it may be said that the American public has a little more of hope of late that a strike of serious duration may be prevented, yet confidence in that direction can scarcely be based upon what has happened in the past.

It is not to be forgotten that more than two years ago Congress authorized the complete investigation of the causes leading to repeated interruptions of the work of coal mining. That investigation was conducted by the United States Coal Commission, a body with large powers. The inquiry, which was prolonged, cost $600,000, and at the time the recommendations of the commission were received with evidence of public favor and there was much expectation that something effective would be done. The commission submitted a report to Congress, making many suggestions. Among these was one that the Federal Government should be authorized, in case of a strike emergency, to take and operate any coal mines involved. Another was that the economic facts connected with the industry should be made public like those of any public service company. This would be treating the American coal mines as public utilities, notwithstanding the fact that they are privately owned and operated.

Nothing happened. Congress completely ignored the recommendations of the commission. If they were useless, it might be thought the right course would have been to have another investigation by a wiser commission, or to decide upon some form of government action. But the money was wasted, and the public was left without any real measure of protection. Consequently the miners and the operators have been at war on several occasions since and the danger of a serious strike is again very great. The last one was settled after a fashion by the intervention of the Governor of Pennsylvania, who brought about an increase of wages.

The situation confronting President Coolidge and a nation of coal consumers is that, failing some better solution of the problem, the public will undergo a period of fuel scarcity, and that this hardship will be increased by the necessity of paying the cost of the war, which cost the combatants themselves, largely escape.

Another name is put forward in a London cable in connection with the post of Governor-General of Canada, and a very famous name, too—that of Field Marshal Viscount Allenby. It would be difficult to think of a man who would be welcomed more enthusiastically by the people of the Dominion.

The California newspapers do not like the word "earthquake." They use instead the word "temblor," a Spanish word meaning a small or inoffensive earthquake. There is something in the theory that the temblor is accomplished by no good can of the quakes, and that only harm can result. Anyway the California idea is to keep "earthquake" out of the local vocabulary and hope sturdily for the best.

Contrary to the general expectation that Russell Scott would be hanged early this morning in Chicago, he has been reprieved again. Four hours before the time set for execution a stay of proceedings was granted pending a hearing as to his sanity. And he says now that he is no more crazy than the judge who has given him another chance. There may be something in that.

Great Britain's industrial outlook becomes darker with the news that a general strike of all miners is to begin on July 31 unless a settlement is reached in the interval. A general coal strike would soon bring industrial paralysis. The situation is all the worse because of the attempt on foot to have other unions join the coal miners, put a stop to transportation, and hold up the public. The Govern-

Odds and Ends

"You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends."—From "Notes by a Wayfarer."

Eating to Keep Well

(Ottawa Journal.) When the man next door tells us what he eats his story goes in one ear and out the other. Even if he gives us his reasons, and assures us of the beneficial results he has won, our indifference persists. But when some one with a big name takes us into his confidence with respect to his diet, we sit up and take notice. Judge Eibert H. Gary, head of the greatest business organization in the world—the United States Steel Corporation—has just captured our public attention by an intimate account in the press of his eating habits and the effect they have had on his health.

Judge Gary's physical fitness may be a matter of intense concern to many as well as to himself, but in the final reckoning, sound health means just as much to the most obscure man in the world. If rational dieting helps the big fellows to do their work, it has precisely the same likelihood of helping the little fellows. And that is pretty much all the good that the publicity of Judge Gary's experience in the eating line will do.

It is not proposed to go into details in the matter. Just what the conspicuous and efficient steel magnate ate will come into this story. The only three points worth emphasizing are these: First, that he found he was eating too much; second, that he discovered at the same time he was consuming too high a proportion of rich foods; and third, that when he began to eat less, and to eat less of the rich, his vitality increased, his vigor began to rise. In short, he regained his efficiency and the joy of living.

This experience might have been any man's. Speaking broadly, we all eat too much, and, if we can afford it, eat too much, and, if we can afford it, we are all disposed to let our palate dictate the quality of our food. We eat of the man who has and loves a good table that he "lives well." We should say that he lives very badly. Denial and abstemiousness are the real secrets of sound living. They make for length of days and comfort. Nothing is truer than that as we begin to consume luxuries our luxuries begin to consume us.

And that is a truth which we all need to philosophically recognize at this season of the year. Tempting foods are abundant and life in the open air gives us the appetite to indulge in them. We too often pay the price in lowered vitality later. It is a law of nature. Self-denial at the table yields rich dividends in vigorous health.

To the Editor of the Globe: My attention has been called to an article in your paper on the statue at Orillia, in which mention is made that there were no heroes in Canada before 1840. If by "Canada" is meant the region drained by the St. Lawrence River, this is possibly correct.

ment is still striving to effect a settlement, but the prospect at the moment is bleak enough.

Port Royal to Quebec to farm it seems quite possible that he took such farm animals as he had, and, therefore, the statement that there were no horses in the region drained by the St. Lawrence before 1840 is questionable.

CHEESE PRODUCTION MORE THAN USUAL

Output in New Brunswick This Season is Much Ahead of Last Year.

FREDERICTON, July 23.—New Brunswick's cheese production for the present season will be heavier than usual, if the present rate is maintained throughout the season, according to J. R. Sutherland, assistant dairy superintendent of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, who is in the city today.

There are at present 19 cheese factories operating in the southern dairy district of the province, surrounding Sussex. This is one more than the number in operation last year, while the total number of factories in the province now operating, is 31.

Good prices for cheese products is one of the contributing factors to the heavy production recorded this season.

BAXTER SAYS $30 ESTIMATE TOO LOW

Grand Falls Power Cannot be Sold at That Figure, He Affirms.

STANLEY, July 23.—Hon. Dr. J. B. Baxter, leader of the Opposition party, addressing a meeting here tonight, declared that the estimated selling price of $30 a horse-power for Grand Falls energy was too low.

He denied that either the McLean or Fraser interests had any contracts by Grand Falls power, and said he had not been able to find anyone in Saint John who had agreed to purchase energy.

R. B. HANSON SPEAKS. R. B. Hanson, K. C., M. P., for York, also addressed the meeting, dealing with the increase in the provincial debt. He attacked the Government on the question of prohibition enforcement and the Queen Hotel deal. He said there was scarcely a road supervisor in the province who kept a straight account.

Border Woman Missing; Many Start Search

MARSHILL, Me., July 23.—A frantic search is being made of the Marshall Mountain for Mrs. Maude Shaw, 30, wife of Don Shaw, Mountain Road, who left her home about 6:30 this morning and was last seen by a neighbor entering the woods at the foot of the mountain. It is feared that she took poison with her. Great excitement prevailed in Marshall Thursday afternoon when the fire alarm was rung in, shortly after 4 o'clock to make it known that Mrs. Shaw had disappeared from her home in the early morning, while her husband was doing the early morning chores at the barn. She kissed each of her four small children and left the house.

James M. Scott, spoke briefly. Joseph Thorburn was chairman of the meeting which was attended by upwards of a hundred people.

Dr. Baxter left by automobile tonight for Newcastle where he will attend the Opposition convention tomorrow.

ACTION SOON ON FREIGHT RATES

Contribution to Maritime Fund Considered by Nova Scotia Government.

HALIFAX, July 23.—The attitude of the Nova Scotia Government toward the employment of a freight rate expert to prepare the case for the Maritime to be placed before the Railway Commission on August 15, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to share two-fifths of the cost and P. E. Island one-fifth, was not yet decided tonight, but was under consideration at the meetings held today by those members of the cabinet in Halifax.

Hon. J. A. Walker, Minister of Natural Resources and Provincial Development, stated tonight that the proposition had not been placed before Premier Rhodes before the latter left for Sydney a week ago, but had been sent by letter to the Cape Breton town. Mr. Rhodes had referred the matter to Mr. Walker and a decision will be announced shortly, the minister said.

CITY'S EASTERN GATEWAY IS THRIVING BUSINESS CENTRE

HAYMARKET SQ. HAS INTERESTING HISTORY

Once Was Scene of Much Activity In Marketing of Hay and Cattle—Was Made Public Square Through Efforts of Polymorphian Club

HAYMARKET SQUARE takes its name from the fact that it was the original hay market for the City of Saint John, the triangular piece of land lying at the eastern end of Waterloo, Prince Edward streets and City Road having been set aside for that purpose under special act. It was converted into a public square through the efforts of the Polymorphian Club, an organization formed in 1883 to take part in the celebration of the centennial of the landing of the Loyalists.

At the time of the organization of the club "Joe" Woods was weighmaster and clerk of the hay market. It was his duty to see that the loads were weighed and the proper fees collected from the farmers selling the hay. It was also the scene of the monthly cattle fair, which was held on the first Thursday of each month. On this day the farmers brought their cattle, sheep, pigs and horses which they had for sale and the buyer took away the live animal.

Soon after the organization of the Polymorphian Club its members conceived the idea of converting this plot of land into the public square.

OPPOSITION TO PLAN.

In 1885 a bill was introduced into the legislature to give them power to do this. It met with strong opposition and finally passed so amended that a part of the area might be so converted. At this time there was, in addition to the railway track which now crosses the square, two sidings run-

FAILING EYESIGHT CRIPPLES ENGLAND

London is City of Glasses and Spectacles, According to Statistics.

LONDON, July 24 — England is rapidly becoming a country of short-sighted people, and London a city of eye-glasses and spectacles, according to recent statistics.

These statistics prove that England's sight yearly grows worse, and that the country is behind the United States, France, Italy, Spain and most European countries in the good sight scale.

It was found last year that 20,000 children attending London grammar school needed spectacles, while army recruiting statistics show that 50,000 would-be soldiers were rejected from enlistments during the past 12 months, a high proportion of these rejections being through bad or weak eyesight.

"One in four children born in England today needs spectacles," says one distinguished surgeon ophthalmologist.

"If another world war were to occur in 20 years' time a quarter of the English army would have to go into battle wearing eye-glasses.

GIRL, SAVED BY DOG, SHOTS ASSAILANT

Negro Caught by Posse After Being Wounded a Second Time in Chase.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 24.—Shot twice, once by Miss Barbara Long, who lives with her brother Nicholas on a farm near the Lincoln highway a few miles from here, and a second time by one of a posse which pursued him through the fields after he is alleged to have attacked Miss Long, Jess Williams, a negro, was arrested today on a charge of atrocious assault. After his wounds had been treated at the Middlesex General Hospital he was taken to the New Brunswick jail. Miss Long was saved from serious harm by the intervention of a large shepherd dog which made the negro take to his heels through the fields. The negro begged for food, and as Miss Long was preparing it he forced his way into the kitchen of the farm house and began to choke her. Miss Long managed to break his grasp on her throat. She screamed and the dog sprang at him. The negro ran from the place and Miss Long fired both barrels of a shot gun at him as he fled. The man was hit, but kept running. Nicholas Long, the girl's brother, ran to the house when he heard his sister's screams and the shot. He took the gun and followed the negro, being joined by several men working in the fields nearby. One man jumped in an automobile and intercepted the negro, who had been wounded a second time by a shot from one of his pursuers. The negro was later strangled before Justice of the Peace C. W. Sedam and committed to jail without bail. According to the police, he said he did not intend to harm the girl, but merely tried to rob the place.

Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

THE LONG LOOKED FOR rowing races have now passed into history and while they may not have been as thrilling as anticipated they did much towards keeping the sport alive in this city. The showing of all the participants was good and augurs well for the future of the game from a local standpoint.

OLD JUPITER PLUVIUS certainly never was a sport or if he was he must be sore on the present generation.

he was he must be sore on the present generation. The way he is passing out the rain this summer is enough to break the heart of players and fans alike.

SO MUCH INTEREST was manifested by local fans in a previous announcement that Chief Bender had been sent to the mound by Eddie Collins a few days ago when the White and Red Sox were playing in Chicago that the writer secured details of his performance.

PAUL BERLENBACH certainly does not lack nerve for he has signed to meet Jack Delaney next month in a bout with his title at stake.

he has signed to meet Jack Delaney next month in a bout with his title at stake. It will be recalled that Delaney kayoed the present champion in their first meeting.

WELL-SATISFIED that the best man won in both the Diamond Sculls and the Gold Cup race, Walter Hoover, American sculling champion, returned home recently warm in his praise of Jack Beresford, his conqueror. Hoover, however, raises a point that is worthy of careful consideration.

GREAT SHIFTING OF POSITIONS IN THE MAJORS

Championship Races Are The Closest In Years

NEW YORK, July 24.—The shifting scenes of major league baseball today again starred Pittsburgh and Philadelphia at the top of the picture. Waiting until the ninth to lose a crushing batting attack, the Pirates once more displaced the Giants at the crest of the National League pile by shunting the Cardinals, 3 to 2, while the champions were halving a double header with the Braves. Four percentage points separated the clubs today.

The American League see-saw, which has been teetering for several weeks, carried the Macknens up at one end and tossed Washington down at the other yesterday. Two home runs by Gehrig of the Yankees, the second of which arrived in the seventh with the bases filled, batted the Senators out of first place, 11 to 7. Rommel's seventeenth ab triumph of the season, and timely hitting by Foole enabled Philadelphia to take advantage of the break by eging out the Red Sox, 4 to 4.

Giants Lose Opener

The tumble of the Giants was in the opening meet, with the Braves, and Johnny Cooney was responsible. Although he allowed the champions 11 hits, he blanketed them until the seventh and gave them only three runs over the full route, while his matter were gathering six off Beale. Smart pitching by Greenfield and a nigh-inning shoeting catch by Southworth rescued the Giants in the second game, 2 to 2.

Kearns Says Dempsey Will Knock Out Wills

LOS ANGELES, July 24.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, predicted that if Harry Wills ever climbs into the ring with the champion the big Negro fighter will be knocked out in two rounds.

With six months' training Dempsey can whip either Wills or Gene Tunney in one round, he declared. Referring to the champion's statement in New York that he had done some self-managing to the extent of signing for a bout with Wills, Kearns said: "The whole situation gives me a good laugh. Dempsey may be figuring that he will not fight Wills until after his contract with me expires in September, 1926, but I'm here to say that he cannot sign articles without my consent for any bout to take place before or after September of next year so long as I am his manager."

EAST HAS MAJORITY

NEW YORK, July 24.—Eight of the nine boxing championships held in the United States, remain in the East today, after a stout-hearted, strong armed defence of the bantamweight title by Charley (Phil) Rosenberg, of New York, against a vain but furious challenge from Chicago.

Only One Boxing Title Out of Nine Held in The West.

Rosenberg sits on his throne alongside Gemaro, Kaplan, Ballerino, Goodrich, Walker, Greb and Benenbach, but only because he was able to knock out the hard fighting Eddie Shea, after nine minutes and twenty-seven seconds of terrific fighting. Wading through a series of haymakers, the champion put down Shea after lifting himself by a mighty effort from the brink of defeat.

City League Games

Owing to the inclement weather the game scheduled between the Baptists and Royals for last evening was called off, to be played on a date to be announced by the league president. Tonight's schedule calls for a double-header, the Trojans meeting the Royals on the South End grounds, while the Water Department will oppose the Saint Johns in the North End.

St. George Team Will Play the Martellos

The Martellos, leaders in the City Intermediate League, have completed negotiations for two games with the St. George team on the West Saint John Improvement League grounds, tomorrow afternoon and evening. The St. George team is said to be a fast boying and hard hitting team and are expected to give the locals a good run for the money.

PHIL ROSENBERG KAYOES SHEA IN TITLE MATCH

Shea Opens Up

Shea opened up the battle in regular style. For the first three minutes he carried the fight to the title-holder. But the Shea assault was short-lived. Once the champion gained his bearings, Rosenberg opened up a volley of punches which forced Shea to cover. The terrific pace continued in the third round, when Shea came in fast to change the champion with blows from all directions. Rosenberg calmly measured him again, and another right to the jaw dropped Shea for a count of three.

Drops the Challenger.

In the final round, the fourth, Rosenberg caught Shea's uncovered jaw, and the challenger dropped into a helpless mass. At six he rolled over, raised himself to his knees and came to his feet at nine.

Shea Takes Count.

The end was in view. The champion waited, then he stepped in and crossed the right, which floored Shea for good and all. The end came after 37 seconds of fighting in the fourth round.

CONSOLIDATED SMELTERS LEAD

Many Buying Orders for Oil Shares Received in New York.

MONTREAL, July 24.—There were no outstanding price changes at the opening of today's stock market but the strength of yesterday was generally continued. Consolidated Smelters was the most active issue, advancing 1/2 to 89%. Next in activity came Brazilian, which was down 1/4 at 89%. Revival of interest in this old time leader is attributed to strength in the market, which yesterday advanced to 11.80. Another prominent stock this morning was Dominion Textile, up 1/2 to 84 1/2. The papers were represented by Price Bros., unchanged at 47%, and Laurentide up 1 to 80. Asbestos common and preferred both received some attention, the former ending 1/4 to 72%, and the latter, after opening off 1 at 108, rising to its closing figure.

The only other stocks to appear during the early trading were Winnipeg Rails, Twin City and British Empire Steel first preferred all of which sold in small lots only at 80%, down 1/4, at 62, off 1/2, and at 28 1/2, up the fraction, respectively.

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, July 24.—The market yesterday showed it still had ability to recover. Right from the opening buying seemed to be larger and better than the selling and nearly all groups were affected. Just at the close the high-priced issues moved forward rapidly, while the general list was active but gained no ground. Whether this action of market near the close indicated that there was some distribution under cover of strength in American Can and Mack Truck needs more time to demonstrate. A continuation of this strength in high-priced issues, without the general market being able to advance would make us afraid of market. We rather expect higher prices for the market leaders, the steel, copper, some rails and some specialties. The Bethlehem Steel report shows that trade conditions are much improved over last year, and indications point to a much better third quarter than we had last year. Believe steel stocks can be bought, so. By is in high ground, but we think it is going higher.

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, July 24.—Forblower and Weeks—"Think it would be a mistake to assume a bearish attitude simply because a two day reaction has occurred, following seven days advance. Would not be afraid to make commitments, especially in low priced rails and copper during any further selling."

Housman & Co.—"On weakness market will be a purchase, especially the steel."

Hutton & Co.—"The plentiful supply of money and the difficulty in securing stocks yielding a good yield do not justify the sale of stocks bought in the earlier stages of the market."

Block Maloney.—"After some further readjustment the market will be ready for another forward swing. We would use weak spots to buy all sound issues."

HANDCUFF KING CALLED TO COURT

Complainant Says Houdini Was Disorderly in Place of Business.

NEW YORK, July 24.—City Magistrate James M. Barrett has issued a summons charging Harry Houdini, "the handcuff king" with disorderly conduct. The complainant is George Young of the Francis P. Houdini Company of 1,476 Broadway.

Houdini, it is alleged, entered the company's office last Monday, and charged the officers of the company with using his name unlawfully in the conduct of their business. He tore from a packing case a tag addressed "Houdini," the complaint says, and when ordered to return it refused, seized a chair and broke an electric chandelier when they tried to prevent him from leaving the room.

Mr. Houdini said that for some time he has been getting bills and letters intended for the Houdini concern, and that he believed the confusion of names was intentional. He seized the chair, he said, to protect himself from attack when he tried to leave the office.

Francis P. Houdini, who is described as an electrical engineer and inventor, is the head of the Houdini Company. He said that there had never been any intention on his part to capitalize the name of Houdini.

TOURISTS OUT TO BREAK RECORDS

Travel So Far Greatest Yet, So Hotelmen and Business Folk Think

Cars From All States and Provinces Seen In and About the City.

The greatest boom this city has ever experienced in the line of tourist traffic is in progress at present in the considered opinion of several hotel registers. The hotel registers also report it is noticeable. These tourists come from near and far in their autos, from sunny California on the Pacific coast to Maine and Massachusetts in the east. The latter state is the banner one although it is surprising the number from New York city and state.

FROM ALL STATES.

An interesting record is being kept by Manager Peters at the Admiral Beatty in this direction and his book shows some rather surprising figures. The hotel was opened on June 22 and his record is now complete until July 20, or one month lacking three days. In that period his tourist register book for New York shows 286 registrations; for Pennsylvania, 132; for Massachusetts, 38; for Ontario, 22; New Jersey, 91. These are the high spots with every state in the union represented. The Canadian provinces also maintain a high percentage, Ontario and Quebec leading. The Maritimes show up very well, of course, all his registrants are not tourists and in this connection, Manager Peters has taken pains to check up before putting the records in his book.

It is trying to get a line on this year's tourist traffic," he says, "and it must be gratifying to the people of this city to know that bigger results than ever are being obtained this year."

PREMIER RETURNS FROM GRAND MANAN

Attended Four Meetings in Charlotte—Says Rain Was Help to Crops.

Hon. P. J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick, arrived in the city on the steamer Grand Manan this forenoon and is registered at the Victoria. He said he held meetings at Lord's Cove, Deer Island, Campobello and Grand Manan in Charlotte county, all of which were very largely attended, excepting the Campobello meeting which was held during a heavy downpour.

RAIN HELPS CROPS.

Hon. Mr. Veniot states that recent rains have given assistance to numerous crops throughout the territory visited by him and for that matter throughout the whole of the city until this evening. He is a very busy man and like all the other politicians this time is doing most of his traveling by motor.

"WHAT is that you have there?" asked Magistrate Henderson of a man appearing before him in the police court this morning on a drunkenness charge, carrying several large boxes.

"Eggs," replied accused. "Eggs?" repeated His Honor. "Well, you are lucky you still have them; $8 or two months."

Two other men charged with the same offence received the same sentence.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "I thought we had a noo family out to the Settlement a while ago. They moved onto a farm an' got settled down an' said they liked it fine. They was from the old country. The first night they was there one feller went to see 'em an' ast if they'd picked out a place yit in the buryin' ground. The next night another feller called an' said the poorhouse was crowded this summer. Next night some women went an' told about the time the family that lived there once had typhoid fever an' most of 'em died. Well, sir—it went on that way fer two or three weeks—an' by that time the man an' his wife was watchin' one another an' I guess they went out west—where a noo feller's neighbors is got to see try in the world. We got more craps-hangers round here in this see-an'-worry's case, I guess. Yes, sir—we hev so."

LAST DAY RECEIPTS OF TAXES RECORD

Mail Arrivals Brings Yesterday's Total to $407,000—Percentage Paid is Good.

The mail brought to the office of the city chamberlain the sum of $20,000 this morning, bringing the total received during the discount period up to $1,283,810, which is less than $2,000 below last year, when there was received $1,285,800.

Including the amount received this morning in the mail the receipts for the last day amounted to $407,000, which is far in excess of any previous day's receipts. Of this amount more than $100,000 came in three amounts. The total levy this year was $1,756,801 and the amount received, plus the amount of the cash discount, which was more than $60,000, and the deductions allowed by the assessors, represents about 75 per cent of the levy. This is regarded as very good under present conditions.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED. William R. Veres of Houlton, Maine, has announced the engagement of his elder daughter, Helen, to Russell Parsons Cahill, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cahill of Sackville, the wedding to take place early in September.
