Coun. Harquail, who is a member of the Board of School Trustees reported that the Board was hard at work preparing for the erection of a modern school building on the town property on Gerrard street. The proposed building is to be 44x80, two storeys high, and will have four class rooms.

Whether the new building would be brick or wood had not been definitely decided and he would like to have an expression of opinion by the Councillors. It was estimated that the building fully equipped would cost, in wood about $15,000 or in brick about $18,000. As the building is urgently needed the work was to be rushed so as to be ready as soon after New Year as possible. An architect was working on plans, and specifications now.

It was the unanimous opinion of the Council that brick building should be built.

Coun. Patterson said that while talking over school matters, he would like to recommend to the favorable consideration of the School Board, the mounting of the two historic cannons.

His Worship said he thought the Councillors would like to look over the plans with the School Board, and discuss matters.

Coun. Harquail said that he would arrange a joint meeting of the two boards at an early date. He also said he would inform the School Board of the opinions of the Council.

The Council then adjourned.

SHIVES LUMBER CO. WINS IMPORTANT CASE
Rimouski, Aug. 14th.—Judgment has been handed down by the Superior Court at Rimouski presided over by Justice Roy, in the case of Price Bros. and The Shives Lumber Company.

The action was taken by Price Bros. against The Shives Lumber Company, claiming the sum of $3,616.35 for certain lumber which they claimed was cut by the Shives Lumber Company on their property, on the upper waters of the River Rimouski and of the Kedgewick, the amount claimed being on the basis of $1.00 per tree.

Price Bros. were represented by the law firm of Messrs. Tessier & Cote, of Rimouski, and the Shives Lumber Company by the Honorable John Hall Kelly of New Carlisle.

The latter claimed that Price Bros. could not obtain judgment in their favor, because the line had not been legally established between the two limits. Some years ago, surveyor G. K. Addie of Quebec, ran out the line between the two limits, to wit: River Rimouski and Kedgewick. After the line was run Price Bros. declared that they had not their full complement of land and demanded a resurvey. The Shives Lumber Company consented to a resurvey, being under the impression that Price Bros. had not as they stated, their full amount of land.

After the second survey took place, the Shives Lumber Company then found out that by the second line, a considerable part of their limit, according to their pretensions, was included in the limit of Price Bros.

Mr. Kelly also argued that in order to legally establish lines between limits in the Province of Quebec, it is necessary that the Minister of Crown Lands should state how the lines should be run. The Shives Lumber Company therefore appealed to the Department of Crown Lands at Quebec, asking that the second line be declared illegal.

While the Shives Lumber Company were still discussing the facts with the Crown Land Department, Price Bros. made a demand for trespass against the Shives Lumber Company, for the above amount, which the Shives Lumber Company refused to recognize, whereupon Price Bros. instituted action.

The principal part of the plea put in by Honorable Mr. Kelly was that until such time as final decision had been reached by the Minister of Crown Lands, the Courts of the Province could not intervene and render any decision relating to trespass. The Court has upheld this view and consequently dismissed the action taken by Price Bros. against the Shives Lumber Company.

132ND BATTALION PRESENTED COLORS

Impressive Ceremony at Valcartier. Office of Benediction by Ven. Archdeacon Forsyth

A very interesting and impressive ceremony in connection with the Benediction and Presentation of Regimental Colors, which have been given to the 132nd battalion by the Earl of Chatham branch of the Daughters of the Empire, took place at Valcartier on Thursday.

The presentation was held on the "plateau" near the camp, where the 132nd battalion, under command of Lt. Col. Mersereau, was assembled. Three other battalions under their several officers, were also on the plateau, together with a large number of visitors.

The Office of Benediction was, at the request of the Daughters of the Empire, said by Ven. Archdeacon Forsyth, rector of St. Paul's, Chatham, N. B., who was received on his arrival on the grounds by Colonel Rogers of the General's Staff, representing General Wilson who was unable to be present.

Accompanied by Colonels Rogers, Powell and Mersereau, the Archdeacon took a position in front of the Regimental Colors, which rested on drums a few paces from the 132nd battalion. The hymn "Brightly Gleams Our Banner," was beautifully accompanied by the regimental band, and then the Archdeacon, in a clear voice which was heard distinctly, said the appropriate prayers of the Office of Benediction.

The address of presentation was then read by Mrs. F. H. McNaught, representing the Daughters of the Empire, Chatham branch, being signed by Mrs. E. E. Neale, regent, and Mrs. G. Stead, secretary, who were unable to be present.

Colonel Mersereau accepted the colors in a few well chosen words, and the ceremony was concluded with usual military movements of the battalion, bearing the handsome colors, which were admired by all present.

Three hearty cheers were given for the King and for the donors of the colors, and the assembled battalions returned to camp.

We understand that the colors are to be deposited for safe-keeping in the old parish church of St. Paul, Chatham, as a memorial of the service of the battalion for King and Country.

FIRST RACE MEET A GREAT SUCCESS
Races Well Conducted and Events Were Close Enough to be Exciting

The first race meet on the Campbellton track since the local association joined the Maritime Circuit were held last Thursday and Friday and were witnessed by very large crowds. The weather was perfect, and the track in fairly good condition.

The "Free For All" was exceedingly close and the last heat alone was worth the price of admission.

The best of order prevailed and the management is to be complimented upon the manner in which the races were conducted.

Two local horses scored, Northern Jack, owned by Mr. R. B. McBeath, took first place in the 2.21 class, while King Brazilian, owned by D. A. Stewart, M. L. A., took second money in the 2.23 class.

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF ORDINATION

Celebration in Honor of Bishop Barry, Chief Debtors After War Will Be Met of Chatham

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 16.—The celebration of the 50th anniversary of the ordination of Right Rev. Thomas F. Barry, D.D., to the priesthood took place here to-day. The celebration began at 9 a. m., with Pontifical High Mass celebrated by Right Rev. L. O'Leary, D.D., auxiliary Bishop of Chatham, assisted by Rev. Eloi Martin, sub-deacon. Rev. J. A. Hart was master of ceremonies. Bishop Barry on the throne in magna cappa was assisted by Right Rev. L. N. Dugas, V.G., D. P., and Right Rev. W. Varrily, D.P. Rev. W. E. Sormany was master of ceremonies at the throne. Bishop O'Leary, Charlottetown, preached a very eloquent sermon eulogistic of the life and work of the venerable bishop.

At the close of the Mass congratulatory addresses in French and English were read by Rev. Wm. Varrily and Rev. S. J. Doucet, and a purse of $1,000 in gold was presented to His Lordship on behalf of the priests of the diocese.

The Bishop replied very feelingly, expressing his thanks and asking a continuance of the cordial good will and friendship that has always existed between himself and clergy.

At 12.30 o'clock a banquet was tendered His Lordship in St. Thomas' College by the priests of the diocese, about 60 of whom were present. The health of the Bishop was the only toast, and was spoken to by Rev. Fathers Cormier and Wheaton.

At 7.30 the parishioners of St. Michael's, Chatham parish, presented an address read by Mr. E. A. Lawlor, K.C., and a purse of $1,000. This was followed by benediction and the singing of solemn Te Deum by the choir. His Lordship replied briefly, expressing his heartfelt thanks and gave his blessing.

Many congratulatory messages were received including some from clergymen of other denominations. His Lordship is enjoying very good health. There were very large congregations at both services.

BRITAIN STRONGER THAN EVER BEFORE

Allies—Ostracism For Germany

Mr. James Dunn, the former Montreal banker who removed to the centre of the financial world some eight years ago, arrived at the Ritz-Carlton from London, Sunday. London financially is strong, he says, and although the Stock Exchange and all the banking establishments are contributing not only financial but military effort to bring about the defeat of Germany, England still remains the business centre of the universe. Great Britain, he added, is financing her allies to the extent of two million pounds sterling a day, and although the national debt will be high at the end of the war, this money will be owing mostly to her own people, while her debtors abroad will be her brave allies, and well able to pay all their liabilities. Speaking of the anti-German sentiment in England, Mr. Dunn said it was perhaps an extreme sentiment which prompted the Privy Counsellors Speyer and Cassel, but good will follow, because the leniency which brought so many Germans into the country will never be heard of again. He believed, however, that Sir Edward Cassel was to all intents and purposes a loyal British citizen. England, he says, is slow to act, but once the nation is thoroughly aroused it takes a great deal to bring sentiment back to its normal state. For instance, went on Mr. Dunn, no one will ever see the German Emperor again in London, while Anglo-German financial and commercial relations are things of the past, never in our lifetime to be revived. If the present war had been carried on by Germany in a chivalrous spirit, worthy of a great nation, the sores engendered by the conflict would soon heal, but Germany has shown herself little better than a savage, barbarous nation, hence she will be held up to the execration of Great Britain for years to come. Going on to develop the theory that the present sentiment in Great Britain is much unlike that which followed the Napoleonic wars, Mr. Dunn said that when the brave old Marshal Soult came over to assist Queen Victoria's coronation, the boys in London took the horses from the carriage and dragged Wellington and Soult, the victor and the vanquished, through the streets, amid the deafening shouts of delighted Englishmen, but who would dare predict the day when William of Germany, with the blood of so many innocent victims on his hands, will ever be received in Great Britain or any Allied country?

6,000,000 BRITISH IN ARMS
Mr. Dunn has been at the front several times and he believes that there are now 1,500,000 British soldiers in France and more following every day, while there are 3,500,000 under arms in Great Britain. In fact, this number of British soldiers now under arms cannot, in Mr. Dunn's opinion, be much less than six million.

Germany, says Mr. Dunn, has passed the zenith of her power, while the Allies have not reached theirs. The British fleet has so successfully kept out of Germany the ingredients which go to make up her war material that the effect is already being felt in the field, where the morale is the morale of leaving the German legions. The German nation, as far as he can judge from a banker's standpoint, is absolutely bankrupt, and the bankers themselves realize this depressing fact, but the name he placed upon the voters' list of the nation decrees that Germany still lives as a great financial power, and consequently the anomaly is permitted to exist. Once the military power is broken, the whole financial fabric of Germany will tumble to the ground.

One of the features of the war, says Mr. Dunn, is the fact that Great Britain's prestige and power at its close will be greater than ever before, for it took such an upheaval to show the latent forces of the Old Land and her dependencies. The people of Great Britain are amazed at the co-operation of Canada, Australia and New Zealand, binding the overseas dependencies with the British Islands as they were never bound before. It had been a rude awakening to Germany, and it is a wonderful object lesson to the world. Asked what he thought of Canada's position at the end of the war, Mr. Dunn replied that Canada's steel manufacturing will certainly be called upon largely to contribute to the rebuilding of France and Belgium, while her future trade with Russia cannot be over-estimated. Germany's loss Russia's trade will perhaps be the most effective knock-down blow Germany will receive, as Mr. Dunn is convinced that the anti-German hostility is quite as pronounced in Russia on the banks of the Thames, and this will make itself felt quite as sharply in trade and commerce as on the battlefield. Germany's spies, her chemists and her literary men had overrun Russia and came near working her ruin, but the situation is now changed.

As for the future, Mr. Dunn thinks that a trade alliance between the Allies will follow the successful co-operation on the field. He does not think it will be aimed particularly at the United States, that country giving and taking with the other neutral countries, but it will be aimed very effectively at the Central Powers.

Mr. Dunn believes that many of the men who have for two years been accustomed to the independent outdoor life will never again go back to their

REVISION OF

VOTERS' LIST

An Important Matter For All Young Men Who Wish a Voice in Provincial Affairs

The attention of all the electors interested in better government for New Brunswick is directed to the fact that the revisors of the voters' lists should according to law, make up and post their first lists of voters between September 1 and 10.

(1) Any young man who is of age before September 1, is a British subject and has resided six months in the province can have his name added by applying to his parish councillors who are revisors of the list to the chairman of the revising board.

(2) If application is not made before the first lists are made up and posted the same may be done any time before October 5. The applicant must be prepared to make oath then before the revisor (who is authorized to take his affidavit for this purpose) that he was 21 years of age before September 1, that he is a British subject and has resided in the province for six months previous to August 24, 1916.

When elections are announced young men who have not attended to this important matter are often surprised and indignant that they are unable to vote. If the provincial elections are held this fall under the law as it exists at present no young man, even if he became 21 years of age on the second day of September 1915, whose name is not on the voters' list, can vote, but if the elections are postponed until January 1, 1917, it is all important for those who wish to vote for better government that they should insist that their names be placed upon the voters' list at the revision this fall.

Any further information with respect to this matter will be gladly given to any person who inquires of E. S. Carter, Provincial Opposition Organizer, Fair Vale, Kings county.

GERMAN WOMEN OFFICIALS

Copenhagen, Aug. 9.—The Director of the Prussian State Railways has issued a new order to women employed as conductors and guards. They must in future wear the ordinary service uniform, including "dark grey wide trousers." Skirts and other articles of feminine attire will only be allowed when the employees are off duty and outside the railway premises.

On the Berlin elevated railway, where women guards have already worn knickerbockers for some time past, the Prussian railway administration has ordered that they shall wear long trousers like the men's.

FARMERS' EXCURSION

Extensive preparations are being made for the big excursion to Fredericton on Wednesday, Aug. 23rd, under the auspices of the Farmers' and Dairymen's Association of New Brunswick. As the date chosen is one that will enable all farmers to attend, coming as it does between haying and harvesting, it is hoped that a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity of spending a day at the experimental farm, and taking advantage of the instructions which will be given by the several speakers—each one an expert in his line.

Excursion rates prevail on all railroads and the invitation is extended to others than farmers and dairymen to co-operate and make the affair a success. Remember the date—Wednesday, August 23rd.

He seemed fearfully downcast as he came down the street, but for all that Mose Johnson, colored gentleman of all work whom everybody in town knew, stopped him with a cheery hail. "Huh!" grunted the other. "It's a dark day, a very dark, hopeless kind of a day." And then the old negro said: "Hit's as you look at it, Cunnell Jones. But why don't you unlock de sunshine? Ain't you got some hid 'round de house some'rs—in some ol' co'ner what you clean forgot? Stir 'roun', an' tu'n de sunshine loose. It's dar—in yo' house and heart." "Here," the dark-day mourner said, "here's a quarter for you, old man." "Bress heaven!" Mose responded. "I knowed you'd turn loose de sunshine. Hit wuz in yo' pocket all de time!"

NORTH SHORE ACADIANS HAVE CELEBRATION

Annual Feast at Charlo Tuesday Largely Attended—Ad- dresses Delivered

The Acadians of Charlo and surrounding districts celebrated their annual feast on Tuesday with great success. The weather was all that could be desired and a good number of citizens from Campbellton and Dalhousie were in attendance. About forty people crossed the Bay from Carleton, Maria and other Quebec points to be present. Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Comeau, parish priest of St. Leonard's, N. B., and the sermon was preached by Monsignor Bellevue of Grand Digue, N. B.

After Mass a new Acadian flag was hoisted on a very handsome flag staff, which the energetic priest of Charlo had erected on the church grounds. Dinner was served to a large number of people by the ladies of Charlo in the new hall.

At 2 o'clock a public meeting was held on the church grounds. Patriotic speeches were delivered in the following order by Rev. Monsignor Bellevue, Rev. Mr. Comeau, Hon. Charles Marcell, M. P., Rev. Chanoine Verreault, parish priest of Carleton, Bonaventure Co., P. Q., Hon. Charles H. La-Billio, Rev. Father Van de Moortel, P. P. of Belledune, Gloucester Co., N. B., A. T. LeBlanc, O. Turgeon, M. P.

Nearly all the speakers made reference to the great war, predicting an early victory for the allies and that England and France would see to it that there would be no more wars for years to come.

BRICK YARD NOW IN FULL OPERATION

Will Brim First Kiln Next Week.—A Needed Industry

The new brick making plant installed at the old brick yard at Mill Creek by the Maritime Automobile Co. is now running fairly satisfactorily, with temporary power, as the engine ordered has not yet arrived and two gasoline engines are being utilized in the meantime.

The capacity of the plant is 25,000 bricks per day, when working up to full capacity, and the company plans to manufacture a million brick each season.

This quantity of brick should be disposed of in this district, as Campbellton and vicinity use about 500,000 yearly.

The company plan to install a plant for pressed brick and drain tile at a later date.

About fifteen men and boys are given employment.

The first brick will be burned next week, after which all customers can be supplied as the demands arise.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE
Mrs. Frank Gendron of Eel River Crossing has received the following letter from the members of B Company, 58th Battalion, of which her son, John Gendron, who was killed in action, was a member.

June 27th, 1916
Somewhere in France.

Dear Mrs. Frank Gendron:

The boys of No. 6 Platoon, B Coy, 58th Battalion, send you this letter of sympathy on account of the great loss in which you have sustained in the death of your dear son John, who died in one of the hardest battles of the war. It is very sad to see one of our dear comrades go, but in this unhappy land where you see whole cities, towns and villages ruined and even cathedrals destroyed, it is a great comfort for us to know that our dear comrade fought for British fair play and righteousness. It will please you to know that while your boy was drafted out of the 58th Battalion, he was not altogether among strangers, as half of B Coy, to which he belonged, was his old comrades in 55th, and the original 58th all treated him like one of their best friends, and speaking for myself and the rest of his old comrades, there never was a better soldier that left the 55th, and during his training I never knew him to shirk a duty, and he was always cheerful. In a cemetery not far from the scene of battle, your dear boy was laid to rest. It is a beautiful place surrounded by nice trees, and where the little birds sing so sweet, and on his grave is erected a cross with his name in full on it. And now dear Mrs. Gendron, we pray that our loving Father will comfort you in your great loss, and that time and heaven alone will be balm for your sadness.

Yours sincerely,
Written by

ALBERT LECLAIR, No. 445465.

Chatham, among other seasonal luxuries, indulged in an earthquake last Sunday morning. It came at 5 o'clock, before most of the people had risen for early prayers. A large meteor, a ball of fire, was seen to rush through space at the same time, apparently not far above the earth.—World.

Local Druggist Repairs What Famous Surgeons Cannot Touch

Shattered nerves are beyond the reach of the Surgeon's knife. What will repair them? Dozens of people right here in your home town will bear testimony to this fact that Zoetic—the health tonic—has set them on their feet again. This famous combination of glycer-phosphates—the actual element of the human body—Cod Liver Oil and delicious tonic wine, supply the very elements that worn out nerves require. In a quiet way the action of Zoetic is truly marvellous. Without a trace of narcotic it induces sound sleep. And following that, better and better digestion. And following that a final and complete rebuilding of the nervous system drained of vitality. Two weeks' faithful use of it will convince you. Because you have been so often misled, expecting much and receiving little, we offer outright to refund the purchase price of Zoetic if at the end of two weeks you cannot report real progress toward better health. Start trying it to-day. Sold by Thomas Wran, Distributing Agent.

Minister's Office,
Ottawa, Aug. 5th, 1916.

Dear Mr. Englehart,—
Will you kindly accept my sincere sympathy and condolence in the death of that worthy citizen and heroic soldier, Private Harold Englehart.

While one cannot too deeply mourn the loss of such a brave comrade, there is a consolation in knowing that he did his duty fearlessly and well, and gave his life for the cause of Liberty and the upbuilding of the Empire.

Again extending to you my heartfelt sympathy.

Faithfully,
SAM HUGHES,
Major General
Minister of Militia and Defence,

Dear Mr. Englehart,

It was with feelings of very great regret that I learned today of the death on August 4th, from wounds received, of Private Harold Englehart. I am writing this letter for the purpose of extending my very sincere sympathy to you in your sad bereavement. Nothing of course can lessen the effect of the blow and of the sorrow caused to you and your family and intimate friends, but at the same time it is a satisfaction to know that he died serving his country, fighting in defence of those who are left at home and of the free institutions that are so dear to the heart of every Canadian and Britisher.

Again expressing my very sincere sympathy, I am,

Yours very truly,
J. D. HAZEN.

SAPPER ALEXANDER WALLACE

The name of Sapper Alexander Wallace stands first upon the Roll of Honor which hangs in St. John's Presbyterian Church, Dalhousie; and justly so, for he has the unique distinction of being the first man to enlist in the town of Dalhousie. Long before the people of Hestigouche even began to realize that they were in the throes of a life and death struggle, Alexander Wallace had enlisted and was on his way to active service. Although only sixteen years of age, he immediately undertook to play a bigger part on his Empire's behalf than his years indicated, and on the 21st August, 1914, enlisted under Col. H. H. McLeod.
Leaving Valcartier a few months later, he was soon overseas. When the 12th Battalion in which he enlisted, was broken up in England, he drafted as a tradesman; Later he joined the engineers and in that capacity clashed with the enemy in the first great battle of Ypres and the two succeeding battles. Just before the battle of Givenchy, which followed, he with seven others volunteered as messengers.
When his major called for two runners, he was one who stepped forward and received orders to go up the line to the attacking party. Past broken parts of the parapet into which poured a veritable hail of lead he dashed; over the wounded and the dead; now crawling on hands and knees; again waiting for a lull in the deadly bombardment he miraculously picked his way. Of these seven messengers who volunteered, he and one other survived that awful carnage on June 15th and 16th, 1915.

HAVE YOU HEARD

that eczema cases, which have de-

Zam-Buk? An illustration of this is found in the case of Mr. J. L.
Frenette, of Nigadoo, N.B. He writes:

"My head was entirely covered with eczema, and although I tried numerous remedies and received medical treatment, I got no benefit. Then I heard of Zam-Buk and tried it. The first few applications stopped the burning. Gradually the inflammation was drawn out, and before long the sores began to heal.
Perseverance with Zam-Buk resulted in a complete and permanent cure."

SOME THINGS IN A BASKET.

By CHARLOTTE FREEMAN.

Bob, taking a short cut down the bluff, missed his footing and landed right in the middle of a picnic of one.

"Great guns!" he cried, picking his way out of trouble and shaking off a piece of fresh jelly cake which clung affectionately to a bare foot. "Who'd ever think of finding you here? And why so exclusive?"

Glady's screwed the top on the thermos bottle and brushed some crumbs off her bathing suit before she answered. "Exclusive! This beach is about as private as a balloon ascension on the Fourth of July. Jude told you to hunt me, of course!"

"Well, I—"

"She did, and you know it. And, as usual, you found me. No one could have seen me from the water, but—"

"But you can't—"

"And that I won't be home until late and that she needn't worry. I'm neither with Mr. Harbison, Lieut.
Frick nor Jack Mable, and she and the other girls can rest easy. And tell her, too, please, to find some pleasant employment for you, as you are tired of your commission of keeping me occupied and out of the way during the house party."

"But I'm not tired of it," he declared, stoutly. "You know better."

"I am then! It's all the same. Now run over to the water and get the rest of the jelly off your toes. If you get hungry on your way home there are some sandwiches you can have."

He picked up the basket but did not move. "See here, Glady's! I don't want you to think I'm always hanging round because I want to. You know I love you. Only you won't listen.
Where are you going?" as she moved toward the Point. "Maybe over to the Point. I'm out of candy. You don't happen to have a dollar or so that I could borrow until I get back?"

Bob ran his hand over his close fitting jersey bathing suit. "By Jove, I haven't and I left my check book and fountain pen at home, too. Sorry!"

"They both landed," Glady's related a little. "Bob, you're a dear. I'm not cross with you really. I'm just tired of your tagging around, that's all, and I want to be left alone. I'm going

Muensterberg and the "New Idealism."

To the Editor of The Telegraph:

Sir—The latest solution of the great war problem as suggested by Professor Muensterberg is worth a few drops of printer's ink, especially as his ideas carry a good deal of weight in academic circles.

According to the German interpretation of the "New Idealism" as evidenced by the past conduct of the war this attitude of mind means not the "crushing of enmity" but the perpetuation of enmity because weak nations have been trodden under foot and the most precious things of civilization have been counted as the small dust of the balance.

Why does Muensterberg cry so loudly today for "peace" and plead so earnestly that each combatant return from the conflict with "unbroken sword"? And why suggest that it must be done by "Christmas, 1916," when not one on the side of the Allies mentions such a thing? Does it not mean that the far-seeing professor recognizes the fact that the German cause is lost and the Teutonic sword is already badly bent? "Each," he continues, "has already given its best blood for its freedom," and as a reward must be allowed to return without "humiliation."

Oh, yes, but when two men are found struggling with one another in the street and the officer of the law decides positively that one initiated the struggle, the latter is rightly punished or humiliated according to the damage done. The laws of God and man decide that the one who initiates a conflict must suffer beyond the one who takes up arms in self-defense. If innocent and guilty are treated alike then there is an end to moral and civil law.

Muensterberg says that all nations should now be guided by the "New Idealism" just as Germany, I suppose, was guided by it when she shelled the Rhine cathedral, shot a thousand men and burned three thousand homes in the province of Luxembourg. These deeds, we suppose, were symptoms of the "New Idealism." When the world is baptized in blood this doctrine advises the nation that has gained the upper hand not to "humiliate" the culprit that was responsible for it all. The "magnificent blonde brute" of Nietzsche, "avidly rampant for spoil and victory" must be allowed to retire with all honor and with unbroken sword. If this is the "New Idealism" the world might well consider it deeply before adopting it as a creed.

Again, after the most solemn obligations have been entered into by France, England and Russia, cemented by the blood of many thousands of their countrymen, England is advised to trample under foot these obligations and form an alliance with Germany and the United States. When a German professor can allow this thought to linger a moment in his mind, one can understand why the German imperial chancellor was astonished because England was entering the war for the sake of a "question of paper" binding her to use every effort to preserve the integrity of Belgium. We can now comprehend the bare-faced words of Herr Van Bethmann-Hollweg before the German Reichstag, Aug. 4, 1914, when he said: "Our troops have occupied Luxembourg and perhaps have already entered Belgian territory. Gentlemen, that is a breach of international law. . . (But) the wrong we will try to make good as soon as our military aims have been attained." One in such a position must have no other thought but must "back his way through" (durchhauen). International law is being broken because of necessity (notwehr) and necessity (not) is declared to know no law.

ELDERLY WOMEN SAFEGUARDED

Tell Others How They Were Carried Safely Through Change of Life.

Durand, Wis.—"I am the mother of fourteen children and I owe my life to Lydie E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I was 45 and had the Change of Life, a friend recommended it and it gave me such relief from my bad feelings that I took several bottles. I am now well and healthy and recommend your Compound to other ladies."

Mrs. MARY RIDGWAY, Durand, Wis. A Massachusetts Woman Writes: Blackstone, Mass.—"My troubles were from my age, and I felt awfully sick for three years. I had hot flashes often and frequently suffered from pains. I took Lydie E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now am well."

Mrs. PIERRE COURNOYER, Box 239, Blackstone, Mass.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness, should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydie E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through this crisis.

This, then, is the "New Idealism" that is destined to kill hate or enmity. Would it kill hate in the bosom of the Russian, the Frenchman or the Belgian? Would it kill hate even in the soul of the German? Can any kind of an external alliance kill hate and murder selfishness? I think not. The soul of Germany must first be changed, and the results of many years of militarism cannot be eradicated in a day or a year. A nation that regards all treaties as "scraps of paper" would also consider an instrument binding England, Germany and the United States according to the same standard and after fifty more years of strenuous preparation would, because of "military aims" and "necessity," strike at the very heart of England once more with the avowed aim of slaying not "enmity" but the "enemy" herself.

Germany cannot expect to escape the law expressed by the Divine Man, that he that takes the sword must perish with it. No one desires this in an absolute way. But the soul of Germany must be so purged with fire that she will learn gradually and fully that civilization cannot be crucified with impunity. Then she may once more take her place among nations that are strongly on the side of Christian ideals.

She—You promised to buy me a sealskin jacket.
He—Yes, my dear, I did, but I have had such a bad day in the market that I could not afford to buy you even an incandescent mantle.

A TRUE STORY

A lady visiting at the home of one of our soldiers learned from the wife of the man in khaki that she was a member of the Salvation Army. "And is your husband a member of the Army also," asked the visitor. "Oh, no!" replied the wife. "he is not a Christian, he is an Episcopalian."

J. WESLEY ALLISON

REDUCED TO RANKS

Honorary Colonelcy Cancelled—Due to Meredith-Duff Report

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—J. Wesley Allison has been reduced to the ranks. He is no longer honorary colonel in the Canadian military force. The government has taken action and cancelled his honorary colonelcy. The Meredith-Duff report is the basis of this action. The government after consideration decided that it could not agree with General Hughes, "that Allison is the greatest man in Canada," but preferred the Meredith-Duff finding that Allison's word could not be accepted and that he got the money.

Sandy Macpherson came home with a look of deep sorrow on his granite face. One might have thought he had lost a near and dear relative. "I canna get over it," he remarked to his wife. "I put a twa-shillin' piece in the plate at the kirk this morning instead of my usual penny." The headle had noticed the mistake, and in silence he allowed the farmer to miss the plate for twenty three consecutive Sundays. On the twenty-fourth Sunday the farmer again ignored the plate, but the old headle stretched the ladle in front of him, and, in a loud, tragic whisper, hoarsely said: "Yer time's up noo, Sandy."

Professional—Please gimme coppers, lady, to buy bread.
Little Girl—Why, gran'ma, you gave that man some money only half an hour ago.

Professional (taking in the situation)—Yes, my little dear, bless yer. But I'm a terrible bread eater.

Minister (who has kindly offered to write to parishioner's son at the front)—Now, Mrs. McIntosh, is there anything else you'd like to say?
Mrs. McIntosh—Ye might just finish wi' "Excuse the bad writin' in 'spell-in'" and that'll dae fine, sir.

At a Bohemian dinner a composer sat beside a society woman, who asked him if he had ever written anything that would live after he had gone. His reply was: "Madame, I am trying to write something that will enable me to live while I am here."

"Can you tell me what a smile is?" asked a gentleman of a little girl.
"Yes, sir; it's the whisper of a laugh."

LINENS ADVANCING

Recent reports from Linen centers state that further advances are being announced by manufacturers of linen goods. Flax from which linen is made comes almost entirely from Belgium and Russia and it is now exceedingly difficult for manufacturers to obtain supplies from either country. Prices of raw flax have advanced 100 per cent. In spite of these conditions we are still offering linen goods at very low prices including Bleached Damask Cloths, Napkins, Lunch Sets, Hemmed and Hemstitched Towels, Etc. Take advantage and replenish your linens for Fall. There will be a big demand for these goods at the prices offered.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Electrical Supt. H. G. V. Farrer, who met with an accident some time ago, breaking his leg, is out of the hospital and able to move about with the aid of crutches.

Pat went to a druggist to get an empty bottle. Selecting one that answered his purpose, he asked "How much?"

"Well," said the clerk, "if you want the empty bottle it'll be one cent, but if you have something put in it we won't charge anything for the bottle."

"Sure, that's fair enough," observed Pat, "Put in a cork."

An old farmer who had been henpecked all his life was about to die. His wife felt it her duty to offer him such consolation as she might, and said: "John, you are about to go, but I will follow you."

"I suppose so, Maria," said the old man, weakly, "but so far as I am concerned you needn't be in any blamed hurry about it."
