

BIRMINGHAM SOLID FOR JOE; UNIONISTS SWEEP THE CITY

Mr. Chamberlain Elected by 5,000 Majority, and All His Seven Candidates Returned.

BUT ELSEWHERE LIBERAL AVALANCHE SWEEPS ON

Ex-Conservative Ministers St. John Brodrick and Henry Chaplin Amongst the Fallen—Further Polling in London Adds to Discomfiture of the Tories—Rowdism at Birmingham.

London, Jan. 17.—The feature of today's election was the sweeping victory for tariff reform in Birmingham, the western division of which is represented by Joseph Chamberlain. As with the preconceived intention to prove that a prophet is not always without honor in his own country,...

THIS IS AWFUL.

London, Jan. 18.—The Liberal tide is rising faster than ever today, as the flood of returns comes in from yesterday's elections in the counties. Fourteen more Conservative seats have been captured, while the Unionists can only record a victory in one division, which is more than counterbalanced by the labor gains in Sunderland and Warwickshire. Well-known Unionists like William St. John Brodrick, the former secretary of state for India, Henry Chaplin, the former president of the local government board, and Arthur E. Fellowes, the former president of the board of agriculture, have been overwhelmed by the Liberal avalanche.

Among the new members is Dr. Stopford W. Brooke, a former Unitarian minister of Boston, who captured the Bow and the Liberals. The result of the elections to date is as follows: Liberals 189, Unionists 79, Irish Nationalists 56, Laborites 32.

each of the seven divisions of the city elected a Unionist, pledged to Mr. Chamberlain's policy, and in six of the divisions phenomenal majorities were piled up. Mr. Chamberlain himself polled 7,173 votes, against R. L. Outwater, the Liberal-Labor candidate, who received 2,694. In the last election Mr. Chamberlain was returned without opposition, and in the pre-

WITHOUT PRECEDENT OR REASON IS OBSTRUCTIONISTS' ACTION

Conservatives Censured for Conduct at School Board—A Trustee's Mistake.

The extreme methods adopted by the Conservatives on the board of education to secure the chairmanship of No. 2 committee has not added lustre to the stand taken by the obstructionists. Many citizens express the opinion that the action of the Conservatives is without precedent or reason, and that it is not in accordance with the interests of the people. Very many Conservatives today expressed themselves as greatly displeased with the men who are playing the role of obstructionists.

Chairman Strong is not the least bit worried over the state of affairs. He has the opinion of the city solicitor to back him in what he is doing, and he feels that his opponents in blocking the city's business are simply injuring their own position. "The people elected all the trustees to do their best for the citizens at large," said Mr. Strong today, "but apparently one half the board does not want to transact the city's business

HEAD OF MOROCCAN MISSION THINKS CONFERENCE WILL FAIL

Algebras, Spain, Jan. 17.—The delegates of the Moroccan conference took a day of leisure today in order to enable the secretaries to get ready for their work, and indulged in private conversations among themselves or spent the time in preparing with their junior colleagues for the discussion of the surveillance of contraband arms in Morocco, the first question to be discussed at the next meeting.

When the conference shall have agreed on regulations for the punishment of foreigners engaged in smuggling arms into Morocco, most of the countries will have to legislate on the subject, as only Great Britain and Spain can by orders-in-council penalize their subjects. While the talk among the ambassadors is all of conciliation and harmony, Mohammed El Torres, the Moroccan foreign minister and head of the mission of Morocco, and Mokri, the Sultan's principal agent, do not believe that the conference will agree. Budget Meakla, an eminent authority on Morocco, had a prolonged conversation today in Arabic with Mohammed El Torres, and repeated the Moorish view, as follows: Mohammed El Torres will be a passive observer at the conference until it enters the last stages. If the powers do not agree the conference will fall to pieces of itself, without the Moors

NEW STORE FOR MONTREAL

The Simpson Company of Toronto Said to Have Bought Site.

Montreal, Jan. 18.—It is well understood here that several Toronto capitalists, most of whom are connected with the Robert Simpson Company, are interested in a project to build here next summer a gigantic department store, to be devoted almost entirely to women's goods. A site was bought months ago at the corner of St. Catharine and Windsor streets, embracing property now occupied by the Hamilton Drygoods Company and the Lindsay Piano Company. It has a large frontage on the streets mentioned, as well as on Dominion Square. The price paid for the ground alone is said to be $400,000. The Robert Simpson Company already control the store that is still conducted under the old name of the John Murphy Company, Limited. These premises are not large enough.

HANNA APPROVES OF DETECTIVES TO ENFORCE THE LIQUOR LAWS

[Special to The Advertiser.] Toronto, Jan. 18.—Hon. W. J. Hanna, when asked today if the Government approved of the use of detectives to enforce liquor license law, as was done in London and Stratford, said that hotelmen who are honestly observing the law complain that competitors are violating it. Consequently whenever the officers find it necessary to employ special men to prevent the law being

INCREASE FOR G. T. R. ENGINEERS

The Company Agrees to An Additional Five Cents an Hour for Detention.

A special to The Advertiser from Toronto says the Grand Trunk has agreed to grant engineers an increase of 5 cents an hour for detention, and to give the engineers on shunting engines an increase of 7 per cent. The point on which the men and company have not agreed is the date when the increase shall take effect.

The men want it to date from October last, but the company is not willing to have it go into effect until Jan. 1. The men say they have kept the committee at Montreal at great expense, and they want to be recompensed.

The engineers were at Montreal for several months, and it looked at one time as if a settlement could not be reached. So far as the increase in detention money is concerned, the engineers will not profit greatly by it now, as with the double-tracking of the main line, crews seldom exceed the limit in making a trip.

DRAGGED BY A TROLLEY

Assistant Tax Collector Meets With Accident on Central Avenue.

Mr. Charles Turner, assistant tax collector of London, is confined to his home as the result of injuries received while alighting from a street car on Tuesday night. Mr. Turner was on a belt line car, and when between Cartwright and Midland streets he ran the bell and walked to the rear of the car to get off. While the speed he stepped on the lower step, in doing so he lost his balance, and he fell on his back. He held onto the trolley, but was dragged some distance. Dr. Moore, who was called, found that the tissues of the spine had been injured, and he says it will be at least three weeks before Mr. Turner will be able to leave his bed.

GOT A DRUBBING

Medical Corps Could Do Nothing at Basketball With Associate Team.

The United Military Athletic Association League games were continued last night. The results were as follows: In baseball, the Battery played the Hussars, resulting in a win for the artillerymen by 14 to 6. The basketball game resulted in the Hussars winning from the Battery by 8 points to 2. After the league games the association team played the Medical Corps, giving them a bad drubbing, the score standing 21 to 9 in favor of the association team. The batteries were, Taylor and Earley for the association team, and Thompson and George, for the Medical Corps. The association team play H Company of the Seventh Regiment next week and a fast game is anticipated.

Accidentally Kills Sister-in-Law. Montreal, Jan. 18.—Miss Lily Brisebois, 37 years of age, died at the Hotel Dieu early yesterday morning as the result of two operations to remove gonorrhoea from her abdomen. The girl was accidentally shot last Sunday by her brother-in-law, Joseph Aubin, at Aubin's restaurant, Panet street. Mr. Aubin was examining a gun, when it was unexpectedly discharged, a part of the load striking Miss Brisebois, who was standing close by.

set at defiance, the department will support them in doing so. These men are instructed, however, that they must not induce men to violate the law for the sake of convictions. The fact that a few hours' work resulted in six convictions in London and four or five in Stratford shows a condition of affairs that should not exist. The law must be enforced, and nobody need complain of any reasonable means adopted to secure that object.

ADVENTISTS OPPOSE OBSERVANCE LAWS

A Large Deputation Tells the Government It Would Be Against the Law of God.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Jan. 18.—W. H. Thurston, president of the Canadian Union Conference of Seventh Day Adventists; A. O. Birrell, president of the Ontario Conference of Seventh Day Adventists; H. E. Rickard, president of the Quebec Conference, and Eugene Leland, principal of the Lonedale Academy, waited on Sir Wilfrid Laurier today, and opposed the proposition to pass a Sunday observance law next session. In the first place, they say that the Fourth Commandment of the Decalogue requires that it be observed on Saturday, the seventh day, and that should be carried on as usual on Sunday. To observe both days would be a loss of time. In the second place, they say it is religious legislation, and to such they are opposed. They say that religious practices should not be dealt with by civil law. They take the ground that the observance of Sabbath is a religious practice, and therefore Parliament should not interfere, but render unto God the things that are his. The third point which the deputation put forward is that Sunday observance law would interfere with the employers of labor, who would be fined if they kept their works running on Sunday.

"We object," they said, "to a Sunday law because it is legislation against the law of God. That is the principal reason. The law of God makes the observance of Sabbath of the seventh day while it is now desired by Parliament to make it the first day of the week." The delegates said they would object strongly to any legislation affecting the seventh day, as they did to the first day.

The contract for carrying the British mails for five years from August next, has been awarded to the Allan Steamship Company, under certain conditions. The law of closing the contract may be extended for five years more, making it ten years in all.

C. P. R. Men Out.

Winnipeg, Jan. 17.—Sixty-nine employees, comprising practically the whole clerical staff of the C. P. R. stores department, struck today in sympathy with the employees of the department of auditing for their intention of closing the stores, transferring the work to Montreal. So far as is known there is no dispute regarding wages or hours of work, but the strikers simply demand that those employed by the contemplated change be given employment.

After the Wreck.

London, Jan. 18.—The Daily Mail in an editorial on the revolution in the political field, says:

"When the survivors of the Unionist wreck reassemble in the House of Commons they will look upon a scene never hitherto witnessed in that august assembly. They will find the 'First Club in Europe' gone, and we hope that as a consequence the first business house in Europe will have taken its place."

Among other changes, the Daily Mail notes the "great re-arrangement of power of railroad magnates and similar interests, which hitherto have been over-represented," and decline of "luster of the magic letters, M. P.," after the names on the prospectuses of company promoters.

The Morning Post says: "Birmingham has begun the work of reconstruction, Joseph Chamberlain has proved beyond question that the British people demand reform, and that they will support themselves to their choice a definite expression of convictions, and not a theoretical exposition of the advantages of two-mindedness."

SIX JEWS EXECUTED

Made Bombs and Engaged in Revolution's Propaganda.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Jan. 18.—Six Jews, members of the local anarchist committee, who were tried by court martial and condemned to death, were executed today in the courtyard of the Warsaw citadel. They were arrested a fortnight ago, charged with engaging in the revolutionary propaganda, manufacturing bombs and extorting money.

CHAS. GILDERSLEEVE DEAD

Was for Years Manager of Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Kingston, Jan. 18.—Charles F. Gildersleeve, the well-known steamboat man, is dead. He was born in 1833 and was general manager of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company from 1894 to 1904. Latterly he was manager of the Lake Ontario and Bay of Quinte Navigation Company. In 1904-1905 he was president of the Canadian Marine Association. A widow and two children survive him. A daughter married Major Rogers, of the headquarters staff, Ottawa. His father helped build the Frontenac, the first steamboat on Lake Ontario.

JEFFERSON PROTESTS

Doesn't Think Wiley Little Grace is Getting Fair Treatment.

The father of Little Grace Jefferson, the child who has made herself famous through the letters she sent to papers in different parts of the country, begging for help, has written to a certain civil official, in which he protests against the treatment accorded the little girl by the police. He concludes as follows: "I notice that Alice Roosevelt is to receive a wedding present of $300,000, and also 800 cent of coal from the mine owners of the United States. I notice, too, that Hon. George W. Ross was the other day given a Christmas box of $30,000; but why Grace can have no presents?" Jefferson thus appears to believe that the people are discriminating against Grace and in favor of Teddy and George.

ALL CHICAGO MOURNS

Striking Tributes to the Memory of Marshall Field.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Chicago went into mourning yesterday for Marshall Field. From the board of trade, most of the banks, and practically all of the big wholesale and retail stores, flags were flown at half-mast, while the Field stores remained silent behind closed doors and drawn shades. Almost every organization devoted to the interest of the development of Chicago adopted resolutions honoring the memory of Mr. Field, and the State street merchants met and agreed to close their stores tomorrow while the funeral is in progress. A memorial meeting of employees of the Field stores will be held in the Auditorium immediately following the funeral and burial. The meeting will be addressed by a number of department heads, officials of the company, and by old employees, who knew Mr. Field personally.

The Mikasa Doomed.

Tokyo, Jan. 18.—An attempt was made today to pump out the battleship Mikasa, which caught fire at Sasebo on Sept. 12 and sank after an explosion. The attempt was a failure, and it discloses unexpected rents in her hull.

Nothing in It.

Berlin, Jan. 17.—The foreign office calls the attention of the Associated Press to a dispatch, which asserts upon an excellent Paris authority that President Castro's attitude toward France is due to German intrigues. The foreign office says this is absolutely false. Germany has interfered by a single word in France's controversy with Venezuela.

Carried Out Their Threats; Stayed Away From Meeting

Only One Conservative at the School Board, and He Left, Breaking the Quorum.

True to their threats to block the business of the board of education rather than surrender their desire for the chairmanship of No. 2 committee, the Conservative members of the board, with the exception of Mr. W. C. Fitzgerald, remained away from the meeting called for yesterday afternoon. And Mr. Fitzgerald remained but a few minutes, during which time he criticized the calling of the meeting from various standpoints, finally leaving the chamber and thus breaking up the quorum. All the Liberal members of the board were present, as were also Principal Radcliffe and Inspector Edwards.

After Chairman Strong had called the meeting to order, Mr. Fitzgerald arose and addressed the chair.

Mr. Fitzgerald's objection. "I object to the meeting going on," he said. "For two weeks you have had the opportunity of calling a special meeting. You were, no doubt, aware that one, or probably two, of the members were away on business, but notwithstanding this, you persisted in calling the meeting at this time. I object and protest against the meeting going on under such circumstances."

At this point Mr. Weekes rose to a point of order and appealed to the chairman, but Mr. Fitzgerald took no notice of the objection. "I also object to the form of notice," the latter said, "as it does not conform to the facts of Section II, which has been quoted so often by my learned friend, Mr. Weekes, says that the meeting must be called for the purpose only of settling such matters as have not been agreed upon at the last meeting. But you have called it for three other purposes, namely, to break a deadlock, elect a representative to the Western Fair board, a representative to the public library board, and also for general business."

Talking for Talk's Sake. Mr. Weekes again interrupted the speaker, remarking that he was just talking for talk's sake, but the chairman said he would hear Mr. Fitzgerald.

"I regret you saw fit to call the meeting," went on Mr. Fitzgerald. "You knew Dr. English and Mr. MacRobert were out of town. Consequently I do not feel like remaining here to be made a football of. If a meeting is called for a date which is fair we will be on hand, and take the consequences."

"If Mr. Fitzgerald will keep his seat, I will have the secretary read a document which will probably be of interest to him," said the chairman.

"I wish to state again that the form of notice calling the meeting is illegal," said Mr. Fitzgerald.

"Mr. Fitzgerald is merely talking here for a purpose," said Mr. Gammage. "If he will take his seat he will find that the business of the citizens will be transacted in the interests of the citizens, and not in the interests of any one trustee."

"We don't propose to allow you to obtain a snap verdict," Mr. Fitzgerald replied. "If a janitor clock in my office sent out such a notice as that he would be dismissed the next day."

Finally Mr. Fitzgerald consented to sit down, and the secretary read the opinion of the city solicitor on the points in dispute.

Solicitor Upholds Chairman. In the first place the solicitor stated that though there might be a doubt on the question, his opinion is that the trustees paying taxes on the highest assessment of any member of the board has the power to break any and all deadlocks after they have been voted upon twice. In declaring "the decision" at the previous meeting in regard to certain matters upon which a deadlock had arisen, the chairman had acted within the law.

"Then the secretary read a form of notice prepared by the city solicitor, which had been used by the chairman to call the meeting. "I am prepared to stand by the ruling of the city solicitor," said the chairman, when the opinions had been read.

"I tell you that the paper is wrong, and the writing is rotten," said Mr. Fitzgerald, in reply.

The chairman then called the speaker to order, objecting to such language in the chamber.

Mr. Westervelt took part in the discussion. "Mr. Fitzgerald intimates that this meeting was packed," he said, "but I can tell him that I have not received any written notice of the meeting as yet, nor was I notified of the meeting until this afternoon."

Mr. Fitzgerald then left the room, the secretary declared "no quorum," and the remaining trustees fled out.

Government Will Not Aid A Sectarian Institution

If Hygienic Institute Comes to London It Must Not Be as Aid to Western University.

The Londoners who formed part of the very influential deputation which waited upon the Ontario Government in behalf of a hygienic institute for this city, are very much pleased with the results of their visit to Toronto. "From every standpoint the interview was satisfactory to the Londoners," Dr. McCullum told The Advertiser today. The point that the Premier made clear to the deputation was that the Government will under no circumstances grant aid to a sectarian institution. Consequently, if the hygienic institute is to come to London, it must be as a grant to medical education in London, and not as an aid to the Western University. "Mr. Whitney clearly expressed himself as opposed to making any grant other than a grant to medical education," said Dr. McCullum. "I can see that the Government is in a very embarrassing position, and that no mat-

In response to a hint from the Premier, the London Medical Association will submit a scheme which will be in accordance with the views of local physicians for the establishment of a hygienic institute in London. That is, the Premier desires to know exactly what London wants, so as to have something to work upon.

It is also understood that the outsiders yesterday will be given a chance to submit individual schemes to the Government.

Woodstock, Ont., Jan. 17.—A committee composed of members of the council and the board of trade leave for Adrian, Mich., tomorrow, to inspect the fence manufacturing industries located there.

A Star Jail Breaker.

Goderich, Ont., Jan. 17.—Three young lads, named Morrow, Beattie and Walters, of about 15 or 16 years of age, were before Police Magistrate Humber last evening, one charged with escaping from a constable when being conveyed to jail, another with both offences, and the third with being connived at by the constable. They were committed to the police house for three months. The police magistrate committed the prisoners for trial at a higher court.

Can't Aid Arts Openly.

"Mr. Whitney and the Government could not aid the arts department of the Western University openly without the other universities of the Province outside of the Universities of Toronto and Kingston being able to make a claim against the Government. "But the Western University does not need to care, so long as it is able to get by way of the chain of the Medical Continued on Page Eight.

CATTLE EMBARGO MAY DISAPPEAR

Carrington Will Take It Up When Elections Conclude.

REPLY TO DEPUTATION OPPOSED

The Best of Evidence That Cattle From the Dominion Are Free From Disease.

London, Jan. 18.—"Just as I expected," sighed the first friend of Canadian cattle and opponent of that "iniquitous embargo," as the deputation which waited on Earl Carrington recently, emerged from the minister's stuffy little room.

"Ah, yes," agreed his friend, "not the time to change it in the hurry of an election."

"But they could do it with the Chinese on the Rand—they could stop that."

"They thought that was a popular move," returned the other. "They are not so sure about this."

These apparent Tories turned from the narrow halls and stone stairway and vanished into Whitehall place.

They were immediately followed by two of the deputation of opposite politics. They were fighting it out all the way down the stairs.

The Liberal had declared his view, evidently similar to that already given.

"Ah, yes," said the other, "but don't you see this isn't sufficiently urgent to call a cabinet meeting. Besides there isn't time, with the election so near."

So all withdrew, this pleased and disappointed deputation of some 60 friends of Canadian cattle, which all agreed "were the best and purest in the world"—withdrew with the minister's promise that, while personally quite in accord, he must wait for the views of his colleagues.

These could not be obtained until after the election.

Or putting it in his own words: "In the middle of the hurry of an election it would be highly improper for me to announce the final decision upon a matter of such great national importance without having had time to look all round the question."

"When the election is over I shall invite my colleagues to give immediate and careful attention to the matter. They will consider it from the imperial as well as from the national point of view, to whether it would be prudent, in view of the tremendous opposition the farmers have to any change in the law, and with an eye to the sanitary aspect of the question to amend the present law."

Grave National Question.

"The question cannot be settled by a stroke of the pen of a minister or official. It is a matter of grave national importance, and not in any sense a party question. It would be a crime for either side to attempt to make it an electioneering asset. The Government will bear in mind the imperial as well as the national aspect of the case, and will remember that the restrictions are not imposed as a protective duty in the interests of a particular class, but as a measure of protection against the introduction of dangerous and infectious diseases."

But in the minds of the anti-Liberalists of this country was all diplomatic for the minister, in the earlier part of his reply, had agreed with the half dozen speakers that no disease, dangerous or infectious, had been shown to exist in Canadian cattle since that embargo act was passed ten years ago.

From all accounts it would be an unreasonable prophecy that the embargo will be repealed if the Liberals win and that it will stay if the Tories are returned.

Carrington's Interests.

The earl, with the vast Carrington estates, has long been an agriculturist and cattle raiser.

"My estate includes twenty-five thousand acres," he said, "without a bluish nor yet bonnyish. Then he turned it to humor."

"That is all I have to live on," he declared that he was quite as deeply interested in this question as any one of that opinion. So they could consider it as a matter of justice from him, and he thought also from his colleagues.

The half-dozen speeches were in effect the same as those delivered at the Westminster Palace Hotel, when the Free Importation of Canadian Cattle Association was formed.

They called the act a grievance, an injustice, even an outrage, while one stoutly declared it "a first instance of no case of disease."

"I have not, in an experience of thirty years, known of a single case of infectious disease in Canadian cattle," said Councillor Watson, of Glasgow, who introduced the deputation.

They all seemed to agree that the act could not have been passed nor even enforced because of any fear of the introduction of disease by the importation of Canadian cattle. None had been found.

Reasons Why The Cold Is Cured.

The success of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a cure for coughs and colds is due largely to the well-known value of its principal ingredients.

Linseed helps by forming a sort of protective coating over the delicate membrane lining of the mouth, throat and bronchial tubes, thus relieving the coughing and prevents serious results from it.

Turpentine disinfects and stimulates the inflamed and ulcerated parts of the diseased air passages and is especially effective in bronchitis and severe chest colds.

Other ingredients found in Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine have a soothing influence on the irritated nerves and a far-reaching effect on the whole system, so that this great medicine instead of being a mere cough mixture is a thorough cure for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and similar affections.

Wife of Dead Merchant Will Possess in Neighborhood of $150,000,000.

New York, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Marshall Field is a native of Chicago. She has been married twice. Her first husband was Arthur J. Caton, the clubman and whip of Chicago.

Before her marriage to Mr. Caton she was Miss Della Spencer. Her father was a leading Chicago business man. Mrs. Field, while still Mrs. Caton, lived as a neighbor of Mr. Field for thirty years, and the two families were very friendly.

The Caton home was the scene of the most costly entertainments ever seen in Chicago. At most of these was displayed the Eaton dinner set, said to be the most valuable in the United States.

From Mr. Caton, the present Mrs. Field inherited an enormous fortune. Coupled with the immense bequest undoubtedly left her by Mr. Field, whose fortune is estimated at well over $150,000,000, Mrs. Field will rank as one of the richest women in the world.

With this vast fortune at her command she is expected to continue on a larger scale the charitable givings which has always been one of her chief delights. Mrs. Field is a famous horsewoman, and it is her favorite form of diversion.

The English painter, Philip Burne-Jones, once said that Mrs. Field had the sweetest smile he had ever seen. She has no children.

PERTH FARMERS IN ANNUAL MEET

Combined Fall Fair and Horse Show Discussed—New Officers.

Stratford, Jan. 17.—The annual meeting of the North Perth Agricultural Society was held here today.

The treasurer's statement showed that the receipts amounted to $1,130 74, and expenditure $151 90, leaving a balance of $978 84.

There was considerable discussion in reference to the holding of a fall fair. The desirability of having it in connection with the horse show and horticultural exhibition was gone into.

There was a feeling among some members that the horse show would not be so well patronized next year as last. Judge Barron stated that the funds of the Horse Show Association are limited, but he had felt that the show could be well supported. He has talked with people from Listowel, Mitchell and St. Marys, and all were well pleased with last year's exhibition.

The society decided to meet with the Horse Show Association and Horticultural Society. If suitable arrangements can be made they will be willing to go in with these organizations in the holding of one exhibition. Whether or not this is done a fall fair will be carried out. If possible the Athletic Park will be secured.

The following officers were elected: President, Dr. E. H. Eldit; first vice-president, Thomas Magwood; second vice-president, Daniel Dempsey; directors—John Dempsey, Dan Dunsmore, George Gotsz, Jacob Litt, Philip Petrie, Geo. Zinn, Jas. A. Crerar, J. H. Roberts and J. G. Schmidt. Honorary directors—Mrs. S. B. Webb, Mrs. W. R. Hamilton, Mrs. (Dr.) Paul and Mrs. John Pleisch, Hon. Nelson Montelth, Jas. Torrance, M. P. A. P. MacLaren, M. P., and G. H. McIntyre, M. P. Representatives to Western Fair Association—President Edt and W. W. Ballantyne. Representatives to Canadian Fairs and Exhibition Association—George Gotsz and J. Dempsey.

At a meeting of the directors it was decided that the fair be held on Sept. 29 and 31. Mr. John Brown was reappointed secretary-treasurer.

TRILLIONS OF HIDDEN GOLD

One Indian Ruler Had Three Rooms Filled With Treasures.

London, Jan. 17.—It would be an immense benefit to all mankind if the stores of gold now held by individuals in India could be made available for national use. Ever since the dawn of history that country has been gathering gold and hiding it away. Treasures of almost incalculable value are possessed by many Indian princes.

When the Maharajah of Burdwan died the stock of gold and silver left by him was so large that no member of the family could make an accurate estimate of it. A report made to the British Government by a secret agent stated that on the estate of the defunct potentate were a number of treasure-houses, one of them containing three rooms. The largest of these rooms was 48 feet long, and was filled with ornaments of gold and silver, plates and cups, wearing bands, jugs and so forth—all of precious metals. The other two rooms were full of bags and boxes of gold molars and silver rupees. The door of this and the other treasure-houses had been bricked up for 700 years.

These valuables, according to an ancient custom, were in the custody of the maharajah's wife, the vaults being attached to her apartments, but none of them was allowed to be opened save in the presence of the master. One vault was filled with ornaments belonging to different gods of the family. The natives of India, commonly bury their hoards, and among the poorer classes a favorite hiding place is a hole dug beneath the bed. Disused wells are sometimes employed for the same purpose.

It is undoubtedly a fact that very many hoards thus deposited are lost forever. Gold is also valued on religious grounds. The gods take up great quantities of gold, silver and precious stones. The temples contain vast amounts of the yellow and white metals. The habit of hoarding seems to have been induced by ages of misgovernment, during which oppression and violence were rife. No feeling of safety existing, it was natural that the natives should adopt the practice of reducing their wealth to a concentrated shape and hiding it.

MAKING MILLIONS

Rich Adding to Pile on Wall Street These Days.

New York, Jan. 17.—George A. Kessler figured again yesterday in a story of millions made in the stock market. According to the report he sold out a line of Union Pacific, netting a profit of over $2,000,000. Only a few weeks ago Mr. Kessler was reported as the seller of a line of Tennessee Coal and Iron at a huge profit.

He is only one of the men who are making vast fortunes in Wall street these days. By actual calculation the quoted value of the stocks and bonds on the New York Exchange has advanced $3,200,000,000 from the low figure of 1904. Most of this wealth has gone into the coffers of the men already mentioned, but a few of the modest figures, like Mr. Kessler, are adding to their fortunes at a rapid rate.

Among others who are believed to have made millions in the last year, but who are modestly concealing the facts, are John W. Gates, Charles M. Schwab, Jefferson M. Levy, Joseph H. Hoadley and E. R. Thomas.

The outgoing of a heart to another means the incoming of heaven to yourself.

You cannot look constantly on dirt and keep your windows free from dust.

Peace with God is not a matter of patching up a compromise with the devil.

The drum is said to have been the first musical instrument of the human race.

SEVEN MURDERED AND HOUSE FIRED

An Entire New England Family Wiped Out in Tragical Manner.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 17.—Sheriff Kimball left here tonight to investigate the fire in which seven members of the family of Charles F. Ayer, a farmer of Pembroke, five miles south of this city, are supposed to have perished and also the attempted suicide of Ayer.

The family consisted of Mrs. Lake-man, her son-in-law, his wife and five children.

The last sign of life noticed about the house was at 1 o'clock last night, when a light was seen moving about. Mrs. Lakeman was not a feeble woman, and her relatives think it strange that she was unable to make her escape from the burning house.

For a time it was thought that Ayer perished in the flames, but tonight word was received that he had been found in the town of Chichester, six miles northeast of his home. He had shot himself twice in the head. He will probably die. It is said that shortly before the shooting, Ayer had sold the team with which he drove from Pembroke.

The announcement was made tonight by Thomas F. Clifford, county solicitor of Merrimack county, that there was little doubt but that the seven persons had been murdered and the farmhouse set on fire.

NEW YORKER PLANS RAID ON OUTLAWS

With 200 Men Will Go on an Expedition Against No Man's Land Band.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 18.—To secure rewards aggregating $50,000 for the capture of about sixty desperadoes who are making their home in the No Man's Land country in the northern part of the state, two hundred men, led by James Hawtrey, a rich New Yorker, will start on July 4 on an expedition to capture the whole outlaw colony.

This expedition, the like of which not even the Wild West of the olden days ever saw, will be armed with repeating and machine guns, and will have a commissariat large enough for a siege of at least three months.

Mr. Hawtrey, who owns a ranch about 35 miles north of Cheyenne, will provide the funds needed for the expedition. His aides will be volunteers from all parts of the state besides a small party of friends from New York who will go for the "sport."

For about two years the No Man's Land Country has been the refuge of bandits, active and retired. There they have started a real colony, having a government of their own.

Its first settlers were the overflow of fugitive population from the Hole in the Wall country of Wyoming. Thirty or forty desperadoes formed a colonizing party that first moved to that valley. They built houses and stocked their ranches with cattle and horses after their own distinctive manner.

They have been there for nearly two years now and their number is constantly growing. The settlement is closely watched by officers, but so long as the desperadoes remain within their self-established limits they are particularly safe.

There are several women in the valley, including the wives of some of the outlaws. The existence of the settlement is a constant exasperation to the peace officers, for if they could be successfully raided and the bandits all captured, the sum total of the rewards would establish a sheriff's posse comfortably for the rest of their natural existence.

Mr. Hawtrey thinks that the rewards will repay all expenses. He does not anticipate to capture the desperadoes without a fight, but will prepare his party for all kinds of eventualities.

The expedition was delayed until July to accommodate his friends of the New Yorker who are in Europe, and who have asked him to postpone it until their return.

AN ANALYSIS OF MEDICINES

Patent Medicines To Be Tested and the Result Will Be Published.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—The inland revenue department will shortly publish the results of an analysis that its chemists have made of a number of the best-known patent medicines, including headache powders.

The information, when it comes from the printers, will be available for all those who are desirous of knowing what these preparations contain, and some highly interesting particulars are promised from the bulletin when it appears. Canadians at large will be able to see for themselves the risks attending the indiscriminate use of alleged remedies whose properties they do not so far fully realize. The subject is now receiving a certain amount of deserved attention in the States, and is being pressed upon the notice of the Minister of Inland Revenue by individuals who want steps taken for the protection of the Canadian public from impositions and frauds.

The session before last Senator Sullivan, of Kingston, spoke of the excessive amount of alcohol that certain preparations contained, and declared it an evil thing for the Government to be licensing certain persons to poison the people of the country.

"These compounds," he added, "should be analyzed anyway, and the manufacturers of them should not be allowed to mislead the public."

It is stated that in certain of the American States the sale of preparations of a kind that might prove dangerous to the unformed has been prohibited. In Ontario there is a statute providing that in the case of medicines containing any of a long list of poisons in quantities sufficient to render them dangerous to health or life, the provincial board of Health may order an analysis to be made. After this has been done, authority is given the government-in-council to impose the same restrictions as upon the sale of dangerous poison in a drug store.

Unfortunately the clauses in question seem to have proven but a dead letter, although there will be little doubt but that the strict enforcement might prove a wise thing for the people at large. In England there are certain restrictions enforced upon the patent medicine trade, and a tax is collected ranging from a penny and a half to one shilling, according to the price of the goods.

It was recently brought to the attention of the inland revenue department that a well-known household remedy enjoying a very wide sale both in England, the United States, and Canada uses a label on its English goods essentially different from what we see on this side of the Atlantic. In England its users are informed of the elements is a poison, but here, apparently, purchasers are left to find out for themselves.

Many ailments are poor because their plety is not vigorous enough to stand prosperity.

COD LIVER OIL

It almost makes you sick to think of it, but it isn't nearly as bad as it used to be. The improved method of refining it makes it much easier to take, and when made into Scott's Emulsion almost every one can take it.

Most children like it and all children that are not robust are benefited by it. When the doctor says "Take cod liver oil," he generally means Scott's Emulsion; ask him if he doesn't. They know it is better easily digested and better than the plain oil.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S 25c CATARRH CURE

IT IS WELL TO KNOW A GOOD THING.—Said Mrs. Surface to Miss Know-well, when they met in the street. "Why, where have you been for a week back?" "Oh, just down to friends and a bottle of Dr. Chase's Electric Oil," said Mrs. Surface, who, after a walk, had just returned home. "I contracted a weak back there was another customer for Electric Oil."

A man does not make an owl out of himself by making a donkey of others. "These are sent direct to the distressed parts by the Improved Bower. Heals the ulcers, clears the air passages, stops droppings in the throat and permanently cures Catarrh and Hay Fever. Flower of Life. All dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase, Medicine Co., Toronto and Buffalo."

A loving heart is like a summer's day; it never needs to advertise itself.

On the Shelf

Generation after Generation
Has pronounced Shiloh to be the safest, sweet, quickest and best family cure for Colds and Coughs. Nothing has ever been found to take its place in the home. Try Shiloh and be cured, or say you were not and get your money back. Isn't this Mrs. E. James, of Hibernia, Minn., says: "There is no cure like Shiloh for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis or Whooping Cough. My eldest son was almost choked. The doctor could not relieve him. He used two bottles of Shiloh and was completely cured. It has no equal."

BIRMINGHAM SOLID FOR JOSEPH

London, Jan. 17. - Chamberlain is still king in Birmingham. Not only did he carry his own seat by an increased majority in the election today, but his candidates also swept the other seven divisions by aggregate majorities of 30,000, after one of the stiffest fights in history.

A solid Conservative Birmingham sends forth a ray of light into the darkness which otherwise continues to enshroud the party. A strenuous campaign was prosecuted in West Birmingham by Outhwaite, an Australian, prominent in labor circles. He succeeded in polling only 2,091, against 7,173 for Chamberlain, who carried the division by a majority of 5,079, as compared with 4,275 at the last contest in 1895.

In two other divisions Liberals and labor were united in the list and were most hopeful, but the result shows that the majority of Sir Benjamin Stone was reduced from 2,154 to 655 by Holmes, the labor candidate, and James Collings retained his seat with his majority almost intact, after the attack.

Glasier, the labor candidate in North Birmingham, had his majority increased by over 600. Otherwise the tide against the Conservatives shows little abatement. They scored one more gain, winning Maidstone, but lost twelve seats in London and ten boroughs. Several counties polled today, but the returns will not be announced till tomorrow.

London returns are almost complete, and show that out of 69 seats, the Liberals carry 36. In 1900 they carried 5. Labor carried 4.

In North Camberwell, Dr. McNamara, the Canadian, has again been successful, increasing his majority from 1,335 to 2,817.

A curious contest was waged in North Paddington, where Sir Henry Burdett ran as an Independent Conservative, because neither of the straight party candidates was British-born. He got 817 votes.

Two more ministers have been returned. Buxton doubled his majority in Poplar.

Sir Conan Doyle failed to defeat Shaw, lord advocate of Scotland, in Haverhill.

Henniker-Heaton carried tariff reform to success in Canterbury.

Labor candidates did not do so well today, although polling big votes. They held their own in two ridings and gained one seat, aside from defeats in Birmingham.

Labor candidates came third in Portsmouth, with 8,172 votes; in Wakefield, second, with 2,066, there being a Liberal in the field in a three-cornered fight, and in Wigan the Labor candidate was also second, securing 2,205 votes.

True to Joseph. Birmingham, England, Jan. 17. - Birmingham today remained true to Joseph Chamberlain, electing all of his candidates in the seven divisions, and, except in the case of Sir John Stone, by large majorities.

Sir John Stone's defeat in the east division was expected by the Unionists themselves, and hence his retention of the seat by a majority of only a few hundreds is regarded as satisfactory.

The Liberals had been optimistically expecting that the results throughout the country would affect Birmingham, but even the Liberal sweep was not able to overcome Mr. Chamberlain's great personal popularity.

Immense crowds stood for hours in the city hall square, awaiting the results. When the figures were presented there was tremendous cheering, particularly when it was announced that Sir John Stone had been re-elected.

Mr. Chamberlain himself did not come to the city hall tonight, but received the returns at his home. His majority was 5,000. Enthusiastic crowds are parading the streets tonight.

London, Jan. 17. - The results at Birmingham are of the highest importance. They prove the groundlessness of the Liberal contention that this general election has killed the fiscal agitation for a generation to come.

Besides showing the unabated confidence of Birmingham in Mr. Chamberlain, the results there go also to confirm what already has been noticed in isolated contests, that the candidate who openly professed protectionist leanings has good support and in some cases were victorious.

The outcome at Birmingham affords a striking contrast. While Mr. Balfour stands discredited as a leader, with his supporters all swallowed up from his side, Mr. Chamberlain issues from the contest with flying colors. His courage to a large extent justifies him to persevere in his agitation and he is in a position to argue that it was Mr. Balfour's timidity which lost the campaign.

A considerable section of the Unionists on the protectionist side had predicted some such result and it is now hinted that the party must in future look towards Birmingham for hope and guidance.

It is too late for the results at Birmingham to have any great effect on the campaign as a whole.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11.

Ontario and the G. T. P.

The general manager of the Grand Trunk and the president of the Grand Trunk Pacific, Mr. Hays, addressed the Canadian Club, Toronto, the other evening and made some reassuring remarks about the eastern division of the new transcontinental road.

The Liberal leaders can lick into shape a scheme on these lines and present it to the country as one of the reforms that ought to be indorsed by moderate electors in every part of the kingdom.

It may be that devotion on this basis would not satisfy the extreme members of the Irish party. Perhaps not; but it would be far more likely to obtain the assent of the senior partner in the kingdom, than any out-and-out Home Rule measure on Gladstonian lines.

Whatever criticism may be offered, or whatever mistakes may have been made with regard to the Niagara Falls power problem, the Province of Ontario has managed it infinitely better than the neighboring state of New York.

Home Rule may be a bogey to frighten some of the electors of Great Britain, but to a very considerable number, including many leading statesmen, the Home Rule advocated by the new prime minister is a reform worthy of serious consideration.

Such a system might well be extended not only to Ireland but to Scotland as well. There is in the northern half of the United Kingdom a well-defined demand that devolution shall not be considered merely as an Irish question.

If prejudice and self-interest could be so far broken down as to secure for such a change the indorsement of both Houses of the British Parliament, great and beneficent results might ensue. In the first place, many domestic reforms now neglected because Parliament is swamped with business that keeps it occupied for over two-thirds of the year, would be proceeded with to the great advantage of the masses.

number of members. The membership of the Imperial Parliament could without injury to any interest be cut down to one half of its present number—570, and the other half could be elected members of the Local Legislatures.

While the Central Parliament would not in any sense be shorn of its importance by this devolution, but rather be made more truly imperial, the new legislatures, which would be assembled in London, Dublin, Edinburgh, and perhaps at some central point in Wales, would form new and important centers of popular government, satisfactorily carrying on work now very much neglected by the congested House of Commons.

The Canadian Boys.

One of Detroit's millionaire manufacturers, Joseph Boyer, who employs a thousand skilled mechanics, has been interviewed by the Detroit Free Press on the all-absorbing topic of "Success in Life."

Joseph Boyer likes young men, who, as he says, "have to scratch gravel." They bring up fine young fellows in Canada, he says. "I like them because they are not afraid of hard work. It is the greatest mistake to say anything against Canadians. Look over the list of successful Detroiters, the big men in many other lake cities, and you'll find a lot of Canadian boys."

Mr. Boyer speaks from experience as a large employer of labor in a city where there is said to be more Canadians in proportion to the whole population than in any other American center.

It is not overweening national conceit to attribute it to the impress of their native country. The testimony of Americans who are in a position to judge is that Canadian boys are, as a rule, of superior character and habits. They find themselves in a preferred position when they enter the United States, and, allowing for the inevitable exceptions, they forge to the front in every walk.

Canada's Commercial Independence.

[From the Boston Herald.]

In taking into consideration what possible trade arrangement might be made between the United States and Canada, it has to be borne in mind that, commercially considered, the people of the Dominion are just now a good deal like the centurion with whom the Apostle Paul was brought into association and who said in respect to his Roman citizenship: "At a great price I obtained my freedom"; for one thing which has strongly impressed itself upon those who in recent years have been responsible for the government policy of Canada has been not only the need of commercial independence and freedom, but the great price which the people had to pay in order firmly to establish themselves on this ground.

Ten or twelve years ago the export trade of Canada was comparatively small, amounting in the total to but little over $100,000,000. The two great markets for Canadian products were England and the United States, but in neither of these were the sales of what could be termed a responsive character.

At that time the Canadians were in a position in which they would have been willing to have made almost any trade terms with the American people could in reason have advanced, since, outside of England and the United States, Canada had hardly any foreign market that was worth considering.

At the present time Canada is a commercially independent state, and is in a position where she does not need to ask any favors of any one. In a relatively short time her export and import trades have doubled. She still sends more largely to the United States and to England than to other countries, but she has greatly increased her trade with buyers outside of those living in the two countries named, while relatively considered, she is much less dependent upon purchases made by the United States than she was years ago.

Home Rule may be a bogey to frighten some of the electors of Great Britain, but to a very considerable number, including many leading statesmen, the Home Rule advocated by the new prime minister is a reform worthy of serious consideration.

The Snow Lies White.

[Jean Ingelow.]

The snow lies white, and the moon gives I'll out to the freezing mere, And ease my heart with one little song, For none will be nigh to hear.

And it's O my love, my love, And it's O my dear, my dear! It's O my dear, my dear!

When nobody's nigh to hear, My love is young, she is young, is young; When she laughs the dimple dips, We walked in the wind, and her long locks blew.

Till sweetly they touched my lips, And I'll out to the freezing mere, Where the stiff reeds whistle so low, And I'll tell my mind to the friendly wind Because I have loved her so.

Not His Fault. [Hellers Welt.] Bookkeeper—I'm sorry, sir, but we have just had triplets at our house. I will have to ask for a raise.

Boss—Very sorry, indeed, young man, but we are responsible for accidents only in our factory.

Consums Your Own Smoke. [Dr. William Osler.] The atmosphere is darkened with the whimpering of men and women over the non-essentials, the trifles that are inevitably incident to the hurry-burry of the day's routine.

Doesn't Want It. [Toronto Star.] Joe Chamberlain goes into his political campaign without a title. Surely the King might have made him a J. P., at least.

Nothing. [Puck.] One day they had a falling out, And played the game of sulc and pout; And what d'ye think 'twas all about?— Nothing!

Nothing. [Puck.] She went to ma's and meant to stay! Which made his dinner late that day; When she returned, what did he say?— Nothing!

Nothing. [Puck.] Although he stayed out late that night And drank a glass or two for spite, What did she do to serve him right?— Nothing!

Nothing. [Puck.] Yet friends and neighbors were perplexed, And some old ladies even vexed, To wait and find what happened next— Nothing!

POEMS THAT LIVE

Sonnet on His Blindness.

[John Milton.] When I consider how my light is spent Ere half my days, in this dark world and wide, And that one talent which is death to hide, Lodged with me useless, though my soul to serve them with my Maker, and present My true account, lest he returning chide—"Dost thou exact day labor, light denied?" I fondly ask: but Patience, to prevent That murmur, soon replies: "God doth not need either man's work, or his own gifts; who bears his mild yoke, they serve him best; Is kindly to his blind, and without scorn, They all serve who only stand and wait."

GREAT TRIUMPH FOR BRITISH LABOR

The First Election in Which Workingmen Have Shown Their Real Strength.

New York, Jan. 17.—A special cable from London says: Never in the political history of England has there been such an uprising of the people against the governing class. This election is the first since the workmen obtained the parliamentary franchise in which they have disclosed their real strength. Even the Tories admire the calmly constitutional spirit of the uprising of the laboring class. Labor is coming into its own politically, and its revolt against Toryism is so successful that it may result in the Tory party becoming a permanent minority, like the French Royalists. The chief reasons for the labor revolt against Toryism are due to the Chamberlain-Balfour effort to introduce protection; to the introduction of Chinese slave labor in South Africa; to the judges' decision in the Taff-Vale case, which practically made unionism valueless as a fighting force, reducing unions to mere mutual benefit societies; and to the Tories' refusal to reform feudal laws and give Ireland home rule. Owing to the overwhelming success of Liberalism, Labor will hold the balance of power in the new Parliament, instead of the Irish Nationalists, but it is admitted that the Labor men and Irish have a working agreement with each other. The results of the elections strengthen Ireland's hope that the Tories have utterly failed to frighten English voters with the declaration that the Liberal Government is pledged to give Ireland home rule, and, in the end of the election, is closer to home rule than ever. The new Parliament is destined to grant Ireland various instalments of self-government. It is known that the people of England favor home rule, and the Liberals will pass a bill to that effect, allowing the House of Lords to veto it. They will then appeal to the country, and when the country supports the appeal the House of Lords will not dare to veto the bill twice.

A PRETTY FUNCTION

Wedding at Chatham of Well-Known Society Young Lady.

Chatham, Jan. 17.—A fashionable wedding was celebrated this afternoon when Miss Jessie Harper, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harper, became the bride of Mr. Frank B. Lyle, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, New Westminister, B. C. The ceremony, impressively performed by Rural Dean McCosh, of Christ Church, took place at the home of the bride's parents, on Selkirk street. The bride, who was attended by Mrs. J. W. Young, was dressed in honor, was beautifully costumed in dainty white silk gauze, over white tulle and tulle. Her bridal veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She also wore a sunburst of pearls and diamonds. Her father gave her away. Mrs. Young wore a charming frock of white lousine silk over white tulle, with a picture hat of white chiffon and white ostrich plumes, and carried pink roses. Dr. Kingsley Holmes was best man and the ushers Mr. W. Jardine and Mr. Reg Richardson. The groom's gift to the matron of honor was a crescent of pearls; to Miss Nellie Richards a similar gift, and to the best man a pearl stickpin. The out-of-town guests who were present were the Misses Lyle, of Bowmanville, the groom's sisters; Miss Bowen, New York; Miss Maude Bowden, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Marshall, Toronto; Miss George, St. Thomas. The other guests included the relatives and a few of the most intimate friends of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle left on the 1:13 train for an extended wedding trip, the bride's going away gown being of navy blue broadcloth, with hat en suite.

SLUGGISH DEPRESSION

Proper Food Removes It.

"Before using Postum Food Coffee my wife and I were prejudiced against it," writes an Iowa man, "but now we would not be induced to give it up." "My wife was suffering from various nervous ailments and was especially afflicted with black spots before the eyes with an accompanying feeling of faintness. Those spots grew in frequency and at last we came to suspect that possibly coffee was the cause of them. "We therefore determined to give up the old coffee and use Postum for awhile, to see if it would help her. The result was more than satisfactory. In a very short time, only long enough to get the coffee poison out of her system, and give the Postum a chance to build up her strength, she began and continued to improve rapidly. Several weeks have elapsed since she has had an attack of black spots and faintness, and her other nervous troubles have disappeared. "I had been greatly troubled from a sluggish feeling of depression that made me very miserable, and when I saw how Postum helped my wife, I determined to see what it would do for me. So I quit the old kind of coffee and began the use of Postum, and from that day to this have been entirely free from the old depression, sluggishness and despondency. "Our little 8-year-old daughter had grown quite cross and peevish, and we put her, also, on the Postum diet. It has made such a change in her that the teacher of the school which she attends remarked upon it without knowing the cause until we told her. "We have all been made brighter and stronger, mentally and physically, and life seems actually more worth living, since we quit coffee and began to drink Postum Food Coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

DID TOWN TOPICS CAUSE SUICIDE?

Death of a New York Clubman Comes Up in Sensational Libel Case.

New York, Jan. 17.—The question whether or not Wm. Travers, the well-known clubman, who killed himself last year, committed suicide because of an article published in Town Topics, was asked of Justice Jos. M. Deuel, of the court of special session, today, in the hearing of the complaint of criminal libel which Justice Deuel has brought against Norman Hapgood, the editor of Collier's Weekly. Mr. Hapgood had criticized Justice Deuel on the ground that he acted as Judge and editor of Town Topics at the same time. Jos. W. Osborne, counsel for Mr. Hapgood, read an article from Town Topics, which was understood to relate to the divorce of William Travers from his wife, formerly Miss Harriman, and sister of Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt. All the names were omitted from the article when it was read in court today except at the conclusion, where it stated "Poor Billy had no place to lay his head. He is a social outcast." "Do you know that in consequence of that article the gentleman committed suicide?" asked Mr. Osborne. The witness was not allowed to answer, but he said he had read in the newspapers of the suicide. Mr. Osborne also asked Justice Deuel whether the Equitable Life Assurance Society paid $5,000 for an advertisement printed in the Russian language in Town Topics in 1902. Justice Deuel said he did not know, and did not know whether he got a commission on it. District Attorney Jerome, who is conducting the case against Mr. Hapgood, admitted that the Town Topics company borrowed $100,000 from the Equitable Society on a mortgage. "And after that sensational paragraph appeared about Mr. Hyde?" asked Mr. Osborne. Justice Deuel said he did not recall. He stated that during the absence of Col. W. D. Mann, the editor of Town Topics, he signed Col. Mann's name to an article in that publication.

BEGGARS MADE WHILE YOU WAIT

Healthy Girls Converted Into Invalids and Husky Youths Into Dying Old Men.

Paris, Jan. 18.—A new and wonderful school for beggars has just been discovered here. Its teacher is a retired actor who coaches his pupils in the art of doing the "heavy pathetic," and has a staff of make-up men prepare the pupils for the public gaze, when they are considered sufficiently far advanced in their studies to go out and melt the hearts of the charitably inclined. Even little children are schooled in the tricks of tears and feigned starvation and churchyard coughs. Women are taught to trail along as if in the last stages of exhaustion, to simulate fainting spells, etc., and young men are made up to resemble cripples of adversity. A visit to this curious institution revealed quite a party of individuals awaiting their turn for treatment. One, a fine healthy young woman, was just being taken in hand, and the artist, dabbling her face with powder and cosmetics, promptly converted her into a very interesting invalid. After contemplating her work with considerable complacency, the teacher showed her how to drag herself along the streets, giving vent occasionally to a groan, and then she was packed off with the remark, "We shall settle this evening." The next person to be operated on was a strong man of thirty, who was specially fitted with a flowing white beard, who crawled along with a dilapidated bag filled with crusts of bread, bearing heavily on a stick. Then followed a professed old female, with a stock of pencils for sale, a blind man with a little dog, an individual whose right arm was hidden under his clothes, and so on. "Now, be off, we shall settle this evening," was the invariable parting injunction of the "professor," who is very proud of and satisfied with his pupils, who pick up a steady average of twelve francs every day, though some do much better. The evening settlement means the handing over of a quarter of the day's takings to the trainer, who says that he is not overpaid, as, besides educating these people in the parts that they have to play, he supplies them with wigs, beards, and articles of attire when they are needed, and, of course, paint, powder, and cosmetics are not to be had for nothing.

PERE MARQUETTE STOCK

Receiver Harmon Is Given Orders Not to Surrender It.

Cincinnati, Jan. 17.—As a step toward the separation of the Great Central system into its component parts, the United States circuit court today directed Receiver Harmon, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad, not to surrender the Pere Marquette lease and stock. The petition for the order was filed by Walter E. Horn, of New York, who was the original complainant in the receivership proceedings. It avers that if the receiver adopts the lease it will impose an annual charge of upwards of $750,000, the Pere Marquette deficit. The order was made without prejudice to the question of the binding obligation of the lease.

GHOSTLY REVIVAL OF DREYFUS CASE

Col. Henry, Who "Committed Suicide" From Remorse, Said To Be Alive.

Mulhausen, Alsace, Jan. 18.—An extraordinary story is published in a local paper from a correspondent, who states that he saw in a restaurant of Buenos Ayres, Colonel Henry, the officer who cut his throat in Mont Valerien Fort during the agitation over the Dreyfus case, in September, 1898. The correspondent seems to have believed at first that Colonel Henry's ghost had appeared to him. He knew the colonel well, and had corresponded with him formerly. Looking steadily, the correspondent convinced himself that the real Colonel Henry, in flesh and blood, was before him, and no phantom. Seeing the correspondent's eyes fixed upon him in wonderment, the supposed Colonel Henry rose from his seat in the restaurant and disappeared quickly. Later on the correspondent returned to Paris, and made an inquiry, which, he says, was productive of the strangest surprises. Two doctors who were called in to see Colonel Henry when he was lying in the cell with his throat cut have been questioned on the subject. One of them, Dr. Levy, was doing his military service at the fort of Mont Valerien when Colonel Henry was brought here. He was summoned, as was Dr. Lagorce. But it appears that Dr. Levy nor Dr. de Lagorce knew Colonel Henry personally. All that they can say, therefore, is that it is a clear and indisputable case of suicide. The "ghost" story is by no means downed, however, and now the Matin publishes a letter from a correspondent who states emphatically that he saw Colonel Henry in Paris after it was given out that the officer had cut his throat in Mont Valerien Fort.

REBELS FALL BACK ON THE KNIFE

An Epidemic of Assassination Is Once More Rampant Throughout Russia.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 17.—The holiday truce in Russian politics is over, and the new political parties are mustering their strength for Russia's first all-important electoral campaign. The opening guns will be fired tomorrow, when the delegates of the constitutional Democrats will assemble to discuss their elaborate platform. The party represents the advanced liberal opinions of the Zemstvo majority, and the platform will closely follow the resolutions of the last Zemstvo congress. There will be a conference of leaders of the allied moderate parties from various parts of the empire here this week. This coalition, which embraces the party of law and order, the Octobrists and five lesser factions, have chosen the name of Constitutional Monarchists, and will nominate candidates in common. Though officially they are in favor of continuing the armed revolt, they have awakened to the necessity of securing a representation in the coming national assembly, and are concentrating their attention on securing a full registration from the labor, professional and Socialistic organizations. During the holidays the pacification of the country has been steadily going forward. By an unparading use of the military and the wholesale arrests of the leaders of the fighting organizations, the revolutionaries have been forced to return to their old methods of assassination. Not a day passes without reports of the murder of obnoxious officials in several cities. The peasantry of even the finest islands in the Baltic have instituted independent republics.

IT WILL BE A PEACH

Twenty-Six Yards of Alice's Wedding Dress Woven in Secret.

New York, Jan. 17.—The 26 yards of silk which will form Miss Alice Roosevelt's wedding dress have been woven by the William Strange Company, of Newark. The loom cords destroyed in the furnace to prevent the making of a duplicate pattern, and the workman who watched the shuttle received an extra week's wages and a $50 bill, so that the design of the cloth would not be revealed by him. The dress which Mrs. Roosevelt wore when her husband was inaugurated last March was made from goods woven by the same firm. It is understood that the coat to the firm of weaving the silk for Miss Roosevelt's dress is considerably more than $5 a yard. The pattern is a brocade of the daintiest sort, and is of pure white, relieved only by the cross pattern of the great design that is to make it unusual from all others. The greatest secrecy was insisted upon throughout the weaving process.

Depew Is Ill.

New York, Jan. 17.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew is in a state of health which has seriously alarmed his friends. He developed yesterday the strain which the junior senator has been under ever since he returned from Europe last August has worked a startling change, mentally and physically. He has practically abandoned business and has withdrawn from all social engagements, except those which are imperative.

NEVER HAD FIRE DRILL

Startling Evidence in Connection With Trial of Slocum's Captain.

New York, Jan. 17.—There never was a fire drill of any kind on the excursion steamer General Slocum during the year 1904, according to the testimony of Chief Engineer Benjamin Conklin at today's session of the trial of Capt. W. H. Van Schaick. "Did you ever see any drill or discipline with regard to fire hose?" was asked. "Not that I recall," answered Mr. Conklin. The first I knew that the steamer was on fire, was when Mate Flanagan ran to the door and cried: "Chief, the ship is a-fire forward." He then called the assistant engineer and ran to the fire pumps and turned on the water. He remained at the pumps until he was driven away by the smoke and flames. The boat had been beset by that time. He did not know whether the water passed through the hose all the time but he did know that the pump worked all right, showing there was no obstruction in the stand pipes. He did not see Captain Van Schaick nor did he get any signal from him during the progress of the fire. He manned the pumps on his own initiative.

A GREEN GOODS DEAL

American Arrested in Toronto Suspected of Film-Flam Game.

Toronto, Jan. 17.—After he had been for weeks negotiating with a stock keeper for the sale of counterfeit money, Alex. M. Cummings, nearly 70 years old, was arrested tonight. The police investigation points not to the sale of green goods, but to the work of a clever swindler, who was planning to relieve the stockkeeper of the $1,000 he was to put up for the counterfeit money. It is thought Cummings thought to substitute a package containing pads of paper for one with the stockkeeper's money. Cummings has a bank account of $1,600, and this the police say may have been the proceeds of another swindle. His effects show he has been in Philadelphia, New York and Buffalo. He has been here since August.

SHEPPARD SELLS PAPER

A Toronto Dispatch Says Saturday Night Has Changed Hands.

Toronto, Jan. 17.—It is understood that Toronto Saturday Night changes hands this week. Mr. E. E. Sheppard selling out to Mr. H. E. Gagnier, the well-known trade journal publisher of this city, associated with whom will be Mr. Jos. T. Clark, chief of the editorial staff of the Star, who will succeed Mr. Sheppard in the editorship. Mr. Gagnier was formerly a director of the company that published Saturday Night before Mr. Sheppard acquired full ownership a couple of years ago, and has always taken a deep personal interest in the publication. Mr. Clark was for some years assistant editor to Mr. Sheppard. It is said that Mr. Gagnier pays $50,000 cash for the paper, which becomes his personal property, and that Mr. Sheppard retains ownership of the building. Mr. Sheppard retires from journalism, and

Only a Little Cold often Develops into Catarrh.

Colds are dangerous things to trifle with. They hang on and on, and people keep putting off curing them, until that stuffy feeling in the nose proclaims that catarrh has developed. Stop the cold while it is only a cold. Japanese Catarrh Cure instantly relieves "cold in the head." The balmy, aromatic pomade soothes and heals the inflamed surface, clears the air passages, and arrests the development of the trouble. The treatment is so pleasant and so simple, that Japanese Catarrh Cure holds first place in thousands of homes throughout the Dominion. Mr. Alex. McLean, New Westminister, B. C., writes: "I was for some weeks suffering from a cold in the head, which was apparently developing into Catarrh. I purchased a box of Japanese Catarrh Cure and in less than two days, the trouble entirely disappeared. I can highly recommend it—the first application relieved me." Address: McLean at 50c. a box or six for $5.00. The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Limited, Toronto, Canada.

SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS

Battling Nelson has come out with his daily denial of the story that he is marry "a" actress. No handpainted pets for his. Bat's getting wise.

Handball is being talked of as a probable intercollegiate sport in American college circles. The Harvard Handball Association has had a set of rules printed and is negotiating for matches with Yale, Columbia, Dartmouth, Williams, Brown and Holy Cross. Harvard also is to have a series of monthly meets with the Boston Y. M. C. A.

Johnny McGraw, $10,000 a year; Napoleon Lajole, $8,000; Hans Wagner, $7,000, and Jimmy Collins, $7,500, is one estimate. What discount shall we credit for shrinkage when the sums are set opposite the players' names on the books of their employers? Jack Chesbro received a stipend of $8,000 on paper last year, but he has dropped completely out of sight.

Toronto will send athletes to Athens, too. Hamilton will rise and yell, "Jealous!" It will be a great advertisement for Canadians, and we look for a great immigration of Greek goddesses from that trip.

If you should meet a man on the street with a look of desperation on his face, and from whose clenched teeth come forth curses and imprecations, he's from Woodstock. The retreat from Moscow is not in the same diocese as the retreat from Woodstock, of Cornwall hockey players, as a sorrow-starter. The Baby City's great team have "went" back to Home, Sweet Home. Poor old Woodstock. At that, their home-brews are doing well, considering they are disorganized and outclassed.

The O. R. F. U. delegation holler that they got all they wanted at the Canadian annual meeting. Guess their wants were few and circumscribed. Can it be that "Biddy" Barr and "Patt" Dumoulin are getting back to their first love, the scrimmage game?

H. Company, of the Seventh, and the London Field Battery are to play a match for the indoor baseball championship as soon as the matter can be arranged. It ought to draw a big crowd.

The Seventh Regiment are getting into good shape for Goderich on Friday night. The northern chaps have a good team, and those who want to see real hockey will get a run for their money that night. The boys ought to be given a bumper house, as the team is worth encouraging. The London boys have to win, as they need that game badly.

Marvin Hart got a jolt on the jaw the other night that made him hit the mat. The punch was delivered by a tenth-rater named Callahan. What would have happened to Marvin if a good man had hit him.

The old scrimmage game is the only game for the Canadian championship. The O. R. F. U. will win the championship—not yet.

Since Toronto's present senior teams look bad, they are trying to induce the old-timers to hop out and save the championship. Toronto certainly dislikes to see the silverware leave home. When the thwack in Ottawa is in danger, it's different. They have hockey players to fall back on, though.

Mexico is hogging the limelight some just now with a golf tournament, and Aurelio Herrera, the talk of the country. The Greaser ought to knock 'em all out with that name.

Connie Mack gives a valuable hint on base running. Most baserunners touch the bags with the right foot. Mack's idea is to touch with the left foot, because you can make the turn shorter that way. Mack's theory is the correct one. The distance around the bases, actual measurement, is 120 yards, but in making the circuit a runner will cover at least 128 yards.

Football on skates has been played with success up at Minneapolis. There is no tackling, tagging being sufficient, and no line bucking, end runs being the only thing allowed. If your fingers are crossed you're not it. That would be a nice game on roller skates.

Danny Maher, America's crack jockey, says his only ambition now is to ride an English Derby winner. If he does this, he says he will retire. He may not retire for some years.

Carl Chester has the following "Diamond Glints": There are runs in music. Baseball players will soon strike. Right-hand pitchers are sometimes left.

Baseballs generally travel by the Air Line. Baseball players never wear their own muffs. "Lost ball," said Simson when some one swiped his grog. Knockouts are daily occurrences at the baseball grounds. "Crossing the plate," quoth the fly when it swam through the soup. When the sphere strikes Chicago's first baseman it takes a Chance. "A spanking hit," muttered Johnnie when his ma's slipper descended upon his base.

Clarita W., 2:09 1/2, the fast daughter of Grattan, 2:13, will be bred to John A. McKerron, 2:04 1/2, in the spring, and will then be prepared for as fast a record as possible before retirement.

The pacer Texas Rooker, 2:05 1/4, now at Hamilton, Ont., will be campaigned by Mr. Dan McEwen, of London, next season. He's a hummer, and can heat his record, too.

How is this for a free-for-all class on ice at Port Perry? Who can beat it? Frazier, 2:07 1/4, Helen R., 2:08 1/4, Cleopatra, 2:12 1/4, Hal Patron, 2:14 1/4, Del Bars, 2:14 1/4, Flora Hunter, 2:17 1/4, and Looking Glass, 2:19 1/4, the old hero of many battles in the thickest of the fight at the finish. It was a race for kings to witness—a great credit to beautiful Port Perry, on Saugog Lake, the happy hunting grounds of the Indians of long ago. The time, 2:18, is the fastest in a race on ice, and 2:19 1/4 for the sixth heat is something to marvel at, also.

Aside from its novelty there seems little to recommend endurance bowling. In the 24-hour contest now in progress at one of the Chicago bowling alleys twelve pairs of skillful players will pound the pins while the hour-hand of the clock is making two revolutions of the dial. At the end of the allotted period the team with the highest total will have demonstrated a certain amount of skill and a large amount of endurance. Probably most of the contestants will emerge from the trial with sore thumbs and overworked muscles. Those with the least training will suffer the most. Baseball pitchers in the big leagues seldom perform in more than two games a week on account of the strain on their arms. Averaging only 30 balls to an inning, a pitcher will in a full game throw 270 balls. In a recent endurance bowling contest the players rolled 38 games, which means throwing from 700 to 750 balls. In pitching the strain on the muscles probably is greater, but the twirler has a big advantage in the comparative weight of the spheres. One of the objections urged against the loaded bowling ball was that players tired more quickly than with the all-wooden sphere. Going a much longer route than is customary, the contestants in the tourney now in progress will subject their muscles to severe strains, with the possibility of weakening themselves for future play. The effect of the long strain on the players will be watched with interest by many of the local fans.—Chicago Tribune.

FAST ONES TO BE BRED. Chicago, Jan. 17.—C. K. G. Billings has announced that Lou Dillon and six other famous trotting and pacing mares are to be bred to John A. McKerron, Harry Devereaux's renowned 2:04 1/4 trotter. The list given out by Mr. Billings included Lou Dillon, 1:58 1/4; Mazine, 2:04 1/4; Lucille, 2:07; Louise Jefferson, 2:09 1/4; Fanny Foley, 2:11; Bugle, 2:12; and Glad News, 2:14. Every member of the cluster is a famous mare, and the set which will result from being bred to McKerron should furnish the trotting realm with champions. There has been much speculation as to what would be done with Lou Dillon.

HILDEBRAND TO RIDE AGAIN. New York, Jan. 17.—There is little doubt that Jockey Hildebrand will be seen in the saddle again the coming season. No stock is taken in the story that he expects to give up riding and follow in the footsteps of George Odum, getting together a stable of horses to race in his own name. That he will make an application for a license to ride is certain, and there is not much doubt that a license will be granted him.

FOUR TIMES TIED WERE THESE TEAMS

Brantford Had to Work Extra Time to Defeat London at Basketball.

Brantford defeated London in the intermediate Y. M. C. A. basketball league series last night at the local gymnasium in a fast and close game by a score of 65 to 64.

The game was the most exciting ever seen in London. The game was in doubt until the last basket. Four times during the game the score was a tie. This was the case at full time. Five minutes extra play each way resulted in the visiting team scoring the point needed to win.

Ernest Wilkins, Toronto, was referee, and proved satisfactory. The lineup was: Brantford (65). London (64). Bowers, forward; Sheppard, forward; Hotcock, forward; Willis, center; Campbell, guard; Brown, guard; Waddington, guard; Cromble, guard; Waugh, guard; Brock, guard. Umpires, Seymour Hill, Brantford; Harold Wood, London.

Goals from field: Sheppard 6, Willis 2, Brown 2, Cromble 1, Bowers 4, Hotcock 2, Campbell 5.

The next game in the series will be played tonight between Stratford and Berlin, at Stratford. Mr. George McLaren, of this city, will referee.

BERLIN ALL WAY IN GROUP TWO

Senior Boys of German Town Have a Fine Lead So Far—Barrie Leads Oiler.

The senior teams in the O. H. A. are fairly started on their race, and some good games should result. Barrie has a clean lead in group 1, and looks like a winner, although some of the Toronto teams are strengthening, and may spring a surprise. In group 2, it is Berlin all the way, so far, but Stratford has only played one game, and will come strong, as it usually does. The standing:

Table with 4 columns: Group, W. L. Play. Group 1: Barrie 1 0 5, Argonauts 1 1 4, Midland 1 1 4, Marlboros 0 1 5. Group 2: Berlin 1 0 3, St. George's 1 0 4, Stratford 0 1 5, Galt 0* 0 6, Woodstock 0* 2 5.

The game. In the Manitoba League it looks like the Kenora Thistles all the way. The Winnipeggers have not lost a game, and have a defeat of the Thistles to their credit, but it was a fluke victory, at that. It will not be repeated.

Table with 4 columns: Team, P. Won. Lost. Winnipeg 2 2 0, Kenora Thistles 4 3 1, Brandon 2 1 2, Portage 3 1 2, Victoria 2 1 2.

TONIGHT'S GAMES. The following games are scheduled for tonight in the O. H. A.: Intermediate—Milton and St. Georges at Mutual Street Rink, Welland at Grimsby.

CURLING. A COLTS' LEAGUE GAME. Parkhill, Jan. 17.—Parkhill defeated Stratford by 8 shots in the Western Colts' League curling match, played here today.

THE AUTO. MAHER IN NEW ROLE. New York, Jan. 17.—Danny Maher, the jockey, according to Dame Rumor, is to invade the field of automobile racing as a rival of Lancia, Hemery, G. Vaughan and Barney Oldfield. If this is true, it must be that Maher intends taking up the newer racing sport partly as a diversion, as his annual income as a jockey in England approaches or equals the sum paid every year to the President of the United States.

Automobile race drivers are somewhat inclined to think that Maher will not be a serious factor in motor car racing, should he go into it. They do not question his courage, as nerve in large quantities is required to make a successful jockey, but they think he will find it quite a different proposition to cover miles in 50 seconds or so, when the one-mile running-horse record is but a trifle faster than 1 minute and 40 seconds. Maher has been a cyclist for many years, and has been an automobilist for two or three years.

GOLF. MOFFAT WON FINAL. Pinehurst, N. C., Jan. 17.—W. D. Moffat, of Hackensack, N. J., won the final round in the second annual tournament of the American Golf Association today, defeating H. C. Fownes, of Pittsburgh, by the narrow margin of one up.

THE RING. HERMAN TO MEET HERRERA NEXT. San Francisco, Jan. 17.—Kid Herman undoubtedly will meet Aurelia Herrera next month, despite the talk of his being matched with Jimmy Brit instead. The battle has been set for Feb. 9. Brit probably would be a better drawing card than the Mexican, but as Herrera was promised a match with Herman should he win over Corbett, it would not be right to sidetrack him. A victory over Herrera would bring the "Kid" in line for a battle with Brit, and should he beat him, Nelson would naturally be his next opponent.

BUSY NIGHT FOR THE O. H. A.; GAMES PLAYED AT MANY PLACES

Barrie Worst Midland and Guelph Trims Brantford—Smith's Falls Loses.

Midland, Jan. 17.—Before the largest crowd ever jammed in Midland rink, Barrie tonight defeated the local team by a score of 6 to 3 in an intermediate O. H. A. match.

The visitors were a much heavier team than the locals, and the ice being very soft and slow their weight was of great advantage, and they did not fail to use it.

F. C. Washburn refereed and gave excellent satisfaction. He had little to do, the game being free from roughness.

GUELPH DEFEATS BRANTFORD. Guelph, Jan. 17.—In a junior O. H. A. game here tonight Guelph defeated Brantford by a score of 3 to 1.

MAY DOUBLE UP SCHEDULE. Toronto, Jan. 17.—The senior O. H. A. game scheduled for tonight at the Mutual street rink, between the Marlboros and the Argonauts, could not be played because of the lack of ice, and was declared off. In all the senior series has played eight games and has been obliged to postpone three because of the lack of ice. So far some 30 games in the three series could not be played, about 20 of them in the intermediate.

From the present outlook the teams will have to either play sudden-death games or double up on their schedule in the first round which must be finished by Feb. 1.

ST. GEORGE'S WON FROM QUEENS. Kingston, Jan. 17.—At the second meeting tonight of Queen's III. vs. St. George's, in section A, group No. 1, junior series, the latter won by a score of 8 goals to 2. Half time score was 4 to 0. The ice was in good condition and the game was fast. The following were the teams:

Queen's III.—Goal, Goodwin; point, Gaskin; coverpoint, Martin; forwards, Roberts, Low, George and Craig. St. George's.—Goal, Chowin; point, Murphy; cover, Dalton; forwards, Crawford, Metcalfe, McCartney and Gravelle. Referee, Cadet Powell.

FASTEST OF THE SEASON. Port Hope, Jan. 17.—In the intermediate O. H. A. match here tonight between Coburg and Port Hope, the visitors were defeated by a score of 4 to 6. The game throughout was the fastest of the season. At full time the score was 4 to 4. Twenty minutes overtime was played, in which Port Hope scored the winning goal.

PIT SMITH'S FALLS AWAY. Brockville, Jan. 17.—A large crowd witnessed a splendid game of hockey here tonight, when the Invincibles of Brockville and the Strathconas of Smith's Falls met in their first match of the O. H. A. intermediate series. The Brockvilles disposed of their opponents to the tune of 9 to 2, shutting out Smith's Falls in the first half. Up to that time Brockville had the best of the game.

MAY PLAY AT CHATHAM. Says the Chatham News: The Waterloo and London, will likely be called to play here next week, and the Tilsonburg Pan Drieds have asked for an engagement some time soon. Several other teams have also asked for dates. An effort will be made to have the fast O. H. A. Woodstock team give the locals a game.

The Game of Hockey as Played in East and West

Toronto News: Those who have only seen hockey as it is presented here in the West can have little notion of the extent to which the incorporating winter pastime may be carried. A prominent sportsman from Toronto who was at the capital on Saturday is authority for the statement that any fourteen among the best players in the entire O. H. A. series would find it impossible to cope with either the Ottawas or the Wanderers. Perhaps that is a slight exaggeration, but it is near enough to the truth to enforce the lesson that if hockey is to be properly developed in Toronto an artificial ice rink is a positive essential.

REAPPOINTMENT OF CASSIDY CREATES NO LITTLE SURPRISE

New York, Jan. 17.—In various local resorts where turfmen congregate these days and discuss racing affairs from morning until night much surprise has been shown at the decision of the Jockey Club to place the starting this year in the hands of Mars Cassidy. While Mr. Cassidy's work last year was on the whole satisfactory, the impression prevailed that the Jockey Club would relieve him of some of the responsibility by engaging Jacob Holtman, Richard Dwyer or A. B. Dade to alternate with Mr. Cassidy on the local circuit. The fact that Starter Holtman gave universal satisfaction during the Providence meeting last summer, which was under the auspices of the Jockey Club, was taken to mean that this expert handler of the barrier would be the superior of Mr. Cassidy. Starter Dwyer have both won their way as starters on the leading tracks in the west, and many turfmen whose horses have been sent away by them have often declared that either would prove the man selected by the Jockey Club. Dade, who made a reputation of himself at St. Louis two years ago, has not created a sensation this winter at the Fair Grounds, New Orleans, where his work has not been up to the Cassidy standard at the rival track, City Park. So under these circumstances, Dade would not be considered in the running for a job on the eastern turf.

Starter Holtman, however, is keeping up to his usual high standard in California, where he is pronounced the best starter ever seen on the coast. There were several periods last year when Mr. Cassidy's starting was severely criticised by the public. These temporary slumps in his starting were attributed to overwork, and it was the prevailing opinion that Mr. Cassidy should have an alternate, but as there was no time available for the place at the time, the public had to put up with the situation until the starter recovered his second wind. The Jockey Club may yet decide to employ a second starter before the eastern season opens, but the fact that Mr. Cassidy was the sole appointment for the place when the officials were announced the other day would seem to indicate that the turf governors were not able to decide upon the right man to cut up the task with the present holder.

cause it improves the chances of either side to give the players a brief respite from what is to them an exceedingly strenuous occupation. It is gratifying to observe that the Eastern players while living up to their reputation in that particular, are no longer prone to indulge in contraband forms of offensive and defensive tactics. They played a hard game Saturday, but did not rough it to any extent. Possibly the play might be considered rough here, but it was mild in comparison to what one usually sees in the East. While a better spirit pervades the game in Canada, rough-house tactics are increasingly apparent in the International Professional League. It might be well if the managers in that body were to adopt the Cuban method of playing with ball players disposed to rough it. Sparring of baseball in Cuba, Charley Stark, a St. Louis Brown player, who has just returned from the island, says: "Down there, if a player is removed from the game by the umpire, the patrol wagon is brought up to the gate, and the police take charge of the man at the end of the game. Then he is taken before a magistrate and fined. The wagon is standing out near the entrance gate all afternoon."

Chrysanthemums, it is said, were cultivated in China before the eleventh century.

DOPE FIEND DOWN FOR NINE MONTHS

Morris, Morphine Victim, Stole to Obtain Money for Drug That Wrecked Him.

James Morris, with several aliases, one of which is McGinty, was this morning sentenced by Police Magistrate Love to nine months in the Central Prison on two different charges of stealing, preferred by Mr. H. B. White.

Morris' offenses consisted of removing the brass fixtures from engines in the complainant's yard on King street, and selling them. Presumably he wanted the money to obtain drugs, since he is addicted to the morphine habit, and since $150 worth of morphine was found on his person when he was arrested.

According to his own statement, Morris has been a dope fiend for over fourteen years. While a young man, fourteen years ago, a severe accident befell him, in which he had both legs broken.

But a complete change takes place when he gets the drug, and he can walk around as alert and bright as any person. The effects show in his countenance, however, his eyes particularly denoting the use of the drug.

Morris has a wife and family, and the former wrote to the authorities, asking for leniency for her husband. The sentence of the court, however, was more in charity than in punishment, since it may lead to freeing the man of the habit.

DEBATE AT DELAWARE

The Merits of Civilization Discussed—Londoners on Winning Side. The members of the Delaware A. Y. F. A. entertained the St. James' Branch (London) of the society last night.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT AID

School, and for the sciences in the arts department. The medical faculty is not selfish enough to use its claim exclusively for its own purposes. Hence, the putting forth of the plea for this institution, on the grounds of public health.

to listen to is the plea that the faculty of the Medical College has it in its hands, and that plea has been made for the faculty being given to the medical departments of the Universities of Kingston and Toronto, in the way of laboratories, buildings and professors on the scientific side of medicine.

It may be possible for the various hospitals of the Province to get more aid from the Government than they are now receiving, but that has nothing to do with, nor can it destroy in any way, the claim that can be put forth for medical education in the city of London by the Western Medical College.

Other members of the deputation have also expressed their views on the matter. Ex-Mayor John D. Wilson gives it as his opinion that from what took place at the meeting, the only way in which the school would be established in London would be in connection with the General Hospital, the Government to control the teaching staff.

Ex-Mayor Campbell's Views. Ex-Mayor Campbell stated that it appears to him, after what the Premier and his colleagues had to say, that it is now up to the city and the entire western district to push its claims for a first class school of sanitary sciences, which would be a benefit to the entire western district as well as to the city of London.

Dr. Moorhouse expressed the opinion that if the Western University were to be turned into a non-sectarian institution, the Whitney Government would be pleased to help it.

Trustees' Action Without Precedent

assess member has the right to give a second or casting vote. Question—Does this include a purpose to complete the appointment of the standing committees of the board and their chairmen?

On these opinions, Chairman Strong is ready to stand or fall. But Mr. Fitzgerald apparently does not hold such a high opinion of the city solicitor's reading of the law as does Mr. Strong.

It appears that Mr. Fitzgerald was laboring under the impression that Mr. N. Weekes drew up the notice, and as a consequence, he was very much annoyed.

C. P. R. Will Make Victoria Harbor Big Lake Terminal. Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 17.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, in his evidence before the transportation commission, some months ago, forecasted an extension of the C. P. R. to Victoria Harbor.

DEAR SIR:—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a year ago last March I began to feel dull and sick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out on my face and neck, mostly on the latter. I would no sooner get rid of one than I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

The election of managers resulted in the old board being returned by a unanimous vote. The managers for next year will be: Messrs. John Marr, James Houston, J. A. Cairncross, A. G. Calder, David Ross, J. L. Richmond, Wm. Gowenlock, U. A. Buchner, M. H. Rowland, A. Gillean, F. G. Rumball and R. J. Donaghy.

The temperature committee was elected as follows: Rev. Dr. Ross, Dr. J. A. MacArthur, Dr. Roome, Dr. Waugh, Dr. Hugh Stevenson, Dr. W. J. Stevenson, Dr. Ernest Williams, Dr. R. T. McDonald, Mr. C. R. DEAR SIR:—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a year ago last March I began to feel dull and sick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out on my face and neck, mostly on the latter. I would no sooner get rid of one than I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

Annual Meeting of the North End Presbyterian Church—Membership Over 400.

New St. James' Presbyterian Church has just closed another very successful year. The annual meeting of the congregation was held in the school-room last evening, and was well attended.

The receiving and adoption of the several reports of Christian activities in connection with the church work engaged the greater part of the evening.

The following members retired at the end of 1905: Messrs. Garner, Moule, McLean and McNaughton.
