II. And be it enacted, That if any owner of Merchandize, or other person in whose name Merchandize shall be shipped or delivered to the Keeper of any Warehouse, or other Factor, or Agent, or Carrier, to be shipped or carried, shall, after the advancement to him of any money, or the giving to him of any negotiable security by the Consignee of such Merchandize, and without the consent of such Consignee being therefor first had and obtained, make any disposition of such Merchandize different from 15 and inconsistent with that agreed upon between such owner or other person aforesaid and such Consignee at the time of such money being so advanced or such negotiable security being so given, with the intent to deceive, defraud or injure such Consignee, such owner or other person aforesaid, and each and every other persons conniving with him for the purpose of deceiving, defrauding or injuring such Consignee, shall be 30 deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be liable to be, in the discretion of the Court before whom the conviction shall take place, imprisoned in the Provincial Penitentiary and kept at hard 35 labour, for any period of time not more than three years, nor less than one year: Provided, however, that no person shall be subject to prosecution under this section, who shall, before making such disposition as 40 aforesaid of such Merchandize, pay or tender to the Consignee the full amount of any advance made thereon.

III And be it enacted, That all words in this Act importing the singular number only, shall be construed as including the plural number also, unless there be something in 5 the context inconsistent with such construction; and if any offence against this Act be committed by the doing of anything in the name of any firm, company or co-partnership of persons, the person by whom such thing
10 shall be actually done, or who shall have connived at the doing thereof, shall be deemed guilty of such offence, and not any other person.
