The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

INTRODUCTION.

The Rules and Forms as promulgated by the Board of County Judges had no marginal references, and a few mistakes crept into the Edition. It was printed from the matter prepared by the Judges. To remedy these and to give completeness to the work as a Manual of Division Court Law, and to secure uniformity with the previous part, the Editor has inserted full and appropriate cross references in the margin opposite the different sections, rules and forms.

The reader will notice that the Rules and Forms now published are of the same size and shape similar to that of the former work of the Editor, and the paging runs on continuously throughout. This will be found convenient, and was intended to enable both to be bound together as one volume, which will then give the whole law affecting Division Courts in a convenient and uniform style.

The References to Rules and to Forms which appear in the margin, except when not otherwise specially denoted, are always, to the last Rules and Forms of July, 1869.

To ascertain to what Statute the Sections referred to in the margin belong, the reader must turn to the page appended to the reference, which will give the desired information.

The very full and complete Index which completes this addition to the "Division Courts Acts and Rules," has been prepared by Mr. Kains, Barrister, St. Thomas, under the supervision of the Editor. It embraces everything since the former Index, and with that forms a complete key to the whole work.

In conclusion, the Editor desires gratefully to acknowledge the very great assistance he has received from two members of the Board of County Judges in the preparation of the references.

GENERAL RULES OF 1ST JULY, 1869.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

By the Division Courts Act, it is enacted that the Governor may appoint and authorize five of the County Judges, from time to time, to frame General Rules and Forms concerning the practice and proceedings of the said Division Courts, and the execution of the process of such Courts, and with power also to frame rules and orders in relation to any of the provisions of the said Act, or of any future Act respecting such Courts, as to which doubts have arisen or may arise, or as to which there have been or may be conflicting decisions in any of such Courts; that the County Judges so appointed, or any three of them, shall, under their hands, certify to the Chief Justice of Upper Canada all rules and forms by them made, and that the Chief Justice shall submit the same to the Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law, at Toronto, or to any four of them, and that the Judges of the Superior Courts (of whom the Chief Justice, or the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas shall be one) may approve of, disallow or amend any such rules or forms, and that the rules and forms so approved of shall have the same force and effect as if they had been made and included in the said Division Courts Act.

ing Division Courts," it is enacted that the County Judges so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be styled "The Board of County Judges," and shall have authority from time to time, in addition to their present powers, to make rules also for the guidance of Clerks and Bailiffs, and in relation to the duties and services to be performed, and to the fees to be received by them; and that the said Board may, from time to time, alter or amend any rules or orders made for said Courts.

And whereas the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, in exercise of the power so given to him, on the 24th day of March last, appointed James Robert Gowan, Stephen James Jones, David John Hughes, James Daniell, and James Smith, five of the County Judges of this Province, to frame new general rules and forms concerning the practice and proceedings of the Division Courts and the execution of the process of such Courts, and also to frame new rules and orders in relation to the Division Courts Act, and any subsequent Act or Acts respecting such Courts, as to which doubts have arisen or may arise, or as to which there have been or may be conflicting decisions in any of such Courts, and also to make rules for the guidance of Clerks and Bailiffs, and in relation to the duties and services to be performed, and to the fees to be received by them.

Now, in pursuance of the powers vested in us, we, the said James Robert Gowan, Stephen James Jones, David John Hughes, James Daniell, and James Smith, have framed the following rules, orders and forms for use in the said Courts, and to be in force until otherwise ordered as aforesaid, and we do certify the same to the Honorable the Chief Justice of Upper Canada accordingly.

See Form 23. See secs. 75, 76, 77, & 79, pp. 40, 41, and Act of 1869, p. 276, and notes.

for the information of the Defendant, the Bailiff shall return the same forthwith to the Clerk who issued the summons, and the Clerk shall add a new notice of the proper days of the week and month on which the two next sittings of the Court are to be held, and shall return or transmit the same to the Bailiff for service.

See pp. 276,
277, note (d).

20. A Defendant giving notice of set-off or other statutory defence, or paying money into Court, or pleading a tender, shall be deemed to have sufficiently given the Clerk notice of disputing the Plaintiff's claim within the meaning of the Act of 1869.

See Form
102 (3rd).

21. When the Defendant's notice of defence disputes the claim in part only, the Clerk shall in the manner provided for in Rule 88, forthwith notify the Plaintiff thereof, and require him forthwith to say in writing, if he is willing to take judgment for such part; and if the Plaintiff fails to notify the Clerk that he is content to take judgment for the part admitted, it will be assumed that he seeks to recover the whole claim, and in such case the Plaintiff must proceed to trial as in ordinary cases.

22. In case there are several Defendants, and all of them have not been served with a special summons, then unless the Plaintiff is content to take judgment against those served only, judgment cannot be entered on his behalf under the said Act, but the Plaintiff will have to proceed to a hearing before the Judge as in ordinary cases.

See secs. 75,
76, 77, 79,
pp. 40, 41,
and sec. 2,
p. 276, and notes.

23. In case the notice required by the second section of the Act of 1869 has not been given by a sole Defendant, or by one or more of several Defendants, (and the Plaintiff is willing to take judgment against those only,) and leave to dispute the Plaintiff's claim has not been given by the Judge, the Clerk, after receiving a return of the "special summons," with the proper affidavit of service may, on the twelfth day after the the service of the summons, where the return day is the eleventh day after service, and on the seventeenth and twenty-second days respectively, where the sixteenth and twenty-first

24. In case a sole Defendant, or some one or more of several Defendants served with a "special summons," has or have given the necessary notice of defence required by the Statute, and the Plaintiff is not willing to take judgment against those Defendants only who have made default, the action shall thereafter be proceeded with as in ordinary cases, and the default of those Defendants (if any there be,) who have not given the notice at the time limited (unless the Judge gives them leave to put in such notice afterwards,) shall be considered as against them, a confession of the Plaintiff's claim.

27. In any action brought against two or more Defendants by "Special Summons," and all such Defendants are not served on the same day, the Clerk, if no notice of defence is entered by such Defendant or Defendants as are first served, may on the day he could have entered final judgment against such Defendants, if they had been all served, enter a minute in the Procedure Book, stating the fact of service, and of no defence, and the Clerk may so proceed against each Defendant as the time falls due, until the last is served, when if he does not put in the necessary notice of defence in the proper time, final judgment may be signed against all; but if it is not desired to enter judgment against one of the several Defendants till all have been served, no such minute need be made.

note (gg.)

28. If one or more not being all of such Defendants, put in the necessary notice, the action shall proceed as in other cases, the Clerk, (unless the Plaintiff wishes to abandon those who defend) not signing judgment against those who have been minuted, as aforesaid, until the action against all is determined, so as to have but one taxation of costs. When the case is tried, if a judgment be given for the Plaintiff against those Defendants who dispute the claim, the Clerk may enter final judgment against all the Defendants; if at such trial a judgment be given for those Defendants, or any of them that dispute the Plaintiff's claim, the Plaintiff if not intending to make a motion to have the said judgment reversed or altered, must obtain leave to amend his proceedings by striking out the names of those Defendants in whose favor judgment at the trial was given, and final judgment may be then entered against those who have been minuted as above and against any Defendant against whom judgment at such trial was given.

81. In case judgment be not entered by default, on a special summons, within one month after the return of the summons, the Clerk cannot enter it afterwards; but the suit shall not thereby abate or be considered as discontinued, but the plaintiff may continue and revive the same at his own expense by suing out an alias summons in the ordinary form of summons to appear (Form 22), with the same particulars attached or endorsed as were attached to or endorsed on the "Special Summons," which shall be duly served upon the Defendant in the usual way, and the suit may then proceed as in ordinary cases.

Form 22.

82. The judgment shall be entered by the Clerk in the Procedure Book, according to the form to these rules appended (No. 52); in lieu of the "Form B" in the Schedule to the Act of 1869.

Judgment.

83. The execution to be issued on a judgment under the second section of the said Act shall be in the form set forth in the schedule of forms to these rules, No. 77.

Execution.

84. Where, under the provisions of sec. 18, of the Act of 1869, a writ of execution is required to be executed out of the Division, the writ may be directed by name of office to the Bailiff of any of the Division Courts in the same County, but cannot be issued to the Bailiff in another County. The returns required to be made under secs. 18 and 19, must be made to the Clerk by whom the process or document has been issued.

ATTACHMENTS.

35. The form of affidavit for an attachment shall be according to the Form 11. In all cases where an attachment shall issue, (whether the suit be commenced by attachment in the first instance or not), and the summons against the Defendant shall not be personally served, the hearing or trial shall not take place until a month after the seizure under the attachment.

New.

36. When several persons sue out warrants of attachment against an absconding, removing or concealed debtor, each one of such attaching creditors may enter a defence, call and examine, and cross-examine witnesses as to any debt or claim proved or attempted to be proved against the debtor, in the same way and to the same extent as the debtor himself might do were he personally to appear and defend the suit on any ground whatever.

INTERPLEADER.

37. When any claim shall be made to, or in respect to, any goods or chattels, property or security, taken in execution, or attached under the process of any Division Court, or the proceeds or value thereof, by any landlord for rent, or by any person, not being the party against whom such process has issued, and summonses have been issued on the application of the officer charged with the execution of such process, such summonses shall be served in such time and manner as is directed for service of an ordinary summons to appear; and the case shall proceed as if the claimant were the Plaintiff, and the execution or attaching creditor were the Defendant.

See secs. 75,
76, 77, p. 40.

See Forms
20 and 21.

38. The claimant shall, not less than six days before the day appointed for the trial, leave at the office of the Clerk of the Court, a particular of any goods or chattels, property or security, alleged to be the property of the claimant, and the grounds of his claim, set forth in ordinary and concise language; or, in case of a claim for rent, the amount thereof, for what period, in respect to what premises the same

See pp. 201
and 207, and Forms 15,
and 24.

42. Where the distress is for rent, and the Defendant succeeds in the action, if the Defendant requires, the Judge shall find the value of the goods distrained, and if the value be less than the amount of rent in arrear, judgment shall be given for the amount of such value; but if the amount of the rent in arrear be less than the value so found, judgment shall be given for the amount of such rent, and may be enforced in the same manner as any other judgment of the Court.

See Statute
13 Car. 2, c.
7, s. 2.

43. Where the distress is for damage feasant, and the Defendant is entitled to judgment for the return, if the Plaintiff requires, the Judge shall find the amount of the damages sustained by the Defendant, and judgment shall be given in favor of the Defendant in the alternative for a return, or for the amount of the damages so found.

See Statute
21 Hen. 8, c.
19.

See Forms
70 and 85.

44. In any other action of replevin, the judgment for the Defendant shall be for a return of the goods replevied with the costs of suit, together with such damages as the Defendant shall sustain by the issuing of the writ of replevin, if damages are awarded.

See p. 46, &
sec. 7, p. 210,
and Rule
130.

45. In case the Defendant in an action of replevin shall pay damages and costs into Court, under the 90th section of the Act, and shall leave with the Clerk a consent that the replevin bond be delivered up to be cancelled, and an express waiver of all right to the property replevied, and the Plaintiff accept such damages, the proceedings in the said action of replevin shall thenceforth cease and be discontinued.

See Forms
117 and 118,
and see Sec.
5, page 204,
note (c), and
sec. 5, p. 209.

46. Before the bailiff replevies, he shall take a bond in treble the value of the property to be replevied, as stated in the writ, which bond shall be assignable to the Defendant, and the bond and assignment thereof may be in the form given, the condition being varied to correspond with the writ.

See sec. 7,
note (d).

47. The copy of the "Summons in Replevin" shall not be served upon the Defendant, until the bailiff has replevied the property, or some part of it, if he cannot replevy the whole in consequence of the Defendant having cloigned the same out of the County in which he is Bailiff, or because the same is not in the possession of the Defendant, or of any other person for him.

See sec. 6,
page 203.

48. A copy of the "Summons in Replevin" shall be served on the Defendant personally, or if he cannot be found, by leaving the copy at his usual or last place of abode, with his wife, or some other grown person being a member of his household, or an inmate of the house wherein he resided as aforesaid.

See sec. 6, page 281, & notes (c) (v), &c., and for Forms setting forth nature of debt, see Form 11 and page 146, note (b).

52. The warning (Form 42), shall be endorsed on or subjoined to the attaching order issued under sec. 6, sub-sec. 1, and on the summons referred to in sec. 6, sub-sec. 4, and sec. 7, sub-sec. 1.

See page 281 and notes, page 285 and notes.

53. The service of the summons on the Garnishee shall in all cases be made at least ten days before the return thereof, and the service on the Primary Debtor or Debtors, ten, fifteen, or twenty days (according to the places of residence of the parties to be served), before the return thereof. If the amount of the Primary Creditor's claim exceed eight dollars, the service must be personal, unless the Judge order otherwise; if such claim does not exceed eight dollars, the service may be personal, or on some grown up person being an inmate of the dwelling or usual place of abode, trading or dealing of the person requiring to be served.

See sec. 6, sub-sec. 5, p. 284, notes (bb), (c) and p. 287, note (i).

54. The Primary Debtor shall in all cases, unless dispensed with by the Judge, be served with every garnishee summons, and if not served, the Judge may, on such terms as to him may seem meet, adjourn the case until such service be effected, and may also order any other person to be made a party to such suit, and to be served with such summons.

See sub-sec. 5, page 284, note (c).

55. The Judge, in any such garnishee proceeding, may order that the service need not be personal, but may be made on any person or persons to be named in the order, or in such other manner as the Judge may direct.

See sub-sec. 6, page 284, and sub-sec. 8, page 286.

56. If the Garnishee or the Primary Debtor having been served does not appear on the return of such summons, judgment may be given against him by default, and if only some of the parties required to be served are served, the Judge may give the same judgment against those served as in ordinary cases.

See pp. 283 and 284, note (b), and sec. 8, p. 287, and Rules 161, 162, 163.

57. Where the summons, under sec. 6, sub-section 4, is to be issued from any Court other than that in which the Primary Creditor has obtained judgment against the Primary Debtor, a transcript of such judgment shall be filed with the Clerk of such first mentioned Court, previous to the issuing of the summons against the Garnishee.

See sub-secs 8 and 4, p. 283, note (a).

58. No payment shall be made by a Garnishee to a Primary Creditor before judgment given against the Primary Debtor, except an order for that purpose be first obtained from the Judge.

See pp. 288, 289, and note (i), p. 287.

59. The application under section 14 must be by summons obtained from the Judge, returnable at any time and place the Judge may appoint, and calling upon the Garnishee, Primary Creditor, or such other person or persons as the Judge in his discretion shall think fit. PROCEEDINGS BY AND AGAINST EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.

64. A party suing an executor or administrator, may charge in the summons, in the Form 32, that the Defendant has assets, and has wasted them.

See sec. 57, pp. 28, 29, note (i), and Form 32.

See forms of and 32, also

Forms 60
and 67.

65. In all cases, if the Court shall be of the opinion that the Defendant has wasted the assets, the judgment shall be, that the debt or damages, and costs shall be levied de bonis testatoris si, &c., et si non, de bonis propriis; and the non-payment of the amount of the demand immediately, on the Court finding such demand to be correct, and that the Defendant is chargeable in respect of assets, shall be conclusive evidence of wasting to the amount with which he is so chargeable.

See Forms
61, 83, 84.

66. Where an executor or administrator denies his representative character, or alleges a release to himself of the demand, whether he insists on any other ground of defence or not, and the judgment of the Court is in favor of the Plaintiff, it shall be, that the amount found to be due, and costs, shall be levied de bonis testatoris, &c., et, si non, de bonis propriis.

See Forms
62, 83, 84.

67. Where an executor or administrator admits his representative character, and only denies the demand, if the Plaintiff prove it, the judgment shall be, that the demand and costs shall be levied de bonis testatoris, &c., et, si non, as to costs, de bonis propriis.

See Forms
63, 83, 84.

68. Where the Defendant admits his representative character, but denies the demand, and alleges a total or partial administration of the assets, and the Plaintiff proves his demand, and the Defendant proves the administration alleged, the judgment shall be, to levy the costs of proving the demand de bonis testatoris, &c., et, si non, de bonis propriis; and as to the whole or residue of the demand, judgment of assets quando acciderint; and the Plaintiff shall pay the Defendant's costs of proving the administration.

See Forms

69. Where the Defendant admits his representative character, but denies the demand, and alleges a total or partial administration of assets, and the Plaintiff proves his demand, but the Defendant does not prove the administration alleged, the judgment shall be, to levy the amount of the demand, if such amount of assets is shown to have come to the hands of the Defendant, or such amount as is shown to have come

70. Where the Defendant admits his representative character and the Plaintiff's demand, but alleges a total or partial administration of the assets, and proves the administration alleged, the judgment shall be for assets, quando acciderint, and the Plaintiff shall pay the Defendant's costs of proving the administration of assets. See Forms 65, 83, 84.

71. Where a Defendant admits his representative character and the Plaintiff's demand, but alleges a total or partial administration of the assets but does not prove the administration alleged, the judgment shall be, to levy the amount of the demand, if so much assets is shown to have come to the Defendant's hands, or so much as is shown to have come to them, and costs de bonis testatoris si, &c., et si non, as to the costs, de bonis propriis; and as to the residue of the demand, if any, judgment of assets, quando acciderint. See Forms 66, 83, 84.

72. Where judgment has been given against an executor or administrator, that the amount be levied upon assets of the deceased, quando acciderint, the Plaintiff, or his personal representative, may issue a summons (Form 34); and if it shall appear, that assets have come to the hands of the executor or administrator since the judgment, the Court may order that the debt, damages, and costs be levied de bonis testatoris si, &c., et si non, as to the costs, de bonis propriis: provided, that it shall be competent for the party applying, to charge in the summons, that the executor or administrator has wasted the assets of the testator or intestate, in the same manner as in Rule 64; and the provisions of Rule 65 shall apply to such enquiry; and the Court may, if it appears that the party charged has wasted the assets, direct a levy to be made, as to the debt and costs, de bonis testatoris, &c., et, si non, de bonis propriis. See Form 67.

73. Where a Defendant admits his representative character and the Plaintiff's demand, and that he is chargeable with any sum in respect of assets, he shall pay such sum into Court subject to the rules relating to payment into Court in other cases.

See sec. 90,
Rule 20.

74. In actions against executors and administrators, for which provision is not hereinbefore specially made, if the Defendant fails as to any of his defences, the judgment shall be for the Plaintiff, as to his costs of disproving such defence, and such costs shall be levied de bonis testatoris si, &c., et, si non de bonis propriis.

See Form 59.

75. In actions by executors or administrators, if the Plaintiff fail, the costs shall, unless the Court shall otherwise order, be awarded in favour of the Defendant, and shall be levied de bonis propriis.

See Forms

clusive.

NOTICE OF ADMISSION OF PART.

132. With a view to save unnecessary expense in proof, the Defendant or Plaintiff shall be at liberty to give the opposite party a notice (Form 103) in writing, that he will admit, on the trial of the cause, any part of the claim or set-off, or any facts which would otherwise require proof; and after such notice given, the Plaintiff or Defendant shall not be allowed any expense, incurred for the purpose of such proof; the notice to be served on the Plaintiff or Defendant, or left at his usual place of abode, at least six days before the day appointed for the trial or hearing.

Form 103,
sec. 36, p. 14.

AFFIDAVITS AND OATHS.

133. Every affidavit, in any proceeding in the Court, must be entitled in the Court and cause, (if a cause has been commenced) stating the christian and surname of the parties as in the summons, and also that of the deponent, and his place of abode and addition; and if an affidavit be sworn by an illiterate person, the jurat must contain a certificate of the Clerk or Commissioner administering the oath, that the affidavit was read in his presence to the party making the same, and that such party seemed perfectly to understand it; and there shall be no erasure or interlineations in any jurat: but the Judge shall not be bound to reject, as insufficient, any affidavit not complying with the above requisites, or any of them, but may, in his discretion, receive the same.

which a fee is payable to the fee fund, shall be attached to some paper in the cause, according to the directions of the Judge.

136. The amount of fees and stamps payable in Replevin suits and in Interpleader issues shall be regulated according to the amount in value of the property or money in dispute; and the same stamps and fees shall be required and payable on an alias, pluries or renewed summons as upon an original, and the same with regard to fees on renewals of executions against goods and warrants of commitment.

INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS.

See Rule 2, Interpretation (13) p. 816; note (1) to old Rule 26, page 125.

137. When, in any action, the Defendant is desirous of inspecting any deed, bond, or other instrument or writing in which he has an interest, and which shall be in the possession, power, or control of the Plaintiff, he may, within four days from the day of the service of the summons, give notice to the Plaintiff by pre-paid and registered post letter or otherwise, that he desires to inspect such instrument, at any place to be appointed by the Plaintiff, within the division on which the suit is brought; and the Plaintiff shall appoint a place accordingly; but if the Plaintiff neglects or refuses to appoint such place, or to allow the Defendant or his agent to inspect it within three days from the day of receiving such notice, the Judge may, in his discretion, on the day of hearing, adjourn the cause, for the purpose of such inspection, and make such order as to costs, as he shall think fit.

DISCONTINUANCE.

See Rule 128, Form 103.

138. If the Plaintiff be desirous of not proceeding in the cause, he shall serve a notice thereof, as provided, respecting the service of a notice of set-off and pay the Defendant's taxable costs (if any), and after receipt of such notice, the Defendant shall not be entitled to any further costs than those incurred up to the receipt of such notice, unless the Judge shall otherwise order; but if the Plaintiff fails to give such notice and pay such costs, and does not proceed to trial, the suit may be treated as still pending; and the Defendant will be entitled to his costs, as in ordinary cases of nonsuit or of default by Plaintiff, and where a cause is not withdrawn until after the opening of the Court, the hearing fee shall be charged unless otherwise ordered.

ADJOURNMENT OF SUIT.

139. Where a cause is adjourned, no order of adjournment shall be served on either party, except by direction of the Judge; and where the adjournment is opposed by either party, a hearing fee, as for a defended cause, shall be charged, and the usual costs of the day, in the discretion of the Judge. Sec. 86, p. 44.

140. When anything required by the practice of the Court to be done by either party, before or during the hearing, has not been done, the Judge may, in his discretion and on such terms as he shall think fit, adjourn the hearing to enable the party to comply with the practice. See Rule 118

PUTTING OFF TRIAL.

141. Either party to an action may apply to the Judge, in writing and as required by Rule 144, at any time before the hearing, for an order to put off the trial on account of the absence of a material witness (whose name should be stated), or other sufficient grounds, to be disclosed on affidavit, and the Judge, in granting or refusing the application, may order the payment of costs, or impose such terms as he thinks fit. See Rule 144

NEW TRIAL.

142. Application for new trial may be made viva voce, and determined on the day of hearing, if both parties be present; but if made when both parties are not present, it shall be in writing, and show briefly the grounds on which it is made, which grounds, if matters of fact requiring proof, shall be supported by affidavit. Secs. 106, 107, pp. 59, 64, note (1), Forms 70 and 101.

(a). A copy of the application and of every such affidavit shall be served by the party making the same on the opposite party or his agent, or left at his usual place of abode or business, if within the Division; or if without the Division, then with the Clerk, who shall forthwith transmit the same forthwith to the opposite party.

(b). The application and affidavits (if any) together with an affidavit of the service thereof, shall be delivered to the Clerk, within fourteen days after the day of trial, to be by him, on receiving the fees and necessary postage, and stamps, transmitted to the Judge, with a copy of the original claim, and other papers requisite to the proper understanding of the case, which delivery to the Clerk shall operate as a stay of proceedings, until the Judge's final decision on the application is communicated to the Clerk.

(c). The Judge after receiving such papers shall delay for six days deciding upon the application, to enable the opposite party to answer the same in writing or by affidavit, if facts stated by the applicant in his affidavit are disputed; and the decision of the Judge (Form 76) shall be transmitted to the Clerk by mail, who shall, if a new trial be ordered, notify the parties thereof by mail or otherwise, and the suit shall be tried at the next sittings of the Court, unless the Judge shall otherwise order. (See Form 101).

(d). If the application be refused, or if the party applying shall fail to comply with the terms imposed by the Judge, the proceedings in the suit shall be continued, as if no such application had been made. The Judge, instead of deciding the same, may hear the parties on the matter of such application, at the next sittings of the Court, or at such other time and place as he may appoint, which decision shall be sent to the Clerk, and be by him communicated to the parties in like manner.

(e). The Judge may in his discretion make it a condition of granting a new trial, that it shall take place before a jury, whether the first trial took place before a jury or not; but if either party required a jury to try the case in the first instance, he shall be entitled to another. jury on depositing the necessary

(f). Where, under the 106th section of the Act, judgment in writing is delivered at the Clerk's office, application for a new trial may be made within fourteen days from the day of delivering of such judgment.

SETTING ASIDE OR STAYING PROCEEDINGS.

143. The Judge may, in any case, refuse to set aside or to hold void, any of the proceedings, on account of any irregularity or defect therein, which shall not, in his opinion, be such as to interfere with the just trial and adjudication of the case upon the merits; and may at all times amend all defects and errors in any proceeding, whether the defect or error be that of the party applying or not, and all such amendments may be made with or without costs, and on such terms as to the Judge seem fit.

See Rule 118
Sec. 69, p 34.

144. All applications to the Judge to set aside or stay any order, judgment, process or proceeding in any cause or matter in a Division Court, and all other applications, except in matters which may be disposed of upon an ex parte application to the Judge, and applications otherwise specially provided for by these rules, may be made viva voce at any sitting of the Court, if both parties be present, or upon affidavit, the opposite party having notice of such application and of the grounds thereof, and the order or decision of the Judge upon such application, if made at a sitting of the Court, shall be entered by the Clerk as in other cases of order made: if made upon affidavit elsewhere it shall be mailed to the Clerk by the party obtaining the same, and the Judge may enlarge the motion for further affidavits or evidence to such time and place as he may choose, or on such terms as he thinks fit.

See secs. 69,
p. 34, and
108, pp. 54,
55, note (m).

a party to a suit, or to the Judge, and all necessary notices sent by the Clerk shall be prepaid and registered; and the costs of such postage and registration shall be costs in the cause.

COSTS OF APPEAL FROM COURT OF REVISION.

Sec. 22, p. 292, Table of Fees, p. 111, and Forms 1, 2, 3.

146. In appeals to the Judge from the Court of Revision, the costs shall be taxed according to the schedule of fees as in suit for the recovery of sums exceeding forty and not exceeding sixty dollars; and the stamps for entering appeal, hearing, and order, shall be affixed by the Clerk to the notice of appeal given to him.

WITNESS FEES.

Sec. 100, p. 5, note (h), Form 3, and see note (bt), pp. 131, 132.

147. The Clerk shall determine (subject to appeal to the Judge) what number of witnesses shall be allowed on taxation of costs; the allowance for whose attendance shall be according to the scale, (Form 3), unless otherwise ordered; but in no case to exceed such scale, except the witness attends under subpœna from the Superior Courts; and, before allowing disbursements to witnesses, the Clerk shall be satisfied that the witnesses attended, and that the claim for fees is just; and if a witness attends two or more trials the fees shall be apportioned between the different causes.

UNAUTHORISED FORMS AND PROCEEDINGS.

Sec. 23, p. 293.

148. All proceedings, books and documents shall be in forms similar to the forms to these rules appended, where the same are applicable, and no printed forms shall be used by any clerk or bailiff of a Division Court unless first approved by the Judge in writing, as being in accordance with the forms appended to these rules, and if an authorized form shall be used no fee shall be payable to the officer in respect thereto, and in cases where no forms are provided, parties shall frame the proceedings or documents using as guides those appended to these rules.

JUDGMENTS.

149. Every judgment, order, and decree of the Court, shall be entered by the Clerk in the Procedure

Book, according to the Forms 45 to 75 inclusive or to the like effect; and when any order is made for the payment of any debt, damages, costs, or other sum of money, the same shall be payable at the office of the Clerk, at the expiration of fifteen days from the rendering of judgment, unless the Judge otherwise order, but where judgment is signed by the Clerk under section 2 of the Act of 1869, execution may issue forthwith.

Forms 45 to 75, sec. 2, p. 276, sec. 107, p. 63, sec. 108, p. 64, and notes (k) (l).

150. After an award is made and filed (with an affidavit of the due execution thereof) under sections 109, 110 and 111 of the Act, the duty of the Clerk is, forthwith to enter the judgment on such award, and issue execution thereon, at the request of the party entitled to such execution, without any order from the Judge.

Secs. 109, 110, 111, pp. 55 et seq. and notes (n), (p), (q), Forms 36, 55 and 109.

151. Where a Plaintiff avails himself of the provisions of section 81 of the Act, and proceeds against only one or more of several persons jointly liable, the Defendant sued may avail himself of any set-off or other defence to which he would be entitled, if all the persons liable were made Defendants.

Sec. 81, p. 82, note (j).

152. When judgment is given for the Defendant on a set-off he will be entitled to issue execution and to take proceedings as in ordinary cases for the recovery of the balance of his set-off which exceeds the Plaintiff's claim, if such balance does not exceed $100, or the Defendant is willing to abandon the excess over $100.

Sec. 17, p. 290, note (o). Forms 57 & 58.

ABATEMENT.

153. Where one or more of several Plaintiffs or Defendants shall die before judgment, the suit shall not abate, if the cause of action survive to, or against the surviving parties.

Sec. 69, p. 84.

154. When one or more of several Plaintiffs or Defendants shall die after judgment, proceedings thereon may be taken by the survivors or survivor, or against the survivors or survivor, without leave of the Court.

[These rules say nothing of the case of the death of a sole plaintiff or defendant, which is nowhere provided for, unless it is governed by the practice of the Superior Court under sec. 69, p. 84, though it is doubted by some whether that section applies except in more matters of practice.]

Without such direction and request, all moneys are payable to the parties at the office of the Clerk without the payment of any fee whatever; in no case is the Clerk to transmit moneys to the Clerk of another Court, without the written order of the party entitled thereto, or his authorized agent.

SUPPLEMENTARY RULE.

SUPPLEMENTARY RULE RESPECTING THE FEE FUND ACCOUNTS AND THE CANCELLATION OF STAMPS BY CLERKS OF DIVISION COURTS.

We, the undersigned, "The Board of County Judges," acting under and in pursuance of the powers vested in us by law, as recited and set forth in the general Rules for regulating the practice of the Division Courts in Ontario, dated the first day of July, 1869, have framed the following supplementary general Rule and Order, to be in force until otherwise ordered, and we do hereby certify the same to the Honorable the Chief Justice of Upper Canada accordingly:—

Sec. 2, p.
2, note (c);
sec. 70, p.
34, note (p);
Sec. 22, p.
292.

167. The system of paying Court fees by the use of stamps having superseded the necessity for Clerks of Division Courts keeping an account of such fees in a book as prescribed by the 36th section of the Act, but not the necessity of submitting the proceedings on which Court fees are due to the Judge, or of his examining the proceedings of the Court, and comparing them with the stamps used and cancelled; in order, therefore, to facilitate the examination by the Judge to ascertain that proper stamps have been affixed for all fees payable to the Fee Fund in respect to proceedings in the said Courts, and in order to detect errors and omissions, and to prevent frauds, it is hereby ordered:—

Sec. 36, pp.
14, 15.

(a). That the "Judge's list" at every sittings of the Court shall include therein all the causes (in the order in which the suits are entered) that have been commenced by ordinary or special summons, or otherwise, since the last sittings of the Court, and also all adjourned cases remaining undisposed of, and shall distinguish in such list the causes in which a Defendant, or one or more Defendants, have not been served; those withdrawn, paid, settled, confessed; those in which judgments have been entered by the

Sec. 130, p.
62; sec. 23,
p. 293.

Clerk, and those which remain to be disposed of by the Judge.

Sec. 23, page 293, and sec. 36, p. 15;

27 & 28 Vic. cap. 5, page 225.

(b). The Clerk shall, at every sittings of the Court, produce to the Judge all the process and papers in every cause necessary to be entered on the "Judge's list," so as to enable the Judge, upon inspection, to ascertain that the Court fees have been all duly paid by proper stamps, and that such stamps have been legally cancelled; and otherwise to enable the Judge to carry out and effectuate the spirit and intention of the said 36th Section of the Act, and of the Act respecting stamps on law proceedings (27 & 28 Vic. cap. 5) in connection therewith.

Secs. 16, 17, p. 226, and sec. 20, p. 227.

(c). As soon as the trial or hearing in each case is concluded, the Clerk shall affix to the back of the summons the proper stamps for hearing and order, and shall then, or at the close of the Court, submit such stamps, duly cancelled, to the Judge for his inspection.

Sec. 23, p. 293, & secs. 29 and 30, p. 228.

(d). Any Clerk wilfully neglecting any of the provisions of the Act respecting the collection of the Court fees by stamps, or his duty under this Rule, shall be subjected to the loss of his office.

Rule 2.

(e). In construing this Rule, the second general Rule shall apply as if incorporated herewith.
