

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

EGLINTON. NORTH CONSIDERS SIR ADAM'S PROJECT

Stormy Meeting at Eglinton Decides to Await Amended Report.

A big gathering which packed the Eglinton town hall to the doors, and which in its earlier stages was uncompromisingly hostile to Sir Adam Beck's scheme for the clearing up of the interminable Yonge street railway trouble, and incidentally gave its champions, Ald. H. H. Ball and Controller Robbins the time of their lives, were some of the outstanding features of Saturday night's meeting of the North Toronto Ratepayers' Association. The old hall has seen some rousing times, but this topped them all. Nothing much else is talked about in the north and these days, and no wonder every business man forsook the comfort of his own fireside on Saturday night and liked to the hall. They heard enough about franchises and running rights to last them the rest of their natural lives. But it was a great crowd and at times quite orderly. President Baker was not there, and W. L. Cutler essayed the role of chairman, in which he succeeded admirably.

The first speaker was Herbert Waddington, who is not enamoured of the Beck scheme, and went over the agreement pretty much in detail. He took exception to Sir Adam's suggested takeover of the Metropolitan in its entirety in 1920, and in the first 20 years, and charged that the county had undoubtedly a prior right to negotiate, assuming that the county would not want to operate. The carrying of freight was cited as likely to be more in evidence, and of greater volume under Hydro management than under the scheme endorsed by Mr. Harris. Mr. Waddington took strong exception to so-called attempts to railroad the scheme thru without giving the city officials a chance to reply.

Evidently Appealed.
"What is the name of common sense are we paying Mr. Harris and Mr. Bradshaw big salaries for if it is only to override their recommendations?" said the speaker. Mr. Waddington's remarks evidently appealed to the crowd, for he had a good record of applause.

Two or three other gentlemen, among them H. G. Webster, aired their views for the most part scoring the Hydro and expressing approval of the original plan. One of them, in passing, took a fling at the press and suggested a censorship of the local news.

Dr. Evans, an active member of the association, came out squarely in support of the proposal to adopt Sir Adam's scheme, and E. V. Donnelly said, among other things: "The proposal is a disgrace to the package freight, as provided for in the Harris scheme, was sound. The St. Lawrence and the Hydro are the same thing, and controlled by hucksters, who charge the highest prices. Sir Adam has been drawn into the scheme at the last moment, and was not aware of the local conditions. He has presented Sir Adam's plan as a scheme to turn Yonge street into an esplanade, and create a franchise which would bring millions of dollars to him. It was charged that as a bunch of kickers, North Toronto now had Earlscourt crowded off the map."

It didn't take Ald. Ball long to get things going when he started in to endorse Sir Adam's proposal for the clearing up of Yonge street. The meeting had evidently settled itself back with the idea that the Harris-Bradshaw plan had not received a fair deal, and was evidently the attempt of Mayor Church to rush the thing thru. Interruptions were frequent, and the speaker was evidently having given any other than a seasoned fighter like Ald. Ball heart failure, but the latter's conviction was not shaken and later evoked comparative order out of the chaos. Before he was thru he got a fair hearing.

"The proposal of Sir Adam Beck," said the speaker, "is an immediate solution to the Yonge street trouble, without the payment to the company, but it is a payment to the city. It provides for a city line on Yonge street and Mount Pleasant, and a half mile belt line, which, when the conditions warranted later, could be extended down Avenue Road. The Metropolitan was insignificant, because the Metropolitan could only carry it as far as its terminal at St. Clair, and as to what would it impede passenger traffic, the Metropolitan would be compelled to pay its share."

"Like Shylock," said the speaker, "I would have my pound of flesh, and they shall have it," said the speaker, "and nothing more." Sir Adam's plan provided for both the city line and the Metropolitan, but by 1921 the latter would have three miles of track on their hands for which they had no use, and in addition would have to pay for its upkeep, as passengers on the long-distance car would get off at York Mills and take the city cars, which would convey them to any part of the city.

"Another serious phase of this thing," said Ald. Ball, "is that if the city owns Sir Adam's scheme, it will have an effect through the province and Dominion, where the Hydro is fighting the whole electric energy of Ontario, Quebec and the United States.

"In days gone by the Metropolitan, thru its mediums, dictated the policy of the legislature," said he stoutly, "but today Sir Adam is applying an influence in dictating a policy for the people."

The speaker had a thorny path, but it was significant that he had a pretty good reception when thru. "Does Ald. Ball represent his own views or those of North Toronto?" queried one man. "This thing is immensely bigger than North Toronto," shot back the speaker, "and is vitally important to the city at large."

Forcibly Opposed.
W. G. Ellis spoke briefly but forcibly, opposing the Beck plan in general as likely to jeopardize Yonge street, the great provincial highway into the city. Sir Adam's scheme for the acquisition of Yonge street in 1920, in the opinion of Mr. Ellis, was not well founded, as the county had a prior right to negotiate.

Ald. Beamish, who has just returned from a two-months' trip in the United States, claims loyalty to the Hydro, but diplomatically evaded any direct commitment until the different schemes were submitted on Tuesday.

Dr. Risik took exception to some of Ald. Ball's statements, and later seconded a motion drawn up by Waddington asking the mayor and council to take no further action on the amended report asked for on Thursday night. This was carried unanimously.

Ald. Ball got the respect of pleading the meeting to use every effort to get the Mt. Pleasant road.

SCARBORO TOWNSHIP HALL SITE UNACCEPTABLE

Ratepayers Turn Down Bylaw for Fallen Heroes' Memorial.

Ratepayers of Scarborough township voted on Saturday on a money bylaw, authorizing the expenditure of $50,000 for the building of a new township hall as a memorial to local men who have made the supreme sacrifice.

The vote was the biggest one polled in the district for a number of years, and in the north, especially, showed the interest taken in the matter. A majority of 395 against was the result of a difference of opinion as to the location of the proposed memorial. There were 474 aye and 189 in favor of the project, and the vote on the location of the memorial was cast in favor of the bylaw but in the south there was a large majority for it.

Not Logical.
The site chosen for the building was at the intersection of the King and the Victoria roads, the site of the old hall, and the location of the proposed memorial. The majority of 395 against was the result of a difference of opinion as to the location of the proposed memorial. There were 474 aye and 189 in favor of the project, and the vote on the location of the memorial was cast in favor of the bylaw but in the south there was a large majority for it.

Ed. Stephenson, secretary of Scarborough, expressed keen disappointment at the defeat of the bylaw favoring the memorial town hall, the reason for which could not be ascertained from those who specified the location of the memorial, thereby neglecting the consideration of Scarborough voters.

Ex-President Woodbine Ratepayers Scores Ottawa on Butter Prices. EVADING THE ISSUE.

To His Charge Against Commissioner McFall's Oleo Report.

Regarding the butter situation in Toronto, S. D. Durham, ex-president Woodbine Heights Ratepayers' Association, states as follows:
Commissioner McFall of Ottawa is not the tribune that the people are seeking just now. The most powerful argument in favor of a thorough investigation into the price of butter was the underlying impression that manipulators were trying to impose large stocks of oleomargarine on an indignant people. No body supposes that Dr. McFall is a member of a ring—if such a ring exists—working for such a purpose but if such a ring did exist, and if Dr. McFall belonged to it, the nature of his investigation would strengthen the position of this ring.

McFall Tactful.
The commissioner is a joke anyway. The public wants but one thing, and that is to know the truth. The price of oleo is not up, but the price of butter is. The price of butter is not up, but the price of oleo is. The price of butter is not up, but the price of oleo is.

We Want to Know.
There are many things we want to know. Is our butter going to Germany, Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria, Turkey, and other countries? Or to Holland or Spain, late shyster nations, and other lands of any other country? Is both the buying and the selling price of butter dictated to the wholesale dealer? Is it true that an English-speaking Canadian cannot go into the fruit business in Toronto, because the fruit market is controlled by foreigners?

There is only one way to regulate our national business, which is in a condition at which New Yorkers held up their hands in horror, and to which the government to appoint Mr. O'Connor to the highest position of trust and with free hands and full responsibility; so that he may make an honest effort to relieve the people of some of their intolerable burdens. These burdens during the war were whips; now that war is over, they are scorpions.

Rev. G. W. Neal of the Moral Reform League was the preacher at the morning service in Danforth Methodist Church, Danforth avenue, yesterday. Rev. J. R. Real occupied the pulpit at evening service. Rev. J. D. Simpson, pastor is at present in Montreal in connection with the work of the local department, of which he is president.

LINDSAY CRAWFORD ON PRESS FREEDOM

Reads Confidential Papers from Censor at People's Forum. SLANDER ON LABOR.

Statement That Enemy Propaganda Is Fomenting Strikes.

Lindsay Crawford, editor of The Statesman, and at one time on the staff of The Globe, was principal speaker at the People's Forum, St. George's Hall, last night. He chose as his subject for address "Freedom of the Press," pointing out that the freedom of the press was, in his opinion, the keynote of human freedom. He stated himself in accord with the restrictions during the war, stating that they were necessary to prevent information of importance falling into the hands of the enemy, but he considered that the government has gone beyond that. "I have never known the press of Canada to be so universally condemned by the man on the street as it has been during the last four years of the war," he said, adding that there can be no real freedom until the influence of the government, Mr. Crawford then termed that famous statement, Lord George's, as the "autocrat of the breakfast table," and stated that he had seen it announced that the Canadian statesmen had been invited to the breakfast table of the British premier to discuss the peace terms and to ask them to sign their names to something that they cannot give their consent to without consulting Canada.

The speaker then read confidential documents from the censor's handwriting, which he declared, were sent out to all editors in the country. They are marked "Secret and Confidential" and he said he defies any government to prevent him from keeping anything confidential which he has seen in the handwriting of the censor. The statements contained in one of the documents was to the effect that the labor movement in Canada, and was fomenting labor strikes. The statement he charged as secret and confidential, and was a slander on the laborer. He read another statement from the government, announcing in their publications any mention of the fact that the governments in the agricultural areas of the west and elsewhere.

"This was not meant to be a secret," he averred. "Why, four months ago the speaker then read confidential documents from the censor's handwriting, which he declared, were sent out to all editors in the country. They are marked 'Secret and Confidential' and he said he defies any government to prevent him from keeping anything confidential which he has seen in the handwriting of the censor.

Mr. Crawford referred to the four great powers, with the exception of President Wilson, as the enemies of the Maple Leaf Milling Company today. The government was also subjected to trying to impose large stocks of oleomargarine on an indignant people. The game of the press, said he, is to deface facts and present the distortion of facts, and then you labor men wonder that you are hounded down as enemies to the country and you foreigners are also hounded down as dogs. Why? Because there is no free press in Canada. It is left in the dark as to events happening in the outside world. The League of Nations, of the conditions in Egypt, in India and other places? Canada more than at any other time has become a subject nation within the empire with no rights to even the tracks of a railway.

Today at the peace conference the imperial state is represented by the British government. There is no state in Canada. We are a subject nation," said Mr. Crawford. "I say that any British has no right to impose its laws on a subject nation. The high cost of paper and production had low the papers in a commercial swim and they were forced to secure a large circulation and sacrifice the truth.

Among the local labor element present was James Simpson, who warmly defended John W. Bruce when he was attacked by one of the speakers for accepting the offer of the government to join a party in the deputation waiting on Lloyd George. Mr. Mance, the speaker at the Forum a week ago, was also present. He denounced The World for its alleged misinterpretation of his speech of that date.

"What is This Nerve Food You See Advertised in all the Papers, Some Kind of Patent Medicine?"

"PERHAPS that is what you might call it."
"Well, do you know anything about it?"
"I certainly do, and have a box right here in my grip. Why, say, in my estimation, it is the greatest thing ever invented in the medicine line."

"You seem to be rather enthusiastic. You are not selling Nerve Food, are you?"
"No, I am not selling it, but I am recommending it. When I find a good thing I like to tell others about it."

"What did it ever do for you?"
"I was on my back with the 'flu' for two weeks, and when I got up was so weak that I did not get out of the house for ten days. I started out on my trip on the road, but did not have the energy to sell goods."

"What seemed to be the matter?"
"The doctor said my nerves were in bad condition. I could not sleep nights, and after talking to a customer I seemed to be all in. There was so little nerve force in my system that I went all to pieces with a little exertion."

"I did not get right until I had used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for about two weeks. By that time my appetite was good and I began to feel like myself again."

"For a month I scarcely missed a dose of the Nerve Food, and am now feeling fine. I eat and sleep well, and take the same old pleasure in my work that I always did when in good health."

"You must be all right, then."
"Yes, and I certainly appreciate what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done for me, for I thought I would have to quit the road entirely. You can call it a patent medicine if you like, but anyway, I swear by it."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.

The members are considering the wholesale purchase of other food commodities.

PROF. MACIVER ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Tells Open Forum Germany Should Be Equally Included.

"If the representatives at the peace conference do not make a league of nations, then the peoples themselves will make one," declared Prof. R. M. Maciver, before the Open Forum yesterday.

In opening his subject Prof. Maciver dealt first with the uncertainty of the subject, and then he set some of the reasons which he declared were holding up the work of the conference to come to a settlement over the proposed league.

Some of the reasons which the professor gave for a league of nations were first, without the league armament could not be abolished. Only by a league could a minority be stopped from rushing a country into war.

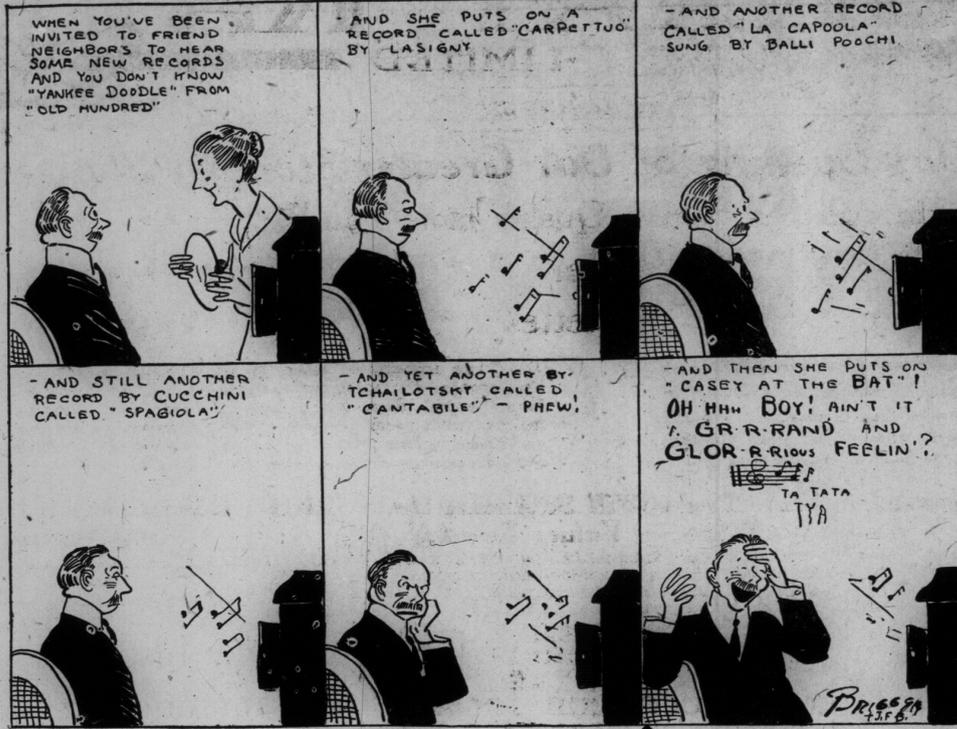

A real league of nations would include all self-governing people, who would enter on an equal basis, where both the people and the government of each would be represented.

DEPLORE AGITATION AGAINST THE ALIENS

Seven Hundred Foreigners at St. Catharines Meet to Ask a Square Deal. St. Catharines, April 13.--A mass meeting of 700 Italians, Finnish, Polish, Russian and Ukrainian workers held in the Family Theatre here, this afternoon, unanimously passed a resolution deploring the agitation that is being directed against them as aliens and appealing for the rights of their Canadian-born children. A concluding paragraph of the resolution reads: "We appeal to our generous and sane-minded fellow-workers to give us a square deal. There are thousands of foreign workers in this country who desire immediately to go to the countries they came from, therefore we ask that these workers be free to leave if they wish to do so. We do not want to be sent to England or elsewhere to be used as strike-breakers, nor do we want to be compelled to take up arms against our own people. Let us leave Canada as free agents, just as we came, to go where we will." W. Thomas, of Toronto, president, and the speakers were M. Rochy, Toronto; Polish; L. Chippetti, Toronto; Italian; F. Naples, St. Catharines; Russian; J. Comissarok, St. Catharines; Ukrainian.

This band has been invited by the United States government to participate in the Liberty Loan campaign, and will tour the cities of the fourth federal reserve district during a period of four weeks. BRANTFORD MAY COMMENCE SAVING DAYLIGHT ON MAY 1

Brantford, Ont., April 13.--A new move is on foot in aldermanic circles in regard to the daylight saving scheme for the city, by which it is thought that the objections of a large number of shop workers will be met. OVERTAKING ARREARS IN REPATRIATION

Will Catch Up With Schedule for Shipment of Canadian Troops Home by the End of April. London, April 13.--An official statement says that grave arrears in the repatriation of overseas troops at the end of February, owing to shipyard strikes, are now being rapidly overtaken, and hopes are entertained that by the end of April they will be wiped out. With regard to Canadians, the limitation is not one of shipping but of rail facilities for distribution in Canada. The total Canadians to be moved is 272,898, and the number who have already sailed or have arranged to go to the end of April is 144,925.

POPE CANNOT JOIN IN PAN-CHRISTIAN CONGRESS

Rome, April 13.--It is stated semi-officially on behalf of the Vatican that the Holy See has not given its adherence to the Pan-Christian congress which it is proposed to hold shortly, as the Catholic church, considering her dogmatic character, could not join in the congress on an equal footing. The feeling of the Vatican, says the semi-official expression is that all the other Christian denominations succeeded from the Roman church, which descends directly from Christ, and that therefore Rome cannot go to them, it being for them to return to her bosom. The Pope, the expression adds, is ready to receive representatives of dissident churches with open arms, as the Roman church has always longed for the unification of all Christian religions. Pope Leo XIII, it is pointed out, was deeply interested in the question, and wrote two famous encyclicals on the subject of the unification of the Christian churches.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 14.

The League and Covenant.

Apparently the league of nations is an accomplished fact, and five great powers and several minor ones are evidently parties to it.

There will be differences of opinion regarding the importance of the terms, but it is obvious that things that were important without the covenant become unimportant with it.

All disputes are to be arbitrated, and no war is to be allowed, till three months after an award, and not against any state accepting the award.

The German colonies and territories of the Ottoman empire are to be administered in the interests of civilization by states of the league.

Equal in importance to all the other clauses, perhaps, is the agreement to accept responsibilities regarding labor conditions, the treatment of natives, the white slave, the opium, and the arms traffic.

The Metropolitan Clean-Up. North Toronto residents must not imagine that any of the plans suggested for their relief are the result of anything but the most earnest consideration of the public benefit.

Sir Edmund Walker's Addresses. Sir Edmund Walker has collected his addresses delivered during the war into a pamphlet, adding the articles he has contributed to the annual Varsity magazine supplements.

Says James Simpson at Labor Temple Yesterday.

Among other things, James Simpson who addressed a gathering of more than 500 men and women at the Labor Temple under the auspices of the L.L.P., upon the labor movement militant, yesterday afternoon pointed out that the only sane method for labor and its friends to adopt in order to gain its ends was revolution by education and organization.

It is with the greatest amount of pleasure that we extend the hand of welcome to William Russell upon his advance in position in the fire department.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE UNIVERSAL PANACEA

Says Dr. John M. Tuttle, Speaking at Massey Hall Yesterday.

"Second only to a future salvation, mankind is concerned in the preservation of his body," said Dr. John M. Tuttle, C. S. B., during the course of his lecture on Christian Science at Massey Hall yesterday.

The speaker said in part: "The religion as medicine became more material and religion grew less so, he said, adding that material medicine had so developed into a system apart from religion that when Jesus began his restorative ministry and healed the sick by purely spiritual power he was termed both by the theologians and physicians a miracle worker."

Power of God. The power of God to heal is available to all today, and when understood and employed in Jesus' way becomes the witness of "Christ in you the hope of glory."

In conclusion the speaker said: "In Jesus' day the unbelievers said, 'this fellow does not cast out devils but by Beelzebub, the prince of devils.' But Jesus disclaimed the human mind to be a factor in His work and insisted that He was the 'finger of God' method. Christ Jesus proved that the divine mind alone was the healing power in His practice. The Beelzebub method is illustrated today in material medicine and in so-called mental science. The trend of modern medical thought is toward a frank admission toward the suggestive character of a material medicine."

the ex-alderman and the would-be controller, it was most certainly like unto a bolt from the blue. To think that a man who had played such a small, inoffensive part in the business of illegally receiving liquor should be so generous almost overpowers one.

Toronto Railway Sells at Low Record Price—Merchants Bank Firm

LARGE GOLD MINE IN NORTH ONTARIO

Associated Gold Fields Mining Company Makes Fine Progress.

A rather remarkable display of mining enterprise was evidenced in the annual meeting of the Associated Gold Fields Mining Company held on Thursday last.

For several years unostentatiously this company has steadily progressed against many difficulties until on its properties in Larder Lake there is now evidence of one of the biggest gold mines in north Ontario.

Practically all the work has been done in the past few months. The mine is now being developed to a depth of 100 feet.

The mine is situated on the north shore of Lake Huron, about 100 miles from Toronto. It covers an area of 100 acres.

The mine is owned by the Associated Gold Fields Mining Company, which was formed in 1914. It has a capital of $1,000,000.

The mine is being developed to a depth of 100 feet. It is expected to produce 100,000 tons of ore per year.
