British Capture Another Trench

In Sharp Hand-to-Hand Fighting Enemy Suffer Heavy Casualties—Other Trenches Entered and Raided by Men in Khaki

London, Sept. 9.—Today's British statement says:—"Last night there was some sharp hand-to-hand fighting in High Wood, on the Somme front, where we captured a German trench, taking two officers and nineteen Bavarians. In this operation heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy."
"There has been considerable hostile artillery activity against our front north of Pozieres and in the neighborhood of Moquet Farm. In this sector small hostile infantry attacks were easily repulsed. A detachment of the enemy which attempted to advance from the direction of Courcellette was stopped by our fire."
"Our troops carried out several successful enterprises in the neighborhood of Arras and the Hohenzollern redoubt and north of Neuve Chapelle. The enemy's trenches were entered, some prisoners were taken, and other casualties were inflicted."

RUSSIAN GENERAL MAKES ESCAPE FROM ENEMY

Prisoner Since May, 1915, He Makes His Way to Roumania

Petrograd, Sept. 9 (via London).—General Korniloff, formerly commander of the 46th Russian Division, who was captured by the Austro-Germans in Galicia in May, 1915, escaped from the prison camp in which he was held in Austria and has arrived at Bucharest.
He reached the capital of Roumania after a month of adventures in his trip across Hungary, walking by night and hiding by day. Frequently he had to go without food for days. Escape from the hands of Hungarian gendarmes who killed one of his companions, also an escaped prisoner. General Korniloff succeeded in escaping and after hiding for a time continued his journey to the Roumanian frontier. At the time of his capture he was reported to have been seriously wounded.

SOUTH AFRICAN NATIVES TO HELP WIN WAR

Pretoria, South Africa, Sept. 9.—Louis Botha, premier of the South African Union, announced today that an arrangement had been made to send 10,000 natives to France for work. They will be recruited voluntarily and will be organized into five battalions under military discipline with trusted officers. General Botha said the scheme was the result of a request made by the natives to be allowed to assist in Europe as they had done in German Southwest Africa and German East Africa.

CANADIAN WOMEN FOR WORK IN THE MOUNTAIN PLANTS

Toronto, Sept. 8.—Mark F. Frish, M. P., of this city, has been selected by the Imperial munitions board to make an investigation into the munition labor problem. According to a circular issued by J. W. Flavell, chairman of the board, to the munitions manufacturers, Mr. Frish was now assumed charge of a department which will give consideration to the organization of women for efficient service in munition plants.

FREDERICTON NEWS

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 9.—Members of Mayville Lodge, K. of P., will attend service in the Methodist church tomorrow and will afterwards decorate the graves of departed brethren.
The handsome residence of P. M. McDonald, Waterloo road, was offered for sale at public auction today, but there were no bids.
Officers of the 286th Battalion are in conference here today with Col. Guthrie. A house at Lower Line, Queensbury, owned by Hedley Moore, was struck by lightning a few days ago and badly damaged. The bolt struck an iron bedstead in which Mrs. Moore's sister was sleeping, but did no damage.

NEXT WEEK, SURE

The picnic which J. D. O'Connell, of Sussex, was to have given today at Rockwood Park for the children of the Protestant Orphanage, St. Vincent's Convent and St. Patrick's Industrial School, has been postponed until next Saturday, owing to disagreeable weather. Mr. O'Connell said this morning that he would hold the picnic next week, rain or shine; if the weather was inclement, he would arrange for amusements indoors.

HOTEL ESSEX SLAYER CAUGHT

Arrest of Siel Zilassacka On Murder Charge

VICTIM MONCTON MAN

Was Head Waiter in Hotel—Killed as He Sat at Table—Accused Was Employee Who Had Been Sent Home

Boston, Sept. 8.—Yesterday afternoon Sergt. Martin King, accompanied by five patrolmen from Station 4, went to 418 Columbus avenue and with drawn revolvers dashed upstairs and arrested Siel Zilassacka, who is wanted on the charge of murder of Charles W. Craney, head waiter at the Hotel Essex, on Monday afternoon, August 28.
The police had been tipped off that Zilassacka was in the house, and the police, gathering at the station, started for Columbus avenue.
Arriving at the house, Sergt. King sent two patrolmen up the back stairs and the other four went up the front stairs. Zilassacka was hiding in a room on the fourth floor, and the patrolmen banged at the door. When Zilassacka answered he was seized before he could make any resistance.
He was taken to Station 4, and later taken to police headquarters.
The shooting occurred on Aug. 28, Zilassacka, who is said to have been sent home by his chief in the morning, entered the cafe a little before 2 p. m., approached a table at which Craney was eating and fired at him, without his hands behind his back and his eyes toward the floor.
"Hello, George," he said quietly to a fellow employee as he turned down the stairs to the first floor. There he disappeared.
The shooting caused considerable excitement among the guests of the hotel. The police officers soon arrived, questioned witnesses and began a hunt for Zilassacka.
Craney, the murdered man, was formerly of Moncton.

Serbian On Offensive On Macedonian Front; News From the Balkans

Paris, Sept. 9.—The Serbians on the Macedonian front took the offensive last night in the region of Lake Ohrid. The War Office announced today that in a violent engagement they captured a height west of the lake.
London, Sept. 9.—The artillery duel on our Dorian front continues, says today's official account of the campaign in Greek Macedonia. "On our Struma front on Thursday evening our artillery silenced an enemy battery which was shelling Orjak Bridge. Our artillery dispersed several parties of the enemy."
An Enemy Report.
Berlin, Sept. 9.—(By wireless)—Correspondents with the Bulgarian and German forces which are invading Roumania report that along the Black Sea coast an advance of eighty kilometers (about fifty miles) beyond the frontier already has been made. They express the opinion that the progress of the invaders, who have occupied several important positions on the coast and elsewhere in Dobruja, explains the irresolution and comparative inactivity of the Roumanian forces which, having invaded Transylvania, are now merely sending out small detachments to reconnoitre.
Not only Roumanians but Russians have been defeated by the Bulgarians in Dobruja, the correspondents say, and this destroys the legend that Bulgarians will not fight Russians.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO WORK OF FOREIGN LEGION

New York, Sept. 8.—A London cable to the New York Times says: "Lieut. Colonel Elkington, whom the king has restored to his rank in the army for gallantry in the French Foreign Legion, is now home in England with a knee smashed by a bullet. Interviewed by newspaper men he paid a tribute to the work of the legion, saying: 'I don't think that the men in the Legion fear anything.'"

AUTO SPEEDERS TRY FOR $9,000 PURSE

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 9.—Sixteen cars were entered for a 100 miles championship automobile race here this afternoon. The purse is $9,000.

BOWLING SEASON OPENS

Bowling was started on Thursday afternoon in the Victoria bowling alley with several players making scores above 100. Mr. Seely, of Fairville, was successful in knocking down 114 pins. Judging from the successful start and the way in which the game is being patronized the coming season will be a good one. When the doors of the alleys were swung open to the public on Thursday every pin boy was kept busy, as some of the old time stars began early warming up for the season.

FRENCH RESUME ATTACK ON SOMME; WIN A WOOD

Germans Strike in Verdun Region But Are Repulsed; Stubborn Fighting in Galicia

Paris, Sept. 9.—Renewing the assaults on the Somme front last night the French made a further gain. The capture of a small wooded area east of Bellefleur is reported today by the war office. German attacks in the Verdun sector were repulsed.
Prisoners taken by the French since Sept. 3, the statement says, number 7,700, including 100 officers. After the unsuccessful German attacks of yesterday a great number of German dead were found on the field and in communicating trenches.
On the Verdun front the fighting occurred in the region of Vaux where the French successfully defended their positions.

BEATING BACK GERMAN ON VERDUN FRONT

New York, Sept. 9.—A New York World correspondent cables from Paris: Although the French Somme battles have been lulled during the last twenty-four hours, the fierce conflagration kindled by the Crown Prince at Verdun continues to blaze fiercely but the flames are blown in the opposite direction and beating back the Germans.
Very slowly, but inexorably, General Nivelle edged forward his lines toward Vaux, slowly encroaching on the German occupation of the remnants of Chapire Wood and enlarging his gains.

DEWET HEADS OFF REBELLION

Warns Government of Movement in South Africa and Arrests Are Made

Capetown, Sept. 9.—Details of an attempt to foment another rebellion against the British in South Africa were disclosed at the trial of two Nationalists, Van Der Merwe and Schoonen in Bloemfontein yesterday on a charge of high treason. The men are alleged to have gone to some prominent Boers, including General De Wet, to whom they told that large stores of rifles were available and that certain Boer generals were willing to lead a revolt.
General De Wet, who informed the government of the movement, testified that he warned the men against attempting another uprising.
The hearing was adjourned.

GERMAN AIRCRAFT

Amsterdam, Sept. 9.—According to the Maestricht Les Nouvelles, a German monoplane, after being hit in the wings and petrol tank by bullets of Dutch soldiers while flying over Dutch territory, landed in the Dutch village of Roonstein. The aviator, who was injured, and his machine were interned. The newspaper says the aviator probably lost his way while on a reconnaissance.
The Lost Zeppelin Captain.
Rohrborn, Denmark, Sept. 9.—The Courier of Hannover, Germany, says the commander of the airship brought down in England during a raid a week ago, was Captain Schramm, a native of Hamelin, Prussia. The captain received the Iron Cross of the first class for various raids over Nancy, Dunkirk and England.

APPLES FOR ENGLAND

Judging from present indications, Canadian apples will be in brisk demand in the British markets. Statistics recently prepared show that the British apple crop of 1916 is below that of 1915. The Canadian dealer will likely get a good price for his apples on the other side. The demand will undoubtedly be brisk.

COWBOY ACT

Mounted Policeman D. Zahab encountered trouble while making his rounds in Rockwood Park yesterday afternoon, when he came across some cattle roaming about. The policeman gave chase, and it was not before he had worked several hours that he finally succeeded in rounding them up and had them placed in the cattle barn, awaiting the owner, who has not yet laid claim to the stock.

PORT AUTHORITIES TO MEET

Mayor Hayes has received an invitation to attend the annual gathering of the American Association of Port Authorities which is to be held in Montreal this month, but has been forced to decline.

BADLY FRIGHTENED.

It is easy to perceive that the government party are scared out of their wits by the developments in Carleton county. Their press is frantic, and prints utterly false and misleading accounts of meetings. Truth and fair play have been thrown to the winds, and wholesale abuse is the answer to defensible charges and to exposure of the proved iniquity of the administration. Even the St. John Globe departs from the truth by insinuating that Mr. H. M. Blair is speaking for the opposition. He has not so spoken, nor has he been asked to speak. If Mr. Blair desires to tell what he knows of the men who dismissed him from office he has a perfect right to do so, at any meeting, and the trouble with the government is that its members are afraid of Mr. Blair and the disclosures he could make. The Globe also makes a feeble effort to condemn the opposition because Hon. C. W. Roninson, Hon. Frank Sweeney, and Messrs. Leger, Burgess and Tweeddale are among its candidates. Which of these men does the Globe say is dishonest? Against which of them has it a charge to make, and what is the charge? There is no doubt about the charges made and proved against the present government. The Globe has itself published the proof and passed judgment on Mr. Flemming. Why is it now fighting his battle? So far as the Standard is concerned, nobody is surprised at its course, but certainly something better was expected of the Globe, in view of its utterances from time to time during the last year.

But the government party is thoroughly frightened, and with good reason. The opposition meetings in Carleton county are crowded and enthusiastic. There is no doubt about that. The merciless exposure of graft and political intrigue cannot be brushed aside by mere abuse. And then, there is the memory of Westmorland.

"GOD KNOWS," SAYS FLEMMING

"God knows I did my best," piously affirmed Mr. J. K. Flemming at Hartland last evening, concluding a speech in which he said he would accept the verdict of the people on Sept. 21 as their verdict on himself.

Since Mr. Flemming thus invokes the Deity, one is tempted to wonder if he had a word of silent prayer before he took that $2,000 "by compulsion" from a railroad contractor, and whether he and Bill Berry and Mr. Toed asked for the Divine blessing on the $70,000 taken from the lumber operators.

Will the people of Carleton county stand for this sort of thing? Mr. Flemming should be taken at his word. The verdict on the 21st should leave him no possible chance to misunderstand its meaning. He and his methods have been embraced by the government and its candidates, as if their own record was not enough to bring upon them the utter condemnation of right-thinking people.

If the people really knew all that God knows about the political crookedness that is now being championed by the government party in the Carleton county campaign, the tide of popular indignation would sweep them out of office as if they had been struck by a tornado.

The people of other counties are waiting with an unusual degree of interest to learn what the people of Carleton county will say to the hypocrites and grafters on Sept. 21.

IT ANSWERS 'ITSELF.

On the editorial page of the Standard this morning it is asserted:—

"That Frank B. Carvell and George W. Kyte were responsible for the launching of the most disgraceful set of charges ever made against a public man in Canada.

"That these charges were promoted at Ottawa, at the height of the empire crisis, and their sole purpose was to destroy and undermine public confidence in the minister and in the government whose every effort was directed to making it certain that Canada would bear her full share in the Empire struggle.

"That after the fullest and most wide open inquiry, before a commission of eminent judges, the verdict was reached that as they affected the government or the minister of militia the charges were unfounded."

On the first page of the Standard we find the following:—

"Ottawa, Sept. 8—Militia orders to-day contain the formal notice that the name of Hon. Col. J. Wesley Allison has been removed from the list of officers of the Canadian militia."

Mr. J. Wesley Allison was the "guide, counselor and friend" of Sir Sam Hughes. Sir Sam declared he had more confidence in Allison than in the auditor-general of Canada. The Standard may try to brazen it out, but the investigation of the Kyte charges shattered public confidence in the Borden government. Mr. J. Wesley Allison was not the only sinner.

Mr. E. S. Carter, in the speech printed today, furnishes Hon. James A. Murray, Hon. B. Frank Smith and their friends with food for Sabbath meditation.

GERMAN PLOTTING

Striking evidence that Germany had planned the present war, and that for years a pro-German propaganda had been conducted in the United States, to influence that country in favor of Germany when the struggle came, is given by Dr. John F. Coar in the New York Times. His testimony is the more striking because he admits that for a long time he gave aid and encouragement to the movement, having an entirely wrong conception of its real purpose. He says the propaganda purporting to be in the interest of a more systematic understanding of the German people by the Americans, and as such it appealed to him. Even though the dissemination of information about Germany was almost entirely in the German tongue, and to audiences almost wholly of German blood, and though there were constant appeals to racial pride and the inevitable tendency to racial isolation, he did not clearly perceive what was intended. Feeling, however, that the Germans should be enlightened about America and the Americans, and having observed that men of German birth were vilifying them in the German press, and that American ideals and institutions were being assailed by them, Dr. Coar went to Germany and in 1911 and 1912 lectured in many of the large German cities and universities, as a representative of the Germanic Society of America, endeavoring, as he says, to make clear to his German audiences, in their own language, the essential aspirations of the American people. But he was soon made aware of the real purpose of the movement of the Germans in America. Here is the rest of the story, and it is a very interesting story, in his own words:

"For it was in those same months that he was informed, at the very source of the ostensible movement to bring about among Americans a better understanding of things German, that this apparently generous movement had a sinister purpose. He was told that the ultimate purpose of the propaganda was to re-establish among Americans of German descent the consciousness of their common racial origin, to preserve among them the sense of their German nationality, and to create a social body that would be such a champion of the cause of the Fatherland in the coming war. He was told more than this. He was told that for more than ten years there had been in the United States of America annually no less than two score secret agents commissioned to work for two distinct ends: First, the introduction of the German language into the public schools so far as possible as the school-language in districts heavily populated by emigrants from Germany, and the increasing use of this language as the school-language in private or parochial (Lutheran) schools. Secondly, the consolidation of the so-called German-American vote to the end that might hold the balance of power and bring about at least a benevolent neutrality in favor of Germany in the coming war.

"It is needless to say that on his return to this country the writer severed his relations with all societies that were in any way connected with a propaganda designed to further these ends, though only by indirect means. Every true American knows what the accomplishment of these ends signifies for our American democracy. Our national life cannot endure for long if the principle of racial segregation finds any lodgment among us."

Naturally Dr. Coar is in full sympathy with Mr. Roosevelt, and not at all satisfied with the failure of Mr. Hughes to denounce with equal vigor the hypocrites and grafters.

"Because our citizens of German extraction cannot well help sympathizing with their kindred in Germany, and because the stress of this sympathy is apt to warp their judgment in matters of purely national import, therefore no candidate for the suffrage of the American people should permit, as Mr. Hughes has thus far permitted, any political activity to go unrehearsed that centres in, or depends on, a sense of nationality which is not first and last American. Mr. Hughes knows quite as well as Mr. Roosevelt knows that professional agitators are seeking to make political hyphenates out of the voters of German descent. He should brand that effort as the underwriter of his candidacy has branded it, specifically and unequivocally."

Another week ends with the war going well for the Allies on all fronts.

Internal dissensions in Hungary will help the Allies. And the discontent will grow.

The poor, weeping woman stood before the judge, and the sympathies of the spectators went out to her. She looked muscular but so miserable.

"You are charged," said the magistrate sternly, but kindly, "with assaulting your husband."

Gulping down her sobs, the prisoner wiped away her tears with a brown hand and replied sadly:

"Yes, your worship, I only asked the brute if he would ever cease to love me and he was so long in answering that I bit him in the eye with a broom. I'm only a defenceless woman," she went on in a broken voice, "and a woman's life without love is a mere blight."

AUTO INTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" The Wonderful Fruit Medicines—will Protect You!

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the kidneys and skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes indigestion, loss of appetite and disturbed stomach. It may produce headaches and sleeplessness. It may irritate the kidneys and bring on Pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, and Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema—and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Auto-intoxication or self-poisoning—as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

Box, a box, 9 for $2.50, trial size, 50¢. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Dean Hole, who was the pioneer of rose shows in England, was fond of telling this story:

At Cambridge a horticultural show was suddenly invaded by a host of sweet girl graduates.

"Madam," said an executive to the lady in whose charge they came, "may I point out that this is a school for horticulture, not a school for husbandry?"

A Wee Bit Sane.

While a certain Scottish minister was conducting religious services in an asylum for the insane, one of the inmates cried out wildly:

"I say, have you got to listen to this?"

"The minister, surprised and confused, turned to the keeper and said:

"Shall I stop speaking?"

"The keeper replied:

"No, no; gang along, gang along; that will not happen again. That man only has one lucid moment every seven years."

Had to Obey Orders.

An old colored uncle was found by the preacher prowling in his barnyard late one night.

"Uncle Calhoun," said the preacher sternly, "it can't be good for your rheumatism to be prowling round here in the rain and cold."

"Doctor's orders, sah," the old man answered.

"Doctor's orders?" said the preacher. "Did he tell you to go prowling round all night?"

"No, sah, not exactly, sah," said Uncle Calhoun; "but he done ordered me chicken broth."

Young Valentine to Get Many More Four Years Later

Chicago, Sept. 8.—The bulk of the fortune of Patrick A. Valentine, formerly vice-president of Armour & Co., who died at his summer home in Oconomowoc on Aug. 21, was left to his only son, Patrick A. Valentine. The will was made in 1905 and has been filed in New York.

An estate estimated at more than $10,000,000 is disposed of by the will. Mrs. Valentine had been left $8,000,000 in her own right by her first husband, Philip D. Armour, Jr., and receives one-third of the Valentine estate. Young Valentine, who is 18, will receive $1,000,000 outright at the age of 21, and the remainder of the bequest when he reaches 25. Meantime his mother is in sole charge of the fortune.

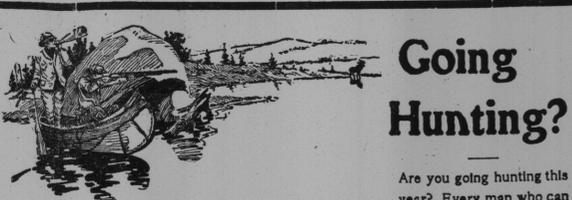

BRITISH STEAMER HEATHDENE, 3541 TONS, HAS BEEN SUNK

London, Sept. 8, 6.02 p.m.—The British steamship Heathdene, of 3,541 tons gross, has been sunk, according to an announcement made at Lloyd's.

The Heathdene was 840 feet long with a beam of 46 feet. She was built at Sunderland in 1901 and owned by the Dene Steamship Company of Newcastle.

A Thrilling Narrative

The Author of the Following Thrilling Narrative Lives At Grand Bay—Is There Anybody Out There? Way Who Can Beat It?

Once upon a time, as grandmother would say) in a land of green fields, prosperity and happiness, lived a maiden, no less favored by nature perhaps, than the land in which she dwelt. One day, into her otherwise quiet life, came a sudden change in the form of a sun-tanned man and an aeroplane. The change proved entirely agreeable to all three, and due time it was arranged for the maiden to take a trip into the upper realms, which previously she had associated only with the feathery tribes.

Where was she? She cast about for some signs of life, but none could she see. No lights, no sound; nothing but an oppressive stillness; and afraid of—she knew not what, she sank down in her seat and from sheer exhaustion fell asleep. When she awoke, a blinding sun shone from a cloudless sky, causing waves of heat to flutter up from an endless desert of hot sand. Look where she would, the only break in the monotony was, here and there, a lone cactus plant.

SINGULAR FREAKS ACTED BY NATURE Strange Occurrences Which Are Attested by History MARRIED FOR 100 YEARS Italian Woman Who Had Sixty-two Children Born to Her; The Strange Case of Men Named Hugh Williams

Two women named Casseron and DeLaney, who died about 1870 at Lagard, near Rochelle, were born on the same day; received First Communion on the same day; were betrothed on the same day; were married, gave birth to a child in each case a daughter; were widowed, died and buried all on the same day in each parish.

Another curious human record was given in 1840 by Dr. Field, Bishop of Newfoundland. He mentioned that he saw, in a fisherman's home, seven generations—all females. The youngest was a newly-born infant, its mother being only twelve years of age.

Early in 1914 the wife of a Lancashire working man gave birth to a son; six weeks later a twin sister was born. This

Reflections On Early Rising

(New York Times.) In spite of the increased—and increasing—cost of living, we have not yet in this country quite so much, or as desperate, need as most European have nowadays to practice all the small economies that can be devised. Those who advocate the setting of all clocks an hour behind true or standard time throughout the summer months have not succeeded as yet in persuading us, as they persuaded "abroad," that the savings resultant from getting up and going to bed an hour earlier every day, and doing more of our work and play by daylight, would be really worth while.

(Continued from page 1) embarks for overseas. The medical examination of the battalion is being conducted at present. The men are well up to the mark and comparatively few are being rejected as medically unfit. Privates R. W. Laskay and G. McDougall have been promoted to the rank of lance corporals. Corporal B. Clarke has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. Private B. F. McKay and A. Thompson have been promoted to the rank of corporal.

DISTRIBUTION OF SEED GRAIN AND POTATOES From the Dominion Experimental Farms 1916-1917.

By instructions of the Hon. Minister of Agriculture a distribution of superior sorts of grain and potatoes will be made during the coming winter and spring to Canadian farmers. The samples for general distribution will consist of spring wheat (about 8 lbs.), white oats (about 4 lbs.), barley (about 5 lbs.), and field peas (about 5 lbs.).

THE HUN AND DESTRUCTION

A total of 758 communes or townships have been partially or totally destroyed through military operations in France since the beginning of the war, according to statistics gathered by the ministry of the interior and published July 1st. These communes are distributed over eleven of the departments of France, including those in Ardenne.

FLORENCE REED DEAD

Actress of Generation Ago Had Returned to Old Surroundings to Live Out Her Life. Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—Florence Reed, 58 years old, an actress of a generation ago, and the youngest sister of Roland Reed, who had half the country laughing in the '90s, died this week in a bleak and desolate little house at 908 Wood street, after a life which was the exact reverse of the plays in which she appeared.

Married 100 Years

On the other hand, there is a remarkable record of a couple who spent over one hundred years of married life together. The record of this marriage is an official one, and it took place in May, 1764. They were a Hungarian couple, and at that time proof of age had to be given, the husband having to be twenty and the wife fifteen years of age at least. So when the unique celebration of the hundredth anniversary took place they must have been at least 130 and 115 years of age. Not a single relation of either was alive at the time.

Big Day of Sports

Arrangements are being made for a day of sports to be held on Saturday next and it is understood that there will be special excursions to the camp. An excellent programme has been arranged and valuable prizes offered. The arrangements are being made by Colonel McBain, who has gone to a great deal of trouble in arranging matters in connection with the sports, which were started at his suggestion.

"The way the Germans find excuses for submarine merchant ships reminds me of Johnny, the office boy," said Senator Lodge.

"Johnny's employer said to him jocularly one spring day: "Well, John, inasmuch as your grandmother died four times last year, I don't see how you'll manage to get to any of the ball games this season." "But, sir," said Johnny, quietly, "haven't I told you that grandpa has married again, though it was much against the wishes of the family?"

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"ON TRIAL," OPERA HOUSE MONDAY NIGHT

"On Trial," the sensational drama which had such a phenomenal success in New York, is a melodrama of absorbing interest, gripping and thrilling, while its novel form adds to its appeal. It will be presented for the first time in St. John, at the Opera House on Monday night by Klack Urban Company.

MONDAY'S SHOW AT THE IMPERIAL

St. John Boys in England—Trip to Philadelphia—Lovely Fiction Picture. A hushed court-room, an old soldier on trial, a scar on the judge's head, and then the story. Twenty years before, a heart-felt bit of sentiment—delicate, beautiful young wife and curiously-looked baby of the man before the court. Both are near him now. His wife sits beside him, his son is prosecuting him. The scar on the judge's forehead tells the tale of the secret dual of bygone days. Come recognition, pleadings with the political boss and a touch of pathos, a heart-felt bit of sentiment—delicate, appealing, and a happy ending through a veil of tears. Such is the sweet and touching tale "According to the Code," in which the eminent metropolitan star, Lewis S. Stone, will appear in the Imperial Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

GEM PROGRAMME HOLDS PATRONS ENTRALLED

"The Dividend," which was shown at the Gem last evening and which gave its full presentations to two performances tonight, held all intensely interested through five reels of a most intense heart-searching story in which was revealed the evil of parental neglect of the boy. Parents seeing this picture must have been aroused to a realization of their responsibility. In addition there were striking scenes depicting the lives of the underworld. The comedy "Willie's Wobbly Ways" showed Willie Collier in one of his best in the Keystone comedy series that is making the Gem noted for its superior laugh-raising pictures. See this programme tonight.

HUNDRED BOXES READY TO BE SENT TO BOYS AT FRONT

Santa Claus Early at Work For St. John Soldier Lads—Douglas Avenue Circle S. C. A. to Send Next Week

Now that the time is approaching when winter blasts will be felt, and the annual call of good St. Nicholas is awaited, the ladies of the Douglas Avenue Circle of the Soldiers' Comfort Association are turning their attention to the boys in the trenches, and are determined that the joyful merry making old Santa Claus will not fail to make a stop at the trenches occupied by the brave sons of St. John.

During Yuletide a year ago, the hearts of our young heroes were gladdened by the receipt of Christmas boxes from the home town and although many of those who were cheered by the boxes sent for Christmas, 1915, have since paid the extreme price of valor, there are still hundreds of our boys who again this year will learn that during the season of goodwill those left behind have not forgotten them, and that Santa Claus travels not only through the lands where quiet reigns, but visits also the din and confusion of the battle.

The boxes this year, 100 in number, will be sent the first of the week to Misses Arnold and Plummer, two Canadian women, now stationed in Shorecliffe, England, for the purpose of seeing that boxes sent from Canada to the boys in France and Belgium are forwarded in a proper manner and at the time requested.

Each box contains one pair of socks, one box of candy, one wristlet, one pipe, two packages of smoking tobacco, one tin of chewing tobacco, two packages of cigarettes, one package of cards, a Christmas fruit cake, a handkerchief, a bag of nuts and raisins, a towel and soap, and a package of stationery. The boxes are securely sealed and each has an accompanying Christmas card.

The ladies of the circle met yesterday at the home of Mrs. A. P. B. Cahill, Douglas Avenue, and completed the work of getting the boxes ready for their overseas journey. Much credit is due the ladies of the circle inasmuch as they have not only prepared the boxes, but have, through their own efforts, earned the money required to purchase the articles contained in them. Similar worthy efforts are being made by other organizations of the city and it is expected that before another week several hundred such boxes will be on their way to the western front.

SHARKS AT WOODPOINT

Two Taken Recently in the Shad Nets—They Put up a Big Fight Before They Were Landed (Sackville Post.) Two sharks have recently been captured at Woodpoint, and during the last few days quite a number of Sackville people have visited the shore and viewed the remains of the strange looking visitors.

The smaller of the two is five or six feet long and almost as large as a barrel. It reminds one somewhat of a large pig. It was caught in the shad nets and required nearly three hours to land. The fish put up a big fight, and practically destroyed the nets. The fish is of great value.

The second fish is from eight to ten feet long. It is farther up the shore. The Post understands these are not the man-eating species of sharks of which the American papers have had so much to say this year, but just the same a man would not care to run up against them. Last year one or two of these visitors were taken off Woodpoint.

EIGHT DEATHS. Eight burial permits were issued by the Board of Health during the week. The causes of death were—Influenza, bronchitis, carcinoma, endocarditis, gastro-enteritis, accidental injuries, cerebral hemorrhage, and malaria, regurgitation.

LOCAL NEWS

MARRIAGES AND BIRTHS. Six marriages and thirteen births, seven boys and six girls, having been reported to Registrar John B. Jones during the week.

THE SOLDIERS' CLUB. The executive of the Soldiers' Club are considering the question of having the rooms reopened for the benefit of the soldiers in the city, now that the long evenings are with us again.

HOSPITABLE ST. JOHN (Victoria County News) First Tobique Man (in surprise)—What! Back already? Why, I thought you were going to see Boston? Second Tobique Man (cheerfully)—So did I, but it seems St. John saw me first.

THE PRICE OF BREAD. Clearer—There will be no general increase in the price of bread in Fredericton just now. A vigorous denial of the report given some publicists this week to the effect that commencing next Monday bread would sell at 9 cents instead of 8 cents a loaf, was made this morning by the managers of two of the local bakeries. There is evidence of a proposal to increase the price of bread made, but the proposition appears to have been nipped in the bud.

The Man In The Street

No more newspapers this year—but the staff should hurry, with weather like this. City Hall gives notice that executions for tax bills will be out next week; the only execution which would be welcomed by some of the tax payers would be that of the tax collectors.

A short term in the proper surroundings might be good for some of the local short weight artists.

Despite the promises of the local government, it is the Marsh road, with the accent on the Marsh.

If the harbor commissioner cannot provide public baths anywhere else, he might find some suitable pools on the road to the wharves.

The name of Col. J. Wesley Allison has been removed from the list of officers of the Canadian militia. Isn't the government vindictive!

But it might be worse; they might have sentenced him to live in Halifax.

Not By Request. Notice—At the next meeting of the Down-and-Out-for-Cause Club, K. Flemming presiding, the vice-president, W. H. Berry, will move, seconded by ex-M.P.P. Sheridan, that the name of ex-Colonel J. W. Allison be added to the list of members. By order, J. Stewart, secretary.

If it is a Carvell-Flemming fight between the man who exposed the graft and the man who pulled it.

Hon. Mr. Flemming had a persuasive way when asking others to contribute to campaign funds; now it is his turn. How much will he contribute to elect B. Frank Smith?

A Shot in the Dark. Victoria County News—A friend of this journal asks us to believe that not a joke going in for a thousand years old. But we happen to know better. The biggest joke in Perth is possibly under forty years of age, not too exact, and could wear whiskers if he wanted to.

Not Too Proud This Time. "I have come here to fight with you," said President Wilson; but he was addressing neither the Germans nor the Mexicans; it was merely the suffragettes.

War Time Economy. Among the prizes offered at the Labor Day sports was an automobile horn. The winner was a young lad who was duly elated by his good fortune; but there was one slight drawback—he had no car to which to attach the horn, so he took his prize and his trouble to his father.

"Dad, don't you think it would be a pity to waste a good horn like this?" he asked. "I suppose so," dad answered, unthinkingly. "Then let's buy a car to put it on," argued the young logician.

And next day a motor car salesman had another customer to his credit.

An Interrupted Dream. He was out for a drive and, while it was a good horse he was driving, he was in such good company that he had few thoughts to spare for the steed. Merrily they rolled along, giving no thought to time nor place—until their progress stopped with a jerk. So rudely awakened to practical affairs the young man began to look for the reason. It was easy to find; it consisted of a robust individual hanging to the horse's bridle.

"What's the matter?" the young chap wanted to know. "Matter is you're going to be fined $20 for trotting over this bridge."

"What bridge?" he asked, before he took time to discover that he was in the middle of the highway bridge at the falls.

But the officer had been young himself once and the blushing explanations from the young man were sufficient to justify a getaway.

More Trouble. The patronage committee again is up in the air; once more their recommendation has been rejected and their promise proved of less value than any scrap of paper. The story is told that a recent appointment in the local staff of the marine department, announced as temporary, has been made permanent and the appointee is said never to have cast a vote for the Conservative party in his life. More than this, the patronage committee had promised this job to a faithful party man while another, equally entitled to rank among the faithful, also had what he thought was sufficient assurance that he would be a favored applicant. Then the minister of marine took a hand, at the request, it is said, of another good party man who has been disappointed recently and who was still sore, and the appointment was made. It is rumored that some of the members of the patronage committee are so indignant they are almost inclined to refuse their own share of the graft in the future; almost but not quite.

HARD FOR MOTHER TO MAKE CHOICE

Sad Story of Children's Aid Society Work

SCENE IN CITY HOME

Little Ones in Need of Care, Mother Ill, Father in Jail—Partial Lifting of the Lid Discloses Heartrending Conditions Here

"He told me we would be in the poor house when he came out of jail, and he passed a week there. A sixth there was, but it had to be done. Surely five were enough, in a world that had other things to think of than little children, some of them defective, with no means of support. But the young little woman was not friendless. Her parents are dead, and she has no brothers, but her only sister sat with her, and her husband's father and other friends had called during the day, and were even then planning for her well-being. But what could they do? The eldest child was but six years of age. There was no money, no means to make, no proper furniture, no supply of fuel or food, no prospect for the future. Two members of the Children's Aid Society called and they were explaining the two sad alternatives. The society would take the four children and see that they were cared for till able to care for themselves, placing them in good foster homes. She herself could go to the Municipal Home or Evangeline Home and there care for the infant as soon to be born. The other alternative was to take all the children with her to the Municipal Home. It was pointed out that a good foster home is better for a normal child than any institution, but she could not bear to part with these little ones. They had been her life. All her days for half a dozen years or more had been given up to them as they came, one after another, to claim her love and protection. Who shall blame her if that night, with the alternatives to face, she thought more of her own feelings than her children's future, and cried out that she could not let them go? The sister, the husband's aged father, counselled her to let them go to good foster homes, but she would give no thought for the children's future. And the morning of the day found her going down to the Municipal Home to get the child of her bosom and cry for its place in the sun. She is in the hospital today, while her infant, the child of her bosom, but one had to be removed later to the general hospital for treatment, the second one to go to the institution. The child of her bosom is being cared for by its aunt. When the mother is well again, she will have five children under seven years of age, and no home into which she can take them. Even if the two in hospital should be cured of their physical weakness, no comfortable home awaits them. And the man—the father of these children—is in jail. Did his wife's testimony be contemplated without shame the prospect of his wife and children going to the poorhouse. But he wants to get out of jail himself. He has worn out the love and patience of his own home. Now there is none. On the same evening on which the two members of the Children's Aid Society were offering its shelter to these little ones, they were getting information of another shocking case of children who have no father's care. If the lid were fully lifted in St. John those who think there is little work for a Children's Aid Society would be perhaps suffer a rude shock—but it would do them good. As it not time a league of men was organized to deal with the case of men who would let their own wives and children starve? The law appears to be inadequate—and the influence of all the churches and benevolent organizations. What is the remedy?"

WOUNDED FOR SECOND TIME

Private James L. Daley of Saint Patrick Street Once More in Hospital

That Private James Louis Daley, son of James Daley of 23 St. Patrick street, was seriously wounded in the shoulder by shrapnel and admitted to No. 22 Stationary Hospital at Winesburg, France, was the word received by his father yesterday. This is the second time that Private Daley has been wounded. The first time was about four months ago, but he was in the hospital only a comparatively short time when he received his discharge and returned to the firing line. He is a member of the First Company, the Granpian and was doing as well as could be expected. Private Daley was employed in the art glass works prior to going overseas. Miss Elizabeth Daley, sister of the young soldier, received a card last night from him saying that he was coming along all right and was doing as well as could be expected. Private Daley was employed in the art glass works prior to going overseas.

PROHIBITION IN HALIFAX

(Maritime Merchant)
Surprise has been expressed by many that "prohibition" in Halifax should have been so successful for the first two months of its existence. We think the expectation was that immediately the sale of liquor became unlawful, illicit business would become general, but now one can see that such an expectation was most unlikely. It was unlikely for the simple reason that you cannot make a law-observing people into the kind of "over-night" liquor trade of Halifax, speaking generally, has no disposition to become law-breakers. They had not been trained in a part of the country where to sell liquor was a crime, hence the paralysis which overcame them on the morning of July 1st, the day that prohibition came in. Many of these dealers no doubt felt, and still feel that rather than take part in an unlawful business, they could and would retire from the trade altogether and so they sit idle today. But this does not mean that liquor will not be sold in Halifax. The prospect of easy profits is attracting people who have already been trained in breaking liquor laws elsewhere. There is evidence that already some imported talent in the city and a good many thoughtful people

REV. CHARLES F. AKED HAS LOST PASTORATE

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—Rev. Charles F. Aked, who resigned the pastorate of the First Congregational church here to accept an appointment as delegate with the Ford peace party, has been refused reinstatement by his former congregation.
Before the vote was taken it was explained that Dr. Aked had offered to come back at a salary lower than he was receiving when he resigned. He failed to secure the two-thirds vote necessary for his reinstatement. His successor has not yet been chosen.

THE FRENCH CLUB.

Mrs. George Carvell entertained the ladies of the French Club on Friday afternoon at her cottage, Duck Cove, the guest of honor being Miss Marion Magee, A. D., who will leave soon for England. The members in presenting to her a little gift wished her "bon voyage," and expressed their appreciation of her courage and devotedness.
The club in Halifax are beginning to wonder whether the second state of the community may not be worse than the first.

DISCUSS LUCAS AS THE POSSIBLE NEWCASTLE CHIEF

Will St. John Policeman Get the Appointment as Successor to Wm. H. Finley?

At a special meeting of the town council of Newcastle on Thursday evening, the police committee submitted Chief Finley's resignation to take effect Sept. 19th.
The resignation was accepted but with regret.
The committee recommended a St. John man, Frederick Lucas, for chief.
Ald. Kingston asked if there were no one capable of being a St. John police inspector. Would the new man have to bring a man to help him? There was no objection or dissent about it. It was horrible. He was ashamed to be where he was.
Ald. Miller had always looked on Finley as a gentleman, but he had not been able to do the work himself.
Ald. Hayward said Finley's success was also proved by his call to a larger field. Finley's resignation had been in every newspaper, and applications had been received from two towns.
He presented the St. John man's recommendations—all good ones—signed last spring by the then Mayor Frink, and Commissioners Potts and Wigmore, ex-Chief of Police Clark, ex-Deputy Chief Jenkins and the present Chief David W. Simpson, also lately by A. D. Smith and references to Rev. W. H. Robinson and the man who had also got first-class verbal recommendations of him from Judge Ritchie and Chief Finley. He was a young man of 11 years' experience in police work, and personally appeared quite eligible for the job.
Ald. Miller did not think that two or three recommendations from St. John politicians were sufficient.
Ald. Hayward said that the new man wanted the same salary as Finley got.
Ald. Miller thought that $90 a month was too much. Chatham's chief got only $65 a month. Policemen should collect taxes.
Ald. Stables said many towns employ outside men as chief. St. John got an Edmonton man; Moncton sent a Fredericton; Fredericton sent to Newcastle and so on.
Ald. McGrath complained that where as police protection a few years ago cost the town $650, exclusive of what came from the Scott Act fund, it now costs $1,200. Were we better protected?

Ald. Hayward asked if we were better protected?
Ald. McGrath wanted two inspectors at about $70 a month each, each paid $200 clear out of Scott Act funds. Finley did no better work than the other inspectors.
"By doing our best for them, of course, I don't mean treating them like children or fools, which they are not. Let us give them the warmest possible welcome when they arrive, but don't let us stop at that. Don't let us imagine that cheering them and putting them on the back will help them to make a living."
Ald. Miller moved, seconded by Ald. Kingston, that the P. & A. committee be authorized to advertise for a policeman and Scott Act inspector in one issue of each local paper and in two issues of the St. John Telegraph.
Ald. Hayward said it was only killing time for the town. A man was wanted before the 19th. Motion carried.
The Leader editorially says: "Newcastle's town council will, in the course of a few days, appoint a chief of police to fill the position, made vacant by the resignation of W. H. Finley. We trust that the council will consider the application of local men capable of filling the position and not send to St. John or any other city for a chief. If our taxpayers are to be deprived of appointments to permanent town positions then it is well that they know these facts. A salary of $90 a month is too much money to pay for a day policeman for a town the size of Newcastle."

BELGIUM TO RUN STEAMSHIP LINE

New York, Sept. 9.—A fleet of steamships financed by the Belgian government will be operated between New York and French and Italian ports by the Royal Belgian Lloyd Steamship Company, it was announced by A. W. Duckett & Co., American agents of the line.
A direct service to Havre, with sailings every ten days, will be instituted with the departure of the Belgian steamer Balzer from here on October 5.
A Belgian royal decree says that the state will guarantee principal and interest to the nominal capital of $20,000,000 to be issued by the company. The agent of the Belgian government's support is regarded by shipping men here as emphasizing the projected program of the Entente Allies in the trade war that is expected to follow the close of the war. The plan virtually runs over Belgian shipping to the government.

Great National Effort Sir George Perley Speaks on Future of Our Returning Soldiers

The national importance of doing our very best for our returning soldiers is strongly emphasized by Sir George Perley, High Commissioner for Canada in Ottawa, in an interview in Ottawa Sir George said:
"Sometimes wonder if we Canadians even yet completely realize what a vast difference it will make to the country if we do our best for returned soldiers. "By doing our best for them, of course, I don't mean treating them like children or fools, which they are not. Let us give them the warmest possible welcome when they arrive, but don't let us stop at that. Don't let us imagine that cheering them and putting them on the back will help them to make a living."
The securing of ordinary employment for returned soldiers is one of the chief objects of the provincial government commissions all possible help, either by offering employment or by sending information as to openings available for returned soldiers.
"We have begun well. We have established a liberal scale of pensions, but that is only a beginning. This country's resources are enormous, but they must be developed, not only to gratify our national pride in big figures of trade and production, but to meet our heavy obligations. Yet we have not a tenth of the population required to develop these resources. We need the help of every man for this development and very few indeed are so disabled that they cannot be of assistance.
"The great majority of the soldiers who return inviolated have fortunately the hope of a long life of useful and happy activity before them. Whether that hope will be realized depends on the treatment and training given them, and on their own willingness to take advantage of that training, both during their convalescence and later on. The Military Hospital Commission, by its thorough organization and the extreme care it takes to help men in this direction according to their individual and varying needs, is doing a splendid work for the men as well as for the country.
"In fact, the importance of that work cannot be too strongly insisted on. The public should be kept constantly informed about it, and should be helped to understand the problems involved, for it is necessary that everyone should assist and co-operate in a great national effort to see that every man gets remunerative employment suited to his ability.
"I have seen something of what is done for our injured men during their stay in England, and I can assure you that the greatest pains are being taken to make it as nearly perfect as possible. This work is being done chiefly through our own Canadian Army Medical Service, but we are extremely grateful for the help so warmly and lavishly given us by the English organizations as well.
"Here is one particularly good arrangement, by the way, that has originated in Canada. I mean the system of giving government allowance to soldiers and their families while the men take the special training that they may need. I believe there is no such provision in England. I can tell our old country friends that Canada is way ahead of them in that matter."
It will be remembered that the federal government, of which Sir George Perley is a member, long ago resolved on a policy of preference for men injured in their country's service. An order-in-council, dated November 27, 1915, declares that returned soldiers, especially disabled soldiers, shall have preference in receiving civil service appointments—subject of course, to each applicant's capacity for the work.

Twelve Points Lead For Bating Honors—Jake Daubert Pressed by Chase in National
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 9.—Tris Speaker drew away slightly from Ty Cobb this week in the race for premier batting honors in the American League, his average after Wednesday's games being twelve points better than his rival's.
In fact, the importance of that work cannot be too strongly insisted on. The public should be kept constantly informed about it, and should be helped to understand the problems involved, for it is necessary that everyone should assist and co-operate in a great national effort to see that every man gets remunerative employment suited to his ability.

Training Canadians For The Air Service

Work of the School Near Toronto - British Authorities Issue Call For Airmen-Canadian Squadron of Battle-Planes Suggested as Gift of Provinces

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—Yesterday Field-Marshal H. H. the Duke of Connaught inspected Canadian aviators, training for the war, at the flying field at Long Branch, near Toronto. Here Canadian aviators are being given the highest class of training. The British authorities have signified that they need more flying men from Canada, and have recently sent here a representative, Lord Innes-Ker, who is an officer of the Royal Flying Corps, to obtain them.

It was pointed out to H. H. that, essential as this arm of the service has grown to be in a miraculously short space of time, yet the carrying out of the objective of the Canadian Aviation Fund had been by no means easy, for the thorough training to meet the wishes of the War Office is very expensive, and also because the necessary high class of instructor is not easily obtained. The Duke of Connaught expressed gratification at the fact that Canadian trained boys are showing themselves capable of handling fast modern machines under their sole control during the process of training.

A large number of prominent persons were present, indicating the endorsement being given to the efforts of the Trustees of the Aviation Fund.

After consultation with Colonel Stanton, (H. R. H.'s Military Secretary, who at that time represented the Royal Flying Corps in Canada), Winnipeg and Vancouver were visited, with a view of promoting the establishment of training schools for aviators under a board of patriotic citizens, and largely through locally subscribed funds. The intention was to visit Halifax also.

Though the public-spiritedness of the government of Manitoba and the city of Winnipeg, a school was virtually arranged for in Winnipeg, but just at this time there came a change of regulations from the War Office, and a tremendous congestion at the Curtis School in Toronto, which, together, led to a feeling of such uncertainty that the Winnipeg project was abandoned, and nothing could be done for the moment, beyond laying a foundation for future action.

Colonel Burke, D. S. O., of the Royal Flying Corps, came to this country from the War Office to relieve the above mentioned congestion, and to acquire information on the general position in Canada. After travelling from one end of Canada to the other, he sent the untrained pupils of the army branch to England, while our Naval Department acted in the same way for the Naval students. Col. Burke then went back to England, taking a suggested basis of training to the War Office, largely made by himself.

The Admiralty have recently asked for one hundred and fifty men from Canada with an Aero Club certificate. Under new regulations just issued there is every reason to believe that these numbers will perhaps be increased, and therefore extra provision for means to properly train Canadians in Canada, in a movement to "help win the war," is urgently needed.

Last year the Canadian Aviation Fund was formed, approved of by His Royal Highness, who is patron, for the purpose of giving aid to the flying line at as early a date as possible through (a) Trained aviators and—if possible—(b) aeroplanes, with the following preliminary trustees:—

Lord Shaughnessy, Montreal, Col. W. H. Merritt, Col. Sir Henry Pellatt, A. C. Dinnick, W. J. Gage, Captain D. A. Cameron, Toronto, Lt.-Col. H. A. Stanton, Ottawa, H. H. Bell-Brigg, Vancouver, and other trustees to be elected as the movement extends.

In order that some immediate action might be taken to meet the wishes of the War Office, the trustees of the fund entered into an agreement with the Curtis Company last May under which the company agree to train five men a month (for three months) as desired by the War Office. The cost for this for each man was $1,000, and the company will add the general cost of office work of the fund and lectures on military and aerial subjects to the students, besides the expense of living incurred by the students during their training which is sometimes verily prolonged, and which, perhaps, in some cases cost of $1,200.

The Dominion government give a bonus of $100 per student accepted into the Royal Flying Corps, and the Imperial authorities a bonus of $375, after the student is accepted as a satisfactory aviator.

The matter of aerial education is so very costly, and the difficulty of obtaining proper machines and really qualified instructors so great, that we have come to the conclusion that it would be advisable to alter the original plan of a chain of local schools and establish a central flying school, where not only land-training but training on hydroplanes can be carried on to the greatest advantage. Moreover, provision should be made for winter training, and sending part, if not all, of the aeroplanes and instructors to a climate where training can be carried on to greater advantage than where heavy frosts, fogs, high winds or much rain prevail.

Experience so far has demonstrated the great advantage it must be to students to receive the more independent instruction given in either a government school or one which is administered by a patriotic board of representative men, without remuneration. We find, for example, that in commercially operated schools, ten men and upwards are placed to a machine while in a recent number of the "Aerial Age" of the United States, shows that the standard advocated by the Aero Club of America is a machine to four men, with another machine in reserve, or one machine to two pupils.

Canadian Air Squadron.

It has been suggested, as a very proper move, that a squadron of ten battle-planes might be presented to the Royal Flying Corps, each bearing the name of a province. The cost of a battle-plane is about $25,000.

While the educating of aviators and the gifts of aeroplanes are two different matters, and need not be associated, yet, the matter of a gift of a Canadian squadron is such a very proper and patriotic move that we think it might very reasonably be taken up as part of one scheme; but if either part is abandoned, for the moment of any rate, it might be pointed out that the urgency, as expressed by the war office, is much more marked in connection with the training of aviators.

NORTHWEST FARM PLAY

"A Farm House Scene in Iceland Thirty Years Ago," was staged by twenty young men and women of Icelandic descent whose homes are in the country districts of North Dakota. The representation was very effective. The scene represented an interior sitting-room of an Icelandic home. The walls were whitewashed; in the rear of the room was a fireplace; the old grandfather was seated in an arm chair near the fireplace reading a story in the Icelandic language. About the room were several young ladies dressed in native costumes, busily engaged in spinning yarn and knitting, a favorite pastime of an Icelandic home. On a chair at the right was a young man with a violin playing selections from an Icelandic composer. Through the small window rays of light were thrown, representing the Midnight Sun and the Northern Lights. Just before the curtain fell, twenty young people, all Icelanders, joined in singing their national song, which has the same tune as "America." The effect of the tableau was far-reaching. The two hundred people who saw it will never forget it.—From "Drama for Rural Communities," by Alfred G. Arvid, in the American Review of Reviews for September, 1916.

The Lake of Xochimilco, near the City of Mexico, is nearly covered with floating gardens called chinampas, on which are cultivated vegetables and flowers for the city markets. They are formed of floating masses of water plants covered with soil and secured by poplar stakes. The latter take root and surround the island with living hedges.

The War Office officially accepted the basis, and it has been confirmed by His Royal Highness that the War Office will take ten men a month to the end of the war, who have an Aero Club certificate, and are then given thirty hours training on fast machines, which the War Office officially states will not only be of assistance to them, but of great benefit to the student in aiding his more rapid promotion in the Royal Flying Corps after joining.

FIRST LET US SAY, since it is relevant at this time, that Reo has not, is not now, and will not be concerned in, or a part of, any merger, combination or consolidation with other automobile concerns.

THE AIR HAS BEEN FULL of rumors of proposed plans for the uniting of several rival concerns for weeks past. The wildest rumors have gained currency and some credence.

ANY CONCERN THAT COULD by its financial standing lend strength; by its organization and experience lend confidence; or by its reputation lend respectability to such a plan, has been mentioned in the gossip.

AND SO REO, THE PIONEER—financially one of the strongest in the world—has been much discussed, much coveted by promoters.

THAT'S WHY WE SAY at this time—and we desire to make it as strong and clear as words can convey—Reo is not and will not be one of these.

REO WILL CONTINUE to do business at the old stand in the old Reo way, striving from day to day to give to Reo buyers just as much of value as our experience and facilities will permit—and that, as you already know, has always been just a little more than you could obtain elsewhere.

WE HAVE NOTHING TO SELL, we Reo folk. Nothing save the legitimate product of our factories.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS—not promoters; Merchandisers—not stock manipulators.

THAT WHICH WE HAVE we prize so highly none other could see the value we'd put on it.

WE HAVE A PERMANENT business—of how many other automobile concerns can that be truly said? That asset—who can inventory—who appraise?

NO: WE HAVE NOTHING TO SAY against such combinations, nor against those who make or who join them. Undoubtedly they are good—for those on the inside.

AS TO THEIR INFLUENCE for good or ill on the trade—or the consumer—time alone can tell. Anyway that question has not been asked, nor that phase considered, apparently—so why should we try to answer it?

WE WILL SAY THIS THOUGH—that the spirit of "I've got mine, so I don't care," which is invariably preceded by "When I get mine, etc."—has, in our opinion, seriously retarded this great industry and lowered the general standard of the product.

TOO FEW HAVE BUILT for permanency—too many alas, for the quick clean-up.

GROOMING A BUSINESS for such a coup involves forcing production to the limit to show paper profits—and the result is a product of mediocre quality at best.

FRANKLY WE DON'T KNOW—we Reo folk—where we could put the money (did we listen to the siren song of the promoter); we don't know where we could reinvest the money with equal safety and with as good prospects for, not larger, but as steady and certain returns permanently. We don't know.

THE REO POLICY IS SUCH: the Reo product is such; Reo reputation is such; that this business is as sound, as permanent, as sure as any other business in the world—in or out of the automobile industry—bar none. It is so regarded by bankers and business men the world over.

ASK YOUR OWN BANKER—he will tell you.

SO WHAT COULD WE GET in return for this business (honestly get, of course) that would be a fair exchange.

THIS BUSINESS WAS CONCEIVED IN PRIDE—and that pride of achievement is its greatest guarantee of quality in the product to you—and of its permanence to us.

THEN THERE'S THAT OTHER ANGLE that some might call foolish sentiment but which we, old fashioned Reo folk, regard most seriously—namely, the obligations we have assumed toward distributors and dealers and buyers of Reo Motor Cars and Motor Trucks.

COULD WE, IN HONOR, entrust to any other the fulfillment of those obligations—and enjoy the money we had received?

WE REO FOLK HOLD that the sale of a car is not the consummation, but only the beginning of a transaction.

TO OUR WAY OF THINKING we assume, at the time we accept the check in payment, an obligation that shall endure so long as that car is in operation.

YOU SEE, WE ARE OLD FASHIONED—very old fashioned, we've been told.

BUT THIS IS AN AD and we should talk business—"hard sold business" in an ad. So we'll say no more on that subject! Leave it to those who are interested in such things—those who have a price.

YOU WANT TO KNOW—everybody always wants to know—what models Reo will make the coming year, and the price of each.

COURSE THERE ARE NO NEW MODELS—new chassis models we mean. You do not look for, do not expect, do not want new chassis models from Reo.

THAT ISN'T THE REO WAY. Refinements—of course. Detail improvements—wherever and whenever we can find a place or a way to make them.

NOTHING RADICALLY NEW is ever offered to Reo buyers. For it isn't new when it gets to you—it has been thoroughly tried and conclusively proven before we let it get into a Reo car.

NEW BODY TYPES—YES—and some that put Reo in the highest class of cars in looks as well as in performance and longevity. We'll treat of each in turn.

REO THE FIFTH COMES FIRST, of course. First not only among Reos, but among motor cars.

FOR THIS IS THE GREATEST automobile ever built, we verily believe.

THIS IS THE SEVENTH SEASON that Reo the Fifth has been standard in practically its present form.

NO: THE PRICE WILL NOT BE CHANGED this season. We will not increase—we cannot lower it.

ACTUAL COST OF MAKING is now more ($50 more) than when the present price, $1225, was set a year ago. And we had made this model so long; had so refined and perfected manufacturing processes; had reached such an high state of efficiency in production; and our dealers' discounts so low that we had, then, reached rock bottom.

IT WAS AN ACHIEVEMENT of the first magnitude to produce such a car and sell it at such a price—$1225, duty paid, f. o. b. Lansing.

TODAY YOU SEE OTHERS increasing prices all along the line. They must do so. They have no choice.

ORDINARY BUSINESS RULES dictate that we also "tit" the price of Reo the Fifth $50 at least.

BUT REO PRIDE PROMPTS that we absorb the extra cost, as we have for months past, and keep the price where it is until conditions will, happily, return to normal.

THE FOUR-CYLINDER ROADSTER—same wonderful chassis, same price, is the smartest thing on wheels—the most popular car in the world among physicians, and all professional and business men. Also $1225.

TO SUPPLY A CROWDING DEMAND for an enclosed body on Reo the Fifth chassis, we have planned to build a limited number. The quality will be Reo—which is to say, excellent. The top is rigidly supported at front and rear. Removable glass panels convert it into a veritable limousine for winter, and these discarded and with jiffy curtains (which are also furnished) it is an ideal summer touring car. The price is $1400.

THE NEW REO SIX will continue in its present popular form—the 7-passenger touring car and the class 4-passenger roadster; and we will make a limited number with Sedan bodies to supply an insistent demand for this type of body on this splendid chassis.

THE PRICE IS REDUCED $100 on the 7-passenger and roadster models. Now $1600, duty paid, f. o. b. Lansing.

NOW YOU WONDER, and naturally, how we can reduce the price of the Reo Six models and not the Four—especially after what we have just told you about the increased cost of production.

SEEMS ILLOGICAL at first blush—doesn't it? But it isn't. For the truth is never illogical. And the truth is that despite the present higher prices of materials and labor still it costs us less to make this six-cylinder model than it did a year ago.

BY THE WAY—there's the greatest possible example of the workings of the Reo plan and its beneficence to buyers. Listen!

SINCE 1912 the price of Reo the Fifth has been reduced nearly $500 by successive stages.

SAME CAR?—No—an infinitely better car—for each year we have incorporated refinements and added equipment as the art has developed.

AND WE TOLD YOU EACH YEAR the reason for the reduction—that we had absorbed a portion of the initial—experimental, tool jig, die and special equipment—cost, and were giving you the benefit.

THIS POPULAR REO SIX is now in its third season. It has passed the same stages through which its great four-cylinder namesake went—initial costs have been absorbed, charged off. And in accordance with that unswerving Reo policy we give the buyer the benefit and set the price at $1600, duty paid, f. o. b. Lansing.

WE WILL MAKE A LOT MORE of those 4-passenger Six Roadsters the coming season. We underestimated the appeal and the demand for this model. It proved one of the most popular Reos ever built.

OUR RECORDS INDICATE that the majority of those who bought Reo Six Roadsters the past season were men who formerly had paid $5000 to $6000 for their cars.

HERE'S A THOUGHT FOR YOU: If you must "count the cost" you can't do better than to follow the lead of the millionaire in the selection of an automobile.

FOR THE MAN WHO CAN "afford to pay any price he likes" for a car, is the very man who doesn't. He insists on real value for his money—and his knowledge of values more often dictates a Reo than any other.

THE SIX SEDAN speaks for itself, though, truth to tell, an illustration does it scant justice.

YOU MUST SEE IT where you can study its artistic lines and faultless finish to fully appreciate this latest Reo which we price at $2350, duty paid, f. o. b. factory.

NOW A WORD ABOUT THE TRUCKS since 90 per cent of all Reo automobile distributors also handle Reo motor trucks.

PRICE OF THE 1500-POUND REO "Speed Wagon" has been reduced to $1425.

SAME REASON—SAME POLICY—reduced cost of manufacture despite higher present cost of materials—as enunciated in speaking of the Reo Six.

NEVER SINCE THE DAY this model was announced—and we made only one general announcement in the whole year—have we been able to supply the demand. Never, though the new Reo Truck plant covers 4 1/2 acres of ground and is running to capacity.

AND THAT TWO-TON REO. What shall we say? What need we say? We submit, it is the greatest 2-Ton motor truck in existence. Has been standard for longer. Has given greater proof of its sturdiness and efficiency and low cost of upkeep.

IF WE ARE TO JUDGE by that over-demand, we may well assume that we could sell all that we could make were the price $3500, instead of $2150.

AND FINALLY A WORD about the big general plan—a brief reiteration of the Reo policy.

WE STILL ADHERE to our determination never to make more Reo cars or trucks than we can make and make every one good.

TEMPTATION IS GREAT of course. Dealers protesting, buyers begging for more Reos. But we know—we know—on what solid foundation this Reo success was built; and we'll jealously guard that policy to the last.

RIGHT NOW—SEPTEMBER—there are more orders on hand at the factories than at any previous time in Reo history. Orders hopefully in excess of factory output—and that also is greater than ever before.

AND RIGHT NOW Reo stands higher in the esteem of buyers and of the trade than ever before.

$30,000,000 PER ANNUM is not small by any means. Reo is in fact one of the largest in point of production. We have no ambition, however, to be the largest. Don't want to make all the automobiles—only the best.

RATHER THAN INCREASE the quantity we shall strive always to improve the quality so that, as the art advances and cars generally improve, still Reo will continue to be known as—"The Gold Standard of Values."

All prices are, duty paid, f. o. b. Lansing, Michigan.

E. S. CARTER EFFECTIVELY ANSWERS HON. J. A. MURRAY

The Patriotic and Belgian Potato Graft; Striking Condemnation of Men Who Took Advantage of Country's Peril

Centerville, Sept. 8.—The answer to Hon. James A. Murray's tirade of abuse of the opposition workers and speakers at Richmond Corner last night was given by E. S. Carter in his speech at a splendid meeting here tonight. The minister of agriculture was answered in detail and such a volume of proof was produced from the official records as to show the patriotic and Belgian potato transaction as in its true light. The part of B. Frank Smith played in this outrageous transaction was shown in detail and the evasions of Minister Murray in the legislature, his denial of facts, his contradictions, were all plainly set forth.

THE GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN OF MISREPRESENTATION

The candidates, Messrs. McCain and Upham, were given a splendid reception and P. J. Veniot, in a comprehensive and telling speech, showed how the present provincial government deserved the condemnation of the people. He ridiculed the falsehoods in the government press, particularly the statement of the two representatives who are here following the campaign and who telegraphed their newspapers that H. M. Blair, former deputy minister of public works, had spoken in the opposition interest at Newburgh and at Northampton, while as a matter of fact Mr. Blair has not spoken at any opposition meeting nor has he been asked to speak. The falsehoods of the government press, the violence of their lead lines and the words placed in the mouths of the members of the government are causing amazement and disgust among their own supporters. It will be remembered how desperate a campaign the government newspapers conducted in the Westmorland by-election and their prediction of 1,000 majority up to polling day. Their predictions regarding Carleton county are equally misleading and untrue. If political passion does not preclude a sober consideration of public affairs the verdict of Carleton county will be like that of Westmorland.

Mr. Carter's Telling Speech

Mr. Carter spoke as follows: A great deal has been said from time to time about one of the most scandalous transactions in the history of our provincial government.

I refer to the abuse of the loyalty of the people of New Brunswick, which splendid feeling towards the empire and the motherland prompted our government representative of the king, to issue special warrants authorizing the expenditure of $100,000 to express that loyalty and at the same time to succor and relieve the starving and suffering Belgians.

GRAVE CHARGES REPEATED

I charge that that feeling of loyalty was used to make a profit and to cover overcharges, particularly for B. Frank Smith and his business associates and political interests. I further charge that the responsibility for this rests upon the government of the day and especially upon B. Frank Smith, now a member of the government, and Hon. James A. Murray, minister of agriculture, and his deputy, J. B. Daggett.

I also charge that the large sum of money authorized by the governor was lavishly spent and much of it was wasted; that false information and deceptive answers were given in the legislature from time to time to mislead the people; that the accounts of the province were held open for nearly two months to close the potato account and to receive money for sales of potatoes; that had been made and were paid for from eight to ten months previously.

I charge further that thousands of barrels of these potatoes bought and paid for by the people of New Brunswick to succor suffering Belgians were permitted to rot in the warehouses of St. John or were peddled around the streets of that city—sold for a mere scrap of value and were not hauled to the hog pens in Lancaster or eventually shipped to Cuba and taken from port to port in the West Indian market to find a sale.

I charge that B. Frank Smith took advantage of a letter of credit given by the bank at Florenceville by his friend, the deputy minister, J. B. Daggett, to ship thousands of barrels of potatoes more than were asked for to be paid for by the first warrant of $75,000 and that eighteen carloads of these potatoes arrived at St. John in a condition unfit for handling and shipment, being heated and soft, and were rejected by the inspector, Leslie Slipp.

I further charge in connection with this that Deputy J. B. Daggett and B.

THE REAL FRIEND IN A LARGE BOTTLE

The greatest friend to sick people is the one that helps them toward health. But nearly every human friend had herefore suggested a different means of regaining lost health due to nervousness, overwork, debility and worry. Now there are dozens of friends right here in your own town who will agree that the best friend to their health is Zest—the health tonic. This already famous remedy for "nerves" and their consequent ailments is a combination of glyceric phosphates—the actual elements of the human body—with Cod Liver Oil and a delicious tonic wine. A short two weeks of faithful trial will put you fair and square upon the path of bounding health. We know this so absolutely that if you cannot report real progress at the end of that time we will refund the purchase price. You who suffer and suffer and suffer should not delay beyond today. E. Clinton Brown, Sole Distributing Agent.

The Best of Health and Spirits

Who could ask for greater blessings! And yet almost every one may enjoy both if they take the precaution to observe the ordinary rules of health.

Keep the bowels regular—never allow Constipation to become a habit. Many people are miserable in mind and body because of chronic Constipation. They are really poisoning themselves—because the waste matter which remains so long in the body, poisons the stomach, the kidneys and the blood.

A teaspoonful of Abbey's Effervescent Salt in a tumbler of warm water, daily, corrects Constipation—regulates the bowels—keeps the kidneys

For Sale by E. Clinton Brown, Druggist, 217 Union Street.

Frank Smith insisted on these rejected potatoes being received and they were taken into the warehouses and were largely lost, but that no refund was made by Smith or others for this loss.

There is not a word or a line in the auditor-general's report for either 1914 or 1915 to show that B. Frank Smith either refunded one cent or one dollar or related his profit of ten cents per barrel on 15,946 barrels—the so-called "surplus stock"—he shipped over and above the first order.

I charge that because of this greed of Smith and his business associates, A. C. Smith & Co., to make profit of the loyalty of the people and their haste to ship potatoes so early that they rotted, the poor people of Belgium—the starving children of the men and women who had sacrificed their lives, their homes and their country to save England and France from the horrors of the Germans—were deprived of that food and assistance so necessary to them.

Had the people of New Brunswick depended upon the men they trusted, upon the government they trusted, upon the great majority, Belgium would have had much more help from this province.

investigate beside Mr. Chandler, had the minister been ready and eager to make all the facts public. We have some light thrown upon this—some information as to Minister Murray's course of action at this time by the statement of a colleague of his, Hon. Mr. Morrissey, who sat at the council board with Mr. Murray, who knew what was going on and who was a close friend of Hon. Dr. Landry's.

Hon. Mr. Morrissey writing to Premier Clarke said: Again, the refusal of Mr. Chandler to investigate the purchase of patriotic potatoes, which we all know was mixed with people and exorbitance—and no less a person than the Hon. Provincial Secretary himself told me at the meeting of the government in the city of St. John in December last, that the books of the province had not been closed because, forsooth, the Hon. Mr. Murray, minister of agriculture, had told him that the books were not closed.

And do you further recall, Mr. Premier, that your colleague, Hon. Mr. Murray, said to Dr. Landry, "For God's sake don't tell Morrissey of the same government. They sat at the same council board and if they want to call each other lies that is their business. But I want to tell you that I would prefer the word of John Morrissey to that of a man who said that 'in his country when road foremen swore to their accounts they did not 'Kiss the Book'." Must Share Responsibility.

Yes, Mr. Chairman, Hon. James A. Murray must share the responsibility with B. Frank Smith for a transaction which touches the honor of the people of New Brunswick; which casts a grave reflection upon the people who have sacrificed their blood, their money and their goods in these hours of the empire's trial. As for Mr. Smith, he led the legislature that Mr. Daggett received the money. If he did so, I ask him why did not the auditor-general make plain to the people by plain English the plain facts of another rebate item. In his report (page 202) he says: Less received from R. Railway for rebate on demurrage charge $602.50.

Now, if B. Frank Smith paid back this money as he said he did, why did not the auditor-general say so? Dear Sir, Mr. B. Frank Smith for rebate on culls, etc., $2,400.

Mr. Smith says also that he paid back profits of something over one thousand dollars, but the auditor-general was unable to find any receipts for them and the present minister of public works, who is seeking your votes, has written Mr. Daggett for a receipt of having paid back one cent of patriotic or Belgian potato profit.

But the auditor-general has a coat of whitewash. In the report of the public accounts committee it is stated that Mr. Daggett "appeared before the committee and explained every transaction." That report is signed by Mr. Daggett, the Hon. Mr. Murray, York of Southampton railway fame; by George B. Wones, M. P. P., who himself is a member of the committee; by Mr. Murray; by Harry W. Wood, M. P. P., who is the government whip and Daggett's ally; and by G. Leverett York from Carleton at the time of the Guthrie by-election, and by G. Leverett York, who is the government whip and Daggett's ally.

Now would you expect that committee to do justice to the people of Belgium? Mr. Smith claims that the report of this committee makes him white as snow. Well, he likes that particular brand of whitewash he is welcome to it.

People Not Satisfied. But the people have not been satisfied and never will be until the "explanations" as Mr. Daggett gives and such certificates of character as Hon. Mr. Murray is handing out to his present colleague, Hon. Mr. Smith.

Does Mr. Murray remember his frantic statements in the legislature when inquiries were made in the legislature in 1915 about the patriotic potato business? Does he not remember saying, "Smith had ruined him. That he had taken advantage of a government letter of credit and had flooded the government with potatoes? And does the minister remember what he said afterwards?

It was about this time that Hon. Mr. Murray was busy denying in the legislature that any authority had been given any person to make drafts in connection with the purchase of the potatoes.

But the very moment when he did so the letters in his department showed how false were these statements. It was not until a year later that these letters were produced, but "truth will out," and let me read you some proof.

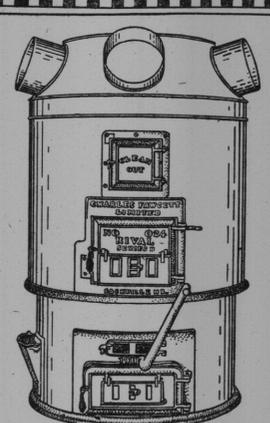

On Sept. 15, 1914, J. B. Daggett wrote to the bank at East Florenceville as follows: The Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, East Florenceville.

Dear Sir, The Department of Agriculture will accept drafts made by B. Frank Smith, of Florenceville, upon this department, for thirty-five cars of potatoes when drafts are accompanied by invoice and bill of lading covering each individual car. (Signed) J. B. DAGGETT, Secretary for Agriculture for Province of New Brunswick.

On the following day a letter was sent by Secretary Daggett to B. Frank Smith which refers to the acceptance of drafts, as follows: Confirming our conversation and understanding of yesterday I have given instructions to the Bank of Nova Scotia that I will accept drafts made upon me here for thirty-five (35) cars of potatoes, bill of lading to accompany each draft.

That letter distinctly gives authority to make drafts which Hon. Mr. Murray denied in the legislature last session.

Putting It Up to Murray. Now, Mr. Chairman, there has been much said about false statements and insinuations in connection with this potato transaction by both Hon. Mr. Smith and Hon. Mr. Murray. You will please bear in mind that the letters I have just read were written in September, 1914, and yet in the following winter, in the legislature of this province, Hon. Mr. Murray stood in his place in the assembly chamber and gave the following answers to questions prepared by me and asked him by Mr. Dugal: Q.—Was there a letter of credit given by the department of agriculture ment in connection with the purchase of patriotic or the Belgian potato, or for both?

Q.—Is so, to whom was it given and how was it worded? A.—Answered by answer to question No. 1.

Q.—To what extent were funds advanced upon this letter of credit by what bank, and where? A.—Answered by answer to question No. 1.

In the face of that correspondence and these letters I ask you who was the liar, Hon. James Murray or B. E. Carter?

Another From Mr. Daggett. But to make assurance doubly sure, let me read you another letter of Mr. Daggett to the bank manager.

September 21, 1914. The Manager Bank of Nova Scotia, East Florenceville (N. B.). Dear Sir, Mr. B. Frank Smith advises me that he has now shipped thirty-five cars of potatoes as specified in my letter of recent date. You may continue accepting invoices when accompanied by bill of lading from Mr. Smith and we will accept the drafts here until I advise you otherwise.

When writing Mr. Smith today, asking that drafts be made at ten days as that will give us ample time for cars to arrive at St. John and the necessary inspection.

I am, Yours very truly, J. B. DAGGETT, Secretary for Agriculture.

This was a pretty large order. Daggett said, "Continue accepting Smith's drafts until I advise you otherwise." and Smith rushed in all the potatoes he could until on October 6 Mr. Daggett wrote "Mr. Smith has filled his order for potatoes. You will kindly cancel arrangements made in my letter of recent date re drafts from Mr. Smith."

Do not imagine that we obtained this information without an effort. Every possible way was taken to block us. In 1915 Mr. Daggett was sick. I know he was in the hospital with an attack of appendicitis but he recovered quickly and was able to sit up and see many visitors, particularly his friend, Mr. Smith, and there was no reason in the world why Hon. Mr. Murray could not have procured all the facts from him just as readily in 1915 as in 1916.

"Sickness" Excuse. There are times, Mr. Chairman, when public men are honestly ill and unable to attend the public business, but we have had some examples of ill health which make us suspicious, perhaps when the allegations of indisposition are really correct.

I will not enter into details for it is not necessary, but this "sickness" excuse seems to be quite a favorite. I remember when Premier Flemming was charged with grave offences by Mr. Dugal he became suddenly too ill to attend to public business, but he retained pretty good health for another year. He was in fairly robust health in January, 1915, able to take part in the by-election campaign and I was surprised to read a day or two ago that the opposition were pursuing him when he was at the point of death. Why, the pursuit was over, and Mr. Flemming did not lose his health until he was convinced of the treachery of his friend, Mr. Frank Smith, who took his federal patronage away from him.

The pursuit of Flemming by Smith is one of the blackest cases of political ingratitude I have ever heard of. To desert a friend who has always stood by you is a crime that few people forgive but in addition to go into another county as Smith went into Westmorland and throw down the man who had made him, saying, "Flemming did very wrong but the government cleaned house," that is an assumption of superiority that does not sit well on Mr. Smith. The political sins of Mr. Flemming have been dealt with by a royal commission and it does not lie in the mouth of Hon. Mr. Smith to say one word about his former colleague and premier.

I must not leave this "sickness" excuse without recalling Premier Clarke's suggestion to Harry M. Blair, another deputy minister, and farmers filled the bags with oats and their agricultural societies saw that they were shipped and the province did not pay a cent and thus, out of the love of the people for the Motherland, the gift was given.

Political Gift Here. But here in New Brunswick the appeal of stricken suffering Belgium was the signal for greed, for political profit, for political gain. It was left for our government to permit this shame to be laid at New Brunswick and to be under the fearful responsibility of permitting overcharges, mismanagement and greed to interfere with the charity of our people and the relief of the children of Belgium. Do you know while these politicians were lining their pockets with dollars, your children were giving their brave and unselfish little ones of a brave and unselfish country? Do you know that the appeal was made in every hamlet, in every home in the world, to save these orphans from starvation and in no place that has ever been heard of was there any graft but New Brunswick? I have here a drawing of a great artist showing a sorry stricken Belgian gift there was not a suspicion of graft. That province simply gave a large sum in cash and no member of its legislature made a dollar out of the transaction. Prince Edward Island gave freely of her patriotism. The little island sent 100,000 bushels of oats, and how do you think they did it? The government supplied the bags, but not a cent, not a dollar, and these bags were left at the railway station and the farmers filled the bags with oats and their agricultural societies saw that they were shipped and the province did not pay a cent and thus, out of the love of the people for the Motherland, the gift was given.

Auditor's Report 1914. B. Frank Smith, for potatoes, $98,728.10. A. C. Smith & Co., sorting, 12,072.00. Insurance, etc., 288.75. Total, $111,088.85.

Auditor's Report 1915. B. Frank Smith, for potatoes, $18,098.85. A. C. Smith & Co., for bagging, 10,689.20. A. C. Smith, for sorting, 18,618.32. Insurance, bags, etc., 288.75. Total, $47,695.12.

Total for 1914-1915, $104,718.37. You will notice from the above that nearly $28,000 of this amount was spent for "bagging" and "sorting" which makes the charge for this work between 85 and 40 cents per barrel.

This, Mr. Chairman, is a county which exports large quantities of potatoes and I wonder what your growers would think if they were called upon to pay 85 or 40 cents a barrel for sorting and bagging potatoes. Do not make any mistake. This charge of over $28,000 for "sorting and bagging" does not include the cost of the bags or the barrels. They cost $16,258.92 in addition to the sorting cost of over $28,000.

Messrs. Kennelly and Wetmore, of St. John, both told me that they offered to do this work for the government for fifteen cents per barrel and they frankly said that they would then be making more than an ordinary profit. They also told me that the cost of barreling the Belgian potatoes sent into the Belgian committee at St. John had been four cents and the committee had paid them six cents.

Think of it for one minute, Mr. Chairman. I calculate there was a difference between what the Belgian committee paid Kennelly & Wetmore and what the government paid A. C. Smith & Co. of about thirty cents a barrel and figuring on 68,000 barrels bought there was a clear rake-off of about $20,400.

It cost the Belgian relief committee at Fredericton seven cents a barrel to sort and get their goods ready to send overseas, but the politicians and their friends, B. Frank Smith and his associates, not only had a profit on our loyalty and our generosity but we were over-charged to the extent of $20,000 by the men who sorted and bagged our gift.

The people of this province realize, I think, by this time, that not only was their generosity thwarted but their intention to relieve Belgium quickly and effectively were nullified by the greed and graft of the political plunderers.

When Nova Scotia gave her patriotic and children grieving children and this is another by an equally famous artist showing a Belgian home and the widow and children grieving for a father killed by the Germans, while standing fighting for England and Canada and preventing the Hun from being victorious before we were ready. What do you think of men who would profit and graft upon the need and suffering of such as these?

New Brunswick has had much to be proud of since 1912 when J. K. Flemming took over the premiership, but of all the investigations and disclosures of graft and dishonesty none has, in the opinion of thinking men, disgraced her so much as the graft and greed in connection with these patriotic and Belgian gifts.

WAR NOW FORCED ON GREECE

Those Who Favored Neutrality Accept The Conflict With Full Confidence

(By Adamantios Th. Polyziodes.)
New York, Sept. 1, 1916.
To the Editor of The New York Times:
From among the many reports that with more or less delay succeed in reaching us from Greece, one contradicting the other in many instances, one thing appears to be clear, and that is the nation-wide resentment of the Bulgarian invasion into Eastern Macedonia. Had it not been for that Greece would be willing to continue a neutral policy, at least till next spring, at which time the demobilized reserves would have had a much needed rest after ten months of camp and barracks life, and would also have the opportunity of strengthening their home and business affairs, which were neglected to the detriment and the suffering of the entire population of the country. Also, the classes of 1916 and 1918 now being called to the colors would have every chance to get ready for field service, thus strengthening the army by no less than 75,000 to 100,000 first-class troops.

Greece for a whole year has been watching the Teuton and Bulgar movements on her frontiers without getting much comfort from what she saw going on there. Germany, to be sure, made every promise to Greece to exercise all her influence on Bulgaria in the latter's military activities on the Greek border. Thus Berlin assured Athens that Monastir would never be occupied by a German or Bulgar force, thus proving that the two comrades at arms recognized Greek rights to a city which was Serbian only by right of conquest. Teuton diplomacy went even as far as to promise Monastir, with half of Albania, to Greece, provided she kept neutral for all the period of the war. It was then that Greece assured the Central Empires that, although not fighting, she considered herself an ally of Serbia, and therefore could not, under any circumstances, trade her neutrality in consideration of Serbian lands or even Albanian territory. Greece asked only one thing of Germany, and this was to keep the Bulgars out of Greek territory, and if possible to afford protection to the Greek element persecuted by systematic thoroughness by the Turks both in Thrace and in Asia Minor.

Monastir was taken by the Germans early last November, and the news created a great sensation all over Greece. Berlin, however, assured the Greek government that the occupation of that city was dictated by reasons of military necessity, and, in order to avoid hurt-

ONE MAN'S TALE OF THE BIG PUSH

They were doing things along the Somme; the Teuton forces were being pushed slowly back toward the distant frontier. But all the pushing meant that men and men were dying, and men and men were being sent back to the hospital to recuperate for more of the dusty, bloody work. A Scotsman, wounded in the campaign for Pozieres, gives, according to the London Telegraph, a graphic and characteristic picture of the battling. We read:

"Eh, min, it was hell, but it was grand. We've got a move on at last, and are paying the Huns out. For over a week our guns have been letting 'em at them. Talk about the German gas in the early days of the war, they are not in it now. I was in the retreat from they were sure to find only a slight Serbian resistance, with no one else to oppose them.

The attitude of the Greek frontier lasted invaders eloquently for the sentiments of the entire Greek nation in face of the Bulgarian advance. Greek intervention loomed large for a moment. In vain the diplomats of the Central Powers tried to convince the Zaimis government that occupation by the Bulgarian troops of Greek territories would not be permanent. Greek public opinion would not listen to any Teuton guarantees. What was worse was immediate withdrawal of the German as well as Bulgarian forces from the Hellenic lands, and this seemed impossible in the eyes of the Berlin and Sofia governments. A peculiar situation arose for the Zaimis ministry, which under no circumstances would act as a war ministry. And in the midst of this turmoil Roumanian intervention on the side of the Allies came unexpectedly and threw the whole of Greece into the wildest excitement. The Greek people in a moment understood that there was no time for neutrality any longer. If Bulgaria was to pay for her arrogance, this was the time, and if Greece was to preserve not only her independence, but her prestige as well, this was the only chance left her after two years of hesitation.

Premier Zaimis has wisely decided that in case of going to war on the side of the Entente there was a more expeditious way to take the country through the new enterprise, and this is Venizelos, the man who could muster 80,000 men under his balcony in University avenue and who has the absolute confidence and support of the Entente.

Now Venizelos is in full control of the situation, and Greece may look forward confident of her future.

"I got my packet Friday night," he added, referring to his wounds. "We were pushed up to our front line trenches early Friday morning. Long before daybreak the guns were at it worse than ever. The noise fair drove some fellows deaf, but the worst of all was waiting in the trenches for the order to charge. When that came we were over the top like a lot of dogs let loose. The ground was churned up for miles, and the front of the German trenches simply smashed to bits. We got there under cover of smoke, and fairly rolled in. I shall never forget the sight. The Germans were lying heaped up in all directions, and those who were alive showed no fight, but appeared to have gone 'clean potty'."

"Further on we got into the supports which had received a terrific smashing about, and it was there we had the scrap. At the last moment it seemed
