MONCTON.

Death of Joshua Ward—Wm. Rogers Is Not Dead.

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 28.—Joshua Ward, private secretary to G. H. Joughins, mechanical superintendent of the Intercolonial, died last night, after ten days' illness of typhoid. The immediate cause of death was hemorrhage of the bowels. The deceased was 51 years of age and leaves a widow and four children. He belonged to Moncton, where the body will be taken tonight. He was a member of Beaver Lodge of Oddfellows in this city.

The report published about a month ago of the death of Wm. Rogers of Henry Mills, Moncton, parish, from an accident at Albert, Northwest Territories, is denied by Rogers himself, who writes from Lower La. Berge, Yukon territory, to a friend in Moncton. Rogers is connected with the mounted police, and is in good health.

DEUTSCHLAND BEATS RECORD.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The Imperial German and United States mail twin screw express steamer Deutschland arrived in port early today with a new record for her route. This trip was made from Hamburg to New York in 12 hours and 23 minutes, a distance of 3,045 miles, at an average speed of 23 knots per hour. This is the quickest eastward trip in point of time and over the shortest route, although there was some delay on the banks of Newfoundland owing to fog and the presence of many fishing vessels. Among her passengers was Walter J. Kingsley, who, it is said, comes to be $5,000 on the Shamrock for Mr. Pearson of legacy fame.

A FATAL COLLAPSE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—By the collapse today of the three story building at No. 100 Bloomfield street, Hoboken, one man is known to have been killed, another man is missing and a woman was taken from the ruins badly injured. The lower part of the building was occupied by a saloon and the person known to have been killed was an old man who used to do odd chores about the place. The bar-tender is missing and it is thought his body is in the ruins. Helena Burnett, who occupied rooms on the top floor of the building was seriously injured.

GRAIN RATES ADVANCED.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Two important meetings of traffic officials were held here yesterday and as a result it was finally decided that all grain rates should be advanced October 21st to the following figures: Chicago to New York for domestic use 17-1/2 cents 100 pounds for export, 16 cents. The present rate for both domestic and export is 15 cents. Export wheat from Kansas City to Gulf ports 15 cents per hundred pounds, seven cents to Mississippi River, and ten to Chicago. This was practically a restoration of all traffic rates.

HE DRANK AND DIED.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 28.—A stranger who gave his name as James Campbell put up at a lodging house on Front street several days ago and was apparently well supplied with money and drank heavily. He was found dead in his room yesterday, and the coroner's examination disclosed that the man had died from acute gastritis, due to some irritant poison. The police are investigating.

FREDERICTON.

Death of John Harvey—Excursion from Houlton.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 28.—John Harvey, the well known photographer, died today. He had been ill for a year. Heart disease was the immediate cause of death. He leaves a widow, daughter of the late James Fleming, and two children. His widowed mother and three sisters also survive. The latter are Mrs. A. G. Thomas of this city, Miss Annie Harvey of the Model school staff, and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Kingston, Ont. He was a very popular citizen, and a member of the Knights of Pythias.

An excursion of Foresters from Houlton arrived here today with a band. Some return home today, but quite a number will remain till tomorrow.

MONUMENT FOR PARNELL.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—John Redmond, M. P., in a letter to the Irish papers today, formally announces that he has concluded a preliminary contract with Augustus St. Gaudens, the Irish-American sculptor, for the Parnell monument at a cost of forty thousand dollars. The work is to be completed within five years. Only three thousand dollars have as yet been subscribed. Mr. Redmond expresses a hope of being ultimately able to purchase Avondale County Wicklow, the Parnell family residence.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor, Jr., Bridge street, last evening was celebrated the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor. About fifty relatives and friends sat down at supper and a very happy evening was spent. Albert Taylor, on behalf of the family, presented the venerable couple with a purse of gold. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were both in excellent health, and received warm congratulations on having reached the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Taylor is a daughter of the late James Reynolds, who was the first male child born at St. John after the landing of the Loyalists.

FREAR'S FRIVOILITIES.

This world-renowned entertainer will be presented at the Opera house on Tuesday and Wednesday next. Mr. Frear has had the honor of appearing in his "Frivolities" before more crowned heads than any other entertainer in the world, amongst them His Majesty King Edward, the King of Spain, and the Sultan of Turkey, who, in addition to paying Mr. Frear $250 decorated him with the gold medal of "Fine Arts" at Yildiz Palace, Constantinople, in November last. He is the only English artist who has ever received the honor of appearing before his majesty, and from the press opinions of the numerous countries visited he has not only received the very highest encomiums possible to bestow but he has broken all previous records for crowded houses in some dozen or more cities, and it is to be hoped that St. John will not prove the least remunerative, it being the first city in Canada visited by the famous show.

A SAIL UP RIVER.

Fred. D. Miles today takes a party of friends, consisting of about a hundred and twenty-five ladies and gentlemen, on a sail up the river, on the Flushing. In the evening the party will enjoy a moonlight sail on the river, coming back to downtown about eleven o'clock.

NEW YORK'S HOT CAMPAIGN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The conference committee of the Citizen's Union will meet tonight to select six candidates for each of the nominations for mayor, controller and president of the board of aldermen of New York. This meeting will open what undoubtedly will be one of the most interesting campaigns ever waged in this city.

It may be interesting to note that out of a total of 671 arrests made by the police since January 1st, 33 have been made on Sunday. Of these 13 were Chinamen, who were arrested on a warrant for gambling; four were taken on other warrants, and of the other eight o'clock in the morning, and fore eight o'clock in the morning, and were the usual Saturday night drunks who had managed to evade the police. This leaves only 11 who could reasonably be supposed to have purchased liquor on Sunday.

Col. Gregory and his father, Mr. Justice Gregory, of New Brunswick, returned from the Sound yesterday.—Victoria Colonist, Aug. 23.

AWFUL DISASTER.

Eleven Dead, One Missing and Thirty-Two Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—Eleven known dead, one missing and 32 injured, is the record made by the explosion of the boilers of the steamboat City of Trenton on the Delaware river yesterday afternoon. All night long city firemen, policemen, and employees of the Wilmington Steamboat company, which owned the vessel, worked in and around the burned and blackened hull, searching for bodies of victims. Hundreds of men are dragging the river bottom with grappling irons today, and they will continue to do so until every person is accounted for. Of the 11 bodies that have been recovered ten have been identified.

The identified are: John P. Chew of Camden, N. J.; assistant engineer of the City of Trenton; Miss Elizabeth Green, Philadelphia, crushed to death; William Dunn, Philadelphia, a passenger; Arthur Lansing, 14 years old, Trenton, N. J.; James O'Connell, fireman, Philadelphia; Mott Mable, fireman, Philadelphia; August Mable, deck hand, Philadelphia; James Graham, Trenton, N. J.; engineer; William H. Keen, Philadelphia, passenger; James McCormick, Wilmington, Del., passenger. The unidentified body is so badly burned that its sex cannot be determined. Among the missing are Miss Ethel Stokes of Trenton and Miss Helen Bries, daughter of former mayor John Bries, of Trenton.

According to the statement of the widow of the dead assistant engineer, John P. Chew, the man had a presentiment of death. Mrs. Chew says that before leaving home for work on Tuesday night, her husband said: "Lizzie, I may never see you again. I have a presentiment that there will be an explosion on the boat. If there is there will be no escape for me. They are running at 100 high a steam pressure, and if an accident should occur I and many others will be killed."

Of the thirty-two injured persons taken to the hospital attached to the Philadelphia House of Correction, all are reported doing well today, and it is not now believed that any of them will die.

Augustus Reinhart, an expert machinist employed by the Neale and Levy Shipbuilding Co., builder of the City of Trenton, recently overhauled the boat's boilers. He said today that there was no doubt in his mind that the explosion had been due to the exhaustion of the water in the boilers.

STEEL STRIKE UNCHANGED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 28.—Simon Burns, who arrived here today, announced that his plan for settling the steel strike by arbitration had been rejected by President Shaw of the United States Steel Corporation.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 28.—The strike continues quiet and devoid of interesting features. While the strikers express satisfaction with the prevailing conditions, the steel corporation is slowly, but steadily increasing its forces at the plants already in operation and preparing to open more mills. The report that the Amalgamated lodges were voting on a peace proposition was denied by Mr. Shafter, who said:

"There has been no vote of any kind taken by us. The lodges may have taken votes on their own account, but none has been ordered since the strike started, and no vote has been taken by the executive board."

Speaking of the reported meeting at Milwaukee, called for next Sunday night, he said: "I know nothing of the proposed meeting. The Bay View men can meet whenever they want to. The situation," continued Mr. Shafter, "is unchanged."

HE'S TOO BRITISH.

DENVER, Colo., August 28.—News has reached here that a mob has burned the remaining buildings belonging to William Radcliffe at Grand Mesa Lakes. It was the burning of the house at this place recently by a mob that caused Mr. Radcliffe to call on Governor Orman for troops to protect his property, and also caused the report that Radcliffe had appealed to the British government for its protection, claiming to be a subject of Great Britain. The trouble, it is said, began when one of Mr. Radcliffe's guards killed a ranchman in a controversy over the right to fish in the lakes. Since then all the buildings on Radcliffe's place, including the fish hatchery, have been destroyed by mobs.

A JOCKEY KILLED.

CARBONDALE, Illinois, Aug. 28.—Charles Hodges, a jockey from Vienna, riding the horse Mince, owned by Jack West, of Popular Bluff, Mo., was killed yesterday, together with the horse. The run was half a mile, and the bunch of five horses were within a few feet of the wire when Mince suddenly fell, breaking its neck and throwing the rider headlong fully thirty feet. Hodges died soon afterwards.

BRITON AND SPANIARD.

MADRID, August 28.—While the British fleet in Spanish waters was manoeuvring today a torpedo which had been launched, stranded on the shore in front of La Linea. A party of men-of-war was sent to recover it, but were prevented from doing so by a detachment of Spanish cabiniers. The landing party, strongly reinforced from the fleet, overpowered the cabiniers and took the torpedo.

ENGLISH VIEW OF CANADA.

An Eloquent Tribute to the Greatness of This Country.

(London Spectator.)
The colonies, thank heaven! have ceased to be meaningless terms for most Englishmen. We see them as already nations, mature and self-conscious for all their youth, following their own ideals and civilizations, but inseparably linked to us by blood and tradition. At home in England we can have no sense of geographical possession. We are a great nation, but our land is a mere incident in our power. But in the colonies wide ambitions are joined literally and directly with wide territories, there is room to move and breathe and expand; and they can see, growing up in their sight, the palpable evidence of their power. He must be a dull man, indeed, whose spirit is not fired by the consideration of the oldest, most populous, and most mature of our colonies.

Canada has always seemed something apart from the others, with more of the old European culture, more loyal, descended, more northern, and so in some ways more akin to ourselves. The stock of her population was drawn from our best—the hardy, thrifty settler who went out to clear the forest, the hunter and the speculator, the hunter and the speculator.

WATER AND SEWERAGE.

At the meeting of the water and sewerage board yesterday, it was decided in regard to the supply of water at the new I. C. R. pier, that the railway lay the pipes and pay 1 cent per one hundred gallons. The following contract tenders were recommended: 25 tons Calcutta mine at $3.60; 15 tons Old Mine Sydney, at $5.10; 15 tons mine Calcutta at $3.60, R. P. & W. F. Starr; 10 chaldrons Grand Lake coal, $4, J. S. Gibbon & Co. It was decided to supply the residents of Harding street, Fairville, with water. Seven new catch basins will be put in in different parts of the town. The board declined to make any reduction in E. J. Neve's water assessment. Thos. Casey's petition for the extension of the Chesley street sewer, was filed. Other letters also were filed.

Mr. Low was about 40 years old and leaves a widow.

Five Criminal Cases on the Docket.

Four True Bills Found—The Grand Jury Will Deal With the Torryburn Case This Afternoon.

The county court opened this morning. His Honor Judge Forbes presided. The number of cases on the criminal docket brought an exceptionally large attendance of spectators. In all there were five of these cases, the largest number on the docket for some time.

The members of the grand jury are: James R. Woodburn (foreman), Stephen S. DeForest, John Edgcombe, Theodore H. Bataillon, Henry Pinnigan, Frank H. Fiewelling, J. Spencer Gibbon, William H. Nease, Henry D. Mott, J. S. Thorne, S. J. Richey, George A. Horton, Andrew Blair, Miles E. Agnew, Charles S. Everett, James E. Stanton, Frank Rogers, William B. Wallace, Edwin J. Nelson, James B. Gillespie, Joshua E. Cowan, Thomas Dowling, Blair McLaughlin, William Nobles.

The petit jury are: Robert B. Gilmore, Wellington Green, Henry Dolan, John P. McGrory, Alex. M. Fisher, James W. Smith, Douglas Austin, Walter Amland, George A. Chamberlain, Henry R. Coleman, Thomas A. Dunlop, Robert McConnell, Jr., John P. Maloney, James A. Kelly, Stephen A. Morrell, Samuel Walters, Charles E. Belyea, J. R. Vanwart, James Burns, Thomas Ritchie, S. B. Falkins.

His Honor Judge Forbes thanked the members of the grand jury for their attendance. He was pleased to be able to say that there was nothing of a very serious character to come before them, although there was considerable criminal business. The duties of the grand jury are so well known to you that it is unnecessary for me to explain them. The first case is that of the King v. John Devine and G. B. Leitch. There are some peculiarities about this case. There are three counts on this indictment. It appears that these parties broke into Ada Wilson's house, demanded money, and by threats obtained it. While there they broke several articles of furniture. The question as to whether this house is a reputable one does not enter into this matter at all. If you believe the evidence before you will be no difficulty in finding a true bill. The next case is that of the King v. Frank Roberts. The evidence in this case is very slim and purely circumstantial. It appears that he went out to Bertha Lake's house, and when he left the proprietress of the house missed $45. The third case is that of the King v. Thos. Murray. This is a more serious case. It seems that the prisoner broke into a house, stole some property, and then fled. He is charged with being a dangerous character. The fourth case is that of the King v. Frank Roberts. The evidence in this case is very slim and purely circumstantial. It appears that he went out to Bertha Lake's house, and when he left the proprietress of the house missed $45. The fifth case is that of the King v. Thos. Murray. This is a more serious case. It seems that the prisoner broke into a house, stole some property, and then fled. He is charged with being a dangerous character.

The next case is the most serious of all, the King v. Frank O'Neill, Frank Connolly, M. Daley and E. Doherty. These men are charged with an attack on a policeman at Torryburn. The evidence of Campbell, the chief sufferer, is very clear and positive. The men who came up for trial should thank God that they are not here to answer for a more serious crime. If there is one thing in the guard's protection of the law it is the guard's of our homes and the peace, and the community should know that a man who lifts his hand against a policeman is a public enemy, and a dangerous character. It is your duty to stand around him and safeguard. You will have no difficulty in finding a true bill in this case.

The grand jury then retired. The petit jury were allowed to go until tomorrow morning at ten.
The grand jury, after being out for some time, brought in true bills in the first four cases. Adjournment was then made until three o'clock, when the witnesses in the Torryburn case will be examined by the grand jury. The docket is:
Criminal Docket.
The King v. John Devine and Gilbert Leitch—breaking and entering.
The King v. Frank O'Neill—stealing.
The King v. Thos. Murray—stealing.
The King v. William Purcell—gratuitous bodily harm.
The King v. Frank O'Neill, Frank Connolly, M. Daley, and E. Doherty—Michael Daley—gratuitous bodily harm.
Civil Docket.
Non-jury.
1. Thomas Drummond v. James L. Morris—Chapman v. Tilley.
2. Enoch Thompson v. Zeoulon E. Corey—Silas Alward.
3. John W. McDuffee v. G. W. Gerow—D. Mullin.
Jury Docket.
1. James H. Gould v. John Barrett and Alice M. Barrett—G. H. V. Belyea.
Thos. B. Brown, Olsson D. Reid and Christopher McDade have formed a partnership to carry on the business of horsehoofing, carriage making and general blacksmithing near the Marsh bridge. See advt.

In connection with the incident mentioned a day or two ago in the Star about some goods being shipped to a merchant at Westfield, the different merchants who shipped the goods, Vase & Co., C. & E. MacMichael, and McAvity & Sons, recovered their shipments at Gagetown and had them brought back to the city. The consignees tried to Josh them, but they had little trouble in foiling his plans.

LECTURES ON LITERATURE.

His concluding lecture on literature was delivered by the Rev. J. de Boyres in St. John's school room last evening before a large audience. The lecturer dealt with the memoirs and letters of the 18th century, and drew the distinction between memoirs and history proper, pointing out that some of the former were not only materials for history, but classics of the highest order. Passing to the subject of letters, it was shown that this class of writing has taken a high place in literature and a number of quotations were given from different works. Reference was made to the need for students of the enlarged public library now within our reach.

While the needs of the general and casual reader had been excellently provided for up to the present time by the library commissioners, it would be needful to reach the counsel of experts in supplying the works of classical English writers, with due regard to space and cost. The study of our national literature was far more than an intellectual luxury, or a matter for special students. For those who had leisure, it was almost a disgrace to be ignorant; and those who entered the state, found the way to that which not only revealed the genius of their own race, but bestowed on its votaries an enduring reward.

Donohue did not feel inclined to walk to the station, and a truck was requisitioned for his conveyance. This morning he could not remember anything about the fight, but Harrison stated that he was walking along and nothing a number of people gathered on the street stopped to see what the matter was, that Donohue struck him three times, but he could not remember the exact number. He, in order to defend himself, hit back, then they clinched and fell. While down he struck Donohue again, but although it made the latter bleed it was "only a little slap."

A number of witnesses described the fight, which took place in the street. The pugilists must have been excited. Donohue registered as 65 and Harrison as 69. The case was postponed till tomorrow.

WELL DONE DUGAN.

There was trouble in a house on Winter street on Tuesday evening. Thomas Davis and his wife had a slight disagreement which threatened to end in a hand to hand encounter unless stopped. In order to prevent this Mrs. Davis ran from the house about eleven o'clock at night, clad in a night dress and was seen in this pitiable condition by Johnny Dugan. He ascertained what the trouble was and going to the door demanded of Davis that his wife be at once admitted to the house. Davis refused and locked the door on the inside. Dugan then attempted to climb through the window, which seems to have frightened the husband, for he opened the door to admit his unwelcome visitor. Dugan sternly commanded Davis to sit down, and after having lectured him on the meanness of his conduct ordered him to bring in his wife and treat her kindly in the future. Davis meekly obeyed and Dugan went home. Mrs. Davis was in a delicate state of health.

HAMPTON NOTES.

A social and sale was held in Barnes' Hall, Hampton, last evening in behalf of the Methodist church. Rev. W. W. Lodge was chairman. A fine programme was carried out, including songs by Mrs. (Dr.) Ryan, of Paris; flute solo by Roy Crawford, of St. John; reading by F. M. Sproul; recitations by Miss Evans and Miss Williamson. The sum of about $50 was realized. Complaints are frequently made that on the occasion of any public entertainment the noise made by the engine of the suburban train discharging spoils the popular enjoyment. Moreover, as the train stands close beside the crossing, horses are frightened. It could just as well be placed on the siding away below the station.

PRIOR WEBBER IN TOWN.

The only H. Price Webber alleged from the Atlantic express today from St. Andrews. Mr. Webber's company is enjoying a few weeks of well merited rest, and he took the occasion to drop down here. During the past season he met with a series of misadventures, fire, pestilence and ordinary sickness, that would have put an ordinary company out of business for keeps. But Mr. Webber remains. He believes that the evil spirit that has bothered in his trail has now been exorcised. The black cat in the graveyard has been put to flight by the rabbit's foot, and now neither flames, nor small pox districts, nor sickness are expected to do him harm.

THE SUNDAY LAW.

The Lord's Day Alliance After the Police Force.

The following memorial from the Lord's Day Alliance has been forwarded:

To James Sexton, Chairman Board of Safety, City of St. John.

Sir,—The undersigned members of the St. John Lord's Day Alliance would respectfully draw the attention of the board of safety to the fact that the legal restrictions upon the sale of intoxicating liquors, beers, groceries, etc., on Sunday, are persistently and openly violated, and that the police force of the city apparently make no attempt to enforce the law. Repeated interviews of a committee of the alliance with the chief of police have been followed by no practical result. Your memorialists therefore respectfully request (1) That the board of safety permit them to appear personally in support of this memorial; and (2) That the board make a full and searching inquiry so as to ascertain, if possible, why the police force is so remiss in its duty.

The alliance has also sent a memorial to Premier Tweedie, charging that the chief of police, who is appointed by the provincial government, is not fully doing his duty in the enforcement of this law. They ask to be given a hearing before the government.
