MORMONISM GROWING.

Remarkable Statement of Its Spread—Endeavors to Stop It.

(New York Sun.)

The alarm sounded yesterday concerning the progress of Mormonism was based on the remarkable statement printed below. It was prepared by secretaries of home missionary societies of Presbyterian, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist Episcopal, North and South, Reformed, Cumberland Presbyterian, Disciples of Christ, and United Brethren churches, who unite in an appeal to the Christian public of America to resist Mormon encroachments. Here is the full statement:

As representatives of missionary societies of Christian denominations in the United States we beg most earnestly to call the attention of the Christian public to the position, work and menace of Mormonism in our country.

We are moved to this statement by the vitality which the Mormon system has shown not only in its own states and territories, but generally throughout the country. We are persuaded that Christian people have no adequate conception of that vitality, nor of the methods seductive and often successful, by which the hateful system is being pressed upon the public attention. Whatever modification of public sentiment or government action may be forced upon the Mormon attitude and Mormon practices, it has not essentially changed its character since the days of Joseph Smith and Brigham Young. Its priestly oligarchy threatens free government, its grasping public spirit invades property rights; its varied vices are destructive of good morals, while its pagan doctrines are antagonistic to the gospel of Christ.

The ambition of Mormons, which they do not even conceal, is to secure control of state affairs until by means of the balance of power they may make national legislation against Mormonism impossible. Toward this end they are moving by an organization as compact and skillfully devised for its purpose as any that ever engaged the activities of men in the modern world. Their missionaries are more seductive because their appeal affects to be based upon commonly accepted Bible truths. Only after entrance has been gained and the door closed against retreat, is the awful system gradually unveiled to the victim.

It is rapidly growing. The Mormon hierarchy has an unyielding grip on the machinery of the State of Utah and upon all its political and educational interests. Though often denied there is no doubt that its practice of polygamy continues, and that the promises made to the United States when statehood was granted.

Its power in contiguous states and territories is increasing at an alarming rate. By means of colonization it has so affected the States of Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and Nevada and the territories of New Mexico and Arizona that it will soon secure, if it has not already secured, practical political control in all that region.

Its missionary activity throughout the union is almost incredible. It claims to have now 2,000 missionaries in the field—1,400 in the western states—and to have made last year 20,000 converts. Mormons are also establishing missions in foreign countries on a large scale. At a conference recently held in Berlin and presided over by Hugh Cannon, son of George Q. Cannon, 125 Mormon missionaries were present who were working in the German empire. They reported 2,000 converts. In Norway and Sweden Mormons have for many years been gaining a continually increasing number of converts.

For these and many other reasons we make our appeal to the public. We urge upon the public press the duty of educating the public conscience by unsparingly giving the facts of the nature and the work of Mormonism, and we appeal to Christian and patriotic people everywhere to resist whenever it appears a system hostile at once to our free institutions and our Christian faith.

For twenty-four years Vapo-Crescine has been extensively used for all forms of throat and bronchial troubles. All Druggists.

LYNCHED A REPRIEVED MAN.

Wealthy Ranchman, Who Murdered a Sheriff, Taken From the Jail and Put to Death on the Scaffold That Had Been Erected by the Authorities.

CASPER, Wyo., March 28.—The crowd which had gathered here to see Charles Francis Woodward hanged, angered because the court reprieved the condemned man and balked them of their expected sensation, early this morning took the case out of the hands of the law and lynched the prisoner, hanging him on the gallows which the officers of the law had erected for him. The execution of the death sentence had been postponed pending the decision of an appeal to the supreme court.

Woodward was a wealthy ranchman. He was convicted of the murder of Sheriff William C. Ricker of this county. He killed Ricker on Jan. 2 last, while the sheriff was attempting to capture him after his escape from the jail here, where he was imprisoned for a petty crime. After shooting the sheriff from a barn seventy-five miles west of Casper, in which he and three desperadoes had fortified themselves, Woodward stepped out and deliberately fired several more bullets into the prostrate man, who begged to be allowed to die in peace. Woodward fled. A chase of 2,000 miles over the mountains culminated in his capture at Billings, Mon., and return here, where he confessed the crime.

Today, Friday, was set for the hanging of the murderer. On Monday his attorneys filed an appeal and the hanging was postponed pending the decision of the supreme court. This ruling was made at Cheyenne, 300 miles to the south. A blizzard raged for two days and communication by mail and telegraph was cut off. Fears were entertained that the order holding the execution would not reach Casper until too late. An officer was sent eastward from Cheyenne to Grand Island, Neb., and thence northward to Casper, 300 miles being travelled to cover the 200 miles separating the two places. The stay of execution reached here on Wednesday.

On account of the deep snow the noose failed to reach the ranches, and yesterday the sheep herders, cowboys and miners began arriving to witness the hanging. Deep dissatisfaction was manifested when it became known that the hanging would not take place. Threats of lynching were made. As the crowd increased the excitement became more intense, culminating in a demand being made on the sheriff for Woodward. This was refused.

At an early hour this morning twenty-four masked men empowered Sheriff Tubbs and the jailer, took Woodward out and hanged him on the gallows which had been prepared for the legal execution.

He made no outcry, but when the noose was placed around his neck he pleaded for mercy. He asked permission to kneel and pray for the lynchers, his wife and himself. His last words were, "God have mercy on my wife!"

The hanging was bungled. Woodward jumped from the gallows instead of falling through the trap, and writhed about along the side of the scaffold. He suffered tortures before death came.

When the lynchers left they pinned a card on Woodward's shirt, saying: "Process of law is a little slow, so this is the road you'll have to go. Murderers and thugs beware!"

GOT HIS GIRL WITH A LADDER.

From Out College Walls—Then Flight and Hurried Visit to a Minister.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., March 28.—Howard G. Baskett, city editor of the Mexico (Mo.) Intelligencer, and Miss Italy Glendene, daughter of Albert J. Glendene, a business man of Bonham, Tex., were married here this morning under unusual circumstances. Miss Glendene was a student at Hardin College, Mexico. Shortly after arriving in Mexico she met Baskett and the young people were mutually attracted. This morning at 3 o'clock young Baskett and two friends drove out to Hardin College in a carriage. They took with them a ladder, which they placed against the walls of the college building and Baskett quickly ascended to the room of Miss Glendene, who was waiting for her lover.

Assisting her down the ladder, the quartette entered the carriage and were driven to the Wabash station, where they took a train for this city and six hours after were married by the Rev. J. Van Clave. The bride is 18 and the groom 21.

The president of Hardin College arrived tonight from Mexico on the trail of the elopement. Mr. Glendene, father of the bride, also arrived from Texas on a late train.

A DISPLAY OF GOLD.

Mine Owned By Halifax Men Yielded Nearly $13,000 of Gold During March.

(Recorder, Monday.)
J. A. Crease this morning brought from the West Lake Mine at Mount Uniacke two bars of gold weighing 539 ounces, and valued at about $10,500, the yield of 116 tons mined in March. The last 18 tons mined (after taking out some very handsome specimens) gave over 18 ounces of gold to the ton. The cost of mining and milling was $4.50 to the ton. Before the specimens were taken from the last 18 tons the quartz gave 35 ounces to the ton. The owners of the West Lake Mine are Sheriff D. Archibald, Warden G. H. Madill, W. J. Hopgood and J. A. Crease.

Many years ago this same mine made almost a similar rich yield, but for some years the mine has no more than paid expenses. The yield for three months previous to March were:—Dec. 98 ounces; Jan., 110 ounces; Feb., 120 ounces.

The place in the mine where the rich find was made was about twenty feet below a shaft that was sunk some ten years ago. In addition to the gold already taken out, there is an unusual amount in sight and all probability the yield next month will be equally as good as that of the present month. The quartz and bars of gold are on exhibition in the show windows of the Nova Scotia Furnishing Co. The gold in the quartz on exhibition is worth over $2,500 making in all a yield of nearly $13,000.

FAST TRAIN SERVICE.

Between Portland and New York During the Summer.

(Portland Press.)
It has been practically decided that there will be a through train from New York to Portland this summer, to expedite the summer traffic into Maine from points west and south. Dr. Wheeler and E. P. Ricker of Portland, who went to New York for the purpose of arranging for such a train, have been successful, and it only remains for the details to be arranged. The new train will leave New York in the evening about nine o'clock and will come over the New York, New Haven and Hartford to Worcester, on to Springfield and from there to Worcester by the Boston and Albany. At Worcester the train will proceed by the Worcester and Nashua branch of the Boston and Maine, coming through Nashua and to Portland by the way of the Portland and Rochester. It is probable that at Cumberland Mills the train will be transferred to the Maine Central Mountain division.

The train will arrive in Portland before seven o'clock in the morning, in time to catch any train for the east that may be desired. This will greatly expedite travel.

Returning the train will leave the Union station in Portland at 9 p.m., after all the trains are in and will arrive in New York the following morning.

AT GRAND FALLS.

Amazing Phenomenon—The Cataract Moves 100 Feet Down Stream.

(Special to the Star.)

GRAND FALLS, April 1.—The people of this locality were astonished this morning to find that during the night the face of the cataract of Grand Falls had been moved about 100 feet down stream. The only theory that can be advanced to account for this remarkable occurrence is that the rock forming the falls had never been part of the adjoining strata, but a detached boulder of gigantic size wedged in there during some tremendous convulsion of nature in ages long past; and that it has been gradually loosening and was last night forced by the tremendous pressure of the ice and logs a hundred feet farther down the gorge. Thousands of people are hurrying to the place from all the country round about, and further developments are awaited with great anxiety. The curtain of the new cataract forms a rainbow of marvellous beauty and brilliancy, the changing colors producing an effect such as no one who beholds it has ever before witnessed. Grand Falls will hereafter take rank as one of the great wonders of the continent. Already the people are speculating upon the probable great influx of sight-seers, and it is probable a monster hotel will be erected close to the cataract.

[As this is the first of April the Star has great pleasure in printing the above despatch.]

POLICE COURT.

Boys and Revolver—Rubbish Dumped on the Streets.

Charles Norman, who has a shop on Water street, is continually annoyed by boys throwing stones, eggs and other objects that may be handy at his premises. The other day, after vainly endeavoring to get rid of them in other ways, Mr. Norman fired a revolver inside of the house. For this he was reported and appeared this morning in court. He said that he had been forced to the expedient of using the revolver by the fact that all other attempts to scare away the young rascals had been useless. A gang of them would come down and besiege his place, while another crowd would do sentry go on Prince William. Occasionally they would shift jobs, so that all could engage in the pastime. Mr. Norman did not know the names of those who took part in the game, but stated that they came from north end and Lower Cove. He believed that it would be almost impossible for the police to catch them. Sgt. Campbell stated that he noticed that the door of Mr. Norman's place was plastered with eggs and quite a collection of rocks and other missiles were strewn around.

The magistrate decided that the matter should stand over until Friday morning. In the meantime an attempt will be made to capture some of the boys and have them present.

Adam Clark, charged with dumping a number of loads of rubbish on St. John street (west), was fined four dollars. In this connection the magistrate took occasion to impress on the officers the necessity of enforcing all by-laws relating to the dumping of refuse matter on the streets, by reporting the offenders. Any such, brought before him in future, the magistrate promised would not get off on the payment of a four dollar fine.

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS

To Remove the Lake Superior From Her Dangerous Position.

All efforts yesterday and this morning to free the steamer Lake Superior from her position on a bank near the Round Reef have proved unsuccessful. But for the parting of a hawser at a critical moment, it is believed that the task would have been accomplished yesterday afternoon. But the line could not stand the strain put upon it. Ten tugs in all pulled and hauled at high tide yesterday afternoon in an endeavor to free the vessel. For a time it looked as if the vessel would be brought off in safety, but the hawser attached to the pier broke and the strong current swung her around despite the combined efforts of the tugs. The attempt this morning was also unsuccessful, and the steamer now lies in a worse position than before. It is claimed by those who know the bottom there, that she must be resting, in part at least, directly on the Round Reef. At any rate she is now leaking considerably, and is in danger of starting. A good deal of damage must have been done to her bottom.

Today work was commenced removing the cargo, of which there is a pretty large quantity. This work will take some time, but it is believed to be absolutely necessary before any further attempt can be made, with prospects of success, to remove her from her present position. It is expected that a wrecking plant will be brought here, now that the tugs have failed to haul the steamer off. She will then be pumped out and another trial made to save her.

HANDSOME STEAMER.

The New Star Made Her First Trip of the Season Today.

The steamer Star commenced her season's work this morning most auspiciously. She had on this, her first trip a full complement of passengers. The company which has purchased this vessel has practically made a new steamer of her, and she is now one of the most comfortable craft on the river. The part of her has been thoroughly overhauled and put in the very best shape, and inside and out the boat has a fresh and pretty appearance.

The prevailing colors are white and gold relieved here and there with touches of ebony. In the ladies' cabin these colors have been delicately blended to produce the best possible effect. The furniture has been newly upholstered and the hangings are all of brass. On the floor of the main saloon new carpets have been laid, while the walls are hung with pictures and mirrors. The ladies' gifts to Mr. H. East, broker and partner, Robertson and Allison. The dining saloon also, has been made to look like new, while a departure in the shape of a refreshment room has been put in place. Altogether the Star is a handsome, convenient little boat. The painting on her was done by William Ebbels.

The new steamer is well supplied with M. P. P. president of the company, has given her a United States license, vice-president of the company, has contributed an American flag, and her manager, Joseph W. Barry, has given a Canadian flag.

The officers of the Star are: Captain George H. Scott, pilot, Isaac Worden; purser and arch. Belyea; engineer, W. H. Robinson; stewardess, Mrs. A. B. Scott.

The company is to get a large share of the summer traffic this season, and is becoming more and more popular. A new hotel now being built at the Narrows, will be finished in time for tourist travel and there will be good accommodations elsewhere.

Some of the boats are in harbor. This morning a count of ice floated down the river. An occasional boat was evidently having a hard time of it, and escaped the ice. The wind was very fresh and the water very cold.

Reports are coming in to the effect that the ice is not stopping all of the boats. A large part of the drive has already come down the river. The Reach is full of running logs, and the night is a particularly bad one, if it were not that the ice is heavy, and the lumbermen are not yet in the lumbering season. Steamers are having considerable difficulty in getting through the jam. The logs are in many places frozen up solid in the cakes of ice, and are in all positions. A gentleman who came down yesterday says that very often the logs were frozen in the ice almost upright and floated on the river in that way. It will be possible to get many of them unjammed by some means is broken up and melted. However it is probable the present wind holds that many of the logs will be driven in and piled up like snow.

The Free-Press Gleaner says: Ice and logs are running past the city all day yesterday from about 10 o'clock on Saturday night. It is reported that a channel has broken up and run out right through the big ice jam, and the jam is coming down piecemeal and doing no damage whatever. Lumbermen estimate at between three and four million feet logs ran past the city during the last three days.

During this number was largely increased.

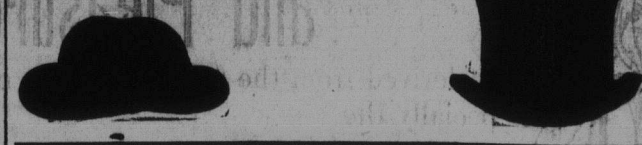

FINE AND BROOCH.

A pleasant social gathering was held at St. John's church last night, to formally say farewell to Miss Everett, the chorist, who, having severed her connection with the congregation, is but to leave to take up her residence in Fredericton. Rev. L. G. Macneil, pastor, in a feeling address, expressed the general regret that was felt at the departure. W. C. Whittaker, on behalf of the congregation, presented to Miss Everett a purse of gold in Charles McKelvie, acting for this occasion in the choir, presented her with an address and a pearl brooch.

MEMORIAL BAZAAR.
Opens This Evening Under Official Patronage.

The deft hands of many workers have changed the Union Hall into a place of beauty. The decorations for the bazaar which opens this evening are claimed to be superior to those of last year. The hall has been divided into a number of small booths, and the adornment of these has evidently been a matter of rivalry between the ladies who preside over them. And over all is Mrs. Balsey, to whose constant energy the bazaar is due. The ladies in charge of the booths will be dressed in pretty costumes, representing as much as possible the characters in the books after which they are named. A band will be in attendance this evening, when Mayor Daniel will officially open the bazaar.

The ladies in charge of the booths are:—
