LIBERALS WIN IN SOUTH BRUCE

The big win in the Conservative majority in East Middlesex a few days ago was followed Thursday by a striking and highly significant Liberal victory in South Bruce, Mr. R. E. Druax, Liberal, defeating Mr. W. D. Carrill, Conservative, by 125 votes—in the face of tremendous exertion by the government machine.

1904—Won by P. H. McKenzie, Lib., 144.

1908—Won by J. J. Donnelly, Con., 128.

1911—Won by J. J. Donnelly, Con., 164.

The loss of this seat by the government of the day is an event calculated to impress upon the whole of Canada the fact that Ontario is swinging back towards political sanity.

South Bruce has a plain lesson for the Liberal leaders and for the Liberal rank and file. Its suggestion to the leaders is to establish branches throughout the country, and to express the fighting principles of militant Liberalism.

Surely South Bruce has given the Liberal leaders the signal for united and courageous fighting to make the true principles of Liberalism triumphant.

DUTY-FREE FLOUR

It is pleasing to read a public admission of the fact that the removal of the duty from flour would not annihilate the Canadian milling industry.

As in all matters affecting trade and tariffs, opinions as to what is best differ widely and this particular case is no exception in the general rule.

South Bruce was made a separate constituency in 1903. Its political record since that time has been this:

1904—Won by P. H. McKenzie, Lib., 144.

1908—Won by J. J. Donnelly, Con., 128.

1911—Won by J. J. Donnelly, Con., 164.

CITY BEFORE PARTY

The Board of Trade, which some months ago did good service by adopting strong resolutions on the transportation situation, is again in the public eye.

We publish on another part of this page today an authoritative review of the naval position of Great Britain and Germany, which is worth a careful reading by all Canadians who really desire to examine impartially the facts bearing upon this important question.

These salient facts bearing upon the naval situation ought to be read by all in order that they may not be misled by partisan Conservative misrepresentation.

There is no doubt in the world that the men who proved the quality of their public spirit and their citizenship Thursday by resigning from the Board of Trade are reflecting the prevailing sentiment of the community.

LOST-ONE "EMERGENCY"

In November, 1915, Britain Will Have a Lead of Ninety Per Cent. Over Germany in Fighting Ships—The Facts as They Stand.

The British naval problem has undergone a dramatic change. As a writer in the Fortnightly Review points out, while it was contended in 1909 that Great Britain was in danger of being outdistanced by Germany alone in armored ships of the latest types, the matter of contention today is whether the margin of strength that Great Britain will possess three years hence is adequate.

EMERGENCY

Have a Lead of Ninety Percent of the World's Shipbuilding—The Facts as they are one a dramatic change. As a writer it was contended in 1909 that Great Britain was in a position to build more ships than any other country in the world. Today it is a fact that Great Britain has a lead of ninety per cent of the world's shipbuilding. The facts as they are are that Great Britain has built more ships than any other country in the world for the last ten years. This is due to the fact that Great Britain has a long and experienced shipbuilding industry. The facts as they are are that Great Britain has a long and experienced shipbuilding industry. The facts as they are are that Great Britain has a long and experienced shipbuilding industry.

ADMIRAL'S WIDOW, ACCUSED OF POISONING, IS GRATEFUL TO THE JURY.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton was acquitted on the charge of murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, by the verdict of the jury, rendered at 5:10 o'clock this morning. The jury retired at six o'clock last night. Notwithstanding that there seemed little prospect, as the night wore on, of a verdict before morning, nearly 200 persons sat around the court room, awaiting the verdict. Mrs. Eaton smiled when she heard the foreman of the jury pronounce her "not guilty."

MRS. EATON NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

As a result of the report made by the physician, who had attended her during the trial, Mrs. Eaton was found to be sane. The jury was told that she was sane at the time of the murder. The facts as they are are that Great Britain has a long and experienced shipbuilding industry. The facts as they are are that Great Britain has a long and experienced shipbuilding industry. Montreal, Nov. 2.—The Manchester Commerce struck an iceberg while passing through the Straits of Belleisle on Saturday morning, and sustained injuries which, though severe, did not incapacitate her entirely, for she was subsequently able to shape her course for St. John's (Nfld.), where she will be docked for overhauling and repairs.

The weather report from Point Amour on Saturday morning, as supplied by the signal station, was cloudy, no mention being made of fog, but fog sometimes falls quickly in the straits at this time of year, especially when ice is floating in the vicinity, so it may yet transpire that it was an account of sudden fog obscuring her course that the Manchester Commerce met with the accident which compelled her to make for the nearest port, Meagre details of the accident reached here late tonight.

The premier has suffered severely during his two years of office, consequent upon the constant stress and worry of party leadership, and the necessity of maintaining a satisfactory cabinet.

THE DOWNFALL OF PROTECTION

(London, Eng., Daily News.) The Underwood tariff law came into operation on Saturday, and the United States is today practically a Free Trade country. Since Sir Robert Peel abolished the Corn laws there has been no Free Trade achievement of an equal magnitude with this event. The significant fact is the ease with which it has been accomplished. Two or three years ago the idea that the United States would within measurable distance of Free Trade would have been dismissed as an idle dream. And less than a year ago when Woodrow Wilson was engaged in his candidature for the presidency our statement that he was a Free Trader and meant to carry through a Free Trade policy was indignantly repudiated.

BORDEN FEELS FROM THE BRITISH

London, Nov. 2.—The United Kingdom is in the throes of a miniature general election. There are five vacant seats for the house of commons, four of them caused by the recent judicial appointments and consequent changes in the cabinet. The government is quite naturally a little anxious, for in four of the contests it is on the defensive, as it has to contend with a lot of dissatisfaction, both with what it has done and what it has failed to do.

Answering to Standard Attack He States His Case and Invites That Journal to Help and Encourage Him—Great Future for St. John.

The Standard Wednesday featured on its first page an anonymous letter attacking Norton Griffiths & Company. The writer, among other things, said: "Have they shown, by the progress made, that they can be relied upon to finish the work in two years? Emphatically no. They have had the contract for nearly two years, and what progress has been made by them in the most important feature of the contract—the dredging? None whatever."

ADMITTING WE CAN NOT TRY IT AGAIN

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 31.—The government's latest South Bruce project has produced a feeling of uneasiness in official Conservative circles. Today the minister is busy repudiating responsibility for opening the door to the "dredging" by Donnelly to the Senate. It is admitted today that a grave tactical blunder was made in opening the riding. As a result of the blunder, the government has experienced a severe blow. The government has been forced to admit that it cannot try the project again.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton was acquitted on the charge of murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, by the verdict of the jury, rendered at 5:10 o'clock this morning. The jury retired at six o'clock last night. Notwithstanding that there seemed little prospect, as the night wore on, of a verdict before morning, nearly 200 persons sat around the court room, awaiting the verdict. Mrs. Eaton smiled when she heard the foreman of the jury pronounce her "not guilty."

Sir Rufus Isaacs' Old Constituency, Always Close, is Doubtful for the Liberals for Many Reasons—Two Contests in Scotland Expected to Return Ministerial Supporters.

London, Nov. 2.—The United Kingdom is in the throes of a miniature general election. There are five vacant seats for the house of commons, four of them caused by the recent judicial appointments and consequent changes in the cabinet. The government is quite naturally a little anxious, for in four of the contests it is on the defensive, as it has to contend with a lot of dissatisfaction, both with what it has done and what it has failed to do.
