MRS. ANDERSON PREACHES TO TORONTONIANS

Mrs. Maggie Anderson, evangelist, of Chicago, Ill., a servant of God, who was in our midst for seven weeks preaching with great authority out of the Word of God as set forth in the Bible, to both white and Negro people alike demonstrated to us that her greatest desire is service to all people, especially those of her race. On Thursday, May 15th she honoured the U.N.I.A. with her time and money in an effort to swell its Building Fund.

The programme was as follows: Miss A. O'Brien, piano solo, Mr. King and Mr. Hayes, mandolin duet, Miss Georgina Walker, dramatic reading; Mrs. Waters, piano solo; Mrs. Fox, vocal solo; Mrs. Anderson, speaker for the evening.

Her subject was "All Generations shall call her blessed," Luke 1: 38. She spoke very highly of women, tracing them from creation through the Bible to her to whom Jesus was born and on to our present day and exalted the women of our race to pattern the life of those noble women, especially those of our race as set forth in the Bible, and all generations shall call them blessed. She also spoke briefly of the hand writing on the wall and the fall of Babylon, and showed scriptural proof that civilization was first handed down by our people and cities were first built by our forefathers. These truths should make us proud of our race. The lecture was of a racial nature, yet very soul stirring and a great success.

After the lecture the Ladies Department presented Mrs. Anderson with a basket of beautiful flowers expressing through every flower the high esteem and love the members and friends of the U.N.I.A. has for her. May God bless her to live long in the work she so loves.

YOUNGEST NEGRO EDITOR.

(By The Associated Negro Press) Shreveport, La.—Albert White, 14 years old, Editor of Negro Youth, a local weekly, is believed to be the youngest editor of his race in America. Young White edits his four-page five-cent paper, goes to school and finds time to help the folks around the house too.

68th ANNUAL CONFERENCE B. M. E. CHURCH, JUNE 14th

The 68th Annual Conference Missionary Society and S. S. Convention of the B.M.E. Church will convene at Windsor, June 24th, at 8 p.m., commencing with a public service at the local church, McDougall St.

Rev. T. Dawson, Pastor, and his band of loyal workers are preparing to do their part in making the coming Annual Meeting a great success.

During the past ten years there has been a steady and gratifying increase in the income of the church for both local and connexional purposes. The salaries of all ministers have been increased and larger contributions made to the Benevolent Funds.

Only a few weeks from now until the closing of the Conference year and every possible effort ought to be made to increase this year's income for both local and connexional work. Don't forget any of the Conference Claims—also the Missionary Society and S. S. Convention. These splendid organizations should have our united support.

This is a time for Ministers, Officials, Members and Adherents to prove their gratitude for the past blessings and their faith in the future.

Every organization in the local churches should unite with their pastor in this final drive for the year.

Yours for Advance of the Redeemer's Kingdom,

S. R. DRAKE, General Superintendent.

Society of Friends Hold Good Meeting

(By The Associated Negro Press) Philadelphia P. A.—The Society of Friends held its annual meeting, at the building of the Society, Fifteenth and Race Streets. The meeting was largely attended, prominent members of the race being noted on the sessions. Much interest centered in the report rendered by Mr. Raymon Bye, chairman of the committee on the Interests of the Colored Race. Mr. Bye stated that there is an awakening of interest in the problems of the Negro throughout the whole country among many denominations. He also stated that there is an expressed willingness on the part of the Negro. This committee has been co-operating with other agencies during the year, as well as with the activities of the various organizations working for the advancement of the Colored Race. Leading members of the race meet with the Society of Friends every month to discuss live problems and plan constructive work in the interest of inter-racial harmony and justice.

NEGROES HOPE OF AMERICAN LITERATURE

(By The Associated Negro Press) Chicago—Mr. James Lindsay Renshaw, the printing and mechanical genius of the celebrated Pascal Covici Publishing Company, has organized, in company with William H. A. Moore The Negro Booklovers' Guild. The first book published by this new publishing house will be Mr. Moore's "The Lay of the Purple Grape" in a subscription DeLuxe edition of only 350 copies, hand printed on Japan vellum.

Mr. Renshaw is a firm believer in what he calls, "The Negro Spirit in Literature." "We have been complaining," he recently said, "that the American branch of English literature lacks that freshness of spirit and those aspects of beauty that might make for a more generous vitality for the speech we affect to love so well. I am expecting the Negro elements in American life to provide us with this great vital force and to this end I have joined with Mr. Moore in a sincere endeavour to encourage, not mere writing, but the producing of genuine literature among Negroes."

Our first book will be Mr. Moore's "The Lay of the Purple Grape," which poem I regard as a bit of real literature, embracing the distinctions of rare charm and power. Mr. Moore is on the staff of our Chicago Literary Times and we find him a disciplined writer who has taken rank with the best of the writing clan in this section of the country. The Negro is going to do the big things in the American Literature of the future."

THE INTER-RACIAL CONVENTION

The inter-racial Convention which was recently held in Indianapolis by many colleges, universities and high schools of the United States is one of the brightest rays of hope that has shone upon this continent since before the day of emancipation. Writing in the May Crisis, Mr. Willard E. Uphams (white), who attended the convention has the following to say: "I too, a white student, saw several thousand of The New Humanity at the Indianapolis Convention. Irresistible tides of power, immeasurable in consequences were released at the great meeting and are sweeping away the old foundation of prejudice and ignorance, particularly in the universities and colleges. Moreover, if there is one thing above another which impressed me, as a leader of one of the discussion groups at the Convention, it is that the young Negro, as I saw him there, is prepared to assume his full share in our common task. I was so impressed by the reasonableness, the moderation, the ability and the sense of fair play demonstrated by the Negro representatives in my group that I was moved to write to the 48 leaders to see if their experience would corroborate my own Their testimony shows my optimism is not groundless but confirmed by common experience. Among the things I asked were these: What spirit did the Negro student manifest? Did they antagonize or win other members of the group? What were their solutions for the inter-racial problems? Did they show ability and readiness in bringing about a New Day? My correspondents were uniformly interested and sympathetic. 'I am so glad to know,' a leader from N.C. wrote, 'that some one is going to interpret the spirit of the Negro student at the Indianapolis Convention. It was one of the outstanding things about the meeting to me, and I have had many Southerners to whom the whole issue was presented, tell me that they got a new vision of it all through the convention. My own opinion is that the Negro students carried off the honors in my discussion group.'

"Finally, this ought not to be omitted, about a Negro girl. This girl was from a Southern Normal School. She did not participate during the first three quarters of an hour. When she did participate she spoke for about seven minutes, meeting the points of view expressed by others in the group, with which she did not agree, in a true spirit of love. Her commendation of attitudes in which she did agree and with which her people agreed seemed to be a rather convincing argument for them. It was quite clear that her remarks and her spirit won the admiration of the group and antagonized no one.

"Writing of the white students one leader says: 'Even those whose prejudices were stirred by what took place have had their citadels stormed and they cannot get away from the facts. One white girl in our group was so sincere in her attitude of changing her convictions in the light of new data as to be quite convincing to the group. She said: 'I believe that Christian white and colored people in the South will solve the problem by sharing life—yes, and I am willing to eat with them and I want you to know that it is the first time in my life I have ever said it.'

"Another incident, highly descriptive of the startling transformation that occurred was reported. A white girl had been getting violent on the subject of inter-marriage. A direct reply to one of her remarks by a Negro reassured her so completely she arose and said that although she had lived in the South all her life she had never known that there were such Negroes in the world. Now she could understand how some people liked them, considered them capable and were not afraid they would contaminate all the other races.

"The solutions proposed by the colored members were very conservative and cautious pleas for equal opportunities in education, in industry; for a chance to succeed in any profession they chose, without being held back by color lines; for schools, for the opportunity to own homes and to solve their own future with their workers. The expression that came from Negroes over and over in each talk—and several times in each—was that what it wanted on the part of their race is equality of opportunity which would mean the destruction of every type of discrimination that leads to the inferiority complex on the part of the Negro Race.

"Did the Negro show ability and readiness in bringing in a New Day? That the answers to this question were all in the affirmative is indicated by what has been said: 'Their ability and readiness to work together were certainly equal to, if not superior to that of the other students is the way one leader puts it.'

Letters to the Editor

MR. BREWSTER REPLIES TO EDITORIAL

Dear Mr. Editor:—
I have read about your Co-operation plan, also of suggestions. I know of no part of the country that would be suitable for such a conference but I do hope that where ever the place may be, it will be within the reach of everyone. As regards Co-operating, there could never be anything more advisable to the Negro peoples, both national and international. We are suffering through the lack of unity. Our minds have been poisoned against each other through the press and pulpit, causing us to be split into factions, with the result that every effort made by one of the race is opposed by another, and thus crumbles to the ground.

The Dawn of Tomorrow must be congratulated for such a noble thought. The nations of the world at least the leading nations, such as England, France, Italy and Japan are seeking co-operation. They are strong and yet they need it. They are mighty, and yet they need it. How much more should we not take hold of this glorious opportunity as it is now offered to us by the Dawn of Tomorrow? Are we not human? I am very much in favor of it and it is the duty of every thinking Negro to help support it. We need it.

My suggestion is that the agents of the Dawn send in the names of the business men of their respective communities, or be interviewed by the agent individually and gather suggestions from them, then I believe that the business men would be more interested and we would be drawing nearer our objective in dealing with the suggestions. A certain column of this paper should be devoted to such for a certain period. Then judges, that may be appointed by this paper could judge same and give out their verdict, which shall be final. Then we could start to accomplish the much desired goal.

Yours truly,
S. BREWSTER.

Grant A.M.E. Church, Toronto

Sunday May 18th, the pulpit was occupied by Mrs. Maggie E. Anderson, the noted Evangelist of Chicago, Ill. A soul-stirring message was delivered at both services. Mrs. Anderson has been in our city for some time and we must confess that she is a true messenger of God. She is filling the pulpit of McGill Pentecostal Assembly every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, and Sunday night after leaving Grant Church. You are missing something very good and helpful if you fail to hear her. Last Thursday night she gave a lecture to the U.N.I.A. on the subject "She shall be called blessed." Everyone who heard it says it was the best that they have ever heard. She started from the beginning of the Bible, the creation of Adam and Eve down to Jesus Christ and very easily showed us that the Black men gave the world its civilization. We would be very glad to hear some of our ministers preach on that subject, it would be very helpful to our people. The lecture was given in Grant Church for the benefit of the U.N.I.A. Building Fund, under the auspices of the ladies department. Sister Anderson took the offering herself. She asked for $50 and she got $51, and gave it to the ladies. We must commend the ladies of the U.N.I.A. and we pray that it will be possible for every colored person in Toronto to be able to hear this God-sent woman of ours.

Mrs. H. B. Murdock of Sarnia worshipped with us on Sunday night. She is here on business and is looking fine. She states that Mr. Murdock is much improved and is getting along nicely.

who went under a serious operation for appendicitis. She reports him doing very well at the present time.

The concert given by a company of artists from Lockport, N.Y. was well attended and apparently a fine success. They were assisted largely by local talent.

CLEAN

The baking ready, the cooking finished. Then the meal and afterwards: the washing up, of course.

What a task it would be if the glassy, smooth surface of the enameled cooking utensils did not help to reduce labor.

There is satisfaction in washing enameled ware. The surface is like flint. Sediment and grease cannot lodge in crevices or seams because there are none.

Clean! Just like china, yet stronger than steel. Washed thoroughly with soap and water only.

Bright! and colorful. A pleasure to look at in daily use. Make the kitchen attractive—always retain their gloss and shining beauty.

Phyllis, daughter of Ernest McKinnon, has been to the hospital and had her tonsils removed.

Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sisco fell from a chair and broke his leg. He was taken to the hospital and is doing fine.

The Third quarterly conference of the A.M.E. Church convened on April 25th.

Mrs. Davidson left on Tuesday for New York to study for a trained nurse.

NEW CARDINAL ELEVATES NEGRO

New York—One of the first acts of Cardinal Patrick Hayes, New York's new Prince of the Catholic Church, was to raise the Rev. Thomas M. O'Keefe, colored pastor of the Church of St. Benedict the Moor, to the rank of domestic prelate. By virtue of his elevation Father O'Keefe now takes the title of Monseigneur.

FIND TEN COMMANDMENTS

(By The Associated Negro Press)
Vienna.—What are declared to be portions of the tablets containing the original ten commandments, according to Prof. Hubert Grimme of the University of Munster, have been found on the plateau Serabit El Chadam, in the southwestern part of the peninsula of Sinai by the English scholar, Finders Petrie. "I was taken out of the Nilus by the Egyptian queen," is written at the top of one of the pieces in old Hebrew. There is also the name of Moses and other Biblical characters.

BISHOP'S SON CARRIED OFF SECOND HONOR

Chicago, May.—Archibald J. Carey, Jr., talking son of a bishop, romped away with second price in the oratorical contest, bringing together the victors in the mid-western zone of the series of meets being conducted by the National Oratorical Society. Carey is 16 years old. He spoke on the American Constitution.

Last week he won the Chicago Daily News prize of $1000 with the same speech. One hundred dollars of this money he donated toward a scholarship of $1000 to be provided by the A.M.E. Conference for the education of an African who would promise to go back to help his people.
