Seneca l's Schemes.

His Exactions Laid Bare Before the Committee.

How He Secured Commissions from Various Contractors.

From $20 Up to the Tidy Little Sum of $2,000,

And Negotiated Alleged "Loans," Which He Never Repaid.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—The Tarte Committee appointed a sub-committee to prepare a report.

The exactions of Senecal have been ventilated before the Public Accounts Committee this morning. Mr. E. W. Blackhall, machinery agent from Toronto, stated that he had done $18,000 worth of business with the Printing Bureau through Mr. Senecal. During the course of these transactions, from May, 1890, he had given Senecal about $2,000. Senecal asked him for these sums,

CLAIMING THEM AS COMMISSION.

They came in amounts of $40 and $50.

Mr. Foster got the witness to say that this giving of commission to purchaser was a very common practice in his business.

Mr. Lister pressed the distinction between an owner and his foreman, but the witness was of opinion that he would pay the foreman if it seemed to be to his advantage.

THE INEVITABLE.

Mr. F. B. Polson, of Toronto, furnished a pair of engines and three boilers to the Printing Bureau in 1888, valued at about $6,100. Since he had put in another engine for running the electric light worth about $1,800. The first order he got through Mr. Senecal and the second through Messrs. Ahearn & Soper, of Ottawa. Senecal came to their works looking for an order. After the sale he made the inevitable payment to Senecal. The amount was $520, and was paid by check on the Ontario Bank in Toronto. Senecal came into his Toronto office when after the machinery, and told the Polsons that they would have to compete with two other firms, and that the order would be given to the lowest tenderer, "a gentleman." Senecal then told him (Polson) that he would have to GIVE SENECAL TEN PER CENT.

If he got the order.

"Who was the gentleman?" asked Mr. Lister.

"I would rather not tell," said Mr. Polson.

"I must have it," insisted Mr. Lister.

"Well, Mr. Patterson," was the reply. "His first order amounted to $5,200, and the 10 per cent. was given afterwards. He loaned Mr. Senecal $20, which was NEVER RETURNED."

To Mr. Foster witness said that he knew that he would have to pay the commission before he fixed the price, but that he did not allow this to influence the price he fixed. He sold 5 per cent. lower than usual to get the advertisement.

Mr. Montgomery, of Montgomery, Wilson & Co., Toronto, sold the bureau through Senecal $1,200 worth of belting, etc., but stoutly denied that he ever paid Senecal a cent. This looked like an exception to the rule until it came out that Senecal, during one of his low financial states borrowed from the witness $27, which he had NEGLECTED TO PAY BACK.

Mr. J. S. Johnston, of Toronto, was recalled, and stated that he had paid Senecal more than he thought the other day. He thought it now to be about $1,500. He usually paid his 10 per cent. commission as soon as the checks were received. He was greatly surprised the first time Senecal came and but he paid it, and subsequently Senecal followed up each check. The witness said that in the morning he gave his evidence last week he drove first to Senecal's house, with whom he afterward drove over to Chapleau's house. He did not know why Senecal took him over there, but when there Chapleau told him to tell the committee the whole truth. He inferred that Chapleau did not know before that Senecal had been demanding presents.

A CHECK FOR $200.

Mr. Stark, of Toronto, was called in the absence of Mr. Crosby, the manager of the Stark Company, and stated that he had been told that money was paid to Mr. Senecal. He could not give the amount nor could he say whether it was entered in the books. Finally he stated that he himself had given Mr. Senecal a check for $200. The check had been made out and signed by Crosby, and he understood that Senecal was to come to him for it.

THE BAIE CHALEURS BUSINESS.

Before the Senate Railway Committee last night Mr. Angus Thom, secretary-treasurer of the new company, testified that he made all the arrangements with the Government for the issue of the charter to the new company and forced Armstrong to accept $175,000 in settlement of his claim; that there was no suggestion that Pacaud should receive any money, that he knew nothing about Pacaud until the arrangements were completed. He afterwards learned that a sum of $45,000 or $64,000 was advanced to Pacaud and Armstrong and paid out of the $100,000.

The Ottawa Free Press says it is rumored to-day that Mr. E. Wilson, collector of customs here, is to be superannuated to make room for Mr. Haggart, now Postmaster-General.

GREAT GALES

Sweep Along the Atlantic Coast.

A Belfast Steamer Wrecked and Eight Lives Lost.

Narrow Escape of a Steamer with 100 Passengers on Board—Other Marine Mishaps.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Violent gales and rainstorms continue to sweep over Great Britain and Ireland. Dispatches from Dublin state the crops throughout the Province of Ulster are in a pitiable condition and that in many parts of Ulster and elsewhere they are almost entirely submerged. In other sections the crops are in several feet of water and will be completely destroyed.

A HUNDRED LIVES IN PERIL.

Off Ilfracombe, Devonshire, yesterday, during a gale, a passenger steamer having 100 passengers on board had a narrow escape from destruction. A succession of heavy seas struck her, sweeping the decks, smashing in the saloon skylights, and pouring tons of water down the companionways. So severe was the pounding the steamer received by the waves that many passengers were severely injured, of which number six are in a precarious condition.

ALL HANDS LOST.

In the Mersey a fishing smack making for shelter from the storm foundered, All hands were lost.

On the south coast of England there have been several wrecks and a number of exciting scenes.

EIGHT DROWNED.

HALIFAX, Sept. 2.—Twenty survivors of the crew of the steamer Du Murray, of Belfast, were landed here last night by the oil tank steamers Hans and Kurt, that had picked them up from a life boat in an exhausted condition. The Du Murray was wrecked on Saturday during a heavy gale. Eight of the crew were lost.

TWO SEAMEN WASHED OVERBOARD.

The steamer Duart Castle, from Halifax to Bermuda, had a very rough experience. Two seamen were washed overboard.

TWO SCHOONERS WRECKED.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 2.—Two crews belonging to shipwrecked schooners have arrived here from St. Johns, Nfld. One of the vessels, the Byron (Capt. Byron Hines), was wrecked near Cape Race on Aug. 18 in a dense fog. The crew experienced much difficulty in landing. Four of the eight dories were smashed and the men barely escaped with their lives. Five minutes after the vessel struck she went down. The men were obliged to remain on shore without shelter or food for three days. After the storm abated they rowed to Trepassey, a distance of fourteen miles. The Byron belonged to Pubnico.

The American schooner Charles F. Mayo (Captain Barnes) was wrecked on the same day as the Byron, near Broad Cove, Conception Bay. She struck a rock during a dense fog, but was hauled off by another schooner. In the morning the captain of the Mayo found that his schooner was sinking, and in order to save life beached her. The vessel belonged to Provincetown, Mass., and was on a fishing voyage.

DISASTER IN DETROIT RIVER.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 2.—Yesterday morning as the propeller Edward H. Jenks was coming up the River from Kelly's Island and was a short distance below the head of Grosse Isle she came into collision with the propeller George W. Morely, bound down. The Jenks was immediately sunk, and Mrs. Ekbert, the wife of the captain of the Jenks, and Albert Jacobs, of Point Clinton, O., the second engineer, and one fireman of the Jenks were carried down with the vessel.

Suicide at Brockville.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 2.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Wm. Dowell, aged about 50 years, while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity took a dose of carbolic acid and died this evening.

Death of Rev. Dr. J. W. Olmstead.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 1.—Rev. Dr. John Wesley Olmstead, for 40 years editor of the Watchman, the Baptist denominational paper, died at Manchester-by-the-Sea yesterday.

A Farmer Killed at Winona.

WIONA, Ont., Sept. 2.—A fatal accident occurred at a Grand Trunk Railway crossing, a short distance from this place, early this morning. A farmer on his way to the Hamilton market, driving a team of horses, was struck by the engine of a freight train and killed instantaneously. The horses were pitched several yards and killed outright.

Successful Rainmaking.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 2.—Melbourn's rain-making has been crowned with success. At 2:30 yesterday a storm suddenly broke forth, contrary to all expectations, and two hours later there was a heavy rain in accordance to Melbourn's predictions. The rain fall extended over a radius of fifteen to twenty miles around the city and the official measurement was one-half inch.

A French Expeditionary Party in Trouble.

PARIS, Sept. 1.—The French Government has received a dispatch announcing that Fourneau's expedition to explore the valley of Sangabayen, Central Soudan, and the French Congo, was attacked by natives, with the result that 16 were killed and 31, including Forneau himself, were wounded. All the merchandise and many rifles belonging to the expedition were lost. The expedition were obliged to slowly retreat, being harassed by the natives.

A New Lake Formed by a Landslide.

VIENNA, Sept. 7.—The landslide in progress in the valley of the Drave, which is forming a dam across the Leinzer gorge, promises to cause more damage than at first expected. In spite of the efforts of the inhabitants of that district, who have been working day and night in their efforts to make a passage for the imprisoned water, the landslide is forming an immense lake, and threatens to divert the course of the Drave. The masses of earth and stone already fallen from the mountains form a solid body of dam fully 20,000 cubic yards in bulk. This shifting of earth has also brought down four acres of forest, and further damage is apprehended.

CHILI BECOMING COOLER

Order Gradually Being Restored in the Country.

Gen. Bascuedno Temporarily Takes President Balmaceda's Position.

Prominent Government Officials to be Shot—Several Executions Already Taken Place.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—A special from Valparaiso says: Order is gradually being restored in Chili. Gen. Bascuedno has been recognized as President ad interim for the Republic by the members of the Junta here, and little doubt is felt but that this action will be ratified by the members now en route from Iquique.

The Government troops at Concepcion, Talcahuano and other places have through their commanding officers notified the Congressionalist authorities that they have finished fighting and are ready to obey orders from the Junta, and only Coquimbo promises to make trouble. All that remains to be done now is to put down the sporadic cases of disorder, bring to trial such of the Balmacedist officials as have been guilty of outrageous acts of tyranny, and prepare for the elections which will again give the Republic an unquestioned constitutional Government. Several prominent Government officials will be shot after trial by martial law.

Balmaceda's officials at Coquimbo have cut the English cable there and refuse to surrender and will make a fight.

The first and so far the only execution which has the appearance of having been prompted by revenge occurred here to-day. The prosecutor, Fiscal Fas, who prosecuted the cases against the men who were alleged to be in a plot to blow up the torpedo boats Almirante Lynch and Almirante Condell and the transport Imperiale, was taken out and shot. There have been other executions since the occupation of the city by the Congressionalists, but they have been of men who were guilty of stirring up the people to acts of riot and incendiarism. The most prominent of the men who have thus far been killed on this account is Leon Lavin, editor of El Commercio. He was executed without the semblance of a trial. Much indignation is felt both in official and unofficial circles that the political refugees on board German and American warships should be kept from the authorities. A formal demand for their surrender was made yesterday on Admiral Brown and the German admiral, but was refused. After a consultation the two naval officers informed the Government that they would decline to surrender the men unless proper guarantees are given that their lives will be safe until they had a fair trial. A list of all the men who had sought refuge on the warships has been furnished so that the proper officials may decide which should receive the guarantee. Those who are not guaranteed will probably be taken direct to Peru. The French admiral refused to harbor any of the refugees. Ex-President Balmaceda will unquestionable try to make his way across the country to the Atlantic coast. He is now practically beyond pursuit.

DEVASTATION IN DAKOTA.

A Thousand Square Miles Burned Over.

And a Thousand Persons Rendered Homeless—Great Destruction of Crops and Cattle.

SIOUX FALLS, Sept. 1.—One thousand square miles of rich farming land in Faulk county are black with smouldering ashes and hundreds of thousands of bushels of grain and tons of hay have gone up in smoke. The fire occured on Friday and was the worst ever known in Dakota.

Faulk county, which lies 200 miles northwest of here, had raised enormous crops this year and the farmers were busy threshing. A spark from a steam threshing machine near Faulkton ignited the dry stubble and in a short time the flames had spread over a stretch twenty miles wide and were rushing over the prairie. Nothing could stop them, and the brisk southeast wind which was blowing carried sparks for half a mile.

At Loyalton the citizens worked for eight hours and barely saved their houses, but lost all their crops and cattle. Dozens of farm houses standing on the open prairie were swept away with their outlying buildings. Several other villages lay in the track of the blaze, but they were saved by the most desperate exertions.

The burned districts cover an area of 20 miles wide by 50 long, and in all that territory there is not a tree or hay stack or herd of cattle which escaped. So far no loss of life is reported, but at least 1,000 persons are homeless and the loss of property is incalculable.

A New Allen Steamer.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—The new Allan Line steamship Numidian arrived in port yesterday. She left Liverpool Aug. 20 and had a very rough passage out. Her dimensions are: Length, 415 feet; breadth, 45 feet and depth of hold 33 feet. She is built of steel and has a registered tonnage of 3,181. She is to engage in the passenger and cattle trade, having accommodation for 52 saloons and 855 cattle. She has no permanent cattle fittings. The new vessel is commanded by Capt. McNicoll, formerly of the Carthaginian.

A New York Policeman Murdered.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Policeman J. Sherman, of the West One Hundredth street station, was murdered this morning by Francis Noah, the colored servant of Alexander C. Hyer, who resides at 144 West One Hundred and Fifth street. Mr. Hyer asked the officer to arrest the colored man for disorderly conduct. Noah resisted arrest, and while Mr. Hyer went in search of another officer stabbed the policeman in the throat, killing him instantly. The murderer then attempted suicide by stabbing himself in the neck, but inflicted only slight injury. He was locked up.

Why It Is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequaled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Hon. Thomas McGreevy's Resignation Not Accepted.

A Warrant for the Arrest of Boodler Senecal.

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—When the House met this afternoon the first matter of interest was the presentation of the report of the Committee of Privileges and Elections with regard to the validity of the resignation of Mr. Thomas McGreevy. The committee found that the election of Hon. Thomas McGreevy was lawfully contested on the 15th day of April last, and that the contestation was pending at the time that he tendered his resignation to Mr. Speaker; that under the circumstances the sub-committee recommends that the resignation be not acted upon by Mr. Speaker, and that his warrant for the issue of a new writ be recalled. The report also dealt with the subject of the formal notification of election protest to the Speaker, and recommended that the statute be altered so as to provide that the Speaker be so formally notified of all future election protests.

The deputy sergeant-at-arms reported that witness Andre Senecal left Ottawa on or about the 24th ult., and although he had made diligent search for him had been unable to find him. He had accordingly left with a member of Mr. Senecal's family on Friday last the order for his attendance at the bar of the House.

On motion of Mr. Lister it was directed that Andre Senecal be taken in the custody of the sergeant-at-arms, and the Speaker to issue his warrant accordingly.

The House took up in committee consideration of the proposed resolution providing for the cancellation and discharge of certain mortgage bonds of the North Shore Railway Company held by Mr. Bowell. It was Sir John Thompson who brought the matter forward, and he told the story of the voting of the North Shore Railway subsidies to the extent of $1,500,000 in 1884 and 1885, to be used in such a way as to provide for the extension of the Canadian Pacific Railway to the harbor of Quebec. The Government then held the bonds, but agreed that the interest thereon should not be paid unless the road paid its way. The road has not hitherto paid its way, so that the Government has received no interest while the conditions referred to naturally had the effect of discouraging the C.P.R., who now control the road, from putting it on a paying basis, hence they have made few improvements, feeling that whatever they did in that way would inure not to their benefit, but to the benefit of the Dominion. It was a bad arrangement, from which nobody got any advantage, and it was right that it should be terminated by releasing the lien created by the bonds. Sir Charles Tupper promised on the eve of the last election that this release would be effected, and if the release was a simple act of justice to Quebec, as is now contended, that did not make it right for Sir Charles Tupper to include it in a batch of ante-election promises. However, Mr. Laurier and the House generally agreed to the formal transfer, and the resolutions were carried.

On the motion to go into supply Mr. Barron brought up the subject of the Trent Valley Canal. He asked for a pronouncement of the intentions of the Government on the subject. Sir John Macdonald, on 3rd March last, had telegraphed to Trenton:

"The Trent Valley Commission have reported favorably on the completion of the scheme. Parliament will be asked in the estimates for a grant next session."

There could not have been a more straight or more determined promise than that. Speaking of the work already done on the canal he said the commission had reported that the four locks at Burleigh might have been made one foot narrower at a saving of $20,000 each. This saving on the 71 locks on the route would amount to a total of almost $1,500,000. Although the first estimate was $10,000,000 as the cost of the canal, he believed it could now be completed for $5,000,000. This was not too large an amount for Ontario to ask for when the expenditures for railways in other Provinces were considered. While $8,000,000 had been expended in Quebec, $4,250,000 in New Brunswick, $9,000,000 in Nova Scotia, only $1,970,000 had been expended in Ontario for railways. He showed the saving of time and distance the Trent Valley Canal route would make from Salt Ste. Marie to Kingston. He concluded with a vigorous appeal to the Government to keep their promises, desist from election humbugging and keep faith with the people.

Mr. Stevenson, of West Peterborough, expressed himself as having still some hope that the canal would be completed.

Mr. Burnham, of East Peterborough, dwelt upon the importance of the canal, especially as a means of shortening the water communication between Chicago and other ports upon the western lakes on the one hand, and Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence on the other.

Mr. Corby advocated the canal and urged that a large sum be placed in the estimates this year.

Mr. Haggart said the Government's policy was unchanged. It would carry on the work.

Capt. Welsh said he would tell the House that the Prince Edward Island members would not listen to any large grant of money for any great public works in the Dominion until the Prince Edward Island tunnel was completed.

The House went into supply, and took up the vote for Indian affairs, which was again severely criticised. Mr. Laurier, Mr. M. C. Cameron and Mr. McMullen had a number of questions to ask with regard to the administration of the funds. There was a general feeling on the Opposition side that there should be a full investigation with regard to the expenses of management.

At 1 o'clock the Government took up the Northwest Mounted Police estimate.

The House adjourned at 1:50 o'clock,

The Grain Situation.

The Hungarian Government has issued an estimate of the world's grain harvest, based upon consular reports from all parts of the world. The yield of wheat is estimated at from 725,000,000 hectolitres, and rye at from 350,000,000 to 560,000,000 hectolitres, being from 44,000,000 to 55,000,000 hectolitres below the average for wheat, and from 90,000,000 to 100,000,000 hectolitres below the average for rye. Austria requires to import from 10,000,000 to 12,000,000 hectolitres of wheat and 6,000,000 hectolitres of rye; Germany, 10,000,000 hectolitres of wheat and from 23,000,000 to 26,000,000 hectolitres of rye, and France, 30,000,000 hectolitres of wheat. Hungary has a surplus of 12,000,000 to 13,000,000 hectolitres of wheat, but in rye there is a large deficit. In Russia the wheat surplus amounts to 16,500,000 hectolitres, and the rye deficit amounts to 40,000,000 to 45,000,000 hectolitres.

LABOR MOVEMENTS.

A Colossal Federation Proposed—Baron Stumm's Liberal Resolve.

At a conference at Leeds Monday of delegates from the various labor union organizations of Great Britain, representing 50,000 workmen, a motion to form a federation of the unions of skilled and unskilled workmen were approved. A committee was appointed to organize the federation. Unions comprising a membership of 116,000 men have already announced their adherence to the new movement.

Baron Stumm, one of the largest employers of labor in Germany, has decided to pay higher wages to all his employes while the dearness of food continues, and to increase the pensions allowed to widows of employes and others.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Street Railway Traffic Completed —Mortality Returns.

TORONTO, Sept. 2.—The transfer of the city's street railway system to the Kiely-Everett syndicate was duly effected yesterday afternoon, and the syndicate at once assumed control. Cheap fare tickets of eight for 25 cents will be issued at once. The earnings for last week were $15,875.

A $1 excursion to Detroit and return was taken advantage of yesterday by about 600 people. The number would have been larger had not the company, owing to the lack of accommodation, withdrawn the tickets from sale about 11 o'clock in the morning.

The mortality returns for August show a death rate about the average. There have been 316 deaths, as compared with 312 last year. Infant mortality was very high, the figure being 203 out of 312.

At the session of the Toronto Presbytery Rev. G. M. Milligan was appointed moderator for six months.

An inquest was commenced yesterday at Mimico on the remains of the unfortunate farmer, Willis, who was killed on the track on Monday night.

A Splendid Opening at the Grand.

The opening of the Grand Opera House season last night was marked by a large and delighted audience, and the brightest and merriest of comedies. "Two Old Cronies," as produced by Frank M. Wills and his clever company, bubbles over with fun of the funniest kind, and is replete with sparkling music, graceful movement, witty dialogue and side-splitting absurdities. From beginning to end the audience was in a roar of laughter or applause, recalls being frequent and enthusiastic. As Prof. Krietzmeyer, the inimitable Frank M. Wills appealed to the risibles of his auditors irresistibly, while his talented brother John as O'Donovan Duff proved himself a comedian of intrinsic merit. Many charming specialties are introduced, including excellect singing and dancing. Louis Fininger's whistling was clever and he was twice encored. The costumes are elegant and novel in character with several entire changes. In the last act especially the costly dresses of the quartet are of wonderfully unique design. The "Two Old Cronies" is certain to make a big hit wherever it is presented, and the local management may be congratulated on last night's success.

Histogenetic
System of Medicine.
All diseases successfully treated by a new system of non-poisonous and tasteless medicines. Send for free book explaining system and testimonials of the most remarkable cures on record.

I have been a great sufferer from a female weakness of long standing, and have been treated by several physicians, and have also been under treatment in the Toronto Hospital, and all failed to cure me. I saw a medical book explaining the Histogenetic System, and resolved to give it a trial. I consulted Dr. Rear, who prescribed these remedies and assured me they would cure me. I had my doubts, but was determined to try once more. I took treatment two weeks, and am utterly astonished at the results. I am nearly well, and no language can describe how thankful I am that my life is spared. This testimony is voluntary, and I give it honing that hundreds of my sex may try the medicines and receive the same marvelous good that I have. They are good to take, and, unlike any medicine I ever took before, leave no bad effects.
MRS. J. FAWCETT,
June 5, 1890. 102 John street, Toronto.

I was attacked with congestion of the liver and inflammation of the kidneys, attended with excruciating pains in my side and back. Could not lie on either side—could scarcely breathe. The slightest movement caused agonizing pain. Nothing gave me relief. I sent for Dr. Rear, knowing he had cured by daughter of a dangerous illness with Histogenetic Medicine after she had been given up by four skillful physicians. In one week my pain was gone and liver and kidneys acting as well as ever. The cure is complete. It acts the most like magic of any medicine I ever took. I sincerely hope that the suffering ladies of Toronto and elsewhere may try the superior merits of these pure and tasteless medicines. My object in giving this testimony is purely through sympathy for the sick and dying.

BORDER STATE BRIEFS.

Detroit Exposition drew 20,000 visitors on Thursday.

"John the Kisser," of Detroit, has been caught and sent down for 50 days.

There are 700 men engaged on Government work of different kinds at the Sault.

Jackson will vote on Sept. 14 on the question of issuing $100,000 worth of waterworks bonds.

Camps are already being started in the Georgian Bay district, and it is estimated that 120,000,000 feet will be cut there this winter and rafted to Saginaw Valley mills.

Since 1886 there has been 255,000,000 feet of pine timber cut in Alger county. But 150,000,000 feet remains, and that will probably be cut off in the next five years.

Mrs. Burr Hurley, keeper of a Marquette boarding house, and Mrs. Curtiss, of the Sault, are said to be among the heirs to a fortune of $10,000,000 left by English relatives.

Kaolin, a fine variety of clay used in making porcelain, has been discovered in township 49, range 36 west, in the upper peninsula, and a company has been formed to develop the deposits.

Stafford Oatman, a Menominee man, has invented a lumber camp on wheels, a train of six cars, more or less, as desired, fitted up for the accommodation of the men, and run along logging roads to points where lumbering operations are in progress.

A. M. Hobbs, of near Shepherd, some seasons ago planted some West India coffee berries, and has used the same each year in his family instead of store coffee. This prolific year he has harvested seven bushels and is furnishing seed to his neighbors, who around the "crick" they like it better than prize package stuff.

The reward of $10,000 offered by Jackson county and of $2,000 offered by Mr. White for the apprehension of the Crouch murderers has never been earned, and the offers still hold good. Few will believe him, but a detective who has worked for years on the case says there will be further sensational developments before long.

A bay mare belonging to H. Schultz was taken to Dr. Sternes' stables in Saginaw, suffering from hydrophobia. No one dared go near her, she being terribly violent. Frothing and fuming she died. It is pronounced a case of active hydrophobia. A boy, a horse, a cow and a dog have died of the disease in Saginaw during the last few weeks.

The estate of James N. Davis, St. Thomas, who assigned some time ago, has been wound up, and after paying the creditors 100 cents on the dollar, Davis will have a substantial balance.

Mrs. Jonathan Steele, Union, died on Wednesday, aged 83 years. She was one of the oldest residents of the county.

Mrs. Chas. Stringer, Southwold, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, Rodney, were returning home from St. Thomas on Saturday, when the horse they drove became unruly. Mrs. Smith remained in the rig and was uninjured, but Mrs. Stringer jumped out and broke both bones of her right leg.

Two men have been arrested near Rodney on a charge of having burglarized the stores of Hockin & Pool and D. E. McDiarmid & Co. in Dutton on Sunday morning. Only a small sum of money was secured, though in McDiarmid's safe, which was unopened, there was $700. The men are at Dutton for trial.

Rev. W. D. Campbell has resigned the pastorate of the Church of Christ in Aylmer to take up evangelistic work, and has been presented with a well-filled purse. Mrs. Campbell also has received a costly family Bible.

Alfred E. Ridley, sentenced to four years in the Kingston Penitentiary for forgery at the Elgin Fall Assizes in 1887, was released some weeks ago, his time having expired. It is also stated that on his release he received a large sum of money from the old country, and left without seeing his relatives or friends, or notifying them of his movements.

ESSEX.

A telephone line will be built in Harrow from Kingsville or Amherstburg.

Drainage work to the extent of $22,000 is being done in Colchester South.

Charles Andrews has been arrested at Windsor, on the information of Ed. Thremer, of Chicago, charging him with taking stolen goods into Canada. The goods consisted of a suit of clothes and a hat, the property of Thremer, as he claims, while Andrews asserts that he took the clothes as security for money loaned to Thremer. Both men are seamen.

The trial of Bray, Temple, Heman, Desmarais, Glago, Coyne and Chitties, the locked-out tailors charged with assaulting Wm. McBain, was heard at Windsor on Saturday. The magistrate thought a case had been made out, and committed them all to the assizes. The bail was allowed to remain the same.

The residence of Mrs. A. Botsford, Windsor, was burglarized Thursday afternoon and a lot of silverware and table linen taken.

The Electric Railway Company at Windsor have a claim filed against them of $2,500 for duty on materials purchased on the other side. They claim to be exempt from duty, as they hold a regular railway charter.

Wm. Tillman, cashier of a Louisville, Ky., bank, is at the Crawford House, Windsor. The bank's shortage is $37,000 in cash and $15,000 in bonds, but Major Tillman denies that he is responsible. He was in the army on the staff of Gen. A. S. Williams. He was made paymaster, and as such paid out $23,000,000.

Susan Kerr Maidstone, retired as usual last Friday night, sleeping with her sister. In the morning she had disappeared and has not been seen since, except perhaps by a neighbor's boy of about 10 years old, who had occasion to be up about 3 o'clock, and saw a woman, whom he thought was the missing girl, pass the house on the road going east. That is the only clue as to the direction taken. Searching parties have scoured the woods and the surrounding country for miles without finding any trace or information of her whereabouts. The young lady is 23 years of age, has light curly hair, rather short, had on light brown dress with black trimmings, man's coarse straw hat with red band and wide rim, light red woolen stockings without shoes; is about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches in height, of medium build, weighing about 115 pounds.

While threshing grain at Adam Fox's on the lake front, Colchester, the other day, the engineer got his hand in one of the wheels, the result being a finger was torn off, while a thumb and another finger were badly crushed.

The Doherty Organ Company, of Clinton, are seeking to establish in Chatham a company with a capital of $96,000, and asks the modest sum of $40,000 for patents and good will. The town has been asked to give a $10,000 building, free land, taxes and water.

The Dover band attended the lawn social on Aug. 27, at Puxton. R. L. Holden, Chatham, gave an interesting address in the interest of the Kent Civil Rights League. W. H. Bazy, Chatham, also spoke, and his elucidations seemed to break forth as a flood of light upon the minds of his hearers, says a correspondent. It was announced that the proceeds of the 3rd of August celebration in Chatham were $100, and the proceeds of the Buxton social were $20. A number of humorous songs and recitations were furnished, and a pleasant evening enjoyed by all.

Frank Murdoch, Chatham, who was injured by a cannon on Dominion Day, was on Saturday discharged from the hospital, and was delighted to see his own fireside. He has yet some troublesome sores on his body, and the sight of his remaining eye is poor. On the way he said he could but dimly distinguish the horse behind which he sat. The recovery of his sight is a problem.

On Sunday night the barns of Wm. Tinney, Dover, near Chatham, were destroyed by fire with all their contents. Five years ago Mr. Tinney also lost all his season's crop by fire.

After completing their work they go to Brandon, Man., and labor in Manitoba till January, when they go to Victoria, B. C. They will conduct services in British Columbia during the winter, returning to the Northwest in the spring.

Ingersoll's assessment for the current year will be 19½ mills.

Burke Braemar, Embro, sustained a heavy loss during the recent thunder storm. His young cattle were pasturing some distance from the buildings, and for two or three days after the storm they were not looked after. One of his neighbors then found five of his best heifers lying side by side dead.

WELLAND.

Col. Morin has assumed his duties as treasurer of Welland county, and will for the present continue to reside in Ridgeway.

Daniel O'Day, president of the Buffalo National Gas Company, has been asked as to the intention of his company to increase their service in Buffalo, and has made the startling statement that the company had intended to do so, but they found the value of Canadian gas was on the decrease, and his company did not feel warranted in making the extensions asked for at present. The statement, if true, is a very important one.

WENTWORTH.

Mrs. John Winer, Hamilton, was 90 years old on Friday. She was born on a farm near Niagara Falls, on the Canadian side of the river, Aug. 28, 1801. Most of her long life has been spent in Hamilton. Her husband, the late John Winer, died only four years ago. Mrs. Winer is physically feeble, but her mental faculties are keen.

Mrs. McBean, sen., an old lady about 80 years of age, residing near Clyde, met with a most serious accident on Monday. She was going out to feed the chickens, when she stepped on a damp board and slipped, falling in such a position as to fracture the thigh bone. As soon as possible medical aid was obtained and the fracture reduced, but, at Mrs. McBean's age, the accident is serious.

WELLINGTON.

John McCorkindale, one of the early settlers of Guelph, died at the residence of his daughter in Elora on Thursday. He came to this country from Scotland with his parents in 1828 and settled in Guelph, where he continued to reside up to a few years ago. He was widely known and very highly esteemed.

Mrs. Savage, widow of the late David Savage, Guelph, and mother of the Rev. D. Savage, of Tilsonburg, died on Saturday after a short illness. The lady was among the early settlers of Guelph and was very widely known.

Alex. McCaig, Puslinch, boasts of a sample of amber wheat, shown at the seed fair, Guelph, which weighed 67 pounds to the bushel.

A man named Moyer, working on John McIntosh's farm, Guelph township, had his leg broken a few days ago. Mrs. McTaggart, a neighbor, had driven home and put the horse in the stable. It fell through the floor into the mow below, and help was sent for to Mr. McIntosh's. In attempting to raise the horse it fell on Moyer, who is a hard-working farm laborer, breaking his leg.

WATERLOO.

Adam Hood, Galt, has received a letter from his daughter Mrs. (Prof.) Wright, now with her husband on a trip to Europe, in which she states she had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Dr. Smith preach in Dr. Fraser's church in London, England. Dr. and Mrs. Smith were enjoying good health.

W. J. Armstrong, Branchton, has been engaged as assistant to Mr. Alexander in Galt during the model school term.

The members of the Knox Church choir, of Galt, were, at the close of the prayer meeting on Wednesday evening, each made the recipient of a present from the congregation. The lady members each received a beautiful Bagster Bible, together with a sum of money, and the gentlemen members a Bagster Bible. On the front of each Bible was printed the name of the recipient.

The lower sheet of the large stand-pipe for the Galt waterworks was so far completed on Wednesday that it was lowered into position on the solid concrete foundation prepared for it. Altogether, there will be nearly 16,000 rivets used in the structure which, when completed, will weigh upwards of 65 tons. When filled with water, it is calculated that the weight on the foundation will be about 1,200 tons.

SENATOR W. A. PEFFER.

The Farmers' Alliance Successor to Ingalls in the United States Senate.

Senator Peffer is a Western farmer and has lived nearly all his life in Kansas. He has also studied law and has been an editor. Whatever his abilities may be, there is no doubt that he has the courage of his convictions and he will make himself heard in the Senate. He described the campaign in Kansas as a revolution and himself as a Moses, leading the oppressed children of Israel.

Senator Peffer is certainly very much in earnest. He believes that the Farmers' Alliance is a great movement of the people, that it will grow stronger and stronger until the "great awakening," which he says will be evident early in 1892. He claims that it has over 3,000,000 members and is rapidly growing, and that it is strongest in the Southern and Northwestern States. Col. Polk, the president of the alliance, is of the same opinion as Senator Peffer. Senator Peffer believes that the people have been delegating the business of government to politicians and lawyers, and that the interest of the masses are jeopardized by the syndicates and monopolies and growingly dominant corporations.

He asserts that the money power has been robbing the farmers through an actual or relative contraction of the circulating medium, and they believe in free silver if not limitless issues of irredeemable paper. They desire at least only money that shall have a normal purchasing power. Senator Peffer lives in Topeka, Kan.

"German Syrup"

A Throat and Lung Specialty.

Those who have not used Boschee's German Syrup for some severe and chronic trouble of the Throat and Lungs can hardly appreciate what a truly wonderful medicine it is. The delicious sensations of healing, easing, clearing, strength-gathering and recovering are unknown joys. For German Syrup we do not ask easy cases Sugar and water may smooth a throat or stop a tickling—for a while. This is as far as the ordinary cough medicine goes. Boschee's German Syrup is a discovery, a great Throat and Lung Specialty. Where for years there have been sensitiveness, pain, coughing, spitting, hemorrhage, voice failure, weakness, slipping down hill, where doctors and medicine and advice have been swallowed and followed to the gulf of despair, where there is the sickening conviction that all is over and the end is inevitable, there we place German Syrup. It cures. You are a live man yet if you take it.

ANOTHER GERRYMANDER.

There is talk in Conservative circles about another redistribution of Dominion constituencies—a gerrymander, having for its object, under pretense of equalizing the electoral divisions, the "hiving of the Grits." This expedient, we suppose, is intended to convince the public that the men now in power at Ottawa have confidence that the independent electors are ready to vote confidence in them. We do not know how the carving up of the constituencies will affect electoral divisions in other parts of the Dominion, but we have no hesitation in affirming that the Western Ontario divisions were in 1882 so carved and twisted around in order, if possible, to secure unfair advantage for the high tax party, that no changes now made can be expected to add to its strength. With all their expedients to trump up majorities the high tax leaders cannot stem the tide of popular desire, and so in almost every constituency in the West, despite the gerrymander of 1882, the high tax policy was rejected last March, and there is reason for the belief that, in the event of a new election, even the gerrymander would not keep the majority of the electors in such constituencies as West and North Middlesex from voting in favor of trade freedom.

The last gerrymander, despicable though it was, has not been that success the players with loaded dice expected it to be. If there is to be more juggling with the representation the attempt will carry no harm to the opponents of the discredited promoters of the scheme. In Western Ontario further manipulation of the electoral districts cannot be relied on as an expedient to get rid of able critics of high tax tactics. The electors will simply regard all such artful dodging as indicative of a disposition to distrust the verdict of the people.

IT IS announced that Capt. Murray, of Murray & Cleveland, St. Catharines, will sue the Toronto Mail for giving currency to statements regarding the work of that contracting firm at Toronto. Capt. Murray asserts that so far as his firm is concerned it is carrying out its work in accordance with the specifications, and honestly, too.

HOW NOT TO DO IT.

The Conservatives of Ottawa held a caucus the other day and very heartily indorsed the policy of Mr. Abbott in respect of civil service delinquents. That policy is now generally understood. It is to probe to the bottom of all these irregularities, to punish offenders with stern justice, and to remodel the service wherever it can be improved.—[London Free Press.

This declaration would in some measure be calculated to reassure the public if the conduct of the Government, so far, were not diametrically opposite to its alleged determination.

It is not difficult to supply notorious instances.

A disgraceful illustration was brought out in Parliament last night when the Minister of Finance confessed that a Montreal customs clerk, who had embezzled $3,500 of public money, had not been prosecuted, because his friends had made good the stolen funds! Think of this compounding of a felony by the rulers of the land, and then tell us that offenders are being punished with "stern justice." The Hamilton street railway employ gave up $12,000 worth of property, when it was found that he was a thief, and he was only tried for stealing $8,000, yet he goes to the penitentiary for a long term. Will our city contemporary say why the "stern justice" dispensers should have pardoned the civil servant found guilty of a similar offense merely because he has hitherto moved in higher society circles?

Then we have Tetu, a former employe in the department controlled by Mr. Carling. Nearly a year and a half ago, the Ottawa authorities were informed by a responsible officer that Tetu was a thief, but probably because he was a nephew to Sir Hector Langevin no decided action was taken against him till a few weeks ago, when Mr. McMullen, M.P., brought the question up in Parliament, and again made the serious charges. Then a special officer was sent to Manitoba, but not to place Tetu under surveillance, and secure his punishment, if guilty. Tetu was allowed to clear out, and take up his residence in Dakota, where he is now in hiding. Again we ask, was it "stern justice" to play with this officer and the "forgery and embezzlement" of which he has been found guilty by the official investigator? Any financial institution that would administer "stern justice" in this fashion could not hold the confidence of its shareholders for a day.

We might enlarge on the "stern justice" that has been extended to Mr. Thomas McGreevy, M.P., who was allowed to flee to Maine; and to boodling Superintendent Senecal, who was permitted to collect $20,000 in tolls from contractors with whom he did business on behalf of the Government, and was then permitted to flee to the States; but that is unnecessary. The illustrations we have given are surely sufficient.

CIGARS AND BEER FOR INDIANS.

It came out in the House of Commons last night that Minister Dewdney's subordinates in the Northwest Territories have been allowed to charge the public purse with expenditures for "cigars and beer" for Indians. We agree with Mr. M. C. Cameron that it is not probable that the Indians ever received a cent's worth of cigars or beer; but even if they had obtained it, the expenditure of public money for these articles would be most unwarranted. The assistance to the Indians should take no other shape than the supply of food, clothing or implements with which to aid them in earning a living.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

SO UNDER the Franco-British Treaty, Great Britain enjoys trade privileges in France that are denied Canada. This is nothing more nor less than discrimination against us. Assuredly it is time that the Dominion insisted on drawing up its own trade treaties.

‡‡‡

SIR LEONARD TILLEY says that under no circumstances will he re-enter public life. The compiler of the high tax policy has a long head; he will not go on board a sinking ship. No one can disguise the fact that his project for making a few rich at the expense of the many is thoroughly discredited.

‡‡‡

IF THE REPORT that the people of Kingston, irrespective of party leanings, are thinking of tendering a nomination to Edward Blake for the House of Commons is correct, the news should be welcome to every honest man in the House and in the country, whether Conservative or Liberal. As an independent force in Parliament, Mr. Blake could render inestimable service at this time in the needed work of raising Canadian politics to a higher plane.

‡‡‡

THE Maritime Provinces are at present the stronghold of the Conservative party, yet so great has been the loss of population that under the proposed redistribution of seats the representation of New Brunswick must be diminished by two, Nova Scotia by one, and Prince Edward Island by one, two of the lost seats going to Manitoba. When the Maritime representation is reduced from 43 to 39, there will be lively times for the men who made themselves responsible for keeping the country prosperous.

‡‡‡

WHAT an illogical set the Government administrators at Ottawa are. In the last eight years they have spent $2,342,107 of public money for mail and steamship subsidies, in a large measure presumably to encourage trade with foreign countries, while they keep up the high tax barriers to render that trade as difficult as possible. They even subsidize steamships to compete with private lines, to the serious loss of the independent capitalists of the country. How long will the people tolerate this money-squandering aggregation?

WINTER WHEAT EXPERIMENTS.

Prof. Shaw and Mr. C. A. Zavitz, assistant superintendent of experiments at the Ontario Agricultural College, have been doing splendid and timely service in the matter of testing winter wheats, the results of which have now been given the farming public in bulletin form. The ample yield of winter wheat this year in Ontario will no doubt, as has already been pointed out in these columns, stimulate the sowing of a large area, and if next season be less favorable, as is quite likely, then many farmers will be disappointed. Prof. Shaw, therefore, does well to express a word of caution on this point. He says:

"The aim should be not so much to grow a large acreage as to adopt such methods of cultivation and to secure such varieties as are likely to give a large yield per acre. With this end in view, the importance of good drainage, sowing at the right time and suitable conditions of soil in relation to rotation, fertility and natural adaptability cannot easily be over-estimated. All things considered, it would be better not to sow winter wheat at all than to sow it under conditions not likely to produce a good crop."

During the year there were in all some 70 plots of winter wheat grown at the Guelph station, including 51 varieties. Of these 24 were Canadian and American, and 27 were foreign. The foreign varieties came chiefly from Germany, England, France and Russia. As none of the foreign varieties have as yet proved equal to some of the Canadian and American kinds the experimenters do not feel justified at present in recommending them to be sown. This bulletin, therefore, gives the particulars relating to 23 Canadian and American varieties grown under exactly the same conditions.

As to cultivation and seeding the bulletin says:

"The soil was prepared on the bare fallow system, as it was felt that a test of this nature should be made under the most favorable conditions attainable, to bring out to the fullest extent the capabilities of the grains grown. This is the only bare fallow that we had on the farm. The ground was plowed twice the previous summer. Additional surface cultivation was also given. Farmyard manure was applied at the rate of fifteen tons to the acre. The plots were all sown Sept. 4 with the exception of the Winter Pearl variety, which was sown on Sept. 8. The same amount of seed by weight was sown upon each plot, and it was sown at the rate of 1⅔ bushels per acre."

The average yields of 23 varieties tested were as follows:

Varieties.	Weight of grain per measured bushel. lbs.	Amount of straw per acre. tons.	Yield of grain per acre (bu. 60 lb.)
American Bronze	63.00	2.16	65.2
Garfield or Natural Cross	62.00	2.52	64.4
Surprise	63.25	1.99	63.8
Canadian Velvet Chaff	62.25	1.82	60.9
Bonnell or Landreth	62.75	2.26	59.8
Seneca or Clawson	62.75	2.07	58.9
Standard	63.50	2.02	58.3
Early Red Clawson	62.50	1.93	58.3
Red Velvet Chaff	64.00	1.92	56.9
Jones' Winter Fyfe	64.25	1.77	56.3
Winter Pearl	61.00	2.51	55.5
Rogers	62.50	1.83	54.6
Egyptian	64.00	1.94	53.4
Martin Amber	61.00	2.13	50.4
Golden Cross or Volunt'r	64.00	2.17	49.9
Manchester	64.50	1.53	47.7
Bulgarian	64.50	1.60	46.3
Red Lyon	64.00	1.67	44.5
Golden Drop	63.00	1.61	44.3
Hybrid Mediterranean	64.25	1.92	44.0
Lancaster	64.50	2.11	42.8
Democrat	64.50	1.69	41.6
New Monarch	63.50	1.72	40.8
Average	63.28	1.95	52.93

The weights of the different varieties were tested by James Goldie & Sons, of Guelph. As the yields seem remarkably large the bulletin remarks:

"It may be well, also, to remark that yields such as the above would not have been obtained from whole fields of these respective varieties, nor could they be looked for from cultivation given under average conditions. Small plots yield more relatively than large ones, owing to cultivation around the borders and probably to other causes, and from this extra yield it has been thought that if one-fifth were deducted the result would be a fair average to expect from a whole field under like conditions in other respects."

The results of the experiments are thus summarized:

"1. The splendid returns obtained in this experiment prove that the capabilities of Ontario as a wheat producing country are still of a high order.

"2. The bald wheats have on an average given 9.86 bushels more per acre, or 21.42 per cent. more than the bearded varieties, but the latter have weighed on an average 1.37 pounds more per bushel.

"3. The white wheats have given an average of 5.18 bushels more per acre than the red wheats, and they also stand higher in the estimation of the millers than the latter.

"4. The bald white chaff white wheats gave an average of 13.6 bushels per acre more than the bearded red chaff red wheats.

"5. The seven leading varieties in point of yield were all white wheats except the American Bronze.

"6. These experiments tend to confirm the popular opinion that white wheats under favorable condition will give more bountiful returns than red wheats, and that the same may be said of the bald varieties as contrasted with the bearded.

"7. The four best yielding white wheats for 1891 were Garfield, Surprise, Canadian Velvet Chaff and Bonnell; and the four best yielding varieties of red wheat were the American Bronze, Early Red Clawson, Red Velvet Chaff and Jones' Winter Fyfe, in the order named in both instances.

"8. The best four weighing varieties were the Manchester, Bulgarian, Lancaster and Democrat, each of which gave 64½ pounds per bushel.

"9. The three velvet chaff varieties gave an average yield of 4.77 bushels per acre in excess of the mean average of the 23 varieties, and weighed .22 pounds more per bushel; and they are also included in the leading varieties mentioned in conclusion 7.

"10. Of the varieties enumerated in this bulletin, the Dominion Millers' Association recommended the following as the most serviceable for milling purposes, viz., of the white wheats, the Surprise, Canadian Velvet Chaff and Bulgarian; and of the red wheats, the Jones' Winter Fyfe, the Hybrid Mediterranean and the Longberry Red."

In East Middlesex a variety called Eureka, not included, at least under that name in these experiments, has been grown by a good many farmers, who, as a rule, speak well of it. It is a bald wheat, the grain being white and showy.

"Why, now I cannot get enough to eat," says one lady who formerly had no appetite, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WHAT SHALL IT PROFIT?

[New York Press.]

What shall it profit Peter A. B. Widener, of Philadelphia, to be worth 10,000,000 of cold, hard dollars, made out of Broadway surface railroad and Chicago gas schemes, if he must go to Europe accompanied by a private physician and a body servant because of bodily ailments and physical infirmities? Better be a car driver or a gas stoker in good health.

ABBOTT THE PURIFIER.

[Ottawa Free Press.]

Mr. Mercier should be dismissed, the Tory organs cry, because it is charged, but not proved, that he allowed $100,000 of Provincial money to be misappropriated. But the same organs insist that Dominion Ministers who have connived at the stealing of millions from the Federal treasury should be kept in office. This is the Tory idea of one law for all. If Mr. Abbott, the head-center of the Pacific Scandal ring—the man who handled the money with which the Tories purchased a Parliamentary majority in 1872—is fit to purify Dominion politics, surely Mr. Mercier is fit to reform whatever is wrong in the management of Quebec's affairs.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

Defeat of the Canadian-American Football Team In England.

The Lanark Team Worst the American Eleven—Turf, Baseball and General Sporting News.

FOOTBALL.

The American football eleven which left the United States three weeks ago has been beaten in Lanark, Scotland, 3 to 0, by the Third Lanark Volunteer eleven.

On Saturday the Canadian Rovers drove over to Agincourt and played an interesting game with the Ellesmere football team at that place. Shortly after play was begun both teams tallied, but before darkness set in neither side had increased the score.

The Canadian-American football team played the third game of the tour at Belfast, Ireland, on Saturday, and again suffered defeat. The opposing team was the Linfield Athletic, and play was very fast and even, but Linfield had the best of the luck. The two defeats of the tourists in Scotland had no effect on the attendance, as 7,000 spectators gathered for the match. In the end Linfield Athletic won by 3 goals to 2. The next match is at Sunderland.

THE TRIGGER.

The Dominion Rifle Associatson matches took place Monday at Ottawa. In the nursery contest the first prize, $20, fell to a young shot in Private Lang, of the Thirty-First, Owen Sound, who made a possible 25. Three 24's followed, among them being Capt. Schultz, of the Twentieth. In the MacDougall match Tom Mitchell made 47, a high notch, winning $25. The Twenty-First and Manitoba men also did good shooting and the scoring far exceeded last year when Private Abbott, of the Fifty-Ninth, won with 45, and 36's counted out of the list against 40's this year. The manufacturers' came next, and the scoring again was ahead of last year. Lieut. Elliot, of the Twelfth, won first prize, $30, with a possible 35. In the standing match, the highest scores were: Staff-Sergt. E. A. Cleveland, Fifty-Fourth, 30; Lieut. A. Wilson, Thirty-Third, 30; Staff-Sergt. B. E. Hanna, Fifty-Sixth, 29; Sergt. A. J. Green, Twenty-First, 29; Private R. Moodie, Forty-Third, 29.

The annual distribution of prizes of the Military Rifle League took place in the evening in the Rideau Rink. The secretary's report showed an increase from 52 to 104 teams, and a revenue of $848 with expenses of $150. The officers elected were: President, Lieut.-Col. Gibson; vice-presidents, Lieut.-Col. Anderson and Major Hartt. Lieut. Pringle's name was added to the Executive in Ontario. The election of a secretary was left over, as Mr. Pringle cannot act. During the evening Secretary Pringle was presented with an address and purse, and his services were highly spoken of by all the speakers.

BASEBALL.

W. E. Coughlin, one of the pitchers of the disbanded Syracuse team, is to join the New York club.

The Milwaukee Baseball Association is in more trouble. The players haven't been paid, there are other liabilities brought over from the Western League, and there is still said to be $3,000 due for the franchise in the higher association.

Kinslow, "Darby" O'Brien, Carruthers and two or three others of the Brooklyns, have not been behaving themselves as they should, and a number of fines have been scattered around among them by Manager Ward.

MONDAY'S BALL GAMES.

National League—Pittsburg 3, Philadelphia 7; Cincinnati 3, Boston 5; Cleveland 2, Brooklyn 0; Chicago 0, New York 0.

American Association—Morning game at Baltimore, Baltimore 6, St. Louis 3; afternoon game, Baltimore 4, St. Louis 8; at Philadelphia (early game), Athletics 3, Columbus 1; (afternoon) Athletics 2, Columbus 3; Boston 2, Louisville 2; Milwaukee 5, Washington 1.

AQUATIC.

In the double outrigger race at the Y. M. C. A. regatta Thursday night R. Lind and H. Spence were the victors instead of W. Lind and Fred. Beltz as stated.

LACROSSE.

At the meeting of the Judiciary Committee of the Canadian Lacrosse Association, the Tara-Paisley cross protests, both charging professionalism, were withdrawn and Paisley gets the match. Clinton put in no reply in the dispute with Goderich, and the latter club is given the game, while Clinton is suspended for the season. The Cornwalls' application for reinstatement of Turner was refused. The Niagaras will be ordered to give the Athletics, of St. Catharines, a game for the championship within ten days, the Athletics having stated the Niagaras would give no date. The president was authorized to appoint dates for playing off ties in districts and international. The date of the championship was fixed for Sept. 9, at Rosedale.

THE TURF.

MONDAY'S WINNERS.

At Buffalo—Fitzhugh, Carmine, Mabelle, King Crab, Mr. Sass and Tactician.

At Chicago—Piccadilly, Maud, Addie Kingston, Little Rock and Get Away.

At Coney Island—Chesapeake, Refraction Filly, Pessara, Mary Stone, Luella B. and Waterson.

NOTES.

The Canadian stables of Messrs. Hendrie, Seagram and Love will take in the Buffalo meeting.

At Hawthorn Park, Chicago, on Monday Allie Gates' Evangeline and Speculator were first and second in the steeplechase, with Leander third. Other winners were Roseland, Bankrupt, Brookwood and Zantippe.

Appomatox won the third race at Gloucester Monday, with Raleigh second and Wenonah third. The distance was six and a quarter furlongs, and the time 1:25. The other races were won by Hawkstone, Joe Kelly, Little Ella, Golden Reel and James A. H.

A London cable says: One event of interest in the racing world occurred this week in the offer of Blundell Maple, M.P., of $135,000 for Ormonde, the great English racer, now in Buenos Ayres. The Duke of Westminster sold Ormonde to Don Juan Bocau, the present owner, for $100,000. Don Juan has refused Maple's offer

THE GRAIN SITUATION.

Hot Weather Wanted in England—The Wheat Shortage in France.

Hot and forcing weather is needed to ripen and forward the crops in the United Kingdom seasonable to the time of the year. Harvesting has about commenced and should the right sort of weather now begin it will be of great benefit to the grain. The recent cold and wet period has caused some serious attack of mildew in wheat, and the heavy floods have laid fields in some sections, yet the damage done, it is hoped, was less than expected.

The report of the special commissioner dispatched by the Russian Government to inquire into the situation of the crops has been made public, and while he reports the crops to be mediocre, continues and says that "there will not only be sufficient to feed the population and furnish enough for the next sowing, but will leave a certain surplus for export." The measure which stops momentarily the export of rye, it is reported, was summarily adopted by the Russian Government because of the enormous purchase made lately by German merchants owing to the scarcity of the cereal which is manifested in their country, and, as the purchases have greatly advanced prices of rye, this step was taken to arrest the abnormal enhancement of this article.

The Russian official estimate of this year's crop of rye is 426,600,000 bushels. It is also officially announced that present supplies are nearly exhausted, which leaves a deficit of about 170,000,000 bushels.

Late mail advices received from France are of continued cold and stormy weather, which is certainly unfavorable to the growing wheat crop. Harvesting in some districts of France is now progressing, while in the north it is reported to be a month later than usal. At this time of the year fear exists as to the position of the crop, which, in fact has become quite serious, and it is said that the general result will be bad and disastrous to many unless fine weather soon prevails. Estimates as to the probable yield continue to be made by some who place the output at less than 80,000,000 hectolitres (227,040,000 bushels) and reserves at 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 hectolitres (22,704,000 to 28,380,000 bushels) requiring to be imported in the season of 1891-92 about 40,000,000 hectolitres (113,520,000 bushels.)

Mr. Prime, in his crop report, says corn in Northern Iowa and Nebraska will not be out of danger of frost before Sept. 15 to 30, and in Northern Illinois not safe for twenty days yet.

In Germany, market speculations are sternly discouraged. The prices of rye show a fractional diminution. The mixing of rye with wheat has already been largely resorted to, and nothing but the mixture is now used in making bread for the army. No precautions are now taken to arrest the popular agitation for the suspension of the grain duties.

The international grain market of 1891 opened at Vienna Monday with a large attendance. The dealings were limited. There was no spot business done in wheat. Futures were firm. The best barley sold on the spot at full rates. Inferior grades were neglected. Autumn wheat was quoted at 10.67 to 10.70 florins; spring wheat at 10.27 florins; autumn rye at 10.38 florins; spring rye at 10.58 florins; autumn oats at 6.27 florins; new maize at 6.28 florins. Thirty trucks of the old maize fetched 6.35 florins. Surprise was expressed at the extent of the American and Indian harvests, the yields being greater than were expected. The Hungarian reports on the world's harvest are said to be misleading. There is a general impression that the total yield of the different countries is pretty fair, and that famine prices will not prevail unless produced by powerful rings and booms, which will have only a temporary effect.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Sept. 1.—The wheat crop just harvested in this State exceeds 40,000,000 bushels.

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 1.—The wheat in store here is now only 223,000 bushels, but the new wheat has begun to pour in at the rate of 50 to 75 cars a day, and advices from the country show the shipments by farmers from now on will be large. The farmers who are here indicate that a few farmers will try to hold their wheat, but nearly all will put on the market at once. The total receipts of Duluth for the year is estimated at 50,000,000 bushels.

Get Rid of Neuralgia.

There is no use in fooling with Neuralgia. It is a disease that gives way only to the most powerful remedies. No remedy yet discovered has given the grand results that invariably attend the employment of Polson's Nerviline. Nerviline is a positive specific for all nerve pains, and ought to be kept on hand in every family. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle.

WITH NO UNCERTAIN SOUND.

Rev. Donald C. Hossack, of Orangeville, Speaks His Mind on the Ottawa Scandals.

ORANGEVILLE, Sept. 1.—The Rev. Donald C. Hossack, the Presbyterian minister of this town, is not lacking in courage. It was a brave undertaking in this Conservative stronghold, with one-half of his congregation of that shade of politics, to denounce the corruption that prevails at Ottawa; but he essayed to do it in a sermon Sunday night of no uncertain sound. It was he who, in a communication some time ago, forcibly exposed the moral obliquity of vision displayed by Principal Grant, in a celebrated interview at Ottawa, in reference to Sir Charles Tupper, in which the principal advocated the claims of that malodorous politician for the position of leader of the Tory party.

Rev. Mr. Hossack, in the course of his sermon declared that the saddest feature in connection with Canada's shame was the dumbness of the occupants of the prominent pulpits throughout the country on the subject of the political immorality that prevails at Ottawa. He illustrated this by the dulled moral perceptions exhibited by a minister who occupies one of the prominent pulpits in Toronto, in his obituary sermon on Sir John Macdonald, where he apparently cited with approval an anecdote relating to Sir John, in which it is said that he, when a young man in Kingston, asked a friend what he should do to be popular. The friend replied that he should join the Orange lodge and run for the municipal council, which advice Sir John acted upon. Mr. Hossack declared that he would have spared Sir John this last thrust if he had undertaken to preach an obituary sermon, and he denounced the lack of principle that was exhibited in joining a lodge and getting into the council with any such motives. He said that gifts by contractors of $22,000 to a Minister of the Crown, and of a diamond necklace to the wife of a Cabinet Minister, should have the image and superscription of him who would rather reign in hell than rule in heaven, for he was the true author of such gifts.

No such gift would be made to the Rev. Dr. Wardrope or to the minister who occupied the Methodist pulpit of this town, although they were men who had done quite as much for the country as any Cabinet Minister, simply because the contributors could gain nothing by making such a donation. And the contractors who made it and those who received such gifts must be actuated by corrupt motives, for the latter must know what motives influenced the act. Men cried out about loyalty, and in the next breath bribed the manufacturers into supporting them by extracting money from the pockets of the people for their benefit in the way of duties. He declared that he spoke, not to the office-seekers, but to that large class of voters who had the interest of the country at heart; that he would not use the pulpit to advocate the claims of any particular politician or any particular commercial or political policy; but this was a question which affected the moral well-being of the community, which every minister should have at heart. Neither did he spare Mr. Mercier and his Ministers, but did not leave the impression on the minds of his congregation that Mercier's guilt would justify the retention in office of the corrupt gang at Ottawa, whom he denounced in most unmistakable terms as thieves. He said that if a poor, shivering mortal stole a coat to keep himself from perishing he would be clapped in jail; but when men in Quebec steal $100,000 and at Ottawa $1,500,000, we justify it for the sake of the party.

He asked those men who cited England as an example of everything we should follow to listen to what the English papers were saying about us. He then read lengthy extracts from English newspapers condemning the code of political morality established in Canada by the late Sir John Macdonald.

He closed with an eloquent appeal to his congregation not to permit the pure light of political morality and honesty, which has burned so low in Canada, to sink into endless night.

DOMINATING THE DARDANELLES.

Turkey's Concession to Russia May Raise a Rumpus.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Standard suggests that the Sultan's action in regard to Russia and the Dardanelles may be due to pique and irritation at England's refusal to re-open the Egyptian question. It says that since that refusal it is reported the English ambassador has not been received at Yildiz Kiosk. It is for the powers to consider what course to adopt to insure the observance of existing treaties. Clearly the straits must be either closed to all nations or open to all nations. England cannot champion the rights of the powers.

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—The National Gazette argues that the initiative in the Dardanelles matter falls upon England and says: It would be exceedingly bitter irony of fate if immediately after the Portsmouth reception England should be compelled by Russia, France's ally, to defend her interests.

Evangelist Meikle's Defense.

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—Two weeks ago Evangelist Meikle created a sensation by stating that anyone who did not believe God's message of salvation made Him a liar. On Sunday he remarked on the dissatisfaction he had heard, but refused to take back what he had said. The statement, he said, was borne out by Scripture, and he had no apology for God's word. God, he said, had classed unbelief with murder and all the other abominations. This was doubtless done because unbelief was the root of all other sins. God hated unbelief. Could a man more insult a self-respecting member of that congregation than to tell him he did not believe him? Would that member desire longer the company of that man or wish to have him at his table? Decidedly not. How much more, then, must God feel insulted and angered when His creatures do not believe Him.

A Circus Man Attacked by a Lion.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—There was nearly a terrible tragedy at Robinson's Circus in this city yesterday. While the street parade was in progress several of the big Nubian lions commenced fighting and tried to exchange blows with their paws, at the same time roaring for all they were worth. Mr. Lowlow, at one time one of the most famous circus clowns in America, and at present equestrian director of the show, tried to quiet them, and, coming too close to one of the cages, was grabbed by the king of the Nubian desert, who, pulling him against the bars with one paw, hit him some terrible blows with the other, laying bare the scalp, cutting his neck in a fearful manner and wounding him severely about the face. Fortunately the other employes rushed in and rescued him or he would doubtless have received fatal wounds. A doctor was immediately called in, and after examination expressed the hope that the wounded man would recover if no erysipelas sets in.

WIDE WORLD WIRELETS.

Colorado Masked Robbers Hold Up and Rob a Train.

Lady Churchill indignantly denies all rumors that her husband has shown any disposition to sue for divorce.

The Russian Imperial Bank has been empowered to make a temporary issue of notes to the amount of 25,000,000 roubles.

A plan is on foot by which it is expected to bring 100,000 militiamen from various States to Chicago during the World's Fair.

The Oriental congress opened to-day (Monday) in London. Rev. Charles Taylor, D.D., LL.D., master of St. John's College, Cambridge, and chancellor of that University, presided.

Denver and Rio Grande train No. 4, from Ogden, was held up four miles west of Texas Creek on Monday night by seven masked men and the express car robbed of about $3,500. The night track-walker was overpowered by the robbers and compelled to flag the train.

Secretary Fedaro, of the Ottawa Y. M. C. A., has returned from Amsterdam, Holland, where he was attending the World's Y. M. C. A. Conference. He says the conference will result in great good to the associations on the continent, where Y. M. C. A. work labors under great difficulties.

George Clarke, of Cataract, who was wanted for the burglary at Registrar Peter Ryan's house, Toronto, on Sunday morning, was arrested in Pickering on Monday. When taken he was wearing the suit of clothes stolen from Mr. Ryan's house and had the gold watch also stolen at the same time in his pocket.

A Vienna dispatch says: The authorities at all places which the German Emperor will pass en route to the Schwarnau maneuvers have been notified to prevent the waving of flags and the throwing of flowers, as it is thought such demonstrations are likely to frighten the Emperor's horse and endanger his recently injured knee.

At Corder, a small station on the Chicago and Alton Railroad, in Lafayette county, Mo., on Monday, the American Bank, a branch of the Higginsville bank of the same name, was robbed by two men who rode up to the bank, walked in, shut the door and locked it, pointed revolvers at the cashier's head and took from him $690—the day's receipts.

CAMP LYNHURST.

London Field Battery and "D" Company, I. S. C., Under Canvas—The Different Corps — The Officers Described.

The London Field Battery left the city this morning for the St. Thomes camp by road, the corps mustering about 50 gunners and drivers. "D" Company, I. S. C., 100 men, were the first to arrive at "Lynhurst," as the camp site is called. They staked out the ground Saturday, and on Sunday paraded to church, with the band. The corps which will be in camp are as follows:

"D" Company, Infantry School Corps, Lieut.-Col. Smith, commandant.

London Field Battery, Major Peters.

Twenty-fourth Kent Battalion of Infantry, Lieut.-Col. M. Martin.

Twenty-fifth Elgin Battalion of Infantry, Lieut.-Col. W. H. Lindsay.

Twenty-sixth Middlesex Battalion of Light Infantry, Lieut.-Col. J. Irwin.

Twenty-eighth Perth Battalion of Infantry, Lieut.-Col. R. S. McKnight.

Thirtieth Wellington Battalion of Rifles, Lieut.-Col. C. Clarke,

Thirty-third Huron Battalion of Infantry, Lieut.-Col. T. T. Coleman.

Unless otherwise specially directed the London Field Battery will parade at such hours and perform such kinds of drill as the officer commanding the same may deem most practicable, unless otherwise specially ordered.

The St. Thomas Journal thus describes some of the officers of "D" Company:

"Col. Smith is tall, of slight build, bronzed in face, and his military bearing proclaims him what he is, first, last and all the time a soldier. He was at one time attached to the Fortieth Battalion active militia, and has been connected with the Canadian volunteer service since 1856. He has been connected with the Infantry School Corps since its organization in 1883, being a member of 'C' Company, Toronto, until 1887, when he went to London and organized 'D' Company. He took an active part in quelling the Northwest rebellion. He is also brigade commandant.

"Capt. R. Cartwright, of 'D' Company, I.S.C., is a son of Sir Richard Cartwright, and saw active service during the Northwest rebellion. A chivalrous gentleman, a brave soldier and enthusiastic in all things military, he recently trained and coached a team in musketry practice until they made a score which has knocked the record into a cocked hat. There are doubting Thomases to be found everywhere, and there are those who doubt the genuineness of this score, although it is sworn to by three markers.

"Capt. Young, of 'D' Company, the camp quartermaster, looks every inch an officer and a soldier. Like Capt. Cartwright, he is also an enthusiast in musketry practice. While the latter's enthusiasm leads him to train teams that slaughter bullseyes, Capt. Young's prompts him to slaughter quail. If the brigade staff do not enjoy a quail dinner before camp is over, it will be because Capt. Young will be unable to get leave of absence or because the quail will have also taken leave of absence."

TORONTO'S GREAT FAIR.

An Immense Exhibit and Large Number of Special Features.

The wheel of time has again revolved, and in a few days Toronto's Great Industrial Fair for 1891 will be open to the public, and people will be again flocking to it from all parts of Canada and the adjoining States. The harvest has this year been good, and the attendance of visitors to the great Fair may therefore be expected to be very large. The entries in all departments are sufficient to completely fill every building on the grounds as well as the new ones that have been erected during the summer. The Dominion and Experimental Farms are each sending very important exhibits, showing the result of practical tests in the various departments in which the farming community are specially interested. British Columbia and Manitoba are also sending much larger exhibits than heretofore. The live stock exhibit will be very fine. The list of attractions as announced in the official programme issued by the Association is a very long one and cannot fail to please the visitors, as there will be something of interest to see every minute of the day and every day of the Fair. The Fair will be opened by Major-General Herbert on the 8th of September, and closes on the 19th. The usual low rates and special excursions will be given on all the railways.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

According to Maurice Grau, the divine singer Patti will be 48 years of age in February next. Who cares, so long as she is pretty and can sing like an angel?

Mlle. Rhea, the actress, arrived recently on the French Line steamship La Normandie. She has secured the American right of Sigmund Alexander's drama, "Judith," with which she will open her season at the Globe Theater, Boston, Sept. 28. "Judith," said she, "is a thrilling drama. I have been studying hard in Paris, and will only have a few rehearsals before the opening night. I have another play, called 'The Czarina,' which was rewritten by William Harris. I had 'Josephine' translated into the French while in France, and presented it there with success."

Suicide of a Prominent Politician.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 1.—V. G. Converse, Speaker pro tem. of the last Legislature, and the man who by holding the balance of power was practically dictator, was found Sunday hanging in his barn in Jerrauld county. He lived alone and had been dead several days when found.

The Cattle Trade.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—The following special cable from London is published here. The brief reports cabled of the debates in the Senate on the admission of American cattle to Canada for slaughter are followed with the closest interest here by all those interested in the trade. It was understood last week on good authority that the Ministry had already decided to favor the admission, but Hon. Mr. Abbott's statement on Friday is thought to warrant the hope that even yet the decision may be revoked in view of the general protests.

Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO.

EAST BUFFALO, Sept. 1.—Cattle—There were only a few odd head on sale outside of one load of good steers. The market was about steady and all were sold, with fair prospects for good to choice handy steers and butchers' stock. Sales: 1,180 lb steers, $5 to $5 10; light butchers $2 75 to $3 25.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts of sale stock were light and mostly of common order. Best lambs, $6 to $6 25; fair $5 25 to $5 75; good sheep, $4 50 to $5; common to fair $3 90 to $4 40.

Hogs—The fresh receipts were 12 loads, and fully 15 loads held over from yesterday, with the late arrivals that came in. The market was firmer for good to choice corn-fed hogs, and dull and lower for common half-fat and grassy stock. Heavy and medium grades were very dull and slow at weaker prices, and all of 10c to 15c below good York weights, and for hogs at all green there was no demand, and a good many of these held over. A few very choice corn-fed hogs sold to York buyers at $5 60 to $5 65, and a few fancy at $5 70, with good selections of grassy and half-fat at $4 75 to $5; pigs are about neglected.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—A. G. Chisholm, barrister, is in Ottawa.

—T. F. Kingsmill has returned from the English markets.

—Registrations at the city clerk's office show 56 births, 18 marriages and 39 deaths.

—Geo. Priddis, of Priddis Brothers, returned Monday evening from his English trip.

—Mr. Will Sallmon, of Hill street, left Monday to resume his studies at Yale College, Conn.

—Geo. Berry, of this city, is attending a convention of the Ancient Order of Shepherds in Hamilton.

—Mrs. W. Stevens and daughter Lillie, of Horton street, are at present visiting relatives in Buffalo and Hamilton.

—Mr. A. K. Melbourne, wife and little daughter, left yesterday for Glasgow, Scotland, to permanently locate there. A large number of friends bid them farewell.

—"Boater" asks: "Was there a photo of the London Rowing Club's races taken on Saturday, and if so, who took it?" Will someone who knows kindly furnish the information?

—Mr. L. C. Leonard and wife, of Pueblo, Col., formerly of London, arrived in the city Monday, and will stay here a while. Mr. Leonard has been busy shaking hands with his friends.

—Treasurer Pope has refused to pay Contractor W. Howie money due Mr. A. Goodburn, who contracted for repairs to several schools, and whose pay Mr. Howie desired to garnish. Mr. Goodburn purchased lumber from Howie, and the latter pressed for the amount due before the work was finished or the bill sent in.

—Word has been received that Mrs. Richard Purdy, of Glendale, Westminster township, was seriously injured Monday while attending a funeral with her husband. The horse they were driving shied at an object on the road, running away and throwing Mrs. Purdy out violently. She was picked up unconscious, and at last reports there was little hope of her recovery.

—Village Constable Ward Monday summoned John Bonsor and George Bonsor, of London West, at the complaint of Thomas Board, to appear before Squire Lacey to-day, on a charge of violation of a village bylaw. Alfred Jones, of London West, will appear at the same time to answer to a charge of keeping a vicious dog, preferred against him by John M. Delay. John Birrel, of London township, charged William Talbot, of the same place, with refusing to pay him wages to the amount of $12 90. He will appear before Squire Lacey on Sept. 7.

His Arm Cut Off.

John McCready, late G. T. R. assistant stationmaster, this city, had his left arm cut off two inches below the shoulder while coupling cars at Fort Erie Monday. "Jack," as he was familarly called, had recently been appointed yardmaster there, and intended coming last night to the city to remove his household furniture, his wife and four little ones to his new home. The accident is peculiarly sad at the victim's new position was a promotion with chances of further advancement. He is doing as well as could be expected to-day, and his wife has left to attend him. His many friends here, where he lived nine years, are heartily sorry for him and his family.

They Want a Good Teacher.

Trustees Yates (chairman), Stephenson, McRobert, McElheran, Principal Merchant and Inspector Carson attended Monday's meeting of No. 2 Committee of the Educational Board. The chairman and inspector were detailed to look into the request of Mr. Hutchinson (late of the Collegiate Institute) for $40, balance of salary claimed as due him. On Trustee McRobert's motion Miss Coyne's salary was placed at $800, although Trustee McElheran moved it be $700. The committee will recommend that no funds are available to allow Messrs. Wright and Althouse increases to $800 per year. Principal Merchant stated that eight applications for the position of English teacher at the Institute were received, but none of the applicants were efficient enough. The committee will ask the Board to offer $1,200 as an inducement for first-class teachers to apply. The action of the county committee in deciding that all county pupils should go to the Strathroy Model School this year instead of a portion to London as at present was discussed and considered illegal. The county hope to save $150 by this.

The Late J. L. Gower.

The remains of the late J. L. Gower arrived in the city yesterday and were taken to the residence of the sorrowing family, Oxford street, London West. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon and services will be held in St. George's Church. Deceased was formerly in the Bank of Toronto in this city. A Peterboro dispatch says: "This morning Mr. J. L. Gower, manager of the Peterboro branch of the Bank of Toronto, died from paralysis of the brain a few hours after being attacked. For the past fortnight he has been spending his holidays at Hazelwood Cottage, Eels Creek, Stoney Lake, with a party of friends from town. Yesterday morning he and a friend took a paddle up the creek. Suddenly he was stricken down insensible. Dr. Bell, of Lakefield, was on the lakes, and he, together with Dr. Boucher, who went out from town, did all that medical skill could do, but to no avail. Mr. Gower died this morning at 8:30 o'clock. The deceased gentleman was unmarried and aged about 30 years. He was a native of Bayfield, Ont., but his family reside in London. He has been manager of the Bank of Toronto here for over two years, and won a wide circle of friends both in business and society. Mr. Gower's relatives were apprised of the sad event, and a brother will meet the remains in Peterboro, whence they will be conveyed by train to London."

A London Girl in Trouble.

Sadie Lavelle, a young woman aged about 18 years, died at 118 Teraulay street, Toronto, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock under peculiar circumstances. A Toronto paper states that some four or five weeks ago a pretty young girl named Ida Simmons, whose home is in London, came to that city from Hamilton, where she had been visiting friends. During her brief stay in Hamilton she met Mrs. McGregor, Sadie Lavelle's mother, who invited her when she came to Toronto to stay on Teraulay street until she secured work. The invitation was accepted, and soon after her arrival Ida and Sadie were inseparable companions. They were both very young, the new comer being only 16 years old. It is alleged Ida Simmons was of questionable character, and is believed to have succeeded in ruining the life of Miss Lavelle, whose death occurred in a very short time. Detectives are working on the case, but as yet no arrests been made. The Simmons girl has joined an opera troupe since her companion's death. The Simmons family are pretty well known in this city. The father, John Simmons, was a hard-working blacksmith and was well liked by those who knew him. Ida Simmons, while in this city, was considered by her friends as as estimable young woman. She has three sisters and one brother, all of whom have removed from London. One of them was a domestic at the Tecumseh House, and was married recently to a young Detroiter.

Smoke Blossoms.
"Did you ever see a smoke blossom?" Well, the way to make them is this: Buy one of the latest new CAT CIGARS. Light it and blow a ring in a still atmosphere, and then watch it. The smoke making the ring revolves towards the center as you look towards it. While it is floating away a part of the ring shoots slowly away from the rest forming a loop. When the two sides of the loop come almost together the loop seems to burst at its apex and a lily-shaped blossom appears thereon. Try it. Manufactured by

A Cast for Fortune

By Christian Reid.

AUTHOR OF "VALERIE AYLMER," "A DAUGHTER OF BOHEMIA," "HEART OF STEEL," "BONNY KATE," ETC.

Thither, then, he took his way, as the sun of the day which might have been his last on earth was slowly sinking behind the western mountains. Crossing the quiet, cloister-like court which led to the church, he entered by the side-door, and found himself in the soft, mellow gloom with which he was by this time familiar. As usual, two or three figures were kneeling here and there over the nave; but it was not until he had been in the church for several minutes that he identified one of them as Zarifa. She was kneeling on a prie-dieu just before the altar, her bowed head covered and her form partially concealed by the black drapery thrown around her. She seemed absorbed in prayer, and Derwent watched her for some time before she made the faintest movement. It was not until the dusk had deepened and the only light in the church was that of the flickering, golden radiance from the tabernacle lamps that she lifted her head, and, rising, glided across the nave toward the door by which he had entered. He followed her at once, and, when she paused for a moment under the pointed archway outside, reached her and spoke.

"Senor Derwent!" she exclaimed, with a slight start. "I did not know that you were here."

"Could I be in a better place?" he asked, in a voice that trembled a little from emotion. "I came here to thank God for my escape from sudden and violent death. And, having thanked God, senorita, will you now let me thank you? Thank you! Ah, what a word that is to express such a debt! If I could only utter what I feel!—if there were only words in which I might venture to utter it!"

She lifted one hand with a slight, silencing gesture as she turned her face toward him. There was still light enough from the blue sky overarching the court to show him that it looked like a pale, beautiful cameo in the setting of the soft, black drapery of China crape which surrounded it. Yet, beautiful as it looked, Derwent was almost shocked to see what a change the last few hours had wrought. It was not only the pallor of the skin and the purple shadows under the eyes, those shadows which come so quickly in a sensitive organization from illness or mental pain, but the very features looked chiseled and attenuated, as if by suffering.

"Do not thank me, senor," she said, with grave gentleness. "Thank God if you will, and as you truly should, that I was there in time. But how could I have helped doing what I did? It was no merit on my part. I saw and I fired. The two things were simultaneous. There was not an instant to be lost. I stepped down upon the path, ah, how lightly, how unconsciously!—and some instinct caused me to glance up at the hill-side. The rest was like a flash of lightning. I saw the sunshine reflected on the barrel of that gun, I saw the man leaning over the rock and taking aim at you so intently that he did not perceive me. To see was to act. I had still in the pocket of my habit the little pistol we used yesterday; and do you think it was an accident that I had not taken off that habit? I felt one thrill of passionate indignation as I saw you sitting so quietly, so unsuspiciously, and that coward drawing his gun upon you behind your back, on the very soil of Miraflores!"—he saw the flash that came into her eyes at the recollection—"I fired, and I was glad to see him drop. Yes; I could not have believed it, if I had been told of it beforehand, but I was glad! The horror of what I had been forced to do did not come over me until I saw the poor creature bleeding to death. Then—oh, then it was awful? I do not think I can ever forget the sight!"

As she lifted one hand, with an involuntary gesture, to her eyes, as if to shut out the memory, he took the other and kissed it, the hand that had saved his life, so gently and so reverently that it was like offering homage.

"What can I say?" he exclaimed. "To spare you such pain, I would have done anything. Would to God I had never come to Miraflores, since my coming was to cost you what you have suffered to-day!"

She withdrew her hand and looked at him with a sweet and pathetic regard. "You must not think that," she said. "I should be very sorry if you believed that I regretted it. How could that be possible? It was a great privilege to be allowed to interpose to save the innocent from the guilty. But that I am a little unnerved is surely natural. The peril was so awfully near. In another instant it would have been you who lay bleeding, dying, before me. The piteous sight of the other helps me to realize that. And then, while I thank God that it was spared, the picture of the poor wretch yonder in the hospital comes before me, and I shudder at the thought that he is suffering, that he will die, from a wound inflicted by my hand."

He saw that she was indeed thoroughly unnerved. Something in the tragedy had certainly stirred her nature to its depths. The fire that he had suspected was there, he had seen it blazing in her eyes as she stood with the uplifted weapon that had struck the destroyer down, but how soon it was quenched by gentlest pity and divinest compassion! His heart melted within him in the stress of his love and sympathy. Yet what could he say or do? Never had he felt more keenly how wide were the barriers between them than as they stood alone together in the soft twilight and the cloistral quiet.

"I feel for you more than I can or dare express," he said. "I understand what a shock it is to have had such a necessity laid upon you, and to have seen the result with your own eyes. It is vain to repeat that I would have done anything—anything whatever—to spare you. But we were both powerless; it was the work of fate—"

"No," she interposed, "it was the mercy of God that sent me there and placed the duty before me. That being so, what reason have I for regret? None; believe me, none. If I shudder at the memory of what I have seen, I am nevertheless very grateful—grateful beyond measure—to have been allowed to save your life."

He longed to take and kiss her hand again, as she said those words with the most earnest emphasis; but never could he less have dared anything that savored in the remotest degree of presumption. Not only the greatness of his obligation overpowered him, but, as she revealed to him (with unconscious reliance upon his sympathy which touched him to the heart) all the depths of her feelings, he was like one taken into a sanctuary, where the very atmosphere rebuked anything that inclined to selfish passion.

"Yes, you have saved my life," he said. "And I beg you never to forget it, for it is a thought upon which I shall always be glad to dwell. Life given to me through your hands seems to have a greater value than ever before, as a gift is cherished according to our feeling for the giver. God knows, I would gladly give this life to you, if you had any use for it, even the least. There is no service I could render you that I would not perform, at any cost. I know this as I know that I exist; yet how idle the words must sound to you! For your life is so full to overflowing of every good gift of fortune, nay, let me say, every good gift of God; for fortune is blind, but God, seeing how worthy you are of these things, has given them to you in such abundant measure that there is no room for anything that I can do. It seems hard to owe so much and to be able to give nothing; yet there is a sweetness even in that. If one cannot give, the next best thing is to take, from—from one so gentle, so noble, so worthy of a man's best homage, as yourself."

He had no idea how his voice was betraying him in the treacherous twilight that threw its soft veil of shadow into the pillared archway where they stood. At the last sentence he stopped himself abruptly, and substituted other words for the passionate ones that trembled upon his tongue; but, as his voice fell, there was a minute's silence that seemed still to vibrate with the deep thrill of feeling in his tones.

Zarifa, standing motionless in her clinging black draperies, with her statue-like face and her eyes of soft gloom, had asked herself at one moment what she should do. But it was only for a moment. She had felt the next instant how entirely unconscious was his betrayal; and the strong self-restraint which was evident in his last words touched her deeply. She had to pause for a moment to imitate that self-restraint before she could answer. Then she said, with something wistful in the sweet music of her tones:

"You are a little wrong. No life can be so prosperous, so well filled with the good gifts of God, that there is no room in it for the kindness of a friend. I have been able to save your life. That is true. But it was an accident. Some day you may be able to do for me what will outweight it as much as an ach of deliberate intention outweighs an act of impulse. And if not, if the opportunity is not given to you, for one does not make these things for one's self, I shall know at least that you have the will to serve me; and that is enough."

A CONVENT DESECRATED.

Midnight Assault on Dominican Sisters at Williamsburgh, N. Y.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The Dominican Sisters of the convent situated at the corner of Morgan avenue and Harrison place, Williamsburg, were subjected early Saturday morning to most atrocious indignities, and searching parties have since been scouring that section of the country for the perpetrators.

The house is a branch of the Dominican Convent, corner of Montrose and Graham avenues, and adjoins the Church of Our Mother of Sorrow. Rev. Father John K. Fentgraf is the rector. The convent is a two-story frame building and runs along the rear of the church and parochial residence. The main entrance is on Harrison place and the rear backing into Ingraham street. Six sisters, together with the Mother Superior, occupy the building. There are also eight orphans who are being cared for. The upper floor is given up to the sisters for sleeping apartments. The lower floor is used as a schoolroom and sleeping apartments for the children, and as a dining room. The kitchen is situated in the rear of the convent, facing Ingraham street. A door leads out on a lawn and a well kept garden. Two high fences separate the convent grounds from the last named street.

The sisters, according to rules, retire at 9 o'clock, after which all lights are extinguished. They rise at 4:30 o'clock. The lower floor is securely locked, but the sleeping apartments of the sisters are left open. It was shortly after 1 o'clock in the morning when one of the sisters, who is described as 19, was suddenly awakened. She felf herself in the grasp of a powerful man. It was some time before the sister recovered from her surprise and shrieked for help. She wrenched her night garments from the grasp of the ruffian and made a dash for the door leading into the hall, but was interrupted by the marauder. The sister, after a long and desperate struggle, escaped into the hall, leaving a portion of her night gown in the hands of the ruffian. By this time her associates had rushed from their bedrooms into the hall. The Mother Superior attempted to light the gas, but in her nervousness was unable to do so. The excitement among the inmates was added to by the children, who had by this time also been awakened.

The fellow, who continued his pursuit of the first sister, suddenly turned his attention to the others. He grasped several, who managed to escape and rush down stairs, followed by the wretch. The Mother Superior ran into the children's playroom, where she shrieked for help in hopes of awakening Father Fentgraf. Finally the reverend gentlemen was aroused and came to a window. When the situation was explained he went out on the lawn with a gun, which he discharged. The report alarmed the scoundrel, who left the fainting women and escaped through the rear kitchen door, scaled the fences, and disappeared. The noise of the gun and shrieks had aroused the neighborhood. Several policemen also appeared on the scene and with several hundred excited neighbors began scouring the section for the miscreant.

The excited neighbors have declared their intentions of lynching the ruffian should he fall into their hands.

Surprised.

Why? We keep on telling you, "day in and day out," that you need not be surprised, that it will surely cure promptly and permanently. Mr. Thos. McDonald, 108 Winchester street, Toronto, writes: "It is with pleasure that I testify to the many virtues of St. Jacobs Oil. I used it for a sprained leg, which it effectually cured in a surprisingly short time. I shall always recommend it." It will always be recommended, as it is the best.

Attention is the stuff that memory is made of; and memory is accumulated genius.

A man's wife should always be the same especially to her husband: but if she is weak and nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

—The Cadet Polka Club's dance at Springbank Monday evening was enjoyed by those who attended.

—Norman McLeod captured first prize over all comers for Plymouth Rock fowls at the Detroit Exhibition.

—Mrs. W. A. Lipsey, after spending the summer among the lakes of Minnesota and at St. Paul, has returned home.

—Lieut.-Col. Smith has permitted "D" Company Band to give a concert in St. Thomas, the proceeds to go towards furnishing a ward in the hospital there.

—Numbers of amateur flower growers in the city are cultivating their favorites with the hope of making a fine display at the coming chrysanthemum and plant show.

—Robert Gray, mathematical master in the London Collegiate Institute, is rusticating with his parents around the beautiful summer resort, Silver Lake.—[Kincardine Review.

—J. P. Hunt, while visiting at Gravesend, shot a large gray eagle, measuring six feet ten inches from tip to tip. Another great catch is reported by Austin Andrews, who shot a curlew in East London yesterday. It is said to be the only one ever seen in this part of the country.

—Parties from outside are looking over properties in the neighborhood of the C. P. R. with the prospect of starting a large planing mill and also a fruit canning factory. A north ender says it is impossible to find a better location for the two industries than in the northern part of this city.

—A. C. Rush, of the Brantford branch of the B. B. N. A., has been removed to London, for which place he left on Friday. Although only here for a short time Mr. Rush had made himself generally popular, and he will be greatly missed, particularly in musical circles, as he is an accomplished violinist.—[Brantford Courier.

—A camp of Woodmen of the World was organized Monday evening in St. Thomas by supreme organizer for Ontario, James Kamplin, of this city.

—Mr. L. H. Ingram, of Messrs. Smallman & Ingram, has returned from a three months' purchasing tour in the English and continential markets.

—Mr. John Herald, representative of R. C. Macfie & Co., wholesale hatters and furriers, left yesterday on a purchasing trip to the eastern markets.

—Mrs. Westland, of Craig street, arrived home Monday night from a visit to Niagara Falls and other points in the peninsula. She was accompanied by Mrs. Sisk, of St. Thomas.

—"Are there any infallible means by which to distinguish a mushroom from a similar but poisonous fungus?" asks a correspondent. Can any of the ADVERTISER readers give the required information?

—Port people were yesterday enjoying the freedom of the city. It was their civic holiday, and no resident of the popular lakeside resort is without friends in London. A reduced rate was secured on the G. T. R.

—The Ontario Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Belleville, will reopen on Wednesday, Sept. 9. Officers to take charge of pupils will be on the train en route to Toronto and Belleville, leaving here at 2:20 p.m. on that date.

—The ADVERTISER is informed that on Friday sparks from a steam threshing engine were the means of setting the barns of J. W. Huff, lot 7, con. 1, Harwich township, on fire, and a total destruction of the barns and their contents was the result. Insured in the London Mutual.

—W. Ryan, Mrs. Ryan, of London, and Miss Emilia Hodgson, of Clandeboye, spent last week visiting Dr. Bradley, Thos. Dagg, Mr. Remington and other friends in this neighborhood. Mr. Ryan is head turnkey of the Middlesex county jail. They left per steamship Windsor for Sarnia on Monday, having spent a delightful time on the shores of Huron.—[Kincardine Review.

—Albert A. Roberts, living at 963 Dame street, East London, charged Isaac Sargent at the Police Court yesterday with assaulting him on his own premises last Saturday evening about 7:30. The trouble arose over a quarrel between children, in whom both were interested. Blows were struck by each man. The complainant withdrew the charge on payment of costs by defendant.

—The closing exercises of the season at Grimsby Park were held there on Sunday, when Rev. Geo. Boyd, of this city, preached in the morning from the text, "Ye are my witnesses." In the afternoon Dr. Jones, of Rochester, preached from the text, "Take heed lest there be found in you an evil heart of unbellef." In the evening a platform meeting was held, when addresses were delivered by Dr. Jones, Revs. Boyd and Lambley and President Phelps, bringing to a close one of the pleasantest and most prosperous seasons at Grimsby Park.

Three Ferrets Missing.

Edward Fossit, of Westminster, appeared before the police magistrate yesterday to answer to a charge of the larceny of four ferrits from George H. Carter, of South London, last Thursday night. Fossit effected an entrance to the barn and also to the box where the ferrits were kept by the use of a brace and bit. The animals appeared to be pets of their owner and he stated that he would not take $25 for the one which was recovered Monday by Detective Phair. The defendant first denied all knowledge of the affair, but afterwards stated that he had bought the animals. The case was adjourned for a week to allow the prisoner a chance to produce the remaining ferrets. Bail was furnished to the amount of $100.

The Non-Coms "At Home."

A jolly company of red coats, with a sprinkling of civilians, enjoyed the opening smoking concert of the Seventh non-commissioned officers in their neat apartments over the O. L. and D. Co.'s building, Market lane, Monday night. The mess room has been nicely refitted since last season. Card tables were plentifully distributed around, and to games of various kinds couples and quartets devoted themselves. Among the visitors were Majors Beattie and Macmillan, Capt. Payne and Lieut. Magee. A programme of songs, recitations, speeches and band selections was carried out and showed musical and oratorical ability of a very fair degree. The following contributed to the entertainment: Selection, Winslade's band; speeches, Majors Beattie and Macmillan and Lieut. Magee; songs, A. Wyatt, Alf. Croden, Sergt. Mall, Col.-Sergt. Freeland, Col.-Sergt. Widden, A. Lyon, A. Burwell, Corp. Kearney, Corp. Skinner, Troop Sergt.-Major Snowler, Sergt. McNamara and Corp. Pyman; concertina selections, Chris. Smallman; dance, Corp. Committed for Trial.

John A. Thomas, agent for the Ball Electric Light Company, was arraigned before the police magistrate yesterday to answer to a charge of assaulting Mr. George Trebilcock, of Piccadilly street. The evidence of the complainant was the only testimony taken. He stated that last Saturday morning, about 10 o'clock, he was alone in Livingstone's clothing store, 394 Richmond street, and was about six feet from the door when a little girl, whom he had never seen before, and whom he could not identify, walked in and asked him for a business card. Witness turned around to get one from a low shelf behind a short counter near the door, and while in the act heard some person step inside the door. Thinking it a customer he desisted from getting the card and walked towards the person. Without hearing or word spoken he was struck in the eye and on the nose. The blows knocked him down and his head struck on a table, cutting it at the back. Witness said he made an attempt to get up, when Thomas caught hold of him. He managed to slip away from his assailant and ran out on to the street. He could not remember having seen Thomas after that, as he was dizzy and confused. He stated that he was struck three or four times and that his nose bled profusely both internally and externally. Witness remained at the store during the day and did not consult a physician. He absolutely denied the charges made against him by Thomas. Since the assault he had not been well, being unable to sleep and the side of his head being sore. The magistrate having heard the evidence, committed the prisoner for trial at the next general court of sessions. Bail was accepted.

Run Over on Dundas Street.

A serious runaway happened on Dundas street yesterday, which resulted in a young lad named Stinchcombe, of London West, aged about 12 years, being seriously injured. He was riding with a man named Finnigan, a market gardener, when the horse ran away. The lad was thrown out near Cairncross & Lawrence's drug store and was run over. Medical aid was procured, and it was found that one rib had been broken and his chest and arm badly bruised. The boy bore his suffering very manfully. He was carried home.

A SCROFULOUS BOY
Running Sores Covered His Body and Head. Bones Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the left hand of our little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure, it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula, of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using all freely. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of those ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child.
