HIGH VALUE PLACED ON

Labor Organizations Will Act With Chamber of Commerce To Block Sale.

OUESTION ALDERMEN

McKay, Ashton and Clift To Appear at Joint Meeting Tonight.

A move to bring official labor condemnation upon the plan to sell the sulphur springs property at the foot of Dundas street for $1,500 will be launched at a joint meeting of the night. Frank McKay, John Ashton and Thomas Clift, labor aldermen, have been specially invited to at-tend. Their attitude on the sale of riverside property to private capital will be demanded.

While the privately-engineered scheme to build an all year health resort on the site of the newly acquired city property will be discussed impartially out of fairness to the pomoters, an influential bloc of labor is unswerving in its stand that the river site is far too valuable to London to be released at any price. This group is confident that the meeting will see the matter in this light.

When I was tradin' at his store, Jim Prune was boostin' me and mine. but when I quit he took my name and pickled it in salted brine.

When I moved in to where I am Jim Prune he run the corner store, and after we got settled down one day he rapped upon our door, and said he had dried fish for saie, spaghetti and some buckwheat too, and he could keep our silo full as well as any man

So we went tradin' at his shop and bought some wrinkled prunes from him, he was a friendly sort of jay and met us with a wide-

He was a booster for us, too, I heard the neighbors passin' by, a-sayin' how Jim Prune had said I was a wise and thrifty guy, how I should run for reeve next year, the village needed men like me, who had great gobs of common sense to make the laws as they

And when the youngsters went to shop Jim danced them up upon his knee, and told them they were handsome like resemblin' very much on me.

He likewise told my wife one day how she was lookin' mighty neat, and it was fortunate indeed to have such people on the street. If there was more like us around 'twould be a happy place to dwell, the district up around our place would draw the folks what rich and swell.

So after hearin' of these things we bought more stuff from old Jim Prune, we took stale biscuits from his store and soaked 'em for the meal at noon.

A year gone past I stopped one day to trade a little down the street, and Jim he noticed how I went and bought a pound of pickled feet. The chap in there was friendly too, he seemed to know his way about, nor were so many wrinkles sold in prunes what he was dishin' out.

So we went there to trade a spell, dividin' up our trade a bit, instead of boosting for me now Jim Prune he well nigh took a fit.

Instead of runnin' for a reeve I should be out a-bustin' sod, he bet I couldn't make the grade a-tryin' for pound-keeper's job. He said my wife she had to wear old raiment and her last year's hats, and that our youngsters they were bold, a lot of saucy little

I guess there's other folks like Jim, you meet them as you trudge along, as long 33 you spread kale for them they're boostin' for you good and strong. Increase Marriages So There Will Be No Bachelors or Spinsters Remaining in the Country.

Editor of The Advertiser: Sir,-Would it not be possible for the govern ment to greatly increase the population of Canada by introducing the custom of women proposing marriage equally with men? Tax all bachelors New York actor who was shot by his wife and spinsters. Introduce marriage markets all Hours were spent in romping pleasures sent word from the hospital that he never wanted over Canada, where men and women could meet, say, once a month with the object of matrimony. In this city, for instance, the marriage market could be held on the Federal square, where women as well as men could select their ideals, propose, and in this way weddings would increase to such an extent that there would eventually be no bachelors or spinsters liable to be taxed.

Perhaps some local enthusiasts reading this letter may be willing to start a marriage market in the city as soon as possible and the writer would be pleased to hear from such. Yours

The Tragedy of Quarreling Parents - How to Jolt a Too Strict Father Out of His Old-Fashioned Ideas.

Dear Miss Dix-What can a girl do to stop the continuous quarreling between her parents? My brother SERGEANT J. BARLOW IS and I are the only two children, and our household affairs should run smoothly, but instead everything goes wrong because my father and mother fuss and argue in our presence, which makes us children feel very badly.

It is mainly my father's fault. He s grumpy, selfish, and never speaks except to give an order, or disapprove of something. And he raves when my mother asks for money. She of last year's athletic meets and plans never does, except for the house, for and the financial statement adopted.

cases where the man has grown tired of the woman after she has Mrs. John Weber, Jun., Pall Mall raised his children cooked his meals, seasons pretiest weddings took place Detroit, was the bridesmaid. Little JANE.

> The only way that I have ever been able to explain the continuous family quarrel that goes on in so many homes is on the theory that the participants love a fight. They find domesticity dull and monotonous, and so they inject pep into it by their daily squabble. The spat that enlivens so many breakfast tables becomes a sort of matutinal cocktail that sets the blood circulating, and makes the eyes sparkle and gives them a mental the bright face of danger. Therefore, if you stop your father's and mother's daily quarrel, you will deprive them of their chief indoor sport.

That they have no right to take it t their children's expense is another matter, and one which unfortunately, the belligerent parents do not take enough into consideration, for police reports show that the great majority of criminal and delinquent children come from homes like yours, in which there were quarreling parents.

I am interested in your saying that you will not stand from a husband the treatment your mother stands from your father. That is the point of view of the modern, self-supporting, independent young woman, and it is going to work a reformation in husbands. For when men find out that the only way to keep a wife is by giving her decent treatment, they are going to make the wife job more attractive than it is at present. DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix-I am a young girl, an only child, and my father fairly worships me, but he doesn't want me

Now, Miss Dix. I love my father and mother, but I am not interest and in the things they are interested in, and I'am bored to death when I have to sit up in the evening and listen to old folks' talk How can I make my dad see that no girl can live alone, that I am young and full of energy, and must have companions and amusement and that now I am nothing but a poor, little miserable slave of love?

Answer: Go up into the attic. or wherever your mother keeps her treasures, and hunt around in her old trunks until you find the little packet of love letters which your father wrote her in his courting days. Read a few of those mushy missives to him, in which he tells her that he cannot live another day without her, and in which he speaks of the parties they have been to. and the moonlight drives they have taken in side-bar buggies with rubber tires. That will bring back his own youth to him, and make him realize that when he was young he wanted to do just exactly the same sort of things that you want to do, and that his idea of a perfect evening no more consisted in sitting around listening to mother and father talk than

It is a pity that so many men forget how they felt when they were young. If they did not, they could put themselves in their children's place and sympathize with the youthful desire for fun and companonship, and the youthful need to be always doing something. It is a great cruelty to deprive Hamilton, July 8.—The Clippers mished the first half of the season right here this afternoon by taking both ends of the double-header with the Kitchener Colts by score of 16 to 1 and 9 to 5. Ernie Neitzke took a day off from outfielding to pitch the locals to a victory in the opener, and Manager Wetzel, Judd and Webb combined to take the second game. Both tilts were filled with closing day comedy, but were nevertheless filled with some smart baseball and strong hitting.

Rennie Expected To Give Wright Stiff Fight Today

Both Ran Into Harder Matches Yesterday On Coast Courts.

REACH EIGHTS

Canadian Press Despatch. Vancouver, B.C., July 8.-Before he largest attendance of the week the eights were reached in all of the major events in the Canadian champpionships in the Vancouver tennis club's courts this afternoon. There were no upsets, although several of the favorites were strongly pressed in their progress toward the finals. No matches were played during the morning.

In the feature singles match of the day, Jack Wright of Montreal was pitted against Jack McGill of Vancouver city, champion, to whom he dropped the first set he has lost this week. The scores were 6-0, 2-6, 6-2. Leroy Rennie, Toronto, was steadier than Sidney Smith of Tacoma, but was given his hardest battle of the week. Rennie won by two sets of 6-4. Rennie is favored by his supporters to give Wright a hard run to-morrow for entry into the semi-finals. Wally Scott of Tacoma and Howard Langlie, Seattle, staged another marathon affair, taking each other's service until Scott finally broke through Langlie to win at 9-7. In the second an unfortunate decision seemed to unnerve Langlie with the result that

IN HAMMERING MOOD.
Special to The Advertiser.
Brantford, July 8.—The Galt Terriers hammered four Cordage pitchers to the far corners tonight, wirning the old ball game 19 to 6. Lynch, who hit like a fiend all during the twilight recital, started the proceedings with a homer on the first ball pitched by Cotter, being one of the longest drives seen here this season. The visitors kept right after Cotter and started on Smith soon after he was put in. Manager Bradley, seeing the damage done, took Smith out and inserted Beemer, who did not try at all. Powers, a left fielder, finished the game. A homer by Hoffman in the fourth also added to the score, with the bases all but full when the big wallop was produced.

Brantford could do nothing with Graham, who eased up a little in the ninth, the big crowd expecting a good fight was disappointed, following the showing made on Saturday at Galt.

Gait July 8.—Without the services of Jimmie McAvoy, who is nursing a sore hand, the Preston Riversides suffered their second successive defeat at the hands of the Guelph Leafs 6 to 3, and dropped another game behind the Terriers, who were winning in Brantford. Somers, who played short for the locals, had three costly errors that contributed to the visitors' runs.

Guy Poole went the full route for the Leafs and pitched very good ball and received excellent support, only one error being made behind him. The Leafs bunched hits and got to Young in the seventh, forcing his retirement. Hales following, and before the stanza closed had put the victory in the icebox with a quartet of runs.

Garrison Finish Gives J. M. Tillsonburg Annual Schmidt's Falls Rink Permanent Possession.

Canadian Press Despatch. St. Catharines, July 8.—Permanent Tillsonburg, July 8.—Spencer Mcpossession of the O. B. A. trophy was Donald, well-known Western Ontario won at Niagara-on-the-Lake bowling lawns this afternoon by the Old Niagara or club, which provided a third winner in ten years of the premier event. J. M. Schmidt, well backed, defeated H. G. Salisbury, Toronto, by eight shots, the winners putting on a garrison finish. As Niagara won the cup in 1917 and again in 1924, they will retain its possession, according to the terms announced by President Fairbairn, who made the presentation.

The Woods trophy was won by Dr. Johnson's rink from Buffalo, after a sterling battle with Frank McKay's rink from the Canada club, Toronto.

T. F. Simpson was drawn in the semifinals against McLaughlin of his own club, Balmy Beach, Toronto, and defaulted to the latter. McLaughlin will play Leitch of Guelph for the Niagara trophy.

There was a bitter rivalry between the two teams, evidently due to the protest recently lodged by London. However, the play was kept clean and was thoroughly enjoyed by the speciators. London scored in the first. Tills sonburg teid up the count in the third and added another in the fourth and fifth. London got another in the sixth and tied the count in the ninth just when Tillsonburg were thinking of "checking out" for the night.

London's first three batters got on bases. Howard started for first on the strike and Eichenberg's throw there allowed Coursey to score, after which the side was retired. Wood, for Bartley Madden On Labor Day.

New York, July 8.—Harry Wills, for several years an outstanding challenger for the heavyweight championship, has made final preparations to follow the trail of Jack Dempsey and his bride to Europe for a vacation. He is booked to sail today on the Cunarder Berengaria. Possibility of the negro heavyweight greeting the champion on the other side, however, appeared to have been precluded in an announcement by Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, that he expected the Dempseys to arrive here on their return, July 14.

Kearns declared that it would be impossible for the champion to defend his title against either Wills or Gene Tunney this year. Dempsey has been idle so long that he would require at least four months of hard training and several preliminary bouts, he said.

Taylor Allows Strathroy Four Scattered Hits in London Victory.

LUCAN ON RAMPAGE

Strathroy Orients . Special to The Advertiser.

Strathroy, July 8 .- Taylor, pitching for the Orient Seconds, held Strathroy the four hits in a Western Ontario league game here this evening, and enabled London to win 6—2. The game was marred by errors on both teams, but both Taylor and Fiddler, Strathroy's 16-year-old pitcher, turned in fine games. Several spectacular outfield plays by C. Swales, Smith, Conkey and Wilkle, of Strathroy, cut down sure extra-base hits, while Bonk, in left field, and Gray, in centre, each accepted hard chances. London put the game away in the fifth inning. Finlayson started with a triple, Gray singled, Cooper got a life on Conkey's error, Bonk drove a long single out to right field, and when the excitement was over London had three runs. Another run was scored in the 7th, when Finlayson made first on an error, was advanced on sacrifice fly by Gray, and Hodgson and Cooper singled. After this inning Strathroy never seriously threatened, and only two men reached first in the last five innings. The box score:

BERLIN BOURSE RESUMES

BUT ITS PROTEST STANDS

Associated Press Despatch.
Berlin, July 3.—While the Berlin Dourse resumed quotations of pre-war doan bonds today after yesterday's closure financial circles continued to protest the action of the Reichstag's revaluation committee in differentiating between old and new holders of papermark state loans. However, a memorial aubmitted by the bankers' association to the finance ministry practically endorses the action of the Reichstag's revaluation committee. The memorial says the future placing of loans by the German Reich and the German provinces will encounter great difficulties if the re-valuation to safeguard the interests of any particular group of bond holders.

Food Is Scarce.

The only way to power in China was through the army, she stated. Food was growing very scarce in the country when she left a year ago, and even at that time men were joining the army to save themselves from starvation.

Taxes were outrageously high. The military governor thought nothing of demanding thousands of dollars from the poorer classes, and the sums they obtained were sent to the Hong-Kong-Shanghai bank at Shanghai. So much money had come into the bank that it was a matter of putting it in cold storage. The institution was flooded with currency, and instead of paying interest to the depositors they had to charge for storage. Canadian Press Despatch Glace Bay, N. S., July J.—Pending the formation of the Rhodes govern-ment the four months old strike between the British Empire Corporation and its 12,000 coal min-ing employees, is marking time. The announcement made in Halifax last night by Premier-elect Hen. E. N. Rhodes, that he would come to Cape Breton as soon as his ministry was installed, has accentuated the feeling that nothing much is to be expected by way of settlement until he comes. For several days past the situation throughout the province has been without incident.

CASES FOR DIVISION COUURT. Eleven cases will be heard before Judge J. C. Judd in first division court tomorrow.

Ontario's Last Toll-Road Likely To Be Taken Over By Lambton

Special to The Advertiser.

Sarnia, July 8.—An inkling that the last remaining toll gate in Ontario may disappear was given this afternoon when the Hon.

S. L. Squires, deputy minister of highways, met the Lambton county county council to explain the revised scheme of county roads. The council took the opportunity to bring up the question of the plank road between Sarnia and Petrolia and Oil Springs, which is owned by the Sarnia-Florence Road Company, and on which toll is extracted. Mr. Squires gave assurance that the council would find the government ready to co-operate in having the road taken into the provincial county system, and would bear a fair share of any expense in taking it over. He recommended specifically the appointment of a committee to meet in conjunction with the highways department officials with the owners of the system.
