DOG WITH RABIES BIT SEVEN PEOPLE

Animal Went Mad in Ward Seven, Ran Thru Streets, Biting Children, Tore Doctor's Hand, and Finally Was Shot—Dr. Amyot Found Evidence of Rabies.

When a large black beagle dog went mad on Dundas street, Ward Seven, on Saturday, seven people were so badly bitten by the animal that they will be forced to take the Pasteur treatment. After terrorizing the whole district the dog returned to its home, where it was shot. The head was analyzed by Dr. Amyot, who described the case as one of the deadliest forms of rabies.

The dog broke from its fastening at 503 Quebec avenue, during the morning. The owner, Nelson Leadbeater, a cartage agent, was out at the time. Before leaving the premises the dog bit Leadbeater's two small children. Running along the avenue to Dundas street, the dog turned in at Whetter's butcher shop. Those who were on the street at the time noticed the peculiar actions of the dog and kept a safe distance away.

Dr. Cunningham happened to be in the shop at the time. Without even a bark, the animal sprang at his throat. Dr. Cunningham raised his hand and the dog lacerated three of his fingers.

L. Scruton, an undertaker, was the next victim. He was walking along when the mad creature came leaping along the street and bit him.

Other People Bitten. A child belonging to Mr. Steele of Quebec avenue also felt the fangs of the dog, while playing on the street.

The son of James Smith, brickmaker on the Weston road, was bitten while the animal was on the rampage, and a woman who lives on Bine street will also have to take the Pasteur treatment, as she, too, was bitten.

After locating the house from which the dog had come, Dr. Cunningham summoned Dr. Arthur Melhuus, veterinary surgeon. The latter armed himself with a forty-four calibre revolver and proceeded to the house on Quebec avenue. The dog had been trapped in the kitchen.

The doctor cautiously opened the door, and as he did so the animal sprang for the opening. By slamming the door the doctor caught the head of the animal. The doctor fired a shot thru the dog's head, and Constable added another.

Twenty Rabies Cases. It is thought that there are several other people in the neighborhood who may have been bitten by the dog. Dr. Melhuus states that he has had nearly twenty cases of rabies in the last six weeks, and it is understood several other people from Ward Seven have been taking the Pasteur treatment.

Two weeks ago a large dog was shot after it had bitten a young man. The head was examined and found to be rabid.

About two days later another animal owned by Fred Chowna at Humbler Bay became mad and had to be shot.

Triple Alliance Renewed

VIENNA, Dec. 7.—(Can. Press.)—The alliance between Austria-Hungary, Germany and Italy has been renewed without alteration. Information from Belgrade received today is to the effect that the Serbian Merchant Union has decided to boycott all Austrian products.

PEACE HASTENED BY RENEWING ALLIANCE

Course Taken Six Months Before Necessity Existed Is Expected to Exert Pressure on Russia and Serbia—Austria Seizes Flour Meant For the Servians.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—(Can. Press.)—The circumstances of the renewal of the dreubind six months before the necessity arose to give notice of its expiry or renewal is considered to have special reference to the Balkan problem. Continental newspapers comment on its renewal as calculated to make a strong impression on Russia and Serbia, thus helping the preservation of peace.

Turkey has not yet officially appointed her peace delegate, but all the Balkan states, including Greece, have named theirs, and the delegates tomorrow will start for London.

Dr. Danoff, president of the Bulgarian Chamber of Deputies, will stop at Bucharest on his way to London, and will endeavor to reconcile Roumania's territorial and economic aspirations with Bulgaria's interests.

The Greeks continue their military operations and have occupied Syrakon and St. George, villages four hours distant from Janina, where the remnants of the Turkish Monastir army are said to have arrived.

Charge of Flour Confiscated. The telegraph says that the Austro-Hungarian authorities have stopped at Fiume the steamer Hegesdich, with a cargo of 800 tons of flour destined for the Serbian army at Durazzo.

It is announced that Austria intends to confiscate the flour for the use of her army, thus creating a similar situation as brought about by the stoppage by Turkey of Serbian guns.

Another Belgrade despatch says there is considerable anxiety over the health of King Peter. The king fainted several times yesterday.

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—What is the "joker" in the contract between the government and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company by which the latter can evade its obligations to take over and operate the National Transcontinental Railway between Moncton and Winnipeg?

That there is such a joker seems to be generally understood. The company is said to have definitely decided its policy upon the advice of eminent counsel, and the government is undoubtedly getting ready to operate the line between Moncton and Winnipeg in case of default on the part of the company.

In a general way it has been supposed that the government was amply protected by the deposit of $5,000,000 made by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company under the contract of 1903. Whether in any event this deposit would have been adequate is doubtful, but it is now contended that under the contract as amended in 1904 the company can demand and receive from the government this entire deposit without operating the line between Winnipeg and Moncton.

More Jokers? It was in 1904 that several amendments to the first contract between the government and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company were made. One of these amendments, the famous implement clause, turned out to be a joke, which has already cost the peo-

MRS. A. WHIDDON DIED AFTER OPERATION

Police Matron For Seventeen Years, She Was Kind and Gentle and Devoted Much of Her Time and Money to Charitable Work, Especially Among Women.

After more than seventeen years' faithful service as police matron for the City of Toronto, Mrs. Agnes B. Whiddon, 2 Gould street, died in the Western Hospital yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Whiddon failed to recover from an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Whiddon was 50 years of age. She came to Canada from Scotland, when just out of her teens. With her she brought qualifications of a first-class nurse and also the benefits of a good education.

When first the police became acquainted with Mrs. Whiddon, she was doing missionary work in the ward. She had a home on Elm street, and later on Centre avenue. It was here that the police were able to find a harbor for young girls. In Mrs. Whiddon they found a congenial, motherly woman, willing to help them keep the straight course in life.

During her service as police matron not one officer has had a reason to complain of her work. She was gentle with the weak women, kind and patient. With the quarrelsome persons she was equally kind, but if they were not submissive, she, too, could become very stern. Altogether, diminutive in size in comparison with some of her prisoners, she was generally able to control them.

When searching female prisoners for stolen property she was alert, and it is claimed never overlooked anything. Some of the detectives describe her as being a detective policeman and a kind woman all in one.

Her salary from the position she placed in the bank regularly. This was devoted to charity, and many a poor home has been helped along by the money furnished by the fine little woman.

On one occasion she gave her total savings of $500 to charity. Mrs. Whiddon was a fine little lady and will be missed badly in the police service as well as in charitable work. She was granted leave of absence some weeks ago on account of ill-health. The funeral will take place from 1058 Yonge street, on Wednesday.

HELD UP TRAIN NEAR VANCOUVER

Lone Bandit Entered Parlor Car of Imperial Limited and Made Passengers Disgorge.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Dec. 8.—(Can. Press.)—A bold train hold up was carried out on Saturday night just as the C.P.R. Imperial Limited, leaving Vancouver at 7.40 was passing out of the city. A single bandit, disguised by a black mask, boarded the train as it was passing the British Columbia Sugar Refinery, a mile and a half out, entered a Pullman car and at the point of a revolver forced the passengers to pass over their money and valuables. The man dropped off the train just before it arrived at Arnet, six miles from the city.

The total loss was $208 in bills, two watches and one chain, one diamond ring and two English sovereigns. The sleeping car conductor contributed $30. The police have no trace of the robber.

FIRE IN WINNIPEG LOSS IS $250,000

WINNIPEG, Dec. 8.—(Can. Press.)—Fire which started in Potter's wholesale furniture warehouse late this afternoon and completely gutted that building, threatened the wholesale houses of Bromley and Hague, tent and awning manufacturers, McKenzie Bros., hardware specialists, and the Simpson Produce Company, all situated in the wholesale district on Princess street. Serious loss was stopped by a fire wall, which was put up recently, when an addition to the Potter's building was made.

The fire had a good start before the alarm was sent in, and the loss will reach a quarter of a million dollars. Potter's was a total loss, while the stock and buildings of Bromley and Hague and McKenzie Bros. were damaged by fire and water. The firemen worked in a foot of two of water with the thermometer below zero.

Bateman Escapes Gallows

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—At the cabinet session Saturday it was decided to commute to life imprisonment the sentence of death against John Bateman, the octogenarian of Whitty, Ont., who was condemned to be hanged for the killing of his wife, whom he beat to death.

Bateman was to have been hanged on Friday, Dec. 13, but owing to his advanced age and other extenuating circumstances, Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, decided to commute the sentence to imprisonment.

FINEST EXHIBITS WINTER FAIR HAS KNOWN

Fat Stock Show at Guelph Opens Today With Best All-Round Showing in Its History—Display of Horses Is Remarkable For Excellence of Entries.

GUELPH, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the twenty-sixth annual Ontario Provincial Winter Fair will open its doors in this city to the public, and will continue open morning, afternoon and evening until Friday evening.

The fair this year will beyond question exceed that of any previous year, notwithstanding the fact that a big show is in progress in Toronto. It was expected that this show would feel the effects of the one at Toronto, but it has only served as a stimulant to the officials to proceed with greater things than ever before, and already the efforts are being crowned with success.

Horses Great Attraction. To the general public the horse department of the show is the great attraction, and it is easily the best horse show ever seen in Guelph. When this department was added to the fair three years ago it was an experiment, but as time goes on it continues to grow in size and interest, with the result that this year close to fifty horses will have to be stabled outside of the building. One hundred stalls were erected this year, but still there is not room enough.

The finest heavy and light horses in Canada are here today, and the judges will have their hands full to decide the prize winners.

With such well-known horse breeders as T. H. Harsand of Markdale, John A. Boag & Son of Queensville, T. D. Elliott, Bolton, Smith and Richardson, Columbus, Green, Brown, Clarendon, J. M. Gardhouse, Weston, and numerous others, who deal in heavy horses, and Miss K. L. Wilks of Galt, J. R. Thompson, Guelph; H. C. Boag, Barrie, in light horses, the competition should be keen enough for the most critical. Every class is well filled, more hackneys being shown this year than ever before.

Fine Beef Cattle. It would not have been surprising had there been a falling off in the exhibit of best cattle, but the reverse is the case, and this department is crowded. Some of the finest fattest heifers to be seen anywhere are here, and some fat stock from the Chicago show is expected to arrive on Monday morning. All records have been broken in the dairy cattle class, no less than seventy-one of these being under test, it having started Saturday morning and closing on Monday night. If this department continues to grow as it has in the past two years, extra permanent accommodation will have to be provided.

It has already been suggested that an effort be made to secure a portion of the armory grounds for a new horse area, using the present one for further extension of the dairy class and other purposes.

Sheep and Swine. The sheep and swine exhibits are fully up to other years, the former going over the limit. The competition in sheep this year is expected to eclipse all others, with such sheep breeders as A. and C. continuing to Parkin, E. Bernt & Sons, J. H. Campbell, & Son, J. S. Gosnell & Son, John Kelly, J. Lloyd Jones, all of whom have won many prizes at the international at Chicago and many others in the running.

There is also a fine display of seed grain and potatoes, which will attract considerable attention. The most enthusiastic exhibitors of the whole show, however, are the poultry men, and this year's poultry exhibit will without doubt be the best ever held. Never before has there been such a fine display of poultry. There are between five and six thousand birds in the show, and there is not room enough to show them properly. In nearly every coop there are two birds and in some three and four.

If the show continues to grow as it has done during the past few years more buildings will have to be provided.

HATS FOR COLD DAYS. Just this brisk spell of wintry weather reminds us that we have to look to the comfort of the head as well as of the hands and feet. Heavy English weather caps defy the cold and the strength of the wind. We have them in a wide variety of shape, size and material. W. and D. Dinsin Company, hatters and manufacturing furriers, corner Yonge and Temperance streets.

Gala Night at the Princess. A gala night will doubtless be in evidence at the Princess tonight when the joyous musical comedy "The Spring Maid" opens a new engagement. Christie Macdonald, Tom MacNaughton and all of last season's favorites are again in the company.

Rugby Toronto Wins 3 From Hamilton Ice Today For Hockey Baseball Magnates Meet in New York

Note and Comment

The Rugby season of 1912 was wound up on Saturday at Rosedale in a fitting and friendly manner.

All-Toronto and All-Hamilton lined up with numbers on their backs in friendly array, but the play was none the less Rugby played by every one of the six half backs, one of which was Hugh Goss.

Hamilton was supposed to have had no practice together, but they had a good combination, among the players, and the weather was almost ideal for football, saying so much for the glorious climate of this Canada of ours.

Toronto tried out no less than twenty-five men, and a feature was the quality of Rugby displayed by every one of the six half backs, one of which was Hugh Goss.

Hamilton was supposed to have had no practice together, but they had a good combination, among the players, and the weather was almost ideal for football, saying so much for the glorious climate of this Canada of ours.

Toronto's constellation also worked well together, and there was no misgiving as to the combination, like one team's players showed only the weak points in Hamilton.

There were a couple of other inter-city Rugby incidents, and like the big event at Rosedale, Toronto teams also came out on top.

The champion Alerts have displayed commendable magnanimity in their nomination of officers for the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

ALL-TORONTO IN A SPECTACULAR RUGBY GAME FROM ALL-HAMILTON

Open Play Predominated in Benefit Contest Before a Good Crowd in Fair Weather at Rosedale—Toronto Used 25 Men, Hamilton 17.

(By Lew Brown.) Hamilton did not win all the championships this year, for at least one came to Toronto, when the local all-stars trimmed the Tiger-Alert boys on Saturday at Rosedale, to the tune of 3 to 2.

This exhibition was also used by the public as a means of showing their gratitude to Billy Sise, the man who has been behind the game in bringing Canadian football to the fore, and who has been a never-shirking developer of this grand autumn game.

TELEGRAM VOLATILITIES.

"Toronto's housing problem," says The Telegram, "cannot be solved on the basis of land at $50 a foot." And then with the atmosphere of consistency that hangs around Bay and Melinda streets corner, The Telegram denounces The World and what it is pleased to call Donlands democracy for supporting the multiplication of facilities for reaching cheaper land. Suburban railway services? No, says The Telegram. They would only raise the price of land in Port Credit and Fort Union. Tubes? No, says The Telegram. Fast transportation from the slums to the suburbs would cause a demand for cheap land and raise its price. How are the people to get to the cheap land without transportation?

If The Telegram will give any teeny-weeny iota of confirmation for the following libel The World will admit that only one paper in Toronto—to wit, The Evening Telegram—ever did, thought or said anything to help the citizens of Toronto to cheaper and more comfortable and healthier homes. Which, as Euclid says, is absurd. Here is the libel, which, of course, no one, not even The Telegram, takes seriously. The Telegram simply thought it sounded well, and hadn't said it for at least ten days before.

"And The World is the loudest apostle of the tyranny that stands between the wayfarer man and the fulfillment of his dream, of a home built on a fifty-foot lot with an ample garden."

Are rapid transport tubes, are suburban services, are distance-shortening viaducts part of the plans to keep wayfarer men from fifty-foot lots? Will The Telegram, which has opposed all these things for years, point out where the tyranny comes in? But this is not all. "Donlands denounces," it goes on, "seems to have no higher or holier ideal than that represented in the ambition to 'start something.'" This is in Saturday's paper. In The Telegram of last Wednesday we were told:

"The forces of reaction had their high priest The Toronto World."
With Miss Mowher, we can only remark: "Ain't we volatile?"
The Telegram seems to have a lot of trouble in squaring its theories of The World's aims with The World's actual performances. Would it not be kindly and charitable, not to say Christian, to suppose that we are doing our best for the progress of the city, the prosperity of the community, the welfare of all concerned, as we presume The Telegram is trying to do according to its lights? Surely it ought to be evident, even to The Telegram, that we cannot make a record as reactionaries and at starting things at the same time. Perhaps The Telegram will reply that sometimes we are reactionary and sometimes we are starting things, but if this be so we can only reply that The Telegram opposes everything we support all the time. So it must sometimes be reactionary, too, and if it doesn't start things before we do it is not because we do not give it the chance. We shall be glad to tell it when we are going to start something, let it have the pleasure for once of starting something itself. We always wait modestly for a long time.
But fifty-foot lots would not and do not cost $50 a foot on any suburban Toronto The World has suggested. Were the suburban services in force around Toronto with which Montreal is con-venanced, the "wayfarer man" would be able to get land by the half acre for $50 within half an hour's run. A tube service in connection with the radial lines would tend in the same direction. The Telegram's own advertising columns are the best reply to the silly statement that $50 a foot for land is the result of a development policy.

THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE.
Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy are officially reported to have renewed the triple alliance which would otherwise have come to an end on June 14, 1911. It dates from 1882, when Italy became a party to the then existing alliance between Germany and Austria, originally concluded as a sequel to the occupation in 1881 of Tunis by France. The three nations are understood to have agreed to defend the integrity of their European possessions against any other or others of the great powers. In October, 1887, the late Prince Bismarck, German chancellor, and Signor Crispien, the Italian foreign minister, met at Friedrichsruh, and as a result a still closer of-fensive and defensive league was arranged. Its terms have never been disclosed, but in 1902, the year of its second renewal, Count von Bulow, then German chancellor, declared that none of the partners to the alliance was obliged to maintain its military or naval forces at a prescribed level, and also that the alliance did not include the possibility of good relations between the partners and other powers. At that time the Italian Government also gave assurance to France that in no case could Italy become either the instrument or the auxiliary of an aggression against France. The alliance just renewed dates from 1907. Rumania joined in 1896, the alliance having agreed to guarantee her territorial integrity and the maintenance of the status quo on the Lower Danube.

The dual alliance between France and Russia materialized after the exchange of a series of visits by their respective fleets in 1891, but their friendship was of earlier standing and no doubt led to the closer bond of the triple alliance. For a number of years the United Kingdom, while maintaining an attitude of "splendid isolation," inclined to the latter alliance, moved thereby to apprehensions of French and Russian aggression. But the arrival of the "entente" with France, through the instrumentality of the late King Edward VII, and the rapid growth of German naval strength, led, in 1902, to a change in the course of British policy. An agreement made with France in 1904, and with Russia in 1907, created the triple entente, which aimed at the maintenance of the balance of power, the strengthening of the treaty law in the interests of peace and the status quo and the promotion of disarmament. The troubles over Morocco and the Balkan crisis have tested the solidity of both the alliance and the entente, but the present outlook is not without hopeful intimation of more cordial feeling between the United Kingdom and Germany. Both governments, aided by French co-operation, have worked for the maintenance of peace, and the recent tensions borne by Mr. Asquith and the German chancellor encourage the anticipation that the record-breaking industrial prosperity of the nations will not be checked or overthrown by the outbreak of a wider war.

HEALTH INFORMATION.
In the health bulletin, just issued by the department of health, there is an unusual amount of practical information and it is to be regretted that every home in the city cannot have these bulletins made familiar to them. One thing might be done, and that is to have the senior classes in the schools and college institutes take them once as a reading or subject for composition. The schools teach a lot of things that never really matter, as we all can testify after we have forgotten them, and a few facts about typhoid and dirty water, clean milk and pure air would yield good results in citizenship as well as mental discipline.

One curious fact brought out in the bulletin has regard to the relative cleanliness of the city's 200 restaurants. It is a national reproach that the Canadians should stand third on the list, which, according to the report, is based on the number of proper handling of milk, ranks the nationalities in the following order: American, German, Canadian, English, French, Greek, Jewish and Chinese.

Aid. McBride refuses to listen to the suggestion that he enter for the oratorical Marathon.

The Star continues to show Canadians how grateful they should be to be able to live at home. Last year it was Buffalo sausages. At present it is German dog's meat. Hound roast or hind quarter of spaniel are the new dishes.

One good thing the ungracious action of the Academy of Medicine has elicited from the undergraduates of the university as well as from other sections of the public to Dr. Macallum, whose citizenship is an honor to Canada.

Single Truck Cars and Inquests.
Editor World: Would you please me thru your paper to call attention to the inquest upon the death of Mrs. Boddy, who was killed by a single truck street car, adding another victim to the long list of deaths by the old type of single truck cars with fenders raised from the ground from six to twelve inches. These poor, inadequate cars have been with us from the beginning and will be to the end if in the future inquests are conducted on the same lines as the one upon the death of Mrs. Boddy. The coroner, who was absent and the witnesses were all allowed to listen to one another's evidence. There were old and similar enquiries.
It is not time that the dear public awake from their long sleep and ask the government city councilors to take the steps necessary to remove for all time the single truck car system and the professional Jurymen

Corporations Are Menace to Public
N. W. Rowell, K.C., Would Prevent Elections Being Influenced—Urges Reorganization of Board.
WOODSTOCK, Dec. 7.—N. W. Rowell, K.C., addressed the annual meeting of the North Oxford Liberal Association this afternoon.
He dealt principally with the abolition of the policy of the opposition and attacked the government for not paying sufficient attention to the dangers of aggression by corporations.
"Power of Corporations."
"We should," he said, "to the full limit of the legislative power, prevent corporate power from being used to influence elections or to control the course of legislation or the administration of our public affairs. We should protect the several penal law, all contributions by corporations for political purposes, and make a statute providing for the investigation of the public expense of all charges that corporations have contributed for political purposes. We should see that the criminal law against unlawful combinations to restrain trade, to stifle competition and to enhance the price of the consumer, be vigorously enforced. We should see that the capitalization of railways and other public service corporations within our jurisdiction is brought under government regulation and control. We should recognize our Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, and reconstitute it with personnel and with powers which will make it an adequate instrument for protecting public interests in its dealings with all public service corporations. We should insist upon the Dominion Parliament restoring to us the control of our streets and highways. We should compel railways to do public service corporations to submit to taxation on a basis in all respects equal to that imposed on the private citizen. The large rate payers of the province have powers. If we really want to control in the public interest corporations operating in Ontario, we can devise methods of doing so. What is needed is the will to do it."
He then spoke of the Whitley government had not done its duty, and that there was little to hope from that source. "What has this government done to prosecute combines such as the retirement of Mr. J. W. Curry, K.C., as crown attorney. It completed in May 1906?" he asked. "It completed prosecutions already under way, but it has discontinued and abandoned both prosecutions and investigations in all other cases and has since gone to sleep on the matter."
"What has the government done to prohibit campaign contributions by corporations, or to prevent corporate influence in legislative affairs? Absolutely nothing. And how do we know that they are not in receipt of substantial contributions from corporations for political purposes? There is no method at present by which the people can find out."
"Why did the government reverse its previous policy with reference to land grants to railways, and make a land grant of 2,000,000 acres of land to the Mackenzie and Mann interests?"
"What has the government done to control the capitalization of railways and other public service corporations?"
"What has the government done to reorganize and enlarge the powers of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, so as to make it effective in the public interests? Nothing."
"If the people's rights are to be protected and vindicated, the present government will have to be replaced by one more progressive and more in sympathy with the people."
The Dominion Railway Act was quoted as an example of an unfair contract with corporations. In the case of expropriation of the arbitrators appointed to fix the compensation fall out in favor of the corporation. The limit, the owner must accept the amount offered by the railway company for his property, and in that event the owner must pay the whole of the expenses of the arbitration.
Mr. Rowell had recently written to the minister of railways drawing attention to this provision of the Railway Act and urged that it should be amended so as to protect the rights of the farmer and land owner.
Mr. Rowell in fact members of the government to accompany him into the field to speak in favor of the by-law. "Sir James," he said, "and his colleagues, particularly Mr. Hanna, Mr. Duff and Mr. Beck, have all declared that they are in favor of local option. If they are sincere they have an admirable opportunity of proving their sincerity in these 100 local option contests. They have made local option more difficult to carry by imposing the three-fifths handicap, which has prevented the passage of the by-law in constituencies with 60 licences."
"He was sorry that Sir James was out of the county but when he returned a local option would be held in his own town. He has himself created, Mr. Hanna had worked for it himself it would be carried at Mr. Beck's door where a contest was being carried on. Both parties realized that local option alone was not sufficient; it had been unable to successfully to attack the by-law in the real strongholds in large cities. The government proposed to deal with the evils by prohibiting treating and by licence and imposing further restrictions upon the shops. Our bar people will make the abolition of the by-law a fait accompli and once the bar has gone no party will ever restore it."
Mr. Rowell stated that there were rumors of the intention of the government not to go on with the anti-treaty liquor interests to permit it to do so. "But I do not credit this. I am as I differ from Sir James Whitney on many public matters I have too much respect for him to believe that he will go back on his pledged word."

ANOTHER MILLION GOES OUT.
Would You Know How This Little Christmas Stamp is Kept Moving? These Figures May Surprise You.
Another million Christmas stamps—the little stamp issued on behalf of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives—are now on their way to the post office, bringing the total so far printed up to four millions. It should be interesting to note some of the avenues of distribution. Five hundred thousand are in the hands of the school children of Toronto and elsewhere in the province. The boys' association workers, co-operating with the association secretaries, and already they have out over 400,000 stamps. Boy scout totals in circulation have reached 215,000. The newsboys of G.T.R., C.P.R. and C.N.R., covering their different systems, stretching from coast to coast, are reaching out to the half million, having so far ordered 345,000. Heavy co-operation has each year come from the banks of the country. Two hundred thousand stamps have been shipped to head offices and branch banks all over Canada. The churches of the land, and the many organizations allied with the Christian Church, are using over 36,000 stamps. The churches of the land, for each day new avenues of distribution are being opened out, free-hearted, voluntary, enthusiastic workers coming from Chicago. A special company in operation in Canada to say that this year, at least, they are carrying parcels of stamps free to all points.

THE MIRACLE
She eyes clear store windows as she passes down the street, they lure her as a merrily drawn by flame. She hears a fatal wisp of door with hesitating feet—she wishes she were sure about the lot, but what is it? La Carmina, La Pomoka—why, of course, how foolish not to think of that before! She steps the malle cover, was the picture of a horse—she thinks she hears the count near the door. And yet she isn't certain—these are short and black and she wishes she could just be sure if that's his chosen brand—she doesn't wish to give him any jokes. She doesn't trust her judgment, and she trusts the dealer less; he seems to want to influence her choice; why should he on the merits of some other brand? She thinks she has seen a false note in his voice. Why should a box with pictures on cost less than the other? She thinks she has seen a problem in her mind. Her thoughts are in a middle of uncertainty and she knows she will be in a little while he had taken from a shelf—some stock that's doubtless been up there for years. She thinks she has seen it wouldn't "smoke" that kind himself—she reasons as she vanquishes had far as she can see, she has seen it firmly for the ornamented brand, and she passes thru those portals strange and fancy, the fancy labeled "smokeless" in her trembling little hand—and she takes some prime perfects home for him.

GRAND TRUNK ISN'T PLEASED WITH DEAL
President Chamberlin Says Final Agreement With New Haven Has Not Been Reached.

BOSTON, Dec. 7.—A letter received here today from President Chamberlin of the Grand Trunk Railroad Company, announced that the draft of a traffic agreement with the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad was not acceptable to the Grand Trunk. No final agreement was expected to be reached before Jan. 1.
President Chamberlin, in a letter to the New Haven Bureau, said: "The Grand Trunk is not satisfied with the proposed traffic arrangement which makes their award within the time limit, was not acceptable to the Grand Trunk and the Central Vermont Companies, and was therefore declined, with the understanding that we would submit a counter proposition."

FINE WEATHER IN ARGENTINA CARRIED WHEAT DOWN AGAIN

Bear Crowd Had Control of Chicago Pit All Day—Government Report Expected to Show Favorable Condition of Winter Wheat.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Wheat sold down today under moderate selling, due mainly to fine weather for the Argentine harvest. The market closed easy 3-4 to 1-2c under last night. Corn showed a net loss of 1-4 to 1-2c. Provisions finished 7-12c lower to a shade advance.

Beers had control of wheat through the day. Resting orders steadied the market, but failed to induce a rally. From the start the crowd seemed bent on ignoring crop damage reported in Southern Argentina. Despatches, however, telling of excellent conditions in the northern provinces, where cutting was in progress, received careful attention. Influence against the bulls continued to be found in millers' reports, pointing to good prospects for the winter crop in the U. S. Warmer temperature northwest counted also, and there were predictions that the government report Monday would be opposed to an upturn.

Cold weather with increased country marketing brought about a setback in corn. A recent leader of the bulls was credited with unloading to a considerable extent.

Oats went lower on account of selling by a few longs who seemed timid about carrying the grain over the week-end.

Slowness of trade in provisions made the market average weaker.

Northwest Receipts.

Receipts of wheat at northwest points, with usual comparisons, follow:

The Liverpool market closed unchanged to bid lower on wheat, and bid lower on corn.

Evening Dress for the Man of Style

The man that buys a dress garment at Broderick's has a knowledge of values, not only with respect to price, but in the larger, fuller sense of the phrase—discrimination.

We cannot visualize in words the precision of detail, the beauty of line, the balance, the proportion, the irreproachable finish, and the striking individuality of these garments as a whole.

But this much we can say: No man can afford to be apathetic in the choosing of dress clothes, and thus no man can afford to be indifferent to the merit of Broderick's dress clothes.

They are Canada's premier productions for style.

SPECULATIVE DEMAND SHOWED DISPOSITION TO BROADEN

Belief That Recent Decline Had Not Been Warranted Brought Rally in Mining Market—Tretwey Continues to Improve.

Influenced by the general belief that the recent decline had not been warranted the mining market adopted a firmer attitude at the week-end, and at the close of the session on Saturday, improved quotations for some half dozen of the more prominent issues manifested the sudden change in the price trend. Betterment was most pronounced in the Cobalt list, where the greatest weakness had been shown the day previous. The Porcupine stocks were quiet throughout and wound up no appreciable distance removed from their usual levels.

The market had nothing new to which to frame up a new line of sentiment, but there was disposition to take advantage of the slight downturn to make purchases, and a revival of advance in such a variety of stocks as Lake, City of Cobalt and Tretwey, Peterson Lake, on the other hand, continued to display a rather unsteady undertone, but instances of this nature were the exception rather than the rule.

All-Eyes on Tretwey.

The market is watching the action of Tretwey closely in an endeavor to get an inkling of the evidence regarding a dividend in the near future. The company has not paid a dividend since 1908, and this fact has been reflected in the stock exchange by the drop in the value of the shares to the January level, 82, their recent low record. On Saturday the stock added still further to its gain of earlier in the week, reaching 83 1/2, a net advance for the day of 1/4 point.

A natural reaction after the dip of Friday carried Cobalt Lats 11 1/2 up to 29 1/2. The market is scoring a two-point appreciation in price. Timiskaming was firm above 43, on expectations that the company would announce an interim dividend payment for the year.

Beaver was quoted ex-dividend 3 per cent, at 4 1/2, equivalent to its recent quotation of 3 1/2. The dividend and gold were both in demand, continuation of the speculative activity which has been in effect during the last few days. Peterson Lake was a fraction to 1 1/4, but was higher at the close, when 1 1/2 was bid.

Crown Chartered.

The Porcupines were given over to dullness, with Hollinger firm at its recent level of 2 1/2. The market bid, and the other stocks comparatively unchanged. Crown Chartered dropped an eighth of a point to 2 1/2, a new low record for the month.

WALL STREET COMMENT.

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following on Wall Street today: The market was feverish, on a rally long stock came out in Steel, Union Pacific and Amalgamated Copper were pressed for sale. That day's bottom figure meant little. This was normal, even assuming that prices will go lower. Use the bulge statement was better than expected. It is predicted that by reason of the better Balkan outlook our banks will secure more gold in London.

Chas. Head & Co. to J. E. Osborne, morning. The hysterical conditions of yesterday were not renewed and apparently the fright had passed. The market was no enthusiasm and the rally at best was feeble. The public has been so thoroughly discouraged by the late market developments that it will not side of the pessimism existing in Wall Street, the country generally is doing a large and profitable business. The outlook for stock market speculation is still in a state of depression. The government's attitude toward the roads and large corporations. It is possible the liquidation and decline will be forced further, and we would not recommend buying at present.

Mining Engineer is Much Pleased With Porcupine

W. L. Fleming, M.E., of New York, Puts Stamp of Approval on the Gold Camp—Hollinger is a Wonder—Many Other Good Mines.

Mr. W. L. Fleming, M.E., a well-known mining engineer of New York, who has been investigating conditions in the Porcupine district for C. A. Powell Co., brokers of Gotham, has put the stamp of approval on the gold camp. He reports as follows:

Several rather important discoveries are reported to have been made, and there is a strong feeling of confidence in the camp in a mining way.

The Dome is working with a make-shift force. Men are working at least three shifts, and are doing a little better than 300 tons of ore daily and delivering it to the mill, which is a full capacity. The ore is of course, all coming from the glory holes, but at that, the fact that so few men can get out this tonnage is surprising and speaks a lot for

Toronto Daily Live Stock World

ANNUAL EDITION

TORONTO ONT. DECEMBER 9, 1912

REVIEW OF LIVE STOCK TRADE AND INDUSTRIES

IN this edition of The World a fair presentation is given of the live stock industry at the two cattle markets in the city—the city cattle yards and the large and up-to-date yards at West Toronto. Every succeeding year witnesses a new development in this industry in the city: abattoirs are being enlarged, packing plants increased and accommodation for live stock industry broadened. A glance at The World's live stock edition will show the magnificent plants which are now erected and in the course of construction around the two live stock quarters. Practically all the live stock business of Ontario is concentrated in the City of Toronto, which has now achieved a position equal to almost anything on the continent outside of Chicago. The great importance of Toronto as a live stock centre is acknowledged by those engaged in this business, and as evidence it is only necessary to cite the fact that buyers from Chicago, Buffalo, Montreal, Winnipeg and Boston are occasionally on the Toronto markets for the purpose of supplying either their own markets, or, as purchasers, for export to Britain. The live stock industry in Toronto has developed from almost insignificant proportions, until today (perhaps it is not too much to say) there is a bigger transfer of money in connection with this business in the city than almost any other enterprise.

Only a few years ago the Toronto City Market, which was then the exclusive yards for handling cattle, simply received and transferred shipments which came in, and this represented merely the handling of the cattle and left very little outside of commissions to those who were operating in the markets. Today, however, a different story altogether can be told. At the old cattle markets there is the well-known packing firm of Matthews, Lang & Co., formerly Park, Blackwell & Co., a firm with other large plants at Montreal, Peterboro (branch), and Hull. Also at the City Stock Yards there is the pioneer firm of the Harris Abattoir Co., who are transferring their business to a much larger proposition at the Union Stock Yards at West Toronto. It is, however, at these latter yards that the big development in the side issues of the cattle business has grown.

Here the world-wide known firm of the Swift Co. have a large packing house (a branch of their parent institution at Chicago) and known in Canada as The Swift Canadian Co. Here also is located the old and progressive firm of Gunns Ltd. Disconnected from the markets themselves, but tributary to both yards by rail communication, is the Davies Packing House, which has a widely established reputation, not only in Canada, but thruout Britain and Europe. Cuts of all these firms, which are depicted in this issue, will give a better description of the vastness of the enterprises than can be given in writing. Puddy Bros., who conduct abattoirs on Paton road, have also a long reputation in the packing business and are recognized as one of the aggressive and growing institutions.

The evolution of the Toronto live stock trade has been one of steady development. It is upwards of thirty-eight years ago that Toronto really became the live stock centre of Ontario. At this time the present city yards of the Western Cattle Market were established, mainly by the efforts of the late J. R. Dunn and others. It was not for some little time after this, however, that Toronto obtained an international reputation as a live stock market. Messrs. G. R. Frankland, Andrew W. Aikins, James Crawford, Thomas Crawford, John and Jesse Dunn, Frank Hunnisett, sr., and Wm. J.

McClelland, being responsible for testing the possibilities of exporting Canadian cattle to the British markets. This was extremely successful, and from that time until now continuous shipments have been made from the Toronto markets either by way of Canadian or American ports. Latterly, however, owing to the high prices that have been obtained in Canada for all live stock products, the export business has somewhat declined. Whether this is to be regretted or not is a matter of opinion. The outstanding fact, however, is that the yearly receipts at the two Toronto markets are gradually on the increase; and that the development of packing plants will continue the work towards further increases. A fair review of the enlargement in the live stock industry at this centre can be obtained from the following statistics:

In 1883 the total receipts were:—34,807 cattle, 49,015 sheep, 11,019 hogs, while for the present year it is estimated that there will be received at both markets upwards of 210,000 cattle, 150,000 sheep, 500,000 hogs, 45,000 calves, 20,000 horses, making a comparison in money values between this period—twenty-nine years—the 1883 receipts work out to about $2,000,000.00; while those for the current year would easily run to $35,000,000.00.

Of the live stock received this year it might be interesting to show their disposal after having passed thru the markets and the following information has been compiled after careful research. The following table shows how many were taken by the city packing houses; also the outside packing houses in other cities; also the numbers taken by city butchers; also those taken for export; also those going back to the country as feeders; and those taken for dairy purposes:

	Cattle	Hogs	Sheep	Calves
Taken by city packers	108,749	448,755	68,510	13,182
" " Outside packers ..	26,182	27,855	4,219	860
" " Toronto butchers ..	27,494	17,993	66,087	31,544
" " Exporters	21,366		9,810
" " Feeders	15,170	776	836	40
" " Dairies	2,015			620
Total	209,946	494,089	148,062	45,846

In the city there are killed weekly, under government inspection, 2000 cattle, the products of which are shipped to all parts of the Dominion.
