SCORE'S PALM BEACH SUITINGS AT $19.75. Cool, lightweight skeleton lined suits such as these Palm Beach Cloths, and other lines in light woollens, made to your measure, are the really sensible thing for warm weather wear. For business and outing wear they are equally desirable. A notable feature of the Score's garments is that while they are thinner and lighter in weight they are tailored to retain their smart, fresh appearance. Two-piece suitings to your measure at $19.75 and up. Score & Son, Limited, Tailors and Haberdashers, 77 King street west, Toronto.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAYS EVENTS REVIEWED

THE Russians in eastern Galicia have won further successes and have begun an advance against Halicz. Their renewed assaults on the heights west of Presove, the Villages of Labrikovce and Travotloki, and heights east of Godov. Other positions carried by them in the first onrush returned to the enemy's possession after sharp fighting. They defeated in this sector a powerful German counter-attack made with large masses of men and armored motor cars. In the Stanislaw region, south of Halicz, the Russians have begun to converge on Dolina. They captured two trenches in the Jamnica-Paschna sector, defeated a hostile column, and occupied Strinuchy. Russian river boats destroyed mine barriers in the Pina River, in the region of Man. The foregoing news shows that the Russian army is full of vigor. Prince Lvoff, the Russian premier, declares his confidence in the fighting ability of the army and in the adequateness of the munitions supply for the immediate future, but he recognizes that the transportation difficulty, an inheritance from the old regime, still resists complete solution, but he believes that it will be solved. The food situation has improved, and unless the harvest is especially bad, Russia is absolutely secured against hunger for the rest of the year. He has news of a marked improvement in the internal situation, of a rallying of the people around the government. Von Hindenburg and the kaiser have called a hasty council of war at Berlin. The sudden display of Russian strength has dismayed the enemy and upset his calculations. On the whole eastern front he has 120 divisions. Of these 46 hold the front between the Carpathians and the Pripiet River. These face the Russian armies on the offensive. North of the Pripiet River the Germans are guarding a 500-mile front to the Baltic with only 43 divisions of landsturm and other units of his poorest troops. In Rumania the enemy has maintained 32 divisions on a front of a little more than 100 miles. Military observers declare that the foregoing force is too weak for the holding of a 1000-mile front. The French, in aerial raids with 44 machines, dropped 33 tons of high explosives in Essen, Treves, Coblenz, Ludwigshafen, and other cities in the industrial province of Westphalia, far over the German border. The airman made especially good hits on the Krupp munition works, the Treves central railway station, and a munition factory at Ludwigshafen. Seven fires broke out at Treves. The British, raising important points far behind the German lines, made it a terror and a nightmare for the enemy. Their bombs hit munition depots, bivouacs, railways, and other targets. The Germans dropped bombs on London, killing 37 persons and causing a great clamor to arise for reprisals and better anti-aircraft defences. Enemy aircraft also shelled a French hospital near Nancy, killing three persons. The Canadians are steadily moving forward their outposts in the no man's land on the southern part of their front. Twelve Canadians, in an outpost affair, attacked and defeated at least 50 Germans, taking one prisoner. The Germans have begun to fire more gas shells than usual at the Canadians and the Canadian gunners repay them in kind at a high rate of interest. The French won an important defensive battle in the region of Lafaux Mill, north of the Meuse, when they deflected strong German attacks at four points. West of the Meuse they gave the enemy a bad shock when they captured three strong salients. One of these was in Le Mort Homme region and the two others were near Hill 304. The French also enlarged a captured position near Ailles, east of Cerny.

That Standby of the Fashionable Summer Wardrobe---The Tub Suit

SHOWN IN LINEN, PALM BEACH CLOTH, GABARDINE AND OTHER MODISH FABRICS. THE STYLES, TOO, ARE AS DISTINCTIVE AND CHARMING AS THE MATERIALS, AND THEIR MODERATE PRICING IS BY NO MEANS AN UNIMPORTANT DETAIL. PRICES FROM $12.50 TO $25.00.

THE WOMAN with a limited income knows full well the smartness and serviceability of a summer suit. Preferably one with infinite possibilities for laundering.

In fact, so high are they in Fashion's favor, one can scarcely get through a season without one or two—that is, if one follows the mode as set forth by foremost designers.

From an array of delightfully-tailored models we have selected the following to describe. Thus:

Linen, striped and plain gabardines and Palm Beach cloth are the materials in attractive tub suits. They are in tailored and belted effects, and are to be had in white or natural. Prices, $15.00 to $25.00.

In fine linen are several styles fashioned on Norfolk lines, with tailored collar and revers, patch pockets and pearl buttons. The skirt, too, is belted and pocketed. Procurable in natural, oyster, violet, sky and pink. Price, $15.00.

An imported model in the popular Palm Beach cloth has a Norfolk coat with tailored collar and revers, large patch pockets and pearl buttons. Patch pockets add much to the skirt, the top of which is gathered and belted. Obtainable in black and white stripe or natural. Price, $15.00.

A cool-looking suit of white gabardine is particularly nice, with buttons on the large fancy collar, belt with tie ends, and clever patch pockets. The skirt is gathered at the back and has a plain belt. Price, $12.50.

Reliable Yarns for Soldiers' Socks

Mentioning Especially Two Brands—Soft Grey Wool, Per Pound, $1.75, and Camel's Hair Yarn, Per 2-oz. Skeins, 35c.

OF COURSE you'll tuck your knitting bag into the trunk when you are leaving on your vacation? Or, perhaps, you will be knitting while on the train or boat—at any rate, be sure and take an ample supply of yarn with you, since the demand for socks is as great as ever.

And the time is not so far distant when there will be need of mufflers and helmets as well as socks. So with this in mind we list two of our well-known yarns.

At a time when it cannot be bought from the mills we consider ourselves fortunate in having a goodly supply of four-ply "Scotch Fingering" Yarn, which is made in England, and is most satisfactory for socks. It may be had in light grey only, and is priced, per lb., $1.75.

For some weeks now we have been unable to procure "Sahara" camel wool, but recently a shipment arrived. This English-spun yarn is exceptionally popular for socks and mufflers on account of its soft and comfortable wearing qualities. Available in natural shade only. As this yarn is so much in demand, we would advise you to order before this shipment is sold out. Price, per 2 ozs., 35c.

Press Back Enemy.
"In the direction of Dolina, in the region northwest of Stanislav, after artillery preparation our advance detachments pressed back the enemy in the Jamnica-Pasechna sector and occupied his trenches. South of Bohodrozany our advance detachments defeated an advance post of the enemy that had moved forward in the direction of Lachkovyzy and Svinichy. We occupied the latter place and repulsed the enemy's counter-attack. Altogether, in the engagement yesterday in the direction of Dolina, we took 360 prisoners.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE HERALDS SUCCESS

Judgment, that the troops are infected with a genuine revolutionary and crusading spirit and the consciousness of a mission to save Russia and influence world events in the direction desired by all progressive men.
"Naturally, I am aware that not everything can be done by enthusiasm. I give you frankly the good and the bad side. The good side is the army's supply of munitions and other necessities, in which we are markedly better off than last year, in fact, guaranteed for the immediate future. The bad side is the transport difficulties, which still are serious. These are an evil heritage from the old regime, and naturally, it is impossible to restore order in three months crowded with revolutionary activities. We are however, confident that this great difficulty will be overcome. But the key to the solution of all our military and economic difficulties is transport amelioration, in which it is impossible to do too much.
Further U.S. Support.
"I hope to see further American financial support. We ourselves are ready to bear the heaviest monetary sacrifices and have already passed the real ourselves, as the total stock of food is sufficient for both the army and the civilian population. Our winter crops were very good; our

BRANT FARMERS OPTIMISTIC.

Backward Crops Now Progressing, and General Conditions Are More Hopeful.
Special to The Toronto World.
Brantford, July 8.—District farmers are very optimistic. The rains and sun have brought even the backward crops along, and now only the labor scarcity is affecting their minds. Hay will be almost as big a crop as last year. Potatoes, it is predicted, will be plentiful at $1 per bag this fall, while the root crops were never so promising. Grain has picked up, and corn is looking very well. A good spell of sunshine for the next two weeks will help wonderfully in the harvest, otherwise it will tend to crowd the labor handsp—still worse.
CHIMNEY FELL IN
Marcus Zeigler, 325 Yonge street, and his family had a narrow escape from injury yesterday afternoon when the chimney of their home collapsed, tearing a hole in the ceiling and alighting upon the table from which they had just risen after their evening meal. In its descent the chimney smashed the gas piping, filling the room with gas and driving the occupants outdoors. The cause of the chimney's collapse is not known.

spring crops were injured by droughts, but by the end of July we shall know our exact position, and unless there is an especially bad harvest, which we have no reason to expect, we are absolutely secured against hunger for the rest of the year.
Prince Lvoff proceeded to discuss the internal situation, declaring that this has had a marked influence on Russia's ability to carry on the fight in the war with vigor.
"I am glad," he said, "to see last week's marked signs of amelioration. I have daily evidence of the rallying of all the national elements of the nation round the coalition cabinet. The irrational elements, such as the anarchists and bolsheviki, are in such a minority that there is no reason to fear their getting the upper hand. Not only the bourgeoisie, but an overwhelming majority of the workingmen, are merely a last act of desperation against their consciousness of this."

DEMAND REPRISALS FOR LATEST ATTACK

tions by the requirements of the army in France could rejoice if the crowds left him undisturbed," the newspaper declares. "Among street groups as well as at clubs the feeling is one of enlightened and unanimous bitterness."
Murder and Terrorism.
"Every Londoner recognizes that yesterday's raid was one of deliberate murder and terrorism. If there was military damage it was but a modicum. The man in the street wants a policy of reprisals on Rheinland towns put into effect immediately."
Kennedy Jones, director of food economy, speaking at Muswell Hill, a suburb of London, said there must be no more shilly-shallying with the question of reprisals, and disquieting reports that Lord French is hampered in the discharge of his duties by other departments must be disposed of once and for all.
Three Brought Down.
The British admiralty announced on Saturday that three of the German squadron of about 20 airplanes which raided the heart of London on Saturday morning, were brought down. The raiders were pursued by British naval airplanes and engaged 40 miles out at sea off the east coast. Two German planes fell into the sea and a third fell in flames off the mouth of the Scheldt. The British machines returned in safety.
An official announcement says that 27 persons were killed and 141 injured in the raid on London, which was probably the greatest ever attempted on the metropolis by Germans. The raiders dropped a steady stream of bombs for about 15 minutes and did damage in the heart of the city.

BERLIN ADMITS LOSS.
Berlin, July 8, via London, British Admiralty, per Wireless Press.—One German airplane was lost in yesterday's raid on London, and a British plane was shot down over the city, it is announced officially. The statement says:
"On the morning of July 7 one of our aviation squadrons attacked London. At eleven o'clock in the morning bombs were dropped freely on docks, harbors and warehouses on the Thames. Fires and explosions were observed. One British airplane was shot down over London. Bombs were dropped at Margate, on the east coast of England. Our airplanes all returned except one which was compelled to make a descent to the sea and could not be saved by our naval forces."
Body of Mrs. Ann O'Brien Found in Old Welland Canal Sunday
Special to The Toronto World.
St. Catharines, July 8.—The body of Mrs. Ann O'Brien, widow of the late James O'Brien, who has been missing from her home in Davidson street since June 14, was found early this evening in the old Welland Canal, near Wellandville works. The water was drawn off and the body was found caught in some brambles below the water's edge. Three weeks ago her hat and cape were found along the edge of the hydraulic raceway nearly a mile from where the body was found. She had been ill for some little time before her disappearance. She was 80 years old, was born in Ireland and had lived in St. Catharines for over 60 years.
Belleville, July 8.—At the Belleville Cheese Board yesterday 2320 cheese, white, were boarded and held at 21 1/2c.

LAKE SHORE ROAD TORONTO MEN DIE IN ZEPPELIN RAID

Very Successful Entertainment at "Ormscliffe" in Aid of War Work

Intermittent showers on Saturday afternoon marred what would have been a most successful garden party. However, Jupiter Pluvius kindly descended to restrain the "aqueous" until the ladies of the Lake Shore Red Cross Society had completed their delightful musicals and the guests had concluded their afternoon tea amid the charming surroundings of Ormscliffe, the home of Mrs. A. B. Ormsby, on the Lake Shore road.

The back verandah, appropriately draped with Union Jacks and Star Spangled Banners, and facing a beautiful park, where the guests were seated, was used as a platform by the artists. Miss Gwyneth Sampson gave a splendid interpretation of Spanish and Italian dancing, while the little Misses Florence Freed and Audrey Sampson also danced beautifully. Freely little songs and recitations were then given by Rita Alma and Aubrey Davis, and vocal solos by Mrs. Weatherall, Miss Marie Hodges and Miss Schelley. "The Girls from Canada" was cleverly recited by Valva Vatter, a most youthful elocutionist. A Hawaiian orchestra under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Davis featured the musicals. She and her three assistants were dressed in Hawaiian costumes, and played with effect many of the southern melodies. Mrs. J. Fotheringham was the accompanist, and Mrs. Albert Ogden was in charge of the program.

Doing Excellent Work.

Since the war began the Lake Shore Red Cross Society has been untiring in their efforts to aid the gallant Canadians who are in the hospitals of England, on the battlefields of France and Flanders, or in the prison camps of Germany, by knitting and sewing unceasingly without a week's holiday. Besides forwarding their work to the Red Cross headquarters, the Lake Shore ladies have taken charge of a platoon of a construction battalion which is now in France, and to each soldier they monthly forward supplies of socks, pyjamas, etc. With the aid of the Mimco citizens and council the Lake Shore Red Cross Society was able to purchase an ambulance for overseas service, which, after two years in action on the battlefield, is still in service carrying the fallen Canadian, the number of which is periodically reported to the society by the British headquarters.

Pte. F. C. Knight Writes That Two of Bantam Battalion Were Victims.

Mrs. F. C. Knight, 105 Boon avenue, Earls Court, has received a letter from her husband, Pte. F. C. Knight, West Sandling Camp, Kent, England, in which he describes a recent raid by the Bantam Battalion on the Germans. "It was a wonderful sight to see them flying overhead, and I will never forget it," writes Mr. Knight. "We think ourselves lucky that we are still alive. There were two men of the Bantam Battalion killed and several children. Just imagine what a commotion a thing like that would cause in Toronto, but I hope the Huns will never get there."

"We are very busy over here and are getting along fine. I expect to be in France in about a week's time with the Engineers, and I shall be glad to get a pop shot at the baby killers. They sure deserve the name after the raid we witnessed."

Pte. Knight was the first man to enlist in the Bantam Battalion in the Earls Court district. He is a native of Brighton, England, and has been a resident of the city for many years, his wife and family, in the Earls Court district.

UNITED STATES PASTOR AT EARLS COURT CHURCH

Earls Court Central Methodist Church, Ascot avenue was crowded at the evening service yesterday when Rev. Dr. Worth M. Tippy, D. D., of Madison Avenue Methodist Church, New York City, delivered an eloquent address on the position of the United States in relation to the war and the organization of the churches, which, he said, were instructed to give the very best help towards winning the war.

Rev. Dr. Tippy, who is the executive secretary of the federation of churches in the United States, is in Canada for the purpose of studying the Canadian viewpoint in relation to the war. At the conclusion of the service a women's conference was held at which work in connection with returned soldiers was reviewed.

Pte. Chas. May, C.E.F., recently returned wounded from France, suffering from shell shock, arrived on Saturday at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Peckham, 141 Morrison avenue, Earls Court. Pte. May is well-known in the Earls Court district, where he has lived for a number of years with his relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cowan, 58 St. Clair Gardens, Earls Court, have received information from their son, Sgt. James Cowan, Sandling Camp, England. At the office that he has been transferred from the bugle staff to the position of armorer to the bayonet fighters. He describes an exciting German raid which recently took place about four hundred yards from the camp, and which resulted in several casualties.

Successful Old English Fair Held By Wychwood Church

The Old English Fair, held in connection with St. Michael's and All Angels Anglican Church, Wychwood, in the grounds near the civic car barn, was a great success financially and in the number of persons who attended. It is estimated that over a thousand people were present, and the various attractions were well patronized. The musical program was rendered by the Imperial Concert Band. The proceeds will be devoted to the new church building fund.

THISTLETON ANNIVERSARY.

Special anniversary services held in the Thistleton Methodist Church, yesterday, were conducted by Rev. J. A. Peitch and Rev. W. A. Rodwell of music. The choir rendered special music.

Rev. Edward Morley in Hospital Recovering From Operation.

Rev. Edward Morley of St. Paul's Church, Runnymede, who underwent an operation in Wellesley Hospital last week, is reported to be progressing very favorably. He is still in the hospital.

Rev. Albert Simpson of Wycliffe College is looking after his charge.

TWO DROWN NEAR CHATHAM.

Chatham, July 8.—James and Walter Brown brothers, 15 and 17 years old, respectively, employed on a farm in Raleigh Township, were drowned here today in a dredge cut on concession five. The bodies were taken from the cut a short time after the fatality, but life was extinct.

GOES TO ENGLAND SOON.

Port Credit Aviator Home on Leave From Camp Borden.

Flight Lieutenant Frank Gordon, son of Magistrate Gordon of Port Credit, was home for the week-end from Camp Borden. He states that he is now in the final stages of his training, and expects to leave this week for England.

OAKWOOD AVENUE SIDEWALK.

The contract has been awarded for the laying of a concrete sidewalk on the east side of Oakwood avenue from the city limits to Crang avenue. The Oakwood Ratepayers' Association has agitated for some time for this improvement, and it is expected that the work will be commenced in the course of a few days.

PREACHED INAUGURAL SERMON.

Rev. Sydney Martin, B.A., the new pastor of Silverthorn Methodist Church, Silverthorn avenue, preached his first sermon and was inducted in his new field of activity. There was a large attendance at both morning and evening services.

SUPERIOR ELECTRICS, LIMITED
Fembrook, Ont., May 23rd, 1917.

Dear Sir:

For some considerable time we had not had trouble with the main drive in our plant room. We were using a leather belt, and the constant change of atmosphere caused through live steam, which we could not avoid in this department, seemed to have such an effect on the belt that it was constantly slipping, and so the belt got conditioned, we never had any trouble. Since then we have adopted Extra Power universally in our factory.

I could have mentioned several more drives on which we used leather and had nothing but trouble until we put on Extra Power, but the one I have mentioned was the worst, and also was the one that converted me into an Extra Power user.

IS CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION DUE?

Political Authority of National Standing Discusses Party's Future.

NEED FOR CONFERENCE

Thinks Government Requires Mandate From Party to Adopt Coalition.

That there is a general feeling among Conservatives, particularly those of Ontario, that the time is ripe for the holding of a Dominion Conservative convention to solve the political problems facing that organization at the present critical juncture of national reputation, after listening to reports of the country, and the business of the Conservative ranks owing to the large number of the rank and file who desire the political policies aimed at in the 1911 election.

There is a strong feeling among Conservatives, particularly those of Ontario, that the time is ripe for the holding of a Dominion Conservative convention of this kind was proposed and cancelled owing to the unpopularity of the party.

Not for Years.

There has not been a Dominion Conservative convention for a score of years or more. The Canada today is not the Canada of the past, and the policies which suited the Dominion's national and provincial life then are not necessarily the policies suited to the country now. There is a general feeling of uneasiness in the ranks of the party, and the reasons for this to be known.

A general convention for the party of Canada would clear up a lot of these matters, which now in the public mind seem unexplainable. Already some of

It Saves Coal In Industrial Plants

How many horse-power do you get at your machine for every ton of coal you burn?

How many horse-power do you lose through belt-slippage and poor transmission?

With coal rising in cost, do you realize that every belt-slip today costs you cold cash?

The higher the price of coal, the more you save by using Extra Power Transmission Belting.

The long-life of Extra Power is not the only way it cuts costs and save you money.

It is a saver of power.

It delivers to the machines more of the power developed by your plant.

Its clinging grip on the pulleys is worth dollars to you. The high grade of rubber so generously forced through the fabric makes it endure.

The friction surface makes it cling. The seam sealed with solid rubber leaves no joint to open. The plies will not separate.

Extra Power Belting is serving large and small industrials all over Canada. It is running on main drives and on drills, on mule drives and on lathes.

STREET CAR MEN THREATEN STRIKE

they hissed and booed the proposal of the company, and calls for an immediate strike came from every section of the theatre. After order had been restored the speakers called attention to the Lennox bill, the position of the public and of the street car men.

Say Company Prosper.

As an answer to the company's declaration that the war bonus would meet the so-called high cost of living, the speakers quoted from the company annual statement issued in February, showing that the corporation had a surplus of $281,000, was paying dividends of eight per cent, was paying stock and paying its indebtedness and had a surplus of $281,000.

It was also pointed out that Detroit street car men were earning 40 cents an hour after 18 months' service, that Cleveland men received 35 cents on its one year's service, Chicago men 30 cents an hour and Buffalo 25 cents an hour. Carmen of Winnipeg, in which the system is owned by the directors of the Toronto system, receive 30 cents an hour after two years' service, it was declared.

The Men's Demands.

BRITISH DESTROY MANY AEROPLANES

enemy attempted to raid our trenches east of Loos, but was driven off with loss.

There was much aerial fighting yesterday, chiefly on the front between Lens and Ypres. In this area enemy machines were encountered in large numbers; one formation was composed of as many as 30. Despite this and the pronounced activity on the enemy's part, we bombed his aeroplanes during the day, causing serious damage, and carried out successful artillery work and photography.

The activity was continued by bombing during the night, in which the enemy showed more enterprise than he had hitherto done. He dropped 14 bombs on our side of the line, our bombing machines dropping nearly three times that number on his side.

In this fighting during the day and night eight hostile machines were brought down; six others were driven down out of control. Five of our machines are missing.

Exploits at Dunkirk.

The text of the admiralty announcement regarding the achievement of the Dunkirk aviators issued Saturday night reads:

"The vice-admiral at Dover has received that enemy aircraft were attacking England. Five flights were sent up to intercept them as they returned. The raiding enemy aircraft were not seen, but three enemy aeroplanes were encountered and destroyed and one enemy airplane driven down into the sea. Another enemy airplane was driven down.

"The machines returned to replenish in the course of this patrol one enemy airplane was brought down in flames and another forced to land on the beach damaged, near Ostend. During their operations none of the raiding enemy airplanes was encountered and it is thought highly probable they returned near the Scheldt and over Dutch territory."

SERVICE IN HONOR LATE CAPT. HALL

Port Credit Presbyterians Hold Memorial Service and Hear War Sermon.

In honor of Capt. G. O. Hall, a Port Credit youth, who fell at Vimy Ridge, a memorial service was last night held in the Port Credit Presbyterian Church, at which Rev. G. P. Duncan, lately returned from the front, spoke. He paid a tribute to the courage of the late Captain and told how he saw him enter the dressing station with his wound, and rushed back to the line, never to return.

Touching on the conscription issue, the sermon for talking such a strong step, and stated that it was the only proper way to get men.

On the morning service Rev. Henry Sinclair preached Rev. Henry Sinclair, expressing deep regret on having the congregation had remained loyal to him during the absence of Rev. G. P. Duncan.

At both services the congregations were so large that they taxed the capacity of the church.

ORANGEMEN HOLD CHURCH PARADE

About Two Thousand Attend Divine Service in St. Paul's Church.

INSPIRING SERMON

Ven. Archdeacon Cody Pays Tribute to Loyalty of Orange Order.

Appealing for a deeper sense of religion, a deeper appreciation of the cause for which the allies are fighting, and a continuation of the spirit which has led so many Canadians to take up arms for the preservation of liberty and true democracy, Major (Rev.) Canon Dixon preached an inspiring sermon yesterday afternoon in St. Paul's Anglican Church, East Bloor street, at the annual church service of the Loyal Orange County Lodge of Toronto. Approximately 2000 Orangemen paraded to the church from Queen's Park, and promptly at 10 o'clock took up their places in the nave, the side aisles being well filled with friends of the members.

In a brief address, Ven. Archdeacon Cody welcomed the men, declaring that they formed part of an organization the loyalty of which had been proved by its deeds. No organization had sent more men to France than the Orange society, he said. Archdeacon Cody said the service was being held at a unique time in the history of the world, and Canada particularly. He made particular reference to the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of confederation, maintaining that while many of the hopes of the fathers of confederation had been realized he hoped to see a more complete unification of the English and English-speaking people. He said it was providential that in the war, all their differences long forgotten, England and France were able to conquer a common enemy, and the opportunity for the leaders of the French and English parties in Canada to adjust their differences and follow the example set by those in Europe was one not to be missed.

Gathered at Armageddon. Rev. Canon Dixon took for his text a verse from the 16th chapter of Revelation: "And they gathered there together at a place called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon." He asked whether the present war had not some connection with this dream of St. John on the island of Patmos, declaring that it was not strange that some interpreters of the Scriptures should find in the war a representation of the strife seen by the apostle in the vision. "The most that we can say is that it may be so," he said.

Speaking of social and religious affairs in modern times, he stated that at no time was the Sabbath broken so flagrantly as nowadays, and sensuality and dishonesty were never more prevalent. "The barbarities of war and the war in general may be the beginning of the end—who can tell?" he said. "This is a war of tools and not of men, a false patriotism, that is when patriotism is construed to mean one country over all, this is the kind of patriotism prevailing, then the less we hear of it the better. The war has also proved that all classes of men are equally brave. Oxford and Cambridge men are not more than the ordinary working man, the stoker in the bottom of the ship is as brave as any man on the far-flung battle line. One of the epistles of the New Testament is the great courage which has been shown by all classes of men."

War and Sin. In concluding his sermon, the war is the consequence of freedom which has been abused, it is a consequence of long-continued sinning. If this is the case, then Europe and Canada and all the other countries which get down on their knees and ask God for pardon. By the war the difference between church and religion is shown. Religion is one thing and church another. Europe is abundantly supplied with churches, but lacks real religion. Europe today is primarily at war because Europe is irreligious.

REMEMBER FRANCE ON FRIDAY NEXT

Flag Day Gives Toronto an Opportunity of Showing Appreciation.

French Flag Day, next Friday, July 13, will afford Toronto an opportunity of assisting the French wounded, prisoners of war and civilian sufferers, and thereby paying a tribute to the great ally who has astonished the world by her stoicism, grim determination and wonderful efficiency in the prosecution of the war. The possible expedition of Belgium has suffered to such an extent as France, and the entire world has been amazed by the fortitude of the will and determination of the French people as a whole to cheerfully carry on under such unprecedented hardships.

The flag day next Friday is in aid of the French Red Cross, Prisoners of War Relief Fund and Civilian Relief Fund, and is being conducted by a joint committee of the St. Michaels National and the Canadian Red Cross. Last year Toronto was very generous in its contributions on this occasion, and it is trusted that this year, by being more generous, it will be shown that the city has not grown weary in well doing.

FOR SOLDIER PRINTERS. The women's auxiliary of Typographical Union No. 31 recently packed and despatched to the front in the trenches fifteen boxes of comforts. This effort was made possible by a series of purchases carried on during the past few months. The members wish to thank those who attended these meetings and assisted in other ways. Mrs. Robert Kerr is president of the auxiliary and Mrs. James Stevenson chairman of the committee.

DIDN'T HAVE WELL DAY IN FIVE YEARS GOING TO PREACH IN HISTORIC PULPIT

Toronto Man Says He Feels Like He Has Taken a New Lease on Life. Rev. Thomas T. Shields Delivers Farewell Sermon at Jarvis Street Church.

HAS GAINED SIX POUNDS Many of His Friends Have Begun Taking Tanlac Since Seeing Good It Did Him.

If there is a man in Toronto who believes in Tanlac, that man is Harvey Hamilton, who resides at 418 Church street, and is employed as fuse-maker by the Copeland-Chatterton Co., 1308 Queen street. Mr. Hamilton has lived in Toronto sixteen years, and is well known. "Five years ago I had a severe attack of pneumonia," said Mr. Hamilton last Friday in conversation with the Tanlac representative, which developed into a general run-down condition and I have not been like myself since. I lost weight until I was almost a shadow. I felt like I didn't have hardly any life or energy about me, and was so nervous I couldn't sleep over four or five hours any night. I lost my appetite, and often didn't go to the table at meal time, for I knew if I did I couldn't eat a thing. The little I managed to eat did more harm than good, and often had dizzy spells, and was often had feeling about half dead, and dreaded to go to work, and all day I felt drowsy and sleepy. Often I felt so weak and played out I just had to lay down and rest, and quit work. Yes, sir, I went five long years without enjoying a well day, and you can imagine how blue and despondent I was. This is the very shape I was in when I read in one of the Toronto papers the statement of a man who described his trouble just like mine. He said he had been relieved by Tanlac, and I lost no time in getting a bottle. "It was about the best move I ever made in my life, for I now feel like I have taken a new lease on life. I have the finest appetite you ever saw, and eat three square meals every day, enjoy every mouthful, and have no disagreeable feelings afterwards. I have actually gained six pounds in weight and feel like my strength has been increased a hundred per cent. Gas has quit forming on my stomach. All the pains have disappeared. I'm not nervous, and I sleep like a log every night. I simply feel better all over and my work is no longer a burden, but is a pleasure to me. My friends all know the shape I was in before I took Tanlac, and now, see my remarkable improvement. I know myself or five people who have benefited by Tanlac since seeing the good it did me. If anybody doubts this statement all they have to do is to ask me and I'll tell them just what I told you and that I consider it the finest medicine on earth."

Tanlac, the medicine that accomplished such remarkable results in Mr. Hamilton's case, is being sold in Toronto at Tamblin's Drug Store.

While riding a bicycle on the road in front of her home, 541 Brock avenue, Saturday afternoon, 13-year-old Vera Waghorne was struck by a motorcar and received such injuries that little hope was entertained for her recovery. On examination a few moments after the accident by Dr. W. R. Cook, 1088 West Bloor street, her right lung was found to have been penetrated. She also suffered from minor injuries and her condition was so serious that the doctor thought it advisable to have her removed home instead of to a hospital.

STEAMER KINGSTON HITS DOCK IN DENSE FOG

Had One Paddle Smashed and Limped Into Dock With the Assistance of Tug.

During the thick fog about 6 o'clock yesterday morning the steamer Kingston, owned by the Canada Steamship Co., veered out of her course, and struck the concrete dock at the eastern pier with such force as to smash one of her paddles. She whistled for assistance, and a tug was sent out from the foot of Yonge street. Aided by this auxiliary and her own steam she managed to limp into port. Capt. Booth was in charge of the boat. The crash was distinctly heard by the life-saving crew, but so dense was the fog that they were completely unaware of the vessel before they could see what had happened.

HEARD NEW PASTOR. Mimico Methodist Turned Out in Force to Inaugural Service.

In his inaugural sermon on Sunday morning Rev. John W. Morgan of the Mimico Methodist Church made a strong plea for co-operation as a means of making his new pastorate a success. In the evening he preached on "Art thou with us or against us?" Large congregations attended both services, and the choir gave special music for the occasion.

The Very Newest Sweaters and Bathing Toggery Await You Here

The big new Knit Goods Section was an experiment. "Takes too much space!" grumbled the management in the early days of its existence, but now 'tis another story! So great is the demand for our sweaters and bathing toggery that we begin to feel the space is somewhat cramped.

There's one of our KNITTED SILK SWEATERS that stands out as the most popular of our exclusive models. It's "The Connaught," a lovely coat, knitted from the finest and most lustrous of fibre silk, in various colors, the square sailor collar, cuffs and pocket flaps being white in all cases, with stripes of colors to match. A graceful ash envelope waist. This silk sweater is excellent value at $20.00

IN BATHING TOGGERY we mention specially the JERSEY WEAVE BATHING COSTUMES, with bloomers attached. Prices $3.75 to $7.50

SUPER-HEROISM SHOWN BY NEW ZEALANDERS

Wonderful Stories Told of Antipodean Troops at Battle of Messines.

London, July 8. — via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.—Stories of the super-heroism of New Zealanders at the battle of Messines are related by Malcolm Ross, special correspondent with the New Zealand forces. He tells how wounded officers and men fought on until forcibly sent back; how a private, single-handed, charged through their own barrage in order to silence a strong enemy machine gun emplacement, actually accomplishing this remarkable feat; how a chaplain, under the heaviest fire, continuously tended wounded men from early morning until late at night, and how one by one all of a company's officers fell, then the non-coms, and still some masterful private continued to carry on with initiative and gallantry. It was thought that the high water mark for gallantry in this division was reached on the Somme, but the record of Messines excelled all previous standards.

WOMEN'S BATTALION DEPARTS FOR FRONT

Petrograd Gives Religious Send-Off to Russian Amazons.

Petrograd, July 8. — Under command of Lieut. Mademoiselle Vera Butchkareff, the women's war battalion, fully armed and equipped as infantry, last night left for the front. Before their departure, the women soldiers appeared in military formation before the Zazzan Cathedral where a solemn religious service was held.

An officer representing the commander of the Petrograd military district wished the women soldiers glory in their struggle with the foes of Russian freedom. Large crowds of citizens gave ovations to the battalion as it marched to the railway station to entrain, and a committee of the league for equal rights for women bade farewell to their sisters under arms.

HELD MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR LATE BRIGADIER

Striking Tribute Paid to Work Done by Salvation Army Officer.

Last night at the Salvation Army Temple on Albert street a memorial service for the late Brigadier Green was conducted by Commissioner Richards, assisted by the territorial staff band and the headquarters staff. A striking tribute to the good work done by the brigadier during his thirty years' service in the Salvation Army was paid by the commissioner. On his deathbed he said to his wife: "Don't mourn for me too much, go on with the work." That Mrs. Green was endeavoring to carry out her husband's wishes in this respect was very evident from the fact that at this service she was one of the foremost in helping seekers to the penitential form in full accordance with Salvation Army traditions.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 9

Reprisals, But Not of Hate.

Germany is making war after her own heart in the air raids which destroy non-combatants and historical monuments and works of art. The latest raid on London, according to the censorship policy still prevailing, has killed a number of people and wounded many more, but no one will imagine that twenty aeroplanes can have bombed London for fifteen minutes on a track leading from northwest to southeast without having wrought a good deal more mischief. The lord mayor's demand for reprisals indicates serious damage.

Whatever serious damage is done will not be long unknown to the Germans, and silence merely helps to substantiate the stories which the German Government circulates. The more or less amiable delusion of the censorship as to things that are over and done is a distinct loss to us and a gain to the enemy. Censorship as to future events as much as may be, but the past is everybody's gossip. If any real damage has been done to the great national shrines of London the empire should hear all about it. Westminster is no more sacred than Rheims, the houses of parliament than the Cloth Hall of Ypres, nor the British Museum than the library of Louvain. We must try and realize this, and take steps accordingly, not to submit to the best means of the Kaiser, but to devise means of prevention.

The outcry for reprisals in kind is perhaps to be expected from unregenerate human nature. But if we condemn the Germans for their assault on women and children, is it not sufficient reason that we should not ourselves descend to the same level?

It is contended that the retaliation of the French at Karlsruhe for air raids on Paris has stopped German attempts on the capital of France. But has it? It is only three weeks since a zeppelin was brought down by French airmen in an attempt on Paris. The reason Paris is not raided is because it isn't safe for the Germans to try it.

It must be made equally unsafe for the Germans to attempt to raid London. Britain was a pitifully slow at first in taking up the air service. The conservative old stagers in charge of affairs would have nothing to do with such new-fangled notions. Officially, Canada took the same position and asserted that airplanes were worthless to the army. Even yet the government only adopts a permissive attitude. So Britain is paying up for her unreadiness and want of preparation in inability to meet the flying foe when he swoops down on one of his raids. It ought to be impossible for a German air-raider to get out of England alive. To accomplish such a preventive policy every nerve is now being strained. No effort is put into the development of the science of flight will be wasted. After the war the airplane and its successors will change the commerce of a world at peace.

We heartily agree that there should be reprisals, but they should be of a military character. The French carried out some measures of this description yesterday, bombing the Essen works and destroying a large airline factory. There is nothing to be gained by killing German women and children and old men. We are not in that business. With adequate air strength we should be able to attack Essen and Kiel and Wilhelmshafen and any other military or naval positions the Germans cherish, and we ought to be able to protect our own women and children from their indiscriminating bombs. There is a difference, after all, between a war of conquest and hate, and a war of justice. It is not the British way to war in hate.

The Nation Will Judge.

Elsewhere will be found another letter from Mr. F. J. Flatman, of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers of Hamilton, in which he still further marks the difference between his position and that of those who think that the whole is greater than the part. After all, this is the vital point. Any man, or any body of men, who believes that the part is greater than the whole, and who acts on that belief, is an enemy of society and of humanity in the degree of his influence and power.

Mr. Flatman at first accepts our metaphor of the leaking ship in which all hands are needed to keep the pumps manned and the ship afloat, but he deserts the metaphor, as apparently he is willing to desert the ship, and declares that the ship has foundered and we have taken to the boats. Perhaps he has forgotten that The World used this metaphor in a controversy with The Hamilton Herald over the laws of supply and demand. We quite agree, as we contended then, that the laws of supply and demand must yield to circumstances, and Mr. Rockefeller has no more right to extra rations than Mr. Flatman. But suppose Mr. Rockefeller, in the open boat has a flask of his own and a revolver to defend it against unarmed men, then, as far as we can judge, Mr. Flatman's idea is that it would be wiser to sink the boat and have everyone perish rather than make the best of a bad matter and strive to reach shore. This policy savors too much of German methods to please us. There are infants in the boat as well as Mr. Rockefeller. He can be dealt with when the boat reaches land. Does Mr. Flatman think only of himself? Or does he insist upon cutting off his nose, etc.?

We prefer our metaphor of the leaky ship. The vessel has by no means foundered yet. With all the danger we still hope to bring her into the haven where we would be. It is true that we have Mr. Rockefeller and other super-cargoes aboard. They may refuse to work at the pumps, or their services may be of little value. But is this a good reason for everyone else refusing to pump?

Mr. Flatman ignores our contention that with the unlimited political power which is at the disposal of classes and masses alike, the masses may have anything they want in the nation if they will only consent to co-operate. No, says Mr. Flatman, we shall let all this liberty, all this democratic opportunity, all this slowly acquired structure of justice for the individual, sink beneath the waves, ourselves along with it, merely because there is some doubt whether everybody is doing his utmost.

This is not a time when we can hesitate. Hestiation now may cost us all we possess. The proper disposition of our possessions and the right award of blame and praise can be postponed until the main thing is settled. The man who refuses to man the pumps now is a traitor to the ship. He is playing Germany's game, whether he refuse his wealth or his labor to the service of his country. Mr. Flatman's mind cannot be so illogical as not to see this.

We believe that he and his friends do see it, but they are willing to take a chance, just as the men with the wealth are willing to take a chance. We contend that both parties are putting themselves out of court by such an attitude. The nation in dire need, whether help, aid or capital, is in equal guilt. Neither will be able to come into court with clean hands after the war is over if they persist in this attitude.

We particularly desire that labor should come into the great court of the world's justice with clean hands after the war, because the future of the world lies with labor. If we are to continue to develop democratic principles it will be because democracy has shown itself capable of assuming responsibility and of bearing burdens, and because capital or the men who control capital have shown themselves incapable.

Perhaps one of the chief reasons for our troubles is that it is neither the active men of capital nor the labor men that control our affairs, but lawyers who toil not, but occupy themselves with spinning webs, who do not appreciate the problems of labor except at second hand, and who harbor the main delusion that their part also is greater than the whole.

No man's part in the nation is greater than the whole, neither labor's nor capital's, neither the part of the weak nor that of the strong. He who refuses to do the part that the nation demands of him at this time and at all times, will as surely find his level and his reward when the national accounts are squared.

All this applies to the selective draft. Those who refuse military service to the nation when military service is required are in equal guilt with those who refuse their share of the cost of the military operations. The nation will judge them both.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.

Philip Martin, 196 First avenue, was taken into custody early Sunday morning on a charge of breaking into the drug store of George Hanna, 221 Spadina avenue, and stealing a raincoat, $10 in money and a quantity of cigars on Saturday night. According to the police, Martin gained access to the store by way of a rear basement window, the glass of which he smashed. He then burst a door at the head of the cellar steps from its hinges, also another door leading into the store. The theft was discovered by Mr. Hanna when he entered the store in the morning. The sight of Martin loitering in the vicinity of the store on Saturday night, it is understood, led to his arrest.

TWO BOYS ARRESTED.

Edward Morris, 31 Bulwer street, and Arthur Oliver, 49 Bulwer street, were arrested Saturday night by Policeman 246 on a charge of stealing a canoe, which was moored near the foot of Bathurst street, on Saturday afternoon. The boys, aged 15 and 13, respectively, were observed by Harbourmaster Postlethwaite paddling toward the western groy in the canoe. He sent a man out after them and telephoned Claremont street police station for a man to take them into custody.

ALLEGED GAMING HOUSE.

Sergeant Murphy arrested William Maybee, 78 Markham street, yesterday morning on a charge of keeping a common gaming-house. Two or three men who were in when the sergeant called, it is said, made their escape.

WELL-CARED-FOR FINGER NAILS NECESSARY TO BEAUTIFUL HANDS

By LUCRECIA BORI
The Famous Spanish Prima Donna.

The most beautiful hands appear hopelessly ugly if the finger nails are unattractive. The hands may be as soft as a billow and perfectly shaped, but if the nails are coarse, textured and "stubby" they will never be considered lovely.

Unjudicious ways of trimming the nails are responsible, to a great degree, for badly shaped finger tips and coarse nails. It is always a mistake to clip the nails with scissors. Use a flexible file instead. Once you become accustomed to using a file your nails will improve in shape and become more transparent.

Never use a manicure knife unless you have had professional training. An orange-wood stick is far better, and there will be no danger of injuring the nails.

When the surface of the nails show ridges, and there is a general appearance of coarseness, I advise soaking the finger tips in almond oil. Do this every night before retiring. The same bath may be used over and over again.

When the finger nails are brittle and break easily apply vaseline. Rub the grease well into the cuticle surrounding the nails. Dip the flat end of an orange stick in the vaseline and gently push back the cuticle at the base of each nail. Then put a pair of old gloves, for the warmth of the kid will soften the texture and in the morning after you have drawn the gloves off, polish the nails with a chamomile balm. No powder or polishing paste should be used, as they have a drying effect upon the nails which is to be avoided when the nails are brittle.

One of the best ways of softening and washing the hands use soap that is made of vegetable-oils. All others are drying to the skin. After each washing a little grease should be rubbed over the base of the nails. Wipe it off afterward with a soft cloth towel so that the finger tips will not appear greasy.

Very often white spots mar the beauty of the nails. To remedy this condition rub them at night with the following lotion: Turpentine, 1 ounce; tincture of styrac, 1 ounce. In the morning use olive oil to remove the ing with lime water. One of the most invariably successful ways used was to cover the eggs with a coating of vaseline, but this takes up too much time unnecessarily.

The best modern method, one that is simple and usually satisfactory, is that of putting in water glasses. Water glasses in really potent supplies can be purchased at drug stores in the form of a syrupy liquid, costing about 15 cents for a pound.

If you wish to preserve about 50 dozen eggs make the following solution: Boil one gallon of water and then put it into a cool. When sufficiently cool add one cup of water glass to the water glass. Scald the wooden or earthenware keg in which the eggs are to be put with the solution. It is absolutely clean. Carefully wash the water glass solution, place a layer of eggs in the keg, and repeat the operation. When all the eggs are packed cover the keg with a layer of the solution. Do not wash the eggs in the solution. Eggs have a natural coating which will protect them, and washing removes it.

When all the eggs are packed cover the keg with a layer of the solution. If left in too warm a temperature the eggs will spoil. With reasonable care you can expect to keep eggs preserved in water glasses as long as needed. Of course, if you are using fresh preserved eggs are "just as good" as fresh eggs, but they will be as good as the storage eggs for which you have to pay a large price in winter.

SEVEN SELECTED RECIPES BY ANN MARIE LLOYD

- Steamed Celery.
It will be found that boiled or steamed celery with white sauce makes an excellent vegetable dish. Take half a dozen stalks, clean and cut into six-inch lengths, then tie up into neat bundles like asparagus. Steam or boil in water, using a little salt. The cooking time is about 20 minutes. When done take off the string, lay nicely on a dish, cover with white sauce and serve.
- Baked Onions.
Peel and slice thinly four large Spanish onions. Line a pie dish with bread crumbs, then put in a layer of onions, pepper and salt and a little chopped parsley. Fill the dish in this way, then pour over a teaspoonful of milk, cover with crumbs and pieces of margarine and bake until nicely browned, which should occupy about half an hour.
- Potato Cakes.
Take half a pound of potatoes weighed after being boiled and passed thru a potato masher—half a pound of flour, five ounces of cold dripping, a teaspoonful of baking powder, two ounces of currants, two ounces of sugar and a pinch of salt. Rub dripping into the flour, sprinkle in the baking powder and salt, stir in lightly the potatoes while hot, then the currants and sugar; press all the ingredients together into a stiff dough and turn it out on a floured pastry board. Make into about a dozen flat cakes. Bake on a tin for about half an hour, when they should be brown.
- Curried Chicken.
After the chicken has been nicely dressed and cut into pieces put it in a stew pan, with veal or mutton gravy, a clove or two of garlic, four or five spoonfuls of cream and some cayenne. Rub smooth one or two spoonfuls of curry powder with a little flour and a bit of butter and add 20 minutes before serving, stirring it until it is ready. Before serving squeeze a small quantity of lemon juice into the gravy.
- Braised Duck.
Carefully clean and dress a duck. Place it in a deep pan, fill the pan half full of water, add a sliced onion, is more and more appreciating not only the convenience, but the advantages of a deposit account against which he may issue cheques. He has found that it lends a certain individual prestige, no one knowing how much may stand behind it. Again, it imposes a salutary restraint on personal expenditures, besides marvellously expediting their aggregate. The spending impulse is sometimes chilled by noting the contemplated purchase in black and white. Then, to many it brings a new joy in making the balance grow, an incentive to thrift itself before.

THE SMALL DEPOSITOR

When the Ship Has Sprung a Leak.

Editor World: Permit me to congratulate you on your criticism of my letter published under date July 4. You almost laid hold of the fiery cross, but did you realize the significance of that metaphor of yours. "When the ship has sprung a leak and all hands are needed at the pumps, it is not time to stand on ceremony . . ." etc. etc.?

That is exactly my position, Mr. Editor. The ship has sprung a leak, and all hands are needed at the pumps. The workers have been engaged at the pump handle too long, and they now demand that the non-producers take their turn at this necessary labor. Yes, the ship has sprung a leak alright, in fact the ship has foundered, and we have taken to the boats. That is the position today. We are putting up a fight for our very existence. That being the case, we call upon our representatives at Ottawa to enact legislation patterned after the "politics" of the open boat. If you and I, Mr. Editor, with Rockefeller for company, were in an open boat at sea, John D. would not get one drop of water more than you and I. Therefore, the organized labor movement—lifts up its voice and questions the sincerity of an Ottawa executive who claims that Canada is fighting for her national existence and hesitates to demand from each member of the population according to his ability, and while it is prepared to permit the capitalist capital to go untouched, as it were, it is prepared to conscript or confiscate the whole of the worker's capital. Yes, his liberty to produce, and without any question of a 5 per cent. interest either. Again thanking you for your courtesy, permit me to reiterate:
E. J. FIDMANN,

TAG DAYS.

Editor World: Is it not time someone drew public attention to the time worn tale of the goose that laid the golden eggs and applied the moral to the story of the never-ending "tag days" that are being foisted upon the long-suffering citizens of Toronto?

When they came, one or two a year, and for causes that were generally recognized as being the best of all the many calls that are being made upon us as a result of the war, it was all very good. It was then thought a pretty good way of raising money that might not otherwise get together. But the success of the first few "tag days" was so pronounced and that success was obtained with so little prolonged exertion on the part of those having the matter in hand that it became an altogether too popular method of raising money. They have become much too recent in the past few months. I imagine their employment as a means for collecting for one or two outstanding war needs will be generally abandoned, but if these "tag days" are allowed to come along every two or three weeks they will soon be voted a nuisance and will be spelt even for those few occasions when they are entirely justified.

A. C. GAMMEL.

CONSCRIPTION AND LABOR.

Editor World: Conscription has passed in parliament, will become law, will be enforced. It is now up to Ver-ville et Cie to make good their threat of a general labor strike. But to be consistent they must first seek sanction of trade and labor unionists. This must of necessity include Canada's soldiers in Canada, in England, in France, in Flanders.

These voters should know what they are voting for. It has been defined by one of our local "leaders" as the complete stoppage of industrial, manufacture, trade. "Not a wheel shall be turned," the language used. Oh, blind leaders! Editor he ruled upon Berlin that be mislured by fools.

One cannot get away from the thought that all this foolish talk is

BIG CONTINGENT BACK FROM FRONT

Largest Party of Returned Soldiers Yet to Arrive is Welcomed.

Over a thousand citizens were at North Toronto station at 7:30 o'clock on Sunday morning to take part in the welcoming home of 142 returned wounded veterans of the war.

The wounded soldiers received a great welcome, the enthusiasm being added to by the presence of two brass bands, that of the 109th Regiment and of the Salvation Army, which had several of its members included in the party of home-coming warriors.

Of the 132 soldiers in the party 92 were Toronto men, the others having enlisted in other parts of central Ontario.

Sixty of the war-heroes were "amputated" cases. They were brought to Toronto in two special "hospital" coaches. Detachments of C. E. F. members of the 10th Royal Grenadiers and of the 109th Regiment were in attendance at the station to assist in the detaining of the returned soldiers.

An Official Reception. The official reception committee at the station included Mayor Church, W. K. George, Ald. Ryding, Ald. McGregor, James W. Somers, Sergeant Major Geo. Crighton, Canon Dixon and Dr. Turnbull.

The war-heroes were tendered a fine reception in the auditorium of the Spadina Military Hospital, but the hall was far too small to accommodate the crowd. It was suggested yesterday that in future when large parties of soldiers return, the official welcome be extended in the Central Y. M. C. A. building, where a larger number of people can be provided for.

All the speakers at yesterday's reception cut their addresses short in order to permit the soldiers to reach their homes as soon as possible. Mayor Church extended the city's official welcome to the war-heroes, and promised that all possible aid would be available for them.

Wm. Banks sr. spoke of the aims of the soldiers' aid commission and the advantages of vocational training. The other speakers were W. K. George, Canon Dixon and Dr. Turnbull. Capt. Crawford was also on the platform. In order to facilitate the taking of the soldiers to their own homes after the reception 60 motor cars supplied by the city and by the voluntary aid association were on hand. The arrangements being directed by Frank Johnson.

Good Tubes Increase the Mileage of Tires

You have read of extra long mileages that other motorists have got from tires. You may be amongst the thousands of motorists who wonder why the same brand of tires goes farther for other men.

Allow us to give you a pointer. Look to your tubes. Good tubes—Goodyear Tubes—will get many extra miles from tires.

Because a poor tube, through slow leaks, causes under-inflation, the commonest enemy of tires.

Goodyear Laminated Tubes overcome this. Their exclusive method of manufacture insures air-tightness to the greatest possible degree.

For we take the highest quality rubber and roll it thin to transparency—so we can detect all flaws, sand holes, air bubbles. The inspected, perfect sheets are then built up, layer on layer, into a perfect, inseparable whole. This is the only right way to make tubes.

And we even vulcanize the valve patch, instead of merely sticking it on. It is very much worth while, for the sake of your casings, and for longer tube service, to say "Goodyears" when you buy tubes.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Limited

Goodyear Tubes, along with Good-year Tires and Tire-Saver Accessories, are easy to get from Goodyear Service Station Dealers everywhere. GOOD YEAR MADE IN CANADA TUBES

"HE'S OFF THE BAG" "OUT," CRIED UMP'S

How Lena Blackburne Helped Clean-Up at Buffalo in Absence of Lajoie.

Buffalo, July 7.—Toronto beat the champion Bisons in both games today by scores of 4 to 1 and 6 to 3.

Just as Larry Lajoie was taking his place at second he was notified by Umpire Bedford that he had been suspended for an altercation with the umpires at Rochester on Friday afternoon when the police were called after a close decision at the plate.

"He's off the bag," cried the umpire, "out," cried the umpire, "out," cried the umpire, "out," cried the umpire.

WHITE SOX NOW LEAD AMERICAN LEAGUE

Defeating Athletics on Sunday While Red Sox Lose to Cleveland.

At Chicago (American).—Philadelphia hit Clotie at will on Sunday, but erratic fielding behind Schauer, who pitched fine ball with the exception of three innings, lost the game to Chicago, and the White Sox, with the defeat of the Red Sox, take first place. The score was 8 to 4.

At St. Louis.—By losing the Sunday game to the Browns, the White Sox dropped from third to fourth place in the pennant race.

At Cleveland.—Cleveland defeated Boston 1 to 0, making it two straight. Bagby allowed four hits and issued three walks, but pitched a brilliant game.

WILL ASK INCREASE IN PAY FOR SOLDIERS
Brantford, July 8.—The Great War Veterans are well pleased with the success of "maple leaf" day yesterday. In the evening a concert was started in the armories, at which the seating capacity of 1300 proved inadequate, three hundred people having to stand throughout. An interesting feature was the work of the "sand bag" trio of Toronto, Sergt. Turley, Ptes. Hull and Bell, while the Galt Klities received hearty applause.

The announcement was made by W. F. Cocksbutt and J. H. Fisher, members of parliament for Brantford and move in the house at the present session an increase in soldiers' pay and more adequate soldiers' pensions, an announcement that was received with very hearty applause by the audience. They were backed up in this by Capt. C. E. Jenkins, chief Anglican chaplain of Camp Borden, and W. C. Raymond, postmaster.

Flags were put up for sale at auction, Aid. S. A. Jones paying $60.00 for a Canadian flag, W. F. Cocksbutt and J. H. Fisher paid $25 each for a French and Belgium flag respectively, and

AKVILLE'S EARLY DAYS
John Cross Started Strawberry Culture and Founded Industry.

BY ROB ROY.
Few towns have seen as many changes as Oakville during the last fifty years.
When the great Indian patriot, Joseph Brant, had his headquarters at Frensholt's Hollow, where Six Nations Indians were quartered, the whole country fronting the lake was owned by Six Nations Indians. Where Oakville Public School now stands was an Indian cemetery, and fifty years ago boys at noon hour would be digging up arrowheads, tomahawks and other Indian relics.
In 1804 the new survey, Trafalgar, was opened for settlement, but the 960 acres which is now the site of Oakville were retained as an Indian reserve. When Frensholt's Hollow, where Six Nations street crosses the Sixteen-mile creek, was a small town with sawmills, grist mills, tanneries, cooper shops, distilleries, breweries, stores and hotels, Oakville was an unbroken forest. It was finally ceded to the government, and on the 10th day of May, 1827, was sold by auction by Thomas G. Riddout, surveyor-general, to Crooks Mills, to Col. W. Chisholm. It procured a charter from the government to build a harbor, completing it in 1830.
The whole of Halton was heavily timbered with white oak. This was cut into staves, floated down the Sixteen-mile Creek, loaded on schooners at the harbor and taken across the lake. This trade assumed such proportions that when the firm was named by the Hon. Robert Baldwin Sullivan, then commissioner of crown lands, it was called Oakville. The harbor was the life of the town before the Great Western Railway was built. Wheat from as far back as Erin and Joseph would be teamed down to Oakville. Several shipbuilding yards were built all winter, and the whole town had the appearance of a place where the people go down in ships.
The land itself was sand and gravel, and too poor for profitable farming. All the district along the lake, where fabulous prices have been paid for land, could in the early days have been bought for a few cents an acre.
In 1833 a young contractor, John Cross, went to visit some friends in the Falls, New York. He there saw some land getting off at Oakville. The land on which they grew was sandy, very similar, he thought, to the soil of Oakville. He secured a boxful of plants and set them out in these grew well, and next year he planted five acres in the area now known as Tuxedo Park. No basket of fruit were available, and he shipped them to Toronto in pails, exposed them for sale in the old St. Lawrence Market, wrapped daintily in cabbage and muslin leaves, and sold them for the first time to sell strawberries on Toronto market.
In 1864 Mr. Cross secured some quart baskets from New York. These were square in shape and did not suit him. Being of an ingenious turn of mind he invented a basket larger at the top than the one in use at that time. In 1865 he established a basket factory on the farm now owned by his son, C. H. Cross. This was the start of an industry that has given thousands and thousands of dollars to Halton farmers for elm logs.
This was the real birth of Oakville. A young man getting off at Oakville station, carrying an insignificant looking box, unheralded by the press, and without any government department to back him up, yet that little box transformed Oakville from simply being a lake port to one of the richest fruit districts on the continent. Sand considered almost worthless for grain growing, now brings immense prices. Clarkson, Bronte, Burlington are now all competitors, but Oakville is still Strawberry Town, and John Cross has the honor of tapping a gold mine that is in no danger of giving out, but grows richer and richer every year.
The district is now known as the millionaire's country, men of immense wealth coming from the cities to play the game started by John Cross fifty years ago, and the same time view the old homestead where the basket factory was built is now owned by the son of Mr. Cross, Mr. C. H. Cross, he being at present in the city. The town made famous by his father half a century ago.

Over an inch of rain was measured at Sharon last Sunday.

The Newmarket Farmers' Club held a successful meeting at Wesley Hall on Saturday night.

Hats off to Bowmanville. It is reported that potatoes are already being harvested there.

R. J. McCormick, ex-M.P., has sold his 17-acre farm, lot 37, con. 2, N.E.R., to A. J. Gammon, of Bowmanville.

William Elliott, whose farm is near Oakville, has sold his two-year-old calves to the Ontario Agricultural Society.

Holstein bulls have sold up to $2500 at recent sales in South Africa, short-horn bulls up to $1600 and Angus as high as $750.

Mrs. Margaret Thompson has disposed of her farm, part of lot 16, con. 2, N.E.R., to John Stephenson, of Hamilton, for $2400.

Mr. King Cooper has disposed of his farm in Newmarket to Robert Lindsay, of Georgetown. Sale was made by E. A. Bepham, Georgetown.

Crops near Walkerton are progressing favorably. The market in the town has been disappointing and farmers are apparently dealing with the stores.

During the last two weeks the weather has been more favorable at Cordova Mines. Something like summer now and the crops are looking fine in this section of the county.

All the world's top records in milk and butter production, whether 7, 14, 40 or 100 days, are held by Holstein cattle. If any man doubts the statement, I am ready to settle it with him right now, out here in the back yard.—R. W. E. Burnaby, York County.

The hay harvest has begun around Clearmont and the yield promises to be the best ever. The work is covered in the past few weeks being very rapid. There is still a large amount of old hay in the stacks.—R. W. E. Burnaby, York County.

As an evidence of the increase in the sheep raising industry, on a farm, Mr. Robert Sterritt, first life west, delivered at the wool-mill in Huttonville last week over 100 lbs. of wool, of which he received a tidy sum in excess of $600.

The honors of being the first to ship strawberries from Clarkson this year are equally divided between Mr. C. Sproule and Mr. W. H. Hughton, both making shipments to Toronto on July 27.

A Clarkson farmer the other day sent ten baskets of fine fresh lettuce to a commission house in the city, only two of which were sold. He was informed the eight baskets had been destroyed. Lettuce at the time was selling three cents a bushel. The farmer's commission agent and consumer all lost on this transaction. Surely in war time there should be some way of preventing this waste.—The Brampton Conservator.

The old saying that lightning never strikes twice in the same place has just been proven foundationless. Two years ago the barn of Mr. Arthur Stewart, lot 19, con. 1, was struck by lightning and one of the rafters splintered into three. The rafter was splintered and during the thunderstorm last week the barn was again struck and this identical rafter was splintered as before. Fortunately no further damage was done.

Waldie Steen's sale of stock, implements and so forth, held last Wednesday, was attended by a large number of buyers. The total amount of the sale was about $6000. The offer, in fact of the fact that none of the stallions were sold. All the other stock and implements brought very high prices. One mare sold for $245, the highest price ever brought for a horse in the county. The sheep standing crop was not sold, but Mr. Steen expects to make a sale before going away.

Mr. Joseph E. Farrelly of the 16th concession of Peel Township, near Alma, has the good fortune of owning about 100 sheep, that to after selling 60 last winter, which netted him a handsome sum of money. A wool dealer offered him a short time ago, $400 for the wool off his flock without washing it. He didn't accept the offer, and now that the price has gone away up he will realize a good bit more for it. Mr. Farrelly claims from the Perry Sound district where he was reeve of his municipality, and brought the largest flock of sheep with him Peel Township ever had. He considers sheep about the best stock a farmer can have on his farm, and he has no doubt of the value of the money-making—Bryton Advocate.

MOST MALE BIRDS SHOULD BE SOLD

High Feed Cost Makes Marketing of Unprofitable Birds Imperative.

The urgent need of conservation demands that all poultry not paying its way in either eggs or growth be killed for eating.
The present high prices of feed also make the keeping of such classes of poultry decidedly unprofitable as well as unpractical. Therefore, for your own good and for the good of the country, kill them. There are in every poultry yard birds that have outlived their usefulness and others that will never pay their way. These might profitably be finished and marketed, not necessarily all at once, but as soon as practicable, taking into account the market, etc. In these classes might be mentioned, in the order in which they should be disposed of, the following:
1. Male birds—The breeding season being over, all males should be finished and killed. It will cost $2 or over to keep each male until next breeding season, therefore, get rid of them. It will also be better for the layers, the eggs and the growing chicks.
2. Turkeys and Water Fowl—Toms and turkey hens, geese and ducks, not absolutely needed for the year's breeding should be disposed of.
3. Hens—All hens of the heavier classes that are two years old and over might better be marketed now. In even the light classes many of this age ought to go. Others that are laying but that are not worth keeping for another year should be kept until the egg yield does not pay for the feed. Better still, keep culling out those that show signs of early moulting as you go along.
4. Broilers—If broilers are early it pays best to sell the cockerels when two or three pounds in weight rather than to keep till heavier. This is especially so when the sexes cannot be separated and where the runs are small, the pullets will soon require all the room and green feed available.
5. Roasters—Don't leave the marketing of all roasters till late in the fall. Distribute this sale over as long a period as possible. Never market without finishing.

The annual meeting of the Lambton County Board of Agriculture was held in Orange Hall at Woodbridge on Wednesday afternoon, June 27, with a fair attendance. The president, W. A. Brock of Petrolia, occupied the chair, and Alex. Jamieson of Forbes, secretary, was at his post.
W. P. McDonald, district representative addressed the meeting, dealing with the advantages of the County Board of Agriculture in its various workings. Officers of the board were re-elected as follows: President, W. A. Brock, Petrolia; Vice-president, R. J. White, Moore; Secretary, Alex. Jamieson, Forbes; Members of the executive, J. H. White, Boscawen; R. J. White, Moore; Auditor, A. J. Clark, and Albert Hare, Bosanquet.

The West York Board of Agriculture held their first annual meeting in the Orange Hall at Woodbridge on Wednesday, June 27, at 2:30 p.m. The day being a fine one in a wet spell, many of the farmers preferred to work at home instead of coming to the meeting. However, the meeting was well attended, and representatives of West York members being present from Richview, Downview, Elm, Nashville, Farmers' Clubs and Weston Horticultural Society. After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, the meeting was addressed by the president, Geo. Arnold, secretary, who pointed out the need of agricultural organizations such as the board of agriculture, and the need of a union which has the support of the provincial legislature; and how out of the present turbulent times will emerge problems which must be referred back to the board of agriculture, via the farmers' club to the legislature.

The selection of the officers resulted as follows: President, John Jackson; vice-president, Geo. Arnold; secretary, treasurer, Jos. Snider; auditors, Wm. Garhouse and Jos. Jackson.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

A demonstration of plowing with a Ford car converted into a Smith Form-a-Tractor will take place on Wednesday of this week on Coxwell avenue, Toronto. Wonderful advances in labor-saving machinery are taking place in this age, and an opportunity of witnessing the operation of such mechanical devices should not be missed by any alert thinker. The claims as to simplicity and power of this contrivance for plowing, as well as the attractive feature of using your car for plowing, are usually, are sufficiently appealing to make one wish to see the claims made good.

GOVERNMENT REPORTS

Up to the year 1914 the annual report of the Dominion experimental farms could be accommodated in one volume. During the following two years it required two volumes, running up to about 1,200 pages, to contain the information. The work has so developed that still another volume has had to be added for the year ending March 31, 1916. Volume one, which contains the reports of the director and of the divisions of chemistry, field husbandry and animal husbandry was announced a few weeks ago. The second volume, giving the reports of the divisions of horticulture and of cereals is now ready for distribution. This deals with the work carried on, including the results of experiments in these branches of agricultural industry at the central farm and at the twenty-five branch farms, stations and sub-stations distributed throughout Canada.

Grain growers, vegetable growers, fruit growers and florists, as well as the farmer of Canada may therefore look to this volume for valuable information on the growing of the various classes of crops. The work is covered not only in relation to field and orchard culture, but in relation also to the greenhouse and the experimental plot. Irrigation in horticulture has been given special study. Information on this topic is of great value. Experiments are reported of work with orchard heaters for the protection of crops against frost. Many other phases of horticulture are dealt with.

In the report of the Cerealist a table of twenty-five varieties of wheat produced at the experimental farms is given, showing the relative value of each as regards production, weight per bushel, number of days for maturing and other qualifications. Corresponding information is given with regard to coarse grains and flax. Volumes referred to, are as the former volume referred to, are available to those who apply for them to the publication branch of the department of agriculture, Ottawa.

Farmer's Clubs

The World, as a believer in co-operation along democratic lines, will be glad to hear from the secretaries of farmers' clubs. When you have your meetings write the farm editor what action you took at the meeting, how many were present, what policy you intend carrying out and include a short report on the crops in your neighborhood. The World will publish such accounts on the Monday farm page and in this way give you a helping hand.

Hay and Spring Grain Crop Looking Well; Corn is Poor

W. E. Greig of Massey Harris Co. sends the following up-to-the-minute crop report for Ontario:
In almost the whole of the province there was, up to a few days ago, quite excessive rain, while it kept the growing crops, such as hay and spring grain, interfered considerably with the planting of beans, corn and potatoes. We anticipated a very large acreage of both beans and corn, and this anticipation will be borne out to a certain extent in the western counties with regard to corn, and in the counties of Elgin, Lambton and Huron in regard to beans. Other counties which have never planted beans have put in many acres this year and expect to get good returns. The corn crop, we are sorry to say, outside of the early planting, never looked much worse, but if we have some nice warm, dry weather, all three of these crops, that is the corn, beans and potatoes, will improve.

All the other crops are quite all right; in fact, there will be a very large production of both hay and straw. The barley and wheat which is headed out indicates also a very large yield because the crop is heavy, and if drier spring rains head out as well, there is no doubt but that we will have a nice grain crop. The clover at this date is 100 strong to weather set in, and with the soil heavy in moisture, its growth will retain it.
We understand also that there is a lot of preparation being made for fall wheat, but it is a little bit early yet to say much about the acreage.

IVANHOE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

About fifty ladies attended the meeting of the Women's Institute which was held at the home of Miss Tanner last Friday afternoon. A good program was given, the main feature of which was an address given by Miss Conover of Brampton, which was very helpful. She also gave two demonstrations in cooking. Fourteen new members were secured.

W. A. Russell conducted a successful sale of 3rd line, near Brampton. The price, which includes the growing crop, is $25.00. Mr. Crawford intends taking a trip to the west before deciding where he will have his permanent residence.

The Thornhill Horticultural Show was quite a success. Owing to the flowers some of the flowers upon the prize list were not ready for exhibition, but some very fine iris, peonies, columbine and other perennial flowers were shown. The strawberries, onions and other vegetables were particularly good. Mr. T. Vinton made a good exhibit of flowers by the courtesy of Mrs. E. A. Nisbet. The ladies of the society served a delicious tea; the receipts from the show will be donated to the "Prisoners of War Fund." Victoria Hall, looking well, has been freshly painted and decorated.

Mr. Geo. Jackson is offering his farm and standing crop by auction on Tuesday, July 10. The farm is lot 7, 3rd con., east, Toronto Township, and consists of 100 acres. The crop consists of 20 acres of growing grain and 20 acres of hay. Mr. Jackson has not fully recovered from the very serious accident which nearly cost him his life some months ago. Hence his desire to sell. The McKillop Shorthorn sale, held July 8 at Argyle Farm, West Lorne, went off fairly well, help and cows being in good demand, while the young bulls went cheap. Prices ranged from $200 down, the highest priced cow, May Syme, going for $205. Good grade Shorthorn two-year-olds sold at $120 each. On account of the busy season only a small crowd was in attendance.

CO-OPERATIVE SALES PROVED THEIR WORTH

Prices Secured by Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association Contrast Favorably With Private Sales.

The figures given below are those secured by sheep breeders who sold their wool thru the medium of the Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association, on June 23. The figures were supplied to The World by Mr. T. Reg Arkell, chief of sheep and goat division of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, and they form a favorable subject for consideration by all farmers. The great demand for wool created by the war is the cause of the extraordinarily high prices received, but the attention of Ontario farmers generally can profitably be directed to the despatch and good management with which this sale was conducted. Co-operation is one of the passwords to success in all walks of life, and Ontario sheep breeders can congratulate themselves on the development of this association movement, as well as on the careful supervision given by the government representatives, Mr. Arkell and Mr. Wade.
Prices given for the wool were as follows:

Scoring Test

| | | |
|-----------------------|--------|-------------|
| Grade. | Price. | Shrink. |
| Fine medium combing. | 67c | 48 p.c. |
| Fine medium clothing. | 67c | 49 p.c. |
| Medium combing. | 66c | 45 1/2 p.c. |
| Low medium combing. | 63c | 40 p.c. |
| Coarse. | 57c | 38 p.c. |
| Lustré. | 57c | 37 p.c. |
| Rejects. | 50c | |
| Gray and black. | 49c | |
| Locks and pieces. | 34c | |
| Tags. | 26c | |

The amount was in the neighborhood of 300,000 lbs., of which medium combing was approximately 85,000 lbs., low medium combing 55,000 lbs., and coarse 100,000 lbs. The wool was exceptionally bright and made very little reject, the latter comprising mostly fleeces stored for a year or more and beginning to show a slight yellowness.

Both manufacturers and dealers participated in the bidding and the competition was decidedly keen. This sale is especially satisfactory in view of the lower prices at which wool in small quantities was actually being purchased for manufacture through the province at the same time.

Mr. Ralph Crawford has sold his fine 200 acre farm on the 3rd line, near Brampton. The price, which includes the growing crop, is $25.00. Mr. Crawford intends taking a trip to the west before deciding where he will have his permanent residence.

CHEAPER FEEDING FOR THE POULTRY

Poultry Raisers Are Advised to Use Grain Heretofore Wasted.

On account of the scarcity and high price of feed the poultry industry of this country is threatened by the prospect of the wholesale slaughter of laying stock and a serious falling off in the number of pullets to be matured. The necessity for retaining for milking every possible bushel of wheat, suitable for that purpose need not be emphasized. To provide poultrymen with feed for rearing their young stock without unnecessarily lowering the supplies of milling wheat, the federal department of agriculture has requested millers throughout Canada to put on the market the cracked and shrunken wheat removed from grain before it is milled.
In addition to small and broken wheat these cleanings consist chiefly of the seeds of wild buckwheat, a near relative of the cultivated buckwheat. The poultry division of the central experimental farm, has used buckwheat in feeding experiments and reports it to be a highly satisfactory poultry feed, and has ordered two cars of buckwheat cleanings for the central and branch experimental farms from the Canadian Government elevators at Fort William. Fowls used to good grain do not take to it at first, but when they become accustomed to it they eat it readily and do well on it.
The mill cleanings from local flour mills also contain traces of many other weed seeds, including several kinds of mustards. These, however, would not, as a rule amount to more than two or three per cent. of the cleanings in the case of the standard grades of western wheat. This material is especially recommended for backyard suburban and professional poultrymen. On farms the cleanings from yards and poultry houses where it had been fed would have to be arranged with local mills or feed dealers for a supply. The mills should be expected to keep this material for poultry unless it is demanded for that purpose, as it tests with the poultrymen themselves.

Mr. W. S. Rutherford has sold his fine farm of 100 acres on the Elora road, southeast of Havelock, for $45,000. It is a neighboring farmer, Mr. James W. Binns, who in turn has sold his 20-acre Victoria Hill, looking well, to Mr. F. Palmerston, who also acquires most of the standing crop.

Mr. Ed Stork of Brampton dug a hill of potatoes on Tuesday. He says they were good quality and has prospects for a good crop.

REIN-DRIVE TRACTORS

Specifications:
MOTOR—30 Horse Power. Special Tractor Motor—4 cylinders, Cast iron block, cylinder 4 in. bore x 6 in. stroke, valve-in-head. Motor specially designed to use cheap grade of fuel. Motor equipped with centrifugal water pump and air fan, and has perfect oiling system.
CLUTCH—Internal expanding ring type, faced with raybestos. Very accessible.
TRANSMISSION—Three speeds forward and three reverse. Shift Gear of semi-steel segments. Bull Pinion roller type, lubricated automatically through reservoir, cast in hub of pinion. All gears cast-steel, machine cut, heat treated and hardened. All gears enclosed in dust proof housings and running in oil. Transmission bearings are anti-friction, roller or ball type.
DIMENSIONS—Traction Wheels, 6 feet diameter x 12-inch face with 24 forged steel spokes per wheel, hot-riveted in both hub and rim. Greatest length over all 11 feet. Greatest width over all 6 feet 4 inches.
SPEED—Change of speed may be obtained by a pull of the lines. Traction Speed—1 1/2 miles per hour. Plough or Direct Speed—2 1/2 to 3 1/2 miles per hour. High or Road Speed—3 1/2 to 4 miles per hour. Belt pulley 18-20 inches in diameter and has three speeds in either direction. Belt can be run out either front or rear, and is quickly lined up.
CONTROL—Control of speeds and steering obtained through reins and quadrant to the clutches, being simple and absolutely positive in operation. Steering Device is so simple and positive that the tractor will follow along in the furrow without any attention from the operator.
FUEL TANK—One tank with two compartments. Capacity, three U. S. gallons gasoline and twenty-one gallons kerosene. It occupies less space than three horses abreast and allows furrow to be carried much closer to fence than if horses were used.
TURNING—Tractor will turn on its axis and in either direction. In a circle of 8 feet 4 inches.
HITCH—Simple device; adjustable in all directions. Any implement may be quickly and securely attached.
TOOLS—All necessary tools included with tractor.
PLOWING—Will handle three-bottom plow. Will plow from 10 to 12 acres in 10 hours. Operator rides on attached implement, therefore has all his work under and in front of him.

OUTSTANDING FEATURES OF THE REIN-DRIVE TRACTOR

One man outfit. Adapted to all classes of field work and to all conditions of soil. It is further supplied with belt pulley, giving 30 horse power, so that you may run any belt-driven machine. Two wheel tractor, with total weight on two points, gives better traction efficiency. The only underslung tractor, and it is so perfectly balanced that it will not upset, no matter what grade of arable land one is operating. Turns in smallest possible space a circle of 8 feet 4 inches in diameter. No ground is lost in the turn. Absolute and positive control is obtained through reins, same as horse driving. Operator rides upon the attached implement, within full view of his work and allowing him complete control of both the tractor and implement. Tractor consists of very few parts. The highest grades of material and best workmanship are used in its construction. The maintenance cost is exceptionally low. The tractor is designed to use a cheap grade of fuel and operates at lowest possible cost. Equipped with lighting apparatus for night work. Operating cost almost negligible.

It's Your Food
---that's why 500 of you men must go and help to harvest it.

Three months ago—when Famine and World Hunger became a possibility—we said to Ontario Farmers: YOU MUST PRODUCE MORE FOOD

The farmers have produced more food, and we now call upon town and city men to help them harvest it. Five hundred men are wanted now. More men will be needed later.

But we must have five hundred men on foot from two to six weeks. Good wages paid.

Consequently we urge employers to release men temporarily for this work, and keep their jobs open for them. And we call upon all men who can to help gather the harvest.

The food crops must be taken off the ground. You need them as much as our own Soldiers and Allies in Europe.

Many men will volunteer to do it instead of taking a vacation this year. Will you? If so, offer yourself now.

Register in person or by mail at the WAR PRODUCTION CLUB. They will give you all particulars.

UNKNOWN MAN UNDER ARREST DIES SUDDENLY. John Thompson Claimed to Have Been Recently Employed in Toronto. Special to The Toronto World. Belleville, July 8.—On Friday afternoon a man who gave his name as John Thompson, and Scotland as his birthplace, with no particular home in Canada, was placed under arrest on a charge of vagrancy. In the evening the unfortunate man was taken seriously ill with convulsions. His condition becoming worse, he was conveyed to the hospital in an ambulance, but was dead when the institution was reached. An inquest was held last evening, presided over by Dr. Yeomans, coroner. The jury returned a verdict of death from epileptic convulsions, induced by urine poisoning. The man gave his age as 55 years. He was of medium height, partially bald, blue eyes, and rather fair complexion. He had nothing upon him to give any clue as to his identity. He told the police officer that the day previous to his arrest he came from Toronto, where he had been working.
