Manchester Liberals Forget Difficulties; Unite Against Foes

Nationalists and Independents Decide to Stand Together

Similar Union in Lancashire Constituencies—Acclamations Number 61, Including Lloyd George, Who is Unopposed for the First Time.

(Associated Press.) London, Nov. 4.—All nominations for seats in the British parliament must be in the hands of responsible officials by noon today.

At breakfast time this morning everyone was still wondering if Lloyd George was really going to release his host of reserves and by eleven hour nominations finally fulfil his threat to spread the war against the Conservatives.

At the moment the topic of greatest consideration is the wedding together of the Liberal groups of Manchester, where the national and independent Liberals decided last night to abandon their mutual opposition and to stand together as united Liberals against the candidates of the other parties.

The joining of the Liberal elements there yesterday was on the basis of a Liberal Federation on Oct. 26, the Daily News reported. That declaration of intention has been the subject of a somewhat advanced Liberal League.

The action at Angora split the Constantinople cabinet. The majority favors surrender because of the nationalist charge of treason against the Sultan.

SOME STANDING BY THE SULTAN

He May Ignore Decision to Oust Him

Another Report is That He Will Abdicates—Imperial Family and Adherents in Government Have Conference Over Situation.

(Canadian Press Cable)

Constantinople, Nov. 4.—The whole Near East was anxious today to learn what the Sultan was going to do about the unanimous decree of the Grand National Assembly sitting at Angora, declaring the Sultanate in Turkey at an end.

Shorn of his executive and legislative powers, the Sultan is declared by some of the newspapers to be ready to abdicate, but the general opinion is that he will ignore the Angora decision. The public received the announcement from Angora with mixed feelings.

The heir apparent, Abdul Medjid Effendi, cousin of the Sultan, and other members of the imperial family, conferred last night and gave particular attention to the decision of the assembly that hereafter the Sultanate should be a hereditary office.

Officials in high palace circles were particularly angry at the resolution in which the Sultan is declared to be a minor and the imperial family, conferred last night and gave particular attention to the decision of the assembly that hereafter the Sultanate should be a hereditary office.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram" said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "one of our local orators used the pronoun 'I' fifty-one times in nine minutes the other evening."

TWO CANADIANS ARE IN CARNEGIE LIST OF HEROES

Awards for Life Saving by Ontario Boy of Fourteen and Youth of Eighteen.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 4.—(By Canadian Press.)—Two Canadian were included in the list of heroes honored by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission at its last meeting here yesterday.

The younger boy, frightened by his live and water until he carried himself ten feet away from the pavilion, where the water was six feet deep.

Brooks, an eighteen-year-old clerk, saved Ames Haggard and Anne B. Lawson from drowning at Guelph on June 25, 1921. The girls, while wading in the Speed river, stepped into deep water. Their struggles carried them fifty feet from the shore and they sank disengaged in each other's arms.

No Spread The War In Last Minute Speech of Ex-Premier

Hit's Bonar Law on Economic Policy Success—Later, at Leeds, Says Irish Treaty Must be Given a Fair Trial.

(Associated Press.)

London, Nov. 4.—Lloyd George received a rousing ovation from a great audience crowded into a motion picture theatre when he appeared to make a political speech this morning just a few minutes before the time limit expired for nominating candidates for parliament.

More than 25,000 persons applied for the 3,000 available seats. Many notable and titled personages were present. On the platform Lloyd George was surrounded by Lord Birkenhead, Austen Chamberlain and some others who were ministers in his cabinet.

Lloyd George launched into his speech with an answer to Premier Bonar Law's sarcastic characterization of him as a drummer boy. The little Welshman declared he was not ashamed of this description, and added, amidst cheers, that German lost the war because she had no drummer boy.

Referring to the Conservative watchword "tranquillity," Lloyd George declared that a policy of tranquillity was not to whom they were prepared to do it. He did not anticipate any great danger from the revolutionary elements in the coming elections.

Particularly acceptable to the audience was the ex-premier's summary of the economic and financial policy of the late government. "When my friend Bonar Law, the new premier, left the wretched coalition cabinet," he said "the British sovereign would buy in the U. S. only thirteen shillings worth of merchandise."

KEEP WATCH FOR FLEET WITH 600,000 CASES

U. S. Prohibition Forces Get News of Sailing of Six Vessels from Bahamas, Whiskey Laden.

New York, Nov. 4.—The various agencies of the federal government are marshalling their forces in an effort to prevent the landing along the New York and New Jersey coasts of more than 100,000 cases of whiskey, valued at about $10,000,000, bootlegger prizes, believed to be headed this way from the Bahamas on small vessels of British registry.

Referring to the custom officials from Nassau, it was learned today, are that during the week ended October 31, six British schooners left that port with cargoes of liquors—the largest number in one week since the national prohibition law went into effect. Four of these vessels carried for St. Pierre, Miquelon, and two for Tampico, Mexico.

ARRESTED IN MONCTON FOR HALIFAX POLICE

George Essery, Also Known by Other Names, Taken in Robbery and Shooting Case.

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 4.—George Essery, alias Ernest Essery, alias Frank Bromley, was arrested here on Friday, as answering the description given by Halifax authorities of a man wanted in connection with the shooting of Leslie A. Corkum, Halifax grocer. The prisoner was escorted to Halifax this morning by Detective Charles Aikens.

GREATER NEGLECT OF CHILDREN

Aid Society Inspector at North Bay Reports Conditions Growing Worse.

North Bay, Ont., Nov. 4.—In the last year, John Brown, children's aid inspector here, has had occasion to deal with 250 children, resident in this district, who are either neglected, maltreated or dependent upon the public for support. This is the largest number of cases that has ever been known to come to the attention of the society, and, according to Mr. Brown, reflects a serious and rapidly growing condition in the domestic life of the community.

MRS. ROSIER FREE

Philadelphia Woman Who Shot Her Husband had His Stenographer.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Catherine Rosier was yesterday acquitted by the jury which tried her for killing Mildred Geraldine Reckitt, her husband's stenographer, and soon afterward was freed of an indictment which charged her with killing her husband, Oscar Rosier, at the same time. The defence was built on the plea of insanity.

REPUBLICANS FAIL AT ARDEE

Fierce Attack on Barracks—De Valera Manifesto Taken at Little Value.

Belfast, Nov. 4.—The military barracks at Ardee, County Louth, was fiercely attacked by Republicans yesterday, but owing to the great strength of the building, the walls of which are five feet thick, the assault failed.

Dublin, Nov. 4.—(Canadian Press.)—One of the first official acts of Eamon De Valera in his new capacity as president of the Republican Council of States was to issue a manifesto today to the voters of the six counties under the jurisdiction of the northern parliament asking them to ignore the British election, but to retain the Belfast government. Ulster still sends thirteen representatives to Westminster, but De Valera wants them to refuse to elect anybody.

De Valera's popularity is so depreciated, however, that the manifesto is not likely to have effect. Interference with the peaceful policy of the Cosgrave government is likely to excite the public even more, as Sir James Craig's party in Ulster could make political capital in the rebel leaders' activities in England.

ARCTIC OCEAN IS WARMING UP

Report from Norway Says That Icebergs are Growing Scarcer.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The Arctic Ocean is warming up, icebergs are growing scarcer and in some places the seals are finding the waters too hot, according to a report to the Commerce Department from Consul Ifft at Bergen, Norway.

Reports from fishermen, seal hunters and explorers, he declared, all point to a radical change in climatic conditions and hitherto unheard of temperatures in the Arctic zone, exploration expeditions reporting that scarcely any ice has been met with as far north as 81 degrees 29 minutes. Soundings to a depth of 6,100 metres showed the gulf stream still very warm.

Great masses of ice have been replaced by moraines of earth and in many points well known glaciers have entirely disappeared. Very few seals and no white fish are being found in the eastern Arctic, while vast shoals of herring and mackerel, which have never before ventured so far north, are being encountered in the old seal fishing grounds.

McGill Extension Course. Quebec, Nov. 4.—(Canadian Press.)—Dr. C. McMillan of the English department of the faculty of arts at McGill lectured in Morris College here yesterday in the first of a university extension course on English literature from Chaucer to Kipling. The course is being given under the auspices of the association of Protestant women teachers of Quebec.

Mary MacSwiney Is Arrested In DeValera Search

National Army Troops Fail to Catch Leader, Who is Said to Have Been in House of Mrs. Humphries—Battle with Occupants.

(Canadian Press Cable.) Dublin, Nov. 4.—Miss Mary MacSwiney was among several persons arrested in the home of Mrs. Humphries in Aylesbury road here after a pitched battle between the occupants and National Army troops who were presumably seeking to arrest Eamon De Valera, Republican, reported to be hiding in this city. The search failed to reveal the leader. He is believed to have escaped from the house last night.

Commandant Gen. Ernest O'Malley, one of the most active of the Republican leaders, was dangerously wounded and arrested. Madame O'Rahilly, widow of the O'Rahilly who was killed in the 1916 insurrection, was wounded. Shiela Humphries, daughter of the owner of the house and niece of Mrs. O'Rahilly, was slightly wounded. Mrs. Humphries was arrested.

PROGRESSIVES AGAINST FUSION

Winnipeg, Nov. 4.—Resolutions opposing fusion of the Progressive party with either of the other parties were passed yesterday at a convention of the East and West Calgary and Brandon district United Farmers' organizations.

Ont., Nov. 4.—At a meeting of the South Waterloo Progressive political party yesterday it was the unanimous decision to support the retention of Hon. Mr. Crerar as leader at the convention in Winnipeg next week. The meeting also favored a broadening out policy, but was opposed to any fusion with the Liberals, though not opposed to co-operation with the government.

MYSTERY OF THE SEA IS SOLVED

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 4.—The mystery surrounding the supposed wreck of a schooner off Cranberry Head in last Tuesday's storm was solved yesterday, when the cabin top found floating in Sydney harbor on Wednesday night by the cutter Vagrant, was identified as belonging to the auxiliary schooner Bonnie, which blew up off Cranberry one day last week.

It is surmised that the wreckage first drifted out to sea and then drove back into the harbor before the terrific gale which swept the Cape Breton coast for three days.

GAS PIPE BURSTS: MAN IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL IN MONCTON. Moncton, N. B., Nov. 4.—Carey Steves, an employe of the N. B. HOME AFTER AUTO DRIVE TO FIND MOTHER DEAD

Toronto, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Margaret Thompson, aged 78, a widow, was found dead in a chair in her home last night when her daughter, Susan returned after a motor trip.

Mrs. Thompson, who had been alone in the house since morning, had been asphyxiated, gas having escaped from an open jet in a grate in the parlor.

PHILADELPHIA WOMAN WHO SHOT HER HUSBAND HAD HIS STENOGRAPHER

The shooting took place in the room of the Rosier advertising agency, of which the dead man was the head, on Jan. 21, last. Rosier was thirty-eight years of age and Miss Reckitt twenty. For nine months the defendant had been incarcerated awaiting trial.

LLOYD GEORGE
FADED, BUT IN GOOD HEALTH

Strain of War Years Has Left Its Trace on Him.

Tino Looking for Horse in Paris — Finding a Place
for the War-time Despatch Rider—The Scene at the Madania Conference.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
London, Oct. 19. Recent alarmist
rumors about Lloyd George's health
were, as stated at the time, entirely unfounded. He is not only in good health, but is also in good spirits.
He was never exactly robust in early youth, and the exacting calls made upon his constitution, he is certainly vigorous for a man of his age. An unbroken period of seventeen years' active ministry, including such a term as the strain as the premier has had to meet during the war years and the ceaseless hours and foreign crises
followed the armistice, might break down anyone. It has not done so in Lloyd George's case, but it has inevitably left its traces, though this may be merely transitory.

For some time he has been a little faded, and inclined, curiously, to not to insomnia but to sleepiness. His own explanation is that he is making
up for seven years' of being up
during the worst of the war and postwar times. He has sometimes complained to friends of not being quite
so alert and nippy as he used to be,
but his intimate associates would be
the last to agree with this statement,
and, since the present party crisis
has really developed, the prime minister has evinced his old brisk clan of the grave emergency drained his spirits of unsettled his mentality.

Royalty and the Housing Shortage.

I hear that ex-King Tino of Greece,
who is at present in Palermo, Sicily,
wants to settle in Paris, but cannot find a house. He experienced the same difficulty on arriving in Palermo, three days being spent in a fruitless hunt for suitable accommodation. He might still be hunting, but the Greek revolutionary government ordered the captain of the Patria, the ship which had conveyed the royal family to Sicily, to disembark them and return to Palermo.
Tino was obliged to take what vacant rooms the Grand Hotel had to offer. He is not tied to Palermo, authorities at Athens having issued his passports for several countries. It is unlikely for him that there is scarcely a country on earth now where he is unwelcome. Germany under the old regime would have welcomed him on account of his wife, but certainly not
now. But Tino never had the capacity
for making friends, as, for instance,
King Manuel was deposed, he settled down
in Richmond quite happily, has hosts
as a private gentleman that he never was as a king. Alfonso of Spain deposed, would find a right royal welcome in London, Paris, or New York.
At the Agricultural Hall.

It is a pity the dairy show occurs
this year at a time when parliament is not in session. It was the splendid spectacle in the lobby at Westminster
"country" visitors, and genuine local visitors, being made over such a mass of their attentive "local" M.
P.'s. If one really wants to make figure of circumstance in the House of Commons smoke rooms the way to do it is to call on a member in terms of happened visitors, and carrying a rough shiplant. The backbone of the army may, as Mr. Kipling says, be the not commissioned man, but certainly the backbone of the county constituency is the "substantial farmer." He is seldom kept waiting on the main. At the talking rendezvous there are plenty
of real home-grown county visitors,
but the show itself is not so convincing
to the townsmen. It is far too scientific and machine-riden.

There are some splendid staly
milk cows, with Venus ribs and downy jowls, but also there are unsightly efficient machines, with tubes
and suction pumps and the great refrigerators like a taximeter, for milking them.
This menace to the milk maid of old
centuries, may be the less regretted, if those real life milk maids who are still to be found at the show, and who talk about the milk in terms of chemical analysis like university extension mistresses, are now really true
to type. The London suburban milkman over is slightly more intriguing in rascality.

Franco-German Affection.

Everyone has shrewd notion that the French and Germans do not exactly love each other like twin souls. But a friend just back from Germany tells me one has to stay in French occupied territory really to appreciate the tension that exists. The atmosphere is electric, and minor "incidents" are of almost daily occurrence. An English-lady, who this week returned from Germany, had a surprising experience at the customs, where a rigid search is made for articles that may not be taken out of Germany without an export license. Three French ladies, traveling in the same compartment, were deprived of their fitted dressing-cases, a fur
coat, and some thousands of francs,
for money as well as German goods had
to be licensed for export.
The English lady, talking in French,
as everyone does in French-occupied Germany was singularly treated, her

suit-cases being ransacked, until there was a pile of cherished possessions
worth some fifty pounds which she was told were to be confiscated. She was almost in tears at this news, and broke out into agitated English expletives.
The customs officials looked at her in painted surprise. Why, they asked, had not madam said she was English? The members of the
And they not only returned all her possessions to her, but carefully packed
her bags themselves.

Mudania Drama.

Lord Plumer's old chief-of-staff of the Second Army, Major-General Sir Charles Harrington, evidently
had a tense time at the Mudania signing. The mis-entente was a strange old text, wherein at three small kitchen tables, lighted by smelly paraf-
fin lamps of the cottage scullery order,
the allied generals, the Turkish commanders, and the experts of both sides
themselves in state. A touch of cynical comedy was imparted to the negotiations, conducted in the French
spoke fluently, by Ismet Pasha's deafness. This disability, the result of old service, the Turkish general, who participated in the signing, was represented, whenever he desired to consult his experts, under the necessity of going into the adjoining tent.
But the characteristic touch
of drama was at the end. When Ismet
was the final protocol was finished,
one hand stole to his sword hilt, and he exclaimed, "This is contrary to the assurances of France!" "General Charpy's signature is there!" "A scene like that would have admirable presentation at the Lyceum Theatre.

Princess Yolanda.

Princess Yolanda of Italy, whose engagement to the Belgian Crown Prince is rumored from Belgium, where the Italian royal family are now on a visit,
is a tall, slim, very pretty brunette who is well known to English society. She has paid several visits to London,
where she has a number of friends, who
on their part are always sure of seeing a good deal of her when they visit the Italian capital. Princess Yolanda is particularly fond of dancing, and is one of the few European princesses who is really good fox-trotter. This universal dance is still apparently considered
"not quite the thing" in most court circles outside England. The Roumanian Court is a notable exception. The princess is a good linguist, speaks
French well, and English with a slight, pretty accent. She is an admirer of French literature, and of the works of her own country's poet-novelist, Gabriele D'Annunzio. She reads a good deal, sings and plays with more than usual ability, and is a very keen lawn
tennis player.

Hustle.

Every man who served in the grand army must wonder occasionally how
the civilian fate are dealing with old comrades of the tense war days. A special problem presents itself in the case of the war-time riders. On the whole the war was an affair of deadly monotony and filthy quarrel. It had its thrilling moments, and its sublime comedy, but the predominant note
was a sordid boredom. The despatch trains were one of the few romantic
figures, the reckless heroes who did circus tricks round smoking shell-holes,
sixty-five miles an hour on a motor-bike. There really was a genuine touch of Christmas number drama
about their existence, at any rate,
the outlook dull and piddling infantry-
man or the sweating navy who served the guns. It is difficult to fit them into the prosaic scheme of civilian existence. They cannot all be professional record-breakers for motor manufacturers, and though one or two have undoubtedly turned taximen to the con-
termination of elderly and nervous patrons of the rank, this hustling battlement seemed lost in the peace fogs. But today on the Streatham high road at a spot often sedately traversed by Dr.
Johnson's substantial coach I recognized one. He flashed past me in much the old way, dodging buses instead of shell craters, the old war horse. On the carrier behind him was a bright
yellow box marked "Quick Messenger Service." So old hell-for-leather he found his place in the civilian cosmos.
Business By Air.

Business By Air.

A friend, who this week flew to Co-logne and back on the new air route to visit the Frankfurt Fair, tells me that there is a new commercial type to be found in Europe. It is made up principally of young men, traveling for British firms, who will wait for days in order to travel by air instead of by boat and train, because of the greater comfort and the saving in energy. They do not fly because of any desire for novelty, but simply for business reasons, arguing that the time saved more than makes up for the greater cost.
Two men, for instance, this week were able to fly to Germany, obtain cases of samples to submit to their principals in London, and today have returned for the last day of the fair at Frankfurt in a position to place definite orders. This is a great advantage,
because manufacturers have been warning their customers that delivery could be guaranteed only for goods ordered
during the fair, and that the next six months' programme will be modelled on the results of this week. The air trip takes barely four and a half hours, in comparison with the fifteen and a half hours by boat and train, so that the business man who breakfasts in London can be in Cologne to lunch, and at the Frankfurt Fair the same evening.

Prices in Germany.

As happened at the Leipzig Fair, almost all prices are being quoted at Frankfurt this week in dollars, because,
in spite of the new legislation from Berlin, everyone knows in Germany
that the chance of stabilizing the market is remote. To the casual visitor,
however, the most remarkable feature of the fair has been the high price asked by manufacturers, which in many cases has been three and four times higher than asked by retailers for the same goods in Frankfurt shops. This is because the shippers, try how they will, cannot keep pace with the fall in the value of the mark, but increase their prices two and three times a week
in a purely arbitrary rather than a scientific fashion. In two neighboring shops, for instance, the same water
will be priced at 2,000 and 3,000 marks
while the price asked for it by the manufacturer is 8,000 marks. There is absolutely no price standard in Germany now, and a thing that may be "cheap" one week when compared with London prices, may actually be dear
the next. On the average, however, a pound is worth four in the majority of German towns, although some articles, such as shoes and clothes cost more than in England, even when the rate of exchange is taken into account.

Like Apples in October!
The New Crop Comes in Blue Bird Tea

Blue Bird Tea
Brings Happiness!
Glorious gravensteins—how crisp, how refreshingly delicious they are fresh from
the trees, eaten in their season!
So with tea. Last year's tea is like
last year's apples.
The new crop of tea has just been gathered in the gardens of India and Ceylon. And it's the most delicious in decades.
Blue Bird is the first to offer you this
new tea, because it was first to dispose of the old. Every package of Blue Bird
you buy is thus carrying the cream of the new crop—tender young tips and baby blossoms. Want a fragrant cup from the

of 1924. The president of the board of trade, W. F. Burditt, was the next speaker. He told of the volume of St.
John's trade and said it was "always ready for more."
Major Belcher told of the object of his visit here. It was to discover what part each unit of the empire should ave in the exhibition which was to open at Wembley Park, near London,
in April, 1924, and to run about six months. This would be the first empire exhibition and those in charge
hoped to have representation from all parts of the empire in the way of exhibits of raw material. Every effort would be made through this to awaken
trade throughout the empire. Major Belcher gave some idea of the extent of trade between the dominions and Great Britain and among the dominions
and of the necessity of better advertising to make empire goods take the preference over foreign. He also mentioned the immigration problems and told of the great number who might come to this country. One of the features of the exhibition, he said,
would be a research department where
people from different parts of the empire could confer their problems of production. It was hoped to make the exhibition a great industrial picture of the empire and it was his purpose to endeavor to interest the governments in the project.
Today Major Belcher and his party
will be taken for a tour of the city
and the harbor and they will leave tonight for Nova Scotia. They have already visited Africa, Australia and New Zealand and have come across Canada from Victoria. While in Canada they are accompanied by T. B.
Williams, of the federal immigration
department.
Dr. J. M. B. Baxter, M.P., approved
of the scheme and remarked particularly on the research proposal, which

he thought was one of the greatest features of the exhibition. He referred to the business passing through St. John and suggested that British preference
be upon goods shipped through British ports and over British railways,
and eventually in British bottoms.
Colonel Christie also spoke in reference to the trade which was passing out of Canada through United States
ports.
Export Difficulties.
A. L. Foster, of the T. S. Simms Co., Ltd., said that his company exported
a large quantity of goods, but many of the buyers from other parts of the empire gave instructions to ship
through New York, while in many cases shipments could be made cheaper through Canadian ports.
J. M. Woodman, superintendent of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., said that his company could handle
much more grain through this port than
had been available in previous years.

CALLS INSANITY CURABLE
Doctor Thinks Some Forms Would Yield to Gland Treatment.
Chicago, Nov. 3.—Dr. William Held,
lecturer before the Illinois Post Graduate Medical School clinic, announced today that he had offered to treat 100
suffering from shell shock by making harmonic injections into the endocrine glands, from which he believes a toxic condition has resulted.
"What we have to do is to determine
by blood tests to determine if there is glandular activity and then restore
the harmony by injection of suitable extracts," he said. "This dispels the mental cloud."
Dr. Held said his offer had been made to President Harding and the Veterans' Bureau, and that Director Forbes had expressed his thanks, but said that he did not want any experiments made upon the soldiers. Dr.
Held said he had replied that he would not experiment, but would employ methods resulting from twenty-six years of what he believed had been a successful effort to cure epilepsy and certain forms of insanity.
"Out of 400 cases of epilepsy, I can say that eighteen per cent. have been cured," Dr. Held said. "Epilepsy cases and others on the way to insanity have been cured. As a result
I can say that insanity, whether due to epilepsy, shell shock or whatever cause, is no longer to be looked upon
as well-nigh incurable."
Other Chicago physicians expressed interest in Dr. Held's method and said the theory was in line with medical developments, but that so far as
their records went they had no knowledge of cases in such cases.

TO RESTRICT "AMPARO" Mexican Legal Measure Has Been Much Abused. Mexico City, Oct. 16—(By mail)—Use of the "amparo" as a legal recourse in Mexico is to be restricted in a bill which the government intends to present to Congress. Abuse of the measure is the reason. President Obregon recently declared that in many instances persons arrested have already provided themselves with an "amparo" which secures their immediate release without bail.

Basil King, noted author, who addressed the Canadian Club last night in connection with the Canadian Book Week Campaign, has received a very cordial welcome from many of his old friends in the city, which he is visiting for the first time in twenty-seven years. Mr. King was the guest of honor at a very happily arranged luncheon at the Halifax Club yesterday, when he was entertained by the President and executive of the Canadian Club, the company including our past Presidents and other representative citizens. Dr. Fraser Harris presided and proposed the toast to the guest of honor to which Mr. King spoke in a very moving and graceful way of his associations with this old city.

Although he is living and doing his work in the United States he remained and would always remain, he said, a Canadian, and while he maintains his allegiance to the place of his birth, Charlottetown, he said that he regarded Halifax as his home. The seven years he had spent here, at St. Luke's Cathedral, had been very happy ones and he looked back upon them as the most important in his life. He was exceedingly glad, on this first opportunity he has had to come to Halifax to see so many of his old friends including not only the same but better than when he left and while he noted many great improvements he was delighted to find the old things—Halifax which he loved so much still here. Archbishop Worrell and the Governor-General happily welcomed the findings of the company and the community in welcoming Mr. King back and in expressing the hope that we may have the pleasure of seeing him often in the future.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES. The Presbyterians will have a united service on Thanksgiving Day in St. Andrew's church in the morning when the minister of the church, Rev. F. S. Dowling, will conduct the service and Rev. W. H. Spencer, minister of St. Matthew's church, will be the preacher. The collection will be for the Protestant Orphanage. For all members of the Methodist denomination, a united Thanksgiving service will be held on Monday in Centenary church. The service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. G. Fulton, and the preacher will be Rev. L. J. Watson, of Silver Falls. It is hoped to have massed choirs to lead the singing. The collection at the Methodist service will be in aid of the building fund of the Westfield church, which was destroyed by fire last year.

The Carmarthen street Methodist church anniversary services were concluded last night with a lecture by Rev. H. B. Clarke on "A Trip to Wales in a Cattleboat," in which he described the trip he had taken with two fellow college students to Wales. They worked their way over in a cattleboat. Mr. Clarke's description of the country was unusually fine.

Speaking of the effects of tobacco, Dr. Bloodgood says that among 100 cases of tongue cancer he examined, but in no case was the weed, in any form, found in the mouth. Each of these had been afflicted with bad teeth for years and one had an ulcer torn later from a ragged tooth. He cites the fact that rarely of cancer of the tongue in women is additional evidence that tobacco is one of the causes. Several of the women effected a cure by having used snuff by the mouth.

"When we study the histories with the idea of determining which is the most dangerous form of tobacco, pipe, cigarette, cigar, chewing tobacco, or snuff by the mouth," says this authority, "we find numerous cases of cancer in patients who have used tobacco in only one form. Many have used it in all forms. The striking feature is the excess, not the form, the constant presence of tobacco juice in the mouth and careless smoking, so there is reported burning of some one area, producing either an area of irritation or a definite burn, or leukoplakia."

TONGUE CANCER IS PREVENTABLE

Dr. Bloodgood Tells How to Avoid This Dread Disease. Writing in the Journal of the American Medical Association, Dr. Joseph C. Bloodgood, Professor of Clinical Surgery at Johns Hopkins Medical School, Baltimore, declares that cancer of the tongue is largely a preventable disease and that no one need be afflicted with it provided he recognizes extremely plain symptoms and consults a competent physician. To prove his point, he cites from the records of 263 men—cancer does not start as cancer, says Dr. Bloodgood, but is something else, and it is this something else which must be detected and treated to avoid the more disastrous disease. In smokers, burns, ulcers, or other sores in the mouth, while it may be harmless in itself may very readily lead to cancer and should be treated and cured as soon as it appears. One affliction particularly dangerous is called leukoplakia. It is a white patch on the tongue or elsewhere in the mouth somewhat resembling a bit of enamel paint. It sometimes comes from excessive use of tobacco, or it may come from such irritation as would occur when the tongue comes in constant contact with rough tooth.

It was a most successful affair and augurs well for the fortnightly entertainments of this nature that are planned for the winter months. The programme was varied and well received. It included solos by Ernest Till and E. C. Girvan; a reading by S. Irvin; step dance by Matthews and Isard; Scottish songs and dancing by Jack Rossley. Motion pictures also were provided and, after refreshments had been served, a vaudeville company now playing in a local house, entertained those present with several good acts.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 144. THE REJECTOR OR RADIO FREQUENCY TRAP. In localities where there are numerous transmitting stations, receiving stations frequently have difficulty in routing signals from distant stations when nearby spark stations are in operation.

The diagram shows how the rejector circuit is often connected in the antenna circuit of the standard form of receiving circuit. In order to reduce the interference from the disturbing station the absorption circuit is tuned until the signals from the unwanted station are eliminated or greatly reduced.

In actual practice the rejector circuit is often made with a fixed condenser of proper size for the wave length to be eliminated, and only a few turns of heavy wire or copper bar wound in helical form with a sliding contact. Best results are obtained with this device when capacity rather than inductance predominates in the oscillating circuit which constitutes the rejector circuit.

When interference from nearby alternating current power lines is experienced in the receiving set, employment of the rejector circuit will usually reduce this source of annoyance to a minimum. It will be noted from the diagram that the oscillating circuit of the rejector circuit is connected directly in the ground lead of the receiving system, but the device is not placed in inductive relation to any other parts of the receiving circuit.

The rejector or absorption circuit is simple to operate, having only one variable element and lends itself readily to use by the radio experimenter of limited experience and limited means. It is sometimes possible to employ a standard wave meter which consists of an oscillating circuit similar to the rejector circuit for this purpose, and since the wave meter is not in use continuously it is convenient for this purpose.

As long as the receiving set continues to function in a satisfactory manner the amateur with little difficulty in getting signals with the average modern simplified receiver, but often, when for some unknown reason the set suddenly stops functioning, he is all at sea as to what to look for the trouble and how to remedy it.

One of the most common places for open circuits is in the flexible cord attached to the telephone receivers. These cords are constantly being twisted and bent so that it is not an infrequent occurrence for the wires to break at some point, usually near the tips. Such condition is made evident by intermittent signals in the telephone receivers when the cord is shaken.

Another common source of trouble evidenced by intermittent signals lies in the "pig-tail" connections often made to moving coils such as the rotors of variometers and variocouplers. This condition is usually apparent when the knob controlling the coil is rotated, and the remedy is to replace the "pig-tail" with a new lead. Variometers in which the bearings are relied upon to conduct the energy from the moving coil to the rest of the circuit are often troublesome, since the bearing is either too tight to turn readily or too loose to make good electrical contact.

Aerial connections, unless soldered, may become corroded and offer great resistance to the flow of radio frequency currents, especially those of small amplitude such as received signals from distant stations. Ground connections also may become so corroded as to form a source of annoyance.

Coils on which variable contact is made by means of sliders are sometimes rendered inoperative by dust accumulating on the path over which the slider moves so that imperfect contact is made with the wire. Little trouble is experienced with switch contacts except in cases where the set has been standing idle for months and the switch contacts may become sufficiently corroded to form imperfect contact.

Opens in the tuning coils themselves may be detected by means of a buzzer, dry cell and telephone receiver, no signal being heard through the coil if it is open circuit.

A short circuit in a fixed or variable condenser may be detected by means of a dry cell and telephone receiver. A loud click will be heard when the coil and receiver are connected across a short circuited condenser. The absence of a good strong click when a telephone and dry cell are connected across an amplifying transformer winding indicates that the winding is open.

The only reliable way to test "B" batteries to ascertain if they are still capable of rendering good service is by means of a voltmeter. New cells will show a spark when the two terminals are touched together, but batteries have been found serviceable long after a spark could no longer be obtained, and short circuiting the battery shortens its life, so this method is not recommended.

MEXICO DESIRES INVITATION TO PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS Mexico City, Oct. 19.—(Associated Press, by Mail)—Participation of Mexico in the Pan-American Congress in Santiago, Chile, next March which is still in doubt, has given rise to much editorial comment here, the consensus of opinion being that if Mexico is not invited to the conference she will send herself readily to a Pan-American league of nations as recently suggested by President Brum of Uruguay.

There is in the editorials an undercurrent of pique and hurt pride, however, that Mexican participation is even in question. El Universal recently stated that "if Mexico is not present at Santiago, the congress will not have full significance and will serve to create a feud between Spanish-America and Washington." The newspaper says it believes the Latin countries will eventually demand that Mexico be admitted as an equal.

"WOMAN'S PLACE" AS SCHOLAR Kingston Whig: It must have come as a surprise to many people who attended Queen's Convocation last week to learn that of twenty-one matriculation scholarships awarded, fifteen were won by girls and only six by boys. Not only so, but in almost every department the girls outdid the boys.

In English and history, in French and German, in English, French and German the winner was in each case a girl. In Latin a girl stands first, in mathematics a girl is first, in biology a girl is first. There are nearly four times as many boys as girls registered at Queen's, and it is a nice little question in mathematics as to the significance of twenty per cent. of the enrolment carrying off more than seventy per cent. of the scholarships.

The Executive Committee of the Society has fixed the week on November 12th next as "National Cancer Week," when it will attempt to reach even more persons with cancer facts than it did during the cancer week of last autumn. Informative information on that occasion was supplied to over 10,000,000 people.

ARTIFICIAL EYELASHES ADORN PARISIAN WOMEN Paris, Oct. 12.—(Associated Press, by Mail)—A superb set of silk eyelashes, secure for all time and impervious to loss through laughter or tears, may be had in Paris for a price, or rather two prices, the cost in francs charged for the operation and the pain which this same operation entails. There are Parisian women who gladly pay both. The lashes are sewn into the edges of the lids by a deft surgeon, and take root there after about twenty days. Seen close at hand, they show no scar or rim around the lid to betray the surgeon's touches.

Flying for business and pleasure, achieving greater safety, will be popular. On account of their rapidity of flight aircraft should become invaluable in business. In Canada they will be in a position to facilitate colonization. At present settlement in many regions is awaiting the railway and the good automobile roads.

DELAY COSTLY TO THESE PATIENTS A recent review of 519 cases of cancer treated at the Massachusetts General Hospital developed the fact that an average of five months and twelve days had elapsed between the time the patient first noticed the disease until he consulted a physician.

The American Society for the Control of Cancer, New York, is making a nation-wide and persistent campaign not only to inform the public as to the initial symptoms of cancer, but to impress physicians generally with the necessity of a speedy and accurate diagnosis that surgical or medical relief may be immediately obtained. The wide distribution of its literature has already saved an enormous number of lives.

BOY SCOUT WORK OF YEAR IS REVIEWED

Increased Efficiency the Outstanding Feature in Movement

Some 675 Boys in Troops and Packs at Present—Great Need of Scoutmasters and Leaders of Cubs—Finances and Other Matters in District Secretary's Report.

A detailed account of the activities of the Boy Scouts of St. John for the last ten years was presented by V. C. Timberley in his annual report to the district council, it follows:—

The last year cannot be said to have been the most successful in our history. We have had our share of difficulties, but we have also had our share of triumphs. We have increased our membership, and we have also increased our efficiency.

We commenced the year by giving a definite job to do. This was an effort to bring more of our men in direct touch with Scouting, and we have in a marked degree succeeded, as will be seen from the summarized reports of the various committees.

The present office was opened on December 1, 1921, upon the closing of the provincial office. The district had felt the need of a separate office for some time, and the closing of the provincial office would discourage a number from continuing as Scouts.

Nineteen hundred and twenty-two has seen a steady growth in numbers and efficiency. The report shows that new troops have been formed and also shows that troops have ceased to function. With one exception the reason for these troops closing up is the need of men. Also there are a number of places in the district where troops and packs might be organized.

We know that those men to run them. This is our greatest problem, but we are very glad to announce that we see the development of the Boy Scout scheme for our older boys along the lines laid down by Sir Robert Baden-Powell in his new book, "Rovering with Success"; 2. Scouters' training camps run along the lines of the Gillwell Park camps.

At the beginning of the year the leadership training committee, with Lt.-Col. W. H. Harrison as chairman, was in charge of the training course for Scouters. This course ran for six weeks and was fairly well attended.

93 YEARS OF AGE, ATTRIBUTES HEALTH TO BATHING INTERNALLY

People who are losing flesh, whose appetites are falling, and who are losing their health and sleep due to constipation, headache, or biliousness, should throw pills and laxatives away at once and start Bathing Internally. The letter from Dr. Amos Ganger, of 57 St. James street, St. John, N. B., is only one of thousands from men and women of all ages, in nearly every walk of life. He writes:

"Dear Dr. Tyrrell: I believe the J. B. L. Cascade is one of the greatest inventions for sound health in the world. For years I was troubled with constipation. My food was poisoning my whole system, and I was losing flesh. Purgatives failed to have any effect upon me, but acted more like a poison. I would take a burning itch in my hands—a most distressing feeling—and purple spots would come out on the back of my hands. Everyone thought I was nearing the end because of my old age. But I can thank Dr. Tyrrell and the J. B. L. Cascade for restoring me to health. I am now perfectly healthy and regular and never use drugs."

The J. B. L. Cascade is shown and explained at E. Clinton Brown's, Drug and Waterbury streets; F. N. Murray, 877 Main street, St. John, N. B.

Toronto Man Has to Pay Fine of $100.

Toronto, Nov. 4.—James Bramwell was charged in the police court with keeping a common betting house on the grounds of the Metropolitan Methodist church. It was said in evidence that he was carrying on a betting business on the church steps. He was fined $100. The Metropolitan church grounds, situated in the heart of the city, are always open to the public, and in the warm weather they usually are well patronized by men lying around in the grass in large numbers.

HEART PALPITATED AND WAS SHORT OF BREATH

Through one cause or another a large majority of people are troubled more or less, with some form of heart trouble.

Many people may be unaware of having anything wrong with their heart till some little excitement, overwork or worry starts it to palpitate and throb, skip beats, beat fast for a time and then so slow as to seem almost to stop, then it causes great anxiety and alarm.

To all such sufferers

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief. Mrs. Alice Bishop, 15 Hawthorne Ave., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I take Heart and Nerve Pills to all persons troubled as I had been."

"I suffered from palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath; my heart would skip beats, and in the night, at times, I would have to sit up to get my breath. I was unable to rest and my nerves were all unstrung, but since using your famous Heart and Nerve Pills I have felt like a different person."

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, THERAPION NO. 1 THERAPION NO. 2 THERAPION NO. 3

For 12 years I suffered from gas on the stomach and was nervous and short of breath. Adierka (intestinal antiseptic) is fine—it has done me more good than anything. Words cannot express my gratitude. (Signed) Leo Cook.

Intestinal Antiseptic.

There is now offered to the public a preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and COMPLETE system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adierka, acts as follows:

It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here.

It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removing foul matter which poisons the system for months and which nothing else can dislodge. It brings out all gas, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adierka draws from the alimentary canal—matter you never thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more foul matter it

At Her Death Paintings in Collection Go to Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Mineola, L. I., Nov. 3.—The will of Isaac Guggenheim, financier and one of the owners of the American Smelting and Refining Company, who died at Southampton, England, on October 10 last, was filed in the Surrogate's Court here. It makes no bequest to charities of any kind, except a provision that at the death of the widow the paintings may be given to the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

The will was dated April 24, 1922. The application for probate stated that the value of the real property is upwards of $400,000 and that the value of the personal property is upwards of $1,000,000. It is the general belief that the total value of the property will be many millions.

The residuary estate is given in trust to the widow, Mrs. Carrie Guggenheim, who had five husbands and four brothers, Daniel, Morris, Solomon, and Simon Guggenheim, is an executor of the estate. The will provides for an income of $150,000 for Mrs. Guggenheim during her lifetime.

PAIR LITTLE HURT WHEN CAR DROPS SEVENTY FEET

New York, Nov. 2.—Bicycle Patrolman Andrew Sindt, on duty at Riverside Drive and Dyckman street, thought that Hallovon had surely come when he saw a pair of automobile headlights swerve from the Drive, vault an iron railing, and turn over and over the embankment that leads to the river, seventy feet below. In their dizzy descent the bicyclist described five complete somersaults.

Sindt made a dash for the spot and arrived in time to find a sedan car standing right side up on the New York Central tracks, its headlights streaming down the track and illuminating an approaching freight train. Sindt dragged a man and a woman from the car just as the gasoline tank caught fire, bathing the car in flames. The rescued pair were Sigfried Mass, thirty-one years old, New Rochelle, and Elsie Conroy, twenty-four years old, Jamaica, L. I. Both were cut and bruised but otherwise unharmed after one of the wildest automobile mishaps on record.

Mass said he had been driving south on the Drive at 210th street when a sharp turn. As he attempted to take it the steering gear became jammed. The sedan was thrown from the roadway, crushed under the iron fence and tumbled over and over on its side till it hit the railroad tracks. A few feet more and the car and both its occupants would have plunged into the river.

Mass was dazed when taken from the car. As he was being led away he noticed the patrolman that a handbag belonging to Miss Conroy and containing considerable money had been left in the car. Although the machine was a mass of flames, Mass made several attempts to recover the bag. In one of these he barely escaped being struck by the freight train.

Mass and Miss Conroy were attended by an ambulance surgeon in a hasty at Dyckman street. The glare of their burning sedan lit up the waterfront and brought hundreds of passing motorists to a halt at the spot.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

This remarkable remedy has been on the market for over forty years; it is the best obtainable, and it does all we claim for it as a blood cleanser.

Mr. Albert R. De Witte, Lake Valley, Sask., writes: "I have suffered very much from pimples and blotches for the past fifteen years, and was so bad I hated to go out anywhere. I tried many different medicines, but none seemed to help. A friend told me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I have used three and a half bottles, and now I have a clear, rosy complexion."

HAVE LEARNED JIU-JITSU

Spanish Police Given Instruction by German.

Berlin, Oct. 10.—(By Mail)—A German policeman has just finished giving instruction in Jiu-Jitsu, the Japanese method of self-protection, to guardians of the public order in Spain.

Herr Wozniak, a Berlin criminal police department, returned recently from the engagement, for a brief visit home. Having established a reputation in Berlin as a police instructor, especially in Jiu-Jitsu, Wozniak's services were inquired for by the Spanish police.

His command was the development of police Jiu-Jitsu teachers at Barcelona, and instruction looking toward the establishment of a Jiu-Jitsu gang in Madrid.

Last night was the third night of the I. O. G. T. fair which is being held in Murray street, a large number were present. The evening was won by Miss G. Clarke, Murray street; men's bean toss, safety razor, B. L. Kirkpatrick; ladies' bean toss, pull of two small balls of lard, Miss N. Scribner; air gun, men's umbrella, C. Cronk. Tonight is the last night for the fair.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look young! Nobody can tell if you use Gray Hair Darkener.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Now, by asking at any drug store for "Wetly's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you directed your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Suffered From Pimples and Blotches For Fifteen Years

When the blood becomes impure it is only natural that pimples, blotches, boils or some other blood trouble will manifest itself by breaking out on the system.

There is only one way to get rid of these obnoxious skin troubles, and that is by giving the impure blood a thorough cleansing by the use of a good blood purifier such as

Berlin, Oct. 10.—(By Mail)—A German policeman has just finished giving instruction in Jiu-Jitsu, the Japanese method of self-protection, to guardians of the public order in Spain.

Herr Wozniak, a Berlin criminal police department, returned recently from the engagement, for a brief visit home. Having established a reputation in Berlin as a police instructor, especially in Jiu-Jitsu, Wozniak's services were inquired for by the Spanish police.

His command was the development of police Jiu-Jitsu teachers at Barcelona, and instruction looking toward the establishment of a Jiu-Jitsu gang in Madrid.

"I Was Run Down"

"Body was completely covered with Boils"

"If you have ever had boils, you know how painful and annoying even one or two can be. But imagine having your whole body almost entirely covered with them! I am a watchmaker by trade, making a specialty of repairing the highest grade movements. This is probably the most trying of any mechanical work, particularly for a nervous individual like me. Working under great strain both day and night for three months, brought me most agonizing boils. I was so irritable and nervous that the slightest thing would send me up in the air. If I managed to get a few hours of sleep at night I was lucky. I had no appetite for food. Certainly was miserable. During this time I began to appreciate the benefits of my body's diet. I was a man of many ailments. My mind was so great at times that I felt I was nothing left for me to do but to end it all. I consulted doctors but they all told me that if I didn't give up my work and live out of doors, I would go to the hospital. As this I no money I couldn't do this. In fact, paying doctors' bills and buying medicines

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even itchy, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and discomfort. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little Jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good drug and use it like a cold cream.

Band of Thieves Spotted Victims for Hold-up Later.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Operations of a band of thieves who "spotted" their victims in fashionable cafes were disclosed by Edward Stad, recently arrested for the hold-up of Mrs. Dorothy Davis outside her home. Loot which is valued at thousands of dollars has been recovered from the arrest of several men and women who composed the gang.

Stad revealed the systematic manner in which the gang's depredations were performed. Spotters were planted in the cafes, and they waited for their victims. The spotters were dressed in evening gowns and women wearing expensive jewels and fur coats were singled out. In a majority of the cases several members of the gang would be waiting for the victims in front of her home. The activities of the band were according to Stad, centered in the wealthy residential districts.

HOBOS SPLIT ON WEALTH LINE

Brotherhood Divided Into Two Parties—One Aristocratic and the Other Plebeian.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3.—There has been a parting of the "hobo" ways, and instead of one national organization there are now two, one aristocratic, the other plebeian. National Brotherhood Welfare Association, D. C., Ballou, Denver, Oklahoma and Muncie, Ind., which represents the "wealthy" group, which rides on Pullman cushions to the annual convention, while the "plebs" roll in on the rods.

The parting came Saturday, when the annual convention of the International Brotherhood Welfare Association, assembled here, refused to recognize the credentials of Dr. J. Eads How of St. Louis, the "millionaire hobo." How was declared ineligible for the real thing because of his wealth.

How did not leave the convention hall alone. With him is said to have gone the "convention" nurse, besides a majority of the delegates, including those from Chicago, Washington, D. C., Ballou, Denver, Oklahoma and Muncie, Cleveland and New York delegates, who had gone with How Saturday, returned to the "regular" convention today.

While How expressed hope today that all differences would be smoothed out, soon and the two factions reunited, at the "regular" camp it was stated that the International Brotherhood Welfare Association was through with Dr. How and his "philanthropic ideas and straight-front methods."

WOUNDED, CRAWLS TWO DAYS

Fort William, Ont., Nov. 2.—The engineer of a slow freight train saw a man crawling on the tracks between a red bandanna. The train stopped.

The stranger, suffering from a high fever, was taken aboard the freight, and after a short stay at a hospital there. This was his story, gleaned from his ravings:

"I was taken from Anderson and he lived at Amvel. Out hunting on Birch Lake, he accidentally shot himself in the leg two days ago. The bone was broken, and he was unable to make a splint. His shirt he used as a bandage. His necktie served as a tourniquet. He crawled for two days, and then he was found by a train. He was taken to a hospital and is now recovering."

STUDY SEAGULLS ON INLAND WATERS

Burlington, Vt., Nov. 2.—The migratory habits of sea gulls which you after year have made the Four Brothers Islands, in Lake Champlain, their breeding place, will be studied by a party of scientists who plan to visit the islands next summer. Professor Harry F. Perkins, of the University of Vermont, probably will head the investigators.

Full and authentic information concerning the habits of the birds is lacking and, in an effort to clear up some disputed points, the scientists propose to attach small bands to the legs of the young birds to serve as identification marks during the migratory season. The task will not be accomplished without difficulty, as the old gulls are known to resent strongly any interference with their offspring, and the investigators look forward to receiving some severities from the parents.

The plan is in line with the aims of the National Bird Banding Association.

8 NEW ONES ON DIVORCE DOCKET

Two St. John Cases Filed at Fredericton

In One St. John Case Defence is Made—In Addition to the Eight There are Three Left from Last Sitting of the Court.

(Special to The Times.) Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 4.—The New Brunswick Divorce Court will meet here on Tuesday morning, Justice Crockett presiding.

Eight cases have been filed since last term, and there are three remain from the previous term. The cases are: Fowles vs. Fowles, a Moncton case, reached settlement last term, but is a formal remanet.

Stoles vs. Stoles, a St. John case, was tried at the last sitting, but an opportunity will be given further evidence.

Logan vs. Logan, which went over from the preceding term because of absence of a material witness, will be tried. The plaintiff husband lives in Fredericton, and the defendant wife in Devon.

New Cases. The cases filed since the last term are: Ernest O. Edward Macfarlane vs. Catherine Elizabeth Macfarlane—The parties belong in Moncton. The defendant before marriage was named Wiseman. The marriage took place in September, 1912, in Moncton, Rev. Geo. A. Lawson, Baptist, performing the ceremony. The petitioner sets forth that he and his wife lived together in Moncton until March, 1919, when, he says, the defendant absented herself from her home and frequented the company of objectionable persons. An agreement of separation was drawn, and they lived separate. Some time after this the husband alleges that he became aware that one James McCleave was and had been a frequent visitor at the defendant's house. Divorce is sought on the usual grounds. Geo. L. Harris is proctor.

Colman William Bannister vs. Dora Bannister—parties of Moncton. The petitioner alleges that he was married to Dora M. Marshall in Moncton in May, 1907, by Rev. H. Gratton Dockhill, Baptist. Three daughters were born in wedlock, two dying in infancy. In December, 1919, the wife left her home and lived with Charles Vanbuskirk, and she and Vanbuskirk in 1921 were arrested by the Moncton police, charged with keeping a bawdy house, and further states that the defendant is at the present time and for some time past been living with Vanbuskirk at Lewisville, in the parish of Moncton. Geo. L. Harris is proctor.

St. John Case. Mary Richardson vs. William James Richardson—The complainant alleges that as Mary Magdalen she and the defendant were married in St. John in October, 1913, by Rev. H. Archer Colquhoun, in which they lived together with the defendant's mother until 1915, when her husband enlisted in the 20th and went overseas; that on his return they set up housekeeping in Elliott Row and resided until the winter of 1920, when her husband went to New York; that in September, 1921, she visited her husband in New York, and from what she found divorce is based on the usual grounds, co-respondent being unknown. Teed & Teed are proctors.

Annie Murdoch vs. Fred Murdoch—Parties of Devon. The petitioner was formerly Annie Haslett. She alleges that in July, 1917, she was married to the defendant in Fredericton by the Rev. G. C. Warren, Baptist; that in August her husband went to Valcartier in active service; that in the spring of 1918 he was arrested and returned as a deserter; that in the fall of 1918 he was arrested and returned to his residence in Devon; that at a later period her husband deserted her and took up his residence in Fredericton with his mother, Mrs. Alice Murdoch, and his sister, Mrs. Maud Coley, and that he and one Maud Coley have been living at this home together as man and wife and that a child was born to them in August, 1922, in Victoria Hospital. The petitioner asks divorce naming said Maud Coley as co-respondent. E. Allison McKay is proctor.

Hugh J. Stairs vs. Mildred H. Stairs—The parties belong to Woodstock and were married in Montreal in November, 1913, by Rev. L. B. Gibson, Presbyterian, the defendant at the time being a nurse and now resides with her mother. The petitioner alleges that in May, 1918, his wife left him and went and lived with her parents; that in September, 1916, he enlisted with the 289th, served overseas and was honorably discharged in March, 1919. He accuses his wife of being unfaithful during his absence. One King is named as co-respondent and divorce is asked on the usual grounds. G. Earl Logan is proctor.

George Murray Casack vs. Margaret Casack—The parties are of Alward, Queens County. INSPECTING ST. JOHN INDUSTRY

British Empire Exhibition Visitors Make a Tour of Places of Interest.

Major E. A. Belcher, Colonel A. Christie and F. W. Bates, members of the British Empire Exhibition commission spent this morning in inspecting some of the city's industries and in trips to the scenic points of interest near. This afternoon they will be taken for a motor tour of the district by Premier Foster and will look over the drydock at East St. John and other interesting points.

Major Belcher spent the morning at the Simms brush factory and at the Cornwall and York cotton mills. He went through the Simms plant this morning with A. L. Foster, manager, and thoroughly inspected the factory and its products. He was accompanied from there to the cotton mill by Mr. Foster and was shown through the mill by William A. Nicholas, the manager.

In the meantime Colonel Christie and Mr. Bates went on a tour of the harbor on the tug Neptune, accompanied by Commissioner Bullock, Captain A. J. Mulcahy, port warden, R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the board of trade, and William A. Chilton, assistant harbor master. The tug went first to the Reversing Falls where the visitors were shown the water going upstream, then along the West Side piers and around to Courtney Bay where they looked over the drydock and the dredging operations. Following this the Neptune returned along the east side of the harbor past the Atlantic Sugar Refinery and the N. R. elevator at North Wharf where the party disembarked. Colonel Christie spent the remainder of the morning at the Nashwaak Pulp Paper mill where he was through the plant.

Besides the visitors, Lieutenant-Governor William A. Pugsley, local member of parliament and representatives of the press, were guests of Premier Foster at luncheon in his home this afternoon.

NO TRACE YET OF LETTER FROM THE MAGISTRATE

A real mystery has developed at City Hall in connection with a letter left there on Wednesday by Hon. R. J. Ritchie, in which he signified his desire to be retired. Neither the mayor, the mayor's clerk, nor the common clerk has seen the missive, although it was pushed in under the mayor's door by one of the staff of the chamberlain's department.

It appears that the magistrate arrived at City Hall about 6:30 o'clock, and finding nobody upstairs, handed the letter to a clerk in the chamberlain's office, asking him to deliver it to the mayor. He took the letter and pushed it under the mayor's door.

Later in the evening a charwoman, entering the mayor's office, found the letter and it is said placed it on the mayor's desk. The mayor says he did not see it; his secretary hunted high and low and failed to locate it, and nobody can be found who remembers seeing it after it left the charwoman's hands.

NEWMAN-JACOBSON. (Halifax Echo.) The marriage took place on Tuesday evening at the Hebrew Synagogue, of Miss Rose Jacobson, of Canim, and Max Newman, a brother of A. Newman, the well known Barrington street shoe merchant. The officiating Rabbi was the Reverend Levi Rabinowitz. Many friends assembled to witness the ceremony, for both bride and groom enjoy great popularity, and many and cordial were the good wishes upon the occasion of their marriage.

It was an extremely pretty wedding, the bride having as her attendants, two bridesmaids, Miss Esther Jacobson, who came from Mount Allison University, where she is pursuing her studies, to be present, and Miss Betty Newman, and two lovely little flower girls, the Misses Bertha Garson and Mary Volin.

Simon Jacobson, brother of the bride, attended as best man, the groomsmen being Samuel J. Webber and William Jacobson of St. John, and the ushers, Manuel Zive. Mrs. A. Newman was the "matron of honor."

The bride looked charming in an imported Paris gown of white satin, with white lace and pearl trimming, wearing also a coronet of white tulle, trimmed with orchids, that worn by Miss Betty Newman being of flame colored panne velvet. Both girls carried bouquets of roses and carnations. The two flower girls wore the daintiest of white silk frocks, each one carrying a basket filled with flowers.

Following the ceremony in the Synagogue, the guest, some 250 in number, proceeded to the reception room in the building, which was beautifully decorated with carnations and crysanthemums and here a delicious supper was served, after which there was dancing. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. I. Webber and Mr. and Mrs. E. Jacobson, all of St. John; Mr. and Mrs. Schuster, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Gonsky, Mr. and Mrs. M. Webber, Digby; Mrs. Rogers, Canim; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jacobson, Canim and Mr. and Mrs. Chilling, Kentville. There was a large and beautiful collection of wedding gifts.

married there in 1905 by Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, Baptist. The defendant's name was Whiston. The complainant sets forth that he is a ship steward and that in 1921 while on a voyage his wife left her residence and has not returned; that she has been unfaithful to her marriage vows. He names one Alonso Foster as co-respondent. In this case the accused through her proctor, Daniel Mullin, K. C., has filed an appearance and defence. She denies all the material allegations as to her guilt and accuses her husband of ill treatment and cruelty and of misconduct setting forth several instances of the last and naming several females as co-respondents. S. A. M. Skinner is the proctor for the plaintiff.

THRILLING NEW YORK FIRE SCENES

Working Girls Die in Factory Flames, Despite the Heroic Attempts of Firemen to Rescue Them.

New York, Nov. 4.—Three working girls died yesterday, victims of a fire which destroyed an East Thirtieth celluloid factory. Six of their companions and one man were burned or injured as they fought to escape.
One of the girls died in a hospital tonight. Firemen had carried her from the flaming building after she had been trapped in a second floor workroom. Two other victims were within inches of safety when they fell from the third story windows.

The firemen hoisted an aerial ladder near one who stood on a coping facing the street while the flames scorched her. A fireman reached her, the coping gave way and she dropped with a shriek to the sidewalk. Shouting to another to retain her grip on the sill from which she hung, firemen shifted the ladder, but before they could stretch their arms to her, she fell.
Firemen, battling the way through the flames as streams of water were played on them, effected thrilling rescues on both floors, but not until some of the workers were badly burned and overcome in desperate efforts to escape.

TOM LEE AT IRONING BOARD, DESPITE SHOT
Where is Tom Lee's bullet? Tom says he hasn't it, the doctors at the General Public couldn't find it with the aid of the X-ray and it cannot be found in Tom's shop. Thinking that Tom, though probably very weak from loss of blood and nervous strain, might be able to sit up and talk, a Times reporter located him this morning. On opening the door he was greeted by a Colonial jockey ironing shirts and inquired where Tom was.

"Mr. Tom" was the answer. When the reporter had recovered sufficiently he asked Tom to tell him about the affair. Tom related that he had been standing in a doorway leading to his back shop when the two men came. They pointed a "waller" at him and he ducked through the door but not fast enough to escape the bullet. He pointed to the bullet which had hit him. It was in the small of his back on the left hand side. He declares that the bullet did not enter his body at all, so again the question arises—"Where is the bullet?"

The means Tom carries on with the shirts and collars and leaves the mystery to those more intimately concerned. He is a large man of Chinese appearance, about forty years of age.

TURNBULL ROWE
The historical and beautiful old Parish Church of St. John the Evangelist at Sackville, N. S., was the scene of a wedding, Nov. 1, of the marriage of Gweneth Elizabeth Rowe, eldest daughter of Dr. J. T. W. Rowe, Ward's Island, New York City, and niece of the Rev. A. H. Tyers, the officiating clergyman, and Mr. Aubrey Arnold Turnbull, of Digby, N. S.

Captain Turnbull did military duty overseas and is now an electrical engineer on the staff of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., of St. John, N. B.

The bride looked charming in a gown of gray crepe-back satin, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of blush roses and maidenhair fern. She was supported by her sister, Miss Gladys Rowe, who wore a dress of beaver-brown canton crepe. Miss Dorothy Tyers in her Parisian frock, carrying a bouquet of carnations, played the role of flower girl most charmingly. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Charles R. Crowell, of Halifax. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. H. Beverill, organist of the church.

After the ceremony, the wedding party adjourned to the Rectory, where ten were served. The happy couple, after which they motored to their new home at Fairville, N. B.

The presents, consisting of cheques, cut glass and silver, were numerous.

HEALEY NOW A PROFESSIONAL
(Halifax Chronicle).
Edward "Nedder" Healey, rated as the best amateur lightweight in Canada, made a sensational debut into professional boxing circles by defeating Charlie McDonald, the fighting fireman, over a ten round bout at St. Patrick's Hall last night before a packed house. Healey showed McDonald no gloves than Charles has ever seen before and in this spite of the fact that McDonald fought one of the best bouts of his career. In fact Healey won by such a wide margin, after the second round, that there was no dissenting voice in the audience when referee "Ted" Fowler gave Healey the decision at the end of the tenth round.

Healey was substituting for Joe Irving of St. John, who withdrew from competing to meet McIntyre on November 7 at St. John, he would not come last night. This was announced and it was also announced that Nedder Healey had been secured to go on in place of Irving. When the fans learned that Healey was going on in place of Irving, they cheered heartily, and when he entered the ring he was given a great ovation, a tribute to his popularity.

A conference of representatives of disabled and ex-servicemen's associations of the Allied nations was held at Geneva.

POLITICAL RACE

Keen Contest for Governorship of New York

Observers Look for a Very Close Vote—Al Smith, One Candidate, Rose from Ranks of Newsboys; Nathan L. Miller Born on a Farm.

New York, Nov. 4.—The keen race between Governor Nathan L. Miller, who is seeking re-election on the Republican ticket, and former Governor Alfred E. Smith, his Democratic opponent, is slow in comparison to the Empire state from the point of popular interest.

The contest between William L. Calder, for re-election to the United States senate on the Republican ticket, and Health Commissioner Royal S. Copeland of New York, the Democratic nominee, is slow in comparison to the race set in the Miller-Smith encounter.

The struggle between Governor Miller and Mr. Smith is a continuation of the contest two years ago, when the governor was swept into office by the Republican presidential landslide, over Mr. Smith.

In the last two years the governor has made in the eyes of his friends and the Republican state has ever had, though it came time for the party, but he is a possible candidate for president two years hence.

Mr. Smith went into political retirement after almost a life time in public life, and entered business. Some said he was through with politics, but when it came time for the party conventions in September the lure of the game overpowered him and he became a candidate.

At the state convention in Syracuse William Randolph Hearst, the publisher of the New York Journal, fought his best fight for the governorship, Mr. Smith, who did not conceal his dislike for Mr. Hearst, though his denials were made, the battle never reached the floor of the convention, for Mr. Hearst announced that he was not a candidate, and Mr. Smith was nominated unanimously.

Governor Miller started a campaign tour up-state and trained his big guns on Mr. Smith's record as Governor, meanwhile claiming for himself economies in administration, through the reorganization of many departments. Mr. Smith picked up the trail soon afterwards and fired back broadsides at the governor's charges.

Mr. Smith's campaign was characterized by the slogan "hang power." Both being seasoned campaigners and able speakers, the state resounded with claims and counter-claims.

Notwithstanding the usual claims of victory by both sides, it is held by unbiased observers that the race for the governorship probably will be very close, with much splitting of both tickets.

Mr. Smith, who was born in the lower East side in New York under the shadow of Brooklyn Bridge, is affectionately known to most everyone as "Al." He rose from newsboy and a worker in the old Fulton fish market to the governor's chair. He still lives in his old home, in a district now populated by many of the foreign-born.

Politics attracted him early in life and he became an active worker in Tammany Hall. His rise in the world of politics came when he was elected to the Assembly at Albany, after holding a clerkship in the office of Commissioner of Justice, when he became Democratic leader and finally Speaker in the Assembly, later being elected President of the Board of Aldermen of New York City, in addition to other municipal and county offices.

State government is his hobby, and new men in this state are considered better informed. At the State Constitutional convention to which he was elected by a plurality of more than 300,000, notwithstanding the fact that President Harding carried these same boroughs by more than 400,000. The unsharpened teeth of the party, however, rolled up a big vote and offset Mr. Smith's majority in Greater New York. Governor Miller winning by about 74,000.

Governor Miller, whose home is in Syracuse, was, like his opponent, born in humble surroundings on a farm in Solon, Corland County. He is a lawyer, and a good deal of his life was spent on the bench. He was a justice of the State Supreme Court for ten years; an associate justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court for eight years, and an associate justice of the Court of Appeals.

He was State Comptroller in 1902-03. He is a delegate to the Republican national convention that nominated President Harding.

As Governor he especially devoted himself to a study of finances, and claimed to have stopped the "alarming increase in the cost of government." He cut off budget requests amounting to millions of dollars.

He stirred up the antagonism of Mayor Hylan of New York by appointing a Commission to inquire into the transit situation in New York City. Mayor Hylan made this one of his issues in his successful mayoralty campaign a year ago, asserting among other things that the Mayor was usurping the "Home Rule" right of municipalities.

Sharing interest with the inter-sectional contests will be a battle at the Polo Grounds between Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson.

THE JORDAN MILL FIRE

H. W. Frink, who has been appointed to adjust the loss sustained in the recent disastrous fire, which destroyed Stetson, Cutler and Company's mill at Pleasant Point in addition to approximately two million feet of manufactured lumber, expects to start adjusting the loss next week.

Provincial Fire Marshal Hugh H. McEllan announced this morning that the fire is now entirely out and there is no danger of any further outbreaks. He is satisfied that one million feet, at least, of manufactured lumber was saved in Stetson, Cutler and Company's yard, as well as the J. E. Moore and Co., mill and approximately two million feet of lumber, due to the efforts made to extinguish the fire and keep it from spreading. He pays tribute to the assistance rendered by the city fire fighting apparatus and the untiring efforts of Chief Blake and his men. He said they continued to fight the fire, under most trying conditions, until their water supply became exhausted.

EVEN INDIA IS REPRESENTED

Remarkable List of Speakers at Convention in Toronto This Month

November 24-29—A Dozen Countries to Have Delegates—Foster, Lemieux, Rowell, Drury, Father Minahan and Others to Speak for Canada.

At no convention in Canada has there been such a notable list of speakers representing many different countries as announced for the convention in Toronto, for five days, Nov. 24-29, of the World League Against Alcoholism. This League was organized in Washington in 1919, and arranged to have a convention every three years. During the sessions of the organizing convention, representatives were present officially or otherwise, from the United States, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, France, Switzerland, Italy, Hungary, Australia, New Zealand, several localities in Africa, including Northern Africa, South Africa, Sierra Leone and the Belgian Congo, the Balkan States, China, Siam, Mexico, South America and Cuba.

Since the organization of the World League the anti-saloon forces have been compelled strongly to press the programme of law enforcement in America. Temperance organizations in other countries have been trying to get on their feet and the three years that have elapsed have been years of post-war reconstruction. However, a great deal has been accomplished. W. E. "Pussy-foot" Johnson went to England, Northern Europe and India and is now in a prohibition campaign in New Zealand. Dr. David Ostlund was sent to Sweden where he is now directing temperance activities and also giving attention to work in other countries of Northern Europe. Dr. Howard H. Russell, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., the late Doctor John G. Woolley, Dr. H. B. Carr, Rev. E. J. Moore, Ph. D., Doctor D. M. Gaudier, Rev. Ben H. Spence, Miss Anna Gordon, Miss Cora Frances Stoddard, Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingstone, Mr. Harry S. Warner, Miss E. Green and others, have been abroad in the interest of International Prohibition. It is expected that the Toronto convention will make large plans for carrying on the international work. Temperance organizations in sympathy with the world movement against alcoholism, churches, young people's organizations, Sunday schools and the like are invited to send delegates to the convention.

All individuals in sympathy with the world prohibition programme are also invited to attend the convention as individuals, whether they represent organizations or not. All persons expecting to go as organization or individual delegates should notify Dr. Ernest H. Cherrington, General Secretary, Westerville, Ohio, or Rev. Ben H. Spence, 24 Bloor St. East, Toronto, Canada.

Noted Speakers Promised. It is announced that the following are some of the speakers who will be on the convention programme:

Dr. C. W. Saleby, London, England, physician, scientist, former government official; Right Hon. Lef J. Jones, M. D., chairman Temperance Commission of Southern Baptist Convention; Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Temperance Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church; W. J. Allison, Glasgow, secretary of the National Temperance Council of Scotland and member of the Executive Committee of the World League Against Alcoholism; George B. Wilson, B. A. D., assistant general superintendent of the Antislavery League; and Mrs. Cora Gordon, Dominion secretary of the W. C. T. U. This is only a partial list of the speakers.

The great work of women as pioneers in the temperance reform movement will be recognized at the convention. The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold its national and world meetings at Philadelphia, which meetings will close in time for the delegates to go to Toronto. A majority of the W. C. T. U. delegates will attend the World League meeting. Miss Gordon is on the programme of World League Speakers. A number of other women are also scheduled, among them Miss Cora Frances Stoddard, Boston, executive secretary of the scientific Temperance Federation, and Miss Mary Jane Campbell, Lucknow, India, a United Presbyterian missionary who has been loaned to the W. C. T. U. in India for five years as organization secretary. The holding of these several conventions at Philadelphia and Toronto, so close together both as to time and

FLASK ON HONEYMOON BROUGHT $200 FINE. Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 3—Alfred Potvin, of Montreal, while motoring through the city on his honeymoon had a little experience with the O. T. A. that added $200 to his expense account. He was transferring a flask of whiskey from a suitcase to a sweater coat when Constable Sydnall saw him. As the car was filled with suitcases the constable took him to police headquarters on the belief that he had made a big liquor haul. Only the one flask was found. A charge of violating the O. T. A. was made and Mr. Potvin put in $200 bail as he did not wish to have his trip delayed. This morning Magistrate Jeffs ordered the $200 be seized to pay the fine he imposed.

Rich Cream for the millionaire's table and for all who enjoy real thick cream

AMONG the first to use Keepsweet Cream were some of the richest people in Toronto—people who could afford to buy the finest, richest cream, regardless of price. For years they've wanted a cream like Keepsweet—a cream so thick and rich and full-flavored that it is comparable only to the famous Devonshire Cream of Old England. And so they bought Keepsweet Table Cream and found it wonderful! It was a real coffee cream—Delicious on cereals and puddings—A treat with deep apple pie—Glorious on sliced peaches—And surprisingly cheap.

Keepsweet Milk The Safe Milk. Keepsweet Milk is sweet, fresh cows' milk, sterilized by the same process as Keepsweet Cream. It is whole milk. Not skimmed. Not diluted. The safe milk for children, for everybody.

A Great Success. Soon the news of Keepsweet Cream spread all over Toronto. Then to other cities and towns. In record-breaking time, there was a demand for Keepsweet Cream from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Keepsweet is the cream everybody has wanted for years. Keepsweet is real cream, skimmed from fresh, sweet milk from selected dairy farms. Nothing is added. Nothing is taken away. It is sterilized by the Keepsweet process and will keep sweet, pure and fresh in the tins for months. COUNCIL ENDORSES HOSPITAL MATTER

Bond Issue for Outdoor Department Authorized—A Warm Discussion Over Lancaster Matters—Criticism of Assessment.

At a special meeting of the county council yesterday afternoon and evening considerable business was got through. The monotony was varied at frequent intervals by thrust and counter thrust on the part of the Lancaster councillors.

The committee reported that they had considered a petition from residents of East St. John regarding the construction of sewers and the extension of water mains in the parish of Simonds.

Through Councilor Magee the councillors recommended that an area be set apart as a sewerage district and that a public works department be established.

Councilor Mother said that about two years ago the cost was estimated at $51,000, and he understood it would be lower now.

A section recommending that plans for the rearrangement of the west wing of the General Public Hospital for an out-patient department at an estimated cost of $13,700 and architect's fees, be approved was considered.

After some discussion the work was passed. Referring to hospital matters, Councilor Frink said that at the finance committee meeting when the superintendent of the hospital informed the members that 640 cases of venereal disease had been treated last year, and between January 1 and October 31 of this year the number had jumped to 1,800 cases.

He hoped that the next year the number would be a good deal less. As a comparison, he quoted figures from the Massachusetts state hospital which showed only 846 cases treated in 1921.

He said that there should be some means of dealing with such cases. "We quarantine measles and scarletina," he said, "why not these people? There should be a full and complete hospital, a shack is good enough for them."

At the request of M. E. Agr, chairman of the hospital board, Hon. Dr. Roberts, minister of health, was heard in this connection.

Dr. Roberts said that the outdoor department would relieve the congestion in the main building and would give three more rooms on the upper floor for further accommodation. It would also provide for the treatment of patients by X-ray, and would be ready to receive patients in charge of the X-ray department, had more than paid his own way.

Regarding venereal cases, Dr. Roberts pointed out that the disease was not communicable like smallpox and similar diseases, and under the present public health administration nobody was exposed to the infection while treatment in the hospital was being given.

He said that the outdoor department would make the disease more easy to handle. He believed that the figures quoted were of the number of treatments, rather than patients. There were 640 patients who received 2,100 treatments last year.

The next recommendation of the committee was that, before any further contemplated capital expenditures were made at the hospital, the assessors be requested to make a preliminary estimate of the approximate estimate of that expenditure.

The recommendation carried without discussion. The first runnings of impending storm followed a recommendation regarding Lancaster sewers. The committee recommended that the bond issue for sewerage extension in Lancaster, amounting to $5,000, be increased to $7,000.

Section 9, referring to the payment of account to H. A. Porter, coroner, was adopted.

And a passage of arms resulted consideration of the next section. It recommended that bonds be issued at an amounting to $30,000, twenty years at 6 1/2 per cent, and there be deducted from them any amount due the city in the expenditure for fire hydrants in Lancaster and that the interest on the sinking fund be assessed on first district No. 1, Lancaster.

Councilor O'Brien said that this was not within the power of the council as the act called for assessment by the whole parish. He said that the valuations of No. 1 and No. 2 districts were each about $1,000,000 and if No. 1 defaulted the burden would come on the rest of the parish.

He moved that action be deferred until the next meeting of the council to give the people an opportunity to express their opinion by plebiscite; until a report had been made as to what arrangements could be made between the city and Beausfield regarding fire protection; and until the fire underwriters declared what style of equipment was the best for the district.

On suggestion of Commissioner Bullock the matter went over to the evening session.

The last section, calling for the following payments, was passed: Rentals, $125; registry office, $50; marshals fees, $40; witness fees, $1,000; housing allowance, $2,000, due in 1921, paid in 1922, but not on any assessments.

On motion of Councilor Frink the council agreed to promote legislation to exempt from rates and taxes a property to be acquired by the city for a playground for West St. John. The Lancaster commissioners all expressed approval.

Assessors' bills of $155.26 for Musquodouit and $945.78 for Simonds were ordered paid.

When the council reconvened in the evening the first matter taken up was the resignation of the county housing board. Councilor Bullock said that the board was not functioning, the matter might as well be disposed of, and he would therefore move that the resignation of the members be accepted.

His motion was seconded by Councilor Frink.

Councilor Campbell moved, as an amendment to Councilor Bullock's motion, that the board be asked to render an account for the $7,000 with receipts. Councilor Shanklin seconded this.

Mr. Kelley presented a statement from the Eastern Trust Company, showing a credit balance of $2,350.98 as of Oct. 31, 1922. There was a balance of $1,200 in real estate. A detailed statement of arrears followed. In conclusion, the company asked that the arrangement be made whereby authority would be granted to the company to sell the property of the housing board if the payments were not made.

The total credit shown by the company was $5,299.42 and the total debit was $2,948.44, leaving a credit balance of $2,350.98.

Finally an amendment put by Councilor Campbell and seconded by Councilor Shanklin was carried, whereby the resignation of the county housing board be accepted, providing they make full return of all cash on hand and a full and complete statement of receipts and expenditures, the same to be to the satisfaction of the warden and county secretary.

Councilor Bullock then moved the following resolution: "That the communication of the Eastern Trust Company received on the 21st of October, 1922, be received; and whereas, the resignation of the county housing board has been accepted provisionally."

"Resolved, that the agreement with the Eastern Trust Company be accepted, to permit the said company to act in the stead of the housing board and directly with the municipality."

"And further resolved, that the Eastern Trust Company as agents be authorized to carry out any proceeding as set forth in the mortgages and agreements of sale under the purport of the agreement with the municipality."

"And further resolved, that the trust company be represented at the committee of the municipality when notified that a full and detailed report be presented at each regular session of the council by the Eastern Trust Company."

The motion was carried. A motion that bills incurred in connection with the operation of the housing board be paid if found correct by the finance committee, was passed.

INVESTIGATION IN SWIMMING CASE CONCLUDED

Executioner will be Heard Later if He Appears—Addresses by Counsel Heard.

The inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the execution of Benny Swin in Woodstock on October 6 was concluded yesterday and adjournment made. Doyle, the executioner, who had telegraphed his intention to testify at the inquiry did not appear, and Commissioner J. B. Dickson announced that if he appeared later his evidence would be taken at Fredericton.

The commissioner also said that he would present his report to the provincial government at the next meeting. Addresses were delivered by T. C. L. Ketchum, representing the Canadian Prisoners' Welfare League, and Hon. W. P. Jones, appearing for Sheriff Albert R. Foster. Both advocated the carrying out of the death penalty by trained men. S. Lynott and Owen Kelly, the latter chief of police, testified that there had been no disturbance around the jail and that the execution had proceeded with Doyle on Thursday evening and found him perfectly sober.

"A man of tender heart, the hanging of Benny Swin had greatly bothered him and caused him considerable grief," said Mr. Ketchum, declared in his opening remarks at the afternoon session. The evidence presented clearly showed that no reflection could be cast on Sheriff Foster, who was under the impression that the Canadian Prisoners' Welfare League, declared in his opening remarks at the afternoon session. The evidence presented clearly showed that no reflection could be cast on Sheriff Foster, who was under the impression that the Canadian Prisoners' Welfare League, declared in his opening remarks at the afternoon session.

Concerning the C. J. W. L., Mr. Ketchum explained that at its head was Robert Bickelke, former M. P. of Montreal, a man who had insisted on the abolition of capital punishment in the dominion. The members of the league, he declared, held Mr. Bickelke's views and in addition to the abolition of capital punishment, they were in favor of the welfare of all prisoners insofar as it was able to do so.

"Of course, some of the alcohol was used for making toilet preparations," said Joseph C. Breitenstein, assistant United States attorney.

Ask for Minsard's and take no other. NEW INVENTION INSURES SECRECY OF WIRELESS

Frenchman's Invention Can Also Be Applied to the Ordinary Telephone.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The first perfection of apparatus for insuring the secrecy of wireless messages was made yesterday by a French electrical engineer, Edouard Bella, inventor of an instrument for transmitting photographs by wireless.

The apparatus is called "radio-cryptotele-stereophone," or "crypto-tele-stereophone." It is used for wireless or the ordinary telephone. The instrument is unlike any other known in the world. It resembles in principle a modern safety lock. Sending and receiving instruments consist of two concentric discs, each of which is perfectly synchronized.

The discs each contain a notch and can be moved at an angle in relation to each other. A lever falling into the disc causes rotation of the cylinders and values given by the cipher are reproduced in the message, which is received according to a code analogous to Morse, but is reproduced in letters and figures.

To keep listeners in from deciphering the message, the sender is given a simple arrangement is added whereby false signals, which do not affect the cipher, but which are not received by outsiders from real messages, are being constantly sent when the instrument is not in use.

PRINCE OF WALES MAKES EASTON GREY POPULAR

London, Oct. 16.—(Associated Press, Mail).—When the Prince of Wales took up his residence at Easton Grey, the country estate which he has leased for the hunting season, he was followed by scores of persons who had succeeded in securing other property in the vicinity.

The announcement that the prince would hunt at Easton Grey was followed by a rush to this lonely section, and houses and estates which have been vacant for years will again be the scenes of house parties and festivities.

Precautions have been taken, however, to allow the prince and his party to be executed from the estate. So far no invitation has been made to the prince to visit the estate, and he will try to make his stay as unobtrusive as possible. The prince is expected to visit the estate in the next few days.

FOR LABRADOR MISSION.

The executive of the St. John branch of the Labrador Mission met yesterday afternoon at the residence of the president, Mrs. W. A. Harrison, German street, and made plans for the tea and sale which will be held this month to raise funds for the work of the mission. The meeting was largely attended and all of the denominations of the town were represented. It was decided to hold the tea and sale in St. John's (Stone) church school room, as was done last year and to have some articles made in Labrador on exhibition and for sale. The St. John branch intends carrying on its work along the same lines as was done last year and will ship a bale of clothing to the Grenfell missions in Labrador in the spring. An endeavor will be made to interest more people in the work of the mission. The tea and sale, it is hoped, will furnish funds for commencing the season's work of sewing.

EDUCATION IS INADEQUATE

From 80 to 90 Per Cent of Children are Through at 14 Years—Vocational Training Needed.

(Ottawa Journal).

The necessity of extending the period of training of children was stressed by Dr. F. W. Mercer, director of the process of education for Ontario, in his presidential address yesterday morning in the Normal School before the Canadian Educational Association.

Technical education could scarcely be said to be well advanced in children fourteen years of age, he remarked, and the investment made in providing elementary education, education must be of educational equipment for the period of adolescence.

From 80 to 90 per cent of boys and girls had finished their education in elementary schools at fourteen years, an education inadequate either as preparation for citizenship or as preparation for a life career. The report of the Toronto Juvenile Court had proven that 80 per cent of a year's delinquents were fourteen or fifteen years of age. The inference was that a proper adjustment of freedom, guidance and control was necessary to normal growth.

Present Training Not Enough.

The problem of the betterment of humanity was essentially an educational problem, and the vast mass and purposes of life did not begin to take shape until the period of adolescence. The training both in the home and in the school should be extended into adolescence, the school should aid in the preparation and choice of a life career.

Help Choose Career.

Every individual should have a vocation. There is no place for the idler. Social service and the making of a living should not be separated. Vocational instruction in some form is necessary to every youth, and much of it must be given during adolescence.

If criticism leveled at them resulted from a failure to realize the actual possibilities of education within the limits of the present system, a considerable body of public opinion would be necessary of existing training for any but those of marked ability.

"Would it not appear that those whose intelligences are slow in development are the very ones who need extended course? It is a question whether in the interests of society those of low intelligence should not be under contract throughout life? Mr. Merchant agreed that those of high intelligence should have specialized training.

Schools should furnish a knowledge of trades and professions, their character and social value, opportunities and qualifications, and all related subjects to aid youth in choosing a vocation. A bureau might well be formed to supply such information.

INDICATIONS OF SUICIDE.

Skeleton of Man Found With Shooting Around Neck.

Sudbury, Ont., Nov. 4.—What appears to have been a deliberate case of suicide about fifteen months ago came to light when a farmer named Hampton discovered the skeleton of a man in the bush near Long Lake.

The provincial police believed it is the body of John Tutin, a widower, who previously lived at Copper Cliff, Tutin at the time was despondent and had come out from Copper Cliff to the Long Island section looking for work. He had only eighty cents in his pocket at the time. The eighty cents was found in one of the pockets of his clothing.

The skeleton was found with the head suspended from a small poplar tree by a shoestring. The body was prone on the ground, indicating the Tutin had lain down and committed suicide by slow strangulation.

PROPOSE A HOME FOR AGED MEN

The St. John Branch and the City Union of the King's Daughters met yesterday in the Guild with Mrs. W. H. Robinson presiding. Some consideration was given to a proposal to establish a home for aged men and the matter was set over to a special meeting next week. Plans were made for the semi-annual meeting this month and convensors were appointed as follows:—Programme committee, Mrs. H. W. Robertson; reception committee, Mrs. D. W. Puddington; refreshment committee, Mrs. R. E. Plumpton. The meeting voted the sum of $25 for the Free Kindergarten Association.

STEEL WORKERS IN CAMPAIGN FOR MORE STRENGTH

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 4.—As their first move in a campaign for more complete and effective organization, the steel workers of Cape Breton have elected Foreman Ways, M. P. E., of Sydney, Mines, permanent secretary, the chief executive officer in the union. Mr. Ways said the future policy of the union would be to make the membership as near one hundred per cent, strong as possible, to press for recognition by the steel companies, and to secure further wage increases to meet the cost of living.

BOY CONFESSES BRUTAL MURDER

Beat Old Man to Death and Stole Bills of Large Denominations and Bag of Gold.

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Emer Washburn, aged fourteen, is being held in the Susquehanna County Jail at Montrose, Pa., charged with the murder of Cyrus Payne, seventy-five-year-old recluse, whose body was found on Sunday in his cabin at Brushville.

State troopers investigating the supposed murder called Washburn from his classes in school today and invited him to take an automobile ride. They said they showed him the stock of a rifle found hidden in the attic of the Washburn home and said to fit the barrel of a gun with which the old man is believed to have been beaten to death.

Washburn broke down, the trooper said tonight, and made a complete confession, later leading the authorities to a woodshed where he said he had hidden money taken from the home of the murdered man. One bill of $1,000 denomination, another of $500, three of $100, eight $50 bills, nine $20 bills and two $10 bills were found in the cache, the troopers declared, with a bag containing $92 in gold and some old coins.

It was learned that Washburn had formed a close friendship with the aged recluse and often visited him in his cabin. The old man occasionally showed the boy his hoarded gold and the authorities advanced the theory that the tempting sight of the money was too much for the youth, who wanted it for himself.

In his confession Washburn said, according to the troopers, that he had planned the murder carefully, entering the hut silently and striking the old man from behind as he sat at his table. "There are any number of ways I might have killed him," the boy informed them, the troopers said. "Why I could have put poison in his pan-cakes."

GREAT THEFT LOSSES.

French Railways Paid Huge Indemnity in Three Years.

Paris, Nov. 4.—French railroads in the past three years have paid a total of $98,500,000 francs indemnity for merchandise stolen in stations and transit, lost or deteriorated, it has been announced. All but a few millions of this sum—which is considerably greater than the budget voted for France's army this year—covered the work of railroad robbers.

The figures explain the legislation passed by parliament last month increasing greatly the penalties of this type of theft and providing in extreme cases the penalty of hard labor for life.

The highest indemnity last year totaled 36,600,000 francs, paid by the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean, while the state railroads were forced to reimburse shippers to the extent of 42,000,000 francs. The lowest loss last year was that of the Railway Alliance of Lorraine, which approximated 5,000,000 francs.

NEGRESS SOLD DAUGHTER.

Girl Found Bound to Pennsylvania Railroad Track.

Cleatfield, Pa., Nov. 4.—Nora Moore, a seventeen-year-old negro girl, from Philadelphia, who was found tied to the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks near Woodland late at night, recovered consciousness and told the authorities that her mother had sold her to a white man who brought her to Cleatfield. "He gave me something to drink—and that's all I remember," said the girl. The girl told the sheriff she did not know the man's name.

Frank Gilliland found the unconscious girl on the track a few minutes before the Pennsylvania passenger train was due to pass. Gilliland declared that the victim's legs and arms were bound and that the ropes were attached to the rails.

HAS A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT WITH 'PACK OF WOLVES'

Sudbury Man Says Animals Attacked Him in Large Numbers.

Sudbury, Ont., Nov. 4.—While hunting in McCarty township last week, John Surget of Sudbury had a life-and-death fight with a pack of wolves.

About three o'clock last Wednesday afternoon Surget wounded a fine big buck, which bolted into a swamp after being shot. He trailed it for about two hours without success and was retracing his steps towards camp.

Once or twice, he said, he thought he was being trailed by a wolf, for he heard the twigs snapping at intervals. He sat down on a log to light a cigarette, when a big female wolf crossed in front of him. Apparently she was teaching her young to hunt, as they were trailing her. Surget levelled his gun on the big animal, catching her on the shoulder. She set up a terrible howl, and within a few minutes there were wolves coming from every direction.

One of them he shot from five feet range. Surget used thirty shells and while three of the animals dropped in their tracks, he is satisfied that many more have bitten the dust by this time, because he had undoubtedly wounded many of them.

Surget says he does not want an experience like it again for a while. He does not believe a real concerted attack was made upon him by the wolves. Nevertheless, if he had not stood his ground and given them battle there is no telling what might have happened.

CALLS FATIGUE A DISEASE.

Chicago Physician Holds It Is Due to an "Accumulation of Toxin."

Peroria, Ill., Nov. 4.—Advancing a new theory, contrary to most previous beliefs concerning chronic fatigue, Dr. Edward H. Ochsner, Chicago, president elect of the Illinois State Medical Society, in an address at the "Medical Association convention recently, defined the "tired business man" as suffering from "accumulation of fatigue material or toxin."

"The disease," he said, "is a condition particularly liable to affect hard-working successful business men at an age just when they are most needed in a growing business. The sloven, the lazeard, the phlegmatic and the weak-willed are rarely ever affected. Rest, while important, serves only to check the accumulation of fatigue."

An important surgical discovery was introduced in an address by Dr. John T. Finney, head of the department of surgery of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. The new theory involved a new method of connecting the intestine to the stomach in an operation for disorders of that organ.

WAS GUEST OF BADEN POWELL

Quebec Man Tells of Course of 600,000 Scouts

Wonderful Sight, Says Lt. Col. W. Wood on Return from England—His Observations on Politics—Fur Trade Centre Returning to London.

Quebec, Nov. 4.—The Canadian Pacific 14,000-ton steamer Melita from Antwerp, Southampton and Cherbourg in command of Capt. G. Hamilton with 634 passengers, docked at Quebec, at one o'clock yesterday afternoon and left for Montreal at four o'clock.

The third class passengers included 112 officers and 1000 Scouts of the United States. The rest were British destined for the west, including sixty house servants, forty of whom were booked for Toronto and twenty for Winnipeg.

Among the passengers were: Lt. Col. W. Wood of Quebec, author and writer on military and naval matters. He was a guest of Baden Powell while in England and was present at a rally of Boy Scouts to the number of 60,000 held at Alexander Palace and reviewed by the Prince of Wales. He said it was a most inspiring sight. These boys gathered from all points of the empire included Cubs of nine years of age to boys of nineteen. He said he would never forget the sight of those 60,000 well-trained young lads. Boy Scout Mar of Aberdeen, Scotland, who went with Shackleton on the cruise to the South Pole, was at the Hudson and ran up and broke out the royal standard amidst enthusiastic shouts from the others.

Colonel Wood said he was in England at the time of the political split and mixed with all political parties. He lunched in the Reform Club, dined in the Devonshire Club, and supper with the die hards. He said there was great excitement in London on the night of the split. The "pubs" were simply crowded and there was no other conversation but that of the election.

He also had the pleasure of meeting the governors and directors of the Hudson Bay Co. and visited their headquarters in London. He learned that the fur trade of the world was again being centred in London. At two morning sales 700,000 pounds were realized on furs. The Hudson Company was now engaged in extending its field of operations and a programme of development was of considerable interest and no doubt later their activities in this direction would be announced.

New York, Nov. 4.—A sentence of six months in the workhouse was imposed upon Max Moral of 840 Powell street, Brooklyn, in special sessions, Brooklyn, for throwing into a can of milk a piece of paper which hastened its souring.

Justice Salmon told Moral that he had earned the severest punishment because it damaged a food used by babies and the sick. Moral found the can in front of a grocery at 409 Howland avenue, Brooklyn, and put the paper in because the grocer there would not buy milk from the concern for which Moral worked.

According to the police, the aged woman had piled a quantity of wood shavings in the centre of the stone floor of her kitchen, poured oil over the wood, and, after saturating her own clothes, reclined upon the pile and touched a match to it.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. government and thirty-five leading universities and found to be superior to ten ordinary lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns ninety-four per cent air and six per cent common kerosene (coal-oil).

The inventor, O. K. Johnson, 248 Craig street, west, Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on ten days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

WHEN an insurance agent asks you to sign an application he is doing you a greater service than he does himself.

When you sign the application you do a greater service for those you love than you do for yourself.

Life insurance is the expression of love after death. Let the Prudential service man tell you about plans and rates.
