More Violence, With Several Deaths—The Possibility of Walkouts by Some Maintenance of Way Employes—Canadian Board Meets.

(Canadian Press) Chicago, Aug. 11—Serious threats to traffic by refusal of trainmen to move trains at points where troops are on guard, renewed outbreaks of violence resulting in several deaths and the possibility of walkouts by maintenance of way employes in some lines were reported as railroad heads and union leaders gathered for conference today to consider separately President Harding's proposal for ending the strike.

Members of the "Big Four" transportation brotherhoods, upon whom main movement depends, were authorized by their chiefs to suspend work if they consider strike conditions and the presence of soldiers at terminals and junction points "unbearable."

Western divisions of the Atchafalaya, Toluca and Santa Fe were threatened with a tie up of transcontinental trains by refusal of engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen to operate trains while troops were stationed along the line where outbreaks occurred earlier in the strike.

New York, Aug. 11—A strike ballot was ordered taken last night by General Chairman Lavelle of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers and Station Employes of the Delaware Lackawanna and Western Railroad. It was announced that 5,000 or more employes are concerned.

He said the vote had been ordered on the alleged failure of the Lackawanna officials to recognize the union, the road's continued policy of letting out contract labor, and its failure to live up to the wage decision of the railroad labor board affecting freight handlers.

Chicago, Aug. 11—B. P. Greer, vice president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, announced yesterday following a conference with J. C. Smoot, vice president of the Maintenance of Way Union, that the controversy with the 600 maintenance of way men on the road had been settled "satisfactorily and there would be no strike."

Non-Union Men Killed. Cleveland, Aug. 11—Two non-union employes of the Erie Central in its Collinwood roundhouse were shot and killed last night. They had been standing on a street car platform when a third man, according to the police, when the latter suddenly drew a revolver and began shooting. The assailant escaped. An Agreement.

Boston, Aug. 11—It is announced that clerks, freight handlers and station men in the employ of the Boston and Maine Railroad reached an agreement with the railroad management yesterday on working conditions.

A strike vote was taken recently by these employes. A new agreement, which is to become effective on next Monday, will be signed today. According to its terms, the Saturday half holiday and certain vacation and sick leave privileges which the men say they enjoyed prior to recent rulings of the railroad labor board, are restored. The workers demand for a general wage increase of nine cents an hour was referred to the labor board.

The I. C. R. Montreal, Aug. 11—At a meeting of the Board of Conciliation in connection with the dispute between the railways of Canada and the shippers yesterday, J. Talbot, president of the board, asked the board to rule on the action of the Intercolonial Railway in paying reduced wages before the hearing of the conciliation board had been made. He said this was in violation of the law.

Alex Smith, K. C., chairman of the board, said that evidence to support the charge would not be submitted and that meantime the board would continue with the hearing of the general reference of the proposed reduction in shippers' wages.

Mr. Talbot pressed the point and finally the board adjourned until today. Executives of the Grand Trunk, Canadian National and C. P. R. made a jointly signed statement on the issue between the companies and the shippers over the question of wage cuts made prior to the finding of the board conciliation. The statement is in answer to the minister of railway's communication on the subject.

SOME RAIN HELPS KEEP DOWN B. C. FOREST FIRES Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 11—The fire situation throughout British Columbia has been greatly eased by rain in the lower mainland and on Vancouver Island during the last two days. The rainfall, while not heavy, has dampened the fires considerably. One hundred forest fires are still burning on Vancouver Island and the lower mainland and fifty-two new fires are reported, according to a statement by Chief Forester P. Caverhill. Altogether there have been 1,733 forest fires in this province this season.

AIRSHIP DIVES TO STREET; TWO MEN ARE KILLED Chicago, Aug. 11—Edward Schille, widely known automobile race driver, and R. J. Keller, former aviator and automobile man, were killed last night when an airplane piloted by Keller plunged into the streets of New York, about thirty miles from Chicago.

NO MORE FINES ALLOWED TO STAND Magistrate Deals With Traffic Cases and Makes Announcement. Douglas avenue speeding cases again occupied the attention of the police court this morning. Harold Mayes was charged with speeding on August 7 and pleaded not guilty. Policeman McBrien said that automobile number 9-107 had passed along the avenue at about twenty miles an hour. Questioned by Mr. Mayes, he said the car should take forty-four and a half seconds to travel the 450 feet he had staked off. Mr. Mayes claimed that this would be a speed of about seven miles an hour instead of twelve as the law allowed and that the 450 could be traveled in 20.58 seconds. The magistrate suggested that if Mr. Mayes would bring an expert to prove his contention he would postpone the case. It was set for Monday morning at eleven o'clock.

A case against W. G. Conway, reported on a like charge was set over to a like time. A case against a man named Mr. Conway had been traveling eighteen miles an hour. F. W. Bilzard was reported for going eighteen miles an hour. His chauffeur, Lloyd Allen, explained that Miss Bilzard had been taken ill and that he was hurrying for Dr. Chipman. The case was postponed for future hearing.

Abraham Levine was charged with going eighteen miles an hour. He said he might have been going fifteen. He was fined $10 and the fine allowed to stand. During the hearing of this case, Policeman McBrien remarked, while on the stand, that a man had pleaded guilty the other day before the magistrate and had not been convicted, this man would not be convicted either. This prompted the magistrate to make some rather pointed remarks about the duties of policemen.

J. E. Beyer was charged with going from twenty to twenty-five miles an hour. He said he did not think he had been going at that rate but might have been going fifteen. He was fined $10 and the fine allowed to stand.

When a charge of driving past a standing street car from which passengers were alighting was read to M. T. Morley, he asked the section of the by-law dealing with this, which was done. He subjected Policeman McBrien to a rather grueling cross-examination in which he attempted to establish that in driving past the car he had not endangered life or limb. Oscar Price presented the same defense, saying that he had passed the car before it came to a stop. A fine of $10 was imposed in each case and allowed to stand.

James Craigie and P. Barnes were again before the court, their cases having been postponed from earlier in the week. Charges were for speeding in Douglas avenue, reported by Policeman McBrien, and fines of $10 were imposed in each case and allowed to stand.

During the hearing of the cases this morning the magistrate announced that he was all through allowing fines to stand.

KEEN CONTESTS ON ROTHESAY COURTS TODAY Nine Events This Morning in New Brunswick Tournament. Nine events were run off in the New Brunswick tennis tournament at Rothesay this morning. SIR ADAM BECK FLEES MURRAY Says Latter's Report on Hydro Grossly Misleading and Worthless. Toronto, Aug. 11.—A reply to the criticism of the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission, which has gained wide circulation in Canada and the U. S., through the agency of the Murray report, is contained in a "refutation of unjust statements," which the commission has issued.

The Murray report was a voluminous document prepared by Messrs. Murray & Flood, former engineers of the National Light Association. It purported to be a comparison, the report states, based on an "exhaustive study" of the project between government owned and privately controlled electrical enterprises. Its substance, however, was regarded as friends of public ownership as little less than an endeavor to discredit the hydro project.

Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission, has a lengthy foreword to the "refutation." He says, in part: "Mr. Murray has made definite statements purporting to be true, but which are in fact grossly misleading. He has misrepresented significant facts therein and has made statements respecting even physical facts within his knowledge, and he has made comparisons between enterprises radically different, when even a proper recognition of the real differences would have created an impression entirely at variance with what he has reported. He has inflated costs in a manner which falsifies the conclusions. Such procedure is characteristic of the use made of much of the essential material embodied in the premises which Mr. Murray has adduced and upon which he has based his conclusions. His accounts for the worthless nature of such conclusions."

(Canadian Press Cable) Brussels, Aug. 11.—According to information received from London this morning an agreement here virtually been reached on the four main points of the reparations controversy and a general accord is now anticipated, says the French semi-official Havas Agency. It adds that the impression in London is decidedly optimistic and talk of a split has ceased.

London, Aug. 11.—Uncertainty as to whether today's official session of reparations conference here would result in a reconciliation of the French and British viewpoints sufficient to produce a working agreement prevailed as the delegates prepared for the meeting. Premier Lloyd George left his hotel for Downing street shortly after nine a. m. for a preliminary conversation with Premier Lloyd George.

Premier Theunis, of Belgium, was said to be striving his best to effect a rapprochement between the British and the French. London, Aug. 11.—The U. S. S. calls from the Adriatic. An explosion at first thought serious, but liner later announced all O. K.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 11.—A radio message received by the naval staff at Halifax, via Cape Race this morning, reported the White Star liner Adriatic, 15,608 tons, sending off S. O. S. calls. The Adriatic is on a voyage from New York to Liverpool.

Her position was given as about 800 miles east of Portland, Maine. The early messages characterized the explosion as bad and as Captain Dore was reading to locate the cause, but gave no further details. They said the liner was proceeding on her course.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The U. S. navy department, which has been in constant communication with the Adriatic, said today that the information indicated that no one was hurt aboard the liner and that no assistance was needed.

LATER. TWO KILLED, ONE MISSING. New York, Aug. 11.—Two members of the Adriatic's crew were killed, five were seriously injured, and one is missing, as the result of the explosion, according to a wireless message received at the White Star Line offices.

The message reported that the Adriatic was proceeding to New York at half speed. Coal was stored in the No. 3 hold, and officials of the line, in the absence of details, thought that spontaneous combustion may have caused the explosion. The master ruled that their aid from Sord was arrived here at eight o'clock. The Mekatine was already on the scene of the disaster. First Mate Gage of the Indo-China, said to the Canadian Press: "The fog on the river was very thick and there were also heavy smoke clouds. We were going very slowly when 200 metres we suddenly saw before us the flank of a steamer. It was too late for signals and the prow of the Indo-China caught the Sarmatia amidst hissing, causing a large hole above water. Everybody was soon on deck on both ships but it was quickly ascertained that there was no danger of sinking.

"We left New York on August 3 for Montreal, where we were to take a cargo of wheat for the French government in the Indo-China."

CHURCHILL GETS A RAP ON EXPENSES Hauls Committee on Accounts Hauls Minister Over Coals for Cairo Bills. London, Aug. 11.—(Canadian Press).—Hon. Winston Churchill, secretary of state for the colonies, receives a pretty severe snub from the committee on public accounts, concerning the expenses of his journey to Cairo.

A treasury official, questioned by the committee, said: "This would certainly have been unusual before the war. We cannot say it is unusual now." The committee comments as follows: "It is undesirable for unlimited power of spending to be given to any man and equally undesirable for any cabinet minister to set an example of asking it."

FOUR LITTLE ONES DIE IN FIRE THAT CONSUMES BARN Campbell, Minn., Aug. 11—Four children were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a barn on the farm of Ralph Stevens here yesterday.

The dead: John, Ralph and Albert Stevens, aged nine, seven and three years, and Edgar Wray, seven. The Stevens boys' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stevens. They left a week ago for the Twin City by automobile. The Wray lad was the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Wray. It is supposed the children caused the fire while playing with matches and the fire spread so rapidly they were unable to escape.

SAY HE USED A WHIP ON THEM Colored People Make Charge in Police Court and Evidence is Heard. Fred Secord, before the police court yesterday morning, found himself confronted by a more serious charge this morning arising out of the first one. Three colored people from Sheffield street made a complaint against him for horsewhipping them and appeared before the magistrate, related that Secord was defended by E. S. Ritchie. Mrs. Ella Williams testified that on Tuesday she accused him of going to her place, 109 Sheffield street, and struck her across the back three times with a whip. She had told him to stop, whereupon he had seized and choked her. To Mr. Ritchie she said they all were neighbors, and got along well otherwise. She said the accused had been drinking.

Joseph Hector announced that he did not wish to press the charge, but urged by the magistrate, related that Secord had gone into Mrs. Williams' kitchen snapping a horsewhip and had hit him on the hat. He had pushed Secord away and had been struck again. To Mr. Ritchie he said it had been a carriage whip.

Mrs. Flossie Laucher said she boarded with Mrs. Williams and that she had seen Secord lash Mrs. Williams with a horsewhip. The accused had turned to strike her and had said, "That's the way we do with you niggers down south." She said he had then called her a vile name and been drinking.

The case was postponed until tomorrow morning at 10.15. A case against Harry Doherty, related to come up in the police court this morning, was postponed. W. M. Ryan, appearing for the prosecution, said that J. A. Barry, counsel for the defence, was engaged in another court and had asked him to agree to a postponement. Monday afternoon was set for a continuation and in the meantime Doherty's $400 deposit holds good.

COLLISION IN ST. LAWRENCE Indo-China and the Sarmatia Clash Off Three Rivers—No Lives Lost. Three Rivers, Que., Aug. 11.—The French cargo vessel Indo-China, en route from New York to Montreal, collided at one fifty o'clock this morning off Three Rivers with the Norwegian cargo vessel Sarmatia, going down the river. No lives were lost but both ships are grounded on sand bars and will have to be towed, the Indo-China to Montreal and the Sarmatia to Quebec, for repairs.

The Berthier rushed to their aid from Sord was arrived here at eight o'clock. The Mekatine was already on the scene of the disaster. First Mate Gage of the Indo-China, said to the Canadian Press: "The fog on the river was very thick and there were also heavy smoke clouds. CLOSING IN ON THE INSURGENTS One View That End of War in Ireland is in Sight. Important Engagement Between at Cork—Reported Desertions from Irregulars—Buildings in Cork City Said to be Afire.

(Canadian Press Cable) London, Aug. 11.—The end of the war in Ireland is in sight and the fall of Cork is hourly expected, says a general headquarters bulletin from the Irish National Army troops recently landed near Cork. A despatch bearing a Cork date to the Evening News, yesterday afternoon. These troops, numbering about 1,000, which were landed in the West Passage at Youghal and Union Hall, were within ten miles of Cork city. The war-courting stiff opposition and the battle was the biggest of the war on the Irregulars, and in the opinion of observers might last several days. The Irregulars have a full squadron of cavalry to oppose the National's advance.

London, Aug. 11.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing his paper this morning from the headquarters of the National troops, says:—"An expedition is landing today on the Kerry coast which will close all the gaps and open the route on the Malinbeg-Fermeoy-Mitchellstown line, where they might be their last stand. There are many desertions from their ranks." Daily Meeting Postponed.

Dublin, Aug. 11.—The reconvening of the Daily Eireann, scheduled for August 12, was postponed yesterday until Aug. 22. Cork Buildings Afire. London, Aug. 11.—All the military and police barracks in Cork are burning, according to a report of a government aviator who flew over the Irregulars' stronghold late yesterday. A Times despatch from Dublin.

The national troops at that time had consolidated their positions near Passage West, six miles east of Cork, but had not yet invested the city. (A Dublin despatch last night said that the national forces had entered Cork.) The pilot flew over the town at a height of only about 200 yards. Little rifle firing was directed at him, but reported, much less in fact, than when he passed over Dungarvan, although the Irregulars have evacuated Dungarvan proper.

Dublin, Aug. 11.—Communication with Cork, except by sea, is still impossible, and the exact results of the fighting between the Irregulars and the provisional government forces are unknown here. It is variously stated that the National's have entered and that they have not entered the city.

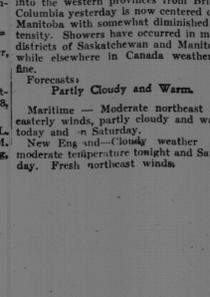

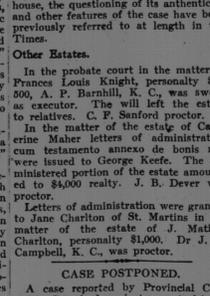

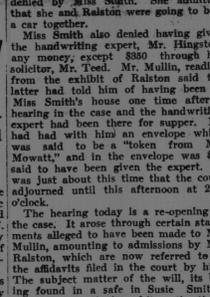

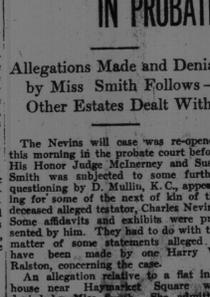

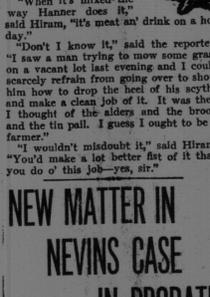

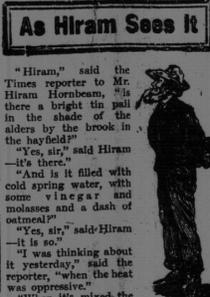

There also is divergence as to the extent of the fighting. Some of the wounded brought here on a steambarge at Passage West and that the National's had to fight their way through under intense fire, one being wounded and one killed. They reported that the government troops who landed at Union Hall also are fighting their way through the hostile districts.

The crew of another vessel arriving from Cork said the admiralty house and the British cable house were heard. It is reported that the Irregulars have evacuated Clonmel.

STAMP TAX A MONEY MAKER FOR THE GOVT. Toronto, Aug. 11—"The new stamp tax is certainly a money maker for the government," said J. H. Bertram, collector of customs and excise. "It is a little early yet to estimate what increase is going to come in, because the act has been in force only for seven working days."

During the seven days $80,010 has been collected for stamps. Prior to the act the normal for the same period would have been $10,500. This shows an increase of nearly $70,000 a day.

H. F. M'CORMICK WEDDED IN PARIS Further Assistance Not Needed by the British Warship Raleigh. Halifax, N. S., Aug. 11.—The U. S. S. THE SONG OF THE SEA

(William Watson) Even as one voice the great sea sang. From out The great heart of the waters round about, Welled as a bubbling fountain silverly. The overflowing song of the great sea; Until the Prince, the dint of listening long, Divined the purport of that mystic song. (For so do all things breathe their life.) Into his ears who rightly hearkeneth! And, if indeed he heard the harmony Aright, in this wise came the song of the sea. "Behold all ye that stricken of love do lie, Wherefore in manacles of a maiden's eye Lead ye the life of bondsmen and of slaves? Lo, in the caverns and the depths of sea, A thousand mermaids dwell beneath the waves; A thousand maidens meet for love have ye. Ev'n I, the virgin-hearted cool chaste sea.

Captain Alfred W. Howard of Brooklyn, New York, a native of West St. John, was drowned yesterday afternoon at Renforth while attempting to rescue Mrs. Archie Wilmot of Boston from drowning. Mrs. Wilmot is a sister of Mrs. Norman Gregory of this city. It appears that she ventured beyond her depth and called for help, and Captain Howard went to her, but was unable to get her to shore because of her struggles. He went under and did not come up, and half an hour elapsed before the body was recovered with the aid of grappling irons. Dr. O. H. Peters of Robitney, corner, viewed the body and gave permission for its removal. He said there would be no inquest, as it was clearly a case of accidental drowning. Mrs. Wilmot was rescued and taken into a boat by Gray Barnham. George Stackhouse was in the water at the time, having entered with Captain Howard and Mrs. Wilmot. Edmund Howard of 184 Window street, West St. John, is a brother of the drowned man, and went to the scene immediately he was notified. Captain Howard was born on the West Side. He was a man of great capabilities and rose rapidly in his chosen profession, and at early age had retired. He always visited St. John during the summer and stayed with his brother, Edmund G. Howard, on the west side. In addition to this brother, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. William G. Howard, of West St. John; one daughter, Miss Barbara Howard, now summering in the Ozark Mountains, Missouri, and one other brother, Dr. Oliver Howard, of Arlington, W. Virginia. It is probable the funeral will be held on Saturday.

Captain Howard's wife formerly was Miss Emma Deacon, of Benton, Carleton county. On July 7 last, she received

DROWNED WHILE RESCUING WOMAN

Captain A. W. Howard Loses Life in Kennebecasis River Endeavoring to Save Mrs. Archie Wilmot.

Captain Alfred W. Howard of Brooklyn, New York, a native of West St. John, was drowned yesterday afternoon at Renforth while attempting to rescue Mrs. Archie Wilmot of Boston from drowning. Mrs. Wilmot is a sister of Mrs. Norman Gregory of this city. It appears that she ventured beyond her depth and called for help, and Captain Howard went to her, but was unable to get her to shore because of her struggles. He went under and did not come up, and half an hour elapsed before the body was recovered with the aid of grappling irons. Dr. O. H. Peters of Robitney, corner, viewed the body and gave permission for its removal. He said there would be no inquest, as it was clearly a case of accidental drowning. Mrs. Wilmot was rescued and taken into a boat by Gray Barnham. George Stackhouse was in the water at the time, having entered with Captain Howard and Mrs. Wilmot. Edmund Howard of 184 Window street, West St. John, is a brother of the drowned man, and went to the scene immediately he was notified. Captain Howard was born on the West Side. He was a man of great capabilities and rose rapidly in his chosen profession, and at early age had retired. He always visited St. John during the summer and stayed with his brother, Edmund G. Howard, on the west side. In addition to this brother, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. William G. Howard, of West St. John; one daughter, Miss Barbara Howard, now summering in the Ozark Mountains, Missouri, and one other brother, Dr. Oliver Howard, of Arlington, W. Virginia. It is probable the funeral will be held on Saturday.

The Evening Times and Star

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

NOW THE RECALL.

The United Organisations last evening pursued the only course they could pursue without stultifying themselves. Their action was unanimous. There was not a dissenting voice. Their ranks are unbroken. They have the support they had in April last, and they will now have the support of many citizens who favored hydro but would not vote for Mr. McLellan.

The United Organisations will at once proceed to recall Mayor McLellan. Whether they will also ask for the recall of one or more of the commissioners depends upon the latter themselves. If they are ready to oppose the mayor and carry out the mandate of April last, the United Organisations will support them heartily.

The United Organisations make no threats. They merely call for a show-down, and will act as the circumstances warrant, their object being the signing of the contract and prompt action to secure a municipally owned system of distribution. That was the issue in April, and it is the issue in August. Mayor McLellan declared in April that the elections were a plebiscite, but he has changed his mind.

The United Organisations have not acted hastily. They waited long and patiently for action. Some time ago they held a meeting and invited the mayor and Mr. Phillips to attend and explain how matters were going. They heartily assented to the suggestion that they remain patient a little longer. They had no desire to embarrass the mayor or make his task difficult, and they still believed he was of the same mind as in April. So they waited longer—and got the Bodell offer as their reward.

All over the city there has been a sharp revulsion of feeling and it was given expression at the meeting of the United Organisations last evening. It will find still more general and emphatic expression when the voters go to the polls. There is to be an end of waiting and dithering and the beginning of a real drive for cheap light and power without paying tribute to any corporation.

Personalities do not count in the present issue before the people of St. John. They have not counted from the first. They did not count when the Citizens' Committee of some years ago fought a losing fight against the outrageous demands of the New Brunswick Power Company. This is a community question to be decided by the people, and they are much too well informed to have their thoughts diverted by personalities. It was not Mr. McLellan who was elected in April, but hydro. Personalities may come and go, but principles remain. That for which the people voted in April is their goal in August, and will be till it is attained.

The citizens are not going to resurrect Mayor Schofield, but lay Mayor McLellan beside him and go on with the next order of business, which is a contract for hydro and a municipally owned distribution system.

THE REAL ENEMY.

It would be most unfortunate if the mayor should be magnified as the chief figure in the contest now begun. The real object upon which the public gaze should be centred is the New Brunswick Power Company, crouched for another spring.

It is necessary to deal with the mayor, and with any member or members of the city council who make common cause with him, but that is only because he or they are in official position and able temporarily to challenge or frustrate the popular will. The real danger lies elsewhere. If the Bodell deal should go through the city would again be held for the benefit of the New Brunswick Power Company, forced to accept an outrageously inflated value for its property, spend half a million to put that property in good condition for effective service, and still not be the owner.

Nobody doubts for a moment where the influence, the energy and the material help of the power company will be in the struggle now begun. Nobody doubts what the company would do if it could get control of our public utilities and avoid competition. Experience has been a stern teacher. The people know the value of corporation pledges. If, therefore, the people find the mayor and any member or members of the council in the forefront, they will not be unmindful of the greater danger which can only be removed by their defeat.

THE REAL ISSUE.

The provincial government, in response to a public demand introduced a hydro-electric development policy. It was approved by the legislature. The Musquash development is the first fruit of that policy. The government has a right to expect that the people who clamored for cheap light and power will now do their part and close the agreement by which the current will be delivered at cost. The consumers in their own interests cannot refuse to accept power at four cents, with a probable later reduction in price. That, and not any apocryphal feud or individual desire for gain is the issue before the people of St. John today.

The action taken by the United Organisations shows what the citizens at large think of the propaganda that is being carried on in the interests of the New Brunswick Power Company. The attempt to get them to fix a value of $3,000,000 on a run-down plant whose value under competition would shrink to very small proportions is as futile as it is brazen. The worm has turned.

Halifax Chronicle: "The coal strike in the United States has given a much needed fillip to British shipping. Experts estimate that nearly one million tons of British shipping has been chartered to carry Welsh coal to America. Early purchases of the best Welsh coal were made at about twenty-five shillings a ton, against the present price of thirty shillings, while freight rates beginning at seven shillings a ton have more than doubled. Present indications are that this will only be a temporary activity, but the experience has demonstrated the practicability of importing Welsh coal for American consumption. This is a consideration which our own miners, as well as the miners of the United States, must take into account."

The Times has learned of two citizens who hold some of the stock of the New Brunswick Power Company, not common stock, who are utterly opposed, in the interests of St. John, to the Bodell scheme. A third, who has always been an opponent of public ownership and in favor of corporation control of public utilities, declared today that the Bodell offer had driven him into the opposite camp. These are but illustrations of the trend of popular sentiment in St. John today.

Read in today's Times what Sir Adam Beck says of the Murray report, prepared at the request of private corporation interests and throwing discredit on hydro. The Murray report was exploited with great glee in St. John when it came out, to bolster up the case of the New Brunswick Power Company. Sir Adam Beck brands it as it deserves, and as prominent engineers had already done.

It is officially estimated that Canada's crops of wheat, oats, rye, barley and hay will all be considerably larger this year than last, but potatoes slightly less. Such good crops for the farmer, as fruits and all vegetables are also yielding well, mean prosperity for the country at large.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis

Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 75.

THINGS TO REMEMBER.

Remember that: If your antenna is very long, say, over 150 feet, it may be necessary to insert a series condenser in the aerial or ground lead in order to allow the receiving system to be adjusted to very short wave lengths.

The ground lead should be as short as possible, that is, the distance from the apparatus to the point where the ground wire or pipe to which the ground wire is connected should be kept down to a minimum.

The antenna system should be erected as far as possible from power lines, telephone wires and cables and at right angles to them. Such construction will help to reduce the amount of disturbances in the receiving set from these sources.

Flexible cords attached to telephone receivers become worn with use and sometimes partially break near the tips which may be the cause of intermittent signals in the telephone receivers.

Burning the filament of a vacuum tube beyond a certain point does not increase the strength of the signals if the proper plate voltage is being used but will materially shorten the life of the tube.

Crystals employed for detector purposes should be touched with the fingers as little as possible. Moisture exuded from the pores of the skin may form a coating on the crystal which will materially reduce its sensitiveness.

The antenna system should be effectively grounded through the lightning switches when not in use to reduce the possibility of damage during thunder storms. One of the types of arresters approved by the underwriters may be substituted for the lightning switch.

Contrary to popular belief a vacuum tube amplifier and loud speaking horn may be employed with a crystal receiver, but so much superior results may be obtained by the substitution of a vacuum tube detector for the crystal that this arrangement is seldom used.

Poor reception of concerts and speeches may not be due to poor modulation at the transmitter and interference from local amateur stations. It is more often due to improper adjustment of the coupling and tickler of the receiving set.

NO WORD YET FROM MARS.

During the visit of Senator Marconi to this country he took the opportunity to deny that he had ever received (as had been erroneously reported) wireless signals from the planet Mars. The current reports were to the effect that the wave lengths received were of the exceptional length of 360,000 meters, and at the time it was not believed that any apparatus for the transmission of such a wave length, was in operation in this country.

Dr. Langmuir, assistant director of the General Electric Co. research laboratory informed Senator Marconi that waves of this length were actually generated and used in conjunction with tests by engineers of the General Electric Co. in experimenting with carrier current over the Schenectady-Saratoga trolley line.

This explanation effectively disposed of any proposals that such waves originated at distant planets and also provided the opportunity for Senator Marconi to disclaim any intention of attempting to communicate with planets millions of miles distant from this earth.

MEDDLER LARK.

Does the meddler-lark complain, as he swims high and dry, of the wind and the blue of the sky?

Does the quail set up and whistle in a disappointed way, when he hears his head in silence and sorrow all the day?

Is the chipmunk's health a-fallin'? Does he walk, or does he run?

Don't the buzzards buzz around up there, just like they're allus done? Is they anything the matter with the rooster's wings or voice?

Ort a mortal be complainin' when dumb animals rejoice?

Then let us, one and all, be contented with our lot;

Oh, let us fill our hearts up with the glory of the day!

And banish every doubt and care and sorrow far away!

Such fine circumstances ort to make us satisfied;

And the dew is full of heavenly love that drips for me and you.

DRIFT OF STARS CHANGES FORM OF BIG DIPPER

Five of Its Brightest Lights are Speeding to Join the Big Bear Cluster, Where They Really Belong.

By Isabel M. Lewis of United States Naval Observatory.

The Big Dipper, the bright design in even stars, which has such a cooling suggestion these hot nights, is, like many similar things, looked at with unending interest. Every one in the northern hemisphere, from spooning youth to tired old age, knows this bright star group. There are not so many, however, that know that five of these steady-looking bright lights are speeding away from the others, and that these five belong to a great moving cluster of stars known as the Ursa Major or Big Bear cluster.

This cluster, which consists of at least thirteen stars, has the form of a disk about fifteen light years in thickness and 40 light years in diameter. It is hard to realize what that means. A light year is the distance that light travels in one year. The velocity of light is practically instantaneous, 186,000 miles a second. In one day there are 86,400 seconds. Figure for yourself how far light travels in 180 years; that is the diameter of the Big Bear.

Sirius, the brightest star in the heavens, which is only eight and a half light years from the solar system, is also a member of this cluster, as is also Beta Aurigae, the bright star in the constellation Auriga, which is visible in the winter to the north of Orion. This star is 130 light years distant, and the five stars in the Big Dipper, which are members of the cluster, are about seventy-five light years distant from the earth. It may seem strange that stars so widely separated as the stars in the Big Dipper, Sirius and Beta Aurigae, should all be members of one connected group, but this apparently great separation of certain members of the cluster is an effect of the nearness of the solar system to the principal plane of the cluster. If instead of being almost in the midst of this cluster we were at a distance of several hundred light years from it, it would appear to us as a small compact group of faint stars similar in appearance to the Pleiades or the V-shaped group of the Hyades in Taurus.

Dipper is Disintegrating. The star at the end of the handle of the Big Dipper and the star furthest from it in the bowl are not members of this cluster, and as they are moving in another direction through space the distinctive form of the Big Dipper will in time be lost. But that fact need not greatly disturb us, for many centuries will pass before star-drift will destroy our long-cherished Big Dipper. Many generations to come will admire this heirloom of the heavens studied with celestial gems that has been handed down to the present generations from the early days of recorded history, just as we admire it today untroubled by time.

The stars in the bowl of the Big Dipper form the body and the stars in the handle form the tail of Ursa Major, the Greater Bear. The head and paws of the bear are formed by faint stars lying to the west and south of the seven bright stars. Our Big Dipper, then, is but a portion of the far more extensive constellation of Ursa Major, and our Little Dipper, with the pole-star, Polaris, at the end of the handle, similarly outlines the body and tail of Ursa Minor, the Lesser Bear. Both of these constellations we will now find conspicuously in view in the early evening in the north and northwest.

At this time of year when so many are camping out or hiking in unfamiliar regions it is well to bear in mind a fact which should be well known to everyone, that the Pointers of the Big Dipper, as the two stars in the bowl farthest from the handle are called, point infallibly to the true north. An imaginary line through these two stars extended upward from the bowl to a distance about equal to the length of the Big Dipper brings us to the pole-star at the end of the handle of the Little Dipper. Any one abroad at night in an unfamiliar country might find it of great service to have these friendly guides among the stars.

MAY "WASH" SUBWAY AIR

Interborough and B. R. T. Considering New Device to Cleanse Tubes.

New York, Aug. 11.—Cleaner subways, in which all the dust is removed twice a day and the very air is "washed," may be made possible by a new device which is now being considered by both the Interborough and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company.

The device is a huge vacuum cleaner mounted on a subway truck powered to move through the tunnels at traffic speed. Walter I. Smith and Alcegon Burnette, the inventors, said that the suction pumps would create a whirlwind in the tunnel which would pick up all the refuse and draw it into a container on a car following the cleaner. The air in the tunnel would also pass through a fumigator and cleaner.

TO SLEEP OVER DESERT.

Dr. Harrison Will Use a Motorcycle in Arabia.

Dr. Paul Wilberforce Harrison, a medical missionary of the Reformed Church in Beirut, Arabia, who is in the U. S. on furlough, will change entirely his manner of travel when he gets back to the Arabian desert.

Dr. Harrison has ordered a special motorcycle to be made with broad tires and high power so that he can penetrate the desert rapidly. He expects to make the distance from Bahrain to Riyadh, which is 250 miles, within twenty-four hours, instead of taking ten to fourteen days on camel back for this trip, as he has been doing until now.

The physician is a great friend of the ruling Sheik of the whole of the interior of Arabia, who has now been made the Sultan of Najd. The new Sultan is the rival of the King of the Hijaz, who helped the British in their recovery of Palestine.

The Sultan is very anxious that Dr. Harrison should establish a hospital in his capital, which is Riyadh. This is 200 miles inland from the Persian Gulf. Friends of Dr. Harrison in New York and vicinity are aiding him in raising money for this and for a chain of hospitals through the desert.

The physician, who is an honor graduate of Johns Hopkins, was invited to become a member of its staff, but he preferred to continue his work in the Arabian desert, where he has gained experience in certain diseases which by study and treatment has enabled him to make what is considered a real contribution to medical knowledge.

In recognition of this fact Dr. Harrison was this year elected a member of the American College of Surgeons.

JOE LEVY 2D AVENUE

MAYOR—UNDER PROTEST

Joseph Madden Will Get Recount After Controversy Over Silk Shirts and Linousines.

(New York Evening Post) Joe Levy, "the Duke of Essex street," is again Mayor of Second Avenue—under protest. For a recount has been promised to the supporters of Joseph Madden, who contend that he was the man elected. The election, which was held in Levy's office, 21 Second Avenue, yesterday, gave Levy sixty-seven votes against sixty-four for Madden.

Madden, whose nom de ballot was given as "Yussel Madinski," charged that Levy wore silk shirts, owned an automobile—or, rather, a limousine—and sported diamonds on his fingers. Such a charge might have won for Madden had not Levy mounted the desk, flung back his coat, and displayed a brand-new flannel shirt. He also exhibited fingers that were ringless.

Madden's charge that he lived in a "mansions" at Long Beach, Levy asserted, was false. It was only a country home. "I don't travel in limousines, either," continued Levy. "I came all the way from Long Beach in a taxi."

That, with the flannel shirt, settled it. The voters crowded to the polls reassured concerning Levy's democratic instincts. As the excited knots of Madden and Levy henchmen moved out of the office, Levy's poetic acceptance of their mandate still echoing in their ears—"Take me never out of Essex to the country with the trees, where there ain't no pleasant noises on a garbage-scented breeze"—the mayor under protest jumped off the desk with the cry that "eleven of my lawbooks have been taken."

READS SUICIDES; ENDS LIFE.

Brother Levy Merchant's Death to Nervous Mania.

New York, Aug. 11.—A morbid condition of the mind, which, according to his brother, was due to the constant study of suicide cases, caused Samuel Fisher, a retired merchant of 16 East Ninety-sixth street, to kill himself this week.

Fisher, who was unmarried and lived with his brother's family, made a fortune in the pearl button business. He suffered a nervous breakdown two years ago and attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat. He has been under the care of a doctor since that time. The other morning Fisher arose early, telling his brother, Henry, that he was going to dress and go for a walk. About 8 o'clock Henry went into the bathroom and found his brother lying on the floor with a bullet wound in his head and a revolver beside him.

POLICE DOG AN "OFFICER"

First Case for Interference With One to be Tried in Albany.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Interference with a police dog in discharge of its duties is an unlawful act, according to a charge which Anthony Martino, one of two brothers arrested following recent strike disorders at the Ravenna yards of the West Shore Railroad near here, will face at a hearing before Police Justice William H. Sheer.

The charge unique in criminal procedure, is declared here to be the first brought since the employment of dogs as auxiliaries to police. According to the complaint, Martino is accused of throwing a brick at a police dog which was trailing men suspected of firing shots that wounded two officers guarding railroad property in the Ravenna yards. Samuel Martino, the brother, is charged with discharging firearms in public.

GASOLINE A MINOR ITEM OF AUTO COST

An advance of one cent a gallon in the price of gasoline means an increase of only 85 annually in the cost of operating an automobile, according to the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. The figure is taken on the basis of an average annual gasoline consumption of 500 gallons per car in the United States. The company points out that "at the highest price at which a ever sold, gasoline was one of the minor items of expense in the operation of a motor car."

According to a comparison in the current issue of The Loser, the motorist spends 138 cents for 30 gallons and grease out of every 50 used to keep the car on the road. The charges are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Cost. Oil and grease 1.12c, Gasoline 10.26c, Tires 10.42c, Depreciation 10.38c, Miscellaneous 20.52c, Repairs 42.17c, Total 100.00c

In the matter of transportation the fundamental requirement of any agency is motive power, supplied for the most part by fuel. In this connection the change of power costs last year was a relatively small proportion of wheels driven by water power, the development of the motor car has been in no small measure to our possession of an ample supply of cheap fuel.

"Both of the newer means of transportation, the automobile and the airplane, use a manufactured, concentrated fuel prepared so that it is self-fed into a combustion chamber. Hence the first cost of this fuel, gasoline, is the entire cost, there being no cost for labor to feed the plant or remove ashes."

The automobile, it is stated, costs less for power than either electric or steam driven trains. The company's figures supplied by the Interstate Commerce Commission which show that the relation of fuel expense to all operating costs of the Class I railroads in 1921 was 11.57 per cent. Later figures for 1921 for some of the larger roads show a fuel outlay ranging from 10.17 per cent to 12.88 per cent.

Taking the figures for the subways, elevated lines and street railway companies in the five boroughs of the City of New York, it is shown that the percentage for power last year was 18.76. The Interborough Rapid Transit Company itself showed 20.43 per cent of its total operating expenses on cost of power, coal alone representing 75 per cent of this, or 15.7 per cent.

"Nearly every operator of a car," it is stated, "takes it for granted that his largest item of expense after buying his car is for fuel consumed. The explanation of that lies in the fact that he puts his hand into his pocket to pay the man at the pump several times as often as he does for other expenses of driving. On a touring trip of several days the owner may buy gasoline and an occasional quart of oil a dozen times and pay nothing else for his car except for garage space over night. But on that trip depreciation is going steadily on, tires are wearing away and the car is getting nearer to regular repairs. Those items, when met, are usually larger than the combined total of many weeks' expenditures for gasoline."

POLAND GOES IN FOR VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS

Modernizing the Course—No Longer to Be All Classical.

Steps have been taken to modernize the courses of studies in the Cracow district of Poland, according to the Cracow Board of Cracow. Instead of strict adherence to the classical curriculum the courses will be revised to include such subjects as manual training, mechanical drawing, sketching, etc.

In order to acquaint the public with the advantages of this revised curriculum the Cracow Board of School Trustees recently gave an exhibition of the students' work. Paintings, sketches and handicraft articles were exhibited.

A manual training school, which, it is thought, will eventually be entirely self-supporting, has recently been established in Loda, Poland, by a machinery manufacturing concern, says the Kurjer Warszawski.

A thorough course of training in all departments of metal manufacturing will be given to the students who are accepted. Up to the present time there is a relative dearth of trade schools in Poland. It is with the hope of setting an example to other industrial establishments that the Loda factory established its trade school.

State Textile School.

Loda is also the scene of another important manual training institution. A state textile school was recently established in Loda, Poland, by a machinery manufacturing concern, says the Kurjer Warszawski.

The school has three departments, (1) spinning, (2) weaving, (3) dyeing and finishing.

EXPLOSION WRECKS NEW YORK HOUSE

Five People Slightly Hurt and Eight Horses are Buried.

New York, Aug. 11.—The tug Clarence Rowland overturned in the harbor early today following an explosion, and several of her crew were reported killed. The accident occurred off Port Richmond, Staten Island.

Police boats picked up the captain and two of the crew. The captain said the crew consisted of seven.

MAY BE STRIKE OF WIRELESS MEN

Would Involve Some 300, Chiefly at Sea, but Would be Felt All Over World.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—Should efforts to bring about a settlement through a board of conciliation fail, the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of Canada faces the prospect of a strike involving about 300 employees, about two-thirds of whom are on sailing craft. Should the men quit their posts, the trouble would be felt in various parts of the world, including Australian and Pan-American waters.

The clash is the result of a move by the company, which has its headquarters in Montreal, to reduce wages fifteen per cent, altering the scale which has been in effect since January, 1920. Wages run from $70 to $120 a month, exclusive of allowances, and from $110 to $175 a month, including allowance made for board and lodging on shipboard. There are thirty coast stations of the company in Canada, including the Toronto station on the island, each with a staff of three men, and the 200 or more remaining operators involved are on shipboard.

The operators, who belong to the Telegraphers Union of America, system Division No. 53, have applied to Ottawa for a board of conciliation, and have named Thomas Taylor of Toronto as their representative.

ESTIMATE OF CANADA'S CROPS

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 10.—(Canadian Press)—Canada's wheat crop this year is estimated at 320,000,000 bushels, or slightly more than 20,000,000 bushels larger than the final estimate of last year's crop, by the dominion bureau of statistics. This estimate is based on conditions prevailing throughout Canada at the end of last month. The estimated yield of oats is 920,000,000 bushels, as compared with 428,232,000 last year, and of barley, 64,881,000 bushels, as against 69,709,100 in 1921, 77,378,500 bushels, compared with 21,455,200, and flax seed, 4,500,000, compared with 4,111,800. The estimated yield of potatoes, 102,874,000 bushels is smaller than last year's final estimate, which was 107,346,000 bushels. The yield of hay and clover is estimated at 15,545,000 tons, the largest on record with the exception of 1916, when it was 16,348,000 tons. Of alfalfa (first cutting) the total yield is 488,000 tons, as against 450,000 tons in 1921.

SOCIAL DISEASE RIFE IN TORONTO

Toronto, Aug. 11.—Startling figures with reference to the prevalence of social diseases in Toronto are given by Dr. Charles J. Hastings, minister of health, in a health bulletin. In calling upon the citizens of Toronto to face the facts in regard to the ravages of venereal disease, he deprecates the fact that false modesty in connection with such matters has involved a penalty of mortality exceeding even that of cancer or tuberculosis.

"We have in Toronto six venereal disease clinics," says the report "endeavoring to cure, or shall I say control, the infectivity of diseases that never should have occurred."

The Local Mix-Up. To The Sporting Editor of The Times: Sir—As I heard a lot of different remarks about the baseball game that was to be played last night on St. Peter's Baseball Park, permit me to say this: Why blame it more on one team than the other? A contract is a contract and why not live up to it? St. Peter's didn't want to play with an imported man not that he was too fast, but the contract was there. Why not play under protest? Why didn't St. Johns play the game with regular men who were there if they wanted to please the fans who were present? It works both ways; why not look at it both ways? The trouble started by breaking the contract. Get it fixed and play ball.

JUDGMENTS IN SUPREME COURT

In the Supreme Court, this morning, Chief Justice McKeown delivered judgment in the case of Daniel Sullivan vs. Trustees of School District No. 11. This case was first heard before Mr. Justice Barry, who awarded the plaintiff $225 and costs, and judgment was appealed. The case was heard in the Carleton county circuit without jury. It arose out of the seizure of a horse for school taxes due from Daniel Sullivan. Sullivan contended that the horse belonged to his wife, and other property was pointed out that could be seized. Chief Justice McKeown decided that Sullivan had shown bona fide sale of the horse to his wife.

Judgment was also delivered in the case of Crowe vs. Birmingham, an action tried before a jury at the last session of the Carleton circuit. The case grew out of a sale of real property in which the amount conveyed by the deed was 100 acres less than the defendant stated the farm to contain. The plaintiff sued for damages, which the jury assessed at $1,800. The counsel requested judgment was delivered this morning in favor of the plaintiff for the amount named.

In the Bankruptcy court, in the matter of the appeal in connection with costs of this case, it was announced that judgment would be delivered next Tuesday.

CHANGE IN LAW RE BANKRUPTCY

In Bankruptcy court, this morning, Chief Justice McKeown called attention to the change in the law, whereby fees heretofore paid to the registrar are now to be paid by the affixing of supreme court stamps, as provided for in the tariff of fees. He quoted with approval the reported remarks of Mr. Justice Rinfret of the Bankruptcy division of Montreal, in which he remarked that failure to comply with the new method regarding stamps would nullify any proceedings, as unstamped documents could not be considered in any court.

IS OPTIMISTIC OVER EXHIBITION

Manager Porter Says Indications are for Biggest Show Yet Held.

St. John's 1922 Exhibition gives every promise of being the biggest show in the history of the organization declared Horace A. Porter, manager, this morning. Preparations for the annual event have been moving along quietly during the last few months but from now on activities will assume a busier aspect. Already, gangs of carpenters are at work in the main building erecting new booths and decorating the interior. The gate-house has received a new coat of paint and a few changes have been made here. A special turnstile has been created for the complimentary ticketholders, who will be allowed only one admission a day this year but should they wish to leave and then return can obtain a re-entry ticket. Where the agricultural exhibit was placed last year has been given over this year to the poultry exhibit, which will contain novel features this year. The dog show will be held in the big room above the poultry exhibit.

RECORDS BROKEN IN TAX PAYMENTS

The Largest Single Day's Receipts Yesterday — More Cash This Year.

Two records were established at city hall during the discount period, which terminated yesterday. Duncan C. Lingley, chamberlain, announced this morning that yesterday the sum of $410,000 was received, the largest ever taken in one day; also that there was more actual cash received this year than ever before. The amount yesterday was revealed by the receipt of $38,000 from the C. P. R., and $38,000 from the New Brunswick Power Company. The smallest amount received was $2.25. He estimated that over one and a quarter million dollars was paid in taxes during the discount period. From now on interest, at the rate of one half of one per cent per month, will be charged.

WELL PLEASED

St. John Delegate to Grand Priory Meetings in Halifax Speaks of Visit.

St. John delegates to the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Priory, Knights Templars at Halifax this week returned to their homes full of enthusiasm over reports received concerning the work of the organization during the last year and the outlook for the future. The meetings, which were held during the past three days of the week, were entirely successful and were spent in profitable discussion. This was the first time that this body, drawn from all parts of Canada, had ever assembled in Halifax and the local preceptory did not leave anything undone to entertain the visiting Sir Knights and thus couple pleasure with business. In 1918, the priory met in St. John and four years previous it gathered at Truro.

One of the delegates today voiced his appreciation of the treatment accorded him and his fellow representatives at the sister city. He declared that the attendance was better than in former years. "In fact," he said, "every one of the elected and appointed members was in his place when the sessions opened on Monday morning."

On Monday evening the Grand Priory attended service at the Fort Massey Presbyterian church with the Nova Scotia preceptory forming the guard during the procession to the church and back. In all about 200 members attended the service, which was conducted by the grand chaplain, Rev. G. A. Woodside, of Brantford, Ont., assisted by Rev. Dr. Ross, minister of the Fort Massey church.

It was the intention to take the visiting members out to St. Margaret's Bay to look over the hydro development there but rain interfered. Rain also caused abandonment of a luncheon at the Waegwiltie Club. On Tuesday evening a theatre party to the Imperial was greatly enjoyed.

While this was an "off" year in that there was no election of officers, it certainly was not an off year in regard to discussion of important matters, one of the most important of which was that of relating to the establishing of a fund for the education of orphan children of members. The matter was postponed for a year and will go before the subordinate bodies and a special committee for discussion. The St. John delegates included W. R. White, provincial prior; R. E. Crawford, preceptor; Peter Davidson, H. A. Porter and W. J. McClavery.
