New York, Feb. 6.—There is no trend to the market at present.

Other conditions remain unchanged, but we do not like the outlook either in this country or in Europe where great unrest is apparent among all classes and if we can get to the spring without severe labor troubles at home and abroad we will be most fortunate.

BORDEN AND THE NAVY

It is intimated that the Borden Empire savers have encountered some difficulty in the performance of their great task. They were terribly shocked by the callous indifference of the Liberals to the dangers which threatened, and could not find fitting words to express their contempt for the Liberal tin-pot navy. They would go to the admiralty, declare their fervent and undying loyalty, and ask what they might do at the expense of the Canadian people to prove that they were the only and the real champions of the old flag. This programme is said to have been carried out, but to the consternation of Mr. Borden and his colleagues (Nationalists of course excepted) the admiralty is understood to have expressed its approval of the Laurier naval policy. The naval authorities are said to have pointed out that the whole question was fully discussed at the Imperial Conference, and the plan of action afterwards adopted by the Laurier government was approved.

What will Mr. Borden do about it? Will he tell the British admiralty that it does not know its business? Will the flag-bearers adopt more resolute calling for the salvation of the Empire? Probably not. They are now in power, and control the patronage. That makes a wonderful change in the complexion of tory patriotism.

It is true there is a little matter to be settled with Mr. Bourassa, who demands the repeal of the Laurier naval act, but that may not be a serious affair.

LOSS OF MEMORY

Mr. Borden was asked in the House the other day if the Hon. Thomas Crothers or any other person had promised during the federal campaign that the Conservative party, if returned to power, would reimburse everyone who had lost money through the failure of the Farmers' Bank. Mr. Borden replied: "No such promise was made by the minister of labor. The government has no information as to promises made by other government supporters."

MRS. BULLOCK REVIEWS THE WORK OF YEAR

(Continued from page 1.) Lady Aberdeen still retained her interest in the Canadian council, and at the last meeting of the executive a letter was read in which the Duchess of Connaught in the work. In response to the request sent out by the National Council for papers on the preservation of birds, for the forthcoming international council, Mrs. Lawrence of this city was the only member in the dominion to respond. During the year the local council passed a resolution urging the adoption of such text books and reading books in the schools as presented historical facts without bias and to endeavor to induce a living interest in modern methods of possibly settling international difficulties. The national council had asked for a special report on the care of the feeble minded and a committee had been appointed for this purpose. A standing committee on employment for women and a special committee on the list of committees during the year. The local committees on immigration, education and peace and arbitration had also been revived during the year. Through the committee on health the local council had pronounced in favor of medical inspection in the public schools. Legislation. Many of the problems required legislation for their solution and the committee on laws had put forth efforts during the year along this line for better protection for children. The council was prepared to support the municipal council in their move towards the establishment of juvenile courts and detention homes and had reason to hope that at the coming session of the legislature steps would be taken towards this end. A chief probation officer for Nova Scotia had been appointed during the year, and the hope was expressed that a similar appointment would be made soon in this province. One special work of the committee on problems of childhood was to assist in collating all the laws of the country relating to children and these would be presented to the international council. The public play grounds established by the Women's Council were regarded as of great importance in solving some of the problems of childhood, and as the idea developed, under the city council, might do so more effectively. The decided step taken by the common council with regard to the playgrounds was regarded as most encouraging. The Women's Council had pledged allegiance to the movement towards the solution of all disputes of individuals or nations by just and peaceful means. To this eighty nations were already partially committed. The members were asked to do their part in educating public sentiment and in securing signatures to the peace petition. Reference was made by the president to some of the principal events in the history of the local council during the year. These included the illustrated lecture by Miss Campbell of Montreal on the Handicrafts Guild of Canada; the presentation of a patrol wagon to the coin council; the visit of the national officers in the autumn and the interview accorded to the members by the Princess Patricia, while passing through St. John when they presented a bouquet of roses to her. For the first time, this year's report

TO THE WOOD-THRUSH

(By Robert Cary, in the Canadian Magazine.) Long had I walked in vain the woodland wild, A sacred Sabbath after Vesper-bell, Ere 'neath the oaks I tucked, and searching well I found the bird that hailed an evening maid; Far from the snug world happily exiled Often I hear him to the wood-nymphs tall His pearl-neck beads at sundown, and of bell No word since earth and heaven are reconciled.

THOUGHTS AT 8 A.M. I love to think of boyhood days when I used to fix my breakfast food ere yet the sky was red. I used to dry shampoo the horse and manure the cow. I love to lie in bed and think I needn't do it now. I love to think of boyhood days, when I used to drag the water from the well, a hundred pails or more. And then I dragged what water you need and harnessed up the plough; I love to lie in bed and think I needn't do it now. -Louisville "Courier-Journal."

WHAT WILL BE FATE OF CHINA'S DEPENDENCIES?

Speculation is Stimulated By The Action of Russia in Mongolia

THE TIBETAN DANGER

More Menacing Problem Even in Chinese Turkestan—Atrocities by Soldiers in China's Civil War—Opium Evil is Revived

(Times Special Correspondence.) Peking, Jan. 22.—Speculation as to the future of China's dependencies generally will be stimulated by Russia's action in Mongolia. The latter had already declared its independence, and others of the vast borderland regions, notably Shihai, which have hitherto nominally acknowledged China's suzerainty, have threatened to follow its example.

What, he asked, is to be the fate of Mongolia, the Ili valley, of Kashgaria, of Tibet, of all those peoples of varying tongues and creeds, but who are one in acknowledging the Son of Heaven as the emblem of suzerainty? What is to be the effect on the balance of power in Central Asia, and how is this loosening of the imperial grip being regarded by the Moslems of Kansu and Turkestan?

A FEARFUL SCENE

Accounts of eye-witnesses published in the Shanghai papers show that terrible slaughter attended the flight of the revolutionary troops after the capture of HanYang. The majority attempted to cross the Yangtze to Wuchang, and to do so took possession of all the craft available. On the river they were subjected to a devastating fire, not only from the machine guns and rifles of the imperialists remaining on the Hankow side, but also from their fellow-patriots at Wuchang, who were unable to distinguish, or dared not attempt to distinguish, between friend and foe.

More Menacing Problem

In that great expanse usually labelled our vast Chinese Turkestan, but now forming the nineteenth province of the empire and known as Sinkiang, the new division, we are brought face to face with a far greater and more menacing problem. According to the latest and most authoritative estimate we learn that there are more than 7,000,000 Mohammedans residing in the Chinese empire, of whom, roughly, two and a half are to be found in Kansu, and a further two millions in Sinkiang, where they form more than 80 per cent of the population, are mainly of Turkish extraction, and are known as the Chang Tou, or "turbaned people," as distinguished from the Tungans or purely Chinese Mohammedans.

Chinese Mohammedans—There is abundant evidence to prove that considerable unrest prevails among the Mohammedans in Western Kansu around Shikang. It only requires some indiscreet act of an official and we may, within one morning, find the whole province in a blaze. A Fearful Scene Accounts of eye-witnesses published in the Shanghai papers show that terrible slaughter attended the flight of the revolutionary troops after the capture of HanYang.

HEAR WHY WE SPEAK FOR Zam-Buk

THE GREAT HERBAL BALM

INJURED FOOT CURED.
"I speak for Zam-Buk because it cured me of a terribly bad foot," says Mrs. Alice Berryman of 100 John St. North, Hamilton. She adds: "The injury was caused by a wagon wheel, and the sore was on my right foot. It became very inflamed and swollen and so painful that I fainted away. In spite of treatment, the wound got no better and the foot became more and more swollen until it was several times its usual size. The flesh was terribly bruised and blackened and it was quite impossible for me to walk. My husband's mother at last brought me a box of Zam-Buk. This was applied to the foot and it was surprising how soon I found relief from the severe pain. A further supply of Zam-Buk was obtained and I persevered in using this balm alone. In a couple of days the swelling had gone down considerably, the discoloration was less, and the pain was banished. In four days I could go about as usual; the bruised and injured foot had been thoroughly cured by the timely use of Zam-Buk."

POISONED FINGER HEALED.
Mrs. Frank St. Denis of 305 Thompson St., Winnipeg, speaks for Zam-Buk because it cured her of a poisoned finger, which had caused her days of agony. Her own experience. She says: "One morning, while washing, I felt a slight pain in the end of my finger. This gradually got more acute until by the evening of the next day the end of the finger had become swollen and hard and so like I became alarmed. "The pain from it was almost too much to bear. It made me burn quite sick! Pustules of first one kind and then another were applied, but seemed to give me no relief. My daughter-in-law, who had had some previous experience with Zam-Buk obtained a box for me. I applied the balm liberally with this balm, and in a few hours, the throbbing aching pains were subdued. "Further application of Zam-Buk gave me more ease, so that I could get a little sleep. In a few days the nail came off, and after that Zam-Buk seemed to reduce the inflammation. I continued to use until in the end it had brought about a complete cure."

MUSLIMS SHUN THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

Feb. 6—The vernacular journal, "Al-Khbar," draws attention to the fact that the Muslims of Beirut have been advised by the mufti to take out policies with American or European life insurance companies. According to the mufti, the Muslim law prohibits this course with infidels, and certain forms of insurance come under the heading of "riba," which is expressly condemned by Koran. His "fatwa" concludes with a threat of the wrath of Allah to all who have engaged in this business and do not repent thereof. "A document of course, insurance has long been sanctioned by the religious authorities."

ACTRESS SAYS SHE IS NOT ENGAGED TO SON OF SENATOR ELKINS

London, Feb. 6—Miss Sarah Brook, a prominent London actress who is producing Eugene Walter's play, "The East-End Way," at the Globe Theatre, is engaged to marry Stephen Elkins, son of the late Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, according to a report here. Miss Brook went to America last summer, after meeting Elkins in Paris, to be introduced to the Elkins family, who at first refused to entertain the subject of the marriage. According to the story, Miss Brook eventually won them over by agreeing to retire from the stage after producing "The East-End Way," in London. It is also said that the Elkins family is furnishing the money for the forthcoming production. Miss Brook, who has played many prominent roles on the British stage, is thirty-two years old. When asked about it, she said: "I know Mr. Elkins. He is a good friend of mine. It has been said before that I am engaged to him by my friends. I only wish it were true, because I think him a very fine fellow. Unfortunately I am not engaged to anybody."

Romance of a Penal Settlement of Russia is Brought to Light

Vienna, Feb. 6—A romance of the Russian penal settlement on Sigulava Island, north of Japan, is told in the "Reichspost." A Russian count and his young wife were deported to the island in 1887 for political offences. "Company with a child, a girl, on her arrival, and expired immediately afterwards. The entire company standing godfather, and she spent a happy childhood among them. They put their savings together and sent her to school on the mainland, and lately she entered a business in Vladivostok as book-keeper. The son of a millionaire named Lordoff, who was in the business, fell in love with the girl and married her some days ago. The girl wrote to her godfathers—there are only twenty still alive—and her bridegroom sent them a check for $5,000 to pay for the expense they had had in bringing up his wife.

McGILL MAY ESTABLISH A CLASS FOR OPERA STUDY

Montreal, Feb. 6—The affiliation of the McGill Conservatorium of Music and the Montreal Opera Company is under discussion by the heads of both institutions, and while a positive settlement of the question has not yet been reached there is every indication of a final arrangement by which an opera class will be conducted at McGill by the chorus master of the opera company. The scheme as outlined, provides for the establishment of a summer class at McGill, the keeping open the conservatorium during the holiday season for the purpose of students' practice of operatic music for the entire season, and the probable addition to the opera chorus of such students as wish to appear on the stage and perform sufficiently well to be admitted to the ranks of the opera. Dr. Harry Crane Ferrin, the head of the conservatorium has expressed himself as being in favor of such an agreement.

How to Absorb an Old Complexion

(From Popular Monthly).
A girl sighing herself "discouraged," writes she has "tried everything" for her "coarse, horrid, muddy complexion," and asks, "Is there no really effective remedy?"
Decorating your complexion with stuff that comes out of jars and bottles is liable to make it more unsightly. The only sure way to rid yourself of a bad complexion is to remove the cause of the offensive skin. Ordinary mercurized wax, scorable at your druggist's, will do this. Apply at night, as you would cold cream; wash off in the morning. The wax absorbs the dead and dying outer skin, revealing the clear, soft, healthy and beautiful skin underneath. Naturally all surface defects go, too, pimples, blotches, liver spots, moth patches, freckles and blackheads. The treatment causes no discomfort. No one can tell you are using it, the old skin coming off so gradually.

REPORT ON DANGER OF OCCUPATIONS IN WHICH GIRLS ENGAGE

United States Bureau of Labor Refers Particularly to Nursing, Stenography, House Service and Work as Waitress

Washington, Feb. 5—After two years of investigation the Bureau of Labor, in a report just issued, sounds a warning against what it calls dangerous occupations for women in New York. Particular emphasis is laid upon the nursing, stenography, house service and work as waitress. Four other occupations are mentioned as being in the danger zone, including domestic service, the work of hotel and restaurant waitresses, low-grade factory trades and the lower grades of stenographic work. The investigation was conducted by Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, under authorization by congress. "At first thought," says the report, "it seems rather surprising to find training assignments as a call from whom women are specially likely to go wrong, but it was so assigned in several places. The nurse is subjected to periods of long and exhausting mental strain, with much hard physical work in addition. Her position makes it easy for her to secure drugs and liquors, and the nature of her work creates a special demand for stimulants or restoratives. It is easy for her to become a hard drinker or a drug fiend, and when a woman adopts either habit, the chances of her going wrong in other ways are much increased. "Also the nurse is in a position which makes it easy for men to advance toward her if they have any desire in this direction. She has not the protection of publicity afforded by the factory or the department store, and when she is nursing a man opportunities for complications are evident. On the other hand, a professional spirit is usually found among nurses which should serve as a strong restraint, so that these possible complications do not arise so often as the nature of the work might lead one to expect. "Stenography was assigned as a dangerous occupation by only one social worker, and the class who receive the best salaries of all, the girls of fourteen or fifteen, just out of school, who are ignorant and untrained, wholly undeveloped in character, not habituated to self-control, rather weak-willed and entirely unprepared for the possible dangers of their position. The real peril lay in their immaturity and lack of training and until that was removed they would encounter serious risks wherever they might be. "With both domestic service and the low-grade factory trades, it is reported that the dangers to women lay "not so much in the work itself, though conditions under which it is carried on are frequently dangerous, as in the kind of women who are likely to enter such occupations. "The report says: "The work of a waitress in a hotel, restaurant or cafe, presents some very obvious dangers. The waitress comes in contact with men of every kind, some of whom consider a girl in her position fair game. She cannot resent their advances, for she must not offend customers. Even her refusal to accept overtures must be carefully managed. Usually she has constantly before her temptations as to intemperance, and the girl who would resist one danger may fall before the other."

THE KAISER'S PHILOSOPHY

German Emperor's Code Has Prominent Place in His Study

Berlin, Feb. 6—The text of a "Code of Philosophy" which hangs in the Kaiser's study both in Berlin and Potsdam, contrasts, as His Majesty informs his friends, the principles on which he governs his daily life. The code is in the form of a scroll, and occupies a conspicuous place directly above the emperor's work table. In English translation it reads: "To be strong in sorrow; not wishing for that which is unattainable or worthless; content with each day as it comes; seeking for the good in everything; enjoying nature and mankind as they are; finding solace in a happy hour for a large and are so small—everything can not possibly revolve around ourselves. If something injures us, let us be content with the good of the whole creation? "The great, who will of the Almighty and Omnipotent Creator manifests itself in everything animate or inanimate, in this world; we petty human beings lack only the wisdom to comprehend it. As everything is, so should it be, in this world; and no matter how it is, it is always good in the eyes of the Creator."

TATF'S SPECIAL CHAIR WAS MISSING

The navy department in Washington was without a head for quite a time the other day when Secretary Meyer went on a sleuthing expedition in search of the famous Taft chair, without which no host in Washington can possibly entertain the president and which, in the absence of the chair, has unfortunately been misplaced. The chair, built especially to fit the exceptional size of Mr. Taft, is the property of a furniture store, which rents it out to prospective hosts and hostesses. Applications are on weeks and weeks ahead, and when Mr. Taft doubles on his dates, visiting two or more residences on the same evening, rivalry to get the chair is more than considerable. It was Mr. Meyer's pleasure to entertain the president at dinner, and when he sent for the chair, alas, it was nowhere to be found. Harrising from his desk, the secretary conducted the search in person, but without successful result. As a final resort, the nearest approach to the regular chair was braced to meet the emergency.

ALLANS BUY ROMANIC; WILL CHANGE HER NAME

White Star Steamer Will Become the Scandinavian—On Canadian Route

Montreal, Feb. 6—The Allan line has purchased the steamer Romanic from the White Star-Dominion line for the Montreal-Glasgow service. Their new acquisition was built by Harland & Wolff, of Belfast, and is 11,284 tons burden, which is almost the same tonnage as the Corican. Her length is 550 feet, with 59 feet 3 inches depth 35 feet 9 inches; she is a twin-screw steamer of eight cylinders, and has a speed of about sixteen knots. The Romanic has until recently been used by the White Star for their Boston-Mediterranean service. This purchase will release the London for the Montreal, Havre and London service, and probably the Scotian will follow also, as the Allan line are endeavoring to arrange for the purchase or charter of a vessel to replace the Scotian on the Montreal-Glasgow route. Further news as to this will probably be available in the course of the next few days. The purchase of the Romanic increases the carrying capacity of the Allan line by almost ten per cent. She has accommodations for second class passengers, and her decks and public rooms are spacious and well fitted. She will be renamed the Scandinavian, so as to conform with the nomenclature of the line. The Scandinavian will probably make her first trip about March 1.

PROFIT OF $5,000 A YEAR FROM CHICKENS ON A SINGLE ACRE OF GROUND

Scientific Poultry Raising Has Made It Possible, Says English Expert

London, Feb. 6—Recent research has disclosed some startling possibilities which lie before the scientific poultry farmer of the near future, who will be able to rear as many as 40,000 chickens on a single acre of ground in a year. Some features of the new system are described by Godwin Edwards, a poultry expert. "There is a fortune to be made on an acre of ground by following the latest scientific methods of poultry raising," he said, "I think it will astonish many people when I say that it is now possible to rear 40,000 chickens annually on one acre of ground at a profit of $5,000 a year. This is made possible by adopting the most scientific methods. "The eggs are hatched and hatched in incubators, after which the chickens are never allowed to roam about at large, but reared in ranges of foster mothers, where they remain for six and a half weeks, after which they are moved to the specially constructed brooder houses. "This is the principle on which the new system is worked, and by their thirteenth week the chickens should weigh three pounds each, while their food, on a large scale, some to twelve cents a head. "We spend $200,000 annually on buying foreign poultry," Mr. Edwards declared, "and our complete dependence on foreign eggs is the cause of the present scarcity. The idea of supplying London with enough home-laid eggs is beyond the dreams of the average producer. The secret of success lies in a coming race of super-hens. Careful breeding has produced already a strain which will lay 200 eggs a year, as against the thirty or forty eggs of the old-fashioned breeds. "By the careful management of these super-breeds, and their universal adoption by poultry experts, we shall augment our home supply so enormously that the foreign egg will become unavailable in the London markets."

DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Canifon, Ont.—"I had been a great sufferer for five years. One doctor told me it was ulcers of the uterus and another told me it was a fibroid tumor. No one knows what I suffered. I would always be worse at certain periods and never was regular, and the doctor's pills did not help. I was very ill in bed and the doctor told me I would have to have an operation, and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles. For it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me while passing through Change of Life."—Mrs. LETTIE BLAIR, Canifon, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ailments, including inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has won millions to suffering women.

Some Property Matters—Ald. Hayes Comments on Chamberlain's Annual Report—Reduction in City's Debt

The final decision of the common council as to the ferry rates came almost at the close of the second session of yesterday's meeting, and resulted in the immediate increase of two cents in the fare for single teams, three cents for double teams, one cent in the straight ferry fare for passengers and the adoption of the forty book plan for fifty cents, except between certain hours when the fare will be between 6 and 8 1/2 o'clock in the morning, 1 to 1:30 o'clock at noon and 5 and 7 o'clock in the evening. The motion carried 10 to 7. All ferry passes were renewed.

Mayor Frink presided and the full board was present at both sessions. The treasury board report was taken up, Ald. C. T. Jones objected to the bill of Miss Bessie C. Wetmore for fees for services as stenographer for the board. Bills amounting to $33,597.77 were paid by the board since the last meeting of council and Ald. Green remarked that after the bills had been paid there was nothing more to do.

Ald. C. T. Jones also objected to payment of $90 to Ald. Potts for services as auctioneer in the laborer sale and the increase of the total expenses for the sale from $15 to $115 and Ald. Potts made a reply which brought applause from members of the board.

Ald. Elliott moved that the section recommending the use of $2,000 from the unexpended balance of last year for making a playground at the foot of Rockwood Park, be struck out, arguing that too much money was being devoted to this purpose in a city the size of St. John. Ald. J. B. Jones favored having a portion of the $2,000 used to put the plot at the foot of King street in shape.

Ald. Keirstead explained that the playground intended was a place of recreation for the young men to carry on sports and athletic exercises and was not intended altogether for the children. The plan had been purchased by a private individual and presented to the city for improvement.

and the debate proceeded with Ald. McLeod, the last speaker. While he was speaking Ald. Smith rose from his place and whispered into Ald. Keirstead's ear.

Ald. Keirstead said he had no intention of achieving the matter. The amendment of Ald. Keirstead for increased rates except by annual meeting was then carried on the following vote:—

Keirstead, Green, Hayes, Russell, Potts, Elliott, Wilson, Christie, J. B. Jones and C. T. Jones—10. McLeod, McGoldrick, Codner, Wigmore and Elkin—7.

The remainder of the bill prepared by the committee at the last meeting were then adopted. Ald. Potts asked and was told that the appeals committee report was adopted.

The market committee recommended that the claim of $22.50 against Haydock Lodge for rental of room in the Market building be written off on payment of $12.50.

Ald. Hayes congratulated the market committee on the splendid showing made and said that the change in administration was about $10,000, or $3,000 more than last year, while expenses were slightly less.

Ald. Potts said that the committee had gained its surplus through the simple method of charging more for rentals and said that the receipts from tolls were at the most $300 less than he had offered under the old system.

The report was adopted. The bills and by-laws committee report was presented with the amended ferry by-law as the first section.

Don't let force of habit spoil your porridge.

Force of habit says "porridge should be cooked all night." But that habit was formed a long time ago when people had to make porridge out of oatmeal instead of rolled oats.

Even yet some women through force of habit, are cooking Tillson's all night, though 15 minutes is ample.

They forget that where oatmeal was coarsely ground oats, Tillson's is thinly rolled oats. So filmy and thin are the Tillson flakes that they can be cooked as thoroughly in 15 minutes as the coarse particles of old-fashioned oatmeal could be in a whole night.

Puree of Oysters Bring a quart of oysters to boil in your own liquor to the fire. Add two tablespoons of Tillson's Rolled Oats to the boiling water. Simmer for five minutes, then strain through sieve, return to fire, add one pint of milk and cook for five minutes. Add one egg yolk and one egg white. If too thick add one beaten egg yolk.

Your grocer has Tillson's. Two sizes—25c and 10c. Each 25c package contains a handsome piece of English Porcelain Tableware.

For several weeks the officers of the Eastern Dog Club, under whose auspices the Boston show will be given, have been in communication with the leading amateur and professional judges of the dog, and a most satisfactory preliminary list has just been arranged. Mr. Reeves specializes to a great extent on the terrier dog, but there are very few breeds upon which he is not entirely capable of passing judgment.

Washbrook Rutherford of New York, owner of the noted Warren dogs, will judge Airedale terriers; W. L. Milford of Philadelphia, Scottish and West Highland white terriers; John Bowditch, of Framingham, amateur sportsman and master of the best Airedales in America, the Welsh terrier; Arnold Lawson of Boston, the English bulldog; George S. Thomas of Hamilton, Boston and Manchester terriers.

A dog show of any magnitude would not be complete without the presence of James Mortimer of Hempstead, L. I., in the ring. For years he has been one of the most conspicuous judges in the states. He and Mr. Reeves as temporarily listed as all-round judges for the Boston show. In addition to these named there will be judges for Dachshunds, pointers, setters, beagles, and some of the more common breeds of dogs.

One of the best pieces of character acting seen here for some time was that of Miss Lillian Devere, as "Annie Fanny," the quaint, old southern plantation negro, guardian of Miss Beverly. She is one of the most efficient in the cast, and played the greatest share of the comedy provided during the evening in an excellent portrayal of the old-time southern "mammy."

Prince Danton, or Baldo, the mountaineer as he is introduced to the audience, was in the capable care of Lawrence Evans, and in his picturesque garb, he was at all times a favorite and had much to do with the success of the piece. In addition to being well adapted physically to the role, he has a fine voice, which he uses to good advantage. Miss Radloff made a queenly Yvette, while Mr. Lane's Colonel Quincey was ill that could be desired. Others who aided masterfully in the production were Miss Eva Bascaille and J. J. Fowser.

The Young People's Guild of St. Stephen's church spent a delightful time in the school room of the church last evening with music and games. R. E. Gray was the chairman, and in the chair, refreshments were served. The police are looking for some one who rang a false alarm from box 141 last evening.

H. M. Davy, of the Dominion Public Works Department left last evening for Ottawa to consult with the government about some work to be done in Montreal harbor. T. M. Block of Portland, Me., who arrived in the city yesterday, said that as soon as he returns from his trip he will begin the erection of a factory for the manufacture of his patent explosive. He has abandoned the Marsh road site, but has several others in view, among them one at Marble Cove. The buildings at the Marsh road site, but had been unable to find any. They were located and the policemen took up a collection to provide them with a lunch.

Members of the Borden club enjoyed a sleigh drive to Torryburn last evening and on their return had supper at Wainman's restaurant. F. R. Fairweather presided, and addresses were given by L. P. D. Tilley and Ald. Potts. F. C. Mansell, D. Arnold Fox, Steve Matthews, F. O'Hara and others contributed to the entertainment.

LARGE AUDIENCE IN OPERA HOUSE ENJOY BEVERLY OF GRAUSTARK

George Barr McCutcheon's romantic four act comedy drama, "Beverly of Graustark" was given its first presentation in this city last evening in the Opera House before a very large audience, which seemed well pleased with the performance, for they were generous with appreciative applause and gave repeated curtain calls.

The staging of the play and the costumes of the various characters were a source of commendation, while the story, familiar to a great many who had read the novel, called for some clever professional work from many of the cast. Although it does not follow the story in the book very closely, the theme of the author is clearly defined and the characters are distinctly true to the fiction pages.

Miss Margaret Shays played the title role, a dashing, pretty and coquettish American girl, Beverly Calhoun, and provided a charm and grace which had much to do with the successful portrayal of the character and her acting at all times was natural and pleasing.

One of the best pieces of character acting seen here for some time was that of Miss Lillian Devere, as "Annie Fanny," the quaint, old southern plantation negro, guardian of Miss Beverly. She is one of the most efficient in the cast, and played the greatest share of the comedy provided during the evening in an excellent portrayal of the old-time southern "mammy."

Scott D. Gupill, as intimated in the Times yesterday, was chosen as the Conservative candidate in Charlotte county in the election to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of T. J. Hatt, who has gone into federal politics.

The building near the railway station at Hampton, occupied by the owner, M. Logan, and also by R. A. Stronach, was damaged by fire on Sunday evening. The loss is only partly covered.

Mr. Justice Eddall addressed the Halifax Canadian Club last evening on the constitutional history of Canada. The Moncton Conservative Club last night elected Hon. J. D. Hazen, honorary president; Dr. O. B. Price, president; W. E. Marks, 1st vice; S. McK. Weldon, 2nd vice; W. J. Pippy, 3rd vice; S. T. Harrison, secretary; A. E. Metzler, treasurer.

SCHOOLS QUESTION A LIVE ONE FOR MR. BORDEN TO HANDLE

(Ottawa, Feb. 5.—The presence of Archbishop Langevin, of Manitoba, here today, and the fact that Archbishop Langevin is coming here tomorrow in connection with the terms for the Manitoba boundaries, in so far as they affect separate schools, is indicative of the fact that the fight of the Nationalists and the hierarchy for a clause in the boundary extension bill, preserving the rights of the Roman Catholic church to separate schools in the territory to be annexed, is waxing warmer.

Mr. Borden's Quebec contingent emphatically declares that they will not submit to the passing of any bill which does not safeguard the rights of the Roman Catholic minority in Manitoba, and if the measure comes down to the house without the required clauses they will move to have it inserted, thus precipitating a serious split in the party ranks.

Announcement is likely soon to be made in parliament that the government will expend $30,000,000 in construction of the new Welland ship canal, a 22 foot waterway to the Great Lakes, which means that the Georgian Bay canal scheme will be side-tracked for some time at least. It is thought to be the largest item in the supplementary estimates.

It is said in Ottawa that the rumor that the government has actually signed the Courtney Bay contract is premature and that it is understood that the work will be done by Norton Griffiths & Co. The minister of finance will not present his budget until the first of March in order to have the fiscal period the same as that of his predecessors.

Don't become discouraged simply because your hair falls and is thin, weak and wispy, until you have tried Newbro's Herpicide. 'I first began to use Newbro's Herpicide three years ago, after a spell of fever, which caused me to become almost bald. Herpicide soon restored the quantity and natural color of my hair. I feel lost without a bottle of Herpicide in the house. This Mrs. Anna C. Larn, 211 Second Ave., Louisville, Ky., tells in her own words how she lost her hair and how she got it back. Mrs. Larn's experience has been duplicated a thousand times and can be repeated thousands more.

Newbro's Herpicide keeps the hair and scalp in a perfectly healthy condition. When the hair falls and has not been destroyed by the ravages of the dandruff germ, the hair will resume its suspended growth.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and checks falling hair. The itching of the scalp stops almost instantly. Others imitate and make similar claims, but the original dandruff germ destroyer is Herpicide.

EVIDENCE TAKEN TODAY

The evidence of Joseph Habab, husband of the woman who was arrested last week with Thomas Ferris on a serious charge, was taken this morning in the police court and after this adjournment was made until Friday next at ten a.m. H. J. Smith appeared for the prisoners.

The complainant told the court that five years ago he had married the woman. They had one child, a girl, now living in Boston. He had lived with her for two years in Buenos Ayres, and for three months in Boston. There they had quarrelled and separated. He came to St. John five months ago, and she followed, and they again took up house this time in Erin street here. Ferris had a room in the house. The witness here gave evidence to substantiate the charges which he preferred against the pair.

Habab could not speak English very well, and the services of Louis Corey were employed to interpret his testimony, not even at that the complainant was much excited and would answer verbally, so that the court had several times to threaten him with confinement in jail unless he replied properly. Some of his answers furnished much amusement for the spectators.

ST. JOHN AMATEURS HEARTILY RECEIVED IN THE SISTER CITY

Large Audience See Lost Paradise; Company Members Are Well Entertained

A special Halifax despatch to the Times says—The production of the play, Lost Paradise, which was presented here last night by the St. John Amateurs, was without a doubt one of the best seen here for some time. All the cast acquitted themselves admirably and the play ran as smoothly as in a professional hands. The Academy was crowded with an appreciative audience that enjoyed the performance from the rise of the curtain.

The principals—D. J. Corr, L. A. Conlon, F. V. Conlon, F. J. Corr, J. R. McCleary, W. E. Gale and Misses Lynch, Irvine and Smith, made excellent impressions, and received much hearty applause for their work. Miss Adele Harney sang a solo which was well received.

The members of the company are being royally treated by the Columbus Club of this city, who played the Isle of Palms in St. John yesterday afternoon. They were shown through the institution by the club members. Miss Harney sang a solo which was greatly enjoyed. After the performance last night the company was entertained at a reception and dance in the Knights of Columbus Hall. There were more than 300 present and a most enjoyable time was had. The visitors are also being entertained at lunches and card parties by friends in the city who are doing all in their power to make their stay here a pleasant one. The company will in a matter of days be on their way home tomorrow night.

The Times also hears that two of the property trunks went astray and the ladies were without their stage costumes, as the time for last night's performance drew near. Thanks to Miss Courtenay and others of the Columbus Club a wardrobe was provided.

GIVES TEMPERANCE TALK TO THE LABORING MEN

Case in Court Brings Remarks From Bench on Present Day Conditions

Two men charged with drunkenness were before the court this morning and were remanded. One of them pleaded not guilty to being drunk saying that he had only taken "a few glasses, but Police-man Kane who made the arrest said that the man had been one of a party who had come out of a hall in Water street and observed the streets, while there were people passing to the ferry. When ordered to move he had not done so and would not, so he was placed in custody.

The prisoner said he was a member of the crew of a steamer and he had a copy of the newspaper, also of the crew, who was found wandering about St. Patrick street early this morning unable to do account of himself.

His Honor asked if there were any labor officials among the crowd of spectators. His reason for doing so he said, was that "there was coming to be too much drunkenness among laboring men, and drinking fellows who could be much better off if they would leave the run to be drunk by the 'bums' on the street corners, not by those who labored hard for their money and earned every cent of it. It is getting so now," he continued, "that a man seen going into a bar-room is looked upon as losing his self-respect, so strong is the feeling against drunkenness becoming with the general masses,—he is not a respectable man who is a frequenter of bar-rooms."

All three prisoners were remanded.
