ARRANGEMENTS WILL HAVE GREAT TIME ON MONDAY Celebration of "the Glorious Twelfth" This Year Will Be the Greatest St. John Has Ever Seen—2,500 Followers of King William Will Be in Line—A Stand for Temperance

Always strongly supporting the cause of temperance, the Royal Orange Association has this year come out stronger than ever in its favor. At the big Orange demonstration to be held here on July 12th, any member of the order seen under the influence of liquor will be summarily dealt with by his lodge, and, if at all disorderly, will be at once handed over to the police. With a probable attendance in St. John on Monday next of 2,500 followers of King William in regalia and with the hundreds of visitors who will come to the city for the day it will be necessary to maintain perfect order and the officers of the St. John county and district lodges, together with the representatives from the subordinate lodges who have the celebration in hand, are entitled to much credit for the complete arrangements made.

Everything is now practically perfected in the grand procession, and it is expected that the order of procession will be complete and arranged until almost the last minute. There will in fact be several processions in St. John on Monday. In the morning the visiting lodges, with bands of music, will be pouring into the city by boat and train. Special excursion rates will be given on the I. C. R. and C. P. R., and in many instances special trains will be chartered. It is expected that 800 Orange lodges will send about 100 men. Charlotte county and the border lodges will probably send 250 more, while St. John county, east and west, and the St. John city lodges, are expected to turn out about 600. It is also expected that lodges from Digby and other bay ports in Nova Scotia will be represented, while the Royal Black Knights of Ireland and the Royal Seaforth Chapter men of the province will turn out in all their gorgeous uniforms. As for music, it is expected there will be from 15 to 20 bands in the grand procession. Numerically and from a spectacular standpoint, next Monday's procession is expected to be one of the greatest ever held in eastern Canada. The morning will be occupied in the arrival of the lodges. These will arrive at the Union depot early both the I. C. R. and C. P. R. lines between ten and 12 o'clock. Headed by their bands they will proceed to the Barracks. The afternoon representatives will arrive in a flotilla of motor boats about 10.30 Monday morning. In the meantime the city lodges, precincts and chapters will assemble at their respective lodges and each unit with bands, banners and full regalia will proceed to the Barracks. The steamer May Queen will make a special trip bringing the brethren from the Grand Lake section. She will leave Cady's at a. m. on Monday arriving in Indiantown at 1 p. m. in time for the procession.

TWO MORE BIG NEWS FROM GOLD FINDS FREDERICTON

British Columbia Has Two Important Placer Gold Discoveries—Gold as Coarse as Wheat

Victoria, B. C., July 6.—(Special)—By a freak coincidence, two placer gold discoveries, both of which promise important gold mining camps, have been made almost simultaneously within a day's travel respectively of British Columbia's two chief cities, Vancouver and Victoria. Seymour Creek, where J. L. Marriott, an Australian, has made a lucky strike, is but five miles distant from the first named provincial city, and already it is staked virtually to its source, the Caribou, and his seventeen associates have been panning five weeks near Seymour Canyon, the gold running 20 cents to the pan. The Vancouver discovery is at Port Renfrew, on the southwestern coast, just across from Leechtown. The new finds are on the Sombro River, seemingly a continuation of the same deposits which at Leechtown returned $90,000 in the first month's working. It is claimed there is plenty of gold there as coarse as wheat.

There being sufficient reason shown why probate should issue without waiting the lapse of fourteen days from the death of deceased probate is granted and the executors named in the will are duly sworn in as such. Real estate $400. Personal property $3,000. E. T. C. Knowles, proctor.

Estate of John Clark, mill owner and manufacturer. Adjourning hearing of citation to pass the accounts of the executors. This case is now before the court. J. B. M. Baxter, K. YORK MUNICIPAL COUNCIL AID A RAILWAY PLAN

Warden Hinchey Calls Upon the Residents of York to Demand a Railway from "The Powers That Be"—New Brunswick's Most Pressing Need at the Present Time.

Fredricton, N. B., July 6.—(Special)—York Municipal Council met in semi-annual session this morning. The proceedings opened with prayer by Rev. H. MacDonald, after which Warden Hinchey delivered his annual address. He spoke of the recent forest fires, and expressed the hope that settlers when clearing land would take every precaution to prevent fires from getting beyond control. Referring to the St. John Valley railway project, the warden said: "I am firmly convinced that a railway down the valley of St. John is New Brunswick's most pressing need at the present time. This is too important a question to be made a political football of, and I trust that the Dominion and local governments will at the earliest possible moment grant the necessary financial assistance to some company which will undertake the construction of the road. It is a most regrettable thing as I view it, to see thousands of people who inhabit one of the oldest settled portions of this continent, compelled today to resort to the most primitive transportation methods. This is not as it should be, and it is our right and our duty to demand a railway from the powers that be."

BANQUET CLOSING CHAMPLAIN FETES

President Taft Will Be Dined Tomorrow By New York Commission—This Closes Celebration on New York Shore.

New York, July 6.—President Taft, who arrived here from Norwich, Conn., by special train at 3 a. m. today left at 7.45 for Albany, en route to the Lake Champlain celebration. The president will spend this afternoon sightseeing at Old Fort Ticonderoga and at Tintburg, and will spend the night at the TROOP CAMP at Blue Point, tomorrow. The celebration in the New York shore reaches its climax and a day of impressive ceremonies will be concluded by a banquet given by the governor and the New York State Commission to President Taft. This banquet will be probably the most brilliant function of the celebration. It will be attended by the representatives of three great nations, Great Britain, France and the United States, and at it President Taft is expected to deliver his principal speech. He may also speak briefly at the Plattsburg ceremonies tomorrow afternoon, where Senator Root will be the orator of the day. The French minister, M. Tesson, is among the guests from the government. At 10 o'clock the day is over and around Burlington, Vt., leaving there early Thursday night in order to reach Washington Friday afternoon.

COURT CASE ON THE DIVORCE CURRY—The Street Railway and the Suspension Bridge

Fredricton, N. B., July 6.—(Special)—Judge McKenna presided at the regular term of the divorce court which opened here this morning. The docket is made up as follows: Lemuel A. Curry vs. Mary Elizabeth Curry and counter suit, Beulah L. Harris vs. Edward A. Harris, Sarah A. Saunders vs. W. A. Saunders, Sarah Bell Harris vs. Walter W. Harris. It was announced that the Curry case having been stood over from the last term, Judge McKenna will hear the Harris vs. Walter W. Harris case, and C. N. Skinner, proctor for Mr. Curry expressed the opinion that it would be disposed of by Thursday. Application was made for an execution against Mr. Curry for non-payment of $75 a month alimony, ordered by Judge Gregg last term. Mr. Skinner explained that Mr. Curry had not paid the amount because he considered it excessive. His Honor made an order that the amount in arrears be paid into court by Friday afternoon an execution would issue. Mr. Skinner intimated that the money would be forthcoming. It was agreed to stand the remaining case on the docket over until Tuesday next.

THE CARLETON LOTS

Louis Coste, of the public works department, Ottawa, called upon Mayor Balch this morning to discuss matters connected with the transfer of the Carleton lots to the government. Mr. Coste is desirous of informing himself as to the progress of negotiations, as the improvements to the west side facilities depend largely on this project being satisfactorily worked out. A meeting will probably be held this afternoon to discuss the matter with Mr. Coste.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

HIRAM SEES THINGS "Well, well, well!" cried Mr. Hiram Hornbaker this morning. "Right or wrong, 'o' hay'n't the farmers has got to shine up their boots in the fat calf, Hazen's comin'—an' Maxwell's—an' Morrison's—an' Hatherly's—McInerney's—Baxter's—MacRae's—Moisher's—an' I s'pose Grimmer, an' Lan-dry, an' McLeod, an' Flemming, an' a lot more. Well, well, well! Hey, what! Strawberry short-cake an' real pie. Green peas an' Washington pie. Talk about city comin' an' summer boardin', by Hen I calculate the farmers in St. John county never seen such a procession. Are they 'tornout? Any buglers to call out the populace? Say—if a feller broke oes wagon goin' over the St. John county roads to hear Hazen, if he'd pay the market! I guess it 'ud be easier to walk. The' w'en he's a fresh egg, the market for a fortnight. No wonder we're hav' half-tornouts in July. Aint that so? It is, by Hen!"

NO DOUBT. The news that a revolution has broken out in Colombia is taken here to mean that base ball circles are excited about something. This is not the last revolution, but the next one. The weather is hot in Colombia.

JAMSEY'S PECULIARITY. Mr. James Jones expresses the view that boys and girls will be men and women if they live, and that therefore a little care and thought given to their welfare in play time may have good results. James has an odd streak in some ways.

AN OLD FRIEND. A man who was handcuffed with his hands behind him was found later handcuffed with his hands before him. The jail officials say they do not know how he got behind his hands. Mr. Peter Binns informs the Times new reporter that his man's real name is Henry More Smith.

DO LEON LING SHIP ON A STEAMER BOUND TO JAPAN?

New York Police Now Believe They Have an Excellent Clue to the Whereabouts of Elsie Sigel's Murderer—Following Him "East of Suez."

New York, July 6.—In the hope of capturing Leon Ling the accused slayer of Elsie Sigel, the police have just cabled to several cities on the Mediterranean coast and to points through the Suez Canal. It was last reported that the police say that Ling shipped from Philadelphia on June 10 and 12. The murder was committed June 9. Further information has just come to the police saying that the ship on which the Chinaman took passage was bound for the Orient. In looking up the records detectives found that the Helene Rickners left Philadelphia on June 12, bound for Iosaki, Japan, and that before sailing her commander, Captain Oetting had shipped several Chinamen as part of the crew. Among these Chinamen who were engaged only a short time before sailing was one well dressed man who spoke good English and who

CHAMPLAIN MONUMENT Committee Will Meet Tomorrow to Choose a Site for it

Where will the Champlain monument be placed? This is the next question for the committee having this matter in hand, to decide. The sculptor, Hamilton McCarthy, has written to the mayor, asking that the site be decided on so that work on the granite base can be commenced. A meeting of the committee will be held tomorrow to discuss the matter. Among the sites that have been suggested, are: Market Square, Queen Square, and at the corner of King and Germain streets. The committee will doubtless receive plenty of suggestions as to the most suitable site.

POLICE COURT

Before the magistrate this morning Patrolman Ward testified that Richard Walters and John Marr, two Nauyaswank men, drove up King street between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, and as they were completely under the influence of liquor, they were driven to the police station, and the team was placed in a livery stable. Harry McDonald, who was liberated last night, providing that he would report to Toronto, was informed that he would probably be dealt with under the Dominion Act, which permits a term of six months without the alternative of a fine for continued intoxication. He was remanded. Samuel Irvine, who promised to increase the salaries of the employees of Manchester, Robertson and Allison Limited, yesterday afternoon and attempted to assume control of the King street department and was fined $4 or ten days for intoxication.

THE COUNTY CAMPAIGN The people of St. John county are asked to elect a supporter of the Hazen government because of the new highway act. All that the people in the county know about this act is that it has prevented them from having their roads kept in good condition this year.

It is satisfactory to note that the Liberals are alive to the fact that a vigorous organization will meet the enemy at every point. In Mr. Bentley the Liberals have a candidate who will make a valuable member of the house, and whose interests in St. John county make him truly the candidate of the people.

try watched with a certain amount of envy what the great sister dominions beyond the sea were able to do. They were a little country, and they were poor. They could not present Dreadnoughts. But this he could present—that is, a Tiffin for the attack of the Empire in South Africa, it would be the unerring rifle of the Boer which would give Great Britain's answer on the wild and lonely veldt. (Loud applause.)

Another speech at this banquet, delivered by a Canadian, is equally worthy of being quoted, because of the light it throws upon the attitude of British statesmen toward the relations existing between the different parts of the empire. Perhaps many Canadians still entertain the view which Mr. D'Almeida of Winnipeg held before he went on this visit to the mother country. In view of his statements they must perform take a new point of view, and one that goes with closer sympathy and less suspicion in the consideration of imperial matters. We quote again from the Sheffield Telegraph:—

"Mr. J. W. D'Almeida, of Winnipeg, was the first to reply. 'You can have your party divisions here as we have at home,' he said, 'but with the dominions overseas there are no party divisions on Imperial questions.' (Hear, hear.) During the twenty years in which he had been writing and thinking upon the problems of Empire, he had always recognized the danger to the Empire came, or would come from men who really believed that they were its best friends, men who believed that they could sit in a library in London and formulate a constitution or a working programme, in which they could compress the life of the nation overseas. The evidence that had been forthcoming at the conference that no responsible statesman in either party considered that theory, had done more for the consolidation of the Empire than anything that had happened for many years. (Loud applause.) Because Canada had been British for the last hundred years it had perhaps prospered less than it might otherwise have done, but no Canadian had ever regarded that as a sacrifice. It had been a condition of their national life and they had accepted it. The bond which had held the British Empire together had been a community of aspirations. The British Empire had endured because the people who lived in it, whatever language they spoke, believed that the British principles, the British system of government, were the best assurance of that social and political cohesion that was in the heart of every good man."

It is idle for any Canadian journal to argue that this imperial press conference has not been fruitful in good results for the empire. The delegates did not go home to legislate for the empire. They were neither asked nor expected to do more than they have done. Their meeting together at the heart of the empire has focused the attention of the empire as never before upon matters of common and vital interest.

"Quis separabit?" "Who shall separate us?" demands the Sheffield Telegraph, commenting on the speech of Mr. Fichardt of Bloemfontein. "Yes, who indeed? Not that the feeling of unity, of kinship, is alive in South Africa, as in the rest of the empire, who will dream of trying to quench it? It is evident that only a very shrewd foe will try."

A VISION I stand on the brink of a river, The River of Life to me, Where the hallow memory quiver, And rise and fall like the sea. I read in their tremulous motion The records of many a year, There are shadows of glory and pain, And the muffled words I hear. Down under the waters gleaming, There are forms of beauty and bliss, There are shadows of dark and low, There are scenes from life's fair morning. That come like the break of day, Or a vision of heaven's dawn, When the mists have cleared away.

I gaze on the night Egyptian, With eyes and longing eye, Till my soul is stirred, by the vision, With raptures from Paradise. I see the chain of a friendship Death never had power to part; The other is round my heart. I hear from the depths of the river, Sweet words that my soul shall; We are parted, but not forever; We are living and loving still.

My fancy often made it seem A boy and girl were seen; Or great balloons that swiftly sailed From the heart of the empire, I put a girl's 'round the world' come in. And those who were farthest away from camp were pretty well drenched before they managed to 'come in.' In shorter time and space than are required for the telling the mindrops were transformed into hailstones, the smallest of which were the size of peas and the average about an inch in diameter. Soon the ground became strewn with hail, and though the sun came out about 3 o'clock the rain continued to fall in heavy showers. The storm made things very disagreeable, a good many of the tents, which had been braced up for ventilation purposes, being flooded. Some of the horses in the 8th Hussars and Army Service Corps became frightened at the terrific down-pour and a number of them stampeded. Blankets had to be placed over the heads of many of them to keep them quiet. The 7th and 2nd Regiments marched into town this afternoon in skirmishing order and in regular marching order also.

CAMP SUSSEX VISITED BY A TERRIFIC HAIL STORM

Sussex, N. B., July 6.—Camp Sussex was taken unawares this afternoon by one of the fiercest storms, while it lasted, that has been experienced in these parts for some time. During the forenoon fine weather could not have been desired, but shortly after dinner the sky became overcast. The infantry, with the exception of the 74th Regiment, did not go on parade, as usual at 2 o'clock, as there was to be a turnout later in the afternoon. The 74th, with its band at its head, paraded to the rifle range for target shooting about 2 o'clock in full strength. They had not proceeded far, however, before they were overtaken by a very heavy shower, which caused them to seek shelter. As the other two regiments did not parade at 2 o'clock the signallers were left in undisputed possession of the field and commenced their work immediately, dividing into sections of twos and threes for station practice.

Suddenly the skies became dark, a few sprinkling drops of rain made their way earthwards and those who were at liberty ran for shelter. The signallers at their respective desks valiantly remained at their posts until they received the command "C. L.," which means "vacate your stations and come in." And those who were farthest away from camp were pretty well drenched before they managed to "come in."

In shorter time and space than are required for the telling the mindrops were transformed into hailstones, the smallest of which were the size of peas and the average about an inch in diameter. Soon the ground became strewn with hail, and though the sun came out about 3 o'clock the rain continued to fall in heavy showers. The storm made things very disagreeable, a good many of the tents, which had been braced up for ventilation purposes, being flooded. Some of the horses in the 8th Hussars and Army Service Corps became frightened at the terrific down-pour and a number of them stampeded. Blankets had to be placed over the heads of many of them to keep them quiet. The 7th and 2nd Regiments marched into town this afternoon in skirmishing order and in regular marching order also.

In course of construction. The estimated cost is $3,000. The output of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. for June was as follows: Gross tons. Pig iron 24,289 Steel ingots 2,142 Rails 18,410 Wire rods 7,044 The shipments for the month aggregated over 27,000 tons. A man named Steele, residing in Sydney Mines, was arraigned in court on the charge of having fired a revolver at his wife. As the wife did not appear in court to press the charge, the prisoner was discharged on payment of a $300 fine.

COMMON SENSE AND NAVAL DEFENCE (Victoria Colonist) Those who refuse to be stampeded by the Dreadnought cry are having their innings. It is easy to go into heroics over a proposal that appears to the senses of patriotism; it is difficult and often unpopular when the public imagination is inflamed, to preserve an even mind and await developments. In a speech delivered in England the other day by a prominent public man, whose name I do not remember, the speaker was drawn to the fact that the offer of a battleship by New Zealand had not been followed by a proposal that the home government should build one less, and the speaker went on to say that no matter what the overseas Dominions might do they could not lessen the burden of the British taxpayer. Britain, the speaker said, must always maintain the responsibility of her own defence; the duty of the daughter nations would be to protect their own coast and assist in making safe the pathways of the seas. The brief synopsis of the observations, addressed to the Press Conference by Lord Esher, bear out this view, and Lord Charles Balfour distinctly took this position. We notice that the gallant admiral advised against haste. "Don't let us be in a hurry," he said, "but don't let us wait too long." The Colonist, dealing severely scolded for saying something to the same effect a couple of months ago. The best way in which the colonies can cooperate with the Mother Country in the matter of Imperial defence cannot be determined in spasms of enthusiasm. If some single act would be a fulfillment of colonial obligations in that regard, there need be no difficulty in deciding what to do but the duty of the hour is not to build a battleship or vote a few millions to the Admiralty; it is to decide upon a policy that shall be fundamental in character. We note Lord Charles' suggestion that the overseas governments should restore the dismantled navy depots, a line of policy which would certainly commend itself to this part of the Empire.

CAMP SUSSEX VISITED BY A TERRIFIC HAIL STORM

An advance guard or scouting party was sent in advance, and the main body brought up the rear. The cavalry also scouted around this afternoon through the surrounding country looking over the land for field day. Colonel Jones, of Ottawa, arrived in camp today and was shown around the grounds by Colonel Walker, of the A. M. C. This afternoon he inspected the units of the Medical Corps and was much pleased at their sanitary condition and neat appearance.

Another patient was placed in the hospital today, an infantry man suffering with an abscessed jaw. This brings the sick list up to seven. Tomorrow something new is planned for the No. 6 Field Ambulance Corps in the way of a march out. In former years the whole body, with the exception of the hospital staff attendants and cooks, would march to the boundary of the camp pitch their tent and be "ready for business," but the order is to be changed somewhat this year, as the officers are making preparations for a similar manoeuvre, though on a more extensive and warlike scale. It is expected that the corps will march out about five miles from camp, setting up their tents, hospital included, hivoor for the night, returning to camp early the next morning. It is thought that this will give the men a more realistic idea of active service.

The officers of the staff were entertained at dinner this evening by Piper Larry MacLaren, of the A. M. C., who played a number of interesting and pleasing selections on the bagpipes. Two games of base ball will be played this evening, one between the 19th Battery and the Service Corps, and the other between the 7th Regiment and the Army Medical Corps. Armourer Sergeant Sullivan will make an inspection of arms tomorrow to inspect the different units in camp. Colonel Dodger, senior Army Service Corps officer, is expected tomorrow to inspect the local body. Major Helmut, inspector of musketry, and Lieut.-Colonel English, assistant inspector of artillery, will also arrive in camp tomorrow. The field officer for tomorrow will be Major Kinner, of the 8th Hussars; medical officer, Major Murray, 8th Hussars; range officer, Captain Winswright, Infantry Brigade; I. M., Captain Pringle, 7th Regiment. The 7th will furnish the camp guard, picket and band for tomorrow.

ANOTHER RECRUIT

"Hiram," said Mrs. Johnson to her better half as she looked up from her evening paper, "there's been a great deal said about the tariff in the papers for weeks past, but you haven't seemed to be interested."
"No, I haven't taken much interest," he replied.
"But I wish you'd take a little now. I see a good deal about ad valorem. What is the meaning of it?"
"It's a sort of a tax, my dear."
"I thought so, but just what kind of a tax? I see in one place here where ad valorem is connected with cigars."
"Yes. It means that cigars are to be cheaper. The tariff puts a duty of 10 per cent. on cigars, and then ad valorem steps in and knocks 15 per cent. off."
"But what for?"
"So that 15 cents per pair can be added to the price of every pair of women's stockings."
"And then your cigars are to be cheaper and my stockings dearer!" shrieked

Mrs. Johnson, as she hung down the paper.
"That's it. Old ad valorem knows his business."
"And there are some other folks know their business, Hiram Johnson, and I'm one of them. I said only yesterday that it was nonsense about women wanting to vote, but this has changed my mind. Tomorrow I join the ranks, and we'll have our rights, and we'll vote and vote and vote until we make old ad valorem and all the rest of you feel sick."
A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Ship's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by all Druggists.

PERMANENT PAVING IN MILL, GERMAIN AND PARADISE ROW

Ald. Potts then read the following resolution which he wished to be regarded as a notice of motion:
To His Worship the Mayor and Members of the Common Council:
Notice, I will move at the next meeting of the common council in August the following resolution: That the bills and by-laws committee of the council be instructed to prepare a bill to be presented at the first meeting of the local assembly at Fredericton empowering the city of St. John to make the rate of taxation from the years 1910 to 1915 inclusive not to exceed $1.90 per $100.
Ald. Baxter thought it would be a good thing and seconded it.
Ald. Kelley thought instead of limiting the tax rate they ought to limit the issue of bonds.
Ald. Potts agreed to a suggestion of Ald. Baxter to have the bills and by-laws committee take the matter up, and the council adjourned.

TRAGEDY ENDED A BOSTON BOAT RACE

Six Crews Started in an Eight Oared Race and All Boats Swamped—One Oarsman Drowned

Boston, July 5.—The climax of an eventful rowing regatta came late this afternoon when Edward Morely, an eighteen-year-old boy, rowing at No. 3 in the St. Alphonsus eight, of Roxbury, was drowned while clinging to a tow rope to which he had been attached by two boat-mates when they were forced to go after another comrade in danger of drowning, after their frail shell had capsized. At the same time the five other boats crews which had been contesting in the junior eight-oared race, the last event of the New England Amateur Rowing Association's 22nd annual regatta, was also struggling in the water, two others beside that from the St. Alphonsus Association requiring assistance to prevent drowning, while the others did not swamp until crossing the finish line. In the excitement little interest was taken in the fact that Jeffrey Point crew of Boston had won. The six crews which were in the race and which were flooded by the waves chopped before a northwest wind, were the St. Alphonsus Association of Roxbury, the West Lynn Boat Club, of Lynn; the Riverside Boat Club, of Cambridge; the Columbia Rowing Association, of East Boston, and the Kalamet Boat Club, of Worcester.

During the day's events, extending over six hours, upwards of a dozen boats were swamped and while the drowning of young Morely was the only fatality, others were averted only through the vigilance of power boats.
The race of the junior eight, promised to be a most interesting one. They had covered a mile or more of the mile and one-half course when the Columbian crew was swamped and the committee boat went to their assistance. At the same time between the mile mark and the finish the St. Alphonsus and Kalamet crews were thrown into the water, the latter being in the lead at the time. Running to the assistance of the St. Alphonsus shell, a steam launch struck her amidships, cutting the hull in twain and forcing the oarsmen to struggle in the water without support. Morely, at No. 3, was unable to swim, as was the coxswain, John Troy, R. Crossen and J. Kelliker in the forward section went to Morely's assistance and supported him to the launch, where he caught hold of a tow-line. Then they returned for Troy and helped him aboard. In the meantime Morely gasped and sputtered at the end of the rope, filling his lungs with water and was drowned, his companions thinking him in the boat. Not far away and watching the extrication of oarsmen and boats were Rev. James Corcoran and another priest of the Mission church, Roxbury, spiritual directors of the St. Alphonsus Association, of whom the dead boy was a communicant.

FRUIT--THE GREAT PHYSICIAN

Wonderful Medicinal Value of Apples, Oranges, Figs and Prunes.

How many people realize what remarkable curative principles are contained in fruit juices. There are two—the bitter and the sweet. There is about ten times as much of the sweet as of the bitter, though the bitter principle is the one which has the curative effect on disease. Apples, oranges, figs and prunes contain the highest percentage of bitter principle and thus are the most healthful.
It was a theory of a physician in Ottawa, that if the amount of bitter principle in fruit juice could be doubled, the curative property would be increased, not twice but many times.
After many tests, this physician succeeded in forcing into the combined fruit juices an additional atom of bitter principle, and in doing so formed an entirely new compound. To the combined juices were added valuable tonics and antiseptics and the whole made into tablets.
These are "Fruit-a-tives"—the only remedy known to science that is made of fruit. The wonderful cures in cases of Stomach Trouble, Biliousness, Constipation, Rheumatism, Chronic Headaches and Neuralgia, Kidney, Liver and Skin Diseases are due solely to the fact that "Fruit-a-tives" contain the medicinal properties of fruit, 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

MIGHT OF THE MITE

(By H. J. Kelloge)
Sing a song of microbes,
Lurking everywhere;
Swimming in the water,
Sailing through the air;
Clinging to your clothes,
Mark your face with freckles,
Kill a cat's nine lives;
Give a horse the heaves,
Roup a pig, and chip a pig's teeth;
Toughness to the beavers,
Roughness to the Eskimoes;
Raise the storm at sea,
Cause the draft to vomit,
Cause the sun to strike panic
Make the stymphian bonnets,
Cause the ants to march,
Cause the family quarrel,
Cause the auto accident,
Give the chauffeur awful nerve,
Give the people well
Microbes may be vicious,
Still they like their fun,
Get into a rhymester,
See what they have done.

CONSUMPTION IS INFECTIOUS

Every Precaution Should be Taken to Prevent Its Spread.

Persons coming into contact with consumptives should inhale Cattarhazone several times each day as it is a powerful destroyer of disease germs, and renders them innocuous. Cattarhazone is a most efficient preventive and may be thoroughly inhaled to promote expectoration, soothe the cough, and benefit in many ways too numerous to mention. Both the medical and scientific point of view Cattarhazone is the most valuable addition to the armament against consumption. It should be warmly applauded, and we advise any of our readers troubled with coughs, bronchitis, throat weakness, catarrh, etc., to use Cattarhazone frequently.

ANOTHER AERONAUT IS DASHED TO DEATH

James Corcoran Killed While Making Balloon Ascension and Parachute Jump at Portland, Me.

Portland, Me., July 5.—Mistaking the promiscuous firing of revolvers by the crowd below as a signal for the climax of his aerial act, James Corcoran, an aeronaut, 28 years old, of Lowell (Mass.), cut first parachute when but few hundred feet from the earth at the fourth of July celebration here late today and was dashed to the ground, meeting almost instant death at the feet of 5,000 horrified spectators.
Corcoran was employed by Prof. Joseph Laroux, of this city, with whom the municipal authorities had contracted to make two balloon ascensions and parachute jumps today.
Shortly after 4 o'clock Corcoran had his arrangements all completed for ascending from the eastern promenade. Three parachutes were attached to the hot air balloon for a triple jump by the aeronaut. As is always customary, it was arranged that Corcoran should cut loose with his parachutes when he heard a certain number of revolver shots from Professor Laroux on the ground, the latter to give the signal when the balloon should have reached a height sufficient to make the triple jump possible, approximately 5,000 feet.
Corcoran had barely left the ground before promiscuous firing of revolvers began, but Professor Laroux called out to him to keep on. After a few hundred feet up it is hard for an aeronaut to judge correctly his exact height, as he swings on the bar and so when Corcoran heard a second fusillade of shots from the ground it is believed he was certain the signal had come for him to cut away in the parachute for he was seen to drop from the balloon, although he was barely 500 feet in the air.
The distance he parachuted for the parachute to open properly and Corcoran dropped in a straight line, gaining speed as he neared the ground on the site of the proposed monument to the late Thomas B. Reed, about 1,000 feet from where the ascension was made.
Corcoran was still alive when his body was picked up, but unconscious. It was found that he had sustained a fracture of the skull, a compound fracture of the right leg and other injuries, from which he died.

DOING AN ERRAND

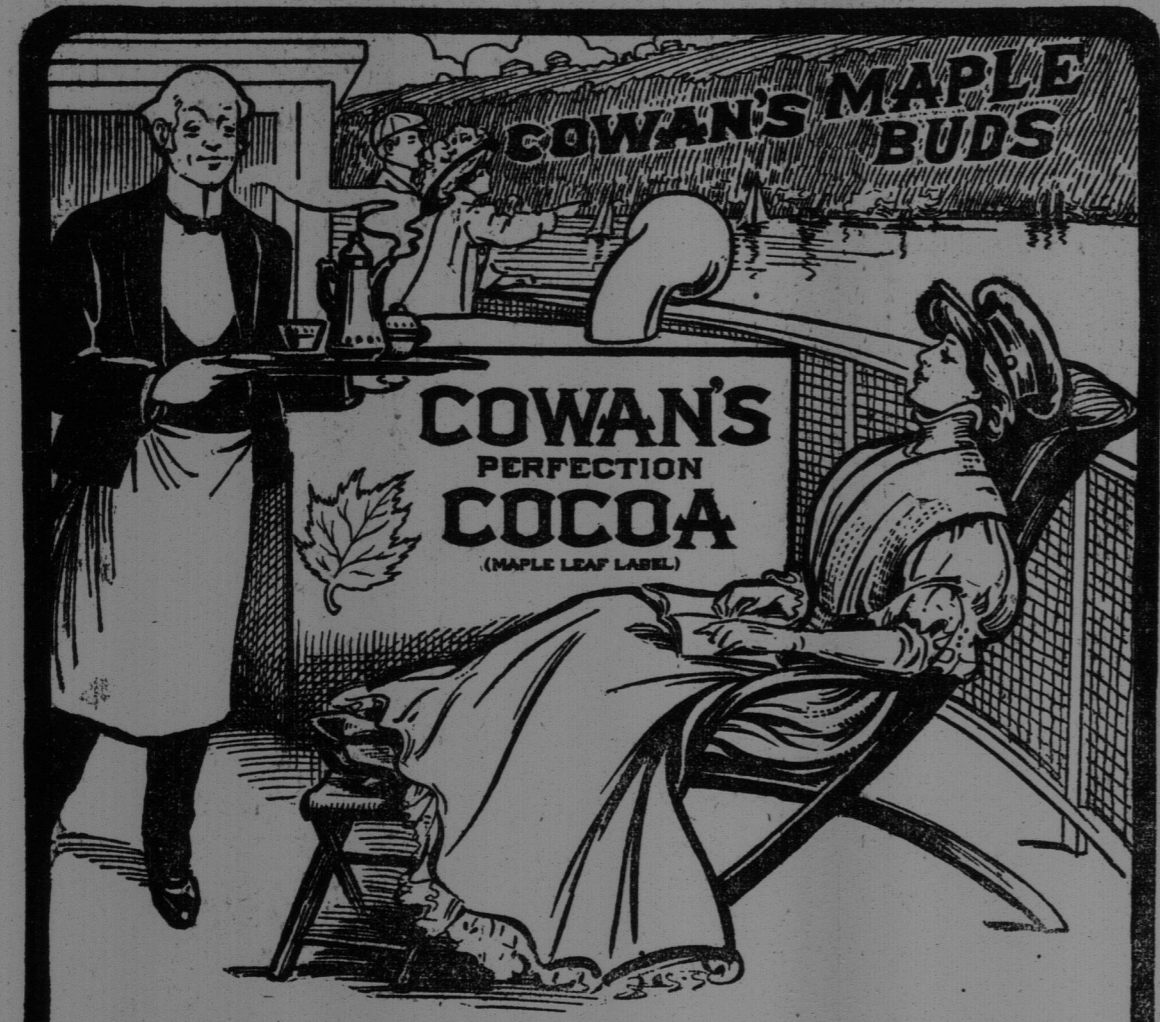

"About 10 years ago, when I was living in a village in Illinois," said the red-headed man, I had business to call me to London. My getting ready for the trip was the talk of the place, and a day or two before I started, I was visited by a farmer, who was an Englishman, and who said: "If you are going to London would you mind seeing my brother Jim, and telling him that his brother Tom over here is well and doing well, and wants him to write often?"
I asked: "What is your brother's other name?"
"Smith, sir—Jim Smith."
"I told him I would keep an eye out for the Smith family, and he thanked me and withdrew. In due time I arrived in London from Liverpool and as I took a cab at the depot, I queried of the driver: "Do you happen to know anyone in London named Smith?"
"I'm a Smith myself sir," he replied.
"But a Jim Smith."
"That's Jim Smith who has got a brother Tom in America."
"I've got one, sir."
"But a Jim Smith whose brother Tom in America is a farmer in Illinois and wants to be written to often."
"That's me again sir, and here's the proof of it. I'm just going to mail him this 'ere letter."
"And hang me if he didn't show me a letter ready for mailing and prove his case on the spot. He was the first man I had spoken to in London, and he was the Jim Smith I had been told to look out for."

KETCHEL BEATS PAPKE AFTER BRUTAL TWENTY ROUND FIGHT

Area, San Francisco, Cal., July 5.—Stanley Ketchel, the present middleweight champion, was given the decision at the end of twenty rounds of hard milling over Billy Papke, the Illinois "Thunderbolt."

Round 1. Ketchel opened the round with a vicious left chop on the jaw. A moment later he sent his left hand into Papke's stomach and then forced his man against the ropes, but inflicted no damage.

Round 4. Ketchel opened the fourth round with a fearful left swing to the jaw. Papke returned with a right and left swing to the jaw and body, making Papke's nose bleed slightly. Ketchel planted a right over the heart, but Papke's nose bled.

Round 5. Ketchel rapped Ketchel on the jaw with a right uppercut, cooking the latter. The men fought so fiercely that they fell to the floor from their exertions. Ketchel then planted two lefts and a right, immediately after which Ketchel swung two, short-arm lefts to the jaw and forced his antagonists to the floor.

Round 6. Papke rapped Ketchel on the jaw with a right uppercut, cooking the latter. The men fought so fiercely that they fell to the floor from their exertions. Ketchel then planted two lefts and a right, immediately after which Ketchel swung two, short-arm lefts to the jaw and forced his antagonists to the floor.

Round 7. Ketchel rushed his man against the ropes, time and time again. From this position Papke delivered two right body punches and they fought to the center of the ring.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY AT CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, July 5.—A daring case of highway robbery took place here early this morning when Andrew Duthie, of Minneapolis, was waylaid in the street, knocked down, beaten and kicked into insensibility and robbed of a large sum of money.

The affair occurred at 2 o'clock in the morning and after recovering his senses Duthie telephoned the story to Chief of Police Crawford's house.

The suspicions of that vigilant officer at once fell upon Joseph Daley, who had been in Campbellton. He at once started on the case. Daley had taken but it was not long before Chief Crawford and Officer Brown, following his trail, found and arrested him at Charlott, thirty miles distant.

Arnold White makes the following comparison between the British navy of twenty years ago and the ships of today: The new things in the big grey ships at Spithead on Saturday were as sound and as true as the workmanship of the things seen. AN APPEAL

To the Citizens of St. John: Ladies and Gentlemen—We need $100 to provide teacher and equipment for a supervised playground during and after the school holidays. A teacher is available. The children are to be seen in the streets and all eyes are turned to the country. The green field of the Every Day Club grounds is at their service. Only the funds are needed. No contribution will be considered too small. All will be acknowledged, and a detailed statement of how the money is spent will be published. A prompt and general response means immediate pleasure for the children. "The child without a playground is father to the man without a job." Subscriptions will be received by the undersigned, or may be left at the office of the Evening Times. A. M. BELDING, Pres. Every Day Club. A. W. COVEY, Secretary-Treasurer.

The response to this appeal, published in yesterday's Times, should be prompt and general if anything is to be done. The following amounts have been received:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Amount. Mrs. C. F. Woodman: 10; A. W. MacRae: 85; J. G. Watts: 2; A friend: 2; A friend: 2; A friend: 1; A friend: 1.

At the grounds last evening a man who lives near them gave the president thirty cents, and pledged himself to give thirty cents each week. This is an example worthy to be followed. It is for the good of the children.

A lady called up the Times this morning to pledge a dollar for herself and a dollar for another lady, and added that she expected to get a dollar from another friend.

A gentleman met the club president this morning and said: "We must send you up a little contribution from our staff."

CHATHAM NEWS

Fashionable Wedding in the Pro-Cathedral This Morning—A Presentation

Chatham, July 6.—(Special)—The pro-cathedral was the scene of a happy event this morning when Miss M. Edith Foley, daughter of John Foley, of Aberdeen street, became the bride of Lawrence F. Wallace son of the late John Wallace, of Chatham. Rev. Fr. E. P. Wallace, of Campbellton, brother of the groom, celebrated the nuptial mass.

The bride was most charming in a bridal dress of novelty silk voile, white over silk and white hat. The bridesmaid, Miss Nellie McIntosh, looked pretty in cream voile, with hat to match. George E. Degraze, of Moncton, supported the groom. During the service appropriate hymns were rendered by the Children of Mary, of which socially the bride was a member. After the ceremony the party repaired to the bride's home, where a reception was held and breakfast partaken of.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace left at noon on a wedding tour through upper Canadian cities, and will reside in Moncton, where Mr. Wallace is connected with the I. C. R. mechanical staff.

The bride's travelling dress was of brown tulle, with a white and red hat. The bride is one of Chatham's most popular young ladies and has the best wishes of an exceptionally large circle of friends. The esteem in which she is held was expressed in the large and beautiful array of wedding gifts. For three years she has been a valued member of the I. C. R. Snowball's office staff, and from the employes and from W. B. Snowball, president of the company, she received beautiful gifts of silver. Mrs. Wallace was also assistant secretary of the Exhibition Association, and in many ways her bright and charming personality will be missed from Chatham. Mr. Wallace is a Chatham boy, but now a resident of Moncton. Mr. J. M. McLean, of St. John's church, accompanied by the church choir, surprised Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Peacock by an impromptu call last evening at their residence. Mr. Peacock has been director of the choir for some time, and after a short address, Mr. McLean presented the church with a music cabinet and set of diapas, as gifts from the choir.

POLICE STATISTICS

Sergt. James Campbell Again Heads the Force in Point of Arrests Made.

Police statistics compiled today for the month of June disclose that Sergeant James Campbell participated in more arrests last month than any other of the police officers. He figured in two arrests individually, and in thirteen arrests collectively. Patrolman John McCollom follows with, in baseball parlance, four singles and five assists, a total of nine. Patrolman George Totten had four alone and four with aid. Patrolman Harry Steeves had four unaided and three with assistance. Patrolman Alexander Crawford and Sgt. Perry had two alone and four with the co-operation of brother officers, and Night Detective Fred Lucas had three alone and the same number of assists, and Patrolman Charles Hughes equalled the plain clothes man. Night Reserve Officer Joseph Scott had two alone, and three assists, and Patrolman James Ross had three singles and two assists. Patrolmen Leonard Jones, George Nelson and Charles Marshall had two alone and two with aid. Patrolman George Totten had four assists and none alone, and Patrolman Frank Bowles and William Belyea had one alone and three assists each. Sergeant George Baxter had three alone and one with assistance. Patrolmen Silas Perry and John Smith had three alone each and Patrolmen Harry Linton and Solomon Hamm had two alone and one assist each. Sergeant Fred Jenkins and Patrolman John Merrick had just an assist each recorded. Detective Harry Kilpatrick of the north end division; Sergeant Jacob Ross and Patrolman William Lee, of the west end division; Officer John Corbett, stationed at the north end station, Day Reserve Officer James Gosline and Officer James McLaren, stationed permanently at night man at police headquarters, did not figure in any arrests for June.

Nineteen of those lodged in cells during the month were over fifty years of age; twenty-five were in the forties; thirty were in the thirties, which is rather a coincidence; thirty-two were in the twenties, and two were under twenty years of age.

Police officers who have not been fortunate in selecting lots in connection with the summer vacations, will be compelled to wait until the autumn, and as late as January before they are permitted to obtain the period of vacation. In the fire department extra men are engaged during the holidays of the regulars and if this course was pursued in the police department at least four of the officers instead of two could enter simultaneously upon their vacations and the staff would not be weakened.

It was not suicide. Incorrect Reports Published as to Death of Albert Graham at Woodland, Me.

Albert Graham, of Fairville, whose father, Arthur Graham, died under exceptional and circumstances at Woodland, Me., last week, informs the Times that the story printed concerning his father's death, was wholly untrue. He himself visited Woodland and made full enquiry, and there was absolutely nothing to prove that Mr. Graham, Sr., had insulted little girls as reported, or that he was a victim of suicide.

Mr. Graham was employed in the pulp mill, and Mrs. Graham took his dinner to him that day as usual. He took her to the house at 7 o'clock as usual. Just after eating his dinner he left the man from the mill, and was not seen again until his body was found in the river about 100 yds. His helper states that he seemed in good spirits that day, and had not been drinking. The cause of his drowning will never be known, but there is no evidence to suggest suicide, nor any reason for such an act. His body was taken to Pittsfield, Me., for burial. The family feel very keenly the publicity given to incorrect statements concerning his death.
