His Lordship of Huron Indorses the Three-Fifths Clause.

BETTING AND GAMBLING EVILS

Referred to It at Length and Condemned — Laymen's Missionary Movement Referred To.

That church union, at least as far as the Anglican Church is concerned, is a very remote possibility, was the only opinion that could be drawn from the Bishop of Huron's charge to the synod at the afternoon session of that body yesterday.

He made it very clear that such an organic union could only be considered on the basis of a concession or the part of the other churches concerned, which so far the Anglicans did not seem willing to accede to. And beyond that, he agreed with the opinion of the general synod that no union that did not comprise the whole church, not only of Canada, but of England and Scotland as well, could ever be made effective.

The Three-Fifths Clause.

Another important matter mentioned by his lordship was in regard to the three-fifths clause. "The principle is altogether right," he said. seem to eager advocates to delay the advent of their ideal, but it is the surer way, and will not have the de moralizing effects that are apt to follow and did follow the adoption of the law by bare majority."

Recompense Hotelmen.

That hotelmen deserved some con aideration in the matter for the loss of their license was another contention Four Dollars a Year Here, But Only of his lordship. He held strongly to the idea of compensating them for their loss. "When a man," he said, has invested money in good faith in a business, which is protected by law like any other business to pass a law that makes the investment all but a total loss is to break faith, and is price to householders. practically confiscation. The process The British way is the that amount. best, and the British way is for the state to make compensation to private individuals when it suppresses by law a legitimate trade."

Evils of Gambling.

His lordship spoke in no measured terms of the evils of betting and gambling. "However widely practiced and however called," he said, "they are morally wrong and degrading to character. The amount of the stakes makes no difference in the principle. It is robbery, no matter by what name you call It is getting something for which you have given no equivalent, and simply means that some man will have to work for nothing to compensate for it, therefore it is morally wrong."

Missionary Movement.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement," said his lordship, "had so far water in London, and in Detroit, a city gained only a slight hold on the diocese, and he thought that in a vigorous advocation of this movement lay the solution to the vexed question of the intake pipe and machinery to provide raising of the apportionments of the for. diocese, as well as stimulating the forward movement of the church. Great Advances.

spoke first of the great advances made in the work of the church during the past year. Special attention was paid to the two great gatherings of the past year. The Pan-Anglican Conference, which was addressed by some of the most gifted speakers in the worl, and the Lambeth Conference. which followed the former, which propounded definite resolutions based upon the suggestions of the first gathering. Some of the questions consider ed at these conferences were discussed by his lordship, more especially the question of church unity and the formation of a central consultative body for the Anglican communion. 'It was made perfectly clear that nothing would be gained by whittling down our distinctive position or by sacrificing elements of truth emphasized now by the different communions. The committee deliberately reconimended to the church an ideal of reunion, which should include all the elements of truth now emphasized by separate bodies; that in a word ef forts towards reunion should be not compromise for the sake of peace, but comprehension for the sake of truth, and the goal not uniformity but unity. Therefore, our efforts should be directed towards studying and under-standing our points of difference from

THE BISHOP AND THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE

All does not seem to be quite harmonious in regard to the bishop's commendation of the three-fifths clause, and the matter of compensation for the cancellation of licenses, at the synod meeting yesterday afternoon.

These are matters upon which there is a good deal of diversity of opinion. Many of the clergy and laity favor the bishop's attitude, but there are not wanting many of both classes who are not only advocates of temperance, but who are the most out and out prohibitionists, and with these the bishop's attitude will find scant favor. The matter of compensation especially is looked upon with pronounced disfavor by these men, to them it seems a compromise with an evil which they do not wish to coun tenance in any way, and beyond a question it will bring up a warm discussion.

The committee to consider the bishop's charge and report thereon, composed of Archdeacon Mackenzie, Canon Craig, Rev. Dr. Sage, Rev. R. Howard and Messrs. E. G. Henderson, F. Metcalfe, E. Rainsford and Dr. Moorehouse, was in session this morning, and it is generally expected that they will bring in their recommendation's towards the close of this afternoon's

Had his lordship's stand been less definite on the matters in question it is doubtful if more than a passing mention would have been made of these matters, on which there is so much difference of opinion. But under the circumstances the committee can hardly do oth er than definitely champion his lordship's position in the mat ter, or else place themselves as definitely in opposition to it. Which alternative will be chosen by the committee cannot be known till their report is pre-men They Do Not Want the Liquor Destroyed.

The case of Chin Sue, charged by License Inspector Galpin with selling quor without a license and having iquor for sale, occupied Magistrate Love's time for four hours at the police court today, and proved most interesting. At its conclusion Magistrate Love decided to postpone judgment for a week. The defense then asked that if the verdict is against them the iquor be not destroyed.

The Evidence. Inspector Galpin was called first and stated that on May 16 he went to the premises of Chin Sue, 359 Clarence street, with Sergeants McDonald and Downs, and found a large number of Chinamen there. On searching for liquor he found 42 bottles, each containing about three half pints, and a two-gallon jar. The bottles were found after considerable search hidden in a box of beans. The box had a false bottom.

Another box filled with peas was also found to have a false bottom and was filled with bottles. In another box, filled with old straw and hay a dozen more bottle were found.

Good Liquor This.

The liquor in this box was not so strong, and was put up in glass bottles The first two dozen were in stone jars. The remaining half dozen bottles were found scattered throughout the premises. The two-gallon jar was in corner of a shed and was nidden behind some boxes. One Chinaman said the bottles contained salt. Mr. Cowan t had been said in the presence of Chin Sue, the court allowed it as testimony.

The bottles were removed and an analysis was made of three different varieties of the liquor by the provincial analysis in Toronte. The analysis showed that one variety of the liquor, taken from the stone jar, contained 87.97 per cent of proof spirits. The best grades of liquor for sale this country only contain 75 per cent. The other sample taken from the glass bottles was found to contain 65.97 per cent proof spirits. The two-gallon jar contained liquor bout as strong as ordinary whiskey. The test was made by burning some of it, and it contained sufficient alcohol to burn readily. The Seizure on Sunday.

"Why did you make the seizure on Sunday?" asked Mr. Cowan. "I would prefer not to give the explanation," said the inspector. "It was not in order to give the citizens a chance to see a Chinese raid?" ### TORONTO ANGLICANS FIGHT FOR SABBATH

Passed Resolution That Better Obstruction Placed on Track on Observance of Lord's Day Be Sought.

Toronto, June 16. - The Anglican Synod of the Diocese of Toronto convened yesterday in the Church of the Redeemer, the sessions being opened with a divine service and the charge of Bishop Sweeney of Toronto. The bishop's message was one on the whole of encouragement, though some measures were pointed out which must be taken to strengthen the various branches of the church's work. His lordship urged the completion of St Alban's Cathedral and the erection of a new synod building and hall.

anger and extreme humiliation, alternately flushing with shame, sobbing on clenching her hands in exasperation. Katherine Clemmons Gould sat through a trying ordeal in the supreme court today at the continuation of her suit for separation against Howard Gould

Mistress.

It was a day of testimony for the defence, during which Gould's attorney, sought to bring out through witnesses who had been associated with Mrs. Gould that her habits were such that her husband was justified in leaving her. In the event of proving this the defence hopes to undermine the charge of abandonment, the only phase of the plaintiff's case which has withstood the attacks of opposing counsel. Howard Gould himself may take the stand to-

Mrs. Gould having naively told what and elsewhere, witnesses for the defence recited today the indulgence of the same woman of fashion in the mata ter of alcoholic stimulants, and told, further, while the heavily-veiled woman buried her burning face in her hands, of certain remarks and conversations not exactly in keeping with ending a conference of the delegates $500 gowns and the palatial Castle Gould on Long Island.

Coaches Her Lawyer. It was during this testimony, some of it as related too strong to be printed with propriety, that Mrs. Gould wept most. Yet she recovered herself quickly and at times coached her lawyer, refreshing his mind on certain incidents with suggestions and remind-

Specific statements that Mrs. Gould had been intoxicated on various occasions, that she called Howard Gould "you little hound" one night; that once she was apparently so under the influence of liquor as to stagger against the bannister at Castle Gould; that her maid brought liquors to her room, including sometimes two cocktails before breakfast, were among the statements brought out as employees of the Gould estate related on the stand their experiences with their former mistress. In the midst of the testimony her lawyer, Clarence J. Shearn, who had objected strenuously at first to the trend of the testimony, but was overruled, injected into the case the rather novel argument that admitting even that his client had been intoxicated. ### CANADIAN INVESTMENTS AND OTHERS.

It cannot but be gratifying to Canadians to find great British concerns, like the Standard Life Assurance Company, of Edinburgh, with millions already invested in this country, sending King Castle out, Impertinence out. representative over here to invest millions more. Rostrum 3 to 1, Shapdale 8 to 1. so satisfied are the directors that they are both safe and profitable, that the general manager of the company, Mr. I. W. Dickson, is now in the west for the purpose of increasing the amount invested. In marked contrast with this is the course followed by Canadian capitalists, like Mr. William' Mackenzie, who have been in the habit of going to London to borrow money for Canadian enterprises, while at the same time investing in electric and street railway enterprises in Mexico and South America. Commenting on this the Winnipeg Free Press says:

"It must appear to Britishers like Mr Dickson somewhat strange that Canadian capital to enterprises in

Superintendent of Her Residence Says She Was Intoxicated.

New York, June 5 .- Attempts to introduce evidence tending to show that Mrs. Howard Gould was addicted to intoxicants was vigorously resisted by Clarence J. Shearn, counsel for Mrs. Gould, when her suit for separation and alimony came up today. Maurice Malloy, superintendent of the Castle Gould estate, was asked at what time he had found Mrs. Gould under the influence of liquor at Castle Gould. Before he could reply, Mr. Shearn in-terposed with the declaration that the charges of drunkenness, even if true,

SIMILARITY TO HANS WAGNER NOT LOBERT'S CLAIM TO FAME

HANS LOBERT.

The similarity between Hans Wagner and Hans Lobert, the Cincinnati third baseman, is not alone in their given names. They are alike in appearance, the Redleg being a small edition of the great Pirate shortstop. Both men hall from the same neck of the woods, but Lobert did not break into the National League because he looks like and hails from the same town as Wagner. He is drawing money because he is a sure enough ball player. His feats last season made him one of the most-talked-of men In the game, and several efforts were made to get him away from the town This spring Lobert has failed to strike his gait with the stick, but he has been playing a marvellous defensive game, and will undoubtedly begin

Skin Diseases.

A diseased or disfigured skin will always leave its stamp on the mind of the individual. Many people suffering from dis-figuring skin diseases avoid society and lose all pride in their personal appearance. When the skin breaks out in eruptions and sores it is due entirely to an impure condition of the blood.

In all such cases Burdock Blood Bitters will quickly purify the blood and drive all the impurities out of the system.

Mrs. J. J. Magee, Jr., Kinmount, Ont., writes: "Inthesers." writes: "In the spring of 1936 I was troubled with a Rash that broke out all over me. It was the worst on my face and head, had a dry, scaly top, and when I would get warm it would become very itchy. I tried the doctor's medicine but it did me no good, so I then got one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and before it was all used the Rash was entirely gone."

Mrs. Harvey Barkhouse, Gold River, N.S., ON writes: "I was greatly troubled with Sores en
my face and finally became so bad I had to go to the doctor about it, but he could de othing to help me. "I thought about Burdock Blood Bitters and decided to try a bottle. I cannot recommend B.B.B. enough, as I had not taken all the bottle before my face was ared."

THE SPORTS PROGRAMME

Some Unque and Very Laughable Events-A Great Day's Fun at Springbank.

Ideal weather, a very jolly time, and record-breaking sports programme at Springbank yesterday afternoon and vening characterized the most enjoyable annual picnic of the George White & Sons' Company, Limited. Special cars conveyed the crowd to the park from 1:30 to 3, and the programme opened with a five-innings baseball match between teams selected from the east end works of the company and the west end shops.

After the ball game the sports programme was taken up, and provided Springbank visitors with the best bill f fare they have had an opportunity enjoy for a long time. Events No. 15. 16. 17 and 18 being worthy of more han casual mention.

Local Items

A number of the residents of Yarnouth and Southwold will hold their annual picnic at Port Stanley on Fri day. Special cars have been chartered on the Southwestern Traction line. Dogs Are Diggers. The flower beds in the C. P. R. grounds were yesterday prepared for he reception of a lot of fine plants oday, but during the night a number of vagrant dogs made a wreck of the beds by digging all sizes and manner of holes and gullies, and the park gardeners had perforce to do the work all over again. Middlesex Scores. Mr. Joe Livingston on Tuesday brought to The Advertiser office a sample of growing oats from his farm in London Township. Sown last September, it stands today four feet high-a foot better than that grown in Simcoe County, about which folk of the latter district had been making a great hullaballoo. 'Rah, for Middlesex! Concert at Siloam. The choir of the First Methodist Church, under the leadership of Mr. A. D. Jordan, the organist of the church, gave a concert at the Siloam Church last evening. The soloist of the church and choir, assisted by Miss Doris Robbins and Miss Pauline Ivey, gave an excellent concert, which was much appreciated, especial mention must be made of Miss Hunt, who was in splendid voice, and Miss Ivey's recitations; whilst little Doris Robbins, with her violin, was a special favorite. The choir Shaw, Spencer Wilson, H. F. Whetter were given a supper after the concert, James McGladdery, C. W. Summers, and enjoyed the little trip into the Gordon Drake and Secretary Wyckoff.

Broke the Record. St. Thomas Journal: The Traction Company "cottagers' special" broke all records this morning running from Port Stanley to London in one hour and six minutes. The special leaves Port Stanley at 7:45 a.m. and is scheduled to reach London at 8:57, which is considered fast time. Today, however, car No. 90, in charge of Conductor Geo. Sutherland and Motorman R. McGregor, arrived at London at 8:51 cutting off six minutes from the schedule time. The run from St. Thomas - to London stations was made in 41 minutes. General Manager A. E. Thomp son, of the Lakeside Steamship Company, and General Manager S. W. Mower, of the Traction Company, were and from there south to King, where passengers.

off a piece started to eat it, and asked the court to have some. After smelling it, however, the cour decided he didn't want any. "Who do you sell this to?"

"Nobody. We drink it ourselves." "How many bottles did you get?" asked Mr. McKillop. "One hundred and ninety-eight, ac-

"Why were they put under the beans? "To keep the bottles from breaking." "Where were the rest of the bottles" "We used them."

Long & Co. He said the bottles contained medicine and that he had never sold any. He said he had been drinking it himself for some time. Witness admitted that the stuff in the stone jars was used as a drink in China, and stated it was considerably improved by putting in the medicines. He admitted that he had been in St. Thomas several times. Denied Selling.

Chin Sue Yem, the defendant, offered similar evidence and denied selling the liquor. In summing up, Mr. Cowan submitted an analysis made by Prof. Shuttleworth in the case of Long Kon in Toronto in 1906, which showed the liquor known as Se-Qua-Gung-Yook-Go is a proprietary medicine. He contended further that the consumption of 132 bottles in four and a half or five months was not too much.

He quoted Mr. Justice Teetzel's decision in the Ling Kon case, where in similar charge the liquors were proved by Professor Shuttleworth to be patent medicines. Mr. McKillop contended that 29 men were in the place when the police went and, and that large numbers

Any scheme of unity therefore, entered into by any branch locally should have the concurrence of the whole body throughout the world.

Extending Episcopate.

But the most important pronouncement of the conference upon the subject is resolution 75, where it suggests way of extending the historic episcopate to non-episcopal communions; e., on lines suggested by the precedent of 1610. The precedent of 1610 was the consecration of three bishops for the Scotch Presbyterian Church without reordination as deacons and priests and without disarrangement of the Scottish system of general assembly, synods and presbyteries. This works a distinct step in advance upon previous conferences. The conference of 1887 laid down the famous quadrilateral as the basis of possible union with non-Episcopal communions. The White and free from de- & and the two sacraments were generally accepted, but the fourth, namely, the historic episcopate, proved a stumblingblock.
