FRENCH DRIVE DOUBLE WEDGE INTO FOE LINE

GOVERNMENT ORGAN SAYS NO PROSPECT OF COALITION

LITTLE PROSPECT OF COALITION IN DOMINION CABINET

Ottawa Journal-Press, "In The Know," Declares Change Is Not Necessary—More Rumors of Cabinet Shifts.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, May 28.—There appears today no prospect of a coalition Government to handle the conscription problem.

Any hopes held by coalitionists were dissipated this morning by an editorial in the Ottawa Journal-Press, whose president, P. D. Ross, is conceded to be a strong confidante of Sir Robert Borden, and probably more "in the know" than the Borden cabinet itself.

The Journal-Press said today: "The Borden Government needs no coalition with the spirit that has prevailed among Liberal politicians. It stakes itself upon conscription."

The Journal-Press refers to the anti-conscription remarks of Quebec Liberals, and says: "We prefer the present straight goods."

Among names mentioned this morning of cabinet members who may retire or be given public appointments to permit reconstruction are Messrs. Cochrane, Roche, Hazen, Burrell and Crothers. Names of probable new comers to the cabinet prominently mentioned today are Sir Adam Beck, Sir Henry Drayton, Z. A. Lash, K. C., J. W. Flavelle and Gideon Robertson, the labor senator.

'ADVANCE,' IS MESSAGE OF RUSSIAN LEADERS TO THE MEN OF FORCE

Now Is Time To Strike To Help the Allies.

FREEDOM MAY BE LOST

Muscovite Commanders Call Upon Soldiers To Resume the Offensive.

Petrograd, May 27.—Via London, May 28.—Virtually all the divergent political factions, all class organizations, councils and even the Socialist leaders, with the exception of the extreme lefters, today re-echo the appeal of Minister of War Kerensky to the troops and applaud the new order of the day, "Advance." It remains to be seen how the army itself will receive this final exhortation to patriotism and the defence of Russia's newly won freedom.

Must Advance.

Constant efforts have been made during the past two months by representatives not only of the Government, but of the soldiers, to bring home to the army the fact that the abandonment of active warfare would not only mean treachery to the Allies, but the inevitable loss of all that has been gained in the revolution. It is confidently believed that this last call supported as it is by almost every element of society, will move the army to a realization of the situation. All the commanders have added their appeals to the order of Minister Kerensky. They all emphasize the necessity of not only defending the country against the enemy, but of an immediate advance to relieve the pressure upon the Allies, which Germany has been able to exert by transferring the bulk of her troops from the eastern to the western front.

Alexieff's Warning.

General Alexieff says tersely:

"Forward. Advance to attack the enemy."

General Brussiloff says: "It is necessary to conserve and consolidate freedom. The soldiers must overthrow and defeat the enemy. Shame and dishonor to those who have a weak spirit."

General Dragomiroff is less laconic. "An advance upon the enemy," he says, "is an immediate necessity. The enemy is taking advantage of our passivity to leave this front open and send forces westward."

"The French and British are honestly doing their duty as our allies. They are saving our new freedom, which otherwise we would lose. But soon their advance must wear itself out, and then there will be no one to help us."

Appeal From Premier.

The newspapers contain similar appeals from the heads of the Government. Premier Lvoff writes: "Honor demands our activity. We are drowned in speeches and words. The muscles of our organism are being atrophied. Further passivity will mean ruin." M. Skobeleff, the new Socialist minister of labor, joins the chorus with the declaration: "Our present task is to advance."

In a new order to the army, Gen. Alexieff explained yesterday why it is impossible for the soldiers to receive emissaries from the German lines seeking peace conferences. "Even the commander-in-chief," he says, "is prohibited by law from receiving peace delegates, and every man from the commander down who does this is a traitor. Only the Government knows when it is time to stop war. Such conferences never take place at the front except between authorized diplomats. The Germans know this and send representatives only to learn the disposition of our troops and to provoke dissension among us, to create ill-feeling between the soldiers and their commanders.

"I appeal to your intelligence and your heart. If the enemy really wanted peace he would know how to go about it. Wake up. Peace will be reached through victory. Trust your commanders."

OPERATORS ASK GOVT. TO OPERATE MINES

Declare They Have Made Fair and Reasonable Offer to Men.

Fernie, B. C., May 27.—As was anticipated, the result of the meeting of the Western Coal Operators' Association here yesterday resulted in a definite announcement which is an emphatic reiteration of their decision reached on May 8, and has been forwarded to Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, as follows:

"The Operators' Association have considered your communication of May 25, received through Fair-Wage Officer Harris. The association has settled an agreement on terms approved by the representatives of the men and of the president of the International Union as fair and reasonable, and we are ready to resume operations at any time on the basis of agreement arrived at. If the men will not accept what their own representatives and the representatives of the president of their union considers fair and reasonable, we urge that the Government immediately take effective action to put the mines in operation."

Calgary, May 27.—While nothing has been heard from Ottawa, President Grant Hall of Miners' District No. 18 says he is confident that the men will be back to work within a very few days.

SASKATCHEWAN VOTES TOWARDS END OF JUNE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Regina, Sask., May 28.—Writs for a new election in Saskatchewan will be issued tomorrow. Polling day will be shortly after June 20. Conservatives are not in the best position for an election, as they lack leaders and organization. They have no daily paper in all Saskatchewan supplying them news. The Star of Saskatoon and Post of Regina, former strong Conservative journals, are now supporting the Martin Government.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS OPPOSE CONSCRIPTION

Toronto, May 28.—At a meeting of the Social Democrat party of Canada last night, where speeches were delivered in seven languages, resolutions were passed opposing any attempt to enforce military service on the people, and calling upon the government to eliminate gambling in foodstuffs, to appoint a food and fuel controller with an advisory committee, four-fifths of the members of which should be representatives of labor, and to nationalize both the railways and the coal fields.

VAST CROWD AT MADRID CHEERS ENTENTE ALLIES

Twenty-Five Thousand Express Sympathy For Britain and Allies

AT THE SPANISH CAPITAL

Authorities Refuse To Permit Pro-Germans To Hold Demonstration.

Madrid, May 2, Via Paris, May 28.—The long expected gathering of the elements in Madrid favorable to the Entente Allies was held this morning at the Plaza-de-Turca. There was great enthusiasm among the people, who were estimated to number 25,000.

A counter demonstration by Germanophiles was forbidden by the authorities in order to prevent possible disturbances.

Conspicuous among the decorations of the great bull ring were the names of thirty-six torpedoed Spanish vessels in huge letters. The speakers included all the leaders of the progressive party in Spain.

Miguel Unamuno, former rector of Salamanca University, provoked thunderous applause, when he declared that the liberal objects of the Allies in the war were demonstrated by the entry into it of the "great American democracy."

The meeting concluded after the adoption of a resolution asking the premier to make public a declaration of Spain's sympathy with the Allies. Some disturbances were caused by Germanophiles as the crowd was disbanding. A man in the crowd fired at Alejandro Lorroux, Republican deputy, without hitting him. The police arrested a number of the demonstrants.

BORDEN AND LAURIER HOLD CONFERENCE ON COMPULSORY SERVICE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 28.—There have been informal conferences upon the situation created by Premier Borden's announcement of compulsory service. Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier have been together dealing with the program of the Right Hon. Mr. Balfour, who addresses Parliament this afternoon. It is understood that they took advantage of the opportunity to discuss the situation which is greatly embarassing to both of them. Each leader appears to think that there are elements of weakness in his position. It looks as if both had abandoned any inclination to play politics and as if they were almost mutually trying to find a solution which will be best for the country, and which can be carried through without repetition of the incidents already seen in Montreal and Quebec.

NINE SIX-INCH GUNS TAKEN BY ITALIANS

Rome, May 28—Via London.—The Italians have crossed the Timavo River and occupied the village of San Giovanni, northwest of Duino, near the Gulf of Trieste, the war office announces. They have captured nine 6-inch guns.

BALFOUR TO VISIT MONTREAL CITIZENS

Montreal, May 28.—Right Hon. Arthur Jams Balfour, British foreign minister, will visit Montreal on Wednesday. He will be the guest at luncheon of the Canadian Club.

Mr. Balfour and Sir Cecil Spring Rice, British ambassador to the United States, will receive the degree of LL.D. at McGill University during their visit here.

A MANITOBA TRAGEDY

Three Persons Drowned When Auto Runs Off Ferry.

Portage la Prairie, Man., May 28.—Mrs. Thomas Walker, aged 35, her son, William, 9, and Miss Essie Irwin, 21, were drowned at Poplar Point Ferry, near here, when the automobile in which they were riding, ran off the ferryboat into the river.

GERMAN DEFENCES CRUMBLING UNDER THE CANADIAN FIRE IN FIGHTING ALONG SCARPE

(By Stewart Lyon, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press in France.)

Canadian Army Headquarters, May 28.—Rumor has it that the kaiser recently visited Douai, and addressing a gathering of officers of troops holding the Scarpe-Lens line, announced that the British offensive in the region of the Scarpe, was at an end. The kaiser is a good talker, but had his officers taken him out to Avion, Mericourt, and Acheville and other points east of Vimy, where the German defences are crumbling under the steady fire of the Canadian guns, he might not have been so dogmatic.

Germans Not Confident.

Our aviators report that the industrious Germans are far from confident of their ability to hold the Mericourt-Oppy line. New systems are being let out behind it, on which it is believed British prisoners are being employed. Three Canadian prisoners, the first in a considerable time, were obtained in an extensive enemy raid opposite Asheville early this morning. The Germans raided after a heavy barrage. About 2 o'clock some two hundred came over and attacked a wiring party. Our casualties were very light, while the enemy left a number of dead in front of our lines and some prisoners of the Fifth Prussian Footguards.

Enemy Likes Gas Shells.

In the artillery operations which are now in progress, some odd featureh have developed. The enemy has developed a fondness for the use of gas shells, probably because chemicals are more plentiful than metal in the fatherland. When the gas shells are sent over our forward batteries, which still have an ample store of the gas shells left behind by the Germans in their flight from Vimy Ridge, send back a few hundred rounds of these shells. They may not be so effective as our own, but the result is usually that the use of gas shells ends for the time. The theory of our officers is that the German artilleryists do not want the men higher up to know they abandoned so much ammunition. Their gas has a different smell than the British shells and a prolonged bombardment of the German lines with the German gas shells would be a sad giveaway. The Canadian infantry is greatly enjoying their breathing spell. The weather today is warm and sports take place everywhere in the back areas, interminglied with drills and an occasional spell of work in the gardens of the villagers.

The improvement in submarine conditions greatly heartens the men, who, by means of the London papers, are able to closely follow the situation.

MONTREAL MAY BE PLACED UNDER MARTIAL LAW, SAYS PAPER, BUT WILSON DENIES

Le Canada Declares General Wilson Has Been Given Power To Establish Military Rule If Necessary — Soldiers Invade East End, Seeking Attackers of Wounded Men.

Ottawa, May 28.—General Wilson, officer commanding this military district, denied this afternoon the claim made in a French paper this morning, that he had received instructions to introduce martial law here should he deem it necessary.

Montreal, May 28.—The district of Montreal may be put under martial law, according to Le Canada, which says it has learned General Wilson, officer commanding this military district, has been given instructions to establish military rule here should he deem it necessary.

Last night a Socialist speaker, addressing a large meeting at St. James' Market, advised people to refuse to register if conscription was introduced.

ENEMY REPULSED BY THE FRENCH IN NIGHT FIGHT

Heavy Assaults Were Thrown Back at Three Points.

NEW BATTLE AT VERDUN

Germans Bombarding Heavily French Positions in Dead Man Hill Region.

Paris, May 28—Noon.—The Germans delivered three attacks last night and this morning in the Champagne, in the regions of Casque, the Teton and Mont Blond. All were repulsed, the war office announces.

The Germans are bombarding heavily French positions in the regions of Dead Man's Hill and Hill 304, on the Verdun front.

A French detachment penetrated to the second German line near Uffholtz, in Alsace, and found many dead in the trenches.

THE FRENCH REPORT.

The French statement follows:

"In the Champagne during the night the enemy twice renewed his attacks against the Casque and the Teton. He was replused completely. A third effort made this morning against Mont Blond, was no more successful, being checked by our fire.

"On the Verdun front in the region of Hill 304 and Dead Man Hill, the enemy's artillery is very active.

"In Alsace, in the vicinity of Uffholtz, one of our detachments penetrated as far as the second German line, observing the presence of numerous dead in the enemy trenches and bringing back prisoners. There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front.

"There was very great aerial activity yesterday and last night. Enemy airplanes dropped bombs in the regions of Baccaratt, Nancy and Pont St. Vincent, causing no important damage. Our squadrons made numerous sorties, in the course of which they threw down nearly 7,000 kilograms (15,400 pounds) of projectiles on enemy military establishments and railroads, particularly in the Champagne and in the region of Chonville. Nine enemy airplanes were brought down and two were compelled to land within our lines. Others, badly damaged, were forced to land back of the enemy lines."

THE GERMAN REPORT.

Berlin, May 28—Via London, 4:05 p.m. German troops yesterday captured a line of French trenches on the Poehlberg and the Kellberg, south of Moronvilliers, in the Champagne region, together with more than 250 prisoners, army headquarters announced today.

Holding the Troops.

It was stated yesterday by General Wilson, that in view of the disturbed condition of affairs here he was holding the troops that had been booked for camp. These included several units of artillery, and the A. M. C. General Wilson stated that in dealing with disturbances it was always better to have men of the Canadian expeditionary forces, and, therefore, he was holding these men here, as a precautionary measure.

One For the Navy.

Several times Saturday incidents occurred which emphasized the inflamed condition of public sentiment over the recent troubles regarding the conscription measures. The first affair was at Phillip's Square during the height of the shopping period. A man mounted a chair and started to make a violent anti-conscription speech. A British sailor, with marine precision, removed the chair from under the speaker, and he dropped out of sight.

Serious trouble seemed imminent when a couple of autos loaded with returned soldiers, some of them in uniform, invaded the east end, the men calling for those who had attacked the returned men on Friday evening.

Within a few minutes crowds gathered. They were, however, dispersed by the police, who acted very promptly.

ANTI-WAR CROWD IS BUSY AT HULL TOWN

Ottawa, May 28.—Bills bearing the words "A bas la conscription" were plastered on the walls of buildings on the main thoroughfares of Hull last night and several parties in automobiles, who threw back the posters which were thrust into the machines, were roughly used by the crowd of about 40 young men in charge of the operations. No arrests were made.

DOUBLE OFFENSIVE BY FRENCH MAY DRIVE GERMANS BACK TO DEFENCES ALONG MEUSE

Irish Aroused By Raids On Fishers

London, May 28.—According to stories printed in the morning papers there has been a complete revulsion of feeling toward the war in the south and southwest of Ireland as a consequence of the recent attacks by German submarines on Irish fishing fleets. A number of fishing boats have been sunk and the victims of one attack off Baltimore say that the Germans told them that they had already sunk the Kinsale and Waterford fleets, and would soon put all Irish fishing boats to the bottom of the sea, because they sent fish to England. They also threatened to shell villages on the coast.

BERLIN ABOUT TO MAKE WAR UPON BRAZIL

Rio de Janeiro, May 28.—The Noticia says that in German circles it is asserted that Germany will declare war on Brazil within two or three days.

GERMANS IN STATES START MOVEMENT TO DETHRONE EMPEROR

Urge Help To Spread Russian Leaven in Fatherland.

New York, May 28.—Germans here have formed an organization called the "Friends of the German Republic," whose object is the dethronement of Emperor Wilhelm and the establishment of a German republic, it was announced last night. The organization was said to be nation-wide in scope, has established headquarters, and has issued an appeal to Germans to help in its propoganda.

The appeal written in English and German, says in part:

"Events and developments in Germany are clearly pointing to a near upheaval similar to that which was witnessed in Russia some months ago. Travelers recently arrived from Germany report rapid spreading of the republican movement.

"Things evidently are getting very uncomfortable for the German autocracy, though to the outside world it attempts to show a bold and unconcerned front. The Russian leaven is working in Germany."

100,000 Americans Soon To Be Arrayed Against The Enemy

London, May 28—4:25 p.m.—An official statement issued here today says that, counting the Americans serving in the British and French armies, and the additional units ordered to France, there will shortly be 100,000 Americans in France.

The statement says, 3,500 airplanes will be constructed and 6,000 aviators trained in the United States, this year.

TWO TURK ATTACKS STOPPED BY RUSSIANS

Petrograd, May 28—Via London, 2:30 p.m.—"On the Russo-Galician and Rumanian fronts rifle firing occurred," says today's official statement.

"On the Caucasian front two Turkish attempts against the heights south of Banch (near the Persian frontier) were repulsed by our fire. Twelve bombs were thrown from enemy airplanes on our airdrome northwest of Luninsta.

MINISTER ARRESTED ON "DRUNK" CHARGE

Found "Asleep" in His Automobile on Streets of Toronto.

Toronto, May 28.—Rev. James Mann, a clergyman from out of town, pleaded guilty in the police court on Saturday to a charge of drunkenness and was fined $10 and costs. He was found at an early hour Saturday morning asleep in an automobile. When arraigned in court he denied that he had seen liquor in any shape or form after leaving his home in the country. He pleaded that he was a very sound sleeper and thought that that would account for his not awakening until he was in the police cells. He was remanded by Magistrate Kingston after making this plea, but when the court list had been disposed of he again entered the dock and pleaded guilty to the charge.

DIES ON GOLF LINKS.

Vancouver, B. C., May 28.—While approaching the third hole in a golf match at the Jericho County Club Saturday afternoon, Joseph R. Smith of the wholesale firm of G. R. Gregg & Co. became suddenly ill, and shortly after his return to the club house, where he went to lie down, he expired.

RAIDERS OF ENEMY REPULSED BY BRITISH

London, May 28—1:45 p.m.—"Hostile raiding parties were repulsed last night northwest of Cherisy, and south of Lens," says today's official report on the Franco-Belgian front operations.

"We inflicted a number of casualties on the enemy by rifle and machine gun fire and secured prisoners. Successful rajds were made by us north of Armentieres, and in the neighborhood of Wytschaete. Our troops reached the German support line and captured between 20 and 30 prisoners."

THE WAR SITUATION

The Italians have fought their way forward to within two miles of Duino, the most formidable natural barrier between them and Trieste. The great battle now enters its eighteenth day without any sign of an abatement in the fury of the struggle. Vienna stubbornly refuses to concede the Italian victories, but the map tells the story of General Cadorna's steady advance.

Close to the Sea.

Duino, at the gates of which the Italian guns are now hammering, marks a point at which the Carso Plateau almost touches the sea. Protected by the ocean on the one side, it is powerfully defended to the north by Mount Querceto, a height of considerable magnitude, which dominates the country for many miles around. At the foot of Mount Querceto, to the west, lies the little town of Medeazza, and the Italians have smashed their way to within a few hundred yards of this village. It is possible that a lull will occur before they attempt the formidable task of storming Mount Querceto.

Brazil Coming In.

From no other theatre of the war comes any news of importance but the political situation continues of absorbing interest. Dispatches from Brazil indicate that it is merely a question of days, if not of hours, before the Brazilian parliament follows the lead of the administration and aligns Brazil will join nations now fighting the Central Powers. A new crisis is threatened between Spain and Germany, through the sinking of a Spanish passenger ship with a heavy loss of life. This disaster occurrs on the heels of an announcement from Madrid that Germany had given satisfactory assurance in reply to Spain's latest note regarding the destruction of Spanish ships by German submarines. No details, however, have been received in regard to the sinking of the passenger liner, and it is possible that the tragedy was not due to a U-boat.

Political Battles.

The battle between the reactionaries and Liberals in Austria-Hungary goes merrily forward, and there are reports of further impending ministerial resignations in Vienna and Budapest. Sensations are promised at the sessions of the Austrian parliament, but it remains to be seen how much news will be able to escape the censor. In Germany the violence of the attacks on Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg indicates the acuteness of the political crisis, but the recess of the Reichstag renders even more meagre than usual the information that sweeps across the borders.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS AGAINST CONFERENCE

Paris, May 28.—The National Council of the French Socialist party opened a two-day session here, chief interest being centred in its action on the sending of French delegates to the International Socialist Conference at Stockholm. A majority resolution presented by Pierre Renaudel, member of the Chamber of Deputies, and supported by Marcel Sembat, Jules Guesde and other Socialist leaders, refuses to participate in the Stockholm conference, and demanding the accusation of Phillip Scheidemann, the German Socialist majority leader, and other German Socialists before the International Workingmen's Congress. A minority resolution proposes participation in the Stockholm conference, but expresses hope of preventing a separate Russian peace. This resolution opposes war indemnities, and suggests a referendum of the people of Alsace-Lorraine.

The Struggle Raging About Craonne Is Slowly Bending the Enemy's Line and May Compel Another Big Retirement.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]

(By Henry Wood.)

With French Armies, Near Craonne, May 28.—Steadily through one entire week a battle has been raging around Craonne, which may ultimately force Germany's retirement to the Meuse.

The French communiques have not mentioned the fighting except incidently, but it has continued incessantly, bitterly, and victoriously for the French.

Driving a Wedge.

Already the French troops have descended from Paon Plateau into the Valley of the Miette. Today they were steadily driving a two-edged and fatal wedge into the Germans.

Once this wedge is sufficiently plunged into the enemy's front, the French can turn either north or south—or in both directions, simultaneously. A successful movement in either direction will be sufficient to force a German retirement to the Meuse. The to save the Hindenburg front northward through Laon, St. Quentin, Cambrai, and Douai.

Success Assured.

Already the battle has advanced sufficiently to insure these results if it continues favorable to the French, but several weeks' continues operations are likely before the decisive moment in this stroke is reached. That the Germans appreciate the exact degree of the menace, was indicated today in the number and fierceness of the enemy counter-attacks, launched against the French.

In Small Bites.

The Craonne battle has had no spectacular mention in the daily official statements, because the French, instead of launching immense assaults on an extended front, have temporarily adopted the strategy of capturing small bits of line at a time, by small and almost daily attacks. The past week has witnessed steady advances of the wedge toward Corbeny. Meanwhile the French have completely captured all observatories dominating the Ailette Valley, by a battle fought with tactics similar to those being pursued on the Craonne sector.

Further successes reported today north of the Moronvilliers Crest is one other menace to the German line, which may force their retirement. Another wedge is being driven here into the big bend in the German front. This is far behind the present German line against which the British are battering to the north.

ENGLAND EXPECTING MANY AIR ATTACKS FROM ENEMY PLANES

Small Machines To Replace Zepps, and Are More Dangerous.

London, May 28.—The newspapers in their editorials today, deal with Friday's air raid. They say that only did it result in the greatest number of casualties of any raid yet made, but they consider it as a probable forerunner of many similar raids, which may be carried out by a far greater number of airplanes, and in the course of time be multiplied to the extent of amohnting to an invasion.

The great speed and height at which airplanes operate, as well as their virtual immunity from damage by anti-aircraft artillery, are regarded as among the reasons why they have replaced the vulnerable zeppelins, and are likely to become a more serious menace.

Reprisalists Stirred.

The perpetually recurring controversy concerning reprisals has been reawakened by the raid, the pro-reprisalists demanding attacks on German towns, while the anti-reprisalists strongly oppose them, not only on the ground of immunity and decency, but because they hold it is proved that such raids on Freiburg and Karlsruhe did not have the least dangerous effect. There is a noteworthy absence of severe criticism of the invaders not being attacked sooner or more strongly. It is generally recognized that the fighting front has the first call on airmen, where they are indispensable and never too numerous.

One commander writes: "The entry of America into the war has fortunately placed at the service of the Allies a new and powerful air force. It is possible the speedy development of this force may enable the air defences of this country to be increased very greatly."

The outstanding note in the comments is the expectation of a renewal of air raids on a much-increased scale upon places of great political and military importance, the necessity for increasing the defences as far as possible, and also for the warning of the civilian populations and educating them to seek shelter during raids.

WINNIPEG'S ENLISTMENT.

Winnipeg, May 28.—Since conscription was announced, 321 men in Winnipeg have voluntarily offered to enlist for active service. Of these 256 were passed as medically fit, and 49 were rejected. Examination of sixteen has been deferred.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR LT. JOE WALTERS IN ASKIN ST. CHURCH

Sacrifice Will Help Bring New Era in World.

ANSWERED CALL BRAVELY

Many Soldiers Were Present at Special Service Held Last Evening.

With heads bowed the congregation of the Askin Street Methodist Church stood last night for a few brief moments in silent prayer, paying tribute to the memory of Lieut. J. J. Walters, who fell in action on May 10. Members of the A. M. C. attended the service, and many citizens who had known the young soldier during his newspaper career were present. Music arranged for the service made it a memorable one.

Extending the sympathy of the church to the parents, Dr. Dougall characterized Lieut. Walters as a young man of exemplary character, admired by fellow-workers and beloved by fellow church members. Born in Sarnia, he had lived the greater part of his life here, and grew up in the Askin Street Church and Sunday school.

Recognized His Duty.

"The call came to him when all the romance was gone, and there remained only the stern reality," said Dr. Dougall. "He felt that it was his duty and he went realizing that he must be prepared to give all."

His colonel paid tribute to him in these words:

"Lieut. Joe Walters was one of the most efficient and best-liked officers we had in the battalion. He was most popular with the men, and knew his work in every detail. I consider him one of the most capable officers that ever left Canada. He was always cheerful and seemed to radiate sunshine. I am deeply grieved to hear of his death, and you cannot speak too highly of him for me."

Had Company Pray.

The minister then told of the time before one of the daring daylight raids when Lieut. Walters had his company kneel and pray. This he had done more than once, the minister said, and he was certain that there had been a prayer on his lips as he went into the engagement in which he was killed. He was the fifth member of the church to make the supreme sacrifice.

Speaking for the headquarters staff of Ottawa, Major J. S. Robins said: "It is fitting to place wreaths of memory upon those silent graves which contain the ashes of our gallant dead. Lieut. Walters died a noble death in the grandest cause for which man ever fought.

Fought for Freedom.

"We do not pity those who fell, we almost envy them. They fought and died for the preservation of our free institutions, civilization, for the perpetuation of the rights and liberties of man. They fought for freedom from alien domination and the preservation of Christian principles."

The people of Canada, he said, had not yet risen to a full realization of the seriousness or magnitude of the struggle, but he was satisfied that no nation which had descended to the depths in which Germany had reached would ever be prosperous or victorious. It was impossible to get an adequate idea of the conditions leading to the war without learning the teachings of the German leaders in thought in the past half century. The creeds of Bernhardi, Nietchze, Strauss and Tritchze all focussed to one point and culminated in the doctrine, "might is right."

The speaker pointed out that this was the opposite to the creed held by the Allies, that of "right is might."

The Wrong Doctrine.

"Germany's doctrine will fail, it must fail, it must be made to fail in the highest interests of the human race and of civilization," he declared.

Speaking from the text, 'His right hand went a fiery law for them. Yea, he loved the people." He asserted that this was still true today. Work, although it was wearisome, was one of the world's greatest blessings, and was but a manifestation of divine love.

Men could be roughly divided into two classes. Those who were willing to work and those who were willing to let them. A similar classification, he said, could be made of the young Canadians. There were those who were willing to fight and those who were willing to let them.

Sorrow, another manifestation of the fiery law, brought compensations and often in the darkest hours of human grief was found the sweetest sense of the divine presence.

A New Era.

The life of Lieut. Walters, he said, would be a stone in the foundation of a new world which the war, not only between nations, but doctrines, would usher in. Universal peace was impossible until German militarism was abolished. The war to end war would bring a new era, an age where peace would be universal and the brotherhood of man established.

"The tears of our women and the blood of our heroes will not be shed in vain," he said. "It will herald the dawn of a new era of peace, prosperity and plenty."

The speaker appealed to the young men to offer their services. Never in the history of the British Empire, he said, was there so glorious an opportunity as the present call to duty.

"The man is already dead who only lives to keep himself alive. It is infinitely better to die for those things which live than to live for those things which die."

Dr. Dougall spoke of Q.-M.-S. Egelton, reported this week to have been killed in action. Although not a member of the church he was well known by many of the members.

MILTON M. ALEXANDER.

The London Advertising Club will hold its final session and dinner Wednesday evening next at Wong's Cafe at 6:15 o'clock.

The speaker for the occasion will be Mr. Milton M. Alexander of Detroit, president of the Milton Alexander Company, which spends many hundreds of thousands of dollars each year in the retail advertising of scores of its clients.

He will address the club on advertising in all its branches, but will deal more particularly with retail advertising of everything from furs to furniture. Recently he has been engaged on war relief advertising, details of which will be most interesting to the local men who have been grappling with similar problems.

The London Advertising Club has progressed rapidly since its inception only a year ago and has attracted to its ranks men from every line of business in the city.

Several new members will be introduced on Wednesday evening and the recommendations of the nominating committee for the list of officers during the coming season will be brought in and voted upon.

A delegate will be appointed as the official representative of the club at the annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, St. Louis, Mo., June 2 to 7, of which body the local club is a member by affiliation.

Plans are already being laid for helpful and interesting meetings during next fall and winter, and no doubt some good material and ideas will be secured at the convention during the sessions of the club secretaries, at which matters are brought up in the interest of clubs the world over.

LONDONER TELLS OF WANTON DESTRUCTION WROUGHT BY HUNS

Heartrending to See Devastation in Rich Districts of France.

Mrs. A. Grant Harris, 265 Grosvenor street, has just received the following letter from her husband, who is now at the front in France:

"My battalion has just been moved to a new post. The country around is in such a condition that no one who has not seen it as it is could believe to what a state of desolation and destruction a smiling and prosperous country could be reduced by the ruthlessness of the Germans. It is heartrending in the extreme. The city in question—I am not be allowed to mention the name—I should judge, would have a population of about 30,000 in normal times. It is now a mass of ruins from end to end, the greater part of the damage being done by the Germans before the retreat, by blowing up from the cellars. There is not one house that is anything like sound.

"The cathedral, a beautiful old structure, has only the outer walls standing; the statues all broken, except the Virgin Mary and Christ, which miraculously escaped destruction. All civilians have been moved away inland, as they have from all the villages around which have suffered the same fate.

Only Inhabitants.

"The only inhabitants now are the soldiers in rest-camps, or billets, or battalions, such as ours, working up the lines of communication. There is one house in particular, a gentleman's mansion, on the outskirts, standing in its own grounds of two or three acres, the roof and one side blown off, a large hole on the other side knocked out, iron railway lines laid in the walls six inches apart, trunks of trees 18 inches in diameter laid across them two deep, and sandbags on top, as a shelter, probably for the German staff.

"The grounds must have been very pretty; two small rivers flow through, ornamental bridges across them, a lake with an island, another fitted up with a fountain, a pagoda which had suffered much, fell down last night, and summer houses in different parts. Now it is undermined in all directions by German dugouts and trenches and gun emplacements.

Deep Dugouts.

"Some of the dugouts are a marvel, 30 feet deep, shored up by heavy timbers and railway iron, or anything the Germans could lay hands on. The trees have been cut down for that purpose, and those partially standing have been killed by the shell fire, and the gardens covered with shell holes from three to ten feet deep.

"If you take a walk into the country, the hills, which are mostly topped with trees, are cut up with trenches, dugouts and shelters; barbed wire, miles of it, the barbs half an inch apart, one inch long, wound in and out among trees and bushes, that one wonders how the British army managed to drive the enemy out.

"I could write pages about the terrible destruction. In the city I saw a notice on a board, saying the Royal Warwicks entered on March 18. The notice was fixed to the pedestal of a statue which the Germans had sent to Germany. There are still many German inscriptions about on the houses, and the streets have been given German names. One name was 'Bahu Strasse,' and you see on the houses 'Keller,' meaning 'billet,' and 20 mann or 150 mann, meaning the number of men accommodated, as the case may be. Many of the trees have been wantonly destroyed, one row in particular notched half-way through and left standing. I have tried to give some adequate idea of things here, and conditions, but mere words fail."

ONTARIO LEADS IN GIFTS TO BELGIANS

The Province of Ontario led in contributions to Belgian relief made through the central relief committee, Montreal, for the month of April, the total contributions amounting to $16,698.63. Including a subscription of $177.06 from the United States and sundries amounting to $1.05, the total subscriptions received for the month reached $80,027.17.

WOMEN'S BACKS BEAR THE BURDEN

"Campaigns of thrift," "Speeding up for production," and other present day slogans have influenced the women of Canada quite as much, and indeed in some quarters more, than the men.

How many thousands of women everywhere who always kept a "maid" are now doing their own housework to release another pair of hands for the munition factory. Other thousands of young girls who formerly did not find it necessary to offer their services for hire are doing effective work in the munition factories, stores and elsewhere.

This change of work, or the undertaking of new duties, has found the weak spot in the armour. We hear women say so often now-a-days, "If it weren't for my back I could stand the work fine." The reason for that sore back is the kidneys and nothing else. The remedy is Gin Pills. Just try one box and see how soon the pain in the back is relieved, and tired, swollen joints in the hands and feet are reduced. 98

Constipation is the usual running mate with Kidney and Bladder Trouble—Gin Pills will relieve both in short order. If not we refund your money. Sample free if you write National Drug and Chemical Company of Canada, Limited, Toronto.

POLITICIANS CAUSE EAST LONDON POST OFFICE TO SUSPEND

A. J. Denney Paid Out More Than He Received.

INSPECTOR SAID RAISE

But Patronage Workers Got Busy and Increase Was Not Received.

After having served East London as postmaster for many years with satisfaction to all concerned, A. J. Denney, 610 Dundas street, has resigned and the office is closed. The patronage system and its application to the situation at the office is said to have deprived the important section of its special mail service, and the importance of the matter is indicated by the fact that this office has done a business, almost entirely in stamps, of more than $16,000 a year. A large volume of mail for the business firms of the section has been handled, and all of the firms interviewed were loud in praise of Mr. Denney and his work.

Cost More Than Salary.

For the service he rendered to the public, Mr. Denney received the munificent sum of $500 a year. The work at the postoffice included the hiring of a clerk, the rental of the space required, light, heat and many other incidentals. He put up with a loss for many years, but naturally he has applied for a consideration that would prevent him from going behind. So after his requests had borne no result, he sent in an ultimatum that he would close the postoffice on a certain day unless an advance were given. The advance was not forthcoming and the office was closed. Then an inspector come from Toronto at once. He is said to have agreed with Mr Denney's claim, and although he had received no answer from Ottawa (patronage evidently having clogged the wheels), he informed Mr. Denney that the increase would be forthcoming.

Politicians Get Busy.

But it did not "forthcome." The local politicians who step in between efficient departmental service and the ones that clamor for place, evidently had been busy. Mr. Denney was not instructed that his request had been granted. So that Saturday night he closed the office and this morning East London was without its customary mail service. Business firms had to wait for delivery or send to the central office. They will have to purchase stamps downtown, at least until a successor has been appointed at, it is understood, a considerable higher figure.

Such firms as George White & Sons, the Globe Casket Works, the bank branches, the Columbia Handle Works, the London and Petrolea Barrel Works, C. R. Somerville & Co., the O-Pee-Chee Company, and many others, were served by the office and transacted all their postal business there.

It is said that two clerks would be required at the main branch to do the work formerly transacted by Mr. Denney.

That the matter would have been adjusted and the increase given if the patronage controllers had not stepped in is said to be a fact. The efficiency of the department is impaired and the office closed because the politicians stepped in over the head of the appointed officials of the department.

WOUNDS RECEIVED AT BATTLE OF ST. JULIEN FATAL TO PTE. RITCHIE

Military Funeral for Former Secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Association.

Pte. Alexander Ritchie, a veteran of the 1st Canadians, who was wounded at St. Julien, died Sunday morning in Victoria Hospital as a result of his wounds received two years ago. Pte. Ritchie was one of the organizers of the local Returned Soldiers' Association, and one of the most popular Great War Veterans in the city. He acted as secretary of the local association for some time.

A Scotsman, and a veteran of the Boer war, in which he served as a corporal of the Scottish Rifles, Pte. Ritchie was one of the first to don khaki when war was declared. He enlisted at Windsor, and was drafted into the 1st Canadians, serving with that unit until he fell at St. Julien with wounds in his lung. He was sent back to Canada with one of the first parties of returned wounded soldiers, and came to London, where he has since made his home. His wife and two young sons survive.

The dead soldier, who was 29 years of age, will be given a military funeral with all the honors that his comrades-in-arms of the Returned Soldiers' Association can pay. The funeral will be on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence, 21 Bathurst street, to the military plot in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Rev. R. W. Norwood, rector of Cronyn Memorial Church, will officiate. Nassau Orange Lodge, 2170, of which Pte. Ritchie was a member, will be represented at the funeral.

Pte. Ritchie, in addition to his Orange affiliations, was a member of the A., F. and A. M. in Scotland.

PTE. GEORGE W. LEWIS AMONG THE FALLEN

Official casualty lists report that Pte. George W. Lewis, formerly of this city, was killed in action recently. The usual official communication has not been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Lewis, Wharncliffe road south, and it is thought that it was sent to his wife in Edmonton.

Pte. Lewis was a member of the 194th Battalion, Edmonton. He was born here and educated at the Victoria public school. He has been absent from London for a number of years, but visited his parents for a short time before going overseas.

In addition to his parents and his widow, he is survived by four sons in Edmonton, three sisters—Mrs. (Dr.) McGowan, Rochester, N. Y.; Mrs. T. J. Cahill, Vancouver, and Miss Sara Lewis, California, and a brother, Clarence G. Lewis, city.

MET LONDONERS IN FAR-AWAY CHINA

Mr. Frank W. Lilley of New York, formerly of this city, recently received a letter from his son, Frank W. Jun., who is manager for the Standard Oil Company at Wanhsien, China, in which he writes: "In making an inspection trip to some of our sub-stations on the Upper Yangtse-Kiang River, about 1,500 miles from Shanghai, I visited a place called Chung Chow, and learned that there were some Canadian Methodist missionaries stationed there, so I called on them, and was agreeably surprised to find that several of them were from London, Canada, and one gentleman knew Grandpa Lilley and had been in his store in East London. His name was Mr. Mortimer. One of the ladies, a Mrs. Burwell, comes from West London, and her father's name is Hugh McPherson, and he is with The London Advertiser. The other people I met were from small towns near London. I had dinner with them and they were very pleased. They are doing good work in Chung Chow, in the way of building schools, hospitals, etc. They told me that there were a great many Canadians up near Chengtu, the capital of Szechwan. It seemed good to meet some people from your native land."

Mr. Frank W. Lilley was in the city over Sunday, visiting his father and mother.

FAMOUS MEDIUM COMING TO CITY TO HOLD SEANCE

Mrs. Wreidt of Detroit Secured by Spiritualists.

"ANTIS" MAY GET BUSY

Clergyman Says "Fakirs" Are Sure To Flock To London.

Mrs. Wreidt of Detroit, who is regarded as one of the foremost mediums of the country, is coming to London soon to conduct a series of seances. She has been secured by a number of London spiritualists and the inner circle of those who profess to have had communion with the beyond will arrange for the meetings, while will be of a private character. She has recently been in Montreal and other eastern cities, and will touch London on her return trip. She has been known as a medium for many years, and is mentioned in a number of the foremost books on the subject.

The "Antis" in Session.

Incidentally, it is said that an informal meeting of anti-spiritualists has been held in the city, and that steps will be taken to combat the influence of sermons and writings on the subject.

"London is going crazy on spiritualism," said one clergyman. "There are one or more professional mediums here at the present time. They follow the meets like fakirs at a country fair, and their business has been greatly improved through the revival brought about by the war."

Will Irwin's Expose.

Another citizen advised those who are verging toward belief in spirits to read the writings of Will Irwin, who conducted exposures of a number of alleged mediums, revealing the famous "blue book" system. The "blue book" is a volume circulated among all in the craft, it contains facts concerning many people interested in spiritualism, and in many cases prints, photographs of those likely to visit mediums while visiting. Thus, if a London man interested in spiritism went to Buffalo and visited a seance, he would be "spotted" from the blue book, and the questions he would likely ask and the names of his departed relatives, etc., would be revealed to him, causing him to become more firm in his belief. One of Irwin's books is called "Vera the Medium," in which he claims that spiritualism is a gigantic charlatanism

CONSOLATION OF THE OPEN TOMB IS WHAT WHOLE WORLD NEEDS

Spiritualism Is Further Discussed on Sunday at the Memorial Church.

"What the world needs is the consolation of the open tomb, the certainty of the unbroken communion of saints, to be able to stand by the open grave of a loved one without a tear and say to friends who stand by and grieve, 'Comrades, do not cry. Our loved one is closer than breathing, nearer than hands and feet,' and to be able to say this on the evidence of the eyes and ears of the soul."

The foregoing statement was made last evening by Rev. R. W. Norwood in the course of his sermon on "The Communion of Saints," one of the series on "Raymond," by Sir Oliver Lodge.

Mr. Norwood tok as his text, "Wherefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision." He announced that next Sunday evening, preaching on what he concelves to be "The Destiny of Man," he would relate some of his actual experiences along psychic lines.

"There is no reason," he said, "why we should be ashamed of these things. Yet courage is required. Courage and gentleness are required of you and me. I wish to conduct this series without acrimony. I will not resent criticism and will not attempt to reply. If this be of God, who can be against us. I think this is of God. Don't you?"

Mr. Norwood pictured the powerful Agrippa, the eternal world type of the material man, indorsed, admittedly sane, symbolizing power and that which is accredited; Paul, the prisoner, the spiritual man, condemned as a fool, a clever mnipulator of souls for evil purposes.

Faith Required.

"The sympathy of man," he said, "is in the direction of that which he can handle, in the direction of paths clearly seen and made, in the direction that makes for immediate results. Great faith is required to discern things not seen.

"Paul typifies the spiritual experiences, doubted, derided, condemned. The judgment of the world is against the novel and unfamiliar. The unfamiliar is startling. People like to go with the crowd.

Agrippa stands for the church as well as the state, the church legislating the kingdom of Jesus by accepted standards, calling the public by the power of infidelity, shutting up the minds of the people against the revealing individually of the power of the spirit. Agrippa in politics, the social order or religion, represents dependence upon authority, and closes all doors to inquiry. Those of you who are courageous answer the question for yourselves when you go home tonight if you see in yourselves Agrippa.

"Martin Luther, before the church, was the history of Paul and Agrippa repeating itself.

"There is a curious inability on the part of men and women and the church to identify themselves with Agrippa. Yet everything is foolish to the average man that lies beyond his own experience. Nevertheless, every prophet was a medium, and the whole Bible was built up upon recognition of mediumship.

Refers to Ridicule.

Referring to the ridicule that has been cast upon testimony of receiving messages through such mediums as table-tippings and the Ouija board, the speaker recalled the scorn of Naaman, the leper, when the prophet bade him perform the simple act of washing in a mean little stream like the Jordan; the sneers of Agrippa at Paul's story of the Christ who was born in a manger.

"God's method," he reminded, "has been to manifest great things of good by small means. The stable and cross have been the symbols of the power and majesty of Christ."

Turning to the second phase of his subject, the "heavenly vision," to which Paul was obedient, "What was this vision?" said Mr. Norwood.

"The vision of Paul was a discarnate soul, not only Christ after death, but other people, too. I am not addressing agnostics. I am preaching to men and women who believe in Jesus. What is the content of the New Testament? 'There are no dead.'"

To illustrate this, the passage was read from the NewTestament which relates that at the time of the crucifixion there were people in Jerusalem who talked to friends who had been dead.

Marvellous Phenomena.

"It is certain," commented the preacher, "that at the moment of the death of Jesus, there was a marvellous demonstration of psychic phenomena.

"If this happened in the first century, why not here and now?

"Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever.

"There is one thing that has confronted me ever since I have come to London, the attitude of mind characteristic of many dear and worthy people that the curtain rang down on the manifestation of resurrection light at the time of the crucifixion, and that they must follow the rutted road of the Jews before Jesus came. Despite this, on the day of Pentecost, which we are commemorating this evening, the Holy Spirit descended upon three thousand souls and people spoke in strange tongues.

"Paul knew whereof he witnessed. To be powerful, to be accredited witnesses, we must witness to that which we know. Psychic manifestation was frequent in the first century. This was lost with Constantine the Great, who raised the church to imperialism and robbed the people of power. In the 19th century there came a renaissance of spiritual power. We are advancing by slow degrees towards knowledge. There are friends of mine who agree with me in the main, but say to me, 'I don't like your indorsing mediums.'

Need Masters.

"When I was a little boy, just started to school, it was necessary for me to learn my A B C's before I could read. The teachers led me watchfully, patiently, a long time, before I could form the A B C's into words without making mistakes. You and I are little children who are being led, and we will not find light and knowledge unless we submit to spiritual masters.

Concerning "spiritual masters," Mr. Norwood pointed to the Bible as a "book of angels," of ministering spirits.

"If these things happened then, why not now?" he raised the question after reminding of Bible incidents of angel visitations.

"Why deny the claim of Oliver Lodge to discipleship or the communication of discarnate Raymond with father, mother and brethren? They who deny and laugh are putting Christ to open shame," he insisted.

At this point the preacher made correction of a misunderstanding on the part of some epople the previous Sunday evening to the effect that he had made the statement that a person could not be a Christian without being a spiritualist.

Progressive Experience.

"The state of being a Christian," he added, "is a progressive experience, and I would not deny the right to the term Christian to one who had not reached this development." At the same time he clearly defined his own position in the matter. "I have no interest in psychic phenomena," he declared, "unless it leads to Jesus Christ and the establishment of the kingship and supremacy of the eprson of Jesus. So long as I believe in Jesus, I must believe in the communion of saints."

With regard to the trivial nature of messages which have been given out by mediums, Mr. Norwood stated that frequently there comes a clear-cut message that impresses by its indisputable reality. At the same time, doubtless, many so-called messages are consciously or unconsciously frauds stamped with the impress of the lives the mediums themselves have been leading.

Few people report in the same way the little occurrences of everyday life.

So far as "Raymond" is concerned, Mr. Norwood took the view that the incident of the photographs furnishtd convincing proof of spirit communication.

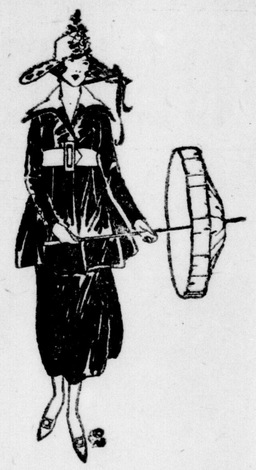

The real value of psychic research, the preacher emphasized in closing, is to confirm faith and make it possible to witness the things unseen, which are not merely hopid for, but known by actual experience.

BLOWN UP THREE TIMES

Bomber W. Heather, No. 401028, of Webb street, who served with the 1st Canadian Battalion, has arrived home on furlough after two strenuous years at the front.

Bomber Heather has had enough adventures to make one of G. A. Henty's heroes blush with shame. He was wounded twice, gassed, and blown out of the trenches on three separate occasions. He lost his whole eulpment four times altogether.

The bomber left London with Capt. Nelles in the 33rd Battalion detached company. He was transferred to the 12th Battalion, and then to the 1st Battalion, where he took up the perilous work of bomb throwing. He hopes to be in the game when the Hun is chased beyond the Rhine.

CAMLACHIE MUSICAL.

CAMLACHIE, May 27.—A charming musical was given at the home of Mrs. P. McG. Brown, on Friday evening by Mrs. Brown and her pupils. There were present pupils and parents to the number of 50, who assembled in the patriotically decorated parlors. Dr. Brown gave a short address of welcome. The instrumental numbers, including many splendid duets, were given by Misses Helen Jardine, Florence McCordie, Bessie McFarlane, Aggie and Jennie Paton, Jennie Taylor, Mary McLean, Jean Cairns, Laura and Alma Burnley, Hazel Matthews, Gladys Lunam, Coreta McCordie, Messrs. Lorne Wellington and Carmen Matthews, and Mesdames McCordie and Brown. Essays on the life of Rubinstein, Mozart, Beethoven, Handel and Schytte, were read by Misses Coreta McCordie, Reta Logan, Helen Jardine and Connie Mitchell respectively. Mr. Miss McCordie also giving the one on Schytte. Each essay was followed by a composition of the musician whose life was sketched. Little Miss Florence and Miss Myrtle Cairns rendered the vocal selections.

After the program a dainty lunch was served.

FAREWELL PRESENTATION MADE TO HENSALL PASTOR

Well-Filled Purse and Good Wishes of Congregation Tendered Rev. Mr. Smith.

HENSALL, May 27.—The 44th of May passed over quietly in the village, as there was no public celebration in this year of war, stress and strain, and the weather and roads were so unfavorable as to keep nearly everybody at home. In the evening, notwithstanding the rain and bad roads, a large number assembled at Carmel Presbyterian Church to have a farewell evening with their pastor, Rev. E. F. McL. Smith, B.A., who recently resigned his charge here after a pastorate of nearly thirteen years of able and successful ministry.

The meeting was called to order when George J. Sutherland, postmaster, was asked to act as chairman, and in his opening remarks he spoke at some length of the object of the meeting, to do honor to their pastor and spend a social evening with him, together with his wife and family. The chairman also spoke of the Rev. Mr. Smith, firstly, as a man; secondly, as a citizen, and lastly as a minister of the gospel.

As a "man," he outlined his bright and happy disposition, his splendid methods, and his warm interest in all the members of his congregation. As a "citizen," he spoke of the great interest he took in everything pertaining to the village and how beautiful he had made the church and manse grounds by his own labor, and how he had beautified it with plants, shrubs and flowers, and how, when there was any work to be done in the way of picnics, garden socials or duties to be performed, Mr. Smith was untiring in his energies to make everything a success; how hard he had worked in connection with the public institutions, and particularly in connection with the public library, and lastly, and more important than all, how he excelled as a minister and preacher, being one of the best pulpit orators to be found and one who could ably fill any city pulpit or charge.

At this juncture of the meeting Rev. Mr. Smith and Mrs. Smith were invited to come to the front, when Henry Horton, one of the elders of the congregation, read an address, expressive of the high esteem in which Mr. Smith and family were held by the congregation, of the recognition of his great ability and untiring zeal in the ministry, and general regret at his resignation, and that the best wishes and prayers of the congregation would ever follow himself and family in their future fields of work. Alex Buchanan, Sr., for many years an official in the congregation, then stepped forward, and in the name of the elders and congregation presented Mr. Smith with a well-filled wallet, containing a little over $178, in token of the esteem and good wishes of the congregation.

Mr. Smith, on behalf of himself and family, made a most feeling reply, assuring those present that it was a most genuine surprise. He sympathetically reviewed his pastorate of nearly thirteen years among the people, of the loyalty, of his session and the help and encouragement he had received from the managers.

Afterwards the chairman and Mr. Horton followed with short addresses. The rest of the evening was spent in pleasant social intercourse, the ladies having provided refreshments in great abundance.

HAD INDIGESTION

Could Keep Nothing on Stomach.

Indigestion is one of the worst forms of stomach trouble. The stomach becomes upset and you have a raw, debilitated feeling in it.

After a meal you feel that you must get rid of that nasty, bilious, burning sensation; that souring and rising of the food which is so unpleasant and in many cases very painful.

It is not necessary for you to be troubled with indigestion when Burdock Blood Bitters may be so easily obtained. This old and well-known remedy, which is a combination of nature's best roots, herbs, barks and berries will cure indigestion and all stomach troubles.

Mr. Lazare Savoy, Pokemouche, N. B., writes: "About two years ago I was troubled with indigestion that had I could keep nothing on my stomach. I was sorely disappointed in everything I tried to relieve me. At last a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I took four bottles and can now eat anything that is set in front of me."

That grand old medicine, B. B. B., has been on the market for the past forty years, and we claim, without any fear of contradiction, that it is the best cure for all stomach troubles.

AYING TAXES FOR PROPERTY THAT HAS GONE INTO THAMES

Ridout Street Folk Also in a Dangerous Place.

RIVER BEING DIVERTED

City Building Up Dump That Causes Tearing Away of Bank.

All the dangerous situations are not to be found in France. This was clearly proved to an Advertiser reporter this morning, who paid a visit to the home of Mrs. L. Upchurch, who keeps a grocery store at 20 Ridout street. The back of the house has been undermined, owing to inroads made by the south branch of the Thames, and is liable at any time t... be hurled 50 feet into the river below. ...on't see how you have the nerve ...y here; it's pretty dangerous for ...bserved the reporter.

City Drives Current Over.

"I'm not particularly brave," she returned, "but this place is all I have, and who would want to buy a home that at any moment may go floating down the river. In the last year I have lost 20 feet of property, and I was more than enraged the other day to see the city dumping refuse just across the river from me on Hunt's flats, thereby diverting the current more and more against our tottering bank.

"I have been up to see the city council about it, but could obtain no satisfaction. The mayor was over here, and agreed that something should be done, but no movement for the relief of all the property owners along here has been attempted. I'm going to stay here as long as possible, and if my home is demolished, why I'll sue the city, and so will the rest of the owners along here. My house is practically on the sidewalk now, and can't be moved.

Taxes on Vanished Property.

"A week ago last Friday I was sitting in the house when I heard a peculiar rending noise. I rushed to the back of the house and say my pretty willow tree go down to the river. My flower bed has disappeared, and a pretty lilac bush has gone, too. It is disgraceful that I should have to pay $50 taxes on vanished property.

"If on y one of the city council owned a chicken coop along here everything would be all right and we would probably have had a fine breakwater erected long ago.

"The rains of last week all helped to wash away the bank, which is sandy. The residents along the block have anything but nice things to say about the council, and if some action is not taken by the city fathers in a hurry, one more expense to those now thrust on the taxpayers owing to civic short-sightedness will be chalked up."

CANADA A GUIDE TO U. S.—Special prominence is being given to problems of the Dominion of Canada in the program of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections to be held in Pittsburg from June 6 to 13, according to a notice received by Mrs. A. T. Edwards of this city, who has been a member of former conferences held in Ottawa and Toronto. The reason stated for this by William T. Cross, the general secretary, is that "Canada is a guide in so many ways to the United States in the present period." Among the speakers of the conference will be former president, William H. Taft, and Herbert C. Hoover of the Commission for Relief of Belgium and of the U. S. food board, and from Canada, Sir Herbert Ames and Miss Helen Y. Reid of the Canadian patriotic fund. The driving issues of the hour in Canada and the United States and pressing after-the-war problems are to receive consideration. It is probable that several representatives will attend from London.

FIVEFOLD INCREASE OVER FORMER RATE OF CITY RECRUITING

One Hundred and Forty Men Apply for Service.

MANY ARE REJECTED

Fifty-One London Men in the Number Attested at Local Office.

Last week was one of the best weeks in the history of the London recruiting depot, and in the six days a total of 140 men were examined at the Armories. It must be borne in mind, however, that these men are not all from London, but many of them are sent here to pass the medical board, after having passed a preliminary examination by a medical officer at some other recruiting centre.

If the men who were attested at points outside London are excluded, it leaves a total of 76 men from London and vicinity who applied for enlistment at the London mobilization centre. Of these, about one-third were unable to pass the scrutiny of the medical board, there being 25 rejected and 51 passed. Of a total of 64 men who came in from outside recruiting centres, such as Sarnia, St. Thomas and Goderich, 53 were found fit and 11 were turned back as unfit.

Speeded Up Five Times.

The following table shows that during the week 36 men were considered physically unfit and 104 were pronounced fit, making the complete total of all men who were examined at the London mobilization centre, 140. During the weeks that preceded the proposal of conscription measure, about 30 men was the usual number who applied for examination, and when that is compared with this week's figures, it is evident that men come in last week at about five times the usual rate.

	Rejected.	Passed.	Totals.
From London	25	51	76
From outside London...	11	53	64
Totals	36	104	140

Seven Londoners Pass.

Only 10 men succeeded in passing the medical examination on Saturday, 7 of whom were from London and 3 from other places. The London men were: A. E. Harris, J. Smith, C. M. Bowman, R. R. Sutherland, J. M. Kildare, G. O. Bankes and S. Metoxen; and the others were: I. S. Philo, Sarnia, and F. R. Smith and E. Beecroft, St. Thomas.

Today the staff at the recruiting depot are busy attesting men, and as Monday is usually a good day, it is expected that a good showing will be made, though it is not likely that last Monday's high figures will be reached.

PERSONAL MENTION

Arthur Holman left for Detroit last evening after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allie Holman.

Miss Edith Greer is visiting friends in Sarnia.

Mrs. Harris, of Toronto, is spending a few days in town, a guest in the home of her son, Rev. R. Harris, Peter street.

THREE CONVICTIONS BRING $410 FINES UNDER LIQUOR ACT

One Man Had Bottle Hidden in His Piano.

ANOTHER CANNOT PAY

John Hooper Makes His Thirteenth Appearance in Eighteen Months.

Fines aggregating $410 for convictions under the Ontario temperance act were imposed in police court this morning by Magistrate Graydon.

William Collie, tailor, 489 Richmond street, pleaded guilty to having liquor on premises other than a private dwelling contrary to section 41 of the act. He was fined $200 and costs and immediately paid the amount. The information was laid by Inspector Keenleyside, who acted on a tip given in a letter addressed to him. He procured a search warrant, and found five bottles of whiskey in different parts of the tailor shop at the above address. The first bottle was found above the keyboard in the piano. Inspector Keenleyside asked if the object was to improve the tone of the piano, but on this point Collie was non-committal.

Unlucky "13" For Him.

John Hooper, who has the distinction of having been charged 13 times under liquor measures in the past 18 months, was found guilty under section 41 of having liquor on premises other than a private dwelling. He was fined $200 and costs, the evidence showing that he had the liquor in a shed at the rear of a local factory. John failed to produce the necessary coin and will spend his summer vacation as a result at Castle Carter.

A mechanic testified that he had been invited by Hooper to have a drink from a bottle which the latter had in his possession. Asked by the magistrate if he was sure that the bottle contained whisky, witness replied that he had no doubt whatever on that point. Patrolman Brammer gave evidence to the effect that he had seen Hooper pass the bottle to his friend. He then arrested Hooper.

Deserter Sentenced.

Frank Clarke, pleaded guilty to desertion from the 153rd Battalion, and was sentenced to not less than six and not more than nine months in the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph. He offered no explanation for his conduct.

Louis Pernokis, proprietor of the Alps and Parisian cafes, was heard on two charges: one that of using grossly insulting language to William Armstrong, and the second a charge of failing to pay $2 wages to Charlie Lim, an employee. He was allowed to go on payment of costs in the first case, and an apology to Armstrong. He paid the $2 to Lim and the costs on the second hcarge.

One citizen pleaded guilty to intoxication and paid $10 and costs. He explained that he had visited his cousin in the country, who had entertained him too well for his own good.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

BEWARE THE EVIL SPIRITS.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I have been much interested in reading the letters for and against spiritualism in your paper, and hoping that I may by writing my experience prevent even one person from being absorbed in it, I do not hesitate to give it. Some years ago I was invited by friends to see some "table tipping." I noticed (if there was anything in it) that different types of people in the room seemed to attract corresponding spirits, from the questions and answers. I was attracted and interested in it, and later a friend of mine developed powers of automatic writing, and with my assistance we had some quite interesting answers to our questions. She wrote so quickly that it seemed impossible that what she wrote could have emanated from her own mind or from mine, which was an expectant blank. We were naturally anxious to have proof. I remember once we asked questions about pre-destination, but the answers were not satisfactory. Some friends of ours in England were thought good mediums and advanced in spirit communion, so we wrote begging them to get more definite answers for us when next they had automatic writings. This is the answer sent us, and had a mark which is known by spiritualists as comings from the highest type of spirits who communicate: "There seems to be a disposition on the part of your friends to know more of us. We would tell them that there is nothing we could tell them which they cannot learn by faith. We would also warn them that it is much more easy for evil spirits to communicate with earth than the good. The evil spirits are nearer the earth and in their great desire and anxiety to speak to those on earth personate the friends of those who are writing and attend seances so cleverly sometimes that people are deceived. We would also tell them that at the sign of the cross and prayer evil spirits will flee from them."

Is it not possible that Sir Oliver Lodge, clever man as he was, could have been tricked sometimes by mischievous spirits, especially when he had a natural longing to hear from his son, Raymond? Spirit communion is more than absorbing, especially to those whose dear ones have "Crossed the Bar," but we cannot live in two worlds at once, the brain cannot stand it and was never intended to. This present war for the reformation of the world is no doubt a fight for control between evil and good spirits, allowed for the moment, and the fight is not all at the front. They are subtle and closer and attack when off guard the most vulnerable point. If I may give a word of warning from my own experience and others whom I have known I should say avoid spirit communion in any form and live by simple Christian faith day by day. I think we all feel that we are guarded or tempted by unseen powers. Let it rest there, but pray to be guarded from the evil.

IMPRESSIONS OF A LONDONER WHO HEARD MR. BALFOUR

Cementing of Love and Respect of Britain and United States Would Be Crowning Achievement of His Career.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

For two days I have been privileged to witness and listen to the illustrious and most accomplished English scholar and statesman, Arthur J. Balfour. In few words, I can say if all the progressive citizens of London and vicinity had been likewise privileged, they would realize quickly that Mr. Balfour's mission is not perfunctory or stagey, but of such lofty, patriotic and cementive influence that it will be effective and live for all time. His style of speech and thought is so far away from self laudation and consciousness that he impresses his hearers that he is on a mission of special inspired character and nation building. I have heard the addresses of innumerable and foremost scholars and statesmen in this and foreign lands, but few, if any, have ever impressed me like Mr. Balfour, for he is lofty in spirit, simple and plain in sentiment, and impresses one with a far reaching, supernatural, and a most careful and scholarly statesmanship.

No event since Mr. Balfour arrived at Toronto, 4:10 on Friday afternoon, will stand out more pronounced than the great assemblage which met him, and gave him the long and most lavish good cheer in Convocation Hall of the University of Toronto, when President Falconer and Chancellor Sir William Meredith conferred on Mr. Balfour at 3:40 this afternoon the honorary degree of the great university. Much of the education of the university's past history was in evidence in the distinguished assemblage. Every seat was filled and thousands unable to gain admission. My seat was one of the very best for a full observation. If a critical stage play had been set and rehearsed and staged for weeks it could not be more perfect, and in some respects more tragic, than this most important event. Evidently Mr. Balfour had no set or stereotyped speech. He spoke extemporaneously and with such freedom that he amazed the vast audience. The brightest points of his address brought forth long and unquenchable applause. He referred with deep emotion to his visit and memorable receptions in the United States, summing up the time, the occasion and the objects of his visit to the North American continent. He leaves unconsciously the impression of a well-defined mission, timely and wisely ordained. He said if his visit will help to cement the everlasting friendship, love and respect of the British Empire and the great republic of the United States, then he will regard and cherish it as the crowning achievement of his public career.

CONGREGATION STANDS IN TRIBUTE TO ONE OF MEMBERS FALLEN

An impressive memorial service for the late Pte. Norman Chivas, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Chivas, Chesley avenue, reported last week killed in action, was conducted on Sunday evening in the Hamilton Road Presbyterian Church by the minister, Rev. D. L. McCrae.

A large congregation was present, including some twenty representatives of the Chivas family. At the conclusion of the service, the congregation stood in silent tribute to the gallant young soldier who had laid down his life, while the "Dead March in Saul" was played by Mr. Stein, organist of the church.

The church was appropriately draped for the occasion with purple and black flags.

Norman Chivas is the second of his family to make the supreme sacrifice within the past year. A brother, Pte. Edward Chivas, was killed several months ago. Another brother has been invalided home and a fourth member of the family is serving overseas.

WILL NOT BRING CHILD TO COURT, AS ORDERED

Miss Thompson May Be Committed Because of Refusal.

Notwithstanding the fact that Miss Margaret Thompson, 390 Victoria street has been ordered by Mr. Justice Masten to produce at 3 o'clock today her niece, Jean Link, 12-year-old daughter of William Link, Mamalon street, it is understood on good authority that she will refuse to obey the instructions of the court.

The order was issued following several months of litigation in which the father had tried to obtain possession of the girl which had been taken in charge by her aunt, Miss Thompson, when a child.

In the event of Miss Thompson failing to produce the child before the local master today it is the intention of Link's counsel to move on Saturday next before a high court for her committment to jail for contempt of court.

SUGGESTS PUBLICATION OF ADVERTISER SERIES IN FORM OF A BOOK

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

The articles in your morning paper for some time on gardening by "The Girl with the Hoe" are the best I have seen, and I have read a good many. They are plainly written in language easily understood, which is very different from usual articles.

I regret that I did not cut out all those pieces, and I am wondering if these articles will be published in book form later on. If so, would be glad of a chance to purchase one of the books.

Yours truly,

SNOW IN MAY NOT AT ALL UNUSUAL; HERE IS THE RECORD

Snow in this district during May is by no means unusual, according to a diary kept by F. R. Hamilton of Exeter, containing a list of the dates which he has forwarded to Police Court Clerk Moule in a recent letter. According to Mr. Hamilton's diary snow has fallen since 1875 in May on the following dates: in 1875: on the 1st; 1878, 11th; 1882, 2nd; 1885, 3rd and 9th; 1888, 13th and 14th; 1889, 1st and 28th; 1890, 6th; 1891, 4th and 5th; 1894, 28th; 1895, 12th and 14th; 1901, 12th; 1903, 1st; 1904, 15th; 1906, 7th and 9th; 1907, 10th and 27th; 1908, 2nd; 1909, 1st and 2nd; 1912, 13th; 1916, 18th; 1917, 9th and 23rd.

MRS. HARRISON'S PUPILS HEARD TO ADVANTAGE

A couple of successful recitals were given last week in Heintzman Hall by pupils in piano and singing of Mrs. G. Harrison, John street, the large audience which attended manifesting great appreciation.

The first evening the program was presented by junior pupils, who played with a technical sureness and entire familiarity with the numbers they were presenting that bespoke most competent training and thorough preparation. This was especially revealed in the smoothness of the ensemble work in the concluding number for eight hands. Vocal numbers were contributed by Miss Cleota Barnett, who has a lyric soprano voice of much promise. The following took part: Nola Rhodes, Clifford Courtnay, Thelma Wrighton, Ewart Wrighton, Ruth Wainwright, Marjorie Pirie, Vera Smart, Evelyn White, Eleanor Wheeler, Ruth Friendship, Ted Jennings, Wilfrid Chambers, Madeline McGeary, Frances Wrighton, Gertrude Pirie, Dorothy Watson, Norma Dale and Florence Courtenay, the Misses Hearn, Chelew and Smeltzer.

A pleasing little incident was the presentaton of a bouquet of American Beauty roses to Mrs. Harrison on behalf of her junior pupils.

The second recital of the series took place the evening after the junior recital, also in Heintzman Hall.

Considerable talent was revealed by several of the advanced pupils, and all played most creditably, showing intelligent appreciation of the content of their numbers as well as mastery of technical diffculties. Both juniors and seniors played entirely from memory.

Six-hand and eight-hand numbers lent variety to the program, of which a noteworthy feature was the singing of Mr. Fudney, a young baritone who undoubtedly has a future. A "discovery" of Mrs. Harrison's, his entire training has been received from her. So popular did he prove with the audience that he was obliged to respond to a double encore.

The pianists of the evening were Misses Gladys Hynd, Eleanor Courtnay, Chapman, McLeod, Nichol, Olga Hern, Caldwell, Smeltzer, Chelew, Chambers, McLeod, Fowler, Smart, Ila Chelew, Cleota Barnett, Alberta Smeltzer and Wilfred Chambers and Melville Wray.

The senior class presented Mrs. Harrison with a beautiful piece of statuary, "The Whistler."

Eleven of Mrs. Harrison's pupils are taking the Toronto University examinations in music, to be held in London in June, in the primary, junior and intermediate departments. The theory examinations will take place on June 5 and the piano on June 13. Eight of her pupils were successful in passing the Toronto University examinations held at the local centre a year ago.

"ONLY EMPTY WORDS"

Thus the German Comment on Lloyd George's Submarine Prediction.

Amsterdam, via London, May 28.—The speech of Premier Lloyd George last week, in which he said German submarines were being combatted successfully and that England could not be starved by the submarine campaign, is characterized as "only empty words" in a semi-official German reply.

"Facts are lacking," says the reply, "because our navy has found little trace of the new methods whereby, according to the views of the enemy, the submarine danger can be met. Hitherto all enemy experts have agreed that with the present means they are powerless against the serious dangers occasioned by submarines. A change in technical methods cannot be achieved in a fortnight. We calmly await Lloyd George's prediction as to the future."

THREE MAIDENS FOUND SPLASHING IN CREEK

Three maidens, who assumed the role of September morn, and disported in a stream which runs into the Cove, gave South London a shock one chilly day last week.

They were not seen for some time and relatives commenced a search. After much anxiety they were found splashing about in the brook, having the gayest and wettest time of their lives. They had not taken the famous advice, for their clothes hung on a hickory limb and they did go near the water. They were all children, who did not appreciate the danger they were in, if there was danger.

GIVE THIS LAND A REST

Republic Should Furnish Men at Same Rate as the Dominion.

"As an American citizen I believe it is appropriate for me to suggest that the time has come when Uncle Sam should say to Canada. 'Here, young fellow, you've done your share. You take a rest, and let me get my men into the game at the same rate as you have done,'" said Manager C. B. King of the London Street Railway to The Advertiser.

"I wish that the press of the United States would take this up," he added. "They should realize across the line what Canada has done, and how many men have been drained from a country that is sparsely populated, with no more than the population of one or two of our big states. That is the way it looks to me as an American in Canada. It seems a pity that Canada must continue to send men when there are so many Americans who can be called. The two countries should have an understanding. It is Uncle Sam's turn to take the watch."

"MASQUE OF LIFE."

"The Masque of Life" will open at the Patricia today. It comes directly from New York, where it has firmly established itself as the most thrilling of all thrill films. Unlike anything ever before shown in America, it is a combination of romance, melodrama and tragedy with a tremendous number of wonderfully spectacular scenes woven in. It could best be described as a novelty, the work of Pete, the famous chimpanzee actor, who plays an important role, being specially interesting.

AT MAJESTIC TODAY AND TUESDAY.

Margaret Illington, the distinguished Canadian star of the speaking stage, will make her first appearance on the screen in the Lasky-Paramount production of Charles Kenyon's gripping and vivid story, "Sacrifice." For her first production Miss Illington was assigned a task of unusual difficulty even for artists of great screen experience—that of playing a dual role. Miss Illington is seen as the daughter of a man high up in diplomatic service and also as a notorious dancer, at Majestic today and Tuesday. In the cast supporting Miss Illington are included Jack Holt, Winter Hall and Noah Berry.

BORDEN LACKS JUDGMENT

THERE are great questions confronting the Government of Canada at this time, including conscription, the advisability of a coalition or, better still, a national government, food control, etc. But there is one other question which Premier Borden appears to ignore when he continues to uphold and parade before the world as his valued friend and counsellor the Hon. Robert Rogers, that is the question of decency. How can the Dominion hold up her head among nations while her premier selects as his traveling companion and favorite a man accused by a commissioner, appointed by Government, as a participator in a fraudulent conspiracy.

In his interim report on the circumstances surrounding the construction of the Manitoba Agricultural College, Justice Galt, sitting as commissioner, says, in part:

"I find that shortly after the site for the new agricultural college was acquired a fraudulent conspiracy was entered into by the Hon. Robert Rogers and Thomas Kelly, senior member of the firm of Thomas Kelly & Sons, contractors."

Summing up the objects of this conspiracy, the commissioner says they were to provide money for the Conservative fund use from the contractors and to provide Kelly with provincial funds far in excess of what he earned, these over-payments amounting to $302,789.28.

Other details are given in the report as to the means taken to carry out the conspiracy and as to Rogers' connection with them, he, according to the commissioner, creating "an atmosphere of laxity in his department of public works," in order to make the carrying out of the plot possible.

Of these two men, named as principals in the conspiracy, one, Kelly, is now nominally in prison; we say nominally because his confinement is being made so little irksome, in fact so comparatively pleasant as to appear more like a stay at a sanatorium. The other has just returned from accompanying the premier of Canada to the imperial conference in England, where he was allowed to become so prominent that on more than one occasion he overshadowed his supposed chief.

If personal pride and decency did not forbid the premier to associate more than was absolutely necessary with his colleague, respect for his country ought to have done so. To flaunt such a man in the face of Britain as a representative of this great Dominion was an insult to Canada and to Britain. We need here, during this time of crisis, the strongest, most upright government it is possible to secure, and we are offered the spectacle of the premier hob-nobbing with an alleged grafter. How can Canada rise to her greatest heights under such circumstances?

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

A CITIZEN on the car-back remarked to another that a queer law prevented him from planting onion seed of a Sunday afternoon, while it allowed the soldiers to fight and all who pleased and could afford it to go motoring round the streets. One may golf but not garden. One may on Sunday dissipate resources, but not call them into being. It is lawful in reaping time to motor out past someone's fields and "pluck the ears of corn," but it is not lawful in sowing time to plant them. You may pluck someone else's in public view, but not plant your own inoffensively behind the house on the Sabbath, saith this citizen.

Laws have to be devised as best possible for general weal, in spite of individual exceptions, but it does seem that while professional gardeners might well take a rest from their ordinary labors, the majority of men working indoors during the week should not be restrained from a little wholesome and public-spirited activity in the backyard on their day off. It is a relaxation rather than work. We say nowadays that the Sabbath was made for man. But perhaps some of our businessmen might be sorry to see the Sunday law modified so as to leave them perfectly free to take the unloved hoe in hand. The last excuse would be destroyed.

ENGLAND AGAIN RAIDED.

ENEMY AIRCRAFT has again raided England, this time occasioning a regrettably large loss of life, especially among those favorite victims of the Huns, women and children. Out of 76 persons killed only 26 were men, and probably few of these were engaged in military work.

These attacks seem aimless and useless, causing bloodshed without gain to the enemy, and increasing the bitterness with which Germans are regarded by the British. But at this particular time there may be a definite reason for the raid which commends itself to the German authorities.

In the land fighting the enemy has been consistently beaten backward for a considerable distance during the last few months, and there have been no gains to arouse enthusiasm among the Teutonic peoples. There have been efforts made to laud von Hindenburg's retirement as that of a victor, but they have lamentably failed, because many of the kaiser's subjects realize that a continuance of such "victories" will find the Allies at the gates of Berlin.

On the seas, the submarine warfare is losing power. Fewer Allied ships are being sunk, and instead of Britain being brought to the verge of starvation, she is actually increasing her stocks of supplies, while the number of submarines lost is growing every week.

Something must be done to encourage the German masses. It has always been the scheme of the authorities to distract attention from failures in one direction by some spectacular action in another part of the theatre of war, and the air is the only avenue now open for this distraction.

As a consequence of this plan, some sixteen airships are sent to scatter bombs on England. They succeed in doing this, and cause some damage. Incidentally, three of them fail to return. But the damage they have done is a mere nothing to the destruction the German nation will be told they have caused. By the time this is in print Berlin will have spread the news of the blowing-up of many points of military importance, with tremendous loss of life, and it would not be surprising if a public holiday were proclaimed to celebrate the success. There have been few of these of late, and one might tend to hearten up those in the fatherland, even if they have to enjoy it with belts drawn tightly and the pangs of hunger gnawing cruelly.

FINE SPECIAL ISSUE.

IN ITS REMARKABLE issue of May 23, consisting of 96 pages, the Windsor Record celebrates the silver jubilee of the city, otherwise its 25th birthday.

The Record is to be congratulated in its effort, which is fully worthy of the occasion. In the paper may be found a comprehensive history of the city and most of its principal industries, together with stories of the past and present of intense interest to those who know the big border town.

"'Tis a privilege to live in Windsor," is the striking phase which catches the eye on the first page, and a perusal of the accounts of what Windsor has done and is going to do is likely to impress this view. Not only the past, but the future is dealt with, and a spirit of optimism of great value to any community is reflected.

Up-to-date in its printing and illustrations, attractive in its make-up and liberally patronized with advertisements, the special issue of the Record is one which may well be a source of pride to its publishers.

THE PLOT THAT FAILED.

REAR ADMIRAL SIMS, in command of the American destroyer flotilla which recently reached Britain, has notified Washington that Germany knew when the flotilla left the United States, and for what port it was bound, and that submarines strewed the harbor mouth with mines on the day previous to the warships' arrival. This is a disquieting report for Washington. It means that German spies are still at work, and that they have some method of communicating with Berlin directly. If it is by cable, in some code that passed as innocent, it is time censors in America and Britain required an explanation of the meaning of every cablegram which might reach Germany. If the means of transmission is by secret wireless, the American authorities must solve the puzzle of its location.

But the most astonishing part of the message is that the warships arrived safely. No details are given of how the danger was avoided, but it may be taken for granted that British vessels co-operated in clearing away the mines or that they piloted the visitors safely, knowing of the trap. Germany is not the only country with a secret service force giving valuable service.

It was a brilliant idea to scatter mines rather than rely on torpedo attacks. Had any of the American vessels been sunk in such close proximity to the English harbor, there would have been strong suspicion that the accident was due to British mines, and that there had been carelessness in failure to see that such menaces were removed. Berlin probably hoped to kill two birds with one stone—to sink enemy craft and sow seeds of discord. She failed in both intentions, and the only thing accomplished was to announce that the wonderful submarines were afraid to attack the flotilla or were ineffective.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Our front bench at Ottawa seems at the present time the front trench of the enemy.

Italy is not only drawing Teuton attention from the Russian front; it is drawing the attention of the world by its drive.

Cornell University has reason to be proud of her young men who form the first real American combatant corps in France.

To match England's high sea fleet Germany keeps a high and dry fleet at Kiel and a low sneak fleet fraternizing with the sharks and crawling under nets.

There is to be a special issue of postage stamps for the Confederation semi-centennial. That is about as strikingly original as a strawberry social at the end of June.

The dental convention is meeting in Toronto. Thanks to the dentists we shall most of us in old age not be sans teeth, however we may become sans eyes and everything else.

The outrageous attack by German airmen on a British town calls for vengeance. If the enemy treats British women as combatants, their own women must be viewed in the same light.

One cannot help hoping these fires which are destroying small towns and railway stations in Germany will increase in number. They may give the Huns some idea of what Belgium has suffered.

A TRULY VALENTINE!

[By Louse Oliver.]

Luella tramped down to the mail-box through snow that had drifted as high as her knees. The postman was late. This was her third trip and it was almost dark. There was good reason for the lateness, Luella knew, for it was Valentine day and more than likely the dozens of pink and blue sentiments he left along his route had caused the delay.

Her own heart was beating high, not so much with the delicious joy of anticipation—for she hardly expected a valentine from anybody—as with excitement. What if, after all, somebody had thought of her!

As she drew near to the box she stopped for an instant. What if it was empty? Oh, well, she was used to not getting things, and life wouldn't be any different than before. She went on down to the box, lifted the lid and peeked in.

"Oh!" Luella's grey eyes widened with wonder. For there in the box lay another, cubical in shape, violet in color and tied with silver cord. "Oh!" she said again, standing on her tiptoes to get a better view.

She touched it cautiously lest it vanish. "It's a mistake, I know. No one in the world would send me anything like that." She thought of all the people she knew and made a rapid retrospection of the one stationer's shop in town and its possibilities in the way of sentimental souvenirs. There was no one she could think of who would send her anything, and nothing that she could remember that would come in a box like that. And Mr. Marks, she knew, had never seen silver string. He used red and white cord that looked like peppermint candy and since paper was so high he had even charged extra for envelopes.

She laid back the lid of the letter box and took the violet box tenderly in both hands as she would have lifted a sick baby. Yes, the name and address were hers. She had received a valentine.

She laid her cheek against its damp cold top, where the snowflakes were already doing their best to obliterate the address. "You darling," she whispered. "You dear." Then she folded it carefully under her shawl and turned back to the house.

"Well," said Miss Mathilda, looking up from the stove where she was frying eggs for their supper, "was he here?"

Luella shut the door, still keeping her treasure out of sight. "Yes," she answered slowly. Then producing the box, "He left this."

"Hm! Who's it for?"

"Me."

"Who from?"

"I don't know."

"If I catch any of those young sillies hangin' round after you, I'll get rid of them in short order."

"But, Auntie, no one is hanging round. And there's no harm in a valentine, is there?"

"It depends," said the older woman grimly. "Open it."

Luella laid the box on the white tablecloth beside her own plate and untied the cord with trembling fingers. Inside in a nest of damp tissue paper nestled a gorgeous bunch of double violets. With a little cry of joy she buried her face in the fragrant mass. "Oh, Aunt Mathilda, aren't they beautiful!"

"I suppose they're from that young fellow in New York," examining the wrapper for the postmark. "Yes, I thought so—New York!"

Luella started and her face went crimson.

"He needn't keep up that gratitude business forever!" her aunt went on. "It was all right after he got hurt in his automobile and we nursed him back to life for him to write a couple of times. But I answered both letters and told him as much as to mind his own business. That should have been an end to it. I know this sinful old world and when I was told to take care of you, I promised to do it, and I have. The idea! He must be away up on the top of society in New York, and you a quiet little mouse of a girl away off here in the country. Why, you two haven't got any more in common than a weasel and a settin' hen. He'll marry some rich girl of his own kind no matter what he says, and he needn't be making eyes at you. Violets, indeed! Is there any card or letter or anything?"

"No, auntie!" Luella's lips trembled guiltily as she said it, for when she had buried her face in the flowers, she had noticed a little white card down among the leaves. But her aunt's words hurt fearfully, and she was afraid she couldn't stand any more.

"I'll put them in water on the sitting-room table," said Luella, filling a bowl and going into the other room. She slipped out the card, and read: "Dear little girl, I love you. Bob."

Her heart hammering so she was afraid her aunt would hear it, and her face aflame with suppressed excitement, she went back and made an attempt to eat her supper.

But as the evening wore on, her aunt's words go in their effect: "He'll marry some rich girl of his own class." It was true, of course. And the card was only a valentine, and it didn't mean anything. He was probably sending similar souvenirs with like sentiments to all the girls he knew.

So she went to bed and cried herself to sleep with the card tucked under her pillow, and dreamed that Bob was flying out of sight in a silver airship with violet wings, and waving good-bye to a crowd of girls, all of whom, when she looked more closely, had her own features.

She was wakened by her aunt calling, "Luella, oh, Luella. Do you think you could be ready to make the 8 o'clock train? I've been thinking I could get those new curtains made if I had the stuff today. You could be back by noon."

All right, auntie, I'll go!" Luella began dressing rapidly. The touch of the card had brought back everything, and she was glad of a chance to get away.

She ate her breakfast and passed the sitting-room without once glancing in at the violets. Perhaps she was foolish to feel so about a valentine sent in fun, but they recalled her aunt's words too keenly.

She went straight from the station to the store, and took the elevator to the fourth floor, where she was directed for curtain goods. She walked through a department of rich Oriental rugs, the colors of which glowed wonderfully in the warm lights from skilfully-placed lamps. She felt as if she had rubbed Aladdin's magical lamp, and had suddenly been transported to the Orient.

A man came forward to ask if he could be of service, and Luella, reluctantly turning her eyes away from the scene, gave a little cry. "Bob!"

"Luella! It was dear of you to come! Did you get my note?"

"Yes—but I—I——. Will you please tell me where the curtain goods is? Aunt Mathilda sent me in to buy some."

There was a high-backed bench in a secluded corner concealed by palms. He drew her toward it. "They can wait, dear, and I can't. Come and sit down and tell me you care enough to marry me, dear! When you save anyone's life, you have to pay the penalty by marrying him, you know."

"Aren't you just grateful?" she stammered.

"Perhaps!" he smiled.

"And don't you think you ought to marry a society girl?"

"I don't know anything about society, and don't want to. I want you, that's all."

"Oh, Bob!" cried Luella happily, "Then it was a really truly valentine."

VOTING ABSURDITIES.

[Canadian Municipal Journal.]

New Jersey municipalities are publishing an interesting series of articles under the general title of Practical Democracy, from the pen of Mr. H. S. Gilbertson, secretary of the United States National Short Ballot Organization. The third article, "Ballots and Human Nature," is particularly instructive, as showing that the absurd lengths to which the system of election of public officials in the United States has gone is defeating the real object of democracy. In part the article reads as follows:

We were to explain in this article why the long ballot never fails to produce a boss or political machine. In Winthrop, Mass., some four years ago, the people were voting in their primary election. The Progressive Democratic party put up a partial ticket, but omitted to name anyone for representative in the general court (legislature). One unknown voter, to complete his ballot, wrote in the name of "James O'Connell." Inasmuch as no other nominations were made this vote constituted the highest number of votes on the ticket for the particular office. The secretary of state accordingly had this name printed on the official ballot for the district. "James O'Connell" received 735 votes at the regular election, and 37 votes more in Winthrop than the regular Democratic nominee.

When the returns were in it was discovered in the town clerk's office that no such person as "James O'Connell" existed and yet 735 men had voted for him, and he had received 37 more votes than one real man!

An elected state official of New York committed suicide a few years ago. When the papers printed his political history, which was anything but a brilliant one, the people of the State were astonished to know who their state treasurer had been—and yet over a million men had gone over his name on the ballot when he was elected.

The people elected this state official? Well, now did they? Or did they just blindly and automatically place their cross marks opposite the names of a lot of men of whom they knew absolutely nothing. And how did those names get on the ballot? If the voters did not pick them out they could have gotten there in only one other way. Somebody must have picked them out "by hand," appointed them.

That is principally what political machines are for; to tell the voters whom to elect, and the "boss" is simply the head machinist.

Contrast these conditions with those in England. There the city voter elects a member of Parliament once in five years, a member of the borough council and two auditors once a year. Through these he controls his government both national and local. Nobody in England ever dreams of asking to elect any more. Nobody has the slightest desire to try to pick sheriffs or dog-catchers or bailiffs. And nobody in England ever saw a political machine or a boss such as we know in this country.

The short ballot idea is to approximate conditions in England, that is, to elect a few conspicuous officials at any one time, but give them power and responsibility and keep them where the voters can see them all the time. This would give us government based upon humanity just as it is, and not upon humanity as some enthusiasts for the "people's rule" think it ought to be.

TRUCK GARDEN GOLF.

[Chicago News.]

Golfers are being urged to grow food on the unused portions of their links and you may shortly read in the detailed account of some championship match that Mr. Niffnaff sliced his drive into the Cos lettuce to the left and that his brassie shot landed him in the lima beans, 175 yards short of the green, and that a brilliant recovery brought him to the kohlrabi patch, but that he lost his ball in the radish bed, while trying to avoid the onion hazard, finally holing out in 9, and winning the match.

While golfers are making sacrifices, it might not be a bad idea to grow something in the bags, meanwhile carrying the clubs under the arm. A golf bag filled with soil would make an ideal receptacle for a stalk of alfalfa, in as much as the plant has an unusually long and elaborate root system.

A few remarks heard on the "producing" golf course:

"Lost Ball—Don't it Beetall."

"Oh, it'll Turnup!"

A Page of Interest to Women

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Used Carbolic Oil.

Dear Miss Grey,—I cured a bealing corn with carbolic oil. I kept a piece of medicated cotton batting saturated with oil on corn until healed, bathing occasionally and renewing batting.

Iodine, painted on a bunion every night, will cure it. It takes time to remove entirely.

If "Twenty-Seven" will leave out the egg-shell and add 2 ounces witch hazel to the liniment,he will find it much better. UNKNOWN.

Ans.—A new penname, eh? Yet I know we have "heerd" from you before. For your hints, thank you. And I am attending to that other matter. It is good of you.

Organize R. C. Circle.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am coming to you again. There are a few women here who would like to organize a Red Cross Society. Could you tell me how to go about it? Please print as soon as possible, as we would like to get started. Yours truly,
THE GIRL FROM THE GOLDEN WEST.

Ans.—It will be best for you to get your information direct from the London Red Cross headquarters, Hyman Hall, this city. Write to Mrs. Kennedy, secretary of the society, and she will advise you. Had you given me your address, I could have asked her to write you. However, I hope you may organize, and be a very successful circle.

Days Too Short.

Dear Miss Grey,—How do you do, Boxites? You may not remember me, but this is my second visit to you, and when reading the page often think of writing, as there seems to be so many things one would like to say.

I saw where someone was wanting a remedy for white spots on a table. Put cod oil on it, and set it in the sun; the spots will disappear. "Would-be Gardener" wants to know what to put in her shady nook. Put pansies in. They will be just in their glory there, and they are beautiful too, unless you want vegetables.

Does any good-hearted reader wish to have another soldier or two? One is in England, ready to go to France, and the other is in France, and does not get much in the way of good things. I have several of my own friends to send boxes to when I can, including my own husband, and it not only costs a lot, but takes a great deal of time, and I have four children. My time is so filled up with letter-writing, gardening and housework, I often wish the days were twice as long, but that is not right, I suppose, as we would not be able to keep it up. Wishing you all success,
YOUNG MATRON.

Ans.—There are such steady demands for names of "lonely ones" in the trenches, that I have no doubt at all but your friends will be looked after too. So you find the days too short for the numerous tasks. Many, of us do, I fancy. Somehow these war times seem to have made living a more serious matter, and we want to make the very best and most out of every minute.

Your "private page" touches my heart. It is so very kind of you, and so undeserved by me.

Those Dreadful Days.

Dear Miss Grey,—Will you and those kind readers please forgive me for not answering before and thanking you for your trouble, and "W. A. R." and "Helpful" for those lovely patterns. But you know this is the busiest of seasons, so I will spare you by not mentioning what I was doing, and I suppose you have dreadful visions of the days of carpets and dust, and days that are to come again next year.

Miss Grey, can you tell me if "Helpful" and "W. A. R." sent the patterns from different places? If so, I missed "Helpful's" letter. I noticed that it was different handwriting, but I received the patterns just fine, and thank them kindly. "Helpful" said on the bottom of her crochet directions that her address was with you, and she offered to send me a buckle pattern for that belt pattern if I wrote her. So would you please send me her address in inclosed stamped envelope? I might say here that I am crocheting the shell pattern, and brother will soon have his tie. I am very sorry that I have no help to give you this time, but I promise you some the next time I write. May I ask what you think of my writing? Thanking you again, I am still
EVERYBODY'S SISTER.

I have several yoke patterns, and if anyone wishes one they can write me. They will find my address with Miss Grey. Thank "Mrs. Homebird" for her help, I enjoy her letters.
Votes For Women.

Ans.—So that's your slogan is it "Sister"? Well, seems we haven't got the ballot yet, and the Government moves slowly, but one can live in hopes. "Helpful" comes from an entirely different place to "Mrs. W. A. R." I enclose her address in your envelope.

Your writing is neat enough but more space left between words, would add to legibility.

From the Cradle.

Dear Miss Grey,—I noticed a request for the song "I've Grown So Used To You" and am enclosing the same. I read the different letters with growing interest, but never had occasion to write before, only the song asked for does not happen to be a popular one, and I have had it for all of fifteen years, so I thought this was my chance to do some one a favor.

Then again I read of a mother asking for a cure for burns on her little girl's arm, for which I suggest a salve ointment. I have recommended it to many of my friends and several utter strangers that happened to be within hearing of our conversation tried the same, and the result is they can't thank me too much. No need of directions. They are found on the package itself and can be bought at all drug stores. It can't be beat, leaves no scar, and for sore corns it is wonderful. I am only a young mother, yet in my care are five healthy happy boys, the oldest 11, the youngest 3 weeks. To the mothers who ask when children should learn to mind, or rather what age to begin to reprimand and correct them. Well, I say begin from the cradle. They are easily got into habits when little that will gradually grow as they do, and it is so much easier to train them as they grow older, because the habit seems to cling to them. If a child is taught obedience from its first show of spunk, as some say, even the small baby knows when it has been hum-ored or the child that is inclined to be irritable must not be allowed to indulge in its tantrums. If a child knows that by doing certain things it gains what it wants, then I say they certainly can be made to know they don't nor won't get only that which is right and good for them. Likely some say this is easier said than done, but I can say for one I have no trouble at all, and the only way to prove it is to see for one's self. So if any wish to know my way or see how I manage they can do so anytime. I do my own work and find time for pleasure as well. Hoping I have not been too deep.
LOVER OF CHILDREN.

Ans.—Your methods sound very wise to me, and surely if put into practice by more mothers, "spoiled" children would become more of a rarity. Am obliged to withhold from print the name of the ointment you advise, for advertising reasons, but anyone can have the name upon application. "Hopeful Mother" will certainly be glad to receive words of that dear song.

TEA CAKES

[Pictorial Review.]

Every woman who makes a practice of serving afternoon tea wants new recipes for cakes to accompany the refreshing beverage. Here are a group, gathered from several quarters of the globe. Many of them will keep for days in a cookie jar—both children and grown-ups will like them:

Oriental Tea Cakes.

¼-cupful shortening.
1 cupful brown sugar.
⅛-teaspoonful soda.
1 tablespoonful cold water.
½-teaspoonful vanilla.
1 cupful flour.

Work the shortening until creamy, adding the brown sugar gradually and beating constantly. Dissolve the soda in the cold water and add this to the first mixture, then add vanilla and flour. Mix it until it holds together well and leaves no crumbs in the bowl. If it separates, add some water, a drop at a time, until the mixture can be molded into little balls. Place these balls on buttered tins about an inch and a half apart, and bake in a quick oven until delicately browned. This recipe will make 40 cakes.

Vanilla Crescents (Hungarian).

7 ounces butter.
8 ounces flour
4 ounces blanched almonds.
2 ounces powdered vanilla sugar.

For this recipe it is well to prepare the vanilla sugar a week or two before you want to use it. Put one or two pounds of powdered sugar with a vanilla bean into a quart glass jar. Close tightly, and when you are ready to use it you will find the sugar has absorbed the vanilla flavor. To make the vanilla crescents, chop the almonds very fine after removing the skin by letting them stand a few minutes in boiling water. Put all the ingredients together quickly and work until the mixture is like pie-crust and does not stick to the hands. Divide the dough into little pieces, the size of a hickory nut, roll slightly between the palms, and pinch into a crescent form. Put on wax paper in flat pans and bake in a moderate oven until biscuit color. Do not brown. While still warm roll them lightly in powdered vanilla sugar and let them get thoroughly cold before packing away in a dry place. This quantity makes 70 small crescents. They will keep for months.

Little Almond Cakes (Mandoletti).

2 egg whites.
¾-pound sugar.
¾-pound unblanched almonds.
3 ounces flour (scant).

Beat the whites of the eggs until very stiff, add sugar and almonds cut in pieces, but not too fine, add flour last and mix with hands, adding a few drops of flavoring if you wish. Mix until you can roll it into a ball. Take small pieces of the dough about the size of a little finger and flatten out on buttered tins. Bake in a moderate oven.

Extravagance of Japanese Women

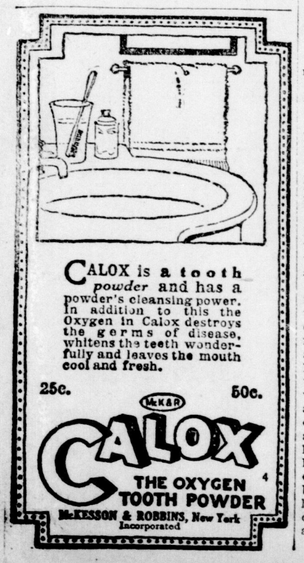

[By Saito Man, Japan's cleverest special writer, in Tokio Advertiser.]

In the matter of eating, it is agreed that the Japanese cuisine is not of the richest in nutritive quality. It is not inexpensive; Japanese dinners are elaborate in preparation, artistic in presentation, but, for satisfying the inner man, are far inferior to European or even Chinese cooking. The chief characteristic of a purely Japanese dinner is to please the eye, not the palate or stomach. It is a national joke that one must eat a meal before going to or after returning from a Japanese dinner. Oh, how much labor and expense is lavished on a gochiso (entertainment) to make it nice to look at! This is all sheer waste and luxury, and is to be condemned. Providence has kindly put in the power of every Japanese to live in the most economical manner so the Japanese dinner is a blasphemous abuse of providential beneficence. It is an anachronistic relic of feudalism, reminiscent of the morbid tastes of idle, luxurious overlords! A monstrous fact is that these customs are not going out of fashion.

Archaic costumes, especially those universally worn by ladies, demand reform. The indigent world can be clothed out of the materials wasted in gorgeous kimono sleeves. Nothing is so absurd as the long, heavy, pendulant sleeves attached to a girl's holiday kimono. They serve no purpose, impede locomotion and are a pitiful spectacle. The girdle is more cumbrous and expensive, especially those woven in one piece of heaviest silk. Formerly the latter were only worn at weddings and state affairs; now every geisha has one. Every wife must have one to sport at the theatre. In price this maruobi varies from 30 to 1,000 yen ($15 to $500) and upward. To girdle it requires the strength of a well-built husband or father. I do not know any Japanese woman who succeeded in putting on one herself. It is over three feet wide, folded into half that width when worn, and its length is three times the full height of its wearer. In weight, it is terrific—thickly embroidered as it is with golden threads. It is the chiefest attraction in the whole dress scheme of Japanese womanhood. One might as well ask a woman to discard her hair as it! Every well-dressed Japanese lady is a martyr to her girdles. Her entire waist is covered with layers of belting. From their viewpoint of health, the girdle (obi) is a most damnable contrivance, as every doctor asserts.

The unwonted extravagance of men's garments is worthy of denunciation. If one spends $50 for a suit of clothes of western fashioning, he can make a very presentable appearance; but a similar amount is far from sufficient to properly dress a man in Japanese attire, with kimono. Women are largely to blame for the continuance of the native costume, because they refuse to bow to friends in foreign clothing.

The Japanese dwelling is far fitter for a god's habitation than for most humans, susceptible to the severity of Japanese weather in winter. They are fashioned like Shinto shrines. Too much money is spent on gates, roof embellishments and alcoves. There's a deplorable lack of proportion in the entire Japanese style of living. Life is not conducted on "a business basis," but after ceremonial or poetic formula. In short, Japanese life is not based on western principles of economy. There's too much personal vanity—and national pride outside of patriotism. The latter is all right. As Baro Goto recently declared: "We Japanese are intoxicated with a cheap, war-born prosperity and fail to see the wisdom of proper economies."

The soldiers' comfort committee acknowledge the following contributions for the bales:

Hamilton Gault Chapter—Twelve suits pyjamas, 12 pairs socks.

7th Regiment Chapter—Twelve pairs socks.

While the sad death of Mrs. A. H. Beddome comes as a great shock to her many friends, by none will it be felt more deeply than by her associates among the Daughters of the Empire. She was one of the earliest members, having been connected with the organization from the date of its introduction into London many years ago. She was a member of the Lord Roberts Chapter, and on the formation of the Municipal Chapter became one of its first officers. While active in her primary chapter, she was equally valuable in the Municipal, and at the time of her death was one of its honorary vice-regents. She was faithful to the society in adversity or prosperity; ever ready to take her share in patriotic work. Her loss will be deeply felt by the order. The sincere sympathy of all the members goes out to the bereaved family.

It is to be hoped that the soldiers overseas will be largely benefited by the receipts from the concert to be given in the Masonic Temple on Thursday, June 7, under the auspices of the Lord Roberts Chapter, I. O. D. E. Mrs. McHardy-Smith will present her artist pupil, Roy Davidson, in one of his inspirational recitals. He is one of the most brilliant pupils who ever graduated from the London Conservatory of Music, and was winner of the Heintzman scholarship of five hundred dollars after a keen contest. Those who can appreciate good music will have an enjoyable evening, and at the same time add something to the comfort of the boys in the trenches.

The first open-air patriotic band concert of the season under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire will be given in Victoria Park on Sunday evening, May 27, by the Hussars' Band. The collection at the gates will be for the soldiers' comfort fund of the Municipal Chapter. The concert will begin after the close of church services. The park looks beautiful these days and sunshine is expected.

Don't forget tag day on June 2, when the Campbell Becher Chapter will ask your contribution to its soldiers' comfort fund. A clerical error last week made it appear that this chapter had given $8.25 to the Trigger Club; it should have read $25.

In addition to the contributions previously reported for the Y. M. C. A. work overseas are the following: Hamilton Gault Chapter, $25; 7th Regiment Chapter, $25; Campbell Becher Chapter, $25.

Among the provisions made for the comfort of the soldiers overseas are the army huts operated by the Salvation Army. These huts follow close behind the firing lines; in them the men can obtain light refreshments and baths at a nominal cost. The I. O. D. E. chapters in London have assisted this movement with the following subscriptions: Princess Patricia Chapter, $10; Trafalgar Chapter, $5; Campbell Becher Chapter, $25.

DAILY BIBLE QUESTION CLUB

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.
(All Rights Reserved.)

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International Sunday School Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"Jesus Betrayed and Denied." John, xviii., 1-18.

Golden Text—"He Was Despised and Rejected of Men." Isaiah, liii., 3.

1. Verses 1-2—Had Jesus and his disciples been in the habit of using this garden for recreation or for meditation?

2. Why, or why not, should it be thought incompatible with the character of Jesus and his disciples, if it were so, that they had been in the habit of playing some restful game in this garden, such as bowling, which many preachers play today?

3. Why is it that a familiar and pleasant garden, shaded say by olive trees, especially in the gloaming, or later in the moonlight, is such an aid to meditation?

CHILD'S SEVERE STOMACH TROUBLE

Harriston (Ont.) Father Says Dr. Cassell's Tablets Saved His Child's Life.

Mr. Corby, Harriston P. O., Ont., writes: "Our little girl was weak from birth, and though we tried doctors' medicine and other things she got no better. She just lay in her cot and cried, and neighbors all said we could not save her. The doctors said she had stomach trouble, and that her chances were small, yet Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured her. They have been worth their weight in gold to us, for we were just giving up hope of saving our little daughter. I don't think there is any other medicine for children like Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Publish this letter if you like; it may help others as the Tablets helped us."

A free sample of Dr. Cassell's Tablets will be sent to you on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing. Address: Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Limited, 10 McCaul street, Toronto.

THE MAGIC FLUID

Few drops and corns or callouses loosen and lift off with fingers. No pain!

The world owes thanks to the genius in Cincinnati who discovered freezone, the new ether drug.

Tiny bottles of the magic fluid can now be had at any drug store for a few cents. You simply apply a few drops of this freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a hardened callous, instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callous so loose and shriveled that you lift it off with the fingers. Not a bit of pain or soreness is felt when applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the skin or flesh.

For a few cents one can now get rid of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, as well as painful callouses on bottom of feet. Everyone who tries freezone becomes an enthusiast because it really doesn't hurt or pain one particle. Genuine freezone has a yellow label. Look for yellow label.

WILL REDUCE SALARIES

Cancellation of Series With International League Is Formally Made.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Existence of a plot to wreck the American Association, and form a third major league, was revealed at a special meeting of the association here yesterday. The meeting was for the purpose of formally cancelling the interleague series of 48 games with the clubs of the International League. The vote for the cancellation was unanimous.

The plan to disrupt the association was outlined in a statement issued by Thomas J. Hickey, president of the American Association. While declining to mention the names of persons alleged to be back of the movement, Hickey said that a meeting of the association would be called in the immediate future, and "all members will act in concert to defeat such disrupting efforts."

Joe Tinker Speaks.

Joe Tinker, president and manager of the Columbus club, said he understood the plan for the formation of a third major league included disruption of both the American Association and International Leagues. The four leading cities in each organization were to be selected to make up the new league, he said.

The club owners pledged themselves to reduce the salaries of high-priced players 25 to 50 per cent. Players refusing to accept the reduction will be released, it was announced. Probably a dozen men will be asked to accept a cut in salary.

Opposition Absent.

James C. McGill, president of the Indianapolis club; O. H. Wathan of Louisville, and Roger Bresnahan of Toledo, the three who opposed calling off the International League series, did not attend the meeting. They were represented, however, by Thomas A. Barker, an attorney of Louisville, who demanded that the proposal to play two schedules of 77 games each, instead of the intersectional series, be dropped. As a result it was decided to add 42 games to the present schedule, increasing it to 154 games.

Edward G. Barrow, president of the International League, is understood to be willing to abide by the decision of the American Association in regard to the cancellation.

G.T.R. BEATS RIVERSIDES IN STRATFORD LEAGUE

STRATFORD, May 27.—In a poorly contested game of ball the Grand Trunk defeated the Riversides on Saturday afternoon on the collegiate flats in the Junior City League fixture. The Riversides used two pitchers, Coughlin and Johnson, while the winners used McKenzie. All three pitched good ball, but received ragged support in some parts of the game.

The score at the end of the eighth was 11 to 10 for the Grand Trunk. Three men opposed Johnson, but retired in order. The Riversides went to bat in the ninth, but McKenzie duplicated Johnson's trick, and held the Riversides scoreless. Sutherland and Wisby acted as umpires. The teams were:

Grand Trunk—Smith, ss.; Marks, lf.; Dyer, 3b.; Flannigan, 1b.; Gibson, rf.; O'Brien, cf.; Spencer, 2b.; McDowell, c.; McKenzie, p.

MONTREAL, May 27.—A victory by the score of 7 to 3 for the Shamrocks over the Nationals marked the opening of the National Lacrosse Union's season here yesterday afternoon at the Mile End grounds. CLASSY COLT OWNED BY PIERCE BROS., CARADOC

"Hindy," Sired by Champion Harvester, Looks Like Good One.

One of the classiest three-year-olds in the country, Hindenberg, by the Harvester, 2:01, world's champion trotter, and Recoleta, who has six fast ones in the standard list, is being carefully trained by his new owners, Robert and Benjamin Pierce, brothers of the famous Uri Pierce, who is training his string of horses at Forest at the present time.

Hindenberg's dam Recoleta, is by Arian, 2:07 ¾, world's champion trotter as a 2-year-old. He sold for $125,000. With all this good blood in his veins Hindenberg, who received his name across the line, promises to be some sensation when his new owners finally trot him out on the track. If there are any colt races this fall "Hindy" will probably perform, although the Messrs. Pierce are not anxious to spring him on the public before next year.

The colt is brown in color, with splendid bone and conformation and with his breeding promises to be popular as a sire, as his sire, the Harvester, and the sire of his dam a world's champion too, should do much towards raising the high standard of racehorses in this vicinity.

Hindenberg is at present at the farm of Ben Pierce, lot 8, concession 5, Caradoc Township.

KITCHENER BALL LEAGUE AWAY TO FLYING START

C. B. F. and Kaufman Rubber Company Win Opening Games.

KITCHENER, May 27.—The City Baseball League was formally opened this afternoon with a double-header in the presence of a large crowd of fans, who witnessed two nice games of ball.

The Canadian Buffalo Forge opened with the Dominion Rubber System as contenders. The Forge boys got a lead in the first inning, which they were able to keep, and with two runs in the fourth and sixth cinched the game. The third and sixth innings were the lucky ones for the Rubber men, but five was the most they could make.

The second game was between the Union Jacks and Kaufman Rubber Company team. The Jacks, although outclassed throughout, have the remarks of a good team, and will likely give a better account of themselves next game. The scores:

MANHATTANS AND FOREST CITY CLUBS ARE WINNERS

Take Opening Contests of Inter-Club League at Springoank Saturday.

Considering that it was the first pastiming of the season, the article of ball dished up by the interclub League at Springoank Saturday afternoon before a crowd of 300 fans was fairly good, with the second game producing a trifle more speed than the first. The Manhattans and the Forest City teams were the winners.

Pitcher Ould, who was on the heaving end for the Acadians, started out badly and filled the bases right off the reel. A couple of hits plus another walk netted the Manhattans half a dozen runs, salting away the game for the Richmond street clubsters. Pete Clark, who was shooting the slants for the "Hats," had Bobby De Hart's crew feeding out of his hand most of the game, Annette and Quick being the only artists to connect with his delivery. Barney Clarke slipped across with a run in the fourth. Alex Towle took Milne's place behind the bat for the losers the same inning and caught a good game. Annette and Spettigue both scored for the Acadians in the fourth, the Manhattans coming back strong in the next frame with four runs, the result of some healthy swinging plus a passed ball or two.

SECOND GAME.
The second game in the opening frames looked as if it would last as long as the war. The hitters on both sides went out with precision. Pitchers Flint and Downs receiving airtight support until the third, when, with two down and three on, Danford dropped Brake's throw of Smith's grounder, allowing Chub Dinsmore and Doherty to score. Fotheringham came home on Ernie Dinsmore's hit. Dinsmore shot into Danford like a bullet and Jack, who used to cavort around home plate for Doc Reisling's Tecumsehs, dropped the ball. This seemed to unnerve Mr. Downs and he heaved a wild one, allowing Smith to hike in with another run. "Yankee" Flint then trotted out with his long war club and slugged out a two-bagger, sending Dinsmore across the pan with the fifth count. Pirie ended the butchery by striking out, which ended the scoring for the game.

"Yankee" Flint showed the fans that he is the same old strikeout king of last year, fanning eleven of the Orients. The other club will heave a sigh of relief if Flint makes good with the semi-pro club. From the form displayed Saturday "Yank" should have no difficulty in making good. The game was a nice one to watch, several good plays being pulled off.

Tommy Munro showed that he could umpire ball games as well as referee hockey matches. His work was good. The box score:

On two previous occasions the antics of the weatherman made necessary a postponement and barring further depredations, the league will be officially inaugurated on Monday evening. An automobile parade will precede the contest, and the ladies of the Red Cross societies will assist in the collection.

¶ No other standard make of tires can be purchased at lower prices than Dunlop Tires sell at. (If so, they must be "seconds.")

¶ No other standard make of tires can show reasons why they should be purchased at higher prices than Dunlop Tires sell at.

WOODBINE PARK, Toronto, May 26.—The Toronto cup, the richest stake offered by the Ontario Jockey Club at its spring meeting, was featured on the closing day's program at the Woodbine this afternoon. It brought out a smart field and furnished a splendid contest, in which Runes beat Rancher out three parts of a length. There were thirteen starters and almost every one of the lot found some sort of support. Runes, which ran in the colors of Mr. Henry Watterson, who races under the nom-de-course of the Marisol stable, showed a splendid performance. LAVERGNE MAKES FIERY STATEMENTS AT QUEBEC MEETING

Says French and Catholics Should Disobey Conscription.

TALKS AGAINST ENGLAND

Says War Could Have Been Averted in July, 1914.

QUEBEC, May 27. — Speaking at an anti-conscription meeting at Loretteville, today, Armand Lavergne former member of Parliament for Montmagny, said: "I believe I should say that, if the Government passes this damned law, if you have a heart, if you are still descendants of those who wrested the country from the Iroquois, of those who ascended the scaffold crying 'Vive la liberte,' 'Vive l'independence,' you of those who have written with their French and Catholic blood an epic such as no other act can show, you should take a pledge to disobey it."

Over five thousand persons cheered wildly the words of the speaker as he denounced the Government for the proposed measure.

Mr. Lavergne stated that it was England who wished the war of today to crush Germany. "She may have a good reason for this from her own point of view," said the speaker, "but we have nothing against the Germans. If Sir Edward Grey had consented to say that England would aid France in July, 1914, as M. Cambon had requested, this war would have been averted. But he would not do this, but waited to the 5th of August. The war has increased Canada's debt to two billions, and after the war it will be four billions. If we add to this the debt of the provinces, of the municipalities, and parishes, we will easily reach six billions. This represents $7,000 per head."

Will Pay For Being Nice.

"It was very nice to be blue or red in 1914 or 1911; you wished it," said the speaker, "very well, you will pay for it."

"There is, moreover," he added, "British protection; England borrowed seven billions from the United States and mortgaged Canada."

"Have they the right then to tell us when the country is menaced by famine 'you shall send your son to the war in Europe?' I am not against conscription for the defence of Canada, because I believe it is the duty of all citizens to give their pure blood for this country, but I love my own enough to tell them they should not give one drop to defend England. If we have to spill it, let us begin as our fathers did by doing so for the defence of liberty."

Creates Impression.

The speaker then condemned the Government for trying to send Canada's sons to "butchery" without consulting the people and uttered the words quoted in the opening paragraphs, which made a great impression on the crowd. The meeting at Loretteville lasted four hours.

Mr. Lavergne declared he had received letters from persons of the English provinces, notably Toronto and Vancouver, telling him that the people of these provinces were opposed to conscription, and asking the province of Quebec to aid them to crush the Government.

Largely-attended meetings were held all over the city and district today; at St. Gregoire, Limoilou, Montmorency, Beauport, St. Casimir, St. Raymond, Chateau Richer, Beauceville, St. Joseph de Beauce and Loretteville. At the Jacques Cartier market place Mr. Lavergne addressed a gathering of ten thousand or more, speaking much along the usual lines, and he was wildly acclaimed.

OPPOSITION AT THREE RIVERS.

Three Rivers, Que., May 27.—Five or six thousand persons attended an anti-conscription meeting on the public market square this afternoon, and a resolution was passed to the effect that before bringing in conscription the Dominion Government should either hold a general election or a referendum on the question and should protect its people against the high cost of living. One of the speakers, L. S. Durand, attorney, declared that "England has no right to call on Canada for a forced blood taxation without the Canadian people consenting."

He said the contribution of 400,000 men was more than reasonable.

Dr. C. A. Bouchard presided.

Allied Airmen in Great Raid on Foe's Works

SPAIN LOSES TWO MORE VESSELS BY PRUSSIAN PIRATES

No Warning Precedes Shock and Steamer Sinks in Five Minutes.

LONDON, May 27.—Forty-eight passengers and eighty-five members of the crew of the Spanish steamer C. de Eizaguirre are believed to have perished as a result of the sinking of the steamer.

A dispatch received by Reuter's Telegram Company, the date of origin of which has not been made public, reports the loss of the Eizaguirre. The dispatch says that according to the second officer the steamer sank in five minutes. He was awakened by a great noise and rushed to the deck and tried to get passengers into his boat, but the boat was swept away and almost simultaneously the steamer broke in half. He saw no other boats afloat except that in which he and the other survivors made their escape from the steamer. Those in the boat had a miraculous escape, rowing for many hours in heavy seas during foul weather. They were dressed in the scantiest of attire and were compelled ceaselessly to bail the boat. Among the forty-eight passengers missing is the Spanish consul at Colombo, Ceylon.

Cause Is Unknown.

An official communication was issued this evening concerning the sinking of the Spanish steamer C. de Eizaguirre. It likewise omits the points of origin of the information, which was filed Saturday at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The statement says: "The Spanish steamer C. de Eizaguirre's boat, containing her second officer, an apprentice, eighteen members of her crew and two passengers, has reached here. The captain and the remainder of the crew and passengers have not been accounted for. The cause of the sinking of the steamer is not known. She carried about forty passengers and a crew of sixty."

The Spanish steamer C. de Eizaguirre, a vessel of 4,376 tons gross, was owned by the Cia Trans-Atlantica of Barcelona. She is last reported as having left Barcelona in April for Manila by way of Cape Town.

AND YET ANOTHER.

MADRID, May 27.—Via Paris.—Marquis Prieto, the Spanish premier, today announced that the Spanish steamship Begona had been sunk.

The Begona was a vessel of 2,862 tons gross, and was built at Middlesborough in 1896. She was 305 feet long, and had a beam of 42 feet. She was owned in Bilbao.

WELSH AND LEONARD WILL FIGHT TONIGHT

New York, May 28.—Freddie Welsh, the world's lightweight champion, and Benny Leonard, the local contender for the title, will meet for their third ring battle here tonight.

Both men are in fine condition, Welsh having trained earnestly for this contest, but Leonard is a slight favorite among the patrons of the sport. Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, who will be at the ringside, has challenged the winner for a bout at Canton, Ohio, on Independence Day.

BRITISH LABOR WILL FIGHT UNTO VICTORY

Present Address to Ambassador of Allied Countries.

LONDON, May 27. — An impressive demonstration by many thousands of workmen organized by the British Workers' League was held in Hyde Park today to express fraternal greetings to the peoples of Allied countries and the determination of the workers to continue the war to a victorious conclusion.

These sentiments were voiced in stirring speeches from twelve platforms. David Lloyd George, the prime minister, in a letter which was read from all the platforms, expressed hearty appreciation for an address which the Workers' League had presented to the ambassadors of Great Britain's allies. In his letter Lloyd George said:

"A lasting peace will come when all the peoples of Europe are free to determine their own fate for themselves."

At the conclusion of the demonstration the workers formed in procession and marched to the French embassy, where all the Allied ambassadors had assembled. The ambassadors received a deputation of workers, which presented their address to them. The French ambassador read an appreciative letter from Premier Ribot, while the other ambassadors made sympathetic replies to the address of the workers. Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, in his speech said that the preliminary American expeditionary force would soon land "on the sacred soil of France."

MOTHER MADE TO SEE DAUGHTER'S EXECUTION

GENEVA, via Paris, May 27.—La Suisse today prints details of a case similar to that of Miss Edith Cavell, the English nurse, who was executed by the Germans in Brussels in October, 1915. The Germans, says the newspaper, recently arrested two women, Mme. Pfeister and her daughter, aged 22, on the Swiss Alsatian frontier. They were charged with acting as spies.

The women promptly admitted at the trial that they had smuggled letters without knowing their contents, from Alsatian families to relatives in Switzerland. This was done simply as a friendly act and without political or malicious purpose.

Both women, says La Suisse, were shot at Mulhausen. The mother was a horrified witness of the execution of her daughter before her turn came. The newspaper adds it has received confirmation of the execution of the women from their relatives.

BATTERY SIGNALLER HIT.

CAMLACHIE, May 27.—The official message received by J. W. Symington with regard to his son, Bmdr. J. Bruce Symington, states that he was severely wounded in the left leg, a gunshot wound, and was admitted to Boulogne Hospital on May 14. Bruce has been in France over a year as a battery signaller.

Mrs. John Gray who has been in England with her husband, Sergt. Gray, for the past year and a half, returned to the village Thursday, May 24, where she will reside with her parents here. Sergt. Gray is training troops, but may soon go to France.

NEW FACE CARDS FOR CABINET IN COMING SHUFFLE

Sir Robert Borden May Go Outside Parliament to "Fill."

ROGERS FOR THE DISCARD

Reconstruction Talk Persists in House of Commons Corridors.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, May 27.—The week-end passed without any official announcement which would materialize the rumors that have been afloat in the corridors for several days, that a cabinet reconstruction was on foot. It is unquestioned that a reconstruction of some kind is under the consideration of the prime minister. Apparently he has not called for the counsel of any of his cabinet colleagues on the subject, and the names that have been suggested as likely to take the places of these ministers who seem to be about to retire, have not been mentioned in any very authoritative quarters.

However, a statement upon the subject is expected from the prime minister in the course of the present week.

The opinion is growing that Sir Robert Borden will go outside of Parliament for successors to the retiring ministers. There are precedents for this. Sir Wilfrid did so in 1896, and afterwards. Sir Robert did it himself in the case of Sir Thomas White, who was an anti-reciprocity Liberal. He may adopt the same course on the present occasion.

There is one certainty regarding the retiring ministers. One of them will be Hon. Robert Rogers. His presence in the cabinet is becoming embarrassing to the prime minister and to the minister of public works himself. The second Galt report has made his further tenure of a portfolio impossible, it is said. Others who may go are Dr. Roche, Martin Burrell, T. W. Crothers, Sir Edward Kemp and Dr. Reid.

BRITISH MAKE GAIN NEAR FONTAINE-LES-CROISELLES SUNDAY

German Attacks Repulsed East of Loos.

LONDON, May 27.—The British official communication issued this afternoon says:

"During the afternoon we gained further ground by a local attacks in the neighborhood of Fontaine-les-Croiselles. We secured a few prisoners in the course of patrol encounters early this morning near the Cojeul River.

"Three German airplanes were brought down in the fighting of yesterday and eight others were driven down out of control. Four of the machines are missing."

Germans Are Repulsed.

British troops in the Lens sector of the battlefront in France last night repulsed a German attack east of Loos, says the official statement issued today by the British war office. On the southern end of the line, Field Marshal Haig's forces carried out a successful raid northwest of St. Quentin.

PREVENT BRITISH ATTACK.

BERLIN, May 27, via London.—British reconnoitering detachments on the Arras front were repulsed several times southwest of Acheville, and preparations of British forces to attack north of Monchy were taken under the German artillery fire, according to the German statement.

The text of the statement reads:

"Western Theatre—Army group of Prince Rupprecht: In the Wytschaete bend and on both banks of the River Scarpe, the fighting activity again increased in considerable extent. English reconnoitering advances several times were repulsed southwest of Acheville, and north of Monchy preparations of enemy storming troops were taken under our fire."

WESTERN GRAIN MEN ARRIVE AT OTTAWA

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, May 27.—A strong delegation of Winnipeg grainmen has arrived in the capital, at the invitation of Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, whom they will meet tomorrow morning. It is understood that the question to be discussed is food control and prices, and no doubt the forthcoming appointment of a food administrator will be considered and the views of the delegation sought. The members of the delegation include:

Dr. Robert. A. MacGill, secretary of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange; J. G. Gage, president; W. R. Bawlf, Capel Tilt, F. O. Fowler, George Fisher and W. H. McWilliams.

James Stewart, purchasing agent for the British Grain Commission, is also here.

IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE PLEASES NORTH TOWNS

CLINTON, May 27.—The local Grand Trunk agents here have been notified of the improved railway service on the Stratford to Goderich line, to take effect Sunday.

The mayor of Seaforth and the president of the board of trade at Mitchell expressed their hearty approval of the changes, which will give a much better service to these towns.

The officers of the Clinton Board of Trade, who started the agitation for better service, are quite pleased, and are looking for additional improvements in the near future.

A person can now go to the county town and have three hours in which to do business, whereas formerly it was almost impossible to go and come the same day.

The Grand Trunk is by these changes, giving about a five-hour run from Toronto to Goderich, instead of six, and six and a half, as formerly.

The morning papers from London will now reach the towns on this line about one hour and a half earlier than previously, and a corresponding increase in mail service.

GERMANY INTENDS TO SINK HOSPITAL SHIPS MORE FREELY

Route Saloniki to Gibraltar Is Only Exception.

LONDON, May 27. — The intention of the German Government to sink all Entente hospital ships in the entire "barred zone," with the exception of certain ships from Saloniki to Gibraltar, is semi-officially announced in Berlin, according to a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam. The German announcement was made in reference to British denials of the German allegations that the British misused hospital ships. It cited several instances which, it was asserted, proved the correctness of the German accusation. The semi-official announcement read in part:

"The German Government will in the future prevent all traffic by hospital ships in the entire barred zone and in the Mediterranean, including the road left open for Greece, and will regard hospital ships appearing therein as war vessels and attack them immediately."

Conditions of Exceptions.

Germany, the announcement adds, will allow the transport of the ill and wounded from Saloniki on Greek railways to Kalamata harbor, and thence on hospital ships to Gibraltar on the following conditions:

"Firstly, these hospital ships on the road left open to Greek shipping must proceed at a rate of speed previously reported to the German Government.

"Secondly, that the name of the vessel and the time of her arrival or departure be communicated to the German Government six weeks in advance.

"Thirdly, that a representative of the neutral government representing Germany's interests in the particular country in question shall certify before the departure of the ship that she carries only the ill, wounded and nurses, and no goods other than materials for treating them."

SUBMARINE SOLUTION IS REACHED SIMPLY BY AMERICAN BRAIN

Correspondent Says in Only Little Time Menace Will Be Mastered.

LONDON, May 27.—The Westminster Gazette publishes a message from a correspondent who says the submarine menace is being mastered by a simple method, which the correspondent indicates is the invention of an American.

"It is giving away no secret," the correspondent writes, "to says that the method, which is reputed to be infallible, requires only a little time to come into full effect and wear the German submarines out. It is a model of simplicity. The press has been liberal in its announcement of Marconi's device, but while extending encouragement to Marconi it must not be overlooked that the genius who perfected one of the most monumental advances in maritime navigation has devoted his unremitting consideration to the menace, and this resourceful American, too, has worked toward the device along independent lines."

Asserting that the British have better submarines than the Germans, the message continues:

"Only a little time is needed for our pre-eminent inventive brains to outstrip the pirate professors, and by a method which is simplicity itself we already have the life of the U-boat campaign measured."

BRITISH AIRMEN BUSY ON MACEDONIAN FRONT

PARIS, May 27.—The official report from Macedonia reads:

"Eastern theatre: On the Serbian front yesterday the customary artillery struggle was reported. In some fighting on advanced elements we have made prisoners. Our aviators dropped 34 bombs on the enemy's encampments on this front.

"On the 26th inst. British aviators bombarded with success German positions near Livanovo, north of Petrovitch. There is nothing important to report from the whole of the front."

BERLIN, May 28.—The official report from Macedonia reads:

"Eastern theatre: There was varying firing activity in certain sectors. There were no important fighting operations."

McALLISTER KNOCKS OUT SULLIVAN.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Bob McAllister of California knocked out "Montana" Dan Sullivan in the fifth round of a bout scheduled to go ten rounds in Brooklyn last night. Both men weighed 162 pounds.

WHEN YOU CAN'T SLEEP

YOU SHOULD USE

MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills.

Sleeplessness is caused by the nervous system becoming deranged.

Perhaps too much worry has gotten on your nerves, perhaps you have overworked yourself, or have been excessive in your use of tobacco, but whatever the cause, the nervous system must be built up again before restful sleep can be assured.

Those whose rest is broken into by frightful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake up in the morning as tired as they went to bed can have their old, peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. John Sloan, Haley Station, Ont., writes: "Over a year ago I was very nervous. I could not sleep at night, and I would faint at the slightest fright. I tried several doctors, but they did me practically no good. I noticed your advertisement, and immediately tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am proud to say they cured me."

BACKACHE SOON DISAPPEARED

Could Not Do Housework Till Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Removed Cause.

Fort Fairfield, Maine.—"For many months I suffered from backache caused by female troubles so I was unable to do my housework. I took treatments for it, but received no help whatever. Then some of my friends asked why I did not try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and my backache soon disappeared and I felt like a different woman, and now have a healthy little baby girl and do all my housework. I will always praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. Alton D. Oakes, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened and read by women only.

COULD NOT LIFT STICK OF WOOD

Would Almost Faint From Severe Pain in Back—Doctors Could Not Get the Kidneys Set Right.

Benton, N. B., April 7.—A great many people suffer the results of deranged kidneys and do not understand the cause of trouble or the way to obtain cure. The writer of this letter suffered excruciating pains in the back and in vain his physician tried to cure him. For some reason or other his medicines did not have the desired effect.

Mr. Olts' brother was a merchant selling, among other medicines, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and he heard his customers telling about how they were cured of kidney derangements by their use. This led to Mr. Olts putting them to the test, with the splendid results reported in this letter.

Mr. E. C. Olts, Benton, Carleton County, N. B., writes: "I am glad to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered from my kidneys, which at one time were so bad I could not lift a stick of wood without getting on my knees, and then would almost faint from the pain in my back. I consulted a doctor about it, and he gave me some medicine, but it did not help me. My brother, who is a merchant, and carries all your medicines, advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I got one box, and they helped me, so I got another one, and kept on until I had taken five boxes, which cured me. I have had no trouble with my back since, and am never without Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house. Last summer I also suffered from piles. I used three boxes of your Ointment, and it cured them. I can certainly recommend Dr. Chase's Pills and Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, 5 for $1, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

CLEVELAND'S POLICE BATTLE WITH MOBS

Socialist Anti-War Meeting Ends in Grand Melee.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 27.—Police attempting to prevent anti-war speeches by Socialists on the public square were attacked by a crowd of about three hundred late this afternoon and pitched battle ensued. Just previous to the trouble the recruiting station erected on the public square registered 211 recruits. The police dragged one of the Socialist orators off the stone rostrum and the crowd attacked them. Reserves rushed to the scene, clubbed the crowd back and half a dozen men were arrested. The crowd followed the patrol wagons to the police station. Police reserves and mounted police to the number of 100 charged the crowd and cleared the street after sticks and stones had been thrown at the police station breaking several windows. The police guard was doubled at the public square tonight as more Socialist demonstrations were feared.

FRENCH DOMINATING ENEMY'S GREAT GUNS FROM HEIGHTS WON

Germans Trying To Recover Chemin-des-Dames.

CONTINUOUS BOMBARDING

Petain's Forces Occupy Whole Military Crest and Keep Adding Gains.

[From a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press.]

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS OF THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FRANCE, May 27.—Afternoon.—German troops made another futile effort in the course of the night to regain a footing on the Chemin-des-Dames in the vicinity of the Moulin-de-Laffaux, the loss of which they feel acutely. The French, however, bit into the position so hard that the Germans were unable to shake them off anywhere, despite the fury of their assaults.

All along from the Moulin-de-Laffaux past Hurtebise farm to Craonne, which are the three most prominent positions on the Chemin-des-Dames, the artillery in both camps thundered throughout the night. The correspondent watched the bombardment from a dominating spot, whence he could look over the entire crest. Everywhere the French occupy the military crest of the plateau, and continually make further small advantages and maintain their pr[illegible] ure.

Can See German Big Guns.

The amount of territory gained in these minor actions, which always are minutely prepared and generally successful, appears small when looking at the map, but the tactical strategic advantages cannot be estimated on that basis. The real definite results of the present fighting may first become apparent weeks afterward. What is known now is that the French can see and can effectively bombard the German big guns in the valley and on the plateau beyond. The German position in this valley is precarious, although the Teutons still hold the western end, whence they can enfilade the low-lying ground and render the task of the attackers difficult.

Craonne itself now is scarcely recognizable as a town. Nothing remains but a heap of stones and bricks, while all afront on the sharp slopes toward the crest of the ground is as badly holed as that around Verdun. The capture of this place was a feat of the highest military daring in the face of strong positions, armed with dozens of machine guns, but, as one of the French commanders said to the correspondent, "Our men marched forward as though going to the theatre."

One hundred and fifty Frenchmen captured the same number of prisoners, besides inflicting awful losses on the German defenders. The sides of the plateau, which were assaulted and taken later by the French, were bored with tunnels leading to the other side of the hill. These tunnels are now so many graves, in which lie hundreds of German bodies. The ends of the tunnels have since been bricked up, making permanent sepulchres.

BREAK THROUGH THE AUSTRIAN LINE FROM JAMIANO TO GULF

Eleven Guns and 1,300 Prisoners Taken by Italians.

Rome, May 27.—Italian troops yesterday smashed through the Austro-Hungarian positions between Jamiano and the Gulf of Trieste, passing the Montfalcone-Duino railway northeast of Sangiovanni and establishing themselves within a few hundred yards of the village of Medeazza.

North of Plava the Italians carried the heights at the head of the Palliova Valley, thus joining their Mont Gucco lines with those on Hill 363 Eleven guns were captured and more than 1,200 Austro-Hungarians were taken prisoner. These victories were announced today by the Italian war department. The statement of Saturday night stated that the number of prisoners taken on the Julian front from May 14 to Friday totalled 23,419. Saturday's early statement said 3,500 prisoners had been taken on the Carsor front Friday. With over 1,200 more reported from this front Saturday, the total since May 14 is above 27,119.

REPULSED, SAYS AUSTRIANS.

He was widely known in the town and took an active part in the young men's work of the Baptist Church.

The club also sent in another donation of $100 for the Belgian relief fund and $50 for prisoners of war, which were thankfully received at London headquarters.

FORESEES COALITION AND ELIMINATION OF PARTISANSHIP

Rev. Dr. Flanders Gives His Impression of London.

BETTER CITY SINCE WAR

People United For Service, He Tells Members of the Rotary Club.

A coalition Canadian Government, to be formed during the present crisis and the gradual elimination of partisanship politics after the war was predicted by Dr. C. R. Flanders, pastor of the First Methodist Church in an address before the members of the Rotary Club at luncheon at the Tecumseh House today. The subject of the address was "The Forest City Through the Eyes of An Itinerant," and in the course of his remarks Dr. Flanders made particular reference to changed conditions locally since the beginning of the war.

Finest System of Schools.

He spoke first of all of his impressions when he came first to the city. He dwelt upon the natural beauty and surroundings of the city, its educational system, which he regarded as superior to that of any Canadian city, its transportation facilities and its business houses.

He predicted a great future for the city and believed that London was destined to a greater place in the Dominion than citizens were able to realize.

"As I have studied the local situation since the war particularly with reference to your city government I have found that the spirit of political partisanship that has so long existed has for the time been lost sight of and merged into a spirit of patriotic unification," said Dr. Flanders.

"I am not going to say that prior to the war that London was any more materialistic than any other Canadian city, but it must be admitted that we were growing that way.

A City of Service.

"Since the war, these conditions have changed and given way to a spirit characterized by service. This spirit is evidenced in every man, woman and child. Service is the motto of the Rotary Club. To serve our country in this great hour of trial is the greatest work a man can perform.

In conclusion he spoke of his early departure for Winnipeg, and said that, no matter how long he might remain away or how far he might go, he would always retain pleasant memories of his pastorate in London.

A. E. Silverwood presided. A large number of the members were present.

LABOR PROTESTS TO COMPULSORY SERVICE KEEP POURING IN

Anti-Conscription Leagues Spring Up All Over Canada.

Ottawa, May 28.—While the labor leaders now in Ottawa are content to remain in an attitude of "watchful waiting" in the interests of the organized workers throughout the Dominion, on whose behalf they recorded a strong protest against the selective conscription measure, there is plenty of activity, for scores of messages are coming in from unions in all parts of the country indorsing the stand taken by the executive council of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, and containing resolutions of strong protest against the compulsory service bill. Interest now among the labor men here seems to hang upon the submission of the bill to the House of Commons, and the debate there will be closely followed.

On Friday of this week a big convention of labor men, representing 80 international unions, will convene in Ottawa to discuss all war measures which Government has announced or which they have in view.

James Simpson, vice-president of the Labor Congress, arrived from Toronto today and stated that a meeting of 1,200 persons in th Queen City last night unanimously adopted a resolution against conscription. He said the miners of the north country—Cobalt, Kirkland Lake, Gowganda—have passed resolutions against the measure and forwarded copies to Labor headquarters. Anti-conscription leagues are springing up all over the country, and meetings of protest are being organized.

R. A. Rigg, M. P. P., of Winnipeg, one of the vice-presidents of the congress, has wired that meetings of protest are being organized in Winnipeg.

CANADIAN CASUALTIES

Ottawa, May 28.—In today's casualty list of 156 names there are 25 killed in action, 10 died of wounds, and 41 missing. Of the latter two are believed killed and four wounded. Two previously missing men have been located.

GOAT SERUM FOR TYPHUS.

Amsterdam, Via London, May 27.—A dispatch from Constantinople to a news agency here says that Dr. Servet Kiamil, bacteriologist and chief surgeon of the Red Cross Hospital in Sivas, claims to have secured extraordinary results with a typhus serum obtained from goats.

JUDGE RICHARDS DEAD.

Winnipeg, Man., May 27.—Mr. Justice Richards, one of Winnipeg's senior judges, died today after a brief illness. He was 68 years of age, and one of the puisne judges of the province.

The late Justice Richards was a resident of Winnipeg for 35 years and was well-known throughout Western Canada. He was a native of Toronto, the eldest son of the late Hon. Stephen Richards, Q. C. He was called to the bar in 1874. In 1896 he was made a "Q. C." He was appointed to the Manitoba Court of King's Bench in 1909. Justice Richards succeeded the late Judge Edmund Sinclair on the board of commissioners in the formulating of the grain act in 1901.

KERENSKY'S APPEAL.

London, May 28.—The Russian minister of war, A. F. Kerensky, according to Reuter's Petrograd correspondent, in the course of a striking address to the army, said:

"You advance in serried ranks, united by discipline, duty and unlimited love for the revolution and the country. Let the army and navy, which are the freest in the world, prove that liberty is a pledge of strength, not a weakness, and that they are forging a discipline of iron and duty and are increasing the combative power of the country. Remember, that whoever looks behind, stops, or withdraws will lose all, and forget not that if you defend not the honor, liberty and dignity of the country, your names will be cursed. The will of the people must rid the country and the world of violators and usurpers. Such is the high duty that calls you."

SUDDEN REGINA DEATH.

Regina, May 28.—Edward J. Wright, for many years deputy provisional treasurer and registrar of joint stock companies, died suddenly of angina pectorius on Saturday.

MAJOR HISCOTT DEAD.

St. Catharines, May 27.—One of the oldest residents of Niagara district died suddenly last night in the person of Major James Hiscott, former M. P., at the age of 92. He was one of the first and most extensive fruit growers in the district. From 1892 to 1896 he represented Lincoln as a Conservative in the Ontario Legislature.

FINE HOSPITALITY SHOWN BOYS ON BATTERY'S TOUR

People Lined the Route and Showed Cordiality.

GUNS ARE A NOVELTY

Many Spectators Had Never Seen Artillery on March Before.

Those members of the 63rd Battery who were fortunate enough to have been chosen to take part in the trek to Galt which occupied practically the whole of last week returned to camp yesterday afternoon, and all spoke enthusiastically of the trip which has just been completed.

"We had bad weather, but in spite of that we had a very good trip," Major Cameron, officer in command of the battery, told The Advertiser today. "It rained almost continually on the way to Galt, but the weather on the return trip was fair. Every town that we went through gave us a most cordial reception, and too much cannot be said of the way the people treated us both going and coming back.

Good For Recruiting.

"Many of the people in the towns through which we passed had never seen an artillery unit, and as a consequence in nearly every place the people turned out en masse. Many of these people have sons who have enlisted and gone away for training, and they never see soldiers in training. If we let the people see more of what we are doing, we would get plenty of recruits.

"On Monday, the day we left London, we had dinner in the basement of the Methodist Church at Thamesford, and that night we were billeted in Ingersoll, where we were given a great reception, being met about four miles outside the town by the mayor, and prominent citizens. The men were billeted in the homes of the citizens, and the arrangements were perfect.

Address By Mayor.

"At Woodstock, the mayor gave us an address of welcome, when we drew up on the market square. At Bond's Corners, we were met by the school children, who rendered a program of patriotic songs while the men were eating the meal provided by the ladies. The only thing that wasn't bright was the weather," added Major Cameron.

32 Miles in a Day.

"We arrived in Paris at 5 o'clock, after having done 32 miles that day, and Major Baron Osborne, who accompanied us on the trip, expressed the opinion that that was the longest day's march he had ever done in 24 years' of military experience. We were met by the mayor, and Paris gave us a great reception.

"The mayor of Galt also met us on our arrival there, and although all the sports were called off on account of the rain, we were entertained at the theatre and elsewhere throughout the city.

"On the return trip, we were entertained at Paris, Princeton, Woodstock, Beachville and Ingersoll. At Woodstock we attended the funeral of Sergt. Derbyshire of the 71st Battalion, and then moved on to Beachville, where the whole village turned out and provided us with a lunch. At Ingersoll, a recruiting meeting was arranged, and addresses were made by Lieut.-Col. Mayberry, Major Osborne, and the mayor.

More Than 136 Miles.

"The trip, which extended over 136 miles, was most successful as far as recruiting was concerned, nine recruits being obtained in Ingersoll the first night we arrived there, besides four from Galt and some from Woodstock and other places. We expect many more to come in later as a result of this trip. We brought two recruits in from Ingersoll on the gun carriages yesterday afternoon.

QUEBEC LITERATURE DENOUNCING ENFORCED SERVICE IN CITY

Anti-conscription propaganda from Quebec is reaching the city in the form of circulars urging all Canadians to refuse to sanction the measure without a referendum and urging them to impress their local members with their objection. Ontario people are urged to join the Anti-Conscription League, the president of which is M. Eugene Dussault of Quebec.

It was said today that petitions against conscription without a referendum were in circulation in London, but Advertiser reporters were unable to find any of the documents displayed.

RELATIVES DISAPPOINTED.—As the result of an erroneous report which appeared in a local paper on Friday last stating that 33 returned soldiers would arrive Sunday via C. P. R., more than 60 people went down to the depot only to be disappointed. The Advertiser stated in Saturday's edition that the time of arrival was not yet known, but it is expected the party will arrive either Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

GRAIN.

Chicago, May 28.—Wheat today developed a little more activity than has been the rule of late. Optimism in regard to the new crop outlook tended to make prices weak. Besides, advices were that less apprehension was felt in Great Britain regarding supplies.

After opening 1@4c lower, with July at $2 07@2 09, and September at $1 83, the market dropped an extreme of 6½c, and then recovered to a moderate extent.

WEEK'S DROP MADE IN OCTOBER 28 1-8 CENTS

Wheat Prices Saturday Weak and Show Sharp Declines.

Winnipeg, May 26.—The drop in Winnipeg prices for the week was 21⅛c for October wheat; oats, 9⅝c, 8¼c and 5⅝c respectively for May, July and October; barley dropped 15c, and there was a drop of 8½c and 9½c on May and July flax.

All markets were weak for the day, and showed sharp declines in prices. Winnipeg October wheat was off 4½c; May oats 4⅞c, July 2¼c, and October ⅞c to 1c. Barley was down 17c, and May flax 5½c, and July 5½c.

The feature of today's grain markets in Winnipeg was the big slump in cash grain. Cash grain brokers reported an almost absence of demand. Cash wheat was fractionally lower; cash oats about 5c, barley 8, and flax 6c off.

Trading in futures was light. A decline at the opening was followed by an upturn on short covering and unfavorable weather in the west. Bearish crop prospects as regards corn also had a tendency to weaken wheat prices, and towards the close the decline was decidedly rapid. Oats were naturally also affected by corn prospects, but there was no very aggressive selling.

Cash grain: Wheat—No. 1 northern, $2.49; No. 2 northern, $2.46; No. 3 northern, $2.41; No. 4, $2.29; No. 5, $2.04; No. 6, $1.72; feed, $1.25.

Oats—No. 2 Canadian western, 70¼c; No. 3 Canadian western, 67¼c; extra No. 1 feed, 67¼c; No. 1 feed, 62¼c; No. 2 feed, 60¼c.

Barley—No. 3 Canadian western, $1.15; No. 4 do., $1.13; rejected, $1.02; feed, $1.12.

Flax—No. 1 N. W. C., $3.00½; No. 2 C. W., $2.97½c; No. 3 C. W., $2.78¾, basic contract; May, $2.49; June, $2.45; July, $2.40.

TORONTO.

Toronto, May 26.—Grain quotations are as follows:

Corn—American, No. 3 yellow, $1.67½ on track, Toronto.

Rye—No. 2, $2@2.05.

MONTREAL.

Oats declined 5c per bushel, with No. 2 Canadian western in carlots quoted at 81c, ex-store.

Stocks: Wheat, 2,630,092; oats, 3,871,823; barley, 175,543; rye, 250,840; flax, 35,513 bushels.

Corn—American No. 2 yellow, $1.70@1.73.

Oats—Canadian western, No. 2, 81c; Canadian western, No. 3, 78c; extra No. 1 feed, 78c.

Montreal, May 26.—Flour is dull with a weaker undertone and the prospects are that prices will be lowered in the near future for spring wheat grades, but values for winter wheat flour are likely to be maintained on account of the increasing scarcity. Stocks, 23,652 sacks.

Millfeed is steady with a fair demand for mixed carlots.

WALL STREET.

New York, May 28.—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The stock market opened with a continuance of the bullish enthusiasm which characterized last week's enormous operations. Moderate declines were limited to a few of the less important issues. United States Steel broke all records at the new level of 135, a slight fraction over its previous maximum, and a point above last Saturday's final quotation. Gains of 1 to 3 points were made by Crucible Steel, Maxwell, Studebaker and General Motors, Texas Company and Mexican Petroleum, General Electric, American Can, Baldwin Locomotive, Air Brake, International Paper and Ohio Gas. Leading rails were firm to strong.

Noon.—There was a tremendous outpouring of Steel on its new rise, the stock reacting 1½ points ini the first hour. Sales for that period were little less than 500,000 shares. Other industrials and equipments registered similar setback on the heavy realizing for profit. Rails were exempt from this tendency, however, materially increasing initial gains under the lead of Pacifics, St. Paul and high-grade coalers. Motors, oils and gas shares also held firmly. nother elling movement in the second hour was directed mainly against metals, although Steel yielded to 132¼. Irregular rallies ensued at noon. Bonds were firm.

1:30 p.m.—The market quieted in the afternoon, dealings falling to nominail proportions. Rails manifested a great street, and Steel rallied a full point. Sugars became prominent at gains of 2 to 4 points. Other specialties were not materially altered.

C. P. R. FREIGHT MEN ASK FOR RAISE

Thirty freight handlers at the local sheds of the C. P. R. have asked the company for an increase in wages from 23 cents per hour to 25 cents, for ten hours a day, and time and a half for overtime.

The men gave notice that they would expect an answer from the company not later than June 1. They maintain that in view of the high cost of living they are entitled to more pay.

Whether they would strike if the company refused to comply with their wishes, none of the men would say.

GIRL, RESCUED FROM RIVER, WANTED TO JOIN DEAD MOTHER

Detroit, May 28.—"I was lonesome. I had no one to love me.'

"Mamma died when I was a baby. Pape left me with my half-brother. He was nice to me, but he could not take the place of mamma.

"And so I decided to die. I thought I might meet mamma in heaven."

Pretty Barbara Frederick, 15, of Northville, Mich. jumped into the river at the foot of Bates street at 4 o'clock Saturday morning, thus explains her act.

She was rescued by a night watchman, who leaped into the water and dragged the girl to shore. Heroic efforts at Receiving Hospital brought her back to consciousness.

"I do not think I will ever try to die again," continued Barbara. "I am sure mamma, would not want me to die that way.

"As I walked along the river bank the dark water just seemed to say to me, 'Come, Barbara, come: I am waiting for you.'

"Then I just closed my eyes and jumped. That's all I remember until I woke up on this cot here."

SAILOR-ORATORS ROUSE SPIRITS IN PETROGRAD TO A HEALTHIER TONE

London, May 28.—The Times' Petrograd correspondent says the visit of two hundred sailors and workmen from the Black Sea fleet and arsenals has produced a much healthier tone in Petrograd. Their intently patriotic addresses and the use of the naval ensign at their meetings instead of the red flag has greatly impressed the public.

"If such demonstrations were multiplied throughout the country," says the correspondent, "a great change would come over Russia. These Black Sea delegates will accompany War Minister Kerensky to the front. They have sworn to march at the head of regiments against any enemy."

LONDON CAMP TO OPEN TOMORROW

Working parties are busy today getting tents up in readiness for the opening of camp at Carling Heights tomorrow. The Army Medical Corps has already got its canvas up, and the tents in which headquarters will be located are also nearly ready for occupation. Other units will make their own preparations when they arrive tomorrow, and it is expected that all will be settled under canvas by tomorrow night. Most of the units scheduled to come this year are small ones, and it is not thought that the whole will reach a total of 1,000 men.

RUSS SOCIALISTS SEE BRETHREN OF FRANCE

Meeting Modifies Feeling of Hostility Towards Conference.

Paris, May 28.—The hostility toward the International Socialist Conference shown at the opening meeting of the National Council of the French Socialist party has been considerably mollified by the arrival of two Russian delegates, Moutet and Cachin. M. Moutet told the council that the Russian Socalists desire to call a regularly-constituted meeting of the internationale, and suggested that the French Socialists accept the proposal, at least in principle.

M. Cachin said that while in Stockholm he had an interview with the Dutch and Scandinavian delegates, who handed him a long set of questions which had been sent to the different Socialist parties, but which the French party had not yet received. The questions covered the following points, annexations and indemnities, the right of peoples to dispose of their own destinies, the establishment of a league of nations, through international agreements concerning the freedom of the seas, colonies and kindred subjects, investigation into the responsibility for the war and international penalties to be inflicted on the guilty parties.

The Dutch and Scandanavian delegates expect answers to be conveyed to them at Stickholm by delegates from the different parties.

After some discussion of the new points raised the council adjourned without reaching any decision in respect thereto.

BAN ON LIQUOR HITS CANADIAN SOLDIERS

Detroit, May 28.—Canadian soldiers in uniform must henceforth be refused drinks in Detroit.

District Attorney John E. Kinnane has decided that they are included in the the meaning of Section 12 of the selective conscription law, which refers to "prohibition of the sale of liquors to all persons in military uniform."

Prosecutions will date from Wednesday, May 23, when the ruling was given as pertaining to men in the United States uniform.

Violation of the section calls for a fine of $1,000 or one year's imprisonment, or both.

Whether the section applies to men of the National Guard is a mooted question, according to advices from Washington on Saturday.

Washington saloonists are in many instances refusing drinks to guardsmen. This was advised by the liquor dealers' association at the capital as a means of keeping "strictly within the law."

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE TO PROVISIONAL GOVT.

Three Socialist Ministers Included in the Expression.

Petrograd, May 27, Via London.—M. Skobeleff, minister of labor; M. Tzeretelli, minister of posts and the telegraphs, and M. Tchernoff, three Socialist members of the Russian coalition cabinet, at a meeting of the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates, gave an account of their activities since entering the provisional government. The council almost unanimously adopted a vote of confidence in them as well as in the provisional government.

STEAMER BREAKS LOCK ON WELLAND CANAL

St. Catharines, May 27.—Traffic on the Welland Canal was tied up last night and today as a result of an accident at Lock 1, the head gates of which were carried away by the steamer Nepigon, bound up, which entered the lock at an excessive rate of speed. The steamer was badly damaged. The damage to the canal will scarcely exceed $2,000. It was necessary to unwater a 3-mile level of the old canal, including the Canadian Henley course, before repairs could be made.

HIGH TRIBUTES TO PTE. ALBERT EGELTON PAID BY HIS PASTOR

Memorial Service Held in Talbot Street Church Last Evening.

"He was a very consistent Christian young man, quiet in his life, pure in his habits, and a great lover of his home," said Rev. H. H. Bingham, referring to Pte. Albert Egelton, for whom a memorial service was held in the Talbot Street Baptist Church last night. Pte. Egelton was the son of Detective and Mrs. Robert Egelton, and was killed in action on May 19.

Continuing, Mr. Bingham said: "Albert Egelton had a high sense of duty, and was a young man who could always be trusted to do his duty. He was a man of few words, and usually was content with a few friends, but his friends, once chosen, were permanent. He was a member of Talbot Street Church and always took a deep interest in the Men's Baracca Bible Class, and he never wrote a letter to the pastor without making some reference to it. His final letter, which arrived after his death, closed with these words: 'Remember me to the boys, as I often think of them, and hope to be spared to have some good times with them.'

Would Not Change.

"In another letter he wrote: 'I have been reading in the London papers about the temptations we Canadian soldiers have in England. These temptations, I think, go to show whether a man is any good or not. For my part, they do not worry me, as I do not intend to live any different in my habits here than when I was at home.'"

Mr. Bingham preached on the subject of "The Family 'Round the Hearth," dealing principally with the thought that Christ's presence brings love and inspiration into the family hearth.

"His presence also brings comfort," said the speaker. "It is a solemn thing when a vacant chair is noticed around the family hearth. It casts gloom over the home, but when the young man who has vacated that chair has gone forth in all the strength of his Christian manhood to defend that hearth and that home and dies in defence of home and country, there is some glory amid the gloom."

A Great Thing.

"It is a great thing, too, when boys are sent forth from the home with God's blessing upon them, and with daily prayers around the fireside following them. The comfort of Christ at a time like this tranquillzes our spirits, strengthens our resolution, consoles our sorrowing hearts and sustains us amid daily duties."

"Christ's presence around the family hearth emphasizes the union of the altar and the home," added the speaker. "Christ on his way to Cavalry lingered at the home of Bethany, and this is not strange, for the altar and the hearth are closely allied. What sacrifices have been made for the homes of the nation! What else could have persuaded Pte. Egelton to have left loved ones and home but the thought of laying his life on the altar of service and sacrifice for the freedom and sanctity of the home."

Did His Duty.

"It was on behalf of the homes of this world that Christ laid down his life. He endured the cross, despised the shame, and from the altar fires of cavalry flowed forth the riches of His grace, which alone can glorify the home and the individual soul. In the full consciousness of Christ's redeeming love and grace, and in dependence upon the same, Albert Egelton went forth to his duty and to his death."

Appropriate music was furnished by the choir. Miss Lulu Kennedy rendered a solo in pleasing voice, and "Nearer, My God, To Thee" was sung very effectively by the Talbot Street Male Quartet.

SUNDAY CONCERT WAS CANCELLED

Owing to the inclement weather Sunday forenoon, the executive of Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., decided to cancel the band concert in Victoria Park Sunday evening.

Hundreds gathered at the park early in the evening, not knowing that the event had been called off. It was to have been the first concert of the summer. "I am so sorry that our cancellation disappointed so many, but we will have one later in the year," said Mrs. J. S. Niven, regent of the chapter.

BE LENIENT WITH FAULTS OF OTHERS

"The readiness of some people to censure everything and everybody that comes in their way is amazing," said Rev. Dr. Silcox at the First Congregational Church last evening in a sermon on "Gently Scan Your Brother Man."

"There are critics of religion, who never studied the subject, critics who are ready to tell the doctor how to prescribe and the lawyer how to plead. Some critics are always on hand to tell the preacher how long he ought to preach and how short he ought to pray. As responsible beings we are under obligation to distinguish between right and wrong in motive and between good and evil in action. We cannot be too thankful for the gift to discriminate clearly between the true and the false. To be indifferent to the moral life of others is sinful and seifish. It is one's duty to rebuke where wrong prevails, but to do so with kindness and sincerity, for no one knows just how much he might resist if faced with a similar temptation. The best service you can render a man is to help him gain clear moral vision and regain moral manhood. Many men are misjudged because we see only fragments of their lives. Be severe with yourself, but lenient with others. Uncover your vices to God, but throw the mantle of charity over the misdeeds of your brother."
